Jehoiakim destroyed Jeremiah's scroll (36:23). God commanded Jeremiah to dictate a new scroll. Jeremiah did so, reproducing the contents of the previous scroll, which probably had been arranged in the order in which God had originally given them. But he added at the proper places certain other inspired discussions of the same subjects (36:32). Later on Jeremiah inserted messages received at later times but logically related to messages previously given, putting them at the appropriate places within the scroll already written, as for instance, chs. 21; 24; 27—29; 32—34.

Other messages given after the new scroll was written were added in the order in which they were received, and these were followed by certain special sections (chs. 45—52). Thus the arrangement of the book is partly according to the time the messages were given, and partly according to the nature of the subject matter.

12 that Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin to claim his property there among the people.

13 And when he was in the Gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there whose name was Irijah the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he seized Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "You are [a]defecting to the Chaldeans!"

14 Then Jeremiah said, "False! I am not defecting to the Chaldeans." But he did not listen to him. So Irijah seized Jeremiah and brought him to the princes.

15 Therefore the princes were angry with Jeremiah, and they [b]struck him and put him in prison in the [c]house of Jonathan the scribe. For they had made that the prison.

16 When Jeremiah entered the dungeon and the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days,

17 then Zedekiah the king sent and took him out. The king asked him secretly in his house, and [d]said, "Is there any word from the LORD?" And Jeremiah said, "There is." Then he said, "You shall be [e]delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon!"

18 Moreover Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, "What [f]offense have I committed against you, against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison?

19 "Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, 'The king of Babylon will not come against you or against this land?'

20 "Therefore please hear now, O my lord the king. Please, let my petition be accepted before you, and do not make me return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there."

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah to the [g]court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread from the bakers' street, [h]until all the bread in the city was gone. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

Jeremiah, released from the dungeon, gives Zedekiah final opportunity to repent

38 NOW Shephatiah the son of Mattan, Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, Jucal* the son of Shelemiah, and [i]Pashhur the son of Malchiah heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken to all the people, saying,

2 "Thus says the LORD: 'He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; but he who goes over to the Chaldeans shall [j]live; his life shall be as a [k]prize to him, and he shall live.'

3 "Thus says the LORD: [l]'This city shall surely be [m]given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.' "

4 Therefore the princes said to the king, "Please, let this man be put to death, for thus he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, by speaking such words to them. For this man does not seek the welfare of this people, but their [n]harm."

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, "Look, he is in your hand. [o]For the king can do nothing against you."

6 [p]So they took Jeremiah and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the king's* son, which was in the court of the prison, and they let Jeremiah down with ropes. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire. So Jeremiah sank in the mire.

37:11 Five steps in Jeremiah's prison experiences are recorded:

(1) He is arrested in the gate and committed to prison on the false charge of treason (37:11–15).

(2) He is released from prison, but restricted to the courtyard of the prison (37:17–21).

(3) He is imprisoned in the miry dungeon of Malchiah (38:6).

(4) He is again released from the dungeon and kept in the prison courtyard until the capture of the city (38:17–28). And

(5) he is carried in chains from the city by Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, being finally released at Ramah (40:1–4).

38:4 Here is the fundamental reason why the prophetic warnings of the OT and NT are unwelcome to an unreasoning optimism. Compare 26:11.

7 Now [a]Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs, who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon. When the king was sitting at the Gate of Benjamin,

8 Ebed-Melech went out of the king's house and spoke to the king, saying:

9 "My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon, and he is likely to die from hunger in the place where he is. For there is [b]no more bread in the city."

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, saying, "Take from here thirty men with you, and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon before he dies."

11 So Ebed-Melech took the men with him and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took from there old clothes and old rags, and let them down by ropes into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 Then Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Please put these old clothes and rags under your armpits, under the ropes." And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they pulled Jeremiah up with ropes and lifted him out of the dungeon. And Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

14 Then Zedekiah the king sent and had Jeremiah the prophet brought to him at the third entrance of the house of the LORD. And the king said to Jeremiah, "I will [c]ask you something. Hide nothing from me."

15 Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? [d]And if I give you advice, you will not listen to me."

16 So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, "As the LORD lives, [e]who made our very souls, I will not put you to death, nor will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life."

17 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'If you surely [f]surrender to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul shall live; this city shall not be burned with fire, and you and your house shall live.

18 'But if you do not surrender to the king of Babylon's princes, then this city shall be given into the hand of the Chaldeans; they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape from their hand.' "

19 And Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, "I am [g]afraid of the Jews who have [h]defected to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they abuse me."

20 But Jeremiah said, "They shall not deliver you. Please, obey the voice of the LORD which I speak to you. So it shall be [i]well with you, and your soul shall live.

21 "But if you refuse to surrender, this is the word that the LORD has shown me:

22 'Now behold, all the [j]women who are left in the king of Judah's house shall be surrendered to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say:

"Your close friends have set upon you
And prevailed against you;
Your feet have sunk in the mire,
And they have turned away
again."

23 'So they shall surrender all your wives and [k]children to the Chaldeans. [l]You shall not escape from their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon. And you shall cause this city to be burned with fire.' "

24 Then Zedekiah said to Jeremi-

38:10 king commanded. King Zedekiah did everything he could to make Jeremiah's imprisonment comfortable. He seems genuinely to have desired to help the prophet and to follow the messages that Jeremiah gave him from the LORD. However, Zedekiah was afraid of the nobles who had been brought into power by his wicked brother, Jehoiakim. Although Zedekiah wished to be a good king, his weakness and fear not only made him ineffective but also caused him to be actually a bad king. Jehoiakim, who preceded Zedekiah, had been hampered in some of his evil ways by the good nobles whom his father, Josiah, had put into power (compare Jer. 26), but by the end of his reign Jehoiakim had succeeded in replacing most of them with the wicked men who now controlled Zedekiah.

ah, "Let no one know of these words, and you shall not die.

25 "But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you and say to you, 'Declare to us now what you have said to the king, and also what the king said to you; do not hide it from us, and we will not put you to death,'

26 "then you shall say to them, 'I [a]presented my request before the king, that he would not make me return to [b]Jonathan's house to die there.' "

27 Then all the princes came to Jeremiah and asked him. And he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they stopped speaking with him, for the conversation had not been heard.

28 Now Jeremiah [c]remained in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken. And he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

Jerusalem falls: Zedekiah taken to Babylon (cp. 2 Kin. 25:1–7; 2 Chr. 36:17–21; Jer. 52:4–17)

39 IN the [d]ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 In the [e]eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the city was penetrated.

3 Then all the princes of the king of Babylon came in and [f]sat in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer, Samgar-Nebo, Sarsechim, [g]Rabsaris,* Nergal-Sarezer, [g]Rabmag,* with the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 So it was, when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, that they [h]fled and went out of the city by night, by way of the king's garden, by the gate between the two walls. And he went out by way of the plain.

5 But the Chaldean army pursued them and [i]overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. And when they had captured him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to [j]Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced judgment on him.

6 Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his [k]eyes in Riblah; the king of Babylon also killed all the [l]nobles of Judah.

7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's [m]eyes, and bound him with bronze fetters to carry him off to [n]Babylon.

8 And the [o]Chaldeans burned the king's house and the houses of the people with [p]fire, and broke down the [q]walls of Jerusalem.

9 Then [r]Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive to Babylon the remnant of the people who remained in the city and those who [s]defected to him, with the rest of the people who remained.

10 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left in the land of Judah the [t]poor people, who had nothing, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

Jeremiah released from prison

11 Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying,

12 "Take him and look after him, and do him no [u]harm; but do to him just as he says to you."

13 So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent Nebushasban, [v]Rabsaris, Nergal-Sharezer, [v]Rabmag, 14 then they sent someone to [a]take Jeremiah from the court of the prison, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of [b]Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should take him home. So he dwelt among the people.

Ebed-Melech rewarded

15 Meanwhile the word of the LORD had come to Jeremiah while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

16 "Go and speak to [c]Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will bring My words upon this city for [d]adversity and not for good, and they shall be performed in that day before you.

18 "For I will surely deliver you, and you shall not fall by the sword; but your life shall be as a [e]prize to you, [f]because you have put your trust in Me," says the LORD.' "

Jeremiah remains in Judah. Gedaliah made ruler

40 THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD [g]after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him bound in chains among all who were carried away captive from Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon.

2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him: "The LORD your God has pronounced this doom on this place.

3 "Now the LORD has brought it, and has done just as He said. [h]Because you people have sinned against the LORD, and not obeyed His voice, therefore this thing has come upon you.

4 "And now look, I free you this day from the chains that were on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will look after you. But if it seems wrong for you to come with me to Babylon, remain here. See, all the [i]land is before you; wherever it seems good and convenient for you to go, go there."

5 Now while Jeremiah had not yet gone back, Nebuzaradan said, "Go back to [j]Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, [k]whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people. Or go wherever it seems convenient for you to go." So the captain of the guard gave him [l]rations and a gift and let him go.

6 Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, to [m]Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people who were left in the land.

7 And when all the [n]captains of the armies who were in the fields, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, women, children, and the [o]poorest of the land who had not been carried away captive to Babylon,

8 then they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—[p]Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, [q]Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and [r]Jezaniah* the son of a [s]Maachathite, they and their men.

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, took an oath before them and their men, saying, "Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be [t]well with you.

10 "As for me, I will indeed dwell at Mizpah and serve the Chaldeans who come to us. But you, [u]gather wine and summer fruit and oil, put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken."

who were in Moab, among the Ammonites, in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, 12 then all the Jews [a] returned out of all places where they had been driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruit in abundance.

13 Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields came to Gedaliah at Mizpah,

14 and said to him, "Do you certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites has sent [b] Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to murder you?" But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke secretly to Gedaliah in Mizpah, saying, "Let me go, please, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no one will know it. Why should he [c] murder you, so that all the Jews who are gathered to you would be scattered, and the [d] remnant in Judah perish?"

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, "You shall not do this thing, for you speak [e] falsely concerning Ishmael."

Ishmael murders Gedaliah, treacherously kills others and casts their bodies into pit

41 NOW it came to pass in the seventh month [f] that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family and of the officers of the king, came with ten men to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, at [g] Mizpah. And there they ate bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him, arose and [h] struck Gedaliah the son of [i] Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, and killed him whom the king of Babylon had made [j] governor over the land.

3 Ishmael also struck down all the Jews who were with him, that is, with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war.

4 And it happened, on the second day after he had killed Gedaliah, when as yet no one knew it,

5 that certain men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, eighty men with their beards shaved and their clothes torn, having [k] cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to [l] bring them to the house of the LORD.

6 Now Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went along; and it happened as he met them that he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam!"

7 So it was, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah [m] killed them and cast them into the midst of a pit, he and the men who were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them who said to Ishmael, "Do not kill us, for we have treasures of wheat, barley, oil, and honey in the field." So he desisted and did not kill them among their brethren.

9 Now the pit into which Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had slain, because of Gedaliah, was [n] the same one Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with the slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the [o] rest of the people who were in Mizpah, the king's [p] daughters and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. And Ishmael the son of Ishmael: whom God hears. A member of the royal family of Babylon who murdered the governor of Judah; he slaughtered many Jews and took the rest into captivity.

Nethaniah carried them away captive and departed to go over to the [a]Ammonites.

11 But when [b]Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were with him heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done,

12 they took all the men and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah; and they found him by the [c]great pool that is in Gibeon.

13 So it was, when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, that they were glad.

14 Then all the people whom Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned around and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to the Ammonites.

Johanan rescues people

16 Then Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, took from Mizpah all the [d]rest of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah after he had murdered Gedaliah the son of Ahikam—the mighty men of war and the women and the children and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon.

17 And they departed and dwelt in the habitation of [e]Chimham, which is near Bethlehem, as they went on their way to [f]Egypt,

18 because of the Chaldeans; for they were [g]afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had murdered Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had made governor in the land.

Jeremiah warns remnant: divine judgment pronounced

42 NOW all the captains of the forces, [h]Johanan the son of Kareah, Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people, from the least to the greatest, came near

2 and said to Jeremiah the prophet, [i]"Please, let our petition be acceptable to you, and [j]pray for us to the LORD your God, for all this remnant (since we are [k]left but a few of many, as you can see),

3 "that the LORD your God may show us the [l]way in which we should walk and the thing we should do."

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard. Indeed, I will pray to the LORD your God according to your words, and it shall be, that whatever the LORD answers you, I will [m]declare it to you. I will keep [n]nothing back from you."

5 So they said to Jeremiah, "Let the LORD be a true and faithful [o]witness between us, if we do not do according to everything which the LORD your God sends us by you.

6 "Whether it is pleasing or displeasing, we will [p]obey the voice of the LORD our God to whom we send you, that it may be [q]well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our God."

7 And it happened after ten days that the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah.

8 Then he called Johanan the son of Kareah, all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,

9 and said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition before Him:

10 'If you will still remain in this land, then I will build you and not pull you down, and I will plant you and not pluck you up. For I [r]relent concerning the disaster that I have brought upon you.

11 'Do not be [s]afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; do not be afraid of him,' says the LORD, 'for I am with you, to save you and deliver you from his hand.

12 'And I will show you mercy, that he may have mercy on you and cause you to return to your own land.'

13 "But if you say, 'We will not dwell in this land,' disobeying the voice of the LORD your God,

14 "saying, 'No, but we will go to the land of [t]Egypt where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of

And you shall be an oath, an [d]astonishment, a curse, and a reproach; and you shall see this place no more.'

22 "Now therefore, know certainly that you shall [g]die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence in the place where you desire to go to dwell."

Jeremiah in Egypt, warns of judgment

43 NOW it happened, when Jeremiah had stopped speaking to all the people all the [h]words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, all these words,

2 that Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men spoke, saying to Jeremiah, "You speak [i]falsely! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, 'Do not go to Egypt to dwell there.'

3 "But [j]Baruch the son of Neriah has set you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death or carry us away captive to [k]Babylon."

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, all the captains of the forces, and all the people would [l]not obey the voice of the LORD, to remain in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces took all the [m]remnant of Judah who had returned to dwell in the land of Judah, from all nations where they had been driven—

6 men, women, children, the [n]king's daughters, and [o]every person whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 [p]So they went to the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of the LORD. And they went as far as Tahpanhes.

8 Then the [q]word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 "Take large stones in your hand, and hide them in the sight of the men of Judah, in the clay in the brick courtyard which is at the entrance to Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes;

10 "and say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will send and bring Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, [r]My servant, and will set his throne above these stones that I have hidden. And he will spread his royal pavilion over them.

Message to the Jews in Egypt
(cp. Jer. 43:8–13)

44 THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who dwell in the land of Egypt, who dwell at [b]Migdol, at Tahpanhes, at [c]Noph,* and in the country of [d]Pathros, saying,

2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'You have seen all the calamity that I have brought on Jerusalem and on all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are a [e]desolation, and no one dwells in them,

3 'because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke Me to anger, in that they went to burn incense and to [f]serve other gods whom they did not know, they nor you nor your fathers.

4 'However I have sent to you all My servants the prophets, [g]rising early and sending them, saying, "Oh, do not do this abominable thing that I hate!"

5 'But they did not listen or incline their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods.

6 'So My fury and My anger were poured out and kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is this day.'

7 "Now therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Why do you commit this great evil [a]against yourselves, to cut off from you man and woman, child and infant, out of Judah, leaving none to remain,

8 'in that you provoke Me to wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to dwell, that you may cut yourselves off and be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 'Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, the wickedness of the kings of Judah, the wickedness of their wives, your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 'They have not been [b]humbled, to this day, nor have they [c]feared; they have not walked in My law or in My statutes that I set before you and your fathers.'

11 "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will [d]set My face against you for catastrophe and for cutting off all Judah.

12 'And I will take the remnant of Judah who have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to dwell there, and they shall all be consumed and fall in the land of Egypt. They shall be [e]consumed by the sword and by famine. They shall die, from the least to the greatest, by the sword and by famine; and they shall be an oath, an [f]astonishment, a curse and a reproach!

13 'For I will [g]punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence,

14 'so that none of the remnant of Judah who have gone into the land of Egypt to dwell there shall escape or survive, lest they return to the land of Judah, to which they [h]desire to return and dwell. For none shall return except those who escape.' "

15 Then [i]all the men who knew that their wives had burned incense to other gods, with all the women who stood by, a great multitude, and all the people who dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying:

16 "As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will [j]not listen to you!

17 "But we will certainly do [k]whatever has gone out of our own mouth, to burn incense to the [l]queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. For then we had plenty of [m]food, were well-off, and saw no trouble.

18 "But since we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have [n]lacked everything and have been consumed by the sword and by famine."

19 The women also said, "And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make cakes for her, to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her without our [o]husbands' permission?"

20 Then Jeremiah spoke to all the people—the men, the women, and all the people who had given him that answer—saying:

21 "The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and did it not come into His mind?

22 "So the LORD could no longer bear it, because of the evil of your doings and because of the abominations which you committed. Therefore your land is a desolation, an [p]astonishment, a curse, and without an inhabitant, as it is this day.

23 "Because you have burned incense and because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not 24 Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people and to all the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt!

25 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: 'You and your wives have spoken with your mouths and fulfilled with your hands, saying, "We will surely keep our vows that we have made, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her." 27 'Behold, I will [d]watch over them for adversity and not for good. And all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by famine, until there is an end to them.

28 'Yet a small number who [e]escape the sword shall return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, who have gone to the land of Egypt to dwell there, shall know whose words will stand, Mine or theirs.

29 'And this shall be a sign to you,' says the LORD, 'that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that My words will surely [f]stand against you for adversity.'

30 "Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will give [g]Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those who seek his life, as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy who sought his life.' "

3 'You said, "Woe is me now! For the LORD has added grief to my sorrow. I [l]fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest." '

4 "Thus you shall say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, what I have built I will break down, and what I have planted I will pluck up, that is, this whole land.

5 "And do you seek great things for [m]yourself? Do not seek them; for behold, I will bring adversity on all flesh," says the LORD. "But I will give your [n]life to you as a [o]prize in all places, wherever you go." ' "

Prophecy against Egypt

46 THE word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the [p]nations.

2 Against [q]Egypt.

Concerning the army of [r]Pharaoh Necho, king of Egypt, which was by the River Euphrates in Carchemish, and which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon [s]defeated in the [t]fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

3 "Order the buckler and shield,
And draw near to battle!
4 Harness the horses,
And mount up, you horsemen!
Stand forth with your helmets,
Polish the spears,
Put on the armor!
5 Why have I seen them
dismayed and turned back?
Their mighty ones are beaten down;
They have speedily fled,
And did not look back,
For fear was all around," says
the LORD.
6 "Do not let the swift flee away,
Nor the mighty man escape;
They will [u]stumble and fall

Toward the north, by the River Euphrates.

7 "Who is this coming up [a]like a flood,
Whose waters move like the rivers?
8 Egypt rises up like a flood,
And its waters move like the rivers;
And he says, 'I will go up and cover the earth,
I will destroy the city and its inhabitants.'
9 Come up, O horses, and rage, O chariots!
And let the mighty men come forth:
The [b]Ethiopians and the Libyans who handle the shield,
And the [c]Lydians who handle and bend the bow.
10 For this is the [d]day of the Lord GOD of hosts,
A day of vengeance,
That He may avenge Himself on His adversaries.
The sword shall devour;
It shall be [e]satiated and made drunk with their blood;
For the Lord GOD of hosts has a sacrifice
In the north country by the River Euphrates.
11 "Go up to Gilead and take balm,
O virgin, the daughter of Egypt;
In vain you will use many medicines;
You shall not be cured.
12 The nations have heard of your [f]shame,
And your cry has filled the land;
For the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty;
They both have fallen together."

13 The word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon would come and [g]strike the land of Egypt.

14 "Declare in Egypt, and proclaim in [h]Migdol;
Proclaim in [i]Noph* and in [j]Tahpanhes;
Say, 'Stand fast and prepare yourselves,
For the sword devours all around you.'
15 Why are your valiant men swept away?
They did not stand
Because the LORD drove them away.
16 He made many fall;
Yes, one fell upon another.
And they said, 'Arise!
[k]Let us go back to our own people
And to the land of our nativity
From the oppressing sword.'
17 They cried there,
'Pharaoh, king of Egypt, is but a noise.
He has passed by the appointed time!'

18 "As I live," says the King,
Whose [l]name is the LORD of hosts,
"Surely as Tabor is among the mountains
And as Carmel by the sea, so he shall come.
19 O you daughter dwelling in Egypt,
Prepare yourself to go into captivity!
For [m]Noph* shall be waste and desolate, without inhabitant.

20 "Egypt is a very pretty heifer,
But destruction comes, it comes [n]from the north.
21 Also her mercenaries are in her midst like fat bulls,
For they also are turned back,
They have fled away together.
They did not stand,
For the day of their calamity had come upon them,
The time of their [o]punishment.
22 Her noise shall go like a serpent,
For they shall march with an army
And come against her with axes,
Like those who chop wood.

Prophecy against Philistia and Phoenicia

47 THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the [k]Philistines, before Pharaoh attacked Gaza.

2 Thus says the LORD:

"Behold, [l]waters rise out of the north,
And shall be an overflowing flood;
They shall overflow the land
and all that is in it,
The city and those who dwell within;
Then the men shall cry,
And all the inhabitants of the land shall wail.
3 At the noise of the stamping hooves of his strong horses,
At the rushing of his chariots,
At the rumbling of his wheels,
The fathers will not look back for their children,
Lacking courage,
4 Because of the day that comes to plunder all the [m]Philistines,
To cut off from [n]Tyre and Sidon
every helper who remains;
For the LORD shall plunder the Philistines,
The [o]remnant of the country of [p]Caphtor.
5 [q]Baldness has come upon Gaza,
Ashkelon is cut off
With the remnant of their valley.
How long will you cut yourself?

6 "O you [r]sword of the LORD,
How long until you are quiet?
Put yourself up into your scabbard,
Rest and be still!
7 How can it be quiet,
Seeing the LORD has given it a [s]charge Against Ashkelon and against the seashore?
There He has appointed it."

Prophecy against Moab

48 AGAINST [t]Moab.
Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

"Woe to [u]Nebo!
For it is plundered,

46:27 I will save you. Here is one of the many prophecies having a double view—a near and far fulfillment.

46:28 I will rightly correct you. Here is one of the many answers to the question: "Did God reject his people?" (Rom. 11:1).

[a] Kirjathaim is shamed and taken;
The high stronghold* is shamed and dismayed—
2 No more praise of Moab.
In [b] Heshbon they have devised evil against her:
'Come, and let us cut her off as a nation.'
You also shall be cut down, O [c] Madmen!*
The sword shall pursue you;
3 A voice of crying shall be from [d] Horonaim:
'Plundering and great destruction!'

4 "Moab is destroyed;
Her little ones have caused a cry to be heard;*
5 For in the Ascent of Luhith they ascend with continual weeping;
For in the descent of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

6 "Flee, save your lives!
And be like the juniper* in the wilderness.
7 For because you have trusted in your works and your [e] treasures,
You also shall be taken.
And [f] Chemosh shall go forth into captivity,
His priests and his princes together.
8 And the [g] plunderer shall come against every city;
No one shall escape.
The valley also shall perish,
And the plain shall be destroyed,
As the LORD has spoken.

9 "Give wings to Moab,
That she may flee and get away;
For her cities shall be desolate,
Without any to dwell in them.
10 Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD deceitfully,
And cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood.

11 "Moab has been at ease from his* youth;
He has [h] settled on his dregs,
And has not been emptied from vessel to vessel,
Nor has he gone into captivity.
Therefore his taste remained in him,
And his scent has not changed.

12 "Therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD,
"That I shall send him wine-workers
Who will tip him over
And empty his vessels
And break the bottles.
13 Moab shall be ashamed of [i] Chemosh,
[j] As the house of Israel was ashamed of [k] Bethel, their confidence.

14 "How can you say, 'We are mighty
And strong men for the war'?
15 Moab is plundered and gone up from her cities;
Her chosen young men have gone down to the slaughter," says the King,
Whose name is the LORD of hosts.

16 "The calamity of Moab is near at hand,
And his affliction comes quickly.
17 Bemoan him, all you who are around him;
And all you who know his name,
Say, 'How the strong staff is broken,
The beautiful rod!'

18 "O daughter inhabiting Dibon,
Come down from your glory,
And sit in thirst;
For the plunderer of Moab has come against you,
He has destroyed your strongholds.
19 O inhabitant of [l] Aroer,
Stand by the way and watch;
Ask him who flees
And her who escapes;

48:11 He has settled. That is, he is contented. Dregs (or "lees," Is. 25:6) are the sediment at the bottom of a container of wine.

Say, 'What has happened?'
20 Moab is shamed, for he is broken down.
Wail and cry!
Tell it in Arnon, that Moab is plundered.

21 "And judgment has come on the plain country:
On Holon and Jahzah and Mephaath,
22 On Dibon and Nebo and Beth Diblathaim,
23 On Kirjathaim and Beth Gamul
and Beth Meon,
24 On [a]Kerioth and Bozrah,
On all the cities of the land of Moab,
Far or near.
25 The horn of Moab is cut off,
And his arm is broken," says
the LORD.

26 "Make him drunk,
Because he exalted himself
against the LORD.
Moab shall wallow in his vomit,
And he shall also be in derision.
27 For was not Israel a [b]derision to
you?
Was he found among thieves?
For whenever you speak of him,
You [c]shake your head in scorn.
28 You who dwell in Moab, Leave the cities and dwell in the rock,
And be like the [d]dove which makes her nest
In the sides of the cave's mouth.

29 "We have heard the [e]pride of
Moab
(He is exceedingly proud),
Of his loftiness and arrogance and [f]pride,
And of the haughtiness of his heart."

30 "I know his wrath," says the LORD,
"But it is not right;
His lies have made nothing
right.
31 Therefore I will wail for Moab,
And I will cry out for all Moab;
I* will [g]mourn for the men of [h]Kir Heres.
32 O vine of Sibmah! I will weep for you with the weeping of [i]Jazer.
Your plants have gone over the sea,
They reach to the sea of Jazer.
The plunderer has fallen on your summer fruit and your vintage.
33 Joy and [j]gladness are taken
From the plentiful field
And from the land of Moab;
I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses;
No one will tread with joyous shouting—
Not joyous shouting!

34 "From[k] the cry of Heshbon to [l]Elealeh and to Jahaz
They have uttered their voice,
From Zoar to Horonaim,
Like a three-year-old heifer;*
For the waters of Nimrim also shall be desolate.

35 "Moreover," says the LORD,
"I will cause to cease in Moab
The one who offers sacrifices in the high places
And burns incense to his gods.
36 Therefore My heart shall wail like flutes for Moab,
And like flutes My heart shall wail
For the men of Kir Heres.
Therefore the riches they have acquired have perished.

37 "For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped;
On all the hands shall be cuts,
and on the loins sackcloth—
38 A general lamentation
On all the [m]housetops of Moab,
And in its streets;
For I have [n]broken Moab like a vessel in which is no pleasure," says the LORD.

48:25 horn. The words "horn" and "horns" (OT, qeren; NT keras) are used in Scripture both literally and figuratively. In the latter sense at least three meanings appear: (1) strength in general (Deut. 33:17); (2) arrogant pride (Ps. 75:4–5); and (3) political and military power (Dan. 8:20–21).

39 "They shall wail:
'How she is broken down!
How Moab has turned her back with shame!'
So Moab shall be a derision
And a dismay to all those about her."

40 For thus says the LORD:

"Behold, one shall [a]fly like an eagle,
And spread his wings over Moab.
41 [b]Kerioth is taken,
And the strongholds are surprised;
The mighty men's hearts in Moab on that day shall be
Like the heart of a woman in birth pangs.
42 And Moab shall be destroyed as a people,
Because he exalted himself against the LORD.
43 Fear and the pit and the snare shall be upon you,
O inhabitant of Moab," says the LORD.
44 "He who flees from the fear shall fall into the pit,
And he who gets out of the pit shall be caught in the [c]snare.
For upon Moab, upon it I will bring
The year of their [d]punishment," says the LORD.

45 "Those who fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon
Because of exhaustion.
But a fire shall come out of Heshbon,
A flame from the midst of [e]Sihon,
And shall [f]devour the brow of Moab,
The crown of the head of the sons of tumult.
46 Woe to you, O Moab!
The people of Chemosh perish;
For your sons have been taken captive,
And your daughters captive.
47 "Yet I will [g]bring back the captives of Moab
In the [h]latter days," says the LORD.

Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

Prophecy against Ammon

49 AGAINST the [i]Ammonites. Thus says the LORD:

"Has Israel no sons?
Has he no heir?
Why then does Milcom* inherit Gad,
And his people dwell in its cities?
2 [j]Therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD,
"That I will cause to be heard an alarm of war
In [k]Rabbah of the Ammonites;
It shall be a desolate mound,
And her villages shall be burned with fire.
Then Israel shall take possession of his inheritance," says the LORD.

3 "Wail, O [l]Heshbon, for Ai is plundered!
Cry, you daughters of Rabbah,
Gird yourselves with sackcloth!
Lament and run to and fro by the walls;
For Milcom shall go into captivity
With his priests and his princes together.
4 Why do you [m]boast in the valleys,
Your flowing valley,
O backsliding daughter?
Who trusted in her [n]treasures, saying,
'Who will come against me?'
5 Behold, I will bring fear upon you,"
Says the Lord GOD of hosts,
"From all those who are around you;
You shall be driven out, everyone headlong,
And no one will gather those who wander off.
6 But [o]afterward I will bring back

Prophecy against Edom

7 [a]Against Edom.
Thus says the LORD of hosts:
"Is wisdom no more in [b]Teman?
Has counsel perished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom [c]vanished?
8 Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Dedan!
For I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him,
The time that I will [d]punish him.
9 If grape-gatherers came to you,
Would they not leave some gleaning [e]grapes?
If thieves by night,
Would they not destroy until they have enough?
10 But I have made Esau [f]bare;
I have uncovered his secret places,
And he shall not be able to hide himself.
His descendants are plundered,
His brethren and his neighbors,
And he is no more.
11 Leave your fatherless children,
I will preserve them alive;
And let your widows trust in Me."

12 For thus says the LORD: "Behold, those whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunk. And are you the one who will altogether go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink of it.

13 "For I have sworn by Myself," says the LORD, "that [g]Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse. And all its cities shall be perpetual wastes."

14 [h]I have heard a message from the LORD,
And an ambassador has been sent to the nations:
"Gather together, come against her,
And rise up to battle!

15 "For indeed, I will make you small among nations,
Despised among men.
16 Your fierceness has deceived you,
The [i]pride of your heart,
O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock,
Who hold the height of the hill!
Though you make your nest as high as the eagle,
I will bring you down from there," says the LORD.

17 "Edom also shall be an astonishment;
Everyone who goes by it will be [j]astonished
And will hiss at all its plagues.
18 [k]As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah
And their neighbors," says the LORD,
"No one shall remain there,
Nor shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 "Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the floodplain* of the Jordan
Against the dwelling place of the strong;
But I will suddenly make him run away from her.
And who is a chosen man that I may appoint over her?
For who is like Me?
Who will arraign Me?
And who is that shepherd
Who will withstand Me?"

49:7 Observe that this passage (vv. 7–17) is strikingly similar to Obadiah, e.g. Obad. 8–9.

49:11 trust. Trust is the characteristic OT word for the NT "faith" and "believe." It occurs 154 times in the OT, and is the rendering of Hebrew words signifying to take refuge (Ps. 2:12); to lean on (Ps. 56:3); to roll on (Ps. 22:8).

49:17 Edom (called "Seir," Gen. 32:3; 36:8) is the name of the country lying south of the ancient kingdom of Judah and extending from the Dead Sea to the Gulf of Aqaba. It includes the ruins of Petra, and is bounded on the north by Moab. Peopled by descendants of Esau (Gen. 36:1–19), Edom has a remarkable prominence in the prophetic Word as (together with Moab) the scene of the final destruction of Gentile world-power in the Day of the LORD. See Armageddon (Rev. 16:13–16; 19:17–21) and Times of the Gentiles (Luke 21:24; Rev. 16:19). Compare Ps. 137:7; Is. 34:1–8; 63:1–6; Jer. 49:17–22; Ezek. 25:12–14; Obad. 1–21.

20 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD that He has taken against Edom,
And His purposes that He has proposed against the inhabitants of Teman:
[a]Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out;
Surely He shall make their dwelling places desolate with them.
21 The earth shakes at the noise of their fall;
At the cry its noise is heard at the Red Sea.
22 Behold, He shall come up and fly like the eagle,
And spread His wings over Bozrah;
The heart of the mighty men of Edom in that day shall be
Like the heart of a woman in birth pangs.

Prophecy against Damascus (Syria)

23 [b]Against Damascus.

"Hamath[c] and [d]Arpad are shamed,
For they have heard bad news.
They are fainthearted;
There is trouble on the sea;
It cannot be quiet.
24 Damascus has grown feeble;
She turns to flee,
And fear has seized her.
Anguish and sorrows have taken her like a woman in labor.
25 Why is the city of praise not deserted, the city of My joy?
26 Therefore her [e]young men shall fall in her streets,
And all the men of war shall be cut off in that day," says the LORD of hosts.
27 "I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus,
And it shall consume the palaces of [f]Ben-Hadad."

Prophecy against Kedar (Arabians) and Hazor

28 Against [g]Kedar and against the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon shall strike.

Thus says the LORD:

"Arise, go up to Kedar,
And devastate the men of the East!
29 Their tents and their flocks they shall take away.
They shall take for themselves their curtains,
All their vessels and their camels;
And they shall cry out to them,
'Fear is on every side!'

30 "Flee, get far away! Dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Hazor!" says the LORD.
"For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you,
And has conceived a plan against you.

31 "Arise, go up to the wealthy nation that [h]dwells securely," says the LORD,
"Which has neither gates nor bars,
Dwelling [i]alone.
32 Their camels shall be for booty,
And the multitude of their cattle for plunder.
I will [j]scatter to all winds those in the farthest corners,
And I will bring their calamity from all its sides," says the LORD.
33 "Hazor shall be a dwelling for [k]jackals, a desolation forever;
No one shall reside there,
Nor son of man dwell in it."

Prophecy against Elam

34 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against [l]Elam, in the [m]beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying,

35 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Behold, I will break the bow of Elam,

36 Against Elam I will bring the four winds
From the four quarters of heaven,
And scatter them toward all those winds;
There shall be no nations where the outcasts of Elam will not go.
37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies
And before those who seek their life.
I will bring disaster upon them,

'And I will send the sword after them
Until I have consumed them.
38 I will set My throne in Elam,
And will destroy from there the king and the princes,' says the LORD.

39 'But it shall come to pass in the latter days:
I will [a]bring back the captives of Elam,' says the LORD."

Prophecy against Babylon

50 THE word that the LORD spoke against [b]Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 "Declare among the nations,
Proclaim, and set up a standard;
Proclaim—do not conceal it—
Say, 'Babylon is [c]taken, [d]Bel is shamed.
Merodach* is broken in pieces;
Her idols are humiliated,
Her images are broken in pieces.'
3 For out of the north a nation comes up against her,
Which shall make her land desolate,
And [e]no one shall dwell therein.
They shall move, they shall depart,
Both man and beast.

4 "In those days and in that time," says the LORD,
"The children of Israel shall come,
They and the children of Judah together;
With continual weeping they shall come,
And seek the LORD their God.
5 They shall ask the way to Zion,
With their faces toward it, saying,
'Come and let us join ourselves to the LORD
In a perpetual [f]covenant
That will not be forgotten.'

6 "My people have been lost [g]sheep.
Their shepherds have led them [h]astray;
They have turned them away on the mountains.
They have gone from mountain to hill;
They have forgotten their resting place.
7 All who found them have devoured them;
And their adversaries said, 'We have [i]not offended,
Because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice,
The LORD, the hope of their fathers.'

8 "Move from the midst of Babylon,
[j]Go out of the land of the Chaldeans;
And be like the rams before the flocks.
9 For behold, [k]I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon a heifer threshing grain,

And you bellow like bulls, 12 Your mother shall be deeply ashamed;
She who bore you shall be ashamed.
Behold, the least of the nations shall be a [d]wilderness,
A dry land and a desert.
13 Because of the wrath of the
LORD
She shall not be inhabited,
But she shall be wholly desolate.
Everyone who goes by Babylon shall be [e]horrified
And hiss at all her plagues.

14 "Put yourselves in array against Babylon all around,
All you who bend the bow;
Shoot at her, spare no arrows,
For she has sinned against the
LORD.
15 Shout against her all around;
She has given her hand,
Her foundations have fallen,
Her walls are [f]thrown down;
For it is the [g]vengeance of the LORD.
Take vengeance on her.
As she has done, so do to her.
16 Cut off the sower from Babylon,
And him who handles the sickle at harvest time.
For fear of the oppressing sword Everyone shall turn to his own people,
And everyone shall flee to his [h]own land.

17 "Israel is like [i]scattered sheep;
The lions have driven him
away.
First the king of [j]Assyria devoured him;
Now at last this Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones."

18 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

"Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land,
As I have punished the king of [k]Assyria.
19 But I will [l]bring back Israel to his home,
And he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan;
His soul shall be satisfied on Mount Ephraim and Gilead.
20 In those days and in that time,"
says the LORD,
"The [m]iniquity of Israel shall be sought, but there shall be none;
And the sins of Judah, but they shall not be found;
For I will pardon those [n]whom
I preserve.

21 "Go up against the land of Merathaim, against it,
And against the inhabitants of [o]Pekod.
Waste and utterly destroy them," says the LORD,
"And do according to all that I have commanded you.
22 A sound of battle is in the land,
And of great destruction.
23 How the [p]hammer of the whole earth has been cut apart and broken!
How Babylon has become a desolation among the nations!
24 I have laid a snare for you;

You have indeed been [a]trapped, O Babylon,
And you were not aware;
You have been found and also caught,
Because you have [b]contended against the LORD.
25 The LORD has opened His armory,
And has brought out the weapons of His indignation;
For this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts
In the land of the Chaldeans.
26 Come against her from the farthest border;
Open her storehouses;
Cast her up as heaps of ruins,
And destroy her utterly;
Let nothing of her be left.
27 Slay all her bulls,
Let them go down to the slaughter.
Woe to them!
For their day has come, the time of their punishment.
28 The voice of those who flee and escape from the land of Babylon
Declares in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God,
The vengeance of His temple.

29 "Call together the archers against Babylon.
All you who bend the bow, encamp against it all around;
Let none of them escape.*
Repay her according to her work;
According to all she has done, do to her;
For she has been [c]proud against the LORD,
Against the Holy One of Israel.
30 Therefore her young men shall fall in the streets,
And all her men of war shall be cut off in that day," says the LORD.
31 "Behold, I am against you,
O most haughty one!" says the Lord GOD of hosts;
"For your day has come,
The time that I will [d]punish you.*
32 The most [e]proud shall stumble and fall,
And no one will raise him up;
I will kindle a fire in his cities,
And it will devour all around him."

33 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"The children of Israel were oppressed,
Along with the children of Judah;
All who took them captive have held them fast;
They have refused to let them go.
34 Their [f]Redeemer is strong;
The LORD of hosts is His name.
He will thoroughly plead their [g]case,
That He may give rest to the land,
And disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 "A sword is against the Chaldeans," says the LORD,
"Against the inhabitants of Babylon,
And against her princes and her [h]wise men.
36 A sword is against the soothsayers, and they will be fools.
A sword is against her mighty men, and they will be dismayed.
37 A sword is against their horses,

And against all the [i]mixed peoples who are in her midst;
And they will become like [j]women.

41 "Behold, a people shall come from the north,
And a great nation and many kings
Shall be raised up from the ends of the earth.
42 They shall hold the bow and the lance;
They are [c]cruel and shall not show mercy.
Their voice shall roar like the sea;
They shall ride on horses,

45 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD that He has taken against Babylon,
And His [g]purposes that He has proposed against the land of the Chaldeans:
[h]Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out;
Surely He will make their dwelling place desolate with them.
46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon
The earth trembles,
And the cry is heard among the nations.

Babylon judged by the LORD for sins against Israel

51 THUS says the LORD:
"Behold, I will raise up against [i]Babylon, Against those who dwell in Leb Kamai,*
A destroying wind.
2 And I will send winnowers to Babylon,
Who shall winnow her and empty her land.
For in the day of doom
They shall be [j]against her all around.
3 Against her let the archer bend his bow,
And lift himself up against her in his armor.
Do not spare her young men;
Utterly destroy all her army.
4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans,
And those thrust through in her streets.
5 For Israel is [k]not forsaken, nor Judah,
By his God, the LORD of hosts,
Though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel."

50:39 jackals. Literally howling creatures. Jer. 51:37.

And every one save his life!
Do not be cut off in her iniquity,
For this is the time of the LORD's vengeance;
He shall recompense her.
7 [a]Babylon was a golden cup in the LORD's hand,
That made all the earth drunk.
The [b]nations drank her wine;
Therefore the nations are [c]deranged.
8 [d]Babylon has suddenly fallen and been destroyed.
[e]Wail for her!
Take balm for her pain;
Perhaps she may be healed.

9 We would have healed Babylon,
But she is not healed.
Forsake her, and let us go everyone to his own country;
For her judgment reaches to heaven and is lifted up to the skies.
10 The LORD has [f]revealed our righteousness.
Come and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

11 Make the arrows bright!
Gather the shields!
The [g]LORD has raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes.
For His [h]plan is against Babylon to destroy it,
Because it is the [i]vengeance of the LORD,
The vengeance for His temple.
12 [j]Set up the standard on the walls of Babylon;
Make the guard strong,
Set up the watchmen,
Prepare the ambushes.
For the LORD has both [k]devised and done
What He spoke against the inhabitants of Babylon.
13 O you who dwell by many waters,
Abundant in treasures,
Your end has come,
The measure of your covetousness.
14 The LORD of hosts has sworn by Himself:
"Surely I will fill you with men, as with locusts,
And they shall lift up a shout against you."

15 [l]He has made the earth by His power;
He has established the world by His wisdom,
And [m]stretched out the heaven by His understanding.
16 When He utters His voice—
There is a multitude of waters in the heavens:
"He causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth;
He makes lightnings for the rain;
He brings the wind out of His treasuries."*

17 Everyone is dull-hearted, without knowledge;
Every [n]metalsmith is put to shame by the carved image;
For his molded image is falsehood,
And there is no breath in them.
18 They are futile, a work of errors;
In the time of their [o]punishment they shall perish.
19 The Portion of Jacob is not like them,
For He is the Maker of all things;
And Israel is the tribe of His inheritance.
The LORD of hosts is His name.

20 "You are My [p]battle-ax and weapons of war:

With you I will destroy kingdoms;
21 With you I will break in pieces the horse and its rider;

22 With you also I will break in pieces man and woman;
With you I will break in pieces old and young;

Nor a stone for a foundation,

27 Set up a banner in the land, Blow the trumpet among the nations!
Prepare the [d]nations against her,
Call the kingdoms together against her:
Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.
Appoint a general against her;
Cause the horses to come up like the bristling locusts.
28 Prepare against her the nations,
With the kings of the Medes,
Its governors and all its rulers,
All the land of his dominion.
29 And the land will tremble and sorrow;
For every [e]purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon,
To make the land of Babylon a desolation without [f]inhabitant.
30 The mighty men of Babylon have ceased fighting,
They have remained in their strongholds;
Their might has failed,
They became like women;
They have burned her dwelling places,
The bars of her gate are broken.
31 One runner will run to meet
another,
And one messenger to meet
another,
To show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on all sides;
32 The passages are blocked,
The reeds they have burned with fire,
And the men of war are terrified.

33 For thus says the LORD of hosts,
the God of Israel:

"The daughter of Babylon is like a [g]threshing floor
When it is time to thresh her;
Yet a little while
And the time of her harvest will come."

He has spit me out.
35 Let the violence done to me and my flesh be upon Babylon,"
The inhabitant of Zion will say;
"And my blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea!"
Jerusalem will say.

36 Therefore thus says the LORD:

"Behold, I will [i]plead your case and take vengeance for you.
I will dry up her sea and make her springs dry.
37 Babylon shall become a heap,
A [j]dwelling place for [k]jackals,

47 Therefore behold, the days are

48 [k]Then the heavens and the earth and all that is in them

says the LORD.

of Israel to fall,
So at Babylon the slain of all the earth shall fall.
50 You who have escaped the sword,
Get away! Do not stand still!
[l]Remember the LORD afar off,

"That I will bring judgment on

And throughout all her land the wounded shall groan.
53 [o]Though Babylon were to mount up to heaven,
And though she were to fortify the height of her strength,
Yet from Me plunderers would come to her," says the
LORD.

54 The sound of a cry comes from Babylon,
And great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans,
55 Because the LORD is plundering
Babylon
And silencing her loud voice,
Though her waves roar like great waters,
And the noise of their voice is uttered,
56 Because the plunderer comes against her, against Babylon,
And her mighty men are taken.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you arrive in Babylon and see it, and read all these words,

62 "then you shall say, 'O LORD, You have spoken against this place to cut it off, so that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but it shall be desolate [h]forever.'

III. Historical Supplement, 52

An appendix: second account of overthrow of Judah (cp. 2 Kin. 25:1–26; Jer. 39:1–10)

52 ZEDEKIAH [k]was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of [l]Libnah.

2 He also did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For because of the anger of the LORD this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, till He finally cast them out from His presence. Then Zedekiah [m]rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 Now it came to pass in the [n]ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and encamped against it; and they built a siege wall against it all around.

5 So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

6 By the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the famine had become so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

7 Then the city wall was broken through, and all the men of war fled and went out of the city at night by way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden, even though the Chaldeans were near the city all around. And they went by way of the plain.

8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and they [o]overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. All his army was scattered from him.

52:4 tenth month. This is the month of Tebeth in the Hebrew religious calendar. It correlates to the modern months of December–January. For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev. 23:2.

52:6 fourth month. This is the month of Tammuz in the Hebrew religious calendar. It correlates to the modern months of June–July. For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev. 23:2.

52:7 plain. Arabah in Hebrew. When used with the definite article only, it refers to the valley which runs from the Sea of Galilee to the Gulf of Aqabah. South of the Dead Sea the name is still retained (Wady el-Arabah).

9 So they took the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he pronounced judgment on him.
10 Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. And he killed all the princes of Judah in Riblah.
11 He also [a]put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in bronze fetters, took him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.
12 [b]Now in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month (which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, who served the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.
13 He [c]burned the house of the LORD and the king's house; all the houses of Jerusalem, that is, all the houses of the great, he burned with fire.
14 And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around.
15 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive some of the poor people, the rest of the people who remained in the city, the defectors who had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the craftsmen.
16 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poor of the land as vinedressers and [d]farmers.
17 [e]The bronze pillars that were in the house of the LORD, and the carts and the bronze Sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried all their bronze to Babylon.
18 They also took away the pots, the shovels, the trimmers, the bowls, the spoons, and all the bronze utensils with which the priests ministered.
19 The basins, the firepans, the bowls, the pots, the lampstands, the spoons, and the cups, whatever was solid gold and whatever was solid silver, the captain of the guard took away.
20 The two pillars, one Sea, the twelve bronze bulls which were under it, and the carts, which King Solomon had made for the house of the LORD—the bronze of all these articles was beyond [f]measure.
21 Now concerning the [g]pillars: the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, a measuring line of twelve [h]cubits could measure its circumference, and its thickness was four fingers; it was hollow.

TEMPLE PLUNDERERS

Name	Reference	What was done or taken
King Shishak of Egypt	1 Kings 14:25–27; 2 Chronicles 12:9	Took temple treasures and gold shields.
King Asa of Judah	1 Kings 15:16–19	Took silver and gold of the temple treasuries to bribe the King of Syria into an alliance.
Sons of Queen Athaliah of Judah	2 Chronicles 24:7	Broke into the temple, took the sacred objects and presented them to the Baals.
King Joash of Judah	2 Kings 12:18	Took sacred objects and gold from the treasuries to bribe Hazael, king of Syria.
King Jehoash of Israel	2 Kings 14:14	Took all the gold and silver and all the sacred temple articles.
King Ahaz of Judah	2 Kings 16:8	Took all the silver and gold to pay tribute to the King of Assyria.
King Hezekiah of Judah	2 Kings 18:15–16	Took all the silver and stripped the gold from the temple doors and pillars to pay tribute to the King of Assyria.
Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon	2 Kings 24:13	Took all the temple treasurers and all the gold articles.
Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard of Nebuchadnezzar	Jeremiah 52:12–23; 2 Kings 25:9	Took all the bronze pillars and furnishings, all the utensils and articles made of solid gold or silver. Burned the temple.

22 A capital of bronze was on it; and the height of one capital was five cubits, with a network and pomegranates all around the capital, all of bronze. The second pillar, with pomegranates was the same.
23 There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the [a] pomegranates, all around on the network, were one hundred.
24 The captain of the guard took [b] Seraiah the chief priest, [c] Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers.
25 He also took out of the city an officer who had charge of the men of war, seven men of the king's close associates who were found in the city, the principal scribe of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the midst of the city.
26 And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took these and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.
27 Then the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive from its own land.
28 [d] These are the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year, three thousand and twenty-three Jews;
29 in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred and thirty-two persons;
30 in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred and forty-five persons. All the persons were four thousand six hundred.
31 [e] Now it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, that Evil-Merodach* king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, [f] lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah and brought him out of prison.
32 And he spoke kindly to him and gave him a more prominent seat than those of the kings who were with him in Babylon.
33 So Jehoiachin changed from his prison garments, and he ate bread regularly before the king all the days of his life.
34 And as for his provisions, there was a regular ration given him by the king of Babylon, a portion for each day until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

THE BOOK OF

LAMENTATIONS

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Jeremiah	Mourning for Jerusalem	6th Cent. B.C.

Literary Background

Lamentations, composed of five elegies lamenting the destruction of Jerusalem, is undoubtedly the work of Jeremiah. In literary form chapters 1—4 are alphabetic, somewhat on the order of Psalm 119. Thus in chapters 1 and 2 a new letter of the Hebrew alphabet begins each of the twenty-two verses. In chapter 3 there are sixty-six verses, arranged in twenty-two groups of three verses. Each group of three verses uses a successive letter of the alphabet, each verse in the group beginning with that one letter. The fifth chapter, although not alphabetical, contains twenty-two verses in a plaintive meter which—the second half of each verse being shorter than the first—conveys a somber effect of diminuendo.

The Old Testament in the New

The deeper significance of Lamentations lies in the fact that Jeremiah's intense burden of sympathy for Jerusalem discloses the love and sorrow of the LORD for the very people whom He is chastening, a burden similar to that which the Lord Jesus Christ expressed in His lament over Jerusalem (Matthew 23:37–39).

Outline

The book may be divided as follows:

I.	The Desolation of Jerusalem	1:1–22
II.	The Day of the Lord's Anger	2:1–22
III.	Jeremiah's Sharing of His Nation's Affliction	3:1–66
	A. His Distress	3:1–21
	B. Recounting of God's Faithfulness	3:22–39
	C. A Call to Self-Judgment and Confession	3:40–51
	D. Jeremiah's Prison Experience	3:52–66
IV.	The Horrors of the Siege of Jerusalem	4:1–22
V.	A Plaintive Prayer to the Lord	5:1–22

I. The Desolation of Jerusalem

1 HOW [a]lonely sits the city
That was full of people!
[b]How like a widow is she,
Who was great among the nations!
The [c]princess among the provinces
Has become a slave!

2 She weeps bitterly in the night,
Her tears are on her cheeks;
Among all her lovers
She has none to comfort her.
All her friends have dealt treacherously with her;
They have become her enemies.

3 [d]Judah has gone into captivity,
Under affliction and hard servitude;
She dwells among the nations,
She finds no [e]rest;
All her persecutors overtake her in dire straits.

4 The roads to Zion mourn
Because no one comes to the set feasts.
All her gates are [f]desolate;
Her priests sigh,
Her virgins are afflicted,
And she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries have become the [g]master,
Her enemies prosper;
For the LORD has afflicted her
[h]Because of the multitude of her transgressions.
Her children have gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion
All her splendor has departed.
Her princes have become like deer
That find no [i]pasture,
That flee without strength
Before the pursuer.

7 In the days of her affliction and roaming,
Jerusalem [j]remembers all her pleasant things
That she had in the days of old.
When her people fell into the hand of the enemy,
With no one to help her,
The adversaries saw her
And mocked at her downfall.*

8 [k]Jerusalem has sinned gravely,
Therefore she has become vile.*
All who honored her despise her
Because they have seen her nakedness;
Yes, she sighs and turns away.

9 Her uncleanness is in her skirts;
She did not consider her [l]destiny;
Therefore her collapse was awesome;
She had no comforter.
"O LORD, behold my affliction,
For the enemy is exalted!"

10 The adversary has spread his hand
Over all her pleasant things;
For she has seen the nations [m]enter her sanctuary,
Those whom You commanded
[n]Not to enter Your assembly.

11 All her people sigh,
They seek bread;
They have given their valuables for food to restore life.
"See, O LORD, and consider,
For I am scorned."

12 "Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Behold and see
[o]If there is any sorrow like my sorrow,
Which has been brought on me,
Which the LORD has inflicted
In the day of His fierce anger.

13 "From above He has sent fire into my bones,
And it overpowered them;
He has [p]spread a net for my feet
And turned me back;
He has made me desolate
And faint all the day.

Judah: praised. The southern kingdom.

Jerusalem: founded in peace. The capital of David's kingdom and the religious center of Israel. Solomon built a magnificent temple here. The city and temple were destroyed and restored throughout Israel's history.

14 "The [a]yoke of my transgressions was bound;*
They were woven together by His hands,
And thrust upon my neck.
He made my strength fail;
The Lord delivered me into the hands of those whom I am not able to withstand.

15 "The Lord has trampled underfoot all my mighty men in my midst;
He has called an assembly against me
To crush my young men;
The Lord trampled as in a winepress
The virgin daughter of Judah.

16 "For these things I weep;
My eye, my eye overflows with water;
Because the [b]comforter, who should restore my life,
Is far from me.
My children are desolate
Because the enemy prevailed."

17 Zion spreads out her hands,
But no one comforts [c]her;
The LORD has commanded concerning Jacob
That those [d]around him become his adversaries;
Jerusalem has become an unclean thing among them.

18 "The LORD is [e]righteous,
For I rebelled against His commandment.
Hear now, all peoples,
And behold my sorrow;
My virgins and my young men
Have gone into captivity.

19 "I called for my lovers,
But they deceived me;
My priests and my elders
Breathed their last in the city,
While they sought food
To restore their life.

20 "See, O LORD, that I am in distress;
My soul is troubled;
My heart is overturned within me,
For I have been very rebellious.
Outside the [f]sword bereaves,
At home it is like death.

21 "They have heard that I sigh,
But no one comforts me.
All my enemies have heard of my trouble;
They are [g]glad that You have done it.
Bring on the [h]day You have announced,
That they may become like me.

22 "Let all their wickedness come before You,
And [i]do to them as You have done to me
For all my transgressions;
For my sighs are many,
And my heart is faint."

II. The Day of the LORD's Anger

2 HOW the Lord has covered the daughter of Zion
With a [j]cloud in His anger!
He [k]cast down from heaven to the earth
The beauty of Israel,
And did not remember His [l]footstool
In the day of His anger.

2 The Lord has swallowed up and has [m]not pitied
All the dwelling places of Jacob.
He has thrown down in His wrath
The strongholds of the daughter of Judah;
He has brought them down to the ground;
He has profaned the kingdom and its princes.

3 He has cut off in fierce anger
Every horn of Israel;

2:3 horn. The words "horn" and "horns" (OT, qeren; NT keras) are used in Scripture both literally and figuratively. In the latter sense at least three meanings appear: (1) strength in general (Deut. 33:17); (2) arrogant pride (Ps. 75:4–5); and (3) political and military power (Dan. 8:20–21).

Jacob: supplanter. The younger son of Isaac and Rebekah who tricked his brother Esau into selling him his birthright. He deceived his father in order to receive the family blessing.

He has drawn back His [a]right hand
From before the enemy.
He has blazed against Jacob like a flaming fire
Devouring all around.

4 [b]Standing like an enemy, He has bent His bow;
With His right hand, like an adversary,
He has slain all who were pleasing to His eye;
On the tent of the daughter of Zion,
He has poured out His fury like fire.

5 The Lord was like an enemy.
He has swallowed up Israel,
[c]He has swallowed up all her palaces;
He has destroyed her strongholds,
And has increased mourning and lamentation
In the daughter of Judah.

6 He has [d]done violence to His tabernacle,
As if it were a garden;
He has destroyed His place of [e]assembly;
The LORD has caused
The appointed feasts and Sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion.
In His burning indignation He has [f]spurned the king and the priest.

7 The Lord has spurned His altar,
He has [g]abandoned His sanctuary;
He has given up the walls of her palaces
Into the hand of the enemy.
They have made a [h]noise in the house of the LORD
As on the day of a set feast.

8 The LORD has purposed to destroy
The [i]wall of the daughter of Zion.
He has [j]stretched out a line;
He has not withdrawn His hand from destroying;
Therefore He has caused the rampart and wall to lament;
They languished together.

9 Her gates have sunk into the ground;
He has destroyed and broken her bars.
Her [k]king and her princes are among the nations;
The Law is no more,
And her prophets find [l]no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion
Sit on the ground and keep silence;
They throw dust on their heads
And gird themselves with sackcloth.
The virgins of Jerusalem
Bow their heads to the ground.

11 [m]My eyes fail with tears,
My heart is troubled;
My bile is poured on the ground
Because of the destruction of the daughter of my people,
Because the children and the infants
Faint in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers,
"Where is grain and wine?"
As they swoon like the wounded
In the streets of the city,
As their life is poured out
In their mothers' bosom.

13 [n]How shall I console you?
To what shall I liken you,
O daughter of Jerusalem?
What shall I compare with you, that I may comfort you,
O virgin daughter of Zion?
For your ruin is spread wide as the sea;
Who can heal you?

14 Your prophets have seen for you
False and [o]deceptive visions;
They have not [p]uncovered your iniquity,
To bring back your captives,
But have envisioned for you false [q]prophecies and delusions.

15 [a]All who pass by clap their hands at you;
They hiss and shake their heads
At the daughter of Jerusalem:
"Is this the city that is called
'The [b]perfection of beauty,
The joy of the whole earth'?"

16 All your enemies have opened their mouth against you;
They hiss and gnash their teeth.
They say, "We have swallowed her up!
Surely this is the [c]day we have waited for;
We have found it, we have seen it!"

17 The LORD has done what He [d]purposed;
He has fulfilled His word
Which He commanded in days of old.
He has thrown down and has not pitied,
And He has caused an enemy to rejoice over you;
He has exalted the horn of your adversaries.

18 Their heart cried out to the Lord,
"O wall of the daughter of Zion,
[e]Let tears run down like a river day and night;
Give yourself no relief;
Give your eyes no rest.

19 "Arise, cry out in the night,
At the beginning of the watches;
[f]Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord.
Lift your hands toward Him
For the life of your young children,
Who faint from hunger at the head of every street."

20 "See, O LORD, and consider!
To whom have You done this?
[g]Should the women eat their offspring,
The children they have cuddled?*
Should the priest and prophet be slain
In the sanctuary of the Lord?

21 "Young and old lie
On the ground in the streets;
My virgins and my young men
Have fallen by the [h]sword;
You have slain them in the day of Your anger,
You have slaughtered and not pitied.

22 "You have invited as to a feast day
The terrors that surround me.
In the day of the LORD's anger
There was no refugee or survivor.
Those whom I have borne and brought up
My enemies have [i]destroyed."

III. The Nation's Affliction and God's Faithfulness

Jeremiah shares his nation's affliction

3 I AM the man who has seen
[j]affliction by the rod of His wrath.
2 He has led me and made me walk
In darkness and not in light.
3 Surely He has turned His hand against me
Time and time again throughout the day.

4 [k]He has aged my flesh and my skin,
And broken my bones.
5 He has besieged me
And surrounded me with bitterness and woe.
6 [l]He has set me in dark places
Like the dead of long ago.

7[m]He has hedged me in so that I cannot get out;
He has made my chain heavy.
8 [n]Even when I cry and shout,
He shuts out my prayer.
9 He has blocked my ways with hewn stone;
He has made my paths crooked.

2:17 word. Sometimes God must act in sovereign judgment in order to fulfill His Word. Compare Lev. 26:16; Deut. 28:15. horn. The words "horn" and "horns" (OT, qeren; NT keras) are used in Scripture both literally and figuratively. In the latter sense at least three meanings appear: (1) strength in general (Deut. 33:17); (2) arrogant pride (Ps. 75:4–5); and (3) political and military power (Dan. 8:20–21).

10 He has been to me a bear lying in wait,
Like a lion in ambush.
11 He has turned aside my ways and torn me in pieces;
He has made me desolate.
12 [a]He has bent His bow
And set me up as a target for the arrow.
13 He has caused the arrows of His quiver
To pierce my loins.*
14 I have become the [b]ridicule of all my people—
Their taunting [c]song all the day.
15 [d]He has filled me with bitterness,
He has made me drink wormwood.
16 He has also broken my teeth with gravel,
And covered me with ashes.
17 You have moved my soul far from peace;
I have forgotten prosperity.
18 And I said, "My strength and my hope
Have perished from the LORD."
19 Remember my affliction and roaming,
The wormwood and the gall.
20 My soul still remembers
And sinks within me.
21 This I recall to my mind,
Therefore I have [e]hope.

Jeremiah speaks of God's faithfulness

22 [f]Through the LORD's mercies we are not consumed, Because His compassions fail [g]not.
23 [h]They are new every morning;
Great is Your faithfulness.
24 "The LORD is [i]my portion," says my soul,
"Therefore I [j]hope in Him!"
25 The LORD is good to those who [k]wait for Him,
To the soul who seeks Him.
26 It is good that one should [l]hope and [m]wait quietly
For the salvation of the LORD.
27 It is good for a man to bear
The yoke in his youth.
28 Let him sit alone and keep silent,
Because God has laid it on him;
29 Let him put his mouth in the dust—
There may yet be hope.
30 Let him give his cheek to the one who [n]strikes him,
And be full of reproach.
31 [o]For the Lord will not cast off forever.
32 Though He causes grief,
Yet He will show compassion
According to the multitude of His mercies.
33 [p]For He does not afflict willingly,
Nor grieve the children of men.
34 To crush under one's feet
All the prisoners of the earth,
35 To turn aside the justice due a man
Before the face of the Most High,
36 Or subvert a man in his cause—
[q]The Lord does not approve.
37 Who is he who speaks and it comes to pass,
When the Lord has not commanded it?
38 Is it [r]not from the mouth of the Most High
That woe and well-being proceed?

3:20 THINGS MOURNED FOR IN LAMENTATIONS

For the city of Jerusalem:	1:1–9; 2:1–2,8–9, 15–16; 4:1
For the destruction of the temple:	1:10; 2:2–9
For lack of any comfort:	1:16–17,21
For personal loss	3:1–21
For the people of Judah	1:15–16,18; 2:9b–12, 20–21; 4:14–19; 5:3–6,14–16
For victims of rape and torture:	5:11–12
For those taken into slavery:	5:8,13
For severe famine:	1:11,19; 2:19–20; 4:3–5,7–10

3:22 This beautiful passage (vv. 22–27) sounds a note of hope and trust amid the gloom of the book. Even his grief cannot blind the prophet to the abiding faithfulness of the LORD (compare also vv. 31–33,40–41,55–58).

39 Why should a living man complain,
A man for the punishment of his sins?

A call to self-judgment and confession

40 Let us search out and examine our ways,
And turn back to the LORD;
41 Let us lift our hearts and hands
To God in heaven.
42 We have transgressed and rebelled;
You have not pardoned.

43 You have covered Yourself with anger
And pursued us;
You have slain and not pitied.
44 You have covered Yourself with a cloud,
That prayer should not pass through.
45 [a]You have made us an offscouring and refuse
In the midst of the peoples.

46 All our enemies
Have [b]opened their mouths against us.
47 Fear and a snare have come upon us,
Desolation and destruction.
48 My eyes overflow with rivers of [c]water
For the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 My eyes flow and do not cease,
Without interruption,
50 [d]Till the LORD from heaven
Looks down and sees.
51 My eyes bring suffering to my soul
Because of all the daughters of my city.

Jeremiah's prison experience

52 My enemies without cause
Hunted me down like a bird.
53 They silenced* my life in the pit
And threw stones at me.
54 The waters flowed over my head;
I said, "I am cut off!"

55 [e]I called on Your name, O LORD,
From the lowest [f]pit.
56 You have heard my voice:
"Do not hide Your ear
From my sighing, from my cry for help."
57 [g]You drew near on the day I called on You,
And said, [h]"Do not fear!"

58 O Lord, You have pleaded the case for my soul;
You have [i]redeemed my life.
59 O LORD, You have seen how I am wronged;
Judge my case.
60 You have seen all their vengeance,
All their schemes against me.

61 You have heard their reproach, O LORD,
All their schemes against me,
62 The lips of my enemies
And their [j]whispering against me all the day.
63 Look at their sitting down and their rising up;
I am their taunting song.

64 [k]Repay them, O LORD,
According to the work of their hands.
65 Give them a veiled* heart;
Your curse be upon them!
66 In Your anger,
Pursue and destroy them
From under the heavens of the LORD.

Like ostriches in the wilderness.

Those who were brought up in scarlet Embrace ash heaps.

6 The punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people
Is greater than the punishment of the [a]sin of Sodom, [b]Which was overthrown in a moment,
With no hand to help her!

7 Her Nazirites* were brighter than snow
And whiter than milk;
They were more ruddy in body than rubies,
Like sapphire in their appearance.

8 Now their appearance is blacker than soot;
They go unrecognized in the streets;
Their skin clings to their bones,
It has become as dry as wood.

9 Those slain by the sword are better off

For these [c]pine away,

He [h]kindled a fire in Zion,
And it has devoured its foundations.

12 The kings of the earth,
And all inhabitants of the world,
Would not have believed
That the adversary and the enemy
Could [i]enter the gates of Jerusalem—

13 [j]Because of the sins of her prophets
And the iniquities of her priests,
Who shed in her midst
The blood of the just.

14 They wandered blind in the streets;
They have defiled themselves with blood,
So that no one would touch their garments.

15 They cried out to them,
"Go away, [k]unclean!
Go away, go away,
Do not touch us!"
When they fled and wandered,
Those among the nations said,
"They shall no longer dwell here."

16 The face* of the LORD scattered them;
He no longer regards them.
The people do not respect the priests
Nor show favor to the elders.

17 Still our eyes failed us,
Watching vainly for our help;
In our watching we watched
For a nation that could not save us.

18 They tracked our steps
So that we could not walk in our streets.
[l]Our end was near;
Our days were over,
For our end had come.

4:13 Verses 13–14 are a drastic example of the far-reaching consequences of corrupt spiritual leadership.

19 Our pursuers were swifter
Than the eagles of the heavens.

V. A Plaintive Prayer to the LORD

5 REMEMBER, O LORD, what has come upon us;
Look, and behold our reproach!
2 [e]Our inheritance has been turned over to aliens,
And our houses to foreigners.
3 We have become orphans and waifs,
Our mothers are like [f]widows.

4 We pay for the water we drink,
And our wood comes at a price.
5 They pursue at our [g]heels;*
We labor and have no rest.
6 We have given our hand to the Egyptians
And the [h]Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

7 Our fathers sinned and are no more,
But we bear their iniquities.
8 Servants rule over us;
There is none to deliver us from their hand.
9 We get our bread at the risk of our lives,
Because of the sword in the wilderness.

10 Our skin is hot as an oven,
Because of the fever of famine.
11 They [i]ravished the women in Zion,
The maidens in the cities of Judah.
12 Princes were hung up by their hands,
And elders were not respected.
13 Young men [j]ground at the millstones;
Boys staggered under loads of wood.
14 The elders have ceased gathering at the gate,
And the young men from their [k]music.

15 The joy of our heart has ceased;
Our dance has turned into [l]mourning.
16 The crown has fallen from our head.
Woe to us, for we have sinned!
17 Because of this our heart is faint;
Because of these things our eyes grow dim;
18 Because of Mount Zion which is [m]desolate,
With foxes walking about on it.

19 [n]You, O LORD, remain forever;
Your throne from generation to generation.
20 Why do You forget us forever,
And forsake us for so long a time?
21 [o]Turn us back to You, O LORD, and we will be restored;
Renew our days as of old,
22 Unless You have utterly rejected us,
And are very angry with us!

THE BOOK OF

EZEKIEL

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Ezekiel	Judgment and Glory	6th Cent. B.C.

Background

Ezekiel, a priest whose name means God will strengthen, was among the Jewish exiles carried away to Babylon between the first and final deportations of Judah (2 Kings 24:11–16). His book shows him as a man of stern integrity and strong purpose, completely devoted to the practices of his priestly religion. Like Daniel and the Apostle John, he prophesied outside the land of Judah; and his prophecy, like theirs, follows the method of symbol and vision. Unlike the pre-exilic prophets, whose ministry was primarily either to Judah or to the ten-tribe kingdom, or to both, Ezekiel was the voice of the LORD to "the whole house of Israel." In marked contrast with Jeremiah, all of the material in Ezekiel's prophecy is arranged in chronological order as God revealed it to him.

Speaking broadly, the purpose of Ezekiel's ministry was to keep before the generation born in exile the national sins which had brought Israel so low (for example, Ezekiel 14:23); to sustain the faith of the exiles by predictions of national restoration, of the execution of justice upon their oppressors, and of national glory under the Davidic monarchy.

God's Relationship with Man

Observe that the glory of the LORD departed from the city just before the destruction of Jerusalem (11:23); this glory will return to Jerusalem in the millennial period (43:2). No Temple in Jerusalem has known the presence of the glory of God in this manner since 586 B.C.

Outline

I. The Call of Ezekiel, 1—3

Occasion of Ezekiel's first vision: the glory of the LORD

1 NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives [a]by the River Chebar, that the heavens were [b]opened and I saw visions* of God.

2 On the fifth day of the month, which was in the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity,

3 the word of the LORD came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans* by the River Chebar; and the [c]hand of the LORD was upon him there.

4 Then I looked, and behold, a whirlwind was coming out of the north, a great cloud with raging fire engulfing itself; and brightness was all around it and radiating out of its midst like the color of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

5 Also from within it came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man.

6 Each one had four faces, and each one had four wings.

7 Their legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the soles of calves' feet. They sparkled like the color of burnished bronze.

8 The hands of a man were under their wings on their four sides; and each of the four had faces and wings.

9 Their wings touched one another. The creatures did not turn when they went, but each one went straight [d]forward.

10 As for the [e]likeness of their [f]faces, [g]each had the face of a man; each of the four had the face of a lion on the right side, each of the four had the face of an ox on the left side, and each of the four had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces. [h]Their wings stretched upward; two wings of each one touched one another, and two covered their bodies.

12 And each one [i]went straight forward; they went [j]wherever the spirit wanted to go, and they did not turn when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches going back and forth among the living creatures. The fire was bright, and out of the fire went lightning.

14 And the living creatures ran back and forth, in [k]appearance like a flash of lightning.

15 Now as I looked at the living creatures, behold, a wheel was on

1:1 fourth month. This is the month of Tammuz in the Hebrew religious calendar. It correlates to the modern months of June–July. For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev. 23:2. River Chebar. A large canal between the Euphrates and Tigris Rivers.

Ezekiel: whom God will strengthen. A major prophet who prophesied the fall of Jerusalem to the Jews in exile in Babylonia. His book of Ezekiel records many of his visions as well as the hope of the coming Messiah.

1:2 fifth year. Approximately 593 B.C.

1:3 priest. Since Ezekiel was a priest, it is possible to trace priestly indications throughout his prophecy. His visions of the divine glory (chs. 1 and 10) are reminiscent of the Shekinah in the Mosaic system. The stages of the departure of the glory (chs. 8—11) are described by one familiar with the priestly order. Chapters 40—48 are admittedly couched in terms understandable only in the framework of the Levitical appointments. Even details of the priesthood, such as the prohibition against defilement of the priest (4:13ff.), and the profanation of the Sabbath (20:12ff.; 22:8) are found.

1:4 EZEKIEL'S VISION

In exile, far from the sight of the glory of God's earthly temple, surrounded by the pomp of idolatry, Ezekiel received a vision of the majesty and wonder of God's glory, showing that his God was more magnificent than anything to be found in heathenism, and impressing on his mind the greatness of the unseen God of Israel. The vision indicated that the affairs of the world are not directed by impersonal laws of nature, but by a living Spirit (vv. 20–21). Above the babel of man's plans, the authoritative voice of God speaks (v. 24). The four faces in the vision (v. 10) prefigure the four aspects in which God would reveal Himself when He incarnated Himself in human flesh as Messiah. On the right is the lion, symbol of kingship (Matthew). On the left is the ox, symbol of the Servant (Mark). The face of a man represents His perfect humanity (Luke). The eagle, soaring overhead, symbolizes His Deity (John). Compare also Rev. 4:7.

16 The appearance of the wheels and their workings was [a]like the color of beryl, and all four had the same likeness. The appearance of their workings was, as it were, a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they moved, they went toward any one of four directions; they did not turn aside when they went.

18 As for their rims, they were so high they were awesome; and their rims were [b]full of eyes, all around the four of them.

19 When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

20 Wherever the spirit wanted to go, they went, because there the spirit went; and the wheels were lifted together with them, for the spirit of the living creatures* was in the wheels.

21 When those went, these went; when those [c]stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up together with them, for the spirit of the living creatures* was in the wheels.

22 The likeness of the firmament above the heads of the living creatures* was like the color of an awesome [d]crystal, stretched out [e]over their heads.

23 And under the firmament their wings spread out straight, one toward another. Each one had two which covered one side, and each one had two which covered the other side of the body.

24 When they went, I heard the noise of their [f]wings, like the [g]noise of many waters, [h]like the voice of the Almighty, a tumult like the noise of an army; and when they stood still, they let down their wings.

25 A voice came from above the firmament that was over their heads; whenever they stood, they let down their wings.

26 And above the firmament over their heads was the likeness of a throne, in appearance [i]like a sapphire stone; on the likeness of the throne was a likeness with the appearance of a man high above [j]it.

27 Also from the appearance of His waist and upward I saw, as it were, the color of amber with the appearance of fire all around within it; and from the appearance of His waist and downward I saw, as it were, the appearance of fire with brightness all around.

28 [k]Like the appearance of a rainbow in a cloud on a rainy day, so was the appearance of the brightness all around it. This was the appearance of the likeness of the [l]glory of the LORD.

So when I saw it, [m]I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of One speaking.

1:22 CHERUBIM

The living creatures are identified as the cherubim in 10:20. The cherubim are symbolic of God's holy presence and unapproachability. They are celestial beings who guard and vindicate the righteousness of God (compare Gen. 3:24; Ex. 26:1,31; 36:8,35), the mercy of God (compare Ex. 25:22; 37:9), and the government of God (compare 1 Sam. 4:4; Ps. 80:1; 99:1; Ezek. 1:22,26). In the holy of holies God's glory dwelt between the cherubim (Ps. 80:1; compare Ex. 25:10–22). Some think that the living creatures of Rev. 4 are cherubim (besides points of similarity, observe dissimilarity to the cherubim in number of wings: Ezek. 1:6; 10:21; Rev. 4:8; compare Is. 6:2). This dissimilarity may indicate that these beings have power to appear in different forms for purposes of symbolic revelation.

1:26 man. Evidently a Christophany. Compare Is. 6:1; John 12:41.

2:1 Son of man. The expression "son of man" is a common Semitic way of indicating an individual man (Ps. 4:2; 57:4; 58:1; 144:3; Jer. 49:18,33; 50:40; 51:43). God addresses Ezekiel about ninety times by this title. In Dan. 7:13 the term is used to show that an actual man will come in the clouds of heaven to receive a worldwide kingdom. From this use in Daniel it came to refer to the

2 Then the [a]Spirit [b]entered me when He [c]spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard Him who spoke to me.
3 And He said to me: "Son of man,
I am sending you to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that has [d]rebelled against Me; they and their fathers have transgressed against Me to this very day.
4 "For they are impudent and [e]stubborn children. I am sending you to them, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.'
5 "As for them, whether they hear or whether they [f]refuse—for they are a [g]rebellious house—yet they will know that a prophet has been among them.
6 "And you, son of man, do [h]not be afraid of them nor be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns are with you and you dwell among scorpions; do not be afraid of their words or dismayed by their looks, though they are a rebellious house.
7 "You shall speak My words to them, whether they hear or whether they refuse, for they are rebellious.
8 "But [i]you, son of man, hear what I say to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth and [j]eat what I give you."
9 Now when I looked, there was a hand stretched out to me; and behold, a scroll of a book was in it.
10 Then He spread it before me;
and there was writing on the inside and on the outside, and written on it were lamentations and mourning and woe.

Ezekiel, God's watchman

3 MOREOVER He said to me,
"Son of man, eat what you find;
eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel."
2 So I opened my mouth, and He caused me to eat that scroll.
3 And He said to me, "Son of man, feed your belly, and fill your stomach with this scroll that I give you."
So I ate, and it was in my mouth like honey in sweetness.
4 Then He said to me: "Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak with My words to them.
5 "For you are not sent to a people of unfamiliar speech and of hard language, but to the house of Israel, 6 "not to many people of unfamiliar speech and of hard language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, had I sent you to them, they would have [k]listened to
you.
7 "But the house of Israel will not listen to you, because they will [l]not listen to Me; for all the house of Israel are impudent and hard-hearted.
8 "Behold, I have made your face strong against their faces, and your forehead strong against their fore-heads.
9 [m]"Like adamant stone, harder than flint, I have made your forehead; do not be afraid of them, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house."
10 Moreover He said to me: "Son of man, receive into your heart all My words that I speak to you, and hear with your ears.
11 "And go, get to the captives, to the children of your people, and speak to them and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD,' whether they hear, or whether they [n]refuse." 12 Then the [o]Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me a great thunderous voice: "Blessed is the [p]glory of the LORD from His place!"
13 I also heard the [q]noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, and a great thunderous noise.
14 So the [r]Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in [s]bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the [t]hand of the LORD was strong upon me.
15 Then I came to the captives at Tel Abib, who dwelt by the River
Chebar; and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them [u]seven days.
16 Now it [v]came to pass at the end glorious Messiah, and in such a sense Jesus utilized it, calling Himself "the Son of Man" nearly eighty times in the Gospels.

of seven days that the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

17 "Son of man, I have made you a [a]watchman for the house of Israel; therefore hear a word from My mouth, and give them [b]warning from Me:

18 "When I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die,' and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life, that same wicked man [c]shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand.

19 "Yet, if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; [d]but you have delivered your soul.

20 "Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits [e]iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die; because you did not give him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood I will require at your hand.

21 "Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man that the righteous should not sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live because he took warning; also you will have delivered your [f]soul."

22 Then the hand of the LORD was upon me there, and He said to me, "Arise, go out into the plain, and there I shall talk with you."

23 So I arose and went out into the plain, and behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, like the glory which I saw by the River Chebar; and I fell on my face.

24 Then the [g]Spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and spoke with me and said to me: "Go, shut yourself inside your house.

25 "And you, O son of man, surely they will put [h]ropes on you and bind you with them, so that you cannot go out among them.

26 "I will make your tongue cling to the roof of your mouth, so that you shall be [i]mute and [j]not be one to rebuke them, for they are a [k]rebellious house.

27 [l]"But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.' He who hears, let him hear; and he who refuses, let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house.

II. Warnings of Judgment on Jerusalem, 4—24

Signs of coming judgment of Jerusalem: (1) the clay tablet

4 "YOU also, son of man, take a clay tablet and lay it before you, and portray on it a city, Jerusalem.

2 [m]"Lay siege against it, build a [n]siege wall against it, and heap up a mound against it; set camps against it also, and place battering rams against it all around.

3 "Moreover take for yourself an iron plate, and set it as an iron wall between you and the city. Set your face against it, and it shall be [o]besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This will be a [p]sign to the house of Israel.

4 "Lie also on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it. According to the number of the days that you lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity.

5 "For I have laid on you the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred

3:22 Arise, go out. Evidently this command to arise and go to the plain where the LORD appeared to him, as at the River Chebar, was given to Ezekiel after he had carried out the commission of vv. 17–21 and the people had turned against him. Then the LORD struck Ezekiel mute (v. 26), so that he was obliged to communicate by symbolic actions. Only when God had a special message to give through him could he speak (v. 27). This condition continued until the prophecy of judgment upon Jerusalem was fulfilled (24:25–27; 33:21–22).

3:22,23 plain. Or valley. Ezek. 8:4.

4:1 take a clay tablet. The symbolic actions during the prophet's inability to speak were testimonies to the past wickedness and chastisement of the house of Israel (the whole nation), and prophetic of a coming seige. They are therefore intermediate between the siege of 2 Kin. 24:10–16, at which time Ezekiel was carried to Babylon, and the siege of 2 Kin. 25:1–11, eleven years later.

and ninety days; so you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 "And when you have completed them, lie again on your right side; then you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days. I have laid on you a day for each year.

7 "Therefore you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem; your arm shall be uncovered, and you shall prophesy against it.

8 "And surely I will [a]restrain you so that you cannot turn from one side to another till you have ended the days of your siege.

(2) Defiled bread

9 "Also take for yourself wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt; put them into one vessel, and make bread of them for yourself. During the number of days that you lie on your side, three hundred and ninety days, you shall eat it.

10 "And your food which you eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day; from time to time you shall eat it.

11 "You shall also drink water by measure, one-sixth of a [b]hin; from time to time you shall drink.

12 "And you shall eat it as barley cakes; and bake it using fuel of human waste in their sight."

13 Then the LORD said, "So [c]shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, where I will drive them."

14 So I said, [d]"Ah, Lord GOD! Indeed I have never defiled myself from my youth till now; I have never eaten what died of [e]itself or was torn by beasts, nor has [f]abominable flesh ever come into my mouth."

15 Then He said to me, "See, I am giving you cow dung instead of human waste, and you shall prepare your bread over it."

16 Moreover He said to me, "Son of man, surely I will cut off the [g]supply of bread in Jerusalem; they shall eat bread by weight and with anxiety, and shall drink water by measure and with [h]dread, 17 "that they may lack bread and water, and be dismayed with one another, and [i]waste away because of their iniquity.

(3) The razor and the hair

5 "AND you, son of man, take a sharp sword, take it as a barber's razor, and [j]pass it over your head and your beard; then take scales to weigh and divide the hair.

2 "You shall burn with fire one-third in the midst of the [k]city, when the days of the siege are finished; then you shall take one-third and strike around it with the sword, and one-third you shall scatter in the wind: I will draw out a sword after [l]them.

3 [m]"You shall also take a small number of them and bind them in the edge of your garment.

4 "Then take some of them again and throw them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire. From there a fire will go out into all the house of Israel.

5 "Thus says the Lord GOD: 'This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the midst of the nations and the countries all around her.

6 'She has rebelled against My judgments by doing wickedness more than the nations, and against My statutes more than the countries that are all around her; for they have refused My judgments, and they have not walked in My statutes.'

7 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have multiplied disobedience more than the nations that are all around you, have not walked in My statutes nor kept My judgments, nor even done* according to the judgments of the nations that are all around you'—

8 "therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Indeed I, even I, am against you and will execute judgments in your midst in the sight of the nations.

9 [n]'And I will do among you what I have never done, and the like of which I will never do again, because of all your abominations.

4:5 days. Each day Ezekiel carried out this symbolism for a few hours.

10 'Therefore fathers shall eat their sons in your midst, and sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments among you, and all of you who remain I will [a]scatter to all the winds.

11 'Therefore, as I live,' says the Lord GOD, 'surely, because you have [b]defiled My sanctuary with all your detestable things and with all your abominations, therefore I will also diminish you; [c]My eye will not spare, nor will I have any pity.

12 'One-third of you shall die of the pestilence, and be consumed with famine in your midst; and one-third shall fall by the sword all around you; and I will [d]scatter another third to all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after [e]them.

13 'Thus shall My anger be spent, and I will cause My fury to rest upon them, and I will be [f]avenged; and they shall know that I, the LORD, have [g]spoken it in My zeal, when I have spent My fury upon them.

14 'Moreover I will make you a [h]waste and a reproach among the nations that are all around you, in the sight of all who pass by.

15 'So it* shall be a [i]reproach, a taunt, a [j]lesson, and an [k]astonishment to the nations that are all around you, when I execute judgments among you in anger and in fury and in furious rebukes. I, the LORD, have spoken.

16 'When I send against them the terrible arrows of famine which shall be for destruction, which I will send to destroy you, I will increase the famine upon you and cut off your supply of bread.

17 'So I will send against you famine and wild [l]beasts, and they will bereave you. Pestilence and blood shall pass through you, and I will bring the sword against you. I, the LORD, have spoken.' "

Idolaters to be punished; a remnant to be spared (v. 8)

6 NOW the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

2 "Son of man, set your face toward the [m]mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them,

3 "and say, 'O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, to the hills, to the ravines, and to the valleys: "Indeed I, even I, will bring a sword against you, and I will [n]destroy your high places.

4 "Then your altars shall be desolate, your incense altars shall be broken, and I will [o]cast down your slain men before your idols.

5 "And I will lay the corpses of the children of Israel before their idols, and I will scatter your [p]bones all around your altars.

6 "In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate, so that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, your idols may be broken and made to cease, your incense altars may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

7 "The slain shall fall in your midst, and you shall know that I am the LORD.

8 "Yet I will leave a [q]remnant, so that you may have some who escape the sword among the nations, when you are [r]scattered through the countries.

9 "Then those of you who escape will [s]remember Me among the nations where they are carried captive, because I was crushed by their adulterous heart which has departed from Me, and by their eyes which play the harlot after their idols; they will [t]loathe themselves for the evils which they committed in all their abominations.

10 "And they shall know that I am the LORD; I have not said in vain that I would bring this calamity upon them."

Idolaters to be slain

11 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [u]"Pound your fists and stamp your feet, and say, 'Alas, for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! For they shall [v]fall by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence.

12 'He who is far off shall die by the pestilence, he who is near shall fall by the sword, and he who re-

7 MOREOVER the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 "And you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD to the land of Israel:

'An [e]end! The end has come upon the four corners of

you,

'A disaster, a singular [i]disaster;
Behold, it has come!
6 An end has come,
The end has come;
It has dawned for you;
Behold, it has come!
7 Doom has come to you, you

For robbers shall enter it and defile it.
23 'Make a [f]chain,
For the land is filled with crimes of blood,
And the city is full of violence.
24 Therefore I will bring the [g]worst of the Gentiles,
And they will possess their houses;
I will cause the pomp of the strong to cease,
And their holy places shall be [h]defiled.
25 Destruction comes;
They will seek peace, but there shall be none.
26 Disaster will come upon disaster,
And rumor will be upon rumor.
[i]Then they will seek a vision from a prophet;
But the law will perish from the priest,
And counsel from the elders.
27 'The king will mourn,
The prince will be clothed with desolation,
And the hands of the common people will tremble.
I will do to them according to their way,
And according to what they deserve I will judge them;
Then they shall know that I am the LORD!' "

Another vision of glory

8 [j]AND it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house with the [k]elders of Judah sitting before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell upon me there.
2 Then I looked, and there was a likeness, like the appearance of fire—from the appearance of His waist and downward, fire; and from His waist and upward, like the appearance of brightness, like the color of [l]amber.
3 He stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my hair; and the [m]Spirit [n]lifted me up

7:27 know that I am the LORD. Divine justice is one of the evidences of the living God. Just as the LORD announces through Ezekiel that retribution upon the wicked leaders of Israel will convince them that He is the LORD ("they shall know that I am the LORD"), so in the final judgment of the wicked the ultimate justice of God will leave no doubt of His reality.

8:1 sixth year. Approximately 592 B.C. sixth month. This is the month of Elul in the Hebrew religious calendar. It correlates to the modern months of August–September. For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev. 23:2.

8:3 lock of my hair. It had been a year or more since Ezekiel was required to shave off the hair of his head and his beard, so that his hair had had ample time to grow in. Compare Ezek. 1:1; 5:1.

between earth and heaven, and brought me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the north gate of the inner court, [a]where the seat of the image of jealousy was, [b]which provokes to jealousy.

4 And behold, the [c]glory of the God of Israel was there, like the vision that I saw in the plain.

The temple defiled

5 Then He said to me, "Son of man, lift your eyes now toward the north." So I lifted my eyes toward the north, and there, north of the altar gate, was this image of jealousy in the entrance.

6 Furthermore He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great [d]abominations that the house of Israel commits here, to make Me go far away from My sanctuary? Now turn again, you will see greater abominations."

7 So He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, there was a hole in the wall.

8 Then He said to me, "Son of man, dig into the wall"; and when I dug into the wall, there was a door.

9 And He said to me, "Go in, and see the wicked abominations which they are doing there."

10 So I went in and saw, and there—every [e]sort of [f]creeping thing, abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed all around on the walls.

11 And there stood before them [g]seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, and in their midst stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan. Each man had a censer in his hand, and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12 Then He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the room of his idols? For they say, 'The LORD does [h]not see us, the LORD has forsaken the land.' "

13 And He said to me, "Turn again, and you will see greater abominations that they are doing."

14 So He brought me to the door of the north gate of the LORD's house; and to my dismay, women were sitting there weeping for Tammuz.

15 Then He said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Turn again, you will see greater abominations than these."

16 So He brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house; and there, at the door of the temple of the LORD, [i]between the porch and the altar, were about [j]twenty-five men with their backs toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east, and they were worshiping the [k]sun toward the east.

17 And He said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it a trivial thing to the house of Judah to commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence; then they have returned to provoke Me to anger. Indeed they put the branch to their nose.

18 "Therefore I also will act in fury. My eye will not [l]spare nor will I have pity; and though they [m]cry in My ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them."

8:3 EZEKIEL'S FOUR VISIONS

The four visions of ch. 8 emphasize the profanation of God in the very temple set aside to His worship. Idolatry was present and unchecked (vv. 5,10–11); women were participating in the immoral cult of Tammuz; and sun worshipers brazenly turned their backs to the temple (v. 16).

Although Ezekiel was actually by the River Chebar (1:1,3; 3:23; 10:15,20,22; 43:3), in a vision he was transported back to Jerusalem. These profanations going on in the temple area were shown to the prophet so that he might justify to the new generation, born and growing up in Assyria and Babylon, the righteousness of God in the present chastening. Because of sins like these, past and present, the captivities were necessitated. This strain continues through the book to 33:21.

Interspersed with the various visions are promises of restoration and blessing to be brought about by Israel's repentance. See Israel (Gen. 12:2–3; Rom. 11:26, note); also Kingdom (OT) (Gen. 1:26–28; Zech. 12:6–8 and note at v. 8).

Vision of the slaying in Jerusalem

9 THEN He called out in my hearing with a loud voice, saying, "Let those who have charge over the city draw near, each with a deadly weapon in his hand."

2 And suddenly six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with his battle-ax in his hand. One man among them was clothed with [a]linen and had a writer's inkhorn at his side. They went in and stood beside the bronze altar.

3 Now the [b]glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub, where it had been, to the threshold of the temple.* And He called to the man clothed with linen, who had the writer's inkhorn at his side;

4 and the LORD said to him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and put a mark on the [c]foreheads of the [d]men who sigh and cry over all the abominations that are done within it."

5 To the others He said in my hearing, "Go after him through the city and [e]kill; do not let your eye spare, nor have any pity.

6 [f]"Utterly slay old and young men, maidens and little children and women; but do not come near anyone on whom is the mark; and [g]begin at My sanctuary." So they began with the [h]elders who were before the temple.

7 Then He said to them, "Defile the temple, and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!" And they went out and killed in the city.

8 So it was, that while they were killing them, I was left alone; and I fell on my face and cried out, and [i]said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Will You destroy all the remnant of Israel in pouring out Your fury on Jerusalem?"

9 Then He said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the [j]land is full of bloodshed, and the city full of perversity; for they say, 'The LORD has forsaken the land, and the LORD does [k]not see!'

10 "And as for Me also, My eye will [l]neither spare, nor will I have pity, but I will recompense their deeds on their own head."

11 Just then, the man clothed with linen, who had the inkhorn at his side, reported back and said, "I have done as You commanded me."

Vision of God's glory departing from the temple at Jerusalem (v. 18)

10 AND I looked, and there in the [m]firmament that was above the head of the cherubim, there appeared something like a sapphire stone, having the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

2 Then He spoke to the man [n]clothed with linen, and said, "Go in among the wheels, under the cherub, fill your hands with [o]coals of fire from among the cherubim, and [p]scatter them over the city." And he went in as I watched.

3 Now the cherubim were standing on the south side of the temple* when the man went in, and the [q]cloud filled the inner court.

4 Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and paused over the threshold of the temple; and the [r]house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's [s]glory.

5 And the [t]sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even in the outer court, like the [u]voice of Almighty God when He speaks.

6 Then it happened, when He commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from among the wheels, from among the cherubim," that he went in and stood beside the wheels.

7 And the cherub stretched out his hand from among the cherubim to the fire that was among the cherubim, and took some of it and put it

9:3 gone up from the cherub. It is noteworthy that to Ezekiel the priest was given the vision of the glory of the LORD departing (1) from the cherubim to the threshold of the temple (v. 3; 10:4); (2) from the threshold (10:18); (3) from temple and city to the mountain on the east of Jerusalem, Olivet (11:23); and (4) returning to the millennial temple to abide (43:2–5).

into the hands of the man clothed with linen, who took it and went out.

8 The cherubim appeared to have the form of a man's hand under their [a]wings.

9 And when I looked, there were [b]four wheels by the cherubim, one wheel by one cherub and another wheel by each other cherub; the wheels appeared to have the color of a beryl stone.

10 As for their appearance, all four looked alike—as it were, a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

11 [c]When they went, they went toward any of their four directions; they did not turn aside when they went, but followed in the direction the head was facing. They did not turn aside when they went.

12 And their whole body, with their back, their hands, their wings, and the wheels that the four had, were [d]full of eyes all around.

13 As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, "Wheel."

14 Each one had [e]four [f]faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, the second face the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubim were lifted up. [g]This was the living creature I saw by the River Chebar.

16 When the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also did not turn from beside them.

17 When *the cherubim stood still, the wheels stood still, and when *one was lifted up, *the other lifted itself up, for the [h]spirit of the living creature was in [h]them.

18 Then the glory of the LORD [i]departed from the threshold of the temple and stood over the cherubim.

19 And the cherubim lifted their wings and mounted up from the earth in my sight. When they went out, the wheels were beside them; and they stood at the door of the [j]east gate of the LORD's house, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

20 [k]This is the living creature I saw under the God of Israel by the River Chebar, and I knew they were cherubim.

21 Each one had four faces and each one four wings, and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

22 And the likeness of their faces was the same as the faces which I had seen by the River Chebar, their appearance and their persons. They each went straight [l]forward.

Wicked leaders to be judged

11 THEN the [m]Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the [n]East Gate of the LORD's house, which faces eastward; and there at the door of the gate were [o]twenty-five men, among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of [p]Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.

2 And He said to me: "Son of man, these are the men who [q]devise iniquity and give wicked counsel in this city,

3 "who say, 'The time is not near to build houses; this city is the caldron, and we are the meat.'

4 "Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man!"

5 Then the [r]Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said to me, "Speak! 'Thus says the LORD: "Thus you have said, O house of Israel; for I [s]know the things that come into your mind.

6 "You have [t]multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the slain."

7 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Your slain whom you have laid in its midst, they are the meat, and this city is the [u]caldron; but I shall [v]bring you out of the midst of it.

8 "You have [w]feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you," says the Lord GOD.

9 "And I will bring you out of its

13 Now it happened, while I was prophesying, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I fell on my face and cried with a loud voice, and said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Will You make a complete end of the remnant of Israel?"

Promise of restoration of remnant of Israel to the land

14 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

15 "Son of man, your brethren, your relatives, your countrymen, and [d]all the house of Israel in its entirety, are those about whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'Get far away from the LORD; this land has been given to us as a possession.'

16 "Therefore say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Although I have cast them far off among the Gentiles, and although I have [e]scattered them among the countries, yet I shall be a little [f]sanctuary for them in the countries where they have gone." '

17 "Therefore say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "I will [g]gather you from the peoples, assemble you from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel." '

18 "And they will go there, and they will take away all its [h]detestable things and all its abominations from there.

19 "Then I will [i]give them one heart, and I will [j]put a new spirit within them,* and take the stony heart out of their flesh, and give them a heart of flesh, 20 "that they may walk in My statutes and keep My judgments and do them; and [k]they shall be My people, and I will be their God.

21 "But as for those whose hearts follow the desire for their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their deeds on their own heads," says the Lord GOD.

Vision of glory departing from Mount of Olives (cp. Ezek. 43:1–4)

22 So the cherubim lifted up their wings, with the wheels beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel was high above them.

23 And the [l]glory of the LORD [m]went up from the midst of the city and stood on the mountain, which is on the east side of the city.

24 Then the [n]Spirit took me up and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea,* to those in captivity. And the vision that I had seen went up from me.

25 So I spoke to those in captivity of all the things the LORD had shown me.

12 NOW the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

2 "Son of man, you dwell in the midst of a rebellious house, which has eyes to see but does [o]not see, and ears to hear but does [o]not hear; for they are a rebellious house.

11:16 sanctuary. Even in drastic judgment, as in the case of the dispersion of Israel, God provides for His people a place of refuge. This refuge, called here "a little sanctuary," is the LORD Himself (compare Ps. 90:1; 91:9; Is. 4:6). So with all of God's own, Gentile as well as Jew, in the midst of deserved judgment there is still a sanctuary of refuge and peace in Him.

11:23 city. The departure of the divine glory (the visible symbol of God's presence) from the temple, marks the end of the theocratic kingdom in OT history. On the mount of transfiguration the glory of God was manifested to our Lord's disciples (Matt. 17:1–5; compare also John 1:14; 2 Cor. 4:6; James 2:1; 2 Pet. 1:16–18). The visible glory will return when the kingdom is restored to Israel (Ezek. 43:1–7; Rev. 21:22–24).

3 "Therefore, son of man, prepare your belongings for [a]captivity, and go into captivity by day in their sight. You shall go from your place into captivity to another place in their sight. [b]It may be that they will consider, though they are a rebellious house.

4 "By day you shall bring out your belongings in their sight, as though going into [c]captivity; and at evening you shall go in their sight, like those who go into captivity.

5 "Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry your belongings out through it.

6 "In their sight you shall bear them on your shoulders and carry them out at twilight; you shall cover your face, so that you cannot see the ground, for I have made you a [d]sign to the house of Israel."

7 So I did as I was commanded. I brought out my belongings by day, as though going into captivity, and at evening I dug through the wall with my hand. I brought them out at twilight, and I bore them on my shoulder in their sight.

8 And in the morning the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

9 "Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, [e]'What are you doing?'

10 "Say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "This [f]burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are among them." '

11 "Say, 'I am a sign to you. As I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall be carried away into captivity.'

12 "And the [g]prince who is among them shall bear his belongings on his shoulder at twilight and go out. They shall dig through the wall to carry them out through it. He shall cover his face, so that he cannot see the ground with his eyes.

13 "I will also spread My net over him, and [h]he shall be caught in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans; yet he shall [i]not see it, though he shall die there.

14 "I will [j]scatter to every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his troops; and I will draw out the sword after them.

15 "Then they shall [k]know that I am the LORD, when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries.

16 "But I will spare a few of their men from the sword, from famine, and from pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the Gentiles wherever they go. Then they shall know that I am the LORD."

Full captivity near at hand
(cp. 2 Kin. 25:1–10)

17 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

18 "Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and [l]anxiety.

19 "And say to the people of the land, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the land of Israel: "They shall eat their bread with [m]anxiety, and drink their water with dread, so that her land may be emptied of all who are in it, because of the violence of all those who dwell in it.

20 "Then the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall become desolate; and you shall know that I am the LORD." ' "

21 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

22 "Son of man, what is this proverb that you people have about the land of Israel, which says, 'The [n]days are prolonged, and every vision fails'?

23 "Tell them therefore, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "I will lay this proverb to rest, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel." But say to them, "The [o]days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision.

26 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27 "Son of man, look, the house of Israel is saying, 'The vision that he sees is [c]for many days from now, and he prophesies of times far off.'

28 "Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "None of My words will be postponed any more, but the word which I speak [d]will be done," says the Lord GOD.' "

Lying prophets condemned

13 AND the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 "Son of man, prophesy [e]against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own [f]heart, 'Hear the word of the LORD!' "

3 Thus says the Lord GOD: "Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing!

4 "O Israel, your prophets are like foxes in the deserts.

5 [g]"You have not gone up into the gaps to build a wall for the house of Israel to stand in battle on the day of the LORD.

6 "They have envisioned [h]futility and false divination, saying, 'Thus says the LORD!' But the LORD has [i]not sent them; yet they hope that the word may be confirmed.

7 "Have you not seen a futile vision, and have you not spoken false divination? You say, 'The LORD says,' but I have not spoken."

8 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Because you have spoken nonsense and envisioned lies, therefore I am indeed against you," says the Lord GOD.

9 "My hand will be [j]against the prophets who envision futility and who [k]divine lies; they shall not be in the assembly of My people, [l]nor be written in the record of the house of Israel, nor shall they enter into the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

10 "Because, indeed, because they have seduced My people, saying, [m]'Peace!' when there is no [n]peace—and one builds a wall, and they [o]plaster it with untempered mortar—

11 "say to those who plaster it with untempered mortar, that it will fall. There will be [p]flooding rain, and you, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall tear it down.

12 "Surely, when the wall has fallen, will it not be said to you, 'Where is the mortar with which you plastered it?' "

13 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I will cause a stormy wind to break forth in My fury; and there shall be a flooding rain in My anger, and great hailstones in fury to consume it.

14 "So I will break down the wall you have plastered with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be uncovered; it will fall, and you shall be consumed in the midst of it. Then you shall [q]know that I am the LORD.

15 "Thus will I accomplish My wrath on the wall and on those who have plastered it with untempered mortar; and I will say to you, 'The wall is no more, nor those who plastered it, 16 'that is, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who [r]see visions of peace for her when there is no peace,' " says the Lord GOD.

17 "Likewise, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart; prophesy against them,

18 "and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Woe to the women who sew magic charms on their sleeves* and make veils for the heads of people of every height to hunt souls! [s]Will

Idolatrous elders of Israel condemned

14 NOW some of the elders of Israel [e]came to me and sat before me.

2 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

3 "Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their hearts, and put before them [f]that which causes them to stumble into iniquity. Should I let Myself be [g]inquired of at all by them?

4 "Therefore speak to them, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Everyone of the house of Israel who sets up his idols in his heart, and puts before him what causes him to stumble into iniquity, and then comes to the prophet, I the LORD will answer him who comes, according to the multitude of his idols,

5 "that I may seize the house of Israel by their heart, because they are all estranged from Me by their idols." '

6 "Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Repent, turn away from your idols, and [h]turn your faces away from all your abominations.

7 "For anyone of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell in Israel, who separates himself from Me and sets up his idols in his heart and puts before him what causes him to stumble into iniquity, then comes to a prophet to [i]inquire of him concerning Me, I the LORD will answer him by Myself.

8 "I will [j]set My face against that man and [k]make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of My people. Then you shall [l]know that I am the LORD.

9 "And if the prophet is induced to speak anything, I the LORD have [m]induced that prophet, and I will stretch out My hand against him and destroy him from among My people Israel.

10 "And they shall bear their iniquity; the punishment of the prophet shall be the same as the punishment of the one who inquired,

11 [n]"that the house of Israel may no longer stray from Me, nor be profaned anymore with all their transgressions, but that they may be My people and I [o]may be their God," says the Lord GOD.' "

12 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying:

21 For thus says the Lord GOD: "How much more it shall be when I send My [e]four severe judgments on Jerusalem—the sword and famine and wild beasts and pestilence—to cut off man and beast from it?

22 "Yet behold, there shall be left in it a [f]remnant who will be [g]brought out, both sons and daughters; surely they will come out to you, and you will see their ways and their doings. Parable of the useless vine
(cp. Is. 5:1–24)

15 THEN the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

2 "Son of man, how is the wood of the [j]vine better than any other wood, the vine branch which is among the trees of the forest?

3 "Is wood taken from it to make any object? Or can men make a peg from it to hang any vessel on?

4 "Instead, it is thrown into the [k]fire for fuel; the fire devours both ends of it, and its middle is burned. Is it useful for any work?

5 "Indeed, when it was whole, no object could be made from it. How much less will it be useful for any work when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned?

6 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Like the wood of the [l]vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give up the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

7 'and I will [m]set My face against them. They will go out from one fire, but another fire shall devour them. Then you shall know that I

15:2 THE VINE

The vine, as described by Ezekiel, symbolizes unregenerate man in general and sinful Israel in particular. Just as the vine wood is tough, twisted, unworkable, and fit only for fuel, so Israel, recalcitrant in sin, is fit only for judgment.

Whereas in ch. 15 (and in Is. 5 also) the vine pictures only judgment, in John 15 Christ uses it to portray the living union between Himself and the believer. Here the intrinsic worthlessness of the wood is wholly subordinated to the single, positive function of the vine—that of bearing fruit. Thus our Lord takes the figure of the vine wood, representative in Ezekiel of humanity ruined in sin, and transforms it into the parable of Himself as the Vine and Christians as His branches, bearing fruit for Him.

The LORD's grace to unfaithful Jerusalem

16 AGAIN the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 "Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her [a]abominations,

3 "and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem: "Your birth and your nativity are from the land of Canaan; your father was an [b]Amorite and your mother a Hittite.

4 "As for your nativity, [c]on the day you were born your navel cord was not cut, nor were you washed in water to cleanse you; you were not rubbed with salt nor wrapped in swaddling cloths.

5 "No eye pitied you, to do any of these things for you, to have compassion on you; but you were thrown out into the open field, when you yourself were loathed on the day you were born.

6 "And when I passed by you and saw you struggling in your own blood, I said to you in your blood, 'Live!' Yes, I said to you in your blood, 'Live!'

7 "I made you thrive like a plant in the field; and you grew, matured, and became very beautiful. Your breasts were formed, your hair grew, but you were naked and bare.

8 "When I passed by you again and looked upon you, indeed your time was the time of [d]love; so I spread My wing over you and covered your nakedness. Yes, I [e]swore an oath to you and entered into a [f]covenant with you, and [g]you became Mine," says the Lord GOD.

9 "Then I washed you in water; yes, I thoroughly washed off your blood, and I anointed you with oil.

10 "I clothed you in embroidered cloth and gave you sandals of badger skin; I clothed you with fine linen and covered you with silk.

11 "I adorned you with ornaments, put bracelets on your wrists, and a chain on your neck.

12 "And I put a jewel [h]in your nose, earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head.

13 "Thus you were adorned with gold and silver, and your clothing was of fine linen, silk, and embroidered cloth. You ate pastry of fine flour, honey, and oil. You were exceedingly beautiful, and succeeded to [i]royalty.

14 "Your fame went out among the nations because of your [j]beauty, for it was perfect through My splendor which I had bestowed on you," says the Lord GOD.

From Egyptian monuments (Tell el-Amarna Tablets) and the Assyrian texts, it has been shown that these were the Kheta or Hatti. Expeditions in the first dozen years of this century have revealed that Boghaz-koi in Asia Minor (east of Ankara, Turkey) was the capital of the Hittite Empire. 24 "that you also built for yourself a shrine, and [d]made a high place for yourself in every street.

25 "You built your high places at the head of every road, and made your beauty to be abhorred. You offered yourself to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your acts of harlotry.

26 "You also committed harlotry with the [e]Egyptians, your very fleshly neighbors, and increased your acts of harlotry to [f]provoke Me to anger.

27 "Behold, therefore, I stretched out My hand against you, diminished your allotment, and gave you up to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the [g]Philistines, who were [h]ashamed of your lewd behavior.

28 "You also played the harlot with the [i]Assyrians, because you were insatiable; indeed you played the harlot with them and still were not satisfied.

29 "Moreover you multiplied your acts of harlotry as far as the land of the trader, [j]Chaldea; and even then you were not satisfied.

30 "How degenerate is your heart!" says the Lord GOD, "seeing you do all these things, the deeds of a [k]brazen harlot.

31 "You erected your shrine at the head of every road, and built your high place in every street. Yet you were not like a harlot, because you scorned [l]payment.

39 "I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your shrines and break down your high places. They shall also strip you of your clothes, take your beautiful jewelry, and leave you naked and bare.

43 "Because you did not remember the days of your youth, but agitated Me* with all these things, surely I will also [a]recompense your deeds on your own head," says the Lord GOD. "And you shall not commit lewdness in addition to all your abominations.

44 "Indeed everyone who quotes proverbs will use this proverb against you: 'Like mother, like daughter!'

45 "You are your mother's daughter, loathing husband and children; and you are the [b]sister of your sisters, who [c]loathed their husbands and children; your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

46 "Your elder sister is [d]Samaria, who dwells with her daughters to the north of you; and your younger sister, who dwells to the south of you, is Sodom and her daughters.

47 "You did not walk in their ways nor act according to their abominations; but, as if that were too little, you became [e]more corrupt than they in all your ways.

48 "As I live," says the Lord GOD, "neither your sister [f]Sodom nor her daughters have done as you and your daughters have done.

49 "Look, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: She and her daughter had [g]pride, [h]fullness of food, and abundance of [i]idleness; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and [j]needy.

50 "And they were haughty and [k]committed abomination before Me; therefore I took them away as I saw *fit.

51 "Samaria did not commit [l]half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters by all the abominations which you have done.

52 "You who [m]judged your sisters, bear your own shame also, because the sins which you committed were more abominable than theirs; they are more righteous than you. Yes, be disgraced also, and bear your own shame, because you justified your sisters.

53 [n]"When I bring back their captives, the captives of Sodom and her daughters, and the captives of Samaria and her daughters, then I will also bring back the captives of your captivity among them, 55 "When your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, return to their former state, and Samaria and her daughters return to their former state, then you and your daughters will return to your former state.

56 "For your sister Sodom was not a byword in your mouth in the days of your pride, 57 "before your wickedness was uncovered. It was like the time of the [o]reproach of the daughters of Syria* and all those around her, and of the daughters of the Philistines, who despise you everywhere.

From Egyptian monuments (Tell el-Amarna Tablets) and the Assyrian texts, it has been shown that these were the Kheta or Hatti. Expeditions in the first dozen years of this century have revealed that Boghaz-koi in Asia Minor (east of Ankara, Turkey) was the capital of the Hittite Empire. Parable of the two eagles (vv. 3,7)

17 AND the word of the LORD came to me, [g]saying,
2 "Son of man, pose a riddle, and speak a [h]parable to the house of Israel,
3 "and say, 'Thus says the Lord
GOD:

"A great eagle with large wings
and long pinions,
Full of feathers of various colors,
Came to Lebanon
And took from the cedar the highest branch.
4 He cropped off its topmost
young twig
And carried it to a land of trade;
He set it in a city of merchants.
5 Then he took some of the seed of the land
And planted it in a fertile field;
He placed it by abundant waters
And set it like a willow tree.
6 And it grew and became a spreading vine of low stature;
Its branches turned toward him,
But its roots were under it.
So it became a vine,
Brought forth branches,
And put forth shoots.

7 "But there was another* great eagle with large wings and many feathers;
And behold, this vine bent its roots toward him,
And stretched its branches
toward him,
From the garden terrace where it had been planted,
That he might water it.
8 It was planted in good soil by many waters,
To bring forth branches, bear fruit,
And become a majestic vine." '

9 "Say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Will it thrive?
[i]Will he not pull up its roots,
Cut off its fruit,
And leave it to wither?
All of its spring leaves will wither,
And no great power or many
people
Will be needed to pluck it up by its roots.
10 Behold, it is planted,
Will it thrive?
Will it not utterly wither when the [j]east wind touches it?
It will wither in the garden terrace where it grew." ' "

m Jer. 37:1

16:60 remember. It must ever be a source of encouragement to God's people to have the assurance from His Word that He remains faithful even when they themselves are unfaithful (2 Tim. 2:13). There could be no hope of salvation were this not true. covenant. In its first use in this verse, the word "covenant" alludes to the Palestinian Covenant (see Deut. 30:3, note); in its second usage, to the New Covenant (see Heb. 8:8, note).

14 'that the kingdom might be brought low and not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand.
15 'But he [a]rebelled against him by sending his ambassadors to Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Will he prosper? Will he who does such things escape?
Can he break a covenant and still be delivered?
16 'As I live,' says the Lord GOD,
'surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke—with him in the midst of Babylon he shall [b]die.
17 [c]'Nor will Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company do anything in the war, [d]when they heap up a siege mound and build a wall to cut off many persons.
18 'Since he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, and in fact [e]gave his hand and still did all these things, he shall not escape.' "
19 Therefore thus says the Lord
GOD: "As I live, surely My oath which he despised, and My covenant which he broke, I will recompense on his own head.
20 "I will spread My net over him, and he shall be taken in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon and try him there for the treason which he committed against Me.
21 "All his fugitives* with all his troops shall fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be [f]scattered to every wind; and you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken."
22 Thus says the Lord GOD: "I will take also one of the highest [g]branches of the high cedar and set it out. I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a [h]tender one, and will [i]plant it on a high and prominent mountain.
23 "On the [j]mountain height of Israel I will [k]plant it; and it will bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a majestic cedar. [l]Under it will dwell birds of every sort; in the shadow of its branches they will dwell.
24 "And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, have brought down the high tree and exalted the low tree, dried up the green tree and made the dry tree
[m]flourish; I, the LORD, have spoken and have done it."

18:24 ETERNAL SECURITY

This and similar passages in Ezekiel (e.g. 3:17–21; 33:10–20) have been understood by some to teach that a Christian may lose his righteous standing before God. But in support of the security of the believer it should be observed that these passages in Ezekiel do not necessarily teach the eternal loss of a saved person, because the word "righteous" may refer to ceremonial religion (compare Matt. 5:20) and not to "the righteousness which is from God by faith" (compare Phil. 3:7–9).

Moreover, the punishment threatened may refer only to physical death rather than to eternal death. In any case, these texts in Ezekiel must be considered in the light of such NT affirmations as John 10:28; Rom. 5:8–9; 8:38–39; Phil. 1:6; etc. that so clearly teach the security of the believer.

done shall [a]not be remembered; because of the unfaithfulness of which he is guilty and the sin which he has committed, because of them he shall [b]die.

25 "Yet you say, 'The [c]way of the Lord is not fair.' Hear now, O house of Israel, is it not My way which is fair, and your ways which are not fair?

26 "When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness, commits iniquity, and dies in it, it is because of the iniquity which he has done that he dies.

27 "Again, when a wicked man turns away from the wickedness which he committed, and does what is lawful and right, he preserves himself alive.

28 "Because he considers and turns away from all the transgressions which he committed, he shall surely live; he shall not die.

29 "Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' O house of Israel, is it not My ways which are fair, and your ways which are not fair?

30 "Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways," says the Lord GOD. [d]"Repent, and turn from all your transgressions, so that iniquity will not be your ruin.

31 [e]"Cast away from you all the transgressions which you have committed, and get yourselves a [f]new heart and a new spirit. For why should you die, O house of Israel?

God's dealing with Israel vindicated

20 IT came to pass in the [c]seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and [d]sat before me.

2 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

3 "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Have you come to inquire of Me? As I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will [e]not be inquired of by you." '

4 "Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Then make known to them the abominations of their fathers.

5 "Say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "On the day when I [f]chose Israel and raised My hand in an oath to the descendants of the house of Jacob, and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt, I raised My hand in an oath to them, saying, 'I am the LORD your God.'

6 "On that day I raised My hand in an oath to them, to [g]bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, [h]'flowing with milk and honey,' the glory of all lands.

7 "Then I said to them, 'Each of you, throw away the abominations which are before his eyes, and do not [i]defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.'

8 "But they rebelled against Me and would not obey Me. They did not all cast away the abominations which were before their eyes, [j]nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said, 'I will pour out My fury on them and fulfill My anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.'

9 "But I [k]acted for My name's sake, that it should not be profaned before the Gentiles among whom they were, in whose sight I had made Myself [l]known to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt.

10 "Therefore I made them go out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness.

11 "And [m]I gave them My statutes and showed them My judgments, 'which, if a man does, he shall [n]live by them.'

12 "Moreover I also gave them My [o]Sabbaths, to be a sign between them and Me, that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

13 "Yet the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness; they did not walk in My statutes; they despised My judgments, 'which, if a man does, he shall live by them'; and they greatly defiled My Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out My fury on them in the wilderness, to consume them.

14 "But I acted for My name's sake, that it should not be profaned before the Gentiles, in whose sight I had brought them out.

20:1 seventh year. Approximately 591 B.C. fifth month. This is the month of Ab in the Hebrew religious calendar. It correlates to the modern months of July–August. For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev. 23:2.

20:14 For My name's sake expresses one of God's motives in dealing with humanity. Although it means so little to most men, the name of the LORD is infinitely precious to Him. See 36:20, where the LORD says of unfaithful Israel, "they profaned My holy name," and the following verse, where He says of Himself, "I had concern for My holy name." Consistent with His holiness, God is concerned to vindicate the honor of His name.

15 [a]"So I also raised My hand in an oath to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, 'flowing with milk and honey,' the glory of all lands,
16 "because they despised My judgments and did not walk in My statutes, but profaned My Sabbaths; [b]for their heart went after their idols.
17 "Nevertheless My eye spared them from destruction. I did not make an end of them in the wilderness.
18 "But I said to their children in the wilderness, 'Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, nor observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols.
19 'I am the LORD your God: Walk in My statutes, keep My judgments, and do them;
20 [c]'hallow My Sabbaths, and they will be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.'
21 "Notwithstanding, the [d]children rebelled against Me; they did not walk in My statutes, and were not careful to observe My judgments, 'which, if a man does, he shall live by them'; but they profaned My Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out My fury on them and fulfill My anger against them in the wilderness.
22 "Nevertheless I withdrew My hand and acted for My name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the Gentiles, in whose sight
I had brought them out.
23 "Also I raised My hand in an oath to those in the wilderness, that I would [e]scatter them among the Gentiles and disperse them throughout the countries,
24 "because they had not executed My judgments, but had despised My statutes, profaned My Sabbaths, and their eyes were fixed on their fathers' idols.
25 "Therefore I also [f]gave them up to statutes that were not good, and judgments by which they could not live;
26 "and I pronounced them unclean because of their ritual gifts, in that they caused all [g]their firstborn to pass through the fire, that I might make them desolate and that they might know that I am the LORD." ' 27 "Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and say to them,
'Thus says the Lord GOD: "In this too your fathers have [h]blasphemed Me,
by being unfaithful to Me.
28 "When I brought them into the land concerning which I had raised
My hand in an oath to give them, and they saw all the high hills and all the thick trees, there they offered their sacrifices and provoked Me with their offerings. There they also sent up their sweet aroma and poured out their drink offerings.
29 "Then I said to them, 'What is this high place to which you go?' So its name is called Bamah to this day." '
30 "Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:
"Are you defiling yourselves in the manner of your [i]fathers, and committing harlotry according to their [j]abominations?
31 "For when you offer your gifts and make your sons pass through the fire, you defile yourselves with all your idols, even to this day. So shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will [k]not be inquired of by you.
32 "What you have in your mind shall never be, when you say, 'We will be like the Gentiles, like the families in other countries, serving wood and stone.'

God will establish Israel in her land

33 "As I live," says the Lord GOD,
"surely with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with fury poured out, I [l]will [m]rule over you.
34 "I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you are scattered, with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with fury poured out.
35 "And I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there

I will plead My case with you face to face.

36 [a]"Just as I pleaded My case with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will plead My case with you," says the Lord GOD.

37 "I will make you [b]pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the [c]covenant;

38 "I will [d]purge the rebels from among you, and those who transgress against Me; I will bring them out of the country where they dwell, but they shall not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

39 "As for you, O house of Israel," thus says the Lord GOD: [e]"Go, serve every one of you his idols—and hereafter—if you will not obey Me; but profane My holy name no more with your gifts and your idols.

40 "For on My holy mountain, on the mountain height of Israel," says the Lord GOD, "there [f]all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, shall serve Me; there I will [g]accept them, and there I will require your offerings and the firstfruits of your sacrifices, together with all your holy things.

41 "I will accept you as a sweet aroma when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you have been scattered; and I will be hallowed in you before the Gentiles.

42 "Then you shall know that I am the LORD, [h]when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for which I raised My hand in an oath to give to your fathers.

43 "And there you shall remember your ways and all your doings with which you were defiled; and you shall [i]loathe yourselves in your own sight because of all the evils that you have committed.

44 "Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I have dealt with you for My name's sake, not according to your wicked ways nor according to your corrupt doings, O house of Israel," says the Lord GOD.' "

45 Furthermore the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

46 "Son of man, set your face toward the south; preach against the south and prophesy against the forest land, the South,*

47 "and say to the forest of the South, 'Hear the word of the LORD! Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree and every dry tree in you; the blazing flame shall not be quenched, and all faces [j]from the south to the north shall be scorched by it.

48 "All flesh shall see that I, the LORD, have kindled it; it shall not be quenched." ' "

49 Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! They say of me, 'Does he not speak [k]parables?' "

21 AND the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

3 "and say to the land of Israel, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I am [m]against you, and I will draw My sword out of its sheath and cut off both [n]righteous and wicked from you.

4 "Because I will cut off both righteous and wicked from you, therefore My sword shall go out of its sheath against [o]all flesh from south to north,

20:37 pass under the rod. The passage is a prophecy of future judgment upon Israel, regathered from all nations (Gen. 12:3; see notes at Is. 1:26 and Rom. 11:26). The issue of this judgment determines who of Israel in that day will enter kingdom blessing (Ps. 50:1–7; Ezek. 20:33–44; Mal. 3:2–5; 4:1–2). Regarding other judgments, see notes at Matt. 25:32; John 12:31; 1 Cor. 11:31; 2 Cor. 5:10; Jude 6; Rev. 20:12.

you shall answer, 'Because of the news; when it comes, every heart will melt, all hands will be [a]feeble, every spirit will faint, and all knees will be weak as water. Behold, it is coming and shall be brought to pass,' says the Lord GOD."

8 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

9 "Son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says the LORD!' Say:

'A [b]sword, a sword is sharpened
And also polished!
10 Sharpened to make a dreadful slaughter,
Polished to flash like lightning!
Should we then make mirth?
It despises the scepter of My son,
As it does all wood.
11 And He has given it to be polished,
That it may be handled;
This sword is sharpened, and it is polished
To be given into the hand of the slayer.'

12 "Cry and wail, son of man;
For it will be against My people,
Against all the [c]princes of Israel.
Terrors including the sword will be against My people;
Therefore strike your thigh.

13 "Because it is a testing,
And what if the sword despises even the scepter?
The scepter shall be no more,"

says the Lord GOD.

14 "You therefore, son of man, prophesy,
And [d]strike your hands together.
The third time let the sword do double damage.
It is the sword that slays,
The sword that slays the great men,
That enters their private chambers.
15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates,
That the heart may melt and many may stumble.
Ah! It is made bright;
It is grasped for slaughter:

16 "Swords at the ready!
Thrust right!
Set your blade!
Thrust left—
Wherever your edge is ordered!

17 "I also will beat [e]My fists together,
And I will cause My [f]fury to rest;
I, the LORD, have spoken."

Jerusalem's doom inevitable

18 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying:

19 "And son of man, appoint for yourself two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to go; both of them shall go from the same land. Make a sign; put it at the head of the road to the city.

20 "Appoint a road for the sword to go to [g]Rabbah of the Ammonites, and to Judah, into [h]fortified Jerusalem.

21 "For the king of Babylon stands at the parting of the road, at the fork of the two roads, to use divination: he shakes the arrows, he consults the images, he looks at the [i]liver.

22 "In his right hand is the divination for Jerusalem: to set up battering rams, to call for a slaughter, to lift the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to heap up a siege mound, and to build a wall.

23 "And it will be to them like a false divination in the eyes of those who have sworn [j]oaths with them; but he will bring their iniquity to remembrance, that they may be taken.

24 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear—because you have come to remembrance, you shall be taken in hand.

Sins of Israel enumerated

22 MOREOVER the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "Now, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Yes, show her all her abominations!
3 "Then say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "The city sheds [j]blood in her own midst, that her time may come; and she makes idols within herself to defile herself.
4 "You have become guilty by the blood which you have [k]shed, and have defiled yourself with the idols which you have made. You have caused your days to draw near, and have come to the end of your years; [l]therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations, and a mockery to all countries.

11 "One commits abomination with his [r]neighbor's wife; another lewdly defiles his [s]daughter-in-law; and another in you violates his sister, his father's [t]daughter.
12 "In you they take [u]bribes to shed blood; you take usury and increase; you have made profit from your neighbors by extortion, and have [v]forgotten Me," says the Lord GOD.
13 "Behold, therefore, I beat My fists at the dishonest profit which you have made, and at the bloodshed which has been in your midst.
14 "Can your heart endure, or can your hands remain strong, in the days when I shall deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken, and will do it.

18 "Son of man, the house of Israel has become [a]dross to Me; they are all bronze, tin, iron, and lead, in the midst of a [b]furnace; they have become dross from silver.
19 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have all become dross, therefore behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.
20 'As men gather silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into the midst of a furnace, to blow fire on it, to [c]melt it; so I will gather you in My anger and in My fury, and I will leave you there and melt you.
21 'Yes, I will gather you and [d]blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and you shall be melted in its midst.
22 'As silver is melted in the midst of a furnace, so shall you be melted in its midst; then you shall know that I, the LORD, have [e]poured out My fury on you.' "

Sins of the leaders and people

23 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
24 "Son of man, say to her: 'You are a land that is [f]not cleansed* or rained on in the day of indignation.'
25 "The [g]conspiracy of her prophets* in her midst is like a roaring lion tearing the prey; they have devoured people; they have taken [h]treasure and precious things; they have made many widows in her midst.
26 "Her [i]priests have violated My [j]law and [k]profaned My holy things; they have [l]not distinguished between the holy and unholy, nor have they made known the difference between the unclean and the clean; and they have hidden their eyes from My Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them.
27 "Her [m]princes in her midst are like wolves tearing the prey, to shed blood, to destroy people, and to get dishonest gain.
28 "Her prophets plastered them with untempered mortar, seeing false visions, and divining [n]lies for them, saying, 'Thus says the Lord GOD,' when the LORD had not spoken.
29 "The people of the land have used oppressions, committed robbery, and mistreated the poor and needy; and they wrongfully [o]oppress the stranger.
30 "So I sought for a man among them who would make a wall, and [p]stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found [q]no one.

22:28 untempered mortar. That is, whitewash.
22:30 Jeremiah was in Jerusalem at that time, but of what value were his prayers for a people who would not repent (Jer. 11:14; compare Ps. 66:18)?
23:3 harlotry. This dark parable of Oholah and Oholibah unmasks the loathsome nature of unfaithfulness to God and provides a corrective for any light view of apostasy. The picture, revolting though it is, shows the awfulness of spiritual adultery whereby the LORD's people, who are one with Him as bride with bridegroom, repudiate their union with Him and give themselves to the service of the world, the flesh, and the devil. Compare James 4:4.

4 Their names: Oholah the elder and Oholibah her [a]sister;
[b]They were Mine,
And they bore sons and daughters.
As for their names,
Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem is Oholibah.

5 "Oholah played the harlot even though she was Mine;
And she lusted for her lovers,
the neighboring Assyrians,
6 Who were clothed in purple,
Captains and rulers,
All of them desirable young
men,
Horsemen riding on horses.
7 Thus she committed her harlotry with them,
All of them choice men of Assyria;
And with all for whom she
lusted,
With all their idols, she defiled herself.
8 She has never given up her harlotry brought from Egypt,
For in her youth they had lain
with her,
Pressed her virgin bosom,
And poured out their immorality upon her.

9 "Therefore I have delivered her
Into the hand of her lovers,
Into the hand of the Assyrians,
For whom she lusted.
10 They [c]uncovered her
nakedness,
Took away her sons and daughters,
And slew her with the sword;
She became a byword among women,
For they had executed judgment on her.

11 "Now although her sister Oholibah saw this, she became [d]more corrupt in her lust than she, and in her harlotry more corrupt than her sister's harlotry.

12 "She lusted for the neighboring [e]Assyrians,
Captains and rulers,
Clothed most gorgeously,
Horsemen riding on horses,
All of them desirable young
men.
13 Then I saw that she was defiled;
Both took the same way.
14 But she increased her harlotry;
She looked at men portrayed on
the wall,
Images of [f]Chaldeans portrayed in vermilion,
15 Girded with belts around their waists,
Flowing turbans on their heads,
All of them looking like captains,
In the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea,
The land of their nativity.
16 As [g]soon as her eyes saw them,
She lusted for them
And sent [h]messengers to them in Chaldea.

17 "Then the Babylonians came to her, into the bed of love,
And they defiled her with their immorality;
So she was defiled by them, and alienated herself from
them.
18 She revealed her harlotry and uncovered her nakedness.
Then [i]I [j]alienated Myself from
her,
As I had alienated Myself from her sister.

19 "Yet she multiplied her harlotry
In calling to remembrance the days of her youth,
When she had played the harlot
in the land of [k]Egypt.
20 For she lusted for her
paramours,
Whose flesh is like the flesh of donkeys,
And whose issue is like the issue of horses.
21 Thus you called to remembrance the lewdness
of your youth,
When the [l]Egyptians pressed your bosom
Because of your youthful breasts.

The Babylonian invasion

22 "Therefore, Oholibah, thus says
the Lord GOD:

'Behold,[a] I will stir up your lovers against you,
From whom you have alienated yourself,
And I will bring them against you from every side:
23 The Babylonians,
All the Chaldeans,
[b]Pekod, Shoa, Koa,
All the Assyrians with them,
All of them desirable young
men,
Governors and rulers,
Captains and men of renown,
All of them riding on horses.
24 And they shall come against
you
With chariots, wagons, and war-horses,
With a horde of people.
They shall array against you Buckler, shield, and helmet all around.

'I will delegate judgment to
them,
And they shall judge you according to their judgments.
25 I will set My [c]jealousy against
you,
And they shall deal furiously
with you;
They shall remove your nose
and your ears,
And your remnant shall fall by the sword;
They shall take your sons and your daughters,
And your remnant shall be devoured by fire.
26 They shall also [d]strip you of your clothes
And take away your beautiful jewelry.

27 'Thus I will make you cease your lewdness and your harlotry
Brought from the land of Egypt,
So that you will not lift your eyes to them,
Nor remember Egypt anymore.'

28 "For thus says the Lord GOD:
'Surely I will deliver you [e]into the hand of those you hate, into the hand of those from whom [f]you alienated yourself.
29[g] 'They will deal hatefully with you, take away all you have worked for, and leave you naked and bare.
The nakedness of your harlotry shall be uncovered, both your lewdness and your harlotry.
30 'I will do these things to you because you have gone as a harlot after the Gentiles, because you have become defiled by their idols.
31 'You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will put her [h]cup in your hand.'
32 "Thus says the Lord GOD:

'You shall drink of your sister's cup,
The deep and wide one;
[i]You shall be laughed to scorn
And held in derision;
It contains much.
33 You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow,
The cup of horror and
desolation,
The cup of your sister Samaria.
34 You shall [j]drink and drain it,
You shall break its shards,
And tear at your own breasts;
For I have spoken,'
Says the Lord GOD.

35 "Therefore thus says the Lord
GOD:

'Because you have [k]forgotten
Me and cast Me behind your back,
Therefore you shall bear the penalty
Of your lewdness and your
harlotry.' "

Judgment of Oholah and Oholibah

36 The LORD also said to me: "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then [l]declare to them their abominations.
37 "For they have committed adultery, and [m]blood is on their hands.

38 "Moreover they have done this to Me: They have [b]defiled My sanctuary on the same day and profaned My Sabbaths.

39 "For after they had slain their children for their idols, on the same day they came into My sanctuary to profane it; and indeed [c]thus they have done in the midst of My house.

40 "Furthermore you sent for men to come from afar, to whom a [d]messenger was sent; and there they came. And you washed yourself for them, [e]painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with ornaments.

41 "You sat on a stately couch, with a table prepared before it, on which you had [f]set My incense and My oil.

42 "The sound of a carefree multitude was with her, and Sabeans were brought from the wilderness with men of the common sort, who put bracelets on their wrists and beautiful crowns on their heads.

43 "Then I said concerning her who had grown old in adulteries, 'Will they commit harlotry with her now, and she with them?'

44 "Yet they went in to her, as men go in to a woman who plays the harlot; thus they went in to Oholah and Oholibah, the lewd women.

45 "But righteous men will [g]judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women who shed blood, because they are adulteresses, and blood is on their hands.

46 "For thus says the Lord GOD: 'Bring up an assembly against them, give them up to trouble and plunder.

47 'The assembly shall stone them with [h]stones and execute them with their swords; they shall [i]slay their sons and their daughters, and burn their houses with fire.

48 'Thus I will cause lewdness to cease from the land, that all women may be [j]taught not to practice your lewdness.

49 'They shall repay you for your lewdness, and you shall pay for your idolatrous sins. Then you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.' "

Parable of the boiling pot

24 AGAIN, in the [k]ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 "Son of man, write down the name of the [l]day, this very day—the king of Babylon started his siege against Jerusalem this very day.

3 "And utter a [m]parable to the rebellious house, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Put on a pot, set it on,
And also pour water into it.
4 Gather pieces of meat in it,
Every good piece,
The thigh and the shoulder.
Fill it with choice cuts;
5 Take the choice of the flock.
Also pile fuel bones under it,
Make it boil well,
And let the cuts simmer in it."

6 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"Woe[n] to the bloody city,
To the pot whose scum is in it,
And whose scum is not gone from it!
Bring it out piece by piece,
On which no [o]lot has fallen.
7 For her blood is in her midst;
She set it on top of a rock;
She did not [p]pour it on the ground,
To cover it with dust.
8 That it may raise up fury and take vengeance,
I have set her blood on top of a rock,
That it may not be covered."

9 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"Woe[q] to the bloody city!
I too will make the pyre great.

Death of Ezekiel's wife: a sign

15 Also the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

16 "Son of man, behold, I take away from you the desire of your eyes with one stroke; yet you shall [h]neither mourn nor weep, nor shall your tears run down.

17 "Sigh in silence, make no mourning for the dead; bind your turban on your head, and [i]put your sandals on your feet; do not cover your lips, and do not eat man's bread of sorrow."

18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and at evening my wife died; and the next morning I did as I was commanded.

19 And the people said to me, [j]"Will you not tell us what these things signify to us, that you [k]behave so?"

20 Then I answered them, "The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

21 'Speak to the house of Israel, "Thus says the Lord GOD: 'Behold, I will [l]profane My sanctuary, your arrogant boast, the desire of your eyes, the delight of your soul; and your [m]sons and daughters whom you left behind shall fall by the sword.

22 'And you shall do as I have done; you shall not cover your lips nor eat man's bread of sorrow.

23 'Your turbans shall be on your heads and your sandals on your feet; you shall neither mourn nor weep, but you shall [n]pine away in your iniquities and mourn with one another.

24 'Thus [o]Ezekiel is a sign to you; according to all that he has done you shall do; and when this comes, you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.' "

25 'And you, son of man—will it not be in the day when I take from them their stronghold, their joy and their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that on which they set their minds, their sons and their daughters:

26 'that on that day one who [p]escapes will come to you to let you hear it with your ears?

27 'On that day your mouth will be [q]opened to him who has escaped; you shall speak and no longer be [r]mute. Thus you will be a [s]sign to them, and they shall know that I am the LORD.' "

25:2 Ammonites. During the course of the seige of Jerusalem, Ezekiel turned his attention entirely to prophecies concerning foreign nations (25:1—32:32).

3 "Say to the Ammonites, 'Hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD: [a]"Because you said, 'Aha!' against My sanctuary when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel when it was desolate, and against the house of Judah when they went into captivity,

4 "indeed, therefore, I will deliver you as a possession to the [b]men of the East, and they shall set their encampments among you and make their dwellings among you; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk.

5 "And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels and Ammon a resting place for flocks. Then you shall know that I am the LORD."

6 'For thus says the Lord GOD: [c]"Because you clapped your hands, stamped your feet, and rejoiced in heart with all your disdain for the land of Israel,

7 "indeed, therefore, I will stretch out My hand against you, and give you as plunder to the [d]nations; I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish from the countries; I will destroy you, and you shall know that I am the LORD."

Prophecy against Moab

8 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because [e]Moab and Seir say, 'Look! The house of Judah is like all the nations,'

9 "therefore, behold, I will clear the territory of Moab of cities, of the cities on its frontier, the glory of the country, Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and [f]Kirjathaim.

10 "To the men of the East I will give it as a possession, together with the Ammonites, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations.

11 "And I will execute judgments upon Moab, and they shall know that I am the LORD."

Prophecy against Edom

12 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [g]"Because of what [h]Edom did against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended by avenging itself on them,"

13 'therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I will also stretch out My hand against Edom, cut off man and beast from it, and make it desolate from Teman; Dedan shall fall by the sword.

14 "I will lay My vengeance on Edom by the hand of My people Israel, that they may do in Edom according to My anger and according to My fury; and they shall know My vengeance," says the Lord GOD.

Prophecy against Philistia

15 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because the [i]Philistines dealt vengefully and took vengeance with a spiteful heart, to destroy because of the old hatred,"

16 'therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I will stretch out My hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites and destroy the remnant of the seacoast.

17 "I will execute great vengeance on them with furious rebukes; and they shall [j]know that I am the LORD, when I lay My vengeance upon them." ' "

Ammonites: The people of the country of Ammon, located east of the Jordan River.

Moab: progeny of a father. The region outside of Israel, located south of the Arnon River and east of the Dead Sea.

25:8 Thus says the Lord GOD. The prophecies upon Gentile powers (see v. 2, note) have doubtless had partial fulfillments of which history and the present condition of those cities and countries bear witness, but the mention of the day of the LORD (30:3) makes it evident that a fulfillment in the final sense is still future. See Day of the LORD (Is. 2:10–22; Joel 1:15 and Rev. 19:19, notes); also Armageddon (Rev. 16:13–16; 19:17, note). Those countries are once more to be the battleground of the nations.

25:15 The Philistines' sustained animosity toward Israel, remembered chiefly from Goliath's challenge to David, required God's judgment upon them.

2 "Son of man, [a]because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, [b]'Aha! She is broken who was the gateway of the peoples; now she is turned over to me; I shall be filled; she is laid waste.'

3 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Behold, I am against you, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up.

4 'And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers; I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock.

5 'It shall be a place for spreading nets in the midst of the sea, for I have spoken,' says the Lord GOD; 'it shall become plunder for the nations.

6 'Also her daughter villages which are in the fields shall be slain by the sword. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.'

7 "For thus says the Lord GOD: 'Behold, I will bring against Tyre from the north [c]Nebuchadnezzar* king of Babylon, [d]king of kings, with horses, with chariots, and with horsemen, and an army with many people.

8 'He will slay with the sword your daughter villages in the fields; he will heap up a siege mound against you, build a wall against you, and raise a defense against you.

9 'He will direct his battering rams against your walls, and with his axes he will break down your towers.

10 'Because of the abundance of his horses, their dust will cover you; your walls will shake at the noise of the horsemen, the wagons, and the chariots, when he enters your gates, as men enter a city that has been breached.

11 'With the hooves of his [e]horses he will trample all your streets; he will slay your people by the sword, and your strong pillars will fall to the ground.

12 'They will plunder your riches and pillage your merchandise; they will break down your walls and destroy your pleasant houses; they will lay your stones, your timber, and your soil in the [f]midst of the water.

13 'I will put an end to the [g]sound of your songs, and the sound of your harps shall be heard no more.

14 'I will make you like the top of a rock; you shall be a place for spreading nets, and you shall never be rebuilt, for I the LORD have spoken,' says the Lord GOD.

15 "Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre: 'Will the [h]coastlands not shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded cry, when slaughter is made in the midst of you?

16 'Then all the [i]princes of the sea will come down from their thrones, lay aside their robes, and take off their embroidered garments; they will clothe themselves with trembling; they will sit on the ground, [j]tremble every moment, and be [k]astonished at you.

17 'And they will take up a [l]lamentation for you, and say to you:

"How you have perished,

O renowned city,
Who was [m]strong at sea,
She and her inhabitants,
Who caused their terror to be on all her inhabitants!

26:14 THE FATE OF TYRE

The fate predicted for Tyre is unique and has been remarkably fulfilled. At the time of Ezekiel, Tyre was on the coast of Phoenicia at the shore of the Mediterranean Sea. As Ezekiel predicted, Nebuchadnezzar conquered and destroyed the city. He had no reason, however, to fulfill v. 12 by casting its ruins into the sea. Some of the people from Tyre escaped to an island and built a new city there.

Three hundred years later Alexander the Great, desiring to conquer this island city, built a causeway to it and threw all the remains of ancient Tyre (called Palaeotyrus by the Greeks) into the sea, fulfilling Ezek. 26:12. The old city of Tyre has never been rebuilt, but has remained like the top of a rock. Remains of ancient Sidon (28:20–24) have been excavated, and a flourishing town now stands on its old site, but the remains of ancient Tyre are in the sea under Alexander's causeway.

19 "For thus says the Lord GOD:
'When I make you a desolate city,
like cities that are not inhabited,
when I bring the deep upon you,
and great waters cover you,
20 'then I will bring you down
[a]with those who descend into the Pit, to the people of old, and I will make you dwell in the lowest part of the earth, in places desolate from antiquity, with those who go down to the Pit, so that you may never be inhabited; and I shall establish glory in the land of the living.
21 'I will make you a [b]terror, and you shall be no more; [c]though you are sought for, you will never be found [d]again,' says the Lord GOD."

Lament over Tyre
(cp. Rev. 18:1–24)

27 THE word of the LORD came again to me, saying,
2 "Now, son of man, take up a [e]lamentation for Tyre,
3 "and say to Tyre, [f]'You who are situated at the entrance of the sea, merchant of the peoples on many coastlands, thus says the Lord GOD:

"O Tyre, you have said,
'I am perfect in [g]beauty.'
4 Your borders are in the midst of the seas.
Your builders have perfected your beauty.
5 They made all your planks of fir trees from Senir;
They took a cedar from Lebanon to make you a mast.
6 Of [h]oaks from Bashan they made your oars;
The company of Ashurites have inlaid your planks
With ivory from the coasts of Cyprus.*
7 Fine embroidered linen from Egypt was what you spread for your sail;
Blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah was what covered you.

8 "Inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your oarsmen;
Your [i]wise men, O Tyre, were in you;
They became your pilots.
9 Elders of [j]Gebal and its wise men
Were in you to caulk your seams;
All the ships of the sea
And their oarsmen were in you
To market your merchandise.

10 "Those from Persia, Lydia,* and Libya*
Were in your army as men of war;
They hung shield and helmet in you;
They gave splendor to you.
11 Men of Arvad with your army were on your walls all around,
And the men of Gammad were in your towers;
They hung their shields on your walls all around;
They made your beauty perfect.

12 [k]"Tarshish was your merchant because of your many luxury goods. They gave you silver, iron, tin, and lead for your goods.
13 "Javan, Tubal, and Meshech were your traders. They bartered human [l]lives and vessels of bronze for your merchandise.
14 "Those from the house of [m]Togarmah traded for your wares with horses, steeds, and mules.
15 "The men of [n]Dedan were your traders; many isles were the market of your hand. They brought you ivory tusks and ebony as payment.
16 "Syria was your merchant because of the abundance of goods you made. They gave you for your wares emeralds, purple, embroidery, fine linen, corals, and rubies.
17 "Judah and the land of Israel were your traders. They traded for your merchandise [o]wheat of Minnith, millet, honey, oil, and balm.
18 "Damascus was your merchant because of the abundance of goods

Tyre's proud ruler rebuked

Satan, the real king of Tyre, who instigated the earthly ruler (cp. Is. 14:12–17)

11 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
12 "Son of man, take up a [i]lamentation for the king of Tyre, and say to him, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"You were the [j]seal of

And you sinned;
Therefore I cast you as a

28:12 You were . . . Here in vv. 11–17, as in Is. 14:12–17, the language goes beyond the king of Tyre to Satan, inspirer and unseen ruler of all such pomp and pride as that of Tyre. Gen. 3:14–15 and Matt. 16:23 are other instances of thus indirectly addressing Satan. The unfallen state of Satan is here described; his fall is written in Is. 14. See Rev. 20:10, note. Moreover, the vision is not of Satan in his own person, but of Satan fulfilling himself through an earthly king who arrogates to himself divine honors, so that the prince of Tyre foreshadows the beast (Dan. 7:8; Rev. 19:20).

28:19 Verses 1–19 contain references to the ruler and the king of Tyre (vv. 1,12); to Satan (v. 12, see note); and evidently to the city of Tyre (vv. 7–8,18–19). Other Scriptures make clear that neither the destiny of unsaved men nor of Satan involves cessation of being (Matt. 18:8; 25:41,46; Mark 3:29; 2 Thess. 1:9; Heb. 6:2; Jude 6,13; Rev. 14:11; 20:10). Existence on earth is what is involved here.

Because they have been a [c]staff of reed to the house of Israel.
7 When they took hold of you with the hand,

When they leaned on you,
You broke and made all their backs quiver."

8 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Surely I will bring a sword upon you and cut off from you man and beast.
9 "And the land of Egypt shall become [e]desolate and waste; then they will know that I am the LORD, because he said, 'The River is mine, and I have made it.'

12 "I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and among the cities that are laid waste, her cities shall be desolate forty years; and I will [g]scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries."

13 'Yet, thus says the Lord GOD: "At the end of forty years I will [h]gather the Egyptians from the peoples among whom they were scattered.
14 "I will bring back the captives of Egypt and cause them to return to the land of Pathros, to the land of their origin, and there they shall be a lowly kingdom.
15 "It shall be the lowliest of kingdoms; it shall never again exalt itself above the nations, for I will diminish them so that they will not rule over the nations anymore.
16 "No longer shall it be the [i]confidence of the house of Israel, but will remind them of their iniquity when they turned to follow them. Then they shall know that I am the Lord GOD." ' "
17 And it came to pass in the [j]twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

Lament over Egypt's fall

30 THE word of the LORD came to me again, saying,
2 "Son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Wail, 'Woe to the day!'
3 For the [b]day is near,
Even the [c]day of the LORD is near;
It will be a day of clouds, the time of the Gentiles.
4 The sword shall come upon Egypt,
And great anguish shall be in Ethiopia,
When the slain fall in Egypt,
And they take away her wealth,
And her foundations are broken down.

5 "Ethiopia, Libya,* Lydia,* all the [d]mingled people, Chub, and the men of the lands who are allied, shall fall with them by the sword."
6 'Thus says the LORD:

"Those who uphold Egypt shall fall,
And the pride of her power shall come down.
From Migdol to Syene
Those within her shall fall by the sword,"
Says the Lord GOD.

7 "They shall be [e]desolate in the midst of the desolate countries,
And her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are laid waste.
8 Then they will know that I am the LORD,
When I have set a fire in Egypt
And all her helpers are destroyed.
9 On that day [f]messengers shall go forth from Me in ships
To make the careless Ethiopians afraid,
And great anguish shall come upon them,
As on the day of Egypt;
For indeed it is coming!"

10 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"I will also make a multitude of Egypt to cease
By the hand of [g]Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.
11 He and his people with him,
the most [h]terrible of the nations,
Shall be brought to destroy the land;
They shall draw their swords against Egypt,
And fill the land with the slain.
12 I will make the [i]rivers dry,
And sell the land into the hand of the wicked;
I will make the land waste, and all that is in it,
By the hand of aliens.
I, the LORD, have spoken."

13 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"I will also [j]destroy the idols,
And cause the images to cease from Noph;*
There shall [k]no longer be princes from the land of Egypt;
I will put fear in the land of Egypt.
14 I will make [l]Pathros desolate,
Set fire to Zoan,
And execute judgments in No.
15 I will pour My fury on Sin,* the strength of Egypt;
I will cut off the multitude of No,
16 And set a fire in Egypt;

21 "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and see, it has not been bandaged for [c]healing, nor a splint put on to bind it, to make it strong enough to hold a sword.
22 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Surely I am [d]against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his [e]arms, both the strong one and the one that was broken; and I will make the sword fall out of his hand.
23 'I will [f]scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them throughout the countries.
24 'I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put My sword in his hand; but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he will groan before him with the groanings of a mortally wounded man.
25 'Thus I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; they shall [g]know that I am the LORD, when I put My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he stretches it out against the land of Egypt.
26 'I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.' "

Parable of the cedar of Lebanon: Pharaoh's pride rebuked

31 NOW it came to pass in the [h]eleventh year, in the third [i]month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitude:

'Whom are you like in your greatness?
3 [j]Indeed [k]Assyria was a [l]cedar in Lebanon,
With fine branches that shaded
the forest,
And of high stature;
And its top was among the thick boughs.
4 The [m]waters made it grow;
Underground waters gave it height,
With their rivers running around the place where it was planted,
And sent out rivulets to all the trees of the field.
5 'Therefore its height was exalted above all the trees of the field;
Its boughs were multiplied,
And its branches became long because of the abundance of water,
As it sent them out.
6 All the [n]birds of the heavens made their nests in its boughs;
Under its branches all the beasts of the field brought forth their young;
And in its shadow all great nations made their home.

7 'Thus it was beautiful in greatness and in the length of its branches,
Because its roots reached to abundant waters.
8 The cedars in the [a]garden of God could not hide it;
The fir trees were not like its
boughs,
And the chestnut* trees were not like its branches;
No tree in the garden of God was like it in beauty.
9 I made it beautiful with a multitude of branches,
So that all the trees of Eden envied it,
That were in the garden of 10 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have increased in height, and it set its top among the thick boughs, and its heart was [b]lifted up in its height,

11 'therefore I will deliver it into the hand of the [c]mighty one of the nations, and he shall surely deal with it; I have driven it out for its wickedness.
12 'And aliens, the most [d]terrible of the nations, have cut it down and left it; its branches have fallen on the [e]mountains and in all the valleys; its boughs lie [f]broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the peoples of the earth have gone from under its shadow and left it.

13 'On[g] its ruin will remain all the birds of the heavens,
And all the beasts of the field will come to its branches—

14 'So that no trees by the waters may ever again exalt themselves for their height, nor set their tops among the thick boughs, that no tree which drinks water may ever be high enough to reach up to them.

'For they have all been delivered to death,
To the [h]depths of the earth,
Among the children of men who go down to the Pit.'

15 "Thus says the Lord GOD: 'In the day when it [i]went down to [j]hell, I caused mourning. I covered the deep because of it. I restrained its rivers, and the great waters were held back. I caused Lebanon to mourn for it, and all the trees of the field wilted because of it.
16 'I made the nations shake at the sound of its fall, when I [k]cast it down to [l]hell together with those who descend into the Pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were [m]comforted in the [n]depths of the earth.
17 'They also went down to [o]hell with it, with those slain by the sword; and those who were its strong arm dwelt in its shadows among the nations.
18 'To which of the trees in Eden will you then be likened in glory and greatness? Yet you shall be brought down with the trees of Eden to the [p]depths of the earth; you shall [q]lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude,' says the Lord GOD."

IV. Ezekiel's Responsibility as Watchman, 33

His solemn duty to sound warning

33 AGAIN the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and say to them: 'When I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take a man from their territory and make him their [a]watchman,
3 'when he sees the sword coming upon the land, if he blows the trumpet and warns the people,
4 'then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet and does [b]not take warning, if the sword comes and takes him away, his blood shall be on his own [c]head.
5 'He heard the sound of the trumpet, but did not take warning; his blood shall be upon himself. But he who takes warning will save his life.
6 'But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet, and the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at the watchman's hand.'
7 "So you, son of man: I have made you a [d]watchman for the house of Israel; therefore you shall hear a word from My mouth and warn them for Me.
8 "When I say to the wicked, 'O wicked man, you shall surely die!' and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand.
9 "Nevertheless if you warn the wicked to turn from his way, and he does not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.
10 "Therefore you, O son of man, say to the house of Israel: 'Thus you say, "If our transgressions and our sins lie upon us, and we [e]pine away in them, how can we then [f]live?" '
11 "Say to them: 'As I live,' says the Lord GOD, [g]'I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked [h]turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways! For [i]why should you die, O house of Israel?'
12 "Therefore you, O son of man, say to the children of your people: 'The [j]righteousness of the righteous man shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression; as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall because of it in the day that he turns from his wickedness; nor shall the righteous be able to live because of his righteousness in the day that he sins.'
13 "When I say to the righteous that he shall surely live, [k]but he trusts in his own righteousness and commits iniquity, none of his righteous works shall be remembered; but because of the iniquity that he has [l]committed, he shall die.
14 "Again, when I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die,' if he turns from his sin and does what is lawful and right, 15 "if the wicked [m]restores the pledge, [n]gives back what he has stolen, and walks in the statutes of life without committing iniquity, he shall surely live; he shall not die.
16 [o]"None of his sins which he has committed shall be remembered against him; he has done what is lawful and right; he shall surely live.
17 "Yet the children of your people say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' But it is their way which is not fair!
18 "When the righteous turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he shall [p]die because of it.
19 "But when the wicked turns from his wickedness and does what is lawful and right, he shall [q]live because of it.
20 "Yet you say, 'The [r]way of the Lord is not fair.' O house of Israel, I will judge every one of you according to his own ways."

Hearers but not doers of the Word

23 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

24 "Son of man, they who inhabit those ruins in the land of Israel are saying, [b]'Abraham was only one, and he inherited the land. But we are many; the land has been given to us as a [c]possession.'

26 "You rely on your sword, you commit abominations, and you defile one another's [f]wives. Should you then possess the land?" '

27 "Say thus to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "As I live, surely those who are in the ruins shall fall by the sword, and the one who is in the open field I will give to the beasts to be devoured, and those who are in the strongholds and caves shall die of the pestilence.

28 "For I will make the land most [g]desolate, her arrogant strength shall cease, and the mountains of Israel shall be so desolate that no one will pass through.

29 "Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed." '

30 "As for you, son of man, the children of your people are talking about you beside the walls and in the doors of the houses; and they speak to one another, everyone saying to his brother, 'Please come and hear what the word is that comes from the LORD.'

31 "So they come to you as people do, they [h]sit before you as My people, and they [i]hear your words, but they do not do them; for with their [j]mouth they show much love, but their hearts pursue their own gain.

32 "Indeed you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they do [k]not do them.

33 "And when this comes to pass—surely it will come—then they will [l]know that a prophet has been among them."

V. Prediction of Events to Take Place at the End of the Age, When Israel Is Again in Her Own Land, 34—39

Message to the faithless shepherds of Israel

34 AND the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to the shepherds: [m]"Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 "You [n]eat the fat and clothe yourselves with the wool; you [o]slaughter the fatlings, but you do not feed the flock.

4 "The [p]weak you have not strengthened, nor have you healed those who were sick, nor bound up the broken, nor brought back what was driven away, nor [q]sought what was lost; but with [r]force and cruelty you have ruled them.

5 "So they were [s]scattered because there was no shepherd; and they [t]became food for all the beasts of the field when they were scattered.

6 "My sheep [u]wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill; yes, My flock was scattered over the whole face of the earth, and no one was seeking or searching for them."

33:21 tenth month. This is the month of Tebeth in the Hebrew religious calendar. It correlates to the modern months of December–January. For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev. 23:2.

"surely because My flock became a prey, and My flock became food for every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, nor did My shepherds search for My flock, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock"—

9 'therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD!

10 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am [a]against the shepherds, and I will [b]require My flock at their hand; I will cause them to cease feeding the sheep, and the shepherds shall feed themselves no more; for I will [c]deliver My flock from their mouths, that they may no longer be food for them."

Israel to be restored: the Davidic kingdom to be set up

11 'For thus says the Lord GOD: "Indeed I Myself will search for My sheep and seek them out.

12 "As a [d]shepherd seeks out his flock on the day he is among his scattered sheep, so will I seek out My sheep and deliver them from all the places where they were scattered on a cloudy and dark day.

13 "And I will [e]bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own [f]land; I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, in the valleys and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 "I will [g]feed them in good pasture, and their fold shall be on the high mountains of Israel. There they shall lie down in a good fold and feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel.

15 "I will feed My flock, and I will make them lie down," says the Lord GOD.

16 "I will [h]seek what was lost and bring back what was driven away, bind up the broken and strengthen what was sick; but I will destroy the fat and the strong, and feed them in judgment."

17 'And as for you, O My flock, thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I shall judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and goats.

18 "Is it too little for you to have eaten up the good pasture, that you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture—and to have drunk of the clear waters, that you must foul the residue with your feet?

19 "And as for My flock, they eat what you have [i]trampled with your feet, and they drink what you have fouled with your feet."

20 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD to them: "Behold, I Myself will judge between the fat and the lean sheep.

21 "Because you have pushed with side and shoulder, butted all the [j]weak ones with your horns, and scattered them abroad, 22 "therefore I will save My flock, and they shall no longer be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.

23 "I will establish [k]one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them—My servant David. He shall feed them and be their shepherd.

24 "And [l]I, the LORD, will be their God, and My servant [m]David a prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken.

25 "I will make a [n]covenant of peace with them, and cause [o]wild beasts to cease from the land; and they will dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods.

26 "I will make them and the places all around My hill a [p]blessing; and I will cause showers to come down in their season; there shall be showers of blessing.

27 "Then the trees of the field shall yield their fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase. They shall be safe in their land; and they shall 34:12 As a shepherd. In its Messianic and evangelical import, this passage (vv. 11–31) is like a window letting the light of dawn into a hall of judgment. Verses 12,14–16,22 look forward to the LORD of Ps. 23 and the Good Shepherd of John 10; but the primary reference is to Israel—"there shall be showers of blessing" (v. 26), the people "shall be safe in their land" (v. 27), "they shall no longer be a prey for the nations" (v. 28). Verses 23–30 speak of a restoration yet future, for the remnant which returned to Palestine after the captivity was continually under the Gentile yoke until they were driven from the land in A.D. 70.

know that I am the LORD, when I have [a]broken the bands of their yoke and delivered them from the hand of those who enslaved them.

28 "And they shall no longer be a prey for the nations, nor shall beasts of the land devour them; but they shall [b]dwell safely, and no one shall make them afraid.

29 "I will raise up for them a garden of renown, and they shall [c]no longer be consumed with hunger in the land, nor [d]bear the shame of the Gentiles anymore.

30 "Thus they shall know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and they, the house of Israel, are [e]My people," says the Lord GOD.' "

31 "You are My flock, the flock of My pasture; you are men, and I am your God," says the Lord GOD.

Prophecy against Mount Seir (Edom)

35 MOREOVER the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 "Son of man, set your face against [f]Mount Seir and prophesy against it,

3 "and say to it, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Behold, O Mount Seir, I am
against you;
I will stretch out My hand
against you,
And make you most desolate;
4 I shall lay your cities waste,
And you shall be desolate.
Then you shall know that I am
the LORD.

5[g] "Because you have had an ancient hatred, and have shed the blood of the children of Israel by the power of the sword at the time of their calamity, when their iniquity came to an end,

6 "therefore, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will prepare you for [h]blood, and blood shall pursue you; since you have not hated blood, therefore blood shall pursue you.

7 "Thus I will make Mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it the one who leaves and the one who returns.

8 "And I will fill its mountains with the slain; on your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines those who are slain by the sword shall fall.

9 "I will make you perpetually [i]desolate, and your cities shall be uninhabited; then you shall know that I am the LORD.

10 "Because you have said, 'These [j]two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will [k]possess them,' although the LORD was [l]there, 11 "therefore, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will do according to your anger and according to the envy which you showed in your hatred against them; and I will make Myself known among them when I judge you.

12 "Then you shall know that I am the LORD. I have [m]heard all your [n]blasphemies which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, 'They are desolate; they are given to us to consume.'

13 "Thus with your mouth you have boasted against Me and multiplied your [o]words against Me; I have heard them."

14 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [p]"The whole earth will rejoice when I make you desolate.

15 "As you [q]rejoiced because the inheritance of the house of Israel was desolate, [r]so I will do to you; you shall be desolate, O Mount Seir, as well as all of Edom—all of it! Then they shall know that I am the LORD." '

Restoration of Israel to the land

36 "AND you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, 'O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD!

2 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because the enemy has said of you, [s]'Aha! The ancient [t]heights have become our possession,' " '

36:1 The order in this and succeeding prophecies is (1) restoration of the land (36:1–15); (2) restoration of the people (36:16—37:28); (3) judgment on Israel's enemies (38:1—39:24); and (4) that which concerns the worship of the LORD that He may dwell among His people (40:1—47:12).

'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because they made you desolate and swallowed you up on every side, so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations, and [a]you are taken up by the lips of [b]talkers and slandered by the people"—

4 'therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, the hills, the rivers, the valleys, the desolate wastes, and the cities that have been forsaken, which became plunder and [c]mockery to the rest of the nations all around—

5 'therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Surely I have spoken in My burning jealousy against the rest of the nations and against all [d]Edom, who gave My land to themselves as a [e]possession, with wholehearted joy and spiteful minds, in order to plunder its open country." '

6 "Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains, the hills, the rivers, and the valleys, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I have spoken in My jealousy and My fury, because you have [f]borne the shame of the nations."

7 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I have raised My hand in an oath that surely the nations that are around you shall [g]bear their own shame.

8 "But you, O mountains of Israel, you shall shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit to My people Israel, for they are about to come.

9 "For indeed I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown.

10 "I will [h]multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt.

11 "I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bear young; I will make you inhabited as in former times, and do [i]better for you than at your beginnings. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

12 "Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, My people Israel; they shall take [j]possession of you, and you shall be their inheritance; no more shall you [k]bereave them of children."

13 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because they say to you, 'You devour men and bereave your nation of children,'

14 "therefore you shall devour men no more, nor bereave your nation anymore," says the Lord GOD.

15 "Nor will I let you hear the taunts of the nations anymore, nor [l]bear the reproach of the peoples anymore, nor shall you cause your nation to stumble anymore," says the Lord GOD.' "

16 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

17 "Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they [m]defiled it by their own ways and deeds; to Me their way was like the uncleanness of a woman in her customary impurity.

18 "Therefore I poured out My fury on them for the blood they had shed on the land, and for their idols with which they had defiled it.

19 "So I [n]scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed throughout the countries; I judged them according to their ways and their deeds.

20 "When they came to the nations, wherever they went, they [o]profaned My holy name—when they said of them, 'These are the people of the LORD, and yet they have gone out of His land.'

21 "But I had concern for My holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations wherever they went.

22 "Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "I do not do this for your sake, [p]O house of Israel, but for [q]My holy name's sake, which you have profaned among the nations wherever you went.

23 "And I will sanctify My great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have

Ezekiel's statement of the new covenant

26 "I will give you a [d]new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will take the heart of stone out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh.

27 "I will put My [e]Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them.

28 "Then you shall [f]dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; you shall be [g]My people, and I will be your God.

29 "I will deliver you from all your [h]uncleannesses. I will call for the grain and multiply it, and bring no famine upon you.

30 "And I will multiply the fruit of your trees and the increase of your fields, so that you need never again bear the reproach of famine among the nations.

31 "Then you will [i]remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good; and you will [j]loathe yourselves in your own sight, for your iniquities and your abominations.

32 [k]"Not for your sake do I do this," says the Lord GOD, "let it be known to you. Be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel!"

33 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will also enable you to dwell in the cities, and the ruins shall be rebuilt.

34 "The desolate land shall be tilled instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who pass by.

35 "So they will say, 'This land that was desolate has become like the [l]garden of Eden; and the wasted, desolate, and ruined cities are now fortified and inhabited.'

36 "Then the nations which are left all around you shall know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruined places and planted what was desolate. I, the LORD, have spoken it, and I will do it."

37 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "I will also let the house of Israel [m]inquire of Me to do this for them: I will increase their men like a flock.

38 "Like a flock offered as holy sacrifices, like the flock at Jerusalem on its feast days, so shall the ruined cities be filled with flocks of men. Then they shall know that I am the LORD." ' "

Vision of valley of dry bones: Israel's restoration

37 THE hand of the LORD came upon me and brought me out in the [n]Spirit of the LORD, and [o]set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones.

2 Then He caused me to pass by them all around, and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and indeed they were very dry.

3 And He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" So I answered, "O Lord GOD, You know."

4 Again He said to me, "Prophesy to these bones, and say to them, 'O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD!

5 'Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: "Surely I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live.

6 "I will put sinews on you and bring flesh upon you, cover you with skin and put breath in you; and you shall live. Then you shall know that I am the LORD." ' "

37:1 full of bones. Having announced the restoration of the nation (36:24–38), the LORD now gives in vision and symbol the method of its accomplishment. Verse 11 gives the clue. The bones represent the whole house of Israel living at the time of restoration. The graves (v. 12) are the nations where they dwell. The order is: (1) bringing the people out (v. 12); (2) bringing them in (v. 12); (3) their conversion (v. 13); and (4) their being filled with the Spirit (v. 14). The symbol follows. The two sticks are Judah and the ten tribes; united, they are one nation (vv. 19–28).

manded; and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and suddenly a rattling; and the bones came together, bone to bone.

8 Indeed, as I looked, the sinews and the flesh came upon them, and the skin covered them over; but there was no breath in them.

9 Also He said to me, "Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, son of man, and say to the breath, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may [a]live." ' "

10 So I prophesied as He commanded me, and breath came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an [b]exceedingly great army.

Vision explained

11 Then He said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the [c]whole house of Israel. They indeed say, 'Our bones are dry, our hope is [d]lost, and we ourselves are cut off!'

12 "Therefore prophesy and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, O My people, I will [e]open your graves and cause you to come up from your [f]graves, and bring you into the land of Israel.

13 "Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O My people, and brought you up from your graves.

14 "I will put My [g]Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land. Then you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it and performed it," says the LORD.' "

Sign of the two sticks

15 Again the word of the LORD came to me, [h]saying,

16 "As for you, son of man, take a stick for yourself and write on it: 'For Judah and for the children of Israel, his companions.' Then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel, his companions.'

17 "Then join them one to another for yourself into one stick, and they will become [i]one in your hand.

18 "And when the children of your people speak to you, saying, 'Will you not show us what you mean by these?'—

19 "say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Surely I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel, his companions; and I will join them with it, with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they will be one in My hand." '

20 "And the sticks on which you write will be in your hand before their eyes.

21 "Then say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Surely I will take the [j]children of Israel from among the nations, wherever they have gone, and will [k]gather them from every side and [l]bring them into their own land;

22 "and I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one [m]king shall be king over them all; they shall no longer be two nations, nor shall they ever be divided into two kingdoms again.

23 "They shall not defile themselves anymore with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will deliver them from all their dwelling places in which they have sinned, and will [n]cleanse them. Then they shall be My people, and I will be their God.

24 [o]"David My servant shall be king over them, and they shall all have one shepherd; they shall also walk in My judgments and observe My statutes, and do them.

25 "Then they shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob My servant, where your fathers dwelt; and they shall dwell there, they, their children, and their children's children, [p]forever; and [q]My servant David shall be their prince forever.

26 "Moreover I will make a [r]covenant of peace with them, and it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; I will establish them and multiply them, and I will set My sanctuary in their midst forevermore.

27 "My tabernacle also shall be with them; indeed I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

28 "The nations also will know that I, the LORD, sanctify Israel, when My sanctuary is in their midst forevermore." ' "

38:2 Gog . . . Magog . . . Rosh. The reference is to the powers in the north of Europe, headed by Russia. The whole passage should be read in connection with Zech. 12:1–4; 14:1–9; Matt. 24:14–30; Rev. 14:14–20; 19:17–21. Gog is probably the prince; Magog, his land. Russia and the northern powers have long been the persecutors of dispersed Israel, and it is congruous both with divine justice and with the covenants of God that destruction should fall in connection with the attempt to exterminate the remnant of Israel in Jerusalem. The entire prophecy belongs to the yet future day of the LORD (see notes at Joel 1:15; Rev. 19:19).

21 "I will call for a [b]sword against Gog throughout all My mountains," says the Lord GOD. [c]"Every man's sword will be against his brother.

22 "And I will bring him to judgment with pestilence and bloodshed; I will rain down on him, on his troops, and on the many peoples who are with him, [d]flooding rain, great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

23 "Thus I will magnify Myself and sanctify Myself, and I will be [e]known in the eyes of many nations. Then they shall know that I am the LORD." '

Prophecy against Gog (continued): destruction of invaders

39 "AND you, son of man, prophesy against [f]Gog, and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the prince of [f]Rosh,* Meshech, and Tubal;

2 "and I will [g]turn you around and lead you on, bringing you up from the far north, and bring you against the mountains of Israel.

3 "Then I will knock the bow out of your left hand, and cause the arrows to fall out of your right hand.

4 "You shall fall upon the [h]mountains of Israel, you and all your troops and the peoples who are with you; I will give you to birds of prey of every sort and to the beasts of the field to be [i]devoured.

5 "You shall fall on the open field; for I have spoken," says the Lord GOD.

6 "And I will send [j]fire on Magog and on those who live in security in the coastlands. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 "So I will make My holy name known in the midst of My people Israel, and I will not let them [k]profane My holy name anymore. Then the nations shall [l]know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

8 "Surely it is coming, and [m]it shall be done," says the Lord GOD. "This is the day of which I have spoken.

9 "Then those who dwell in the cities of Israel will go out and set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and bucklers, the bows and arrows, the javelins and spears; and they will make fires with them for seven years.

10 "They will not take wood from the field nor cut down any from the forests, because they will make fires with the weapons; and they will [n]plunder those who plundered them, and pillage those who pillaged them," says the Lord GOD.

11 "It will come to pass in that day that I will give [o]Gog a burial place there in Israel, the valley of those who pass by east of the sea; and it will obstruct travelers, because there they will bury Gog and all his multitude. Therefore they will call it the Valley of Hamon Gog.

12 "For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them, in order to [p]cleanse the land.

13 "Indeed all the people of the land will be burying, and they will gain [q]renown for it on the day that I am glorified," says the Lord GOD.

14 "They will set apart men regularly employed, with the help of a search party,* to pass through the land and bury those bodies remaining on the ground, in order to cleanse it. At the end of seven months they will make a search.

15 "The search party will pass through the land; and when anyone sees a man's bone, he shall set up a marker by it, till the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon Gog.

16 "The name of the city will also be Hamonah. Thus they shall cleanse the land." '

25 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: [e]'Now I will bring back the captives of Jacob, and have mercy on the [f]whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for My holy name—

26 'after they have borne their shame, and all their unfaithfulness in which they were unfaithful to Me, when they dwelt safely in their own land and no one made them afraid.

27 [g]'When I have brought them back from the peoples and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and I am hallowed in them in the sight of many nations,

28 [h]'then they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who sent them into captivity among the nations, but also brought them back to their land, and left none of them captive any longer.

29 [i]'And I will not hide My face from them anymore; for I shall have poured out My [j]Spirit on the house of Israel,' says the Lord GOD."

DIFFICULTIES OF EXPOSITION

The last nine chapters of Ezekiel have posed numerous problems for expositors. Five explanations have been offered:

(1) Some feel these chapters describe the Solomonic temple before its destruction in 586 B.C. This is not possible because of disagreement in detail with the accounts in the books of Kings and Chronicles.

(2) Some hold it is a description of the restoration temple completed in the sixth century B.C. This view is also untenable, because the descriptions do not tally.

(3) Others maintain that the chapters portray an ideal temple never realized. This position does not explain why the portrayal is presented, nor why there is so much detail.

(4) Still another view is the claim that the picture is one of the Church and its blessings in this age. This view does not explain the symbolism, nor why large areas of Christian doctrine are omitted. And

(5) the preferable interpretation is that Ezekiel gives a picture of the millennial temple. Judging from the broad context of the prophecy (the time subsequent to Israel's regathering and conversion) and the testimony of other Scripture (Is. 66; Ezek. 6; 14), this interpretation is in keeping with God's prophetic program for the millennium.

The Church is not in view here, but rather it is a prophecy for the consummation of Israel's history on earth.

was upon me; and He took me there.

2 In the visions of God He [a]took me into the land of Israel and set me on a very high mountain; on it toward the south was something like the structure of a city.

3 He took me there, and behold, there was a [b]man whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze. He had a line of flax and a measuring [c]rod in his hand, and he stood in the gateway.

4 And the man said to me, "Son of man, [d]look with your eyes and hear with your ears, and fix your mind on everything I show you; for you were brought here so that I might show them to you. [e]Declare to the house of Israel everything you see."

Vision of the millennial temple

5 Now there was a wall all around the outside of the temple.* In the man's hand was a measuring rod six [f]cubits long, each being a cubit and a handbreadth; and he measured the width of the wall structure, one [f]rod; and the height, one rod.

6 Then he went to the gateway which faced [g]east; and he went up its stairs and measured the threshold of the gateway, which was one rod wide, and the other threshold was one rod wide.

7 Each gate chamber was one rod long and one rod wide; between the gate chambers was a space of five cubits; and the threshold of the gateway by the vestibule of the inside gate was one rod.

8 He also measured the vestibule of the inside gate, one rod.

9 Then he measured the vestibule of the gateway, eight cubits; and the gateposts, two cubits. The vestibule of the gate was on the inside.

10 In the eastern gateway were three gate chambers on one side and three on the other; the three were all the same size; also the gateposts were of the same size on this side and that side.

11 He measured the width of the entrance to the gateway, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 There was a space in front of the gate chambers, one cubit on this side and one cubit on that side; the gate chambers were six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side.

13 Then he measured the gateway from the roof of one gate chamber to the roof of the other; the width was twenty-five cubits, as door faces door.

14 He measured the gateposts, sixty cubits high, and the court all around the gateway extended to the gatepost.

15 From the front of the entrance gate to the front of the vestibule of the inner gate was fifty cubits.

16 There were [h]beveled window frames in the gate chambers and in their intervening archways on the inside of the gateway all around, and likewise in the vestibules. There were windows all around on the inside. And on each gatepost were [i]palm trees.

17 Then he brought me into the [j]outer court; and there were [k]chambers and a pavement made all around the court; [l]thirty chambers faced the pavement.

18 The pavement was by the side of the gateways, corresponding to the length of the gateways; this was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the width from the front of the lower gateway to the front of the inner court exterior, one hundred cubits toward the east and the north.

20 On the [m]outer court was also a gateway facing north, and he measured its length and its width.

21 Its gate chambers, three on this side and three on that side, its gateposts and its archways, had the same measurements as the first gate; its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits.

22 Its windows and those of its archways, and also its palm trees, had the same measurements as the gateway facing east; it was ascended

49 The length of the vestibule was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits; and by the steps which led up to it there were [e]pillars by the doorposts, one on this side and another on that side.

The holy and most holy place, side chambers, the rear buildings and interior

41 THEN he [f]brought me into the sanctuary* and measured the doorposts, six cubits wide on one side and six cubits wide on the other side—the width of the tabernacle.

2 The width of the entryway was ten cubits, and the side walls of the entrance were five cubits on this side and five cubits on the other side; and he measured its length, forty cubits, and its width, twenty cubits.

3 Also he went inside and measured the doorposts, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits high; and the width of the entrance, seven cubits.

4 He measured the length, twenty cubits; and the width, twenty cubits, beyond the sanctuary; and he said to me, [g]"This is the [h]Most Holy Place."

5 Next, he measured the wall of the temple, six [i]cubits. The width of each side chamber all around the temple was four cubits on every side.

6 The side [j]chambers were in three stories, one above the other, thirty chambers in each story; they rested on ledges which were for the side chambers all around, that they might be supported, but [k]not fastened to the wall of the temple.

7 [l]As one went up from story to story, the side chambers became wider all around, because their supporting ledges in the wall of the temple ascended like steps; therefore the width of the structure increased as one went up from the lowest story to the highest by way of the middle one.

8 I also saw an elevation all around the temple; it was the foundation of the side chambers, a full [m]rod, that is, six cubits high.

9 The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits, and so also the remaining terrace by the place of the side chambers of the temple.

10 And between it and the wall chambers was a width of twenty cubits all around the temple on every side.

11 The doors of the side chambers opened on the terrace, one door toward the north and another toward the south; and the width of the terrace was five cubits all around.

12 The building that faced the separating courtyard at its western end was seventy cubits wide; the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the temple, one [n]hundred cubits long; and the separating courtyard with the building and its walls was one hundred cubits long;

14 also the width of the eastern face of the temple, including the separating courtyard, was one hundred cubits.

15 He measured the length of the building behind it, facing the separating courtyard, with its [o]galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits, as well as the inner temple and the porches of the court,

16 their doorposts and the [a]beveled window frames. And the galleries all around their three stories opposite the threshold were paneled with [b]wood from the ground to the windows—the windows were covered—

17 from the space above the door, even to the inner room,* as well as outside, and on every wall all around, inside and outside, by measure.

18 And it was made with [c]cherubim and [d]palm trees, a palm tree between cherub and cherub. Each cherub had two faces,

19 so that the face of a [e]man was toward a palm tree on one side, and the face of a young lion toward a palm tree on the other side; thus it was made throughout the temple all around.

20 From the floor to the space above the door, and on the wall of the sanctuary, cherubim and palm trees were carved.

21 The [f]doorposts of the temple were square, as was the front of the sanctuary; their appearance was similar.

22 The [g]altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits. Its corners, its length, and its sides were of wood; and he said to me, "This is the [h]table that is before the LORD."

23 [i]The temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 The doors had two [j]panels apiece, two folding panels: two panels for one door and two panels for the other door.

25 Cherubim and palm trees were carved on the doors of the temple just as they were carved on the walls. A wooden canopy was on the front of the vestibule outside.

26 There were beveled window frames and palm trees on one side and on the other, on the sides of the vestibule—also on the side chambers of the temple and on the canopies.

The priests' chambers and final measurements of the temple

42 THEN he [k]brought me out into the [l]outer court, by the way toward the [m]north; and he brought me into the [n]chamber which was opposite the [o]separating courtyard, and which was opposite the building toward the north.

2 Facing the length, which was one hundred [p]cubits (the width was fifty cubits), was the north door.

3 Opposite the inner court of twenty cubits, and opposite the [q]pavement of the outer court, was [r]gallery against gallery in three stories.

4 In front of the chambers, toward the inside, was a walk ten cubits wide, at a distance of one cubit; and their doors faced north.

5 Now the upper chambers were shorter, because the galleries took away space from them more than from the lower and middle stories of the building.

6 For they were in three stories and did not have pillars like the pillars of the courts; therefore the upper level was shortened more than the lower and middle levels from the ground up.

7 And a wall which was outside ran parallel to the chambers, at the front of the chambers, toward the outer court; its length was fifty cubits.

8 The length of the chambers toward the outer court was fifty cubits, whereas that facing the temple was one [s]hundred cubits.

9 At the lower chambers was the entrance on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court.

10 Also there were chambers in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, opposite the separating courtyard and opposite the building.

11 There was a walk in front of them also, and their appearance was like the chambers which were toward the north; they were as long and as wide as the others, and all their exits and entrances were according to plan.

12 And corresponding to the doors of the chambers that were facing south, as one enters them, there was a door in front of the walk, the way directly in front of the wall toward the east.

13 Then he said to me, "The north chambers and the south chambers, which are opposite the separating courtyard, are the holy chambers where the priests who [a]approach the LORD [b]shall eat the most holy offerings. There they shall lay the most holy offerings—the [c]grain offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering—for the place is holy.

14 "When the priests enter them, they shall not go out of the holy there they shall [d]leave their [e]garments in which they minister, for they are holy. They shall put on other garments; then they may approach that which is for the people."

15 Now when he had finished measuring the inner temple, he brought me out through the gateway that faces toward the [f]east, and measured it all around.

16 He measured the east side with the measuring rod,* five hundred [g]rods by the measuring rod all around.

17 He measured the north side, five hundred rods by the measuring rod all around.

18 He measured the south side, five hundred rods by the measuring rod.

19 He came around to the west side and measured five hundred rods by the measuring rod.

20 He measured it on the four sides; it had a [h]wall all around, [i]five hundred cubits long and five hundred wide, to separate the holy areas from the [j]common.

Vision of glory of the LORD filling the temple (cp. Ezek. 11:22–24)

43 AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, the gate that faces toward the [k]east.

2 And behold, the [l]glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east. His [m]voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shone with His [n]glory.

3 It was like the appearance of the vision which I saw—like the vision which I saw when I came to destroy the city. The visions were like the vision which I saw by the River
Chebar; and I fell on my face.

4 And the [o]glory of the LORD came into the temple by way of the gate which faces toward the east.

5 The [p]Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court;
and behold, the glory of the LORD
[q]filled the temple.

The place of the throne in the coming kingdom

6 Then I heard Him speaking to me from the temple, while a [r]man stood beside me.

7 And He said to me, "Son of man, this is the [s]place of My throne and the place of the soles of My feet, where I will [t]dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever. No more shall the house of Israel defile
My holy name, they nor their kings, casses of their kings on their [u]high places.

8 "When they set their threshold by My threshold, and their doorpost by My doorpost, with a wall between them and Me, they [v]defiled
My holy name by the abominations which they committed; therefore I have consumed them in My anger.

9 "Now let them put their harlotry and the carcasses of their kings far away from Me, and I will dwell in their midst forever.

10 "Son of man, describe the tem-

may be ashamed of their iniquities;

43:3 when I came. Obviously it was not Ezekiel who came to destroy the city of Jerusalem for her sins, but the LORD Himself. On the basis of the requirements of the context, the reading in some six manuscripts, the version of Theodotion and that of the Vulgate, the best reading is "when He came to destroy the city." A possible rendering, and perhaps preferable, would be to read the final letter of the disputed word as a well-known abbreviation for "LORD," thus giving us the reading "when the LORD came to destroy the city."

12 "This is the law of the temple: The whole area surrounding the [c]mountaintop is most holy. Behold, this is the law of the temple.

Measure of the altar of sacrifice

13 "These are the measurements of the [d]altar in cubits (the [e]cubit is one cubit and a [e]handbreadth): the base one cubit high and one cubit wide, with a rim all around its edge of one [e]span. This is the height of the altar:

14 "from the base on the ground to the lower [f]ledge, two cubits; the width of the ledge, one cubit; from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge, four cubits; and the width of the ledge, one cubit.

15 "The altar hearth is four cubits high, with four [g]horns extending upward from the hearth.

16 "The altar hearth is twelve cubits long, twelve wide, [h]square at its four corners;

17 "the ledge, fourteen cubits long and fourteen wide on its four sides, with a rim of half a cubit around it; its base, one cubit all around; and its [i]steps face toward the east."

18 And He said to me, "Son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: 'These are the ordinances for the altar on the day when it is made, for sacrificing [j]burnt offerings on it, and for [k]sprinkling blood on it.

The offerings

19 'You shall give a young [l]bull for a sin offering to the [m]priests, the Levites, who are of the seed of [n]Zadok, who [o]approach Me to minister to Me,' says the Lord GOD.

20 'You shall take some of its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar, on the four corners of the ledge, and on the rim around it; thus you shall cleanse it and make atonement for it.

21 'Then you shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and [p]burn it in the appointed place of the temple, [q]outside the sanctuary.

22 'On the second day you shall offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull.

23 'When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without blemish, and a ram from the flock without blemish.

24 'When you offer them before the LORD, the priests shall throw [r]salt on them, and they will offer them up as a burnt offering to the LORD.

25 'Every day for [s]seven days you shall prepare a goat for a sin offering; they shall also prepare a young bull and a ram from the flock, both without blemish.

26 'Seven days they shall make atonement for the altar and purify it, and so consecrate it.

27 'When these days are over it shall be, on the [t]eighth day and thereafter, that the priests shall offer your burnt offerings and your peace offerings on the altar; and I will accept you,' says the Lord GOD."

43:19 THE PROBLEM WITH SACRIFICES

A problem is posed by this paragraph (vv. 19–27). Since the NT clearly teaches that animal sacrifices do not in themselves cleanse away sin (Heb. 10:4) and that the one sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ that was made at Calvary completely provides for such expiation (compare Heb. 9:12,26,28; 10:10,14), how can there be a fulfillment of such a prophecy? Two answers have been suggested: (1) Such sacrifices, if actually offered, will be memorial in character. They will, according to this view, look back to our Lord's work on the cross, as the offerings of the old covenant anticipated His sacrifice. They would, of course, have no expiatory value. And (2) the reference to sacrifices is not to be taken literally, in view of the putting away of such offerings, but is rather to be regarded as a presentation of the worship of redeemed Israel, in her own land and in the millennial temple, using the terms with which the Jews were familiar in Ezekiel's day.

tuary which faces toward the east, but it was shut.

2 And the LORD said to me, "This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter by it, because the LORD God of Israel has [a]entered by it; therefore it shall be shut.

3 "As for the [b]prince, because he is the prince, he may sit in it to [c]eat bread before the LORD; [d]he shall enter by way of the vestibule of the gateway, and go out the same way."

The glory fills the house

4 Also He brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple; so I looked, and behold, the [e]glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD; and I fell on my face.

5 And the LORD said to me, "Son of man, [f]mark well, see with your eyes and hear with your ears, all that I say to you concerning all the [g]ordinances of the house of the LORD and all its laws. Mark well who may enter the house and all who go out from the sanctuary.

6 "Now say to the rebellious, to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "O house of Israel, let Us [h]have no more of all your abominations.

7 "When you brought in [i]foreigners, [j]uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary to defile it—My house—and when you offered My food, the fat and the blood, then they broke My covenant because of all your abominations.

8 "And you have not kept charge of My holy things, but you have set others to keep charge of My sanctuary for you."

The priests of the future temple

9 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "No [k]foreigner, uncircumcised in heart or uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter My sanctuary, including any foreigner who is among the children of Israel.

10 "And the [l]Levites who went far from Me, when Israel went astray, who strayed away from Me after their idols, they shall bear their iniquity.

11 "Yet they shall be ministers in My sanctuary, as gatekeepers of the house and ministers of the house; they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them.

12 "Because they ministered to them before their idols and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity, therefore I have [m]raised My hand in an oath against them," says the Lord GOD, "that they shall bear their iniquity.

13 "And they shall [n]not come near Me to minister to Me as priest, nor come near any of My holy things, nor into the Most Holy Place; but they shall bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed.

14 "Nevertheless I will make them [o]keep charge of the temple, for all its work, and for all that has to be done in it.

15 "But the priests, the Levites, the [p]sons of Zadok, who kept charge of My sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from Me, they shall come near Me to minister to Me; and they [q]shall stand before Me to offer to Me the fat and the blood," says the Lord GOD.

16 "They shall [r]enter My sanctuary, and they shall come near My table to minister to Me, and they shall keep My charge.

17 "And it shall be, whenever they enter the gates of the inner court, that [s]they shall put on linen garments; no wool shall come upon them while they minister within the gates of the inner court or within the house.

18 "They shall have linen turbans on their heads and linen trousers on their bodies; they shall not clothe themselves with anything that causes sweat.

31 "The priests [p]shall not eat anything, bird or beast, that died naturally or was torn by wild beasts.

The LORD's district of land

45 "MOREOVER, when you [q]divide the land by lot into inheritance, you shall set apart a [r]district for the LORD, a holy section of the land; its length shall be twenty-five thousand cubits, and the width ten thousand. It shall be holy throughout its territory all around.

2 "Of this there shall be a square plot for the sanctuary, [s]five hundred by five hundred rods, with fifty [t]cubits around it for an open space.

3 "So this is the district you shall measure: twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide; in it shall be the [u]sanctuary, the Most Holy Place.

4 "It shall be a holy section of the land, belonging to the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to the LORD; it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary.

5 "An area twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide shall belong to the Levites, the ministers of the temple; they shall have twenty chambers as a possession.*

6 "You shall appoint as the property of the city an area [v]five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand long, adjacent to the district of the holy section; it shall belong to the whole house of Israel.

Section for the prince

7 "The [w]prince shall have a section on one side and the other of the holy district and the city's property; and bordering on the holy district and the city's property, extending westward on the west side and eastward on the east side, the length shall be side by side with one of the tribal portions, from the west border to the east border.

8 "The land shall be his possession in Israel; and My princes shall no more oppress My people, but they shall [x]give the rest of the land to the house of Israel, according to their tribes."

move violence and plundering, execute justice and righteousness, and stop dispossessing My people," says the Lord GOD.

10 "You shall have [a]honest scales, an honest [b]ephah, and an honest [b]bath.

11 "The ephah and the bath shall be of the same measure, so that the bath contains one-tenth of a [c]homer, and the ephah one-tenth of a homer; their measure shall be according to the homer.

12 "The [d]shekel shall be twenty [d]gerahs; twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, and fifteen shekels shall be your [d]mina.

13 "This is the offering which you shall offer: you shall give one-sixth of an ephah from a homer of wheat, and one-sixth of an ephah from a homer of barley.

14 "The ordinance concerning oil, the bath of oil, is one-tenth of a bath from a [e]kor. A kor is a homer or ten baths, for ten baths are a homer.

15 "And one lamb shall be given from a flock of two hundred, from the rich pastures of Israel. These shall be for grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings, to make atonement for them," says the Lord GOD.

16 "All the people of the land shall [f]give this offering for the prince in Israel.

17 "Then it shall be the [g]prince's part to give burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings, at the feasts, the New Moons, the Sabbaths, and at all the appointed seasons of the house of Israel. He shall prepare the sin offering, the grain offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offerings to make atonement for the house of Israel."

18 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "In the first month, on the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish and cleanse the sanctuary.

19 "The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the gateposts of the gate of the inner court.

20 "And so you shall do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who has [h]sinned unintentionally or in ignorance. Thus you shall make atonement for the temple.

21 [i]"In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall observe the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.

22 "And on that day the prince shall prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a [j]bull for a sin offering.

23 "On the seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams without blemish, daily for seven days, and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering.

24 "And he shall prepare a grain offering of one [k]ephah for each bull and one ephah for each ram, together with a [k]hin of oil for each ephah.

25 "In the seventh month, on the [l]fifteenth day of the month, at the feast, he shall do likewise for seven days, according to the sin offering, the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the oil."

3 "Likewise the [a]people of the land shall worship at the entrance to this gateway before the LORD on the Sabbaths and the New Moons.

4 "The burnt offering that the prince [b]offers to the LORD on the [c]Sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish;

5 "and the grain offering shall be one [d]ephah for a ram, and the grain offering for the lambs, as much as he wants to give, as well as a [d]hin of oil with every ephah.

6 "On the day of the New Moon it shall be a young bull without blemish, six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without blemish.

7 "He shall prepare a grain offering of an [e]ephah for a bull, an ephah for a ram, as much as he wants to give for the lambs, and a [e]hin of oil with every ephah.

8 "When the prince enters, he shall go in by way of the vestibule of the gateway, and go out the same way.

9 "But when the people of the land come [f]before the LORD on the appointed feast days, whoever enters by way of the north [g]gate to worship shall go out by way of the south gate; and whoever enters by way of the south gate shall go out by way of the north gate. He shall not return by way of the gate through which he came, but shall go out through the opposite gate.

10 "The prince shall then be [h]in their midst. When they go in, he shall go in; and when they go out, he shall go out.

11 "At the festivals and the appointed feast days the grain offering shall be an [i]ephah for a bull, an ephah for a ram, as much as he wants to give for the lambs, and a [i]hin of oil with every ephah.

12 "Now when the prince makes a voluntary burnt offering or voluntary peace offering to the LORD, the gate that faces toward the east shall then be opened for him; and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings as he did on the Sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and after he goes out the gate shall be shut.

13 "You shall daily make a burnt offering to the LORD of a lamb of the first year without blemish; you shall prepare it every [j]morning.

14 "And you shall prepare a grain offering with it every morning, a sixth of an [k]ephah, and a third of a [k]hin of oil to moisten the fine flour. This grain offering is a perpetual ordinance, to be made regularly to the LORD.

15 "Thus they shall prepare the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil, as a [l]regular burnt offering every morning."

16 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "If the prince gives a [m]gift of some of his inheritance to any of his sons, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance.

17 "But if he gives a gift of some of his inheritance to one of his servants, it shall be his until the [n]year of liberty, after which it shall return to the prince. But his inheritance shall belong to his sons; it shall become theirs.

18 "Moreover the [o]prince shall not take any of the people's inheritance by [p]evicting them from their property; he shall provide an inheritance for his sons from his own property, so that none of My people may be [q]scattered from his property." ' "

19 Now he brought me through the [r]entrance, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy [s]chambers of the priests which face toward the north; and there a place was situated at their extreme western end.

20 And he said to me, "This is the place where the priests shall [t]boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they shall [u]bake the grain offering, so that they do not bring them out into the outer court to [v]sanctify the people."

The river of the sanctuary
(cp. Zech. 14:8–9; Rev. 22:1–2)

47 THEN he brought me back to the door of the temple; and there was [b]water, flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east, for the front of the temple faced east; the water was flowing from under the right side of the temple, south of the altar.

2 He brought me out by way of the north gate, and led me around on the outside to the outer gateway that faces [c]east; and there was water, running out on the right side.

3 And when the [d]man went out to the east with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand [e]cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the water came up to my ankles.

4 Again he measured one thousand and brought me through the waters; the water came up to my knees. Again he measured one thousand and brought me through; the water came up to my waist.

5 Again he measured one thousand, and it was a river that I could not cross; for the water was too deep, water in which one must swim, a river that could not be crossed.

6 He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?" Then he brought me and returned me to the bank of the river.

7 When I returned, there, along the bank of the river, were very many [f]trees on one side and the other.

8 Then he said to me: "This water flows toward the eastern region, goes down into the valley, and enters the sea. When it reaches the sea, its waters are healed.

9 "And it shall be that every living thing that moves, wherever the rivers go, will live. There will be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters go there; for they will be healed, and everything will live wherever the river goes.

10 "It shall be that fishermen will stand by it from En Gedi to En Eglaim; they will be places for spreading their nets. Their fish will be of the same kinds as the fish of the [g]Great Sea, exceedingly many.

11 "But its swamps and marshes will not be healed; they will be given over to salt.

12 "Along the bank of the river, on this side and that, will grow all kinds of trees used for food; their [h]leaves will not wither, and their fruit will not fail. They will bear fruit every month, because their water flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their [h]leaves for [i]medicine."

VII. The Division of the Land during the Millennial Age, 47:13—48:35

Borders of the land (cp. Gen. 15:18–21)

13 Thus says the Lord GOD: "These are the [j]borders by which you shall divide the land as an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel. [k]Joseph shall have two portions.

14 "You shall inherit it equally with one another; for I [l]raised My hand in an oath to give it to your fathers, and this land shall fall to you as your inheritance.

17 "Thus the boundary shall be from the Sea to [a]Hazar Enan, the border of Damascus; and as for the north, northward, it is the border of Hamath. This is the north side.

18 "On the east side you shall mark out the border from between Hauran and Damascus, and between Gilead and the land of Israel, along the Jordan, and along the eastern side of the sea. This is the east side.

22 "It shall be that you will divide it by [g]lot as an inheritance for yourselves, and for the [h]strangers who dwell among you and who bear children among you. [i]They shall be to you as native-born among the children of Israel; they shall have an inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.

23 "And it shall be that in whatever tribe the stranger dwells, there you shall give him his inheritance," says the Lord GOD.

Division of the land among seven of the tribes (cp. Josh. 13:1—19:51)

48 "NOW these are the names of the tribes: From the [j]northern border along the road to Hethlon at the entrance of Hamath, to Hazar Enan, the border of Damascus northward, in the direction of Hamath, there shall be one section for [k]Dan from its east to its west side;

48:1 northern border. The portion of land provided for each of the twelve tribes runs in parallel strips, east from the Mediterranean Sea, starting with Dan in the north and ending with Gad at the south.

48:8 district. The word (Hebrew terûmâh) translated here, in v. 9, and in 45:1 as "district" denotes something lifted up and describes a presentation to the LORD alone. Here the offering consists of land. In other passages (Ex. 29:27; Num. 15:19, etc.) it is an animal or grain offering.

12 "And this district of land that is set apart shall be to them a thing shall be food for the workers of the district with the property of the city.

THE BOOK OF

DANIEL

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Daniel	Rise and Fall of Kingdoms	6th Cent. B.C.

Background

The book of Daniel, like Revelation in the New Testament, is called an apocalypse, as are also Isaiah 24—27 (the Isaiah Apocalypse), and the visions in Zechariah. "Apocalypse" means unveiling. When wickedness seemed supreme in the world, and evil powers were dominant, an apocalypse was given to show the real situation behind that which was apparent, and to indicate the eventual victory of righteousness upon the earth. Apocalyptic writing uses many figures and symbols. God used this literary form to convey His truth to His people.

The author of this book, Daniel, whose name means God is my judge, was taken in his youth to Babylon in the first deportation under Nebuchadnezzar. He soon excelled in wisdom in this land famous for its wise men, and ultimately rose to become first among the three highest officers of the Medo-Persian Empire (5:29; 6:1–3). His life in Babylon extended to at least 530 B.C.

Daniel is a book of kings and kingdoms, of thrones and dominions. While including a number of historical records, it embodies prophecies of the sequence of kingdoms in "the times of the Gentiles" (Luke 21:24; see Revelation 16:19, note) and portrays the end of this period. It voices the only prophecy in the Old Testament (9:24–27) that sets the time of Christ's first advent.

Historical Events in Daniel

The historical events in Daniel, occurring at the beginning of the times of the Gentiles, illustrate events prophetically set forth in the book as taking place at the end of this period and culminating catastrophically in the termination of Gentile world rule at the return of Christ, the Messiah. Thus, the persecution of the children of God in chapters 3 and 6 foreshadows the more severe and universal persecution of God's people to take place at the end of this age (7:25; 8:24; 12:1); likewise, the blasphemous repudiation of the God of Israel, as in 5:1–4; 6:5–12, will appear in a more universal form and even greater intensity at the end of the age (7:25; 9:26; 11:37,38).

The Old Testament in the New

This book is referred to or quoted many times in the New Testament (compare especially our Lord's reference to Daniel in Matthew 24:15; Mark 13:14) and is the key to Revelation. It exercised a great influence upon the early church; its scheme of four successive empires dominated European historiography until the middle of the eighteenth century.

I. Daniel's Early Life in the Babylonian Court, 1

Daniel in the palace of Nebuchadnezzar

1 IN the third year of the reign of [a]Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.

2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with [b]some of the articles of the house of God, which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the articles into the treasure house of his god.

3 Then the king instructed Ashpenaz, the master of his eunuchs, to bring some of the children of Israel and some of the [c]king's descendants and some of the nobles,

4 young men in whom there was no blemish, but good-looking, gifted in all wisdom, possessing knowledge and quick to understand, who had ability to serve in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the language and literature of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed for them a daily provision of the king's delicacies and of the wine which he drank, and three years of training for them, so that at the end of that time they might serve before the king.

6 Now from among those of the sons of Judah were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.

7 To them the chief of the eunuchs gave names: he gave Daniel the name [d]Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abed-Nego.

Daniel's purpose of heart

8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not [e]defile himself with the portion of the king's delicacies, nor with the [f]wine which he drank; therefore he requested of the chief of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now [g]God had brought Daniel into the favor and goodwill of the chief of the eunuchs.

10 And the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and drink. For why should he see your faces looking worse than the young men who are your age? Then you would endanger my head before the king."

11 So Daniel said to the steward* whom the chief of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 "Please test your servants for ten days, and let them give us vegetables to eat and water to drink.

13 "Then let our appearance be examined before you, and the appearance of the young men who eat the portion of the king's delicacies; and as you see fit, so deal with your servants."

14 So he consented with them in this matter, and tested them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their features appeared [h]better and fatter in flesh than all the young men who ate the portion of the king's delicacies.

16 Thus the steward took away their portion of delicacies and the wine that they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.

17 As for these four young men, God [i]gave them [j]knowledge and skill in all literature and wisdom; and Daniel had [k]understanding in all visions and dreams.

1:1 third year. This is Jehoiakim's third year, Babylonian reckoning (fourth year, Hebrew reckoning, Jer. 25:1). Babylonians called the first year "the year of accession." Daniel was in the first of three deportations (see Jer. 25:11, note). The year was about 605 B.C. Jehoiakim. Daniel was deported about 8 years before Ezekiel.

Nebuchadnezzar: Nebo protect the landmark. The king of Babylon who captured Jerusalem and took the people of Judah into captivity.

Jehoiakim: Jehovah has set up. Son of Josiah. He was made king of Judah by Pharaoh Necho after taking Jehoahaz into captivity.

Daniel: God's judge. A young man from Judah who was taken to Babylon as a captive. He served the king but remained faithful to God and was His prophet.

when the king had said that they should be brought in, the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 Then the king interviewed* them, and among them all none was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; therefore they [a]served before the king.

20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding about which the king examined them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers who were in all his realm.

21 Thus Daniel continued until the first year of King Cyrus.

2 NOW in the second year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; and his spirit was so troubled that his sleep left him.

2 Then the king gave the command to [b]call the magicians, the astrologers, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans to tell the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said to them, "I have had a dream, and my spirit is anxious to know the dream."

4 Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic, "O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will give the interpretation."

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, "My decision is firm: if you do not make known the dream to me, and its interpretation, you shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made an ash heap.

6 "However, if you tell the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts, rewards, and great honor. Therefore tell me the dream and its interpretation."

7 They answered again and said, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will give its interpretation."

8 The king answered and said, "I know for certain that you would gain time, because you see that my decision is firm:

9 "if you do not make known the dream to me, there is only one decree for you! For you have agreed to speak lying and corrupt words before me till the time has changed. Therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can give me its interpretation."

10 The Chaldeans answered the king, and said, "There is not a man on earth who can tell the king's matter; therefore no king, lord, or ruler has ever asked such things of any magician, astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 "It is a difficult thing that the king requests, and there is no other who can tell it to the king except the [c]gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh."

12 For this reason the king was angry and very furious, and gave the command to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 So the decree went out, and they began killing the wise men; and they sought [d]Daniel and his companions, to kill them.

Daniel requests time; prays for wisdom

14 Then with counsel and wisdom Daniel answered Arioch, the captain of the king's guard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon;

15 he answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, "Why is the decree from the king so urgent?" Then Arioch made the decision known to Daniel.

16 So Daniel went in and asked the king to give him time, that he might tell the king the interpretation.
17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the decision known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions,
18 that they might [a]seek [b]mercies from the God of heaven concerning this secret, so that Daniel and his companions might not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

The secret revealed to Daniel

19 Then the [c]secret was revealed to Daniel in a night vision. So Daniel blessed the God of heaven.
20 Daniel answered and said:

"Blessed be the name of God
forever and ever,
[d]For wisdom and might are His.
21 And He [e]changes the [f]times and the seasons;
[g]He removes kings and raises up kings;
He gives wisdom to the wise
And knowledge to those who have understanding.
22 He [h]reveals deep and secret
things;
He knows what is in the
[i]darkness,
And [j]light dwells with Him.
23 "I thank You and praise You,
O God of my fathers;
You have given me wisdom and might,
And have now made known to me what we [k]asked of You,
For You have made known to us the king's demand."

24 Therefore Daniel went to [l]Ari-och, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon.
He went and said thus to him: "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon; [m]take me before the king, and I will tell the king the interpretation."
25 Then Arioch quickly brought Daniel before the king, and said thus to him, "I have found a man of 26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?"

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, "The secret which the king has demanded, the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, and the soothsayers cannot declare to the king.

28 "But there is a [a]God in heaven who reveals secrets, and He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will be in the [b]latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head upon your bed, were these:

2:31 THE VISION OF THE WORLD EMPIRES

The vision prophetically portrays the course of world empire and its destruction by Christ, who called this period "the times of the Gentiles" (Luke 21:24; see Rev. 16:19, note). The four metals composing the statue are explained as symbolizing four empires (vv. 38–40), not necessarily possessing the inhabited earth but divinely authorized to do so (v. 38), and fulfilled in Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece (under Alexander), and Rome. The latter power is seen divided, first into two (the legs), fulfilled in the eastern and western Roman Empires, and then into ten (the toes) (see Dan. 7:26, note). As a whole, the statue gives the imposing outward greatness and splendor of the Gentile world power.

The Striking Stone (2:34–35) destroys the Gentile world system (in its final form) by a sudden and irremediable blow, not by the gradual processes of conversion and assimilation; and then and not before, does the Stone become a mountain which fills "the whole earth" (compare Dan. 7:26–27). Such a destruction of the Gentile monarchy system did not occur at the first advent of Christ. On the contrary, He was put to death by the sentence of an officer of the fourth empire, which was then at the zenith of its power.

After Christ's death the western part of the Roman Empire fell in A.D. 476 and the eastern part in 1453, but no other world empire has superseded Rome because only four empires will precede Christ's return and rule. The interposition of the Church Age between the first and second advents of Christ, as revealed in the NT, is not a part of this vision. The deadly wound suffered by the fourth empire will not be healed by the restoration of the empire until the Church Age has been completed by the rapture of the Church (Rev. 13:3). Thus Gentile world power still continues, and the crushing blow is still suspended.

The detail of the end-time is given in Dan. 7 and Rev. 13—19. It is important to observe that (1) Gentile world power is to end in a sudden catastrophic judgment (see Armageddon, Rev. 16:13–16; 19:17, note); and (2) it is immediately to be followed by the kingdom of heaven. The God of the heavens will not set up His kingdom until after the destruction of the Gentile world system. It is noteworthy that Gentile world dominion begins and ends with a great statue, or image (Dan. 2:31; Rev. 13:14–15).

This Stone must not be identified with the Church, as some hold, for the task of the Church is never said to be the destruction of the nations of the earth.

found. And the stone that struck the image [a]became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

The interpretation: first world empire. Babylon under Nebuchadnezzar (cp. 7:4) 36 "This is the dream. Now we will tell the interpretation of it before the king.

37 "You, O king, are a king of kings. For the God of heaven has given you a kingdom, power, strength, and glory;

38 "and wherever the children of men dwell, or the beasts of the field and the birds of the heaven, He has given them into your hand, and has made you ruler over them all—you are this head of gold.

Second and third world empires: Medo-Persia (cp. 7:5; 8:20) and Greece (cp. 7:6; 8:21)

39 "But after you shall arise another kingdom inferior to yours; then another, a third kingdom of bronze, which shall rule over all the earth.

Fourth world empire: Rome (cp. 7:7; 9:26)

40 "And the [b]fourth kingdom shall be as strong as iron, inasmuch as iron breaks in pieces and shatters everything; and like iron that crushes, that kingdom will break in pieces and crush all the others.

41 "Whereas you saw the feet and toes, partly of potter's clay and partly of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; yet the strength of the iron shall be in it, just as you saw the iron mixed with ceramic clay.

42 "And as the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of clay, [c]so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly fragile.

43 "As you saw iron mixed with ceramic clay, they will mingle with the seed of men; but they will not adhere to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay.

Christ's kingdom to be established on earth (see Matt. 3:2, note)

44 "And in the days of these kings the God of heaven will set up a [d]kingdom which shall never be destroyed; and the kingdom shall not be left to other people; it shall [e]break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever.

45 "Inasmuch as you saw that the [f]stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold—the great God has made known to the king what will come to pass after this. The dream is certain, and its interpretation is sure."

Daniel promoted

46 [g]Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, prostrate before Daniel, and commanded that they should present an offering and incense to him.

47 The king answered Daniel, and said, "Truly [h]your God is the God of [i]gods, the Lord of kings, and a [j]revealer of secrets, since you could reveal this secret."

2:41 strength of the iron. From the head of gold (v. 38) to the iron of the fourth kingdom (Rome) there is deterioration in fineness, but increase in strength (v. 40). Then comes the deterioration of the fourth kingdom in that very quality—strength. (1) Deterioration by division: the kingdom is divided into two, the legs (eastern and western empires), and these are again divided into kingdoms, the number of which, when the Stone strikes the image, will be ten (toes, v. 42; compare 7:23–24). And (2) deterioration by admixture: the iron mixed with the clay.

2:44 This passage fixes, in relation to other predicted events, the time when the millennial kingdom will be established. It will be "in the days of these kings," that is, the days of the ten kings (compare 7:24–27) symbolized by the toes of the image. The ten kings did not exist at the advent of Messiah, nor was the federation even possible until the dissolution of the Roman Empire and the rise of the present nationalistic world system. See Kingdom (OT) (Gen. 1:26; Zech. 12:8, note); Kingdom (NT) (Luke 1:31–33; Rev. 20:4); also notes at Matt. 3:2; 6:33; and 1 Cor. 5:24. In vv. 44–45 the method by which the millennial kindgom will be established is repeated from vv. 34–35, that is, the Striking Stone will crush the statue that represents the world powers that are inimical to God. (See v. 31, note; compare Ps. 2:5 with 2:6; Zech. 14:1–8 with 14:9.)

48 [a]Then the king [b]promoted Daniel and gave him many great gifts; and he made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief administrator over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Also Daniel petitioned the king, and he set [c]Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego over the affairs of the province of Babylon; but Daniel sat in the gate* of the king.

III. The Deliverance of the Three Hebrew Youths from the Fiery Furnace, 3

Nebuchadnezzar's pride: the image of gold

3 NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made an [d]image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits and its width six [e]cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2 And King Nebuchadnezzar sent word to gather together the satraps, the administrators, the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

3 So the satraps, the administrators, the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces gathered together for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then a herald cried aloud: "To you it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages,

5 "that at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, you shall fall down and [f]worship the gold image that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up;

6 "and whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast immediately into the midst of a burning fiery furnace."

7 So at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the horn, flute, harp, and lyre, in symphony with all kinds of music, all the people, nations, and languages fell down and worshiped the gold image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Daniel's three companions refuse to worship the image

8 Therefore at that time certain [g]Chaldeans came forward and [h]accused the Jews.

9 They spoke and said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever!

10 "You, O king, have made a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the gold image;

11 "and whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 "There are certain Jews [i]whom you have set over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego; these men, O king, have [j]not paid due regard to you. They do not serve your gods or worship the gold image which you have set up."

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar, in [k]rage and fury, gave the command to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. So they brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spoke, saying to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, that you do

3:6 fall down and worship. Here is a case of enforced state religion, involving the worship of a man-made image. This phenomenon, appearing at the beginning of the times of the Gentiles and continuing from time to time through history (e.g. Roman emperor worship, Japanese Shinto shrines, and Soviet veneration of Lenin), will reappear at the end of the age when, not only the dragon, but the beast and the image of the beast also will be worshiped under compulsion (Rev. 13:4–15; 14:9–11; 19:20; 20:4; compare 2 Thess. 2:4). There will be increasing stress upon worship at the end of the age, but it will be satanically directed.

Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego: The three friends of Daniel, who chose to disobey the king, were thrown into a fiery furnace and were miraculously saved.

15 "Now if you are ready at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, and you fall down and worship the image which I have made, good! But if you do not worship, you shall be cast immediately into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. And [b]who is the god who will deliver you from my hands?"

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter.

17 "If that is the case, our [c]God whom we serve is able to [d]deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us from your hand, O king.

18 [e]"But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we do not serve your gods, nor will we [f]worship the gold image which you have set up."

Daniel's companions protected in tribulation

19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the expression on his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. He spoke and commanded that they heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated.

20 And he commanded certain mighty men of valor who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, and cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their trousers, their turbans, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore, because the king's command was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then King Nebuchadnezzar was [g]astonished; and he rose in haste and spoke, saying to his counselors, "Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?" They answered and said to the king, "True, O king."

25 "Look!" he answered, "I see four men loose, [h]walking in the midst of the fire; and they are [i]not hurt, and the [j]form of the fourth is like [k]the Son of God."*

Nebuchadnezzar recognizes the deliverance to be of God

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar [l]went near the mouth of the burning fiery furnace and spoke, saying, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, servants of the [m]Most High God, come out, and come here." Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego [n]came from the midst of the fire.

27 And the satraps, administrators, governors, and the king's counselors gathered together, and they saw these men on whose bodies the [o]fire had no power; the hair of their head was not singed nor were their garments affected, and the smell of fire was not on them.

28 Nebuchadnezzar spoke, saying, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, who sent His [p]Angel* and delivered His servants who trusted in Him, and they have frustrated the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they should not serve nor worship any god except their own God!

IV. The Vision and Humbling of Nebuchadnezzar, 4

The king's proclamation to all nations

4 NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king,

[a] To all peoples, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth:

Peace be multiplied to you.

2 I thought it good to declare the signs and wonders that the Most High God has worked for me.

3 How great are His signs,
And how mighty His wonders!
His kingdom is an [b] everlasting kingdom,
And His dominion is from generation to generation.

Nebuchadnezzar's vision of a great tree

4 I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace.

5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me.

6 Therefore I issued a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers came in, and I told them the dream; but they did not make known to me its interpretation.

8 But at last Daniel came before me (his name is Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god; in him is the Spirit of the Holy [c] God), and I told the dream before him, saying:

9 "Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, because I know that the Spirit of the Holy [d] God is in you, and no secret troubles you, explain to me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation.

10 "These were the visions of my head while on my bed:

I was looking, and behold,
A tree in the midst of the earth,
And its height was great.

11 The tree grew and became strong;
Its height reached to the heavens,
And it could be seen to the ends of all the earth.

12 Its leaves were lovely,
Its fruit abundant,
And in it was food for all.
The [e] beasts of the field found shade under it,
The birds of the heavens dwelt in its branches,
And all flesh was fed from it.

13 "I saw in the visions of my head while on my bed, and there was a [f] watcher, a [g] holy one, coming down from heaven.

14 He cried aloud and said thus:

'Chop [h] down the tree and cut off its branches,
Strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit.
Let the beasts get out from under it,
And the birds from its branches.

15 Nevertheless leave the stump and roots in the earth,
Bound with a band of iron and bronze,
In the tender grass of the field.
Let it be wet with the dew of heaven,
And let him graze with the beasts
On the grass of the earth.

16 Let his heart be changed from that of a man,
Let him be given the heart of a beast,

In order [a]that the living may know
[b]That the Most High rules in the [c]kingdom of men, [d]Gives it to whomever He will,
And sets over it the [e]lowest of men.'

18 "This dream I, King Nebuchadnezzar, have seen. Now you, Belteshazzar, declare its interpretation, since all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able, for the Spirit of the Holy [f]God is in you."

Daniel interprets the vision

19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for a time, and his thoughts [g]troubled him. So the king spoke, and said, "Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation trouble you." Belteshazzar answered and said, "My lord, may the [h]dream concern those who hate you, and its interpretation concern your enemies!

20 The tree that you saw, which grew and became strong, whose height reached to the heavens and which could be seen by all the earth,

21 whose leaves were lovely and its fruit abundant, in which was food for all, under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and in whose branches the birds of the heaven had their home—

22 it is [i]you, O king, who have grown and become strong; for your greatness has grown and reaches to the heavens, and your dominion to the end of the earth.

23 And inasmuch as the king saw a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, 'Chop down the tree and destroy it, but leave its stump and roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze in the tender grass of the field; let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let him graze with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him';

24 this is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which has come upon my lord the king:

25 They shall drive you from men, your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make you eat grass like oxen. They shall wet you with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over you, till you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He [j]chooses.

26 And inasmuch as they gave the command to leave the stump and roots of the tree, your kingdom shall be assured to you, after you come to know that Heaven rules.

27 Therefore, O king, let my advice be acceptable to you; [k]break off your sins by being righteous, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor. Perhaps there may be a [l]lengthening of your prosperity."

This divine rule refers to the universal kingdom of God, which (1) includes all things; (2) always exists without interruption; (3) never fails in its purposes; and (4) is generally administered providentially (see vv. 25,32, 34–35; compare Ps. 103:19; 148:8). This kingdom should be distinguished from the mediatorial kingdom of Christ, though the latter issues from it (compare Dan. 7:9–14) and will finally be merged with it (1 Cor. 15:24).

The vision fulfilled;
the king's restoration

28 All this came upon King Nebuchadnezzar.
29 At the end of the [a]twelve months he was walking about the royal palace of Babylon.
30 The king spoke, saying, "Is not this [b]great Babylon, that [c]I have built for a royal dwelling by my mighty power and for the honor of my majesty?"
31 [d]While the word was still in the king's mouth, a voice fell from heaven: [e]"King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: the kingdom has departed from you!
32 And they shall drive you from men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field. They shall make you eat grass like oxen; and seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He chooses."
33 That very hour the word was fulfilled concerning Nebuchadnezzar; he was driven from men and ate grass like oxen; his body was wet with the dew of heaven till his hair had grown like eagles' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.
34 And at the end of the time* I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me; and I blessed the Most High and praised and honored Him who lives forever:

For His dominion is an [f]everlasting dominion,
And His kingdom is from generation to generation.

35 All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as [g]nothing;
He does [h]according to His will in the army of heaven
And among the inhabitants of the earth.
No one can [i]restrain His hand
Or [j]say to Him, "What have You done?"

36 At the same time my reason returned to me, and for the glory of my kingdom, my honor and splendor returned to me. My counselors and nobles resorted to me, I was [k]restored to my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added to me.
37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, [l]praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, all of whose works are [m]truth, and His ways justice. And those who walk in pride He is able to [n]put down.

4:34 I blessed the Most High. Progress may be traced in Nebuchadnezzar's apprehension of the true God: (1) "God is the God of gods [one among the national or tribal gods, but greater than they], the Lord [Adonai, meaning Master] of kings, and a revealer of secrets" (2:47). (2) He is still a Hebrew Deity, but Master of angels and a God who responds to faith (3:28). And (3) here (vv. 34–35) the king rises into a true apprehension of God. Compare Darius, 6:25–27.

Belshazzar: Bel protect the king. A king of Babylon. At one of his banquets a hand appeared and wrote a message on the wall.

5:2 father. The word "father" is used here, as it is frequently employed in the Scriptures, to indicate an ancestor; e.g. David is spoken of as the father of Jesus (Luke 1:31–32). Probably Belshazzar was the grandson of Nebuchadnezzar through his mother.

and his lords, his wives, and his concubines drank from them.

4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold and silver, bronze and iron, wood and stone.

The handwriting on the wall

5 [a]In the same hour the fingers of a man's hand appeared and wrote opposite the lampstand on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace; and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's countenance changed, and his thoughts [b]troubled him, so that the joints of his hips were loosened and his knees knocked against each other.

7 The king cried aloud to bring in the [c]astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spoke, saying to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing, and tells me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold around his neck; and he shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

8 Now all the king's wise men came, but they could not read the writing, or make known to the king its interpretation.

9 Then King Belshazzar was greatly troubled, his countenance was changed, and his lords were astonished.

Daniel interprets the writing

10 The queen, because of the words of the king and his lords, came to the banquet hall. The queen spoke, saying, "O king, live forever! Do not let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your countenance change.

11 "There is a man in your kingdom in whom is the Spirit of the Holy [d]God. And in the days of your father, light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and King Nebuchadnezzar your [e]father—your father the king—made him chief of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers.

12 "Inasmuch as an excellent spirit, knowledge, understanding, interpreting dreams, solving riddles, and explaining enigmas* were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar, now let Daniel be called, and he will give the interpretation."

13 Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king spoke, and said to Daniel, "Are you that Daniel who is one of the captives* from Judah, whom my [f]father the king brought from Judah?

14 "I have heard of you, that the Spirit of [g]God is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you.

15 "Now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing and make known to me its interpretation, but they could not give the interpretation of the thing.

16 "And I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations and explain enigmas. Now if you can read the writing and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold around your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

17 Then Daniel answered, and said before the king, "Let your [h]gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another; yet I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 "O king, the Most High God [i]gave Nebuchadnezzar your father a kingdom and majesty, glory and honor.

19 "And because of the majesty that He gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. Whomever he wished, he [j]executed; whomever he wished, he kept alive; whomever he wished, he set up; and whomever he wished, he put down.

23 "And you have [c]lifted yourself up against the Lord of heaven. They have brought the [d]vessels of His house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. 5:18 THE BIBLICAL ORDER OF THE MONARCHS OF DANIEL'S TIME

(1) Nebuchadnezzar (c. 604–562 B.C.) with whom the captivity of Judah and "the times of the Gentiles" (see Luke 21:24 and Rev. 16:19, notes) began, and who established the first of the four world monarchies (2:37–38; 7:4).

(2) Belshazzar (c. 553–539 B.C.), the Bel-sharusur of the inscriptions, eldest son of Nabonidus and co-regent with his father.

(3) Darius, the Mede (c. 539 B.C.–?), 5:31; 6:1–27; 9:1. Concerning this Darius, secular history awaits further discoveries. It is conjectured that he was Gobryas (Gubaru), a Median official whom Cyrus made ruler of Babylon after the conquest.

(4) Cyrus (c. 539–530 B.C.), with whose rise to power the Medo-Persian world empire came fully into existence (2:39; 7:5). In verses 1–4 of ch. 8 the Median power is seen as the lesser of the two horns of the ram; the Persian power of Cyrus, as the higher horn which appeared last. Under Cyrus, who was named more than a century before his birth (Is. 44:28—45:4), the return of the Jewish remnant to Palestine began (Ezra 1:1–4). See Dan. 11:2, notes.

5:25 MENE . . . UPHARSIN. Each of the three Aramaic words has a double sense. "MENE" (from mena, to number) is repeated for emphasis. God has numbered the days of the Babylonian kingdom. "TEKEL" (from tekal, to weigh) indicates that the kingdom has been morally evaluated by God, and found lacking. "PERES" (from peres, to divide; "Persians" comes from paras) is a prediction that the kingdom is to be divided and given to the Persians. "UPHARSIN" (u is Aramaic for and, as in Hebrew) is the plural of PERES.

5:29 third ruler. Daniel was made third ruler (see vv. 7 and 16) because Nabonidus, the last king of Babylon, had elevated his son Belshazzar to be co-regent over the kingdom in Babylon while he himself resided in Tema in Arabia.

5:31 received the kingdom. Darius was probably made king under Cyrus, the Persian "king of kings" (compare 9:1).

Darius: A Persian king who reluctantly threw Daniel into the lions' den.

so that the king would suffer no loss.

3 Then this Daniel [a]distinguished himself above the governors and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king gave thought to [b]setting him over the whole realm.

The governors and satraps plot against Daniel

4 So the governors and satraps sought to find some [c]charge against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find no charge or fault, because he was faithful; nor was there any error or fault found in him.

5 Then these men said, "We shall not find any charge against this Daniel unless we find it against him [d]concerning the law of his God."

6 So these governors and satraps thronged before the king, and said thus to him: "King Darius, live forever!

7 "All the governors of the kingdom, the administrators and satraps, the counselors and advisors, have [e]consulted together to establish a royal statute and to make a firm decree, that whoever petitions any [f]god or man for thirty days, [g]except you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 "Now, O king, establish the decree and sign the writing, so that it cannot be changed, [h]according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not alter."

9 Therefore King Darius signed the written decree.

Daniel's steadfastness in prayer

10 Now when Daniel [i]knew that the writing was signed, he went home. And in his upper room, with his windows open [j]toward Jerusalem, he knelt down on his knees [k]three times that day, and [l]prayed and gave thanks before his God, as was his custom since early days.

11 Then these men assembled and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 And they went before the king, and spoke concerning the king's decree: "Have you not signed a decree that every man who petitions any [m]god or man within thirty days, [n]except you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?" The king answered and said, "The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not alter."

13 So they answered and said before the king, "That Daniel, who is one of the [o]captives* from Judah, does not show due [p]regard for you, O king, or for the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day."

14 And the king, when he heard these words, was greatly [q]displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he [r]labored till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men approached the king, and said to the king, "Know, O king, that it is the law of the Medes and Persians that no decree or statute which the king establishes may be changed."

Daniel in the lions' den

16 So the king gave the command, and they brought Daniel and cast him into the den of lions. But the king spoke, saying to Daniel, "Your God, whom you serve continually, He will [s]deliver you."

17 Then a stone was brought and laid on the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signets of his lords, that the purpose concerning Daniel might not be changed.

18 Now the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting; and no musicians* were brought before him. Also his sleep went from him.

19 Then the [t]king arose very early in the morning and went in haste to the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried out with a lamenting voice to Daniel. The king spoke, saying to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been [u]able to deliver you from the lions?"

21 Then Daniel said to the king, "O king, live forever!

The decree of Darius

25 Then King Darius wrote:

[e]To all peoples, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth:

Peace be multiplied to you.

26 I make a decree that in every dominion of my kingdom men must tremble and fear before the God of Daniel.

[f]For He is the living God,
And steadfast forever;
His kingdom is the one which shall not be destroyed,
And His dominion shall endure to the end.

27 He delivers and rescues,
And He works signs and wonders
In heaven and on earth,
Who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

VI. Daniel's Vision of the Four Beasts, 7

The dream (cp. 2:31–43)

7 IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head while on his bed. Then he [g]wrote down the dream, telling the main facts.*

2 Daniel spoke, saying, "I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the Great [h]Sea.

3 "And [i]four great beasts came up from the sea, each different from the other.

First world empire: Babylon (cp. 2:37–38)

4 "The first was like a [j]lion, and had [k]eagle's wings. I watched till its wings were plucked off; and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand on two feet like a man, and a [l]man's heart was given to it.

Second world empire: Medo-Persia (cp. 2:39; 8:20)

5 "And suddenly another beast, a second, like a bear. It was raised up on one side, and had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. And they said thus to it: 'Arise, devour much flesh!'

Third world empire: Greece (cp. 2:39; 8:21–22; 10:20; 11:2–4)

7:3 NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S VISION

The monarchy vision of Nebuchadnezzar (ch. 2) covers the same order of fulfillment as Daniel's beast vision, but with this difference: Nebuchadnezzar saw the imposing outward power and splendor of "the times of the Gentiles" (Luke 21:24; compare Rev. 16:19, note), whereas Daniel saw the true character of Gentile world government as rapacious and warlike, established and maintained by force. It is remarkable that the heraldic insignia of the Gentile nations are all beasts or birds of prey.

Fourth world empire: Rome
(cp. vv. 23–24; 2:40–43; 9:26)

7 "After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, exceedingly strong. It had huge iron teeth; it was devouring, breaking in pieces, and trampling the residue with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns.

Rome: final form of fourth world empire; the ten kings and the little horn (vv. 24–27; see v. 14, note)

8 "I was considering the [a]horns, and there was another horn, a [b]little one, coming up among them, before whom three of the first horns were plucked out by the roots. And there, in this horn, were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking pompous words.

The coming of the Son of Man
(vv. 9–14; cp. Matt. 24:27–30; 25:31–34; Rev. 19:11–21)

9 "I watched till thrones were put in place,
And the Ancient of Days was seated;
His garment was [c]white as snow,
And the hair of His head was like pure [d]wool.
His throne was a fiery flame,
Its wheels a burning [e]fire;
10 A fiery stream issued
And came forth from before Him.
A thousand thousands ministered to Him;
[f]Ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him.
The court* was seated,
And the books were opened.

11 "I watched then because of the sound of the pompous words which the [g]horn was speaking; I watched till the [h]beast was slain, and its body destroyed and given to the [i]burning flame.

12 "As for the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away, yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

7:7 horns. The words "horn" and "horns" (OT, qeren; NT keras) are used in Scripture both literally and figuratively. In the latter sense at least three meanings appear: (1) strength in general (Deut. 33:17); (2) arrogant pride (Ps. 75:4–5); and (3) political and military power (Dan. 8:20–21).

7:9 Ancient of Days. This title, while referring here and in v. 13 to God the Father, has equal application to Christ, e.g. v. 22; Rev. 1:8,13–18. Compare Ps. 45:6; 93:2; Mic. 5:2; Hab. 1:12.

7:13 the Son. Literally a son. And they brought Him near before Him. This scene is identical with that of Rev. 5:6–10. There the ascription of praise concerning those who are "kings and priests" (see Dan. 7:18, note) ends with the words, "and we shall reign on the earth." Revelation 6 opens the "distress" of Ps. 2:5, introductory to setting the king on Zion (Ps. 2:6; Rev. 20:4). The vision (7:9–14) reverses the order of events as they will be fulfilled. Verse 13 describes the scene in heaven (compare Rev. 5:6–10) which, in fulfillment, precedes the events which Daniel

7:8 THE VISION OF THE END OF THE GENTILE WORLD

The vision is of the end of Gentile world dominion. The former Roman Empire (the iron kingdom of 2:33–35, 40–44; 7:7) will have ten horns (that is, kings, Rev. 17:12), corresponding to the ten toes of the image. As Daniel considers this vision of the ten kings, there rises up among them a "little horn" (king), who subdues three of the ten kings so completely that the separate identity of their kingdoms is destroyed. Seven kings of the ten are left, and the "little horn," who is "the prince who is to come" of 9:26, the "abomination" of 12:11 and Matt. 24:15, and the "beast rising up out of the sea" of Rev. 13:1–10. He will be the head of the restored fourth world empire (Beast, see Rev. 19:20, note). Some expositors also equate with him the "willful king" of 11:36–45, and the "man of sin" of 2 Thess. 2:3–8.

14 Then to Him was given dominion and glory and a [a]kingdom,
That all peoples, nations, and languages should serve
Him.
His dominion is an everlasting
[b]dominion,
Which shall not pass away,
And His kingdom the one
Which shall not be destroyed.

The interpretation of beast vision

15 "I, Daniel, was grieved in my spirit within my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.
16 "I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me and made known to me the interpretation of these things:
17 'Those great beasts, which are four, are four kings* which arise out of the earth.
18 'But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.'
19 "Then I wished to [c]know the truth about the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, with its teeth of iron and its nails of bronze, which devoured, broke in pieces, and trampled the residue with its feet; 20 "and the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, before which three fell, namely, that [d]horn which had eyes and a mouth which spoke pompous words, whose appearance was greater than his fellows.
21 "I was watching; and the same
[e]horn was making war against the [f]saints, and prevailing against them,
22 "until the Ancient of Days came, and a [g]judgment was made in favor of the [h]saints of the Most High, and the time came for the saints to possess the kingdom.
23 "Thus he said:

'The fourth beast shall be
A fourth kingdom on earth,
Which shall be different from all other kingdoms,
And shall devour the whole
earth,
Trample it and break it in pieces.

Satan's blasphemous leader

24 The [i]ten horns are ten kings
Who shall arise from this kingdom.
And [j]another shall rise after
them;
He shall be different from the first ones,
And shall subdue three kings.
25 He shall [k]speak pompous words against the Most High, Shall persecute* the saints of the Most High,
And shall intend to change

sees in vision in vv. 9–12. The order of fulfillment will be: (1) the investiture of the Son of Man with the kingdom (Dan. 7:13,14; Rev. 5:6–10); (2) the "distress" of Ps. 2:5, fully described in Matt. 24:21–22; Rev. 6—18; (3) the return of the Son of Man in glory to deliver the blow of 2:45 (Dan. 7:9–11; Rev. 19:11–21); and (4) God's judgment of individuals among the nations and the setting up of the kingdom (Dan. 7:10,26–27; Matt. 25:31–46; Rev. 20:1–6).

7:14 Verses 13–14 are identical with Rev. 5:1–7, and precede the fulfillment of Dan. 2:34–35. Verses 13–14 and Rev. 5:1–7 describe the investiture of the Son of Man and Son of David with the kingdom authority, while Dan. 2:34–35 describes the crushing blow (see Armageddon, Rev. 16:13–16; 19:17, note) which destroys Gentile world power, thus clearing the way for the actual setting up of the kingdom of heaven. Verses 34–35 and Rev. 19:19–21 describe the same event.

7:18 saints of the Most High. See "saints" in vv. 22,25, and 27 also. That the Church saints, that is, believers of the Church Age, will also share this rule seems evident in that the Church, having part in the first resurrection, will "reign with Him [Christ] a thousand years" (Rev. 20:6). Compare Rom. 8:17; 2 Tim. 2:10–12; 1 Pet. 2:9; Rev. 1:6; 3:21; 5:10.

7:25 time and times and half a time. The terms found in the OT and NT referring to specific lengths of time in future events require careful consideration, so as to avoid fantastic speculations. The first occurrence of a reference to a period of three and one-half years in the prophetic future is the expression "time and times and half a time" found here. It is also in Dan. 12:7 and Rev. 12:14. This is the same length of time as one-half of the final seven-year period (9:27), and is likewise the period of time expressed in the term "forty-two months" (Rev. 11:2; 13:5), or "one

And all dominions shall serve and obey Him.'

28 "This is the end of the account.* As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly troubled me, and my countenance changed; but I kept the matter in my heart."

VII. The Prophecy of the Defeat of the Persians by the Greeks, and the Desecration of the Temple, 8

The vision of the ram and male goat

8 IN the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar a vision appeared to me—to me, Daniel—after the one that appeared to me the first time.

2 I saw in the vision, and it so happened while I was looking, that I was in Shushan, the citadel, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision that I was by the River Ulai.

3 Then I lifted my eyes and saw, and there, standing beside the river, was a [d]ram which had two horns, and the two horns were high; but one was [e]higher than the other, and the higher one came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, northward, and southward, so that no animal could withstand him; nor was there any that could deliver from his hand, but he did according to his will and became great.

5 And as I was considering, suddenly a [f]male goat came from the west, across the surface of the whole earth, without touching the ground; and the goat had a notable [g]horn between his eyes.

6 Then he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing beside the river, and ran at him with furious power.

7 And I saw him confronting the ram; he was moved with rage against him, attacked the ram, and broke his two horns. There was no power in the ram to withstand him, but he cast

7:26 THE END OF GENTILE WORLD POWER

In the beast vision of ch. 7, the fourth beast (v. 7) is declared to be "the fourth kingdom," that is, the Roman Empire, the "iron" kingdom of ch. 2. The "ten horns" upon the fourth beast (Roman Empire), v. 7, are declared to be "ten kings who shall arise from this kingdom" (v. 24), answering to the ten toes of the image vision of ch. 2. The ten kingdoms, including the regions formerly ruled by Rome, will constitute, therefore, the form in which the fourth or Roman Empire will exist when the whole fabric of Gentile world domination is struck by the stone "cut out of the mountain without hands," that is, Christ (2:44–45; 7:9).

But Daniel sees a "little horn" rise and subdue three of the ten kings (vv. 24–26). His distinguishing mark is hatred of God and believers. He is not to be confused with the little horn of ch. 8, a prophecy fulfilled in Antiochus Epiphanes (see 8:9, note). In Rev. 13 additional particulars of the little horn of Dan. 7 are given (see Rev. 13:1, note).

thousand two hundred and sixty days" (Rev. 12:6).

The three-and-one-half-year period seems to be a reference to the last half of Daniel's seventieth week, also known as the great tribulation.

8:1 The remarkably precise predictions in chs. 8 and 11 about the reign, character, and antecedents of Antiochus Epiphanes, the Hellenistic king who cruelly persecuted the Jews 400 years after the time of Nebuchadnezzar, were advanced by Porphyry, an anti-Christian philosopher of the third century A.D., as proof that the Book of Daniel could not have been written before that time. This view has been followed by many modern critics but should not keep any believer in predictive prophecy from accepting the traditional date. third year. Approximately 551 B.C. vision. This chapter gives details concerning the second and third world kingdoms: the silver and bronze kingdoms of ch. 2; and the bear and leopard kingdoms of ch. 7, that is, the Medo-Persian and Grecian (Macedonian) kingdoms of history. At the time of this vision (8:1), the first world empire was nearing its end. Belshazzar was the last ruler of that monarchy in the city of Babylon. See notes at 5:2,18,29.

8:5 horn. The words "horn" and "horns" (OT, qeren; NT keras) are used in Scripture both literally and figuratively. In the latter sense at least three meanings appear: (1) strength in general (Deut. 33:17); (2) arrogant pride (Ps. 75:4–5); and (3) political and military power (Dan. 8:20–21).

him down to the ground and trampled him; and there was no one that could deliver the ram from his hand.

8 Therefore the male goat grew very great; but when he became strong, the large [a]horn was broken, and in place of it [b]four notable ones came up toward the four winds of heaven.

The little horn

9 And out of one of them came a little [c]horn which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the Glorious Land.

10 And it grew up to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and some of the stars to the ground, and trampled them.

11 He even [d]exalted himself as high as the Prince of the host; and by him the daily sacrifices were taken away, and the place of His sanctuary was cast down.

12 Because of transgression, an army was given over to the horn to oppose the daily sacrifices; and he cast truth down to the ground. He did all this and [e]prospered.

13 Then I heard a [f]holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who was speaking, "How long will the vision be, concerning the daily sacrifices and the transgression of desolation, the giving of both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled underfoot?"

14 And he said to me, "For two

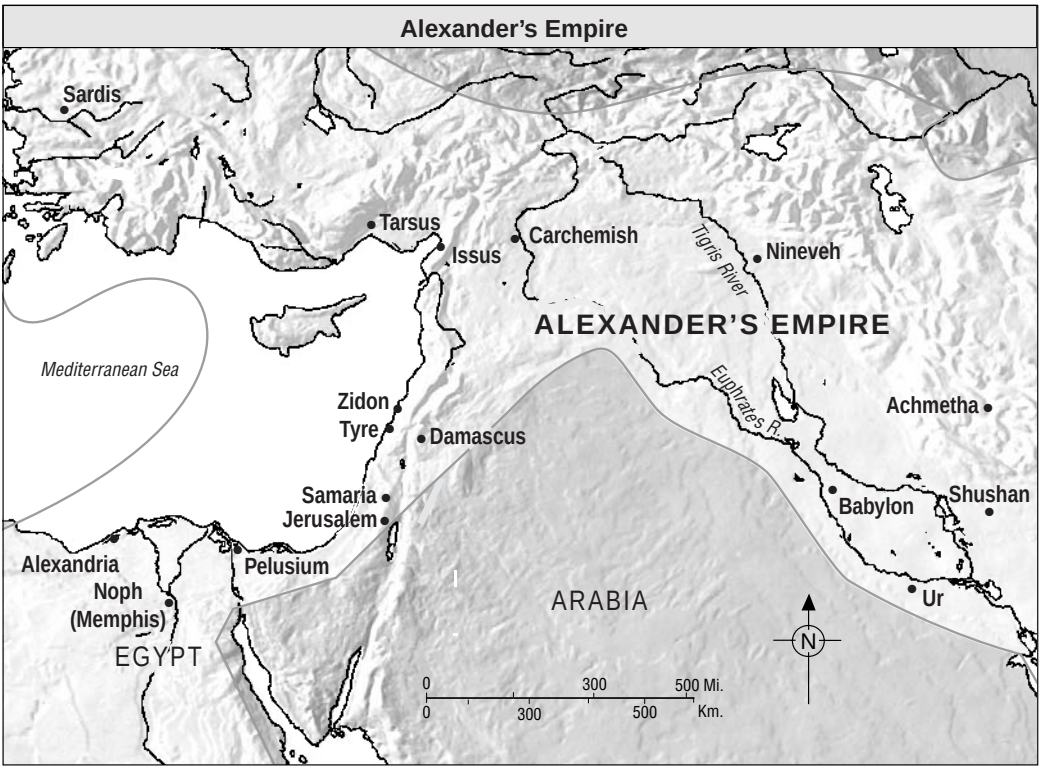
The little horn of this verse (compare v. 23) was fulfilled (171–164 B.C.) in the historical Antiochus Epiphanes, who came out of Syria (one of the four prominent kingdoms of vv. 8,22), and persecuted the Jews and profaned the temple at Jerusalem. He is not to be confused with the little horn of 7:8, who is yet to come in the tribulation period (see vv. 9–13,23). The little horn of 7:8 will rise from the ten horns into which the fourth empire (Roman) will be divided, whereas the little horn of ch. 8 comes out of one of the four horns (vv. 9,22) into which the third empire (Grecian) is divided after Alexander's death (vv. 21–22) in the latter time of the four kingdoms of Alexander's generals (v. 23). Both little horns are violent in their hatred of the Jews and of God, and in their profaning of the temple at Jerusalem (compare 7:25 and 8:10–12).



thousand three hundred days;* then the sanctuary shall be cleansed."

The interpretation of the vision

15 Then it happened, when I, Daniel, had seen the vision and was seeking the meaning, that suddenly there stood before me one having the appearance of a [a]man.

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, who called, and said, [b]"Gabriel, make this man understand the vision."

17 So he came near where I stood, and when he came I was afraid and fell on my face; but he said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision refers to the time of the end."

18 Now, as he was speaking with me, I was in a [c]deep sleep with my face to the ground; but he touched me, and stood me upright.

19 And he [d]said, "Look, I am making known to you what shall happen in the latter time of the indignation; for at the appointed time the end shall be.

The identity of the ram

20 "The ram which you saw, having the two horns—they are the kings of Media and Persia.

The male goat and his successors

21 "And the male goat is the kingdom* of Greece. The large [e]horn that is between its eyes is the first king.

22 "As for the broken horn and the four that stood up in its place, four kingdoms shall arise out of that nation, but not with its power.

The king with fierce features

23 "And in the latter time of their kingdom,
When the transgressors have reached their fullness,
A king shall arise,
Having fierce features,
Who understands sinister schemes.

24 His power shall be mighty, but not by his [f]own power;
He shall destroy fearfully,
And shall prosper and thrive;
He shall destroy the mighty, and also the holy people.

25 "Through [g]his cunning
He shall cause deceit to prosper under his rule;*
And he shall exalt himself in his heart.

8:14 For two thousand three hundred days. This prediction was fulfilled during the bitter persecution under Antiochus Epiphanes and in the cleansing of the sanctuary in Jerusalem.

8:13 THE SEVEN DESOLATIONS

Seven times in Daniel desolation is spoken of:
(1) of the sanctuary (8:13), fulfilled by Antiochus Epiphanes, 171–164 B.C.;
(2) of the sanctuary (9:17), alluding to its condition in Daniel's time, when the Jews were in exile;
(3) generally, of the land (9:18), also referring to Daniel's time;
(4) of the sanctuary (9:26), fulfilled in A.D. 70 in the destruction of city and temple after the cutting off of Messiah (Luke 21:20); and
(5), (6), and (7) of the sanctuary, by the beast, 9:27; 11:31; 12:11. Compare Matt. 24:15; Mark 13:14; 2 Thess. 2:3,8–12; Rev. 13:14–15.

8:17 time of the end. Two "ends" seems to be in view here: (1) historically, the end of the third empire (Grecian) of Alexander, out of one of the divisions of which (Syria) the little horn of v. 9 (Antiochus Epiphanes) arose; and (2) prophetically, the end of "the times of the Gentiles" (see Luke 21:24 and Rev. 16:19, notes)—Daniel's final time of the end (see Dan. 12:4, note).

8:20 ram. Compare vv. 3–4. The higher horn, which came up last, was Persia. The other was Media, which was dominant at first. Compare 6:12. horns. The words "horn" and "horns" (OT, qeren; NT keras) are used in Scripture both literally and figuratively. In the latter sense at least three meanings appear: (1) strength in general (Deut. 33:17); (2) arrogant pride (Ps. 75:4–5); and (3) political and military power (Dan. 8:20–21).

8:22 four. The four kingdoms into which Alexander's empire was divided (4th Cent. B.C.): Macedonia, Syria, Egypt, and Asia Minor. See Dan. 11:4, note.

8:23 king shall arise. Concerning this sinister figure there are three views: (1) Some think he is the "king of the North" referred to in 11:40. (2) Others regard him as a type of the Roman beast of the end time (7:23–27). And (3) some see in this king a direct prophecy of the final Roman beast, thus identifying his geographical origin.

He shall destroy many in their prosperity.
He shall [a]even rise against the Prince of princes;
But he shall be broken without human means.*

26 "And the vision of the evenings and mornings
Which was told is true;
Therefore [b]seal up the vision,
For it refers to many days in the future."

27 And I, Daniel, fainted and was sick for days; afterward I arose and went about the king's business. I was astonished by the vision, but no one understood it.

VIII. Daniel's Prayer, and the Prophecy of the Seventy Weeks, 9

The vision of the seventy weeks (vv. 1–27)

9 IN the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the lineage of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans—

2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years specified by the word of the LORD through Jeremiah the prophet, that He would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

Daniel's confession and prayer

3 Then I [c]set my face toward the Lord God to make request by [d]prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes.

4 And I prayed to the LORD my God, and made confession, and said, "O Lord, great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant and mercy with those who love Him, and with those who keep His commandments,

5 "we have sinned and committed iniquity, we have done wickedly and rebelled, even by departing from Your precepts and Your judgments.

6 "Neither have we heeded Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings and our princes, to our fathers and all the people of the land.

7 "O Lord, righteousness belongs to You, but to us shame of face, as it is this day—to the men of Judah, to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and all Israel, those near and those far off in all the countries to which You have driven them, because of the unfaithfulness which they have committed against You.

8 "O Lord, to us belongs shame of face, to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, because we have sinned against You.

9 "To the Lord our God belong mercy and forgiveness, though we have rebelled against Him.

10 "We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in His laws, which He set before us by His servants the prophets.

11 "Yes, all Israel has transgressed Your [e]law, and has departed so as not to obey Your voice; therefore the curse and the oath written in the Law of Moses the servant of God have been poured out on us, because [f]we have sinned against Him.

12 "And He has [g]confirmed His words, which He spoke against us and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us a great disaster; for under the whole heaven such has [h]never been done as what has been done to Jerusalem.

13 "As it is written in the [i]Law of Moses, all this disaster has come upon us; yet we have not made our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities and understand Your truth.

14 "Therefore the LORD has [j]kept the disaster in mind, and brought it upon us; for the LORD our God is righteous in all the works which He does, though we have not obeyed His voice.

In vv. 4–19 is recorded Daniel's prayer, which arose from the study of the prophetic Scriptures (v. 2; compare Jer. 25) and was a fulfillment of the prophetic portion of Solomon's prayer (1 Kin. 8:33–36). Here there are adoration (v. 4), confession (vv. 5–15), and petition (vv. 16–19). Prophetic study is intended to lead to a deeper spiritual life.

15 "And now, O Lord our God, who brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and made Yourself a [a]name, as it is this day—we have sinned, we have done wickedly!
16 "O Lord, according to all Your righteousness, I pray, let Your anger and Your fury be turned away from Your city [b]Jerusalem, Your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people are a reproach to all those around us.
17 "Now therefore, our God, hear the prayer of Your servant, and his supplications, and for the Lord's sake cause Your face to shine on Your sanctuary, which is desolate.
18 "O my God, incline Your ear and hear; open Your eyes and see our desolations, and the city which is called by Your name; for we do not present our supplications before
You because of our righteous deeds, but because of Your great mercies.
19 "O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive!
O Lord, listen and act! Do not delay for Your own sake, my God, for Your city and Your people are called by Your name."

IX. Daniel's Final Vision, 10—12

The vision of the glory of God 10:1

a Dan. 1:7

10 IN the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a message was revealed to Daniel, whose [a]name was called Belteshazzar. The message was true, but the appointed time was long;* and he understood the message, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three full weeks.

3 I ate no pleasant food, no meat or wine came into my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

9:24

PROPHECY OF THE SEVENTY WEEKS

Daniel's prophecy of the seventy "weeks" ('sevens') (vv. 24–27) provides the chronological frame for Messianic prediction from Daniel to the establishment of the kingdom on earth and also a key to its interpretation. Its main features are as follows:

(1) The entire prophecy is concerned primarily with Daniel's "people" and their "holy city"—that is, Israel and Jerusalem.

(2) Two princes are mentioned; the first is named the "Messiah the Prince" (v. 25); the second is described as "the prince who is to come" (v. 26), a reference to the little horn of ch. 7:8, whose "people" would destroy the rebuilt Jerusalem after the cutting off of the Messianic Prince (v. 26).

(3) The "seventy weeks" of the prophecy are weeks of years, an important sabbatical time-measure in the Jewish calendar. Violation of the command to observe the sabbatical year brought the judgment of the Babylonian captivity and determined its length of seventy years. Compare Lev. 25:1–22; 26:33–35; 2 Chr. 36:19–21; Dan. 9:2. Compare also Gen. 29:26–28 for use of "week" to indicate seven years.

(4) These 490 prophetic years are each 360 days long. This is proved by the biblical references to the seventieth week of seven years, which is divided into two halves (v. 27), the latter half being variously designated as "a time and times, and half a time" (Dan. 7:25; compare Rev. 12:14); forty-two months (Rev. 11:2; 13:5); or 1260 days (Rev. 11:3; 12:6). In this connection it should be remembered that, in the grand sweep of prophecy, prophetic time is invariably so near as to give full warning, so indeterminate as to give no satisfaction to mere curiosity (compare Matt. 24:36; Acts 1:7).

(5) The beginning of the seventy weeks is fixed as "the going forth of the command to restore and build Jerusalem" and its wall (v. 25). The only decree in Scripture authorizing the rebuilding of the city and its wall is recorded in Neh. 2; dated in "the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes" (that is, 445 B.C.), it is well attested in ancient history. From this date as a beginning, the first sixty-nine weeks reach to "the Messiah, the Prince."

(6) At a later time, after the "sixty-two weeks" which follow the first "seven weeks" (that is, after sixty-nine weeks), two important events will take place: (1) Messiah will be "cut off" and will have none of His regal rights ("but not for Himself"). And (2) the rebuilt city and sanctuary will again be destroyed, this time by "the people" of another "prince" who is yet to come. It is generally agreed that these two events were fulfilled in the death of Christ (A.D. 29) and the destruction of Jerusalem by Rome in A.D. 70. Both events are placed before the seventieth week of v. 27. Hence a period of at least forty-one years between the death of Christ and the destruction of Jerusalem must intervene between the sixty-ninth and seventieth weeks.

(7) The main events of the final "one week" (v. 27) are as follows: (1) There is a seven-year "covenant" made by the future Roman prince (the "little horn" of 7:8) with the Jews. (2) In the middle of the week there is a forcible interruption of the Jewish ritual of worship by the Roman prince who introduces "abomination" that renders the sanctuary desolate. (3) At the same time he launches persecution against the Jews. And (4) the end of the seventieth week brings judgment upon the desolator and also brings "everlasting righteousness" (v. 24—that is, the blessings of the Messianic kingdom).

The proof that this final week has not yet been fulfilled is seen in the fact that Christ definitely relates its main events to His second coming (Matt. 24:6,15). Hence, during the interim between the sixty-ninth and seventieth weeks there must lie the whole period of the Church set forth in the NT but not revealed in the OT. The interpretation which assigns the last of the seventy weeks to the end of the age is found in the Church Fathers. When this seventieth week was referred to during the first two and one-half centuries of the Christian Church, it was almost always assigned to the end of the age. Irenaeus places the appearance of Antichrist at the end of the age in the last week; in fact, he asserts that the time of Antichrist's tyranny will last just one-half of the week, three years and six months. So likewise Hippolytus states that Daniel "indicates the showing forth of the seven years which shall be in the last times."

4 Now on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, that is, the Tigris,* 5 I lifted my eyes and looked, and behold, a certain [a]man clothed in [b]linen, whose [c]waist was girded with gold of Uphaz!
6 His body was like beryl, his face like the appearance of [d]lightning, his eyes like [e]torches of fire, his arms and feet like burnished [f]bronze in color, and the sound of his words like the voice of a multitude.
7 And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did [g]not see the vision; but a great terror fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.
8 Therefore I was left alone when I saw this great vision, and no strength [h]remained in me; for my vigor was turned to frailty in me, and I retained no strength.
9 Yet I heard the sound of his words; and while I heard the sound of his words I was in a deep sleep on my face, with my face to the ground.

Conflict: holy and unholy angels

10 Suddenly, a hand touched me, which made me tremble on my knees and on the palms of my hands.
11 And he said to me, "O Daniel, man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for I have now been sent to you." While he was speaking this word to me, I stood trembling.
12 Then he said to me, "Do not fear, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard; and I have come because of your words.
13 "But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; and behold, [i]Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left alone there with the kings of Persia.
14 "Now I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people in the [j]latter days, for the vision refers to many days yet to come."
15 When he had spoken such words to me, I turned my face toward the ground and became speechless.
16 And suddenly, one having the likeness of the sons* of men touched my lips; then I opened my mouth and spoke, saying to him who stood before me, "My lord, because of the vision my sorrows have overwhelmed me, and I have retained no strength.
17 "For how can this servant of my lord talk with you, my lord? As for me, no strength remains in me now, nor is any breath left in me."
18 Then again, the one having the likeness of a man touched me and strengthened me.
19 And he said, "O man greatly beloved, fear not! Peace be to you;
be strong, yes, be strong!" So when he spoke to me I was strengthened, and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me."
20 Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? And now I must return to fight with the prince of Persia; and when I have gone forth, indeed the prince of Greece
will come.
21 "But I will tell you what is noted in the Scripture of Truth. (No one upholds me against these, except Michael your prince.

k Dan. 5:31; 9:1

10:4 Hebrew Hiddekel 10:16 Theodotion and Vulgate read the son; Septuagint reads a hand.

10:4 first month. This is the month of Abib (or Nisan) in the Hebrew religious calendar. It correlates to the modern months of March–April. For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev. 23:2.

10:10 Verses 10–15 probably introduce an angel. Verses 4–9, 16–17 are theophanies.

10:13 prince. Compare v. 20. The intimation is clear that, as the holy angels are sent forth on behalf of the heirs of salvation, so demons are concerned on behalf of the world system of Satan (John 7:7; Rev. 13:8).

11:1 first year. Approximately 539 B.C.

11:2 The spirit of prophecy here returns to that which in Persia, and the fourth shall be far richer than them all; by his strength, through his riches, he shall stir up all against the realm of Greece.

3 "Then a mighty [a]king shall arise, who shall rule with great dominion, and do [b]according to his will.

4 "And when he has arisen, his kingdom shall be broken up and divided toward the [c]four winds of heaven, but not among his posterity nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be uprooted, even for others besides these.

5 "Also the king of the South shall become strong, as well as one of his princes; and he shall gain power over him and have dominion. His dominion shall be a [d]great dominion.

6 "And [e]at the end of some years they shall join forces, for the daughter of the king of the South shall go to the king of the North to make an agreement; but she shall not retain the power of her authority, and neither he nor his authority* shall stand; but she shall be given up, with those who brought her, and with him who begot her, and with him who strengthened her in those times.

7 "But from a branch of her roots one shall arise in his place, who shall come with an army, enter the fortress of the king of the North, and deal with them and prevail.

8 "And he shall also carry their gods captive to Egypt, with their princes* and their precious articles of silver and gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the North.

9 "Also the king of the North shall come to the kingdom of the king of the South, but shall return to his own land.

10 "However his sons shall stir up strife, and assemble a multitude of great forces; and one shall certainly come and overwhelm and pass through; then he shall return to his fortress and stir up strife.

11 "And the king of the South shall be [f]moved with [g]rage, and go out and fight with him, with the king of the North, who shall muster a great multitude; but the [h]multitude shall be given into the hand of his enemy.

12 "When he has taken away the multitude, his heart will be lifted up; and he will cast down tens of thousands, but he will not prevail.

13 "For the king of the North will return and muster a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come at the end of some years with a great army and much equipment.

more immediately concerned Daniel and his royal masters—the near future of the empire in which he was so great a personage. Four kings were yet to follow in Medo-Persia. Then will come Alexander the "mighty king" of Greece (v. 3). The division of Alexander's empire into four parts (v. 4), as already predicted (8:22), is foretold. The turbulent course of affairs in two parts of the disintegrated Alexandrian empire, Syria and Egypt, is then traced down to v. 20. Here Antiochus Epiphanes, the little horn of ch. 8, occupies the vision down to v. 36. His pollution of the sanctuary is again mentioned. See 8:9, note. From v. 36 the interpretation is of the willful king and his activities in the end-time. See Dan. 11:36, note.

11:2 three more kings. The three kings of Persia are probably Cyrus II (550–530 B.C.) referred to in Ezra 1:1 and 2 Chr. 36:22–23; Cambyses, 529–522 B.C., not referred to in the OT; and Darius I Hystaspes, 521–486 B.C. (Ezra 5; 6). The fourth king is either Ahasuerus, 486–465 B.C. (Ezra 4:6) or Artaxerxes I, 465–424 B.C. (Ezra 7:11–26).

11:3 mighty king. The "mighty king" is Alexander the Great who died about 323 B.C. He is referred to also in 7:6; 8:5–8,21–22.

11:4 divided. Following Alexander's death the empire was divided among four of his generals: Cassander, ruling Macedonia; Lysimachus, ruling Thrace and Asia Minor; Ptolemy I, ruling Egypt, whose successors, the Ptolemies, ruled from 323–30 B.C.; and Seleucus, ruling Syria and the remainder of the Near East, whose successors, known as the Seleucids, ruled until c. 65 B.C.

11:5 king of the South. The "king of the South" here is Ptolemy I Soter, 323–285 B.C., and the strong one is Seleucus I Nicator, 312–281, the most powerful of all those ruling in the once-united empire of Alexander. Daniel's prophecy here passes over the second Seleucid king, Antiochus I Soter, 281–261 B.C., though it does speak of a union of these two royal lines through marriage.

11:6 king of the South. This "king of the South" is Ptolemy II Philadelphus, 285–246 B.C. The daughter was Berenice.

11:7 branch. The reference in vv. 7–9 is to Ptolemy III Euergetes, 246–222 B.C. In v. 11, the "king of the South" is Ptolemy IV Philopator, 222–203 B.C.

11:10 his sons. The two rulers of Syria are Seleucus III Ceraunus (sometimes called Soter) 226–223 B.C. and Antiochus III the Great, 223–187 B.C., whose activities continue through v. 19.

14 "Now in those times many shall rise up against the king of the South. Also, violent men* of your people shall exalt themselves in fulfillment of the vision, but they shall [a]fall.

15 "So the king of the North shall come and [b]build a siege mound, and take a fortified city; and the forces* of the South shall not withstand him. Even his choice troops shall have no strength to resist.

16 "But he who comes against him shall do according to his own will, and no one shall stand against him. He shall stand in the Glorious Land with destruction in his power.*

17 "He shall also [c]set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones* with him; thus shall he do. And he shall give him the daughter of women to destroy it; but she shall not stand with him, or be for him.

18 "After this he shall turn his face to the [d]coastlands, and shall take many. But a ruler shall bring the reproach against them to an end; and with the [e]reproach removed, he shall turn back on him.

19 "Then he shall turn his face toward the fortress of his own land; but he shall [f]stumble and fall, and [g]not be found.

20 "There shall arise in his place one who imposes taxes on the glorious kingdom; but within a few days he shall be destroyed, but not in anger or in battle.

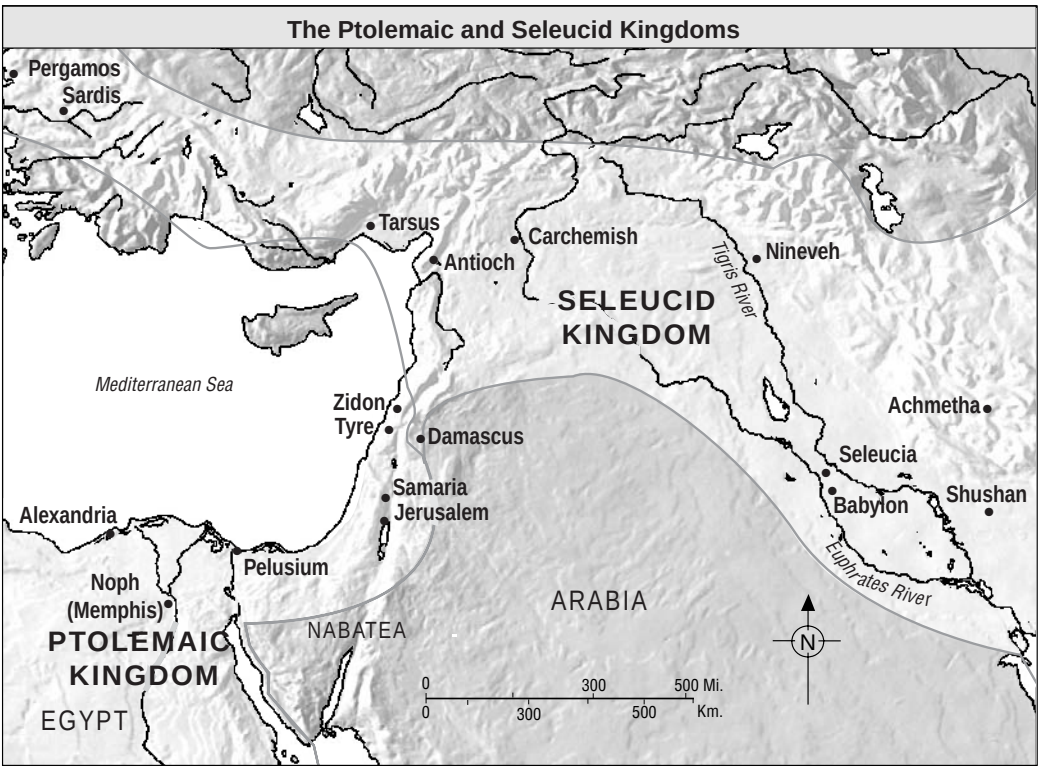
11:15 king of the North. The "king of the North" is Seleucus IV Philopator, 187–175 B.C.

11:21 arise a vile person. This northern king (vv. 21–35)



shall come in peaceably, and seize the kingdom by intrigue.

22 "With the force* of a [a]flood they shall be swept away from before him and be broken, and also the prince of the covenant.

23 "And after the league is made with him he shall act [b]deceitfully, for he shall come up and become strong with a small number of people.

24 "He shall enter [c]peaceably, even into the [d]richest places of the province; and he shall do what his fathers have not done, nor his forefathers: he shall disperse among them the plunder, spoil, and riches; and he shall devise his plans against the strongholds, but only for a time.

25 "He shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the South with a great army. And the king of the South shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand, for they shall devise plans against him.

26 "Yes, those who eat of the portion of his delicacies shall destroy him; his army shall be swept away, and many shall fall down slain.

27 "Both these kings' hearts shall be bent on evil, and they shall [e]speak lies at the same table; but it shall not prosper, for the end will still be at the appointed [f]time.

28 "While returning to his land with great riches, his heart shall be moved against the holy covenant; so he shall do damage and return to his own land.

29 "At the appointed time he shall return and go toward the south; but it shall not be like the former or the latter.

30 "For ships from Cyprus* shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and return in rage against the holy covenant, and do damage. So he shall return and show regard for those who forsake the holy covenant.

31 "And forces* shall be mustered by him, and they shall [g]defile the sanctuary fortress; then they shall take away the daily sacrifices, and place there the abomination of desolation.

32 "Those who do wickedly against the covenant he shall corrupt with flattery; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and carry out great exploits.

33 "And those of the people who understand shall instruct many; yet for many days they shall fall by sword and flame, by captivity and plundering.

34 "Now when they fall, they shall be aided with a little help; but many shall join with them by intrigue.

35 "And some of those of understanding shall fall, to refine them, purify them, and make them white, until the time of the end; because it is still for the appointed time.

Prophecy concerning the willful king

36 "Then the king shall do according to his own will: [h]he shall exalt and magnify himself above every god, shall [i]speak blasphemies against the God of [j]gods, and shall prosper till the wrath has been accomplished; for what has been determined shall be done.

is none other than Antiochus IV Epiphanes, 175–164 B.C., the great persecutor of the Jews and type of Antichrist.

11:25 Verses 25–28 record the first campaign of Antiochus Epiphanes against Egypt.

11:31 Verses 31–35 record the desolation of the Jerusalem temple by Antiochus Epiphanes.

11:32 people . . . shall be strong. For example, the Maccabees, about 168 and following.

11:36 king shall do. Here the prophetic foreview, having traced (vv. 3–20) the two parts of Alexander's empire (Syria and Egypt) which had to do with Palestine and the Jews up till the time of Antiochus Epiphanes, and having described his career (vv. 21–35), overleaps the Church Age and centuries to "the time of the end" (v. 35). Prophecy at this point does not concern itself with history as such but only with history as it affects Israel and the Holy Land. Antiochus Epiphanes was insignificant as compared with many historical personages whom the Bible does not mention, but he scourged the people of God and defiled His holy altar by offering a sow upon it. His attitude and actions toward Israel brought him into prophetic light.

The identity of the willful king is variously interpreted. Some expositors consider him to be the little horn of ch. 7 and the head of the revived Roman Empire. He will disregard all pagan gods ("gods of his fathers," NKJV note) and the Messianic hope, and will honor the god of war (the "god of fortresses"). He is identified as a supreme ruler, who will "magnify himself above every god."

37 "He shall regard neither the [a]God* of his fathers nor the desire of women, nor regard any [a]god; for he shall [b]exalt himself above them all.
38 "But in their place he shall honor a god of fortresses; and a [c]god which his fathers did not know he shall honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and pleasant things.
39 "Thus he shall act against the strongest fortresses with a foreign [d]god, which he shall acknowledge, and advance its glory; and he shall cause them to rule over many, and divide the land for gain.
40 "At the [e]time of the end the king of the South shall attack him; and the king of the North shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter the countries, overwhelm them, and pass through.
41 "He shall also enter the Glorious Land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall escape from his hand: Edom, Moab, and the prominent people of Ammon.
42 "He shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of [f]Egypt shall not escape.
43 "He shall have power over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; also the Libyans and Ethiopians shall follow at his heels.
44 "But news from the east and the north shall trouble him; therefore he shall go out with great fury to destroy and annihilate many.
45 "And he shall plant the tents of his [g]palace between the seas and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and no one will help him.

The great tribulation

12 "AT that time Michael shall stand up,
The great prince who stands watch over the sons of your people;
And there shall be a time of trouble,
[h]Such as never was since there was a nation,
Even to that time.
And at that time your people shall be delivered,
Every one who is found written in the book.

The resurrections

2 And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall [i]awake,
Some to everlasting life,
Some to shame and everlasting contempt.
3 Those who are [j]wise shall shine
[k]Like the brightness of the firmament,
And those who [l]turn many to righteousness
Like the stars forever and ever.

God's last message to Daniel

4 "But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book until the time of the end; many shall [m]run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase."
5 Then I, Daniel, looked; and there stood [n]two others, one on this riverbank and the other on that riverbank.
6 And one said to the man clothed in [o]linen, who was above the waters of the river, "How long shall the fulfillment of these wonders be?"

Another view considers him an unregenerate Jew in the Holy Land in league with the Roman beast (7:8ff.), who is an unbelieving Gentile in Rome (Rev. 17:9ff.). The willful king disregards the God of Israel ("the God of his fathers"); cares nothing for the hope of Messiah ("the desire of [Jewish] women"); and honors the Roman beast (the "god of fortresses"), Rev. 13:11–18.

The doom of the willful king is at the second coming of Christ (v. 45).

Michael: who is like unto God? An archangel who was a prince and protector of God's people.

12:2 those who sleep . . . shall awake. This resurrection concerns Daniel's people (v. 1), that is, the Jews (compare 9:15–16,20,24; 10:14), and is selective; not all, but "many" (v. 2), restricted to those written in the "book" (v. 1). The latter part of v. 2 may be rendered as follows: "These [that is, the ones who awake] to everlasting life; but those [that is, those left in the grave who are yet to awake] to shame and everlasting contempt." This resurrection will occur after the tribulation and concerns OT believers and tribulation believers—not the Church, which will be translated before the tribulation.

7 Then I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he [a]held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by Him who lives forever, that it shall be for a time, times, and half a time; and when the power of the holy people has been completely shattered, all these things shall be finished.

8 Although I heard, I did not understand. Then I said, "My lord, what shall be the end of these things?"

9 And he said, "Go your way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end.

10 "Many shall be purified, made white, and refined, but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand.

11 "And from the time that the daily sacrifice is taken away, and the [b]abomination [c]of desolation is set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12 "Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the one thousand three hundred and thirty-five days.

13 "But you, go your way till the end; for you shall rest, and will arise to your inheritance at the end of the days."

12:4 THE TIME OF THE END

In Daniel the expression "the time of the end" or its equivalent occurs in 8:17–19; 9:26; 11:35,40,45; 12:4,6,9. Summary:

(1) The time of the end in Daniel begins with the violation by "the prince who is to come" (that is, little horn, "man of sin," "beast") of his covenant with the Jews for the restoration of the temple and sacrifice (9:27), and his presentation of himself as God (9:27; 11:36–38; Matt. 24:15; 2 Thess. 2:4; Rev. 13:4–6), and ends with his destruction by the appearing of the Lord in glory (2 Thess. 2:8; Rev. 19:19–20).

(2) The duration of the "time of the end" is three and one-half years, coinciding with the last half of the seventieth week of Daniel (7:25; 12:7; Rev. 13:5). And

(3) this "time of the end" is the "time of Jacob's trouble" (Jer. 30:7); "a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation" (Dan. 12:1); "great tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the world until this time, no, nor ever shall be" (Matt. 24:21). The NT, especially Revelation, adds many details.

12:12 THREE PERIODS OF DAYS

Three periods of "days" date from the "abomination" (that is, the blasphemous assumption of Deity by the beast, v. 11; Matt. 24:15; 2 Thess. 2:4):

(1) Twelve hundred and sixty days to the destruction of the beast (7:25; 12:7; Rev. 13:5; 19:19–20). This is also the duration of the great tribulation (compare 12:4, note).

(2) Dating from the same event is a period of 1290 days, an addition of thirty days (12:11). And

(3) again forty-five days are added, and with them the promise of v. 12. No account is directly given of that which occupies the interval of seventy-five days between the end of the tribulation and the full blessing of v. 12.

It is suggested that the explanation may be found in the prophetic descriptions of the events following the war of Armageddon (Rev. 16:13–16; see 19:17, note). The beast is destroyed and Gentile world dominion ended by the Striking Stone at the end of the 1260 days, but the scene is, so to speak, filled with the debris of the image which the "wind" must carry away before full blessing comes (2:35).

THE BOOK OF

HOSEA

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Hosea	Redeeming Love	8th Cent. B.C.

Background

Hosea, whose name means the LORD saves, carried on his ministry during the days of four different kings of Judah—Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah; and of Jeroboam II, the king of Israel. Hosea was a contemporary of Amos in Israel, and of Isaiah and Micah in Judah, and his ministry continued after the first, or Assyrian, captivity of the northern kingdom.

God's Relationship to Man

The theme of the opening of Hosea's prophecy is the unfaithfulness of Israel, set forth in terms of the marriage relationship, a familiar figure of speech depicting God's relation to His chosen people (Exodus 34:15–16; Leviticus 17:7; 20:5–6; Deuteronomy 32:16,21; Isaiah 54:5). Israel's forsaking of the LORD was brought home to Hosea in the adulterous acts of his own wife, so that his personal experiences became an allegory of God's experience with Israel. She was not only unfaithful, but her sin also took its character from the exalted relationship into which she had been brought.

The major truths of the book are: (1) God suffers when His people are unfaithful to Him; (2) God cannot condone sin; and (3) God will never cease to love His own and, consequently, He seeks to win back those who have forsaken Him.

I. The Prophet's Tragic Experience, 1—3

Introduction

1 THE word of the LORD that came to Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of [a]Uzziah, [b]Jotham, [c]Ahaz, and [d]Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of [e]Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

The marriage: birth of Jezreel

2 When the LORD began to speak by Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea:

"Go, take yourself a wife of harlotry
And children of harlotry,
For the [f]land has committed great harlotry
By departing from the LORD."

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

4 Then the LORD said to him:

"Call his name Jezreel,
For in a little while
I will avenge the bloodshed of Jezreel on the house of Jehu,
And [g]bring an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.
5 It shall come to pass in that day
That I will break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel."

Birth of Lo-Ruhamah

6 And she conceived again and bore a daughter. Then God said to him:

"Call her name Lo-Ruhamah,
For I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel,
But I will utterly take them away.*
7 Yet [h]I will have mercy on the house of Judah,
Will save them by the LORD their God,
And will not save them by bow,
Nor by sword or battle,
By horses or horsemen."

Birth of Lo-Ammi

8 Now when she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son.

9 Then God said:

"Call his name Lo-Ammi,
For you are not My people,
And I will not be your God.

Future restoration of Israel (to 2:1)

10 "Yet the number of the children of Israel
Shall be as the [i]sand of the sea,
Which cannot be measured or numbered.
And it shall come to pass
In the place where it was said to them,
'You are not My [j]people,'*
There it shall be said to them,
'You are sons of the living God.'
11 [k]Then the children of Judah and the children of Israel
Shall be gathered together,
And appoint for themselves one head;
And they shall come up out of the land,

*1:6 Or That I may forgive them at all

Hosea: salvation. A minor prophet who declared God's judgment against idol worship in Israel.

1:2 take yourself a wife. God did not command Hosea to take an immoral wife but permitted him to carry out his desire to marry Gomer, warning him that she would be unfaithful, and using the prophet's tragic experience as a basis for portraying God's relation to Israel during a period of unfaithfulness.

Hosea's marriage is no less historical because his children were given symbolic names as a message to Israel (vv. 4,6,9). Compare Is. 8:18.

1:4 Jezreel. Meaning scattered. 2 Kin. 10:1–14.

Jezreel: God scatters. The city in which Ahab built a palace. He and his family were killed here and Jezebel fell from the palace window.

1:6 Lo-Ruhamah. Meaning no mercy. Is. 27:11.

1:9 Lo-Ammi. Meaning not my people.

1:10 Israel in Hosea usually refers to the ten tribes forming the northern kingdom as distinguished from "Judah," the tribes of Judah and Benjamin, forming the southern kingdom which adhered to the Davidic family. Compare 1 Kin. 12:1–20. The promise of 1:10—2:1 yet awaits fulfillment. See Israel (Gen. 12:2–3; Rom. 11:26, note).

Chastisement of Israel (2 Kin. 17:1–18)

2 "Bring charges against your mother, bring charges;
For she is [c]not My [d]wife, nor am I her Husband!
Let her put away her harlotries
from her sight,
And her adulteries from between her breasts;
3 Lest I [e]strip her naked
And expose her, as in the day
she was [f]born,
And make her like a wilderness,
And set her like a dry land,
And slay her with thirst.
4 "I will not have mercy on her children,
For they are the children of
harlotry.
5 For their mother has played the
harlot;
She who conceived them has behaved shamefully.
For she said, 'I will [g]go after my lovers,
Who give me my bread and my water,
My wool and my linen,
My oil and my drink.'
6 "Therefore, behold,
I will [h]hedge up your way with thorns,
And wall her in,
So that she cannot find her paths.
7 She will chase her lovers,
But not overtake them;
Yes, she will seek them, but not find them.
Then she will say,
'I will go and return to my [i]first husband,
For then it was [j]better for me than now.'
8 For she did not know
That I [k]gave her grain, new wine, and oil,
And multiplied her silver and gold—
Which they prepared for Baal.
9 "Therefore I will return and take away
My grain in its time
And My new wine in its season,
And will take back My wool and My linen,
Given to cover her nakedness.
10 Now I will [l]uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers,
And no one shall deliver her from My hand.
11 I will also cause all her mirth to
[m]cease,
Her feast days,
Her New Moons,
Her Sabbaths—
All her appointed feasts.
12 "And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees,
Of which she has said,
'These are my wages that my lovers have given me.'
So I will make them a forest,
And the beasts of the field shall eat them.
13 I will punish her
For the days of the Baals to which she burned incense.

2:2 "WIFE" OF THE LORD, SUMMARY

Marriage is one of many figures used in Scripture to emphasize the relationship of God to men. This illustration is used in both OT and NT to picture love, intimacy, privilege, and responsibility. In the OT, as here in vv. 16–23, Israel is described as the wife of the LORD, though now disowned because of disobedience. Nevertheless eventually, upon repentance, Israel will be restored. This relationship is not to be confused with that of the Church to Christ (John 3:29). In the mystery of the divine Trinity both are true. The NT speaks of the Church as a virgin espoused to one husband (2 Cor. 11:1–2), which could never be said of an adulterous wife restored in grace. Israel is, then, to be the restored and forgiven wife of the LORD; the Church is the virgin wife of the Lamb (John 3:29; Rev. 19:6–8). Israel will be the LORD's earthly wife (ch. 2:23); the Church, the Lamb's heavenly bride (Rev. 19:7).

Baal: lord. A pagan god of the Moabites and Canaanites.

2:13 Baals. That is, heathen gods and idols.

She decked herself with her earrings and jewelry,
And went after her lovers;
But Me she forgot," says the
LORD.

Restoration of Israel, the adulterous wife

14 "Therefore, behold, I will allure
her,
Will bring her into the wilderness,
And speak comfort to her.
15 I will give her her vineyards from there,
And the Valley of Achor as a door of hope;
She shall sing there,
As in the days of her youth,
As in the day when she came up from the land of Egypt.

16 "And it shall be, in that day,"
Says the LORD,
"That you will call Me [a]'My Husband,'*
And no longer call Me 'My Master,'*
17 For I will take from her mouth
the names of the Baals,
And they shall be remembered by their name no more.
18 In that day I will make a covenant for them
With the [b]beasts of the field,
With the birds of the air,
And with the creeping things of the ground.
Bow and sword of battle I will shatter from the earth,
To make them lie down [c]safely.

19 "I will betroth you to Me forever;
Yes, I will betroth you to Me
In righteousness and justice,
In lovingkindness and mercy;
20 I will betroth you to Me in faithfulness,
And you shall know the LORD.

21 "It shall come to pass in that day
That I will answer," says the
LORD;
"I will answer the heavens,
And they shall answer the earth.
22 The earth shall answer
With grain,
With new wine,
And with oil;
They shall answer Jezreel.*
23 Then I will [d]sow her for Myself
in the earth,
And I will have mercy on her who had not obtained mercy;*
Then I will say to those who were not My [e]people,*
'You are My people!'
And they shall say, 'You are my
God!' "

The future Davidic kingdom, when Israel will fear the LORD

3 THEN the LORD said to me, "Go again, love a woman who is loved by a lover* and is committing adultery, just like the love of the LORD for the children of Israel, who look to other gods and love the raisin cakes of the pagans."

2 So I bought her for myself for fifteen shekels of silver, and one and one-half [f]homers of barley.

3 And I said to her, "You shall stay with me many days; you shall not play the harlot, nor shall you have a man—so, too, will I be toward you."

4 For the children of Israel shall abide many days [g]without [h]king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, without ephod or teraphim.

5 Afterward the children of Israel shall [i]return and seek the LORD their God and David their [j]king. They

3:4 sacred pillar. This prediction has been remarkably fulfilled in the condition of Israel since the time of Christ. Scattered, without political unity under a king or a prince, and performing no sacrifices since the destruction of the temple by the Romans in A.D. 70, they have yet retained their identity and avoided idolatrous worship of sacred stones or idols.

3:5 Chapter 3 is one of the classic OT passages describing Israel's past, present, and future. Her idolatrous shall fear the LORD and His goodness in the latter days.

II. An Indictment of Israel, 4—8

The LORD's charge against the sinful nation

4 HEAR the word of the LORD,
You children of Israel,
For the LORD brings a [a]charge against the inhabitants of the land:

"There is no truth or mercy
Or knowledge of God in the land.
2 By swearing and lying,
Killing and stealing and committing adultery,
They break all restraint,
With bloodshed upon bloodshed.
3 [b]Therefore the land will mourn;
And everyone who dwells there will waste away
With the beasts of the field
And the birds of the air;
Even the fish of the sea will be taken away.

4 "Now let no man contend, or rebuke another;
For your people are like those who [c]contend with the priest.
5 Therefore you shall stumble in the day;
The prophet also shall stumble
with you in the night;
And I will destroy your mother.

Israel's willful ignorance

6 [d]My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
Because you have rejected knowledge,
I also will reject you from being priest for Me;
[e]Because you have forgotten the law of your God,
I also will forget your children.
7 "The more they increased,
The more they sinned against
Me;
[f]I will change* their glory* into shame.
8 They eat up the sin of My
people;
They set their heart on their
iniquity.
9 And it shall be: [g]like people,
like priest.
So I will punish them for their
ways,
And reward them for their
deeds.
10 For they shall [h]eat, but not have enough;
They shall commit harlotry, but not increase;
Because they have ceased
obeying the LORD.

11 "Harlotry, wine, and new wine enslave the heart.

Israel's persistent idolatry

12 My people ask counsel from their wooden idols,
And their staff informs them.
For the spirit of harlotry has caused them to stray,
And they have played the
harlot against their God.
13 They offer [i]sacrifices on the mountaintops,
And burn incense on the hills,
Under oaks, poplars, and terebinths,
Because their shade is good.
[j]Therefore your daughters
commit harlotry,
And your brides commit adultery.

14 "I will not punish your daughters when they
commit harlotry,

past is illustrated by Gomer's unfaithfulness to Hosea (vv. 1–2), despite which Hosea is commanded to love her and buy her back "as the LORD loves the Israelites," a love which led Him to pay the purchase price of the blood of the cross to redeem Israel, the basis of her restoration. The present condition of Israel is illustrated and plainly prophesied in vv. 3–4. Her future is declared in v. 5, showing her repentance toward God who, in His faithfulness, will restore her.

4:6 This is one of the best known and most frequently quoted passages in Hosea.

4:12 informs. That is, speaks like an oracle.

Nor your brides when they commit adultery;
For the men themselves go apart with harlots,
And offer sacrifices with a ritual harlot.*
Therefore people who do not understand will be trampled.

15 "Though you, Israel, play the
harlot,
Let not Judah offend.
Do not come up to Gilgal,
Nor go up to [a]Beth Aven, Nor swear an oath, saying, 'As the LORD lives'—

16 "For Israel is [b]stubborn
Like a stubborn calf;
Now the LORD will let them forage
Like a lamb in open country.

17 "Ephraim is joined to [c]idols,
[d]Let him alone.
18 Their drink is rebellion,
They commit harlotry
continually.
Her rulers dearly love dishonor.*
19 The wind has wrapped her up in its wings,
And they shall be ashamed
because of their sacrifices.

The LORD's face is withdrawn

5 "HEAR this, O priests!
Take heed, O house of Israel!
Give ear, O house of the king!
For yours is the judgment,
Because you have been a snare to Mizpah
And a net spread on Tabor.
2 The revolters are deeply involved in slaughter,
Though I rebuke them all.
3 I know Ephraim,
And Israel is not hidden from
Me;
For now, O Ephraim, you
commit harlotry;
Israel is defiled.

4 "They do not direct their deeds
Toward turning to their God,
For the spirit of harlotry is in their midst,
And they do not know the LORD.
5 The [e]pride of Israel testifies to his face;
Therefore Israel and Ephraim stumble in their iniquity;
Judah also stumbles with them.

6 "With their flocks and herds
They shall go to [f]seek the LORD,
But they will not find Him;
He has withdrawn Himself
from them.
7 They have dealt treacherously with the LORD,
For they have begotten pagan
children.
Now a New Moon shall devour them and their heritage.

8 "Blow[g] the ram's horn in Gibeah,
The trumpet in Ramah!
Cry aloud at [h]Beth Aven,
'Look behind you, O Benjamin!'
9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke;
Among the tribes of Israel I make known what is sure.

10 "The princes of Judah are like those who [i]remove a landmark;
I will pour out My wrath on them like water.
11 Ephraim is [j]oppressed and broken in judgment,
Because he willingly walked by human precept.
12 Therefore I will be to Ephraim like a moth,
And to the house of Judah like
[k]rottenness.

13 "When Ephraim saw his sickness,
And Judah saw his wound,
Then Ephraim [l]went to Assyria
And sent to King Jareb;
Yet he cannot cure you,
Nor heal you of your wound.
14 For I will be like a [m]lion to Ephraim,
And like a young lion to the house of Judah.
I, even I, will tear them and go
away;

All their kings have fallen.

there on him,
Yet he does not know it.
10 And the [p]pride of Israel testifies to his face,
But they do not return to the

Nor seek Him for all this.
11 "Ephraim [q]also is like a silly dove, without sense—
They call to [r]Egypt,
They go to [s]Assyria.

Destruction to them,
Because they have transgressed
against Me!
Though I [u]redeemed them,
Yet they have spoken lies against Me.

with their heart
When they wailed upon their beds.

They have become for him altars for sinning.
12 I have written for him the [i]great things of My law,
But they were considered a strange thing.
13 For the sacrifices of My offerings they sacrifice flesh and eat it,
But the LORD does [j]not accept them.
[k]Now He will remember their iniquity and punish their sins.
They shall return to Egypt.

14 "For Israel has [l]forgotten his Maker,
And has built temples;*
Judah also has multiplied fortified [m]cities;
But I will send fire upon his cities,
And it shall devour his palaces."

III. Retribution on Israel, 9—10

Ephraim punished and cast away

9 DO [n]not rejoice, O Israel, with joy like other peoples,
For you have played the harlot against your God.
You have made love for hire on every threshing floor.
2 The threshing floor and the winepress
Shall not feed them,
And the new wine shall fail in her.

And shall [c]eat unclean things in Assyria.
4 They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD, Nor shall their [d]sacrifices be pleasing to Him.
It shall be like bread of mourners to them;
All who eat it shall be defiled.
For their bread shall be for their own life;
It shall not come into the house
of the LORD.
5 What will you do in the appointed day,
And in the day of the feast of
the LORD?
6 For indeed they are gone
because of destruction.
Egypt shall gather them up;
Memphis shall bury them.
[e]Nettles shall possess their valuables of silver;
Thorns shall be in their tents.
7 The days of punishment have
come;
The days of recompense have
come.
Israel [f]knows!
The prophet is a [g]fool,
The spiritual man is insane,
Because of the greatness of your iniquity and great enmity.
8 The [h]watchman of Ephraim is
with my God;
But the prophet is a fowler's*
snare in all his ways—
Enmity in the house of his God.
9 They are deeply corrupted,
As in the days of [i]Gibeah.
He will remember their
iniquity;
He will punish their sins.
10 "I found Israel
Like grapes in the [j]wilderness;
I saw your fathers
As the [k]firstfruits on the fig tree in its first season.
But they went to [l]Baal Peor,
And separated themselves to that shame;
They became an abomination
like the thing they loved.
11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird—
No birth, no pregnancy, and no conception!
12 Though they bring up their
children,
Yet I will bereave them to the last man.
Yes, woe to them when I depart
from them!
13 Just as I saw Ephraim like [m]Tyre, planted in a pleasant place,
So Ephraim will bring out his children to the murderer."
14 Give them, O LORD—
What will You give?
Give them a miscarrying womb
And dry breasts!
15 "All their wickedness is in [n]Gilgal,
For there I hated them.
Because of the evil of their deeds
I will drive them from My house;
I will love them no more.
All their princes are [o]rebellious.
16 Ephraim is [p]stricken,
Their root is dried up;
They shall bear no fruit.
Yes, were they to bear children,
I would kill the darlings of their womb."
17 My God will [q]cast them away,
Because they did not obey Him;
And they shall be [r]wanderers
among the nations.

2 Their heart is divided;
Now they are held guilty.
He will break down their altars;
He will ruin their sacred pillars.

3 For now they say,
"We have [a]no king,
Because we did not fear the LORD.
And as for a king, what would he do for us?"
4 They have spoken words,
Swearing falsely in making a covenant.
Thus judgment springs up like hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria fear
Because of the [b]calf* of Beth Aven.
For its people mourn for it,
And its priests shriek for it—
Because its [c]glory has departed from it.
6 The idol also shall be carried to Assyria
As a present for King [d]Jareb.
Ephraim shall receive shame,
And Israel shall be ashamed of 7 As for Samaria, her king is cut

Like a twig on the water.
8 Also the [e]high places of Aven,
the [f]sin of Israel,
Shall be destroyed.
The thorn and thistle shall grow on their altars;
They shall say to the

And to the hills, "Fall on us!"

9 "O Israel, you have sinned from the days of [h]Gibeah;
There they stood.
The [i]battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity*
Did not overtake them.
10 When it is My desire, I will

That loves to thresh grain;
But I harnessed her fair neck,
I will make Ephraim pull a

Judah shall plow;
Jacob shall break his clods."

12 Sow for yourselves righteousness;
Reap in mercy;
[k]Break up your fallow ground,
For it is time to seek the LORD,
Till He [l]comes and rains righteousness on you.

13 You have plowed wickedness;
You have reaped iniquity.
You have eaten the fruit of lies,
Because you trusted in your own way,
In the multitude of your mighty
men.
14 Therefore tumult shall arise
among your people,
And all your fortresses shall be
plundered
As Shalman plundered Beth Arbel in the day of battle—
A mother dashed in pieces
upon her children.
15 Thus it shall be done to you,
O Bethel,
Because of your great
wickedness.
At dawn the king of Israel
Shall be cut off utterly.

10:14 Shalman. Or Shalmaneser, 2 Kin. 17:3; 18:9.

11:1 out of Egypt I called My son. This is a reference

2 As they called them,*
So they [a]went from them;*
They sacrificed to the Baals,
And burned incense to carved images.

3 "I taught Ephraim to walk,
Taking them by their [b]arms;*
But they did not know that I healed them.
4 I drew them with gentle cords,*
With bands of love,
And [c]I was to them as those who take the yoke from their neck.*
I stooped and fed them.

5 "He shall not return to the land of Egypt;
But the Assyrian shall be his king,
Because they refused to repent.
6 And the sword shall slash in his cities,
Devour his districts,
And consume them,
Because of their own counsels.
7 My people are bent on backsliding from Me.
Though they call to the Most High,*
None at all exalt Him.

8 "How can I give you up, Ephraim?
How can I hand you over, Israel?
How can I make you like [d]Admah?
How can I set you like Zeboiim?
My heart churns within Me;
My [e]sympathy is stirred.
9 I will not execute the fierceness of My anger;
I will not again destroy Ephraim.
For I am God, and not man,
The Holy One in your midst;
And I will not come with terror.*

10 "They shall walk after the LORD.
He will roar like a lion.
When He roars,
Then His sons shall come trembling from the west;
11 They shall come trembling like a bird from Egypt,
Like a dove from the land of [f]Assyria.
And I will [g]let them dwell in their houses,"
Says the LORD.

12 "Ephraim has encircled Me with lies,
And the house of Israel with deceit;
But Judah still walks with God,
Even with the Holy One* who is faithful.

Further rebuke of Ephraim's sin

12 "EPHRAIM [h]feeds on the wind,
And pursues the east wind;
He daily increases lies and desolation.
Also they make a covenant with the [i]Assyrians,
And oil is carried to Egypt.

2 "The LORD also brings a [j]charge against Judah,
And will punish Jacob according to his ways;
According to his deeds He will recompense him.
3 He took his brother by the [k]heel in the womb,
And in his strength he [l]struggled with God.
4 Yes, he struggled with the [m]Angel and prevailed;
He wept, and sought favor from Him.

Compare Matt. 2:15.

11 Though [c]Gilead has idols—
Surely they are vanity—
Though they sacrifice bulls in

Indeed their altars shall be heaps preserved.

14 Ephraim [h]provoked Him to anger most bitterly;
Therefore his Lord will leave the guilt of his bloodshed upon him,
And return his reproach upon
him.

Ephraim's continuing wickedness

13 [i]WHEN Ephraim spoke, trembling,
He exalted himself in Israel;
But when he offended through
Baal worship, he died.
2 Now they sin more and more,
And have made for themselves
molded images,
Idols of their silver, according to their skill;
All of it is the work of craftsmen.
They say of them,
"Let the men who sacrifice* kiss
the [j]calves!"
3 Therefore they shall be like the morning cloud
And like the early dew that passes away,
Like chaff blown off from a threshing floor
And like smoke from a chimney.

4 "Yet I am the LORD your God
Ever since the land of Egypt,
And you shall know no God but
Me;
For there is no [k]savior besides
Me.
5 I knew you in the wilderness,
In the land of great drought.
6 When they had pasture, they were filled;
They were filled and their heart was exalted;
Therefore they forgot Me.

7 "So I will be to them like a lion;
Like a leopard by the road I will
lurk;
8 I will meet them [l]like a bear deprived of her cubs;
I will tear open their rib cage,
And there I will devour them
like a lion.
The wild beast shall tear them.

V. The Ultimate Restoration of Israel, 13:9—14:9

9 "O Israel, you are destroyed,*
But your help* is from Me.
10 I will be your King;*
Where is any other,
That he may save you in all your cities?
And your judges to whom you said,

LORD your God,
For you have stumbled because of your iniquity;
2 Take words with you,
And return to the LORD.
Say to Him,
"Take away all iniquity;
Receive us graciously,
For we will offer the [h]sacrifices* of our lips.
3 Assyria shall [i]not save us,
We will not ride on horses,
Nor will we say anymore to the 4 "I will heal their [j]backsliding,

I will [k]love them freely,
For My anger has turned away from him.
5 I will be like the [l]dew to Israel;
He shall grow like the lily,
And lengthen his roots like

THE BOOK OF

JOEL

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Joel	Day of the LORD	9th or 8th Cent. B.C.

Background

The book of Joel, whose name means the LORD (Jehovah) is God, is difficult to date because no Israelite king or foreign nation is mentioned in it. Many think that it was written in the time of Jehoash. It describes the invasion of Judah by a plague of locusts that destroyed everything in its path and impoverished the people (1:1—2:11).

God's Relationship to Man

In this situation the prophet urged the people to turn to the LORD (2:12–17). God's merciful answer follows. The passage at 2:18–19 shows the LORD accepting the repentance of the people and promising that He will not only remove from them the plague of locusts (2:20), but that He will also restore to them all that the locusts have eaten (2:23–25). In 2:28ff. the prophet looks far into the future at coming judgment and coming joys. The locust invasion, now only a matter of history, may be taken as a harbinger of invasions of human armies which are yet to come. Great blessings which God promises to pour out upon His people in the latter days are described.

Outline

Joel may be divided into three parts:

I.	The Present Chastisement and Its Removal	1:1—2:27
	A. Introduction	1:1–3
	B. Desolation by Locusts	1:4–13
	C. Desolation by Starvation and Drought	1:14–20
	D. The Victorious Invading Host from the North, Assyria	2: 1–11
	E. Repentance the Only Escape from Invasion	2:12–17
	F. Deliverance Promised if Israel Repents	2:18–27
II.	The Promise of the Spirit	2:28–29
III.	The Future Deliverance in the Coming Day of the LORD	2:30—3:21
	A. The Signs Preceding the Day of the LORD	2:30–32
	B. The Restoration of Israel	3:1
	C. Judgment of Gentile Nations	3:2–17
	D. Final Restoration: Full Kingdom Blessings	3:18–21

I. The Present Chastisement and Its Removal, 1:1—2:27

Introduction

1 THE word of the LORD that came to [a]Joel the son of Pethuel.

2 Hear this, you elders,
And give ear, all you inhabitants of the land!
Has anything like this happened in your days,
Or even in the days of your fathers?
3 [b]Tell your children about it,
Let your children tell their children,
And their children another generation.

Desolation by locusts

4 What the [c]chewing locust* left,
the swarming [d]locust has eaten;
What the swarming locust left,
the crawling locust has eaten;
And what the crawling locust left, the consuming locust has eaten.

5 Awake, you [e]drunkards, and weep;
And wail, all you drinkers of wine,
Because of the new wine,
For it has been cut off from your mouth.
6 For a [f]nation has come up against My land,
Strong, and without number;
His teeth are the teeth of a lion,
And he has the fangs of a fierce lion.
7 He has laid waste My vine,
And ruined My fig tree;
He has stripped it bare and thrown it away;
Its branches are made white.

8 Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth
For the husband of her youth.
9 The grain offering and the drink offering
Have been cut off from the house of the LORD;
The priests [g]mourn, who minister to the LORD.
10 The field is wasted,
The land [h]mourns;
For the grain is ruined,
The new wine is dried up,
The oil [i]fails.

11 Be ashamed, you [j]farmers,
Wail, you vinedressers,
For the wheat and the barley;
Because the harvest of the field has perished.
12 The vine has dried up,
And the fig tree has withered;
The pomegranate tree,
The palm tree also,
And the apple tree—

1:4

THE PLAGUE OF LOCUSTS

Some expositors understand these words to be different stages of the locusts' development. The essential fact is that, according to the usual method of the Spirit in prophecy, some local circumstance is shown to be of spiritual significance, and is made the occasion of a far-reaching prophecy (e.g. Is. 7:1–14, where the Syrian invasion and the unbelief of Ahaz give occasion to the great prophecy of v. 14). Here in Joel a plague of locusts is shown to have symbolic significance (1:13–14), portraying a coming invasion (2:1–11) if repentance is not forthcoming (2:12–17). This impending "day of the LORD" in judgment becomes a foreshadowing of that great climactic day of the LORD, not yet fulfilled (Is. 2:12, refs.).

The picture foreshadows the end-time of Israel's age, of "the times of the Gentiles" (Luke 21:24; Rev. 16:19); of the battle of Armageddon (Rev. 16:14; 19:11–21); of the regathering of Israel (see Rom. 11:26, note); and of kingdom blessing.

The order of events during Israel's last days may be: (1) the invasion of Palestine from the north by Gentile world powers (Joel 2:1–10; Armageddon, Rev. 16:14, refs.); (2) the Lord's army and destruction of the invaders (Rev. 19:11–21); (3) the repentance of Judah in the land (2:12–17; Deut. 30:3, note); (4) the answer of the LORD (2:18–27); (5) the outpouring of the Spirit in Israel's "last days" (2:28–29); (6) the return of the Lord in glory and the setting up of the kingdom (2:30–32; Acts 15:15–17) by the regathering of the nation and the judgment of the nations (3:1–16); and (7) permanent kingdom blessing (3:17–21; Zech. 14:1–21; see Matt. 25:32, note).

All the trees of the field are withered;
Surely [a]joy has withered away from the sons of men.

13 Gird yourselves and lament, you priests;
Wail, you who minister before the altar;
Come, lie all night in sackcloth, You who minister to my God;
For the grain offering and the drink offering
Are withheld from the house of your God.

Desolation by starvation and drought

14 [b]Consecrate a [c]fast,
Call a sacred assembly;
Gather the elders
And all the inhabitants of the land
Into the house of the LORD your God,
And cry out to the LORD.

15 Alas for the day!
For the [d]day of the LORD is [e]at hand;
It shall come [f]as destruction from the Almighty.

16 Is not the food [g]cut off before our eyes,
Joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The seed shrivels under the clods,
Storehouses are in shambles;
Barns are broken down,
For the grain has withered.

18 How the [h]animals groan!
The herds of cattle are restless,
Because they have no pasture;
Even the flocks of sheep suffer punishment.*

19 O LORD, to You I cry out;
For fire has devoured the open pastures,
And a flame has burned all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field also cry out to You,
For the water brooks are dried up,
And fire has devoured the open pastures.

2 BLOW the trumpet in Zion,
And sound an alarm in My holy mountain!
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble;
For the [i]day of the LORD is coming,
For it is at hand:

2 A day of darkness and gloominess,
A day of clouds and thick darkness,
Like the morning clouds spread over the mountains.
A people come, [j]great and strong,
The [k]like of whom has never been;
Nor will there ever be any such after them,
Even for many successive generations.

3 A fire devours before them,
And behind them a flame burns;
The land is [l]like the Garden of Eden before them,
And behind them a desolate wilderness;
Surely nothing shall escape them.

4 Their appearance is like the appearance of [m]horses;
And like swift steeds, so they run.

5 With a noise like chariots

1:15 THE DAY OF THE LORD

The term "day of the LORD [Jehovah]" is that period of time when the LORD openly intervenes in the affairs of men, when man's day has closed (compare 1 Cor. 4:3). It will be inaugurated with the rapture of the Church (1 Cor. 15:50–58; 1 Thess. 4:13–18). Since the prophets saw historical events from God's viewpoint, they saw the unity of God's world program. Thus they discerned that visitations of God in their time were near foreshadowings of an ultimate fulfillment. In this sense the term is frequently used by Joel.

The day of the LORD in prophetic times will cover the time of the coming tribulation (Rev. 6—19) and the reign of Christ on David's throne (Rev. 20). It will be brought to an end by the judgment of the great white throne (Rev. 20:11–15) and the ushering in of the new heavens and earth, called "the day of God" (2 Pet. 3:10–13). See Rev. 19:19, note.

Over mountaintops they leap,
Like the noise of a flaming fire
that devours the stubble,
Like a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before them the people writhe
in pain;
All faces are drained of color.*
7 They run like mighty men,
They climb the wall like men of war;
Every one marches in formation,
And they do not break [a]ranks.
8 They do not push one another;
Every one marches in his own column.*
Though they lunge between the weapons,
They are not cut down.*
9 They run to and fro in the city,
They run on the wall;
They climb into the houses,
They enter at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth quakes before them,
The heavens tremble;
The sun and moon grow [b]dark,
And the stars diminish their brightness.
11 The LORD gives [c]voice before
His army,
For His camp is very great;
For strong is the One who executes His word.
For the [d]day of the LORD is great and very terrible;
Who can endure it?

Only repentance can avert invasion

12 "Now, therefore," says the LORD,
"Turn[e] to Me with all your heart,
With fasting, with weeping,
and with mourning."
13 So rend your heart, and not your garments;
Return to the LORD your God,
For He is gracious and merciful,
Slow to anger, and of great
[f]kindness;
And He [g]relents from doing harm.
14 Who knows [h]if He will turn and [i]relent,
And leave a blessing behind
Him—
A grain offering and a drink offering
For the LORD your God?

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion,
Consecrate a fast,
Call a sacred assembly;
16 Gather the people,
Sanctify the congregation,
Assemble the elders,
Gather the children and nursing babes;
Let the bridegroom go out from his chamber,
And the bride from her dressing room.
17 Let the priests, who minister to
the LORD,
Weep between the porch and
the altar;
Let them say, "Spare Your people, O LORD,
And do not give Your heritage to reproach,
That the nations should rule
over them.
Why should they say among the peoples,
'Where is their God?' "

Deliverance promised if Israel repents

18 Then the LORD will be zealous for His land,
And pity His people.
19 The LORD will answer and say to His people,
"Behold, I will send you grain
and new wine and oil,
And you will be satisfied by
them;
I will no longer make you a reproach among the nations.

20 "But I will remove far from you
the northern army,
And will drive him away into a barren and desolate land,

2:11 His army. In vv. 1–10 the advancing locust plague becomes illustrative of an invading army. (A locust's head resembles a horse's head in miniature.) Verse 11 states that the LORD will bring this army against His people to discipline them for their sin unless they open their hearts in abject and full repentance (vv. 12–17). Only thus can the invasion of the northern (Assyrian) army be averted (v. 20).

With his face toward the eastern sea
And his back toward the western sea;
His stench will come up,
And his foul odor will rise,
Because he has done monstrous things."

21 Fear not, O land;
Be glad and rejoice,
For the LORD has done marvelous things!
22 Do not be afraid, you beasts of the field;
For the open pastures are springing up,
And the tree bears its fruit;
The fig tree and the vine yield their strength.
23 Be glad then, you children of Zion,
And rejoice in the LORD your God;
For He has given you the former [a]rain faithfully,*
And He will cause the rain to come down for you—
The former rain,
And the latter rain in the first month.
24 The threshing floors shall be full of wheat,
And the vats shall overflow with new wine and oil.

25 "So I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten,
The crawling locust,
The consuming locust,
And the chewing locust,*
My great army which I sent among you.
26 You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied,
And praise the name of the LORD your God,
Who has dealt wondrously with you;
And My people shall never be put to [b]shame.
27 Then you shall know that I am in the midst of Israel:
I am the LORD your God
And there is [c]no other.
My people shall never be put to shame.

II. The Promise of the Spirit, 2:28–29

28 "And [d]it shall come to pass afterward
That I will pour out [e]My Spirit on all flesh;
Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
Your old men shall dream dreams,
Your young men shall see visions.
29 And also on My menservants and on My maidservants
I will pour out My Spirit in those days.

III. The Future Deliverance in the Coming Day of the LORD, 2:30—3:21

The signs preceding the day of the LORD (cp. Is. 13:9–10; 24:21–23; Ezek. 32:7–10; Matt. 24:29–30)

30 "And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth:
Blood and fire and pillars of smoke.
31 The sun shall be turned into darkness,
And the moon into blood,
Before the coming of the great and awesome [f]day of the LORD.
32 And it shall come to pass
That whoever calls on the name of the LORD
Shall be saved.
For in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be deliverance,
As the LORD has said,
Among the [g]remnant whom the LORD calls.

2:28 My Spirit. Compare Acts 2:17. Peter did not state that Joel's prophecy was fulfilled on the day of Pentecost. The details of Joel 2:30–32 (compare Acts 2:19–20) were not realized at that time. Peter quoted Joel's prediction as an illustration of what was taking place in his day, and as a guarantee that God would yet completely fulfill all that Joel had prophesied. The time of that fulfillment is stated here ("afterward," compare Hos. 3:5), that is, in the latter days when Israel turns to the LORD. See also Gen. 49:1, note. all flesh. The fulfillment of Moses' desire (Num. 11:29). Compare Is. 32:15; 44:3–4; Ezek. 36:27–28; 37:14; 39:29; Zech. 12:10.

Judgment of Gentile nations (Zech. 12:2–3; 14:9; see Matt. 25:32, note)

2 I will also gather all nations,
And bring them down to the [c]Valley of Jehoshaphat;
And I will enter into judgment with them there
On account of My people, My heritage Israel,
Whom they have scattered
among the nations;
They have also divided up My
land.
3 They have cast lots for My
people,
Have given a boy as payment
for a harlot,
And sold a girl for wine, that they may drink.

4 "Indeed, what have you to do with Me,
O Tyre and Sidon, and all the coasts of Philistia?
Will you retaliate against Me?
But if you retaliate against Me, Swiftly and speedily I will return your retaliation
upon your own head;
5 Because you have taken My silver and My gold,
And have carried into your temples My prized possessions.
6 Also the people of Judah and the people of Jerusalem
You have sold to the Greeks,
That you may remove them far from their borders.

7 "Behold, I will raise them
Out of the place to which you have sold them,
And will return your retaliation
upon your own head.
8 I will sell your sons and your daughters
Into the hand of the people of Judah,
And they will sell them to the Sabeans,*
To a people far off;
For the LORD has spoken."

9 Proclaim this among the nations:
"Prepare for [d]war!
Wake up the mighty men,
Let all the men of war draw near,
Let them come up.
10 Beat your plowshares into swords
And your pruning hooks into spears;
Let the weak say, 'I am strong.' "
11 Assemble and come, all you
nations,
And gather together all around.
Cause Your mighty ones to go down there, O LORD.

12 "Let the nations be wakened, and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat;
For there I will [e]sit to [f]judge all the surrounding nations.
13 Put in the sickle, for the harvest is [g]ripe.
Come, go down;
For the winepress is full,
The vats overflow—
For their wickedness is great."

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision!
For the [h]day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

dark,
And the stars will diminish their brightness.

16 The LORD also will roar from Zion,
And utter His voice from Jerusalem;

But the LORD will be a shelter for His people,
And the strength of the children of Israel.

17 "So you shall know that I am the LORD your God,

THE BOOK OF

AMOS

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Amos	Judgment on Sin	8th Cent. B.C.

Background

Amos, whose name is related to a verb meaning to bear a load, was burdened over the sin of the northern kingdom in the eighth century B.C. Whereas Hosea was crushed with a sense of the unfaithfulness of Israel to the love of God, Amos was outraged at the violence they had done to the justice and righteousness of God. The note he strikes in his prophecy is the counterpart and corollary to the message uttered by Hosea. The words most descriptive of Amos's message are: "But let justice run down like water, and righteousness like a mighty stream" (5:24). Social justice is inseparable from true piety.

I. The Pronouncement of Judgment, 1—2

Introduction

1 THE words of Amos, who was among the [a]sheepbreeders* of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of [b]Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of [c]Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the [d]earthquake.

2 And he said:

"The LORD roars from Zion,
And utters His voice from Jerusalem;
The pastures of the shepherds mourn,
And the top of Carmel withers."

Judgments on surrounding cities and nations

3 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [e]Damascus, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they have [f]threshed Gilead with implements of iron.
4 But I will send a [g]fire into the house of Hazael,
Which shall devour the palaces of [h]Ben-Hadad.
5 I will also [i]break the gate bar of Damascus,
And cut off the inhabitant from the Valley of Aven,
And the one who holds the scepter from Beth Eden.
The people of Syria shall go captive to Kir,"
Says the LORD.

6 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [j]Gaza, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they took captive the whole captivity
To deliver them up to Edom.
7 But I will send a fire upon the wall of Gaza,
Which shall devour its palaces.
8 I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod,
And the one who holds the scepter from Ashkelon;
I will turn My hand against Ekron,
And the remnant of the Philistines shall perish,"
Says the Lord GOD.

9 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [k]Tyre, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom,
And did not remember the covenant of brotherhood.
10 But I will send a fire upon the wall of Tyre,
Which shall devour its palaces."

11 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [l]Edom, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because he pursued his [m]brother with the sword,
And cast off all pity;
His anger tore perpetually,
And he kept his wrath forever.
12 But I will send a fire upon Teman,
Which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah."

Amos: burden. A minor prophet who declared God's judgment on Judah and Israel and the surrounding nations.

1:1 Uzziah. Called Azariah in 2 Kin. 14:21.

1:3 Observe Amos's method of prophesying. Beginning with denunciation of Israel's enemies (compare vv. 3,6,9,11, 13; and 2:1), he wins a hearing from a hostile crowd. Moving nearer, he speaks of the sin of Judah (2:4). Finally, having gained the sympathy of his hearers, he points out the sin of Israel itself (3:1). Isaiah used a similar method (Is. 28).

1:3 For three transgressions . . . and for four. An expression indicating a measure of full iniquity and inevitable judgment.

1:5 gate bar. The gates of ancient cities were secured by heavy bars. It was gates such as these that Samson carried away from Gaza's entrance (Judg. 16:3).

Edom: red. The nation descended from Esau. Located in the rough mountainous area south of Moab and east of Arabah at the base of the Dead Sea. The Edomites had frequent conflicts with the Israelites.

13 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of the people of [a]Ammon, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they ripped open the women with child in Gilead,
That they might enlarge their territory.
14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah,
And it shall devour its palaces,
Amid shouting in the day of battle,
And a tempest in the day of the whirlwind.
15 Their king shall go into [b]captivity,
He and his princes together,"
Says the LORD.

Judgments on surrounding cities and nations (continued)

2 THUS says the LORD:

"For[c] three transgressions of Moab, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because he burned the bones of the king of Edom to lime.
2 But I will send a fire upon Moab,
And it shall devour the palaces of Kerioth;
Moab shall die with tumult,
With shouting and trumpet sound.
3 And I will cut off the judge from its midst,
And slay all its princes with him,"
Says the LORD.

Judgment on God's people: Judah and Israel

4 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [d]Judah, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they have despised the law of the LORD,
And have [e]not kept His commandments.
Their lies lead them [f]astray,
Lies which their fathers followed.
5 But I will send a fire upon Judah,
And it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem."

6 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [g]Israel, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they sell the righteous for silver,
And the [h]poor for a pair of sandals.
7 They pant after* the dust of the earth which is on the head of the poor,
And pervert the way of the humble.

2:5 devour the palaces. By Nebuchadnezzar's army in approximately 586 B.C.

A man and his father go in to the [a]same girl,
To [b]defile My holy name.
8 They lie down by every altar on clothes taken in pledge,
And drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

9 "Yet it was I who destroyed the [c]Amorite before them,
Whose height was like the [d]height of the cedars,
And he was as strong as the oaks;
Yet I destroyed his fruit above
And his roots beneath.
10 Also it was I who brought you up from the land of Egypt,
And led you forty years through the wilderness,
To possess the land of the Amorite.
11 I raised up some of your sons as [e]prophets,
And some of your young men as [f]Nazirites.
Is it not so, O you children of Israel?"
Says the LORD.
12 "But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink,
And commanded the prophets saying,
'Do not [g]prophesy!'

13 "Behold, I am weighed down by you,
As a cart full of sheaves is weighed down.
14 Therefore flight shall perish from the swift,
The strong shall not strengthen his power,
Nor shall the mighty deliver himself;
15 He shall not stand who handles the bow,
The swift of foot shall not escape,
Nor shall he who rides a horse deliver himself.
16 The most courageous men of might Shall flee naked in that [h]day,"
Says the LORD.

II. Inevitable Divine Judgment Because of Sin, 3—4

All twelve tribes guilty

3 HEAR this word that the LORD has spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying:

2 "You only have I known of all the families of the earth;
Therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities."

3 Can two [i]walk together, unless they are agreed?
4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he has no prey?
Will a young lion cry out of his den, if he has caught nothing?
5 Will a bird fall into a snare on the earth, where there is no trap for it?
Will a snare spring up from the earth, if it has caught nothing at all?
6 If a trumpet is blown in a city, will not the people be afraid?
If there is [j]calamity in a city, will not the LORD have done it?

7 Surely the Lord GOD does nothing,

Nazirites: A person or persons under a special vow to dedicate themselves to the Lord. They did not cut their hair, touch a dead body, drink wine or beer, or eat any product of the grapevine.

2:13 I am weighed down. Or I weigh you down.

3:1 the whole family. The language here, and the expression "house of Jacob" (v. 13), evidently give the prophecy a wider application than to Israel, the ten-tribe northern kingdom, though the judgment was executed first upon this kingdom (2 Kin. 17:18–23).

3:2 known. By covenant relationship. Deut. 4:32–37. I will punish you. The LORD's controversy with the Gentile cities which hated Israel is brief: "I will send a fire" (2:2). But Israel had been brought into the place of privilege and so of responsibility, and the LORD's indictment is detailed and unsparing. Compare Matt. 11:23; Luke 12:47–48; 1 Pet. 4:17; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6.

3:3 Observe the seven result-cause questions in vv. 3–6, concluding with the challenge: "If there is calamity in a city, will not the LORD have done it?"

3:6 be afraid. Or run together.

Unless He [a]reveals His secret to His servants the [b]prophets.
8 A lion has roared!
Who will not fear?
The Lord GOD has spoken!
[c]Who can but prophesy?

9 "Proclaim in the palaces at Ashdod,
And in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say:
'Assemble on the mountains of Samaria;
See great tumults in her midst,
And the oppressed within her.
10 For they do [d]not know to do right,'
Says the LORD,
'Who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.' "

11 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"An adversary shall be all around the land;
He shall sap your strength from
you,
And your palaces shall be plundered."

12 Thus says the LORD:

"As a shepherd takes from the mouth of a lion
Two legs or a piece of an ear,
So shall the children of Israel be taken out
Who dwell in Samaria—
In the corner of a bed and on the edge* of a couch!
13 Hear and testify against the house of Jacob,"
Says the Lord GOD, the God of
hosts,
14 "That in the day I punish Israel
for their transgressions,
I will also visit destruction on the altars of [e]Bethel;
And the horns of the altar shall be cut off
And fall to the ground.
15 I will destroy the winter house along with the summer
house;
The houses of ivory shall perish,
And the great houses shall have an end,"
Says the LORD.

The LORD scorns Bethel's sacrifices

4 HEAR this word, you [f]cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria,
Who oppress the [g]poor,
Who crush the needy,
Who say to your husbands,*

2 The Lord GOD has sworn by His
[i]holiness:
"Behold, the days shall come upon you
When He will take you away with fishhooks,
And your posterity with fishhooks.
3 You will go out through broken walls,
Each one straight ahead of her,
And you will be cast into Harmon,"
Says the LORD.

4 "Come to [j]Bethel and transgress,
At Gilgal multiply transgression;
Bring your [k]sacrifices every morning,
Your tithes every three days.*
5 Offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with [l]leaven,
Proclaim and announce the
freewill offerings;

Samaria: guard. The capital of the northern kingdom of Israel.

Bashan: soft, rich soil. A fertile area of land east of the Sea of Galilee.

4:4 Bethel. Compare 1 Kin. 12:25–33. Any altar at Bethel, after the establishment of the LORD's worship at Jerusalem, was of necessity schismatic and idolatrous (Deut. 12:4–14). Compare John 4:21–24; also Matt. 18:20; Heb. 13:10–14.

4:5 thanksgiving with leaven. The use of leaven is significant. Peace with God is something which the believer shares with God. Christ is our peace offering (Eph. 2:13–18). Any thanksgiving for peace must, first of all, present Him. In Lev. 7:12 this is seen, in type, and so leaven is excluded. In Lev. 7:13 it is the offerer who gives thanks for his participation in the peace; so leaven fitly signifies that, although he has peace with God through the work of another, the offerer still has evil in him. This is illustrated in Amos 4:5, where the evil in Israel is before God.

You children of Israel!"
Says the Lord GOD.

Unheeded chastening

6 "Also I gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities.
And [a]lack of bread in all your places;
[b]Yet you have not returned to Me,"
Says the LORD.

7 "I also withheld rain from you,
When there were still three months to the harvest.
I made it rain on one city,
I withheld rain from another city.
One part was rained upon,
And where it did not rain the part withered.
8 So two or three cities wandered to another city to drink water,
But they were not satisfied;
Yet you have not returned to Me,"
Says the LORD.

9 "I blasted you with blight and mildew.
When your gardens increased,
Your vineyards,
Your fig trees,
And your olive trees,
The [c]locust devoured them;
Yet you have not returned to Me,"
Says the LORD.

10 "I sent among you a plague after the manner of [d]Egypt;
Your young men I killed with a sword,
Along with your captive [e]horses;
I made the stench of your camps come up into your nostrils;
Yet you have not returned to Me,"
Says the LORD.

11 "I overthrew some of you,
As God [f]overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah,
And you were like a firebrand plucked from the burning;
Yet you have not returned to Me,"
Says the LORD.

12 "Therefore thus will I do to you, O Israel;
Because I will do this to you,
[g]Prepare to meet your God, O Israel!"

13 For behold,
He who forms mountains,
And creates the wind,
Who [h]declares to man what his* thought is,
And makes the morning darkness,
Who treads the high places of the earth—
The LORD God of hosts is His name.

III. God Pleads with Israel to Return to Him, 5:1–15

5 HEAR this word which I take up against you, a lamentation, O house of Israel:

2 The virgin of Israel has fallen;
She will rise no more.
She lies forsaken on her land;
There is [i]no one to raise her up.

3 For thus says the Lord GOD:

"The city that goes out by a thousand
Shall have a hundred left,
And that which goes out by a hundred
Shall have ten left to the house of Israel."

4 For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel:

"Seek[j] Me and live;
5 But do not seek [k]Bethel,
Nor enter Gilgal,
Nor pass over to Beersheba;
For Gilgal shall surely go into captivity,

Bethel: house of God. A city in central Palestine where God renewed his covenant with Jacob. Jacob built an altar there to mark the place where he spoke with God.

And Bethel shall come to nothing.
6 [a]Seek the LORD and live, Lest He break out like fire in the house of Joseph,
And devour it,
With no one to quench it in Bethel—
7 You who turn justice to wormwood,
And lay righteousness to rest in the earth!"

8 He made the Pleiades and [b]Orion;
He turns the shadow of death into morning
And makes the day dark as night;
He calls for the waters of the sea
And pours them out on the face
of the earth;
The LORD is His name.
9 He rains ruin upon the strong,
So that fury comes upon the fortress.

10 They [c]hate the one who rebukes in the gate,
And they abhor the one who speaks uprightly.
11 [d]Therefore, because you tread down the poor
And take grain taxes from him,
Though you have [e]built houses of hewn stone,
Yet you shall not dwell in them;
You have planted pleasant
vineyards,
But you shall not drink wine
from them.
12 For I [f]know your manifold transgressions
And your mighty sins:
Afflicting the just and taking bribes;
Diverting the poor from justice
at the gate.
13 Therefore the prudent keep silent at that time,
For it is an evil time.

14 Seek good and not evil,
That you may live;
So the LORD God of hosts will be with you,
As you have spoken.
15 Hate evil, love good;
Establish justice in the gate.
It may be that the LORD God of
hosts
Will be gracious to the [g]remnant of Joseph.

IV. Some Phenomena in Relation to the Coming of the LORD, 5:16—9:10

The day of the LORD

16 Therefore the LORD God of hosts, the Lord, says this:

"There shall be wailing in all
streets,
And they shall say in all the highways,
'Alas! Alas!'
They shall call the farmer to mourning,
And skillful lamenters to wailing.
17 In all vineyards there shall be wailing,
For I will pass through you,"
Says the LORD.

18 Woe to you who desire the [h]day of the LORD!
For what good is the day of the LORD to you?
It will be darkness, and not light.
19 It will be as though a man fled from a lion,
And a bear met him!
Or as though he went into the
house,
Leaned his hand on the wall,
And a serpent bit him!
20 Is not the day of the LORD darkness, and not light?
Is it not very dark, with no brightness in it?

Worship without righteousness an abomination to the LORD

21 "I hate, I despise your feast days,
And I do not [i]savor your sacred assemblies.
22 Though you offer Me burnt offerings and your grain offerings,
I will not accept them,
Nor will I regard your fattened peace offerings.
23 Take away from Me the noise of your songs,
For I will not hear the melody of your stringed instruments.
24 But let justice run down like
water,

Woe to those at ease in a time of unrighteousness

6 [d]WOE to you who are at [e]ease
in Zion,
And [f]trust in Mount Samaria,
Notable persons in the chief nation,
To whom the house of Israel comes!
2 Go over to Calneh and see;
And from there go to [g]Hamath
the great;
Then go down to Gath of the Philistines.
Are you better than these kingdoms?
Or is their territory greater than your territory?

3 Woe to you who put [h]far off the day of doom,
Who cause the seat of violence
to come near;
4 Who lie on beds of ivory,
Stretch out on your couches,
Eat lambs from the flock
And calves from the midst of 5 Who sing idly to the sound of

And invent for yourselves
[i]musical instruments [j]like

6 Who [k]drink wine from bowls,
And anoint yourselves with the best ointments,
But are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.
7 Therefore they shall now go [l]captive as the first of the captives,
And those who recline at banquets shall be removed.

8 The Lord GOD has [m]sworn by Himself,
The LORD God of hosts says:
"I abhor the [n]pride of Jacob,
And hate his palaces;
Therefore I will deliver up the city
And all that is in it."

9 Then it shall come to pass, that if [o]ten men remain in one house, they shall die.
10 And when a relative of the dead, with one who will burn the bodies, picks up the bodies* to take them out of the house, he will say to one inside the house, "Are there any more with you?" Then someone will say, "None." And he will say, "Hold your tongue! For we dare not mention the name of the LORD."

11 For behold, the LORD gives a

And the little house into pieces.

6:13 Karnaim. Literally horns. The words "horn" and "horns" (OT, qeren; NT keras) are used in Scripture both literally and figuratively. In the latter sense at least three meanings appear: (1) strength in general (Deut. 33:17); (2) arrogant pride (Ps. 75:4–5); and (3) political and military power (Dan. 8:20–21).

Warning through visions
(cp. 8:1—9:10)

7 THUS the Lord GOD showed me: Behold, He formed locust swarms at the beginning of the late crop; indeed it was the late crop after the king's mowings.
2 And so it was, when they had finished eating the grass of the land, that I said:

"O Lord GOD, forgive, I pray!
Oh, that Jacob may stand,
For he is small!"
3 So the LORD [a]relented concerning this.
"It shall not be," said the LORD.

4 Thus the Lord GOD showed me: Behold, the Lord GOD called for conflict by fire, and it consumed the great deep and devoured the territory.
5 Then I said:

"O Lord GOD, cease, I pray!
Oh, that Jacob may stand,
For he is small!"
6 So the LORD [b]relented
concerning this.
"This also shall not be," said the Lord GOD.

7 Thus He showed me: Behold, the Lord stood on a wall made with a plumb line, with a plumb line in His hand.
8 And the LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said:

"Behold, I am setting a plumb line
In the midst of My people Israel;
I will not pass by them anymore.
9 The [c]high places of Isaac shall be desolate,
And the sanctuaries of Israel
shall be laid waste.
I will rise with the sword
[d]against the house of Jeroboam."

Amaziah sends accusation against Amos to Jeroboam

10 Then Amaziah the [e]priest of [f]Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has [g]conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words.
11 "For thus Amos has said:

'Jeroboam shall die by the sword,
And Israel shall surely be led away [h]captive
From their own land.' "

12 Then Amaziah said to Amos:

"Go, [i]you seer!
Flee to the land of Judah.
There eat bread,
And there prophesy.
13 But [j]never again prophesy at Bethel,
For it is the king's sanctuary,
And it is the royal residence."

The answer of Amos

14 Then Amos answered, and said to Amaziah:

"I was no prophet,
Nor was I a son of a prophet,
But I was a [k]sheepbreeder*
And a tender of sycamore fruit.
15 Then the LORD took me as I followed the flock,
And the LORD said to me,
'Go, [l]prophesy to My people
Israel.'
16 Now therefore, hear the word of the LORD:
You say, 'Do not prophesy against Israel,
And do not spout against the house of Isaac.'

17 "Therefore thus says the LORD:

'Your wife shall be a harlot in
the city;

Basket of summer fruit: Israel's impending captivity

8 THUS the Lord GOD showed me: Behold, a [b]basket of summer fruit.

2 And He said, "Amos, what do you see?" So I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then the LORD said to me:

"The end has come upon My people Israel;
I will [c]not pass by them anymore.
3 And the songs of the temple
Shall be wailing in that day,"
Says the Lord GOD—
"Many dead bodies everywhere,
They shall be thrown out in silence."

4 Hear this, you who swallow up* the needy,
And make the poor of the land fail,

5 Saying:

"When will the New Moon be past,
That we may sell grain?
And the Sabbath,
That we may trade wheat?
Making the [d]ephah small and the shekel large,
Falsifying the scales by [e]deceit,
6 That we may buy the [f]poor for silver,
And the needy for a pair of sandals—
Even sell the bad wheat?"

7 The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob:
"Surely I will never forget any of their works.
8 Shall the land not tremble for this,
And everyone mourn who dwells in it?
All of it shall swell like the River,*
Heave and subside
Like the River of Egypt.

9 "And it shall come to pass in that day," says the Lord
GOD,
"That I will make the sun go down at noon,
And I will darken the earth in broad daylight;
10 I will turn your feasts into [g]mourning,
And all your songs into lamentation;
I will bring sackcloth on every waist,
And baldness on every head;
I will make it like mourning for an only son,
And its end like a bitter day.

11 "Behold, the days are coming,"
says the Lord GOD,
"That I will send a famine on
the land,
Not a famine of bread,
Nor a thirst for water,
[h]But of hearing the words of the
LORD.
12 They shall wander from sea to sea,
And from north to east;
They shall run to and fro, seeking the word of the
LORD,
But shall [i]not find it.

13 "In that day the fair virgins
And strong young men
Shall faint from thirst.
14 Those who swear by the [j]sin* of Samaria,
Who say,
'As your god lives, O Dan!'
And, 'As the [k]way of Beersheba lives!'
They shall fall and never rise
again."

(cp. v. 9 and Deut. 28:63–68)

9 I SAW the Lord standing by the altar, and He said:

"Strike the doorposts, that the thresholds may shake,
And break them on the heads of them all.
I will slay the last of them with the sword.
He who flees from them shall not get away,
And he who escapes from them shall not be delivered.

2 "Though[a] they dig into [b]hell,*
From there My hand shall take them;
[c]Though they climb up to heaven,
From there I will bring them down;
3 And though they [d]hide themselves on top of Carmel,
From there I will search and take them;
Though they hide from My sight at the bottom of the sea,
From there I will command the serpent, and it shall bite them;
4 Though they go into captivity before their enemies,
From there I will command the sword,
And it shall slay them.
I will set My eyes on them for [e]harm and not for good."

5 The Lord GOD of hosts,
He who touches the earth and it melts,
And all who dwell there mourn;
All of it shall swell like the River,
And subside like the River of Egypt.
6 He who builds His layers in the sky,
And has founded His strata in the earth;
Who calls for the waters of the sea,
And pours them out on the face of the earth—
The LORD is His [f]name.

7 "Are you not like the people of [g]Ethiopia to Me,
O children of Israel?" says the LORD.
"Did I not bring up Israel from the land of Egypt,
The Philistines from Caphtor,
And the Syrians from Kir?

8 "Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are on the sinful kingdom,
And I will destroy it from the face of the earth;
Yet I will [h]not utterly destroy the house of Jacob,"
Says the LORD.

9 "For surely I will command,
And will [i]sift the house of Israel among all nations,
As grain is sifted in a sieve;
[j]Yet not the smallest grain shall fall to the ground.
10 All the sinners of My people shall die by the sword,
Who say, 'The calamity shall [k]not overtake nor confront us.'

They shall build the waste cities and inhabit them;
They shall plant vineyards and drink wine from them;
They shall also make gardens and eat fruit from them.

by a tabernacle (literally "booth"), was in a degraded condition. Compare Is. 11:1. On the basis of this verse the Talmudic rabbis called Messiah Bar Naphli ("the son of the fallen"). But He will arise (Mal. 4:2).

9:12 The ancient Greek translation rendered this verse as follows: "That the rest of mankind may seek [the LORD], and all the nations upon whom My name is called," says the LORD, who does all these things. Strange as it may seem to those who are unfamiliar with the Hebrew language, the Hebrew text may be rendered this way, with little more than the change of one letter. The corruption of this letter must have occurred after the time of the apostles, for James thus quoted the verse at the Jerusalem Council, and based his decision upon it (Acts 15:14–17). There were learned men present, some of them hostile to his view, who would certainly have shouted him down if he had based his decision upon a reading different from that which existed in the then current Hebrew manuscripts.

THE BOOK OF

OBADIAH

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Obadiah	Doom of Edom	6th Cent. B.C.

Background

Obadiah is completely unknown, apart from the meaning of his name (servant or worshiper of the LORD). The date of his prophecy is not certain, but internal evidence seems best to point to about 585 B.C., the year after the destruction of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. Some scholars suggest a much earlier date, however, that is, around the ninth century.

The book, which in literary form is a "doom song," has a single theme—judgment upon Edom, the nation descended from Esau. In Obadiah's time Sela (later called Petra) was the capital of Edom. Its unique ruins, cut out of solid cliffs of rose-colored rock and long hidden in the arid regions south of the Dead Sea, were discovered in A.D. 1812 and stand as a silent witness to the fulfillment of the prophecy.

Outline

The book may be divided as follows:

I.	The Pronouncement of Doom upon Edom	verses 1–9
II.	The Cause of This Doom	verses 10–14
III.	Edom in the Day of the LORD	verses 15–21
	A. Judgment Upon Edom	verses 15–16
	B. Deliverance for the House of Jacob	verses 17–21

I. The Pronouncement of Doom upon Edom, vv. 1–9

Introduction.
The deceitfulness of pride

THE VISION of Obadiah.

Thus says the Lord GOD
[a]concerning Edom
(We have heard a report from the LORD,
And a messenger has been sent among the nations, saying,
"Arise, and let us rise up against her for battle"):

2 "Behold, I will make you small among the nations;
You shall be greatly despised.
3 The [b]pride of your heart has deceived you,
You who dwell in the clefts of the rock,
Whose habitation is high;
You who say in your heart,
'Who will bring me down to the ground?'
4 Though you ascend as high as the eagle,
And though you set your nest among the stars,
From there I will [c]bring you down," says the LORD.

5 "If thieves had come to you,
If robbers by night—
Oh, how you will be cut off!—
Would they not have stolen till they had enough?
If [d]grape-gatherers had come to you,
Would they not have left some gleanings?

6 "Oh, how Esau shall be searched out!
How his hidden treasures shall be sought after!
7 All the men in your confederacy
Shall force you to the border;
The men at peace with you
Shall deceive you and prevail against you.
Those who eat your bread shall lay a trap* for you.
No one is aware of it.

8 "Will[e] I not in that day," says the LORD,
"Even destroy the wise men from [f]Edom,
And understanding from the mountains of Esau?
9 Then your mighty men,
O [g]Teman, shall be dismayed,
To the end that everyone from the mountains of Esau
May be cut off by slaughter.

II. The Cause of This Doom, vv. 10–14

10 "For [h]violence against your brother Jacob,
Shame shall cover you,
And you shall be [i]cut off forever.
11 In the day that you [j]stood on the other side—
In the day that strangers carried captive his forces,
When foreigners entered his gates
And cast lots for Jerusalem—
Even you were as one of them.

1 Edom. The enmity between Jacob and Esau (Gen. 36), the founder of Edom, persisted through the centuries (Ex. 15:15; Num. 20:14ff.; Ps. 83:6; Is. 63:1–6; Joel 3:19; etc.). The sin of Edom was pride (v. 3), which led to violation of the bond between brothers (vv. 10–14).

Obadiah: worshiper of Jehovah. A minor prophet who prophesied against Edom.

3 clefts. The allusion is to Petra, the great cliff-city which, in Obadiah's time, was called Sela. See Introduction.

Esau: hairy. The oldest son of Isaac and Rebekah who was tricked by his brother into selling him the birthright. He was later also deprived of the family blessing.

9 Teman. Teman was noted for its wisdom, Jer. 49:7.

9 slaughter. The destruction described here (compare Jer. 49:7–22; Ezek. 25:12–14) was probably at the hands of the Arabs. As a result Edom was almost devoid of population during the Persian period. The presence of Arabs in the neighborhood is shown by the aggression of Geshem, the Arab, the enemy of Nehemiah (Neh. 6:1–2). Later a mixture of Arabs with the remainder of the Edomites became quite a factor in the region of Petra, the former capital of Edom, establishing there a kingdom called the Nabataean kingdom, as well as in southern Palestine, which was largely in the hands of the Edomites. The Greeks and Romans called the Edomites Idumeans, another form of the same name. King Herod was an Edomite.

11 carried captive his forces. Probably the deportation by Nebuchadnezzar, about 586 B.C.

12 "But you should not have gazed on the day of your brother
In the day of his captivity;*
Nor should you have [a]rejoiced
over the children of Judah
In the day of their destruction;
Nor should you have spoken proudly
In the day of distress.
13 You should not have entered the gate of My people
In the day of their calamity.
Indeed, you should not have gazed on their affliction
In the day of their calamity,
Nor laid hands on their substance
In the day of their calamity.
14 You should not have stood at the crossroads
To cut off those among them who escaped;
Nor should you have delivered up those among them who remained
In the day of distress.

III. Edom in the Day of the LORD, vv. 15–21

15 "For the [b]day of the LORD [c]upon all the nations is near;
As you have done, it shall be done to you;
Your reprisal shall return upon your own head.
16 For as you drank on my holy mountain,
So shall all the nations drink
continually;
Yes, they shall drink, and swallow,
And they shall be as though they had never been.

Future deliverance for Jacob; judgment on Esau

17 "But on Mount Zion there shall be [d]deliverance,
And there shall be holiness;
The house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.
18 The house of Jacob shall be a fire,
And the house of Joseph a flame;
But the house of Esau shall be stubble;
They shall kindle them and devour them,
And no survivor shall remain of the [e]house of Esau,"
For the LORD has spoken.

19 The South [f]shall possess the mountains of Esau,
[g]And the Lowland shall possess
Philistia.
They shall possess the fields of Ephraim
And the fields of Samaria.
Benjamin shall possess Gilead.
20 And the captives of this host of the children of Israel
Shall possess the land of the Canaanites
As far as Zarephath.
The captives of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad
Shall possess the cities of the [h]South.
21 Then saviors shall come to Mount Zion
To judge the mountains of Esau,
And the [i]kingdom shall be the [j]LORD's.

17 there shall be holiness. Here Obadiah points to the essential element of the Messianic kingdom. Because the LORD's kingdom must be a holy kingdom, man who is by himself unholy can never establish it. Only the Holy One of Israel can set up a holy kingdom.

18 Esau. Edom will be revived (compare Is. 11:14) in the latter days.

19 The South translates the Hebrew word Negev, which is based on a word meaning "to be dry." It is a geographical term which refers to a specific section of Palestine (e.g. Gen. 13:1) located between Debir and the Arabian Desert. It is an arid region most of the year. Since this area was south of the larger part of Israel, the word also came to be used to denote that direction (compare Gen. 13:14; Dan. 8:4,9; 11:5, etc.). Lowland. The "lowland" or Shephelah is a section of the Holy Land bounded on the north by the Valley of Aijalon, on the west by the Maritime Plain, on the east by the Central Plateau, and reaching to Beersheba in the south. It is characterized by low, rounded chalk hills divided by several broad valleys.

21 Saviors or deliverers on the earth, as in Judg. 3:9,15, will serve under the Lord Jesus Christ, the King of kings (Rev. 19:16; compare also Rev. 20:4). This final verse is clearly Messianic. Short though his book is, Obadiah concludes, as do so many of the other prophets, with the promise of future deliverance for Israel in the kingdom.

THE BOOK OF

JONAH

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Jonah	God's Mercy	8th Cent. B.C.

Background

Jonah was a prophet of Israel who lived about the time of Jeroboam II (2 Kings 14:25). His name means dove, and he occupies a unique place as the first foreign missionary. The historical character of Jonah's preservation in the great fish and his preaching to the inhabitants of Nineveh is attested by Christ, who likens the prophet's experience to His own burial and resurrection (Matthew 12:38–42).

A masterpiece of condensed narration, this book has suffered from overemphasis upon the miracle of the great fish (see 1:17, note). However, neither deletion nor rationalization solves the difficulty of the miracle which remains an object of faith, not explanation. The Book of Jonah is full of the supernatural; aside from the great fish, there are the vine, the worm, the east wind, and, greatest of all, the repentance of the entire city of Nineveh.

God's Relationship with Man

Jonah's character and God's dealing with him foreshadow the subsequent history of the nation of Israel: outside the land, a trouble to the Gentiles, yet witnessing to them; cast out, but miraculously preserved; in future deepest distress calling upon the LORD as Savior, finding deliverance and then becoming missionaries to the Gentiles (Zechariah 8:7–23). But chiefly Jonah typifies Christ as the Sent-One, raised from the dead, and carrying salvation to the Gentiles.

I. The Disobedience and Flight of Jonah, 1:1–11

Introduction

1 NOW the word of the LORD came to [a]Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

Jonah flees from the LORD

2 "Arise, go to [b]Nineveh, that [c]great city, and cry out against it; for their wickedness has come up before Me."

3 But Jonah arose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to [d]Tarshish; so he paid the fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish
[e]from the presence of the LORD.

4 But the LORD sent out a great [f]wind on the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was about to be broken up.

5 Then the mariners were afraid;
and every man cried out to his god, and threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea, to lighten the load.* But Jonah had gone down into the lowest parts of the ship, had lain down, and was fast asleep.

6 So the captain came to him, and said to him, "What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, call on your God;
perhaps your God will consider us,
so that we may not perish."

7 And they said to one another,
"Come, let us cast [g]lots, that we may know for whose cause this trouble has come upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.

8 Then they said to him, "Please tell us! For whose cause is this trouble upon us? What is your occupation? And where do you come from?
What is your country? And of what people are you?"

9 So he said to them, "I am a Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, [h]who made the sea and the dry land."

10 Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "Why have you done this?" For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you that the sea may be calm for us?"—for the sea was growing more tempestuous.

II. Jonah and the Great Fish, 1:12—2:10

Jonah swallowed by the fish

12 And he said to them, "Pick [i]me up and throw me into the sea; then the sea will become calm for you.
For I know that this great tempest is because of me."

13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to return to land, but they could [j]not, for the sea continued to grow more tempestuous against them.

14 Therefore they cried out to the LORD and said, "We pray, O LORD, please do not let us perish for this man's life, and do not charge us with innocent [k]blood; for You, O
LORD, have done as it [l]pleased
You."

15 So they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea
[m]ceased from its raging.

16 Then the men feared the LORD

1:1 Jonah. The prophet's home was Gath Hepher of Zebulun (2 Kin. 14:25), north of Nazareth in Galilee. Compare the misstatement quoted in John 7:52.

Jonah: dove. A minor prophet who ran from God's call. Famous for surviving being swallowed by a great fish.

1:2 Nineveh, the capital of the ancient Assyrian Empire, was noted for its cruelty and violence (Jon. 3:8). This is confirmed by the ancient records found there. Under the preaching of Jonah in the eighth century B.C., the city and king had turned to God (Jon. 3:3–10). But in the time of Nahum, a century or more later, the city had wholly departed from God. The message of Nahum, therefore, though given perhaps a generation before the destruction of the city, is not a call to repentance but an unrelieved warning of judgment (1:9; 3:10). Such is the way of God; light rejected brings destruction.

Nineveh: The capital of Assyria. Jonah was sent here to tell the people to repent of their wickedness.

1:3 Joppa. The place of Peter's vision, Acts 10:5.

Tarshish: a city of a distant land, possibly Spain, that was rich in metals.

1:4 sent out. Literally hurled. Compare Ps. 148:8.

1:5 mariners. Probably the famous Phoenicians.

1:9 fear. "The fear of the LORD" is an OT expression meaning reverential trust, including the hatred of evil.

exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice to the LORD and took vows.

17 Now the LORD had prepared a [a]great fish to swallow Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish [b]three days and three nights.

Jonah's prayer; the LORD's answer

2 THEN Jonah [c]prayed to the LORD his God from the fish's belly.
2 And he said:

"I [d]cried out to the LORD
because of my affliction,
And He answered me.

"Out of the belly of [e]Sheol I cried,
And You heard my voice.
3 For You cast me into the deep,
Into the heart of the seas,
And the floods surrounded me;
All Your [f]billows and Your waves passed over me.
4 Then I [g]said, 'I have been cast out of Your sight;
Yet I will look again toward
Your holy temple.'
5 The [h]waters surrounded me,
even to my soul;
The deep closed around me;
Weeds were wrapped around my head.
6 I went down to the moorings of the mountains;
The earth with its bars closed
behind me forever;
Yet You have brought up my life
from the pit,
O LORD, my God.

7 "When my soul fainted within
me,
I remembered the LORD;
And my prayer went up to You,
Into Your holy temple.

8 "Those who regard worthless idols
Forsake their own Mercy.
9 But I will sacrifice to You
With the voice of thanksgiving;
I will pay what I have [i]vowed.
Salvation is of the [j]LORD."

10 So the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

III. The Greatest Revival in History, 3

Nineveh repents and is spared

3 NOW the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying,
2 "Arise, go to [k]Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the message that I tell you."
3 So Jonah arose and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, a three-day journey in extent.
4 And Jonah began to enter the city on the first day's walk. Then he cried out and said, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!"
5 So the [l]people of Nineveh [m]believed God, proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least of them.
6 Then word came to the king of Nineveh; and he arose from his throne and laid aside his robe, covered himself with sackcloth and sat in ashes.
7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published throughout

1:17 MIRACLES OF THE OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

No other miracle of Scripture has called forth so much unbelief. It has been claimed that a whale could not swallow a man, yet types of whales have been found that could easily do so. However, the word used here, like the one in Matt. 12:40, does not mean whale but sea monster, possibly the whale shark or rhinodon, the largest of all fish, sometimes attaining a length of seventy feet. The real miracle is not the swallowing but the fact that Jonah was alive when he was cast out of the great fish on to the dry land. After all, a miracle is what might be expected of divine love, interposing for good in a physically and morally disordered universe (Rom. 8:19–23).

1:17 prepared. Literally appointed, ordered. Jon. 4:6,7,8.

2:1 prayed. That Jonah prayed implies that he was alive and conscious. The prayer is full of passages from the Psalms, indicating that Jonah had stored the Word of God in his heart. Compare Rom. 15:4.

2:9 Salvation is of the LORD. The theme of the Bible.

3:3 Nineveh was one of the greatest cities of ancient times. So large was its metropolitan area that it would take three days to go through it. This statement in Jonah was much questioned before the rise of modern archaeology. Excavations in Mesopotamia have fully confirmed the statements in Jonah, Nahum, and other parts of the OT about the greatness of Nineveh. Yet in 612 B.C. Nineveh was so completely destroyed by its enemies that even its location was forgotten. See 3:4, note.

Nineveh by the [a]decree of the king and his nobles, saying,

Let neither man nor beast,
herd nor flock, taste anything;
do not let them eat, or drink water.
8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily to God; yes, let every one turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands.
9 Who can tell [b]if God will turn and [c]relent, and turn away from His fierce anger, so that we may not perish?

10 Then God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God [d]relented from the disaster that He had said He would bring upon them, and He did [e]not do it.

IV. The Wideness of God's Mercy, 4

Jonah's displeasure

4 BUT it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he became [f]angry.
2 So he prayed to the LORD, and said, "Ah, LORD, was not this what I said when I was still in my country?

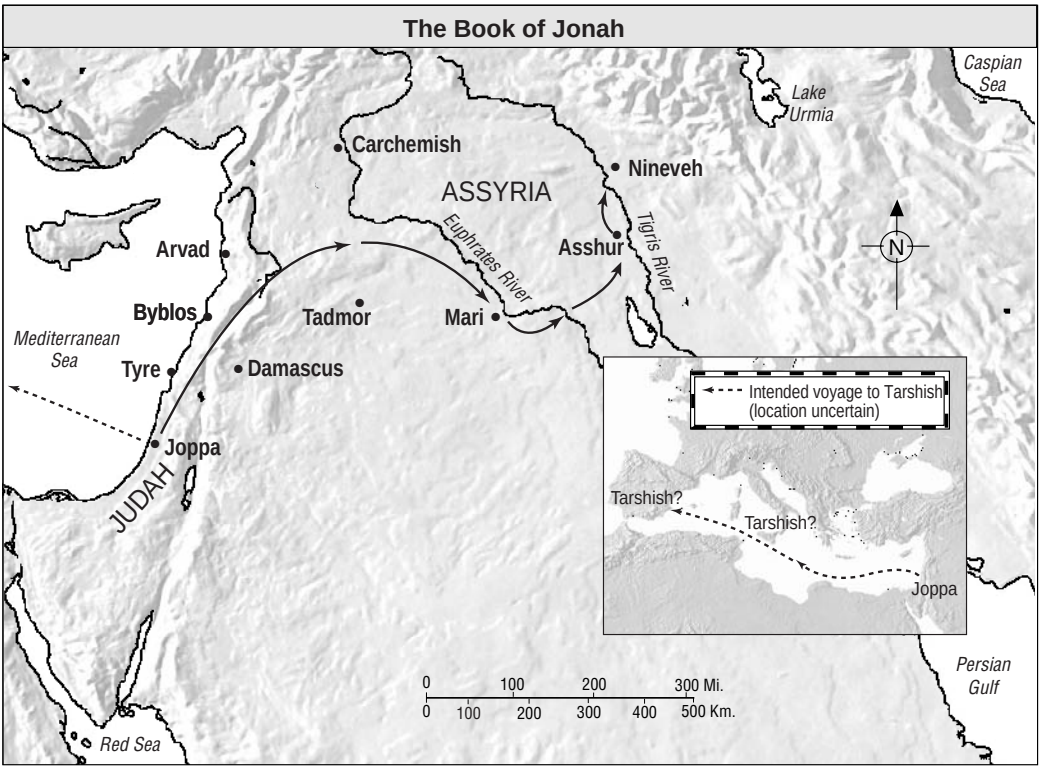
3:10 He did not do it. This is the greatest revival in recorded history; no physical miracle in this book compares with the marvel and extent of this spiritual miracle.

4:1 displeased Jonah. The old nature resists the display of God's grace to any of His creatures. An example is Jonah's own admission in 4:2.

3:4 THE MESSAGE OF JONAH

The message of Jonah, as is so often the case in prophetic books, was ethically conditioned. If Nineveh repented, it would be spared; if it refused, it was to be destroyed.

Since God knew that Nineveh would ultimately reject His Word and would turn to even greater wickedness than before, the prediction of destruction is given in absolute form. Never was a city more terribly destroyed than was Nineveh. The whole Book of Nahum is devoted to predicting this terrible utter destruction. The forty-day element was ethically conditioned, and the time was lengthened at the occurrence of the great temporary revival described here in ch. 3. Compare the similar postponement of a predicted catastrophe in 1 Kin. 21:29.



Therefore I fled previously to Tarshish; for I know that You are a [a]gracious and merciful God, slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness, One who [b]relents from doing harm.

3 "Therefore now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live!"

Jonah rebuked by the LORD

4 Then the LORD said, "Is it right for you to be [c]angry?"

5 So Jonah went out of the city and [d]sat on the east side of the city. There he made himself a shelter and sat under it in the shade, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared a plant* and made it come up over Jonah, that it might be shade for his head to deliver him from his misery. So Jonah was very grateful for the plant.

7 But as morning dawned the next day God prepared a worm, and it so damaged the plant that it withered.

8 And it happened, when the sun arose, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah's head, so that he grew faint. Then he wished death for himself, and said, "It is better for me to die than to live."

9 Then God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?" And he said, "It is right for me to be angry, even to death!"

10 But the LORD said, "You have had pity on the plant for which you have not labored, nor made it grow, which came up in a night and perished in a night.

11 "And should I not pity [e]Nineveh, that [f]great city, in which are more than one hundred and twenty thousand persons who cannot discern between their right hand and their left—and much livestock?"

4:6 Hebrew kikayon, exact identity unknown

4:6 prepared. Four prepared things. Compare Jon. 1:17; 4:7,8.

4:10 In these last verses the great missionary lesson of the book is sharply drawn: Are the souls of men not worth as much as a vine? Like Jonah, God's people today are often more concerned about the material benefits so freely bestowed upon us by God than about the destiny of a lost world.

THE BOOK OF

MICAH

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Micah	Judgment and Kingdom	8th Cent. B.C.

Background

Micah, whose name means Who is like the LORD?, prophesied in the eighth century B.C. as a contemporary of Isaiah (compare 1:1 with Isaiah 1:1). He came from the small town of Moresheth, about twenty miles southwest of Jerusalem. There are many similarities between passages in Isaiah and Micah (compare Micah 4:1–5 with Isaiah 2:2–4). Jeremiah mentions Micah by name (Jeremiah 26:18) and relates him to the reign of Hezekiah, and our Lord quotes Micah 7:6 in Matthew 10:35–36. Samaria, Jerusalem, all Judah, Israel, and the nations are the subject of the prophecy. Assyria is the prominent foreign power. The messages are particularly to the capital cities, Samaria and Jerusalem, as the centers of influence in the nation. God pleads with Israel and Judah to turn to Him from their sin, setting forth the Assyrian as the rod of His wrath, and He concludes with promises of future glory under the Messiah and His righteous reign.

Outline

The book may be divided as follows:

I. Condemnation and Captivity, 1—2

Introduction

1 THE word of the LORD that came to [a]Micah of Moresheth in the days of [b]Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

Judgment on Israel

2 Hear, all you peoples!
Listen, O earth, and all that is in it!
Let the Lord GOD be a witness against you,
The Lord from His holy temple.

3 For behold, the LORD is coming out of His place;
He will come down
And tread on the [c]high places of the earth.

4 The mountains will melt under Him,
And the valleys will split
Like wax before the fire,
Like waters poured down a steep place.

5 All this is for the transgression of Jacob
And for the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the transgression of Jacob?
Is it not Samaria?
And what are the [d]high places of Judah?
Are they not Jerusalem?

Assyria will destroy Samaria and reach the gate of Jerusalem

6 "Therefore I will make Samaria a heap of ruins in the field,
Places for planting a vineyard;
I will pour down her stones into the valley,
And I will uncover her foundations.

7 All her carved images shall be beaten to pieces,
And all her [e]pay as a harlot shall be burned with the fire;
All her idols I will lay desolate,
For she gathered it from the [f]pay of a harlot,
And they shall return to the pay of a harlot."

8 Therefore I will wail and howl,
I will go stripped and naked;
I will make a wailing like the [g]jackals
And a mourning like the ostriches,

9 For her wounds are incurable.

Micah: who is like Jehovah. A minor prophet who prophesied God's judgment on Israel.

1:3 These words predict Shalmaneser's destruction of the northern kingdom, Sennacherib's invasion, and Nebuchadnezzar's invasion.

1:6 In vv. 6–16 the Assyrian invasion is described. Compare 2 Kin. 17:1–18. This is the local circumstance which gives rise to the prophecy of the greater invasion in the last days (4:11–13), when the Lord will deliver His people at the Battle of Armageddon (Rev. 16:13–16; see Rev. 19:17, note).

Jacob: supplanter. The younger son of Isaac and Rebekah who tricked his brother Esau into selling him his birthright. He deceived his father in order to receive the family blessing. Married Leah and Rachel. Had twelve sons by his wives and concubines. Also referred to as Israel.

Samaria: guard. The capital of the northern kingdom of Israel.

1:7 pay as a harlot. This "pay as a harlot" probably was costly vessels that had been given to heathen temples.

1:13

GEOGRAPHICAL PUNS

Micah cleverly uses puns to convey his message. The puns are a play on the meanings of some of the place names in Micah 1:10–15.

Name	Meaning	Phrase played off of
Gath	sounds like the Hebrew word for "tell"	"Tell it not in Gath" (v. 10a)
Beth Aphrah	means "house of dust"	"Roll . . . in the dust" (v. 10b)
Moresheth Gath	means "possession of Gath"	"give presents to" (v. 14)
Achzib	means "lie"	"shall be a lie to the kings" (v. 14)
Mareshah	means "inheritance"	"bring an heir" (v. 15)
Adullam	means "justice of the people"	"the glory of Israel" (v. 15)

For it has come to Judah;
It has come to the gate of My people—
To Jerusalem.

10 Tell it not in [a]Gath,
Weep not at all;
In Beth Aphrah*
Roll yourself in the dust.
11 Pass by in naked shame, you inhabitant of Shaphir;
The inhabitant of Zaanan* does not go out.
Beth Ezel mourns;
Its place to stand is taken away from you.

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth pined* for [b]good,
But [c]disaster came down from the LORD
To the gate of Jerusalem.
13 O inhabitant of [d]Lachish,
Harness the chariot to the swift steeds
(She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion),
For the transgressions of Israel were [e]found in you.

14 Therefore you shall give presents to Moresheth Gath;*
The houses of [f]Achzib* shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.
15 I will yet bring an heir to you, O inhabitant of Mareshah;*
The glory of Israel shall come to [g]Adullam.
16 Make yourself bald and cut off your hair,
Because of your precious children;
Enlarge your baldness like an eagle,
For they shall go from you into [h]captivity.

Reasons for judgment

2 WOE to those who devise iniquity,
And work out evil on their beds!
At [i]morning light they practice it,
Because it is in the [j]power of their hand.
2 They [k]covet fields and take them by [l]violence,
Also houses, and seize them.
So they oppress a man and his house,
A man and his inheritance.

3 Therefore thus says the LORD:
"Behold, against this [m]family I am devising [n]disaster,
From which you cannot remove your necks;
Nor shall you walk haughtily,
For this is an evil time.
4 In that day one shall take up a proverb against you,
And lament with a bitter lamentation, saying:
'We are utterly destroyed!
He has changed the heritage of my people;
How He has removed it from me!

2:6 The chief reason for the rise of the false prophets was the unpopular character of the message of the true prophets, who called the nation back to God.

To a turncoat He has divided our fields.' "

5 Therefore you will have no one to determine boundaries* by lot
In the assembly of the LORD.

6 "Do not prattle," you say to

So they shall not prophesy to Deliverance promised

12 "I will surely assemble all of you,
O Jacob,
I will surely gather the [d]remnant of Israel;
I will put them together like sheep of the [e]fold,*
Like a flock in the midst of their pasture;
They shall make a loud noise
because of [f]so many people.
13 The one who breaks open will come up before them;
They will break out,
Pass through the gate,
And go out by it;
Their king will pass before them,
With the LORD at their head."

II. Rebuke, and Restoration in the Kingdom, 3—5

Faithless leaders rebuked

3 AND I said:

"Hear now, O heads of Jacob,
And you [g]rulers of the house of
Israel:
Is it not for you to know [h]justice?
2 You who hate good and love evil;
Who strip the skin from My
people,*
And the flesh from their bones;
3 Who also eat the flesh of My
people,
Flay their skin from them,
Break their bones,
And chop them in pieces
Like meat for the pot,
Like flesh in the [i]caldron."

4 Then they will cry to the LORD,
But He will [j]not hear them;
He will even hide His face from them at that time,
Because they have been evil in their deeds.

5 Thus says the LORD concerning the [k]prophets
Who make my people stray;
Who chant "Peace"
While they chew with their teeth,
But who prepare war against him
Who puts nothing into their mouths:
6 "Therefore you shall have night
without vision,
And you shall have darkness
without divination;
The sun shall go down on the prophets,
And the day shall be dark for [l]them.
7 So the seers shall be ashamed,
And the diviners abashed;

8 But truly I am full of [a]power by the [b]Spirit of the LORD,
And of justice and might,
To declare to Jacob his [c]transgression
And to Israel his sin.

Jerusalem to be destroyed

9 Now hear this,
You heads of the house of Jacob
And rulers of the house of Israel,
Who abhor justice
And pervert all equity,
10 Who build up Zion with [d]bloodshed
And Jerusalem with iniquity:
11 Her heads judge for a [e]bribe,
Her priests teach for pay,
And her prophets divine for money.
Yet they lean on the LORD, and say,
"Is not the LORD among us?
No harm can come upon us."
12 Therefore because of you
[f]Zion shall be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem shall become heaps of ruins,
And the mountain of the temple*
Like the bare hills of the forest.

Vision of earth's golden age

4 [g]NOW it shall come to pass in the latter days
That the mountain of the LORD's house
Shall be established on the [h]top of the mountains,
And shall be exalted above the hills;
And peoples shall flow to [i]it.
2 Many nations shall come and say,
"Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
To the house of the God of Jacob;
He will teach us His ways,
And we shall walk in His paths."
For out of Zion the law shall go forth,
And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
3 He shall judge between many peoples,
And rebuke strong nations afar off;
They shall beat their swords into plowshares,
And their spears into pruning hooks;
Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
Neither shall they learn war anymore.

4 But everyone shall sit under his vine and under his fig tree,
And no one shall make them afraid;
For the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken.
5 For all people walk each in the name of his god,
But we will walk in the name of the LORD our God
Forever and ever.

Israel to be regathered

6 "In that day," says the LORD,
"I will assemble the lame,
I will gather the [j]outcast
And those whom I have afflicted;
7 I will make the lame a remnant,
And the outcast a strong nation;
So the [k]LORD will [l]reign over them in Mount Zion
From now on, even forever.
8 And you, O tower of the flock,
The stronghold of the daughter of Zion,
To you shall it come,
Even the former dominion shall come,
The kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem."

3:11 divine for money. Fortune-telling, or "divining," is never referred to in the OT in a good sense. Compare Balaam, Num. 23—24.

3:12 Fulfilled A.D. 70. Compare Luke 21:20–24.

4:1 Micah 4:1–3 and Is. 2:2–4 are practically identical. The Spirit of God gave both prophets the same revelation because of its surpassing importance. It is impossible to prove that either prophet was quoting the other. mountain. In vv. 1–4 there are some general predictions concerning the kingdom. In Scripture a mountain is sometimes the symbol of a great earthly power (Dan. 2:35); hills, of smaller powers. The prediction asserts (1) the ultimate establishment of the kingdom, with Jerusalem for the capital (v. 2); (2) the universality of the future kingdom (v. 2); (3) its character—peace (v. 3); and (4) its effect—prosperity (v. 4). Compare Is. 2:1–5; 11:1–12.

Intervening Babylonian captivity

9 Now why do you cry aloud?
Is there no king in your midst?
Has your counselor perished?
For pangs have seized you like a woman in labor.
10 Be in pain, and labor to bring forth,
O daughter of Zion,
Like a woman in birth pangs.
For now you shall go forth from
the city,
You shall dwell in the field,
And to [a]Babylon you shall go.
There you shall be delivered;
There the [b]LORD will [c]redeem
you
From the hand of your enemies.

Armageddon predicted

11 Now also many nations have gathered against you,
Who say, "Let her be defiled,
And let our eye look upon Zion."
12 But they do [d]not know the thoughts of the LORD, Nor do they understand His counsel;
For He will gather them like sheaves to the threshing floor.

13 "Arise[e] and [f]thresh, O daughter of Zion;
For I will make your horn iron,
And I will make your hooves
bronze;
You shall beat in pieces many
peoples;
I will consecrate their gain to
the LORD,
And their substance to the Lord of the whole earth."

Birth and rejection of the King
(cp. Matt. 2:1–6; 27:24–37)

5 NOW gather yourself in troops,

O daughter of troops;
He has laid siege against us;
They will strike the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek.

2 "But you, Bethlehem [g]Ephrathah, Though you are little among the thousands of Judah,
Yet [h]out of [i]you shall come forth to Me
The One to be [j]Ruler in Israel, Whose goings forth are from of old,
From everlasting."

4:13 horn. The words "horn" and "horns" (OT, qeren; NT keras) are used in Scripture both literally and figuratively. In the latter sense at least three meanings appear: (1) strength in general (Deut. 33:17); (2) arrogant pride (Ps. 75:4–5); and (3) political and military power (Dan. 8:20–21).

5:1 judge. King Zedekiah in the Babylonian invasion.

5:2 from everlasting. The Ruler comes from Bethlehem in time, but His activities have been from eternity. His goings forth were in creation, preservation, providences, theophanies, and redemptive activity. The eternal pre-existence of the Messiah is thus strongly presented.

MICAH'S PROPHECIES

Having described the future kingdom (vv. 1–8) and glanced at the Babylonian captivity (vv. 9–10), Micah looks forward into the last days to refer to the great battle (see Armageddon, Rev. 16:13–16; 19:17, note) which immediately precedes the setting up of the Messianic kingdom. See Kingdom (OT) (Gen. 1:26–28; Zech. 12:8, note); also, Kingdom (NT) (Luke 1:31–33; 1 Cor. 15:24, note).

In ch. 5:2 the scene shifts from the great battle (yet future) to the birth and rejection of the King, Messiah (Matt. 27:24–25,37). This is followed by the statement that Israel will be abandoned "until the time that she who is in labor has given birth" (v. 3). There is a twofold "labor" of Israel: (1) that which brings forth the "male Child" (Christ) (Rev. 12:1–2,5); and (2) that which, in the last days, brings forth a believing remnant out of the still unbelieving nation (v. 3; 4:10; Jer. 30:6–11). Both aspects are combined in Is. 66. In Is. 66:7 there is the male Child (Christ) of Rev. 12:1–2,5; in Is. 66:8–24, the remnant, established in kingdom blessing.

The meaning of Mic. 5:3 is that, from the rejection of Christ at His first coming, the LORD will abandon Israel until the believing remnant appear; then He stands and shepherds in His proper strength as the LORD (v. 4); He is the defense of His people as in 4:3,11–13; and afterward the remnant go as missionaries to Israel and to all the world (5:7–8; Zech. 8:23).

Shall return to the children of Israel.
4 And He shall stand and feed
His flock
In the strength of the LORD,
In the majesty of the name of the LORD His God;
And they shall abide,
For now He [a]shall be great
To the ends of the earth;
5 And this One shall be peace.

When the [b]Assyrian comes into our land,
And when he treads in our palaces,
Then we will raise against him
Seven shepherds and eight princely men.
6 They shall waste with the sword the land of Assyria,
And the [c]land of Nimrod at its entrances;
Thus He shall [d]deliver us from the Assyrian,
When he comes into our land
And when he treads within our borders.

7 Then the remnant of Jacob Shall be in the midst of many peoples,
Like [e]dew from the LORD,
Like showers on the grass,
That tarry for no man
Nor wait for the sons of men.
8 And the remnant of Jacob Shall be among the Gentiles,
In the midst of many peoples,
Like a [f]lion among the beasts of
the forest,
Like a young lion among flocks
of sheep,
Who, if he passes through,
Both treads down and tears in pieces,
And none can deliver.
9 Your hand shall be lifted against your adversaries,
And all your enemies shall be cut off.

10 "And it shall be in that day,"
says the LORD,
"That I will [g]cut off your [h]horses from your midst
And destroy your [i]chariots.
11 I will cut off the cities of your land
And throw down all your strongholds.
12 I will cut off sorceries from your hand,
And you shall have no
soothsayers.
13 Your carved images I will also
cut off,
And your sacred pillars from
your midst;
You shall no more worship the work of your hands;
14 I will pluck your wooden images from your midst;
Thus I will destroy your cities.
15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury
On the nations that have not heard."*

The LORD's past and present controversy with Israel (vv. 1–5; 10–16)

What the LORD requires of man

6 With what shall I come before
the LORD,
And bow myself before the High God?
Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings,
With calves a year old?
7 Will the LORD be [a]pleased with thousands of rams,
Ten thousand rivers of oil?
Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression,
The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He has [b]shown you, O man,
what is good;
And what does the LORD
require of you
But [c]to do justly,
To love mercy,
And to walk humbly with your
God?

9 The LORD's voice cries to the city—
Wisdom shall see Your name:
"Hear the rod!
Who has appointed it?
10 Are there yet the treasures of wickedness
In the house of the wicked,
And the short measure that is an abomination?
11 Shall I count pure those with the wicked scales,
And with the bag of deceitful
[d]weights?
12 For her rich men are full of [e]violence,
Her inhabitants have spoken
lies,
And their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.
13 "Therefore I will also make you sick by striking you,
By making you desolate
because of your sins.
14 You shall eat, but not be satisfied;
Hunger* shall be in your midst.
You may carry some away,* but shall not save them;
And what you do rescue I will give over to the sword.

15 "You[f] shall sow, but not reap;
You shall tread the olives, but not anoint yourselves with oil;
And make sweet wine, but not drink wine.
16 For the statutes of [g]Omri are kept;
All the works of [h]Ahab's house
are done;
And you walk in their counsels,
That I may make you a
desolation,
And your inhabitants a hissing.
Therefore you shall bear the reproach of My people."*

The prophet confesses the truth of the LORD's indictment

7 WOE is me!
For I am like those who gather summer fruits,
Like those who glean vintage
grapes;
There is no cluster to eat
Of the first-ripe fruit which my soul desires.

6:7 firstborn. The law claimed the firstborn of man and beast for the LORD (Ex. 13:2,12). The firstborn of beasts were sacrificed. However, the sacrifice of children was forbidden on pain of death (Lev. 18:21; 20:2–5; Deut. 12:31; 18:10). They were redeemed (Ex. 13:13). This passage does not teach that human sacrifice was common in Israel; it merely reveals the futility of such a practice.

7:7 Verses 7–20 are, primarily, the confession and intercession of the prophet, who identifies himself with Israel. Compare Dan. 9:3–19. Intercession was a part of the prophetic office (Gen. 20:7; Jer. 27:18). But Micah's prayer voices also the heart exercise of the remnant in the last days. Such is prophecy, an intermingling of the near and the far. Compare Ps. 22:1; Matt. 27:46.

THE BOOK OF

NAHUM

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Nahum	Nineveh's Doom	7th Cent. B.C.

Background

Nahum means comfort (of God) and is related to the name Nehemiah. Nahum prophesied during the seventh century B.C. His book forms the sequel to the Book of Jonah. The repentance under Jonah delayed the judgment of God for about a century. Nahum's prophecy may be dated between the destruction of Thebes or No Amon (3:8) by Asshurbanipal in 666 B.C. and the capture of Nineveh by the Babylonians and their allies in 612 B.C.

Style of the Book

The style of Nahum is lyric poetry of a high order, which some have considered the most impassioned in all the prophets. All must concede that his messages are vivid and forceful.

Outline

The book may be divided as follows:

I. The Character of God	1:1–8
A. Introduction	1:1
B. The Holiness of the Lord and Judgment Upon Nineveh	1:2–8
II. God's Punishment of His Enemies	1:9–15
A. The Certainty of God's Judgment	1:9–14
B. The Joyful News	1:15
III. The Destruction of Nineveh Detailed	2:1–13
IV. The Cause of the Destruction	3:1–19

I. The Character of God, 1:1–8

Introduction

1 THE [a]burden* against [b]Nineveh.
The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

The holiness of the LORD; judgment on Nineveh

2 God is jealous, and the LORD avenges;
The LORD avenges and is furious.
The LORD will take vengeance on His adversaries,
And He reserves wrath for His enemies;
3 [c]The LORD is slow to anger and great in power,
And will not at all acquit the wicked.

[d]The LORD has His way
In the whirlwind and in the storm,
And the clouds are the dust of His feet.
4 He rebukes the sea and makes it dry,
And dries up all the rivers.
Bashan and Carmel wither,
And the flower of Lebanon wilts.
5 The mountains quake before Him,
The hills melt,
And the earth heaves* at His presence,
Yes, the world and all who dwell in it.

6 [e]Who can stand before His indignation?
And who can endure the fierceness of His anger?
His fury is poured out like fire,
And the rocks are thrown down by Him.

7 The LORD is [f]good,
A stronghold in the day of trouble;
And [g]He knows those who trust in Him.
8 But with an overflowing flood
He will make an utter end of its place,
And darkness will pursue His enemies.

II. God's Punishment of His Enemies, 1:9–15

9 What do you conspire against the LORD?
He will make an utter end of it.
Affliction will not rise up a second time.
10 For while tangled like thorns,
And while drunken like drunkards,
They shall be devoured like stubble fully dried.
11 From you comes forth one
Who plots evil against the LORD,
A wicked counselor.

12 Thus says the LORD:

"Though they are safe, and likewise many,
Yet in this manner they will be [h]cut down
When he passes through.
Though I have afflicted you,
I will afflict you [i]no more;
13 For now I will break off his yoke from you,
And burst your bonds apart."

14 The LORD has given a command concerning you:

1:1 Nineveh. The capital of the ancient Assyrian Empire was noted for its cruelty and violence (Jon. 3:8). This is confirmed by the ancient records found there. Under the preaching of Jonah in the eighth century B.C., the city and king had turned to God (Jon. 3:3–10). But in the time of Nahum, a century or more later, the city had wholly departed from God. The message of Nahum, therefore, though given perhaps a generation before the destruction of the city, is not a call to repentance but an unrelieved warning of judgment (1:9; 3:10). Such is the way of God; light rejected brings destruction.

Nahum: comforter. A minor prophet who prophesied the destruction of Nineveh.

1:2 The great ethical lesson of Nahum is that the character of God makes Him not only "slow to anger" (v. 3) and a refuge to those who trust Him (v. 7), but also one who "will not at all acquit the wicked" (v. 3). He can be "just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus" (Rom. 3:26), but only because His holy law has been vindicated in the cross.

1:4 Bashan, Carmel, and Lebanon are known to have been among the most fertile regions of Palestine.

1:11 wicked counselor. It is generally agreed that the invader is Sennacherib, king of Assyria, who threatened Judah in the fourteenth year of Hezekiah's reign. Compare 2 Kin. 18:13—19:37; Is. 36—37.

The joyful news

15 Behold, on the mountains
The [c]feet of him who brings good tidings,
Who proclaims peace!
O Judah, keep your appointed
feasts,
Perform your vows.
For the wicked one shall no
more pass through you;
He is [d]utterly cut off.

III. The Destruction of Nineveh Detailed, 2

2 HE who scatters* has come up before your face.
Man the fort!
Watch the road!
Strengthen your flanks!
Fortify your power mightily.

2 For the LORD will restore the excellence of Jacob
Like the excellence of Israel,
For the emptiers have emptied them out
And ruined their vine branches.

3 The shields of his mighty men are made red,
The valiant men are in scarlet.
The chariots come with flaming torches
In the day of his preparation,
And the spears are brandished.*
4 The chariots rage in the streets,
They [e]jostle one another in the broad roads;
They seem like torches,
They run like lightning.

5 He remembers his nobles;
They stumble in their walk;
They make haste to her walls,
And the defense is prepared.
6 The gates of the rivers are opened,
And the palace is dissolved.
7 It is decreed:*
She shall be led away captive,
She shall be brought up;
And her maidservants shall lead her as with the voice of doves,
Beating their breasts.

8 Though Nineveh of old was like a pool of water,
Now they flee away.
"Halt! Halt!" they cry;
But no one [f]turns back.
9 Take spoil of silver!
Take spoil of [g]gold!
There is no end of treasure,
Or wealth of every desirable prize.
10 She is empty, desolate, and waste!
The heart melts, and the knees
shake;
Much pain is in every side,

AN ASSYRIAN LEGAL FORMULA

In the context the expression "safe, and likewise many," although a literal translation of the Hebrew, does not seem to make much sense. Actually the Hebrew here represents a transliteration of a long-forgotten Assyrian legal formula. Excavation in the ruins of ancient Nineveh, buried since 612 B.C., has brought to light thousands of ancient Assyrian tablets, dozens of which contain this Assyrian legal formula. It proves, on investigation, to indicate joint and separate responsibility for carrying out an obligation.

Nahum quotes the LORD as using this Assyrian formula in speaking to the Assyrians, saying in effect, "Even though your entire nation joins as one person to resist me, nevertheless I shall overcome you." As the words would have been equally incomprehensible to the later Hebrew copyists, their retention is striking evidence of the care of the scribes in copying exactly what they found in the manuscripts, and testifies to God's providential preservation of the Biblical text.

1:14 dig your grave. This denotes the complete destruction of Nineveh by the Medes and Babylonians, which occurred in 612 B.C.

1:15 good tidings. The words in Is. 52:7 speak of deliverance from Babylon; here, from Assyria in 612 B.C. Paul applies the words in Rom. 10:15 to the Gospel of Christ, which announces eternal deliverance from sin.

2:1 He who scatters. That is, the Medo-Babylonian forces under Cyaxares and Nabopolassar.

2:3 red. The invaders were especially fond of red.

2:4 lightning. The Assyrian war chariots moved with unprecedented speed.

And all their faces are drained of color.*

11 Where is the dwelling of the
[a]lions,
And the feeding place of the young lions,
Where the lion walked, the lioness and lion's cub,
And no one made them afraid?
12 The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs,
Killed for his lionesses,
[b]Filled his caves with prey,
And his dens with flesh.

13[c] "Behold, I am against you," says the LORD of hosts, "I will burn your* chariots in smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions; I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your [d]messengers shall be heard no more."

IV. The Cause of the Destruction, 3

As Nineveh sowed, so must she reap

3 WOE to the [e]bloody city!
It is all full of lies and robbery.
Its victim never departs.
2 The noise of a whip
And the noise of rattling wheels,
Of galloping horses,
Of clattering chariots!
3 Horsemen charge with bright sword and glittering spear.
There is a multitude of slain,
A great number of bodies,
Countless corpses—
They stumble over the corpses—
4 Because of the multitude of harlotries of the seductive
harlot,
The [f]mistress of sorceries,
Who sells nations through her harlotries,
And families through her sorceries.

5 "Behold, I am [g]against you,"
says the LORD of hosts;
"I will lift your skirts over your face,
I will show the nations your
nakedness,
And the kingdoms your shame.
6 I will cast abominable filth
upon you,
Make you [h]vile,
And make you a spectacle.
7 It shall come to pass that all who look upon you
Will flee from you, and say,
'Nineveh[i] is laid waste!
Who will bemoan her?'
Where shall I seek comforters
for you?"

8 Are you better than [j]No Amon*
That was situated by the River,*
That had the waters around
her,
Whose rampart was the sea,
Whose wall was the sea?
9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength,
And it was boundless;
[k]Put and Lubim were your* helpers.
10 Yet she was carried away,
She went into [l]captivity;
Her young children also were dashed to pieces
At the head of every street;
They cast [m]lots for her honorable men,
And all her great men were bound in chains.
11 You also will be drunk;
You will be hidden;
You also will seek refuge from the enemy.

12 All your strongholds are [n]fig trees with ripened figs:
If they are shaken,
They fall into the mouth of the eater.

3:8 No Amon. The fall of well-fortified Thebes (Hebrew No Amon) in Egypt to Ashurbanipal in 661 B.C. (vv. 8–10) is here used as a solemn warning to proud Nineveh that she will also fall, despite her excellent defenses (vv. 14–19). Nahum's prophecy against Nineveh was fulfilled c. 612 B.C. when she fell to Nebuchadnezzar, who led the assault on behalf of his father, Nabopolassar of Babylon.

THE BOOK OF

HABAKKUK

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Habakkuk	From Doubt to Faith	7th Cent. B.C.

Background

Habakkuk, whose name means embrace, prophesied to Judah in the last quarter of the seventh century B.C. concerning the impending invasion by the Chaldeans (1:6). The conditions of 1:2–4 are corroborated by the record in 2 Kings 21–22; moral and spiritual decline marked the life of the nation.

Habakkuk was a man of a deeply tender nature and spiritual character. He manifested a great love for his people, fulfilling the position of watchman over them. His questions and doubts arose from his jealousy for the holiness and justice of God. The prophet was perplexed over God's permission of evil in Judah, and even more so over God's use of Babylon as the rod of correction for His people. The answer to his questions is found in 2:4, which is the key verse of the book and is quoted in Romans 1:17; Galatians 3:11; Hebrews 10:38. It sets forth the cause of life and death. Sin must issue in destruction; faith invariably leads to spiritual life.

The theophany in chapter 3, reminiscent of that at Mount Sinai, is one of the grandest in the Bible. (Compare Ezekiel 40:3–4; see Genesis 12:7, note.) The reference in 3:19 to "stringed instruments" suggests that the prophet was a Levite and a musician.

Outline

The book may be divided as follows:

II.	The Answer of God	2:2–20
	A. The Vision: The Just Shall Live by Faith	2:2–4
	B. The Destiny of the Proud	2:5–20
III.	The Triumphant Faith of Habakkuk	3:1–19

I. The Perplexity of the Prophet, 1:1—2:1

Introduction

1 THE burden which the prophet Habakkuk saw.

The problem: Why is sin unjudged?

2 O LORD, how long shall I cry,
And You will not hear?
Even cry out to You,
[a]"Violence!"
And You will [b]not save.
3 Why do You show me iniquity,
And cause me to see trouble?
For plundering and violence are before me;
There is strife, and contention arises.
4 Therefore the law is powerless,
And justice never goes forth.
For the wicked surround the righteous;
Therefore perverse judgment proceeds.

The LORD's answer

5 "Look among the nations and watch—
Be utterly astounded!
For I will work a work in your days
Which you would not believe, though it were told you.
6 For indeed I am [c]raising up the Chaldeans,
A bitter and hasty [d]nation
Which marches through the breadth of the earth,
To possess dwelling places that are not theirs.
7 They are terrible and dreadful;
Their judgment and their dignity proceed from [e]themselves.
8 Their horses also are [f]swifter than leopards,
And more fierce than evening wolves.
Their chargers charge ahead;
Their cavalry comes from afar;
They fly as the [g]eagle that hastens to eat.
9 "They all come for violence;
Their faces are set like the east wind.
They gather captives like sand.
10 They scoff at kings,
And princes are scorned by them.
They deride every stronghold,
For they heap up earthen mounds and seize it.
11 Then his mind* changes, and he transgresses;
He commits offense,
Ascribing this power to his god."

Habakkuk's perplexity: How can God use wicked Babylon?

12 Are You not [h]from everlasting,
O LORD my God, my Holy One?
We shall not die.
O LORD, You have appointed them for judgment;
[i]O Rock, You have marked them for [j]correction.
13 You are of purer eyes than to behold evil,
And cannot look on wickedness.
Why do You look on those who deal treacherously,
And hold Your tongue when the wicked devours
A person more righteous than he?
14 Why do You make men like fish of the sea,
Like creeping things that have no ruler over them?

1:1 burden. The "burden" (or oracle; see Is. 13:1, note) is not Habakkuk's question in vv. 2–4, nor the one in 1:12—2:1, but the LORD's answer to both of these questions.

Habakkuk: embrace. A minor prophet who prophesied God's judgment against Judah.

1:3 iniquity. Like Asaph (Ps. 73) and Job, Habakkuk is perplexed by the affliction of the godly and the prosperity of the ungodly. The key to the solution is 2:4.

1:6 Chaldeans. The Chaldeans were Semites, descendants from Chesed, son of Nahor, brother of Abraham (Gen. 22:22). Habakkuk sees the Chaldeans as the rod of God's anger on the kingdom of Judah, as Isaiah (5:26–30) saw the Assyrians as the agent of God's punishment on the kingdom of Israel (Is. 10:5).

1:7 judgment. The Chaldeans, recognizing no superiors, were a law unto themselves.

1:13 behold. That is, look with favor upon.

15 They take up all of them with a hook,
They catch them in their net,
And gather them in their dragnet.
Therefore they rejoice and are glad.
16 Therefore they sacrifice to their net,
And burn incense to their dragnet;
Because by them their share is sumptuous
And their food plentiful.
17 Shall they therefore empty their net,
And continue to slay nations without pity?

2 I WILL stand my watch
And set myself on the rampart,
And watch to see what He will say to me,
And what I will answer when I am corrected.

2:3 THE RESPONSE OF THE VISION

To the watching prophet comes the response of the vision (vv. 2–20). Three elements are to be distinguished:

(1) The moral judgment of the LORD upon the evils practiced by Israel (vv. 5–13, 15–19).

(2) The future purpose of God that "the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea" (v. 14). That this revelation awaits the return of the Lord in glory is shown (a) by the parallel passage in Is. 11:9–12; and (b) by the quotation of v. 3 in Heb. 10:37–38, where the "it" of the vision becomes "He" and refers to the return of the Lord. It is then, after the vision is fulfilled, that "the knowledge of the glory," etc. shall fill the earth. But

(3) meantime, "the just shall live by his faith." This great evangelical word is applied to Jews and Gentiles in Rom. 1:17; to the Gentiles in Gal. 3:11–14; and to Hebrews especially in Heb. 10:38. This opening of life to faith alone, makes possible not only the salvation of the Gentiles, but also the existence of a believing remnant in Israel while the nation, as such, is in blindness and unbelief (see Rom. 11:1 and 5, notes), with neither priesthood nor temple, and consequently unable to keep the ordinances of the law. Such is the LORD!

In disciplinary government His ancient Israel is cast out of the land and judicially blinded (2 Cor. 3:12–15), but in covenanted mercy the individual Jew may resort to the simple faith of Abraham (Gen. 15:6; Rom. 4:1–5) and be saved. This, however, does not set aside the Palestinian and Davidic Covenants (see Deut. 30:3 and 2 Sam. 7:16, notes), for "the earth will be filled," etc. (v. 14), and the LORD will again be in His temple (v. 20). Compare Rom. 11:25–27.

II. The Answer of God, 2:2–20

The just shall live by faith

2 Then the LORD answered me and said:

"Write[a] the vision
And make it plain on tablets,
That he may run who reads it.
3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time;
But at the end it will speak, and it will [b]not lie.
Though it tarries, [c]wait for it;
Because it will surely come,
It will not tarry.

4 "Behold the proud,
His soul is not [d]upright in him;
But the just shall live by his [e]faith.

5 "Indeed, because he transgresses by wine,
He is a proud man,
And he does not stay at home.
Because he [f]enlarges his desire as hell,*
And he is like death, and cannot be satisfied,
He gathers to himself all nations
And heaps up for himself all peoples.

6 "Will not all these [g]take up a proverb against him,
And a taunting riddle against him, and say,
'Woe to him who increases
What is not his—how long?
And to him who loads himself with many pledges'?*
7 Will not your creditors* rise up suddenly?
Will they not awaken who oppress you?

2:2 run who reads it. Not, as usually quoted, "that he who runs may read," but "that he may run who reads"; that is, as a messenger of the vision. Compare Zech. 2:4–5.

2:4 the just shall live by his faith. Here is the central theme of the Bible. The cause of life and death is presented. Trust in God brings life (Gen. 15:6; John 3:16; Rom. 6:23); pride leads to death, because it will not accept by faith the grace of God (Rom. 1:17; Gal. 3:11; Heb. 10:38).

And you will become their booty.
8 [a]Because you have plundered
many nations,
All the remnant of the people shall plunder you,
Because of men's blood
And the violence of the land
and the city,
And of all who dwell in it.

9 "Woe to him who covets evil gain for his house,
That he may [b]set his nest on high,
That he may be delivered from the power of disaster!
10 You give shameful counsel to your house,
Cutting off many peoples,
And sin against your soul.
11 For the stone will cry out from
the wall,
And the beam from the timbers
will answer it.

12 "Woe to him who builds a town with bloodshed,
Who establishes a city by
iniquity!
13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts
That the peoples labor to feed
the fire,*
And nations weary themselves
in vain?
14 For the earth will be filled With the knowledge of the glory of the LORD,
As the waters cover the sea.

15 "Woe to him who gives drink to
his neighbor,
Pressing* him to your bottle,
Even to make him drunk,
That you may look on his
nakedness!
16 You are filled with shame
instead of glory.
You also—drink!
And be exposed as uncircumcised!*
The cup of the LORD's right hand will be turned against
you,
And utter shame will be on your glory.
17 For the violence done to Lebanon will cover you,
And the plunder of beasts
which made them afraid,
Because of men's blood
And the violence of the land
and the city,
And of all who dwell in it.

18 "What profit is the image, that its maker should carve it,
The molded image, a teacher of lies,
That the maker of its mold should trust in it,
To make mute idols?
19 Woe to him who says to wood,
'Awake!' To silent stone, 'Arise! It shall teach!'
Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver,
Yet in it there is no breath at all.

2:13 is it not of the LORD. Or it is not of the LORD, etc., that is, though permitted in His providence, not His plan. Compare Mic. 4:2–4.

2:14 the earth will be filled. Compare Is. 11:9, which fixes the time when "the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD," etc. It is when David's righteous Branch has set up the kingdom. See Davidic Covenant, 2 Sam. 7:16, note; Kingdom (OT), Gen. 1:26–28; Zech. 12:8, note; Kingdom (NT), Luke 1:31–33; 1 Cor. 15:24, note.

2:5 SHEOL

The Hebrew Sheol is, in the OT, the place to which the dead go.

(1) Often, therefore, it is spoken of as the equivalent of the grave, where all human activities cease; the terminus toward which all human life moves (e.g. Gen. 42:38; Job 14:13; Ps. 88:3).

(2) To the man "under the sun," the natural man, who of necessity judges from appearances, Sheol seems no more than the grave—the end and total cessation, not only of the activities of life, but also of life itself (Eccl. 9:5,10). But

(3) Scripture reveals Sheol as a place of sorrow (2 Sam. 22:6; Ps. 18:5; 116:3), into which the wicked are turned (Ps. 9:17), and where they are fully conscious (Is. 14:9–17; Ezek. 32:21). Compare Jon. 2:2; what the belly of the great fish was to Jonah, Sheol is to those who are therein.

The Sheol of the OT and Hades of the NT are identical. See Luke 16:23, note.

20 "But[a] the LORD is in His holy temple.
Let all the earth keep silence before Him."

III. The Triumphant Faith of Habakkuk, 3

3 A [b]PRAYER of Habakkuk the prophet, on Shigionoth.

2 O LORD, I have heard your speech and was afraid;
O LORD, revive Your work in the midst of the years!
In the midst of the years make it known;
In wrath remember mercy.

3 [c]God came from Teman,
The Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah

His glory covered the heavens,
And the earth was full of His praise.
4 His brightness was like the light;
He had rays flashing from His hand,
And there His power was hidden.
5 Before Him went pestilence,
And fever followed at His feet.
6 He stood and measured the earth;
He looked and startled the nations.
And the everlasting mountains were scattered,
The perpetual hills bowed.
His ways are everlasting.
7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction;
The curtains of the land of Midian trembled.
8 O LORD, were You displeased with the rivers,
Was Your anger against the rivers,
Was Your wrath against the sea,
That You rode on Your horses,
Your chariots of salvation?
9 Your bow was made quite ready;
Oaths were sworn over Your arrows.* Selah

You divided the earth with rivers.
10 The mountains saw You and trembled;
The overflowing of the water passed by.
The deep uttered its voice,
And lifted its hands on high.
11 The [d]sun and moon stood still in their habitation;
At the light of Your arrows they went,
At the shining of Your glittering spear.
12 You marched through the land in indignation;
You trampled the nations in anger.
13 You went forth for the salvation of Your people,
For salvation with Your Anointed.
You struck the head from the house of the wicked,
By laying bare from foundation to neck. Selah 14 You thrust through with his own arrows
The head of his villages.

3:1 BIBLE PRAYERS OF THE OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

Prayer is an integral part of worship, in the OT and in the NT. In the OT the petitions and supplications of God's people are based upon His character and the divine covenants. OT saints, often acting in the priestly office of representing the people before the LORD, frequently appeal to the honor of the name of God and the steadfastness of His word as they plead with the Almighty to fulfill on their behalf the promises that He has graciously made to them as His covenant people (Gen. 15:2–3; 18:23–32; Ex. 32:11–14; 2 Sam. 7:18–29; 1 Kin. 8:22–53; 18:36–37; Dan. 9:3–19). For Bible prayers (NT), see Luke 11:2, note.

3:1 Shigionoth. Probably musical instruments.

3:3 This theophany recalls the events of the Exodus and Sinai, which form the background for God's future deliverance of His people (v. 13) and His judgment of their enemies (v. 12). Selah. The use here and in the Psalms of this Hebrew word, Selah, possibly marks those places where a musical rest in the chanting or a change of instrumental accompaniment stressed a shift of mood.

3:7 Cushan. Or Ethiopia.

They came out like a whirlwind to scatter me;
Their rejoicing was like feasting
on the poor in secret.
15 [a] You walked through the sea
with Your horses,
Through the heap of great waters.
16 When I heard, my body
trembled;
My lips quivered at the voice;
Rottenness entered my bones;
And I trembled in myself,
That I might rest in the day of trouble.
When he comes up to the
people,
He will invade them with his troops.
17 Though the fig tree may not blossom,
Nor fruit be on the vines;
Though the labor of the olive may fail,
And the fields yield no food;
Though the flock may be cut off from the fold,
And there be no herd in the stalls—
18 Yet I will [b] rejoice in the LORD,
I will joy in the God of my salvation.
19 The LORD God* is my [c] strength;
He will make my feet like [d] deer's feet,
And He will make me walk on my [e] high hills.

3:18 rejoice in the LORD. Verses 17–18 declare that Habakkuk's love for God, like that of any devoted believer, is not based on what he expects God to give him. Even if God should send him suffering and loss, he declares, he will still rejoice in the God of his salvation. Here is one of the strongest manifestations of faith in the Scriptures.

THE BOOK OF

ZEPHANIAH

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Zephaniah	Day of the LORD	7th Cent. B.C.

Background

Zephaniah, which means the LORD hides or protects, was a great-great-grandson of King Hezekiah (1:1). The internal evidence of the book shows that he prophesied during the reign of King Josiah, probably in the decade before the great revival of 621 B.C. Stirred by the moral declension of his time, he foresaw the fall of Jerusalem which, in his inspired vision, became a figure of the day of the LORD. Not only so, but he also looked forward to the judgment of the Gentiles and the restoration of Israel in the Messianic kingdom.

A leading theme of Zephaniah is the day of the LORD, a future event that he describes with vivid power. Zephaniah uses the term, "day of the LORD," more than any other prophet except Joel, yet he pleads with Judah to "seek the LORD" that they might be "hidden in the day of the LORD's anger" (2:3).

Outline

I. The Coming Invasion of Nebuchadnezzar, a Figure of the Day of the LORD, 1:1—2:3

Introduction

1 THE word of the LORD which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of [a]Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

The coming judgment of Judah

2 "I will utterly consume everything
From the face of the land,"
Says the LORD;
3 "I will consume man and beast;
I will consume the birds of the heavens,
The fish of the sea,
And the [b]stumbling blocks* along with the wicked.
I will cut off man from the face of the land,"
Says the LORD.
4 "I will stretch out My hand against Judah,
And against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
I will cut off every trace of Baal from this place,
The names of the [c]idolatrous priests* with the pagan priests—
5 Those who worship the host of heaven [d]on the housetops;
Those who worship and swear oaths by the LORD,
But who also swear by Milcom;
6 Those who have turned back from following the LORD,
And have not sought the LORD, nor inquired of Him."
7 Be silent in the presence of the Lord GOD;
For the [e]day of the LORD is at hand,
For the LORD has prepared a [f]sacrifice;
He has invited* His guests.
8 "And it shall be,
In the day of the LORD's sacrifice,
That I will punish the princes and the king's children,
And all such as are clothed with foreign apparel.
9 In the same day I will punish
All those who leap over the threshold,*
Who fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.
10 "And there shall be on that day," says the LORD,
"The sound of a mournful cry from the Fish Gate,
A wailing from the Second Quarter,
And a loud crashing from the hills.
11 Wail, you inhabitants of Maktesh!*
For all the merchant people are cut down;
All those who handle money are cut off.

Zephaniah: whom Jehovah hid. A minor prophet who declared God's judgment against Judah and various nations, but gave hope to Judah for the future.

1:5 Milcom, Molech (Lev. 18:21; 1 Kin. 11:5), was an idol of the Ammonites.

1:9 leap over the threshold. May suggest the zeal of their plundering expeditions.

1:10 Fish Gate. Now called the Damascus Gate.

1:11 Maktesh was a depression in Jerusalem where the market places were situated.

1:7 ZEPHANIAH'S PROPHECY

In predictive prophecy, such as Zephaniah's portrayal of the day of the LORD, the near and far view are often merged. From a distance a great mountain range appears as a single barrier against the sky, although it actually comprises many foothills and intermediate summits separated by extensive valleys from the ultimate heights. So Zephaniah, seeing in the impending fall of Jerusalem the nearest aspect of the day of the LORD, can say that it is "at hand" (v. 7) and "hastens quickly" (v. 14); whereas, towering in the distant future of unfulfilled prophecy, the final Day of the LORD awaits the return of Christ in glory. It is then that all earth-judgment will culminate, to be followed by the restoration and blessing of Israel and the nations in the kingdom. See Day of the LORD (Is. 2:10–22; see Joel 1:15 and Rev. 19:19, notes); Israel (Gen. 12:2–3; Rom. 11:26).

12 "And it shall come to pass at that time
That I will search Jerusalem with lamps,
And punish the men
Who are [a]settled in complacency,*
Who say in their heart,
'The LORD will not do good,
Nor will He do evil.'
13 Therefore their goods shall become booty,
And their houses a desolation;
They shall build houses, but not inhabit them;
They shall plant vineyards, but [b]not drink their wine."

14 The great day of the LORD is near;
It is near and hastens quickly.
The noise of the day of the LORD is bitter;
There the mighty men shall cry out.
15 [c]That day is a day of wrath,
A day of trouble and distress,
A day of devastation and desolation,
A day of darkness and gloominess,
A day of clouds and thick darkness,
16 A day of trumpet and alarm
Against the fortified cities
And against the high towers.

17 "I will bring distress upon men,
And they shall walk like [d]blind men,
[e]Because they have sinned against the LORD;
Their blood shall be poured out like dust,
And their flesh like refuse."

18 [f]Neither their silver nor their gold
Shall be able to deliver them
In the day of the LORD's wrath;
But the whole land shall be devoured
By the fire of His jealousy,
For He will make speedy riddance
Of all those who dwell in the land.

Zephaniah's call to repentance

2 [g]GATHER yourselves together,
yes, gather together,
O undesirable nation,
2 Before the decree is issued,
Or the day passes like chaff,
Before the LORD's fierce anger comes upon you,
Before the day of the LORD's anger comes upon you!
3 Seek the LORD, all you meek of the earth,
Who have upheld His justice.
Seek righteousness, seek humility.
It [h]may be that you will be hidden
In the day of the LORD's anger.

II. Predictions of Judgments of Surrounding Nations, 2:4–15

4 For [i]Gaza shall be forsaken,
And Ashkelon desolate;
They shall drive out Ashdod at noonday,
And Ekron shall be uprooted.
5 Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast,
The nation of the Cherethites!
The word of the LORD is against you,
O Canaan, land of the [j]Philistines:
"I will destroy you;
So there shall be no inhabitant."

6 The seacoast shall be pastures,
With shelters* for shepherds and folds for flocks.
7 The coast shall be for the [k]remnant of the house of Judah;
They shall feed their flocks there;
In the houses of Ashkelon they shall lie down at evening.
For the LORD their God will intervene for them,
And [l]return their captives.

1:14 Verses 14–16 are the basis of the ancient Latin hymn, Dies Irae ("Day of Wrath").

2:1 undesirable. Literally shameless. Compare Jer. 3:3.

8 "I have heard the reproach of [a]Moab,
And the insults of the people of [b]Ammon,
With which they have reproached My people,
And made arrogant threats against their borders.
9 Therefore, as I live,"
Says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel,
"Surely Moab shall be like Sodom,
And the people of Ammon like [c]Gomorrah—
Overrun with weeds and saltpits,
And a perpetual desolation.
The residue of My people shall plunder them,
And the remnant of My people shall possess them."
10 This they shall have for their pride,
Because they have reproached and made arrogant threats
Against the people of the LORD of hosts.
11 The LORD will be awesome to them,
For He will reduce to nothing all the gods of the earth;
People shall worship Him,
Each one from his place,
Indeed all the shores of the nations.
12 "You [d]Ethiopians also,
You shall be slain by My sword."
13 And He will stretch out His hand against the north,
Destroy [e]Assyria,
And make Nineveh a desolation,
As dry as the wilderness.
14 The herds shall lie down in her midst,
Every beast of the nation.
Both the pelican and the bittern
Shall lodge on the capitals of her pillars;
Their voice shall sing in the windows;
Desolation shall be at the threshold;
For He will lay bare the cedar work.
15 This is the rejoicing city
That dwelt [f]securely,
That said in her heart,
"I am it, and there is none besides me."
How has she become a desolation,
A place for beasts to lie down!
Everyone who passes by her Shall hiss and shake his fist.

3 WOE to her who is rebellious and polluted,
To the oppressing city!
2 She has not obeyed His voice,
She has not received correction;
She has not trusted in the LORD,
She has not drawn near to her God.

4 Her [h]prophets are insolent, treacherous people;

Sodom and Gomorrah: burning. Cities located in the Valley of Siddim known for their extreme wickedness and destroyed by God with fire and brimstone. Only Lot and his family survived the destruction.

2:13 Nineveh. The capital of the ancient Assyrian Empire was noted for its cruelty and violence (Jon. 3:8). This is confirmed by the ancient records found there. Under the preaching of Jonah in the eighth century B.C., the city and king had turned to God (Jon. 3:3–10). But in the time of Nahum, a century or more later, the city had wholly departed from God. The message of Nahum, therefore, though given perhaps a generation before the destruction of the city, is not a call to repentance but an unrelieved warning of judgment (1:9; 3:10). Such is the way of God; light rejected brings destruction.

3:2 trusted. Trust is the characteristic OT word for the NT "faith" and "believe." It occurs 154 times in the OT, and is the rendering of Hebrew words signifying to take refuge (Ps. 2:12); to lean on (Ps. 56:3); to roll on (Ps. 22:8).

He never fails,
But the unjust knows no shame.

6 "I have cut off nations,
Their fortresses are devastated;
I have made their streets
desolate,
With none passing by.
Their cities are destroyed;
There is no one, no inhabitant.
7 I said, 'Surely you will fear Me,
You will receive instruction'—
So that her dwelling would not
be cut off,
Despite everything for which I punished her.
But they rose early and corrupted all their deeds.

IV. Future Judgment of the Gentiles, Followed by Kingdom Blessing under Messiah, 3:8–20

8 "Therefore [a]wait for Me," says
the LORD,
"Until the day I rise up for plunder;*
My determination is to [b]gather the [c]nations
To My assembly of kingdoms, [d]To pour on them My indignation,
All my fierce anger;
All the earth shall be devoured
With the fire of My jealousy.

Israel's cleansing

9 "For then I will restore to the peoples a pure [e]language,
That they all may call on the name of the LORD,
To serve Him with one accord.
10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia
My worshipers,
The daughter of My dispersed ones,
Shall bring My offering.
11 In that day you shall not be shamed for any of your deeds
In which you transgress against
Me;
For then I will take away from
your midst
Those who [f]rejoice in your pride,
And you shall no longer be haughty
In My holy mountain.
12 I will leave in your midst
A meek and humble people,
And they shall trust in the name of the LORD.
13 The [g]remnant of Israel shall do no unrighteousness
And speak no lies,
Nor shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth;
For they shall [h]feed their flocks
and lie down,
And no one shall make them afraid."

Israel's restoration and blessing; the King in the kingdom

14 Sing, O daughter of Zion!
Shout, O Israel!
Be glad and rejoice with all your heart,
O daughter of Jerusalem!
15 The LORD has taken away your
judgments,
He has cast out your enemy.
The [i]King of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst;
You shall see* disaster no more.

3:7 fear. "The fear of the LORD" is an OT expression meaning reverential trust, including the hatred of evil.

3:9 restore. In Zephaniah the conversion of "the peoples" is stated out of the usual prophetic order, in which the blessing of Israel and the setting up of the kingdom precede the conversion of the Gentiles. See Zech. 12:1,8, with notes. But the passage gives clear testimony as to when the conversion of the nations will occur. It is after the smiting of the nations. Compare Is. 11:9 with context; Ps. 2:5–8; Dan. 2:34–35; Acts 15:15–17; Rev. 19:19—20:6. pure language. The prophet is not foretelling a universal language, as though to reverse the consequences of Babel, but the conversion of the nations, a spiritual transformation readily discernible in their purified speech.

3:12 trust. Trust is the characteristic OT word for the NT "faith" and "believe." It occurs 154 times in the OT, and is the rendering of Hebrew words signifying to take refuge (Ps. 2:12); to lean on (Ps. 56:3); to roll on (Ps. 22:8).

3:15 midst. That this, and all like passages in the prophets (see Kingdom (OT), Gen. 1:26–28; Zech. 12:8, note), cannot refer to anything which occurred at the first coming of Christ is clear from the context. Precisely the reverse is true. See, e.g., Is. 11:1, note.

16 In that day [a]it shall be said to Jerusalem:
"Do not fear;
Zion, let not your hands be weak.
17 The LORD your God in your midst,
The Mighty One, will save;
He will [b]rejoice over you with gladness,
He will quiet you with His love,
He will rejoice over you with singing."

18 "I will gather those who sorrow over the appointed assembly,
Who are among you,
To whom its reproach is a burden.

19 Behold, at that time
I will deal with all who afflict
you;
I will save the lame,
And gather those who were driven out;
I will appoint them for praise and fame
In every land where they were put to shame.
20 At that time I will [c]bring you back,
Even at the time I gather you;
For I will give you fame and praise
Among all the peoples of the earth,
When I return your captives before your eyes,"
Says the LORD.

3:17 quiet you. Or be quiet in, a love too great for words. with His love. For the LORD's own, His final word is not of anger, as with the unbelieving nations, but of love, as expressed in this beautiful verse. When it comes to His people, chastised and forgiven, the LORD rests His case in love and rejoicing.

3:20 give you fame. This is the fulfillment of Israel's destiny, as stated in Deut. 26:19.

THE BOOK OF

HAGGAI

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Haggai	Rebuilding the Temple	6th Cent. B.C.

Background

Haggai, whose name means festive, was one of the early post-captivity prophets. His ministry was to rebuke the returned exiles for their delay in rebuilding the Temple and to encourage them to set to work. Haggai was a contemporary of Zechariah (Ezra 5:1–2).

The five messages that make up the Book of Haggai are among the most precisely dated of all prophecies, the year, month, and day being specified in each case (1:1,15; 2:1,10,20). Such expressions as "then the word of the LORD came" and "Thus says the LORD of hosts" occur about nineteen times in the two chapters of the prophecy.

Outline

The book may be divided according to the five messages of Haggai, as follows:

I.	The First Message of Rebuke	1:1–11
	A. Introduction	1:1–2
	B. The Condition of the Exiles: God's Discipline Because of Disobedience	1:3–11
II.	The First Message of Encouragement	1:12–15
III.	The Second Message of Encouragement: the Future Glory of the Temple	2:1–9
IV.	The Second Message of Rebuke	2:10–19
V.	The Third Message of Encouragement: the Final Overthrow of Gentile World Power	2:20–23

I. The First Message of Rebuke, 1:1–11

Introduction

1 IN the [a]second year of King Darius, in the sixth month, on the first [b]day of the month, the word of the LORD came by [c]Haggai the prophet to [d]Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying,

2 "Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, saying: 'This people says, "The time has not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built." ' "

The condition of the exiles: God's discipline because of disobedience

3 Then the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying,

4 "Is it time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, and this temple* to lie [e]in ruins?"

5 Now therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts: "Consider your ways!

6 "You have [f]sown much, and bring in little;
You eat, but do not have enough;
You drink, but you are not filled with drink;
You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm;
And he who earns wages,
Earns wages to put into a bag with holes."

7 Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Consider your ways!

8 "Go up to the [g]mountains and bring wood and build the temple, that I may take pleasure in it and be glorified," says the LORD.

9 "You looked for much, but indeed it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?" says the LORD of hosts. "Because of My house that is in ruins, while every one of you runs to his own house.

10 "Therefore the [h]heavens above you withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit.

11 "For I called for a [i]drought on the land and the mountains, on the grain and the new wine and the oil, on whatever the ground brings forth, on men and livestock, and on all the labor of your hands."

II. The First Message of Encouragement, 1:12–15

The work recommended

12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him; and the people feared the presence of the LORD.

13 Then Haggai, the LORD's messenger, spoke the LORD's message to the people, saying, "I am with you, says the LORD."

14 So the LORD [j]stirred up the spir-

1:1 King Darius. The dating of a Hebrew prophecy by the reign of a Gentile monarch, in this instance Darius I Hystaspis, reveals that the times of the Gentiles were in progress (Luke 21:24). For similar instances, compare Dan. 2:1; 7:1; etc. sixth month. This is the month of Elul in the Hebrew religious calendar. It correlates to the modern months of August–September. For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev. 23:2. Haggai. Haggai's prophecy should be compared with the prophecy of Zechariah, his contemporary, and also with the historical record in the Book of Ezra, as follows: Hag. 1:1–11 with Ezra 4:24—5:1; Hag. 1:12–15 with Ezra 5:2 and Zech. 1:1–6; Hag. 2:10–23 with Zech. 1:7—6:15. Also compare Ezra 5:3–17; 6:1–13 with Zech. 7—8. Zerubbabel . . . Joshua. Zerubbabel and Joshua were not only religious leaders, but prominent men in civic life also. Joshua. Or Jeshua. Ezra 3:2; Neh. 12:1; Zech. 3:1–5.

Haggai: festive. A minor prophet who encouraged the returned exiles to rebuild the temple.

1:2 time has not come. Contrast with this David's concern in 2 Sam. 7:2.

1:5,7 Consider. That is, Lay to heart.

1:9 blew it away. Indicative of God's displeasure.

1:11 all the labor. The principle of Matt. 6:33 is valid in every generation.

1:12 Joshua. Or Jeshua. Ezra 3:2; Neh. 12:1; Zech. 3:1–5. feared. "The fear of the LORD" is an OT expression meaning reverential trust, including the hatred of evil.

Zerubbabel: scattered in Babylon. A prince of Judah who led the first group of exiles back to Judah. He started the work of rebuilding the temple and restored the worship of God.

it of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the [a]remnant of the people; and they came and [b]worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God,

III. The Second Message of Encouragement: the Future Glory of the Temple, 2:1–9

The temples

2 IN the [d]seventh month, on the twenty-first of the month, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying:

2 "Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying:

3 [e]'Who is left among you who saw this temple* in its former glory? And how do you see it now? In comparison with it, is this not in your eyes as nothing?

4 'Yet now be strong, Zerubbabel,' says the LORD; 'and be strong, Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; and be strong, all you people of the land,' says the LORD, 'and work; for I am with you,' says the LORD of hosts.

5 'According to the word that I [f]covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, so My [g]Spirit remains among you; do not fear!'

6 "For thus says the LORD of hosts: [h]'Once more (it is a little while) I will [ij]shake heaven and earth, the sea and dry land;

7 'and I will shake all nations, and they shall come to the Desire of All Nations,* and I will fill this temple with [k]glory,' says the LORD of hosts.

8 'The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine,' says the LORD of hosts.

9 'The glory of this latter temple shall be greater than the former,' says the LORD of hosts. 'And in this place I will give peace,' says the LORD of hosts."

IV. The Second Message of Rebuke, 2:10–19

God's message of cleansing and blessing

10 On the [l]twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying,

11 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Now, ask the priests concerning the law, saying,

12 "If one carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and with the edge he touches bread or stew, wine or oil, or any food, will it become holy?" ' " Then the priests answered and said, "No."

2:3 HAGGAI'S MESSAGE

The prophet calls the old men who remembered Solomon's temple, to witness to the new generation how greatly that structure exceeded the present in magnificence; and he then utters a prophecy (vv. 7–9) which can only refer to the future kingdom temple described by Ezekiel. It is certain that the restoration temple and all subsequent structures, including Herod's, were far inferior in costliness and splendor to Solomon's.

The present period is described in Hos. 3:4–5. Verse 6 is quoted in Heb. 12:26–27. Verse 7, "I will shake all nations," refers to the great tribulation and is followed by the coming of Christ in glory, as in Matt. 24:29–30. "The Desire of All Nations" (LXX, "the riches of all nations" that is, the treasures or desirable things) is an expression that refers ultimately to Christ, in whom all true riches culminate. See Mal. 3:1, note.

2:1 seventh month. This is the month of Tishri (or Ethanim) in the Hebrew religious calendar. It correlates to the modern months of September—October. For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev.23:2. twenty-first. This was the seventh day of the Feast of Tabernacles (Lev. 23:39–44; compare John 7:37ff.).

2:4 Joshua. Or Jeshua. Not the same man as in Josh. 1:1ff.; Ezra 2:2.

2:9 glory. Or the future glory of this house shall be greater than the former. temple. In a broad sense all the temples (that is, Solomon's, Ezra's, Herod's, that which will be used by the unbelieving Jews under covenant with the beast [Dan. 9:27; Matt. 24:15; 2 Thess. 2:3–4], and Ezekiel's future kingdom temple [Ezek. 40—47]) are looked upon as though they are the "house of the LORD," since they all profess to be that. For that reason Christ purified the temple of His day, erected though it was by an Idumean usurper to please the Jews (Matt. 21:12–13). Peace will be bestowed through the Prince of Peace (Is. 9:6–7; compare Mic. 5:5).

13 And Haggai said, "If one who is [a]unclean because of a dead body touches any of these, will it be unclean?" So the priests answered and said, "It shall be unclean."

14 Then Haggai answered and said, " 'So is this people, and so is this nation before Me,' says the LORD, 'and so is every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.

15 'And now, carefully consider from this day forward: from before stone was laid upon stone in the temple of the LORD—

16 'since those days, when one came to a heap of [b]twenty ephahs, there were but ten; when one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty baths from the press, there were but twenty.

17 'I struck you with [c]blight and mildew and hail in all the labors of your hands; [d]yet you did not turn to Me,' says the LORD.

18 'Consider now [e]from this day forward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day that the foundation of the LORD'S temple was [f]laid—consider it:

19 'Is the seed still in the barn? As yet the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not yielded fruit. But from this day I will [g]bless you.' "

V. The Third Message of Encouragement: the Final Overthrow of Gentile World Power, 2:20–23

20 And again the word of the LORD came to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying,

21 "Speak to [h]Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying:

'I will shake heaven and earth.
22 I will [i]overthrow the throne of kingdoms;
I will destroy the strength of the Gentile kingdoms.
I will overthrow the chariots
And those who ride in them;
The horses and their riders shall come down,
Every one by the sword of his brother.

23 'In that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'I will take you, Zerubbabel My servant, the son of Shealtiel,' says the LORD, 'and will make you like a [j]signet ring; for I have [k]chosen you,' says the LORD of hosts."

2:13 unclean. The principle is illuminated by Lev. 6:18; 22:4–6; and Num. 19:11. The Mosaic law held that moral cleanness could not be transmitted, but moral uncleanness could. The long disobedience of the nation rendered their work unprofitable before God.

2:15,18 consider. That is, lay to heart.

2:23 Zerubbabel. The Messianic line came through Zerubbabel as a descendant of David (Matt. 1:12; Luke 3:27).

2:23 signet ring. The signet ring is a symbol of royal authority.

THE BOOK OF

ZECHARIAH

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Zechariah	Messiah's Advents	6th Cent. B.C.

Background

Zechariah, whose name means the LORD remembers, was a prophet of the restoration from Babylon. As a contemporary of Haggai (compare 1:1 with Haggai 1:1), he began his two-year ministry in the second year of Darius I Hystaspis, 520 B.C. His messages cover events beginning with the rebuilding of the Temple and concluding with the millennium.

Expositors, both Jewish and Christian, have complained of the difficulty of the book. This is due largely to the visions of chapters 1–6. But no Old Testament prophet has more prophecy concerning Christ, Israel, and the nations in so short a space than Zechariah. He predicts the second coming of Christ. His reign, His priesthood, His kingship, His humanity, His Deity, His building of the Temple of the LORD, His coming in lowliness, His bringing of permanent peace, His rejection and betrayal for thirty pieces of silver, His return to Israel as the crucified One, and His being smitten by the sword of the LORD.

Zechariah's predictions of other prophetic events of the end-time are equally clear and significant. In the last chapter alone the prophet discloses the last siege of Jerusalem, the initial victory of the enemies of Israel, the cleaving of the Mount of Olives, the LORD's defense of Jerusalem by His visible appearing on Olivet, judgment on the confederated nations, the topographical changes in the land of Israel, the Feast of Tabernacles in the millennium, and the ultimate holiness of Jerusalem and her people.

I. Call to Repentance, 1:1–6

Introduction

1 IN the eighth month of the second year of [a]Darius, the word of the LORD came to [b]Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of [c]Iddo the prophet, saying,

A solemn warning and call to repentance

2 "The LORD has been very angry with your fathers.

3 "Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: [d]"Return to Me," says the LORD of hosts, "and I will return to you," says the LORD of hosts.

4 "Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets preached, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Turn now from your evil ways and your evil deeds." ' But they [e]did not hear nor heed Me," says the LORD.

5 "Your fathers, where are they?
And the prophets, do they live forever?
6 Yet surely My words and My statutes,
Which I commanded My servants the prophets,
Did they not overtake your fathers?

"So they returned and said:

'Just as the LORD of hosts determined to do to us,
According to our ways and according to our deeds,
So He has dealt with us.' " ' "

II. A Series of Eight Visions to Comfort Jerusalem, 1:7—6:15

(1) The rider on the red horse

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet:

8 I saw by night, and behold, a man riding on a red horse, and it stood among the myrtle trees in the hollow; and behind him were horses: red, sorrel, and white.

9 Then I said, [f]"My lord, what are these?" So the [g]angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what they are."

10 And the man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, "These are the ones whom the LORD has sent to walk to and fro throughout the earth."

11 So they answered the [h]Angel of the LORD, who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have walked to and fro throughout the earth, and behold, all the earth is resting quietly."

The LORD displeased with the nations

12 Then the [i]Angel of the LORD answered and said, "O LORD of hosts, [j]how long will You not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which You were angry these [k]seventy years?"

13 And the LORD answered the [l]angel who talked to me, with good and comforting words.

Zechariah: whom Jehovah remembers. One of the minor prophets who presented a message of hope to the Jews returning from exile.

1:8 saw by night. Zechariah's first vision (vv. 8–17) reveals Judah in dispersion, Jerusalem under adverse possession, and the Gentile nations at rest about it. This condition still continues, and the LORD's answer to the intercession of the angel sweeps on to the end-time of Gentile domination, when "the LORD will again comfort Zion," etc. (vv. 16–17; Is. 40:1–5). See Kingdom (OT) (Gen. 1:26–28; Zech. 12:8, note). red horse. Compare Rev. 6:4. The whole period of Gentile world power is characterized by the red horse, that is, by the sword. Compare also Dan. 9:26; Matt. 24:6–7. hollow. That is, a shady place or glen.

14 So the [a]angel who spoke with me said to me, "Proclaim, saying,
'Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"I am [b]zealous for Jerusalem
And for Zion with great zeal.
15 I am exceedingly angry with the nations at ease;
For I was a little angry,
And they helped—but with evil intent."

16 'Therefore thus says the LORD:

"I am [c]returning to Jerusalem with mercy;
My [d]house [e]shall be built in it,"
says the LORD of hosts,
"And a surveyor's [f]line shall be stretched out over
Jerusalem." '

17 "Again proclaim, saying, 'Thus
says the LORD of hosts:

"My cities shall again spread out through prosperity;
The LORD will again [g]comfort
Zion,
And will again [h]choose
Jerusalem." ' "

(2) The four horns and four craftsmen

18 Then I raised my eyes and looked, and there were four [i]horns.
19 And I said to the [j]angel who talked with me, "What are these?"
So he answered me, "These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."
20 Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen.

21 And I said, "What are these coming to do?" So he said, "These are the [k]horns that scattered Judah, so that no one could lift up his head;
but the craftsmen* are coming to terrify them, to cast out the [l]horns of the nations that lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

(3) The man with the measuring line in his hand

2 THEN I raised my eyes and looked, and behold, a man with a [m]measuring line in his hand.
2 So I said, "Where are you going?" And he said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its width and what is its length."
3 And there was the [n]angel who talked with me, going out; and another angel was coming out to meet
him,

Jerusalem in the Kingdom Age

4 who said to him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying: 'Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls, because of the multitude of men and livestock in it.
5 'For I,' says the LORD, 'will be a wall of fire all around her, and I will be the glory in her midst.' " 6 "Up, up! Flee from the land of the north," says the LORD; "for I have spread you abroad like the four winds of heaven," says the LORD.
7 "Up, Zion! Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of [o]Babylon."
8 For thus says the LORD of hosts:
"He sent Me after glory, to the nations which plunder you; for he who touches you touches the [p]apple of His eye.
9 "For surely I will shake My hand against them, and they shall become

2:1 THE MEASURING LINE

The measuring line (or rod) is used by Ezekiel (40:3,5) as a symbol of preparation for rebuilding the city and temple in the Kingdom Age. Here it has that meaning, as the context shows (vv. 4–13).

The subject of the vision is the restoration of nation and city. In no sense has this prophecy been fulfilled. The order is:

(1) the LORD in glory in Jerusalem (v. 5) (compare Matt. 24:29–30);

(2) the restoration of Israel (v. 6);

(3) the judgment of the LORD upon the nations (vv. 8–9) (compare Matt. 25:31–32); and

(4) the full blessing of the earth (vv. 10–13).

See Kingdom (OT) (Gen. 1:26–28; Zech. 12:8, note; Israel, Gen. 12:2–3; Rom. 11:26, note).

1:18 raised my eyes. A horn is sometimes used as a symbol of a Gentile king (Dan. 7:24; Rev. 17:12), and the vision is of the four world empires (Dan. 2:36–44; 7:3–7), which have "scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem" (v. 19). See Deut. 33:17, note.

1:20 four craftsmen. The four craftsmen may denote the four judgments of Ezek. 14:21 ("the sword and famine and wild beasts and pestilence"), and in turn the four horsemen and horses of Rev. 6:1–8. See v. 18, note.

will know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me.

10 "Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion! For behold, [a]I am coming and I will dwell in your midst," says the LORD.

11 "Many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and they shall become My people. And I will dwell in your midst. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me to you.

12 "And the LORD will [b]take possession of Judah as His inheritance in the Holy Land, and will again choose Jerusalem.

13 [c]"Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD, for He is aroused from His holy habitation!"

(4) Joshua the high priest; the LORD's servant, the BRANCH

3 THEN he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the [d]Angel of the LORD, and [e]Satan standing at his right hand to oppose him.

2 And the LORD said to Satan, "The LORD rebuke you, Satan! The LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is this not a brand plucked from the fire?"

3 Now Joshua was [f]clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the [g]Angel.

4 Then He answered and spoke to those who stood before Him, saying, "Take away the filthy garments from him." And to him He said, "See, I have removed your iniquity from you, and I will [h]clothe you with rich robes."

5 And I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head, and they put the clothes on him. And the [i]Angel of the LORD stood by.

6 Then the [j]Angel of the LORD admonished Joshua, saying,

7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'If you will walk in My ways,
And if you will [k]keep My command,
Then you shall also judge My house,
And likewise have charge of My courts;
I will give you places to walk
Among these who stand here.

8 'Hear, O Joshua, the high priest,
You and your companions who sit before you,
For they are a wondrous sign;
For behold, I am bringing forth
My Servant the [l]BRANCH.

It discloses: (1) the change from self-righteousness to the righteousness of God (see Rom. 3:21, note), of which Paul's experience in Phil. 3:1–9 is the illustration, as it is also the foreshadowing of the conversion of Israel; and (2) in type, the preparation of Israel for receiving the LORD's Branch (see Is. 4:2, note). The refusal of the Jews to abandon self-righteousness for the righteousness of God blinded them to the presence of the Branch in their midst at His first advent (Rom. 10:1–4; 11:7–8). Compare Zech. 6:12–15, which speaks of the manifestation of the Branch in glory (v. 13) as the Priest-King, when Israel will receive Him. See Heb. 5:6, note.

4:2 THE VISION OF THE LAMPSTAND

In this vision the lampstand represents God's witness before the world. In the time of Zechariah this witness was maintained by Israel. In the Church Age it is maintained by the Church (compare Rev. 1:12,13,20; 2:1,5; etc.). Although the Church will be removed at the rapture (1 Thess. 4:13–17; etc.), God will still maintain a witness in the world. The two olive trees represent two phases of God's government, one the priestly and the other the kingly. From these two olive trees the oil was carried to the lampstand. Oil is the uniform symbol of the Holy Spirit. See Acts 2:4, note.

The two olive trees represent Joshua and Zerubbabel, whose witness in that day is the prototype of the two witnesses of Rev. 11:3–12. Actually no human being can be the real source of the power that actuates God's witness. It is only as Joshua, Zerubbabel, or any other human being represents Christ, the true Priest-King, that he fulfills this vision. In their fullest significance the two olive trees speak of Christ, the LORD's Priest-King (compare Ps. 110:4).

Zerubbabel: scattered in Babylon. A prince of Judah who led the first group of exiles back to Judah. He started the work of rebuilding the temple and restored the worship of God.

5:1 flying scroll. A scroll, in Scripture symbolism, denotes the written word, whether of God or man (Ezra 6:2; Jer. 36:2,4,6, etc.; Ezek. 3:1–3, etc.). Zechariah's sixth vision is of the rebuke of sin by the Word of God. The two sins mentioned really transgress both tablets of the law. To steal is to set aside our neighbor's right; to swear is to set aside God's claim to reverence. As always, the law can only curse (v. 3; Gal. 3:10–14).

the whole earth: 'Every thief shall be expelled,' according to this side of the scroll; and, 'Every perjurer shall be expelled,' according to that side of it."

4 "I will send out the curse," says the LORD of hosts;
"It shall enter the house of the [a]thief
And the house of the one who [b]swears falsely by My name.
It shall remain in the midst of his house
And [c]consume it, with its timber and stones."

(7) The basket and the women

5 Then the [d]angel who talked with me came out and said to me, "Lift your eyes now, and see what this is that goes forth."

6 So I asked, "What is it?" And he said, "It is a [e]basket* that is going forth." He also said, "This is their resemblance throughout the earth:

7 "Here is a lead disc lifted up, and this is a woman sitting inside the basket";

8 then he said, "This is Wickedness!" And he thrust her down into the basket, and threw the lead cover* over its mouth.

9 Then I raised my eyes and looked, and there were two women, coming with the wind in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a [f]stork, and they lifted up the basket between earth and heaven.

10 So I said to the [g]angel who talked with me, "Where are they carrying the basket?"

11 And he said to me, "To build a house for it in the land of Shinar; when it is ready, the basket will be set there on its base."

(8) The four chariots

6 THEN I turned and raised my eyes and looked, and behold, four chariots were coming from between two mountains, and the mountains were mountains of bronze.

2 With the first chariot were red horses, with the second chariot black horses,

3 with the third chariot white horses, and with the fourth chariot dappled horses—strong steeds.

4 Then I answered and said to the [h]angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

5 And the [i]angel answered and said to me, "These are four spirits of heaven, who go out from their station before the Lord of all the earth.

6 "The one with the black horses is going to the [j]north country, the white are going after them, and the dappled are going toward the south country."

7 Then the strong steeds went out, eager to go, that they might walk to and fro throughout the earth. And He said, "Go, walk to and fro throughout the earth." So they walked to and fro throughout the earth.

8 And He called to me, and spoke to me, saying, "See, those who go toward the north country have giv-

5:5 In the vision of the measuring basket (vv.5–11) there is a blending of elements from Zechariah's time with those of the far distant future. The basket is employed to indicate how the measure of Israel's sins had accumulated in that day. Compare, for the figure of a measure, 2 Sam. 8:2; Jer. 51:13; Hab. 3:6–7; Matt. 7:2; 23:32. For such iniquity there must be, first of all, the restraint of God in order that the righteous may be permitted to live in the land; this is symbolized by the basket's lead cover. Second, evil must be completely eradicated from the land and carried back to the seat of idolatry and defiance of God, namely, Babylon; this is indicated by the flight of the basket to Babylon, its base. Compare Rev. 18.

5:11 Shinar. That is, Babylon, Dan. 1:2.

6:1 four chariots. The interpretation of the eighth vision must be governed by the authoritative declaration of v. 5. The four chariots with their horses do not symbolize the four world empires of Daniel, but "four spirits of heaven, who go out from their station before the LORD of all the earth." These spirits are angels (Luke 1:19; Heb. 1:14). They have also a ministry earthward, and of like nature with the spirits of Zech. 6:1–8, that is, judgment. The symbol (chariots and horses) is in perfect harmony with this. Always in Scripture symbolism, they stand for the power of God earthward in judgment (Jer. 46:9–10; Joel 2:3–11; Nah. 3:1–7). The vision, then, speaks of the LORD's judgments upon the Gentile nations north and south in the day of the LORD (Is. 2:10–22; Rev. 19:11–21).

en rest to My Spirit in the north country."

The symbolic crowning of Joshua

9 Then the word of the LORD came to me, [a]saying:

10 "Receive the gift from the captives—from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have come from Babylon—and go the same day and enter the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah.

11 "Take the silver and [b]gold, make an elaborate crown, and set it on the head of [c]Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest.

12 "Then speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, saying:

"Behold, the Man whose name is the [d]BRANCH!
From His place He shall branch out,
And He shall build the temple of the LORD;
13 Yes, He shall build the temple of the LORD.
He shall bear the [e]glory,
And shall sit and rule on His [f]throne;
So He shall be a [g]priest on His [h]throne,
And the counsel of peace shall be between them both." '

14 "Now the elaborate crown shall be for a memorial in the temple of the LORD for Helem,* Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen the son of Zephaniah.

15 "Even those from afar shall come and build the temple of the LORD. Then you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me to you. And this shall come to pass if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God."

The answer of the LORD: their fasts were mere form

4 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

5 "Say to all the people of the land, and to the priests: 'When you [j]fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months during those seventy years, did you really fast for Me—for [k]Me?

6 [l]'When you eat and when you drink, do you not eat and drink for yourselves?

6:11 crown. Following the earth-judgments symbolized in the war chariots (6:1–8) comes the manifestation of Christ in His kingdom glory (vv. 9–15). This is the invariable prophetic order: first, the judgments of the day of the LORD (Is. 2:10–22; Rev. 19:11–21); then, the kingdom (compare Ps. 2:5 with 2:6; Is. 3:24–26 with 4:2–6; 10:33–34 with 11:1–10; Rev. 19:19–21 with 20:4–6). This is set forth symbolically by the crowning of Joshua, which was not a vision but was actually done (compare Ezek. 37:16–22). The fulfillment in the Branch will infinitely transcend the symbol. He "shall bear the glory" (v. 13; Matt. 16:27; 24:30; 25:31) as the Priest-King on His own throne (vv. 12–13; Heb. 7:1–3). Christ is now a Priest but is still in the holiest within the veil (Heb. 9:11–14,24; compare Lev. 16:15) and seated on the Father's throne (Rev. 3:21). He has not yet come out to take His own throne (Heb. 9:28). It was to keep alive this larger hope of Israel that this crown was made for the symbolical crowning of Joshua; it was to be laid up in the temple as a memorial.

7:2 A FAST DAY OBSERVANCE

The mission of these Jews concerned a fast day instituted by the Jews during the captivity in commemoration of the destruction of Jerusalem, wholly of their own will and without warrant from the Word of God. In the beginning there was doubtless sincere contrition in the observance of the day; now it had become a mere ceremonial. The Jews sent from Bethel would be rid of it, but seek authority from the priests. The whole matter, like much in modern pseudo-Christianity, was extra-biblical, formal, and futile.

The LORD takes the occasion to send a divine message to the inquirers. That message is in five parts:

(1) Their fast was a mere religious form; they should rather have given heed to the "former prophets" (vv. 4–7; compare Is. 1:12; Matt. 15:1–10).

(2) They are told why their prayer of seventy years has not been answered (vv. 8–14; compare Ps. 66:18; Is. 1:14–17).

(3) The unchanged purpose of the LORD and the blessing of Israel in the kingdom are alluded to (8:1–8; compare a like order in Is. 1:24–31 with 2:1–4).

(4) The messengers of the captivity are exhorted to hear "the prophets who spoke in the day the foundation was laid," that is, Haggai and Zechariah, and to do justly; then all their fasts and feasts will become gladness and joy (8:9–19). And which is based on a word meaning "to be dry." It is a geographical term which refers to a specific section of Palestine (e.g. Gen. 13:1) located between Debir and the Arabian Desert. It is an arid region most of the year. Since this area was south of the larger part of Israel, the word also came to be used to denote that direction (compare Gen. 13:14; Dan. 8:4,9; 11:5, etc.). Lowland. The "lowland" or Shephelah is a section of the Holy Land bounded on the north by the Valley of Aijalon, on the west by the Maritime Plain, on the east by the Central Plateau, and reaching to Beersheba in the south. It is characterized by low, rounded chalk hills divided by several broad valleys.

(5) they are assured that Jerusalem is yet to be the religious center of the earth (8:20–23; compare Is. 2:1–3; Zech. 14:16–21).

8:3 SANCTIFICATION, HOLINESS IN THE OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

In the OT various forms of the words consecrate, dedicate, sanctify, and holiness are renderings of one Hebrew word. The terms are used of persons and of things, and have an identical meaning, that is, set apart. Only when used of God Himself (e.g. Lev. 11:45), or of the holy angels (e.g. Dan. 4:13), is any inward moral quality necessarily implied. Doubtless a priest or other person set apart to the service of God, whose whole will and desire went with his setting apart, experienced progressively an inner detachment from evil. See Matt. 4:5 and Rev. 22:11, notes.

The Mountain of the LORD of hosts,

4 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Old[c] men and old women shall again sit
In the streets of Jerusalem,
Each one with his staff in his hand
Because of great age.
5 The streets of the city
Shall be [d]full of boys and girls
Playing in its streets.'

6 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'If it is marvelous in the eyes of the [e]remnant of this people in these days,
Will it also be marvelous in My eyes?'
Says the LORD of hosts.

7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Behold, I will save My people from the land of the east
And from the land of the west;
8 I will [f]bring them back,
And they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem.
They shall be [g]My people
And I will be their God,
In truth and righteousness.'

Exhortation to hear the prophets

9 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Let your hands be strong,
You who have been hearing in these days
These words by the mouth of the [h]prophets,
Who spoke in the day the foundation was laid
For the house of the LORD of hosts,
That the temple might be built.
10 For before these days
There were no wages for man nor any hire for beast;
There was no peace from the enemy for whoever went out or came in;
For I set all men, everyone, against his neighbor.

11 [i]'But now I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days,' says the LORD of hosts.

12 'For the seed shall be prosperous,
The vine shall give its fruit,
The ground shall give her increase,
And the heavens shall give their dew—
I will cause the remnant of this people
To possess all these.
13 And it shall come to pass
That just as you were a curse among the nations,
O house of Judah and house of Israel,
So I will save you, and [j]you shall be a blessing.
Do not fear,
Let your hands be strong.'

14 "For thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Just as I determined to punish you
When your fathers provoked Me to wrath,'
Says the LORD of hosts,
'And I would not relent,
15 So again in these days
I am determined to do good
To Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.
Do not fear.
16 These are the things you shall [k]do:
[l]Speak each man the truth to his neighbor;
Give judgment in your gates for truth, justice, and peace;
17 Let none of you think evil in your* heart against your neighbor;
And do not love a false oath.
For all these are things that I hate,'
Says the LORD."

8:14 REPENTANCE IN THE OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

In the OT, "repentance" is one of the English words used to translate the Hebrew nacham, to be eased or comforted. It is used of both God and man. Relent is usually used for God in the NKJV. Notwithstanding the literal meaning of nacham, it is evident, from a study of all the passages, that the sacred writers use it in the sense of metanoia in the NT, meaning a change of mind. See Matt. 3:2; Acts 17:30, note.

As in the NT, such change of mind is often accompanied by contrition and self-judgment. When applied to God, the word is used phenomenally, according to OT custom. God seems to change His mind. The phenomena are such as, in the case of a man, would indicate a change of mind.

IV. Prophecies concerning the End of Israel's Age and the Return and Reign of Christ, 9—14

Destruction of cities surrounding Israel

9 THE [e]burden of the word of the LORD
Against the land of Hadrach,
And [f]Damascus its resting place
(For the eyes of men
And all the tribes of Israel
Are on the LORD);
2 Also against Hamath, which borders on it,
And against [g]Tyre and Sidon,
though they are very wise.
3 For Tyre built herself a tower,
Heaped up silver like the dust,
And gold like the mire of the streets.
4 Behold, the Lord will cast her
out;
He will destroy her power in the sea,
And she will be devoured by
fire.
5 Ashkelon shall see it and fear;
Gaza also shall be very sorrowful;
And [h]Ekron, for He dried up her expectation.
The king shall perish from Gaza,
And Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

8:23 In those days. That is, in the days when Jerusalem has been made the center of earth's worship, in the millennial age. Verse 23 explains: the Jew (compare Remnant, Is. 1:9; see Rom. 11:5, note) will then be the missionary.

6 "A mixed race shall settle in
[a]Ashdod,
And I will cut off the pride of the [b]Philistines.
7 I will take away the blood from

And the abominations from between his teeth.
But he who remains, even he shall be for our God,
And shall be like a leader in Judah,
And Ekron like a Jebusite.

Because of the army,
Because of him who passes by
and him who returns.
No more shall an oppressor
pass through them,
For now I have seen with My eyes.

9 "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion!
Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem!
Behold, your [d]King is coming to
you;
[e]He is just and having salvation,
Lowly and riding on a donkey,
A colt, the foal of a donkey.

10 I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim
And the horse from Jerusalem;
The [f]battle bow shall be cut off.
He shall speak peace to the
nations;
His [g]dominion shall be 'from sea to sea,
And from the River to the ends
of the earth.'

11 "As for you also,
Because of the blood of your
covenant,
I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.
12 Return to the [h]stronghold,
You prisoners of [i]hope.
Even today I declare That I will restore [j]double to
you.
13 For I have bent Judah, My bow,
Fitted the bow with Ephraim,
And raised up your sons, O Zion,
Against your sons, O Greece,
And made you like the sword of a mighty man."

14 Then the LORD will be seen
over them,
And His [k]arrow will go forth like lightning.
The Lord GOD will blow the trumpet,
And go with whirlwinds from the south.
15 The LORD of hosts will [l]defend
them;
They shall devour and subdue
with slingstones.
They shall drink and roar as if

They shall be filled with blood
like basins,
Like the corners of the altar.

them in that day,
As the flock of His people.
For they shall be like the Lifted like a banner over His

9:8 him who passes by. This refers to the advance and return of Alexander (v. 13) after the battle of Issus. He subdued the cities mentioned in vv. 1–6, and afterward returned to Greece without harming Jerusalem. But the greater meaning converges on the yet future last days (see Acts 2:17, note), as the latter part of v. 8 shows, for many oppressors have passed through Jerusalem since the days of Alexander.

9:9 your King is coming. The events following this manifestation of Christ as King are recorded in the Gospels. The real faith of the multitude who cried "Hosanna" is given in Matt. 21:11. So little was Jesus deceived by His apparent reception as King that He wept over Jerusalem and announced its impending destruction, fulfilled in A.D. 70. Compare Luke 19:38–44. The same multitude soon cried, "Crucify him."

9:10 After the King is introduced in v. 9, the following verses look forward to the end time and the kingdom.

9:11 set your prisoners free. Compare Is. 24:17-23, where vv. 21,23 fix the time as the day of the LORD. See Rev. 19:19, note.

For the LORD of hosts will visit His flock,
The house of Judah,
And will make them as His royal horse in the [f]battle.
4 From him comes the cornerstone,
From him the tent peg,
From him the battle bow,

5 They shall be like mighty men,
Who tread down their enemies
In the mire of the streets in the battle.
They shall fight because the LORD is with them,
And the riders on horses shall be put to shame.

6 "I will strengthen the house of Judah,
And I will save the house of Joseph.
I will bring them back,
Because I have [g]mercy on them.
[h]They shall be as though I had not cast them aside;
For I am the LORD their God,
And I will [i]hear them.
7 Those of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man,
And their heart shall rejoice as if with wine.
Yes, their children shall see it and be glad;
Their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.
8 I will [j]whistle for them and gather them,
For I will [k]redeem them;
And they shall [l]increase as they once increased.

9 "I will [m]sow them among the peoples,
And they shall [n]remember Me in far countries;
They shall live, together with their children,
And they shall return.
10 I will also bring them back from the land of Egypt,
And gather them from Assyria.
I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon,
Until no more room is found for them.
11 He shall pass through the sea with affliction,
And strike the waves of the sea:
All the depths of the River shall dry up.
Then the pride of [o]Assyria shall be brought down,
And the scepter of Egypt shall depart.

12 "So I will strengthen them in the LORD,
And they shall walk up and down in His name,"

10:4 comes. The tense is futuristic: "From him [Judah] will come the cornerstone [Ex. 17:6; see 1 Pet. 2:8, note], from him the tent peg [Is. 22:23–24], from him the battle bow," etc. The whole scene is of the events which cluster around the deliverance of Israel at the time of the invasion of Palestine from the north (Ezek. 38—39) and the final liberation which will be completely effected by the return of the Lord (Rev. 19:11–21); but previously He strengthens the hard-pressed Israelites (Mic. 4:13; Zech. 9:13–15; 10:5–7; 12:2–6; 14:14). That there may have been a fulfillment in the Maccabean victories can neither be affirmed nor denied from Scripture, but the ultimate fulfillment, when Christ comes again, is certain.

Wail, O oaks of Bashan,
For the thick forest has come down.
3 There is the sound of wailing [b]shepherds!
For their glory is in ruins.
There is the sound of roaring lions!
For the pride* of the Jordan is in ruins.

4 Thus says the LORD my God, "Feed the flock for slaughter,
5 "whose owners slaughter them and feel [c]no guilt; those who sell them say, 'Blessed be the LORD, for I am [d]rich'; and their shepherds do [e]not pity them.
6 "For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD. "But indeed I will give everyone into his neighbor's hand and into the hand of his king. They shall attack the land, and I will not deliver them from their hand."
7 So I fed the flock for slaughter, in particular the [f]poor of the flock.* I took for myself two [g]staffs: the one I called Beauty,* and the other I called Bonds;* and I fed the flock.
8 I dismissed the three shepherds in one month. My soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.
9 Then I said, "I will not feed you. Let what is dying die, and what is [h]perishing perish. Let those that are left eat each other's flesh."
10 And I took my staff, Beauty, and cut it in two, that I might break the covenant which I had made with all the peoples.
11 So it was broken on that day. Thus the poor* of the flock, who were watching me, knew that it was the word of the LORD.
12 Then I said to them, "If it is agreeable to you, give me my wages; and if not, refrain." [i]So they weighed out for my wages thirty pieces of silver.
13 And the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter"—that princely price they set on me. So I took the [j]thirty pieces of silver and threw them into the house of the LORD for the potter.
14 Then I cut in two my other staff, Bonds, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

11:7 two staffs. The scene belongs to the first advent. "Beauty" and "Bonds"—literally, "Graciousness" and "Binders" (unifiers)—signify first, God's protection over Israel by His restraint upon the nations; then, the brotherly ties within the nation itself. With the breaking of the first staff, Judah was abandoned to the destruction foretold in vv. 1–6, which was fulfilled in A.D. 70. The breaking of the second staff meant the destruction of the inner bond of the nation, resulting in the internal strife and divisions that contributed largely to the downfall of the Jewish state in A.D. 70. The order of this chapter is: (1) the wrath against the land (vv. 1–6), fulfilled in the destruction of Jerusalem after the rejection of Christ (Luke 19:41–44); (2) the cause of that wrath in the betrayal and rejection of Christ (vv. 7–14); and (3) the rise of the "worthless shepherd," the beast (Dan. 7:8; Rev. 19:20), and his destruction (vv. 15–17).

11:7 PARABLES IN THE OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

A parable is a similitude used to teach or enforce a truth.

The OT parables fall into three classes:

(1) the story-parable, of which Judg. 9:7–15 is an instance;

(2) parabolic discourses, e.g. Is. 5:1–7; and

(3) parabolic actions, e.g. Ezek. 37:16–22.

shepherd in the land who will not care for those who are cut off, nor seek the young, nor heal those that are broken, nor feed those that still stand. But he will eat the flesh of the fat and tear their hooves in [a]pieces.

shepherd,
Who leaves the flock!
A sword shall be against his arm
And against his right eye;
His arm shall completely wither,
And his right eye shall be totally blinded."

Jerusalem to be attacked but Judah to be delivered

12 THE burden* of the word of the LORD against Israel. Thus says the LORD, who stretches out the heavens, lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him:

2[c] "Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of drunkenness to all the surrounding peoples, when they lay [d]siege against Judah and Jerusalem.

3 "And it shall happen in that day that I will make Jerusalem a very heavy stone for all peoples; all who would heave it away will surely be cut in pieces, though all nations of the earth are gathered against it.

4 "In that day," says the LORD, "I will strike every horse with confusion, and its rider with madness; I will open My eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.

5 "And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in the LORD of hosts, their God.'

6 "In that day I will make the governors of Judah like a firepan in the woodpile, and like a fiery torch in the sheaves; they shall devour all the surrounding peoples on the right hand and on the left, but Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place—Jerusalem.

7 "The LORD will save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem shall not become greater than that of Judah.

8 "In that day the LORD will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; the one who is feeble among them in that day shall be like David, and the [e]house of David shall be like God,

12:1 Chapters 12—14 form one prophecy, the general theme of which is the return of the Lord and the establishment of the kingdom. The order is:

(1) the siege of Jerusalem preceding the battle of Armageddon (vv. 1–3);

(2) the battle itself (vv. 4–9);

(3) the pouring out of the Spirit and the personal revelation of Christ to the family of David and the remnant in Jerusalem, not merely as the glorious Deliverer but also as the One whom Israel pierced and has long rejected (v. 10);

(4) the godly sorrow which follows that revelation (vv. 11–14); and

(5) the cleansing fountain (Zech. 13:1) then to be opened effectually to Israel.

12:8 KINGDOM OF THE OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

(See also Kingdom [NT] Luke 1:33; 1 Cor. 15:24, note):

I. Dominion over the Earth before the Call of Abraham.

(1) Dominion over creation was given to the first man and woman (Gen. 1:26–28). Through the fall this dominion was lost, Satan becoming "ruler of this world" (Matt. 4:8–10; John 14:30).

(2) After the flood, the principle of human government was established under the covenant with Noah (Gen. 9:6; see Gen. 9:16, note). Biblically, this is still the charter of all government.

II. The Theocratic Kingdom in Israel. (See also 1 Sam. 8:7, note.)

The call of Abraham involved, with much else, the creation of a distinctive people through whom great purposes of God toward the human race might be worked out (see Israel, Gen. 12:1–3; Rom. 11:26, note). Among these purposes is the establishment of a worldwide kingdom. The history of the divine mediatorial rule in Israel is as follows:

(1) Its establishment under Moses (Ex. 19:3–7; compare Ex. 3:1–10; 24:12).

(2) Its administration under leader-judges (Josh. 1:1–5; Judg. 2:16–18).

12:8 KINGDOM OF THE OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY (continued)

(3) Its administration under kings (1 Sam. 10:1,24; 16:1–13; 1 Kin. 9:1–5).
(4) Its end at the captivity (Ezek. 21:25–27; compare Jer. 27:6–8; Dan. 2:36–38).

III. The Future Restoration of the Theocratic Kingdom.
(1) The Davidic Covenant (2 Sam. 7:8–16 [see v. 16, note]; Ps. 89:3–4,20–21,28–37).
(2) The exposition of the Davidic Covenant by the prophets (Is. 1:25–26 [see v. 26, note] to Zech. 12:6–8). They describe the kingdom as follows:
(a) It will be Davidic, to be established under David's heir, who is to be born of a virgin, therefore truly man, but also "Immanuel," "Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace" (Is. 7:13–14; 9:6–7; 11:1; Jer. 23:5; Ezek. 34:23; 37:24; Hos. 3:4–5).
(b) It will be a kingdom heavenly in origin, principle, and authority (Dan. 2:34–35,44–45), but set up on the earth, with Jerusalem as the capital (Is. 2:2–4; 4:3,5; 24:23; 33:20; 62:1–7; Jer. 23:5; 31:38–40; Joel 3:1, 16–17).
(c) The kingdom is to be established first over regathered, restored, and converted Israel, and is then to become universal (Ps. 2:6–8; 22:1–31; 24:1–10; Is. 1:2–3; 11:1,10–13; 60:12; Jer. 23:5–8; 30:7–11; Ezek. 20:33–40; 37:21–25; Zech. 9:10; 14:16–19).
(d) The moral characteristics of the kingdom are to be righteousness and peace. The meek, not the proud, will inherit the earth; longevity will be greatly increased; the knowledge of the LORD will be universal; beast-ferocity will be removed; absolute equity will be enforced; and open sin will be visited with instant judgment; whereas the enormous majority of earth's inhabitants will be saved (Ps. 2:9; Is. 11:4,6–9; 26:9; 65:20; Zech. 14:16–21). The NT (Rev. 20:1–5) adds a detail of immense significance—the removal of Satan from the scene. It is impossible to conceive to what heights of spiritual, intellectual, and physical perfection humanity will attain in this, its coming age of righteousness and peace (Ps. 72:1–10; Is. 11:4–9).
(e) The kingdom is to be established by power, not persuasion, and is to follow divine judgment upon the Gentile world powers (Ps. 2:4–9; Is. 9:7; Dan. 2:35,44–45; 7:26–27; Zech. 14:1–19). See Zech. 6:11, note.
(f) The restoration of Israel and the establishment of the kingdom are connected with the advent of the LORD, yet future (Deut. 30:3–5; Ps. 2:1–9; Zech. 14:4).
(g) The chastisement reserved for disobedience in the house of David (2 Sam. 7:14; Ps. 89:30–33) fell in the captivities and worldwide dispersion. Since that time, though a remnant returned under prince Zerubbabel, Jerusalem has generally been under the political authority of Gentiles. Even today, under Israeli rule, Gentiles control many important sites within the Holy City. The Davidic Covenant has not been abrogated (Ps. 89:33–37), however, but is yet to be fulfilled (Acts 15:14–17).

the names of the idols from the land, and they shall no longer be remembered. I will also cause the [a]prophets and the unclean spirit to depart from the land.

3 "It shall come to pass that if anyone still prophesies, then his father and mother who begot him will say to him, 'You shall [b]not live, because you have spoken lies in the name of the LORD.' And his father and [c]mother who begot him shall thrust him through when he prophesies.

4 "And it shall be in that day that every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies; they will not wear a robe of coarse hair to deceive.

5 "But he will say, 'I am no prophet, I am a farmer; for a man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.'

6 "And one will say to him, 'What are these wounds between your arms?'* Then he will answer, 'Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.'

Prophecy of the true prophet, Messiah (cp. Matt. 26:31; Mark 14:27)

7 "Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd, Against the Man who is My Companion,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
"Strike[d] the [e]Shepherd,
And the [f]sheep will be scattered;
Then I will turn My hand against the little ones.

Israel to be refined and delivered

8 And it shall come to pass in all the land,"
Says the LORD,
"That [g]two-thirds in it shall be cut off and die,
But one-third shall be left in it:
9 I will bring the one-third through the fire,
Will [h]refine them as silver is refined,
And [i]test them as gold is tested.

13:6 This verse is best understood as an evasive reply of a false prophet in the last days. It carries on and concludes the subject begun in v. 2. By no valid interpretation may it be referred to the Lord Jesus Christ. There is no clear change of subject between vv. 5 and 6 such as exists between vv. 6 and 7. Christ would not claim that He was not a prophet (compare Deut. 18:15–18); He was not a farmer; He was not bought or sold from His youth. Verse 7 does speak of Christ, as Matt. 26:31 and Mark 14:27 attest.

13:8 This chapter now returns to the subject of 12:10. Verses 8–9 refer to the sufferings of the remnant (Is. 1:5; Rom. 11:9) preceding the great battle. Then ch. 14 is a recapitulation of the whole matter.

The order is:

(1) the gathering of the nations, 14:2 (see Armageddon, Rev. 16:13–16; 19:17, note);

(2) the deliverance, 14:3;

(3) the return of Christ to the Mount of Olives, and the physical change of the scene, 14:4–8; and

(4) the setting up of the kingdom, and full earthly blessing, 14:9–21.

12:10

HOLY SPIRIT IN THE OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

(1) The personality and Deity of the Holy Spirit appear from the attributes ascribed to Him and from His works.

(2) He is revealed as sharing the work of creation and, therefore, as omnipotent (Gen. 1:2; Job 26:13; 33:4; Ps. 104:30); omnipresent (Ps. 139:7); striving with men (Gen. 6:3); enlightening (Job 32:8); enduing with constructive skill (Ex. 28:3; 31:3); giving physical strength (Judg. 14:6,19), executive ability, and wisdom (Judg. 3:10; 6:34; 11:29; 13:25); enabling men to receive and utter divine revelations (Num. 11:25; 2 Sam. 23:2); and, generally, empowering the servants of God (Ps. 51:12; Joel 2:28; Mic. 3:8; Zech. 4:6).

(3) He is called holy (Ps. 51:11); good (Ps. 143:10); the Spirit of judgment and burning (Is. 4:4); the Spirit of the LORD, of wisdom, understanding, counsel, might, knowledge, the fear of the LORD (Is. 11:2), and of grace and supplication (Zech. 12:10).

(4) In the OT the Holy Spirit acts in free sovereignty, coming upon men and even upon a dumb animal as He wills; nor are conditions set forth (as in the NT) by compliance with which any one may receive the Spirit. The indwelling of every believer by the abiding Spirit is a NT blessing consequent upon the death and resurrection of Christ (John 7:39; 16:7; Acts 2:33; Gal. 3:1–6). And

(5) the OT contains predictions of a future pouring out of the Spirit upon Israel (Ezek. 37:14; 39:29), and upon "all flesh" (Joel 2:28–29). The expectation of Israel, therefore, was twofold—of the coming of Messiah-Immanuel, and of such a pouring out of the Spirit as the prophets described. See Holy Spirit, Acts 2:4, note.

They will [a]call on My name,
And I will answer them.
I will say, 'This is My people';
And each one will [b]say, 'The LORD is my God.' "

The LORD's triumphant return to earth to bring deliverance

14 BEHOLD, the [c]day of the LORD is coming,
And your spoil will be divided in your midst.
2 For I will [d]gather all the nations to battle against Jerusalem;
The city shall be taken,
The houses rifled,
And the women ravished.
Half of the city shall go into captivity,
But the remnant of the people shall not be cut off from the city.
3 Then the LORD will go forth
And [e]fight against those nations,
As He fights in the day of battle.

The visible return in glory: physical changes in Palestine (vv. 4,10)

4 And in that day His feet will [f]stand on the Mount of [g]Olives,
Which faces Jerusalem on the east.
And the Mount of Olives shall be split in two,
From east to west,
Making a very large valley;
Half of the mountain shall move toward the north
And half of it toward the south.
5 Then you shall flee through My mountain valley,
For the mountain valley shall reach to Azal.
Yes, you shall flee
As you fled from the [h]earthquake
In the days of Uzziah king of Judah.

Thus the [i]LORD my God will come,
And all the saints with You.*
6 It shall come to pass in that day
That there will be no light;
The lights will diminish.
7 It shall be one day
Which is known to the LORD—
Neither day nor night.
But at evening time it shall happen
That it will be light.

8 And in that day it shall be
That living waters shall flow from Jerusalem,
Half of them toward the eastern sea
And half of them toward the western sea;
In both summer and winter it shall occur.

The kingdom set up on the earth

9 And the LORD shall be [j]King over all the earth.
In that day it shall be—
"The LORD is one,"*
And His name one.

10 All the land shall be turned into a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. *Jerusalem shall be raised up and inhabited in her place from Benjamin's Gate to the place of the First Gate and the Corner

Mount of Olives: The summit of the range of hills east of Jerusalem which was once covered with olive trees. A central location to the events of Christ's ministry.

14:4 Mount of Olives. Verse 5 implies that the cleavage of the Mount of Olives is due to an earthquake, and this is confirmed by Is. 29:6; Rev. 16:18–19. In both passages the context, as here in vv. 1–3, associates the earthquake with the Gentile invasion under the beast (Dan. 7:8; Rev. 19:20). Not one of the related events of this chapter occurred at the first coming of Christ, closely associated though He then was with the Mount of Olives.

14:9 King over all the earth. This will be the answer to the prayer of Matt. 6:10. Compare Dan. 2:44–45; 7:27. See Kingdom (NT), Luke 1:31–33; 1 Cor. 15:24, note.

11 The people shall dwell in it;
And no longer shall there be utter destruction,
But Jerusalem shall be [b]safely
inhabited.

12 And this shall be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the people who fought against Jerusalem:

Their flesh shall dissolve while they stand on their feet,
Their eyes shall dissolve in their sockets,
And their tongues shall dissolve
in their mouths.

13 It shall come to pass in that day
That a great panic from the LORD will be among them.
Everyone will seize the hand of
his neighbor,
And raise his hand against his neighbor's hand;
14 Judah also will fight at Jerusalem.
And the wealth of all the surrounding nations
Shall be gathered together:
Gold, silver, and apparel in great abundance.

15 Such also shall be the plague
On the horse and the mule,
On the camel and the donkey,
And on all the cattle that will be in those camps.
So shall this plague be.

The worship and spirituality of the kingdom

16 And it shall come to pass that everyone who is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall [c]go up from year to year to [d]worship the [e]King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the [f]Feast of Tabernacles.
17 And it shall be that whichever of the families of the earth do not come up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, on them there will be [g]no rain.
18 If the family of [h]Egypt will not come up and enter in, they shall have no rain; they shall receive the plague with which the LORD strikes the nations who do not come up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles.
19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations that do not come up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles.
20 In that day [i]"HOLINESS TO THE LORD" shall be engraved on the bells of the horses. The [j]pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.
21 Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and Judah shall be holiness to the LORD of hosts.* Everyone who sacrifices shall come and take them and cook in them. In that day there shall no longer be a [k]Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

THE BOOK OF

MALACHI

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Malachi	Formalism Rebuked	5th Cent. B.C.

Background

Malachi means my messenger, which is probably an abbreviated form of the messenger of the LORD. Apart from the meaning of his name, nothing is known of Malachi, who carried out his ministry in the second half of the fifth century B.C. This final message of the Old Testament contains the prophecy of John the Baptist's ministry, the fulfillment of which begins the New Testament. Malachi develops his main theme, which is the corruption of the priests and the sins of the people against the family and their miserliness toward God, followed by questions from those addressed and statements proving the original assertions, a dialectic form of discussion which later became quite popular in Judaism.

Outline

The book may be divided as follows:

	B. The Appearance of Elijah	4:5–6

I. Israel Pretends to be Unaware of God's Love, 1:1–5

Introduction

1 THE burden* of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

The LORD's love for His chosen people, Israel

2 "I have [a]loved you," says the LORD.
"Yet you say, [b]'In what way have You loved us?'
Was not Esau Jacob's brother?"
Says the LORD.
"Yet [c]Jacob I have loved;
3 But Esau I have hated,
And [d]laid waste his mountains and his heritage
For the jackals of the wilderness."

4 Even though Edom has said,
"We have been impoverished,
But we will return and build the desolate places,"

Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"They may build, but I will [e]throw down;
They shall be called the Territory of Wickedness,
And the people against whom the LORD will have indignation forever.
5 Your eyes shall see,
And you shall say,
'The LORD is [f]magnified beyond the border of Israel.'

II. The Priests Deny Despising the Name of the LORD, 1:1—2:9

Sins of the restoration priests

6 "A son [g]honors his father,
And a servant his master.
If then I am the [h]Father,
Where is My honor?
And if I am a Master,
Where is My reverence?
Says the LORD of hosts
To you priests who despise My name.
Yet you say, [i]'In what way have we despised Your name?'

7 "You offer defiled food on My altar,
But say,
'In[j] what way have we defiled You?'
By saying,
'The table of the LORD is contemptible.'

Malachi: messenger of Jehovah. A minor prophet who preached against Israel's poor worship practices and called them to religious renewal.

Jacob: supplanter. The younger son of Isaac and Rebekah who tricked his brother Esau into selling him his birthright. He deceived his father in order to receive the family blessing. Married Leah and Rachel. Had twelve sons by his wives and concubines. Also referred to as Israel.

Esau: hairy. The oldest son of Isaac and Rebekah who was tricked by his brother into selling him the birthright. He was later also deprived of the family blessing.

1:3 hated. The statement that God loved Jacob but hated Esau, must be taken as relative rather than absolute. Special blessings were promised to Esau and his descendants (Gen. 27:38–40). However, the spiritual insight of Jacob was far greater, and Jacob was the one through whom the promised seed was to come. The comparison of the good things done for Jacob with those done for Esau is like the difference between loving and hating. Compare Luke 14:26, the statement that if a man does not hate his father and mother he cannot be a disciple of Christ. Love for father and mother is commanded in the Scripture. No Christian can hate his father and mother. What is meant is that his love for Christ should be so great that, in comparison, the love for father and mother would seem almost like hate.

1:4 Edom. That is, Esau's descendants. Gen. 25:30.

Edom: red. The nation descended from Esau. Located in the rough mountainous area south of Moab and east of Arabah at the base of the Dead Sea. The Edomites had frequent conflicts with the Israelites.

1:6 I am the Father. See Is. 63:16, note. The relationship here is national, not personal (Jer. 3:18–19); here, apparently, the Jews were calling the LORD "Father" but were yielding Him no filial obedience. Compare John 8:37–39; Rom. 9:1–8.

1:7 defiled food. The very sins that provoked Nehemiah (Neh. 5:1–13; 7:63–65; 9:4ff.; 13:23–27) are condemned by Malachi: (1) defilement of the priesthood; (2) foreign marriages after divorce from Jewish wives; and (3) neglect of the tithe and offerings. contemptible. Contempt was shown by the offering of forbidden sacrifices (vv. 7–8; compare Deut. 15:21).

8 And [a]when you offer the blind
as a sacrifice,
Is it not evil?
And when you offer the lame
and sick,
Is it not evil?
Offer it then to your governor!
Would he be pleased with you?
Would he accept you favorably?"
Says the LORD of hosts.

9 "But now entreat God's favor,
That He may be gracious to us.
While this is being done by your hands,
Will He accept you favorably?"
Says the LORD of hosts.
10 "Who is there even among you who would shut the doors,
So that you would not kindle
fire on My altar in vain?
I have no pleasure in you,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"Nor will I accept an offering
from your hands.
11 For from the rising of the sun,
even to its going down,
My name shall be great among
the Gentiles;
In every place incense shall be offered to My name,
And a pure offering;
For My name shall be great
among the nations,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

12 "But you profane it,
In that you say,
'The table of the LORD* is defiled;
And its fruit, its food, is contemptible.'
13 You also say,
'Oh, what a [b]weariness!'
And you sneer at it,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
"And you bring the stolen, the lame, and the sick;
Thus you bring an offering!
Should I accept this from your hand?"
Says the LORD.
14 "But cursed be the deceiver
Who has in his flock a male,
And takes a vow,
But sacrifices to the Lord what is [c]blemished—
For I am a great King,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"And My name is to be [d]feared
among the nations.

Priests to be disciplined by God

2 "AND now, O [e]priests, this commandment is for you.
2 If you will not hear,
And if you will not take it to
heart,
To give glory to My name,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"I will send a curse upon you,
And I will curse your blessings.
Yes, I have cursed them [f]already,
Because you do not take it to heart.

3 "Behold, I will rebuke your descendants
And spread [g]refuse on your faces,
The refuse of your solemn
feasts;
And one will take you away with it.
4 Then you shall know that I have sent this commandment to you,
That My covenant with Levi may continue,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
5 "My covenant was with him,
one of life and peace,
And I gave them to him that he might fear Me;
So he feared Me
And was reverent before My name.
6 The [h]law of truth* was in his mouth,
And injustice was not found on his lips.
He walked with Me in peace
and equity,
And turned many away from
iniquity.

2:2 curse your blessings. Israel's distinctive blessings would turn to curses. Compare Deut. 28:3–14 with 15–35.

Says the LORD of hosts.

Because you have not kept My
ways
But have shown [b]partiality in the law."

III. Israel's Sins against One Another and against the Family, 2:10–17

Sins against brotherhood

Has not one God created us?
Why do we deal treacherously with one [c]another
By profaning the covenant of Sins against God in the family

11 Judah has dealt treacherously,
And an abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem,
For Judah has [d]profaned
The LORD's holy institution which He loves:
He has married the daughter of a foreign god.
12 May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob
The man who does this, being awake and aware,*
Yet who brings an offering to the LORD of hosts!
13 And this is the second thing
you do:
You cover the altar of the LORD
with tears,
With weeping and crying;
So He does not regard the offering anymore,
Nor receive it with goodwill
from your hands.
14 Yet you say, "For what reason?"
Because the LORD has been witness
Between you and the wife of your youth,
With whom you have dealt
[e]treacherously;
Yet she is your companion
And your wife by covenant.
15 But did He not make them
[f]one,
Having a remnant of the Spirit?
And why one?
He seeks [g]godly offspring.
Therefore take heed to your spirit,
And let none deal treacherously
with the wife of his youth.
16 "For the LORD [h]God of Israel says
That He hates [i]divorce,
For it covers one's garment with violence,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
"Therefore take heed to your
spirit,
That you do not deal
treacherously."

Sin of insincere religious profession

17 You have wearied the LORD with your words;
Yet you say,
"In[j] what way have we wearied
Him?"
In that you say,
"Everyone[k] who does evil
Is good in the sight of the LORD,
And He delights in them,"
Or, "Where is the God of [l]justice?"

3:1 the Lord, whom you seek. The first part of v. 1 is quoted of John the Baptist (Matt. 11:10; Mark 1:2; Luke 7:27), but the next words, "the Lord whom you seek," etc., are nowhere quoted in the NT. The reason is obviously that, in everything except Christ's first advent, the picture in vv. 2–5 of the LORD who suddenly comes to His temple (Hab. 2:20) is one of judgment, not of grace. Malachi, in common with other OT prophets, saw both advents of Messiah blended in one horizon, but did not see the separating interval described in Matt. 13 which was consequent upon the rejection of the King (Matt. 13:16–17). Still less was the Church Age in his vision (Eph. 3:3–6; Col. 1:25–27). "My messenger" (v. 1) is John the Baptist; the "Messenger of the covenant" is Christ in both of His advents, but with special reference to the events which are to follow His second coming. Will suddenly come. God's answer to the last question in 2:17.

THE DEITY OF GOD IN THE OLD TESTAMENT—ITS REVELATION, SUMMARY

God is revealed in the OT (1) through His names as follows:

CLASS	ENGLISH FORM	HEBREW EQUIVALENT
	God	El, Elah, or Elohim, Gen. 1:1, note
Primary	LORD	YHWH (Jehovah), Gen. 2:4; Ex. 34:6, note
	Lord	Adon, or Adonai, Gen. 15:2, note
	God Almighty	El Shaddai, Gen. 17:1, note
	Most High, or Most High God	El Elyon, Gen. 14:18, note
Compound with El = God	Everlasting God	El Olam, Gen. 21:33, note
	Mighty God	El Gibbor, Is. 9:6-7
Compound with YHWH (Jehovah) = LORD	LORD God	YHWH (Jehovah) Elohim, Gen. 2:4; Ex. 34:6, note
	Lord GOD	Adonai YHWH (Jehovah), Gen. 15:2, note
	LORD of hosts	YHWH (Jehovah) Sabaoth, 1 Sam. 1:3, note

This revelation of God by His names is invariably made in connection with some particular need of His people, and there can be no need of man to which these names do not answer as showing that man's true resource is in God. Even human failure and sin but to evoke new and fuller revelations of the divine fullness.

(2) The OT Scriptures reveal the existence of a Supreme Being, the Creator of the universe and of man, the Source of all life and of all intelligence, who is to be worshiped and served by men and angels. This Supreme Being is One, but, in some manner not fully revealed in the OT, is a unity in plurality. This is shown by the use of the plural pronoun in the interrelation of Deity as evidenced in Gen. 1:26; 3:22; Ps. 110:1; and Is. 6:8. That the interrelation of Deity includes that of Father and Son is directly asserted in Ps. 2:7 (with Heb. 1:5); likewise the Spirit is distinctly recognized in His personality, and to Him are ascribed all the divine attributes (e.g. Gen. 1:2; Num. 11:25; 24:2; Judg. 3:10; 6:34; 11:29; 13:25; 14:6,19; 15:14; 2 Sam. 23:2; Job 26:13; 33:4; Ps. 106:33; 139:7; Is. 40:7; 59:19; 63:10. See Zech. 12:10, note).

(3) The incarnation is intimated in the theophanies, or appearances of God in human form (e.g. Gen. 18:1,13,17–22; 32:24–30), and distinctly predicted in the promises connected with redemption (e.g. Gen. 3:15) and with the Davidic Covenant (e.g. Is. 7:13–14; 9:6–7; Jer. 23:5–6). The revelation of Deity in the NT so illuminates that of the OT that the latter is seen to be, from Genesis to Malachi, the foreshadowing of the coming incarnation of God in Jesus the Christ. In promise, covenant, type, and prophecy the OT points forward to Him.

(4) The revelation of God to man is one of authority and of redemption. He requires righteousness from man, but saves the unrighteous through sacrifice; and in His redemptive dealings with man all the divine persons and attributes are brought into manifestation. The OT reveals the justice of God as fully as His mercy, but never in opposition to His mercy. The flood, e.g., was an unspeakable mercy to unborn generations. From Genesis to Malachi He is revealed as the seeking God who has no pleasure in the death of the wicked, and who heaps up before the sinner every possible motive to persuade him to faith and obedience.

(5) In the experience of the OT men of faith, their God inspires reverence but never slavish fear; they exhaust the resources of language to express their love and adoration in view of His loving-kindness and tender mercy. This adoring love of His saints is the triumphant answer to those who pretend to find the OT revelation of God cruel and repellent. It is in harmony, not contrast, with the NT revelation of God in Christ.

(6) Those passages which attribute to God bodily parts and human emotions (e.g. Ex. 33:11,20–23; Deut. 29:20; 2 Chr. 16:9; Jer. 15:6) are metaphorical and mean that in the infinite being of God there exists that which answers spiritually to these things—eyes, a hand, feet, etc.; and the jealousy and anger attributed to Him are the emotions of perfect love in view of the havoc of sin.

(7) In the OT revelation there is a true sense in which, wholly apart from sin or infirmity, God is like His creature, man (Gen. 1:27); and the supreme and perfect revelation of God, toward which the OT points, is a revelation in and through a perfect Man, the Lord Jesus Christ, God's unique Son.

Before the LORD of hosts?

LORD spoke to one another,
And the LORD listened and heard them;
So a book of remembrance was written before Him
For those who fear the LORD
And who meditate on His name.

17 "They shall be Mine," says the LORD of hosts,
"On the day that I make them

And I will spare them
As a man spares his own son who serves him."
18 Then you shall again discern Between the [c]righteous and the

Between one who serves [d]God
And one who does not serve
Him.

And all the proud, yes, all who do wickedly will be stubble.
And the day which is coming shall [f]burn them up,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"That will leave them neither

2 But to you who [g]fear My name
The Sun of Righteousness shall arise
With healing in His wings;
And you shall go out
And grow fat like stall-fed calves.
3 You shall trample the wicked,
For they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet
On the day that I do this,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

4 "Remember the [h]Law of Moses,
My servant,
Which I commanded him in Horeb for all Israel,
With the statutes and judgments.

j Luke 1:17

4:1 This verse gives no basis for the error of annihilationism. It describes physical death, not the state of the soul after death. The unsaved are in conscious eternal woe (Rev. 14:10–11; 20:11–15), as the saved are in conscious eternal bliss (Rev. 21:1–7).

4:2 fear. "The fear of the LORD" is an OT expression meaning reverential trust, including the hatred of evil.

4:6 curse. Genesis reveals the entrance of the curse into the human family (Gen. 3); the last word of the OT shows the curse still persisting (Mal. 4:6); Matthew begins (1:1) with Him who came to remove the curse (Gal. 3:13; Rev. 21:3–5; 22:3).

FROM

MALACHI TO MATTHEW

Background

The close of the Old Testament canon left Israel in two divisions. Most of the nation was dispersed throughout the Persian Empire, more as colonists than as captives. A remnant, chiefly of the tribe of Judah, with Zerubbabel, a prince of the Davidic family, and the surviving priests and Levites had returned to the land under the permissive decrees of Cyrus and his successors (Daniel 5:18, and 9:24, notes), and had re-established Temple worship. It is on this remnant that the interest of the student of Scripture centers; and this interest concerns both their political and religious history.

Political History

Politically, the fortunes of the Palestinian Jews are linked to the history of the Gentile world powers as foretold by Daniel (Daniel 2 and 7).

1. The Persian rule continued about one hundred years after the close of the Old Testament canon, and seems to have been mild and tolerant, allowing to the high priest, along with his religious functions, a measure of civil power, but still under the governors of Syria. In this period the rival worship of Samaria, which began during the Israelite monarchy, was developed and its own Temple established.

2. In 334 B.C. Syria fell under the power of the third of the world empires, the Greco-Macedonian Empire of Alexander. That conqueror was induced to treat the Jews favorably, but with the breaking up of his empire, Judea fell between the anvil and the hammer of Syria and Egypt, coming first under the power of Syria, but later under Egypt as ruled by the Ptolemaic kings. During this period (323–198 B.C.) great numbers of Jews were established in Egypt, and the Septuagint (LXX) translation of the Old Testament was begun (about 285 B.C.).

In 198 B.C. Judea was conquered by Antiochus III the Great, and annexed to Syria. At this time the land was divided into the five provinces familiar to readers of the Gospels—Galilee, Samaria, Judea (these three being often collectively called Judea), Trachonitis, and Perea. The Jews were at first permitted to regulate their own lives by their own laws under a high priest and a council. In 171 B.C. Antiochus IV Epiphanes (the "small" horn of Daniel 8:9), after repeated interferences with the Temple and priesthood, plundered Jerusalem, profaned the Temple, and slew many of the inhabitants. In 168 B.C. Antiochus offered a sow upon the great altar and erected an altar to Jupiter. This is the "horror" of Daniel 8:13. Temple worship was forbidden; the people were condemned to eat swine's flesh.

The excesses of Antiochus provoked the revolt of the Maccabees, one of the most heroic pages of history. Mattathias, the first of the Maccabees, a priest of great sanctity and energy of character, began the revolt with a band of godly and determined Jews pledged to free their nation and restore its ancient worship. He was succeeded by his son Judas, known in history as Maccabeus, from the Hebrew word for "hammer." He was assisted by four brothers, of whom Simon is best known.

In 165 B.C. Judas regained possession of Jerusalem and purified and rededicated the Temple, an event celebrated in the Jewish Feast of the Dedication. Judas, who was slain in battle, was succeeded by his brother, Jonathan. In him the civil and priestly authority were united (143 B.C.). Under Jonathan, his brother Simon, and his nephew John Hyrcanus I, the Hasmonean line of priest-rulers was established by treaty with Rome. An account of the history of Antiochus Epiphanes and the Maccabees is found in the apocryphal book, I Maccabees.

3. After some years, there was a civil war in Judea, which was ended in 63 B.C. by the Roman conquest of Judea and Jerusalem by Pompey. Pompey left Hyrcanus II, the last of the Hasmoneans, a nominal sovereignty, but with Antipater, an Idumean, wielding the actual power. In 47 B.C. Antipater was made procurator of Judea by Julius Caesar. Antipater appointed his son, Herod, governor of Galilee. Following Caesar's assassination, disorder broke out in Judea, and Herod fled to Rome. There, in 40 B.C., he was appointed king of the Jews; on his return he conciliated the people by his marriage with Mariamne (38 B.C.), the granddaughter of Hyrcanus II, and appointed her brother, the Maccabean Aristobulus III, as high priest. When Jesus Christ was born, Herod was king.

Religious History

The religious history of the Jews during the long period from Malachi (about 400 B.C.) to Christ follows the course of the troublous political history as to outer ceremonies, the high priestly office, and Temple worship. But of greater importance than these are the efforts and means by which the faith of Israel was nurtured and kept alive.

1. The experience of the captivity seems to have destroyed the Jews' tendency to idolatry. Their problem during the captivity, when they were deprived of Temple and priest, was how to maintain the exalted spiritual and moral ideals given them by the older prophets. Afterward, during the intertestamental period, the problem continued. Despite the revival of Temple and priesthood, the struggle became one of preserving the prophetic faith of the Jews in the midst of outward persecution and sordid divisions within.

2. The external means to this end was the synagogue, an institution which formed no part of the Biblical order of national life and which did not develop as a separate entity until after the time of Malachi. Its origin is obscure, but its roots may go back to the captivity when the Jews, who were without the Temple and its rites, met on the Sabbath for prayer. Such meetings, which would give opportunity for the reading of Scripture, would require some order of procedure as well as some authority for the restraint of disorder. Whatever its precise beginnings were, the synagogue doubtless grew out of the necessities of the situation in which the Jews were placed during the closing centuries of the pre-Christian era. It served the vital purpose of maintaining familiarity with the inspired writings, upon which the spiritual life of the true Israel (Romans 9:6, note) was nourished.

3. Also during this period there was created that mass of tradition, comment, and interpretation, known as Mishna, Gemara (forming the Talmud), Midrashim, and Kabbala, that was so superimposed upon the law that obedience was transferred from the law itself to the traditional interpretations.

4. During this same period there arose the two great sects known in the Gospel narratives as Pharisees and Sadducees. (See Matthew 3:7, with notes.) The Herodians were a political party rather than a sect.

Among these people, the Jews—governed under Rome by an Idumean usurper, torn by bitter religious controversies, and maintaining an elaborate religious ritual—appeared Jesus, the Son of God, the Christ, and the Savior of the world.

THE

FOUR GOSPELS

Background

The four Gospels record the eternal being, human ancestry, birth, life and ministry, death, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus the Christ, Son of God and Son of man. Taken together, they set forth not a biography but a Person.

The fact that the four Gospels present a Person rather than a complete biography indicates the spirit in which they should be approached. What is most important is to see and know through these narratives Him whom they reveal. It is of less importance to endeavor to piece together a full account of His life from these inspired records (John 21:25). For some adequate reason it did not please God to lead men to write a full biography of His Son. The years up to the beginning of His ministry are passed over in a silence that is broken but once, and that in a few verses in Luke's Gospel (Luke 2:40–52). It is wise to respect the divine reticence.

Incomplete Story, Complete Revelation

But the four Gospels, though designedly incomplete as a story, are complete as a revelation. We may not know everything that Jesus did, but we may know Him. In four great narratives, each of which in some respects supplements the other three, we have Jesus Christ Himself.

This is the essential respect in which these narratives differ from biography or portraiture. "The words that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life" (John 6:63). The believing student finds here the living Christ.

The distinctive part that each evangelist has in this presentation of the living Christ is briefly noted in the separate introductions to the Gospels, but it may be profitable to make some general suggestions for study and interpretation.

I. The Old Testament is the inspired introduction to the New Testament, and whoever comes to the study of the four Gospels with a mind saturated with the Old Testament foreview of Christ—His Person, work, and kingdom—will be greatly helped in understanding them. Into the Gospels are woven Old Testament quotation, allusion, and type. The very first verse of the New Testament drives the reader back to the Old Testament; and the risen Christ took His disciples back to the Hebrew Scriptures for an explanation of His sufferings and glory (Luke 24:27,44). One of His last acts was the opening of their understanding that they might comprehend the Old Testament in relation to Himself (Luke 24:45).

Therefore, in approaching the study of the Gospels, the mind should be freed, as far as possible, from such presuppositions as that the Church is to be equated with the true Israel, and that the Old Testament promises to Israel and the foreview of the kingdom relate only to the Church. Interpretations are not true simply because they are familiar. It should not, therefore, be assumed that "the throne of His father David" (Luke 1:32) is synonymous with the Father's throne (Revelation 3:21), or that "the house of Jacob" (Luke 1:33) is the Church composed of both Jew and Gentile.

II. The mission of Jesus was initially to the Jews (Matthew 10:5–6; 15:23–25; John 1:11). He was "born under the law" (Galatians 4:4), and was "a servant to the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the fathers" (Romans 15:8) and to fulfill the law that grace might abound. Therefore, a strong legal and Jewish coloring is to be expected up to the cross (Matthew 5:17–19; compare Matthew 10:5–6; 15:22–28; 23:2; Mark 1:44; etc.). The Sermon on the Mount is closely related to law in the highest spiritual sense, for it demands as the condition of blessing (Matthew 5:3–9) that perfect character which only grace through divine power creates (Galatians 5:22–23).

III. The doctrines of grace are developed in the Epistles, not in the Gospels; but they are implicit in the Gospels, because they rest upon the death and resurrection of Christ and upon the great germinal truths He taught, truths of which the Epistles are the unfolding. The Christ of the Gospels is the perfect manifestation of grace.

IV. The Gospels do not develop the doctrine of the Church. The word "church" occurs in Matthew only. After His rejection as King and Savior by the Jews, our Lord, announcing a mystery until that moment "hidden in God" (Ephesians 3:3–10), said, "I will build My church" (Matthew 16:18). It was, therefore, yet future; but His personal ministry had gathered out the believers who were, on the Day of Pentecost, made by the baptism with the Spirit the first members of "the church, which is His body" (Ephesians 1:23; compare 1 Corinthians 12:12–13).

The Gospels present a group of Jewish disciples, associated on earth with a Messiah in humiliation. The Epistles present a Church which is the body of Christ, made up of the regenerate who are associated with Him "in the heavenlies," co-heirs with Him of the Father, co-rulers with Him of the coming kingdom; and, as to the earth, although strangers and pilgrims, yet acting as His witnesses and the instruments for doing His will among men (Acts 1:8; 1 Corinthians 12:12–13; 2 Corinthians 5:14–21; Ephesians 1:3–14,20–23; 2:4–6; 1 Peter 2:11).

V. The Gospels present Christ in His three offices of Prophet, Priest, and King.

As Prophet His ministry resembles that of the Old Testament prophets. But it is the nature and dignity of His Person that makes Him the unique Prophet. In former times God spoke through the prophets; now He speaks in the Son (Hebrews 1:1–2). The Old Testament prophet was a voice from God; the Son is God Himself (Deuteronomy 18:18–19).

The prophet in any dispensation is God's messenger to His people, first, to establish truth; and, second, when His people are in declension and apostasy, to call them back to truth. The prophet's message, therefore, is usually one of rebuke and appeal. At times, however, as when his message of rebuke and appeal is not heeded, he becomes a foreteller of things to come. In this, too, Christ is like the other prophets; most of His predictive ministry occurs after His rejection as King.

The sphere and character of Christ's kingly office are defined in the Davidic Covenant (2 Samuel 7:16, note), as interpreted by the prophets and confirmed by the New Testament. Whereas the New Testament in no way abrogates or changes the Davidic Covenant or its interpretation, it adds details which were not in the original covenant. The Sermon on the Mount is an elaboration of the idea of righteousness as the predominant characteristic of the kingdom (Isaiah 11:2–5; Jeremiah 23:5–6; 33:14–16). The Old Testament prophet saw in one horizon, so to speak, the suffering and glory of Messiah (1 Peter 1:10–11). The New Testament shows that His suffering and glory are separated by the present Church Age, and points forward to the Lord's return as the time when the Davidic Covenant of blessing through power will be fulfilled (Luke 1:30–33; Acts 2:29–36; 15:14–17), just as the Abrahamic Covenant of blessing through suffering was fulfilled at His first coming (Acts 3:24–25; Galatians 3:6–14).

Christ is never called King of the Church. "The King" is indeed one of His divine titles, and the Church joins Israel in exalting "the King eternal, immortal, invisible" (Psalm 10:16; 1 Timothy 1:17). The Church is to reign under Him. The Holy Spirit is now calling out, not the subjects but the co-heirs and co-rulers of the kingdom (Romans 8:15–18; 1 Corinthians 6:2–3; 2 Timothy 2:11–12; Revelation 1:6; 3:21; 5:10).

Christ's priestly office is the complement of His prophetic office. The prophet represents God to the people; the priest represents the people to God. Because the people are sinful he, the priest, must be a sacrificer; because they are needy, he must be a compassionate intercessor (Hebrews 5:1–2; 8:1–3). So Christ on the cross entered upon His high priestly work, offering Himself without spot unto God (Hebrews 9:14), as now He exercises an ever-living intercession for His people (Hebrews 7:25). John 17 provides the pattern of that continuing intercession.

VI. In the Gospels, primary interpretation should be distinguished from moral application. Much in the Gospels that belongs in strict interpretation to the Jews or the kingdom is yet such a revelation of the mind of God and is so based on eternal principles as to have a moral application to the people of God, whatever their dispensational position. It is always true that "the pure in heart" are blessed because they "see God" and that "woe" is the portion of religious formalists whether under law or grace.

VII. Special emphasis rests upon that to which all four Gospels bear united testimony.

1. In all of them there is revealed the one unique Person. The pen is a different pen, the incidents in which He is seen are sometimes different incidents, but He is always the same Christ.
2. All the evangelists record the ministry of John the Baptist.
3. All record the feeding of the five thousand.
4. All record Christ's offer of Himself as King, according to Zechariah 9:9.
5. All record the betrayal by Judas; the denial by Peter.
6. All record the trial and crucifixion of Christ.
7. All record the bodily resurrection of Christ.
8. All record events occurring during the forty days of the post-resurrection ministry of Christ—a ministry keyed to a new note of universality and of power.
9. All point forward to His second coming.

And this record is so presented as to testify that the supreme business that brought Him into the world was His death and resurrection; that all that precedes these was preparation, and that from them flow all the blessings God ever has bestowed or ever will bestow upon humanity.

VIII. Since the first three Gospels contain so much material in common that they may be arranged as a synopsis, they are called the Synoptic Gospels. Careful readers of the New Testament will observe the similarities among and also the differences peculiar to these Gospels. That they contain dissimilarities is not surprising in view of the fact that each of these three Gospels is written for a particular purpose—Matthew to present Jesus as King, Mark to present Him as Servant, and Luke to present Him as Son of Man.

Matthew may have been the first Gospel written. It is thought that Mark's account reflects, in its subject matter, Peter's view of our Lord. That there were in existence many early accounts of the life and work of Christ is plain from Luke's prologue to his Gospel (Luke 1:1–4).

As for John, this Gospel is in a class by itself. Probably written later than the Synoptics, it does not outline the life of our Lord but selects its material (including much that is not in the first three Gospels) in keeping with the writer's declared aim of presenting Jesus as the Son of God (John 20:30–31).

An effort has been made by certain scholars to trace the forms or patterns into which the earliest traditions about Christ were put for oral repetition. These forms are supposed to have provided material for the Gospels and are also thought to have been so thoroughly shaped by the needs of the early Church as to preclude a full historical basis for all the events recorded in the Gospels. In its effort to explain the differences in the Gospels, this critical view raises a question concerning the historical accuracy of the whole record. However, it fails to recognize evidence which supports the historicity of the Gospels. It may also be observed that selectivity of material does not necessarily mean distortion of fact, nor is the use of reliable tradition incompatible with the inspiration of the Gospel records.

The important thing to keep in mind is the established fact that these Gospels are inspired historical documents of genuine authenticity and full integrity. Moreover, the believer in Christ knows in his own life the reality of the living Lord, who is so faithfully and yet so variously presented in the Synoptics and in John's Gospel.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

MATTHEW

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Matthew	Christ, the King	c. A.D. 50

Background

Matthew, also called Levi, was the writer of the First Gospel. His name appears seventh or eighth in the New Testament lists of the apostles (Matthew 10:3; Mark 3:18; Luke 6:15). Matthew was a Jew who collected taxes for the Roman government. He was thus despised by loyal Jews.

God's Relationship with Man

Written originally for the Jews, the Gospel of Matthew presents Christ as the Son of David and the Son of Abraham. Because He is portrayed as King, His genealogy is traced to King David; and the place of His birth, Bethlehem, the home of David, is emphasized. Seven times in this Gospel Christ is spoken of as "the Son of David" (1:1; 9:27; 12:23; 15:22; 20:30; 21:9; 22:42). Only in Matthew does Christ speak of "the throne of His glory" (19:28; compare 25:31). Moreover, only here in the Gospels is Jerusalem referred to as "the holy city" (4:5) and "the city of the great King" (5:35). Since it is the Gospel of the King, Matthew is also the Gospel of the kingdom; in it the word "kingdom" appears more than fifty times and the expression "the kingdom of heaven," which is found nowhere else in the New Testament, appears about thirty times.

The Old Testament in the New

Matthew, more than any of the Gospels writers, connects events and utterances in the life of our Lord with Old Testament predictions, for exmple 1:22; 2:15,17,23; 4:14; 12:17; 13:14; 21:4; 26:54,56; 27:9,35.

Outline

Matthew may be divided as follows:

I.	The King Introduced	1:1—4:25
	A. Genealogy	1:1–17
	B. Birth	1:18–25
	C. Early Life	2:1–23
	D. Ministry of John the Baptist	3:1–12
	E. Baptism of Jesus	3:13–17
	F. Temptation of Jesus	4:1–11
	G. Early Ministry of Jesus	4:12–25
II.	The Principles of the Rule of the King: the Sermon on the Mount	5:1—7:29
III.	The Authority of the King Manifested and Rejected	8:1—12:50
IV.	The Mysteries of the Kingdom: the Period Between the King's Two Advents	13:1–58
V.	The Ministry of the Rejected King	14:1—23:39
VI.	The Predicted Return of the King: the Olivet Discourse	24:1—25:46
VII.	The Death and Resurrection of the King	26:1—28:20

I. The King Introduced: His Genealogy, Birth, and Early Life, 1—4

Genealogy of Jesus through Solomon (v. 7) and foster father, Joseph (v. 16; cp. Luke 3:23–38)

1 THE book of the [a]genealogy of Jesus Christ, the Son of [b]David, the Son of [c]Abraham:

2 Abraham begot [d]Isaac, Isaac begot [e]Jacob, and Jacob begot [f]Judah and his brothers.

3 Judah begot [g]Perez and Zerah by Tamar, Perez begot Hezron, and Hezron begot Ram.

4 Ram begot Amminadab, Amminadab begot Nahshon, and Nahshon begot Salmon.

5 Salmon begot [h]Boaz by Rahab, Boaz begot Obed by Ruth, Obed begot Jesse,

6 and Jesse begot David the king.

David the king begot Solomon by her *who had been the wife of [i]Uriah.

7 Solomon begot [j]Rehoboam, Rehoboam begot [k]Abijah, and Abijah begot Asa.*

8 Asa begot [l]Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat begot Joram, and Joram begot [m]Uzziah.

9 Uzziah begot Jotham, Jotham begot [n]Ahaz, and Ahaz begot Hezekiah.

10 Hezekiah begot Manasseh, Manasseh begot Amon,* and Amon begot [o]Josiah.

11 Josiah begot Jeconiah and his brothers about the time they were carried away to Babylon.

12 And after they were brought to [p]Babylon, Jeconiah begot [q]Shealtiel, and Shealtiel begot [r]Zerubbabel.

13 Zerubbabel begot Abiud, Abiud begot Eliakim, and Eliakim begot Azor.

14 Azor begot Zadok, Zadok begot Achim, and Achim begot Eliud.

15 Eliud begot Eleazar, Eleazar begot Matthan, and Matthan begot Jacob.

16 And Jacob begot Joseph the husband of [s]Mary, of whom was born Jesus who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations, from David until the captivity in Babylon are fourteen generations, and from the captivity in Babylon until the Christ are fourteen generations.

1:1 genealogy. There are two genealogies of our Lord—here and at Luke 3:23–38 (where see note at v. 23). The genealogy in Matthew begins with Abraham, founder of the Hebrew nation, and concludes with Joseph, the husband of Mary. Luke's genealogy begins with Joseph and carries the Messianic line back as far as Adam. Matthew inserts historical data, Luke does not. The list in Matthew is divided into three sections.

The last individual in these genealogies in the OT records is Zerubbabel (Matt. 1:13; Luke 3:27). There are some omissions, as between Joram and Uzziah (Matt. 1:8), for which see 2 Kin. 8:24 and 1 Chr. 3:11. Women are mentioned in the Matthew genealogy, contrary to usual custom (compare 1 Chr. 1—8).

1:8 Uzziah (called Azariah, 2 Kin. 14:21) was not the son, but the great-great-grandson of Joram. Compare 2 Kin. 8:25; 13:1—15:38; 2 Chr. 22—25. The wording of each succession may sometimes indicate that a man is a more remote ancestor than an immediate father.

1:11 Jeconiah. In Jer. 22:24–30 a curse is pronounced upon this former king of Judah. There it is predicted that none of his descendants should prosper sitting on David's throne. Had our Lord been the natural son of Joseph, who was descended from Jeconiah, He could never reign in power and righteousness because of the curse. But Christ came through Mary's line, not Joseph's. As the adopted son of Joseph, the curse upon Jeconiah's seed did not affect Him.

1:16 of whom was born. The changed expression here is important. It is no longer "begot," but "the husband of Mary, by whom [fem. sing.] was born Jesus." Jesus was not begotten of natural generation. Christ (Christos means anointed), the Greek form of the Hebrew Messiah (Dan. 9:25–26), is the official name of our Lord, as "Jesus" is His human name (Luke 1:31; 2:21). The name, or title, "Christ," connects Him with the entire OT foreview (see Zech. 12:8, note) of a coming Prophet (Deut. 18:15–19), Priest (Ps. 110:4), and King (2 Sam. 7:12–13). As these were typically anointed with oil (1 Kin. 19:16; compare Ex. 29:7; 1 Sam. 16:13 respectively), so Jesus was anointed with the Holy Spirit (Matt. 3:16; Mark 1:10–11; Luke 3:21–22; John 1:32–33), thus becoming officially identified as the Christ.

1:17 fourteen generations. As in the genealogies of the OT (Gen. 5; 1 Chr. 1—9), certain generations are omitted here in order to make the arrangement uniform. Compare 1 Chr. 3:11–12; Ezra 7:1–5. The list may have been put in this form for purposes of memorization. Memorization is aided by the fact that each of the triads of names concludes with an important era in Israel's history, that is, David's reign, the Babylonian captivity, and the advent of the promised Messiah.

Conception and birth of Jesus
(Luke 1:26–38; 2:1–7; John 1:1–2,14)

18 a Now the birth of Jesus Christ was as follows: After His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy b Spirit.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a c just man, and not wanting to make her a public example, was minded to put her away d secretly.

20 But while he thought about these things, behold, e an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take to you Mary your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy f Spirit.

21 "And she will bring forth a g Son, and you shall call His name JESUS, for He will h save His people from their i sins."

22 So all this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken j by the Lord through the prophet, saying:

23 *"Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and bear a Son, and they shall call His name Immanuel," which is translated, "God with us."

24 Then Joseph, being aroused from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord commanded him and took to him his wife,

25 and did not know her till she had brought forth her firstborn Son.* And he called His name JESUS.

Visit of the wise men

2 NOW k after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem,

2 saying, "Where is He who has been born l King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the East and have come to worship Him."

3 When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the

1:23 Immanuel. Why was Jesus not actually called "Immanuel"? According to Hebrew usage the name does not represent a title but a characterization, as in Is. 1:26 and 9:6. The name "Immanuel" shows that He really was "God with us." Thus the Deity of Christ is stressed at the very beginning of Matthew.

2:1 born. Approximately 5 B.C. Jesus was born. In the 708th year from the foundation of Rome (46 B.C. by Christian reckoning) Julius Caesar established the Julian calendar, beginning the year with January 1st. But it was not until the sixth century A.D. that Dionysius Exiguus, a Scythian monk living in Rome, who was confirming the Easter cycle, originated the system of reckoning time from the birth of Christ. Gradually this usage spread, being adopted in England by the Synod of Whitby in 664, until it gained universal acceptance. In 1582 Pope Gregory XIII reformed the Julian calendar. However, more accurate knowledge shows that the earlier reckonings of the time of Christ's birth were in error by several years. Thus it is now agreed that the birth of Christ should be placed c. 6–4 B.C. Herod. The Herod mentioned here (vv. 1,3,7,12,13,16,19,22) and in Luke 1:5 is known to history as Herod the Great. His family was nominally Jewish but actually Idumaean (Edomite, see Gen. 36:1, note). The Romans had appointed his grandfather, Antipas (died 78 B.C.) governor of Idumaea, and Julius Caesar had made his father, Antipater, procurator of Judea (47–43 B.C.). The Roman triumvir, Mark Antony, appointed Herod the Great tetrarch of Galilee in 37 B.C. He greatly increased the splendor of Jerusalem, erecting the temple, which was the center of Jewish worship in the time of our Lord. Herod's slaughter of the infants at Bethlehem (v. 16) was in keeping with his cruel character. Herod died in March, 4 B.C., and was succeeded by a son, Archelaus (Matt. 2:22). For other members of the Herodian family, see Mark 6:14, note. wise men (or

2:4 THE ROLE OF THE SCRIBES

Scribes were so called because it was their office to make copies of the Scriptures, to classify and teach the precepts of the oral law (see Pharisees, Matt. 3:7, note), and to keep careful count of every letter in the OT writings. Such an office was necessary in a religion of law and precept, and was an OT function (2 Sam. 8:17; 20:25; 1 Kin. 4:3; Jer. 8:8; 36:10,12,26). To this legitimate work the teachers added a record of rabbinical decisions on questions of ritual (Halachoth); the new code resulting from those decisions (Mishna); the Hebrew sacred legends (Gemara, forming with the Mishna, the Talmud); commentaries on the OT (Midrashim); reasonings upon these (Hagada); and, finally, mystical interpretations which found in Scripture meanings other than the grammatical, lexical, and obvious ones (the Kabbala), not unlike the allegorical method of Origen. In our Lord's time, the Pharisees considered it orthodox to receive this mass of writing which had been superimposed upon and had obscured the Scripture.

people together, he inquired of them where [a]the Christ was to be born.

5So they said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it is [b]written by the prophet:

6 'But you, [c]Bethlehem, in the land of Judah,
Are not the least among the rulers of Judah;
For out of you shall come a Ruler
Who will shepherd My people Israel.'"

7Then Herod, when he had secretly called the wise men, determined from them what time the [d]star appeared.

8And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search carefully for the young Child, and when you have found Him, bring back word to me, that I may come and worship Him also."

9When they heard the king, they departed; and behold, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came and stood over where the young Child was.

10When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy.

11And when they had come into the house, they saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and fell down and worshiped Him. And when they had opened their treasures, they presented [e]gifts to Him: gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

12Then, being divinely warned in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed for their own country another way.

Flight into Egypt

13Now when they had departed, behold, [f]an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise, take the young Child and His mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I bring you word; for [g]Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him."

14When he arose, he took the young Child and His mother by night and departed for Egypt,

15and was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was [h]spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I called My Son."

"magi"). From the Greek magoi, a Persian word for men expert in the study of the stars. There is no evidence that these magi were only three in number or that they were kings. Their interest aroused by the star that signalized Christ's birth, they journeyed to Judea to seek the newborn King of the Jews. They arrived some months after His birth. When Herod sent them to Bethlehem, the star reappeared and led them to the Christ child.

2:15 Out of Egypt . . . Son. The words quoted are from Hos. 11:1, and the passage illustrates the principle that prophetic utterances often have a latent and deeper meaning than at first appears. Israel, nationally, was a son (Ex. 4:22), but Christ was the greater Son. Compare Is. 41:8 with Is. 42:1–4 and 52:13–14, where the servant-nation and the Servant-Son are both in view; also Rom. 9:4–5.

Lamentation, weeping, and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children,
Refusing to be comforted,
Because they are no more."

Return from Egypt to Nazareth (cp. Luke 2:39–40; also read Luke 2:41–52)

19 Now when Herod was dead, behold, an [c]angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt,

20 [d]saying, "Arise, take the young Child and His mother, and go to the land of Israel, [e]for those who [f]sought the young Child's life are dead."

21 Then he arose, took the young Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And being warned by God in a [g]dream, he turned aside into the region of Galilee.

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled which was [h]spoken by the prophets, "He shall be called a Nazarene."

Ministry of John the Baptist (Mark 1:1–8; Luke 3:1–20; John 1:6–8,15–37)

3 IN those days John the Baptist came [i]preaching in the wilderness of Judea,

2 and [j]saying, [k]"Repent, for [l]the kingdom of heaven is [m]at hand!"

3 For this is he who was [n]spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, saying:

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
'Prepare the way of the LORD;
Make His paths [o]straight.' "

4 Now John himself was clothed in camel's hair, with a [p]leather belt around his waist; and his food was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then Jerusalem, all Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him

6 and were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their [q]sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them,

3:2 THE MEANING OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN

The expression "kingdom of heaven" (literally "of the heavens"), one that is peculiar to Matthew, refers to the rule of the heavens, i.e. the rule of the God of heaven over the earth (compare Dan. 2:44; 4:25,32). The kingdom of heaven is similar in many respects to the kingdom of God and is often used synonymously with it, though emphasizing certain features of divine government. When contrasted with the universal kingdom of God, the kingdom of heaven includes only men on earth, excluding angels and other creatures. The kingdom of heaven is the earthly sphere of profession as shown by the inclusion of those designated as wheat and tares, the latter of which are cast out of the kingdom (Matt. 13:41), and is compared to a net containing both the good and bad fish which are later separated (Matt. 13:47).

The kingdom of heaven is revealed in three aspects in Matthew:

(1) As "at hand" (see 4:17, note), the kingdom is offered in the Person of the King, of whom John the Baptist is the forerunner (Matt. 3:1).

(2) As fulfilled in the present age, the kingdom of heaven is presented in seven "mysteries" (Matt. 13), revealing the character of the rule of heaven over the earth between the first and second comings of the Lord. And

(3) as fulfilled after the second coming of Christ, the kingdom of heaven will be realized in the future millennial kingdom as predicted by Daniel (Dan. 2:34–36,44–45) and covenanted to David (2 Sam. 7:12–16; see Zech. 12:8, note). This millennial form of the kingdom of heaven is wholly future and will be set up after the return of the King in glory (Matt. 24:29—25:46; Acts 15:14–17; see Matt. 6:33, note).

8 "Therefore bear fruits worthy of repentance,
9 "and do not think to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.
10 "And even now the ax is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore every tree which does not bear good fruit is [a]cut down and thrown into the fire.
11 "I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance, but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy [b]Spirit and [c]fire.*
12 "His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, and gather His wheat into the barn; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

Baptism of Jesus (Mark 1:9–11; Luke 3:21–22; cp. John 1:31–34)

13 Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him.
14 And John tried to prevent Him, saying, "I need to be baptized by You, and are You coming to me?"
15 But Jesus answered and said to him, "Permit it to be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all [d]righteousness." Then he allowed Him.
16 When He had been baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water; and behold, the [e]heavens were opened to Him, and He* saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting upon Him.
17 And suddenly a voice came from heaven, saying, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

descendants of the Jews who returned from the Babylonian captivity. This movement degenerated into the Pharisaism of our Lord's day—a letter-strictness which overlaid the law with traditional interpretations held to have been communicated by the LORD to Moses as oral explanations of equal authority with the law itself (compare Matt. 15:2–3; Mark 7:8–13; Gal. 1:14).

The Pharisees were strictly a sect. A member was a chaber (that is, "united," Judg. 20:11) and was obligated to remain true to the principles of Pharisaism. They were moral, zealous, and self-denying, but self-righteous (Luke 18:9) and destitute of the sense of sin and need (Luke 7:39). They were the foremost persecutors of Jesus Christ and the objects of His unsparing denunciation, e.g. Matt. 23:1–36; Luke 11:42–44.

3:7 Sadducees. The Sadducees were a Jewish sect that denied the existence of angels or other spirits, and all miracles, especially the resurrection of the body. They were the religious rationalists of the time (Mark 12:18–23; Acts 23:8), and were strongly entrenched in the Sanhedrin and priesthood (Acts 4:1–2; 5:17). The Sadducees are identified with no affirmative doctrine, but were mere deniers of the supernatural. Brood. Literally Offspring.

3:13 Then Jesus came. Approximately A.D. 26.

3:15 Permit it. Why the Lord, who needed no repentance, should insist upon receiving a rite which signified confession (v. 6) and repentance (v. 11) is nowhere directly explained. It may be suggested that:

(1) Jesus was now to enter into His mediatorial office as Prophet, Priest, and King and, as the Aaronic high priest publicly entered his office in a special ceremony (Ex. 29:4–7), so our Lord's baptism signifies His entering His ministry;

(2) our Lord's baptism was the means for His introduction as Messiah to His people (John 1:31–34);

(3) by thus taking His place with sinners, He was illustrating the doctrine of identification (compare Is. 53:12; 2 Cor. 5:21); and

(4) He was prophetically looking forward to His own death and resurrection, which alone could "fulfill all righteousness." See Matt. 20:22, where Christ speaks of His death as His baptism.

3:16 When He had been baptized . . . . For the first time the Trinity, foreshadowed in many ways in the OT, is clearly manifested. The Spirit descends upon the Son and, at the same moment, the Father's voice is heard from heaven.

3:17 This is My beloved Son. Literally This is My Son, the Beloved. Matt. 17:5; Mark 9:7; Luke 9:35; compare Is. 42:1; Eph. 1:3–6.

4:8 world. The Greek word kosmos means order, arrangement, and so, with the Greeks, beauty; for order and arrangement, in the sense of system, are at the bottom of the Greek conception of beauty. Sometimes kosmos means world. When the word is employed in the NT for humanity, the world of men, it denotes organized humanity—humanity in families, tribes, nations. The word for chaotic, unorganized humanity—the mere mass of men—is thalassa, the "sea" of men (e.g. Rev. 13:1). For "world" (kosmos) in the bad ethical sense, see Rev. 13:8, note.

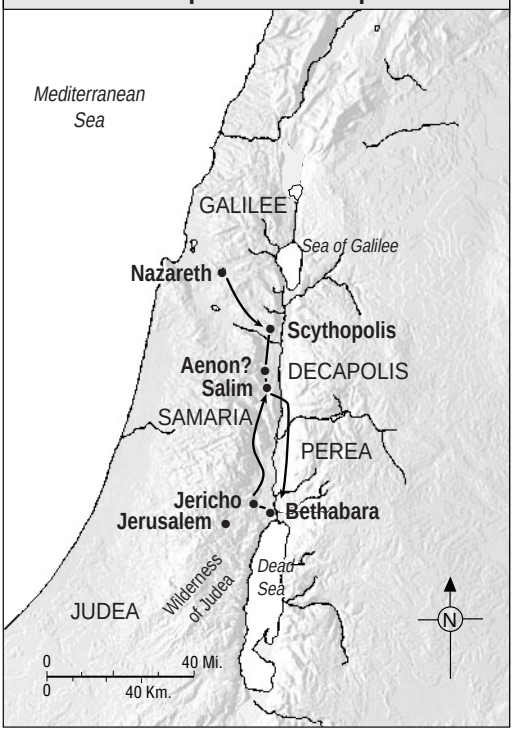
Jesus' Baptism and Temptation



4:1 THE FIRST AND LAST ADAM

The temptation of Christ, the "last Adam" (1 Cor. 15:45), is best understood when contrasted with that of "the first man Adam." Adam was tempted in his place of lord of creation, a lordship with but one reservation, the knowledge of good and evil (Gen. 1:26; 2:16–17). Through the woman he was tempted to add that also to his dominion. Falling, he lost all. But Christ took the place of a lowly Servant, acting only from and in obedience to the Father (Phil. 2:5–8; compare John 5:19; 8:28,54; see Is. 41:8, note), that He might redeem a fallen race and a creation under the divine curse (Gen. 3:17–19; compare Rom. 8:19–23).

Satan's one object in the threefold temptation was to induce Christ to act from Himself, independent of His Father. The first two temptations were a challenge to Christ from the god of this world to prove Himself indeed the Son of God (vv. 3,6). The third was the offer of the usurping prince of this world to divest himself of that which rightfully belonged to Christ as Son of Man and Son of David, on the condition that He accept the scepter on Satan's world principles (compare John 18:36; see Rev. 13:8, note). Christ defeated Satan by a means open to His humblest follower, the intelligent use of the Word of God (vv. 4,7,10). In his second temptation Satan also used Scripture, but he cited a promise available only to one in the path of obedience.

behold, [a]angels came and ministered to Him.

Jesus begins His public ministry in Capernaum (Mark 1:14; Luke 4:14–15)

12 Now when Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, He departed to Galilee.

13 And leaving Nazareth, He came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the regions of Zebulun and Naphtali,

14 that it might be fulfilled which was [b]spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

15 "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,
By the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles:
16 The people who sat in darkness have seen a great [c]light,
And upon those who sat in the region and shadow of death
*[d]Light has dawned."

17 From that time Jesus began to [e]preach and to say, [f]"Repent, for the [g]kingdom of heaven [h]is at hand."

Jesus' first disciples (Mark 1:16–20; cp. Luke 5:1–11; John 1:35–42)

18 And Jesus, walking by the Sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.

19 Then He said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men."

20 They immediately [i]left their nets and followed Him.

21 Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. He called them, 22 and immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him.

Early ministry in Galilee

23 And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the [j]gospel of the [k]kingdom, and healing all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease among the people.

24 Then His fame went throughout all Syria; and they [l]brought to Him all sick people who were afflicted with various diseases and torments, and those who were [m]demon-possessed, [n]epileptics, and paralytics; and He healed them.

25 Great [o]multitudes followed Him—from Galilee, and from Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

Capernaum: A city on the northwest coast of the Sea of Galilee. It was the center of Christ's ministry after he left Nazareth.

4:17 From that time. The phrase "from that time" is used by Matthew to indicate two sharply contrasted phases of our Lord's teaching ministry. The first begins here with His proclamation of the kingdom as "at hand." The second comes at 16:21 when, following Israel's rejection of the King and His kingdom, Christ begins to declare openly the necessity of His death and resurrection. at hand. The biblical term "at hand" or "near" is never a positive affirmation that the person or thing said to be at hand will immediately appear, but only that that person or thing has the quality of imminency. When Christ appeared to the Jewish people, the next thing, in the order of revelation as they understood it, should have been the setting up of the Davidic kingdom. Yet God had predicted the rejection and crucifixion of the King (Ps. 22; Is. 53). The long period of the secret form of the kingdom (Matt. 13:11), the worldwide preaching of the cross, and the out-calling of the Church was as yet locked up in the secret counsels of God (Matt. 13:11,17; Eph. 3:3–12).

4:18 two brothers. Peter and Andrew were already disciples (John 1:35–42). This is a call to service.

4:21 James. Four persons are called by this name in the NT:

(1) James, the son of Zebedee, an apostle (Matt. 10:2) and the brother of the Apostle John, apart from whom he is never mentioned and with whom, together with Peter, he was admitted to the special intimacy of our Lord (Matt. 17:1; Mark 5:37; 9:2; 14:33). He was martyred by Herod (Acts 12:2).

(2) James, the son of Alphaeus, who was one of the twelve apostles (Matt. 10:3). He is called James "the Less" (Mark 15:40).

(3) James, the Lord's half brother (Matt. 13:55; Mark 6:3; Gal. 1:19). The younger children of Mary did not believe in Jesus during His earthly life (John 7:5) but joined His followers after His resurrection (Acts 1:14). James became the leader of the Jerusalem church (Acts 12:17; 15:13; 21:18; Gal. 1:19; 2:9,12) and wrote the Epistle of James. And

(4) James, the father of the Apostle Judas (Luke 6:16; Acts 1:13).

II. The Principles and the Rule of the Kingdom: the Sermon on the Mount, 5—7

The Sermon on the Mount (Luke 6:20–49): the Beatitudes

5 AND seeing the multitudes, He [a]went up on a mountain, and when He was seated His disciples came to Him.

2 Then He opened His mouth and [b]taught them, saying:

3 "Blessed[c] are the poor in spirit,
For theirs is the [d]kingdom of heaven.
4 Blessed are those who mourn,
For they shall be comforted.
5 Blessed are the [e]meek,
For they shall inherit the earth.

The Similitudes (Mark 4:21–23; Luke 8:16–18)

5:3 THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT

Having announced the kingdom of heaven as "at hand," the King now, in the Sermon on the Mount (Matt. 5—7), declares to His disciples (5:1) the principles of that kingdom.

1. In this sermon our Lord reaffirms the Mosaic law of the OT theocratic kingdom as the governing code in His coming kingdom on earth (5:17), and declares that the attitude of men toward this law will determine their place in the kingdom (5:19).

2. Christ here also declares that He has come to fulfill the Law (5:17), which He now proceeds to do in part in the Sermon on the Mount: (a) by showing that the divine law deals with thoughts and motives as well as overt acts (5:27–28; 6:1–6); and, (b) by abrogating certain concessions made formerly because of the hardness of men's hearts (5:31–32; compare 19:8).

3. In the Sermon on the Mount, Christ sets forth the perfect standard of righteousness demanded by the law (5:48), thus demonstrating that all men are sinners, habitually falling short of the divine standard, and that, therefore, salvation by works of law is an impossibility.

4. Although the law, as expressed in the Sermon on the Mount, cannot save sinners (Rom. 3:20), and the redeemed of the present age are not under law (Rom. 6:14), nevertheless both the Mosaic law and the Sermon on the Mount are a part of Holy Scripture which is inspired by God and therefore "profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness" (2 Tim. 3:16) for the redeemed of all ages.

jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the law till all is fulfilled.
19 "Whoever therefore breaks one of the least of these [a]commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the [b]kingdom of heaven; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.
20 "For I say to you, that unless your [c]righteousness [d]exceeds the [e]righteousness of the [f]scribes and [g]Pharisees, you will by no means enter the [b]kingdom of heaven.

First reconciliation, then sacrifice

21 "You have [a]heard that it was [h]said to those of old, 'You shall not [i]murder, and whoever murders will be in danger of the judgment.'
22 "But I say to you that whoever is angry with his brother without a cause* shall be in danger of the judgment. And whoever says to his brother, 'Raca!' shall be in danger of the council. But whoever says, 'You fool!' shall be in danger of hell fire.
23 "Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has [j]something against you,
24 "leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.
25 "Agree with your [k]adversary quickly, while you are on the way with him, lest your adversary deliver you to the judge, the judge hand you over to the officer, and you be thrown into prison.
26 "Assuredly, I say to you, you will by no means get out of there till you have paid the last [l]penny.

28 "But I say to you that whoever [n]looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.
29 "If your right eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and cast it from you; for it is more profitable for you that one of your members perish, than for your whole body to be cast into hell.
30 "And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and cast it from you; for it is more profitable for you that one of your members perish, than for your whole body to be cast into hell.

5:17 CHRIST'S RELATIONSHIP TO THE LAW

Christ's relation to the Law of Moses may be thus summarized:

(1) Christ was made under the law (Gal. 4:4).

(2) He lived in perfect obedience to the law (Matt. 17:5; John 8:46; 1 Pet. 2:21–23).

(3) He was a minister of the law to the Jews, clearing it from rabbinical sophistries, enforcing it upon those who professed to obey it (e.g. Luke 10:25–37), but confirming the promises made to the fathers under the Mosaic Covenant (Rom. 15:8; see Ex. 19:5, note).

(4) He fulfilled the types of the law by His holy life and sacrificial death (Heb. 9:11–28).

(5) He bore, vicariously, the curse of the law, so that the Abrahamic Covenant (see Gen. 12:2, note) might avail all who believe (Gal. 3:13–14).

(6) He brought out, by His redemptive work, all who believe—from the place of servants under the law to the place of sons (Gal. 4:1–7). And

(7) He mediated by His blood the New Covenant (see Heb. 8:8, note) of assurance and grace in which all believers stand (Rom. 5:2), so establishing the "law of Christ" (Gal. 6:2, refs.) with its precepts of righteous living made possible by the indwelling Spirit.

5:18 jot. Smallest Hebrew letter. tittle. Minute ornament over Hebrew letter.

5:22 Raca. Literally Empty, an abusive epithet. hell fire. Greek geenna equals Gehenna, the place in the Valley of Hinnom where, anciently, human sacrifices were offered (2 Chr. 33:6; Jer. 7:31), and where the continuous burning of rubbish illustrated for the Jewish people unending judgment upon the wicked. The word occurs in Matt. 5:22,29,30; 10:28; 18:9; 23:15,33; Mark 9:43,45,47; Luke 12:5; James 3:6. In every instance except the last, the word was spoken by Jesus Christ in most solemn warning of the consequences of sin. He described it as the place where "their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched" (Mark 9:48). It is called "lake of fire" etc. in Rev. 19:20; 20:10,14,15. See Death, the second (John 8:24; Rev. 21:8); also Luke 16:23, note.

5:29,30 sin. Literally stumble. hell. Greek geenna. See Matt. 5:22, note.

5:26 COINAGE IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

In NT times, not only Roman but Greek, Syrian, and Egyptian coins were in common circulation, some of them with local imitations of varying value. Estimates differ widely as to the proper value of these coins in terms of late twentieth-century American dollars, the variation depending on whether the value of gold, silver, or purchasing power is made the basis. Moreover, the U.S. dollar value of precious metals varies from day to day.

The most common coin was

(1) the Roman denarius, a silver coin about two-thirds the size of an American quarter, worth about 16 cents and representing an ordinary day's wages for a laborer (Matt. 18:28; 20:2,9,10,13; 22:19; Mark 6:37; 12:15; 14:5; Luke 7:41; 10:35; 20:24; John 6:7; 12:5; Rev. 6:6).

(2) The Greek equivalent was the drachma, mentioned only in Luke 15:8. Some locally coined drachmas were worth less.

(3) The "didrachma," i.e. a double drachma, cited in Matt. 17:24, was probably coined locally and used for payment of the temple tax.

(4) The "pieces of silver" (Matt. 26:15; 27:3,5,6,9) were probably tetradrachmas, i.e. a coin worth four drachmas, corresponding to the OT shekel (compare Zech. 11:12,13).

(5) But the coins in Acts 19:19, described as "pieces of silver," were probably Greek drachmas.

(6) The stater, a silver coin equivalent to four Greek drachmas or one shekel, and worth about 64 cents, is referred to in Matt. 17:27. It was the exact amount of the tax for two people, i.e. Christ and Peter. Gold staters, not mentioned in the Bible, were half the weight of the silver stater. The Roman aureus, a gold coin, is not mentioned in the NT except indirectly as "gold" in Matt. 10:9. Many coins were issued of copper or bronze.

(7) A coin referred to as "copper" (Greek chalkos) in Matt. 10:9 and Mark 6:8, and as "money" in Mark 12:41 was probably a small Greek or Roman coin worth about one-half cent.

(8) The "penny" (Greek kodrantes) of Matt. 5:26, transliterated as quadrans in Mark 12:42, was worth about one-fourth cent.

(9) Four pennies made one "copper coin" (Greek assarion, Matt. 10:29; Lk 12:6), worth about one cent. And

(10) the "mite" (Greek lepton), the smallest coin (Mark 12:42; Luke 12:59; 21:2), was one-half a penny and worth about one-eighth cent.

Sums of money were indicated by "mina" (Greek mna), worth 100 denarii, and by "talents" worth 6,000 denarii. For coinage (OT), see Ex. 30:13, note.

and [a]pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you,*
45 "that you may be sons of your Father in heaven; for He [b]makes His sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust.
46 "For if you love those who love you, what reward have you? Do not even the tax collectors do the same?
47 "And if you greet your brethren* only, what do you do more than others? Do not even the tax collectors* do so?
48 "Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.

Religious ostentation rebuked

6 "TAKE heed that you do not do your charitable deeds before men, to be seen by them. Otherwise you have no [c]reward from your Father in heaven.
2 "Therefore, when you do a charitable deed, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory from men. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward.
3 "But when you [d]do a charitable deed, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing,
4 "that your charitable deed may be in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will Himself [e]reward you openly.*
5 "And when you pray, you shall not be like the hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward.
6 "But you, when you pray, go into your room, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will [f]reward you openly.*
7 "And when you pray, do not use [g]vain repetitions as the heathen do. For they think that they will be heard for their many words.
8 "Therefore do not be like them. For your Father [h]knows the things you have need of before you ask Him.

6:1 charitable deeds. The expression refers to religious externalities. Although others may observe these acts, this fact must not be the motive behind the deeds.

6:9 Verses 9–13 contain what is familiarly known as The Lord's Prayer. It is His prayer in that He is its author. It was intended to be a model prayer for the disciples: "In this manner, therefore, pray." See Luke 11:2, note.

6:12 debts. That is, sin. See Rom. 3:23, note. As we forgive. The problem raised by the conditional nature of this petition for forgiveness may be explained as follows: In the fully developed doctrine of Christian salvation there are two areas of divine forgiveness. The first area is that of the forgiveness that comes to the sinner at the time of justification, and deals with the guilt of his sins in a total sense (Eph. 1:7). To this forgiveness there is attached but one condition, that is, to receive it once for all by faith in Christ (Rom. 4:5–8). The second area of forgiveness covers the relation of the divine Father to those who have become His children and deals specifically with the matter of fellowship whenever it is broken by sin. To obtain such forgiveness we must confess and forsake the sin (1 John 1:9; compare Ps. 66:18 and Prov. 28:13). The forgiveness mentioned here in v. 12 belongs in this second area, because it occurs in a prayer given to disciples of Christ (5:2) who could call upon God as their Father (6:9,26). The ultimate motive for forgiving our debtors is based upon the grace of God, and appears later in the progress of revelation (Eph. 4:32; Col. 3:13).

For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.*

14 "For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also [a]forgive you.
15 "But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.
16 "Moreover, when you [b]fast, do not be like the hypocrites, with a sad countenance. For they disfigure their faces that they may appear to men to be fasting. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward.
17 "But you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, 18 "so that you do not appear to men to be fasting, but to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will [c]reward you openly.*

Treasure in heaven

19 "Do not lay up for yourselves
[d]treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal;
20 "but lay up for yourselves treasures in [e]heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal.
21 "For where your treasure is,
there your heart will be also.
22 "The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light.
23 "But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness.
If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!
24 "No one can serve [f]two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.

The cure for care

25 "Therefore I say to you, [g]do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing?
26 "Look at the birds of the air, for they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they?
27 "Which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature?
28 "So why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin;
29 "and yet I say to you that even [h]Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.
30 "Now if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is,
and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?
31 "Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?'
32 "For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father [i]knows that you need all these things.
33 "But seek first the kingdom of God and His [j]righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.
34 [k]"Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

6:13 For Yours . . . Amen. This doxology does not appear in the oldest Greek manuscripts, and, in those which do include it, there are variations. The account by Luke omits it altogether (Luke 11:2–4). Many eminent textual authorities believe that it was added by later hands, perhaps to make the prayer more suitable for public worship. The doxology, however, is biblical, for its main ideas seem clearly to parallel a prayer of David recorded in 1 Chr. 29:11—"Yours, O LORD, is . . . the power and the glory . . . [and] the kingdom." Moreover, the majority of Greek manuscripts do contain the doxology.

6:33 THE MEANING OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD

The expression, "the kingdom of God" (Matt. 12:28), although used in many cases as synonymous with the kingdom of heaven, is to be distinguished from it in some instances (see Matt. 3:2, note): (1) The kingdom of God is at times viewed as everlasting and universal, that is, the rule of the sovereign God over all creatures and things (Ps. 103:19; Dan. 4:3). In this sense the kingdom of God includes the kingdom of heaven. (2) The kingdom of God is also used to designate the sphere of salvation entered only by the new birth (John 3:5–7) in contrast with the kingdom of heaven as the sphere of profession which may be real or false (see Matt. 13:3, note; 25:1,11–12). And (3) since the kingdom of heaven is in the earthly sphere of the universal kingdom of God, the two have many things in common and in some contexts the terms are interchangeable.

Like the kingdom of heaven, the kingdom of God is realized in the rule of God in the present age and will also be fulfilled in the future millennial kingdom. It continues forever in the eternal state (compare Dan. 4:3).

Parable of two builders and two foundations (Luke 6:47–49)

24 "Therefore whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will [c]liken him to a wise man who built his house on the [d]rock:

25 "and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it did not fall, for it was founded on the rock.

26 "But everyone who hears these sayings of Mine, and does not do them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand:

27 "and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it fell. And great was its fall."

Effect of sermon on hearers

28 And so it was, when Jesus had ended these sayings, that the people were astonished at His [e]teaching, 29 for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

Jesus cleanses a leper (Mark 1:40–45; Luke 5:12–14)

8 WHEN He had come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed Him.

2 And behold, a [f]leper came and [g]worshiped Him, [h]saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."

In itself the word means master, and is so used of human relationships in, e.g. Matt. 6:24; 15:27; Mark 13:35; Eph. 6:9. But the general use of the word in the NT is as a divine title (over 650 times), translated either "Lord" or "Master." Both uses, divine and human, are brought together in Eph. 6:9 and Col. 4:1. It is the Greek equivalent of the Hebrew Adonai (see Gen.

7:22

THE REALITY OF DEMONS

The Greek daimonia means "demons," never "devils." There is only one devil (Greek diabolos), that is, Satan.

To the reality and personality of demons the NT Scriptures bear abundant testimony. As to their origin, nothing is clearly revealed, but they are not to be confused with the angels mentioned in 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6. Summary:

(1) Demons are spirits (Matt. 12:43,45), Satan's emissaries (Matt. 12:26–27), and so numerous as to make Satan's power practically ubiquitous (Mark 5:9).

(2) They are capable of entering and controlling both men and animals (Mark 5:2–5,11–13), and earnestly seek embodiment, without which, apparently, they are powerless for evil (Matt. 12:43–44; Mark 5:10–12).

(3) Demon influence and demon possession are discriminated in the NT. Instances of the latter are Matt. 4:24; 8:16,28,33; 9:32; 12:22; Mark 1:32; 5:15–16,18; Luke 8:36; Acts 8:7; 16:16.

(4) Demons are unclean, sullen, violent and malicious (Matt. 8:28; 9:33; 10:1; 12:43; Mark 1:23; 5:3–5; 9:17,20; Luke 6:18; 9:39).

(5) They know Jesus Christ as Most High God and recognize His supreme authority (Matt. 8:31–32; Mark 1:23–24; Acts 19:15; James 2:19).

(6) They know their eternal fate to be one of torment (Matt. 8:29; Luke 8:31).

(7) They inflict physical maladies (Matt. 12:22; 17:15–18; Luke 13:16). However, mental disease is to be distinguished from the disorder of mind due to demonic control.

(8) Demon influence may manifest itself in religious asceticism (1 Tim. 4:1–3), degenerating into uncleanness.

(9) The sign of demon influence in religion is departure from the faith, that is, the body of revealed truth in the Scriptures (1 Tim. 4:1).

(10) The demons maintain a conflict with Christians who would be spiritual (Eph. 6:12; 1 Tim. 4:1–3). The Christian's resources are prayer and bodily control (Matt. 17:21), "the whole armor of God" (Eph. 6:13–18).

(11) All unbelievers are open to demon possession (Eph. 2:2).

(12) Exorcism in the name of Jesus Christ (Acts 16:18) was practiced for demon possession. And

(13) one of the awful features of the apocalyptic judgments in which this age will end is an emergence of demons out of the bottomless pit (Rev. 9:1–11,20).

3 Then Jesus put out His hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing; be cleansed." Immediately his lep-rosy [a]was [b]cleansed.
4 And Jesus said to him, "See that you tell no one; but go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer the [c]gift that [d]Moses [e]commanded, as a testimony to them."

Jesus heals a centurion's servant
(Luke 7:1–10)

5 Now when Jesus had entered Capernaum, a [f]centurion came to Him, pleading with Him,
6 saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, dreadfully tormented."
7 And Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him."
8 The centurion answered and said, "Lord, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof.
But only speak a word, and my servant will be healed.
9 "For I also am a man under [g]authority, having soldiers under me.
And I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do
this,' and he does it."
10 When Jesus heard it, He [h]marveled, and said to those who followed, "Assuredly, I say to you, I have not found such great [i]faith, not even in Israel!
11 "And I say to you that many will come from east and west, and sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the [j]kingdom of heaven.
12 "But the sons of the kingdom will be cast out into outer darkness.
There will be weeping and gnashing of [k]teeth."
13 Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way; and [l]as you have [m]believed, so let it be done for you." And his servant was [n]healed that same hour.

Peter's mother-in-law healed
(Mark 1:29–34; Luke 4:38–41)

14 Now when Jesus had come into Peter's house, He saw his wife's mother lying sick with a fever.
15 So He [o]touched her hand, and the [p]fever [q]left her. And she arose and [r]served them.*
16 When evening had come, they brought to Him many who were [s]demon-possessed. And He [t]cast out the spirits with a word, and healed
all who were sick,
17 that it might be fulfilled which was [u]spoken by Isaiah the prophet,
saying:

"He Himself [v]took our infirmities
And bore our sicknesses."

Discipleship tested (Luke 9:57–62)

18 And when Jesus saw great multitudes about Him, He gave a command to depart to the other side.
19 Then a certain scribe came and said to Him, "Teacher, I will follow
You wherever You [w]go."
20 And Jesus [x]said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."
21 Then another of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, let me first go and bury my [y]father."
22 But Jesus said to him, "Follow Me, and let the [z]dead bury their own dead."

Jesus stills winds and waves
(Mark 4:36–41; Luke 8:22–25)

His disciples followed Him.

arose on the sea, so that the boat

Both of these OT titles of Deity are rendered by Kurios in one sentence (Matt. 22:44). Our Lord used it of His Father (Matt. 4:7,10; etc.). But the most frequent use of Kurios is as a divine title of Jesus. That the intent is to identify Jesus Christ with the OT Deity is evident from Matt. 3:3; 12:8; 21:9 (Ps. 118:26); 22:43–45 (Ps. 110); Luke 1:43; John 14:8–10; 20:28; Acts 9:5 (Ps. 2). See John 20:28, note.

25 Then His disciples came to Him and awoke Him, [a]saying, "Lord, save us! We are perishing!"

26 But He said to them, [b]"Why are you fearful, O you of [c]little faith?" Then He arose and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great [d]calm.

27 So the men marveled, saying, "Who can this be, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?"

Jesus casts out demons at Gergesa
(Mark 5:1–21; Luke 8:26–40)

28 When He had come to the other side, to the country of the Gergesenes,* there met Him two [e]demon-possessed men, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no one could pass that way.

29 And suddenly they cried out, saying, [f]"What have we to do with You, Jesus, You Son of God? Have You come here to [g]torment us before the [h]time?"

30 Now a good way off from them there was a herd of many swine feeding.

31 So the [i]demons begged Him, saying, "If You cast us out, permit us to go away* into the [j]herd of swine."

32 And He said to them, "Go." So when they had [k]come out, they went into the herd of swine. And suddenly the whole herd of swine ran violently down the steep place into the sea, and perished in the water.

33 Then those who kept them fled; and they went away into the city and told everything, including what had happened to the [l]demon-possessed men.

34 And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus. And when they saw Him, they begged Him to [m]depart from their region.

Paralytic man healed
(Mark 2:3–12; Luke 5:18–26)

9 So He got into a boat, crossed over, and came to His [n]own city.

2 Then behold, they brought to Him a paralytic lying on a bed. When Jesus saw their [o]faith, He said to the paralytic, "Son, be of good cheer; your sins are [p]forgiven you."

3 And at once some of the [q]scribes said within themselves, "This Man [r]blasphemes!"

4 But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts?

5 "For which is easier, to [s]say, 'Your [t]sins are [u]forgiven you,' or to say, 'Arise and walk'?

6 "But that you may [v]know that the [w]Son of Man has power on earth to [x]forgive [y]sins"—then He said to the paralytic, "Arise, take up your bed, and go to your house."

7 And he [z]arose and departed to his house.

8 Now when the multitudes saw it, they [aa]marveled* and glorified God, who had given such power to men.

8:20 THE MEANING OF THE SON OF MAN

The name "Son of Man" is based on the great Messianic passage in Dan. 7:13. Compare Matt. 16:28; 19:28; 25:31; 26:64; Mark 14:62; Luke 22:69. Our Lord uses this term about eighty times to refer to Himself. It is His name as the representative Man, in the sense of 1 Cor. 15:45–47, as Son of David is distinctively His Jewish name, and Son of God His divine name. Our Lord constantly uses this term as implying that His mission (e.g. Matt. 11:19; Luke 19:10), His death and resurrection (e.g. Matt. 12:40; 20:18; 26:2), and His second coming (e.g. Matt. 24:37–44; Luke 12:40) transcend in scope and result all merely Jewish limitations.

When Nathanael confesses Him as "King of Israel," our Lord's answer is, "You will see greater things . . . the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man" (John 1:50–51). When His messengers are cast out by the Jews, His thought leaps forward to the time when the Son of Man comes again to the human race (compare Matt. 10:5–6 with v. 23). It is in this name also that universal judgment is committed to Him (John 5:22,27). It is also a name indicating that in Him is fulfilled the OT foreview of blessing through a coming Man (see Gen. 1:26, note; 3:15; 12:3; Ps. 8:4; 80:17; Is. 7:14; 9:6–7; 32:2).

Call of Matthew (Levi)
(Mark 2:14; Luke 5:27–29)

9 As Jesus passed on from there,
He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, [a]"Follow Me." So he arose and followed Him.

Jesus answers the Pharisees
(Mark 2:15–20; Luke 5:29–35)

10 Now it happened, as Jesus sat at the table in the house, that behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Him and His disciples.
11 And when the [b]Pharisees saw it, they [c]said to His disciples, "Why does your Teacher eat with tax collectors and [d]sinners?"
12 When Jesus heard that, He said to them, "Those who are [e]well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick.
13 "But go and learn what this means: [f]'I desire mercy and not sacrifice.' For I did not come to call the [g]righteous, but [h]sinners, to [i]repentance." * 14 Then the disciples of John came to Him, saying, "Why do we and the [j]Pharisees fast [k]often,* but Your disciples do not fast?"
15 And Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.

Parable of the cloth and wineskins
(Mark 2:21–22; Luke 5:36–39)

16 "No one puts a piece of unshrunk [l]cloth on an old garment; for the patch pulls away from the garment, and the tear is made worse.
17 "Nor do they put new wine into old wineskins, or else the wineskins break, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are [m]preserved."

Two miracles of healing
(Mark 5:21–43; Luke 8:40–56)

18 While He spoke these things to them, behold, a ruler came and worshiped Him, [n]saying, "My daughter has just died, but come and lay Your hand on her and she will live."
19 So Jesus arose and followed him, and so did His [o]disciples.
20 And suddenly, a woman who had a [p]flow of blood for twelve years came from behind and [q]touched the hem of His [r]garment.
21 For she [s]said to herself, "If only I may touch His garment, I shall be made [t]well."
22 But Jesus turned around, and when He saw her He said, "Be of good cheer, daughter; your [u]faith has [v]made you [w]well." And the woman was made well from that hour.
23 When Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute players and the noisy crowd wailing, 24 He said to them, "Make room, for the girl is not dead, but sleeping." And they ridiculed Him.
25 But when the crowd was put outside, He went in and [x]took her by the hand, and the girl [y]arose.
26 And the [z]report of this went out into all that land.

Two blind men
and a demoniac healed

27 When Jesus departed from there, [aa]two blind men followed
Him, crying out and [bb]saying,
[cc]"Son of David, have mercy on us!"
28 And when He had come into the house, the blind men came to Him. And Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to Him, "Yes,
Lord."
29 Then He touched their eyes, saying, "According to your [dd]faith let it be to you."
30 And their eyes were [ee]opened.
And Jesus sternly warned them, saying, "See that no one knows it." 31 But when they had departed, they spread the [ff]news about Him in all that country.

33 And when the demon [b]was cast out, the mute spoke. And the multitudes marveled, saying, "It was never seen like this in Israel!"
34 But the [c]Pharisees said, "He casts out [d]demons by the ruler of the demons."

Jesus' compassion for the multitudes (Mark 6:5–6)

36 But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary* and scattered, like sheep having no shepherd.
37 Then He said to His disciples, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few.
38 "Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to [h]send out laborers into His harvest."

3 Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus, whose surname was* Thaddaeus;
4 Simon the Cananite,* and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him.

10:2 THE MEANING OF APOSTLE

The word "apostle" (Greek apostolos) means a messenger, one sent forth with orders. It is used concerning our Lord Himself (Heb. 3:1). Elsewhere it is used of the twelve, who were called to that office by our Lord during His earthly ministry; of Paul, called to the apostleship by the risen and ascended Lord; of Barnabas (Acts 14:14), specially designated by the Holy Spirit (Acts 13:2); and of Matthias, chosen by lot to take the place of Judas Iscariot (Acts 1:15–26). Although Matthias is never actually referred to as an apostle, it is said of him: "And he was numbered with the eleven apostles."

The "signs of an apostle" were:

(1) They were chosen directly by the Lord Himself or, as in the case of Barnabas, by the Holy Spirit (Matt. 10:1–2; Mark 3:13–14; Luke 6:13; Acts 9:6,15; 13:2; 22:10,14–15; Rom. 1:1).

(2) They were endued with sign-gifts, miraculous powers which were the divine credentials of their office (Matt. 10:1; Acts 5:15–16; 16:16–18; 28:8–9).

(3) Their relation to the kingdom was that of heralds, announcing, to Israel only (Matt. 10:5–6), the kingdom as at hand (see Matt. 4:17, note), and manifesting kingdom powers (Matt. 10:7–8).

(4) Our Lord delegated, first to Peter (Matt. 16:19) and then to the remainder of the apostolate (Matt. 18:18; John 20:21–23) on behalf of all Christians, the authority to deal with men's sins through the Gospel, under the figure of "the keys of the kingdom."

(5) The apostles' future relation to the kingdom will be that of judges over the twelve tribes (Matt. 19:28).

(6) Consequent upon the rejection of the kingdom and the revelation of the mystery hidden in God (Matt. 16:18; Eph. 3:1–12), the Church, the apostolic office was invested with a new endowment, the baptism with the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:1–4); a new power, that of imparting the Spirit to Jewish believers in Christ; a new relation, that of foundation stones of the new temple (Eph. 2:20–22); and a new function, that of preaching the glad tidings of salvation, through the crucified and risen Lord, to Jew and Gentile alike. And

(7) it is implied that an apostle was one who was an eyewitness of the resurrection of Christ (Acts 1:22; 1 Cor. 9:1), that is, he must have seen the risen Lord. There is no NT record that Barnabas, called an apostle in Acts 14:14, saw Christ after His resurrection, but if such a qualification was implicit in apostleship, he must have been such an eyewitness.

6 "But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.
7 "And as you go, [a]preach, saying,
'The [b]kingdom of heaven is [c]at hand.'
8 "Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, [d]raise the dead,* cast out

9 "Provide neither [f]gold nor [f]silver

11 "Now whatever city or town you enter, inquire who in it is worthy, and stay there till you go out.
12 "And when you go into a household, greet it.
13 "If the household is worthy, let your peace come upon it. But if it is not worthy, let your peace return to
you.
14 "And whoever will not receive you nor hear your [h]words, when you depart from that house or city,

Therefore be wise as [m]serpents and harmless as [n]doves.
17 "But beware of men, for they will deliver you up to councils and scourge you in their synagogues.
18 "You will be brought before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles.
19 "But when they deliver you up,
[o]do not worry about how or what you should speak. For it will [p]be given to you in that hour what you should speak;
20 "for it is not you who speak, but the [q]Spirit of your Father who speaks in you.
21 "Now brother will deliver up brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death.
22 "And you will be hated by all for My name's sake. But he who [r]endures to the end will be saved.
23 "When they persecute you in this city, flee to another. For assuredly, I say to you, you will not have [s]gone through the cities of Israel before the [t]Son of Man [u]comes.

The cost and compensations of discipleship teacher, nor a servant above his master.

25 "It is enough for a disciple that he be like his teacher, and a servant like his master. If they have [v]called the master of the house Beelzebub,* how much more will they call those of his household!
26 "Therefore do not fear them.

10:5–15 The instructions for this mission differ from the Great Commission given just before our Lord's ascension. (1) Here the mission is to Israel only, avoiding Gentiles and Samaritans, whereas the Great Commission sends the disciples "into all the world" (Matt. 28:16–20; Mark 16:15–18; Luke 24:46–48; Acts 1:8). And (2) here the twelve, being heralds of Israel's King, are to depend upon the hospitality of each village that they enter (vv. 9–14), whereas at the end of His ministry Christ commands those who are to preach the Gospel in His absence to do the opposite (Luke 22:35–36). See also the practice implied in 3 John 7.

10:6 lost. Greek apollumi. Jer. 50:6; see John 3:16, note.

10:16 The scope of vv. 16–23 reaches beyond the personal ministry of the twelve. They cover not only the sphere of service in a general sense during this age, but the words of v. 23 make it apparent that they have in view particularly the preaching of the remnant (Is. 1:9; see Rom. 11:5, note) in the tribulation (Ps. 2:5; see Rev. 7:14, note), and immediately preceding the return of Christ in glory (see Deut. 30:3, note; Acts 1:11, note). The remnant then will not have gone over the cities of Israel until the Lord comes.

10:22 saved. The word "saved" is used here, not in the sense of the salvation of the soul but of deliverance out of persecution.

11 NOW it came to pass, when Jesus finished commanding
His twelve disciples, that He departed from there to [o]teach and to preach in their cities.
2 And when [p]John had heard in prison about the works of Christ, he sent two of * his disciples

[v]offended because of Me."

say to the multitudes concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

(1) "Peace with God" (Rom. 5:1); this peace is the work of Christ into which the individual enters by faith (Eph. 2:14–17; Rom. 5:1).

(2) "Peace from God" (Rom. 1:7; 1 Cor. 1:3, etc.), which is to be found in the salutation of all the epistles bearing Paul's name, and which emphasizes the source of all true peace.

(3) "Peace of God" (Phil. 4:7), inward peace, the state of the soul of the Christian who, having entered into peace with God, has committed all his anxieties to God through prayer and supplication with thanksgiving (Luke 7:50; Phil. 4:6–7); this phrase emphasizes the quality or the nature of the peace granted. And

(4) peace on earth (Ps. 72:7; 85:10; Is. 9:6–7; 11:1–12), universal peace on the earth during the millennium.

11 "Assuredly, I say to you, among those born of women there has not risen one greater than John the Baptist; but he who is [b]least in the [c]kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

'We played the flute for you,
And you did not dance;
We mourned to you,
And you did not lament.'

18 "For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a [j]demon.'
19 "The [k]Son of Man came [l]eating and drinking, and they say, 'Look, a glutton and a winebibber, a friend of tax collectors and [m]sinners!' But wisdom is justified by her children."*

Jesus denounces the indifferent

20 Then He began to rebuke the [n]cities in which most of His mighty works had been done, because they did not [o]repent:
21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.
22 "But I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the [p]day of judgment than for you.
23 "And you, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be* brought down to [q]Hades; for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in [r]Sodom, it would have remained until this day.
24 "But I say to you that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for you."

11:11 greater than he. Positionally greater, not morally. John the Baptist was as great, in strength of character, as any man "born of women" but, as to the kingdom, his ministry was to announce that it was at hand. The kingdom did not then come but was rejected, and John was martyred and the King subsequently crucified. The least in the kingdom, when it is set up in glory (see Kingdom [NT], Luke 1:31–33; 1 Cor. 15:24, note) will be greater than John in the fullness of the Lord's power and glory. It is not heaven which is in question, but Messiah's earthly kingdom. See Matt. 3:2, note; 6:33, note.

11:12 violence. It has been much disputed whether the violence (force) here is external, as against the kingdom in the persons of John the Baptist and Jesus; or that, considering the opposition of the scribes and Pharisees, only the violently resolute would press into it. Both things are true. The King and His herald suffered violence, and this is the primary and greater meaning; but also, some were resolutely becoming disciples. Compare Luke 16:16.

Elijah: my God is Jehovah. The Tishbite who was a great prophet of the Lord. He performed miracles and was taken to heaven in a chariot of fire.

11:20 The kingdom of heaven, announced as at hand by John the Baptist, by the King Himself, and by the twelve, and attested by mighty works, has been morally rejected. The places chosen for the testing of the nation, Chorazin, Bethsaida, etc., having rejected both John and Jesus, the rejected King now speaks of judgment. The official rejection was later (Matt. 27:21–25).

Sodom: burning. A city located in the Valley of Siddim known for its extreme wickedness and destroyed by God with fire and brimstone. Only Lot and his family survived the destruction.

Christ is Lord of the Sabbath
(Mark 2:23–28; Luke 6:1–5)

12 AT that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the [d]Sabbath. And His disciples were hungry, and began to [e]pluck heads of grain and to eat.
2 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to Him, "Look, Your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath!"
3 But He said to them, "Have you [f]not [g]read what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him:
4 "how he entered the house of God and ate the [h]showbread which was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests?
5 "Or have you not read in the [i]law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are blameless?
6 "Yet I say to you that in this place there is One [j]greater than the temple.
7 "But if you had known what this means, 'I desire [k]mercy and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the guiltless.

12:2 not lawful. It was lawful to glean grain (Deut. 23:24–25), but not on the Sabbath.

12:3 what David did. Jesus' action (vv. 1–8) is highly significant. "What David did" refers to the time of his rejection and persecution by Saul (1 Sam. 21:6). Jesus here is not so much the rejected Savior as the rejected King.

12:1 THE MEANING OF SABBATH

"Sabbath," from Hebrew shabbath (Greek sabbaton), means cessation from labor, rest.

(1) The Sabbath appears in Scripture as the day of God's rest in the finished work of creation (Gen. 2:2–3). During the long period from Eden to Sinai, no mention is made of it. Then the Sabbath was revealed to Israel (Ex. 16:23; Neh. 9:13–14), made a part of the law (Ex. 20:8–11), and invested with the character of a "sign" between the LORD and Israel, and a perpetual reminder to Israel of their separation to God (Ex. 31:13–17). It was observed by complete rest (Ex. 35:2–3); and by the LORD's express order a man was put to death for gathering sticks on the Sabbath day (Num. 15:32–36). Apart from maintaining the continued burnt offering (Num. 28:9), and its connection with the annual feasts (Ex. 12:16; Lev. 23:3,8; Num. 28:25), the seventh-day Sabbath was never made a day of sacrifice, worship, or any manner of religious service. It was simply and only a day of complete rest for man and beast, a humane provision for man's needs. In Christ's words, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath" (Mark 2:27).

(2) Our Lord found the observance of the day encrusted with rabbinical evasions and restrictions (Matt. 12:2), wholly unknown to the law, so that He was Himself held to be a Sabbath-breaker by the religious authorities of the time. The Sabbath will be again observed during the tribulation period (Matt. 24:20–21) and the Kingdom Age (Is. 66:23).

(3) The Christian first-day-rest perpetuates in the dispensation of the Church the principle that one-seventh of the time is especially sacred, but in all other respects is in contrast with the Sabbath. One is the seventh day; the other the first. The Sabbath commemorates God's creation-rest; the first day, Christ's resurrection. On the seventh day God rested; on the first day Christ was ceaselessly active. The Sabbath commemorates a finished creation; the first day, a finished redemption. The Sabbath was a day of legal obligation; the first day, one of voluntary worship and service. The Sabbath is mentioned in Acts only in connection with the Jews, and in the balance of the NT but twice (Col. 2:16; Heb. 4:4). In these passages the seventh-day Sabbath is explained to be, not a day to be observed by the Christians, but a type of the present rest into which the believer will enter when he "has himself also ceased from his works" and trusts Christ.

Jesus heals on the Sabbath (Mark 3:1–5; Luke 6:6–11)

9 Now when He had departed from there, He went into their synagogue.
10 And behold, there was a man who had a withered hand. And they asked Him, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"—that they might accuse Him.
11 Then He said to them, "What man is there among you who has one sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not lay hold of it and lift it out?
12 "Of how much more value then is a man than a sheep? Therefore it is lawful to do [a]good on the Sabbath."
13 Then He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was [b]restored as whole as the other.

Many others healed (Mark 3:6–12)

14 Then the Pharisees went out and plotted against Him, how they might [c]destroy Him.
15 But when Jesus knew it, He withdrew from there. And great multitudes* followed Him, and He healed them all.
16 Yet He [d]warned them not to make Him known,
17 that it might be fulfilled which was [e]spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

18 "Behold! My [f]Servant whom I have chosen,
My [g]Beloved in whom My soul is well pleased!
I will put My [h]Spirit upon Him,
And He will declare justice to the Gentiles.
19 He will not quarrel nor cry out,
Nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets.
20 A bruised reed He will not break,
And smoking flax He will not quench,
Till He sends forth justice to victory;
21 And in His name Gentiles will trust."

22 Then one was brought to Him who was [i]demon-possessed, blind and mute; and He [j]healed him, so that the blind and* mute man both spoke and saw.
23 And all the multitudes were amazed and said, "Could this be the [k]Son of David?"

The Pharisees blaspheme the Holy Spirit (Mark 3:22–30; Luke 11:14–23)

24 Now when the [l]Pharisees heard it they said, "This fellow does not cast out demons [m]except by Beelzebub,* the ruler of the [n]demons."
25 But Jesus knew their thoughts, and said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand.
26 "If [o]Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand?
27 "And if I cast out [p]demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your [q]sons cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges.
28 "But if I [r]cast out [s]demons by the [t]Spirit of God, surely the kingdom of God has come upon you.
29 "Or how can one enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house.
30 "He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad.

The unpardonable sin: ascribing to Satan the works of the Holy Spirit (Mark 3:28–30)

31 "Therefore I say to you, every [u]sin and blasphemy will be [v]forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the [w]Spirit will not be forgiven men.

(compare v. 24). Such a sin was unpardonable because of the unusual circumstances of their rejection of Christ. This most serious sin of the Pharisees was the climax of their continual denial of the obvious truth that the miracles of Jesus represented the power of God (e.g. 9:33–34), so that Jesus' message was heaven-authenticated. Their folly in deliberately apostatizing by ascribing to the devil the mighty works of Christ by the Holy Spirit is summarized by our Lord in Matt. 23:13–36 and Luke 11:52. Anyone who is concerned about his rejection of Christ has obviously not committed this "unpardonable sin," and can still come to Christ.

For the Lord would hardly include a mythical figure, as some call Jonah, in the identical context with these four historical references.

He would come back and find an empty house, etc. The application is to those who are depending upon self-reformation.

IV. The Mysteries of the Kingdom: the Period between the King's Two Advents, 13

(1) The sower and the soils (Mark 4:1–25; Luke 8:4–15)

13 ON the same day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the sea.

2 And great multitudes were gathered together to Him, so that He got into a [e]boat and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 Then He spoke many things to them in [f]parables, saying: "Behold, a [g]sower went out to sow.

4 "And as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds came and devoured them.

5 "Some fell on stony places, where they did not have much earth; and they immediately sprang up because they had no depth of earth.

6 "But when the sun was up they were scorched, and because they had no root they withered away.

7 "And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up and choked them.

8 "But others fell on good ground and yielded a crop: some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

9 "He who has [h]ears to hear, let him hear!"

(Private explanation to disciples vv. 10–17)

10 And the disciples came and said to Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?"

11 He answered and said to them, "Because it has been given to you to know the [i]mysteries of the [j]kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given.

12:46 Rejected by Israel, those of His own race (compare Rom. 9:3), our Lord intimates the formation of the new family of faith which will overstep the racial claims that Israel has known to this time and will receive all those ("whoever," v. 50) who will be His disciples. Compare John 6:28–29.

13:3 spoke . . . in parables. The seven parables of ch. 13, called by our Lord "mysteries of the kingdom of heaven" (v. 11), taken together describe the result of the presence of the Gospel in the world during the present age, that is, the time of seed-sowing which began with our Lord's personal ministry and will end with the "harvest" (vv. 40–43). The result is the mingled tares and wheat, good fish and bad, in the sphere of Christian profession. It is Christendom. sower. The figure marks a new beginning. To labor in God's vineyard (Israel, Is. 5:1–7) is one thing; to go forth sowing the seed of the Word in a field which is the world, quite another (compare Matt. 10:5). One-fourth of the seed takes permanent root, and the result is "wheat" (v. 25; 1 Pet. 1:23), or "sons of the kingdom" (v. 38). This parable (vv. 3–9) is treated throughout as foundational to the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven. It is interpreted by our Lord Himself (vv. 18–23).

13:11 MYSTERIES IN SCRIPTURE

A "mystery" in Scripture is a previously hidden truth now divinely revealed. This chapter shows clearly for the first time that there will be an interval between Christ's first and second advents (vv. 17,35; compare 1 Pet. 1:10–12).

The greater mysteries are:

(1) the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven (Matt. 13:3–50);

(2) the mystery of Israel's blindness during this age (Rom. 11:25, with context);

(3) the mystery of the translation of living saints at the end of this age (1 Cor. 15:51–52; 1 Thess. 4:13–17);

(4) the mystery of the NT Church as one body composed of Jews and Gentiles (Eph. 3:1–12; Rom. 16:25; Eph. 6:19; Col. 4:3);

(5) the mystery of the Church as the bride of Christ (Eph. 5:23–32);

(6) the mystery of the in-living Christ (Gal. 2:20; Col. 1:26–27);

(7) the "mystery of God, . . . and of Christ," that is, Christ as the incarnate fullness of the Godhead embodied, in whom all the divine wisdom for man subsists (1 Cor. 2:7; Col. 2:2,9);

(8) the mystery of the processes by which godlikeness is restored to man (1 Tim. 3:16);

(9) the mystery of lawlessness (2 Thess. 2:7; compare Matt. 13:33);

(10) the mystery of the seven stars (Rev. 1:20); and will be given, and he will have abundance; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from [a]him.

(11) the mystery of Babylon (Rev. 17:5,7).

13 "Therefore I speak to them in parables, [b]because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.

14 "And in them the [c]prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says:

'Hearing you will hear and shall not understand,
And seeing you will see and not [d]perceive;
15 For the hearts of this people have [e]grown dull.
Their ears are hard of hearing,
And their eyes they have [f]closed,
Lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears,
Lest they should understand with their hearts and turn,
So that I should [g]heal them.'

16 "But blessed are your eyes for they see, and your ears for they [h]hear;

17 "for assuredly, I say to you that many prophets and [i]righteous men [j]desired to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

18 [k]"Therefore hear the parable of the sower:

19 "When anyone hears the word of the [l]kingdom, and does not understand it, then the wicked [m]one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is he who received seed by the wayside.

20 "But he who received the seed on stony places, this is he who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy;

21 "yet he has no root in himself, but endures only for a while. For when [n]tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he stumbles.

22 "Now he who received seed among the thorns is he who hears the word, and the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes [o]unfruitful.

23 "But he who received seed on the good ground is he who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears [p]fruit and produces: some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty."

13:17 prophets. The OT prophets saw in one blended vision the rejection and crucifixion of the King (see Heb. 10:18, note), and also His glory as David's Son (see Zech. 12:8, note), but "what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ who was in them was indicating when He testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow," was not revealed to them—only that the vision was not for themselves (1 Pet. 1:10–12). That revelation Christ makes in these parables. A period of time is to intervene between His sufferings and His glory. That interval is occupied with the "mysteries of the kingdom of heaven" described here.

13:24 THE PARABLE OF THE SEED

This parable (vv. 24–30) is also interpreted by our Lord (vv. 36–43). Here the "good seed" is not the "word," as in the first parable (vv. 19,23), but rather that which the Word has produced (1 Pet. 1:23), that is, the children of the kingdom. These are providentially "sown" (v. 37), that is, scattered here and there in the "field" of the "world" (v. 38). The "world" here is both geographic and ethnic—the earth-world, and also the world of men. The wheat of God at once becomes the scene of Satan's activity. Where children of the kingdom are gathered, there, "among the wheat" (vv. 25,38,39), Satan sows "sons of the wicked one," who profess to be children of the kingdom and, in outward ways, are so like the true children that only the angels may, in the end, be trusted to separate them (vv. 40–43). So great is Satan's power of deception that the tares often really suppose themselves to be children of the kingdom (7:21–23).

Many other parables and exhortations have this mingled condition in view (e.g. 22:11–14; 25:1–13,14–30; Luke 18:10–14; Heb. 6:4–9). Indeed, it characterizes Matthew from ch. 13 to the end. The parable of the wheat and the tares is not a description of the world, but of that which professes to be the kingdom. Not all unbelievers are called children of the devil; only those who have willfully rejected the light are so designated (compare v. 38; John 8:38–44).

25 "but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed [a]tares among the wheat and went his way.
26 "But when the grain had sprouted and produced a crop, then the tares also appeared.
27 "So the servants of the owner came and said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have tares?'
28 "He said to them, 'An enemy has done this.' The servants said to him, 'Do you want us then to go and gather them up?'
29 "But he said, 'No, lest while you gather up the tares you also uproot the [b]wheat with them.
30 'Let [c]both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, "First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn." ' "

(3) The mustard seed (Mark 4:30–32)

31 Another parable He put forth to them, saying: "The [d]kingdom of heaven is like a [e]mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field,
32 "which indeed is the least of all the seeds; but when it is grown it is greater than the herbs and becomes a [f]tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches."

(4) The leaven (Luke 13:20–21)

33 Another parable He spoke to them: "The [g]kingdom of heaven is like [h]leaven, which a woman took and hid in three [i]measures* of meal till it was [j]all leavened."
34 All these things Jesus spoke to the multitude in parables; and without a parable He did not speak to them,

13:30 to burn them. This will have its fulfillment at the end of the age (v. 40), when Christ returns to reign. The wicked will be destroyed. The Church, translated before the tribulation, will be gathered into the millennial kingdom, together with those living believers who have survived the tribulation period (v. 43; 24:13; 25:31,34) and the resurrected righteous men and women of all the previous ages.

13:31 Another parable. The parable of the mustard seed suggests the rapid but unsubstantial growth of the mystery aspect of the kingdom (see 13:3, note) from a small beginning (Acts 1:15; 2:41; 1 Cor. 1:26) to a great place on the earth.

13:33 THE MEANING OF LEAVEN IN SCRIPTURE

It was common practice to retain a lump of leavened or fermented dough from a former baking and use it to leaven new dough. Under the Mosaic law, however, leaven was forbidden in bread used in the Feast of Unleavened Bread and the Passover (Ex. 12:8,15–20; Lev. 23:6–8), and similar exclusion of leaven applied to offerings placed on the altar (Ex. 23:18; 34:25; Lev. 2:11; 6:17). The only exceptions were the use of leaven in the two wave loaves offered as firstfruits (Lev. 23:17) and some of the cakes of bread offered with the thank offerings (Lev. 7:13, note).

Leaven, which brings about fermentation, is uniformly regarded in Scripture as typifying the presence of impurity or evil (Ex. 12:15,19; 13:7; Lev. 2:11; Deut. 16:4; Matt. 16:6,12; Mark 8:15; Luke 12:1; 1 Cor. 5:6–9; Gal. 5:9). The two wave loaves, representing Israel and the Gentiles as forming the Church, contained leaven in recognition of imperfections in the believers (see Lev. 23:17, note). The use of leaven in the flour seems intended likewise to represent evil within the kingdom of heaven. The teaching that leaven in this parable represents the beneficent influence of the Gospel pervading the world has no Scriptural justification. Nowhere in Scripture does leaven represent good; the idea of a converted world at the end of the age is contradicted by the presence of tares among the wheat and bad fish among the good in the kingdom itself. Although biblical truth has a beneficial moral influence on the world, the mingling of leaven is not the method of divine salvation or enlargement of the kingdom. Tares never become wheat. The parable is, therefore, a warning that true doctrine, represented by the flour, would be corrupted by false doctrine (compare 1 Tim. 4:1–3; 2 Tim. 2:17–18; 4:3–4; 2 Pet. 2:1–3).

Summary:

(1) Leaven, as a symbolic or typical substance, is always mentioned in the OT in an evil sense (Gen. 19:3, marg.).

(2) The use of the word in the NT explains its symbolic meaning. It is "malice and wickedness" as contrasted with "sincerity and truth" (1 Cor. 5:6–8). It is evil doctrine (Matt. 16:12) in its threefold form of Pharisaism, Sadduceeism, and Herodianism (Matt. 16:6; Mark 8:15). The leaven of the Pharisees was externalism in religion (Matt. 23:14–16,23–28); of the Sadducees, skepticism as to the supernatural and as to the Scriptures (Matt. 22:23,29); of the Herodians, worldliness—a Herod party among the Jews (Matt. 22:16–21; Mark 3:6). And

(3) the use of the word in Matt. 13:33 is congruous with its meaning elsewhere in the Scriptures, as denoted in the paragraphs above.

"I will open My mouth in (Second mystery [vv. 24–30] explained)

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away and went into the house. And His disciples came to Him, saying, [b]"Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field."

37 He answered and said to them:
"He who sows the good seed is the [c]Son of Man.

38 "The field is the world, the good seeds are the sons of the [d]kingdom, but the tares are the sons of the [e]wicked one.

39 "The enemy who sowed them is the [f]devil, the harvest is the [g]end of the age, and the reapers are the [h]angels.

40 [i]"Therefore as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the [j]end of this age.

41 "The [k]Son of Man will send out
His [l]angels, and they will gather out of His [m]kingdom all things that offend, and those who practice lawlessness,

42 "and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 "Then the [n]righteous will [o]shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

(5) The hidden treasure

44 "Again, the [p]kingdom of heaven is like [q]treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid; and for joy over it he goes and [r]sells all that he has and buys that field.

(6) The pearl of great price

45 "Again, the [s]kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking beautiful pearls,

46 "who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

(7) The dragnet

47 "Again, the [t]kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet that was cast into the sea and gathered some of every[u] kind,

48 "which, when it was full, they drew to shore; and they sat down and [v]gathered the good into vessels, but threw the bad away.

49 "So it will be at the [w]end of the age. The [x]angels will come forth,

13:43 Then the righteous. The kingdom does not become the kingdom of the Father until Christ, having "put all enemies under His feet," including the last enemy, death, "delivers the kingdom to God and Father" (1 Cor. 15:24–28). There is triumph over death at the first resurrection (1 Cor. 15:54–55), but death, "the last enemy," is not destroyed until the end of the millennium (Rev. 20:14).

13:45 pearls. The true Church is the pearl of great price. Its formation covers a large part of the period of the mysteries of the kingdom, and is itself called a mystery (Rom. 16:25–26; Eph. 3:3–12; 5:32; Col. 1:24–27). A pearl is an illustration of the Church: (1) A pearl is formed by accretion, and that not mechanically but vitally, as Christ adds to the Church (Acts 2:41,47; 5:14; 11:24; Eph. 2:21; Col. 2:19). And (2) Christ, having given Himself for the pearl, is now preparing it for presentation to Himself (Eph. 5:25–27). The kingdom is not the Church, but the true children of the kingdom during the fulfillment of these mysteries, baptized by one Spirit into one body (1 Cor. 12:12–13), compose the Church, the pearl.

13:44 THE PARABLE OF THE TREASURE

The interpretation of the parable of the treasure which makes the buyer of the field to be a sinner who is seeking Christ, has no warrant in the parable itself. The field is declared to be the world (v. 38). The seeking sinner does not buy, but forsakes the world to gain Christ. Furthermore, the sinner has nothing to sell; neither is Christ for sale or hidden in a field; nor, having found Christ, does the sinner hide Him again (compare Mark 7:24; Acts 4:20). At every point the interpretation breaks down.

The field is the world (v. 38), which was purchased by our Lord at the priceless cost of His own blood in order that He might have the treasure (1 Pet. 1:18). As Israel was God's treasure in OT times (Ex. 19:5; Ps. 135:4), so there is at the present time "a remnant [of Israel] according to the election of grace" (Rom. 11:5). Those who compose the remnant are no longer reckoned as Jews (Gal. 3:28) but as members of the "one body" together with saved Gentiles (Eph. 2:14–18; 4:4) and thus Christ's inheritance (Eph. 1:18) and His joy (Heb. 12:2).

[a]separate the wicked from among the [b]just,
50 "and cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth."
51 Jesus said to them,* "Have you understood all these things?" They said to Him, "Yes, Lord."*

(8) The householder

52 Then He said to them, "Therefore every [c]scribe instructed concerning* the [d]kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out of his treasure things new and old."

Last visit to Nazareth
(Mark 6:1–6; contrast Luke 4:16–32)

53 Now it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these parables, that He departed from there.
54 When He had come to His own country, He taught them in their synagogue, so that they were [e]astonished and said, "Where did this Man get this wisdom and these mighty works?
55 "Is this not the [f]carpenter's son? Is not His mother called Mary? And His brothers [g]James, Joses,* Simon, and Judas?
56 "And His sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this Man get all these things?"
57 So they were [h]offended at Him. But Jesus said to them, "A [i]prophet is not without [j]honor except in his own [k]country and in his own house."
58 Now He did not do many mighty works there [l]because of their unbelief.

Murder of John the Baptist
(Mark 6:14–29; Luke 9:7–9)

14 AT that time Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Jesus
2 and said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him."
3 For Herod had laid hold of John and bound him, and put him in [m]prison for the sake of [n]Herodias, his brother Philip's wife.
4 Because John had said to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her."
5 And although he wanted to put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.
6 But when Herod's birthday was celebrated, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod.
7 Therefore he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask.

13:47 THE PARABLE OF THE DRAGNET

The parable of the dragnet presents, as does that of the wheat and the tares, the mystery of the kingdom as the sphere of profession, but with this difference: there Satan was the active agent; here the admixture is more the result of the tendency of a movement to gather to itself that which is not really of it. The kingdom of heaven is like a net which, cast into the sea of humanity, gathers of every kind, good and bad. These remain together in the net (v. 49) and not merely in the sea until the end of the age. It is not even a converted net, much less a converted sea. Much violence has been done to sound exegesis by the notion that the world is to be converted in this age. Against that notion stands our Lord's own interpretation of the parables of the sower, the wheat and the tares, and the net.

Such, then, is the mystery form of the kingdom (see Matt. 3:2, note; 6:33, note). It is the sphere of Christian profession during this age. It is a mingled body of true and false, wheat and tares, good and bad. It is defiled by formalism, doubt, and worldliness. But within it Christ sees the true children of the true kingdom who, at the end, are to "shine forth like the sun." In the great field, the world, He sees His treasure that He redeems for His own through His cross. Thus, in this aspect of the kingdom, He sees the Church, His body and bride composed of believing Israelites and Gentiles and for joy sells all that He has (2 Cor. 8:9) and buys the field, the treasure, and the pearl.

by her mother, said, "Give me [a]John the Baptist's head here on a platter."
9 And the king was [b]sorry; nevertheless, because of the oaths and because of those who sat with him, he commanded it to be given to her.
10 So he sent and had John beheaded in prison.
11 And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother.
12 Then his disciples came and took away the body and buried it, and went and told Jesus.
13 When Jesus heard it, He [c]departed from there by boat to a deserted place by Himself. But when the multitudes heard it, they followed Him on foot from the cities.
14 And when Jesus went out He saw a great multitude; and He was moved with [d]compassion for them, and healed their sick.

Five thousand fed (Mark 6:30–44; Luke 9:10–17; John 6:1–14)

15 When it was evening, His disciples came to Him, saying, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is already late. Send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages and buy themselves food."
16 But Jesus said to them, "They do not need to go away. You [e]give them something to eat."
17 And they said to Him, "We have here only five loaves and two fish."
18 He said, "Bring them here to Me."
19 Then He [f]commanded the multitudes to sit down on the grass. And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He [g]blessed and broke and gave the loaves to the disciples; and the disciples gave to the multitudes.
20 [h]So they all ate and were filled, and they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments that [i]remained.
21 Now those who had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Jesus walks on the water (Mark 6:45–52; John 6:15–21)

22 Immediately Jesus made His disciples get into the boat and go before Him to the other side, while He [j]sent the multitudes away.
23 And when He had sent the multitudes away, He went up on the [k]mountain by Himself to pray. Now when evening came, He was alone there.
24 But the boat was now in the middle of the sea,* tossed by the waves, for the wind was contrary.
25 Now in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went to them, [l]walking on the sea.
26 And when the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, [m]"It is a ghost!" And they cried out for fear.
27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Be of good [n]cheer! It is I; do not be afraid."
28 And Peter answered Him and said, "Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water."
29 So He said, "Come." And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he [o]walked on the water to go to Jesus.
30 But when he saw that the [p]wind was boisterous,* he was afraid; and beginning to sink he cried out, saying, [q]"Lord, save me!"
31 And immediately Jesus stretched out His hand and caught him, and said to him, "O you of [r]little faith, why did you [s]doubt?"
32 And when they got into the boat, the wind [t]ceased.
33 Then those who were in the boat came and* worshiped Him, saying, "Truly You are the [u]Son of God."

God's commandments versus man's tradition (Mark 7:1–13)

15 THEN the scribes and Pharisees who were from Jerusalem came to Jesus, saying,

2 "Why do Your disciples transgress the [d]tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread."

3 He answered and said to them, "Why do you also transgress the [e]commandment of God because of your tradition?

4 "For God [f]commanded, saying, 'Honor your father and your mother'; and, 'He who curses father or mother, let him [g]be put to death.'

5 "But you say, 'Whoever says to his father or mother, "Whatever profit you might have received from me is a [h]gift to God"—

6 'then he need not honor his father or mother.'* Thus you have made the [i]commandment* of God of [j]no effect by your tradition.

7 "Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about you, [k]saying:

But their heart is far from Me.
9 And in vain they worship Me,

Diagnosis of the heart of man (Mark 7:14–23)

10 When He had called the multitude to Himself, He said to them, "Hear and understand:

11 [n]"Not what goes into the mouth defiles a man; but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man."

12 Then His disciples came and said to Him, "Do You know that the [o]Pharisees were offended when they heard this saying?"

13 But He answered and said, "Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted.

14 "Let them alone. They are [p]blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind leads the blind, both will fall into a ditch."

15 Then Peter answered and said to Him, "Explain this parable to us."

16 So Jesus said, "Are you also still without understanding?

17 "Do you not yet understand that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and is eliminated?

18 "But those things which proceed out of the mouth come from the [q]heart, and they defile a man.

19 "For out of the heart proceed [r]evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies.

20 "These are [s]the things which defile a man, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man."

Jesus and the Syro-Phoenician woman (Mark 7:24–30)

21 Then Jesus went out from there and departed to the region of Tyre and Sidon.

22 And behold, a woman of Canaan came from that region and [t]cried out to Him, saying, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, [u]Son of David! My daughter is severely [v]demon-possessed."

23 But He answered her not a word. And His disciples came and urged Him, saying, "Send her away, for she cries out after us."

24 But He answered and said, "I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the [w]house of Israel."

25 Then she came and worshiped Him, [x]saying, "Lord, [y]help me!"

26 But He answered and said, "It is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the little [z]dogs."

Tyre and Sidon: Two ancient Phoenician cities located north of Palestine on the east coast of the Mediterranean Sea.

15:24 lost. Greek apollumi. See John 3:16, note.

27 And she [a]said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters' table."
28 Then Jesus answered and said to her, "O woman, [b]great is your [c]faith! Let it be to you [d]as you desire." And her daughter was [e]healed from that very hour.

Further healing (cp. Mark 7:31–37)

29 Jesus departed from there, skirted the Sea of Galilee, and went up on the mountain and sat down there.
30 Then great multitudes came to Him, having with them the lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others; and they laid them down at Jesus' [f]feet, and He healed them.
31 So the multitude marveled when they saw the mute speaking, the maimed made whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing; and they [g]glorified the God of Israel.

Four thousand fed (Mark 8:1–9)

32 Now Jesus called His disciples to Himself and said, "I have [h]compassion on the multitude, because they have now continued with Me three days and have nothing to eat. And I do not want to send them away hungry, lest they faint on the way."
33 Then His disciples said to Him, "Where could we get enough bread in the wilderness to fill such a great [i]multitude?"
34 Jesus said to them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven, and a few little fish."
35 So He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.
36 And He took the seven loaves and the fish and gave thanks, broke them and gave them to His disciples; and the disciples gave to the multitude.
37 [j]So they all ate and were filled, and they took up seven large baskets full of the fragments that were left.
38 Now those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children.
39 And He sent away the multitude, got into the boat, and came to the region of Magdala.*

The blind Pharisees rebuked (Mark 8:10–14)

16 THEN the [k]Pharisees and [k]Sadducees came, and [l]testing Him asked that He would show them a sign from heaven.
2 He answered and said to them, "When it is evening you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red';
3 "and in the morning, 'It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.' Hypocrites!* You know how to discern the face of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the [m]times.
4 "A wicked and adulterous [n]generation seeks after a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the [o]sign of the prophet* Jonah." And He left them and departed.
5 Now when His disciples had come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

Symbol of leaven explained (Mark 8:15–21)

6 Then Jesus said to them, "Take heed and beware of the [p]leaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees."
7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have taken no bread."
8 But Jesus, being aware of it, said to them, "O you of little faith, why do you reason among yourselves because you have brought no bread?*
9 "Do you not yet understand, or [q]remember the five loaves of the five thousand and how many baskets you took up?
10 [r]"Nor the seven loaves of the four thousand and [s]how many large baskets you took up?
11 "How is it you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread?—but to beware of the [t]leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."
12 Then they understood that He did not tell them to beware of the [u]leaven of bread, but of the [v]doctrine of the [w]Pharisees and [w]Sadducees.

Peter's confession of Christ
(Mark 8:27–30; Luke 9:18–21; cp. John 6:68–69)

13 When Jesus came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, saying, [a]"Who do [b]men say that I, the [c]Son of Man, am?"

14 So they said, "Some say [d]John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or [e]one of the prophets."

15 He said to them, "But who do [f]you say that I am?"

16 Simon Peter answered and said, "You are the [g]Christ, the Son of the living God."

First mention of the Church

17 Jesus answered and said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah, for [h]flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but My [i]Father who is in heaven.

18 "And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this [j]rock I will build My [k]church, and the gates of [l]Hades shall not prevail against it.

19 "And I will give you the [m]keys of the [n]kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed* in heaven."

20 Then He commanded His disciples that they should tell no one that He was Jesus the Christ.

Christ foretells His death and resurrection
(Mark 8:31–33; Luke 9:22)

21 From that time Jesus began to show to His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem, and [o]suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and [p]scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day.

22 Then Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, "Far be it from You, Lord; this shall not happen to You!"

23 But He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, [q]Satan! You are an offense to Me, for you are not mindful of the things of God, but the things of men."

Cost of discipleship
(Mark 8:34–38; Luke 9:23–26)

24 Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and [r]take up his cross, and [s]follow Me.

25 "For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it.

16:19 THE KEYS OF THE KINGDOM

These are not the keys of the Church but of the kingdom of heaven in the sense of ch. 13, that is, the sphere of Christian profession. A key is a badge of power or authority (compare Is. 22:22; Rev. 3:7). The apostolic history explains and limits this trust, for it was Peter who opened the door of Christian opportunity to Israel on the Day of Pentecost (Acts 2:38–42) and to Gentiles in the house of Cornelius (Acts 10:34–48). There was no assumption by Peter of any other authority (Acts 15:7–11). In the council James, not Peter, seems to have presided (Acts 15:19; compare Gal. 2:11–14). Peter claimed no more for himself than to be an apostle by gift (1 Pet. 1:1) and an elder by office (1 Pet. 5:1).

The power of binding and loosing was shared (Matt. 18:18) by the apostles and other believers (John 20:22–23, where see note; compare Luke 24:33). An illustration of Peter's use of this authority as related to forgiveness (John 20:23) is given in Acts 10:43. See also Paul's use of it in Acts 13:38–39. The keys of death and the place of departed spirits are held by the Lord Jesus Christ alone (Rev. 1:18).

16:17 Bar-Jonah. Meaning son of Jonah.

16:18 Peter. In the Greek there is a play upon words in this statement: "You are Peter [petros, a stone], and upon this rock [petra, a massive rock] I will build My church." It is upon Christ Himself that the Church is built. See what the Apostle Peter writes (1 Pet. 2:4–8); compare also Paul's statement (1 Cor. 3:11). church. The word "church" (Greek ekklēsia, from a verb meaning to call out) is used of any assembly and in itself implies no more than a gathering of people who have been called forth, e.g. the town meeting at Ephesus (Acts 19:41), and Israel, called out of Egypt and assembled in the wilderness (Acts 7:38). Israel was a "church," but not in any sense the NT church—the primary point of similarity being that both were "called out" and by the same God. See Acts 7:38 and Heb. 12:23, notes.

16:20 commanded. The disciples had been proclaiming Jesus as the Christ, that is, the covenanted King of a kingdom promised to the Jews and at hand. The Church, on the contrary, must be built upon testimony to Him as crucified, risen from the dead, ascended, and made "head over all things to the church" (Eph. 1:20–23). The former testimony was ended; the new testimony was not yet ready because the blood of the new covenant had not yet been shed, but our Lord began to speak of His death and resurrection (v. 21). It is a turning point of immense significance. Jesus. Many manuscripts omit the word Jesus.

26 "For what [a]profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?
27 "For the Son of Man will [b]come in the [c]glory of His Father with His angels, and then He will [d]reward each [e]according to his works.
28 "Assuredly, I say to you, there are some standing here who shall not taste death till they see the Son of Man coming in His [f]kingdom."

The transfiguration:
a foreview of the future kingdom
(Mark 9:2–13; Luke 9:28–36)

17 NOW after six days Jesus took Peter, [g]James, and John his brother, led them up on a high mountain by themselves;
2 and He was [h]transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light.
3 And behold, Moses and Elijah [i]appeared to them, talking with Him.
4 Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if You wish, let us* make here three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."
5 While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them; and suddenly a [j]voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is My beloved [k]Son, in whom I am well pleased. Hear Him!"
6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces and were greatly afraid.
7 But Jesus came and touched them and said, "Arise, and do not be afraid."
8 When they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.
9 Now as they came down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man is risen
[l]from the dead."
10 And His disciples asked Him, saying, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"
11 Jesus answered and said to them, "Indeed, [m]Elijah is coming first* and will restore all things.
12 "But I say to you that Elijah has come already, and they did not know him but did to him whatever they wished. Likewise the Son of Man is also about to suffer at their hands."
13 Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them of John the Baptist.

The powerless disciples:
the mighty Christ
(Mark 9:14–29; Luke 9:37–43)

14 And when they had come to the multitude, a man came to Him,
[n]kneeling down to Him and saying,
15 "Lord, have mercy on my son,
for he is an epileptic* and [o]suffers severely; for he often falls into the fire and often into the water.

17:10 Compare Mal. 3:1; 4:5–6; Matt. 11:14; Mark 9:11–13; Luke 1:17. All the passages must be taken together. (1) Christ confirms the specific and still unfulfilled prophecy of Mal. 4:5–6: "Elijah is coming first and will restore all things." Here, as in Malachi, the prediction fulfilled in John the Baptist, and that yet to be fulfilled in Elijah, are kept distinct. (2) But John the Baptist had come already, and with a ministry so completely in the spirit and power of Elijah's future ministry (Luke 1:17) that in a typical sense, it could be said: "Elijah has come already." Compare Matt. 10:40; Phile. 12,17, where the same thought of identification, although still preserving personal distinction, occurs (compare John 1:21).

17:2 CHRIST'S TRANSFIGURATION

The transfiguration scene contains, in miniature, all the elements of the future kingdom in manifestation (2 Pet. 1:15–21):

(1) the Lord Jesus, not in humiliation but in glory (v. 2);

(2) Moses, in glory, representative of the redeemed who have passed through death into the kingdom (Matt. 13:43; compare Luke 9:30–31);

(3) Elijah, in glory, representative of the redeemed who have entered the kingdom by translation (1 Cor. 15:50–53; 1 Thess. 4:13–17);

(4) Peter, James, and John, not glorified, representatives, for the moment, of Israel in the flesh in the future kingdom (Ezek. 37:21–27); and

(5) the crowd at the foot of the mountain (v. 14), representative of those who are to be brought into the kingdom after it is established over Israel (Is. 11:10–12; etc.).

16 "So I brought him to Your disciples, but they could not cure him."
17 Then Jesus answered and said, "O [a]faithless and [b]perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him here to Me."
18 And Jesus [c]rebuked the [d]demon, and it came out of him; and the child was [e]cured from that very hour.
19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, [f]"Why could we not cast it out?"
20 So Jesus said to them, "Because of your [g]unbelief;* for assuredly, I say to you, if you have [h]faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.
21 "However, this kind does not go out except by prayer and [i]fasting."*

Jesus again foretells His death and resurrection (Mark 9:30–32; Luke 9:43–45)

22 Now while they were staying* in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The [j]Son of Man is about to be [k]betrayed into the hands of men, 23 "and they will kill Him, and the third day He will be raised up." And they were exceedingly [l]sorrowful.

The miracle of the temple tax from the mouth of a fish (cp. Mark 12:13–17)

24 When they had come to Capernaum,* those who received the [m]temple tax came to Peter and said, "Does your Teacher not pay the temple tax?"
25 He said, "Yes." And when he had come into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth take customs or taxes, from their sons or from [n]strangers?"
26 Peter said to Him, "From strangers." Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are free.
27 "Nevertheless, lest we offend them, go to the sea, cast in a hook, and take the fish that comes up first. And when you have opened its mouth, you will [o]find a [p]piece of money;* take that and give it to them for Me and you."

Childlike faith necessary for entrance into the kingdom of heaven (Mark 9:33–50; Luke 9:46–50)

18 AT that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who then is [q]greatest in the [r]kingdom of heaven?"
2 Then Jesus called a little [s]child to Him, set him in the midst of them,
3 and said, "Assuredly, I say to you, unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the [t]kingdom of heaven.
4 "Therefore whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the [u]kingdom of heaven.
5 "Whoever receives one little child like this in My name receives Me.
6 "But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 "Woe to the world because of offenses! For offenses must come, but woe to that man by whom the offense comes!
8 [v]"If your hand or foot causes you to sin, cut it off and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into [w]life lame or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet, to be cast into the everlasting fire.
9 "And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than hav-

Discipline and forgiveness in the church; agreement in prayer (Luke 17:3–4)

15 "Moreover if your [g]brother [h]sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother.

16 "But if he will not hear, take with you one or two more, that 'by the mouth of [i]two or three witnesses every word may be established.'

17 "And if he refuses to hear them, tell it to the church. But if he refuses even to hear the church, let him be to you like a [j]heathen and a tax collector.

18 "Assuredly, I say to you, whatever you [k]bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

19 "Again I say* to you that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they [l]ask, it will be done for them by My Father in heaven.

20 "For where two or three are gathered [m]together in My name, I am there in the midst of them."

21 Then Peter came to Him and said, "Lord, how [n]often shall my brother [o]sin against me, and I [p]forgive him? Up to seven times?"

22 Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you, up to seven times, but up to [q]seventy times seven.

23 "Therefore the [r]kingdom of heaven is [s]like a certain king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants.

24 "And when he had begun to settle accounts, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand [t]talents.

25 "But as he was [u]not able to pay, his master commanded that he be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and that payment be made.

26 "The servant therefore fell down before him, saying, 'Master, have patience with me, and I will pay you all.'

27 "Then the master of that servant was moved with compassion, released him, and [v]forgave him the debt.

28 "But that servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred [w]denarii; and he laid hands on him and took him by the throat, saying, 'Pay me what you owe!'

29 "So his fellow servant fell down at his feet* and begged him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you all.'*

30 "And he [x]would not, but went and threw him into prison till he should pay the debt.

31 "So when his fellow servants saw what had been done, they were very grieved, and came and told their master all that had been done.

32 "Then his master, after he had called him, said to him, 'You wicked servant! I [y]forgave you [z]all that debt because you begged me.

Jesus teaches concerning divorce
(cp. 5:31–32; Mark 10:1–12;
Luke 16:18; Rom. 7:1–3;
1 Cor. 7:10–16)

19 NOW it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these sayings, that He [b]departed from Galilee and came to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan.
2 And great multitudes followed
Him, and He [c]healed them there.
3 The Pharisees also came to Him, [d]testing Him, and saying to Him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for just any reason?"
4 And He answered and said to them, "Have you not [e]read [f]that He who made* them at the beginning 'made them male and female,' *
5 "and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and [g]the two shall become one flesh'?
6 "So then, they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate."
7 They said to Him, "Why then did Moses [h]command to give a certificate of divorce, and to put her away?"
8 He said to them, "Moses, because of the [i]hardness of your hearts, permitted you to divorce your [j]wives, but from the beginning it was not so.
9 "And I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality,* and marries another, commits adultery; and whoever marries her who is divorced commits adultery."
10 His disciples said to Him, "If such is the case of the man with his wife, it is better not to marry."
11 But He said to them, [k]"All cannot accept this saying, but only those to whom it has been given:
12 "For there are eunuchs who were born thus from their mother's womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have [l]made themselves eunuchs for the [m]kingdom of heaven's [n]sake. He who is able to accept it, let him accept it."

Jesus blesses little children
(Mark 10:13–16; Luke 18:15–17)

13 Then little children were brought to Him that He might put His hands on them and pray, but the disciples [o]rebuked them.
14 But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of [p]such is the [q]kingdom of heaven."
15 And He laid His hands on them and departed from there.

to be [a]perfect, go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

23 Then Jesus said to His disciples, "Assuredly, I say to you that it is hard for a [b]rich man to [c]enter the [d]kingdom of heaven.

24 "And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle [e]than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

(Mark 10:28–31; Luke 18:28–30)

27 Then Peter answered and said to Him, "See, we have left all and followed You. Therefore what shall we have?"

28 So Jesus said to them, "Assuredly I say to you, that in the regeneration, [h]when the Son of Man sits on the [i]throne of His glory, you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 "And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife* or children or lands, for My name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and inherit eternal [j]life.

19:16 MISTAKES OF THE RICH YOUNG MAN

The rich young man made four mistakes, each of which was met by the Lord with unerring wisdom:

(1) His mistake about the Person of Christ, thinking Him only a good teacher, was answered by the inescapable dilemma—either He is God or He is not a good man (v. 17).

(2) His mistake about the way of eternal life, supposing it could be earned by works, was met by confronting him with the high demands of divine law (v. 17).

(3) His mistake about himself, thinking he had kept the law (v. 20), was answered by testing him as to works of righteousness (v. 21) and opening his eyes to his failure (v. 22). And

(4) his most tragic mistake was in not heeding the final words of Christ, "Come, follow Me" (v. 21); for therein was offered gracious hope for a sinner.

In the Lord's explanation to the disciples, after the incident, He made it clear that salvation is never won by human attainment, but that "with God all things are possible" (vv. 24–26)—even the salvation of those who love riches. Salvation has always been by God's grace to the sinner, through his faith in Christ's atoning sacrifice. See John 1:17, note.

19:24 needle. Greek raphis, a sewing needle.

19:28 regeneration. The word "regeneration," (Greek palingenesia meaning new birth, renewal, re-creation) occurs only one other time in the NT, in Titus 3:5. There it refers to the Christian's new birth; here, to the re-creation of the social order and renewal of the earth (Is. 11:6–9; Rom. 8:19–23) when the kingdom comes. See Restoration (Acts 3:21, note); Kingdom, OT (Zech. 12:8, note); Kingdom, NT (1 Cor. 15:24, note). judging the twelve tribes. Our Lord's prediction discloses how the promise of Is. 1:26 will be fulfilled when the kingdom is set up. The kingdom will be administered over Israel through the apostles, according to the ancient theocratic judgeship (Judg. 2:18).

20:1 laborers. The complaint of these laborers (vv. 11–12) reveals their character. They had been dealt with fairly; they protested because others had been dealt with generously.

20:3 third hour. 9 A.M. See John 19:14, note.

20:5 sixth. Noon. ninth hour. 3 P.M.

20:6 eleventh hour. 5 P.M.

7 "They said to him, 'Because no one hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right you will receive.'*
8 "So when [a]evening had come, the owner of the vineyard said to his steward, 'Call the laborers and give them their wages, beginning with the last to the first.'
9 "And when those came who were hired about the eleventh hour, they each [b]received a denarius.
10 "But when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise [c]received each a denarius.
11 "And when they had received it, they [d]complained against the landowner,
12 "saying, 'These last men have worked only one hour, and you made them [e]equal to us who have borne the burden and the heat of the day.'
13 "But he answered one of them and said, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denarius?
14 'Take what is yours and go your way. I wish to give to this last man the same as to you.
15 'Is it not lawful for me to do [f]what I wish with my own things? Or is your eye evil because I am good?'
16 "So the [g]last will be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few chosen."*

Jesus again predicts His death and resurrection (Mark 10:32–34; Luke 18:31–34; cp. also Matt. 12:28–42; 16:21–28; 17:22–23)

17 Now Jesus, going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples aside on the road and said to them,
18 "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the [h]Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death,
19 "and deliver Him to the [i]Gentiles to [j]mock and to [k]scourge and to [l]crucify. And the third day He will [m]rise again."

Christ's response to request of the mother of James and John (Mark 10:35–45)

20 Then the mother of Zebedee's sons came to Him with her sons, kneeling down and asking something from Him.
21 And He said to her, "What do you wish?" She said to Him, "Grant that these two sons of mine may [n]sit, one on Your right hand and the other on the left, in Your [o]kingdom."
22 But Jesus answered and said, "You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the [p]cup that I am about to drink, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"* They said to Him, "We are able."
23 So He said to them, "You will indeed drink My cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized [q]with;* but to [r]sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it is prepared by My Father."
24 And when the ten heard it, they were greatly [s]displeased with the two brothers.
25 But Jesus called them to Himself and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who are great exercise authority over them.
26 "Yet it shall [t]not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your [u]servant.
27 "And whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave—
28 "just as the [v]Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a [w]ransom for many."

20:9 eleventh hour. 5 P.M.

30 And behold, two blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, [a]Son of David!"

31 Then the multitude [b]warned them that they should be quiet; but they cried out all the more, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David!"

32 So Jesus stood still and called them, and said, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

33 They said to Him, "Lord, that our eyes may be opened."

34 So Jesus had [c]compassion and touched their eyes. And [d]immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.

21 NOW when they drew near Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage,* at the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples,

2 saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Loose them and bring them to Me.

3 "And if anyone says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Lord has [e]need of them,' and immediately he will send them."

4 All* this was done that it might be fulfilled which was [f]spoken by the prophet, saying:

5 "Tell the daughter of Zion,
'Behold, your [g][h]King is [i]coming to you,
Lowly, and sitting on a donkey,
A colt, the foal of a donkey.' "*

6 So the disciples went and did as Jesus commanded them.

7 They brought the donkey and the colt, laid their clothes on them, and set *Him on them.

8 And a very great multitude spread their [j]clothes on the road; others cut down branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

9 Then the multitudes who went before and those who followed cried out, saying:

"Hosanna to the Son of David!
'Blessed[k] is He who [l]comes in the name of the LORD!'
Hosanna in the highest!"

10 And when He had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, "Who is this?"

11 So the multitudes said, "This is Jesus, the [m]prophet from Nazareth of Galilee."

20:30 THE MIRACLE OF THE BLIND MEN

A twofold discrepancy is alleged to exist between the account of this miracle in Matt. 20:29–34 and those in Mark 10:46–52 and Luke 18:35–43: the subjects, and time of the healing. Two blind men were involved; Bartimaeus, the more active, is mentioned by name in Mark. Nothing is known of the other. Luke states that the time of the healing was before Christ entered Jericho; Matthew and Mark place it at His departure from the city. An explanation is possible on one of two grounds: (1) the healing could have taken place after our Lord left the old Jericho, and was drawing near the new Jericho, which Herod the Great had built some distance away; and (2) the blind men could have entreated the Lord for healing when He approached the city, but were healed as He departed from it.

21:1–9. Compare Zech. 14:4–9. The two advents are in striking contrast.

21:4 fulfilled. Here was the King's final and official offer of Himself, in accord with the prophecy of Zech. 9:9. Acclaimed by an unthinking multitude whose real belief is expressed in v. 11, but with no welcome from the official representatives of the nation, He was soon to hear the multitude shout: "Crucify Him!" (27:22,23; compare Mark 15:13,14; Luke 23:21).

14 Then the [a]blind and the lame came to Him in the temple, and He healed them.

15 But when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that He did, and the children crying out in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the [b]Son of David!" they were indignant

16 and said to Him, "Do You hear what these are saying?" And Jesus said to them, "Yes. Have you never [c]read,

'Out[d] of the mouth of babes and nursing infants
You have perfected praise'?"

17 Then He left them and [e]went out of the city to Bethany, and He lodged there.

The barren fig tree
(Mark 11:12–14,20–26)

18 Now in the morning, as He returned to the city, He was [f]hungry.

19 And seeing a fig tree by the road, He came to it and found nothing on it but leaves, and said to it, "Let no fruit grow on you ever again." Immediately the fig tree [g]withered away.

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree wither away so soon?"

21 So Jesus answered and said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you, if you have [h]faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but also if you say to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' it will be done.

22 "And [i]whatever things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."

Jesus' authority challenged
(Mark 11:27–33; Luke 20:1–8)

23 Now when He came into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people confronted Him as He was teaching, and said, "By what authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority?"

24 But Jesus answered and said to them, "I also will ask you one thing, which if you tell Me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things:

25 "The [j]baptism of [k]John—where was it from? From heaven or from men?" And they [l]reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?'

26 "But if we say, 'From men,' we [m]fear the multitude, for all count John as a [n]prophet."

27 So they answered Jesus and said, "We do not know." And He said to them, [o]"Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

Parable of the two sons

28 "But what do you think? [p]A man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go, work today in my [q]vineyard.'

29 "He answered and said, 'I will not,' but afterward he [r]regretted it and went.

30 "Then he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, 'I go, sir,' but he did not go.

31 "Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said to Him, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you that tax collectors and harlots enter the [s]kingdom of God before you.

32 "For John came to you in the way of [t]righteousness, and you did not believe him; but tax collectors and harlots [u]believed him; and when you saw it, you did not afterward relent and believe him.

With no other place was the human Christ so tenderly associated. Here also was manifested His divine power in the resurrection of Lazarus (John 11:41–44).

built a tower. And he leased it to vinedressers and went into a far country.

34 "Now when vintage-time drew near, he sent his servants to the [a]vinedressers, that they might receive its fruit.

35 "And the vinedressers took his servants, beat one, killed one, and stoned another.

36 "Again he sent other servants, more than the first, and they did likewise to them.

37 "Then last of all he [b]sent his [c]son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

38 "But when the vinedressers saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the [d]heir. Come, let us [e]kill him and seize his inheritance.'

39 "So they took him and cast him out of the vineyard and killed him.

40 "Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vinedressers?"

41 They said to Him, "He will destroy those wicked men miserably, and lease his vineyard to other vinedressers who will render to him the fruits in their seasons."

42 Jesus said to them, "Have you never [f]read in the Scriptures:

Has become the [h]chief cornerstone.
This was the LORD'S doing,
And it is marvelous in our eyes'?

Compare Is. 5:1–7. kingdom of God. Our Lord here uses the expression "kingdom of God," referring to a sphere of genuine faith in God, in contrast with His usual expression "kingdom of heaven." The kingdom of God is declared to be "taken from you," that is, taken from the scribes and Pharisees represented in the parable as the wicked vinedressers, and given to a people who will bring forth the fruits of salvation. This passage teaches that unbelieving scribes and Pharisees would not be saved, because of their rejection of the Son. Others who will manifest the fruits of salvation take their place. Neither in the present age nor in the future millennium is the kingdom of God the exclusive possession of either Israel or the Gentiles.

21:44 CHRIST AS THE STONE

Christ as the Stone is revealed in a threefold way:

(1) To Israel, Christ, coming not in Messianic glory but in the form of a Servant, is a Stumbling Stone and Rock of offense (Is. 8:14–15; Rom. 9:32–33; 1 Cor. 1:23; 1 Pet. 2:8).

(2) To the Church, Christ is the Foundation Stone and the Chief Cornerstone (1 Cor. 3:11; Eph. 2:20–22; 1 Pet 2:4–5). And

(3) to the Gentile world powers (see Times of the Gentiles, Luke 21:24, note; Rev. 16:19, note), Christ is to be the Striking Stone of destruction (Dan. 2:34). Israel stumbled over Christ; the Church is built upon Christ; Gentile world dominion will be crushed by Christ. See Armageddon, Rev. 16:13–16; 19:17, note.

it, he was furious. And he sent out his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 "Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy.

9 'Therefore go into the highways, and as many as you find, invite to the wedding.'

10 "So those servants went out into the [a]highways and gathered together all whom they found, both bad and good. And the wedding hall was filled with guests.

11 "But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw a man there who did not have on a wedding garment.

12 "So he said to him, [b]'Friend, how did you come in here without a [c]wedding garment?' And he was [d]speechless.

13 "Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and* cast him into [e]outer darkness; there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

14 "For [f]many are called, but few are chosen."

Jesus answers the Herodians (Mark 12:13–17; Luke 20:20–26)

15 Then the Pharisees went and plotted how they might entangle Him in His talk.

16 And they sent to Him their disciples with the [g]Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that You are true, and teach the way of God in truth; nor do You care about anyone, for You do not regard the person of men.

17 "Tell us, therefore, what do You think? Is it lawful to pay [h]taxes to Caesar, or not?"

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, "Why do you [i]test Me, you hypocrites?

19 "Show Me the tax money." So they brought Him a [j]denarius.

20 And He said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?"

21 They said to Him, "Caesar's." And He said to them, "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are [k]Caesar's, and to God the things that are [l]God's."

22 When they had heard these words, they marveled, and left Him and went their way.

Jesus answers the Sadducees (Mark 12:18–27; Luke 20:27–38)

23 The same day the Sadducees, who say there is no [m]resurrection, came to Him and asked Him,

24 saying: "Teacher, Moses [n]said that if a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.

25 "Now there were with us seven brothers. The first died after he had married, and having no offspring, left his wife to his brother.

26 "Likewise the second also, and the third, even to the seventh.

27 "Last of all the woman died also.

28 "Therefore, in the resurrection, [o]whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had her."

29 Jesus answered and said to them, "You are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God.

30 "For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are [p]like angels of God* in heaven.

31 "But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not [q]read what was spoken to you by God, saying,

22:9 The worldwide call. Matt. 28:16–20; Rev. 22:17.

22:15 Verses 15–46 record our Lord's meetings with the representatives of Israel—the Herodians, the Sadducees, and the Pharisees (see 3:7, note). Although He answered their questions and put them to silence (v. 46), they did not repent and turn to Him in faith. The only message left for them was the woes of ch. 23.

22:16 Herodians. Not a sect but a political party that supported the Herod dynasty.

22:29 You are mistaken (from the Greek verb planaō) carries the idea of being deceived. Thus Jesus' answer to the Sadducees' question gives the three incapacities of the rationalist: (1) self-deception (Rom. 1:21–22); (2) ignorance of the spiritual content of Scripture (Acts 13:27); and (3) disbelief in the intervention of divine power (2 Pet. 3:4–9).

32 [a]'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living."

33 And when the multitudes heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.

Jesus answers the Pharisees
(Mark 12:28–34; cp. Luke 10:25–28)

34 But when the [b]Pharisees heard that He had silenced the [b]Sadducees, they gathered together.

35 Then one of them, a lawyer, asked Him a question, [c]testing Him, and saying,

36 "Teacher, which is the [d]great commandment in the [e]law?"

37 Jesus said to him, "'You shall [f]love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.'

38 "This is the first and great commandment.

39 "And the second is like it: 'You shall love your [g]neighbor as yourself.'

40 "On these two commandments hang [h]all the Law and the Prophets."

Jesus questions the Pharisees concerning the Messiah
(Mark 12:35–37; Luke 20:41–44)

41 While the [i]Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,

42 saying, "What do you think about the Christ? Whose Son is He?" They said to Him, "The [j]Son of David."

43 He said to them, "How then does David in the [k]Spirit call Him 'Lord,' saying:

44 'The[l] LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
Till I make Your enemies Your footstool"'?

45 "If David then calls Him 'Lord,' how is He his Son?"

46 And no one was able to answer Him a word, nor from that day on did anyone dare question Him anymore.

The marks of a Pharisee
(Mark 12:38–40; Luke 20:45–47)

23 THEN Jesus spoke to the multitudes and to His disciples,

2 saying: "The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat.

3 "Therefore whatever they tell you to observe,* that observe and do, but do not do according to their works; for they say, and do not do.

4 "For they [m]bind heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 "But all their works they do to [n]be seen by men. They make their phylacteries broad and enlarge the borders of their garments.

6 "They love the best places at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues,

7 "greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called by men, 'Rabbi, Rabbi.'

8 "But you, do not be called 'Rabbi'; for One is your Teacher, the Christ,* and you are all brethren.

9 "Do not call anyone on earth your father; for One is your Father, He [o]who is in heaven.

10 "And do not be called teachers; for One is your Teacher, the Christ.

11 "But he who is greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 "And whoever exalts himself

22:35 lawyer. The Greek word nomikos is translated "lawyer" here and in Luke 7:30; 10:25; 11:45,46,52; 14:3; Titus 3:13. In the Matthean and Lucan references it describes men expert in the Jewish law, normally called "scribes" (compare Ezra 7:6,10). In Titus it probably refers to one who was expert in Roman law.

22:41 asked. Jesus' question was not personal but doctrinal; "Whose Son is the Messiah?" Compare John 19:7; Acts 2:25–36; Rom. 1:3–4.

23:1 Verses 1–12 introduce the woes that Christ pronounced upon the scribes and Pharisees, and particularly emphasize the pride and self-exaltation of these interpreters of the law. The woes are expressed in the most severe language Christ ever used.

23:2 Moses' seat has reference to the position of a teacher of the law of Moses. Compare Ezra 7:6,25–26. The law is to be honored, but not the hypocritical teachers of it.

23:5 phylacteries. Compare Deut. 6:8, which describes the proper and spiritual use of God's commandments.

Jesus announces seven woes on the Pharisees
(Mark 12:38–40; Luke 20:47)

13 "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut up the [a]kingdom of heaven against men; for you neither go in yourselves, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in.

14 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. Therefore you will receive greater condemnation.*

15 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel land and sea to win one proselyte, and when he is won, you make him twice as much a son of hell as yourselves.

16 "Woe to you, [b]blind guides, who say, 'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obliged to perform it.'

17 [c]"Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gold or the temple that [d]sanctifies* the gold?

18 "And, 'Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is on it, he is obliged to perform it.'

19 "Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that [e]sanctifies the gift?

20 "Therefore he who swears by the altar, swears by it and by all things on it.

21 "He who swears by the temple, swears by it and by Him who dwells* in it.

22 "And he who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God and by Him who sits on it.

23 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you pay [f]tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have [g]neglected the weightier matters of the [h]law: justice and mercy and faith. These you ought to have done, without leaving the others undone.

24 "Blind guides, who strain out a gnat and swallow a camel!

25 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you cleanse the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of extortion and self-indulgence.*

26 "Blind Pharisee, first cleanse the inside of the cup and dish, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like [i]whitewashed tombs which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but inside are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness.

28 "Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and [j]lawlessness.

29 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you [k]build the tombs of the prophets and adorn the monuments of the righteous,

30 "and say, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.'

31 "Therefore you are witnesses against yourselves that you are [l]sons of those who murdered the prophets.

32 "Fill up, then, the measure of your [m]fathers' guilt.

33 "Serpents, brood of vipers! How can you escape [n]the condemnation of hell?

34 "Therefore, indeed, I send you prophets, wise men, and scribes: some of them you will [o]kill and crucify, and some of them you will [p]scourge in your synagogues and persecute from city to city,

VI. The Predicted Return of the King: the Olivet Discourse, 24—25

The Olivet Discourse: the temple to be destroyed
(Mark 13:1–2; Luke 21:5–6)

24 THEN Jesus went out and departed from the temple, and His disciples came up to show Him
the buildings of the temple.
2 And Jesus said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Assuredly, I say to you, [h]not one stone shall be left here upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

The disciples' two questions: "When"
and "What?" (Mark 13:3–4; Luke 21:7)

3 Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, "Tell us, [i]when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your [j]coming, and of the end of the age?"

Daniel's seventieth week of years
(Dan. 9:27): the end time
(Mark 13:5–13; cp. Luke 21:8–11)

4 And Jesus answered and said to them: "Take heed that no one de-ceives you.
5 "For [k]many will come in My name, saying, 'I am the [l]Christ,' and will deceive many.
6 "And you will hear of [m]wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for all* these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.
7 "For [n]nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.
And there will be [o]famines, pestilences,* and [p]earthquakes in various places.
8 "All these are the beginning of sorrows.
9 "Then they will [q]deliver you up to tribulation and kill you, and you will be hated by all nations for My name's sake.
10 "And then [r]many will be offended, will betray one another, and will hate one another.
11 "Then many [s]false prophets will rise up and deceive many.
12 "And because [t]lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow [u]cold.

23:39 till. Observe the "tills" or "untils" of Israel's blessing: (1) Israel must say, "Blessed is He" (v. 39; compare Rom. 10:3–4). (2) Gentile world power must run its course (Luke 21:24; compare Dan. 2:34–35). And (3) the elect number of the Gentiles and Jews must be brought into the Church (Acts 15:13–18). Then "the Deliverer will come out of Zion," etc. (Rom. 11:25–27).

24:1 departed. The Lord Jesus leaves that which He abandons to judgment. See Mark 8:21–23 (with note at v. 23) in the light of Matt. 11:21–22. Compare Rev. 18:4.

THE TWOFOLD QUESTION

Chapter 24, with Luke 21:20–24, answers the twofold question. The order is as follows: "When will these things be?"—that is, destruction of the temple and city. The answer is in Luke 21:20,24. The remainder of Matt. 24:3 really constitutes a single question: "And what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?" The answer is in vv. 4–33. Verses 4–14 have a double interpretation: They give (1) the character of the age—wars, international unrest, famines, pestilences, persecutions, and false Christs (compare Dan. 9:26). This is not the description of a converted world. But (2) the same answer applies in a specific way to the end of the age, that is, Daniel's seventieth week (see Dan. 9:24, note). All that has characterized the age gathers into awful intensity at the end. Verse 14 has specific reference to the proclamation of the good news that the kingdom is again "at hand" (Rev. 14:6–7; see Rom. 11:5, note). Verse 15 gives the sign of the abomination (see Dan. 9:24, note)—the man of sin, or beast (2 Thess. 2:3–8; compare Dan. 9:27; 12:11; Rev. 13:4–7).

This introduces the great tribulation (Ps. 2:5; see Rev. 7:14, note), which runs its awful course of three and a half years, culminating in the battle of Rev. 19:19–21 (see Rev. 19:19, note), at which time Christ becomes the Striking Stone of Dan. 2:34. The detail of this period (vv. 15–28) is:

(1) the abomination in the holy place (v. 15), causing sacrifice to cease;
(2) the warning (vv. 16–20) to believing Jews who will then be in Judea;
(3) the great tribulation, with renewed warning about false Christs (vv. 21–26);
(4) the sudden striking of the Gentile world power (vv. 27–28);
(5) the glorious appearing of the Lord, visible to all nations, and the regathering of Israel (vv. 29–31);
(6) the sign of the fig tree (vv. 32–33); and
(7) warnings, applicable to this present age over which these events are ever impending (vv. 34–51; compare Phil. 4:5). Careful study of Dan. 2; 7; 9; and Rev. 13 will make the interpretation clear. See, also, Remnant (Is. 1:9; Rom. 11:5, note).

signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the [a]elect.
25 "See, I have told you beforehand.
26 "Therefore if they say to you, 'Look, He is in the desert!' do not go out; or 'Look, He is in the inner rooms!' do not believe it.
27 "For as the [b]lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so also will the [c]coming of the [d]Son of Man be.
28 "For wherever the [e]carcass is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

The King's return to earth at the close of the tribulation
(Mark 13:24–27; Luke 21:29–33)

29 "Immediately after the tribulation of [f]those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.
30 "Then the sign of the [g]Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will [h]mourn, and they will see the Son of Man [c]coming on the [i]clouds of heaven with power and great [j]glory.
31 "And He will send His [k]angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they [l]will gather together His [a]elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Parable of the fig tree
(Mark 13:28–31; Luke 21:29–33)

32 "Now learn this [m]parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near.
33 "So you also, when you see all these things, know that it is near—at the doors!
34 "Assuredly, I say to you, [n]this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place.
35 [o]"Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away.

Watchfulness enjoined
(Mark 13:32–37; Luke 21:34–36)

36 "But of [c]that [f]day and hour no one [p]knows, not even the [q]angels of heaven,* but My Father only.
37 "But as the [r]days of Noah were, so also will the [c]coming of the [s]Son of Man be.
38 "For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, 39 "and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the [c]coming of the [t]Son of Man be.
40 "Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left.
41 "Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and the other left.
42 [u]"Watch therefore, for you do [v]not know what hour* your Lord is [c]coming.
43 "But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into.
44 "Therefore you also be [w]ready, for the [x]Son of Man is [c]coming at an hour you do not expect.
45 "Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his master made ruler over his household, to give them [y]food in due season?

24:28 The meaning of this somewhat puzzling verse is illuminated in the final dialogue between God and Job (Job 39:27–30). The spiritual application here is that, where moral corruption exists, divine judgment falls.

24:33 it. Or He. Compare 1 Thess. 5:1–5.

24:34 generation. The word "generation" (Greek genea), though commonly used in Scripture of those living at one time, could not here mean those alive at the time of Christ, as none of "these things"—that is, the worldwide preaching of the kingdom, the tribulation, the return of the Lord in visible glory, and the regathering of the elect—occurred then. The expression "this generation" here (1) may mean that the future generation which will endure the tribulation and see the signs, will also see the consummation, the return of the Lord; or (2) it may be used in the sense of race or family, meaning that the nation or family of Israel will be preserved "till all these things take place," a promise wonderfully fulfilled to this day.

24:45 faithful. Compare Luke 12:42–48; 1 Cor. 4:2. The Lord commends faithfulness rather than ability.

46 "Blessed is that servant whom his master, when he [a]comes, will find so doing.
47 "Assuredly, I say to you that he will [b]make him ruler over all his goods.
48 "But if that evil servant says in his heart, 'My master is [c]delaying his [d]coming,'* 49 "and begins to beat his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunkards,
50 "the master of that servant will [e]come on a day when he is not looking for him and at an hour that he is [f]not aware of,
51 "and will cut him in two and [g]appoint him his portion with the hypocrites. There shall be weeping
and gnashing of teeth.

The parable of the ten virgins

25 "THEN the [h]kingdom of heaven shall be [i]likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.
2 "Now five of them were wise,
and five were foolish.
3 "Those who were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with
them,
4 "but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.
5 "But while the bridegroom was delayed, they all slumbered and slept.
6 "And at midnight a cry was heard: 'Behold, the bridegroom is coming;* go out to meet him!'
7 "Then all those virgins arose and [j]trimmed their lamps.
8 "And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.'
9 "But the wise answered, saying,
'No, lest there should not be enough for us and you; but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.'
10 "And while they went to buy, the bridegroom [k]came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding; and the door was shut.
11 "Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, 'Lord, Lord,
[l]open to us!'
12 "But he answered and said, 'Assuredly, I say to you, I do [m]not know
you.'
13 [n]"Watch therefore, for you [o]know neither the day nor the hour* in which the [p]Son of Man is [q]coming.

The parable of the talents

14 "For the [r]kingdom of heaven is like a man traveling to a far country, who called his own servants and delivered his goods to them.
15 "And to one he gave five [s]talents, to another two, and to another one, to each according to his own ability; and immediately he went on a journey.
16 "Then he who had received the five talents went and [t]traded with them, and made another five talents.
17 "And likewise he who had received two gained two more also.
18 "But he who had received one went and dug in the ground, and [u]hid his lord's money.
19 "After a long time the lord of those servants came and [v]settled accounts with them.
20 "So he who had received five [w]talents came and brought five other talents, saying, 'Lord, you delivered to me five talents; look, I have gained five more talents besides
them.'
21 "His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you were [x]faithful over a few things, I will [y]make you ruler over many things. Enter into the [z]joy of your lord.'
22 "He also who had received two [aa]talents came and said, 'Lord, you delivered to me two talents; look, I have gained two more talents besides them.'

25:32 THE JUDGMENT OF INDIVIDUAL GENTILES

This judgment of individual Gentiles is to be distinguished from other judgments in Scripture, such as the judgment of the Church (2 Cor. 5:10–11), the judgment of Israel (Ezek. 20:33–38), and the judgment of the wicked after the millennium (Rev. 20:11–15).

The time of this judgment is "when the Son of Man comes in His glory," that is, at the second coming of Christ after the tribulation. The subjects of this judgment are "all the nations," that is, all Gentiles (Greek ethnē) then living on earth. Three classes of individuals are mentioned:

(1) sheep, saved Gentiles;
(2) goats, unsaved Gentiles; and
(3) brethren, the people of Israel.

The scene is on earth; no books are opened; it deals with the living rather than with those translated or raised from the dead. The test of this judgment is the treatment by individual Gentiles of those whom Christ calls "My brethren" living in the preceding tribulation period when Israel is fearfully persecuted (compare Gen. 12:3).

The good works mentioned are the proof but not the ground of faith and salvation. The fact that the righteous and the unrighteous are still mingled and require separation after the establishment of Christ's throne on earth makes evident that no rapture, that is, translation of the saints, could have taken place at the time of Christ's coming to the earth after the tribulation. In such a case the separation here described would have already occurred before the establishment of the throne. The sheep are Gentiles saved on earth during the period between the rapture and Christ's second coming to the earth. For the other six important judgments see John 12:31, note; 1 Cor. 11:31, note; 2 Cor. 5:10, note; Ezek. 20:37, note; Jude 6, note; and Rev. 20:12, note.

we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You drink?
38 'When did we see You a stranger and take You in, or naked and clothe You?
39 'Or when did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?'
40 "And the King will answer and say to them, 'Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you [a]did it to Me.'
41 "Then He will also say to those on the left hand, [b]'Depart from Me, you cursed, into the everlasting fire prepared for the [c]devil and his [d]angels:
42 'for [e]I was hungry and you gave Me no food; I was thirsty and you gave Me no drink;
43 'I was a stranger and you did not take Me in, naked and you did not clothe Me, sick and in prison and you did not visit Me.'
44 "Then they also will answer Him,* saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not [f]minister to You?'
45 "Then He will answer them, saying, 'Assuredly, I say to you, [g]inasmuch as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to Me.'
46 "And these will go away [h]into everlasting [i]punishment, but the [j]righteous into [k]eternal life."

VII. The Death and Resurrection of the King, 26—28

Jewish authorities plot death of Jesus (Mark 14:1–2; Luke 22:1–2)

26 NOW it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, that He said to His disciples,
2 "You know that after two days is the [l]Passover, and the [m]Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified."
3 Then the chief priests, the [n]scribes,* and the elders of the people assembled at the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,
4 and [o]plotted to take Jesus by trickery and kill Him.
5 But they said, "Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar among the [p]people."

Jesus anointed for His burial by Mary of Bethany (Mark 14:3–9; John 12:1–8)

6 And when Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon the [q]leper,
7 a woman came to Him having an alabaster flask of very costly fragrant oil, and she poured it on His head as He sat at the table.
8 But when His disciples saw it, they were indignant, saying, "Why this waste?
9 "For this fragrant oil might have been sold for much and given to the poor."
10 But when Jesus was aware of it, He said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a good work for Me.
11 "For you have the poor with [r]you always, but [s]Me you do not have always.
12 "For in pouring this fragrant oil on My body, she did it for My [t]burial.
13 "Assuredly, I say to you, wherever this [u]gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told as a memorial to her."

Judas agrees to betray Jesus (Mark 14:10–11; Luke 22:3–6)

14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests
15 and said, "What are you willing to give me if I [v]deliver Him to you?" And they counted out to him thirty [w]pieces of silver.

But Mary of Bethany, who alone of our Lord's followers had comprehended His thrice-repeated announcement of His coming death and resurrection, invested the anointing with the deeper meaning of the preparation of His body for burying.

(Mark 14:12–16; Luke 22:7–13)

17 Now on the first day of the Feast of the Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?"

18 And He said, "Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, 'The Teacher says, [a]"My time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at your house with My disciples." ' "

19 So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them; and they prepared the Passover.

The last Passover (Mark 14:17–21; Luke 22:14–20,24–30; cp. John 13:1–12)

20 When evening had come, He sat down with the twelve.

21 Now as they were eating, He said, "Assuredly, I say to you, one of you will [b]betray Me."

22 And they were exceedingly sorrowful, and each of them began to say to Him, "Lord, is it I?"

23 He answered and said, "He who [c]dipped his hand with Me in the dish will [d]betray Me.

24 "The Son of Man indeed goes just as it is [e]written of Him, but [f]woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is [g]betrayed! [h]It would have been good for that man if he had not been born."

25 Then Judas, who was betraying Him, answered and said, "Rabbi, is it I?" He said to him, "You have said it."

27 Then He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you.

Judas Iscariot: One of the twelve disciples of Jesus who betrayed Him.

26:20 ORDER OF EVENTS: THE EVENING OF THE PASSOVER

The order of events on this solemn evening appears to have been:

(1) Jesus partakes of the Passover with the apostles, and rebukes their contention (Matt. 26:20; Mark 14:17; Luke 22:14–16,24–30);

(2) washes their feet (John 13:1–20);

(3) identifies Judas as the traitor (Matt. 26:21–25; Mark 14:18–21; Luke 22:21–23; John 13:21–29);

(4) Judas withdraws, the others profess loyalty (John 13:30–38; compare Matt. 26:31–35; Mark 14:27–31; Luke 22:31–38);

(5) Jesus institutes the Lord's Supper (Matt. 26:26–29; Mark 14:22–25; Luke 22:17–20);

(6) addresses the eleven in the upper room (John 14);

(7) again on the way to Gethsemane (John 15—16);

(8) intercedes with the Father for His own (John 17); and

(9) agonizes in the garden, is betrayed and arrested (Matt. 26:30,36–50; Mark 14:26,32–52; Luke 22:39–53; John 18:1–12).

26:28 FORGIVENESS, SUMMARY

The Greek word here (also in Acts 10:43; Heb. 9:22) means to send off or away. And this, throughout Scripture, is the one fundamental meaning of forgiveness—to separate the sin from the sinner.

Distinction must be made between divine and human forgiveness:

(1) Human forgiveness means the remission of a penalty deserved, whereas the divine forgiveness, in type and fulfillment in both OT and NT, always follows the execution of the penalty. "The priest shall make atonement for his sin that he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him" (Lev. 4:35). "This is My blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many for the remission [sending away] of sins" (Matt. 26:28). "Without shedding of blood there is no remission" (Heb. 9:22). See Sacrifice (Gen. 4:4 and Heb. 10:18, notes). The sin of the justified believer interrupts his fellowship; it is forgiven upon confession, but always on the ground of Christ's propitiating sacrifice (1 John 1:6–9; 2:2). And

(2) human forgiveness rests upon and results from the divine forgiveness. In many passages this is assumed rather than stated, but the principle is declared in Matt. 18:32–33; Eph. 4:32.

it new with you in My Father's [a]kingdom."

(Here read John 14)

Jesus foretells Peter's denial
(Mark 14:26–31; Luke 22:31–34; John 13:31–38)

30 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

31 Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of Me this night, for it is [b]written:

'I will strike the [c]Shepherd,
And the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'

32 "But after I have been [d]raised, I will go before you to Galilee."

33 Peter answered and said to Him, "Even if all are made to stumble because of You, I will never be made to stumble."

34 Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you that this night, before the [e]rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."

(Here read John 15—17)

35 Peter said to Him, "Even if I have to die with You, I will not deny You!" And so said all the disciples.

Jesus' agony in the garden
(Mark 14:32–42; Luke 22:39–46; John 18:1)

36 Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to the disciples, "Sit here while I go and pray over there."

37 And He took with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and He began to be sorrowful and deeply [f]distressed.

38 Then He said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here and watch with Me."

The first prayer
(Mark 14:35; Luke 22:41–42)

39 He went a little farther and fell on His face, and [g]prayed, saying, "O My Father, if it is possible, let this [h]cup pass from Me; nevertheless, not as I will, [i]but as You will."

The sleeping disciples
(Mark 14:37–40; Luke 22:45–46)

40 Then He came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "What? Could you not watch with Me one hour?

41 "Watch and pray, lest you enter into [j]temptation. [k]The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

The second prayer
(Mark 14:39; Luke 22:44)

42 Again, a second time, He went away and [l]prayed, saying, "O My Father, if this cup cannot pass away from Me unless* I drink it, Your will be done."

43 And He came and found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy.

The third prayer (Mark 14:41)

44 So He left them, went away again, and [m]prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then He came to His disciples and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is being [n]betrayed into the hands of [o]sinners.

46 "Rise, let us be going. See, My betrayer is at hand."

Jesus' betrayal and arrest
(Mark 14:43–50; Luke 22:47–53; John 18:3–11)

47 And while He was still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, with a great multitude with swords and clubs, [p]came from the chief priests and elders of the people.

26:39 cup. The "cup" must be interpreted by our Lord's own use of that symbol in speaking of His approaching sacrificial death (20:22; John 18:11). In view of John 10:17–18, He could have been in no fear of an unwilling death. The value of the account of the agony in the garden is in the evidence that it affords that He knew fully what the agony of the cross would mean when His soul would be made an offering for sin (Is. 53:10)—the hiding of the Father's face. Knowing completely what the cost would be, He voluntarily paid it.

48 Now His betrayer had given them a sign, saying, "Whomever I [a]kiss, He is the One; seize Him."
49 Immediately he went up to Jesus and said, "Greetings, Rabbi!"
and [b]kissed Him.
50 But Jesus said to him, [c]"Friend, why have you come?" Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and took Him.
51 And suddenly, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword, struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.
52 But Jesus said to him, "Put your sword in its place, for all who take the [d]sword will perish* by the sword.
53 "Or do you think that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He will provide Me with more than [e]twelve legions of [f]angels?
54 "How then could the [g]Scriptures be [h]fulfilled, that it must happen thus?"
55 In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to take Me? I sat daily with you, [i]teaching in the temple, and you did not seize Me.
56 "But all this was done that the [j]Scriptures of the prophets might be [k]fulfilled." Then all the disciples
[l]forsook Him and fled.

Jesus brought before Caiaphas and Sanhedrin (Mark 14:53–65; cp. John 18:12,19–24)

57 And those who had laid hold of Jesus led Him away to [m]Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.
58 But [n]Peter followed Him at a distance to the high priest's courtyard. And he went in and [o]sat with the servants to see the end.
59 Now the chief priests, the elders,* and all the council sought
[p]false testimony against Jesus to put Him to death,
60 but found none. Even though many false witnesses came forward, they found none.* But at last two false witnesses* came forward 61 and said, "This fellow said, 'I am able to [q]destroy the temple of God and to build it in three days.' " 62 And the high priest arose and said to Him, "Do You answer nothing? What is it these men testify against You?"
63 But Jesus [r]kept silent. And the high priest answered and said to Him, "I [s]put You under oath by the living God: Tell us if You are the Christ, the Son of God!"
64 Jesus said to him, "It is as you said. Nevertheless, I say to you, hereafter you will see the [t]Son of

26:57 ORDER OF EVENTS: AFTER CHRIST'S ARREST

The order of events following the arrest of the Lord Jesus appears to have been:

(1) The Jewish trial of Jesus, composed of three stages:

(a) the preliminary hearing before Annas (John 18:12–14,19–24);

(b) the informal trial before Caiaphas and the Sanhedrin, presumably before dawn (Matt. 26:57–68; Mark 14:53–65; Luke 22:54,63–65; John 18:24); and

(c) the formal trial by the Sanhedrin (Matt. 27:1; Mark 15:1; Luke 22:66–71).

(2) Associated with (1) but before (3) were Peter's denials (Matt. 26:58,69–75; Mark 14:54,66–72; Luke 22:54–62; John 18:15–18,25–27) and Judas' suicide (Matt. 27:3–10; Acts 1:18–19).

(3) The Gentile trial of Jesus, composed of three stages:

(a) Jesus was questioned by Pilate the first time (Matt. 27:2,11–14; Mark 15:1–5; Luke 23:1–5; John 18:28–38);

(b) Pilate sent Jesus to Herod (Luke 23:6–12); and

(c) Herod sent Jesus back to Pilate, who released Barabbas (Matt. 27:15–26; Mark 15:6–15; Luke 23:13–25; John 18:39–40). Then

(4) Jesus was crowned with thorns and brutally beaten by the Roman soldiers (Matt. 27:27–30; Mark 15:16–19; John 19:1–3).

(5) As Christ was led forth to be crucified, the cross was laid on Simon (Matt. 27:31–32; Mark 15:20–21; Luke 23:26). And

(6) on the way to Golgotha, Jesus warned the weeping women of judgment yet to fall on Jerusalem (Luke 23:27–31). For the order of events at the crucifixion, see Matt. 27:33, note.

Man [a]sitting at the right hand of the Power, and [b]coming on the clouds of heaven."

65 Then the high priest [c]tore his clothes, saying, "He has spoken blasphemy! What further need do we have of witnesses? Look, now you have heard His [d]blasphemy!

66 "What do you think?" They answered and said, "He is deserving of death."

67 Then they [e]spat in His face and beat Him; and others [f]struck Him with the palms of their hands,

68 saying, "Prophesy to us, Christ! Who is the one who struck You?"

Peter's three denials
(Mark 14:66–72; Luke 22:55–62; John 18:15–18,25–27)

69 Now Peter sat outside in the courtyard. And a servant girl came to him, saying, "You also were with Jesus of Galilee."

70 But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you are saying."

71 And when he had gone out to the gateway, another girl saw him and said to those who were there, "This fellow also was with Jesus of Nazareth."

72 But again he denied with an oath, "I do not know the Man!"

73 And a little later those who stood by came up and said to Peter, "Surely you also are one of them, for your [g]speech betrays you."

74 Then he began to [h]curse and swear, saying, "I do not know the Man!" Immediately a rooster [i]crowed.

75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus who had said to him, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." So he went out and wept bitterly.

Jesus delivered to Pilate
(Mark 15:1; Luke 23:1; John 18:28)

27 WHEN morning came, all the chief priests and elders of the people plotted against Jesus to put Him to death.

2 And when they had bound Him, they led Him away and delivered Him to Pontius* Pilate the governor.

Judas' unavailing remorse
(cp. Acts 1:16–19)

3 Then Judas, His betrayer, seeing that He had been condemned, was remorseful and brought back the thirty [j]pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 saying, "I have [k]sinned by betraying [l]innocent blood." And they said, "What is that to us? You see to it!"

5 Then he threw down the [m]pieces of silver in the temple and departed, and went and [n]hanged himself.

6 But the chief priests took the silver [o]pieces and said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because they are the price of blood."

7 And they consulted together and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Therefore that field has been [p]called the Field of Blood to this day.

9 Then was fulfilled what was [q]spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "And they took the thirty [r]pieces of silver, the value of [s]Him who was priced, whom they of the children of Israel priced,

10 "and gave them for the potter's field, as the LORD [t]directed me.""*

26:71 girl. Compare v. 69; Mark 14:69; Luke 22:58; John 18:25. Regarding the alleged discrepancies in these accounts, it should be said that an excited crowd had gathered, and Peter was interrogated in two places: with the guards (v. 58), where the first charge was made (v. 69); and in the gateway (v. 71), where a great number of people would be gathered. Here the second and third interrogations were made by another girl and by the crowd (vv. 71,73; John 18:25).

27:9 Jeremiah. There may be an allusion to Jer. 18:1–4 and 19:1–3, but the reference is distinctly to Zech. 11:12–13. A Talmudic tradition states that the prophetic writings were placed in the canon in this order: Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Isaiah, etc. Many Hebrew manuscripts follow this order. Thus Matthew cited the passage as from the roll of the prophets and by the name of the first book.

15 Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to releasing to the multitude one prisoner whom they wished.

16 And at that time they had a notorious prisoner called Barabbas.*

17 Therefore, when they had gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?"

18 For he knew that they had handed Him over because of [c]envy.

19 While he was [d]sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that [e]just Man, for I have suffered many things today in a dream because of Him."

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitudes that they should ask for Barabbas and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said to them, [f]"Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" They said, [g]"Barabbas!"

22 Pilate said to them, "What then shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?" They all said to him, "Let Him be crucified!"

23 Then the governor said, [h]"Why, what evil has He [i]done?" But they cried out all the more, saying, "Let Him be crucified!"

24 When Pilate saw that he could [j]not prevail at all, but rather that a tumult was rising, he took water and [k]washed his hands before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this [l]just Person.* You see to it."

25 And all the people answered and said, "His [m]blood be on us and on our children."

26 Then he released Barabbas to them; and when he had [n]scourged Jesus, he delivered Him to be crucified.

The King crowned with thorns; He is then led to the place of crucifixion (Mark 15:16–23; Luke 23:26–32; John 19:16–17)

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole garrison around Him.

28 And they [o]stripped Him and put a [p]scarlet robe on Him.

29 When they had twisted a crown of [q]thorns, they put it on His head,

27:17 THE LEGAL SYSTEM THAT CONDEMNED JESUS

There were two legal systems that condemned Christ: the Jewish and the Roman, the very two which underlie modern jurisprudence. The arrest and proceedings under Annas, Caiaphas, and the Sanhedrin were under Jewish law; those under Pilate and Herod were under Roman law.

The Jewish trial was illegal in several particulars:

(1) The judge was not impartial and did not protect the accused. There is no evidence that the quorum of twenty-three judges was present; the judges took part in the arrest; and they were hostile (Matt. 26:62–63).

(2) The arrest was unlawful because it was carried out under no formal accusation.

(3) In criminal trials all sessions had to be started and carried on only during the day. Night sessions were illegal.

(4) A verdict of guilty could not be rendered on the same day as the conclusion of the trial. It had to be given on the next day.

(5) The search for hostile testimony was illegal (Matt. 26:59; Mark 14:56; John 11:53).

(6) No accused could be convicted on his own evidence, yet they sought replies and admissions from Christ to condemn Him (Matt. 26:63–66; John 18:19). And

(7) no valid legal evidence was presented against Him.

After Pilate declared Christ innocent (Matt. 27:24), his subsequent acts were all contrary to the letter and spirit of Roman law.

and a reed in His right hand. And they bowed the knee before Him and mocked Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!"

30 Then they [a]spat on Him, and took the reed and struck Him on the head.

31 And when they had mocked Him, they took the robe off Him, put His own clothes on Him, and led Him away to be crucified.

32 Now as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name. Him they compelled to [b]bear His cross.

Jesus crucified (Mark 15:22–32; Luke 23:33–43; John 19:17–24)

33 And when they had come to a place called [c]Golgotha, that is to say, Place of a Skull, 34 they gave Him [d]sour* wine mingled with gall to drink. But when He had tasted it, He would not drink.

35 Then they [e]crucified Him, and divided His garments, casting lots,* that it might be fulfilled which was [f]spoken by the prophet:

> "They divided My [g]garments
> among them,
> And for My clothing they cast
> lots."

36 Sitting down, they kept watch over Him there.

37 And they put up over His head the accusation written against Him:

THIS IS JESUS THE [h]KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then two robbers were [i]crucified with Him, one on the right and another on the left.

39 And those who passed by blasphemed Him, wagging their heads

40 and saying, "You who destroy the temple and build it in three days, save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross."

41 Likewise the chief priests also, mocking with the scribes and elders,* said,

42 "He [j]saved others; Himself He cannot save. If He is the [k]King of Israel,* let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe Him.*

43 "He [l]trusted in God; let Him deliver Him now if He will have Him; for He said, 'I am the Son of God.' "

44 Even the robbers who were crucified with Him reviled Him with the same thing.

27:33 ORDER OF EVENTS: THE CRUCIFIXION

The order of events at the crucifixion:

(1) The arrival at Golgotha (v. 33; Mark 15:22; Luke 23:33; John 19:17).

(2) The offer of the stupefying drink is refused (v. 34; Mark 15:23).

(3) Jesus is crucified between two robbers (vv. 35–38; Mark 15:24–28; Luke 23:33–38; John 19:18).

(4) He utters the first cry from the cross, "Father, forgive," etc. (Luke 23:34).

(5) The soldiers divide His garments (v. 35; Mark 15:24; Luke 23:34; John 19:23).

(6) The Jews mock Jesus (vv. 39–43; Mark 15:29–32; Luke 23:35).

(7) The robbers revile Him, but one repents and believes (v. 44; Mark 15:32; Luke 23:39–43).

(8) The second cry from the cross, "Today you will be with Me," etc. (Luke 23:43).

(9) The third cry, "Woman, behold your son," etc. (John 19:26–27).

(10) The darkness (v. 45; Mark 15:33; Luke 23:44).

(11) The fourth cry, "My God," etc. (vv. 46–47; Mark 15:34–36).

(12) The fifth cry, "I thirst!" (John 19:28).

(13) The sixth cry, "It is finished!" (John 19:30).

(14) The seventh cry, "Father, into Your hands," etc. (Luke 23:46). And

(15) our Lord dismisses His spirit (v. 50; Mark 15:37; Luke 23:46; John 19:30).

27:35 Then. Approximately A.D. 29.

27:37 THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. Compare Mark 15:26; Luke 23:38; John 19:19. These accounts supplement but do not contradict each other. No one of the evangelists quotes the entire inscription. All have "the King of the Jews." Matthew and Luke add to this the further words, "This is"; Matthew quotes the name "Jesus"; while John gives the additional words, "of Nazareth." The narratives combined give the entire inscription: "This is [Matthew, Luke] Jesus [Matthew, John] of Nazareth [John] the King of the Jews" [all].

Jesus' death fulfills the law
(Mark 15:33–41; Luke 23:44–49; John 19:30–37; Heb. 9:3–8; 10:19–20)

45 Now from the sixth hour until the ninth hour there was darkness over all the land.

46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, [a] saying, [b] "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" that is, [c] *"My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"

47 Some of those who stood there, when they heard that, said, "This Man is calling for Elijah!"

48 Immediately one of them ran and took a sponge, filled it with [d] sour wine and put it on a reed, and offered it to Him to drink.

49 The rest said, "Let Him alone; let us see if Elijah will come to save Him."

50 And Jesus cried out again with a loud voice, and [e] yielded up His [f] spirit.

51 Then, [g] behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom; and the earth quaked, and the rocks were split,

52 and the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep [h] were raised;

53 and coming out of the graves after His resurrection, they went into the [i] holy city and appeared to many.

54 So when the centurion and those with him, who were guarding Jesus, saw the earthquake and the things that had happened, they feared greatly, saying, [j] "Truly this was the Son of God!"

55 And many women who followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him, were there looking on from afar, 56 among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joses,* and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

Jesus buried (Mark 15:42–47; Luke 23:50–56; John 19:38–42)

57 Now when evening had come, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus.

58 This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given to him.

59 When Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

60 and laid it in [k] his new tomb which he had hewn out of the rock; and he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, and departed.

61 And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.

27:50 yielded up His spirit. The Greek phrases used here and in John 19:30 are unique in the NT. In fifteen other Bible verses, "breathed one's last," or "yielded up the spirit," is used to translate a single Hebrew or Greek word meaning breathe out or expire. This is true of the description of the death of Jesus in Mark 15:37,39 and Luke 23:46. But in Matt. 27:50 and John 19:30 alone these expressions translate Greek phrases of three words, meaning give over the spirit or deliver up the spirit. The death of Jesus was different from that of any other man. No one could take His life from Him except as He was willing to permit it (John 10:18). Christ chose to die so that we might live.

27:51 veil. The veil that was torn divided the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place, into which only the high priest might enter on the Day of Atonement (see Ex. 26:31, note; Lev. 16:1–30). The tearing of that veil, which was a type of the human body of Christ (Heb. 10:20), signified that a "new and living way" was opened for all believers into the very presence of God, with no other sacrifice or priesthood except Christ's (compare Heb. 9:1–8; 10:19–22).

27:52 graves. Although the graves were opened at the time of Christ's death (vv. 50–51), the bodies did not arise until "after His resurrection" (v. 53). Christ is the firstborn from among the dead (Col. 1:18; Rev. 1:5) and "the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep" (1 Cor. 15:20). It is not said that these bodies returned to their graves. The wave sheaf (Lev. 23:10–12) typifies the resurrection of Christ, but it would appear from the symbol used that plurality is implied. It was a single "grain of wheat" that fell into the ground in the crucifixion and entombment of Christ (John 12:24); it was a sheaf which came forth in resurrection. The inference is that these saints went with the risen Christ into heaven.

27:56 James. Son of Alphaeus. See Matt. 4:21, note.

Mary Magdalene: A woman from the town of Magdala who became a follower of Jesus after He released her of the demons that possessed her. Jesus appeared to her first after His resurrection.

The tomb sealed and guarded

62 On the next day, which followed the Day of Preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees gathered together to Pilate,
63 saying, "Sir, we remember, while He was still alive, how that [a]deceiver said, [b]'After three days I will rise.'
64 "Therefore command that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest His disciples come by night* and steal Him away, and say to the people, 'He has risen from the dead.' So the last deception will be worse than the first."
65 Pilate said to them, "You have a guard; go your way, make it as secure as you know how."
66 So they went and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone and setting the guard.

Christ's resurrection, and events of that day (cp. Mark 16:1–14; Luke 24:1–49; John 20:1–23)

28 NOW after the [c]Sabbath, as the first day of the week began to dawn, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb.
2 And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an [d]angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door,* and sat on it.
3 [e]His countenance was like lightning, and his clothing as white as snow.
4 And the guards shook for fear of him, and became like [f]dead men.
5 But the [g]angel answered and said to the women, [h]"Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified.
6 "He is not here; for [i]He is [j]risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.
7 "And go quickly and tell His disciples that He is [k]risen from the dead, and indeed He is going before you into [l]Galilee; there you will see Him. Behold, I have told you."
8 So they went out quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring His disciples word.
9 And as they went to tell His disciples,* behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Rejoice!" So they came and held Him by the feet and worshiped Him.
10 Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell My [m]brethren to go to Galilee, and there they will see Me."

28:1 ORDER OF EVENTS: RESURRECTION MORNING

Combining the four narratives, the order of events on the resurrection morning would seem to be as follows:

(1) In the early morning, the women went to the tomb of Jesus to anoint His body, even though they did not know how they could get into the tomb (Mark 16:2–3). There were the three, Mary Magdalene, Mary (the mother of James, Mark 16:1; Luke 24:10), and Salome, followed by other women who had accompanied Jesus from Galilee (Luke 23:55—24:1).

(2) The three women found the stone had been removed by an angel (Matt. 28:2).

(3) Mary Magdalene hurried to tell Peter and John, who ran toward the tomb (John 20:2–4).

(4) Meanwhile, Mary the mother of James, Salome, and then the other women arrived at the tomb, entered it and saw angels who assured them Jesus had risen. They ran from the tomb in fear and joy to inform His disciples (Matt. 28:8).

(5) Peter and John arrived at the tomb, entered, observed, and left (John 20:4–10).

(6) Mary Magdalene returned to the tomb, stood weeping, and Jesus revealed Himself to her (John 20:11–18).

(7) As the other women were on their way to tell His disciples, Jesus appeared to them (Matt. 28:9–10).

For other post-resurrection appearances of our Lord, see John 20:16, note.

28:1 after the Sabbath. The Sabbaths end; the first day begins as a Christian memorial. See Matt. 12:1, note. Compare John 20:19; Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:2; Rev. 1:10.

28:19

THE TRINITY

In the progress of revelation the one true God appears clearly in the NT as existing in three divine Persons: named here "the Father," and "the Son," and "the Holy Spirit." Compare also Matt. 3:16–17; 1 Cor. 12:4–6; 2 Cor. 13:14; Eph. 2:18; 4:4–6; 5:18–20; 1 Pet. 1:2; Jude 20–21.

1. Each of these divine Persons possesses His own personal characteristics and is clearly distinguished from the other Persons (compare John 14:16–17,26; 15:26; 16:7–15). Yet the three Persons are equal in being, power, and glory: each being called "God" (John 6:27; Heb. 1:8; Acts 5:3–4); each possessing all the divine attributes (James 1:17; Heb. 13:8; 9:14); each performing divine works (John 5:21; Rom. 8:11); and each receiving divine honors (John 5:23; 2 Cor. 13:14).

2. With reference to the order of their activities, the Father is first, the Son is second, and the Holy Spirit is third; the general formula being as follows: from the Father (1 Cor. 8:6), through the Son (John 3:17), by the Holy Spirit (Eph. 3:5), and to the Father (Eph. 2:18). Even so, however, no one of the Persons acts independently of the other Persons; there is always mutual concurrence, as our Lord said, "My Father has been working until now, and I have been working" (John 5:17); and, "The Son can do nothing of Himself" (John 5:19); and again, "I and My Father are one" (John 10:28–30).

3. In the NT revelation of God as a tri-personal Being, there is no retreat from the stern monotheism of the OT (compare Deut. 6:4–5 with Mark 12:29–30 and Rom. 3:30). The three divine Persons are one God, not three gods. It was necessary in the OT to emphasize first the divine unity in order to guard against polytheistic tendencies. But even in the OT, read in the light of the NT, a plurality of Persons appears within the one true God (compare Gen. 1:26; Is. 6:8; 48:12 with 48:16).

4. The Trinity of God is confessedly a great mystery, something wholly beyond the possibility of complete explanation. But we can guard against error by holding fast to the facts of divine revelation: that (1) with respect to His Being or essence, God is one; (2) with respect to His Personality, God is three; and (3) we must neither divide the essence, nor confuse the Persons. Yet, in spite of its mystery, the doctrine of the divine Trinity has always proved to be rich in spiritual and practical values.

5. The importance attached to the divine Trinity, in NT revelation, appears in the fact that the doctrine is firmly embedded in two formulas which are constantly repeated in the hearing of the church: (1) the formula of baptism (Matt. 28:19); and (2) the formula of benediction (2 Cor. 13:14).

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

MARK

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Mark	Christ, the Servant	c. A.D. 68

Background

Mark, the author of the Second Gospel, was a native of Jerusalem. His mother's name was Mary (Acts 12:12); his father is not known to us. John Mark is not named in the Gospels but appears in The Acts when, with his uncle, Barnabas, he accompanied Paul on the first missionary journey as far as Perga, where he turned back for reasons that are not given (Acts 13:13). Rejected by Paul, he went with Barnabas to Cyprus (Acts 15:38–40). During Paul's later years, however, Mark was at his side (Colossians 4:10; Philemon 24) and was sent for by Paul shortly before the apostle's execution (2 Timothy 4:11). Peter referred to Mark as "my son" (1 Peter 5:13). From the early days of the church, Mark's Gospel has been thought to reflect Peter's view of Christ.

God's Relationship with Man

Although it is the briefest of the Gospels, Mark's narrative is often more vivid and detailed than the parallel accounts in Matthew and Luke—for example the story of the demoniac of Gerasa (5:1–20). Written principally for the Roman world, this Gospel presents Christ as the Servant of the Lord, sent to accomplish a specific work for God. Therefore, it is a book of deeds more than words, and contains no long discourses and few parables. In Mark the word "immediately" translates the Greek euthus on forty occasions, showing the continuous activities of the Servant. As the Servant of the Lord, Christ fulfills such Messianic prophecies as Isaiah 42:1–21; 49:1–7; 50:4–11; 52:13–53:12; Zechariah 3:8. Because He is presented as a servant, a genealogy is not needed. An unusual number of passages give insight into the feelings of our Lord (compare 3:5; 7:34; 10:21). Although Christ is set forth in Mark in His servant character, the strong emphasis upon His miracles points to His power as the Son of God.

Outline

The Gospel may be divided as follows:

I.	The Introduction of the Servant to His Public Ministry	1:1–13
	A. Ministry of John the Baptist	1:1–8
	B. Baptism of Jesus	1:9–11
	C. Temptation of Jesus	1:12–13
II.	The Work Accomplished by the Servant	1:14—13:37
	A. Public Ministry	1:14—9:1
	B. The Transfiguration	9:2–13
	C. Further Ministry	9:14—10:52
	D. The Triumphal Entry	11:1–11
	E. Ministry in Jerusalem	11:12—12:44
	F. The Olivet Discourse	13:1–37
III.	The Servant's Obedience unto Death	14:1—15:47
IV.	The Resurrection and Ascension of the Victorious Servant	16:1–20

I. The Introduction of the Servant to His Public Ministry, 1:1–13

Ministry of John the Baptist (Matt. 3:1–12; Luke 3:1–20; John 1:6–8,15–37)

1 THE [a]beginning of the [b]gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.
2 As it is [c]written in the Prophets:

"Behold,[d] I send My messenger
before Your face,
Who will prepare Your way
before You."
3 "The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
'Prepare the way of the LORD;
Make His paths straight.'"

4 John came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a [e]baptism of [f]repentance for the remission of [g]sins.
5 Then all the land of Judea, and those from Jerusalem, went out to him and were all baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their [h]sins.
6 Now John was clothed with camel's hair and with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey.
7 And he preached, saying, "There [i]comes One after me who is mightier than I, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to stoop down and loose.
8 "I indeed baptized you with water, but He will baptize you with the Holy [j]Spirit."

Baptism of Jesus (Matt. 3:13–17; Luke 3:21–22)

9 It came to pass in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan.
10 And immediately, coming up from* the water, He saw the [k]heavens parting and the Spirit [l]descending upon Him like a dove.
11 Then a voice came from heaven, "You are My [m]beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

Temptation of Jesus (Matt. 4:1–11; Luke 4:1–13)

12 Immediately the Spirit drove Him into the wilderness.
13 And He was there in the wilderness forty days, [n]tempted by [o]Satan, and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered to Him.

II. The Work Accomplished by the Servant, 1:14—13:37

First tour of Galilee (Matt. 4:12–17; Luke 4:14)

14 Now after John was put in prison, Jesus came to Galilee, preaching the [p]gospel of the [q]kingdom* of God,
15 and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is [r]at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

Jesus' first disciples (Matt. 4:18–22; Luke 5:1–11; cp. John 1:35–49)

16 And as He walked by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.
17 Then Jesus said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you become [s]fishers of men."
18 They immediately [t]left their nets and followed Him.
19 When He had gone a little farther from there, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending their nets.
20 And immediately He called them, and they [u]left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after Him.

Jesus casts out demons at Capernaum (Luke 4:31–37)

21 Then they went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath He entered the [v]synagogue and taught.
22 And they were [w]astonished at His teaching, for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the [a]scribes.

23 Now there was a man in their synagogue with an [b]unclean spirit. And he cried out,

24 saying, "Let us alone! [c]What have we to do with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Did You come to destroy us? I [d]know who You are—the [e]Holy One of God!"

25 But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him!"

26 And when the unclean spirit had convulsed him and cried out with a loud voice, he [f]came out of him.

27 Then they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, "What is this? What new doctrine is this? For with authority* He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him."

28 And immediately His [g]fame spread throughout all the region around Galilee.

Peter's mother-in-law healed
(Matt. 8:14–15; Luke 4:38–39)

29 Now as soon as they had come out of the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick with a fever, and they told Him about her at once.

31 So He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up, and immediately the fever left her. And she served them.

Further healing and preaching
(Matt. 8:16–17; Luke 4:40–44)

32 At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to Him [h]all who were sick and those who were [i]demon-possessed.

33 And the whole city was gathered together at the door.

34 [j]Then He healed many who were sick with various diseases, and [k]cast out many [l]demons; and He [m]did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew Him.

35 Now in the morning, having risen a long while before daylight, He went out and departed to a solitary place; and there He [n]prayed.

36 And Simon and those who were with Him searched for Him.

37 When they found Him, they said to Him, [o]"Everyone is [p]looking for You."

38 But He said to them, "Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also, because [q]for this purpose I have come forth."

39 And He was [r]preaching in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and [s]casting out [t]demons.

Lists of the apostles appear to be grouped in fours: Simon Peter is always first in the first group, Philip in the second group, and James son of Alphaeus in the third group. Judas Iscariot is always last in the lists in which he appears.

A leper healed
(Matt. 8:2–4; Luke 5:12–14)

40 Now a [a]leper came to Him, imploring Him, kneeling down to Him and saying to Him, "If You are willing, You [b]can make me clean."

41 Then Jesus, moved with [c]compassion, stretched out His hand and touched him, and said to him, "I am willing; be cleansed."

42 As soon as He had spoken, [d]immediately the leprosy [e]left him, and he was cleansed.

43 And He strictly warned him and sent him away at once,

44 and said to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing [f]those things which [g]Moses [h]commanded, as a testimony to them."

45 However, he went out and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread the matter, so that Jesus could no longer openly enter the city, but was outside in deserted places; and they came to Him from every direction.

A paralytic man healed
(Matt. 9:1–8; Luke 5:17–26)

2 AND again He entered Capernaum after some days, and it was heard that He was in the house.

2 Immediately* many gathered together, so that there was no longer room to receive them, not even near the door. And He [i]preached the word to them.

3 Then they came to Him, bringing a [j]paralytic who was carried by four men.

4 And when they could not come near Him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where He was. So when they had broken through, they let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying.

5 When Jesus saw their [k]faith, He said to the paralytic, "Son, your [l]sins are [m]forgiven you."

6 And some of the [n]scribes were sitting there and reasoning in their hearts,

7 "Why does this Man speak blasphemies like this? Who can [o]forgive sins but God alone?"

8 But immediately, when Jesus perceived in His spirit that they reasoned thus within themselves, He said to them, "Why do you reason about these things in your hearts?

9 "Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Arise, take up your bed and walk'?

10 "But that you may know that the [p]Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins"—He said to the paralytic,

11 "I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house."

12 Immediately he [q]arose, took up the bed, and went out in the presence of them all, so that all were amazed and [r]glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

Call of Levi (Matthew)
(Matt. 9:9–15; Luke 5:27–35)

13 Then He went out again by the sea; and all the multitude came to Him, and He taught them.

14 As He passed by, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, [s]"Follow Me." So he arose and [t]followed Him.

15 Now it happened, as He was dining in Levi's house, that many tax collectors and [u]sinners also sat together with Jesus and His disciples; for there were many, and they followed Him.

16 And when the [v]scribes and* Pharisees saw Him eating with the tax collectors and sinners, they said to His disciples, "How is it that He eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?"

17 When Jesus heard it, He said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I did not come to call the [w]righteous, but sinners, to [x]repentance."*

18 The disciples of John and of the [y]Pharisees were fasting. Then they came and said to Him, "Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?"

19 And Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom fast while the [a]bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the [a]bridegroom with them they cannot fast.

20 "But the days will come when the bridegroom will be [b]taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days.

Parable of the cloth and wineskins
(cp. Matt. 9:16–17; Luke 5:36–39)

21 "No one [c]sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; or else the new piece pulls away from the old, and the tear is made worse.

22 "And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; or else the new wine bursts the wineskins, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But new wine must be put into new wineskins."

Jesus is Lord of the Sabbath
(Matt. 12:1–8; Luke 6:1–5)

23 Now it happened that He went through the grainfields on the [d]Sabbath; and as they went His disciples began to [e]pluck the heads of grain.

24 And the [f]Pharisees said to Him, "Look, why do they do what is [g]not lawful on the Sabbath?"

25 But He said to them, "Have you never read [h]what David did when he was in need and hungry, he and those with him:

26 "how he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and [i]ate the [j]showbread, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and also gave some to those who were with him?"

27 And He said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the [k]Sabbath.

28 "Therefore the [l]Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath."

Jesus heals on the Sabbath
(Matt. 12:9–14; Luke 6:6–11)

3 AND He entered the synagogue again, and a man was there who had a withered hand.

2 So they [m]watched Him closely, whether He would [n]heal him on the [o]Sabbath, so that they might accuse Him.

3 And He said to the man who had the withered hand, "Step forward."

4 Then He said to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?" But they kept silent.

5 And when He had looked around at them with anger, being grieved by the [p]hardness of their hearts, He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was [q]restored as whole as the other.*

Many others healed
(Matt. 12:15–16; Luke 6:17–19)

6 Then the [r]Pharisees went out and immediately plotted with the [s]Herodians against Him, how they might destroy Him.

7 But Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea. And a great multitude from Galilee followed Him, and from Judea

8 and Jerusalem and Idumea and beyond the Jordan; and those from Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they heard how many things He was doing, came to Him.

9 So He told His disciples that a small boat should be kept ready for Him because of the multitude, lest they should crush Him.

10 For He healed [t]many, so that as many as had afflictions pressed about Him to [u]touch Him.

11 And the unclean spirits, whenever they saw Him, fell down before Him and cried out, [v]saying, "You are the [w]Son of God."

12 But He sternly [x]warned them that they should not make Him known.

The twelve chosen
(Matt. 10:1–4; Luke 6:12–16)

13 And He went up on the mountain and [y]called to Him those He Himself wanted. And they came to Him.

3:6 RELIGIOUS SECTS IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

The Pharisees

This pious religious group consisted of about 6,000 members during the time of Christ. They had two practical obligations: 1) to observe with great strictness all the ordinances concerning ceremonial purity; 2) to be most scrupulous in the payment of tithes and other religious dues. They carefully relied on the oral traditions of the rabbis as well as the Scripture itself to help them interpret their responsibilities. Sometimes they even held tradition above the actual Law. Their insincerity regarding both purity and tithing was rebuked by Christ.

In doctrinal beliefs, the Pharisees strongly opposed the Sadducees. They believed in the existence of angels and spirits; expected the resurrection of the dead and a future of reward or penalty; and emphasized God's sovereign will to the point of fatalism. They cherished the old theocratic idea, and were naturally opposed to the Herodian and Roman powers. But they were primarily a religious organization, not a political one.

The bad side of the later Pharisees is prominent in the gospel history, but its good side should not be overlooked. The names of Hillel, his grandson Gamaliel (Acts 5:34) and Paul (Acts 22:3; 23:6; 26:5; Phil.3:5) all of whom were Pharisees, attests to the fact that this group wanted what was best for the nation, although it sheltered too much of what was false and bad.

The Sadducees

This religious group was strongly opposed to the Pharisees. The Sadducees adhered to a strict literalism of interpretation and application of the Law. They set aside the authority of tradition in favor of the letter of the Law and went on to deny all that Scripture does not plainly and literally teach. They did not believe in rewards and punishments, the resurrection of the dead or in any angels or spirits. They firmly believed in the free will of man. These doctrinal differences led to many disagreements with the Pharisees.

Although this group was small in number they were highly influential; their members were wealthy and held high positions in society. In the days of the apostles the high priest and his party were of this sect (Acts 4:1; 5:17). They were less prominent than the Pharisees in their opposition to Christ, though the two sects are both named as trying to entrap Jesus with questions (Matthew 16:1; 22:34). Christ also warned His disciples of them (Matthew 16:6). After Christ's death and resurrection, when it became clear that the doctrine of the new church was Christ being raised from the dead, the opposition of the Sadducees became more pronounced (Acts 4:1,2; 5:17; 23:6–10).

The Essenes

This religious group believed in striving after purity and sharing all possessions.. In their rigorous observance of the Sabbath and reverence for the Law they were similar to the Pharisees; in fact, some have described them as exaggerated Pharisees. But the Essenes sought an absolute purity—a freedom from the pollution that comes from being in contact with material things, in order that the spirit might find a freer and larger fellowship with the Divine. Thus they lived a life separate from the world: their settlements were in the country districts, they lived extremely simply, sharing all that they had. They lived highly disciplined lives governed by rigid rules and regulations; they were prone to secrecy and seclusion. Much of their distinctive doctrine reappears in the later Gnostic heresies.

down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebub," and, "By the [a]ruler of the [b]demons He casts out demons."

23 So He called them to Himself and said to them in [c]parables: "How can [d]Satan cast out Satan?

24 "If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 "And if a house is divided against itself, that house [e]cannot stand.

26 "And if [f]Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but has an end.

27 "No one can [g]enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. And then he will plunder his house.

28 "Assuredly, I say to you, all [h]sins will be [i]forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they may utter;

29 "but he who blasphemes against the Holy [j]Spirit never has forgiveness, but is subject to eternal condemnation"—

30 because they [k]said, "He has an unclean spirit."

The new relationships
(Matt. 12:46–50; Luke 8:19–21)

31 Then His brothers and His mother came, and standing outside they sent to Him, calling Him.

32 And a multitude was sitting around Him; and they said to Him, "Look, Your mother and Your brothers* are outside seeking You."

33 But He answered them, saying, "Who is My mother, or My brothers?"

34 And He looked around in a circle at those who sat about Him, and said, "Here are My mother and My [l]brothers!

35 "For whoever does the [m]will of God is My brother and My sister and mother."

The parable of the sower and the soils (Matt. 13:1–17; Luke 8:4–10)

4 AND again He began to teach by the sea. And a great multitude was gathered to Him, so that He got into a boat and sat in it on the sea; and the whole multitude was on the land facing the sea.

2 Then He taught them many things by [n]parables, and said to them in His teaching:

3 "Listen! Behold, a sower went out to sow.

4 "And it happened, as he sowed, that some seed fell by the [o]wayside; and the birds of the air* came and devoured it.

5 "Some fell on [p]stony ground, where it did not have much earth; and immediately it sprang up because it had no depth of earth.

6 "But when the sun was up it was scorched, and because it had [q]no root it withered away.

7 "And some seed fell among thorns; and the [r]thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no crop.

8 "But other seed fell on [s]good ground and yielded a crop that sprang up, increased and produced: some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred."

9 And He said to them,* "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

10 But when He was alone, those around Him with the twelve asked Him about the parable.

11 And He said to them, "To you it has been given to [t]know the mystery of the [u]kingdom of God; but to those who are outside, all things come in parables,

12 "so that

'Seeing they may see and not perceive,
And hearing they may hear and not understand;
Lest they should [v]turn,
*And their sins be [w]forgiven them.'"

(Matt. 13:18–23; Luke 8:11–15)

14 "The sower [a]sows the word.
15 "And these are the ones by the [b]wayside where the word is sown. When they hear, [c]Satan comes immediately and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts.
16 "These likewise are the ones sown on [d]stony ground who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with gladness;
17 "and they have no [e]root in themselves, and so endure only for a time. Afterward, when tribulation or persecution arises for the word's sake, immediately they stumble.
18 "Now these are the ones sown among [f]thorns; they are the ones who hear the word,
19 "and the [g]cares of this world, the [h]deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.
20 "But these are the ones sown on [i]good ground, those who hear the word, accept it, and bear [j]fruit: some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred."

Parable of the lamp (cp. Matt. 5:15–16; Luke 8:16–18; 11:33–36)

21 Also He said to them, [k]"Is a lamp brought to be put under a basket or under a bed? Is it not to be set on a lampstand?
22 "For there is nothing hidden which will not be [l]revealed, nor has anything been kept secret but that it should come to light.
23 "If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear."
24 Then He said to them, "Take heed what you hear. With the same measure you use, it will be [m]measured to you; and to you who hear, more will be given.
25 "For whoever [n]has, to him more will be given; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him."

Parable of spiritual growth

26 And He said, [o]"The [p]kingdom of God is as if a man should scatter [q]seed on the ground, 27 "and should sleep by night and rise by day, and the seed should sprout and [r]grow, he himself does not know how.
28 "For the earth [s]yields crops by itself: first the blade, then the head, after that the full grain in the head.
29 "But when the grain ripens, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the [t]harvest has come."

Parable of the mustard seed (see Matt. 13:31–32, note; Luke 13:18–19)

30 [u]Then He said, "To what shall we liken the kingdom of God? Or with what parable shall we picture it?
31 "It is like a mustard seed which, when it is sown on the ground, is smaller than all the seeds on earth;
32 "but when it is sown, it grows up and [v]becomes greater than all herbs, and shoots out large branches, so that the [w]birds of the air may nest under its shade."
33 And with many such [x]parables He spoke the word to them as they were [y]able to hear it.
34 But without a parable He did not speak to them. And when they were alone, He [z]explained all things to His disciples.

Jesus stills the wind and the sea (Matt. 8:23–27; Luke 8:22–25)

35 On the same day, when evening had come, He said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side."
36 Now when they had left the multitude, they took Him along in the boat as He was. And other little boats were also with Him.
37 And a [aa]great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already filling.
38 But He was in the stern, asleep on a pillow. And they awoke Him and said to Him, [bb]"Teacher, [cc]do You not care that we are perishing?"
39 Then He arose and [dd]rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, [ee]"Peace, be still!" And the wind [ff]ceased and there was a great calm.

Jesus casts out demons at Gadara
(Matt. 8:28–34; Luke 8:26–39)

5 THEN they came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gadarenes.*
2 And when He had come out of the boat, immediately there met Him out of the tombs a man with an [b]unclean spirit, 3 who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no one could bind him,*
not even with chains,
4 because he had often been bound with shackles and chains.
And the chains had been pulled apart by him, and the shackles broken in pieces; neither could anyone tame him.
5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains and in the tombs, crying out and cutting himself with stones.
6 When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and worshiped Him.
7 And he cried out with a loud voice and said, "What have I to do with You, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I [c]implore You by God that You do not torment me."
8 For He said to him, [d]"Come out of the man, unclean spirit!"
9 Then He asked him, "What is your name?" And he answered, saying, "My name is [e]Legion; for we are many."
10 Also he begged Him earnestly that He would not send them out of the country.
11 Now a large herd of [f]swine was feeding there near the mountains.
12 So all the [g]demons begged Him, saying, "Send us to the swine, that we may enter them."
13 And at once Jesus* [h]gave them permission. Then the unclean spirits [i]went out and entered the swine (there were about two thousand);
and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the sea, and drowned in the sea.
14 So those who fed the swine [j]fled, and they told it in the city and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that had happened.
15 Then they came to Jesus, and saw the one who had been [k]demon-possessed and had the legion, [l]sitting and [m]clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid.
16 And those who saw it told them how it happened to him who had been demon-possessed, and about the swine.
17 Then they began to plead with Him to [n]depart from their region.
18 And when He got into the boat, he who had been demon-possessed begged Him that he might be with Him.
19 However, Jesus did not permit him, but said to him, "Go home to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He has had compassion on you."
20 And he departed and began to [o]proclaim in Decapolis all that Jesus had done for him; and all [p]marveled.

Two miracles of healing
(Matt. 9:18–26; Luke 8:40–56)

21 Now when Jesus had crossed over again by boat to the other side, a great multitude gathered to Him;
and He was by the sea.
22 And behold, one of the [q]rulers of the synagogue came, Jairus by name. And when he saw Him, he fell at His feet
23 and [r]begged Him earnestly, saying, "My little daughter lies at the point of death. Come and [s]lay Your hands on her, that she may be healed, and she will live."
24 So Jesus went with him, and a great multitude followed Him and thronged Him.
25 Now a certain woman had a
[t]flow of blood for [u]twelve years, 26 and had suffered many things from many physicians. She had spent all that she had and was no better, but rather grew worse.
27 When she heard about Jesus, she came behind Him in the crowd and [v]touched His garment.

28 For she said, "If only I may touch

29 Immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was [a]healed of the affliction.
30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in Himself that [b]power had gone clothes?"

31 But His disciples said to Him,
"You see the multitude thronging

32 And He looked around to see her who had done this thing.
33 But the woman, [c]fearing and

34 And He said to her, "Daughter,

35 While He was still speaking, some came from the ruler of the 36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, He said to the 37 And He permitted no one to follow Him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James.

38 Then He came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and saw a tumult and those who [g]wept and [h]wailed loudly.
39 When He came in, He said to them, "Why make this commotion

but [j]sleeping."
40 And they ridiculed Him. But when He had put them all outside,
He took the father and the mother of the child, and those who were child was lying.

41 Then He took the child by the hand, and said to her, "Talitha,

42 Immediately the girl [k]arose and walked, for she was twelve years of age. And they were [l]overcome with great amazement.
43 But He commanded them strictly that [m]no one should know it, and said that something should be given come, He began to teach in the synagogue. And many hearing Him in his own country, among his own relatives, and in his own house."

5 Now He could do no mighty work there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and [a]healed them.
6 And He marveled because of their [b]unbelief. Then He went about the villages in a circuit, [c]teaching.

The twelve sent forth to preach and heal (Matt. 10:1–42; Luke 9:1–6)

7 And He called the twelve to Himself, and began to [d]send them out [e]two by two, and gave them power over unclean spirits.
8 He commanded them to take nothing for the journey except a staff—no [f]bag, no bread, no [g]copper in their money belts—
9 but to [h]wear sandals, and not to put on two tunics.
10 Also He said to them, "In whatever place you enter a house, stay there till you depart from that place.
11 "And whoever* will not receive you nor hear you, when you depart from there, shake off the dust under your feet as a testimony against them.* Assuredly, I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the [i]day of judgment than for that city!"

Murder of John the Baptist (Matt. 14:1–14; Luke 9:7–9)

14 Now King Herod heard of Him, for His name had become well known. And he said, "John the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him."
15 Others [o]said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is the [p]Prophet, or* like one of the prophets."
16 But when Herod heard, he said, "This is John, whom I beheaded; he has been raised from the dead!"
17 For Herod himself had sent and laid hold of John, and bound him in prison for the sake of [q]Herodias, his brother [q]Philip's wife; for he had married her.
18 Because John had [r]said to Herod, "It is not [s]lawful for you to have your brother's wife."
19 Therefore Herodias held it against him and wanted to kill him, but she could not;
20 for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a [t]just and [u]holy man, and he protected him. And when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.
21 Then an opportune day came when Herod on his birthday gave a feast for his nobles, the high officers, and the chief men of Galilee.
22 And when Herodias' daughter herself came in and danced, and pleased Herod and those who sat with him, the king said to the girl,

6:14 THE HERODIAN FAMILY

The Herodian family is important in NT history. In addition to the father, Herod the Great, and his son and successor, Archelaus (see Matt. 2:1, note), three other sons are named in the NT: (1) Herod Antipas (mentioned here, v. 14ff.; Matt. 14:1; Luke 3:1), tetrarch of Galilee and Perea (4 B.C. until banished, A.D. 39). (2) Herod Philip (Boëthos), mentioned here as Philip (v. 17; Matt. 14:3; Luke 3:19). (3) Another Herod Philip (Luke 3:1), tetrarch of territory east of Jordan (4 B.C.– A.D. 33).

Two children of another son of Herod the Great, Aristobulus (a son not included in the NT), are also named: Herodias (mentioned here, v. 17ff.; Matt. 14:3) and Herod Agrippa I (Acts 12:1,6,18–24).

It was Herodias, who had been married to her uncle, Herod Philip (Boëthos) but left him to live with another uncle, Herod Antipas, whom John the Baptist rebuked (vv. 14–29; Matt. 14:1–14). Herodias' daughter is not named in the NT. She is mentioned only as "Herodias' daughter" (v. 22ff.; Matt. 14:6–11), but from other sources it is known that her name was Salome, whose first husband was her great uncle (the Philip of Luke 3:1).

Others of the Herodian family named in the NT are three children of Herod Agrippa I: (1) Herod Agrippa II (Acts 25:13ff.; 26:1,2,27–32); (2) Drusilla (Acts 24:24); and (3) Bernice (Acts 25:13; 26:30).

Thus it will be observed that two or more names of each of three successive generations after Herod the Great are mentioned in the NT.

"Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you."

23 He also swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, [a]up to half my kingdom."

24 So she went out and said to her mother, "What shall I ask?" And she said, "The head of John the Baptist!"

25 Immediately she came in with haste to the king and asked, saying, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter."

26 And the king was exceedingly sorry; yet, because of the oaths and because of those who sat with him, he did not want to refuse her.

27 Immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded his head to be brought. And he went and beheaded him in prison, 28 brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother.

29 When his disciples heard of it, they came and [b]took away his corpse and laid it in a tomb.

The apostles return to Jesus after first preaching tour (Luke 9:10)

30 Then the apostles gathered to Jesus and [a]told Him all things, both what they had done and what they had taught.

31 And He said to them, "Come aside by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." For there were many coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat.

Five thousand fed (Matt. 14:13–21; Luke 9:10–17; John 6:5–13)

32 So they departed to a deserted place in the boat by themselves.

33 But the multitudes* saw them departing, and many [b]knew Him and ran there on foot from all the cities. They arrived before them and came together to Him.

34 And Jesus, when He came out, saw a great multitude and was moved with [c]compassion for them, because they were like [d]sheep not having a shepherd. So He began to [e]teach them many things.

35 When the day was now far spent, His disciples came to Him and said, "This is a deserted place, and already the hour is late.

36 "Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding country and villages and buy themselves bread;* for they have nothing to eat."

37 But He answered and said to them, "You give them something to eat." And they said to Him, [f]"Shall we go and buy two hundred [g]denarii worth of bread and give them something to eat?"

38 But He said to them, [h]"How many loaves do you have? Go and see." And when they found out they said, [i]"Five, and two fish."

39 Then He [j]commanded them to make them all sit down in groups on the green grass.

40 So they sat down in [k]ranks, in hundreds and in fifties.

41 And when He had taken the five loaves and the two fish, He [l]looked up to heaven, [m]blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to His disciples to set before them; and the two fish He divided among them all.

42 So they all ate and were [n]filled.

43 And they took up [o]twelve baskets full of fragments and of the fish.

44 Now those who had eaten the loaves were about* [p]five thousand men.

Jesus walks on the water (Matt. 14:22–32; John 6:15–21)

45 Immediately He made His disciples get into the boat and go before Him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while He sent the multitude away.

46 And when He had sent them away, He [q]departed to the mountain to pray.

47 Now when evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea; and He was alone on the land.

48 Then He saw them straining at rowing, for the wind was [r]against them. Now about the fourth watch of the night He [s]came to them, [t]walking on the sea, and would have passed them by.

49 And when they saw Him walking [u]on the sea, they supposed it was a [v]ghost, and cried out;

50 for they all saw Him and were troubled. But immediately He talked with them and said to them, [w]"Be of good cheer! It is I; do not be [x]afraid."

51 Then He went up into the boat to them, and the wind [y]ceased. And they were greatly [z]amazed in themselves beyond measure, and marveled.

52 For they had [aa]not understood about the loaves, because their heart was [bb]hardened.

Jesus heals at Gennesaret (Matt. 14:34–36)

53 When they had crossed over, they [cc]came to the land of Gennesaret and anchored there.

55 ran through that whole sur-

God's commandments versus man's traditions (Matt. 15:1–9)

7 THEN the [e]Pharisees and some of the scribes came together to Him, having come from Jerusalem.

2 Now when* they saw some of His disciples eat bread with defiled, that is, with [f]unwashed hands, they [g]found fault.

3 For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands in a special way, holding the [h]tradition of the elders.

4 When they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. And there are many other things which they have received and hold, like the washing of cups, pitchers, copper vessels, and couches.

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked Him, "Why do Your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?"

6 He answered and said to them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you [i]hypocrites, as it is [j]written:

'This people honors Me with their lips,
But their heart is far from Me.
7 And in vain they worship Me,
Teaching [k]as doctrines the commandments of men.'

8 "For laying aside the [l]commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men*—the washing of pitchers and cups, and many other such things you do."

9 He said to them, "All too well you [m]reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your tradition.

10 "For Moses [n]said, 'Honor your father and your mother'; and, 'He who curses father or mother, let him [o]be put to death.'

11 "But you say, 'If a man says to his father or mother, "Whatever profit you might have received from me is Corban"—' (that is, a gift to God),

12 "then you no longer let him do anything [p]for his father or his mother,

13 "making the word of God of no effect through your tradition which you have handed down. And many such things you do."

Diagnosis of the heart of man (Matt. 15:10–20)

14 When He had called all the multitude to Himself, He said to them, "Hear Me, everyone, and [q]understand:

15 "There is nothing that [r]enters a man from outside which can defile him; but the things which [s]come out of him, those are the things that [t]defile a man.

16 "If anyone has ears to [u]hear, let him hear!"*

17 When He had entered a house away from the crowd, His disciples asked Him concerning the parable.

18 So He said to them, [v]"Are you thus without understanding also? Do you not perceive that whatever enters a man from outside cannot defile him,

19 "because it does not enter his heart but his [w]stomach, and is eliminated, thus purifying all foods?"*

20 And He said, [x]"What comes out of a man, that defiles a man.

21 "For from within, out of the

Jesus and the Syro-Phoenician woman (Matt. 15:21–28)

24 From there He arose and went to the region of Tyre and Sidon.* And He entered a house and wanted no one to know it, but He could not be [k]hidden.
25 For a woman whose young daughter had an unclean spirit heard about Him, and she came and [l]fell at His feet.
26 The woman was a Greek, a Syro-Phoenician by birth, and she kept [m]asking Him to cast the [n]demon out of her daughter.
27 But Jesus said to her, "Let the children be filled first, for it is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the little dogs."
28 And she answered and said to Him, "Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs under the table eat from the children's crumbs."
29 Then He said to her, [o]"For this saying go your way; the [p]demon has gone out of your daughter."
30 And when she had come to her house, she found the demon [q]gone out, and her daughter lying on the bed.

Further healing (Matt. 15:29–31)

31 Again, departing from the region of Tyre and Sidon, He came through the midst of the region of Decapolis to the Sea of Galilee.
32 Then they brought to Him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech, and they begged Him to put His hand on him.
33 And He took him [r]aside from the multitude, and put His fingers in his ears, and He [s]spat and touched his tongue.
34 Then, [t]looking up to heaven, He [u]sighed, and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, [v]"Be opened."
35 [w]Immediately his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plainly.
36 Then He commanded them that they should tell no one; but the more He commanded them, the more widely they proclaimed it.
37 And they were [x]astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He [y]makes both the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

Four thousand fed (Matt. 15:32–39)

8 IN those days, the multitude being very great and having [z]nothing to eat, Jesus called His disciples to Him and said to them,
2 "I have [aa]compassion on the multitude, because they have now continued with Me three days and have nothing to eat.
3 "And if I send them away hungry to their own houses, they will faint on the way; for some of them have come from afar."
4 Then His disciples answered Him, [bb]"How can one satisfy these people with bread here in the wilderness?"
5 He asked them, "How many [cc]loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven."
6 So He commanded the multitude to [dd]sit down on the ground. And He took the seven loaves and gave thanks, broke them and gave them to His disciples to set before them; and they set them before the multitude.
7 They also had a [ee]few small fish; and having blessed them, He said to set them also before them.
8 So they ate and [ff]were [gg]filled, and they took up seven large baskets of [hh]leftover fragments.
9 Now those who had eaten were about four thousand. And He sent them away,

7:21 Here in vv. 21–23 the Lord Jesus presents, in their logical order, the three forms in which sin appears: (1) in human nature—"out of the heart of men"; (2) in the human mind—"evil thoughts"; and (3) in human action—"adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts," etc.

Symbol of leaven explained (Matt. 16:1–12)

10 immediately got into the boat with His disciples, and came to the region of Dalmanutha.

11 Then the [a]Pharisees came out and began to [b]dispute with Him, seeking from Him a [c]sign from heaven, [d]testing Him.

12 But He [e]sighed deeply in His spirit, and said, "Why does this generation seek a sign? Assuredly, I say to you, [f]no sign shall be given to this generation."

13 And He left them, and getting into the boat again, departed to the other side.

14 Now the disciples* had forgotten to take bread, and they did not have more than one loaf with them in the boat.

15 Then He charged them, saying, "Take heed, [g]beware of the [h]leaven of the [i]Pharisees and the leaven of Herod."

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have no bread."

17 But Jesus, being aware of it, said to them, "Why do you reason because you have no bread? [j]Do you not yet perceive nor understand? Is your heart still* hardened?

18 "Having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear? And do you not [k]remember?

19 "When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments did you take up?" They said to Him, [l]"Twelve."

20 "Also, when I broke the seven for the four thousand, how many large baskets full of fragments did you take up?" And they said, [m]"Seven."

21 So He said to them, "How is it you do not [n]understand?"

Blind man healed

22 Then He came to Bethsaida; and they brought a [o]blind man to Him, and begged Him to [p]touch him.

23 So He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the town. And when He had [q]spit on his eyes and put His hands on him, He asked him if he saw anything.

24 And he looked up and said, "I [r]see men like trees, walking."

25 Then He put His hands on his eyes [s]again and made him look up. And he was [t]restored and saw everyone [u]clearly.

26 Then He sent him away to his house, saying, "Neither go into the town, [v]nor tell anyone in the town."*

8:23 led him out. Our Lord's action here is significant. Having abandoned Bethsaida to judgment (Matt. 11:21–24), He would neither heal in that village nor permit further testimony to be borne there (v. 26). The probation of Bethsaida as a community was ended, but He would still show mercy to individuals. Compare Rev. 3:20. 32 He spoke this word openly. Then Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him.

33 But when He had turned around and looked at His disciples, He [a]rebuked Peter, saying, "Get behind Me, [b]Satan! For you are not [c]mindful of the things of God, but the [d]things of men."

Cost of discipleship
(Matt. 16:24–27; Luke 9:23–26)

34 When He had called the people to Himself, with His disciples also, He said to them, [e]"Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me.

35 [f]"For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the [g]gospel's will save it.

36 "For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul?

37 "Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 "For whoever is [h]ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him the Son of Man also will be [i]ashamed when He [j]comes in the glory of His Father with the [k]holy [l]angels."

The transfiguration
(Matt. 17:1–8; Luke 9:28–36)

9 AND He said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you that there are some standing here who will not taste death till they [m]see the [n]kingdom of God present with power."

2 Now after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John, and led them up on a high mountain apart by themselves; and He was [o]transfigured before them.

3 His clothes became shining, exceedingly [p]white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth can whiten them.

4 And Elijah [q]appeared to them with Moses, and [r]they were talking with Jesus.

5 Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"—

6 because he did not know what to say, for they were greatly afraid.

7 And a [s]cloud came and overshadowed them; and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is [t]My beloved Son. [u]Hear Him!"

8 Suddenly, when they had looked around, they saw no one anymore, but [v]only Jesus with themselves.

9 Now as they came down from the mountain, He commanded them that they should tell no one the things they had seen, till the [w]Son of Man had risen from the dead.

10 So they kept this word to themselves, questioning [x]what the rising from the dead meant.

11 And they asked Him, saying, "Why do the [y]scribes say that [z]Elijah must come first?"

12 Then He answered and told them, "Indeed, Elijah is coming first and restores all things. And how is it [aa]written concerning the Son of Man, that He must suffer many things and be [bb]treated with contempt?

13 "But I say to you that Elijah has also come, and they did to him whatever they wished, as it is written of him."

The powerless disciples: the mighty Christ
(Matt. 17:14–21; Luke 9:37–42)

14 And when He came to the disciples, He saw a great multitude around them, and scribes disputing with them.

15 Immediately, when they saw Him, all the people were greatly amazed, and running to Him, greeted Him.

16 And He asked the scribes, "What are you discussing with them?"

17 Then one of the crowd answered and said, "Teacher, I brought You my son, who has a mute spirit.

18 "And wherever it seizes him, it throws him down; he foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth, and becomes rigid. So I spoke to Your disciples, that they should cast it out, but they could [a]not."
19 He answered him and said, "O [b]faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to Me."
20 Then they brought him to Him. And when he saw Him, immediately the [c]spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground and wallowed, foaming at the mouth.
21 So He asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood.
22 "And often he has thrown him both into the fire and into the water to destroy him. But if You can do anything, have compassion on us and help us."
23 Jesus said to him, [d]"If you can believe,* all things are possible to him who believes."
24 Immediately the father of the child cried out and said with tears, [e]"Lord, [f]I believe; [g]help my unbelief!"
25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, He [h]rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it: "Deaf and dumb spirit, I command you, come out of him and enter him no more!"
26 Then the spirit cried out, convulsed him greatly, and came out of him. And he became as one dead, so that many said, "He is dead."
27 But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he [i]arose.
28 And when He had come into the house, His disciples asked Him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?"
29 So He said to them, "This kind can come out by nothing but [j]prayer and fasting."*

Jesus foretells His death and resurrection (Matt. 17:22–23; Luke 9:43–45)

30 Then they departed from there and passed through Galilee, and He did not want anyone to know it.
31 For He taught His disciples and said to them, "The [k]Son of Man is being [l]betrayed into the hands of men, and they will [m]kill Him. And after He is killed, He will [n]rise the third day."
32 But they did [o]not understand this saying, and were afraid to ask Him.

Humility, the secret of greatness (Matt. 18:1–6; Luke 9:46–48)

33 Then He came to Capernaum. And when He was in the house He asked them, "What was it you disputed among yourselves on the road?"
34 But they kept silent, for on the road they had [p]disputed among themselves who would be the [q]greatest.
35 And He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "If anyone desires to be [r]first, he shall be last of all and [s]servant of all."
36 Then He took a little [t]child and set him in the midst of them. And when He had taken him in His arms, He said to them,
37 "Whoever receives one of these little children in My name [u]receives Me; and whoever receives Me, receives not Me but Him who sent Me."

Sectarianism rebuked (Luke 9:49–50)

38 Now John answered Him, saying, "Teacher, we saw someone who does not follow us casting out [v]demons in Your name, and we forbade him because he does not follow us."
39 But Jesus said, "Do not forbid him, for no one who works a miracle in My name can [w]soon afterward speak evil of Me.
40 "For he who is not against us is [x]on our* side.
41 "For whoever gives you a [y]cup of water to drink in My name, because you belong to Christ, assuredly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his [z]reward.

Jesus' solemn warning of hell

42 "But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea.

43 "If your [a]hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having two hands, to go to hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched—

44 "where

'Their worm does not die,
*And the fire is not quenched.'

45 "And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame, rather than having two feet, to be cast into hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched—

46 "where

'Their worm does not die,
*And the fire is not quenched.'

47 "And if your eye causes you to sin, [b]pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire—

48 "where

'Their [c]worm does not die,
And the [d]fire is not quenched.'

49 "For everyone will be seasoned with [e]fire,* and every sacrifice will be [f]seasoned with salt.

50 "Salt is good, but if the salt [g]loses its flavor, how will you season it? Have [h]salt in yourselves, and have [i]peace with one another."

Jesus teaches concerning divorce
(Matt. 5:31–32; 19:1–9; Luke 16:18; cp. Rom. 7:1–3; 1 Cor. 7:10–16)

10 THEN He arose from there and came to the region of Judea by the other side of the Jordan. And multitudes gathered to Him again, and as He was accustomed, He taught them again.

2 The [j]Pharisees came and asked Him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" [k]testing Him.

3 And He answered and said to them, "What did Moses [l]command you?"

4 They said, "Moses permitted a man to [m]write a certificate of divorce, and to dismiss her."

5 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Because of the hardness of your heart he [n]wrote you this precept.

6 "But from the beginning of the creation, [o]God 'made them male and female.'

7 'For this reason a man shall [p]leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife,

8 'and the two shall become one flesh'; so then they are no longer two, but one flesh.

9 "Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate."

10 In the house His disciples also asked Him again about the same matter.

11 So He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits [q]adultery against her.

12 "And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

Jesus blesses little children
(Matt. 19:13–15; Luke 18:15–17)

13 Then they brought little children to Him, that He might touch them; but the disciples rebuked those who brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, He was greatly displeased and said to them, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the [r]kingdom of God.

15 "Assuredly, I say to you, [s]whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will [t]by no means enter it."

16 And He took them up in His arms, laid His hands on them, and blessed them.

The rich young ruler
(Matt. 19:16–30; Luke 18:18–30; cp. Luke 10:25)

17 Now as He was going out on the road, one came running, knelt before Him, and asked Him, "Good Teacher, what shall I [a]do that I may inherit [b]eternal life?"
18 So Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good but One, that is, [c]God.
19 "You know the [d]commandments: [e]'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not [f]murder,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not bear false witness,' [g]'Do not defraud,' 'Honor your father and your mother.' "*
20 And he answered and said to Him, "Teacher, all these things I have [h]kept from my youth."
21 Then Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack: Go your way, [i]sell whatever you have and give to the poor, and you will have [j]treasure in heaven; and come, [k]take up the cross, and follow Me."
22 But he was sad at this word, and [l]went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

"With God all things are possible"

23 Then Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, [m]"How hard it is for those who have [n]riches to enter the [o]kingdom of God!"
24 And the disciples were astonished at His words. But Jesus answered again and said to them, "Children, how hard it is for those who [p]trust in riches* to enter the kingdom of God!
25 "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a [q]needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."
26 And they were [r]greatly astonished, saying among themselves,
"Who then can be [s]saved?"
27 But Jesus looked at them and said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God; for with God all things are [t]possible."

Faithfulness to the Lord will be rewarded

28 Then Peter began to say to Him,
"See, we have [u]left all and followed
You."
29 So Jesus answered and said,
"Assuredly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife* or children or lands, for My sake and the [v]gospel's, 30 "who shall not [w]receive a hundredfold now in this time—houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with [x]persecutions—and in the age to come, [y]eternal life.
31 "But many who are [z]first will be last, and the last first."

Jesus again foretells His death and resurrection
(Matt. 20:17–19; Luke 18:31–33)

32 Now they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going before them; and they were amazed. And as they followed they were afraid. Then He took the twelve aside again and began to [aa]tell them the things that would happen to Him:
33 "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the [bb]Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the [cc]scribes; and they will condemn Him to death and deliver
Him to the Gentiles;
34 "and they will mock Him, and scourge Him, and spit on Him, and kill Him. And the third day He will rise again."

The Greek noun aiōn, here translated "age" (v. 30), has various connotations: a period of time (e.g. the Mosaic age; the Church age) and, in certain contexts eternity or forever. It is also translated "world" (Luke 16:8; Rom. 12:2). However, "world" is normally the translation of the Greek kosmos (see Matt. 4:8 and Rev. 13:8, notes) or of the Greek oikoumenē (see Luke 2:1, note).

Christ's response to request of James and John (Matt. 20:20–28)

35 Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Him, saying, "Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we [a]ask."

36 And He said to them, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

37 They said to Him, "Grant us that we may sit, one on Your right hand and the other on Your left, in Your [b]glory."

38 But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the [c]cup that I drink, and be baptized with the [d]baptism that I am baptized with?"

39 They said to Him, "We are able." So Jesus said to them, [e]"You will indeed drink the cup that I drink, and with the baptism I am baptized with you will be baptized;

40 "but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those [f]for whom it is prepared."

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be greatly displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to Himself and said to them, "You know that those who are considered rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them.

43 "Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you shall be your [g]servant.

44 "And whoever of you desires to be first shall be slave of all.

Bartimaeus receives his sight (Matt. 20:29–34; cp. Luke 18:35–43)

46 Now they came to Jericho. As He went out of Jericho with His disciples and a great multitude, [k]blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the road begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and [l]say, "Jesus, [m]Son of David, [n]have mercy on me!"

48 Then many warned him to be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

49 So Jesus stood still and [o]commanded him to be called. Then they called the blind man, saying to him, "Be of good cheer. Rise, He is calling you."

50 And throwing aside his garment, he rose and came to Jesus.

51 So Jesus answered and said to him, "What do you want Me to do for you?" The blind man said to Him, "Rabboni, that I may [p]receive my sight."

52 Then Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your [q]faith has made you well." And immediately he [r]received his sight and followed Jesus on the road.

3 "And if anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The [u]Lord has need of it,' and immediately he will send it here."

4 So they went their way, and found the* colt tied by the door outside on the street, and they loosed it.

5 But some of those who stood there said to them, "What are you doing, loosing the colt?"

8 And many spread their clothes on the road, and others cut down leafy [b]branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

9 Then those who went before and those who followed cried out, saying:

10 Blessed is the [d]kingdom of our father David
That comes in the name of the Lord!*

16 And He would not allow anyone to carry wares through the temple.

Parable of the vineyard owner

2 "Now at vintage-time he sent a servant to the vinedressers, that he might receive some of the fruit of the vineyard from the vinedressers.

3 "And they took him and beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

4 "Again he sent them another servant, and at him they threw stones,* wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated.

5 "And again he sent another, and him they killed; and [i]many others, [j]beating some and [k]killing some.

6 "Therefore still having one son, his beloved, he also [l]sent him to them last, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

7 "But those vinedressers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.'

8 "So they took him and [m]killed him and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 "Therefore what will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the vinedressers, and give the vineyard to others.

12:1 This parable (vv. 1–9), addressed to the religious leaders of Israel—"the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders" (11:27)—illustrates God's dealings with the nation and their rejection of His proffered love and of their responsibilities to Him. The "man" (v. 1) is God Himself; the vineyard is Israel (v. 1; compare Is. 5:1–7); the servants (vv. 2–5) are the OT prophets and John the Baptist; the "son, his beloved" whom they killed (vv. 6–8), is Jesus Himself (compare Heb. 1:1–3); and the destruction of the vinedressers (v. 9) is a prediction regarding Jerusalem's fall in A.D. 70 (compare Luke 21:20–24). That the chief priests, the scribes, and elders recognized that it was they of whom Christ spoke is recorded in v. 12. The words of the Lord discovered and laid bare the thoughts and intents of their hearts (compare Heb. 4:12).

16 So they brought it. And He said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?" They said to Him, "Caesar's."

17 And Jesus answered and said to them, [c]"Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to [d]God the things that are God's." And they marveled at Him.

18 Then some [e]Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him; and they asked Him, saying:

19 "Teacher, [f]Moses wrote to us that [g]if a man's brother dies, and leaves his wife behind, and leaves no children, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.

20 "Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife; and dying, he left no offspring.

21 "And the second took her, and he died; nor did he leave any offspring. And the third likewise.

22 "So the seven had her and left no offspring. Last of all the woman died also.

23 "Therefore, in the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be? For all seven had her as wife."

24 Jesus answered and said to them, "Are you not therefore mistaken, because you do not know the Scriptures nor the power of God?

25 "For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like [h]angels in heaven.

26 "But concerning the dead, that they [i]rise, have you not [j]read in the [k]book of Moses, in the burning bush passage, how God [l]spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?

12:13 POLITICAL PARTIES IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

The Herodians

A political party of Jews who supported the dynasty of Herod and the rule of Rome. They are only mentioned three times in Scripture (Matt. 22:16; Mark 3:6; 12:13). They were lax in morals and in religious observance and thus were detested by the Pharisees. However, the two opposing groups joined together to destroy Jesus and to try to trick Him, once they realized that Jesus was their common foe.

The Zealots

A Jewish political party formed to resist Roman rule and aggression. The Zealots resorted to violence and assassination in attacking the Romans they so hated. They were fanatics in their fight against Roman authority; it is from this zeal their name is derived. One of the apostles, Simon, is surnamed the Zealot in Luke 6:15; Acts 1:13.

The Galileans

These people were natives of Galilee and were looked down upon by the southern Jews as an ignorant and rustic group of folks. They were a people of passionate and excitable temperament, a spirit which united them with the Zealots. Their lawless spirit and extreme resistance to being taxed by the Romans was a source of constant anxiety to the Roman authorities. Eventually the name Galilean became synonymous with lawlessness and violence and it was intentionally brought up at Jesus' trial to arouse prejudice against Christ, when it was pointed out that He was from Galilee.

The Assassins

This group was a secret society well known in Rome during the last troubled years of the Republic. With dagger concealed beneath the cloak they secretly murdered their own or their patrons' enemies, generally escaping detection by the swiftness of the attack and their quick mingling with the horror-stricken crowd. They are mentioned in Acts 21:38.

together, perceiving* that He had answered them well, asked Him, "Which is the first commandment of all?"

29 Jesus answered him, "The first of all the commandments is: [a] 'Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God, the LORD is [b] one.

30 'And you shall [c] love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' This is the first commandment.*

31 "And the second, like it, is this: [d] 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than [e] these."

32 So the [f] scribe said to Him, "Well said, Teacher. You have spoken the [g] truth, for there is one God, and there is no other but He.

33 "And to love Him with all the heart, with all the understanding, with all the soul,* and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself, [h] is more than all the whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."

34 Now when Jesus saw that he answered [i] wisely, He said to him, "You are not far from the [j] kingdom of God." But after that no one dared question Him.

Jesus questions the Pharisees concerning Messiah (Matt. 22:41–46; Luke 20:41–44)

35 Then Jesus answered and said, while He taught in the temple, "How is it that the [k] scribes say that the Christ is the [l] Son of David?

36 "For David himself [m] said by the Holy [n] Spirit:

'The LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
Till I make Your enemies Your footstool."' *

37 "Therefore David himself calls Him 'Lord'; how is He then his [o] Son?" And the common people heard Him gladly.

38 Then He said to them in His teaching, "Beware of the [p] scribes, who desire to go around in long robes, love greetings in the marketplaces,

39 "the [q] best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts,

40 "who devour widows' houses, and for a [r] pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

The widow's mites (Luke 21:1–4)

41 Now Jesus sat opposite the treasury and saw how the people put money into the [s] treasury. And many who were rich put in much.

42 Then one poor widow came and threw in two mites,* which make a [t] quadrans.

43 So He called His disciples to Himself and said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you that this poor widow has put in more than all those who have given to the treasury;

44 "for they all put in out of their abundance, but she out of her [u] poverty put in all that she had, her whole livelihood."

The Olivet Discourse (Matt. 24—25): the disciples' two questions (Matt. 24:3; Luke 21:7)

13 THEN as He went out of the temple, one of His disciples said to Him, "Teacher, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!"

2 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Do you see these great [v] buildings? Not one stone shall be [w] left upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

3 Now as He sat on the Mount of Daniel's seventieth week of years (Dan. 9:27); the end time (Matt. 24:4–14; cp. Luke 21:8–11)

5 And Jesus, answering them, began to say: "Take heed that no one [e]deceives you.

6 "For many will [f]come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and will deceive many.

7 "But when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be troubled; for such things must happen, but the [g]end is not yet.

8 "For nation will rise against nation, and [h]kingdom against kingdom. And there will be [i]earthquakes in various places, and there will be [j]famines and troubles.* These are the beginnings of sorrows.

9 "But watch out for yourselves, for they will [k]deliver you up to councils, and you will be beaten in the synagogues. You will be brought* before rulers and kings for My sake, for a testimony to them.

10 "And the [l]gospel must first be preached to all the nations.

11 "But when they arrest you and deliver you up, do not worry beforehand, or premeditate* what you will speak. But whatever is given you in that hour, speak that; for it is not you who speak, but the Holy [m]Spirit.

12 "Now brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death.

13 "And you will be [n]hated by all for My name's sake. But he who endures to the end shall be [o]saved.

The middle of the week: the abomination of desolation (Matt. 24:15–20)

14 "So when you see the [p]'abomination of desolation,' [q]spoken of by Daniel the prophet,* standing where it ought not" (let the reader understand), [r]"then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.

15 "Let him who is on the housetop not go down into the house, nor enter to take anything out of his house.

16 "And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes.

17 "But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days!

18 "And pray that your flight may not be in winter.

The great tribulation (latter half of week) (Matt. 24:21–28; cp. Ps. 2:5; see Rev. 7:14, note)

19 "For in those days there will be [s]tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the creation which God created until this time, nor ever shall be.

20 "And unless the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved; but for the [t]elect's sake, whom He chose, He shortened the days.

21 "Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or, 'Look, He is there!' do not believe it.

22 "For false christs and false prophets will rise and show signs and [u]wonders to deceive, if possible, even the [v]elect.

23 "But take heed; see, I have [w]told you all things beforehand.

Christ's return to the earth at the close of the tribulation (Matt. 24:29–31; Luke 21:25–28)

25 "the stars of heaven will fall, and the powers in the heavens will be [y]shaken.

III. The Servant's Obedience unto Death, 14—15

Jewish authorities plot death of Jesus (Matt. 26:2–5; Luke 22:1–2)

14 AFTER two days it was the [g]Passover and the Feast of [h]Unleavened Bread. And the chief priests and the [i]scribes [j]sought how they might take Him by trickery and put Him to death.
2 But they said, "Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar of the [k]people."

Jesus anointed by Mary of Bethany (Matt. 26:6–13; John 12:1–8)

3 And being in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, as He [l]sat at the table, a woman came having an alabaster flask of very costly oil of spikenard. Then she broke the flask and poured it on His [m]head.
4 But there were some who were indignant among themselves, and said, "Why was this fragrant oil wasted?
5 "For it might have been sold for more than three hundred [n]denarii and given to the poor." And they [o]criticized her sharply.
6 But Jesus said, "Let her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for Me.
7 [p]"For you have the poor with you always, and whenever you wish you may do them good; [q]but Me you do not have always.
8 "She has done what she could. She has come beforehand to [r]anoint My body for burial.
9 "Assuredly, I say to you, wherever this [s]gospel is [t]preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told as a memorial to her."

Judas agrees to betray Jesus (Matt. 26:14–16; Luke 22:3–6)

10 Then [u]Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Him to them.
11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to [v]give him money. So he sought how he might conveniently betray Him.

Preparation for the Passover (Matt. 26:17–19; Luke 22:7–13)

12 Now on the [w]first day of Unleavened Bread, when they killed the [x]Passover lamb, His disciples said to Him, "Where do You want us to go and prepare, that You may eat the Passover?"
13 And He sent out two of His disciples and said to them, "Go into the city, and a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him.
14 "Wherever he goes in, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is the guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?" '
15 "Then he will show you a large upper room, furnished and prepared; there make ready for us."
16 So His disciples went out, and came into the city, and found it just as He had said to them; and they prepared the Passover.

The last Passover (Matt. 26:20–24; Luke 22:14,21–23; John 13:18–19)

17 In the evening He came with the twelve.
18 Now as they sat and ate, Jesus said, "Assuredly, I say to you, [y]one of you who eats with Me will betray Me."
19 And they began to be [z]sorrowful, and to say to Him one by one,

The Lord's Supper instituted
(Matt. 26:26–29; Luke 22:17–20; cp. 1 Cor. 11:23–26; John 13:12–30)

22 And as they were eating, Jesus took [f]bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them and said, "Take, eat;* this is My [g]body."

23 Then He took the cup, and when He had given thanks He gave it to them, and they all [h]drank from it.

24 And He said to them, "This is My [i]blood of the [j]new* [k]covenant, which is shed for many.

25 "Assuredly, I say to you, I will no longer drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the [l]kingdom of God."

Jesus foretells Peter's denial
(Matt. 26:30–35; Luke 22:31–34; John 13:36–38)

26 And when they had [m]sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

27 Then Jesus said to them, [n]"All of you will be [o]made to stumble because of Me this night,* for it is [p]written:

'I will [q]strike the [r]Shepherd,
And the sheep will be scattered.'

28 "But after I have been raised, I will [s]go before you to Galilee."

29 Peter said to Him, "Even if all are made to stumble, yet I will not be."

30 Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you that today, even this night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times."

31 But he spoke more vehemently, "If I have to die with You, I will not deny You!" [t]And they all said likewise.

Jesus' agony in the garden
(Matt. 26:36–46; Luke 22:39–46; John 18:1)

32 Then they came to a place which was named Gethsemane; and He said to His disciples, "Sit here while I pray."

33 And He [u]took Peter, James, and John with Him, and He began to be troubled and deeply distressed.

34 Then He said to them, "My soul is exceedingly [v]sorrowful, even to death. Stay here and watch."

The first prayer
(Matt. 26:39; Luke 22:41–42)

35 He went a little farther, and fell on the ground, and [w]prayed that if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him.

36 And He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible for You. Take this [x]cup away from Me; [y]nevertheless, not what I will, but [z]what You will."

37 Then He came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Could you not watch one hour?

38 [aa]"Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the [bb]flesh is weak."

The second prayer
(Matt. 26:42; Luke 22:44)

39 Again He went away and prayed, and spoke the same words.

40 And when He returned, He found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy; and they did not know what to answer Him.

The third prayer (Matt. 26:44)

41 Then He came the third time and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough! The [cc]hour has come; behold, the Gethsemane: A garden at the foot of the Mount of Olives, across the Brook Kidron in the Kidron Valley where Christ was betrayed on the night before His crucifixion.

14:36 Abba. Aramaic Father. Compare Rom. 8:15; Gal. 4:6.

[a]Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of [b]sinners.
42 "Rise, let us be going. See, My betrayer is at hand."

Jesus' betrayal and arrest
(Matt. 26:47–56; Luke 22:47–53; John 18:3–11)

43 And immediately, while He was still speaking, [c]Judas, one of the twelve, with a great [d]multitude with swords and clubs, came from the chief priests and the [e]scribes and the elders.
44 Now His betrayer had given them a signal, saying, "Whomever I [f]kiss, He is the One; seize Him and lead Him away safely."
45 As soon as He had come, immediately he went up to Him and said to Him, "Rabbi, Rabbi!" and kissed Him.
46 Then they laid their hands on Him and took Him.
47 And one of those who stood by drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.
48 Then Jesus answered and said to them, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to take Me?
49 "I was daily with you in the temple [g]teaching, and you did not seize Me. But the Scriptures must be [h]fulfilled."
50 Then they all [i]forsook Him and fled.
51 Now a certain young man followed Him, having a linen cloth thrown around his naked body. And the young men laid hold of him,
52 and he left the linen cloth and fled from them naked.

Jesus is brought before the high priest and Sanhedrin
(Matt. 26:57–68; John 18:12–14,19–24)

53 And they led Jesus away to the [j]high priest; and with him were [k]assembled all the [l]chief priests, the elders, and the [m]scribes.
54 But [n]Peter followed Him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. And he sat with the servants and warmed himself at the fire.
55 Now the chief priests and all the council [o]sought testimony against Jesus to put Him to death, but [p]found none.
56 For many bore [q]false witness against Him, but their testimonies did not agree.
57 Then some rose up and bore false witness against Him, saying,
58 "We heard Him say, 'I will [r]destroy this temple made with hands, and within three days I will build another made [s]without hands.' "
59 But not even then did their testimony agree.
60 And the high priest stood up in the midst and asked Jesus, saying, [t]"Do You answer nothing? What is it these men testify against You?"
61 But He [u]kept silent and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked Him, saying to Him, [v]"Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?"
62 Jesus said, "I am. And you will see the [w]Son of Man [x]sitting at the right hand of the Power, and [y]coming with the clouds of heaven."
63 Then the high priest [z]tore his clothes and said, "What further need do we have of witnesses?
64 "You have heard the [aa]blasphemy! What do you think?" And they all condemned Him to be deserving of [bb]death.
65 Then some began to [cc]spit on Him, and to blindfold Him, and to beat Him, and to say to Him, "Prophesy!" And the officers [dd]struck Him with the palms of their hands.*

Peter's three denials
(Matt. 26:69–75; Luke 22:56–62; John 18:16–18,25–27)

66 Now [ee]as Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came.
67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, "You also were with [ff]Jesus of Nazareth."
68 But he denied it, saying, "I neither know nor understand what you are saying." And he went out on the porch, and a rooster [a]crowed.

69 And the servant girl saw him again, and began to say to those who stood by, "This is one of them."

70 But he denied it again. And a little later those who stood by said to Peter again, "Surely you are one of them; for you are a Galilean, and your speech shows it."*

71 Then he began to [b]curse and swear, "I do not know this Man of whom you speak!"

The Sanhedrin delivers Jesus to Pilate (Matt. 27:1–2,11–15; Luke 23:1–7,13–18; John 18:28–40; 19:1–16)

15 IMMEDIATELY, in the morning, the chief priests held a [d]consultation with the elders and [e]scribes and the whole council; and they bound Jesus, led Him away, and [f]delivered Him to Pilate.

2 Then Pilate asked Him, "Are You the [g]King of the Jews?" He answered and said to him, "It is as you say."

3 And the chief priests accused Him of many things, but He [h]answered nothing.

4 Then Pilate asked Him again, saying, "Do You answer [i]nothing? See how many things they testify against You!"*

5 But Jesus still answered nothing, so that Pilate marveled.

Jesus or Barabbas? (Matt. 27:16–26; Luke 23:16–25; John 18:40)

6 Now at the feast he was accustomed to releasing one prisoner to them, whomever they requested.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, who was chained with his fellow rebels; they had committed murder in the rebellion.

8 Then the multitude, crying aloud,* began to ask him to do just as he had always done for them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, [j]"Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

10 For he knew that the chief priests had handed Him over because of [k]envy.

11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd, so that he should [l]rather release Barabbas to them.

12 Pilate answered and said to them again, "What then do you want me to do with Him whom you call the [m]King of the Jews?"

13 So they cried out again, "Crucify Him!"

14 Then Pilate said to them, "Why, [n]what evil has He done?" But they cried out all the more, "Crucify Him!"

15 So Pilate, wanting to gratify the [o]crowd, released Barabbas to them; and he delivered Jesus, after he had scourged Him, to be [p]crucified.

Jesus is crowned with thorns (Matt. 27:27–31)

16 Then the soldiers led Him away into the hall called Praetorium, and they called together the whole garrison.

17 And they clothed Him with purple; and they twisted a crown of [q]thorns, put it on His head,

18 and began to salute Him, "Hail, King of the Jews!"

19 Then they [r]struck Him on the head with a reed and spat on Him; and bowing the knee, they worshiped Him.

20 And when they had [s]mocked Him, they took the purple off Him, put His own clothes on Him, and led Him out to crucify Him.

21 Then they compelled a certain man, Simon a Cyrenian, the father of Alexander and [t]Rufus, as he was coming out of the country and passing by, to bear His cross.

22 And they [u]brought Him to the

Jesus is crucified (Matt. 27:33–56; Luke 23:33–49; John 19:17–37)

24 And when they crucified Him, they [b]divided His garments, casting lots for them to determine what every man should take.

25 Now it was the third hour, and they [c]crucified Him.

26 And the [d]inscription of His accusation was written above:

THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 [e]With Him they also crucified two robbers, one on His right and the other on His left.

28 So the Scripture was fulfilled* which [f]says, *"And He was numbered with the transgressors."

29 And those who passed by [g]blasphemed Him, [h]wagging their heads and saying, "Aha! You who [i]destroy the temple and build it in three days, 31 Likewise the chief priests also, [j]mocking among themselves with the [k]scribes, said, "He saved [l]others; [m]Himself He cannot save.

32 "Let the Christ, the King of Israel, descend now from the cross, that we may [n]see and believe."* Even those who were crucified with Him reviled Him.

33 Now when the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, [o]saying, [p]"Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is translated, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"

35 Some of those who stood by, when they heard that, said, "Look, He is calling for Elijah!"

36 Then someone ran and filled a sponge full of sour wine, put it on a reed, and [q]offered it to Him to drink, saying, "Let Him alone; let us see if Elijah will come to take Him down."

37 And Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and [r]breathed His last.

38 Then the [s]veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom.

39 So when the centurion, who stood opposite Him, saw that He cried out like this and [t]breathed His last,* he said, "Truly this Man was the [u]Son of God!"

40 There were also women looking on from afar, among whom were [v]Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the Less and of Joses, and Salome,

IV. The Resurrection and Ascension of the Victorious Servant, 16

Christ's resurrection and events of that day (cp. Matt. 28:1–15; Luke 24:1–49; John 20:1–23)

16 NOW when the [c]Sabbath was past, [d]Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, that they might come and [e]anoint Him.

2 [f]Very early in the morning, on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen.

3 And they said among themselves, [g]"Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?"

4 But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away—for it was very large.

5 And entering the tomb, they saw a young man clothed in a long white robe sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed.

6 But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. [h]He is [i]risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid Him.

7 "But go, tell His disciples—and Peter—that He is going before you into Galilee; there you will see Him, [j]as He said to you."

8 So they went out quickly* and fled from the tomb, for they trembled and were amazed. And they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

9 Now when He rose early on the first day of the week, He [k]appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom He had cast seven [l]demons.

10 She went and told those who had been with Him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And when they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did [m]not believe.

12 After that, He appeared in another form to two of them as they walked and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it to the rest, but they did not believe them either.

14 Later He appeared to the eleven as they sat at the table; and He re-

16 "He who [c]believes and is [d]baptized will be [e]saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned.
17 "And these [f]signs will follow those who believe: In My name they will [g]cast out [h]demons; they will [i]speak with new tongues;
18 "they* will take up [j]serpents; and if they drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

LUKE

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Luke	Christ, the Man	c. A.D. 60

Background

Luke, who wrote the Third Gospel and Acts, was known as "the beloved physician" (Colossians 4:14). He was a companion and fellow worker with Paul (Philemon 24). Compare the Introduction to Acts.

This book, the longest of the Gospels, was written principally for the Greeks. Its emphasis is upon the perfect humanity of Christ, whom it presents as the Son of Man, the human-divine Person, and whose genealogy it traces to Adam. Luke's narrative of the birth and infancy of the Lord is from the point of view of the virgin mother. He alone tells of Christ's boyhood and reveals more of His prayer life than the other Synoptics. The parables found in this Gospel show Christ's concern for lost humanity. In the accounts of certain miracles, the trained observation of a physician is evident.

God's Relationship with Man

Luke is in many ways the Gospel of compassion, stressing, as it does, the Lord's sympathy for the brokenhearted, the sick, the mistreated, and the bereaved. It also shows the ministry of women to Christ. Along with its presentation of the Son of Man, the book emphasizes the worldwide scope of salvation. Luke alone records the parables of the lost sheep, the lost coin, and the lost son (15:3–32) and the mission of the Seventy (10:1–24).

Outline

The Gospel of Luke may be divided as follows:

I.	Introduction	1:1–4
II.	The Birth, Baptism, Genealogy, and Temptation of Christ	1:5—4:13
	A. Announcement of the Birth of John the Baptist	1:5–25
	B. Announcement of the Birth of Jesus	1:26–33
	C. Jesus' Miraculous Conception and Mary's Reaction	1:34–56
	D. Birth of John the Baptist	1:57–80
	E. Birth of Jesus	2:1–38
	F. Growth of Jesus	2:39–52
	G. Ministry of John the Baptist	3:1–20
	H. Baptism of Jesus	3:21–22
	I. Genealogy of Mary	3:23–38
	J. Temptation of Jesus	4:1–13
III.	The Public Ministry of the Son of Man, to the Triumphal Entry	4:14—19:27
IV.	The Rejection of Christ, and His Death	19:28—23:56
V.	Christ's Resurrection, Commission to the Disciples, and Ascension	24:1–53

I. The Introduction, 1:1–4

1 INASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set in order a narrative of those [a]things which have been fulfilled* among us,

2 just as those who from the [b]beginning were [c]eyewitnesses and [d]ministers of the word [e]delivered them to us,

3 it seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to [f]write to you an orderly account, most excellent [g]Theophilus,

4 that you may know the certainty of those [h]things in which you were instructed.

II. The Birth, Baptism, Genealogy, and Temptation of Christ, 1:5—4:13

John the Baptist's birth foretold

5 There was in the days of Herod, the king of [i]Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the [j]division of [k]Abijah. His [l]wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

6 And they were both [m]righteous before God, walking in all the [n]commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 But they had no child, [o]because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both well advanced in years.

8 So it was, that while he was serving as priest before God in the order of his division,

9 according to the custom of the priesthood, his lot fell to [p]burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people was praying outside at the hour of incense.

11 Then an [q]angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was [r]troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the [s]angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zacharias, for your [t]prayer is heard; and your wife [u]Elizabeth will [v]bear you a son, and you shall call his name [w]John.

14 "And you will have joy and gladness, and many will [x]rejoice at his birth.

15 "For he will be [y]great in the sight of the Lord, and shall [z]drink neither wine nor strong drink. He will also be filled with the Holy [aa]Spirit, even from his mother's womb.

16 "And he will [bb]turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God.

17 [cc]"He will also go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,'* and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

18 And Zacharias said to the angel, "How shall I know this? [dd]For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."

19 And the angel answered and said to him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and was sent to speak to you and bring you these glad [ee]tidings.

20 "But behold, you will be [ff]mute and not able to speak until the day these things take place, because you did not believe my words which will be fulfilled in their own time."

21 And the people waited for

1:3 From the very first is from the Greek anōthen (adv., from anō, which can mean "up," "upward," or "above"), which is translated elsewhere by "from above" (John 3:31; 19:11; James 1:17; 3:15,17; but compare Acts 26:5, where it is translated "from the first"). Luke's use of anōthen is an affirmation that his knowledge of these things, derived from those who had been eyewitnesses from the beginning (v. 2), was confirmed by revelation. In like manner Paul had doubtless heard from the eleven the story of the institution of the Lord's Supper; but he also had it by revelation from the Lord (1 Cor. 11:23) and his writing, like Luke's knowledge, thus became firsthand and not simply traditional. Observe, too, Luke's expression "in order," an emphatic term to indicate his purpose of presenting the Gospel record in an orderly fashion.

Zacharias, and marveled that he lingered so long in the temple.

22 But when he came out, he could not speak to them; and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple, for he [a]beckoned to them and remained speechless.

23 So it was, as soon as the days of his service were completed, that he departed to his [b]own house.

24 Now after those days his wife [c]Elizabeth [d]conceived; and she hid herself five months, saying,

25 "Thus the Lord has dealt with me, in the days when He looked on me, to [e]take away my reproach among people."

The annunciation of Jesus' birth

26 Now in the sixth month the [f]angel Gabriel was sent by God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth, 27 to a [g]virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary.

28 And having come in, the angel said to her, "Rejoice, highly favored one, the Lord is with you; blessed are you among women!"*

29 But when she saw *him, she was [h]troubled at his saying, and considered what manner of greeting this was.

30 Then the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found [i]favor with God.

31 "And behold, you will [j]conceive in your womb and bring forth a [k]Son, and shall call His [l]name JESUS.

32 "He will be great, and will be called the Son of the [m]Highest; and the Lord God will [n]give Him the [o]throne of His [p]father David.

33 "And He [q]will reign over the house of Jacob [r]forever, and of His [s]kingdom there will be no end."

Jesus' miraculous conception

34 Then Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, [t]since I do not know a man?"

35 And the angel answered and said to her, "The Holy [u]Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Highest will overshadow you; therefore, also, that [v]Holy One who is to be born will be called the [w]Son of God.

36 "Now indeed, Elizabeth your relative has also conceived a son in her old age; and this is now the sixth month for her who was called barren.

37 [x]"For with God nothing will be impossible."

38 Then Mary said, "Behold the maidservant of the Lord! [y]Let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.

1:27 THE MARYS OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

Six Marys are to be distinguished in the NT:

(1) Mary, the mother of Jesus, always clearly identified by the context.

(2) Mary, the mother of the Apostle James (called "the Less," Mark 15:40) and wife of Clopas (John 19:25), who may be identified with Alphaeus (Matt. 10:3; Mark 3:18; Luke 6:15). She was evidently the cousin of Mary, the mother of Jesus. This Mary watched the crucifixion (Matt. 27:56; Mark 15:40; John 19:25), visited the garden tomb (Mark 15:47; 16:1; Luke 24:10), and was presumably among the women who saw the risen Lord on the resurrection day (Matt. 28:7–9; Luke 24:9,22–24). She is normally mentioned only in connection with one or both of her sons. Some have conjectured that this Mary was the sister of Mary, the mother of Jesus, but it is highly improbable that two sisters would have the same name.

(3) Mary of Bethany, sister of Martha and Lazarus, mentioned by name only in Luke 10:39,42; John 11:1,2,19,20,28,31,32,45; 12:3, but referred to in Matt. 26:7; Mark 14:3–9.

(4) Mary Magdalene, a woman of Magdala, "out of whom [Jesus] had cast seven demons" (Mark 16:9). She is never mentioned apart from the identifying word "Magdalene" and is not to be confused with the sinful woman who anointed the Savior's feet in a city of Galilee (Luke 7:36–50).

(5) Mary, the mother of John Mark, and sister of Barnabas (Acts 12:12). And

(6) Mary, a Christian woman of Rome, to whom Paul sent his salutation (Rom. 16:6).

and went into the hill country with haste, to a city of Judah, 40 and entered the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth.
41 And it happened, when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, that the babe leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was [a]filled with the Holy [b]Spirit.
42 Then she spoke out with a loud voice and said, [c]"Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!
43 "But why is this granted to me, that the mother of my Lord should [d]come to me?
44 "For indeed, as soon as the voice of your greeting sounded in my ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.
45 [e]"Blessed is she who [f]believed, for there will be a fulfillment of those things which were told her from the Lord."

Mary's "Magnificat"
(cp. 1 Sam. 2:1–10)

46 And Mary said:

"My soul magnifies the Lord,
47 And my spirit has [g]rejoiced in [h]God my [i]Savior.
48 For He has [j]regarded the lowly state of His maidservant;
For behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed.
49 For He who is mighty has done
[k]great things for me,
And [l]holy is His name.
50 And His [m]mercy is on those who [n]fear Him
From generation to generation.
51 He has shown strength with His [o]arm;
He has scattered the [p]proud in the imagination of their hearts.
52 [q]He has put down the mighty from their thrones,
And exalted the lowly.
53 He has [r]filled the hungry with good things,
And the rich He has sent away empty.
54 He has helped His [s]servant
Israel,
In remembrance of His mercy,
55 [t]As He [u]spoke to our [v]fathers,
To Abraham and to his [w]seed forever."

56 And Mary remained with her about three months, and returned to her house.

John is born and named

57 Now Elizabeth's full time came for her to be delivered, and she brought forth a son.
58 When her neighbors and relatives heard how the Lord had shown great mercy to her, they [x]rejoiced with her.
59 So it was, on the [y]eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him by the name of his father, Zacharias.
60 His mother answered and said, "No; he shall be called [z]John."
61 But they said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name."
62 So they made signs to his father—what he would have him called.
63 And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, saying, "His name is John." So they all marveled.
64 Immediately his mouth was [aa]opened and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, praising God.
65 Then fear came on all who dwelt around them; and all these sayings were discussed throughout all the hill country of Judea.
66 And all those who heard them kept them in their [bb]hearts, saying, "What kind of child will this be?" And the hand of the Lord was with him.

Zacharias' "Benedictus"

67 Now his father Zacharias was [cc]filled with the Holy [dd]Spirit, and prophesied, saying:

68 "Blessed[ee] is the Lord God of Israel,
For He has [ff]visited and [gg]redeemed His [hh]people,
69 And has raised up a [ii]horn of 70 [a]As He [b]spoke by the mouth of His [c]holy prophets,

Who have been [d]since the world began, 71 That we should be saved from our enemies
And from the hand of all who hate us,
72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers
And to remember His [e]holy [f]covenant,
73 The [g]oath which He swore to our father Abraham:
74 To grant us that we,
Being delivered from the hand
of our enemies,
Might serve Him without fear,
75 In [h]holiness and [i]righteousness before Him all the days of our life.
76 "And you, child, will be called the [j]prophet of the Highest;
For you [k]will go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways,
77 To give [l]knowledge of [m]salvation to His people
By the remission of their [n]sins, 78 Through the tender mercy of our God,
With which the Dayspring from
on high has visited* us;
79 To give [o]light to those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death,
To [p]guide our feet into the way of peace."

80 So the [q]child grew and became strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his manifestation to Israel.

Jesus is born in Bethlehem
(Matt. 1:18–25; 2:1; cp. John 1:14)

2 AND it came to pass in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be [r]registered.

2 This census first took place while Quirinius was governing Syria.

3 So all went to be registered, everyone to his own city.

4 Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called [s]Bethlehem, because he was of the [t]house and lineage of David,

5 to be registered with Mary, his betrothed wife,* who was with child.

6 So it was, that while they were there, the days were completed for her to be delivered.

7 [u]And she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Angelic announcement of Jesus' birth

8 Now there were in the same country shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And behold,* an [v]angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were greatly afraid.

10 Then the angel said to them, [w]"Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good [x]tidings of great joy which will be to [y]all people.

11 "For there is born to you this day in the city of David a [z]Savior, who is Christ the Lord.

12 "And this will be the sign to you: You will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a manger."

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying:

14 "Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth [aa]peace, goodwill toward men!"*

21 And when [b]eight days were completed for the circumcision of the Child,* His name was called [c]JESUS, the name given by the [d]angel [e]before He was conceived in the womb.

22 Now when the [f]days of her purification according to the law of Moses were completed, they brought Him to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord

23 [g](as it is written in the [h]law of the Lord, [i]"Every male who opens the womb shall be called [j]holy to the LORD"),

27 So he came by the Spirit into the temple. And when the parents brought in the Child Jesus, to do for Him according to the custom of the law,

2:25 RIGHTEOUSNESS OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

The words "righteous" and "just" are used to translate the Hebrew yashar, "upright"; tsaddiq, "just." In these words but one idea inheres: the righteous or just man is so called because he is right with God; and he is right with God because he has observed "all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord" (Luke 1:6; compare Rom. 10:5; Phil. 3:6). The OT righteous man was not sinless (Eccl. 7:20) but one who, for his sins, trusted the coming Messiah and offered in faith the required sacrifice (e.g. Lev. 4:27–35). Compare Righteousness (NT), Rom. 10:10, note, and Paul's contrast, Phil. 3:4–9.

31 Which You have prepared before the face of all
peoples,
32 A [a]light to bring revelation to
the Gentiles,
And the glory of Your people
Israel."

33 And Joseph and His mother* marveled at those things which were spoken of Him.
34 Then Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary His mother, "Behold, this Child is destined for the fall and [b]rising of many in Israel, and for a sign which will be [c]spoken against 35 "(yes, a sword will [d]pierce through your own soul also), that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

Anna's testimony to Christ

36 Now there was one, Anna, a [e]prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of [f]Asher. She was of a great age, and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity;
37 and this woman was a [g]widow of about eighty-four years,* who did not depart from the temple, but served God with fastings and [h]prayers night and day.
38 And coming in that instant she gave thanks to the Lord,* and spoke of Him to all those who [i]looked for [j]redemption in Jerusalem.

Return to Nazareth: the silent years (after events of Matt. 2)

39 So when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth.
40 [k]And the Child grew and became strong in spirit,* filled with [l]wisdom; and the [m]grace of God was upon Him.

Jesus' visit to His "Father's house" in Jerusalem

41 His parents went to [n]Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the [o]Passover.
42 And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the [p]custom of the feast.
43 When they had finished the [q]days, as they returned, the Boy Jesus lingered behind in Jerusalem. And Joseph and His mother* did not know it;
44 but supposing Him to have been in the company, they went a day's journey, and sought Him among their relatives and acquaintances.
45 So when they [r]did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking Him.
46 Now so it was that after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the [s]teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions.
47 And all who heard Him were [t]astonished at His understanding and answers.
48 So when they saw Him, they were [u]amazed; and His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You done this to us? Look, Your father and I have sought You anxiously."
49 And He said to them, "Why did you seek Me? Did you not know that I must be [v]about [w]My Father's business?"
50 But they did [x]not understand the statement which He spoke to them.

Jesus grows in wisdom, stature, and favor

51 Then He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them, but His mother [y]kept all these things in her heart.
52 And Jesus [z]increased in [aa]wisdom and stature, [bb]and in favor with God and men.

brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene,

2 while Annas and [a]Caiaphas were high priests,* the word of God came to [b]John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 And he went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of [c]repentance for the remission of [d]sins,

4 as it is [e]written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, [f]saying:

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
'Prepare the way of the LORD;
Make His paths straight.
5 Every valley shall be filled
And every mountain and hill brought low;
The crooked places shall be made straight
And the rough ways smooth;
6 And all flesh shall see the [g]salvation of God.'"

7 Then he said to the multitudes that came out to be baptized by him, [h]"Brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 "Therefore bear fruits [i]worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, [j]'We have Abraham as our father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.

9 "And even now the ax is laid to the root of the trees. [k]Therefore every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

10 So the people asked him, saying, [l]"What shall we do then?"

11 He answered and said to them, "He who has two tunics, let him [m]give to him who has none; and he who has food, let him do [n]likewise."

12 Then tax collectors also came to be baptized, and said to him, "Teacher, [o]what shall we do?"

13 And he said to them, "Collect no more than what is appointed for you."

14 Likewise the soldiers asked him, saying, "And [p]what shall we do?" So he said to them, "Do not intimidate anyone or accuse [q]falsely, and be content with your [r]wages."

15 Now as the people were in expectation, and all reasoned in their hearts about John, whether he was the Christ or not,

16 John answered, saying to all, "I indeed [s]baptize you with water; but One mightier than I is coming, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loose. He will [t]baptize you with the Holy [u]Spirit and fire.

17 "His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, [v]and gather the wheat into His barn; but the chaff He will burn with unquenchable fire."

18 And with many other exhortations he preached to the people.

19 But Herod the tetrarch, being rebuked by him concerning [w]Herodias, his brother Philip's wife,* and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 also added this, above all, that he shut John up in prison.

Baptism of Jesus (Matt. 3:13–17; Mark 1:9–11; cp. John 1:31–34)

21 When all the people were [x]baptized, it came to pass that Jesus also was baptized; and while He [y]prayed, the heaven was [z]opened.

22 And the Holy [aa]Spirit descended in bodily form like a dove upon Him, and a voice came from heaven which said, "You are My beloved Son; in You I am well [bb]pleased."

3:23

THE GENEALOGIES OF JESUS

The genealogies of our Lord recorded in Matt. 1:1–17 and Luke 3:23–38 have their similarities and their differences. Though the Lucan genealogy goes back to Adam and that of Matthew goes only to Abraham, they are both in absolute agreement in the generations between Abraham and David. It is with the Son of David that the great difference begins, for Luke traces our Lord's ancestry from David through Nathan, whereas Matthew uses the royal line through Solomon. It is true that the names Shealtiel, Zerubbabel, and possibly Matthat (Matthan in Matthew) appear subsequently in both, but otherwise the lists are entirely different. Indeed in one, Jacob is spoken of as Joseph's father; whereas in the other, Heli is presumably so presented.

Two views have been maintained by equally godly and learned scholars. Some believe both genealogies are of Joseph, but that the one in Matthew gives the legal descendants of David to establish our Lord's claim to the Davidic throne, while Luke gives the particular line to which Joseph actually belonged. The second list, then, is spoken of as the collateral line and is eligible for royal duty when the legal line is incapacitated or becomes extinct.

A far simpler solution, and in all probability the true one, is that since every man has two genealogies—one through his father and another through his mother—so Matthew presents Joseph's genealogy (the Lord's foster or legal father, not his actual father), whereas Luke presents Mary's genealogy. This view is supported by linguistic and historical evidence and is held by many students of the Bible. In addition, appeal may be made to Num. 27:1–11 and 36:1–12 to give Scriptural precedent for the substitution of Joseph's name in Luke 3:23. At the same time it avoids the judgment spoken of in Jer. 22:28–30 (see Matt. 1:11, note).

6 And the devil said to Him, "All this [a]authority I will give You, and their glory; for this has been [b]delivered to me, and I [c]give it to whomever I wish.
7 "Therefore, if You will worship before me, [d]all will be Yours."
8 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Get behind Me, [e]Satan!* For* it is [f]written, [g]'You shall [h]worship the LORD your God, and Him only you shall serve.'"
9 Then he brought Him to Jerusalem, [i]set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, "If You are the [j]Son of God, [k]throw Yourself down from here.
10 "For it is [l]written:

'He[m] shall give His [n]angels

To keep you,'

11 "and,

12 And Jesus answered and said to him, "It has been [o]said, [p]'You shall not [q]tempt the LORD your God.'"
13 Now when the devil had ended every [r]temptation, he [s]departed from Him until an opportune time.

III. The Public Ministry of the Son of Man, to the Triumphal Entry, 4:14—19:27

First tour of Galilee (Matt. 4:12–17; Mark 1:14–15)

14 Then Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and [t]news of Him went out through all the surrounding region.
15 And He [u]taught in their synagogues, [v]being glorified by all.

Jesus in the synagogue at Nazareth; His rejection (cp. Matt. 13:53–58; Mark 6:1–6)

16 So He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. And as His [w]custom was, He went into the synagogue on the [x]Sabbath day, and stood up to read.
17 And He was handed the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when He had opened the book, He found the place where it was [y]written:

18 "The[z] Spirit of the LORD is upon Me,
Because He has anointed Me
To preach the [aa]gospel to the poor;
*He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives
And recovery of sight to the blind,
To [bb]set at liberty those who are oppressed;
19 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD."

20 Then He closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all who were in the synagogue were fixed on Him.
21 And He began to say to them, "Today this Scripture is [cc]fulfilled in your hearing."
22 So all bore witness to Him, and marveled at the [dd]gracious words which proceeded out of His mouth. And they said, [ee]"Is this not Joseph's son?"

4:10 it is written. After Satan's failure to cause the Lord Jesus to depart from Scripture, he seeks to tempt Him by Scripture. However, Satan misquotes it in omitting the phrase "in all your ways" (Ps. 91:11). The Lord's ways were those marked out for Him in perfect dependence upon His Father's will. Compare Heb. 10:7,9.

4:19 acceptable year. A comparison with the passage quoted, Is. 61:1–2, affords an instance of the exquisite accuracy of the Lord's use of Scripture. Jesus stopped at "the acceptable year of the LORD," which is connected with the first advent and His gracious offer of Himself (Gen. 3:15; Acts 1:11, note), whereas "the day of vengeance of our God" (Is. 61:2) belongs to the second advent and judgment (Deut. 30:3; Acts 1:11, note).
4:20 sat down. That is, to teach. Matt. 5:1; Luke 5:3; John 8:2.

23 He said to them, "You will surely say this proverb to Me, 'Physician, [a]heal yourself! Whatever we have heard [b]done in [c]Capernaum,* do also here in Your country.' "
24 Then He said, "Assuredly, I say to you, no [d]prophet is accepted in his own country.
25 "But I tell you truly, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, [e]when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, and there was a great famine throughout all the land;
26 "but to none of them was Elijah sent [f]except to Zarephath,* in the region of [g]Sidon, to a woman who was a widow.
27 "And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them was cleansed [h]except Naaman the Syrian."
28 So all those in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were [i]filled with wrath,
29 [j]and rose up and thrust Him out of the city; and they led Him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might throw Him down over the cliff.
30 Then [k]passing through the midst of them, He went His way.

Jesus casts out demons at Capernaum (Mark 1:21–28)

31 Then He went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and was [l]teaching them on the Sabbaths.
32 And they were [m]astonished at His teaching, [n]for His word was with authority.
33 Now in the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean [o]demon. And he cried out with a loud voice,
34 saying, "Let us alone! What have we to do with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Did You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the [p]Holy One of God!"
35 But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him!" And when the [q]demon had thrown him in their midst, it came out of him and did not hurt him.
36 Then they were all amazed and spoke among themselves, saying, "What a word this is! [r]For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out."
37 And the [s]report about Him went out into every place in the surrounding region.

Peter's mother-in-law and others healed (Matt. 8:14–17; Mark 1:29–34)

38 Now He arose from the synagogue and entered Simon's house. But Simon's wife's mother was sick with a high fever, and they [t]made request of Him concerning her.
39 So He stood over her and [u]rebuked the fever, and it [v]left her. And immediately she arose and [w]served them.
40 When the sun was setting, [x]all those who had any that were sick with various diseases brought them to Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them and healed them.
41 And [y]demons also came out of many, [z]crying out and saying, [aa]"You are the Christ,* the Son of God!" And He, [bb]rebuking them, did not allow them to speak, for they [cc]knew that He was the Christ.
42 Now when it was day, He departed and went into a [dd]deserted place. And the crowd sought Him and came to Him, and tried to keep Him from leaving them;
43 but He said to them, "I must [ee]preach the [ff]kingdom of God to the other cities also, because for this purpose I have been sent."
44 And He was [gg]preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.*

3 Then He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And He [a]sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat.

4 When He had stopped speaking, He said to Simon, "Launch out into the deep and [b]let down your nets for a [c]catch."

5 But Simon answered and said to Him, "Master, we have [d]toiled all night and caught [e]nothing; nevertheless [f]at Your word I will let down the net."

6 And when they had done this, they [g]caught a great number of fish, and their net was breaking.

7 So they signaled to their partners in the [h]other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink.

9 For he and all who were with him were [k]astonished at the catch of fish which they had taken;

17 Now it happened on a certain day, as He was teaching, that there were [z]Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every town of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present to heal them.*

18 Then behold, men brought on a bed a man who was paralyzed, whom they sought to bring in and lay before Him.

19 And when they could not find how they might bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the housetop and let him down with his bed through the tiling into the midst [aa]before Jesus.

20 When He saw their [bb]faith, He said to him, "Man, your [cc]sins are [dd]forgiven you."

21 And the [ee]scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this who speaks [ff]blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but [gg]God alone?"

22 But when Jesus [hh]perceived their thoughts, He answered and said to them, "Why are you reasoning in your hearts?

5:12 if You are willing. The leper honored Christ by recognizing His power to heal, and begged Him, "if You are willing," to heal his leprosy. Similarly the Christian should recognize Christ's power to heal, but should always pray, "if You are willing" (1 John 5:14). Even the Lord Jesus prayed, "Not My will, but Yours, be done" (Luke 22:42). Paul prayed three times that his "thorn in the flesh" might be removed, but when God willed not to do so, Paul realized that God had a wise and good purpose in asking him to continue to bear it (2 Cor. 12:7–9; Rom. 8:28).

28 So he left all, rose up, and [h]followed Him.

29 Then Levi gave Him a great feast in his own house. And there were a great number of tax collectors and others who sat down with them.

30 And their [i]scribes and the [j]Pharisees* complained against His disciples, saying, [k]"Why do You eat and drink with tax collectors and [l]sinners?"

31 Jesus answered and said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are [m]sick.

32 "I have not come to call the [n]righteous, but sinners, to [o]repentance."

33 Then they said to Him, "Why do* the disciples of John [p]fast often and make prayers, and likewise those of the Pharisees, but Yours eat and drink?"

synagogue and taught. And a man was there whose right hand was withered.

7 So the scribes and [a]Pharisees watched Him closely, whether He would [b]heal on the Sabbath, that they might find an [c]accusation against Him.

8 But He [d]knew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the withered hand, "Arise and stand here." And he [e]arose and stood.

9 Then Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one thing: [f]Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do [g]evil, to save life or to destroy?"*

10 And when He had looked around at them all, He said to the man,* "Stretch out your hand." And he did so, and his hand was restored as whole as the other.*

11 But they were filled with [h]rage, and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

12 Now it came to pass in those days that He went out to the mountain to pray, and continued all night in [i]prayer to God.

The twelve chosen (cp. Matt. 10:2–4; Mark 3:13–19)

13 And when it was day, He called His disciples to Himself; and from them He [j]chose [k]twelve whom He also named apostles:

14 Simon, whom He also named Peter, and Andrew his brother; James and John; Philip and Bartholomew;

15 Matthew and Thomas; James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called the Zealot;

16 Judas the son of [l]James, and [m]Judas Iscariot who also became a traitor.

The Sermon on the Level Place (cp. Matt. 5—7, Sermon on the Mount)

17 And He came down with them and stood on a level place with a crowd of His disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear Him and be healed of their diseases, 18 as well as those who were tormented with unclean spirits. And they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude [n]sought to [o]touch Him, for power went out from Him and healed them all.

The Beatitudes (Matt. 5:3–12)

20 Then He lifted up His eyes toward His disciples, and said:

"Blessed are you poor,
For yours is the [p]kingdom of God.
21 [q]Blessed are you who hunger now,
For you shall be [r]filled.
[s]Blessed are you who weep now,
For you shall [t]laugh.
22 Blessed are you when men hate you,
And [u]when they exclude you,
And revile you, and cast out your name as evil,
For the [v]Son of Man's sake.
23 [w]Rejoice in that day and leap for joy!
For indeed your [x]reward is great in heaven,
For in like manner their [y]fathers did to the prophets.

24 "But [z]woe to you who are rich,
For [aa]you have received your consolation.
25 [bb]Woe to you who are full,
For you shall hunger.
[cc]Woe to you who laugh now,
For you shall mourn and [dd]weep.
26 [ee]Woe to you* when all* men speak well of you,
For so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 [ff]"But I say to you who hear: [gg]Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,
28 [hh]"bless those who curse you, and [ii]pray for those who spitefully use you.
29 "To him who strikes you on the one cheek, offer the other also. [jj]And from him who takes away your cloak, do not withhold your tunic either.

Jesus heals a centurion's servant
(Matt. 8:5–13)

7 NOW when He concluded all His sayings in the hearing of the people, He entered Capernaum.
2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and ready to die.
3 So when he heard about Jesus,
he sent elders of the Jews to Him, pleading with Him to come and heal his servant.
4 And when they came to Jesus, they begged Him earnestly, saying that the one for whom He should do this was [h]deserving,
5 "for he loves our nation, and has built us a synagogue."
6 Then Jesus went with them. And when He was already not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying to Him,
"Lord, do not trouble Yourself, for I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof.
7 "Therefore I did not even think myself worthy to come to You. But [i]say the word, and my servant will be healed.
8 "For I also am a man placed under [j]authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and
he comes; and to my servant, 'Do
this,' and he does it."
9 When Jesus heard these things,
He [k]marveled at him, and turned around and said to the crowd that followed Him, "I say to you, I have not found such great [l]faith, not even in [m]Israel!"
10 And those who were sent, returning to the house, found the servant [n]well who had been sick.*

A widow's son raised from the dead

11 Now it happened, the day after, that He went into a city called Nain;
and many of His disciples went with Him, and a large crowd.
12 And when He came near the gate of the city, behold, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother; and she was a widow.
And a large crowd from the city was
with her.
13 When the Lord saw her, He had
[o]compassion on her and said to her,
[p]"Do not weep."
14 Then He came and touched the open coffin, and those who carried him stood still. And He said, "Young man, I say to you, [q]arise."
15 So he who was dead [r]sat [s]up and began to speak. And He [t]presented him to his mother.
16 Then [u]fear came upon all, and they [v]glorified God, saying, "A great [w]prophet has risen up among us";
and, "God has [x]visited His people."
17 And this report about Him went throughout all Judea and all the surrounding region.
18 Then the disciples of John [y]reported to him concerning all these things.

ciples to him, sent them to Jesus,* saying, "Are You the [z]Coming One, or do we look for another?"
20 When the men had come to Him, they said, "John the Baptist the Coming One, or do we look for another?' "

21 And that very hour He cured many of infirmities, afflictions, and evil spirits; and to many blind He gave sight.

Who will prepare Your way
before You.'

28 "For I say to you, among those born of women there is not a [p]greater prophet than John the Baptist;* but he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

29 And when all the people heard Him, even the tax collectors justified God, having been [q]baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the [r]Pharisees and [s]lawyers rejected the will of God for themselves, not having been baptized by him.

31 And the Lord said,* "To what then shall I liken the men of this generation, and what are they like?

32 "They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another, saying:

'We played the flute for you,
And you did not dance;
We mourned to you,
And you did not weep.'

33 "For [t]John the Baptist came [u]neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a [v]demon.'

34 "The [w]Son of Man has come [x]eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look, a glutton and a winebibber, a friend of tax collectors and [y]sinners!'

35 "But [z]wisdom is justified by all her children."

36 Then one of the [aa]Pharisees asked Him to eat with him. And He went to the Pharisee's house, and sat down to eat.

37 And behold, a woman in the city who was a [bb]sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at the table in the Pharisee's house, brought an [cc]alabaster flask of fragrant oil,

38 and stood at His feet behind Him [dd]weeping; and she began to wash His [ee]feet with her tears, and wiped them with the [ff]hair of her head; and she kissed His feet and anointed them with the fragrant oil.

39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he spoke to himself, saying, "This Man, if He were a [gg]prophet, would know who and what manner of woman this is who is touching Him, for she is a [hh]sinner."

Women who ministered to Jesus on preaching tours

8 NOW it came to pass, afterward, that He went through every city and village, preaching and bringing the [j]glad tidings of the [k]kingdom of God. And the twelve were with
Him,
2 [l]and certain [m]women who had been [n]healed of evil spirits and in-

Parable of the sower and the soils (Matt. 13:1–23; Mark 4:1–20)

4 And when a great multitude had gathered, and they had come to Him from every city, He spoke by a [q]parable:
5 "A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell by the wayside; and it was trampled down, and the birds of the air devoured it.
6 "Some fell on rock; and as soon as it sprang up, it withered away because it lacked moisture.
7 "And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it and choked it.
8 "But others fell on good ground, sprang up, and yielded a crop a hundredfold." When He had said these things He cried, [r]"He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"
9 Then His disciples asked Him, saying, "What does this parable mean?"
10 And He said, "To you it has been given to know the [s]mysteries of the [t]kingdom of God, but to the rest it is given in parables, [u]that

'Seeing they may not see,
And hearing they may not understand.'

11 "Now the parable is this: The [v]seed is the [w]word of God.
12 "Those by the wayside are the ones who hear; then the [x]devil comes and [y]takes away the word out of their [z]hearts, lest they should 13 "But the ones on the rock are

When Jesus would justify the woman in the eyes of Simon, He points to her works, for only through her works could Simon see the proof of her faith; but when He would send the woman away in peace, He points to her faith (v. 50), not her works. See Titus 2:14; 3:4–8. The believer should never base his assurance on his own works (compare Matt. 7:22–23); assurance rests completely on the finished work of Christ. Parable of the lighted lamp
(Matt. 5:15–16; Mark 4:21–23; Luke 11:33–36)

16 "No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a vessel or puts it under a bed, but sets it on a [a]lampstand, that those who enter may see the [b]light.
17 "For [c]nothing is secret that will not be [d]revealed, nor anything hidden that will not be known and come to light.
18 "Therefore take heed how you hear. [e]For whoever has, to him more will be given; and whoever does not have, even what he seems to [f]have will be taken from him."

New relationships
(Matt. 12:46–50; Mark 3:31–35)

19 Then [g]His mother and brothers came to Him, and could not approach Him because of the crowd.
20 And it was told Him by some, who said, "Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see You."
21 But He answered and said to them, "My mother and My brothers are these who hear the word of God and [h]do it."

Jesus stills the wind and the sea
(Matt. 8:23–27; Mark 4:35–41)

22 Now it happened, on a certain day, that He got into a boat with His disciples. And He said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side of the lake." And they launched out.
23 But as they sailed He fell asleep. And a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were filling with water, and were in jeopardy.
24 And they came to Him and awoke Him, [i]saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" Then He arose and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water. And they [j]ceased, and there was a calm.
25 But He said to them, [k]"Where is your faith?" And they were afraid, and marveled, saying to one another, [l]"Who can this be? For He commands even the winds and water, and they obey Him!"

Jesus casts out demons at Gadara
(Matt. 8:28–34; Mark 5:1–20)

26 Then they sailed to the country of the Gadarenes,* which is opposite Galilee.
27 And when He stepped out on the land, there met Him a certain man from the city who had [m]demons for a long time. And he wore no clothes,* nor did he live in a house but in the [n]tombs.
28 When he saw Jesus, he [o]cried out, fell down before Him, and with a loud voice said, [p]"What have I to do with You, Jesus, [q]Son of the [r]Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me!"
29 For He had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had often seized him, and he was kept under guard, bound with chains and shackles; and he [s]broke the bonds and was driven by the [t]demon into the wilderness.
30 Jesus asked him, saying, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion," because many [u]demons had entered him.
31 And they begged Him that He would not command them to go out into the [v]abyss.
32 Now a herd of many [w]swine was feeding there on the mountain. So they begged Him that He would permit them to enter them. And He [x]permitted them.
33 Then the [y]demons [z]went out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the lake and drowned.

what had happened, they fled and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what had happened, and came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the [a]demons had departed, [b]sitting at the [c]feet of Jesus, [d]clothed and in his [e]right mind. And they were afraid.

36 They also who had seen it told them by what means he who had been [f]demon-possessed was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the surrounding region of the Gadarenes* [g]asked Him to [h]depart from them, for they were seized with great [i]fear. And He got into the boat and returned.

38 Now the man from whom the [j]demons had departed [k]begged Him that he might be with Him. But Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 "Return to your own house, and [l]tell what great things God has done for you." And he went his way and [m]proclaimed throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

40 So it was, when Jesus returned, that the multitude welcomed Him, for they were all [n]waiting for Him.

Two miracles of healing
(Matt. 9:18–26; Mark 5:21–43)

41 And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a [o]ruler of the synagogue. And he fell down at Jesus' [p]feet and begged Him to come to his house, 42 for he had an [q]only daughter about twelve years of age, and she was [r]dying. But as He went, the multitudes thronged Him.

43 Now a woman, having a [s]flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her livelihood on physicians and could not be healed by any,

44 came from behind and [t]touched the border of His garment. And immediately her flow of blood stopped.

45 And Jesus said, "Who touched Me?" When all denied it, Peter and those with him* said, "Master, the multitudes throng and press You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?' "*

46 But Jesus said, "Somebody touched Me, for I perceived [u]power going out from Me."

47 Now when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before Him, she [v]declared to Him in the presence of all the people the reason she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately.

48 And He said to her, "Daughter, be of good cheer;* [w]your [x]faith has made you well. [y]Go in peace."

49 While He was still speaking, someone came from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher."*

50 But when Jesus heard it, He answered him, saying, "Do not be afraid; only [z]believe, and she will be made well."

51 When He came into the house, He permitted no one to go in* [aa]except Peter, James, and John,* and the father and mother of the girl.

52 Now all wept and mourned for her; but He said, [bb]"Do not weep; she is not dead, but [cc]sleeping."

53 And they ridiculed Him, knowing that she was dead.

54 But He put them all outside,* took her by the hand and called, saying, "Little girl, [dd]arise."

55 Then her spirit [ee]returned, and she [ff]arose immediately. And He commanded that she be given something to eat.

56 And her parents were astonished, but He [gg]charged them to tell no one what had happened.

The twelve sent forth
(Matt. 10:1–15; cp. Mark 6:7–13)

9 [hh]THEN He called His [ii]twelve disciples together and [jj]gave them power and authority over all [kk]demons, and to [ll]cure diseases.

8:37 asked Him to depart. Unconscious of their own need, the Gadarenes asked the Lord to depart; for His power terrified and condemned them. At the same time the man who had been healed begged the Lord that he might follow Him.

2 He sent them to preach the [a]kingdom of God and to heal the sick.
3 And He said to them, "Take [b]nothing for the journey, neither staffs nor bag nor bread nor money; and do not have two tunics apiece.
4 [c]"Whatever house you enter, stay there, and from there depart.
5 "And whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that city, [d]shake off the very dust from your feet as a testimony against them."
6 So they departed and went through the towns, preaching the [e]gospel and healing everywhere.
7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by Him; and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that [f]John had risen from the dead,
8 and by some that [g]Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again.
9 Herod said, "John I have beheaded, but who is this of whom I hear such things?" So he sought to [h]see Him.
10 And the apostles, when they had [i]returned, told Him all that they had done. Then He took them and went aside privately into a [j]deserted place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.
11 But when the multitudes knew it, they followed Him; and He received them and spoke to them about the [k]kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing.

Five thousand fed (Matt. 14:15–21; Mark 6:32–44; John 6:5–13)

12 When the day began to wear away, the twelve came and said to Him, "Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding towns and country, and lodge and get provisions; for we are in a deserted place here."
13 But He said to them, "You give them something to eat." And they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we go and buy food for all these people."
14 For there were about five thousand men. Then He said to His disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of fifty."
15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.
16 Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He [l]blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude.
17 So they all ate and were [m]filled, and twelve baskets of the [n]leftover fragments were taken up by them.

Peter's confession of Christ (Matt. 16:13–20; Mark 8:27–30)

18 And it happened, as He was alone praying, that His disciples joined Him, and He asked them, saying, "Who do the crowds say that I am?"
19 So they answered and said, [o]"John the Baptist, but some say [p]Elijah; and others say that one of the old prophets has risen again."
20 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" [q]Peter answered and said, "The Christ of God."
21 And He strictly warned and commanded them to tell this to no one,

Jesus foretells His death and resurrection (Matt. 16:21–27; Mark 8:31–33)

22 saying, "The [r]Son of Man [s]must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and [t]scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day."

Cost of discipleship (Matt. 16:24–27; Mark 8:34–38)

23 Then He said to them all, [u]"If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily,* and follow Me.

John: One of Jesus' disciples. He was called "the disciple whom Jesus loved."

9:11 need of healing. Compare Luke 4:40; Rom. 5:20. Wherever need is acknowledged, the Lord is ready to meet it. Since the need of bodily healing is keenly felt, sometimes men are inclined to put it first. However, spiritual need is greater and, in fact, is often the greatest where there is the least consciousness of it, e.g. Rev. 3:17.

24 [a]"For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it.
25 "For what profit is it to a man [b]if he gains the whole world, and is himself destroyed or lost?
26 "For whoever is [c]ashamed of Me and My words, of him the [d]Son of Man will be [e]ashamed when He [f]comes in His own [g]glory, and in His Father's, and of the [h]holy [i]angels.

The transfiguration
(Matt. 17:1–8; Mark 9:2–8)

27 "But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who shall not taste death till they [j]see the kingdom of God."
28 [k]Now it came to pass, about eight days after these sayings, that He took Peter, John, and James and went up on the mountain to pray.
29 As He prayed, the appearance of His face was altered, and His robe became white and [l]glistening.
30 And behold, [m]two men talked with Him, who were [n]Moses and [o]Elijah,
31 who [p]appeared [q]in glory and spoke of His decease which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.
32 But Peter and those with him were heavy with [r]sleep; and when they were fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men who stood with Him.
33 Then it happened, as they were parting from Him, that Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; and let us make [s]three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"—not knowing what he said.
34 While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were fearful as they entered the [t]cloud.
35 And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, [u]"This is My beloved Son.* Hear Him!"
36 When the voice had ceased, Jesus was found alone. But they kept quiet, and told no one in those days any of the things they had seen.

Powerless disciples: the mighty Christ
(Matt. 17:14–21; Mark 9:14–29)

37 Now it happened on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, that a great multitude met Him.
38 Suddenly a man from the multitude cried out, [v]saying, "Teacher, I implore You, look on my son, for he is my only child.
39 "And behold, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out; it convulses him so that he foams at the mouth; and it departs from him with great difficulty, bruising him.
40 "So I implored Your disciples to cast it out, but they could not."
41 Then Jesus answered and said,
"O [w]faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here."
42 And as he was still coming, the [x]demon threw him down and con-vulsed him. Then Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, [y]healed the child, and gave him back to his father.
43 And they were all amazed at [z]the majesty of God. But while everyone marveled at all the things which Jesus did, He said to His disciples,

Jesus again foretells His death
(Matt. 17:22–23; Mark 9:30–32)

44 "Let these words [aa]sink down into your ears, for the [bb]Son of Man is about to be [cc]betrayed into the hands of men."
45 [dd]But they did not understand this saying, and it was hidden from them so that they did not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask Him about this saying.

Humility, the secret of greatness
(Matt. 18:1–6; Mark 9:33–37)

46 Then a [ee]dispute arose among them as to which of them would be greatest.
47 And Jesus, [ff]perceiving the thought of their heart, took a little [gg]child and set him by Him,

48 and said to them, [a]"Whoever receives this little child in My name receives Me; and [b]whoever receives Me [c]receives Him who sent Me. For he who is [d]least among you all will be great."

Sectarianism rebuked (Matt. 9:38–40)

49 Now John answered and said, "Master, we saw someone casting out [e]demons in Your name, and we forbade him because he does not follow with [f]us."

50 But Jesus said to him, [g]"Do not forbid him, for he who is not against us* is [h]on our* side."

Jesus again passes through Samaria

51 Now it came to pass, when the time had come for Him to be received up, that He [i]steadfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem, 52 and sent messengers before His face. And as they went, they entered a village of the Samaritans, to prepare for Him.

53 But they did not receive Him, because His face was set for the journey to Jerusalem.

54 And when His disciples [j]James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, just as [k]Elijah did?"*

55 But He turned and rebuked them,* and said, "You do not know what manner of [l]spirit you are of.

56 "For the [m]Son of Man did not [n]come to destroy men's lives but to [o]save them.""* And they went to another village.

Discipleship tested (Matt. 8:19–22)

57 Now it happened as they journeyed on the road, that someone said to Him, "Lord, I will follow You wherever You go."

58 And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the [p]Son of Man [q]has nowhere to lay His head."

59 Then He said to another, "Follow Me." But he said, "Lord, let me first go and [r]bury my father."

60 Jesus said to him, "Let the [s]dead bury their own [t]dead, but you go and preach the [u]kingdom of God."

61 And another also said, "Lord, I will follow You, but let me first go and bid them farewell who are at my house."

62 But Jesus said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking [v]back, is [w]fit for the [x]kingdom of God."

The seventy sent forth (contra. Matt. 10)

10 AFTER these things the Lord appointed seventy others also,* and sent them two by two before His face into every city and place where He Himself was about to go.

2 Then He said to them, "The [y]harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out [z]laborers into His harvest.

3 "Go your way; behold, I send you out as lambs among wolves.

4 [aa]"Carry neither money bag, [bb]knapsack, nor sandals; and [cc]greet no one along the road.

5 "But whatever house you enter, first say, [dd]'Peace to this house.'

6 "And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on it; if not, it will return to you.

7 "And remain in the same house, eating and drinking such things as they give, [ee]for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Do not go from house to house.

8 "Whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you.

9 "And heal the sick there, and say to them, 'The [ff]kingdom of God has come near to you.'

10 "But whatever city you enter, and they do not receive you, go out into its streets and say,

11 'The very dust of your city which clings to us* we [gg]wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the [hh]kingdom of God has come near you.'

more [a]tolerable in that [b]Day for Sodom than for that city.

Jesus denounces the indifferent (Matt. 11:20–24)

13 [c]"Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have [d]repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 "But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you.

15 "And you, Capernaum, who are [e]exalted to heaven, will be brought down to [f]Hades.*

16 "He who [g]hears you hears Me, he who [h]rejects you rejects Me, and he who rejects Me rejects Him who sent Me."

17 Then the seventy* returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the [i]demons are subject to us in Your name."

18 And He said to them, "I saw [j]Satan [k]fall like lightning from heaven.

19 "Behold, I give you the authority to [l]trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 "Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rather* rejoice because your names are [m]written in heaven."

21 In that hour Jesus rejoiced in the Spirit and [n]said, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and revealed them to babes. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight.

22 "All* things have been [o]delivered to Me by My Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, [p]and who the Father is except the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him."

23 Then He turned to His disciples and said privately, [q]"Blessed are the eyes which see the things you see;

24 "for I tell you that many [r]prophets and kings have desired to see what you see, and have not seen it, and to hear what you hear, and have not heard it."

A lawyer questions Jesus (cp. Matt. 22:34–40; Mark 12:28–34)

25 And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and [s]tested Him, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit [t]eternal life?"

26 He said to him, "What is written in the [u]law? What is your reading of it?"

27 So he answered and said, [v]"'You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind,' and 'your neighbor as yourself.'"

28 And He said to him, "You have answered rightly; do this and you will live."

29 But he, wanting to [w]justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

30 Then Jesus answered and [x]said: "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, who stripped him of his clothing, wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 "Now by chance a certain priest came down that road. And when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 "Likewise a Levite, when he arrived at the place, came and looked, and passed by on the other side.

33 "But a certain [y]Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was. And when he saw him, he had [z]compassion.

11:2 BIBLE PRAYERS IN THE NEW TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

This well-loved prayer which our Lord taught His disciples, known as The Lord's Prayer, was evidently given upon two separate occasions and under different circumstances, and with some variations: first, in the Sermon on the Mount, while Christ was warning His disciples against ostentatious formality in prayer (compare Matt. 5:1 with 6:5–13, where see notes); and second, at an unnamed "certain place" in response to the request of one of the disciples, "Lord, teach us to pray" (Luke 11:1–4). Although the Lord's Prayer was obviously not given to be used only as a form, the two accounts teach us many precious lessons about the nature of prayer.

(1) Such prayer is based upon the relationship of God as the Father of all who truly believe in His Son (John 1:13), for only these can truly say, "Our Father" (Matt. 6:9).

(2) It must begin with the attitude of worship: "Hallowed be Your name"—an acknowledgement of the absolute holiness of all that God is and does.

(3) In the sense of petition, prayer must put first the kingdom and its coming down from heaven.

(4) True prayer accepts in advance the will of God, whether known or unknown, whether to grant or to withhold.

(5) Prayer should always envision the divine will and kingdom as objectives which will certainly be realized on earth.

(6) In the meantime the children of God may be properly concerned in prayer with present physical needs.

(7) Prayer may be hindered when the fellowship of the children with their Father is broken because of sin (Matt. 6:12,15). And

(8) the children of God must be divinely taught "to pray," not merely how to pray (Luke 11:1). This prayer, as originally given, does not specify in detail the complete doctrine of prayer for the Church, although it contains it in germ. The element of thanksgiving is not specifically mentioned (compare Phil. 4:6–7), yet surely thanksgiving is implicit in "Hallowed be Your name"; for who can hallow God, that is, hold Him sacred and offer worship to Him, without thanksgiving? Later, in the progress of divine revelation, our Lord gave the definite command to believers to pray in His name (John 16:23–24).

And do not [a]lead us into

But deliver us from the evil

Parable of the persistent friend

5 And He said to them, [c]"Which of you shall have a friend, and go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves;
6 'for a friend of mine has come to me on his journey, and I have nothing to set before him';
7 "and he will answer from within and say, 'Do not trouble me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give to you'?
8 "I say to you, though he will not rise and give to him because he is his friend, yet because of his [d]persistence he will rise and give him as many as he needs.
9 "So I say to you, [e]ask, and it will be given to you; [f]seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.
10 "For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.

Parable of fatherhood

11 [g]"If a son asks for bread* from any father among you, will he give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent instead of a fish?
12 "Or if he asks for an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?
13 "If you then, being evil, know how to give [h]good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the [i]Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

A demoniac boy healed

14 And He was casting out a [j]demon, and it was mute. So it was, when the demon had [k]gone out, that the mute spoke; and the multitudes marveled.

Pharisees blaspheme the Holy Spirit (Matt. 12:24–30; Mark 3:22–30)

15 But some of them said, "He casts out [l]demons by [m]Beelzebub,* the ruler of the demons."
16 Others, [n]testing Him, sought from Him a sign from heaven.
17 But He, [o]knowing their thoughts, said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and a house divided against a house falls.
18 "If [p]Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? Because you say I cast out [q]demons by Beelzebub.
19 "And if I [r]cast out [s]demons [t]by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges.
20 "But if I cast out [u]demons with the [v]finger of God, surely the kingdom of God has come upon you.
21 "When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his goods are in peace.
22 "But when a [w]stronger than he comes upon him and overcomes him, he [x]takes from him all his armor in which he trusted, and divides his spoils.
23 "He who is not with Me is [y]against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.

Worthlessness of self-reformation (Matt. 12:43–45)

24 "When an [z]unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.'
25 "And when he comes, he finds it [aa]swept and put in order.
26 "Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last 11:13 give the Holy Spirit. To the Jew this promise was undoubtedly new and staggering, for it indicates that in advance of the fulfillment of Joel 2:28–29, all might receive the Holy Spirit. It should be kept in mind, however, that in accordance with the promise, as recorded in Luke 24:49; John 7:38–39; 14:16–17; Acts 1:4–5, and with the historic fact stated in Rom. 8:9,15; 1 Cor. 6:19; 2 Cor. 1:22; Gal. 4:6; 1 John 2:20,27, for the Christian to go back to Luke 11:13 is to forget Pentecost and to ignore the truth that now every believer has the indwelling Spirit. state of that man is [a]worse than the first."

27 And it happened, as He spoke these things, that a certain woman from the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, [b]"Blessed is the womb that bore You, and the breasts which nursed You!"

28 But He said, "More than that, [c]blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

The sign of Jonah (Matt. 12:38–41)

29 And while the crowds were thickly gathered together, He began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks a [d]sign, and no sign will be given to it except the [e]sign of Jonah the prophet.*

30 "For [f]as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also the [g]Son of Man will be to this generation.

31 "The [h]queen of the South will rise up in the [i]judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and indeed a [j]greater than Solomon is here.

32 "The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they [k]repented at the preaching of Jonah; and indeed a [l]greater than Jonah is here.

Parable of lighted lamp
(Matt. 5:14–16; Mark 4:21–22; cp. Luke 8:16)

33 [m]"No one, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a secret place or under a basket, but on a lampstand, that those who come in may see the light.

34 "The [n]lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, when your eye is good, your whole body also is full of light. But when your eye is bad, your body also is full of darkness.

35 "Therefore take heed that the light which is in you is not darkness.

36 "If then your whole body is [o]full of light, having no part dark, the whole body will be full of light, as when the bright shining of a lamp gives you light."

37 And as He spoke, a certain [p]Pharisee asked Him to dine with him. So He went in and sat down to eat.

38 When the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that He had not first [q]washed before dinner.

Woes to the Pharisees
(cp. Matt. 23:13–35)

39 Then the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees make the outside of the cup and dish clean, but your [r]inward part is full of greed and wickedness.

40 "Foolish ones! Did not [s]He who made the outside make the inside also?

41 "But rather [t]give alms of such things as you have; then indeed all things are clean to you.

42 "But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe the mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and [u]pass by justice and the [v]love of God. These you ought to have done, without leaving the others undone.

43 "Woe to you Pharisees! For you [w]love the best seats in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces.

44 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!* [x]For you are like [y]graves which are not seen, and the men who walk over them are not aware of them."

45 Then one of the [z]lawyers answered and said to Him, "Teacher, by saying these things You reproach us also."

46 And He said, "Woe to you also, [aa]lawyers! For you [bb]load men with burdens hard to bear, and [cc]you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 "Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers [dd]killed them.

48 "In fact, you bear witness that you approve the deeds of your fathers; for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs.

49 "Therefore the [ee]wisdom of God also said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,'

50 "that the blood of all the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the [a]world may be required of this generation,
51 [b]"from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah who perished between the altar and the temple. Yes, I say to you, it shall be required of this generation.
52 "Woe to you [c]lawyers! For you have taken away the [d]key of knowledge. You did not enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in you [e]hindered."
53 And as He said these things to them,* the [f]scribes and the Pharisees began to assail Him vehemently, and to cross-examine Him about many things, 54 lying in wait for Him, and [g]seeking to catch Him in something He might say, that they might accuse Him.*

Jesus warns of false doctrine (leaven) of Pharisees (cp. Matt. 16:6–12; Mark 8:14–21)

12 IN the meantime, when an innumerable multitude of people had gathered together, so that they trampled one another, He began to say to His disciples first of all, "Beware of the [h]leaven of the [i]Pharisees, which is [j]hypocrisy.
2 [k]"For there is nothing covered that will not be [l]revealed, nor hidden that will not be known.
3 "Therefore whatever you have spoken in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the ear in [m]inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.
4 "And I say to you, My [n]friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.
5 "But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear Him who, after He has killed, has power to cast into hell; yes, I say to you, [o]fear Him!
6 "Are not five sparrows sold for two [p]copper coins?* And [q]not one of them is forgotten before God.
7 "But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.
8 "Also I say to you, [r]whoever confesses Me [s]before men, him the [t]Son of Man also will confess before the [u]angels of God.
9 "But he who [v]denies Me before men will be denied before the [w]angels of God.
10 "And anyone who speaks a word against the [x]Son of Man, it will be [y]forgiven him; but to him who blasphemes against the Holy [z]Spirit, it will not be forgiven.
11 "Now when they bring you to the synagogues and magistrates and authorities, [aa]do not worry about how or what you should answer, or what you should say.
12 "For the Holy [bb]Spirit will [cc]teach you in that very hour what you ought to say."
13 Then one from the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."
14 But He said to him, "Man, who made Me a [dd]judge or an arbitrator over you?"
15 And He said to them, "Take heed and beware of covetousness,* for one's [ee]life does not consist in the abundance of the things he possesses."

Parable of the rich fool

16 Then He spoke a [ff]parable to them, saying: "The ground of a certain rich man yielded plentifully.
17 "And he thought within himself, saying, 'What shall I do, since I have no room to store my crops?'
18 "So he said, [gg]'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there I will store all my crops and my goods.

quired of you; then [a]whose will those things be which you have provided?'

21 "So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not [b]rich toward God."

22 Then He [c]said to His disciples, "Therefore I say to you, [d]do not worry about your life, what you will eat; nor about the body, what you will put on.

23 "Life is more than food, and the [e]body is more than clothing.

24 "Consider the ravens, for they neither sow nor reap, which have neither storehouse nor barn; and God [f]feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds?

25 "And which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature?

26 "If you then are not able to do the least, why are you anxious for the rest?

27 "Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; and yet I say to you, even [g]Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 "If then God so clothes the grass, which today is in the field and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will He clothe you, O you of [h]little faith?

29 "And do not seek what you should eat or what you should drink, nor have an anxious mind.

30 "For all these things the nations of the world seek after, and your Father [i]knows that you need these things.

31 "But seek the [j]kingdom of God, and all these things* shall be added to you.

32 "Do not fear, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to [k]give you the [l]kingdom.

36 "and you yourselves be like men who wait for their master, when he will return from the wedding, that when he comes and knocks they may open to him immediately.

37 [t]"Blessed are those servants whom the master, when he [u]comes, will find [v]watching. Assuredly, I say to you that he will gird himself and have them sit down to eat, and will come and serve them.

38 "And if he should come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39 "But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the [w]thief would come, he would have watched and* not allowed his house to be broken into.

40 "Therefore you also be ready, for the [x]Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect."

Parable of testing of servants

41 Then Peter said to Him, "Lord, do You speak this parable only to us, or to all people?"

42 And the Lord said, [y]"Who then is that [z]faithful and wise steward, whom his master will make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of food in due season?

43 "Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes.

44 "Truly, I say to you that he will make him [aa]ruler over all that he has.

45 "But if that servant says in his heart, 'My master is [bb]delaying his coming,' and begins to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and be drunk,

Christ a divider of men in spiritual matters

49 "I came to send [e]fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled!

50 "But I have a [f]baptism to be baptized with, and how distressed I am till it is [g]accomplished!

53 [j]"Father will be divided against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

54 Then He also said to the multitudes, [k]"Whenever you see a cloud rising out of the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming'; and so it is.

55 "And when you see the [l]south wind blow, you say, 'There will be hot weather'; and there is.

56 "Hypocrites! You can discern the face of the sky and of the earth, but how is it you do not discern [m]this time?

57 "Yes, and why, even of yourselves, do you not judge what is right?

58 [n]"When you go with your adversary to the magistrate, make every effort along the way to settle with him, lest he drag you to the judge, the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison.

59 "I tell you, you shall not depart from there till you have paid the very last [o]mite."

Men must not judge but repent

13 THERE were present at that season some who told Him about the [p]Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Do you suppose that these Galileans were worse [q]sinners than all other Galileans, because they suffered such things?

3 "I tell you, no; but unless you [r]repent you will all likewise perish.

4 "Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were worse [s]sinners than all other men who dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 "I tell you, no; but [t]unless you [u]repent you will all likewise perish."

Parable of fig tree: judgment delayed (contra. Matt. 21:18–21; Mark 11:12–14,20–26)

6 He also spoke this [v]parable: "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it and found none.

7 "Then he said to the keeper of his vineyard, 'Look, for [w]three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree and find none. [x]Cut it down; why does it use up the ground?'

8 "But he answered and said to him, 'Sir, let it alone this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it.

9 'And if it bears fruit, well. But if not, after that* you can [y]cut it down.' "

13:19 WHAT THE KINGDOM OF GOD IS LIKE

The kingdom of God is like:

a man who sowed good seed in his field.	Matthew 13:24–30
a mustard seed.	Matthew 13:31–32; Luke 13:19
leaven which a woman took and hid.	Matthew 13:33; Luke 13:21
a treasure hidden in a field.	Matthew 13:44
a merchant seeking beautiful pearls.	Matthew 13:45–46
a dragnet that was cast into the sea.	Matthew 13:47–48
a king who wanted to settle accounts.	Matthew 18:23–35
a landowner who went out to hire laborers.	Matthew 20:1–16
a king who arranged a marriage.	Matthew 22:2–14

the south, and sit down in the [a]kingdom of God.
30 [b]"And indeed there are last who will be first, and there are first who will be last."
31 On that very day* some [c]Pharisees came, saying to Him, "Get out and depart from here, for Herod wants to kill You."
32 And He said to them, "Go, tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out [d]demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I shall [e]be perfected.'
33 "Nevertheless I must journey today, tomorrow, and the day following; for it cannot be that a prophet should perish outside of Jerusalem.

Jesus laments over Jerusalem
(Matt. 23:37–39; Luke 19:41–44; cp. Ps. 118:26; Jer. 22:5)

34 "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one who [f]kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! [g]How often I wanted to [h]gather your children together, as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, but you were [i]not willing!
35 "See! Your house is left to you [j]desolate; and assuredly,* I say to you, you shall not see Me [k]until the time comes when you say, [l]'Blessed is He who [m]comes in the name of the LORD!'"*

Mercy is proper every day
(cp. Matt. 12:9–13)

14 NOW it happened, as He went into the house of one of the rulers of the [n]Pharisees to eat bread on the [o]Sabbath, that they watched Him closely.
2 And behold, there was a certain man before Him who had dropsy.
3 And Jesus, answering, spoke to the [p]lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to [q]heal on the Sabbath?"*
4 But they kept silent. And He took him and [r]healed him, and let him go.
5 Then He answered them, saying, "Which of you, having a donkey* or an ox that has fallen into a pit, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?"
6 And they could not answer Him regarding these things.

Parable of the ambitious guest

7 So He told a [s]parable to those who were invited, when He noted how they chose the best places, saying to them:
8 "When you are invited by anyone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in the best place, lest one more honorable than you be invited by him;
9 "and he who invited you and him come and say to you, 'Give place to this man,' and then you begin with shame to take the lowest place.
10 "But when you are invited, go and sit down in the [t]lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes he may say to you, 'Friend, go up [u]higher.' Then you will have glory in the presence of those who sit at the table with you.
11 "For [v]whoever exalts himself will be humbled, [w]and he who humbles himself will be exalted."
12 Then He also said to him who invited Him, "When you give a dinner or a supper, do not ask your friends, your brothers, your relatives, nor rich neighbors, lest they also invite you back, and you be repaid.
13 "But when you give a feast, invite the [x]poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind.
14 "And you will be [y]blessed, because they cannot repay you; for you shall be [z]repaid at the [aa]resurrection of the just."

(cp. Matt. 22:1–14)

15 Now when one of those who sat at the table with Him heard these things, he said to Him, [bb]"Blessed is he who shall eat bread* in the [cc]kingdom of God!"

16 Then He said to him, [a]"A certain man gave a great supper and invited many,

18 "But they all with one accord began to make [b]excuses. The first said to him, [c]'I have bought a piece of ground, and I must go and see it. I ask you to have me excused.'
19 "And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to test them. I ask you to have me excused.'
20 "Still another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.'
21 "So that servant came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, [d]'Go out quickly into the [e]streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the [f]poor and the maimed and the lame and the blind.'
22 "And the servant said, 'Master, it is done as you commanded, and still there is [g]room.'
23 "Then the master said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and [h]compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.
24 'For I say to you that [i]none of those men who were invited shall [j]taste my supper.' "

Discipleship tested
(cp. Matt. 10:37–39)

25 Now great multitudes went with Him. And He turned and said to them, 26 [k]"If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and his [l]own life also, he cannot be My disciple.
27 "And [m]whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple.

Three parables about counting the cost of discipleship (vv. 28–35). (1) The tower

28 [n]"For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first and count the cost, whether he has enough to finish it—
29 "lest, after he has laid the foundation, and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, 30 "saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to [o]finish.'

(2) The king contemplating war

31 [p]"Or what king, going to make war against another king, does not sit down first and [q]consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand?
32 "Or else, while the other is still a great way off, he sends a [r]delegation and asks [s]conditions of peace.
33 "So likewise, whoever of you does not [t]forsake [u]all that he has cannot be My disciple.

(3) The flavorless salt
(cp. Matt. 5:13; Mark 9:50)

34 [v]"Salt is good; but if the salt has lost its flavor, how shall it be seasoned?
35 "It is neither fit for the land nor for the dunghill, but men throw it out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

Three parables concerning joy over repentance (vv. 1–32)

15 THEN all the tax collectors and the [w]sinners drew near to Him to hear Him.
2 And the [x]Pharisees and [y]scribes complained, saying, "This Man receives sinners and [z]eats with them."

Natural affection is to be, as compared with the Christian's devotedness to Christ, as if it were hate. See Matt. 12:47–50, where Christ illustrates this principle in His own Person. But in the Lord the natural affections are sanctified and lifted to the level of the divine love (compare John 19:26–27; Eph. 5:25–28).

them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one which is lost until he [a]finds it?
5 "And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing.
6 "And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, [b]'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was [c]lost!'
7 "I say to you that likewise there will be more joy in heaven over one [d]sinner who repents than over ninety-nine [e]just persons who [f]need no [g]repentance.

(2) The lost coin

8 "Or what woman, having ten silver coins,* if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it?
9 "And when she has found it, she calls her friends and neighbors together, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I [h]lost!'
10 "Likewise, I say to you, there is [i]joy in the presence of the [j]angels of God over one [k]sinner who [l]repents."

(3) The lost son (vv. 11–32)

11 Then He said: "A certain man had two sons.
12 "And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the portion of goods that falls to me.' So he divided to them his [m]livelihood.
13 "And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, journeyed to a far country, and there wasted his possessions with [n]prodigal living.
14 "But when he had spent all, there arose a severe famine in that land, and he began to be in want.
15 "Then he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed [o]swine.
16 "And he would gladly have filled his stomach with the pods that the swine ate, and no one gave him anything.
17 "But when he came to himself, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!
18 'I will arise and go to my father, and will [p]say to him, "Father, [q]I have [r]sinned against heaven and before you,
19 "and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants." '
20 "And he arose and came to his father. But when he was still a [s]great way off, his father saw him and had [t]compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him.
21 "And the son [u]said to him, 'Father, I have [v]sinned against heaven and in your sight, and am no longer worthy to be called your son.'
22 "But the father said to his servants, [w]'Bring* out the [x]best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet.
23 'And bring the fatted calf here and kill it, and let us eat and be merry;
24 'for this my son was [y]dead and is [z]alive again; he was lost and is found.' And they began to be [aa]merry.
25 "Now his older son was in the field. And as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing.
26 "So he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant.
27 "And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and because he has received him safe and sound, your father has killed the fatted calf.'
28 "But he was angry and would not go in. Therefore his father came out and pleaded with him.
29 "So he answered and said to his father, 'Lo, these many years I have been serving you; I never transgressed your commandment at any time; and [bb]yet you never gave me a young goat, that I might make merry with my friends.

Parable of the unjust steward: the proper use of money

16 HE also said to His disciples:
[c]"There was a certain rich man who had a [d]steward, and an accusation was brought to him that this man was wasting his goods.
2 "So he called him and said to him, 'What is this I hear about you?
Give an [e]account of your stewardship, for you can no longer be steward.'
3 "Then the steward said within himself, 'What shall I do? For my master is taking the stewardship away from me. I cannot dig; I am ashamed to beg.
4 'I have resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.'
5 "So he called every one of his master's debtors to him, and said to the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'
6 "And he said, 'A hundred [f]measures* of oil.' So he said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.'
7 "Then he said to another, 'And how much do you owe?' So he said,
'A hundred [g]measures* of wheat.'
And he said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.'
8 "So the master commended the unjust steward because he had dealt shrewdly. For the sons of this world are more shrewd in their generation than the sons of [h]light.
9 "And I say to you, [i]make friends for yourselves by [j]unrighteous mammon, that when you fail,* they may receive you into an everlasting home.
10 "He who is faithful in what is least is faithful also in much; and he who is unjust in what is least is unjust also in much.
11 "Therefore if you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the [k]true riches?
12 "And if you have not been faithful in what is [l]another man's, who will give you what is your [m]own?
13 [n]"No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. [o]You cannot serve God and mammon."

Jesus rebukes greed

14 Now the [p]Pharisees, who were [q]lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they derided Him.
15 And He said to them, "You are

16:17 tittle. Minute ornament over Hebrew letter.

20 "But there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, full of sores, who was laid at his gate, 21 "desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell* from the rich man's table. Moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.
22 "So it was that the beggar [a]died, and was carried by the [b]angels to [c]Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died and was buried.
23 "And being in [d]torments in [e]Hades, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.
24 "Then he cried and [f]said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am [g]tormented in this flame.'
25 "But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you [h]received your good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted and you are tormented.
26 'And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that those who want to pass from here to you cannot, nor can those from there pass to us.'
27 "Then he [f]said, 'I beg you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house,
28 'for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, lest they also come to this place of torment.'
29 "Abraham said to him, 'They have [i]Moses and the prophets; let them [j]hear [k]them.'
30 "And he [f]said, 'No, father Abraham; but if one goes to them from the dead, they will [l]repent.'
31 "But he said to him, [m]'If they do not [n]hear [o]Moses and the prophets, neither will they be [p]persuaded though one rise from the dead.' "

Instructions regarding offending, forgiving, and faith
(cp. Matt. 18:1–7,18–35)

17 THEN He said to the disciples, "It is impossible that no offenses should [q]come, but [r]woe to him through whom they do come!
2 "It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.
3 "Take heed to yourselves. If your brother [s]sins against you,* [t]rebuke him; and if he [u]repents, [v]forgive him.
4 "And if he [w]sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day returns to you,* saying, 'I repent,' [x]you shall forgive him."

16:23 HADES* AND *SHEOL

The Greek word Hadēs, like its Hebrew equivalent, Sheol, is used in two ways:

(1) To indicate the condition of the unsaved between death and the great white throne judgment (Rev. 20:11–15). Luke 16:23–24 shows that the lost in Hadēs are conscious, possess full use of their faculties, memory, etc., and are in torment. This continues until the final judgment of the lost (2 Pet. 2:9), when all the unsaved, and Hadēs itself, will be cast into the lake of fire (Rev. 20:13–15).

(2) To indicate, in general, the condition of all departed human spirits between death and the resurrection. This usage is found occasionally in the OT but rarely, if ever, in the NT (compare Gen. 37:35; 42:38; 44:29,31). It should not lead anyone to think that there is a possibility of change from one state to the other after death, for v. 23 shows that when the unsaved man who was in Hadēs saw Abraham and Lazarus, they were "afar off," and v. 26 states that between the two places there is a great gulf fixed, so that no one can cross from one to the other.

Some interpreters think that Eph. 4:8–10 indicates that a change in the place of the departed believers occurred at the resurrection of Christ. It is certain that now all who are saved go at once into the presence of Christ (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:23). Jesus told the penitent thief: "today you will be with Me in Paradise" (Luke 23:43). Paul was "caught up to the third heaven . . . into Paradise (2 Cor. 12:1–4). Paradise is a place of great joy and bliss, but this bliss is not complete until the spirit is reunited with a glorified body at the resurrection of the just (1 Cor. 15:51–54; 1 Thess. 4:16–17). Though both Sheol and Hadēs are sometimes translated "grave" (compare Gen. 37:35), they never indicate a burial place but, rather, the state of the spirit after death. See also Hab. 2:5, note.

16:19 Verses 19–31 are not said to be a parable. Rich men and beggars were common. There is no reason why Jesus may not have had in mind a particular case. In no parable is an individual named, as here (v. 20).

5 And the apostles [a]said to the Lord, "Increase our [b]faith."

6 So the Lord said, [c]"If you have faith as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, 'Be pulled up by the roots and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

Earnest service is our duty

7 "And [d]which of you, having a servant plowing or tending sheep, will say to him when he has come in from the field, 'Come at once and sit down to eat'?

8 "But will he not rather say to him, 'Prepare something for my supper, and gird yourself and serve me till I have eaten and drunk, and afterward you will eat and drink'?

9 "Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I think not.*

10 "So likewise you, when you have done all those things which you are commanded, say, [e]'We are unprofitable servants. We have done what was our duty to do.' "

Ten lepers cleansed

11 Now it happened as He went to [f]Jerusalem that He passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 Then as He entered a certain village, there met Him ten men who were [g]lepers, who stood afar off.

13 And they lifted up their voices and [h]said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

14 So when He saw them, He said to them, "Go, show yourselves to the [i]priests." And so it was that as they went, they were [j]cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, returned, and with a loud [k]voice [l]glorified God,

16 and fell down on his face at His feet, giving Him thanks. And he was a [m]Samaritan.

17 So Jesus answered and said, "Were there not ten cleansed? But where are the nine?

18 "Were there not any found who returned to give glory to God except this foreigner?"

19 And He said to him, "Arise, go your way. [n]Your [o]faith has [p]made you well."

The kingdom in its present aspect
(see Luke 17:21, note; cp. Luke 19:11–27)

20 Now when He was asked by the Pharisees when the [q]kingdom of God would come, He answered them and said, "The kingdom of God does not come with observation;

21 "nor will they say, 'See here!' or 'See there!'* For indeed, the [r]kingdom of God is [s]within you."

Jesus foretells His second coming
(see Deut. 30:3, note, and Acts 1:9–11, note)

22 Then He said to the disciples, "The [t]days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the [u]Son of Man, and you will not see it.

23 "And they will say to you, [v]'Look here!' or 'Look there!'* [w]Do not go after them or follow them.

24 "For as the lightning that flashes out of one part under heaven shines to the other part under heaven, so also the [x]Son of Man will be in His day.

25 "But first He must suffer many things and be [y]rejected by this generation.

26 [z]"And as it [aa]was in the [bb]days of [cc]Noah, so it will be also in the days of the [dd]Son of Man:

27 "They ate, they drank, they

17:20 observation. Or outward show. John 18:36; see v. 21, note.

17:21 within you. The Greek word entos carries the force of in the midst. It could not be said of a self-righteous, Christ-rejecting Pharisee that the kingdom of God, as to its spiritual content, was "within" his heart. Our Lord's whole answer, designedly enigmatic to the Pharisees (compare Matt. 13:10–13), has a dispensational meaning. The kingdom in its outward form, as covenanted to David (2 Sam. 7:16, note) and described by the prophets (Zech. 12:8, note) had been rejected by the Jews, so that, during this present age, it would "not come with observation" (literally "outward show") but in the hearts of men (see Luke 19:11–12; Acts 1:6–8, note; Rom. 14:17). Meantime, the kingdom was actually "in the midst" of the Pharisees in the persons of the King and His disciples. Ultimately the kingdom of heaven will come visibly to earth at our Lord's second coming. See v. 24.

married wives, they were given in marriage, until the [a]day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and [b]destroyed them all.

28 "Likewise as it was also in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built;

29 "but on the [c]day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all.

30 "Even so will it be in the [d]day when the [e]Son of Man is [f]revealed.

31 "In that day, he who is on the housetop, and his goods are in the house, let him not come down to take them away. And likewise the one who is in the field, let him not turn back.

32 "Remember Lot's [g]wife.

33 [h]"Whoever seeks to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it.

34 "I tell you, in that night there will be two men in one bed: the one will be taken and the other will be left.

35 [i]"Two women will be grinding together: the one will be taken and the other left."

36 "Two men will be in the field: the one will be taken and the other left."*

37 And they answered and said to Him, "Where, Lord?" So He said to them, [j]"Wherever the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together."

Two parables on prayer (vv. 1–14)

(1) Persistence rewarded

18 THEN He spoke a [k]parable to them, that men [l]always ought to pray and not lose heart,

2 saying: "There was in a certain city a judge who did not fear God nor regard man.

3 "Now there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, 'Get justice for me from my adversary.'

4 "And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, 'Though I do not fear God nor regard man,

5 'yet because this widow troubles me I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.' "

6 Then the Lord said, "Hear what the unjust judge said.

7 "And shall God not avenge His own [m]elect who cry out day and night to Him, though He bears [n]long with them?

8 "I tell you that He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the [o]Son of Man [p]comes, will He really find [q]faith on the earth?"

(2) The Pharisee and tax collector: proper and improper attitudes

9 Also He spoke this [r]parable to some who [s]trusted in themselves that they were [t]righteous, and despised others:

10 "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

11 "The [u]Pharisee stood and [v]prayed thus with himself, 'God, I thank You that I am not like other men—extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector.

12 'I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I possess.'

13 "And the tax collector, standing afar off, would not so much as raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a [w]sinner!'

14 "I tell you, this man went down to his house [x]justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and [y]he who humbles himself will be exalted."

18:13 merciful. That is, propitiated. Greek hilaskomai, used in the Septuagint and NT in connection with the mercy seat (Ex. 25:17,18,21; Heb. 9:5). An instructed Jew, the tax collector was thinking, not of mercy alone, but of the blood-sprinkled mercy seat (Lev. 16:5, note; see also Propitiation, Rom. 3:25, note). His prayer might be paraphrased, "Be toward me as You are when You look on the atoning blood." The Bible knows nothing of divine forgiveness apart from sacrifice (see Matt. 26:28, note).

Jesus blesses little children
(Matt. 19:13–15; Mark 10:13–16)

15 Then they also brought infants to Him that He might touch them; but when the disciples saw it, they [a]rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them to Him and said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of [b]such is the [c]kingdom of God.

17 "Assuredly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will by no means enter it."

The rich young ruler
(Matt. 19:16–30; Mark 10:17–31; cp. Luke 10:25–37)

18 Now a certain ruler asked Him, saying, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit [d]eternal life?"

19 So Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good but [e]One, that is, God.

20 "You [f]know the [g]commandments: 'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not [h]murder,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not bear false witness,' 'Honor your father and your mother.' "

21 And he said, "All [i]these things I have kept from my youth."

22 So when Jesus heard these things, He said to him, "You still [j]lack one thing. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have [k]treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

23 But when he [l]heard this, he became very [m]sorrowful, for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he became very sorrowful, He said, [n]"How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!

25 "For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the [o]kingdom of God."

26 And those who heard it said, "Who then can be [p]saved?"

27 But He said, "The things which are impossible with men are [q]possible with God."

Reward for sacrifice

28 Then Peter said, "See, we have [r]left all* and followed You."

29 So He said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or parents or brothers or wife or children, for the sake of the [s]kingdom of God,

30 "who shall not receive [t]many times more in this present time, and in the age to come eternal life."

Jesus again foretells His death and resurrection (Matt. 20:17–19; Mark 10:32–34)

31 Then He took the twelve aside and said to them, "Behold, we are [u]going up to Jerusalem, and all things that are [v]written by the prophets concerning the [w]Son of Man will be accomplished.

32 "For He will be [x]delivered to the Gentiles and will be mocked and insulted and spit upon.

33 "They will scourge Him and kill Him. And the third day He will rise again."

34 But they understood none of these things; this saying was [y]hidden from them, and they did not know the things which were spoken.

Bartimaeus receives his sight
(Mark 10:46–52; cp. Matt. 20:29–34)

35 Then it happened, as He was coming near Jericho, that a certain [z]blind man sat by the road begging.

36 And hearing a multitude passing by, he asked what it meant.

37 So they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.

38 And he cried out, [aa]saying, "Jesus, [bb]Son of David, have mercy on me!"

39 Then those who went before [cc]warned him that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, [dd]"Son of David, have mercy on me!"

40 So Jesus stood still and commanded him to be brought to Him. And when he had come near, He asked him,

Conversion of Zacchaeus

19 THEN Jesus entered and passed through [e]Jericho.

2 Now behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to [f]see who Jesus was, but could not because of the crowd, for he was of short stature.

4 So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was going to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and saw him,* and said to him, "Zacchaeus, make haste and come down, for today I must [g]stay at your house."

6 So he made haste and came down, and received Him joyfully.

7 But when they saw it, they all complained, saying, "He has gone to be a guest with a man who is a [h]sinner."

8 Then Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord, I give half of my goods to the [i]poor; and if I have taken anything from anyone by false accusation, I [j]restore fourfold."

9 And Jesus said to him, "Today [k]salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of [l]Abraham;

10 "for the [m]Son of Man has come to [n]seek and to [o]save that which was lost."

The ten minas: parable of long journey (see Luke 17:21, note, and Acts 1:6–8, note)

11 Now as they heard these things, He spoke another [p]parable, because He was near Jerusalem and because they thought the [q]kingdom of God would appear [r]immediately.

12 Therefore He said: "A certain nobleman went into a [s]far country to receive for himself a kingdom and to return.

13 "So he called ten of his [t]servants, delivered to them ten [u]minas,* and said to them, [v]'Do business till I come.'

14 "But his citizens hated him, and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We will [w]not have this man to [x]reign over us.'

15 "And so it was that when he returned, having received the [y]kingdom, he then commanded these servants, to whom he had given the [z]money, to be called to him, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 "Then came the first, saying, 'Master, your [aa]mina has earned ten minas.'

17 "And he said to him, [bb]'Well done, good servant; because you were [cc]faithful in a very little, [dd]have authority over ten cities.'

18 "And the second came, saying, 'Master, your mina has earned five [ee]minas.'

19 "Likewise he said to him, 'You also be over five cities.'

20 "Then another came, saying, 'Master, here is your mina, which I have kept put away in a handkerchief.

21 'For I [ff]feared you, because you are an austere man. You collect what you did not deposit, and reap what you did not sow.'

22 "And he said to him, 'Out of your own [gg]mouth I will judge you, you wicked servant. You knew that I was an austere man, collecting what

IV. The Rejection of Christ, and His Death, 19:28—23:56

Triumphal entry of Jesus (Matt. 21:1–9; Mark 11:1–10; John 12:12–19; cp. Zech. 9:9)

28 When He had said this, He went on [i]ahead, going up to Jerusalem.
29 And it came to pass, when He drew near to Bethphage* and [j]Bethany, [k]at the mountain called [l]Olivet, that He sent two of His disciples,
30 saying, "Go into the village opposite you, where as you enter you will find a colt tied, on which [m]no one has ever sat. Loose it and bring it here.
31 "And if anyone asks you, 'Why are you loosing it?' thus you shall say to him, [n]'Because the Lord has need of it.' "
32 So those who were sent went their way and found it just [o]as He had said to them.
33 But as they were loosing the colt, the owners of it said to them,
"Why are you loosing the colt?"
34 And they said, "The Lord has need of him."
35 Then they brought him to Jesus.
And they threw their own clothes on the colt, and they set Jesus on him.
36 And as He went, many spread their clothes on the road.
37 Then, as He was now drawing near the descent of the [p]Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to [q]rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works they had seen,
38 saying:

"'Blessed[r] is the [s]King who [t]comes in the [u]name of the LORD*!'*
[v]Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

39 And some of the [w]Pharisees called to Him from the crowd,
"Teacher, [x]rebuke Your disciples."
40 But He answered and said to them, "I tell you that if these should keep silent, the [y]stones would immediately cry out."

Jesus again laments over Jerusalem (cp. Matt. 23:37–39; Luke 13:34–35)

41 Now as He drew near, He saw the city and [z]wept over it, 42 saying, [aa]"If you had known, even you, especially in this [bb]your day, the things that [cc]make for your [dd]peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes.
43 [ee]"For days will come upon you when your enemies will build an embankment around you, surround you and close you in on every side, 44 [ff]"and level you, and your children within you, to the ground; and they will not leave in you one stone upon another, because you did not know the time of your [gg]visitation."

Jesus drives traders from temple (Matt. 21:12–13; Mark 11:15–18; cp. John 2:13–16)

45 Then He went into the temple and began to drive out those who bought and sold in it,*
46 saying to them, "It is [hh]written,
'My house is[*] a [ii]house of prayer,' but you have made it a 'den of thieves.' "

Jesus' authority challenged
(Matt. 21:23–27; Mark 11:27–33)

20 NOW it happened on one of those days, as He [d]taught the people in the temple and preached the [e]gospel, that the chief priests and the [f]scribes, together with the elders, confronted Him

2 and spoke to Him, saying, "Tell us, [g]by what authority are You doing these things? Or who is he who gave You this authority?"

3 But He answered and said to them, "I also will ask you one thing, and answer Me:

4 "The [h]baptism of John—was it from heaven or from men?"

5 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, [i]"If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why then* did you not believe him?'

6 "But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a [j]prophet."

7 So they answered [k]that they did not know where it was from.

8 And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

Parable of the vineyard owner
(Matt. 21:33–46; Mark 12:1–9; cp. Is. 5:1–7)

9 Then He began to tell the people this [l]parable: "A certain man planted a [m]vineyard, leased it to vinedressers, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 "Now at vintage-time he [n]sent a servant to the vinedressers, that they might give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the vinedressers beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

11 "Again he sent another servant; and they beat him also, treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed.

12 "And again he sent a third; and they wounded him also and cast him out.

13 "Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will [o]send my beloved son. Probably they will respect him when they see him.'

14 "But when the vinedressers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the [p]heir. Come, [q]let us kill him, that the inheritance may be [r]ours.'

15 "So they cast him out of the vineyard and [s]killed him. Therefore what will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

16 "He will come and [t]destroy those vinedressers and give the vineyard to [u]others." And when they heard it they said, "Certainly not!"

17 Then He looked at them and said, "What then is this that is [v]written:

'The[w] [x]stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone' ?

18 "Whoever falls on that stone will be [y]broken; [z]but on whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder."

Jesus answers the Herodians
(Matt. 22:15–22; Mark 12:13–17)

19 And the chief priests and the [aa]scribes that very hour sought to lay hands on Him, but they feared the people*—for they knew He had spoken this parable against them.

20 So they watched Him, and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, that they might seize on His words, in order to deliver Him to the power and the authority of the governor.

21 Then they asked Him, saying, "Teacher, we know that You say and teach rightly, and You do not show personal favoritism, but teach the way of God in truth:

22 "Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

23 But He perceived their craftiness, and said to them, "Why do you [bb]test Me?*

27 Then some of the [c] Sadducees, who deny that there is a resurrection, came to Him and asked Him,
28 saying: "Teacher, [d] Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies, having a wife, and he dies without children, his [e] brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.

30 "And the second* took her as wife, and he died childless.
31 "Then the third took her, and in like manner the seven also; and they left no children,* and died.
32 "Last of all the woman died also.
33 "Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife does she become? For all seven had her as wife."
34 Jesus answered and said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage.
35 "But those who are [f] counted worthy to attain that age, and the [g] resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage;
36 "nor can they [h] die anymore, for they are equal to the [i] angels and are sons of God, [j] being sons of the resurrection.

38 "For He is not the God of the dead but of the [c]living, for all live to Him."

Jesus questions and denounces the scribes (cp. Matt. 22:41—23:36; Mark 12:35–40)

39 Then some of the [d]scribes answered and said, "Teacher, You have spoken well."
40 But after that they dared not question Him anymore.
41 And He said to them, "How can they say that the Christ is the [e]Son of David?
42 "Now David himself [f]said in the Book of Psalms:

'The[g] LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
43 Till I make Your enemies Your footstool." '

44 "Therefore David calls Him 'Lord'; [h]how is He then his Son?"
45 Then, in the hearing of all the people, He said to His disciples,
46 [i]"Beware of the [j]scribes, who desire to go around in long robes, love [k]greetings in the marketplaces, the [l]best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts,
47 "who [m]devour widows' houses, and for a [n]pretense make long prayers. These will receive [o]greater condemnation."

The widow's mites (Mark 12:41–44)

21 AND He looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts into the treasury,
2 and He saw also a certain [p]poor widow putting in two mites.
3 So He said, "Truly I say to you that this poor widow has put in more than all;
4 "for all these out of their abundance have put in offerings for God,* but she out of her poverty put in [q]all the livelihood that she had."

The Olivet Discourse (vv. 5–38) (Matt. 24—25; Mark 13)

5 Then, as some spoke of the [r]temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and donations, He said,
6 "These things which you see—the days will come in which [s]not one stone shall be left upon another that shall not be thrown down."

The disciples' two questions: When and What? (Matt. 24:3; Mark 13:4)

7 So they asked Him, saying, "Teacher, but when will these things be? And what sign will there be when these things are about to take place?"

Daniel's seventieth week of years (Dan. 9:27): the end time (Matt. 24:4–14; Mark 13:5–13)

8 [t]And He said: "Take heed that you not be [u]deceived. For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and, 'The time has drawn near.' Therefore* do not go after them.
9 "But when you hear of [v]wars and commotions, do not be terrified; for these things must come to pass first, but the end will not come immediately."
10 Then He said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.
11 "And there will be great [w]earthquakes in various places, and famines and pestilences; and there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven.

Suffering of apostles and believers prior to seventieth week

12 "But before all these things, [x]they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons. You will be brought before kings and rulers for My name's sake.
13 "But it will turn out for you as an occasion for [y]testimony.
14 "Therefore settle it in your hearts not to meditate beforehand on what you will answer;

21:20 when you see Jerusalem. Two sieges of Jerusalem are in view in the Olivet Discourse, the one fulfilled in A.D. 70, and the other yet to be fulfilled at the end of the age. Here the reference is to the siege by Titus, A.D. 70, when the city was taken and vv. 20–24 literally fulfilled. These horrors illustrate the conditions in Palestine at the time of the end, but neither v. 20 nor v. 24 is included in the accounts of the Olivet Discourse given by Matthew and Mark. The references in Matt. 24:15–28 and Mark 13:14–26 are to the final siege, when the city will be taken by enemies but delivered by the return of the Lord to the earth (Rev. 19:11–21; Zech. 14:2–4). In Luke the sign is Jerusalem being surrounded by armies (21:20); in Matt. 24:15 and Mark 13:14 the sign is the abomination of desolation in the Holy Place (2 Thess. 2:4; Rev. 13:12–15).

21:24 trampled. The "times of the Gentiles" began with the captivity of Judah under Nebuchadnezzar (2 Chr. 36:1–21). Since that time Jerusalem has been, as Christ said, "trampled by Gentiles." See marg. also.

21:27 coming in a cloud. This is clearly the return of Christ in which He comes to the earth, not His return to translate the Church. Signs in the sun, moon, and stars, and the shaking of the heavens do not accompany the rapture but are phenomena that will take place after the Church is gone (compare 2 Pet. 3:10–13; Rev. 6:12–17).

21:29 PARABLES IN THE NEW TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

In the NT, as in the OT, a parable is a similitude used to teach or enforce a truth (see Zech. 11:7, note). No one in Scripture record is as generous in the use of the parabolic method of teaching as Christ, who employs it liberally to illustrate important spiritual truths, with stories of things familiar in the natural realm.

Asked by His disciples why He spoke in parables, our Lord admitted two purposes: that (a) His followers might know the mysteries of the kingdom; and (b) those whose hearts were hardened might neither hear nor understand the same doctrine (Matt. 13:10–17).

Parables in the NT fall into three classifications: (1) general, e.g. Mark 9:50; Luke 10:30–37; 18:9–14; Rom. 7:1–6; (2) pertaining to the Church Age, e.g. Matt. 13:3–9,18–23; and (3) relating to the Messianic kingdom, e.g. Matt. 24:45–51; Luke 14:16–24.

these things happening, know that the [a]kingdom of God is [b]near.
32 "Assuredly, I say to you, this [c]generation will by no means pass away till all things take place.
33 [d]"Heaven and earth will pass away, but My [e]words will by no means pass away.

Watchfulness enjoined
(Matt. 24:36–51; Mark 13:32–37)

34 "But take heed to yourselves, lest your hearts be weighed down with carousing, [f]drunkenness, and [g]cares of this life, and that [h]Day come on you unexpectedly.
35 [i]"For [j]it will come as a snare on all those who dwell on the face of the whole earth.
36 [k]"Watch therefore, and [l]pray always that you may be counted [m]worthy* to escape all these things that will come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man."
37 And in the daytime He was teaching in the temple, but at night He went out and stayed on the mountain called Olivet.
38 Then early in the morning all the people came to Him in the temple to hear Him.

Judas agrees to betray Jesus
(Matt. 26:14–16; Mark 14:1–2,10–11)

22 NOW the Feast of Unleavened Bread drew near, which is called [n]Passover.
2 And the chief priests and the [o]scribes sought how they might kill Him, for they feared the people.
3 Then [p]Satan entered Judas, surnamed Iscariot, who was numbered among the [q]twelve.
4 So he went his way and conferred with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray Him to them.
5 And they were glad, and [r]agreed to give him money.
6 So he promised and sought opportunity to [s]betray Him to them in the absence of the multitude.

Preparation for the Passover
(Matt. 26:17–19; Mark 14:12–16)

7 Then came the Day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover must be killed.
8 And He sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat."
9 So they said to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare?"
10 And He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered the city, a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him into the house which he enters.
11 "Then you shall say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, [t]"Where is the guest room where I may eat the [u]Passover with My disciples?" '
12 "Then he will show you a large, furnished upper room; there make ready."
13 So they went and [v]found it just as He had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

The last Passover (Matt. 26:20; Mark 14:17; John 13:1–17)

14 When the hour had come, He sat down, and the [w]twelve* apostles with Him.
15 Then He said to them, "With fervent desire I have desired to [x]eat [y]this Passover with you before I suffer;
16 "for I say to you, I will no longer eat of it [z]until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."
17 Then He took the [aa]cup, and gave thanks, and said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves;
18 "for I say to you,* I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the [bb]kingdom of God comes."

The Lord's Supper instituted
(Matt. 26:26–29; Mark 14:22–25; cp. John 13:12–30; 1 Cor. 11:23–26)

19 And He took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is My [cc]body which is given for you; [dd]do this in remembrance of Me."
20 Likewise He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the [ee]new covenant in My [ff]blood, which is [gg]shed for you.

Jesus predicts His betrayal (Matt. 26:21–25; Mark 14:18–21; John 13:18–30)

21 "But behold, the hand of My [a]betrayer is with Me on the table.
22 "And truly the [b]Son of Man goes [c]as it [d]has been determined, but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!"
23 Then they began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing.

Renewed strife over who should be the greatest (Matt. 20:20–28; Mark 9:33–37; 10:35–45; John 13:1–17)

24 Now there was also a dispute among them, as to which of them should be considered the [e]greatest.
25 And He said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and those who exercise authority over them are called 'benefactors.'
26 [f]"But not so among you; on the contrary, he who is greatest among you, let him be as the younger, and he who governs as he who serves.
27 "For who is greater, he who sits at the table, or he who serves? Is it not he who sits at the table? Yet I am among you as the One who [g]serves.

The apostles' reward in future kingdom (Matt. 19:27–30; Mark 10:28–31; cp. Rev. 3:31)

28 "But you are those who have continued with Me in My [h]trials.
29 "And I bestow upon you a [i]kingdom, just as My Father bestowed one upon Me,
30 "that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and [j]sit on thrones [k]judging the twelve [l]tribes of Israel."

Jesus foretells Peter's denial (Matt. 26:30–35; Mark 14:26–31; John 13:36–38)

31 And the Lord said,* "Simon, Simon! Indeed, [m]Satan has [n]asked for you, that he may [o]sift you as wheat.
32 "But I have [p]prayed for you, that your faith should not fail; and when you have returned to Me, [q]strengthen your brethren."
33 But he said to Him, "Lord, I am ready to go with You, both to prison and to death."
34 Then He said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster shall not crow this day before you will [r]deny three times that you know Me."

Disciples warned of coming conflict (cp. John 14—16; contra. Matt. 10:9–13)

35 And He said to them, [s]"When I sent you without money bag, knapsack, and sandals, did you lack anything?" So they said, "Nothing."
36 Then He said to them, "But now, he who has a money bag, let him take it, and likewise a knapsack; and he who has no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one.
37 "For I say to you that this which is [t]written must still be accomplished in Me: 'And He was [u]numbered with the [v]transgressors.' For the things concerning Me have an end."
38 So they said, "Lord, look, here are two swords." And He said to them, "It is enough."

Jesus' agony in the garden (Matt. 26:36–46; Mark 14:32–42; cp. Heb. 5:7–8)

39 Coming out, He went to the [w]Mount of Olives, as He was accustomed, and His disciples also followed Him.
40 When He came to the place, He said to them, "Pray that you may not enter [x]into [y]temptation."

47 And while He was still speaking, behold, a [i]multitude; and he who was called [j]Judas, one of the twelve, went before them and drew near to Jesus to kiss Him.

48 But Jesus said to him, "Judas, are you betraying the [k]Son of Man with a [l]kiss?"

49 When those around Him saw what was going to happen, they said to Him, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?"

50 And one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

51 But Jesus answered and said, "Permit even this." And He touched his ear and [m]healed him.

52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests, captains of the temple, and the elders who had come to Him, "Have you come out, as against a [n]robber, with swords and clubs?

53 "When I was with you daily in the [o]temple, you did not try to seize Me. But this is your [p]hour, and the power of darkness."

Jesus' arrest; Peter's three denials (Matt. 26:55–58,69–75; Mark 14:48–54,66–72; John 18:15–18,25–27)

54 Having arrested Him, they [q]led Him and brought Him into the high priest's house. But Peter followed [r]at a distance.

55 Now when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat [s]among them.

56 And a certain servant girl, seeing him as he sat by the fire, looked intently at him and said, "This man was also with Him."

57 But he [t]denied Him,* saying, "Woman, I do not know Him."

58 And after a little while another saw him and said, "You also are of them." But Peter said, "Man, I am not!"

59 Then after about an hour had passed, another confidently affirmed, saying, "Surely this fellow also was with Him, for he is a [u]Galilean."

60 But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are saying!" Immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster* crowed.

61 And the Lord turned and [v]looked at Peter. Then Peter [w]remembered the word of the Lord, how He had said to him, [x]"Before the rooster crows,* you will deny Me three times."

62 So Peter went out and [y]wept bitterly.

(Matt. 26:67–68; Mark 14:65; John 18:22–23)

63 [z]Now the men who held Jesus mocked Him and [aa]beat Him.

64 And having blindfolded Him, they [bb]struck Him on the face and asked Him,* saying, "Prophesy! Who is the one who struck You?"

Jesus before the Sanhedrin
(Matt. 26:59–68; 27:1;
Mark 14:55–65;
15:1; John 18:19–24)

66 As soon as it was day, the elders of the people, both chief priests and [a]scribes, [b]came together and led Him into their council, saying,

67 [c]"If You are the Christ, tell us." But He said to them, "If I tell you, you will [d]by no means believe.

68 "And if I also ask you, you will by no means answer Me or let Me go.*

69 [e]"Hereafter the [f]Son of Man will [g]sit on the right hand of the power of God."

70 Then they all said, "Are You then the Son of God?" So He said to them, "You rightly say that [h]I am."

71 And they said, "What further [i]testimony do we need? For we have [j]heard it ourselves from His own mouth."

Jesus before Pilate
(Matt. 27:2,11–14;
Mark 15:1–5; John 18:28–38)

23 THEN the whole [k]multitude of them arose and led Him to [l]Pilate.

2 And they began to [m]accuse Him, saying, "We found this fellow [n]perverting the* nation, and [o]forbidding to pay taxes to Caesar, saying that He Himself is Christ, a [p]King."

3 Then Pilate asked Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?" He answered him and said, [q]"It is as you say."

4 So Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowd, [r]"I find no fault in this Man."

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, "He [s]stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee to this place."

Pilate sends Jesus back to Herod

6 When Pilate heard of [t]Galilee,* he asked if the Man were a Galilean.

7 And as soon as he knew that He belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to [u]Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time.

8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad; for he had [v]desired for a long time to see Him, because he had [w]heard many things about Him, and he hoped to see some miracle done by Him.

9 Then he questioned Him with many words, but He answered him [x]nothing.

10 And the chief priests and [y]scribes stood and vehemently accused Him.

11 Then Herod, with his men of war, treated Him with contempt and [z]mocked Him, arrayed Him in a gorgeous robe, and sent Him back to Pilate.

12 That very day Pilate and Herod became friends [aa]with each other, for previously they had been at enmity with each other.

Herod sends Jesus back to Pilate, who seeks to release Him
(Matt. 27:15–26; Mark 15:6–15;
John 18:39—19:16)

13 Then Pilate, when he had [bb]called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people,

14 said to them, "You have brought this Man to me, as one who [cc]misleads the people. And indeed, having examined Him in your presence, I have found [dd]no fault in this Man concerning those things of which you [ee]accuse Him;

15 "no, neither did Herod, for I sent you back to him;* and indeed [ff]nothing deserving of death has been done by Him.

16 "I will therefore chastise Him and [gg]release Him"

17 (for it was necessary for him to release one to them at the feast).*

18 And they all cried out at once, saying, [hh]"Away with this Man, and [ii]release to us Barabbas"—

19 who had been thrown into prison for a certain rebellion made in the city, and for murder.

20 Pilate, therefore, wishing to release Jesus, again called out to them.
21 But they shouted, saying, [a]"Crucify Him, crucify Him!"
22 Then he said to them the third time, "Why, what evil has He done? I have found [b]no reason for death in Him. I will therefore [c]chastise Him and let Him go."
23 But they were insistent, demanding with loud voices that He be crucified. And the voices of these men and of the chief priests prevailed.*
24 So Pilate [d]gave sentence that it should be as they requested.
25 [e]And he released to them* the one they requested, who for rebellion and murder had been thrown into prison; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

On the way to the place of crucifixion (Matt. 27:31–32; Mark 15:20–21; John 19:16–17)

26 Now as they led Him away, they laid hold of a certain man, Simon a Cyrenian, who was coming from the country, and on him they laid the cross that he might bear it after Jesus.
27 And a great multitude of the people followed Him, and [f]women who also mourned and [g]lamented Him.
28 But Jesus, turning to them, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but [h]weep for yourselves and for your children.
29 "For indeed the days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, wombs that never bore, and breasts which never nursed!'
30 "Then they will begin [i]'to say to the mountains, [j]"Fall on us!" and to the hills, "Cover us!" '
31 "For if they do these things in the green wood, what will be done in the dry?"
32 There were also two others, [k]criminals, led with Him to be put to death.

Jesus is crucified (Matt. 27:33–43; Mark 15:22–32; John 19:17–22)

33 And when they had come to the place called Calvary, there they [l]crucified Him, and the criminals, one on the right hand and the other on the left.
34 Then Jesus [m]said, "Father, [n]forgive them, for they do not know what they do."* And they divided His garments and cast lots.
35 And the people stood looking on. But even the rulers with them sneered, saying, "He saved others; let Him save Himself if He is the Christ, the chosen of God."
36 The soldiers also mocked Him, coming and offering Him [o]sour wine, 37 and saying, "If You are the King of the Jews, [p]save Yourself."
38 And an inscription also was written over Him in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew:*

23:31 The saying is probably a proverb in the form of an a fortiori argument. If the Romans condemned to death the one they admitted to be innocent, how would they deal in the future with those whom they found guilty?

23:33 For the order of events at the crucifixion of Christ, see Matt. 27:33, note. when they had come. Approximately A.D. 29. Calvary. Or the skull. See Mark 15:22, note.

23:35 people stood looking on. Jesus crucified is the touchstone revealing what the world is: "The people stood looking on" in stolid indifference; the rulers, who wanted religion but without a divine Christ crucified for their sins, mocked (Matt. 27:41); the brutal "blasphemed Him" (v. 39); the conscious sinner prayed (v. 42); and the covetous sat down before the cross and played their sordid game (Matt. 27:35–36). The cross is the judgment of this world (John 12:31).

23:39 one of the criminals. When the two criminals were hanged beside the Lord, the one was no better than the other. Mark says, "Even those who were crucified with Him reviled Him" (Mark 15:32). It is only the grace of God even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation?

41 "And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this Man has done [a]nothing wrong."
42 Then he [b]said to Jesus, "Lord,* [c]remember me when You come into Your [d]kingdom."
43 And Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in [e]Paradise."

Darkness from sixth to ninth hour; Jesus dismisses His spirit (Matt. 27:45–56; Mark 15:33–41; John 19:28–30)

44 Now it was* about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.
45 Then the sun was darkened,* and the [f]veil of the temple was torn in two.
46 And when Jesus had cried out with a loud voice, He [g]said, "Father, [h]'into Your hands I commit My spirit.'" Having said this, [i]He [j]breathed His last.
47 So when the centurion saw what had happened, he glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a [k]righteous Man!"
48 And the whole crowd who came together to that sight, seeing what had been done, [l]beat their breasts and returned.
49 But all His acquaintances, and the [m]women who followed Him from Galilee, [n]stood at a distance, watching these things.

51 He had [p]not consented to their decision and deed. He was from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who himself was also [q]waiting* for the [r]kingdom of God.
52 This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.
53 Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen, and [s]laid it in a tomb that was hewn out of the rock, where [t]no one had ever lain before.
54 That day was the [u]Preparation, and the [v]Sabbath drew near.
55 And the [w]women who had come with Him from Galilee followed after, and they observed the tomb and how His body was laid.
56 Then they returned and [x]prepared spices and fragrant oils. And they rested on the Sabbath [y]according to the commandment.

reth, who was a [a]Prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, 20 "and how the chief priests and our rulers [b]delivered Him to be condemned to death, and crucified Him.
21 "But we were hoping that it was He who was going to [c]redeem Israel. Indeed, besides all this, today is the third day since these things happened.
22 "Yes, and certain [d]women of our company, who arrived at the tomb early, astonished us.
23 "When they did not find His body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of [e]angels who said He was alive.
24 "And [f]certain of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but Him they did not see."
25 Then He said to them, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have [g]spoken!
26 [h]"Ought not the Christ to have suffered these things and to enter into His [i]glory?"
27 And [j]beginning at [k]Moses and all the [l]Prophets, He expounded to them in [m]all the [n]Scriptures the things concerning [o]Himself.
28 Then they drew near to the village where they were going, and He indicated that He would have gone farther.
29 But they [p]constrained Him, saying, [q]"Abide with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent." And He went in to stay with them.
30 Now it came to pass, as He sat at the table with them, that He [r]took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them.
31 Then their [s]eyes were opened and they knew Him; and He vanished from their sight.
32 And they said to one another, "Did not our heart burn within us while He talked with us on the road, and while He opened the Scriptures to us?"

Further appearances of the risen Lord on resurrection day (Mark 16:14; John 20:19–25. See also John 20:26—21:25)

33 So they rose up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem, and found the [t]eleven and those who were with them gathered together,
34 saying, "The Lord is risen indeed, and has [u]appeared to Simon!"
35 And they told about the things that had happened on the road, and how He was known to them in the breaking of bread.
36 Now as they said these things, Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, "Peace to you."
37 But they were terrified and frightened, and supposed they had seen a [v]spirit.
38 And He said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do doubts arise in your hearts?
39 "Behold My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself. [w]Handle Me and see, for a [x]spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see I have."
40 When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet.*
41 But while they still did not believe for joy, and marveled, He said to them, "Have you any food here?"
42 So they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb.*
43 And He took it and [y]ate in their presence.

24:19 Prophet. Christ possessed in perfection the credentials of a true prophet (see Deut. 13:4 and 1 Cor. 12:10, notes). Not only was He able, by His own power, to perform miracles, but also His message was completely harmonious with the Word of God, He Himself being the living Word. He told forth divine truth and foretold the divine prophetic program. Christ was Prophet, Priest (Zech. 6:9–13), and King (Matt. 2:2; Rev. 19:11–16).

24:27 the things concerning Himself. Cleopas and his companion on the Emmaus Road had the inestimable privilege of hearing the incarnate Word, Christ the risen Lord, explain the written Word, the Holy Scriptures. In doing so, the Lord Jesus gave them the great key to the understanding of Scripture—that He Himself is its subject and that in Him the entire Book finds its unity.

24:45 And He opened their understanding, that they might comprehend the Scriptures.

24:46 Then He said to them, "Thus it is [d]written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to [e]rise* from the dead the third day,

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

JOHN

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
John	Christ in His Deity	c. A.D. 85–90

Background

John, the writer of this Gospel, was the son of Zebedee and one of the Twelve. Along with his brother, James, and with Peter, he belonged to the inner circle of disciples, a group that was near Christ on such occasions as the transfiguration and the agony in Gethsemane. It was to John that our Lord on the cross commended His mother. John appears with Peter in the first part of Acts and is referred to by Paul as one of the three "pillars" of the Church (Galatians 2:9). His other writings are the Epistles bearing his name, and Revelation.

God's Relationship with Man

John's purpose in the Fourth Gospel was, as he plainly declares, "that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name" (20:31). Therefore, he presents Christ as the Son of God (1:34,49; etc.), who was sent from God (3:2; 6:46; etc.) and always spoke the message God gave Him (3:34; 7:16–17; etc.). In accordance with the purpose of this Gospel, the words "believe" and "life," and the titles "Son" and "Son of God," are used many more times than in the Synoptic Gospels. Other characteristic words of John are "true," "truth," "love," "witness," and "world" (Greek kosmos). John alone records the great "I am" declarations of Christ (6:35; 8:12; 10:7,11; 11:25; 14:6) and gives the sayings of Christ introduced by the solemn "Most assuredly," literally, "Amen, amen" (1:51; 5:19,24,25, etc.). Moreover, he alone reports the great controversy between Christ and His enemies (chapters 7—12).

Outline

The Gospel of John may be divided as follows:

VI.	The Manifestation of the Son of God in Resurrection	20:1–31
VII.	The Epilogue: The Risen Son of God, the Master of Life and Service	21:1–25

I. The Prologue: The Eternal Word Incarnate in the Son of God, 1:1–14

The Deity of Jesus Christ (cp. John 10:30; Heb. 1:5–13)

1 IN the [a]beginning was the Word, and the [b]Word was [c]with God, and the Word was [d]God.
2 He was in the beginning with God.

The preincarnate work of the Son of God (cp. Col. 1:16–17; Heb. 1:2)

3 [e]All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made.
4 In Him was [fg]life, and the life was the [h]light of men.
5 And the light shines in the [i]darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend* it.

Witness of John the Baptist (see also vv. 15–34)

6 There was a [j]man sent from God, whose name was John.
7 This man came for a [k]witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all through him might [l]believe.
8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that [m]Light.

Jesus Christ, the true Light: rejected and received (John 3:17–21; 8:12; 9:5; 12:46)

9 That was the true Light which gives light to every man coming into the world.*
10 He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world did [n]not know Him.
11 He came to His own, and His own did not receive Him.
12 But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become [o]children of God, to those who [p]believe in His name:
13 who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

The Word made flesh (John 14:9; cp. Matt. 1:18–23; Luke 1:30–35; 2:11; 1 Tim. 3:16)

14 And the [q]Word [r]became [s]flesh and dwelt among us, and we [t]beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of [u]grace and [v]truth.

II. The Witness of John the Baptist to the Son of God, 1:15–34

John bears witness (Matt. 3:1–17; Mark 1:1–11; Luke 3:1–22)

15 John bore [w]witness of Him and cried out, saying, "This was He of whom I said, 'He who comes after me is preferred before me, for He was before me.' "
16 And* of His fullness we have all received, and [x]grace for grace.
17 For the [y]law was given through Moses, but [z]grace and [aa]truth came through Jesus Christ.
18 No one has seen God at any time. The only begotten Son,* who is in the bosom of the Father, He has declared Him.
19 Now this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests

*1:5 Or overcome *1:9 Or That was the true Light which, coming into the world, gives light to every man. *1:16 NU-Text reads For. *1:18 NU-Text reads only begotten God.

1:1 Word. Greek Logos (Aramaic Memra, used as a designation of God in the Targums, that is, Aramaic translations of the OT). The Greek word means, (1) a thought or concept; and (2) the expression or utterance of that thought. As a designation of Christ, therefore, Logos is peculiarly suitable because (1) in Him are embodied all the treasures of the divine wisdom, the collective thought of God (1 Cor. 1:24; Eph. 3:10–11; Col. 2:2–3); and (2) He is, from eternity, but especially in His incarnation, the utterance or expression of the Person and thought of Deity (John 1:3–5,9,14–18; 14:9–11; Col. 2:9). In the Being, Person, and work of Christ, Deity is expressed.

1:6 There was. Approximately A.D. 26.

1:9,10 world. Greek kosmos. See Matt. 4:8, note.

1:11 He came to His own. Another rendering would be: "He came to His own things, and His own people did not receive Him."

1:12 right. Literally authority.

1:18 seen God. Compare Gen. 32:30; Ex. 24:10; 33:18; Judg. 6:22; 13:22; Rev. 22:4. No man has ever seen God in His spiritual Being or Essence. But in His OT appearances (see Gen. 12:7, note), and especially in Jesus Christ incarnate, God has been seen by men (John 14:8–9; 1 John 1:1–2). declared. Literally led forth, expounded. Compare John 14:9.

and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

20 He confessed, and did not deny, but confessed, "I am not the Christ."

21 And they asked him, "What then? [a]Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you [b]the Prophet?" And he answered, "No."

22 Then they said to him, "Who are you, that we may give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself?"

23 He said: "I am

'The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
"Make[c] straight the way of the LORD,"'

as the prophet Isaiah said."

24 Now those who were sent were from the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, saying, "Why then do you [d]baptize if you are not the Christ, [e]nor Elijah, nor [f]the Prophet?"

26 John answered them, saying, "I [g]baptize with water, but there stands One among you whom you do [h]not know.

27 "It is He who, coming after me, is [i]preferred before me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to [j]loose."

28 These things were done in Bethabara* beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, "Behold! The [k]Lamb of God who [l]takes away the [m]sin of the world!

30 "This is He of whom I said, 'After me comes a Man who is [n]preferred before me, for He was before me.'

31 "I did not know Him; but that He [o]should be revealed to Israel, therefore I came [p]baptizing with water."

32 And John bore witness, saying, "I saw the [q]Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and He [r]remained upon Him.

33 "I did not know Him, but He who sent me to [s]baptize with water said to me, 'Upon whom you see the [t]Spirit descending, and remaining on Him, this is He who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.'

34 "And I have seen and testified that this is the [u]Son of God."

GRACE, SUMMARY

(1) Grace is "the kindness and the love of God our Savior . . . not by works of righteousness which we have done . . . having been justified by His grace" (Titus 3:4,5,7). As a principle, therefore, grace is set in contrast with law (Rom. 11:6), under which God demands righteousness from men, as, under grace, He gives righteousness to men (Rom. 3:21–24; 8:3–4; Gal. 2:16; Phil. 3:9). Law is connected with Moses and works; grace, with Christ and faith (John 1:17; Rom. 10:4–10). Under law, blessings accompany obedience (Deut. 28:1–6); grace bestows blessings as a free gift (Rom. 4:3–5; Eph. 2:8).

(2) In its fullness, grace began with the ministry of Christ involving His death and resurrection, for He came to die for sinners (John 1:17; Matt. 11:28–30; 16:21; 20:28; Rom. 3:24–26; 4:24–25). Under the former dispensation, law was shown to be powerless to secure righteousness and life for a sinful race (Gal. 3:21–22). Prior to the cross man's salvation was through faith (Gen. 15:6; Rom. 4:3), being grounded on Christ's atoning sacrifice, anticipated by God (Rom. 3:25; see Gen. 1:28, note, on page 4, par. 4); now it is clearly revealed that salvation and righteousness are received by faith in the crucified and resurrected Savior (John 1:12–13; 5:24; 1 John 5:11–13), with holiness of life and good works following as the fruit of salvation (John 15:16; Rom. 8:2–4; Eph. 2:8–10; Titus 2:11–14).

(3) There was grace before Christ came, as witnessed by the provision of sacrifice for sinners (Ex. 20:24–26; Lev. 5:17–18; 17:11). The difference between the former age and the present age, therefore, is not a matter of no grace and some grace, but rather that today grace reigns (Rom. 5:21), in the sense that the only Being who has a right to judge sinners (John 5:22) is now seated on a throne of grace (Heb. 4:14–16), not imputing to the world their trespasses (2 Cor. 5:19).

III. The Son of God Manifesting His Power in Public Ministry, 1:35—12:50

Jesus' first converts

35 Again, the next day, John stood with two of his disciples.

36 And looking at Jesus as He walked, he said, "Behold the [a]Lamb of God!"

37 The two disciples heard him speak, and they [b]followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and seeing them following, said to them, "What do you [c]seek?" They said to Him, "Rabbi" (which is to say, when translated, Teacher), "where are You staying?"

39 He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where He was [d]staying, and [e]remained with Him that day (now it was about the tenth hour).

40 One of the two who heard John speak, and followed Him, was [f]Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first found his own brother Simon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated, the Christ).

42 And he brought him to Jesus. Now when Jesus looked at him, He said, "You are Simon the son of Jonah.* You shall be called Cephas" (which is translated, A Stone).

43 The following day Jesus wanted to go to Galilee, and He [g]found [h]Philip and said to him, "Follow Me."

44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found Him of whom Moses in the [i]law, and also the prophets, [j]wrote—Jesus of Nazareth, the [k]son of Joseph."

46 And Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of [l]Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see."

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward Him, and said of him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no [m]deceit!"

48 Nathanael said to Him, "How do You know me?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

49 Nathanael answered and said to Him, "Rabbi, [n]You are the [o]Son of God! You are the [p]King of Israel!"

50 Jesus answered and said to him, "Because I said to you, 'I saw you under the fig tree,' do you [q]believe? You will see greater things than these."

51 And He said to him, [r]"Most assuredly, I say to you, hereafter* you shall see heaven open, and the [s]angels of God ascending and descending upon the [t]Son of Man."

The first miracle: at Cana

2 ON the third day there was a [u]wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the [v]mother of Jesus was there.

2 Now both Jesus and His disciples were invited to the wedding.

3 And when they ran out of wine, the mother of Jesus said to Him, "They have no wine."

4 Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does your concern have to do with Me? My hour has not yet come."

5 His mother said to the servants, "Whatever He says to you, do it."

6 Now there were set there six waterpots of stone, according to the manner of [w]purification of the Jews, containing twenty or thirty [x]gallons apiece.

7 Jesus said to them, "Fill the waterpots with water." And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And He said to them, "Draw some out now, and take it to the master of the feast." And they took it.

9 When the master of the feast had tasted the water that was

[a][b]made wine, and did not know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom.

10 And he said to him, "Every man at the beginning sets out the good wine, and when the guests have well drunk, then the inferior. You have kept the good wine until now!"

11 This [c]beginning of signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and manifested His [d]glory; and His disciples [e]believed in Him.

12 After this He went down to [f]Capernaum, He, His [g]mother, His [h]brothers, and His disciples; and they did not stay there many days.

The first Passover (cp. John 6:4; 11:55). First purification of temple (cp. later purification, Matt. 21:12–13; Mark 11:15–17; Luke 19:45–56)

13 Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

14 And He [i][j]found in the temple those who sold [k]oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers doing business.

15 When He had made a whip of cords, He [l]drove them all [m]out of the temple, with the sheep and the oxen, and poured out the changers' money and overturned the tables.

16 And He said to those who sold doves, "Take these things away! Do not make My Father's house a house of merchandise!"

17 Then His disciples remembered that it was [n]written, [o]"Zeal for Your house has eaten Me up."*

18 So the Jews answered and said to Him, "What [p]sign do You show to us, since You do these things?"

19 Jesus answered and said to them, [q]"Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

20 Then the Jews said, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will You raise it up in three days?"

21 But He was speaking of the [r]temple of His body.

22 Therefore, when He had [s]risen from the dead, His disciples [t]remembered that He had said this to them;* and they believed the Scripture and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many [u]believed in His name when they saw the [v]signs which He [w]did.

24 But Jesus did not commit Himself to them, because He [x]knew all men,

25 and had no need that anyone should testify of man, for He knew what was in man.

Jesus and Nicodemus: the new birth

3 THERE was a man of the [y]Pharisees named [z]Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews.

2 This man came to Jesus by night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from God; for no one can [aa]do these [bb][cc]signs that You do unless [dd]God is with him."

3 Jesus answered and said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, [ee]un-

3:3 REGENERATION

(1) The necessity of the new birth grows out of the incapacity of the natural man to "see" or "enter" the kingdom of God. However gifted, moral, or refined he may be, the natural man is absolutely blind to spiritual truth and impotent to enter the kingdom; for he can neither obey, understand, nor please God (vv. 3,5–6; compare Ps. 51:5; Jer. 17:9; Mark 7:21–23; 1 Cor. 2:14; Rom. 8:7–8; Eph. 2:3. See Matt. 6:33, note).

(2) The new birth is not a reformation of the old nature (Rom. 6:6, note), but a creative act of the Holy Spirit (John 3:5; compare 1:12–13; 2 Cor. 5:17; Eph. 2:10; 4:24).

(3) The condition of the new birth is faith in Christ crucified (John 3:14,15; compare 1:12–13; Gal. 3:24).

(4) Through the new birth the believer becomes a member of the family of God (Gal. 3:26; 1 Pet. 1:23) and a partaker of the divine nature, the life of Christ Himself (Gal. 2:20; Eph. 2:10; 4:24; Col. 1:27; 2 Pet. 1:4; 1 John 5:10–12). And

(5) in view of Ezek. 36:24–26, Nicodemus should have known about the new birth. Observe the correspondence between the "clean water," the "new spirit," and the "new heart" of the Ezekiel passage and the "water," "Spirit," and new birth ("born again") of John 3:3,7.

less one is born again, he cannot see the [a]kingdom of God."

4 Nicodemus said to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?"

5 Jesus answered, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is [b]born of [c]water and the [d]Spirit, he cannot enter the [a]kingdom of God.

6 "That which is born of the flesh is [e]flesh, and that which is [b]born of the [d]Spirit is spirit.

7 "Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be [b]born again.'

8 "The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is [b]born of the [d]Spirit."

9 Nicodemus answered and said to Him, "How can these things be?"

10 Jesus answered and said to him, "Are you the teacher of Israel, and do not know these things?

11 "Most assuredly, I say to you, [f]We speak what We know and testify what We have seen, and you do not receive Our witness.

12 "If I have told you [g]earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you [h]heavenly things?

13 "No one has [i]ascended to heaven but He who [j]came down from heaven, that is, the [k]Son of Man who is in heaven.*

14 "And [l]as Moses [m]lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the [k]Son of Man be lifted up, 15 "that whoever [n]believes in Him should not perish but* have eternal [o]life.

16 [p]"For God so [q]loved the world that He [m]gave His only begotten [r]Son, that whoever [n]believes in Him should not perish but [s]have everlasting [o]life.

17 "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be [t]saved.

18 [u]"He who [n]believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 "And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 "For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be [v]exposed.

21 "But he who does the truth comes to the [w]light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been [x]done in God."

Last testimony of John the Baptist

22 After these things Jesus and His disciples came into the land of Judea, and there He remained with them and [y]baptized.

23 Now John also was baptizing in Aenon near Salim, because there was much water there. And they [z]came and were [y]baptized.

24 For John had not yet been thrown into [aa]prison.

25 Then there arose a dispute between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purification.

26 And they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, He who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom

Jesus leaves for Galilee

4 THEREFORE, when the Lord knew that the [t]Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John

2 (though Jesus Himself did [u]not [v]baptize, but His disciples),

3 He left Judea and departed again to Galilee.

4 But He needed to go through Samaria.

Jesus and the Samaritan woman

5 So He came to a city of Samaria which is called Sychar, near the plot of ground that [w]Jacob [x]gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now [y]Jacob's [z]well was there. Jesus therefore, being [aa]wearied from His journey, sat thus by the well. It was about the sixth hour.

7 A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give Me a drink."

8 For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

9 Then the woman of Samaria said to Him, "How is it that You, being a Jew, ask a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" For Jews have no [bb]dealings with [cc]Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the [dd]gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you [ee]living water."

11 The woman said to Him, "Sir, You have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Where then do You get that [ff]living water?

12 "Are You [gg]greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, as well as his sons and his livestock?"

13 Jesus answered and said to her, "Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again, 14 "but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the [hh]water that I shall

3:36 has everlasting life. Eternal life is not only a future hope but the present possession of everyone who believes in Christ.

Jacob: supplanter. The younger son of Isaac and Rebekah who tricked his brother Esau into selling him his birthright. He deceived his father in order to receive the family blessing.

4:6 being wearied. Observe that, in His humanity, Jesus experienced the same physical limitations that all men know. Compare Heb. 4:15–16. sixth hour. 6 P.M. See John 19:14, note; compare Gen. 24:11.

Joseph: he shall add. Favorite son of Jacob who was hated by his brothers and sold into slavery in Egypt. God rewarded Joseph for his obedience by making him a great ruler in Egypt thus enabling him to save his family from starvation during a great famine.

Samaria: guard. A province (and a city) in central Palestine, north of Judea and south of Galilee. The people from this area were despised by the Jews.

give him will become in him a fountain of [a]water [b]springing up into everlasting [c]life."

15 The woman [d]said to Him, "Sir, give me this water, that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw."

16 Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."

17 The woman answered and said, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You have well said, 'I have no husband,'

18 "for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband; in that you spoke truly."

19 The woman said to Him, "Sir, I perceive that You are a [e]prophet.

20 "Our fathers worshiped on this [f]mountain, and you Jews say that in [g]Jerusalem is the place where one ought to worship."

21 Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when you will neither on this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 "You worship what you do not know; we know what we worship, for [h]salvation is of the Jews.

23 "But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will [i]worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him.

24 [j]"God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must [k]worship in spirit and truth."

25 The woman said to Him, "I know that Messiah is [l]coming" (who is called Christ). "When He comes, He will tell us all things."

26 Jesus said to her, [m]"I who speak to you am [n]He."

27 And at this point His disciples came, and they [o]marveled that He talked with a woman; yet no one said, "What do You seek?" or, "Why are You talking with her?"

28 The woman then left her waterpot, went her way into the city, and said to the men,

29 [p]"Come, see a Man who told me all things that I ever did. Could this be the Christ?"

30 Then they went out of the city and came to Him.

31 In the meantime His disciples urged Him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."

32 But He said to them, "I have food to eat of which you do not know."

33 Therefore the disciples said to one another, "Has anyone brought Him anything to eat?"

34 Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the [q]will of Him who sent Me, and to [r]finish His work.

35 "Do you not say, 'There are still four months and then comes the [s]harvest'? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for [t]harvest!

36 "And he who reaps receives [u]wages, and gathers [v]fruit for eternal [w]life, that [x]both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together.

37 "For in this the [y]saying is true: [z]'One sows and another reaps.'

38 "I sent you to reap that for

Jesus and the Samaritans

39 And many of the [b]Samaritans of that city [c]believed in Him because of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me all that I ever did."

40 So when the [d]Samaritans had come to Him, they urged Him to stay with them; and He stayed there two days.

41 And many more [e]believed because of His own [f]word.

42 Then they said to the woman,
"Now we [g]believe, not because of what you said, for we ourselves have heard Him and we know that this is indeed the Christ,* the [h]Savior of the world."

43 Now after the two days He departed from there and went to Galilee.

44 For Jesus Himself testified [i]that a [j]prophet has no honor in his own country.

45 So when He came to Galilee, the Galileans received Him, having [k]seen all the things He did in Jerusalem at the feast; for they also had gone to the feast.

Jesus heals a nobleman's son

46 So Jesus came again to Cana of Galilee where He had [l]made the water wine. [m]And there was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and implored Him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death.

48 Then Jesus said to him, "Unless you people see [n]signs and wonders, you will by no means believe."

49 The nobleman [o]said to Him,
"Sir, come down before my child dies!"

50 Jesus said to him, [p]"Go your way; your son lives." So the man [q]believed the [r]word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him and told him, saying, [s]"Your son lives!"

52 Then he inquired of them the hour when he got better. And they said to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever [t]left him."

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour in which Jesus said to him, [u]"Your son lives." And he himself [v]believed, and his whole household.

54 This again is the [w]second sign
Jesus did when He had come out of Judea into Galilee.

Another feast of the Jews:
healing of the crippled man
at pool of Bethesda

5 AFTER this there was a [x]feast of the Jews, and Jesus [y]went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is in Jerusalem by the Sheep [z]Gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew, Bethesda,* having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of sick people, blind, lame, paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an [aa]angel went down at a certain time into the pool and stirred up the water; then whoever stepped in first, after the stirring of the water, was made well of whatever disease he had.*

5 Now a certain man was there who had an [bb]infirmity thirty-eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he already had been in that condition a long time, He said to him, [cc]"Do you want to be made well?"

7 The [dd]sick man answered Him,
"Sir, [ee]I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; but while I am coming, another steps down before me."

8 Jesus said to him, [a]"Rise, take up your bed and walk."
9 And immediately the man was [b]made well, took up his bed, and walked. And that day was the [c]Sabbath.
10 The Jews therefore said to him who was cured, "It is the [c]Sabbath; it is not [d]lawful for you to carry your bed."
11 He answered them, "He who made me well said to me, [e]'Take up
your bed and walk.' "
12 Then they asked him, "Who is the Man who said to you, 'Take up
your bed and walk'?"
13 But the one who was [f]healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had [g]withdrawn, a multitude being in that place.
14 Afterward Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, "See, you have been made well. [h]Sin no more, lest a worse thing come upon
you."
15 The man departed and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.
16 For this reason the Jews [i]persecuted Jesus, and sought to kill Him,* because He had done these things
on the [c]Sabbath.

Jesus claims equality with the Father

17 But Jesus answered them, "My Father has been working until now, and I have been [j]working."
18 Therefore the Jews sought all the more to [k]kill Him, because He not only broke the [c]Sabbath, but also said that [l]God was His Father,
[m]making Himself equal with God.
19 Then Jesus answered and said to them, [n]"Most assuredly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He sees the Father do; for whatever He does, the Son also does in like manner.
20 "For the Father [o]loves the Son, and [p]shows Him all things that He Himself does; and He will show Him greater works than these, that you may marvel.
21 "For as the Father [q]raises the dead and gives life to them, even so the Son [r]gives life to whom He will.
22 "For the Father judges no one, but has committed [s]all [t]judgment to the Son,
23 "that all should honor the Son just as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.
24 [n]"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who hears My word and [u]believes in Him who sent Me has everlasting [v]life, and shall [w]not come into [s]judgment, but has passed from [x]death into life.

The two resurrections

25 "Most assuredly, I say to you, the hour is coming, and now is,
when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God; and those who hear [q]will [v]live.
26 "For [y]as the Father has life in Himself, so He has granted the Son to have [z]life in Himself, 27 "and has given Him authority to execute [t]judgment also, because He is the Son of Man.
28 "Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves will [aa]hear His voice 29 [bb]"and [q]come forth—those who have done good, [w]to the resurrection of [v]life, and those who have done evil, to the [t]resurrection [s]of [cc]condemnation.

Confirmatory witnesses to Jesus

30 "I can of Myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge; and My [t]judgment is righteous, because I do not seek My own will but the will of the Father who sent Me.

5:18 His Father. Literally, "His own Father" (Greek patera idion). It is clear that the Jews understood that Jesus was claiming to be God. Compare 10:33.

5:19 nothing of Himself. Some have mistakenly said that Jesus was here disclaiming equality with the Father. On the contrary, the whole context argues the opposite (vv. 18 where see note, 23,26). Our Lord is simply saying that He and the Father work together (compare v. 17). do. Literally doing.

5:25,28 hour. Since this "hour" of spiritual regeneration has already lasted for over nineteen centuries, it is also possible for the future "hour" of physical resurrection (vv. 28–29) to extend over a thousand years—the righteous to be raised at the beginning; the wicked, at the end. See Rev. 20.

34 "Yet I do not receive testimony from man, but I say these things that you may be [b]saved.
35 "He was the burning and shining lamp, and you were willing for a time to rejoice in his light.

(2) Witness of Jesus' works

36 "But I have a greater witness than John's; for the works which the Father has given Me to [c]finish—the very [d]works that I do—bear witness of Me, that the Father has sent Me.

37 "And the Father Himself, who sent Me, has testified of Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, nor [e]seen His form.
38 "But you do not have His word abiding in you, because whom He sent, Him you do not believe.

41 "I do not receive honor from men.
42 "But I know you, that you do not have the love of God in you.
43 "I have [i]come in My Father's name, and you do not receive Me; if [j]another comes in his own [k]name, him you will receive.
44 "How can you believe, who receive honor from one another, and do not seek the honor that comes from the only God?
45 "Do not think that I shall accuse you to the Father; there is one who accuses you—Moses, in whom you [l]trust.
46 "For if you believed Moses, you would [m]believe Me; for he [n]wrote about Me.
47 "But if you do [o]not believe his [p]writings, how will you believe My words?"

Another Passover: five thousand fed (Matt. 14:15–21; Mark 6:32–44; Luke 9:12–17)

6 AFTER these things Jesus went over the Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of [q]Tiberias.
2 Then a great multitude followed Him, because they saw His signs which He performed on those who were [r]diseased.
3 And Jesus went up on the mountain, and there He sat with His disciples.
4 Now the Passover, a feast of the Jews, was near.
5 Then Jesus lifted up His eyes, and seeing a great multitude coming toward Him, He said to [s]Philip, "Where shall we buy bread, that these may eat?"
6 But this He said to [t]test him, for He Himself knew what He would do.

5:31 Compare John 8:14. The statement here (5:31) might be paraphrased as follows: "If I testify about Myself, you will say My testimony is not valid." Against this charge our Lord, in defending His Messianic claims, urges the biblical rule of evidence which requires two or three witnesses (Num. 35:30; Deut. 17:6; John 8:17–18). The additional witnesses are cited in vv. 32–47.

6:1 After these things. There are many events in our Lord's ministry which took place between ch. 5:47 and 6:1, that is, the period between Matt. 4:12 and 14:12.

Galilee. Or Chinnereth, Num. 34:11; or Chinneroth, Josh. 12:3.

Sea of Galilee: A large, fresh-water lake in Galilee, known for its sudden and fierce storms.

6:4 Passover . . . was near. Approximately A.D. 27. Compare John 2:13; 11:55; 18:28; see Ex. 12:11, note.

Philip: lover of horses. One of the twelve disciples of Jesus.

8 One of His disciples, [a]Andrew,
Simon Peter's brother, said to Him,
9 "There is a lad here who has five barley loaves and two small fish, but what are they among so [b]many?"
10 Then Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.
11 And Jesus took the loaves, and when He had [c]given thanks He distributed them to the disciples, and the disciples* to those sitting down; and likewise of the fish, as much as they wanted.
12 So when they were filled, He said to His disciples, "Gather up the fragments that remain, so [d]that nothing is lost."
13 Therefore they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten.
14 Then those men, when they had seen the [e]sign that Jesus did, said, "This is truly [f]the Prophet who is to come into the world."

Jesus walks on the water
(Matt. 14:22–32; Mark 6:45–52)

15 Therefore when Jesus perceived that they were about to come and take Him by force to make Him [g]king, He departed again to the mountain by Himself alone.
16 [h]Now when evening came, His disciples went down to the sea, 17 got into the boat, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was already dark, and Jesus had not come to them.
18 Then the sea arose because a
[i]great wind was blowing.
19 So when they had rowed about three or four miles,* they saw Jesus [j]walking on the [k]sea and drawing near the boat; and they were [l]afraid.
20 But He said to them, [m]"It is I;
do not be afraid."
21 Then they willingly received
Him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

Jesus, the bread of life

22 On the following day, when the people who were standing on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except that one which His disciples had entered,* and that Jesus had not entered the boat with His disciples, but
His disciples had gone away alone—23 however, other boats came from Tiberias, near the [n]place where they ate bread after the Lord had given thanks—
24 when the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they also got into boats and came to Capernaum, [o]seeking Jesus.

Andrew: One of the twelve disciples of Jesus.

6:19 miles. See Weights and Measures (NT), Acts 27:28, note.

Capernaum: A city on the northwest coast of the Sea of Galilee. It was the center of Christ's ministry after He left Nazareth.

25 And when they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, "Rabbi, when did You come here?"

26 Jesus answered them and said,
[a]"Most assuredly, I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw the signs, but because you [b]ate of the loaves and were filled.

27 [c]"Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for the food which [d]endures to everlasting [e]life, which the [f]Son of Man will [g]give you, because God the Father has [h]set His seal on Him."

28 Then they said to Him, "What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?"

29 Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God, that you [i]believe in Him whom He sent."

Jesus, sent from heaven

30 Therefore they said to Him,
"What [j]sign will You perform then,
that we may see it and believe You?
What work will You do?

31 "Our fathers ate the [k]manna in the desert; as it is [l]written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"*

32 Then Jesus said to them,
[a]"Most assuredly, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but [m]My Father gives you the true bread from heaven.

33 "For the bread of God [n]is He who [o]comes down from heaven and [p]gives [e]life to the world."

34 Then they said to Him, "Lord, give us this bread always."

35 And Jesus said to them, [q]"I am the bread of [e]life. He who comes to Me shall never [r]hunger, and he who
[s]believes in Me shall never [t]thirst.

36 "But I said to you that you have [u]seen Me and yet do [v]not believe.

37 "All that the Father [w]gives Me will come to Me, and [x]the one who comes to Me I will by no means cast
out.

38 "For I have [o]come down from heaven, not to do My own will, [y]but the [p]will of Him who sent Me.

39 "This is the will of the Father who sent Me, that of all He has given Me I should lose [z]nothing, but should raise it up at the last [aa]day.

40 "And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have everlasting [e]life; and I will [bb]raise him up at the last [aa]day."

41 The Jews then complained about Him, because He said, [q]"I am the bread which [o]came down from heaven."

42 And they said, [cc]"Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How is it then that He says, 'I have [o]come down from heaven'?"

43 Jesus therefore answered and said to them, "Do not murmur among yourselves.

44 "No one can [dd]come to Me unless the Father who sent Me [ee]draws him; and I will raise him up at the last [aa]day.

45 "It is [l]written in the prophets,
'And they shall all be taught by God.' Therefore everyone who has heard and learned* from the Father comes to Me.

46 "Not that anyone has seen the Father, except He who is from God;
He has seen the Father.

47 [a]"Most assuredly, I say to you,
he who believes in Me* has everlasting [e]life.

48 [q]"I [ff]am the bread of life.

49 "Your fathers ate the [k]manna in the wilderness, and are [gg]dead.

50 "This is the bread which [o]comes down from heaven, that one may eat of it and not die.

51 [q]"I [ff]am the living bread which [o]came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will [e]live [z]forever; and the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall [p]give for the life of the world."

52 The Jews therefore quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this Man give us His flesh to eat?"

53 Then Jesus said to them, [a]"Most assuredly, I say to you, unless you eat
the flesh of the Son of Man and drink
His blood, you have no life in you.

57 "As the living Father sent Me,

58 "This is the [f]bread which [g]came down from heaven—not [h]as

59 These things He said in the synagogue as He taught in Capernaum.

Discipleship tested by doctrine
(cp. Matt. 8:19–22; 10:36)

60 Therefore many of His disciples, when they heard this, said,
"This is a hard saying; [k]who can understand it?"
61 When Jesus knew in Himself that His disciples complained about this, He said to them, "Does this offend you?
62 "What then if you should see the [l]Son of Man [m]ascend where He was before?
63 "It is the [n]Spirit who [o]gives life;
the [p]flesh profits nothing. The [q]words that I speak to you are spirit, and they are [r]life.
64 "But there are some of you who do [s]not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who would [t]betray Him.
65 And He said, "Therefore I have said to you that no one can come to Me unless it has been [u]granted to him by My Father."

Peter confesses his faith
(cp. Matt. 16:13–20; Mark 8:27–30;
Luke 9:18–21)

66 From that time many of His disciples went [v]back and walked with Him no more.
67 Then Jesus said to the twelve,
"Do you also want to go away?"
68 But Simon Peter answered Him,
"Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal [w]life.
69 "Also we have come to [x]believe and know that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."*
70 Jesus answered them, "Did I not choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?"
71 He spoke of [y]Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, for it was he who would [z]betray Him, being one of the twelve.

Christ's unbelieving brothers press Him to go to Jerusalem

7 AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee; for He did not want to walk in Judea, because the Jews* sought to [aa]kill Him.
2 Now the Jews' [bb]Feast of Tabernacles was at hand.
3 His brothers therefore said to Him, "Depart from here and go into Judea, that Your disciples also may see the works that You are doing.
4 "For no one does anything in secret while he himself seeks to be known openly. If You do these things, show Yourself to the world."
5 For [cc]even His [dd]brothers did not believe in Him.
6 Then Jesus said to them, "My [ee]time has not yet come, but your time is always ready.
7 "The world cannot [ff]hate you, but it hates Me because I testify of it that its works are evil.
8 "You go up to this [gg]feast. I am not yet* going up to this feast, for My [hh]time has not yet fully come."
9 When He had said these things
to them, He remained in Galilee.

Galilee: A province in northern Palestine. Jesus grew up here, selected His disciples from this area and conducted most of His ministry in this region.

Jesus at the Feast of Tabernacles

10 But when His [a]brothers had gone up, then He also went up to the [b]feast, not openly, but as it were in [c]secret.

11 Then the Jews sought Him at the feast, and said, "Where is He?"

12 [d]And there was much complaining among the people concerning Him. Some said, "He is good"; others said, "No, on the contrary, He deceives the people."

13 However, no one spoke openly of Him for [e]fear of the Jews.

14 Now about the middle of the [f]feast Jesus went up into the temple and [g]taught.

15 And the Jews [h]marveled, saying, "How does this Man know letters, having never studied?"

16 Jesus* answered them and said, "My doctrine is not Mine, but [i]His who sent Me.

17 "If anyone wills to do His will, he shall know concerning the doctrine, [j]whether it is from God or whether I speak on My own authority.

18 "He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory; but He who [k]seeks the glory of the One who sent Him is true, and [l]no unrighteousness is in Him.

19 "Did not Moses give you the [m]law, yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill Me?"

20 The people answered and said, "You have a [n]demon. Who is seeking to kill You?"

21 Jesus answered and said to them, "I did one work, and you all marvel.

22 "Moses therefore gave you [o]circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but [p]from the fathers), and you circumcise a man on the [q]Sabbath.

23 "If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath, so that the [r]law of Moses should not be broken, are you angry with Me because I made a man [s]completely well on the [t]Sabbath?

24 "Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with [u]righteous judgment."

25 Now some of them from Jerusalem said, "Is this not He whom they seek to [v]kill?

26 "But look! He speaks boldly, and they say nothing to Him. [w]Do the rulers know indeed that this is truly* the Christ?

27 [x]"However, we know where this Man is from; but when the Christ comes, no one knows where He is from."

28 Then Jesus cried out, as He taught in the temple, saying, "You both know Me, and you know where I am from; and I have not come of Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom you do not know.

29 "But* I know Him, for I am [y]from Him, and He sent Me."

30 Therefore they sought to take Him; but no one laid a hand on Him, because His [z]hour had not yet come.

31 And many of the people [aa]believed in Him, and said, "When the Christ [bb]comes, will He do more signs than these which this Man has done?"

32 The [cc]Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things concerning Him, and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take Him.

7:21 MIRACLES OF JESUS RECORDED ONLY BY JOHN

Jesus turns the water into wine.	John 2:1–11
Jesus heals the nobleman's son.	John 4:46–54
Jesus heals the crippled man at Bethesda.	John 5:1–9
Jesus heals the man born blind.	John 9:1–7
Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead.	John 11:43–44
Jesus guides the disciples to a great catch of fish.	John 21:1–14

33 Then Jesus said to them,* [a]"I shall be with you a little while longer, and then I [b]go to Him who sent Me.
34 "You will seek Me and not find Me, and where I am you [c]cannot come."
35 Then the Jews said among themselves, "Where does He intend to go that we shall not find Him? Does He intend to go to the [d]Dispersion among the [e]Greeks and teach the Greeks?
36 "What is this thing that He said, 'You will seek Me and not find Me, and where I am you cannot come'?"

The great prophecy concerning the Holy Spirit for power (Acts 2:2–4; cp. John 4:14)

37 On the [f]last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink.
38 "He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will [g]flow rivers of living [h]water."
39 But this He spoke concerning the Spirit, whom those believing* in Him would receive; for the Holy* [i]Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet [j]glorified.

Divided opinion about Jesus

40 Therefore many* from the crowd, when they heard this saying, [k]said, "Truly this [l]is the Prophet."
41 Others [k]said, "This is [m]the Christ." But some said, "Will the Christ come out of Galilee?
42 "Has not the Scripture [n]said that the Christ [o]comes from the seed of David and from the town of Bethlehem, where David was?"
43 So there was a division among the people because of Him.
44 Now some of them wanted to take Him, but no one laid hands on Him.
45 Then the officers came to the chief priests and [p]Pharisees, who said to them, "Why have you not brought Him?"
46 The officers answered, [q]"No man ever spoke like this Man!"
47 Then the [p]Pharisees answered them, "Are you also deceived?
48 [r]"Have any of the rulers or the [p]Pharisees believed in Him?
49 "But this crowd that does not know the [s]law is accursed."
50 Nicodemus [t](he who came to Jesus by night,* being one of them) said to them,
51 "Does our [s]law judge a man before it [u]hears him and knows what he is doing?"
52 They answered and said to him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search and look, [v]for no prophet has arisen* out of Galilee."
53 And everyone went to his own house.*

The scribes and Pharisees accuse a woman caught in adultery

8 BUT Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.
2 Now early* in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people came to Him; and He sat down and [w]taught them.
3 Then the [x]scribes and [p]Pharisees brought to Him a woman caught in adultery. And when they had set her in the midst,
4 they said to Him, "Teacher, this woman was caught* in [y]adultery, in the very act.
5 "Now Moses, in the [s]law, commanded* us that such should be [z]stoned.* But what do You say?"*
6 This they said, [aa]testing Him,

7:53 Although John 7:53—8:11 is not found in some ancient manuscripts, the immediate context, beginning with Christ's declaration, "I am the light of the world" (8:12) seems clearly to have its occasion in the conviction wrought in the hearts of the Pharisees as recorded in 8:9, and also helps to explain the Pharisees' words in 8:41. It is therefore to be considered a genuine part of the Gospel.

Mount of Olives: The summit of the range of hills east of Jerusalem which was once covered with olive trees. A central location to the events of Christ's ministry.

that they [a]might have something of which to accuse Him. But Jesus stooped down and wrote on the ground with His finger, as though He did not hear.*

7 So when they continued asking Him, He raised Himself up* and said to them, "He who is without [b]sin among you, [c]let him throw a stone at her first."

8 And again He stooped down and wrote on the ground.

9 Then those who heard it, being convicted by their conscience,* went out one by one, beginning with the oldest even to the last. And Jesus was left [d]alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had raised Himself up and saw no one but the woman, He said to her,* "Woman, where are those [e]accusers of yours?* Has no one condemned you?"

11 She said, "No one, Lord." And Jesus said to her, "Neither do I [f]condemn you; go and* [g]sin no more."

The central conflict between Jesus and the Pharisees: the origin of Christ. He is the light of the world (cp. John 1:9)

12 Then Jesus spoke to them again, saying, [h]"I am the [i]light of the world. He who [j]follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the light of [k]life."

13 The [l]Pharisees therefore said to Him, "You bear witness of Yourself; Your witness is not true."

14 Jesus answered and said to them, "Even if I bear witness of Myself, My witness is true, for I know where I came from and where I am going; but you do not know where I come from and where I am going.

15 "You judge according to the [m]flesh; I judge no one.

16 "And yet if I do judge, My judgment is true; for I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent Me.

17 "It is also [no]written in your [p]law that the testimony of two men is true.

18 "I am One who bears witness of Myself, and the [q]Father who sent Me bears witness of Me."

19 Then they said to Him, "Where is Your Father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither Me nor My Father. [r]If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also."

20 These words Jesus spoke in the treasury, as He taught in the temple; and no one laid hands on Him, for His [s]hour had not yet come.

21 Then Jesus said to them again, "I am going away, and you will seek Me, and will [t]die in your [u]sin. Where I go you [v]cannot come."

22 So the Jews said, "Will He [w]kill Himself, because He says, 'Where I go you cannot come'?"

23 And He said to them, "You are from beneath; [x]I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 "Therefore I said to you that you will [y]die in your [z]sins; for if you do not believe that I am He, you will [y]die in your [z]sins."

25 Then they said to Him, "Who are You?" And Jesus said to them, "Just what I have been [aa]saying to you from the beginning.

26 "I have many things to say and to judge concerning you, but He who sent Me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I heard from Him."

27 They did not understand that He spoke to them of the Father.

28 Then Jesus said to them, "When you [bb]lift up the [cc]Son of Man, then you will know that I am He, and that I do nothing of Myself; but as My Father taught Me, I [dd]speak these things.

29 "And He who sent Me is with Me. The Father has not left Me alone, for I always do those things that please Him."

30 As He spoke these words, many [ee]believed in Him.

31 Then Jesus said to those Jews who [a]believed Him, "If you [b]abide in My [c]word, you are My disciples indeed.

32 "And you shall know the [d]truth, and the truth shall make you free."

33 They answered Him, [e]"We are Abraham's descendants, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How can you say, 'You will be made free'?"

34 Jesus answered them, [f]"Most assuredly, I say to you, whoever commits [g]sin is a [h]slave of [g]sin.

35 "And a slave does [i]not abide in the house forever, but a son [j]abides forever.

36 "Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be [k]free indeed.

37 "I know that you are Abraham's descendants, but you seek to [l]kill Me, because My word has no place in you.

38 "I [m]speak what I have seen with My Father, and you do what you have seen with* your father."

39 They answered and said to Him, "Abraham is our father." Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham.

40 "But now you seek to kill Me, a Man who has told you the [d]truth [n]which I heard from God. Abraham did not do this.

41 "You do the deeds of your father." Then they said to Him, "We were not [o]born of fornication; [p]we have one Father—God."

42 Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I proceeded forth and [q]came from God; nor have I come of Myself, but [r]He sent Me.

43 "Why do you not understand My speech? Because you are not able to listen to My word.

44 "You are of your father the [s]devil, and the [t]desires of your father you want to [u]do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it.

45 "But because I tell the truth, you do not believe Me.

46 "Which of you [v]convicts Me of sin? And if I tell the truth, why do you not believe Me?

47 "He who is of God [w]hears God's words; therefore you do not hear, because you are not of God."

48 Then the Jews answered and said to Him, "Do we not say rightly that You are a [x]Samaritan and [y]have a [z]demon?"

49 Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon; but I honor My Father, and [aa]you dishonor Me.

50 "And I do not [bb]seek My own glory; there is One who seeks and judges.

51 [f]"Most assuredly, I say to you, [cc]if anyone keeps My word he shall never see [dd]death."

52 Then the Jews said to Him, "Now we know that You [ee]have a [z]demon! Abraham is [ff]dead, and the prophets; and You say, 'If anyone keeps My word he shall never taste death.'

53 "Are You [gg]greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? And the prophets are dead. [hh]Who do You make Yourself out to be?"

54 Jesus answered, [ii]"If I honor Myself, My honor is nothing. [jj]It is My Father who honors Me, of whom you say that He is your* God.

55 "Yet [kk]you have not known Him, but I know Him. And if I say, 'I do not know Him,' I shall be a liar like you; but I do know Him and [ll]keep His word.

56 "Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day, and he [mm]saw it and was glad."

8:44 father. That this satanic fatherhood cannot be limited to the Pharisees is made clear in 1 John 3:8–10. a lie. Literally the lie. Gen. 3:4–5.

Abraham: of a great multitude. A man chosen by God to become the father of the great nation Israel. God promised Abraham that he would have descendants as numerous as the stars in the heavens. Abraham was revered throughout generations for his great faith.

"You are not yet fifty years old, and have You seen Abraham?"

58 Jesus said to them, [a]"Most assuredly, I say to you, [b]before Abraham was, [c]I AM."

59 Then they [d]took up stones to throw at Him; but Jesus hid Himself and went out of the temple,* [e]going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

Jesus heals man born blind

9 NOW as Jesus passed by, He saw a man who was blind from birth.

2 And His disciples asked Him, saying, "Rabbi, who [f]sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

3 Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents [g]sinned, but [h]that the works of God should be revealed in him.

4 "I* must [i]work the works of Him who sent Me while it is [j]day; the night is coming when no one can work.

5 "As long as I am in the world, [k]I am the [l]light of the world."

6 When He had said these things, He spat on the ground and made [m]clay with the saliva; and He anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay.

7 And He said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which is translated, Sent). So he [n]went and [o]washed, and came back [p]seeing.

8 Therefore the neighbors and those who previously had seen that he was blind* said, "Is not this he who sat and begged?"

9 Some said, "This is he." Others said, "He is like him."* He said, "I am he."

10 Therefore they said to him, "How were your eyes opened?"

11 He answered and said, "A Man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and said to me, 'Go to the pool of* Siloam and wash.' So I went and washed, and I received sight."

12 Then they said to him, "Where is He?" He said, "I do not know."

13 They brought him who formerly was blind to the [q]Pharisees.

14 Now it was a [r]Sabbath when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes.

15 Then the [s]Pharisees also asked him again how he had received his sight. He said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and I see."

16 Therefore some of the [t]Pharisees said, "This Man is [u]not from God, because He does not [v]keep the [w]Sabbath." Others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" And there was a [x]division among them.

17 They said to the blind man again, "What do you say about Him because He opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a [y]prophet."

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

20 His [z]parents answered them and said, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;

21 "but by what means he now sees we do not know, or who opened his eyes we do not know. He is of age; ask him. He will speak for himself."

22 His parents said these things because they [aa]feared the Jews, for the Jews had agreed already that if anyone confessed that He was Christ, he would be [bb]put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."

24 So they again called the man who was blind, and said to him,

9:10 How were your eyes opened? Observe the progress in the healed man's apprehension of the Person of Christ: (1) "A Man called Jesus" (v. 11); (2) "He is a prophet" (v. 17); (3) "if anyone is a worshiper of God and does His will" (v. 31); and (4) "and he worshiped Him" (v. 38).

9:22 out of the synagogue. For a Jew to be put out of the synagogue meant that he was ostracized by everyone.

"Give God the glory! We [a]know that this Man is a sinner."

25 He answered and said, "Whether He is a sinner or not I do not know. One thing I know: that though I was blind, now I see."

26 Then they said to him again, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?"

27 He answered them, "I told you already, and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become His disciples?"

28 Then they reviled him and said, "You are His disciple, but we are Moses' disciples.

29 "We know that God [b]spoke to [c]Moses; as for this fellow, we do not know [d]where He is from."

30 The man answered and said to them, "Why, this is a marvelous thing, that you do not know where He is from; yet He has opened my eyes!

31 "Now we know that God does [e]not hear [f]sinners; but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does His will, He hears him.

32 "Since the world began it has been unheard of that anyone opened the eyes of one who was born blind.

33 "If this Man were not from God, He could do [g]nothing."

34 They answered and said to him, "You were completely [h]born in sins, and are you teaching us?" And they [i]cast him out.

Jesus affirms His Deity

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when He had [j]found him, He said to him, "Do you [k]believe in the [l]Son of God?"*

36 He answered and said, [m]"Who is He, Lord, that I may believe in Him?"

37 And Jesus said to him, "You have both seen Him and it is [n]He who is talking with you."

38 Then he said, "Lord, I [o]believe!" And he [p]worshiped Him.

39 And Jesus said, "For [q]judgment I have [r]come into this world, that those who do not see may see, and that those who see may be made [s]blind."

40 Then some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these words, and said to Him, [t]"Are we blind also?"

41 Jesus said to them, [u]"If you were blind, you would have no [v]sin; but now you say, 'We see.' Therefore your [v]sin [w]remains.

Jesus as the good Shepherd
(cp. Ps. 23; Heb. 13:20; 1 Pet. 5:4)

10 [x]"MOST assuredly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs up some other [y]way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 "But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 "To him the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep [z]hear his voice; and he calls his own sheep by [aa]name and [bb]leads them out.

4 "And when he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them; and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice.

5 "Yet they will by no means follow a [cc]stranger, but will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers."

6 Jesus used this illustration, but they did not understand the things which He spoke to them.

7 Then Jesus said to them again, [x]"Most assuredly, I say to you, [dd]I am the door of the sheep.

8 "All who ever came before Me* are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them.

10:6 illustration. Literally proverb, that is, a figure of speech. John 16:25,29; 2 Pet. 2:22.

10:7 I am the door of the sheep. The shepherd work of our Lord has three aspects: (1) As the "good shepherd" He lays down His life for the sheep (v. 11) and is, therefore, "the door" by which "if anyone enters by Me, he will be saved" (v. 9). This answers to Ps. 22. (2) He is the "great Shepherd," who was "brought up . . . from the dead" (Heb. 13:20) to care for and make perfect the sheep. This answers to Ps. 23. And (3) He is the "Chief Shepherd" who is coming in glory to give crowns of reward to the faithful shepherds (1 Pet. 5:4). This answers to Ps. 24.

9 [a]"I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be [b]saved, and will go in and out and find pasture.
10 "The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have [c]come that they may have [d]life, and that they may have it more [e]abundantly.
11 [a]"I am the good [f]shepherd. The good shepherd [g]gives His life for the sheep.
12 "But a hireling, he who is not the shepherd, one who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and [h]leaves the sheep and flees;
and the wolf catches the sheep and scatters them.
13 "The hireling flees because he is a hireling and does not care about the sheep.
14 [a]"I am the good [f]shepherd; and I [i]know My sheep, and [j]am known by My own.
15 "As the Father knows Me, even so I know the Father; and I [g]lay down My life [k]for the sheep.
16 "And other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they will hear My voice;
and there will be one [l]flock and one
[f]shepherd.
17 "Therefore My Father [m]loves Me, because I [g]lay down My life that I may take it again.
18 "No one takes it from Me, but I [g]lay it down of Myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it [n]again. This [o]command I have received from My Father."
19 Therefore there was a [p]division again among the Jews because of these sayings.
20 And many of them said, "He has a [q]demon and is mad. Why do you listen to Him?"
21 Others said, "These are not the words of one who has a [q]demon.
Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"

Jesus asserts His Deity
(John 5:26–27; 14:9; 20:28–29)

22 Now it was the Feast of Dedication in Jerusalem, and it was winter.
23 And Jesus walked in the temple, in Solomon's porch.
24 Then the Jews surrounded Him and said to Him, "How long do You keep us in doubt? If You are the Christ, tell us plainly."
25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in My Father's name, they [r]bear witness of Me.
26 "But you do not believe, [s]because you are not of My sheep, as I said to you.*
27 "My sheep hear My voice, and I
[i]know them, and they follow Me.
28 "And I [t]give them eternal [d]life, and they shall [u]never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand.
29 "My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of My Father's hand.
30 "I and My Father [v]are one."
31 Then the Jews [w]took up stones again to stone Him.
32 Jesus answered them, "Many good works I have shown you from My Father. For which of those works do you stone Me?"
33 The Jews answered Him, saying, "For a good work we do not stone You, but for [x]blasphemy, and because You, being a Man, make Yourself God."
34 Jesus answered them, "Is it not [y]written in your law, 'I said, [z]"You are gods" '?
35 "If He called them gods, to whom the word of God [y]came (and the Scripture [aa]cannot be broken), 36 "do you say of Him whom the Father [bb]sanctified and [cc]sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'?

Jesus withdraws from Jerusalem

40 And He went away again beyond the Jordan to the place where John was [d]baptizing at first, and there He stayed.
41 Then many came to Him and said, "John performed no sign, but all the things that John [e]spoke about this Man were true."
42 And many [f]believed in Him
there.

Jesus raises Lazarus of Bethany from the dead

11 NOW a certain man was sick,
Lazarus of Bethany, the town of [g]Mary and her sister [h]Martha.
2 It was that Mary who anointed the Lord with fragrant oil and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.
3 Therefore the sisters sent to Him, saying, "Lord, behold, he whom You love is sick."
4 When Jesus heard that, He said,
"This sickness is [i]not unto death, but [j]for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it."
5 Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.
6 So, when He heard that he was sick, He stayed two more days in the place where He was.
7 Then after this He said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again."
8 The disciples said to Him, "Rabbi, lately the Jews sought to [k]stone
You, and are You going there
again?"
9 Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the [l]light of this world.
10 "But if one walks in the [m]night, he stumbles, because the [n]light is not in him."
11 These things He said, and after that He said to them, "Our friend Lazarus [o]sleeps, but I go that I may [p]wake him up."
12 Then His disciples said, "Lord, if he sleeps he will get well."
13 However, Jesus spoke of his death, but they thought that He was speaking about taking rest in sleep.
14 Then Jesus said to them [q]plainly, "Lazarus is dead.
15 "And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, that you may believe. Nevertheless let us go to him."
16 Then [r]Thomas, who is called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with Him."
17 So when Jesus came, He found that he had already been in the tomb four days.
18 Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two [s]miles* away.
19 And many of the [t]Jews had joined the women around Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.
20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met Him, but Mary was [u]sitting in the house.
21 Now Martha said to Jesus,
"Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.
22 "But even now I [v]know that whatever You [w]ask of God, God will give You."
23 Jesus said to her, "Your brother will [xy]rise again."
24 Martha said to Him, "I know that he will rise again in the [zaa]resurrection at the last [bb]day."
25 Jesus said to her, [cc]"I [dd]am the Bethany: A town located about two miles to the east of Jerusalem on the eastern slope of the Mount of Olives. Jesus' friends Mary, Martha and Lazarus lived here.

Lazarus: A dear friend of Jesus who lived in Bethany with his sisters, Mary and Martha. When Lazarus died, Jesus went to his tomb and raised him from the dead.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly and came to Him.
30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was* in the place where Martha met Him.
31 Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and comforting her, when they saw that Mary rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there."*
32 Then, when Mary came where Jesus was, and saw Him, she [k]fell down at His feet, saying to Him, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died."
33 Therefore, when Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her weeping, He groaned in the spirit and was troubled.
34 And He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to Him, "Lord, come and see."
35 Jesus [l]wept.
36 Then the Jews said, "See how He [m]loved him!"
37 And some of them said, "Could not this Man, who opened the eyes of the [n]blind, also have kept this man from dying?"
38 Then Jesus, [o]again groaning in Himself, came to the tomb. It was a [p]cave, and a [q]stone lay against it.
39 Jesus said, "Take away the [r]stone." Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to Him, "Lord, by this time there is a [s]stench, for he has been dead four days."
40 Jesus said to her, "Did I not say to you that if you would believe you would see the [t]glory of God?"
41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying.* And Jesus lifted up His eyes and [u]said, "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me.
42 "And I know that You always [v]hear Me, but because of the people who are [w]standing by I said this, that they may believe that You sent Me."
43 Now when He had said these things, He [x]cried with a [y]loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth!"
44 And he who had died [z]came [aa]out bound hand and foot with [bb]graveclothes, and his face was wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, [cc]"Loose him, and let him go."

Many are converted (cp. John 12:10–11): Pharisees conspire to kill Jesus 45 Then many of the Jews who had come to Mary, and had seen the things Jesus did, [dd]believed in Him.

46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees and [ee]told them the things Jesus did.
47 Then the chief priests and the [ff]Pharisees gathered a [gg]council and said, [hh]"What shall we do? For this Man works many signs.
48 "If we let Him alone like this, [ii]everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and nation."
49 And one of them, [jj]Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all,
50 "nor do you consider that it is expedient for us* that [kk]one man should die for the people, and not that the whole nation should perish."
51 Now this he did not say on his own authority; but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation,
52 and [ll]not for that nation only, but also that He would [mm]gather together in one the children of God who were scattered abroad.

53 Then, from that day on, they plotted [a] to put Him to death.

54 Therefore Jesus no longer [b] walked openly among the Jews, but went from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim, and there remained with His disciples.

55 And the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went from the country up to Jerusalem before the Passover, to [c] purify themselves.

56 Then they [d] sought Jesus, and spoke among themselves as they stood in the temple, "What do you think—that He will not come to the feast?"

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a command, that if anyone knew where He was, he should report it, that they might [e] seize Him.

2 There they made Him a supper;
and [a]Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with Him.
3 [b]Then Mary took a pound of very costly oil of [c]spikenard, anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil.
4 But one of His disciples, [d]Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who would betray Him, said,
5 "Why was this fragrant oil not sold for three hundred [e]denarii* and given to the poor?"
6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a [f]thief, and had the money box; and he used to take what was put in it.
7 But Jesus said, "Let her alone;
she has kept* this for the day of My burial.
8 "For the [g]poor you have with you always, but [h]Me you do not have always."
9 Now a great many of the Jews knew that He was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might also see Lazarus, whom He had [i]raised from the dead.
10 But the chief priests plotted to put Lazarus to death also,
11 because on account of him
[j]many of the Jews went away and [k]believed in Jesus.

Jesus enters the city of Jerusalem
(Matt. 21:1–9; Mark 11:1–10;
Luke 19:29–38; cp. Zech. 9:9;
Rev. 19:11–16)

12 The next day a great multitude that had come to the feast, [l]when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,
13 took [m]branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, and cried out:

"Hosanna!
'Blessed is He who [n]comes in the name of the LORD!'
The [o]King of Israel!"

14 Then Jesus, when He had found a young donkey, sat on it; as it is [p]written:

15 "Fear[q] not, daughter of Zion;
Behold, your King is coming,
Sitting on a donkey's colt."

16 His disciples did [r]not understand these things at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about Him and that they had done these things to Him.
17 Therefore the people, who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of his tomb and [s]raised him from the dead, [t]bore witness.
18 For this reason the people also met Him, because they heard that
He had done this sign.
19 The [u]Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "You see that you are accomplishing nothing.
Look, the world has [v]gone after Him!"

Certain Greeks seek an interview with Jesus

20 Now there were certain [w]Greeks among those who came up to worship at the feast.
21 Then they came to [x]Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus."
22 Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn Andrew and Philip told Jesus.

Jesus foretells His crucifixion

23 But Jesus answered them, saying, "The [y]hour has come that the [z]Son of Man should be glorified.
24 [aa]"Most assuredly, I say to you, ground and dies, it remains alone;

but if it [bb]dies, it produces much grain.

12:23 hour. The hour of human decision was now past, as far as the establishment of the kingdom was concerned (Luke 19:41–44). The King had been rejected by His own nation and, therefore, the predicted temporal blessings of that kingdom for both Jews and Gentiles (Is. 60:1–4;

25 [a]"He who loves his life will lose it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal [b]life.
26 "If anyone serves Me, let him
[c]follow Me; and [d]where I am, there
My servant will be also. If anyone serves Me, him My Father will [e]honor.
27 "Now My soul is troubled, and what shall I [f]say? [g]'Father, save Me from this hour'? [h]But for this purpose I came to this hour.
28 "Father, glorify Your name."
Then a [i]voice came from heaven, saying, "I have both glorified it and will glorify it again."
29 Therefore the people who stood by and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, "An [j]angel has spoken to Him."
30 Jesus answered and said, "This voice did not come because of Me,
but for your sake.
31 "Now is the judgment of this world; now the [k]ruler of this world will be cast out.
32 "And I, if I am [l]lifted up from the earth, will draw all peoples to Myself."
33 This He said, signifying by what
[m]death He would die.
34 The people answered Him, "We have heard from the law that the [n]Christ remains forever; and how can You say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?"
35 Then Jesus said to them, [o]"A little while longer the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness overtake you; [p]he who walks in darkness does not know where he is going.
36 "While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become [q]sons of light." These things Jesus spoke, and departed, and was hidden from them.
37 But although He had done so many [r]signs before them, they did not believe in Him, 38 that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he [s]spoke:

"Lord, who has believed our report?
And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?"

39 Therefore they could not believe, because Isaiah [t]said again:

40 "He has [u]blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts, [v]Lest they should see with their eyes,
Lest they should understand
with their hearts and turn,
So that I should heal them."

41 These things Isaiah said [w]when* he saw His glory and spoke of Him.
42 Nevertheless even among the rulers many [x]believed in Him, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue;
43 [y]for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.
44 Then Jesus cried out and said,
"He who believes in Me, [z]believes not in Me but in [aa]Him who sent
Me.
45 "And he who sees Me [bb]sees
Him who sent Me.

62:1–4) had to be deferred until the King's return in glory (Acts 15:16–17). But now a greater hour has arrived—the hour of the King's glorification through death and resurrection (John 12:23–24,28); this hour, set by the determined purpose and foreknowledge of God, will bring eternal life to all who believe, whether Jews or Gentiles (8:24,32).

12:24 Chapters 12—17 are a progression according to the order of approach to God in the tabernacle types. Chapter 12, in which Christ speaks of His death, answers to the bronze altar of burnt offering, a figure of the cross. The next step between the altar and the Most Holy Place is the laver (Ex. 30:17–21), answering to ch. 13, where Christ washes the disciples' feet. In chs. 14—16, with His now purified believer-priests (1 Pet. 2:5), the High Priest enters into and shares the blessed fellowship of the Holy Place. In ch. 17, the High Priest enters alone into the Most Holy Place to intercede for His own blood-purchased people (Heb. 7:24–28). That intercession is not for the salvation but the keeping and blessing of those for whom He prays. His death (assumed as accomplished, 17:4) has saved them.

12:31 judgment. This judgment refers to Jesus Christ as bearing the believer's sins, which have been judged in the Person of Jesus Christ "lifted up" on the cross. The result was death for Christ and justification for the believer, who can never again be put in jeopardy (5:24; Rom. 5:9; 8:1; 2 Cor. 5:21; Gal. 3:13; Heb. 9:26–28; 10:10,14–17; 1 Pet. 2:24; 3:18). For other judgments, see 1 Cor. 11:31, note; 2 Cor. 5:10, note; Matt. 25:32, note; Ezek. 20:37, note; Jude 6, note; Rev. 20:12, note.

46 "I have come as a [a]light into the world, that whoever [b]believes in Me should not abide in darkness.
47 "And if anyone hears My words and does not believe,* I do not judge him; for I did not [c]come to judge the world but to [d]save the world.
48 "He who rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has that which judges him—the word that I have [e]spoken will judge him in the last [f]day.
49 "For I have not spoken on My own authority; but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, what I should say and what I should speak.
50 "And I know that His command is everlasting [g]life. Therefore, whatever I speak, just as the Father has told Me, so I [h]speak."

IV. The Private Ministry of the Son of God, 13—17

John 13—14 were spoken in the upper room (cp. Mark 14:14–16)

13 NOW before the feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that His [i]hour had come that He should depart from this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He [j]loved them to the end.

The last Passover: Jesus washes disciples' feet (Matt. 26:20–24; Mark 14:17; Luke 22:14,21–23)

2 And supper being ended,* the [k]devil having already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray Him,
3 Jesus, knowing that the Father had [l]given all things into His hands, and that He had [m]come from God and was [n]going to God,
4 rose from supper and [o]laid aside His garments, took a towel and girded Himself.
5 After that, He poured [p]water into a basin and [q]began to [r]wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded.
6 Then He came to Simon Peter. And Peter said to Him, "Lord, [s]are You washing my feet?"
7 Jesus answered and said to him, "What I am doing you do not [t]understand now, but you will know after this."
8 Peter said to Him, "You shall never wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have [u]no part with Me."
9 Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"
10 Jesus said to him, "He who is bathed needs only to wash his feet, but is [v]completely clean; and you are clean, but not all of you."
11 For He [w]knew who would betray Him; therefore He said, "You are not all clean."
12 So when He had [x]washed their feet, taken His garments, and sat down again, He said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?
13 "You call Me [y]Teacher and Lord, and you say well, for so I am.
14 "If I then, your Lord and

13:10 THE IMAGERY OF BATHED AND WASH

The words "bathed" and "wash" in this verse are translated from two different Greek words. The first is from the Greek louō and denotes complete ablution. "Wash" is from the Greek niptō, which is the usual NT word for washing the hands or feet (e.g. Matt. 15:2; John 9:15; 1 Tim. 5:10).

The underlying imagery is of an oriental returning from the public baths to his house. His feet would acquire defilement and require cleansing, but not his body. So the believer is cleansed as before the law from all sin "once for all" (Heb. 10:1–12), but needs throughout his earthly life to bring his daily sins to the Father in confession, so that he may abide in unbroken fellowship with the Father and with the Son (1 John 1:1–10). The blood of Christ answers forever to all the law could say as to the believer's guilt, but he needs constant cleansing from the defilement of sin. See Eph. 5:25–27; 1 John 5:6. Typically, the order of approach to the presence of God was, first, the bronze altar of sacrifice; then, the laver of cleansing (Ex. 40:6–7). See, also, the order in Ex. 30:17–21. Christ will not have communion with a defiled saint, but He can and will cleanse him.

Teacher, have washed your feet, [a]you also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 "For I have given you an [b]example, that you should [c]do as I have done to you.

16 "Most assuredly, I say to you, a [d]servant is not greater than his master; nor is he who is sent greater than he who sent him.

17 [e]"If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.

18 "I do not speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have [f]chosen; but that the [g]Scripture may be [h]fulfilled, 'He who eats bread with Me has lifted up his heel against Me.'*

19 "Now I tell you [i]before it comes, that when it does come to pass, you may believe that I am He.

20 [j]"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who [k]receives whomever I send receives Me; and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me."

Jesus predicts His betrayal
(Matt. 26:21–25; Mark 14:18–21; Luke 22:21–23)

21 When Jesus had said these things, He was troubled in spirit, and testified and said, [j]"Most assuredly, I say to you, one of you will [l]betray Me."

22 Then the disciples looked at one another, perplexed about whom He spoke.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of His disciples, [m]whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore motioned to him to ask who it was of whom He spoke.

25 Then, leaning back* on Jesus' breast, he said to Him, "Lord, who is it?"

26 Jesus answered, "It is he to whom I shall give a piece of bread when I have dipped it." And having dipped the bread, He gave it to [n]Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 Now after the piece of bread, [o]Satan [p]entered him. Then Jesus said to him, "What you do, do quickly."

28 But no one at the table knew for what reason He said this to him.

29 For some thought, because Judas had the [q]money box, that Jesus had said to him, "Buy those things we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor.

30 Having received the piece of bread, he then went out immediately. And it was [r]night.

31 So, when he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the [s]Son of Man is glorified, and God is [t]glorified in Him.

32 "If God is [u]glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself, and glorify Him immediately.

33 "Little children, I shall be with you a [v]little while longer. You will seek Me; and [w]as I said to the Jews, 'Where I am going, you cannot come,' so now I say to you.

34 "A new commandment I give to you, that you [x]love [y]one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another.

35 "By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have [z]love for [aa]one another."

Jesus foretells Peter's denial
(Matt. 26:30–35; Mark 14:26–31; Luke 22:31–34)

36 Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, where are You going?" Jesus answered him, "Where I am [bb]going you cannot follow Me now, [cc]but you shall follow Me afterward."

37 Peter said to Him, "Lord, why can I not follow You now? I will [dd]lay down my life for Your sake."

38 Jesus answered him, "Will you lay down your life for My sake? [j]Most assuredly, I say to you, the rooster shall not [ee]crow till you have denied Me three times.

Jesus comforts His apostles:
He announces His coming for them

14 [ff]"LET not your heart be troubled; you [gg]believe in God, believe also in Me.

2 "In My Father's house are many mansions;* if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to [hh]prepare a place for you.*

14:3 receive you. As a part of this discourse, which has been of comfort to the Church throughout the centuries, the Lord gives a promise of His personal return for His own people, a doctrine that is expanded by the Apostle Paul in 1 Thess. 4:13–18. This aspect of Christ's return is to be distinguished from His coming to the earth to establish His kingdom (Rev. 19:11–16).

14:16 Helper. Greek paraklētos meaning one called alongside to help; thus, a helper, a comforter; in 1 John 2:1, "an Advocate with the Father." Christ is the Christian's Paraclete with the Father when the Christian sins; the Holy Spirit is the Christian's indwelling Paraclete to help his ignorance and infirmity, and to make intercession (Rom. 8:26–27). See Holy Spirit, Acts 2:4, note. Furthermore, Christ also intercedes as well as advocates (Rom. 8:34; Heb. 7:25).

14:17,19 world. Greek kosmos. See Rev. 13:8, note.

14:20 you in Me. The new relationship described in the words "you in Me, and I in you" introduces the NT mystery of the body of Christ. The position of the Church in Christ, as composed of members of His body (compare Eph. 3:1–7), and the truth of Christ as indwelling the believer (compare Col. 1:24–27) are central features in the Pauline doctrine of the Church, and are here revealed to the disciples for the first time by Christ. The living union of the members of the body is explained by Christ in the figure of the vine and the branches (John 15:1–11).

14:21 keeps them. Observe that the Lord correlates love for Him with obedience to Him. To love Christ means to care enough about Him to keep His commandments (vv. 23–24). But we cannot keep His commandments unless we search the Scriptures to find out what they are.

fest Yourself to us, and not to the world?"

23 Jesus answered and said to him, "If anyone [a]loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home with him.

24 "He who does not love Me does not keep My words; and the [b]word which you hear is not Mine but the Father's who sent Me.

25 "These things I have spoken to you while being present with you.

26 "But the [c]Helper, the [d]Holy [e]Spirit, whom the Father will [f]send in My name, He will [g]teach you all things, and bring to your [h]remembrance all things that I said to you.

Christ's bequest of peace

27 [i]"Peace I leave with you, [j]My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be [k]troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 "You have heard Me say to you, 'I am going away and [l]coming back to you.' If you loved Me, you would rejoice because I said,* 'I am [m]going to the Father,' for My Father is greater than I.

29 "And now I have told you before it comes, that when it does come to pass, you may [n]believe.

30 "I will no longer talk much with you, for the [o]ruler of this world is coming, and he has [p]nothing in Me.

31 "But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave Me [q]commandment, so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

The Vine and the branches

15 [r]"I AM the true [s]vine, and My Father is the vinedresser.

2 "Every branch in Me that does [t]not bear fruit He takes away;* and every branch that bears fruit He prunes, that it may bear [u]more fruit.

3 "You are already [v]clean because of the word which I have spoken to you.

4 [w]"Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me.

5 [r]"I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much [x]fruit; for without Me you can do [y]nothing.

6 "If anyone does not abide in Me, he is cast out as a branch and is withered; and they gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 "If you abide in Me, and My words [z]abide in you, you will* ask what you desire, and it shall be [aa]done for you.

8 "By this My Father is [bb]glorified, that you bear much fruit; so you will be My disciples.

9 "As the Father [cc]loved Me, I also have loved you; abide in My love.

10 "If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and abide in His love.

11 "These things I have spoken to you, that My joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be full.

12 [dd]"This is My [ee]commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.

15:1 true vine. Christ is the "true vine"—"true" in contrast with Israel. See Is. 5:1–7.

15:2 prunes. Three conditions of a fruitful life are shown here: (1) cleansing, vv. 2–3; compare John 13:10, note; (2) abiding, v. 4, note; and (3) obedience, vv. 10,12. (See Law of Christ, Gal. 6:2; 2 John 5, note).

15:4 abides. To abide in Christ is, on the one hand, to have no known sin unjudged and unconfessed, no interest into which He is not brought, no life which He cannot share. On the other hand, the "abiding" one takes all burdens to Him, and draws all wisdom, life, and strength from Him. It is not unceasing consciousness of these things, and of Him, but that nothing is allowed in the life which separates from Him. See Fellowship, 1 John 1:3–7; Communion, 1 Cor. 10:16.

15:8 much fruit. There are four degrees in fruit-bearing: (1) no fruit ("does not bear fruit," v. 2); (2) "fruit" (v. 2); (3) "more fruit" (v. 2); and (4) "much fruit" (vv. 5,8). As we bear "much fruit," the Father is glorified in us. The fruit may be converts (Rom. 1:13); Christian character—the fruit of the Spirit (Gal. 5:22–23); and conduct—the fruits of righteousness (Rom. 6:21–22; Phil. 1:11). The moralities and graces of Christianity, which are the fruit of the Spirit, are often imitated but never duplicated.

13 "Greater love has no one than this, than to [a]lay down one's life for his friends.
14 "You are My friends if you do whatever I [b]command you.

New intimacy

15 "No longer do I call you servants, for a servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all things that I heard from My Father I have made [c]known to you.
16 "You did not choose Me, but I [d]chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that whatever you ask the Father [e]in My name He may give you.
17 "These things I command you, that you [f]love one another.

The world's attitude toward believers in Christ

18 "If the world hates you, you know that it [g]hated Me before it hated you.
19 "If you were of the world, the world would love its own. Yet because you are not of the world, but I [h]chose you [i]out of the world, therefore the world [j]hates you.
20 "Remember the word that I [k]said to you, 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also.
21 "But all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not know Him who sent Me.
22 "If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no [l]sin, but now they have no [m]excuse for their sin.
23 [n]"He who hates Me hates My Father also.
24 "If I had not done among them the works which no one else did, they would have no [o]sin; but now they have [p]seen and also hated both Me and My Father.
25 "But this happened that the word might be fulfilled which is [q]written in their law, [r]'They hated Me without a cause.'
26 "But when the [s]Helper comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the [t]Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He will testify of Me.
27 "And you also will bear [u]witness, because you have been with Me from the [v]beginning.

Jesus warns of persecution
(cp. Matt. 24:9–10; Luke 21:16–19)

16 "THESE things I have spoken to you, that you should not be made to stumble.
2 "They will [w]put you out of the synagogues; yes, the time is coming that whoever kills you will [x]think that he offers God service.
3 "And these things they will do to you* because they have [y]not known the Father nor Me.
4 "But these things I have told you, that when the* time comes, you may remember that I told you of them. And these things I did not say to you at the [z]beginning, because I was with you.
5 "But now I [aa]go away to Him who sent Me, and none of you asks Me, 'Where are You going?'
6 "But because I have said these things to you, [bb]sorrow has filled your heart.

Threefold work of the Spirit toward the world

7 "Nevertheless I tell you the truth. It is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, [cc]the [dd]Helper will not come to you; but if I [ee]depart, I will [ff]send Him to you.
8 "And when He has [gg]come, He will convict the world of [hh]sin, [ii]and of [jj]righteousness, and of judgment:
9 "of sin, [kk]because they do not believe in Me;
10 "of righteousness, [ll]because I

16 "A [i]little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will [j]see Me, because I [k]go to the Father."
17 Then some of His disciples said among themselves, "What is this that He says to us, 'A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me'; and, 'because I [l]go to the Father'?"
18 They said therefore, "What is this that He says, 'A little while'? We do not know what He is saying."
19 Now Jesus [m]knew that they desired to ask Him, and He said to them, "Are you inquiring among yourselves about what I said, 'A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me'?
20 [n]"Most assuredly, I say to you that you will weep and [o]lament, but the world will [p]rejoice; and you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into [q]joy.

22 "Therefore you now have sorrow; but I will see you again and your heart will rejoice, and your [s]joy no one will take from you.
23 "And in that day you will ask Me nothing. [n]Most assuredly, I say to you, whatever you [t]ask the Father [u]in My name He will give you.

16:12

CHRIST'S PREAUTHENTICATION OF THE NEW TESTAMENT SCRIPTURES

(1) He expressly declared that He was leaving "many things" unrevealed (v. 12).
(2) He promised that this revelation would be completed after the Spirit came (v. 13, "guide you into all truth").
(3) He outlined in advance exactly the elements of NT revelation: (a) historical—"bring to your remembrance all things that I said to you" (14:26); (b) doctrinal—interpretation of the historical facts, "teach you all things" (14:26; 16:14); and (c) prophetic—"tell you things to come" (16:13).
(4) He chose certain persons to receive and witness to the revelations (Matt. 28:19; John 15:27; 16:13; Acts 1:8; 9:15–17).
(5) He gave to their words, when speaking for Him in the Spirit, precisely the same authority as His own words (Matt. 10:14–15; Luke 10:16; John 13:20; 15:20; 17:20; see e.g. 1 Cor. 14:37 for Paul's consciousness of this authority).
(6) That Christ expected this new revelation would be recorded is evident from such passages as John 17:20 and Acts 1:8, for only thus could the accurate witness of the chosen writers reach all nations after they had passed away. And
(7) that some of the new revelation was recorded by men outside the original apostolic group (e.g. Mark and Luke) is explained by the fact that there were "prophets" in the early Church who, like Paul, were chosen by the ascended Christ (Eph. 4:11), and who not only received new revelation (Eph. 3:4–5) but also recorded it in "Scriptures" (Rom. 16:25–26). See 2 Tim. 3:16, note.

25 "These things I have spoken to you in figurative language; but the time is coming when I will no longer speak to you in [a]figurative language, but I will tell you [b]plainly about the Father.
26 "In that day you will ask in My name, and I do not say to you that I shall pray the Father for you;
27 "for the Father Himself [c]loves you, because you have loved Me, and have believed that I [d]came forth from God.
28 "I [e]came forth from the Father and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world and go to the Father."
29 His disciples said to Him, "See, now You are speaking [f]plainly, and using no [g]figure of speech!
30 "Now we are sure that You [h]know all things, and have no need that anyone should question You. By this we believe that You [i]came forth from God."
31 Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe?
32 "Indeed the hour is coming, yes, has now come, that you will be [j]scattered, each to his own, and will leave Me alone. And yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me.
33 "These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have [k]peace. In the world you will* have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have [l]overcome the world."

Christ's high priestly, intercessory prayer

17 JESUS spoke these words, lifted up His eyes to heaven, and [m]said: "Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son also may glorify You,
2 "as You have given Him authority over all flesh, that He should* give eternal [n]life to as many as You have given Him.
3 "And this is eternal [o]life, that they may [p]know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent.
4 "I have glorified You on the earth. I have [q]finished the work which You have given Me to do.
5 "And now, O Father, glorify Me together with Yourself, with the glory which [r]I had with You before the world was.
6 "I have manifested Your name to the men whom You have given Me [s]out of the world. [t]They were Yours, You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word.
7 "Now they have known that all things which You have given Me are from You.
8 "For I have given to them the [u]words which You have given Me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I [v]came forth from You; and they have believed that [w]You sent Me.
9 "I pray for them. I do not pray

17:1 This chapter constitutes the Lord's own prayer to His Father. Compare the prayer that He taught to His disciples, known as The Lord's Prayer (Matt. 6:9–13; Luke 11:2–4. See also notes). Here in ch. 17 the reader may look deeply into the heart of the Son of God. The petitions are personal and intercessory, Christ's high priestly prayer. See also next note and John 17:2, notes.

Observe the seven petitions in this prayer:

(1) that Jesus may be glorified as the Son who has glorified the Father (v. 1; compare Phil. 2:9–11);

(2) for restoration to the eternal glory (v. 5);

(3) for the safety of believers from (a) the world (v. 11) and (b) the evil one (v. 15);

(4) for the sanctification of believers (v. 17);

(5) for the spiritual unity of believers (vv. 21–23);

(6) that the world may believe (v. 21); and

(7) that believers may be with Him in heaven to behold and share His glory (v. 24).

In vv. 1–5 the Lord prays for Himself; in vv. 6–19 He prays for His disciples; and in vv. 20–26 He prays for all Christians throughout the whole age.

17:2 give eternal life. Christ's gifts to those whom the Father gave Him are: eternal life (v. 2); the Father's name (vv. 6,26; compare 20:17); the Father's words (vv. 8,14); His own joy (v. 13); and His own glory (v. 22). given Him. Seven times Jesus speaks of Christians as given to Him by the Father (vv. 2,6 [twice], 9,11,12,24). Jesus Christ is God's love gift to the world (3:16), and believers are the Father's love gift to Jesus Christ. It is Christ who commits the Christian to the Father for safekeeping, so that the believer's security rests upon the Father's faithfulness to His Son Jesus Christ.

V. The Sacrifice of the Son of God, 18—19

Jesus in Gethsemane (Matt. 26:36–46; Mark 14:32–42; Luke 22:39–46)

18 WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, He went out with His disciples over the Brook [y]Kidron, where there was a garden, which He and His disciples entered.

Jesus' betrayal and arrest (Matt. 26:47–56; Mark 14:43–50; Luke 22:47–54)

2 And Judas, who betrayed Him, also knew the place; for Jesus often [z]met there with His disciples.
3 Then Judas, having received a detachment of troops, and officers from the chief priests and [aa]Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons.
4 Jesus therefore, [bb]knowing all things that would come upon Him, [cc]went forward and said to them, "Whom are you seeking?"
5 They answered Him, [dd]"Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am He." And Judas, who [ee]betrayed Him, also [ff]stood with them.
6 Now when He said to them, "I

7 Then He asked them again, "Whom are you seeking?" And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth."

Peter strikes Malchus

10 Then Simon Peter, having a [c]sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, and [d]cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 So Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into the sheath. [e]Shall I not drink the [f]cup which My Father has given Me?"

Jesus brought before high priest (through v. 27; Matt. 26:57–68; Mark 14:53–65; Luke 22:63–71)

12 Then the detachment of troops and the captain and the officers of the Jews arrested Jesus and bound Him.

13 And they led Him away to [g]Annas first, for he was the father-in-law of [h]Caiaphas who was high priest that year.

14 Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Jews [i]that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

(Interlude: Peter's three denials; see also vv. 25–27; Matt. 26:69–75; Mark 14:66–72; Luke 22:54–62)

15 And Simon Peter [j]followed Jesus, and so did [k]another* disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door outside. Then the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought Peter in.

17 Then the servant girl who kept the door said to Peter, "You are not also one of this Man's disciples, are you?" He said, "I am [l]not."

18 Now the servants and officers who had made a [m]fire of coals stood there, for it was cold, and they warmed themselves. And Peter stood with them and warmed himself.

19 The high priest then asked Jesus about His disciples and His doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, "I spoke [n]openly to the world. I always taught [o]in synagogues and [p]in the temple, where the Jews always meet,* and in secret I have said nothing.

21 "Why do you ask Me? Ask [q]those who have heard Me what I said to them. Indeed they know what I said."

22 And when He had said these things, one of the officers who stood by [r]struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, "Do You answer the high priest like that?"

23 Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if [s]well, why do you strike Me?"

24 Then [t]Annas sent Him bound to [u]Caiaphas the high priest.

25 Now Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. Therefore they said to him, "You are not also one of His disciples, are you?" He denied it and said, "I am [v]not!"

26 One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of him whose ear Peter cut off, said, "Did I not see you in the garden with Him?"

27 Peter then [w]denied again; and immediately a [x]rooster crowed.

early morning. But they themselves did not go into [a]the Praetorium, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the Passover.

29 [b]Pilate then went out to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this Man?"

30 They answered and said to him, "If He were not an evildoer, we would not have delivered Him up to you."

31 Then Pilate said to them, "You take Him and judge Him according to your [c]law." Therefore the Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death,"

32 that the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled which He [d]spoke, [e]signifying by what death He would die.

33 Then Pilate entered the Praetorium again, called Jesus, and said to Him, "Are You the [f]King of the Jews?"

34 Jesus answered him, "Are you speaking for yourself about this, or did others tell you this concerning Me?"

35 Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have delivered You to me. What have You done?"

36 Jesus [g]answered, "My [h]kingdom is not of this world. If My [i]kingdom were of this world, My servants would [j]fight, so that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now My kingdom is not from [k]here."

37 Pilate therefore said to Him, "Are You a king then?" Jesus answered, "You say rightly that I am a king. For this cause I was born, and for this cause I have come into the world, [l]that I should bear [m]witness to the [n]truth. Everyone who is of the truth [o]hears My voice."

38 Pilate said to Him, "What is truth?" And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and said to them, "I find [p]no fault in Him at all."

18:36 This verse has erroneously been taken to mean that Christ was disavowing that His kingdom would be established on earth. Apart from the incompatibility of such a view with the entire testimony of Scripture (compare Luke 1:33; Rev. 11:15), it conflicts with the remainder of the verse. Earthly kingdoms are inaugurated, carried on, and brought to an end by human force, but His kingdom would be ushered in and maintained by His personal appearance and omnipotence. of this. Greek ek, out of; or according to. world. Greek kosmos. See Rev. 13:8, note.

law He ought to die, because He made Himself the Son of God."

8 Therefore, when Pilate heard that saying, [b] he was the more afraid,

9 and went again into the Praetorium, and said to Jesus, "Where are You from?" But Jesus gave him [c] no answer.

10 Then Pilate said to Him, "Are You not speaking to me? Do You not know that I have power to crucify You, and power to release You?"

11 Jesus answered, [d] "You could have no power at all against Me unless it had been [e] given you from above. Therefore [f] the one who delivered Me to you has the greater [g] sin."

12 From then on Pilate sought to release Him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you let this Man go, you are not Caesar's friend. Whoever makes himself a king speaks against [h] Caesar."

13 [i] When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus out and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 Now it was the Preparation Day of the Passover, and about the sixth hour. And he said to the Jews, "Behold your [j] King!"

15 But they cried out, "Away with Him, away with Him! Crucify Him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your [k] King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no [l] king but Caesar!"

Jesus is crucified (Matt. 27:31–50; Mark 15:19–37; Luke 23:26–46)

16 Then he delivered Him to them to be [m] crucified. So they took Jesus and led Him away.*

17 And He, bearing His cross, [n] went out to a place called the Place of a Skull, which is called in Hebrew, [o] Golgotha, 18 where they [p] crucified Him, and [q] two others with Him, one on either side, and Jesus in the center.

19 Now Pilate wrote a title and put it on the cross. And the writing was:

JESUS OF NAZARETH,
THE [r] KING OF THE JEWS.

20 Then many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in [s] Hebrew, [t] Greek, and Latin.

21 Therefore the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'He said, "I am the King of the Jews." ' "

22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took His garments and made four parts, to each soldier a part, and also the tunic. Now the tunic was without seam, woven from the top in one piece.

24 They said therefore among themselves, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be," that the [u] Scripture might be fulfilled which [v] says:

"They divided My garments
among them,
And for My clothing they cast
lots."

Therefore the soldiers did these things.

25 Now there [w] stood by the cross of Jesus His [x] mother, and His mother's sister, [y] Mary the wife of Clopas, and [z] Mary Magdalene.

19:14 sixth hour. 6 A.M. John uses Roman time with the hours starting at 12 midnight and 12 noon, as is done today. However, the Synoptics use Hebrew reckoning, beginning with sunrise (that is, 6 A.M.; 7 A.M. being the first hour, etc.). This is apparent from the care with which the Gospels specify particular hours in relation to the crucifixion. Our Lord was put on the cross at 9 A.M. ("third hour" Mark 15:25); darkness was over the land from noon until 3 P.M. ("sixth" till "ninth hour," Matt. 27:45–46; Mark 15:33–34; Luke 23:44). Thus here the "sixth hour" could not be Hebrew time (noon), but rather 6 A.M., "when morning came" (Matt. 27:1–2). Acts uses Hebrew time.

19:16 Then he delivered Him. For the order of events at the crucifixion, see Matt. 27:33, note.

27 Then He said to the disciple, "Behold your mother!" And from that hour that disciple took her to his own home.

28 After this, Jesus, knowing* that all things were now [d]accomplished, [e]that the [f]Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I thirst!"

29 Now a vessel full of [g]sour wine was sitting there; and they filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on hyssop, and put it to His mouth.

30 So when Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, "It is finished!" And bowing His head, He [h]gave up His spirit.

Events following His death (Matt. 27:51–56; Mark 15:38–41; Luke 23:45,47–49)

31 Therefore, because it was the [i]Preparation Day, that the bodies should [j]not remain on the cross on the [k]Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a [l]high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who was crucified [m]with Him.

33 But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already [n]dead, they did not break His legs.

34 But one of the soldiers [o]pierced His side with a spear, and immediately [p]blood and water came out.

35 And he who has seen has testified, and his testimony is [q]true; and he knows that he is telling the truth, so that you may [r]believe.

36 For these things were done that the [s]Scripture should be fulfilled, [t]"Not one of His bones shall be broken."

37 And again another [u]Scripture says, [v]"They shall look on Him whom they pierced."

Jesus is buried (Matt. 27:57–66; Mark 15:42–47; Luke 23:50–56)

38 After this, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly, for [w]fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took the body of Jesus.

39 And [x]Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came, bringing a mixture of [y]myrrh and aloes, about a hundred [z]pounds.

40 Then they took the body of Jesus, and bound it in [aa]strips of linen with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where He was [bb]crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which [cc]no one had yet been laid.

42 So there they [dd]laid Jesus, because of the Jews' [ee]Preparation Day, for the tomb was nearby.

VI. The Manifestation of the Son of God in Resurrection, 20

The resurrection and events of that day (cp. Matt. 28:1–15; Mark 16:1–14; Luke 24:1–32)

20 NOW on the [ff]first day of the week [gg]Mary Magdalene [hh]went to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the [ii]stone had been taken away from the tomb.

2 Then she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the [jj]other disciple, [kk]whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have [ll]taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him."

3 Peter therefore went out, and the [mm]other disciple, and were going to the tomb.

4 So they both ran together, and the [nn]other disciple outran Peter and came to the tomb first.

Joseph of Arimathea: A devote Jew and a member of the council who went to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body. He then prepared the body and laid it in a tomb.

Nicodemus: A Pharisee and member of the Sanhedrin who spoke to Jesus in secret. He helped prepare Jesus' body for burial.

19:30 "It is finished!" was the shout of victory. See John 4:34; 17:4; Rom. 10:4; Gal. 3:13; Heb. 10:5–10.

5 And he, stooping down and looking in, saw the [a]linen cloths lying there; yet he did not go in.

6 Then Simon Peter came, following him, and [b]went into the tomb; and he saw the [c]linen cloths lying there,

7 and the handkerchief that had been around His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but folded together in a place by itself.

8 Then the [d]other disciple, who came to the tomb first, went in also; and he saw and [e]believed.

9 For as yet they did not know the [fg]Scripture, that He must [h]rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples [i]went away again to their own homes.

Jesus appears to Mary Magdalene

11 But Mary stood outside by the tomb weeping, and as she wept she stooped down and looked into the tomb.

12 And she saw two [j]angels in white sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 Then they said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him."

14 Now when she had said this, she turned around and saw [k]Jesus standing there, and did not [l]know that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? [m]Whom are you seeking?" She, supposing Him to be the gardener, said to Him, "Sir, if You have carried Him away, tell me where You have laid Him, and I will take Him away."

16 Jesus said to her, [n]"Mary!" She turned and said to Him,* "Rabboni!" (which is to say, Teacher).

17 Jesus said to her, "Do not cling to Me, for I have not yet [o]ascended to My Father; but go to My [p]brethren and say to them, 'I am ascending to [q]My Father and your Father, and to My God and your God.' "

20:17 Do not cling to Me. Compare Matt. 28:9: "They came and held Him by the feet." A contradiction has been supposed. Three views are held: (1) That Jesus spoke to Mary, acting, as it were, as the High Priest fulfilling the Day of Atonement (Lev. 16). Having accomplished the sacrifice, He was on His way to present the sacred blood in heaven; and, between the meeting with Mary in the garden and the meeting of Matt. 28:9, He had so ascended and returned—a view in harmony with types. (2) That Mary was gently rebuked by Christ in the command, "Do not cling to Me" (literally, "Stop clinging to Me"). The Lord taught Mary that now she must not seek to hold Him to the earth but, rather, become His messenger of new joy. And (3) that He merely meant: "Do not detain Me now; I have not yet ascended; you will see Me again; run rather to My brothers," etc.

20:16 CHRIST'S APPEARANCES AFTER THE RESURRECTION

During the forty days between His resurrection and ascension, the Lord Jesus is recorded to have appeared to His own followers on ten occasions, the first five of these being on the day of resurrection.

The order of the appearances seems to be:
(1) to Mary Magdalene (Mark 16:9–11; John 20:11–18);
(2) to the women returning from the tomb with the angelic message (Matt. 28:8–10);
(3) to Peter, probably in the afternoon (Luke 24:34; 1 Cor. 15:5);
(4) to the Emmaus disciples toward evening (Mark 16:12; Luke 24:13–32);
(5) to the disciples, Thomas being absent (Mark 16:14; Luke 24:36–43; John 20:19–25);
(6) on the next Sunday night, the appearance to the disciples, Thomas being present (John 20:26–31; 1 Cor. 15:5);
(7) to the seven beside the Sea of Galilee (John 21);
(8) to the apostles and "over five hundred brethren" (Matt. 28:16–20; Mark 16:15–18; 1 Cor. 15:6);
(9) to James, the Lord's half brother (1 Cor. 15:7); and
(10) His last recorded appearance and His ascension from Olivet (Mark 16:19–20; Luke 24:44–53; Acts 1:3–12).

It is also recorded that, after His ascension, Christ appeared one or more times to three men:
(1) to Stephen, at his stoning (Acts 7:55–60);
(2) to Paul: (a) at his conversion (Acts 9:3–8,17; 22:6–11,14–15; 26:12–19; 1 Cor. 9:1; 15:8); (b) at Corinth (Acts 18:9–10); (c) in the temple at Jerusalem (Acts 22:17–21); (d) later at Jerusalem (Acts 23:11); and (e) in another vision (2 Cor. 12:1–4); and
(3) to John, the apostle, on Patmos (Rev. 1:10–19, and other visions in Revelation).

18 [a]Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord,* and that He had spoken these things to her.

Jesus appears to the disciples, Thomas being absent (Mark 16:14; Luke 24:33–49)

19 Then, the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled,* for [b]fear of the Jews, Jesus [c]came and stood in the midst, and said to them, [d]"Peace be with you."

20 When He had said this, He [e]showed them His hands and His side. [f]Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord.

21 So Jesus said to them again, [g]"Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also [h]send you."

22 And when He had said this, He [i]breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy [j]Spirit.

23 [k]"If you forgive the [l]sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Jesus appears to the disciples, Thomas being present

24 Now Thomas, called the [m]Twin, one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord." So he said to them, "Unless I [n]see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe."

26 And after eight days His disciples were again inside, and [o]Thomas with them. Jesus came, the doors being shut, and [p]stood in the midst, and said, [q]"Peace to you!"

27 Then He said to Thomas, "Reach your finger here, and look at My hands; and reach your hand here, and put it into My side. Do not be [r]unbelieving, but believing."

28 And Thomas answered and said to Him, [s]"My Lord and my God!"

29 Jesus said to him, "Thomas,* because you have seen Me, you have [t]believed. [u]Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have [v]believed."

Purpose of John's Gospel

30 And truly Jesus did [w]many other signs in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book;

31 but these are [x]written that [y]you may believe that Jesus [z]is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have [aa]life in His name.

VII. The Epilogue: the Risen Son of God, the Master of Life and Service, 21

Jesus appears to seven apostles at Sea of Galilee

21 AFTER these things Jesus showed Himself again to the disciples at the [bb]Sea of Tiberias, and in this way He showed Himself:

2 Simon Peter, [cc]Thomas called the Twin, [dd]Nathanael of [ee]Cana in Galilee, the [ff]sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples were together.

Christ and our service: (1) in self-will, under human leadership

3 Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We are going with you also." They went out and immediately* got into the boat, and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning had now come, Jesus stood on the shore; yet the disciples did not [gg]know that it was Jesus.

20:22 Verses 22 and 23 do not refer only to the original disciples because, according to Luke 24:33, there were others with them on this occasion. The risen Lord's unique action in breathing on those present and imparting to them the Holy Spirit was probably for their spiritual quickening in preparation for their full endowment with the Spirit in power at Pentecost (Acts 2:1–4).

The commission of v. 23 was not exclusively to the apostles and those who were with them; it applies, therefore, to the Church as a whole and not to any special class of individuals within the Church. Compare Matt. 16:19, note.

(2) Barren result of service in self-will

5 Then Jesus said to them, "Children, have you any food?" They answered Him, "No."

(3) Fruitfulness of Christ-directed service

6 And He said to them, [a]"Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast, and [b]now they were not able to draw it in because of the multitude of fish.

7 Therefore that disciple [c]whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the [d]Lord!" Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he [e]put on his outer garment (for he had removed it), and plunged into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits), dragging the net with fish.

9 Then, as soon as they had come to land, they saw a [f]fire of coals there, [g]and [h]fish laid on it, and bread.

10 Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."

11 Simon Peter went up and dragged the net to land, full of large fish, one hundred and fifty-three; and although there were so many, the net [i]was not broken.

(4) Christ's provision for His servants (cp. Luke 22:35; Phil. 4:19)

12 Jesus said to them, [j]"Come and eat breakfast." Yet none of the disciples dared ask Him, "Who are You?"—knowing that it was the Lord.

20:28

THE DEITY OF JESUS CHRIST

The Deity of Jesus Christ is declared in Scripture:

(1) The OT both intimates and explicitly predicts His Deity.

(a) The theophanies intimate the appearance of God in human form, and His ministry thus to man (Gen. 16:7–14; 18:2–23, especially v. 17; compare 32:28 with Hos. 12:3–5; Ex. 3:2–14).

(b) The Messiah is expressly declared to be the Son of God (Ps. 2:2–9), and God (compare Ps. 45:6–7 with Heb. 1:8–9; Ps. 110:1 with Matt. 22:44; Acts 2:34 and Heb. 1:13; Ps. 110:4 with Heb. 5:6; 6:20; 7:17–21; Zech. 6:13).

(c) His virgin birth was foretold as the means through which God could be Immanuel, God with us (compare Is. 7:13–14 with Matt. 1:22–23).

(d) The Messiah is expressly invested with the divine names (Is. 9:6–7).

(e) In a prophecy of His death He is called "the Man who is . . . Companion" to the Lord (compare Zech. 13:7 with Matt. 26:31). And

(f) His eternal Being is declared (compare Mic. 5:2 with Matt. 2:6; John 7:42).

(2) Christ Himself affirmed His Deity.

(a) He applied to Himself the Jehovistic I AM. (John 4:26; 6:20; 8:24,28,58; 18:5,6). The pronoun "He" appears in translation (4:26 and 18:5,6), but not in the Greek. In 8:56–59 the Jews correctly understood this as the Lord's claim to full Deity (compare John 10:33).

(b) He claimed to be the Adonai of the OT (Matt. 22:42–45. See Gen. 15:2, note).

(c) He asserted His identity with the Father (Matt. 28:19; Mark 14:62; John 10:30. That the Jews so understood is shown by John 10:31–33; 14:8–9; 17:5).

(d) He exercised the chief prerogative of God—the forgiveness of sins (Mark 2:5–7); Luke 7:48–50).

(e) He asserted omnipresence (Matt. 18:20; John 3:13); omniscience (John 11:11–14, when Jesus was fifty miles away; Mark 11:6–8); omnipotence (Matt. 28:18; Luke 7:14; John 5:21–23; 6:19); mastery over nature, and creative power (Luke 9:16–17; John 2:9; 10:28). And

(f) He received and approved human worship of Himself (Matt. 14:33; 28:9; John 20:28–29).

(3) The NT writers ascribe divine titles to Christ (John 1:1; 20:28; Acts 20:28; Rom. 1:4; 9:5; 2 Thess. 1:12; 1 Tim. 3:16; Titus 2:13; Heb. 1:8; 1 John 5:20).

(4) The NT writers ascribe divine perfections and attributes to Christ (Matt. 11:28; 18:20; 28:20; John 1:2; 2:23–25; 3:13; 5:17; 21:17; Heb. 1:3,11–12 with Heb. 13:8; Rev. 1:8,17–18; 11:17; 22:13).

(5) The NT writers ascribe divine works to Christ (John 1:3,10; Col. 1:16–17; Heb. 1:3).

(6) The NT writers teach that supreme worship should be paid to Christ (Acts 7:59–60; 1 Cor. 1:2; 2 Cor. 13:14; Phil. 2:9–11; Heb. 1:6; Rev. 1:5–6; 5:12–13).

(7) The holiness and resurrection of Christ confirm His Deity (John 8:46; Rom. 1:4).

13 Jesus then came and [a]took the bread and gave it to them, and likewise the fish.

14 This is now the [b]third time Jesus showed Himself to His disciples after He was [c]raised from the dead.

(5) Love, the only proper motive in service (1 Cor. 13; 2 Cor. 5:14; Rev. 2:4–5)

15 So when they had eaten breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonah,* do you love Me more than these?" He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He said to him, [d]"Feed My lambs."

16 He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of Jonah,* do you love Me?" He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He said to him, "Tend My [e]sheep."

17 He said to him the [f]third time, "Simon, son of Jonah,* do you love Me?" Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, "Do you love Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, You know all things; You know that I love You." Jesus said to him, "Feed My [g]sheep.

(6) The Master reveals to Peter that He determines the time and manner of His servants' death

18 [h]"Most assuredly, I say to you, when you were younger, you girded yourself and walked where you [i]wished; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you and carry you where you do [j]not wish."

19 This He spoke, [k]signifying [l]by what death he would glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He said to him, [m]"Follow Me."

(7) All His servants will not die (cp. 1 Cor. 15:51–52; 1 Thess. 4:14–18)

20 Then Peter, turning around, saw the disciple [n]whom Jesus loved following, [o]who also had leaned on His breast at the supper, and said, "Lord, who is the one who betrays You?"

21 Peter, seeing him, said to Jesus, "But Lord, what about this man?"

22 Jesus said to him, "If I will that he remain [p]till I [q]come, what is that to you? [r]You follow Me."

23 Then this saying went out among the brethren that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but, "If I will that he remain [s]till I [t]come, what is that to you?"

24 This is the [u]disciple who [v]testifies of these things, and [w]wrote these things; and we know that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also [x]many other things that Jesus did, which if they were written one by one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that would be written. Amen.

21:15 In vv. 15–17 two different Greek verbs are used for "love": agapaō, to love deeply, used of divine love in 14:21, and of the love which the law demands (Luke 10:27); and phileō, to be fond of, a love of lesser degree than agapaō, as between friends. In the first two instances, where the Lord asks Peter, "Do you love Me?" He uses agapaō; but Peter, remembering his three denials of the Lord and aware now of his own weakness, does not dare to reply with as strong a word as agapaō. Instead, he employs phileō in his reply, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." When the Lord inquires the third time, "Do you love Me," He uses the lesser word, phileō. And again the humbled disciple replies: "Lord, You know all things; You know that I love [phileō] You." love Me more than these. That is, than the other disciples do.

21:15 My lambs. Christ's threefold repetition of the pronoun "My"—"My lambs . . . My sheep . . . My sheep" (vv. 15,16,17)—reminds all Christians who hold responsibility over others that the persons under them belong, first of all, to Christ. Pastors, missionaries, teachers, and parents are but undershepherds to whose care Christ's sheep are committed. Compare Heb. 13:20; 1 Pet. 5:3.

21:16 Tend. Or Nurture. 1 Pet. 5:2.

21:17 love Me. With his confidence in himself greatly shaken through having so recently denied his Lord, Peter feels unworthy to express his love to Christ by the strong word agapaō, and therefore uses the weaker word phileō. See 21:15, note. Jesus now condescends to Peter's self-evaluation, saying, in effect: "Even if you do not trust your own emotions far enough to apply the word agapaō to them, you still should feed my sheep." Our duty to Christ should depend, not upon the strength of our subjective feelings, but upon our realization of what He has done for us.

Background

The book of Acts, written by Luke, the author of the Third Gospel, is a continuation of that narrative. Luke wrote more of the New Testament than any other individual. The physician and companion of Paul (see Acts 16:10, note), he was the first historian of the early years of the Church.

God's Relationship with Man

The book has often been called "The Acts of the Holy Spirit." The Holy Spirit is referred to more than fifty times in this one book, particularly in relation to baptism with the Holy Spirit, being filled with the Holy Spirit, and being led by the Holy Spirit. Acts begins with Luke's second account of the ascension of the Lord and terminates with Paul's residence in Rome as a prisoner, covering a period of more than thirty years.

This book is of highest importance because it is the only inspired account of the beginning and early work of the Church. It clarifies some of the historical references in the Pauline Epistles. Its place in the New Testament canon identifies it as the bridge from the Gospels to the Epistles. It is the primary textbook for the study of missionary principles, the defense of the faith, the Person and work of the Holy Spirit, and the methods and themes of Christian preaching.

Outline

Acts may be divided as follows:

I. The Waiting Church, 1

Introduction: Christ's 40-day ministry

1 THE [a]former account I made, O [b]Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,
2 until the day in which He was taken up, after He through the Holy [c]Spirit had given commandments to the apostles whom He had [d]chosen,
3 to whom He also presented Himself [e]alive after His suffering by many infallible proofs, being seen by them during forty days and speaking of the things pertaining to the [f]kingdom of God.
4 And being assembled together with them, He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the Promise of the Father, "which," He said, "you have [g]heard from Me;
5 "for John truly [h]baptized with water, but you shall be [i]baptized with the Holy [c]Spirit not many days from now."
6 Therefore, when they had come together, they asked Him, saying, "Lord, will You at this time restore the [j]kingdom to Israel?"
7 And He said to them, "It is not for you to [k]know times or seasons which the Father has put in His own authority.

The commission to evangelize the world (cp. Matt. 28:18–20; Mark 16:15–18; Luke 24:47–48; John 20:21–22)

8 "But you shall receive power [l]when the Holy [c]Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me* in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and [m]Samaria, and to the [n]end of the earth."
9 Now when He had spoken these things, while they watched, [o]He was [p]taken [q]up, and a [r]cloud received Him out of their sight.

The promise of Christ's return to the earth

10 And while they looked steadfastly toward [s]heaven as [o]He [p]went [q]up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel,
11 who also said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand gazing up into heaven? [o]This same Jesus, who was [p]taken [q]up from you into heaven, will so [t]come in like manner as you saw Him go into heaven."

Waiting for the Spirit (cp. v. 5)

12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey.
13 And when they had entered, they went up into [u]the upper room where they were staying: [v]Peter, James, John, and Andrew; Philip and Thomas; Bartholomew and Matthew; James the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot; and Judas the son of [w]James.
14 These all [x]continued with one accord in prayer and supplication,* with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His [y]brothers.

Matthias chosen to take Judas' place

15 And in those days [z]Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples* (altogether the number of names was about a hundred and twenty), and said,
16 "Men and brethren, this Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy [c]Spirit [a]spoke before by the mouth of David concerning [aa]Judas,

1:6 the kingdom. For forty days the risen Lord had been instructing the apostles about the kingdom of God, teaching them out of the Scriptures (Luke 24:27,32,44–45). One point was left untouched, that is, the time when He would restore the kingdom to Israel; hence the apostles' question. Observe that the Lord did not rebuke them for their inquiry about the restoration of the kingdom. Their question was a valid one. But His answer was in accord with His repeated teaching: the time is God's secret (Matt. 24:36,42,44; 25:13; compare 1 Thess. 5:1).

24 And they [h]prayed and said, "You, O Lord, who know the [i]hearts of all, show which of these two You have chosen 26 And they cast their lots, and the lot fell on Matthias. And he was [k]numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHRIST'S TWO ADVENTS, SUMMARY

The OT foreview of the coming Messiah is presented in two aspects—that of rejection and suffering (e.g. in Is. 53); and that of earthly glory and power (e.g. in Is. 11; Jer. 23; Ezek. 37).

Often these two aspects blend in one passage (e.g. Ps. 22). The prophets themselves were perplexed by this seeming contradiction (1 Pet. 1:10–11). It was solved by partial fulfillment. In due time the Messiah, born of a virgin according to Isaiah's prophecy (7:14), appeared among men and began His ministry by announcing the predicted kingdom as "at hand" (Matt. 4:17, note). The rejection of King and kingdom followed.

Thereupon the rejected King announced His approaching crucifixion, resurrection, departure, and return (Matt. 12:38–40; 16:1–4,21,27; 24; 25; Luke 12:35–46; 17:20–36; 18:31–34; 19:12–27). He uttered predictions concerning the course of events between His departure and return (Matt. 13:1–50; 16:18; 24:4–26). And this promised return of Christ is a prominent theme in Acts, the Epistles, and Revelation.

Taken together the NT teachings concerning the return of Jesus Christ may be summarized as follows:

(1) The return of Christ will be personal and corporeal, in two stages: to the air before the Tribulation—usually called the Rapture (1 Thess. 4:14–17; Phil. 3:20–21; Rev. 3:10); then He will return to the earth after the Tribulation (Acts 1:11; Matt. 23:39; 24:30; 25:31; Rev. 19:11–16).

(2) His coming has a threefold relation: to the Church, to Israel, and to the nations:

(a) To the Church, the descent of the Lord into the air, to raise believers who have died and to change the living Christians, is a constant expectation and hope (1 Cor. 15:51–52; Phil. 3:20; 1 Thess. 1:10; 4:13–17; 1 Tim. 6:14; Titus 2:13; Rev. 22:20).

(b) To Israel, the return of the Lord to the earth is to accomplish the yet unfulfilled prophecies of Israel's national regathering, conversion, and establishment in peace and power under the Davidic Covenant (2 Sam. 7:16, note; compare Acts 15:14–17 with Zech. 14:1–9). See Kingdom (OT), 2 Sam. 7:8–17; Zech. 12:8, note; (NT), Luke 1:31–33; 1 Cor. 15:24, note.

(c) To the Gentile nations, the return of Christ is to bring the destruction of the present political world system (Dan. 2:34–35; Rev. 19:11, note), and the judgment of Matt. 25:31–46, followed by world-wide Gentile conversion and participation in the blessings of the kingdom (Is. 2:2–4; 11:10; 60:3; Zech. 8:3,20–23; 14:16–21).

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty [a]wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.
3 Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them.
4 And they were all filled with the Holy [b]Spirit and began to speak with [c]other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.
5 And there were [d]dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, [e]devout men, from [f]every nation under heaven.
6 And when this sound occurred, the [g]multitude came together, and were confused, because everyone heard them speak in his own language.
7 Then they were all [h]amazed and marveled, saying to one another, "Look, are not all these who speak [i]Galileans?
8 "And how is it that we hear, each in our own language in which we were born?
9 "Parthians and Medes and Elamites, those dwelling in Mesopotamia, Judea and [j]Cappadocia, [j]Pontus and [j]Asia,

12 So they were all amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "Whatever could this mean?"
13 Others mocking said, "They are full of new wine."

2:1 THE SIXTH DISPENSATION: THE CHURCH

A new age was announced by our Lord Jesus Christ in Matt. 12:47—13:52. The Church was clearly prophesied by Him in Matt. 16:18 (compare Matt. 18:15–19), purchased by the shedding of His blood on Calvary (Rom. 3:24–25; 1 Cor. 6:20; 1 Pet. 1:18–19), and constituted as the Church after His resurrection and ascension at Pentecost when, in accordance with His promise (Acts 1:5), individual believers were for the first time baptized with the Holy Spirit into a unified spiritual organism, likened to a body of which Christ is the Head (1 Cor. 12:12–13; Col. 2:19). Because of the emphasis upon the Holy Spirit, this age has also been called "the dispensation of the Spirit."

The point of testing in this dispensation is the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, the message of good news about His death and resurrection (John 19:30; Acts 4:12; 1 Cor. 15:3–5; 2 Cor. 5:21; etc.). The continuing, cumulative revelation of the previous dispensations combines with this fuller revelation to emphasize the utter sinfulness and lostness of man and the adequacy of the historically completed work of Christ to save by grace through faith all who come to God by Him (John 14:6; Acts 10:43; 13:38–39; Rom. 3:21–26; Eph. 2:8–9; 1 Tim. 4:10; Heb. 10:12–14; 11:6). As those saved individuals who compose Christ's true Church fulfill the Lord's command to preach the Gospel to the ends of the earth (Mark 16:15; Luke 24:46–48; Acts 1:8), God, during this age, is taking out from Jews and Gentiles "a people for His name" (Acts 15:14), called "the Church" and henceforth carefully distinguished from both Jews and Gentiles as such (1 Cor. 10:32; Gal. 3:27–28; Eph. 2:11–18; 3:5–6).

The Lord Jesus warned that during the whole period, while the Church is being formed by the Holy Spirit, many will reject His Gospel, and many others will pretend to believe in Him and will become a source of spiritual corruption and hindrance to His purpose in this age, in the professing church. These will bring apostasy, particularly in the last days (Matt. 13:24–30,36–40,47–49; 2 Thess. 2:5–8; 1 Tim. 4:1–2; 2 Tim. 3:1; 4:3–4; 2 Pet. 2:1–2; 1 John 2:18–20).

The Church Age will be brought to a close by a series of prophesied events, the chief of which are:

(1) The translation of the true Church from the earth to meet her Lord in the air at a point of time known to God but unrevealed to men, and ever held before believers as an imminent and happy hope, encouraging them in loving service and holiness of life. This event is usually called "the rapture" (see 1 Thess. 4:17, note).

(2) The judgments of the seventieth week of Daniel, called "the tribulation" (see Rev. 7:14, note), which will fall upon mankind in general but will include the unsaved portion of the professing church, which will have gone into apostasy and thus be left behind on earth when the true Church is translated to heaven. This final form of the apostate church is described in Rev. 17 as "the harlot" which will first "ride" the political power ("beast"), only to be overthrown and absorbed by that power (compare Rev. 18:2, note). And

(3) the return from heaven to earth of our Lord Jesus Christ in power and glory, bringing with Him His Church, to set up His millennial kingdom of righteousness and peace (see Rev. 19:11 and 17, notes). For notes on other dispensations, see Innocence (Gen. 1:28); Conscience (Moral Responsibility) (Gen. 3:7); Human Government (Gen. 8:15); Promise (Gen. 12:1); Law (Ex. 19:1); Kingdom (Rev. 20:4).

2:4 THE HOLY SPIRIT IN THE NEW TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

(1) The Holy Spirit is revealed as a divine Person. This is expressly declared (e.g. John 14:16–17,26; 15:26; 16:7–15; compare Matt. 28:19), and everywhere implied.

(2) The revelation concerning Him is progressive:

(a) In the OT (see Zech. 12:10, note) He comes upon whom He will, apparently without reference to conditions in them.

(b) During His earth-life Christ taught His disciples (Luke 11:13) that they might receive the Spirit through prayer to the Father.

(c) At the close of His ministry He promised that He would Himself pray to the Father, and that in answer to His prayer the Helper would come to abide (John 14:16–17).

(d) On the evening of His resurrection He came to the disciples in the upper room and breathed on them saying, "Receive the Holy Spirit" (John 20:22), but He instructed them to wait before beginning their ministry until the Spirit should come upon them (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:8).

(e) On the day of Pentecost the Spirit came upon the whole body of believers (Acts 2:1–4).

(f) After Pentecost the Spirit was imparted to such as believed, in some cases by the laying on of hands (Acts 8:17; 9:17). And

(g) with Peter's experience in the conversion of Cornelius (Acts 10) it became clear that the norm for this age was that Jew and Gentile were to be saved on precisely the same conditions, and the Holy Spirit was to be given without delay to those who met the one essential condition of trust in Christ (Acts 10:44; 11:15–18). This is the permanent fact for the entire Church Age. Every believer is born of the Spirit (John 3:3–6; 1 John 5:1); indwelt by the Spirit, whose presence makes the believer's body a temple (1 Cor. 6:19; compare Rom. 8:9–15; Gal. 4:6; 1 John 2:27); and baptized with the Spirit (1 Cor. 12:12–13; 1 John 2:20,27), thus sealing him for God (Eph. 1:13; 4:30).

(3) The NT distinguishes between having the Spirit, which is true of all believers, and being filled with the Spirit, which is the Christian's privilege and duty (compare Acts 2:4 with 4:29–31; Eph. 1:13–14 with 5:18). There is one baptism with the Spirit, but many fillings with the Spirit.

(4) The Holy Spirit is related to Christ in His conception (Matt. 1:18–20; Luke 1:35), baptism (Matt. 3:16; Mark 1:10; Luke 3:22; John 1:32–33), walk and service (Luke 4:1,14), resurrection (Rom. 8:11), and as His witness throughout this age (John 15:26; 16:8–11,13–14).

(5) The Spirit forms the Church (Matt. 16:18; Heb. 12:23, note) by baptizing all believers into the body of Christ (1 Cor. 12:12–13; compare the universal address, 1 Cor. 1:1–2); imparts gifts for service to every member of that body (1 Cor. 12:7–11,27–30); guides the members in their service (Acts 16:6–7); and is Himself the power of that service (Acts 1:8; 2:4; 1 Cor. 2:4).

(6) The Spirit abides in a company of believers, making of them, corporately, a temple (1 Cor. 3:16–17).

(7) The NT indicates a threefold personal relationship of the Spirit to the believer: "with," "in," and "upon" (John 14:16–17; 1 Cor. 6:19; Acts 1:8). "With" indicates the approach of God to the soul, convicting of sin (John 16:9), presenting Christ as the object of faith (John 16:14), imparting faith (Eph. 2:8), and regenerating (Mark 1:8; John 1:33). "In" describes the abiding presence of the Spirit in the Christian's body (1 Cor. 6:19) to give victory over the flesh (Rom. 8:2–4; Gal. 5:16–17), create the Christian character (Gal. 5:22–23), help weaknesses (Rom. 8:26), inspire prayer (Eph. 6:18), give conscious access to God (Eph. 2:18), actualize to the Christian his sonship (Gal. 4:6), apply the Scriptures in cleansing and sanctification (Eph. 5:26; 2 Thess. 2:13; 1 Pet. 1:2), comfort and intercede (Acts 9:31; Rom. 8:26), and reveal Christ (John 16:14). "Upon" is used of the relationship of the Holy Spirit to the Lord Jesus Christ (Matt. 3:16; Mark 1:10; Luke 4:18; John 1:32–33), to the Virgin Mary in connection with the incarnation and birth of our Lord (Luke 1:35), to certain designated disciples (Luke 2:25 [Simeon]; Acts 10:44–45; 11:15 [household of Cornelius]; Acts 19:6 [disciples at Ephesus]), and to believers generally (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:8; 2:17; 1 Pet. 4:14). Based on Luke 4:18, some understand that the expression has to do with anointing for special service for God, as well as with the original coming and indwelling of the Holy Spirit to and in the individual Christian.

(8) Sins against the Spirit, committed by unbelievers, are: to blaspheme (Matt. 12:31), resist (Acts 7:51), and insult (Heb. 10:29). Christians' sins against the Spirit are: to grieve Him by allowing evil in heart or life (Eph. 4:30–31), and to quench Him by disobedience (1 Thess. 5:19). The right attitude toward the Spirit is yieldedness to His sway in life and service, and constant willingness for Him to "put away" whatever grieves Him or hinders His power (Eph. 4:31).

(9) The symbols of the Spirit are:

(a) oil (John 3:34; Heb. 1:9);

(b) water (John 7:38–39);

(c) wind (John 3:8; Acts 2:2);

(d) fire (Acts 2:3);

(e) a dove (Matt. 3:16);

(f) a seal (Eph. 1:13; 4:30); and

(g) "the guarantee of our inheritance" (Eph. 1:14).

2:14 said to them. The theme of Peter's sermon at Pentecost is stated in v. 36. It was that Jesus was the Messiah. No message could have been more unwelcome to the Jews who had rejected His Messianic claims and had crucified Him. Peter, therefore, did not announce his theme until he had covered every possible Jewish objection. The point of difficulty with the Jews was the apparent failure of the clear and repeated prophetic promise of a regathered Israel established in their own land under their covenanted King (e.g. Is. 11:10–12; Jer. 23:5–8; Ezek. 37:21–28). Peter did not teach that the covenant and promises were to be fulfilled in the Church in a so-called "spiritual" sense, but showed from Ps. 16 that David himself understood that the dead and risen Christ would fulfill the covenant and sit on his (David's) throne (vv. 25–32). In precisely the same way James (Acts 15:13–17) met the difficulty. See Kingdom (OT), Gen. 1:26–28; Zech. 12:8, note; (NT), Luke 1:31–33; 1 Cor. 15:24, note.

Exposition: Jesus is risen and exalted as Lord and Christ. (David foretold this, vv. 25–31; cp. Ps. 16:8–11)

22 "Men of Israel, hear these words: [f]Jesus of Nazareth, a Man attested by God to you [g]by miracles, wonders, and signs which God did through Him in your midst, as you yourselves also know—

29 "Men and brethren, let me speak freely to you of the patriarch David, that he is both [o]dead and buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

prediction relates to the Church (2 Tim. 3:1–8; Heb. 1:1–2; James 5:3; 2 Pet. 3:1–9; see also such passages as 1 Tim. 4:1; 1 Pet. 1:5,20; 1 John 2:18; Jude 18).

While Acts 2:17 is part of this context and therefore relates to the Church, it should be remembered that it has reference to Israel as well and, therefore, points to a future day (see Joel 2:28, note). When "last days" is used of the Church, the plural form ("days") should be distinguished from the singular ("day"). The "last day" (John 6:39,40,44,54; 11:24) in this usage refers to the resurrection. (In John 12:48 it is used of the time when unbelievers will be judged.) The "last days," as related to the Church, began with the advent of Christ (Heb. 1:2), but the expression has special reference to the time of declension and apostasy at the end of the age (2 Tim. 3:1). The "last days," as related to Israel, are the days which, though begun in sorrow, issue in Israel's exaltation and blessing (compare Jer. 30:4–10), that is, the Kingdom Age (Is. 2:2–4; Mic. 4:1–7). They are "last days," not with reference to this dispensation but in respect to the whole of Israel's history. Compare Gen. 49:1, note.

Exhortation: Repent and be baptized

37 Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Men and brethren, what shall we do?"

38 Then Peter said to them, [a]"Repent, and let every one of you be [b]baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the [c]remission of [d]sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy [e]Spirit.

39 "For the [f]promise is to you and to your children, and to all who are afar off, as many as the Lord our God will call."

40 And with many other words he testified and exhorted them, saying, "Be saved from this perverse [g]generation."

Extension: three thousand saved and baptized; the first church

41 Then those who gladly* received his word were baptized; and that day about three thousand souls were added to them.

42 And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 Then [h]fear came upon every soul, and [i]many wonders and signs were done through the apostles.

44 Now all who [j]believed were together, and had all things in [k]common,

45 and sold their possessions and goods, and divided them among all, as anyone had need.

46 So continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart, 47 praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the [l]church* daily those who were being [m]saved.

The first apostolic miracle: the lame man healed

3 NOW Peter and John went up together to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms from those who entered the temple;

3 who, seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked for alms.

4 And fixing his eyes on him, with John, Peter said, "Look at us."

5 So he gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them.

6 Then Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you: [n]In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk."

7 And he took him by the right hand and lifted him up, and immediately his feet and ankle bones [o]received strength.

8 So he, leaping up, stood and walked and entered the temple with them—walking, leaping, and praising God.

9 And [p]all the people saw him walking and praising God.

10 Then they knew that it was he who sat begging alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

11 Now as the lame man who was healed held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the [q]porch which is called Solomon's, greatly amazed.

Peter's second sermon. Theme: The covenants will be fulfilled

12 So when Peter saw it, he responded to the people: "Men of Israel, why do you marvel at this? Or why look so intently at us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk?

13 "The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified His Servant [r]Jesus, whom you delivered up and denied in the 3:19 The appeal to repent and the promise of "times of refreshing" refer to the OT prophecy that prior to the second advent of the Messiah the godly remnant of the nation Israel will repent and turn to God in preparation for the millennial blessing to follow the second advent (compare Deut. 30:1–3; Zech. 12:10–14). The nation as a whole rejected Peter's entreaty and, though individuals believed in Christ and were saved, there was no fulfillment of the requirements of national repentance. converted. Literally turned again.

3:21 restoration. The word "restoration" is rendered from the Greek noun apokatastasis meaning restoration to a former state (compare Acts 1:6). The meaning is limited by the words: "which God has spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began." The prophets speak of the restoration of Israel to the land (see Israel, Gen. 12:2–3; Rom. 11:26; also Palestinian Covenant, Deut. 30:3, note); and of the restoration of the theocracy under David's Son (see Davidic Covenant, 2 Sam. 7:16, note; Kingdom [OT], Gen. 1:26–28; Zech. 12:8, note). No prediction of the conversion and restoration of the wicked dead is found in the prophets or elsewhere. Compare Rev. 20:11–15. world. Greek aiōn. See Mark 10:30, note.

8 Then [e]Peter, filled with the Holy [f]Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders of Israel:
9 "If we this day are judged for a good deed done to a helpless man, by what means he has been made well,
10 "let it be known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the [g]name of [h]Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, [i]whom God [j]raised from the dead, by Him this man stands here before you whole.
11 [k]"This is the [l]'stone which was rejected by you builders, which has become the chief cornerstone.'
12 "Nor is there [m]salvation in any other, for there is [n]no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

Sanhedrin forbids further preaching in the name of Jesus

13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were [o]uneducated and untrained men, they marveled. And they realized that they had been [p]with Jesus.
14 And seeing the man who had been healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.
15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 saying, [q]"What shall we do to these men? For, indeed, that a notable miracle has been done through them is evident to all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.
17 "But so that it spreads no further among the people, let us severely threaten them, that from now on they speak to no man in this [r]name."
18 So they called them and commanded them [s]not to speak at all nor teach in the [t]name of Jesus.
19 But Peter and John [u]answered and said to them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you more than to God, you judge.
20 [v]"For we cannot but speak the things which we [w]have seen and heard."
21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way of punishing them, [x]because of the people, since they all [y]glorified God for what had been [z]done.
22 For the man was over forty years old on whom this miracle of healing had been performed.

Christians again filled with the Spirit (cp. Acts 2:1–4)

23 And being let go, they went to their own [aa]companions and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them.
24 So when they heard that, they [bb]raised their voice to God with one accord and said: "Lord, You are God, [cc]who made heaven and earth and the sea, and all that is in them,
25 "who by the mouth of Your servant David* have [dd]said:

And the people plot vain things?

David: beloved. The youngest son of Jesse. He was a man after God's own heart who was the greatest king of Israel.

4:26 gathered together. The Greek word for "gathered together" is used for the gathering of harvest (Matt. 25:24,

27 "For truly against Your [a]holy [b]Servant Jesus, whom You anointed, both [c]Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together

Voluntary sharing among believers at Jerusalem (cp. Acts 2:42–47)

32 Now the multitude of [i]those who [j]believed were of [k]one heart and one soul; neither did anyone say that any of the things he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common.
33 And with great power the apostles gave [l]witness to the [m]resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And great [n]grace was upon them all.
34 Nor was there anyone among [o]them who lacked; for all who were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold,
35 and laid them at the apostles' feet; and they distributed to each as anyone had need.
36 And Joses,* who was also named Barnabas by the apostles (which is translated Son of Encouragement), a Levite of the country of Cyprus, 37 having land, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

5 BUT a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession.
2 And he [p]kept back part of the proceeds, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain [q]part and laid it at the apostles' feet.
3 But Peter said, "Ananias, [r]why has [s]Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy [t]Spirit and keep back part of the price of the land for yourself?
4 "While it remained, was it not your own? And after it was sold, was it not in your own control? Why have you conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men [u]but to God."
5 Then Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and breathed his last. So great fear came upon all those who heard these things.
6 And the young men arose and wrapped him up, [v]carried him out, and buried him.
7 Now it was about three hours later when his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

4:32 all things in common. The experience of the Christians of the Jerusalem church in sharing their possessions is not to be taken as normative for all Christian churches or communities. This voluntary sharing of possessions in the time of persecution is a beautiful evidence of the oneness of the believers. However, it should be observed that this communal sharing was (1) voluntary (v. 32; compare 5:4); (2) in a time of persecution (v. 29); and (3) evidently restricted to the Jerusalem church.

10 Then immediately she fell down at his feet and breathed her last. And the [c]young men came in and found her dead, and carrying her out, buried her by her husband.

11 So great fear came upon all the [d]church and upon all who heard these things.

Mighty miracles at Jerusalem

12 And through the hands of the apostles many [e]signs and wonders were [f]done among the people. And they were all with one accord in Solomon's [g]Porch.

13 Yet none of the rest dared join them, but the people esteemed them highly.

14 And [h]believers were increasingly [i]added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women,

15 so that they brought the sick out into the streets and laid them on beds and couches, that at least the [j]shadow of Peter passing by might fall on some of them.

16 Also a multitude gathered from the surrounding cities to Jerusalem, [k]bringing sick people and those who were tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all [l]healed.

Second persecution

17 Then the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the [m]Sadducees), and they were filled with indignation,

18 and [n]laid their [o]hands on the apostles and put them in the common [p]prison.

19 [q]But at night an [r]angel of the Lord [s]opened the prison doors and [t]brought them out, and said,

20 "Go, stand in the temple and [u]speak to the people all the words of this [v]life."

21 And when they heard that, they entered the temple early in the morning and taught. But the high priest and those with him came and called the [w]council together, with all the elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came and did not find them in the prison, they returned and reported,

23 saying, "Indeed we found the prison shut securely, and the guards standing outside* before the doors; but when we opened them, we [x]found no one inside!"

24 Now when the high priest,* the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these things, they wondered what the outcome would be.

25 So one came and told them, saying,* "Look, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people!"

26 Then the captain went with the officers and brought them without violence, for they [y]feared the people, lest they should be stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the [z]council. And the high priest asked them,

28 saying, "Did we not strictly [aa]command you not to teach in this name? And look, you have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this Man's [bb]blood on us!"

The answer of the apostles

29 But Peter and the other apostles answered and said: "We [cc]ought to obey God rather than men.

30 "The God of our fathers [dd]raised up Jesus whom you murdered by hanging on a tree.

34 Then one in the council stood up, a [d]Pharisee named [e]Gamaliel, a teacher of the [f]law held in respect by all the people, and commanded them to put the apostles outside for a little while.

39 "but if it is of God, you cannot overthrow it—lest you even be found to fight against God."

The apostles beaten and commanded to silence

40 And they agreed with him, and when they had called for the apostles and [j]beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the [k]name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 So they departed from the presence of the council, [l]rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His* name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they did not cease teaching and [m]preaching Jesus as the Christ.

Internal dissension overcome by love

6 NOW in those days, when the [n]number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a complaint against the Hebrews by the Hellenists,* because their widows were neglected in the daily distribution.

2 Then the twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said, "It is not desirable that we should leave the [o]word of God and serve tables.

3 "Therefore, brethren, seek out from among you seven men of good [p]reputation, full of the Holy [q]Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this [r]business;

6 whom they set before the apostles; and when they had prayed, they laid hands on them.

7 Then the word of God spread, and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of [w]faith* and power, did great [x]wonders and signs among the people.

7:16 A SEEMING CONTRADICTION EXPLAINED

A contradiction between vv. 15–16 and Gen. 23:17; 33:19 is frequently asserted. A solution of the problem has been suggested in several ways:

(1) a scribal error in naming Abraham in Acts 7:16 (but only one manuscript omits the name);

(2) a telescoping of the accounts in Gen. 23 and 33 (understandable in view of Stephen's situation and the need for brevity); and

(3) Abraham actually did buy two burial places (Gen. 23:17; Acts 7:15–16). The first, near Hebron, he bought from Ephron, the Hittite, in the presence of the children of Heth. The second, near Shechem, he bought from the sons of Hamor. Later Jacob must have repurchased the second in "the parcel of land . . . from the children of Hamor, Shechem's father" (Gen. 33:18–19). Since Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob were buried at Hebron (Gen. 49:31; 50:13), Stephen's reference to "our fathers" buried in Shechem (v. 16) must be restricted to Joseph and other members of the family (Josh. 24:32; Acts 7:15–16).

7:27 Who made you a ruler . . . . But he became their ruler and judge. Compare Luke 19:14.

7:38 congregation. The original meaning of ekklēsia was a gathering out of citizens in a public place for deliberation. The Septuagint used it to signify the assembly of Israel. Here it is employed in its most general sense of a

[a] Angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, the one who received the living [b] oracles to give to us,

39 "whom our fathers [c] would not obey, but rejected. And in their hearts they turned back to Egypt,

40 [d] "saying to Aaron, 'Make us gods to go before us; as for this Moses who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.'

41 "And they [e] made a calf in those days, offered sacrifices to the idol, and [f] rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 "Then God turned and gave them up to worship the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the Prophets:

'Did[g] you offer Me slaughtered animals and sacrifices during forty years in the wilderness,
O house of Israel?
43 You also took up the tabernacle of Moloch,
And the star of your god Remphan,
Images which you made to worship;
And [h] I will carry you away beyond Babylon.'

44 "Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as He appointed, instructing Moses to make it [i] according to the pattern that he had seen,

45 "which our fathers, having received it in turn, also [j] brought with Joshua into the land possessed by the Gentiles, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers until the [k] days of David,

46 "who found favor before God and [l] asked to find a dwelling for the God of Jacob.

47 "But Solomon [m] built Him a house.

48 "However, the Most High does [n] not dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophet says:

49 'Heaven[o] is My throne,
And earth is My footstool.
What house will you build for Me? says the LORD,
Or what is the place of My rest?
50 Has My hand not [p] made all these things?'

51 "You [q] stiff-necked and [r] uncircumcised in heart and ears! You always resist the Holy [s] Spirit; as your fathers did, so do you.

52 "Which of the prophets did your fathers not [t] persecute? And they killed those who foretold the [u] coming of the Just One, of whom you now have become the betrayers and murderers,

53 "who have received the [v] law by the direction of [w] angels and have not kept it."

Stephen, the first martyr. First mention of Saul of Tarsus (v. 58), later called Paul (13:9)

54 When they heard these things they were [x] cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth.

55 But he, being full of the Holy [y] Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the [z] glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God,

56 and said, "Look! I see the heavens opened and the [aa] Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!"

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, stopped their ears, and ran at him with one accord;

58 and they cast him out of the city and stoned him. And the witnesses laid down their clothes at the feet of a young man named [bb] Saul.

59 And they stoned Stephen as he was calling on God and [cc] saying, "Lord Jesus, [dd] receive my spirit."

60 Then he knelt down and [ee] cried out with a loud voice, "Lord, [ff] do not charge them with this [gg] sin."

called-out meeting. In most instances in the NT the term indicates the body of believers, the church local or universal.

7:44 tabernacle. Or tent of testimony.

7:54 When they heard these things. False witnesses had been brought to testify before the council against Stephen (6:9–14). Stephen bore true witness against them, quoting the testimony of writings which they acknowledged to be inspired. He spoke of the persistent rejection of God and His servants by the nation, until at length the truth was brought home to them and aroused the maddened enmity in their hearts.

And when he had said this, he fell [a]asleep.

Fourth persecution: Saul takes leading part (cp. Gal. 1:13–14)

8 NOW Saul was consenting to his death. At that time a great persecution arose against the [b]church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all [c]scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, he made havoc of the [d]church, entering every house, and dragging off men and women, committing them to prison.

The first missionaries (cp. Acts 11:19–21)

4 Therefore those who were scattered [e]went everywhere [f]preaching the word.

Philip's ministry at Samaria (The case of Simon, the sorcerer)

5 Then [g]Philip [h]went down to the* city of Samaria and [f]preached Christ to them.

6 And the multitudes with one accord heeded the things spoken by Philip, hearing and seeing the [i]miracles which he did.

7 For [j]unclean spirits, crying with a loud voice, came out of many who were possessed; and many who were paralyzed and lame were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man called Simon, who previously practiced [k]sorcery in the city and astonished the people of Samaria, claiming that he was someone great,

10 to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is the great power of God."

11 And they heeded him because he had astonished them with his [k]sorceries for a long time.

12 But when they [l]believed [m]Philip as he [f]preached the things concerning the [n]kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, both men and women were baptized.

13 Then Simon himself also [l]believed; and when he was baptized he continued with Philip, and was amazed, seeing the [i]miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the [o]apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had [l]received the [f]word of God, they sent [p]Peter and John to them,

15 who, when they had come down, prayed for them that they might receive the Holy [q]Spirit.

16 For as yet He had [r]fallen upon none of them. They had only been [s]baptized in the [t]name of the Lord Jesus.

17 Then they [u]laid hands on them, and they received the Holy [q]Spirit.

18 And when Simon saw that through the [v]laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy [q]Spirit was given, he offered them money,

8:12 BAPTISM

The practice of baptizing with water is introduced into the NT during the ministry of John the Baptist, whose baptism is referred to as "for the remission of sins," or, "baptism of repentance" (Mark 1:4; Luke 3:3; etc.). Christ Himself was baptized by John (Matt. 3:13–17; etc.). In His case it was certainly not for the reasons mentioned but as a symbol of His identification with mankind.

Before His ascension, the Lord Jesus commanded His disciples to preach the Gospel to all the world, baptizing all who believed this saving message in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit (Matt. 28:19; Mark 16:15–16). This command was faithfully obeyed by the early Church beginning with the day of Pentecost (Acts 2:38,41; 8:12–13,36–38; 9:18; 10:48; 16:14–15,32–33; 18:8; 19:5; 22:13–16).

Baptism has, since the apostolic age, been practiced by every major group in the Christian church and, in Protestant communions, is recognized as one of two sacraments—the other being the Lord's Supper. Since early in the Church's history three different modes of baptism have been used: aspersion (sprinkling); affusion (pouring); and immersion (dipping).

John the Baptist, and our Lord also, prophesied a baptism with the Holy Spirit (Matt. 3:11; John 1:33; Acts 1:5; 11:16). See 1 Cor. 12:12–13; Acts 2:4, note on Holy Spirit, paragraph (5).

also, that anyone on whom I lay hands may receive the Holy [a]Spirit."

20 But Peter said to him, "Your [b]money [c]perish with you, because you thought that the [d]gift of God could be purchased with money!

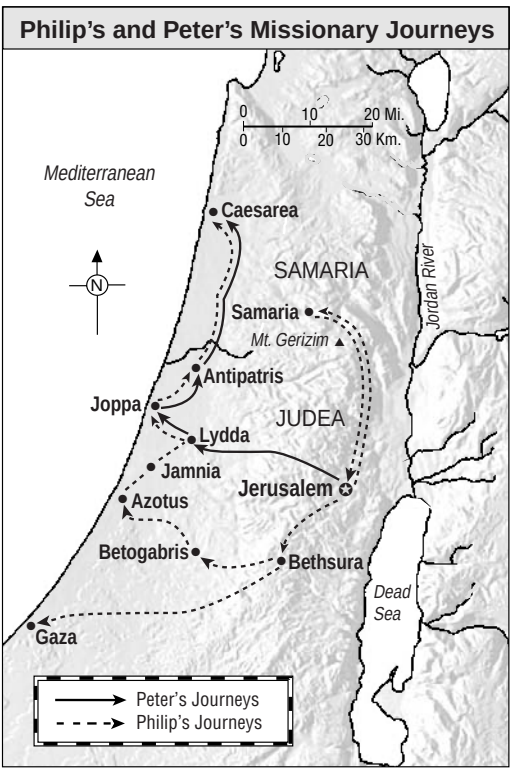
21 "You have neither part nor portion in this matter, for your [e]heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 [f]"Repent therefore of this your wickedness, and pray God if perhaps the thought of your [g]heart may be [h]forgiven you.

23 "For I see that you are poisoned by [i]bitterness and bound by [j]iniquity."

24 Then Simon answered and said, [k]"Pray to the Lord for me, that none of the things which you have spoken may come upon me."

25 So when they had [l]testified and preached the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, preaching the [m]gospel [n]in many villages of the Samaritans.



Philip and the Ethiopian treasurer

26 Now [o]an [p]angel of the Lord spoke to [q]Philip, saying, "Arise and [r]go toward the south along the road which goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." This is desert.

27 So he arose and went. And behold, a man of [s]Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace the queen of the Ethiopians, who had charge of all her treasury, and had [t]come to Jerusalem to worship, 28 was returning. And sitting in his chariot, he was reading Isaiah the [u]prophet.

29 Then the [a]Spirit said to Philip, "Go near and overtake this chariot."

30 So Philip ran to him, and heard him reading the [u]prophet Isaiah, and said, [v]"Do you understand what you are reading?"

31 And he said, [w]"How can I, unless someone [x]guides me?" And he asked Philip to come up and sit with him.

32 The place in the [u]Scripture which he read was this:

"He[y] was led as a sheep to the slaughter;
And as a lamb before its shearer is silent,
[z]So He opened not His mouth.
33 In His humiliation His [aa]justice was taken away,
And who will declare His generation?
For His life is [bb]taken from the earth."

34 So the eunuch answered Philip and said, "I ask you, of whom does the prophet say this, of himself or [cc]of some other man?"

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and [dd]beginning at this Scripture, [m]preached Jesus to him.

36 Now as they went down the road, they came to some water. And the eunuch said, "See, here is water. What hinders me from being [ee]baptized?"

37 Then Philip said, [ff]"If you believe with all your heart, you may." And he answered and said, "I 38So he commanded the chariot to stand still. And both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and he [b]baptized him.

39Now when they came up out of the water, the [c]Spirit of the Lord [d]caught Philip away, so that the eunuch saw him no more; and he went on his way [e]rejoicing.

40But Philip was found at Azotus. And passing through, he preached in all the cities till he came to [f]Caesarea.

III. From the Conversion of Saul to the First Missionary Journey, 9—12

Saul's conversion
(Acts 22:1–16; 26:9–18)

9 THEN [g]Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest

2and asked [h]letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, so that if he found any who were [i]of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

3As he journeyed he came near Damascus, and suddenly a [j]light shone around him from heaven.

4Then he fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?"

5And he said, "Who are You, Lord?" Then the Lord said, "I am [k]Jesus, whom you are persecuting.* It is hard for you to kick against the [l]goads."

6So he, trembling and astonished, [m]said, "Lord, what do You want me to do?" Then the Lord said to him, "Arise and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do."

7And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice [n]but seeing no one.

8Then Saul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened he saw no one. But they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus.

9And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

10Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias; and to him the Lord said in a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Here I am, Lord."

11So the Lord said to him, "Arise and go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for one called Saul of Tarsus, for behold, he is praying.

12"And in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and putting his hand on him, so that he might receive his sight."

13Then Ananias answered, "Lord, I have [o]heard from many about this man, how much harm he has done to Your saints in Jerusalem.

14"And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on Your name."

15But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is a [p]chosen vessel of Mine to bear My name before [q]Gentiles, [r]kings, and the [s]children of Israel.

16"For I will show him how many things he must [t]suffer for My [u]name's sake."

Saul filled with the Spirit

17And Ananias went his way and entered the house; and [v]laying his hands on him he said, [w]"Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus,* who appeared to you on the road as you came, has sent me that you may [x]receive your sight and be [y]filled with the Holy [z]Spirit."

Saul baptized

18Immediately there fell from his eyes something like scales, and he [aa]received his sight at once; and he arose and was baptized.

19So when he had received food, he was strengthened. Then Saul spent some days with the disciples at Damascus.

Saul preaches at Damascus

20 Immediately he [a]preached the Christ* in the synagogues, that He is the Son of God.

21 Then all who heard were amazed, and said, "Is this not he who destroyed those who called on this name in Jerusalem, and has come here for that purpose, so that he might bring them [b]bound to the chief priests?"

22 But Saul increased all the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who dwelt in Damascus, proving that this Jesus is the Christ.

Saul escapes to Jerusalem

23 Now after many days were past, the Jews [c]plotted to kill him.

24 But their plot became [d]known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and night, to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night and [e]let him down through the wall in a large basket.

26 And when Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples; but they were all [f]afraid of him, and did not believe that he was a disciple.

27 But [g]Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles. And he declared to them how he had seen the Lord on the road, and that He had spoken to him, and how he had [h]preached [i]boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 So he was with them at Jerusalem, coming in and going out.

29 And he spoke [j]boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus and disputed against the Hellenists, but they attempted to kill him.

Saul returns to Tarsus

30 When the brethren found out, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him out to Tarsus.

31 Then the [k]churches* throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace and were [l]edified. And walking in the [m]fear of the Lord and in the [n]comfort of the Holy [o]Spirit, they were [p]multiplied.

Peter's ministry resumed: Aeneas healed

32 Now it came to pass, as Peter went through [q]all parts of the country, that he also came down to the saints who dwelt in Lydda.

33 There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden eight years and was [r]paralyzed.

34 And Peter said to him, "Aeneas, [s]Jesus the Christ heals you. Arise and make your bed." Then he [t]arose immediately.

35 So all who dwelt at Lydda and Sharon saw him and [u]turned to the Lord.

9:20 He is the Son of God. Compare 2:36. Peter, while maintaining the Deity of Jesus ("God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified "both Lord and Christ"), gives special prominence to His Messiahship. Paul, fresh from the vision of the glory, puts the emphasis on His Deity. Peter's charge was that the Jews had crucified the Son of David (Acts 2:25–30); Paul's, that they had crucified the Lord of glory (1 Cor. 2:8). The point was, not that the Christ was God, a truth plainly taught by Isaiah (Is. 7:14; 9:6–7), but that Jesus, the crucified Nazarene, was the Christ and therefore God the Son.

9:22 It seems probable that vv. 22–25 refer to Paul's labors in Damascus after his return from Arabia (Gal. 1:17). The "many days" (v. 23) may represent the "three years" of Gal. 1:18, which intervened between Paul's return to Damascus and his visit to Peter.

9:26 come to Jerusalem. Acts records four visits of Paul to Jerusalem after his conversion: (1) 9:23–30. This seems identical with the visit of Gal. 1:18–19. The apostles of Acts 9:27 were Peter and James, the Lord's half brother. (2) 11:30. Paul may have been in Jerusalem during the events of 12:1–24. See v. 25. (3) 15:1–30; Gal. 2:2–10. And (4) 21:17—23:35.

pa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent two men to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to them.

39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he had come, they brought him to the upper room. And all the [a]widows stood by him weeping, showing the tunics and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them.

40 But Peter [b]put them all out, and knelt down and prayed. And turning to the body he said, "Tabitha, arise." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up.

41 Then he gave her his hand and lifted her up; and when he had called the saints and [c]widows, he [d]presented her [e]alive.

42 And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many [f]believed on the Lord.

43 So it was that he stayed many days in Joppa with Simon, a tanner.

The Gospel goes to the Gentiles: Cornelius sends for Peter

10 THERE was a certain man in [g]Caesarea called Cornelius, a [h]centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment,

2 a [i]devout man and one who [j]feared God with all his household, who gave alms generously to the people, and prayed to God always.

3 About the ninth hour of the day he saw clearly in a [k]vision an [l]angel of God coming in and saying to him, "Cornelius!"

4 And when he observed him, he was [m]afraid, and said, "What is it, lord?" So he said to him, [n]"Your prayers and your alms have come up for a [o]memorial before God.

5 "Now [p]send men to Joppa, and send for Simon whose surname is Peter.

6 "He is lodging with Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea.* He will tell you what you must do."

7 And when the [q]angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier from among those who waited on him [r]continually.

8 So [s]when he had explained all these things to them, he sent them to Joppa.

Peter's vision of a great sheet

9 [t]The next day, as they went on their journey and drew near the city, Peter went up on the housetop to [u]pray, about the sixth hour.

10 Then he became very hungry and wanted to eat; but while they made ready, he fell into a [v]trance

11 and [w]saw heaven [x]opened and an object like a great sheet bound at the four corners, descending to him and let down to the earth.

12 In it were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, creeping things, and birds of the air.

13 And a voice came to him, "Rise, Peter; kill and eat."

14 But Peter said, "Not so, Lord! For I have never eaten anything common or [y]unclean."

15 And a voice spoke to him again the second time, [z]"What God has

10:11 PETER'S VISION

Although this vision is admittedly symbolic, Peter's experience recorded here was a definite revelation to him that God had made a major change in His dealings with mankind (v. 28). Peter demurred at God's command (v. 14), but the Spirit of God was insistent that he should adjust his thinking and action to this change (vv. 13,15–16,19–20,28,34–35,45,47; 11:12,17–18).

The animals and birds represented both Gentiles ("unclean" according to the law) and Jews (ceremonially "clean"). They were present together in this sheet let down from heaven (compare John 17:18), declared cleansed by God (vv. 15,34–35), and then caught up to heaven (v. 16).

The revelation of the Church was not given alone to Paul. Paul himself says that it was revealed "by the Spirit to His holy apostles and [NT] prophets [both words plural]" (Eph. 3:5). This revelation to Peter, reported to Gentiles at Caesarea (Acts 10:24–29) and Jews at Jerusalem (Acts 11:1–11), plainly teaches that God is calling out both Gentiles and Jews to Himself in this age (Eph. 2:11–22). This was Peter's own evaluation of what God did through him at Caesarea (Acts 15:7–11, 14; see John 14:20, note).

cleansed you must not call common."

16 This was done [a]three times. And the object was taken up into heaven again.

17 Now while Peter wondered within himself what this [b]vision which he had seen meant, behold, the men who had been sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate.

18 And they called and asked whether [c]Simon, whose surname was Peter, was lodging there.

19 While Peter thought about the [d]vision, the [e]Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are seeking you.

20 "Arise therefore, go down and [f]go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them."

21 Then Peter went down to the men who had been sent to him from Cornelius,* and said, "Yes, I am he whom you seek. [g]For what reason have you come?"

22 And they said, [h]"Cornelius the centurion, a [i]just man, one who fears God and has a [j]good reputation among all the nation of the Jews, was divinely instructed by a holy [k]angel to summon you to his house, and to hear words from you."

Peter goes to Caesarea

23 Then he invited them in and lodged them. On the next day Peter went away with them, and [l]some brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the following day they entered Caesarea. Now Cornelius was waiting for them, and had called together his relatives and close friends.

25 As Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him and [m]fell down at his feet and worshiped him.

26 But Peter lifted him up, saying, "Stand up; I myself am also a [n]man."

27 And as he talked with him, he went in and found [o]many who had come together.

28 Then he said to them, "You know how [p]unlawful it is for a Jewish man to keep company with or go to one of another nation. But [q]God has shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 "Therefore I came without objection as soon as I was sent for. I ask, then, for [r]what reason have you sent for me?"

30 So Cornelius said, "Four days ago I was [s]fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour* I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 "and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your alms are remembered in the sight of God.

32 'Send therefore to Joppa and call Simon here, whose surname is Peter. He is lodging in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea.* When he comes, he will speak to you.'

33 "So I sent to you immediately, and you have done well to come. Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God."

43 "To Him all the prophets [m]witness that, through His name, whoever [n]believes in Him will receive [o]remission of [p]sins."

The Spirit also given to Gentile believers

44 While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy [q]Spirit [r]fell upon all those who heard the word.

45 And those of the [s]circumcision who [t]believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because the gift of the Holy [q]Spirit had been [u]poured out on the [v]Gentiles also.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues and magnify God. Then Peter answered,

47 "Can anyone forbid water, that these should not be baptized who have received the Holy [q]Spirit just as we have?"

48 And he commanded them to be [w]baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they asked him to stay a few days.

Peter vindicates his ministry to Gentiles

11 NOW the apostles and brethren who were in Judea heard that the [v]Gentiles had also received the [k]word of God.

2 And when Peter came up to Jerusalem, those of the [x]circumcision contended with him,

3 saying, "You went in to uncircumcised men and ate with them!"

4 But Peter explained it to them in order from the beginning, saying:

5 [y]"I was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw a vision, [z]an object descending like a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came to me.

6 "When I observed it intently and considered, I saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, creeping things, and birds of the air.

7 "And I heard a voice saying to me, 'Rise, Peter; kill and eat.'

8 "But I said, 'Not so, Lord! For nothing common or unclean has at any time entered my mouth.'

9 "But the voice answered me again from heaven, 'What God has cleansed you must not call common.'

10 "Now this was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 [aa]"At that very moment, three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent to me from Caesarea.

12 "Then the [q]Spirit told me to go with them, doubting nothing. Moreover these [bb]six brethren accompanied me, and we entered the man's house.

13 "And he told us how he had seen an [cc]angel standing in his house, who said to him, 'Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter,

14 'who will tell you words by which you and all your household will be [dd]saved.'

15 "And as I began to speak, the [q]Holy Spirit fell upon them, [ee]as upon us at the beginning.

16 "Then I remembered the word

10:44 Up to this point the Gospel had been offered principally to the Jews, though some Gentile proselytes may have been included in the conversions on the Day of Pentecost, and Philip had previously preached in Samaria (Acts 8). Through Peter's experience with Cornelius it is made plain that the norm for this age, for both Jews and Gentiles, is for the Holy Spirit to be given without delay, human mediation, or conditions other than simple faith in Jesus Christ for both Jew and Gentile.

of the Lord, how He [a]said, 'John indeed [b]baptized with water, but you shall be [c]baptized with the [d]Holy Spirit.'

17 "If therefore God gave them the same gift [e]as He gave us when we [f]believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, [g]who was I that I could withstand God?"

18 When they heard these things they became silent; and they glorified God, saying, "Then God has also granted to the [h]Gentiles [i]repentance to [j]life."

The church at Antioch and the new name: Christians

19 Now those who were scattered after the [k]persecution that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, [l]preaching the word to no one but the Jews only.

20 But some of them were men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the [m]Hellenists, [l]preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number [f]believed and [n]turned to the Lord.

22 Then news of these things came to the ears of the [o]church in Jerusalem, and they sent out [p]Barnabas to go as far as Antioch.

23 When he came and had seen the [q]grace of God, he was glad, and encouraged them all that with purpose of heart they should continue with the Lord.

24 For he was a [r]good man, full of the [d]Holy Spirit and of [f]faith. And a great many people were [s]added to the Lord.

25 Then Barnabas departed for [t]Tarsus to seek Saul.

26 And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for a whole year they assembled with the [o]church and taught a great many people. And the disciples were first called [u]Christians in Antioch.

The church at Antioch sends gift to Jerusalem believers

27 And in these days [v]prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch.

28 Then one of them, named [w]Agabus, stood up and showed by the [d]Spirit that there was going to be a great famine throughout all the world, which also happened in the days of [x]Claudius Caesar.

29 Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brethren dwelling in Judea.

30 This they also did, and sent it to the [y]elders [z]by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Fifth persecution: Peter arrested

12 NOW about that time Herod the king stretched out his hand to harass some from the [aa]church.

2 Then he [bb]killed [cc]James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to seize Peter also. Now it was during the Days of Unleavened Bread.

4 So when he had [dd]arrested him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of soldiers to keep him, intending to bring him before the people after Passover.

Peter miraculously released from prison

5 Peter was therefore kept in prison, but [ee]constant* [ff]prayer was offered to God for him by the [aa]church.

6 And when Herod was about to bring him out, that night Peter was sleeping, bound with two chains between two soldiers; and the guards before the door were keeping the prison.

7 Now behold, an [gg]angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the prison; and he struck Peter on the side and raised him up,

8 Then the [b]angel said to him, "Gird yourself and tie on your sandals"; and so he did. And he said to him, "Put on your garment and follow me."

9 So he went out and followed him, and did not know that what was done by the [c]angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second guard posts, they came to the iron gate that leads to the city, which [d]opened to them [e]of its own accord; and they went out and went down one street, and immediately the [f]angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I know for certain that the Lord has [g]sent His [h]angel, and has [i]delivered me from the hand of Herod and from all the expectation of the Jewish people."

12 So, when he had considered this, he [j]came to the house of [k]Mary, the mother of [l]John whose surname was Mark, [m]where many were gathered together praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a girl named Rhoda came to answer.

14 When she recognized Peter's voice, because of her gladness she did not open the gate, but ran in and announced that Peter stood before the gate.

15 But they said to her, "You are beside yourself!" Yet she kept insisting that it was so. So they said, "It is his angel."

16 Now Peter continued knocking; and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But motioning to them with his hand to keep silent, he [n]declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, "Go, tell these things to [o]James and to the brethren." And he departed and went to another place.

18 Then, as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter.

19 But when Herod had searched for him and not found him, he examined the guards and commanded that they should be [p]put to death. And he went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there.

Herod blasphemes and dies

20 Now Herod had been very angry with the people of [q]Tyre and Sidon; but they came to him with one accord, and having made Blastus the king's personal aide their friend, they asked for peace, because their country was supplied with food by the king's country.

21 So on a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat on his throne and gave an oration to them.

22 And the people kept shouting, "The voice of a [r]god and not of a man!"

23 Then immediately an [s]angel of the Lord [t]struck him, because he did not [u]give glory to God. And he was eaten by worms and [v]died.

24 But the [w]word of God grew and [x]multiplied.

25 And [y]Barnabas and Saul returned from* Jerusalem when they had [y]fulfilled their ministry, and they also took with them [z]John whose surname was Mark.

IV. The First Missionary Journey, 13—14

Set apart by Holy Spirit

13 NOW in the [aa]church that was at Antioch there were certain prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy [bb]Spirit said, "Now separate to Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them."

3 Then, having fasted and prayed,

4So, being sent out by the Holy [b]Spirit, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus.

5And when they arrived in Salamis, they [c]preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. They also had John as their assistant.

Opposition from Satan

6Now when they had gone through the island* to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew whose name was Bar-Jesus, 7who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This man called for Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the [c]word of God.

8But Elymas the sorcerer (for so his name is translated) withstood them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith.

9Then Saul, who also is called Paul, filled with the Holy [b]Spirit, looked intently at him

10and said, "O full of all deceit and all fraud, you son of the [d]devil, you enemy of all [e]righteousness, will you not cease perverting the straight ways of the Lord?

11"And now, indeed, the hand of the Lord is upon you, and you shall be blind, not seeing the sun for a time." And immediately a dark mist [f]fell on him, and he went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand.

12Then the proconsul [g]believed, when he saw what had been done, being astonished at the [c]teaching of the Lord.

13Now when Paul and his party set sail from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia; and John, [h]departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.

Justification by faith preached by Paul at Antioch in Pisidia (vv. 38–39)

14But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the [i]Sabbath day and sat down.

15And after [j]the reading of the [k]Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Men and brethren, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, say on."

16Then Paul stood up, and motioning with his hand said, "Men of Israel, and you who [l]fear God, listen:

17[m]"The God of this people Israel* [n]chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm He [o]brought them out of it.

19"And when He had destroyed [q]seven nations in the land of Canaan, He distributed their land to them by [r]allotment.

20"After that He gave them [s]judges for about four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

21"And afterward they asked for a king; so God gave them [t]Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years.

22"And when He had removed him, He raised up for them [u]David as king, to whom also He gave testimony and [j]said, [v]'*I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after My own heart, who will do all My will.'

35 "Therefore He also says in another Psalm:

'You will not allow Your[m] Holy One to see corruption.'

36 "For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell asleep, was buried with his fathers, and saw corruption;

37 "but He whom God [g]raised up saw no corruption.

40 "Beware therefore, lest what has been spoken in the prophets come upon you:

41 'Behold, you despisers,
Marvel and perish!
For I [f]work a work in your days,
A work which you will by no means believe,
Though one were to declare it to you.' "

42 So when the Jews went out of the synagogue,* the Gentiles begged that these [g]words might be preached to them the next [h]Sabbath.
43 Now when the congregation had broken up, many of the Jews and devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the [i]grace of God.

The Jews oppose Paul (cp. vv. 6,50), who turns to the Gentiles (cp. Acts 18:6; 28:25)

44 On the next [h]Sabbath almost the whole city came together to hear the [j]word of God.
45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy; and contradicting and blaspheming, they opposed the things spoken by Paul.
46 Then Paul and Barnabas grew bold and said, "It was necessary that the [j]word of God should be spoken to you [k]first; but since you reject it, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting [l]life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles.
47 "For so the Lord has [g]commanded us:

'I[m] have set you as a light to the Gentiles,

48 Now when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and glorified the word of the Lord. And as many as had been [o]appointed to eternal [l]life [p]believed.
49 And the word of the Lord was being [j]spread throughout all the region.
50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and prominent women and the chief men of the city, raised up [q]persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their region.
51 But they [r]shook off the dust from their feet against them, and came to Iconium.
52 And the disciples were filled with [s]joy and [t]with the Holy [u]Spirit.

14 NOW it happened in Iconium that they went together to the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke that a great [v]multitude both of the Jews and of the [w]Greeks [p]believed.
2 But the [x]unbelieving Jews stirred up the [y]Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brethren.
3 Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, who was bearing witness to the [j]word of His [i]grace, granting signs and [z]wonders to be done by their hands.
4 But the multitude of the city was [aa]divided: part sided with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

Lycaonia, and to the surrounding region.

7 And they were preaching the [a]gospel there.

8 And in Lystra a [b]certain man without strength in his feet was sitting, a cripple from his mother's womb, who had never walked.

9 This man heard Paul speaking. Paul, observing him intently and seeing that he had [c]faith to be healed,

10 said with a loud voice, "Stand up straight on your feet!" And he [d]leaped and walked.

11 Now when the people saw what Paul had done, they raised their voices, saying in the Lycaonian language, "The [e]gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!"

12 And Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul, Hermes, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Zeus, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, intending to [f]sacrifice with the multitudes.

14 But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard this, they tore their clothes and ran in among the multitude, crying out

15 and saying, "Men, why are you doing these things? [g]We also are men with the same nature as you, and preach to you that you should turn from these [h]useless things to the living God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them, 16 "who in bygone generations [i]allowed all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 "Nevertheless He did not leave Himself without [j]witness, in that He did good, gave us [k]rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with [l]food and gladness."

18 And with these sayings they could scarcely restrain the multitudes from [m]sacrificing to them.

Paul stoned at Lystra

19 Then Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there; and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing him to be [n]dead.

20 However, when the disciples gathered around him, he rose up and went into the city. And the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

Elders appointed in every church

21 And when they had preached the [o]gospel to that city and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch,

22 strengthening the souls of the disciples, [p]exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying, "We must through many [q]tribulations enter the [r]kingdom of God."

23 So when they [s]had appointed [t]elders in every [u]church, and prayed with fasting, they [v]commended them to the Lord in whom they had [w]believed.

24 And after they had passed through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 Now when they had [x]preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

Return to Antioch; report to church

26 From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been [y]commended to the [z]grace of God for the work which they had completed.

27 Now when they had come and gathered the [aa]church together, they reported all that God had done with them, and that He had opened the door of [bb]faith to the [cc]Gentiles.

28 So they stayed there a long time with the disciples.

V. The Council at Jerusalem, 15:1–35

Circumcision question settled; the legalizers from Judea

15 AND [a]certain men came down from Judea and [b]taught the brethren, [c]"Unless you are circumcised according to the [d]custom of Moses, you cannot be [e]saved."

Paul and Barnabas go to Jerusalem

2 Therefore, when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and dispute with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas and certain others of them should [f]go up to Jerusalem, to the apostles and [g]elders, about this question.

3 So, being sent on their way by the [h]church, they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, describing the [i]conversion of the [i]Gentiles; and they caused great joy to all the brethren.

4 And when they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the [h]church and the apostles and the [g]elders; and they reported all things that God had done with them.

5 But some of the sect of the [j]Pharisees who [k]believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the [l]law of Moses."

Peter's rebuttal: Why place Gentile believers under yoke of law?

6 Now the apostles and [g]elders came together to consider this matter.

7 And when there had been much dispute, Peter rose up and said to them: "Men and brethren, you know that a good while ago God [m]chose among us, that [n]by my mouth the [o]Gentiles should hear the word of the [p]gospel and believe.

8 "So God, who [q]knows the heart, acknowledged them by giving them the Holy [r]Spirit, just as He did to us, 9 "and made no distinction between us and them, [s]purifying their hearts by [k]faith.

10 "Now therefore, why do you [t]test God by putting a [u]yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 "But we believe that through the [v]grace of the Lord Jesus Christ* we shall be [w]saved in the same manner as [x]they."

Paul and Barnabas testify

12 Then all the multitude kept silent and listened to Barnabas and Paul declaring how many miracles and wonders God had worked through them among the [y]Gentiles.

James announces decision of council: (1) the outcalling of Gentiles agrees with promises to Israel

13 And after they had become silent, [z]James answered, saying, "Men and brethren, listen to me:

14 "Simon has declared how God at the first visited the Gentiles to take out of them a people for His name.

15 "And with this the words of the prophets agree, just as it is [aa]written:

16 'After[bb] this I will return
And will rebuild the tabernacle of[cc] David, which has fallen down;
I will rebuild its ruins,
And I will set it up;
17 So that the rest of mankind may seek the LORD,
Even all the Gentiles who are called by My name,
*Says the LORD who does all these things.'

Amos 9:11 begins with the words "on that day." James introduced his quotation in such a way as to show what day Amos was talking about, namely, the time after the present world-wide witness (Acts 1:8), when Christ will return. James showed that there will be Gentile believers at that time as well as Jewish believers; hence he concluded that Gentiles are not required to become Jewish proselytes by circumcision.

15:19 The scope of the decision goes far beyond the mere question of circumcision. The whole question of the relation of the law to Gentile believers had been put in issue (v. 5), and their exemption is declared in the decision (vv. 19,24). The decision might be otherwise stated in the terms of Rom. 6:14: "You are not under law but under grace." Gentile believers were to show grace by abstaining from the practices offensive to godly Jews (vv. 20–21, 28–29; compare Rom. 14:12–17; 1 Cor. 8:1–13).

15:13–18

GOD'S DIVINE PLAN

This important passage shows God's program for this age. It is necessary to observe the purpose of James in his decision. He is not simply arguing that Gentiles can be saved. This is clearly taught in many passages in the OT and was recognized by the apostles at their conference described in Acts 11 (note especially v. 18).

The problem is circumcision. Must Gentiles become Jews before they become Christians? James declares that Amos 9:12 shows that, at the return of Christ, there will not only be believing Jews (here called "the rest of mankind") but also (translating NKJV "even" by "and") believing Gentiles "who are called by My name" (v. 17). Thus the passage, as explained by James, shows the following elements in the divine plan:

(1) The taking out from among the Gentiles of a people for His name, the distinctive work of the present or Church Age. The Church is the ekklēsia—the "called-out assembly." The Gospel has never anywhere converted all but everywhere has called out some. No mention is made in this passage of gathering out the remnant from Israel in this age (compare Rom. 11:5), because this was not the issue in dispute at the Jerusalem Council.

(2) "After this [that is, the out-calling] I will return." James quotes from Amos 9:11–12. The verses which follow in Amos describe the final regathering of Israel, which the other prophets invariably connect with the fulfillment of the Davidic Covenant (e.g. Is. 11:1,10–12; Jer. 23:5–8).

(3) "And will rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down." Christ took the title to David's throne back to heaven with Him, assuring that David will never lack a man to sit on his throne, and looking forward to the re-establishment of Davidic rule over Israel (2 Sam. 7:8–17; Luke 1:31–33).

(4) "That the rest of mankind [Israelites] may seek the LORD" (compare Zech. 12:7–8; 13:1–2). And

(5) "And (Greek kai) all the Gentiles," etc. (compare Mic. 4:2; Zech. 8:21–22). This is also the order of Rom. 11:24–27.

Judas and Silas go to Antioch

30 So when they were sent off, they came to Antioch; and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the [e]letter.
31 When they had read it, they rejoiced over its encouragement.
32 Now Judas and Silas, themselves being [f]prophets also, exhorted and strengthened the brethren with many words.
33 And after they had stayed there for a time, they were sent back with greetings from the brethren to the apostles.*
34 However, it seemed good to Silas to remain there.*
35 Paul and Barnabas also remained in [g]Antioch, teaching and [h]preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

VI. The Second Missionary Journey, 15:36—18:22

Paul and Silas depart; Barnabas and Mark go to Cyprus

36 Then after some days [i]Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us now go back and visit our brethren in every city where we have [j]preached the word of the Lord, and see how they are doing."
37 Now Barnabas was determined to take with them [k]John called Mark.
38 But Paul insisted that they should not take with them the one who had [l]departed from them in Pamphylia, and had not gone with them to the work.
39 Then the contention became so sharp that they parted from one another. And so Barnabas took Mark and sailed to [m]Cyprus;
40 but Paul chose [n]Silas and departed, [o]being commended by the brethren to the [p]grace of God.
41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the [q]churches.

Timothy circumcised and added to missionary party

16 THEN he came to [r]Derbe and Lystra. And behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a certain Jewish woman who [s]believed, but his father was Greek.
2 He was [t]well spoken of by the brethren who were at Lystra and Iconium.
3 Paul wanted to have him go on with him. And he took him and [u]circumcised him because of the Jews who were in that region, for they all knew that his father was Greek.
4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the [v]decrees to keep, which were determined by the apostles and [w]elders at Jerusalem.
5 So the [x]churches were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number [y]daily.

The Spirit guides to Troas; the Macedonian vision; Luke joins party (v. 10)

6 Now when they had gone through Phrygia and the region of [z]Galatia, they were forbidden by the [aa]Holy Spirit to preach the word in Asia.
7 After they had come to Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the [bb]Spirit* did not permit them.
8 So passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas.
9 And a [cc]vision appeared to Paul in the night. A man of Macedonia stood and pleaded with him, saying,

16:9 pleaded. Here the Gospel turns to Europe.

"Come over to Macedonia and help us."

10 Now after he had seen the [a]vision, immediately we sought to go [b]to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the [c]gospel to them.

Paul enters Europe; goes to Philippi

11 Therefore, sailing from Troas, we ran a straight course to Samothrace, and the next day came to Neapolis,

12 and from there to [d]Philippi, which is the foremost city of that part of Macedonia, a colony. And we were staying in that city for some days.

13 And on the [e]Sabbath day we went out of the city to the riverside, where prayer was customarily made; and we sat down and [f]spoke to the women who met there.

First convert in Europe: Lydia

14 Now a certain woman named Lydia heard us. She was a seller of purple from the city of [g]Thyatira, who worshiped God. The Lord [h]opened her [i]heart to [j]heed the [k]things spoken by Paul.

15 And when she and her [l]household were [m]baptized, she begged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be [n]faithful to the Lord, come to my house and [o]stay." So she [p]persuaded us.

A demon cast out: Paul and Silas beaten

16 Now it happened, as we went to prayer, that a certain slave girl possessed with a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters [q]much profit by fortune-telling.

17 This girl followed Paul and us, and [a]cried out, saying, "These men are the servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us the way of [b]salvation."

18 And this she did for many days. But Paul, greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to [c]come out of her." And he [d]came out that very hour.

19 But when her masters [e]saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace to the authorities.

20 And they brought them to the magistrates, and said, "These men, being Jews, exceedingly [f]trouble our city;

21 "and they teach customs [g]which are not lawful for us, being [h]Romans, to receive or observe."

22 Then the multitude rose up together against them; and the magistrates tore off their clothes and commanded them to be beaten with rods.

23 And when they had [i]laid many [j]stripes on them, they threw them into [k]prison, commanding the jailer to keep them securely.

24 Having received such a charge, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the [l]stocks.

Philippian jailer converted

25 But at midnight Paul and Silas were [m]praying and [n]singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.

26 Suddenly there was a great [o]earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the [p]doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison, awaking from sleep and seeing the prison doors open, supposing the prisoners had fled, drew his sword and was about to [q]kill himself.

28 But Paul called with a loud voice, saying, "Do yourself no harm, for we are all here."

29 Then he called for a light, ran in, and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas.

Faith: the only condition of salvation

30 And he brought them out and said, "Sirs, [r]what must I do to be [s]saved?"

31 So they [t]said, [u]"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be [v]saved, you and your [w]household."

32 Then they spoke the [x]word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his [y]house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their [z]stripes. And immediately he and all his family were [aa]baptized.

34 Now when he had brought them into his house, he set food before them; and he [bb]rejoiced, having [cc]believed in God with all his [dd]household.

Paul released by Roman praetors

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the officers, saying, "Let those men go."

36 So the keeper of the prison reported these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go. Now therefore depart, and go in peace."

37 But Paul said to them, "They have [ee]beaten us openly, uncondemned [ff]Romans, and have thrown us into prison. And now do they put us out secretly? No indeed! Let them come themselves and get us out."

38 And the officers told these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were [gg]Romans.

39 Then they came and pleaded with them and brought them out, and [a]asked them to depart from the city.

40 So they went out of the prison and entered the house of Lydia; and when they had seen the brethren, they encouraged them and departed.

Paul visits Thessalonica; church founded there

17 NOW when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to [b]Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.

2 Then Paul, [c]as his custom was, went in to them, and for three [d]Sabbaths [e]reasoned with them from the [f]Scriptures,

3 explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to [g]suffer and [h]rise again from the dead, and saying, "This [i]Jesus whom I preach to you is the Christ."

4 [j]And some of them were [k]persuaded; and a great multitude of the devout Greeks, and not a few of the [l]leading women, joined Paul and Silas.

Jews riot at Thessalonica

5 But the Jews who were not persuaded, becoming [m]envious,* took some of the evil men from the marketplace, and gathering a mob, set all the city in an uproar and attacked the house of [n]Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they did not find them, they [o]dragged Jason and some brethren to the rulers of the city, crying out, "These who have turned the world upside down have come here too.

7 "Jason has harbored them, and these are all acting contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying there is another [p]king—Jesus."

8 And they troubled the crowd and the rulers of the city when they heard these things.

9 So when they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

Paul and Silas at Berea

10 Then the brethren immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea. When they arrived, they went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more fair-minded than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the [q]word with all [r]readiness, and [s]searched the [t]Scriptures daily to find out whether these things were so.

12 Therefore many of them [u]believed, and also not a few of the [v]Greeks, prominent women as well as men.

13 But when the [w]Jews from Thessalonica learned that the word of God was [x]preached by Paul at Berea, [y]they came there also and [z]stirred up the crowds.

14 Then immediately the brethren [aa]sent Paul away, to go to the sea; but both Silas and Timothy remained there.

15 So those who conducted Paul brought him to Athens; and [bb]receiving a command for Silas and [cc]Timothy to come to him with all speed, they departed.

Paul alone at Athens

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was [dd]provoked within him when he saw that the city was given over to idols.

17 Therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and with the Gentile worshipers, and in the 19 And they took him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new doctrine is of which you speak?

20 "For you are bringing some strange things to our ears. Therefore we want to know what these things mean."

21 For all the Athenians and the foreigners who were there spent their time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of the [d]Areopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious;

23 "for as I was passing through and considering the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription:

17:18 Epicurean. The Epicureans were disciples of Epicurus, 341–270 B.C., who abandoned as hopeless the search by reason for pure truth (compare John 18:38), seeking instead true pleasure through experience. The Stoics were disciples of Zeno, 336–264 B.C. This philosophy was founded on human self-sufficiency, inculcated stern self-repression and solidarity of the race. Paul's sermon (vv. 22–32) contains a most remarkable refutation of the specific views of both of these schools, which were extremely widespread in the apostolic world. As a result of the sermon "some men joined him and believed" (v. 34). gods. The term here rendered "gods" is commonly used in Greek writings for pagan gods. It is used nowhere else in the NT in this sense, but occurs fifty times for evil spirits and is, therefore, usually translated "demons."

17:19 Areopagus. The highest court of Athens, which met on Mars' Hill, west of the Acropolis. v. 22. doctrine. Or teaching.

17:24 world. Greek kosmos. See Matt. 4:8, note.

17:28 This verse comprises quotations from two poets—Epimenides and Aratus.

17:29 Offspring is from the Greek genos meaning race. The reference is to the creation-work of God, in which He made man (that is, mankind, the race in Adam) in His own likeness, Gen. 1:26–27, thus rebuking the thought that "the Divine Nature is like gold," etc. The word "Father" is not used, nor does the passage affirm anything concerning fatherhood or sonship, which are relationships based upon faith and the new birth. Compare John 1:12–13; Gal. 3:26; 4:1–7; 1 John 5:1.

17:30 REPENTANCE, SUMMARY

Repent is the translation of a Greek verb metanoeō, meaning to have another mind, to change the mind, and is used in the NT to indicate a change of mind in respect to sin, God, and self. This change of mind may, especially in the case of Christians who have fallen into sin, be preceded by sorrow (2 Cor. 7:8–11); but sorrow for sin, though it may cause repentance, is not repentance. The son in Matt. 21:28–29 illustrates true repentance.

Repentance is not an act separate from faith, but saving faith includes and implies that change of mind which is called repentance (see Heb. 11:39, note. Compare Zech. 8:14, note).

mands all men everywhere to [a]repent,
31 "because He has appointed a [b]day on which He will [c]judge the world in righteousness by the [de]Man whom He has ordained. He has given assurance of this to all by [fg]raising Him from the dead."
32 And when they heard of the [f]resurrection of the dead, some [i]mocked, while others said, "We will hear you [j]again on this matter."
33 So Paul departed from among them.
34 However, some men joined him and [k]believed, among them Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Founding of the church at Corinth

18 AFTER these things Paul departed from Athens and went to Corinth.
2 And he found a certain Jew named [l]Aquila, born in Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla (because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome); and he came to them.
3 So, because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and worked; for by occupation they were [m]tentmakers.
4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every [n]Sabbath, and persuaded both Jews and [o]Greeks.
5 When Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia, Paul was [p]compelled by the Spirit, and testified to the Jews that [q]Jesus is the Christ.
6 But [r]when they opposed him and blasphemed, he shook his garments and said to them, "Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean. From now on I will go to the [s]Gentiles."
7 And he departed from there and entered the house of a certain man named Justus,* one who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.
8 Then [t]Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, [u]believed on the Lord with all his household. And many of the Corinthians, hearing, [u]believed and were baptized.
9 Now the Lord spoke to Paul in the night by a vision, "Do not be afraid, but speak, and do not keep silent;
10 "for I am with you, and no one will attack you to hurt you; for I have many people in this city."
11 And he continued there a year and six months, [v]teaching the word of God among them.

Gallio's indifference

12 When Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him to the judgment seat,
13 saying, "This fellow persuades men to worship God contrary to the [w]law."
14 And when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrongdoing or wicked crimes, O Jews, there would be reason why I should bear with you.
15 "But if it is a [x]question of words and names and your own [y]law, look to it yourselves; for I do not want to be a judge of such matters."
16 And he drove them from the judgment seat.
17 Then all the Greeks* took [z]Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. But Gallio took no notice of these things.

Paul takes a Jewish vow (cp. Rom. 6:14; 2 Cor. 3:7–14; Gal. 3:23–28)

18 So Paul still remained a good while. Then he took leave of the brethren and sailed for Syria, and [aa]Priscilla and Aquila were with him. He had his hair [bb]cut off at Cenchrea, for he had taken a vow.
19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there; but he himself entered the synagogue and [cc]reasoned with the Jews.

(Apollos at Ephesus and Corinth)

24 Now a certain Jew named [f]Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being [g]fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things of the Lord, though he knew only the [h]baptism of John.

26 So he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Aquila and Priscilla heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately.

27 And when he desired to cross to Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him; and when he arrived, he greatly helped those who had [i]believed through [j]grace;

28 for he vigorously refuted the Jews publicly, showing from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ.

Paul at Ephesus: disciples of John the Baptist become Christians

19 AND it happened, while Apollos was at Corinth, that Paul, having passed through the [k]upper regions, came to Ephesus. And finding some disciples

2 he said to them, "Did you receive the Holy [l]Spirit when you believed?" So they said to him, "We have not so much as heard whether there is a Holy [l]Spirit."

3 And he said to them, [m]"Into what then were you baptized?" So they said, "Into John's baptism."

4 Then Paul said, "John indeed baptized with a [n]baptism of [o]repentance, saying to the people that they should believe on Him who would [p]come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus."

5 When they heard this, they were [q]baptized in the [r]name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had laid hands on them, the Holy [s]Spirit came upon them, and they spoke with [t]tongues and prophesied.

7 Now the men were about twelve in all.

8 And he [u]went into the synagogue and spoke [v]boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading concerning the things of the [w]kingdom of God.

18:28 that Jesus is the Christ. This seems to be as far as Apollos' ministry went—that Jesus was the long expected Messiah (Acts 19:3). Apollos appears to have known nothing yet of the doctrines of justification through the blood of Christ and sanctification through the Holy Spirit.

19:2 In both this passage and 1:8 the Greek participles have been translated sometimes in such a way that some have concluded that the gift of the Holy Spirit was granted to believers some time after the exercise of faith on their part. The original language allows no such interpretation. The literal translation of 1:8 is: "But you shall receive power, the Holy Spirit coming upon you . . ." The literal rendering of 19:2 is: "[He] asked them, 'Did you receive the Holy Spirit, having believed?' " Both passages could not be stronger in indicating that the Spirit was given at the time of believing.

Paul was evidently impressed by some lack in the disciples at Ephesus. Their answer showed that they were Jewish proselytes, disciples of John the Baptist, looking forward to a coming king, but not Christians resting on a finished redemption. Compare Rom. 8:9; 1 Cor. 6:19; Eph. 1:13, reading "Having believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise."

9 But when some were [a]hardened and did not believe, but spoke evil of [b]the Way before the multitude, he departed from them and [c]withdrew the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus.
10 And this continued for two years, so that all who dwelt in [d]Asia [e]heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

Miracles performed at Ephesus

11 Now God worked unusual [f]miracles by the hands of Paul, 12 so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were brought from his [g]body to the sick, [h]and the diseases left them and the [i]evil spirits went out of them.
13 Then some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists took it upon themselves to call the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "We* exorcise you by the Jesus whom Paul [j]preaches."
14 Also there were seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did so.
15 And the [k]evil spirit answered and said, [l]"Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?"
16 Then the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, overpowered* them, and prevailed against them,* so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.
17 This became known both to all Jews and Greeks dwelling in Ephesus; and [m]fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.
18 And many who had [n]believed came [o]confessing and telling their deeds.
19 Also, many of those who had practiced [p]magic brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. And they counted up the value of them, and it totaled fifty thousand [q]pieces of silver.
20 So the word of the Lord [r]grew
[s]mightily and prevailed.
21 When these things were accomplished, Paul [t]purposed in the Spirit, when he had passed through [u]Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see [v]Rome."
22 So he sent into Macedonia two of those who ministered to him, [w]Timothy and [x]Erastus, but he himself stayed in Asia for a time.

Uproar at Ephesus

23 And about that time there arose
a great commotion about the Way.
24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Diana, brought no small profit to the craftsmen.
25 He called them together with the workers of similar occupation, and said: "Men, you know that we have our prosperity by this [y]trade.
26 "Moreover you see and hear that not only at Ephesus, but throughout almost all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are [z]not gods which are made with hands.
27 "So not only is this [aa]trade of ours in danger of falling into disrepute, but also the temple of the great goddess Diana may be despised and her magnificence destroyed,* whom all Asia and the world worship."
28 Now when they heard this,
they were full of wrath and cried out, saying, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"
29 So the whole city was filled with confusion, and rushed into the theater with one accord, having seized [bb]Gaius and [cc]Aristarchus, Macedonians, Paul's travel companions.

Paul preaches in Macedonia and Greece

20 AFTER the [a]uproar had ceased, Paul called the disciples to himself, [b]embraced them, and departed to go to [c]Macedonia.

2 Now when he had gone over that region and encouraged them with many words, he came to [d]Greece

3 and stayed three months. And when the Jews [e]plotted against him as he was about to sail to Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia.

4 And Sopater of Berea accompanied him to Asia—also [f]Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, and [g]Gaius of Derbe, and [h]Timothy, and [i]Tychicus and [j]Trophimus of Asia.

5 These men, going ahead, waited for us at [k]Troas.

Paul at Troas seven days; church gathers on first day of week

6 But we sailed away from Philippi after the [l]Days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days joined them at Troas, where we stayed seven days.

7 Now on the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to [m]break bread, Paul, ready to depart the next day, spoke to them and continued his message until midnight.

8 There were many lamps in the [n]upper room where they* were gathered together.

9 And in a window sat a certain young man named Eutychus, who was sinking into a deep sleep. He was overcome by sleep; and as Paul continued speaking, he fell down from the third story and was taken up dead.

10 But Paul went down, [o]fell on him, and embracing him said, "Do not trouble yourselves, for his life is in him."

11 Now when he had come up, had broken bread and eaten, and talked a long while, even till daybreak, he departed.

12 And they [p]brought the young man in [q]alive, and they were not a little comforted.

From Troas to Miletus

13 Then we went ahead to the ship and sailed to Assos, there intending to take Paul on board; for so he had given orders, intending himself to go on foot.

14 And when he met us at Assos, we took him on board and came to Mitylene.

15 We sailed from there, and the next day came opposite Chios. The following day we arrived at Samos

20:7 OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH

Although Paul was in Troas seven days (v. 6), apparently neither he nor the local church met for the breaking of bread until the first day of the week (v. 7).

The fact that Paul and others sometimes attended Sabbath services in Jewish synagogues (17:1–3) does not prove that the apostolic Church kept the seventh day as a special day of worship. It only shows that the early missionaries took the Gospel message wherever and whenever they found people gathered together (5:19–20; 13:5; 16:13,25–33; 17:17,19,22; 18:7; 19:9; 25:6,23). This witness was carried on daily (2:47; 17:17; 19:9) in every possible way (1 Cor. 9:19–22).

The early churches were specifically warned against submitting themselves to the bondage of any legalistic observance of Sabbath days (Col. 2:16, compare Gal. 4:9–11). On the other hand, in the exercise of their Christian liberty (Rom. 14:5–6), these same churches voluntarily chose the first day of the week as an appropriate time for fellowship and worship (Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:2), the day on which the Lord arose and repeatedly appeared to His disciples (John 20:19–24, 25–29). It was a new day for a new people belonging to a new creation (2 Cor. 5:17), a day of commemoration and joy, service (Matt. 28:10), and spiritual rest (Heb. 4:9–10). Contrast Sabbath, Matt. 12:1, note.

This observance of the first day of the week is corroborated by the early fathers: in the writings of Barnabas (c. A.D. 100), Ignatius (A.D. 107), Justin Martyr (A.D. 145–150), and Irenaeus (A.D. 155–202). The edict of Laodicea (4th Century A.D.) did not change the day of worship from the seventh to the first day of the week, as sometimes alleged, but rather put the stamp of official approval upon an observance already long established in the early churches.

and stayed at Trogyllium. The next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he would not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hurrying to be at Jerusalem, if possible, on the Day of [a]Pentecost.

Paul's farewell to the Ephesian elders

17 From Miletus he sent to Ephesus and called for the [b]elders of the [c]church.

18 And when they had come to him, he said to them: "You know, from the first day that I came to Asia, in what manner I always lived among you,

19 "serving the Lord with all humility, with many tears and [d]trials which happened to me by the plotting of the Jews;

20 "how I kept back nothing that was helpful, but proclaimed it to you, and taught you publicly and from house to house, 21 [e]"testifying to Jews, and also to Greeks, [f]repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 "And see, now I go bound in the spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that will happen to me there, 23 "except that the Holy [g]Spirit testifies in every city, saying that chains and tribulations [h]await me.

24 "But none of these things move me; nor do I count my life dear to myself,* so that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the [i]gospel of the [j]grace of God.

25 "And indeed, now I know that you all, among whom I have gone preaching the [k]kingdom of God, will see my face no more.

26 "Therefore I testify to you this day that I am [l]innocent of the blood of all men.

27 [m]"For I have not shunned to declare to you the whole counsel of God.

28 [n]"Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the [o]flock, among which the Holy [p]Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the [q]church of God* which He [r]purchased with His own blood.

29 "For I know this, that after my departure savage [s]wolves will [t]come in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 "Also [u]from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves.

31 "Therefore watch, and remember that for [v]three years I did not cease to warn everyone night and day with [w]tears.

32 "So now, brethren, I [x]commend you to God and to the [y]word of His grace, which is able to [z]build you up and give you an [aa]inheritance among all those who are [bb]sanctified.

33 "I have coveted no one's silver or gold or apparel.

34 "Yes,* you yourselves know that these [cc]hands have provided for my necessities, and for those who were with me.

35 "I have shown you in every way, by laboring like this, that you must support the weak. And remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He said, [dd]'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' "

36 And when he had said these things, he [ee]knelt down and prayed with them all.

37 Then they all [ff]wept freely, and fell on Paul's neck and kissed him,

38 sorrowing most of all for the words which he spoke, that they would see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

20:22 spirit to Jerusalem. Paul's motive in going to Jerusalem seems to have been his great affection for the Jews (Rom. 9:1–5) and his hope that the gifts of the Gentile churches, sent by him to poor saints at Jerusalem (Rom. 15:25–28), would open the hearts of the law-bound Jewish believers to the "gospel of the grace of God" (Acts 20:24).

20:29 wolves will come. Two sources of apostasy are: (1) false teachers from outside of the Church (2 Cor. 11:13–15; 2 Pet. 2:1–3); and (2) ambitious leaders within the Church (1 John 2:18–19; 3 John 9–10).

20:35 I have shown you. That is, In every way I have given you an example.

Paul and his party sail from Miletus to Tyre

21 NOW it came to pass, that when we had departed from them and set sail, running a straight course we came to Cos, the following day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.

2 And finding a ship sailing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail.

3 When we had sighted Cyprus, we passed it on the left, sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre; for there the ship was to unload her cargo.

At Tyre seven days; the Holy Spirit forbids Paul to go to Jerusalem

4 And finding disciples,* we stayed there seven days. They told Paul through the [a]Spirit [b]not to go up to Jerusalem.

5 When we had come to the end of those days, we departed and went on our way; and they all accompanied us, with wives and children, till we were out of the city. And we [c]knelt down on the shore and prayed.

6 When we had taken our leave of one another, we boarded the ship, and they returned home.

On to Ptolemais and Caesarea, where Holy Spirit again warns Paul

7 And when we had finished our voyage from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, greeted the brethren, and stayed with them one day.

8 On the next day we who were Paul's companions* departed and came to [d]Caesarea, and entered the house of [e]Philip the evangelist, who was one of the [f]seven, and stayed with him.

9 Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied.

10 And as we stayed many days, a certain prophet named [g]Agabus came down from Judea.

11 When he had come to us, he took Paul's belt, bound his own hands and feet, and said, "Thus says the Holy [h]Spirit, 'So shall the Jews at Jerusalem [i]bind the man who owns this belt, and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.' "

12 Now when we heard these things, both we and those from that place pleaded with him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, "What do you mean by [j]weeping and breaking my heart? For I am [k]ready not only to be [l]bound, but also to [m]die at Jerusalem for the [n]name of the Lord Jesus."

14 So when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The [o]will of the Lord be done."

VIII. From Jerusalem to Rome, 21:15—28:31

Paul goes to Jerusalem

15 And after those days we packed and went up to Jerusalem.

16 Also some of the disciples from [p]Caesarea went with us and brought with them a certain Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we were to lodge.

At Jerusalem, Paul takes a Jewish vow involving blood sacrifice, and enters the temple (cp. Heb. 10:2,4,9–12)

17 And when we had come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 On the following day Paul went in with us to [q]James, and all the [r]elders were present.

19 When he had greeted them, he [s]told in detail those things which God had done among the [t]Gentiles through his [u]ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord. And they said to him, "You see, brother, how many [v]myriads of Jews there are who have [w]believed, and [x]they are all zealous for the [y]law;

21 "but they have been informed about you that you teach all the Jews who are among the [z]Gentiles to forsake [aa]Moses, saying that they ought not to [bb]circumcise their children nor to walk according to the customs.

22 "What then? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will* hear that you have come.

25 "But concerning the [c]Gentiles who [d]believe, we have [e]written and decided that they should observe no such thing, except* that they should keep themselves from things offered to idols, from [f]blood, from things strangled, and from [g]sexual immorality."
26 Then [h]Paul took the men, and the next day, having been purified with them, entered the [i]temple to announce the expiration of the days of [j]purification, at which time an [h]offering should be made for each one of them.

Paul seized in the temple

27 Now when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews from Asia, seeing him in the temple, [k]stirred up the whole crowd and laid hands on him,
28 crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, the [l]law, and this place; and furthermore he also brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this [m]holy place."
29 (For they had previously* seen [n]Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)
30 And all the city was [o]disturbed; and the people ran together, seized Paul, and [p]dragged him out of the temple; and immediately the doors were shut.

Paul rescued and bound by Roman soldiers

31 Now as they were [q]seeking to kill him, news came to the commander of the garrison that all Jerusalem was in an [r]uproar.
32 He immediately took soldiers and [s]centurions, and ran down to them. And when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.
33 Then the [t]commander came near and took him, and commanded him to be [u]bound with two chains; and he asked who he was and what he had done.
34 And some among the multitude cried one thing and some another. So when he could not ascertain the truth because of the tumult, he commanded him to be taken into the [v]barracks.
35 When he reached the stairs, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the mob.
36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, [w]"Away with him!"
37 Then as Paul was about to be led into the barracks, he said to the commander, "May I speak to you?" He replied, "Can you speak Greek?
38 "Are you not [x]the Egyptian who some time ago stirred up a rebellion and led the four thousand assassins out into the wilderness?"
39 But Paul said, [y]"I am a Jew from Tarsus, in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city; and I implore you, permit me to speak to the people."
40 So when he had given him permission, Paul stood on the stairs and motioned with his hand to the people. And when there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the [z]Hebrew language, saying,

Paul's defense before the mob; he recounts his conversion (cp. Acts 9:1–18; 26:9–18)

22 "BRETHREN and fathers, hear my defense [aa]before you now."

2 And when they heard that he spoke to them in the [a]Hebrew language, they kept all the more silent. Then he said:

3 [b]"I [c]am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of [d]Gamaliel, taught according to the strictness of our fathers' [e]law, and was [f]zealous toward God [g]as you all are today.

4 "I [h]persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women,

5 "as also the high priest bears me witness, and all the council of the [i]elders, from whom I also received letters to the brethren, and went to Damascus [j]to bring in chains even those who were there to Jerusalem to be punished.

6 "Now it happened, as I journeyed and came near Damascus at about noon, suddenly a great light from heaven shone around me.

7 "And I fell to the ground and [k]heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are [l]you persecuting Me?'

8 "So I answered, 'Who are You, Lord?' And He said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.'

9 "And those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid,* but they did [m]not hear the [n]voice of Him who spoke to me.

10 "So I [o]said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, 'Arise and go into Damascus, and there you will be told all things which are appointed for you to [p]do.'

11 "And since I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 "Then a certain Ananias, a devout man according to the [q]law, having a [r]good testimony with all the Jews who dwelt there,

13 "came to me; and he stood and said to me, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight.' And at that same hour I [s]looked up at him.

22:17 when I returned. This was probably on the occasion of Paul's first visit to Jerusalem after his conversion (Acts 9:26ff.).

scourge a man who is a [a]Roman, and uncondemned?"

26 When the [b]centurion heard that, he went and told the commander, saying, "Take care what you do, for this man is a Roman."

27 Then the commander came and said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" He said, "Yes."

28 The commander answered, "With a large sum I obtained this citizenship." And Paul said, "But I was born a citizen."

29 Then immediately those who were about to [c]examine him withdrew from him; and the commander was also afraid after he found out that he was a Roman, and because he had [d]bound him.

Paul brought before the Sanhedrin

30 The next day, because he wanted to know for certain why he was accused by the Jews, he released him from his bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all their [e]council to appear, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

23 THEN Paul, looking earnestly at the council, said, "Men and brethren, [f]I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day."

2 And the high priest [g]Ananias commanded those who stood by him to [h]strike him on the mouth.

3 Then Paul [i]said to him, "God will strike you, you [j]whitewashed wall! For you sit to judge me according to the [k]law, and do you command me to be struck contrary to the law?"

4 And those who stood by said, "Do you revile God's high priest?"

5 Then Paul said, "I did not know, brethren, that he was the high priest; for it is [l]written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.' "

Paul appeals to the Pharisees

6 But when Paul perceived that one part were [m]Sadducees and the other [m]Pharisees, he cried out in the council, "Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee; concerning the hope and [n]resurrection of the dead I am being judged!"

7 And when he had said this, a dissension arose between the Pharisees and the Sadducees; and the assembly was divided.

8 For Sadducees say that there is no [o]resurrection—and no [p]angel or spirit; but the Pharisees confess both.

9 Then there arose a loud outcry. And the [q]scribes of the Pharisees' party arose and protested, saying, "We find no evil in this man; but if a spirit or an [r]angel has spoken to him, let us not fight against God."*

10 Now when there arose a great dissension, the commander, fearing lest Paul might be pulled to pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.

The Lord's grace to Paul

11 But the following night the [s]Lord [t]stood by him and said, [u]"Be of good cheer, Paul; for as you have testified for Me in [v]Jerusalem, so you must also [w]bear witness at [x]Rome."

A conspiracy under oath to kill Paul

12 And when it was day, [y]some of the Jews banded together and bound themselves under an oath, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had [z]killed Paul.

13 Now there were more than forty who had formed this conspiracy.

14 They came to the chief priests and [aa]elders, and said, "We have bound ourselves under a great oath that we will eat nothing until we have killed Paul.

15 "Now you, therefore, together

23:1 council. For the fifth time the Sanhedrin was compelled to ajudicate the claims of Christ and His followers concerning His Person. Other occasions were the trials of (1) Jesus (Luke 22:66–71); (2) Peter and John (Acts 4:5–22); (3) the twelve (Acts 5:21–40); and (4) Stephen (Acts 6:12—7:60).

with the [a]council, suggest to the [b]commander that he be brought down to you tomorrow,* as though you were going to make further inquiries concerning him; but we are [c]ready to kill him before he comes near."

16 So when Paul's sister's son heard of their ambush, he went and entered the barracks and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the [d]centurions to him and said, "Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to tell him."

18 So he took him and brought him to the commander and said, "Paul the [e]prisoner called me to him and asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to say to you."

19 Then the commander took him by the hand, went aside, and asked privately, "What is it that you have to tell me?"

20 And he said, "The Jews have agreed to ask that you bring Paul down to the [f]council tomorrow, as though they were going to inquire more fully about him.

21 "But do not yield to them, for more than forty of them [g]lie in wait for him, men who have bound themselves by an [h]oath that they will neither eat nor drink till they have [i]killed him; and now they are ready, waiting for the promise from you."

22 So the commander let the young man depart, and commanded him, "Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me."

Paul removed by night to Caesarea

23 And he called for two [j]centurions, saying, "Prepare two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen to go to [k]Caesarea at the third hour of the [l]night;

24 "and provide mounts to set Paul on, and bring him safely to Felix the governor."

25 He wrote a [m]letter in the following manner:

26 Claudius Lysias,
To the most excellent governor Felix:
Greetings.

27 This man was [n]seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them. Coming with the troops I rescued him, having learned that he was a [o]Roman.

28 And when I wanted to know the reason they accused him, I brought him before their [p]council.

29 I found out that he was accused concerning [q]questions of their [r]law, but had [s]nothing charged against him deserving of death or chains.

30 And when it was told me that the Jews lay in wait for the man,* I sent him immediately to you, and also commanded his accusers to state before you the charges against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as they were commanded, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 The next day they left the horsemen to go on with him, and returned to the barracks.

33 When they came to [t]Caesarea and had delivered the [u]letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him.

34 And when the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. And when he understood that he was from [v]Cilicia, 35 he said, "I will hear you when your [w]accusers also have come." And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's Praetorium.

Paul before Felix, the governor

24 NOW after five days [x]Ananias the high priest came down with the elders and a certain orator named Tertullus. These gave evidence to the governor against Paul.

23:31 Antipatris. Located about 40 mi. from Jerusalem. It was named by Herod, the Great for his father, Antipater.

The accusation

2 And when he was called upon, Tertullus began his [a]accusation, saying: "Seeing that through you we enjoy great peace, and prosperity is being brought to this nation by your foresight,

3 "we accept it always and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 "Nevertheless, not to be tedious to you any further, I beg you to hear, by your courtesy, a few words from us.

5 "For we have found this man a plague, a creator of dissension among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the [b]Nazarenes.

6 "He even tried to [c]profane the temple, and we seized him,* and wanted to [d]judge him according to our [e]law.

7 "But the [f]commander Lysias came by and with great violence [g]took him out of our hands,

8 [h]"commanding his [i]accusers to come to you. By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we [j]accuse him."

9 And the Jews also assented,* maintaining that these things were so.

Paul's defense before Felix

10 Then Paul, after the governor had nodded to him to speak, answered: "Inasmuch as I know that you have been for many years a judge of this nation, I do the more cheerfully [k]answer for myself, 11 "because you may ascertain that it is no more than twelve days since I went up [l]to Jerusalem to worship.

12 "And they neither found me in the temple disputing with anyone nor inciting the crowd, either in the synagogues or in the city.

13 "Nor can they prove the things of which they now [m]accuse me.

14 "But this I confess to you, that according to the Way which they call a sect, so I worship the God of my [n]fathers, [o]believing all things which are [p]written in the [q]Law and in the [r]Prophets.

15 "I have [s]hope in God, which they themselves also accept, that there [t]will be a [u]resurrection of the dead,* both of the just and the unjust.

16 "This being so, I myself always strive to have a [v]conscience without offense toward God and men.

17 "Now after many years I came to bring [w]alms and offerings to my nation, 18 [x]"in the midst of which some Jews from Asia found me [y]purified in the temple, neither with a mob nor with tumult.

19 "They ought to have been here before you to object if they had anything against me.

20 "Or else let those who are here themselves say if they found any wrongdoing* in me while I stood before the [z]council,

21 "unless it is for this one statement which I cried out, standing among them, [aa]'Concerning the [bb]resurrection of the dead I am being judged by you this day.' "

22 But when Felix heard these things, having more accurate knowledge of the [cc]Way, he adjourned the proceedings and said, "When [dd]Lysias the [ee]commander comes down, I will make a decision on your case."

23 So he commanded the [ff]centurion to keep Paul and to let him have liberty, and [gg]told him not to forbid any of his friends to provide for or visit him.

Felix adjourns the case

24 And after some days, when Felix came with his wife [hh]Drusilla, who was Jewish, he sent for Paul and heard him concerning the [ii]faith in Christ.

25 Now as he [jj]reasoned about [kk]righteousness, [ll]self-control, and the [a]judgment to come, Felix was afraid and answered, "Go away for now; when I have a convenient time I will call for you."

26 Meanwhile he also hoped that money would be given him by Paul, that he might release him.* Therefore he sent for him more often and conversed with him.

Two years at Caesarea

27 But after two years Porcius Festus succeeded Felix; and Felix, wanting to [b]do the Jews a favor, left Paul [c]bound.

Paul before Festus, the new governor

25 NOW when Festus had come to the province, after three days he went up from [d]Caesarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the [e]high priest* and the chief men of the Jews informed him against Paul; and they petitioned him,

3 asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem—while they [f]lay in ambush along the road to [g]kill him.

4 But Festus answered that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself was going there shortly.

5 "Therefore," he said, "let those who have authority among you go down with me and accuse this man, [h]to see if there is any fault in him."

6 And when he had remained among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea. And the next day, sitting on the [i]judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought.

7 When he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood about and laid many serious [j]complaints against Paul, which they could not prove,

8 while he answered for himself, [k]"Neither against the [l]law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor [m]against Caesar have I [n]offended in anything at all."

9 But Festus, wanting to do the Jews a favor, answered Paul and said, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and there be judged before me concerning these things?"

Paul appeals his case to Caesar

10 So Paul said, "I stand at Caesar's [o]judgment seat, where I [p]ought to be judged. To the Jews I [q]have done no wrong, as you very well know.

11 "For if I am an offender, or have committed anything deserving of death, I do not object to dying; but if there is nothing in these things of which these men accuse me, no one can deliver me to them. [r]I appeal to Caesar."

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the [s]council, answered, "You have [t]appealed to Caesar? To Caesar you shall go!"

Festus recounts case to King Agrippa

13 And after some days King Agrippa and [u]Bernice came to Caesarea to greet Festus.

14 When they had been there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying: "There is a certain man left [v]a prisoner by Felix, 15 "about whom the chief priests and the [w]elders of the Jews informed me, when I was in Jerusalem, asking for a judgment against him.

16 "To them I answered, 'It is not the custom of the [x]Romans to deliver any man to destruction* before the accused meets the [y]accusers face to face, and has opportunity to answer for himself concerning the charge against him.'

17 "Therefore when they had come together, without any delay, the next day I sat on the [z]judgment seat and commanded the man to be brought in.

18 "When the [aa]accusers stood up, they brought no accusation against him of such things as I supposed,

19 "but had some [a]questions
against him about their own religion and about a certain Jesus, who had died, whom Paul affirmed to be [b]alive.
20 "And because I was uncertain of such [c]questions, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters.
21 "But when Paul [d]appealed to be reserved for the decision of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I could send him to Caesar."
22 Then Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to [e]hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him."

Agrippa prepares to hear Paul

23 So the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and had entered the auditorium with the [f]commanders and the prominent men of the city, at Festus' command [g]Paul was brought in.
24 And Festus said: "King Agrippa and all the men who are here present with us, you see this man about whom the whole assembly of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, [h]crying out that he was not fit to live any longer.
25 "But when I found that he had committed [i]nothing deserving of death, and that he himself had appealed to Augustus, I decided to send him.
26 "I have nothing certain to write to my lord concerning him. Therefore I have brought him out before you, and especially before [j]you, King Agrippa, so that after the examination has taken place I may have something to write.
27 "For it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner and not to specify the charges against him."

Paul's defense before Agrippa
(cp. Acts 9:1–18; 22:1–16)

26 THEN Agrippa said to Paul, "You are permitted to speak for yourself." So Paul stretched out his hand and answered for himself:
2 "I think myself [k]happy, King Agrippa, because today I shall answer [l]for myself before you concerning all the things of which I am [m]accused by the Jews,
3 "especially because you are expert in all [n]customs and questions which have to do with the Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.
4 "My manner of life from my youth, which was spent from the beginning among my own nation at Jerusalem, all the Jews know.
5 "They knew me from the first, if they were willing to testify, that according to the strictest sect of our religion I lived a [o]Pharisee.
6 "And now I stand and am [p]judged for the [q]hope of the [r]promise made by God to our fathers.
7 "To this [s]promise our [t]twelve [u]tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to attain. For this [v]hope's sake, King Agrippa, I am [w]accused by the Jews.
8 "Why should it be thought incredible by you that God [x]raises the [y]dead?
9 "Indeed, I myself thought I must do many things [z]contrary to the name of [aa]Jesus of Nazareth.
10 "This I also did [bb]in Jerusalem, and many of the [cc]saints I shut up in prison, having received [dd]authority from the chief priests; and when they were [ee]put to death, I [ff]cast my vote against them.
11 "And I punished them often in every synagogue and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.
12 "While thus occupied, as I journeyed to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 "at midday, O king, along the road I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who journeyed with me.

you to kick against the [c]goads.'
15 "So I said, 'Who are You, Lord?'
And He said, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.
16 'But [d]rise and stand on your feet;
for I have appeared to you for this [e]purpose, to [f]make you a [g]minister and a witness both of the things which you have seen and of the things which I will yet reveal to you.
17 'I will deliver you from the Jewish people, as well as from the [h]Gen-

19 "Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision,
20 "but [n]declared first to those in Damascus and in Jerusalem, and throughout all the region of Judea, and then to the [o]Gentiles, that they should [p]repent, turn to God, and do

21 "For these reasons the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to [q]kill me.
22 "Therefore, having obtained help from God, to this day I stand, witnessing both to small and great, saying no other things than those which the prophets and Moses [r]said

23 "that the [s]Christ would [t]suffer, that He would be the first to [u]rise

Personal appeal to Agrippa

24 Now as he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice,
"Paul, you are [x]beside yourself!
Much learning is driving you mad!"
25 But he said, "I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speak the words of truth and reason.
26 "For the king, before whom I also speak freely, [y]knows these things; for I am convinced that none of these things escapes his attention, since this thing was not done in a corner.
27 "King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you do [z]believe."
28 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You almost persuade me to become a Christian."
29 And Paul said, "I would to God that not only you, but also all who hear me today, might become both almost and altogether such as I am, except for these chains."
30 When he had said these things, the king stood up, as well as the governor and Bernice and those who sat with them;
31 and when they had gone aside, they talked among themselves, saying, "This man is doing [aa]nothing deserving of death or chains."
32 Then Agrippa said to Festus,
"This man might have been set [bb]free if he had not [cc]appealed to Caesar."

26:23 that the Christ would suffer. Here in substance is the Gospel that Paul preached and that believers ought always to proclaim, "that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures" (1 Cor. 15:3–4). Of course, the apostle expounded these truths but the kernel of the Gospel is here.

26:28 You almost persuade me . . . Agrippa's answer to Paul's question in v. 27 probably did not mean that he was on the brink of becoming a Christian, but that he realized that Paul was trying to use Agrippa's belief in the prophets (vv. 22–23,27) to lead him to agreement with what Paul had said about Christ.

along the coasts of Asia. [a]Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, was with us.

3 And the next day we landed at Sidon. And Julius [b]treated Paul kindly and gave him liberty to go to his friends and receive care.

4 When we had put to sea from there, we sailed under the shelter of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 There the [c]centurion found an [d]Alexandrian ship sailing to [e]Italy, and he put us on board.

7 When we had sailed slowly many days, and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus, the wind not permitting us to proceed, we sailed under the shelter of [f]Crete off Salmone.

8 Passing it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time had been spent, and sailing was now [g]dangerous because the Fast was already over, Paul advised them,

10 saying, "Men, I [h]perceive that this voyage will end with disaster and much loss, not only of the cargo and ship, but also our lives."

11 Nevertheless the centurion was more persuaded by the helmsman and the owner of the ship than by the things spoken by Paul.

12 And because the harbor was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised to set sail from there also, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete opening toward the southwest and northwest, and winter there.

The storm

14 But not long after, a [a]tempestuous head wind arose, called Euroclydon.*

15 So when the ship was caught, and could not head into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under the shelter of an island called Clauda,* we secured the skiff with difficulty.

17 When they had taken it on board, they used cables to undergird the ship; and fearing lest they should run aground on the Syrtis* Sands, they struck sail and so were driven.

18 And because we were exceedingly tempest-tossed, the next day they lightened the ship.

19 On the third day we [b]threw the ship's tackle overboard with our own hands.

20 Now when neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest beat on us, all hope that we would be saved was finally given up.

The leadership of Paul

21 But after long abstinence from food, then Paul stood in the midst of them and said, "Men, you should have [c]listened to me, and not have sailed from Crete and incurred this disaster and loss.

22 "And now [d]I urge you to [e]take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.

23 "For there [f]stood by me this night an [g]angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve,

24 "saying, [h]'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must be brought before Caesar; and indeed God has granted you [i]all those who sail with you.'

25 "Therefore [j]take heart, men, for I [k]believe God that it will be just as it was told me.

26 "However, we must run aground on a certain [l]island."

27 Now when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven up and down in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors sensed that they were drawing near some land.

28 And they took soundings and found it to be twenty fathoms; and when they had gone a little farther, they took soundings again and found it to be fifteen [m]fathoms.

29 Then, fearing lest we should run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern, and prayed for day to come.

30 And as the sailors were seeking to escape from the ship, when they had let down the skiff into the sea, under pretense of putting out anchors from the prow,

31 Paul said to the centurion and

27:28 WEIGHTS AND MEASURES IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

Weights and measures in the NT are based upon Hebrew, Greek, and Roman usage; e.g. "rod" (Greek kalamos) is a unit of measurement employed by the Israelites in OT times (Ezek. 40:5, Hebrew kaneh); "furlong" (Greek stadion) is distinctly a Greek unit; whereas the NT "pound" (Greek litra, from the Latin libra) is a Roman measure that was considerably lighter than the U.S. pound weight. New Testament standards of measurement can be ascertained with reasonable accuracy. See the following tables.

(1) Linear Measures. The unit of linear measurement in NT times was the cubit, approximately 18 inches in length. The table: 4 cubits = 1 fathom, or about 6 feet; 6 long cubits (Ezek. 40:5) = 1 rod (measuring), or about 10 feet; 400 cubits = 1 furlong (stadion), or about 600 feet; 5 furlongs (stadia) = a Sabbath day's journey, or about three-fifths of a mile.

The Sabbath day's journey is mentioned only once in the Bible (Acts 1:12). It was evidently the distance between Jerusalem and the Mount of Olives. But from what point in Jerusalem to what area of Olivet? According to limits set by the ancient rabbis, a Sabbath day's journey was 2000 cubits, or three-fifths of a mile. This measure may have been determined by the distance that the children of Israel were required to allow between themselves and the ark of the covenant at the passage of the Jordan (Josh. 3:4); for the rabbis may have assumed that the same limit prevailed between the tents of the people and the tabernacle—a distance that the Israelites would need to walk in order to worship.

(2) Dry Measures. Greek choinix (Rev. 6:6) = 1 quart; 1 measure, Greek koros (Luke 16:7) = about 10 bushels.

(3) Liquid Measures. Greek metrētēs (John 2:6) = 10 gallons; Greek batos (Luke 16:6) = about 8 gallons.

(4) Weights. 1 pound, Greek litra (John 12:3) = 1 pint, or (John 19:39) about ¾ lb.

For Weights and Measures (OT), see 2 Chr. 2:10, note.

the soldiers, [a]"Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved."

32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the [b]skiff and let it fall off.

33 And as day was about to dawn, Paul implored them all to take food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day you have waited and continued without food, and eaten nothing.

34 "Therefore I urge you to take nourishment, [c]for this is for your survival, [d]since not a hair will fall from the head of any of you."

35 And when he had said these things, he took bread and gave [e]thanks to God in the presence of them all; and when he had [f]broken it he began to eat.

36 Then they were all encouraged, and also took food themselves.

37 And in all we were two hundred and seventy-six persons on the ship.

38 So when they had eaten enough, they [g]lightened the ship and threw out the wheat into the sea.

The ship founders, but all escape

39 When it was day, they did [h]not recognize the land; but they observed a bay with a beach, onto which they planned to run the ship if possible.

40 And they let go the anchors and left them in the sea, meanwhile loosing the rudder ropes; and they hoisted the mainsail to the wind and made for shore.

41 But striking a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the prow stuck fast and remained immovable, but the stern was being broken up by the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' [i]plan was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim away and escape.

43 But the centurion, wanting to [j]save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should jump overboard first and get to land, 44 and the rest, some on boards and some on parts of the ship. And [k]so it was that they [l]all [m]escaped safely to land.

The landing on Malta; miracle of viper's bite (cp. Mark 16:18)

28 NOW when they had [n]escaped, they then [o]found out that the island was called Malta.

2 And the [p]natives showed us unusual kindness; for they kindled a fire and [q]made us all welcome, because of the rain that was falling and because of the cold.

3 But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 So when the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped the sea, yet [r]justice does not allow to live."

5 But he shook off the creature into the fire and suffered [s]no harm.

6 However, they were expecting that he would swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But after they had looked for a long time and saw no harm come to him, they [t]changed their minds and said that he was a [u]god.

Father of Publius is healed

7 In that region there was an estate of the leading citizen of the island, whose name was Publius, who received us and entertained us [v]courteously for three days.

8 And it happened that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and dysentery. Paul went in to him and [w]prayed, and he [x]laid his hands on him and [y]healed him.

9 So when this was done, the rest of those on the island who had diseases also came and were [z]healed.

10 They also honored us in many ways; and when we departed, they provided such things as were [aa]necessary.

Paul arrives at Rome

11 After three months we sailed in an [a]Alexandrian ship whose figurehead was the Twin Brothers, which had wintered at the island.
12 And landing at Syracuse, we stayed three days.
13 From there we circled round and reached Rhegium. And after one day the south wind blew; and the next day we came to Puteoli, 14 where we found [b]brethren, and were invited to stay with them seven days. And so we went toward Rome.
15 And from there, when the brethren heard about us, they came to meet us as far as Appii Forum and Three Inns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took [c]courage.
16 Now when we came to [d]Rome, the [e]centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard; but Paul was permitted to dwell by himself with [f]the soldier who guarded
him.

Paul witnesses to the Jews in Rome

17 And it came to pass after three days that Paul called the leaders of the Jews together. So when they had come together, he said to them:
"Men and brethren, though I have done [g]nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, yet I was [h]delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, 18 "who, when they had examined me, [i]wanted to let me go, because there was [j]no cause for putting me to death.
19 "But when the Jews* spoke against it, I was compelled to [k]appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything of which to accuse my nation.
20 "For this reason therefore I have called for you, to see you and speak with you, because for the [l]hope of Israel I am bound with this
[m]chain."
21 Then they said to him, "We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor have any of the brethren who came reported or spoken any evil of you.
22 "But we desire to hear from you what you think; for concerning this [n]sect, we know that it is [o]spoken against everywhere."
23 So when they had appointed him a day, many came to him at his lodging, to whom he [p]explained and solemnly testified of the [q]kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus from both the [r]Law of Moses and [s]the Prophets, from morning till evening.
24 And some were [t]persuaded by the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved.

among themselves, they departed

have grown dull.
Their ears are hard of hearing,
And their eyes they have closed,
Lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears,
Lest they should understand
with their hearts and turn,
So that I should heal them."'

28:30 his own rented house. It has been much disputed whether Paul endured two Roman imprisonments from A.D. 60 to 68, or one. The tradition from Clement to Eusebius favors two imprisonments with a year of liberty between them. It has been pointed out that the leaving of Trophimus sick at Miletus (2 Tim. 4:20) could not have been an occurrence of Paul's last journey to Jerusalem, for then Trophimus was not left (Acts 20:4; 21:29); nor could it have been on his journey to Rome to appear before Caesar, for then he did not touch at Miletus. To make this incident possible, there must have been a release from the first imprisonment and an interval of ministry and travel.

EPISTLES OF PAUL

Background

The Epistles of Paul have a distinctive character. The Old Testament contains prophecies of the cross, the resurrection, and the return of Christ. In it Israel has a leading place through history and also through prophecy of the future Messianic kingdom. But "hidden in God" (Ephesians 3:9) was a period not specifically revealed in the Old Testament — the interval after the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ, and before His return in glory. Also not specifically revealed in the Old Testament was God's purpose in calling out of the world the Church, which is Christ's body. In Matthew 16:17–19 the Lord announced that purpose but without explaining how, when, or of whom the Church would be built. Elsewhere in the Gospels He instituted the two sacraments or ordinances of the Church—baptism (Matthew 28:18–20) and the Lord's Supper (Matthew 26:26–29; Mark 14:22–25; Luke 22:19–20); in the discourse on the night before His crucifixion (John 14–17), He set forth the relationship of His body, the Church, to Himself. But it is in the Epistles that the order, position, privileges, and duties of the Church are most fully given.

The Doctrine of the Church

It is these things that constitute the scope of the Epistles of Paul. They develop the doctrine of the Church. In his letters to seven of the churches (in Rome, Corinth, Galatia, Ephesus, Philippi, Colosse, and Thessalonica), the Church as the body of Christ, the "mystery which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God" (Ephesians 3:9), is revealed. Moreover, in these Epistles the Church is instructed about her unique place in the counsels and purposes of God.

Although Christ taught that the Church is an organism, through Paul was given the detailed revelation of the body of Christ in its heavenly calling, promise, and destiny. Through him also were unfolded the organization and administration of local churches (1 Timothy and Titus). The fact that Christ is coming for His Church, introduced in John 14:3, was revealed more fully through Paul in 1 Corinthians 15:51–58 and 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18, where he teaches that "we shall not all sleep," that "the dead in Christ will rise first," and that believers living at His return will be "changed" and "caught up . . . to meet the Lord in the air."

The Doctrine of Grace

The doctrine of grace found in the teaching of Christ is also given further revelation through Paul. More fully than any other New Testament writer, Paul expounds the nature and purpose of the law; the ground and means of the believer's justification, sanctification, and glorification; the interpretation of the death and resurrection of Christ; and the position, conduct, expectation, and service of the believer. Paul, converted by the personal ministry of the risen Lord, is distinctively the witness to the glorified Christ, the Head of the Church which is His body.

The Order of the Epistles

The chronological order of the Pauline Epistles is generally considered to be as follows:

1 and 2 Thessalonians
Galatians
1 Corinthians
Romans
2 Corinthians
Ephesians
Colossians
Philemon
Philippians
1 Timothy
Titus
2 Timothy

The Pauline authorship of Hebrews has not been proved.

Paul's Life

Two significant periods in the life of Paul are passed over in comparative silence—the sojourn in Arabia (Galatians 1:17), from which he returned with the Gospel as set forth in Galatians and Romans, and the two years in prison (Acts 24:27) between his arrest in the Temple at Jerusalem and his journey under guard to Rome.

It was inevitable for a man of Paul's intellect and training, a devoted Jew who had been such a bitter enemy of Christianity, to seek the underlying principles of the Gospel. Immediately after his conversion he preached Jesus as the Messiah; but the relation of the Gospel to the law and, in lesser degree, to the great Jewish promises, needed clear explanation. In Arabia this explanation was given Paul "through the revelation of Jesus Christ" (Galatians 1:11–12). The result was that he taught salvation by grace through faith wholly apart from the works of the law.

God's Relationship with Man

Furthermore, the Gospel proclaimed by Paul brings the believer into great relationships—to the Father, to the Son, to the Holy Spirit, and to the future purposes of God. It brings not only salvation from sin and its consequences, but also salvation into a blessed place in the divine counsels. And the Church in its deepest aspect and function requires inspired explanation. Such are the chief themes of the Epistles written by Paul from Rome and commonly called the Prison Epistles (Ephesians, Colossians, Philemon, and Philippians). It is possible that these crowning revelations were received through the apostle's disciplined meditation and prayerful seeking during the silent years at Caesarea.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE

ROMANS

Author:	Theme:	Date of writing:
Paul	Gospel of God	c. A.D. 57–58

Background

The Epistle to the Romans was written from Corinth during the Apostle Paul's third visit to that city (2 Corinthians 13:1; compare Acts 20:2). It is rightly placed first among the Epistles because it is the most complete exposition in the New Testament of the central truths of Christianity. The Epistle had its occasion in the intention of Paul to visit the Roman Christians and his desire to communicate to them the great doctrines of grace that had been revealed to him.

God's Relationship with Man

The theme of the Epistle is "the gospel of God" (1:1). This is the widest possible designation of the whole body of redemption truth. It relates to the whole world because there is "no partiality" (2:11) with Him who is "the God of the Jews" and "also the God of the Gentiles" (3:29). Accordingly all humanity is found guilty (3:19,23) and a justification is revealed which is sufficient for man's need and received through faith alone (3:28). Romans states the divine provision of God's grace whereby He is able to declare sinners as righteous through the atoning work of His righteous Son. It goes on to set forth the nature of the new life which all justified persons may enjoy through the power of the indwelling Holy Spirit. Following this the Epistle reveals God's sovereign wisdom and grace in working out His purpose through the unfaithfulness of Israel. It closes by laying upon all Christians the obligation of recipients of "the mercies of God" (12:1) to live lives of consecrated service. The key expression of the book is "the righteousness of God" (1:17; 3:21,22).

Introduction and Theme: The Righteousness of God, 1:1–17

1 PAUL, a bondservant of Jesus Christ, called to be an [a]apostle, separated to the [b]gospel of God
2 which He [c]promised before through His prophets in the [d]Holy Scriptures,
3 concerning His Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who was [e]born of the seed of David according to the flesh,
4 and declared to be the [f]Son of God with power according to the Spirit of [d]holiness, by the [g]resurrection from the dead.
5 Through Him we have received [h]grace and [i]apostleship for obedience to the [j]faith among all nations for His name,
6 among whom you also are the called of Jesus Christ;

7 To all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints:

[h]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your [j]faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.
9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the [b]gospel of His Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers,
10 making request if, by some means, now at last I may find a way in the will of God to come to you.
11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be established—
12 that is, that I may be encouraged together with you by the mutual [j]faith both of you and me.
13 Now I do not want you to be unaware, brethren, that I often planned to come to you (but was hindered until now), that I might have some fruit among you also, just as among the other [k]Gentiles.
14 I am a debtor both to [l]Greeks and to barbarians, both to [m]wise and to unwise.
15 So, as much as is in me, I am ready to preach the [b]gospel to you who are in Rome also.
16 For I am not ashamed of the [b]gospel of Christ,* for it is the [n]power of God to salvation for everyone who [j]believes, for the Jew [o]first and also for the [p]Greek.
17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is [c]written, "The [q]just shall live by [j]faith."

(Compare the related Greek words hagios and hagiazō rendered "saint" and "sanctify" respectively.) This aspect of Christian sanctification is positional, being based on the atoning blood of Christ (Heb. 13:12; compare 10:10–14). In this sense, all believers are saints regardless of their progress in experience and growth. Thus according to Rom. 1:7, believers are not called to become saints (as the verb "to be," supplied in the English translation, might seem to suggest). They are saints, and that by divine call, just as Paul was an apostle by divine call (1:1).

1:16 SALVATION

The Hebrew and Greek words for "salvation" imply the ideas of deliverance, safety, preservation, healing, and soundness: "Salvation" is the great inclusive word of the Gospel, gathering into itself all the redemptive acts and processes: as justification, redemption, grace, propitiation, imputation, forgiveness, sanctification, and glorification.

Salvation is in three tenses:

(1) The Christian has been saved from the guilt and penalty of sin (Luke 7:50; 1 Cor. 1:18; 2 Cor. 2:15; Eph. 2:5,8; 2 Tim. 1:9) and is safe.
