The LORD’s word is flawless;
he shields all who take refuge in him.
³²For who is God besides the LORD?
And who is the Rock except our God?
³³It is God who arms me with strength^[74]
and keeps my way secure.
³⁴He makes my feet like the feet of a deer; he causes me to stand on the heights.
³⁵He trains my hands for battle; my arms can bend a bow of bronze.
³⁶You make your saving help my shield; your help has made^[75] me great.
³⁷You provide a broad path for my feet, so that my ankles do not give way.
³⁸“I pursued my enemies and crushed them; I did not turn back till they were destroyed.
³⁹I crushed them completely, and they could not rise; they fell beneath my feet.
⁴⁰You armed me with strength for battle; you humbled my adversaries before me.
⁴¹You made my enemies turn their backs in flight, and I destroyed my foes.
⁴²They cried for help, but there was no one to save them—to the LORD, but he did not answer.
⁴³I beat them as fine as the dust of the earth; I pounded and trampled them like mud in the streets.
⁴⁴“You have delivered me from the attacks of the peoples;
you have preserved me as the head of nations.
People I did not know now serve me, ⁴⁵foreigners cower before me;

as soon as they hear of me, they obey me.
46 They all lose heart;
they come trembling^[76] from their strongholds.
47 “The LORD lives! Praise be to my Rock!
Exalted be my God, the Rock, my Savior!
48 He is the God who avenges me, who puts the nations under
me,
49 who sets me free from my enemies.
You exalted me above my foes;
from a violent man you rescued me.
50 Therefore I will praise you, LORD, among the nations; I will sing the praises of your name.
51 “He gives his king great victories; he shows unfailing kindness to his anointed, to David and his descendants forever.”

2 Samuel 22:27

God is shrewd.

David had plenty to say to God. This famous king had finally triumphed over his enemies, especially Saul, the previous ruler—a guy who had traveled down a bad road from vast popularity to disastrous spiritual rebellion. In 2 Samuel 22, David burst into song, declaring that God is superior to every evildoer. The Lord can thunder from heaven and shoot bolts of lightning to scatter his enemies (see 2 Samuel 22:14–15). And even though evildoers are crooked or twisted, God is “shrewd” (2 Samuel 22:27), smart enough to make them look like fools. Your God is never surprised by people intent on doing wrong. He outsmarts them every time.

So ... Do you really think God can outwit the evildoers you know? Why—or why not?

DAVID'S LAST WORDS

¹These are the last words of David:

“The inspired utterance of David son of Jesse,
the utterance of the man exalted by the Most High,
the man anointed by the God of Jacob,
the hero of Israel's songs:

²“The Spirit of the LORD spoke through me; his word was on my tongue.

³The God of Israel spoke,
the Rock of Israel said to me:

‘When one rules over people in righteousness,
when he rules in the fear of God,

⁴he is like the light of morning at sunrise on a cloudless morning, like the brightness after rain that brings grass from the earth.'

⁵“If my house were not right with God, surely he would not have made with me an everlasting covenant, arranged and secured in every part; surely he would not bring to fruition my salvation and grant me my every desire.

⁶But evil men are all to be cast aside like thorns, which are not gathered with the hand.

⁷Whoever touches thorns uses a tool of iron or the shaft of a spear; they are burned up where they lie.”

DAVID’S MIGHTY WARRIORS

⁸These are the names of David’s mighty warriors: Josheb-Basshebeth,^[77] a Tahkemonite,^[78] was chief of the Three; he raised his spear against eight hundred men, whom he killed^[79] in one encounter.

⁹Next to him was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite. As one of the three mighty warriors, he was with David when they taunted the Philistines gathered at Pas Dammim^[80] for battle. Then the Israelites retreated,¹⁰ but Eleazar stood his ground and struck down the Philistines till his hand grew tired and froze to the sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day. The troops returned to Eleazar, but only to strip the dead.

¹¹Next to him was Shammah son of Agee the Hararite. When the Philistines banded together at a place where there was a field full of lentils, Israel’s troops fled from them. ¹²But Shammah took his stand in the middle of the field. He defended it and struck the Philistines down, and the LORD brought about a great victory.

¹³During harvest time, three of the thirty chief warriors came down to David at the cave of Adullam, while a band of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim. ¹⁴At that time David was in the stronghold, and the Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem. ¹⁵David longed for water and said, “Oh, that someone would get me a drink of water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem!” ¹⁶So the three mighty warriors broke through the Philistine lines, drew water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem and carried it back to David. But he refused to drink it; instead, he poured it out before the LORD. ¹⁷“Far be it from me, LORD, to do this!” he said. “Is it not the blood of men who went at the risk of their lives?” And David would not drink it.

Such were the exploits of the three mighty warriors.

¹⁸Abishai the brother of Joab son of Zeruiah was chief of the Three.^[81] He raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed, and so he became as famous as the Three. ¹⁹Was he not held in greater honor than the Three? He became their commander, even though he was not included among them.

²⁰Benaiah son of Jehoiada, a valiant fighter from Kabzeel, performed great exploits. He struck down Moab’s two mightiest warriors. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion. ²¹And he struck down a huge Egyptian. Although the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, Benaiah went against him with a club. He snatched the spear from the Egyptian’s hand and killed him with his own spear. ²²Such were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada; he too was as famous as the three mighty warriors. ²³He was held in greater honor than any of the Thirty, but he was not included among the Three. And David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

²⁴Among the Thirty were:

Asahel the brother of Joab,
Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem,

²⁵Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite,

²⁶Helez the Paltite,
Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa,

²⁷Abiezer from Anathoth, Sibbekai^[82] the Hushathite, ²⁸Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite,

²⁹Heled^[83] son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah in Benjamin,

³⁰Benaiah the Pirathonite, Hiddai^[84] from the ravines of Gaash, ³¹Abi-Albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,

³²Eliahba the Shaalbonite, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan ³³son of^[85] Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam son of Sharar^[86] the Hararite, ³⁴Eliphelet son of Ahasbai the Maakathite, Eliam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite, ³⁵Hezro the Carmelite,

Paarai the Arbite,

³⁶Igal son of Nathan from Zobah, the son of Hagri, ^[87]

³⁷Zelek the Ammonite,

Naharai the Beerothite, the armor-bearer of Joab son of Zeruah, ³⁸Ira the Ithrite, ³⁹and Uriah the Hittite.

Gareb the Ithrite

There were thirty-seven in all.

2 Samuel 24

DAVID ENROLLS THE FIGHTING MEN

¹Again the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and he incited David against them, saying, “Go and take a census of Israel and Judah.”

²So the king said to Joab and the army commanders^[88] with him, “Go throughout the tribes of Israel from Dan to Beersheba and enroll the fighting men, so that I may know how many there are.”

³But Joab replied to the king, “May the LORD your God multiply the troops a hundred times over, and may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the king want to do such a thing?”

⁴The king’s word, however, overruled Joab and the army commanders; so they left the presence of the king to enroll the fighting men of Israel.

⁵After crossing the Jordan, they camped near Aroer, south of the town in the gorge, and then went through Gad and on to Jazer. ⁶They went to Gilead and the region of Tahtim Hodshi, and on to Dan Jaan and around toward Sidon. ⁷Then they went toward the fortress of Tyre and all the towns of the Hivites and Canaanites. Finally, they went on to Beersheba in the Negev of Judah.

⁸After they had gone through the entire land, they came back to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

⁹Joab reported the number of the fighting men to the king: In Israel there were eight hundred thousand able-bodied men who could handle a sword, and in Judah five hundred thousand.

¹⁰David was conscience-stricken after he had counted the fighting men, and he said to the LORD, “I have sinned greatly in what I have done. Now, LORD, I beg you, take away the guilt of your servant. I have done a very foolish thing.”

¹¹Before David got up the next morning, the word of the LORD had come to Gad the prophet, David’s seer: ¹²“Go and tell David, ‘This is what the LORD says: I am giving you three options. Choose one of them for me to carry out against you.’ ”

¹³So Gad went to David and said to him, “Shall there come on you three^[89] years of famine in your land? Or three months of fleeing from your enemies while they pursue you? Or three days of plague in your land? Now then, think it over and decide how I should answer the one who sent me.”

¹⁴David said to Gad, “I am in deep distress. Let us fall into the hands of the LORD, for his mercy is great; but do not let me fall into human hands.”

¹⁵So the LORD sent a plague on Israel from that morning until the end of the time designated, and seventy thousand of the people from Dan to Beersheba died. ¹⁶When the angel stretched out his hand to destroy Jerusalem, the LORD relented concerning the disaster and said to the angel who was afflicting the people, “Enough! Withdraw your hand.” The angel of the LORD was then at the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

¹⁷When David saw the angel who was striking down the people, he said to the LORD, “I have sinned; I, the shepherd, ^[90] have done wrong. These are but sheep. What have they done? Let your hand fall on me and my family.”

DAVID BUILDS AN ALTAR

¹⁸On that day Gad went to David and said to him, “Go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.” ¹⁹So David went up, as the LORD had commanded through Gad. ²⁰When Araunah looked and saw the king and his officials coming toward him, he went out and bowed down before the king with his face to the ground.

²¹Araunah said, “Why has my lord the king come to his servant?”

“To buy your threshing floor,” David answered, “so I can build an altar to the LORD, that the plague on the people may be stopped.”

²²Araunah said to David, “Let my lord the king take whatever he wishes and offer it up. Here are oxen for the burnt offering, and here are threshing sledges and ox yokes for the wood. ²³Your Majesty, Araunah^[91] gives all this to the king.” Araunah also said to him, “May the LORD your God accept you.”

²⁴But the king replied to Araunah, “No, I insist on paying you for it. I will not sacrifice to the LORD my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing.”

So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen and paid fifty shekels^[92] of silver for them. ²⁵David built an altar to the LORD there and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. Then the LORD answered his prayer in behalf of the land, and the plague on Israel was stopped.

2 Samuel 5

David had God's heart.

David almost got overlooked. When the prophet Samuel went hunting for a replacement for King Saul, he watched the tall and handsome sons of Jesse parade before him, certain that one of them was the next king. But God was looking for something more. As Jesse's oldest son strolled by, the Lord said, "Do not consider his appearance or his height, for I have rejected him. The LORD does not look at the things people look at. People look at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart" (1 Samuel 16:7).

Then Samuel met David, the youngest son. The Lord picked David as the next king, saying he was "a man after my own heart" who would do "everything I want him to do" (Acts 13:22).

As a young man David skillfully guarded his father's flocks, killing bears and lions to protect the sheep. He rose to serve God in spectacular ways. He defended God's honor by felling Goliath, a Philistine giant who mocked God (see 1 Samuel 17). He built a political kingdom and laid plans to construct a magnificent temple for the Lord (see 1 Chronicles 28:1–10). And he led Israel in worship, composing at least half of the songs in the book of Psalms.

David wasn't perfect. He sinned by stealing another man's wife and sending that husband to die in battle. But even then this spiritual giant displayed his heart for God, writing Psalm 51 to ask God to forgive his sin.

You can find David in 1 Samuel 16 to 1 Kings 2; 1 Chronicles 11–29; Matthew 1:1; and Luke 2:11.

2 Samuel 12

Nathan stood up to the king.

King David must have been an intimidating man. He started his life as the youngest of eight brothers, a boy given the humble job of watching his father's sheep. But he dropped Goliath the giant with a single rock from his sling. He escaped King Saul's constant plots to murder him. He gathered hundreds of warriors around him and conquered the city of Jerusalem, and his kingdom and power expanded until he was respected by his people and feared by his enemies.

But David wasn't perfect, and the job fell to Nathan the prophet to keep him in check. David had lusted after the beautiful Bathsheba and ordered her to the palace. When she became pregnant, David sent her husband, Uriah, to die in battle.

Nathan slyly told the story of a poor man who had a single small lamb he had raised like his own child, sharing his food and cup and cradling it in his arms. But a man with many sheep came along and stole that lone sheep. David was rightly outraged at the rich man. Then he discovered the point of the story. "You are the man!" Nathan said (2 Samuel 12:7).

The prophet surely didn't enjoy telling David what the consequences of his sin would be—from the death of the child he had conceived with Bathsheba to the violence that would plague his kingdom. But when David most needed correction, Nathan stepped up. He stood up to the king.

You can find Nathan in 2 Samuel 7 and 12; 1 Kings 1; and in the heading of Psalm 51.

(17:1–19:21)

Beginning with Solomon's reign (about 971 BC) 1 Kings records the history of Israel through the divided kingdom to the death of Ahaziah, the son of Ahab. Chapters 3 through 11 describe Solomon's reign, including the building of the temple and the palace in Jerusalem.

Rehoboam, Solomon's son, took the throne after Solomon's death but lost the northern part of the kingdom to Jeroboam. After this the northern kingdom was known as Israel, and the southern kingdom was called Judah. The last chapters of 1 Kings tell about the evil King Ahab and God's prophet Elijah, who condemned Ahab's wickedness and Israel's disobedience.

Because the author of 1 and 2 Kings was interested in Israel's faithfulness to God and his covenant he recorded how each king was faithful or unfaithful to God. The author often used the phrase, "did what was right in the eyes of the LORD," or "did evil in the eyes of the LORD," to describe the goodness or wickedness of the king.

The author observes that the same pattern as in the time of the judges repeats itself during the time of the kings: God brought peace to the land when Israel was obedient, but Israel suffered wars and other disasters when the people were disobedient and worshiped idols.

ADONIJAH SETS HIMSELF UP AS KING

¹When King David was very old, he could not keep warm even when they put covers over him. ²So his attendants said to him, “Let us look for a young virgin to serve the king and take care of him. She can lie beside him so that our lord the king may keep warm.”

³Then they searched throughout Israel for a beautiful young woman and found Abishag, a Shunammite, and brought her to the king. ⁴The woman was very beautiful; she took care of the king and waited on him, but the king had no sexual relations with her.

⁵Now Adonijah, whose mother was Haggith, put himself forward and said, “I will be king.” So he got chariots and horses^[1] ready, with fifty men to run ahead of him. ⁶(His father had never rebuked him by asking, “Why do you behave as you do?” He was also very handsome and was born next after Absalom.)

⁷Adonijah conferred with Joab son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest, and they gave him their support. ⁸But Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei and Rei and David’s special guard did not join Adonijah.

¹¹Then Nathan asked Bathsheba, Solomon’s mother, “Have you not heard that Adonijah, the son of Haggith, has become king, and our lord David knows nothing about it? ¹²Now then, let me advise you how you can save your own life and the life of your son Solomon. ¹³Go in to King David and say to him, ‘My lord the king, did you not swear to me your servant: “Surely Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he will sit on my throne”? Why then has Adonijah become king?’ ¹⁴While you are still there talking to the king, I will come in and add my word to what you have said.”

¹⁵So Bathsheba went to see the aged king in his room, where Abishag the Shunammite was attending him. ¹⁶Bathsheba bowed down, prostrating herself before the king.

“What is it you want?” the king asked.

¹⁷She said to him, “My lord, you yourself swore to me your servant by the LORD your God: ‘Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he will sit on my throne.’ ¹⁸But now Adonijah has become king, and you, my lord the king, do not know about it. ¹⁹He has sacrificed great numbers of cattle, fattened calves, and sheep, and has invited all the king’s sons, Abiathar the priest and Joab the commander of the army, but he has not invited Solomon your servant. ²⁰My lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, to learn from you who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. ²¹Otherwise, as soon as my lord the king is laid to rest with his ancestors, I and my son Solomon will be treated as criminals.”

²⁴Nathan said, “Have you, my lord the king, declared that Adonijah shall be king after you, and that he will sit on your throne? ²⁵Today he has gone down and sacrificed great numbers of cattle, fattened calves, and sheep. He has invited all the king’s sons, the commanders of the army and Abiathar the priest. Right now they are eating and drinking with him and saying, ‘Long live King Adonijah!’ ²⁶But me your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon he did not invite. ²⁷Is this something my lord the king has done without letting his servants know who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?”

DAVID MAKES SOLOMON KING

²⁸Then King David said, “Call in Bathsheba.” So she came into the king’s presence and stood before him.

²⁹The king then took an oath: “As surely as the LORD lives, who has delivered me out of every trouble, ³⁰I will surely carry out this very day what I swore to you by the LORD, the God of Israel: Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he will sit on my throne in my place.”

³¹Then Bathsheba bowed down with her face to the ground, prostrating herself before the king, and said, “May my lord King David live forever!”

³²King David said, “Call in Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet and Benaiah son of Jehoiada.” When they came before the king, ³³he said to them: “Take your lord’s servants with you and have Solomon my son mount my own mule and take him down to Gihon. ³⁴There have Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him king over Israel. Blow the trumpet and shout, ‘Long live King Solomon!’ ³⁵Then you are to go up with him, and he is to come and sit on my throne and reign in my place. I have appointed him ruler over Israel and Judah.”

³⁶Benaiah son of Jehoiada answered the king, “Amen! May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, so declare it. ³⁷As the LORD was with my lord the king, so may he be with Solomon to make his throne even greater than the throne of my lord King David!”

³⁸So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Kerethites and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon mount King David’s mule, and they escorted him to Gihon. ³⁹Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the sacred tent and anointed Solomon. Then they sounded the trumpet and all the people shouted, “Long live King Solomon!” ⁴⁰And all the people went up after him, playing pipes and rejoicing greatly, so that the ground shook with the sound.

⁴¹Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they were finishing their feast. On hearing the sound of the trumpet, Joab asked, “What’s the meaning of all the noise in the city?”

⁴²Even as he was speaking, Jonathan son of Abiathar the priest arrived. Adonijah said, “Come in. A worthy man like you must be bringing good news.”

⁴³“Not at all!” Jonathan answered. “Our lord King David has made Solomon king. ⁴⁴The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Kerethites and the Pelethites, and they have put him on the king’s mule, ⁴⁵and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon. From there they have gone up cheering, and the city resounds with it. That’s the noise you hear. ⁴⁶Moreover, Solomon has taken his seat on the royal throne. ⁴⁷Also, the royal officials have come to congratulate our lord King David, saying, ‘May your God make Solomon’s name more famous than yours and his throne greater than yours!’ And the king bowed in worship on his bed ⁴⁸and said, ‘Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who has allowed my eyes to see a successor on my throne today.’ ”

⁴⁹At this, all Adonijah’s guests rose in alarm and dispersed. ⁵⁰But Adonijah, in fear of Solomon, went and took hold of the horns of the altar. ⁵¹Then Solomon was told, “Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon and is clinging to the horns of the altar. He says, ‘Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.’ ”

⁵²Solomon replied, “If he shows himself to be worthy, not a hair of his head will fall to the ground; but if evil is found in him, he will die.” ⁵³Then King Solomon sent men, and they brought him down from the altar. And Adonijah came and bowed down to King Solomon, and Solomon said, “Go to your home.”

1 Kings 2

DAVID'S CHARGE TO SOLOMON

¹When the time drew near for David to die, he gave a charge to Solomon his son.

²“I am about to go the way of all the earth,” he said. “So be strong, act like a man, ³and observe what the LORD your God requires: Walk in obedience to him, and keep his decrees and commands, his laws and regulations, as written in the Law of Moses. Do this so that you may prosper in all you do and wherever you go ⁴and that the LORD may keep his promise to me: ‘If your descendants watch how they live, and if they walk faithfully before me with all their heart and soul, you will never fail to have a successor on the throne of Israel.’”

⁵“Now you yourself know what Joab son of Zeruah did to me—what he did to the two commanders of Israel’s armies, Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. He killed them, shedding their blood in peacetime as if in battle, and with that blood he stained the belt around his waist and the sandals on his feet.

⁶Deal with him according to your wisdom, but do not let his gray head go down to the grave in peace.

⁷“But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai of Gilead and let them be among those who eat at your table. They stood by me when I fled from your brother Absalom.

⁸“And remember, you have with you Shimei son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim, who called down bitter curses on me the day I went to Mahanaim. When he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the LORD: ‘I will not put you to death by the sword.’ ⁹But now, do not consider him innocent. You are a man of wisdom; you will know what to do to him. Bring his gray head down to the grave in blood.”

¹⁰Then David rested with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David. ¹¹He had reigned forty years over Israel—seven years in Hebron and thirty-three in Jerusalem. ¹²So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David, and his rule was firmly established.

SOLOMON’S THRONE ESTABLISHED

¹³Now Adonijah, the son of Haggith, went to Bathsheba, Solomon’s mother. Bathsheba asked him, “Do you come peacefully?”

He answered, “Yes, peacefully.” ¹⁴Then he added, “I have something to say to you.”

“You may say it,” she replied.

¹⁵“As you know,” he said, “the kingdom was mine. All Israel looked to me as their king. But things changed, and the kingdom has gone to my brother; for it has come to him from the LORD. ¹⁶Now I have one request to make of you. Do not refuse me.”

“You may make it,” she said.

¹⁷So he continued, “Please ask King Solomon—he will not refuse you—to give me Abishag the Shunammite as my wife.”

¹⁸“Very well,” Bathsheba replied, “I will speak to the king for you.”

¹⁹When Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah, the king stood up to meet her, bowed down to her and sat down on his throne. He had a throne brought for the king’s mother, and she sat down at his right hand.

²⁰“I have one small request to make of you,” she said. “Do not refuse me.”

The king replied, “Make it, my mother; I will not refuse you.”

²¹So she said, “Let Abishag the Shunammite be given in marriage to your brother Adonijah.”

²²King Solomon answered his mother, “Why do you request Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? You might as well request the kingdom for him—after all, he is my older brother—yes, for him and for Abiathar the priest and Joab son of Zeruiah!”

²³Then King Solomon swore by the LORD: “May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if Adonijah does not pay with his life for this request! ²⁴And now, as surely as the LORD lives—he who has established me securely on the throne of my father David and has founded a dynasty for me as he promised—Adonijah shall be put to death today!” ²⁵So King Solomon gave orders to Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he struck down Adonijah and he died.

²⁸When the news reached Joab, who had conspired with Adonijah though not with Absalom, he fled to the tent of the LORD and took hold of the horns of the altar. ²⁹King Solomon was told that Joab had fled to the tent of the LORD and was beside the altar. Then Solomon ordered Benaiah son of Jehoiada, “Go, strike him down!”

³⁰So Benaiah entered the tent of the LORD and said to Joab, “The king says, ‘Come out!’ ”

But he answered, “No, I will die here.”

Benaiah reported to the king, “This is how Joab answered me.”

³¹Then the king commanded Benaiah, “Do as he says. Strike him down and bury him, and so clear me and my whole family of the guilt of the innocent blood that Joab shed. ³²The LORD will repay him for the blood he shed, because without my father David knowing it he attacked two men and killed them with the sword. Both of them—Abner son of Ner, commander of Israel’s army, and Amasa son of Jether, commander of Judah’s army—were better men and more upright than he. ³³May the guilt of their blood rest on the head of Joab and his descendants forever. But on David and his descendants, his house and his throne, may there be the LORD's peace forever."

³⁴So Benaiah son of Jehoiada went up and struck down Joab and killed him, and he was buried at his home out in the country. ³⁵The king put Benaiah son of Jehoiada over the army in Joab's position and replaced Abiathar with Zadok the priest.

³⁶Then the king sent for Shimei and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, but do not go anywhere else. ³⁷The day you leave and cross the Kidron Valley, you can be sure you will die; your blood will be on your own head."

³⁸Shimei answered the king, "What you say is good. Your servant will do as my lord the king has said." And Shimei stayed in Jerusalem for a long time.

³⁹But three years later, two of Shimei's slaves ran off to Achish son of Maakah, king of Gath, and Shimei was told, "Your slaves are in Gath." ⁴⁰At this, he saddled his donkey and went to Achish at Gath in search of his slaves. So Shimei went away and brought the slaves back from Gath.

⁴¹When Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned, ⁴²the king summoned Shimei and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD and warn you, 'On the day you leave to go anywhere else, you can be sure you will die'? At that time you said to me, 'What you say is good. I will obey.' ⁴³Why then did you not keep your oath to the LORD and obey the command I gave you?"

⁴⁴The king also said to Shimei, "You know in your heart all the wrong you did to my father David. Now the LORD will repay you for your wrongdoing. ⁴⁵But King Solomon will be blessed, and David's throne will remain secure before the LORD forever."

⁴⁶Then the king gave the order to Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he went out and struck Shimei down and he died.

The kingdom was now established in Solomon's hands.

SOLOMON ASKS FOR WISDOM

¹Solomon made an alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt and married his daughter. He brought her to the City of David until he finished building his palace and the temple of the LORD, and the wall around Jerusalem. ²The people, however, were still sacrificing at the high places, because a temple had not yet been built for the Name of the LORD. ³Solomon showed his love for the LORD by walking according to the instructions given him by his father David, except that he offered sacrifices and burned incense on the high places.

⁴The king went to Gibeon to offer sacrifices, for that was the most important high place, and Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. ⁵At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon during the night in a dream, and God said, “Ask for whatever you want me to give you.”

⁶Solomon answered, “You have shown great kindness to your servant, my father David, because he was faithful to you and righteous and upright in heart. You have continued this great kindness to him and have given him a son to sit on his throne this very day.

⁷“Now, LORD my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David. But I am only a little child and do not know how to carry out my duties. ⁸Your servant is here among the people you have chosen, a great people, too numerous to count or number. ⁹So give your servant a discerning heart to govern your people and to distinguish between right and wrong. For who is able to govern this great people of yours?”

¹⁰The Lord was pleased that Solomon had asked for this. ¹¹So God said to him, “Since you have asked for this and not for long life or wealth for yourself, nor have asked for the death of your enemies but for discernment in administering justice, ¹²I will do what you have asked. I will give you a wise and discerning heart, so that there will never have been anyone like you, nor will there ever be. ¹³Moreover, I will give you what you have not asked for—both wealth and honor—so that in your lifetime you will have no equal among kings. ¹⁴And if you walk in obedience to me and keep my decrees and commands as David your father did, I will give you a long life.” ¹⁵Then Solomon awoke—and he realized it had been a dream.

He returned to Jerusalem, stood before the ark of the Lord’s covenant and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. Then he gave a feast for all his court.

A WISE RULING

¹⁶Now two prostitutes came to the king and stood before him. ¹⁷One of them said, “Pardon me, my lord. This woman and I live in the same house, and I had a baby while she was there with me. ¹⁸The third day after my child was born, this woman also had a baby. We were alone; there was no one in the house but the two of us.

¹⁹“During the night this woman’s son died because she lay on him. ²⁰So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side while I your servant was asleep. She put him by her breast and put her dead son by my breast. ²¹The next morning, I got up to nurse my son—and he was dead! But when I looked at him closely in the morning light, I saw that it wasn’t the son I had borne.”

²²The other woman said, “No! The living one is my son; the dead one is yours.”

But the first one insisted, “No! The dead one is yours; the living one is mine.” And so they argued before the king.

²³The king said, “This one says, ‘My son is alive and your son is dead,’ while that one says, ‘No! Your son is dead and mine is alive.’ ”

²⁴Then the king said, “Bring me a sword.” So they brought a sword for the king. ²⁵He then gave an order: “Cut the living child in two and give half to one and half to the other.”

²⁶The woman whose son was alive was deeply moved out of love for her son and said to the king, “Please, my lord, give her the living baby! Don’t kill him!”

But the other said, “Neither I nor you shall have him. Cut him in two!”

²⁷Then the king gave his ruling: “Give the living baby to the first woman. Do not kill him; she is his mother.”

²⁸When all Israel heard the verdict the king had given, they held the king in awe, because they saw that he had wisdom from God to administer justice.

1 Kings 4

SOLOMON'S OFFICIALS AND GOVERNORS

¹So King Solomon ruled over all Israel. ²And these were his chief officials:

Azariah son of Zadok—the priest;

³Elihoreph and Ahijah, sons of Shisha—secretaries;

Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud—recorder;

⁴Benaiah son of Jehoiada—commander in chief;

Zadok and Abiathar—priests;

⁵Azariah son of Nathan—in charge of the district governors;

Zabud son of Nathan—a priest and adviser to the king;

⁶Ahishar—palace administrator;

Adoniram son of Abda—in charge of forced labor.

⁷Solomon had twelve district governors over all Israel, who supplied provisions for the king and the royal household. Each one had to provide supplies for one month in the year. ⁸These are their names:

Ben-Hur—in the hill country of Ephraim;

⁹Ben-Deker—in Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth Shemesh and Elon Bethhanan; ¹⁰Ben-Hesed—in Arubboth (Sokoh and all the land of Hepher were his);

¹¹Ben-Abinadab—in Naphoth Dor (he was married to Taphath daughter of Solomon);

¹²Baana son of Ahilud—in Taanach and Megiddo, and in all of Beth Shan next to Zarethan below Jezreel, from Beth Shan to Abel Meholah across to Jokmeam;

¹³Ben-Geber—in Ramoth Gilead (the settlements of Jair son of Manasseh in Gilead were his, as well as the region of Argob in Bashan and its sixty large walled cities with bronze gate bars);

¹⁴Ahinadab son of Iddo—in Mahanaim;

¹⁵Ahimaaz—in Naphtali (he had married Basemath daughter of Solomon);

¹⁶Baana son of Hushai—in Asher and in Aloth;

¹⁷Jehoshaphat son of Paruah—in Issachar;

¹⁸Shimei son of Ela—in Benjamin;

¹⁹Geber son of Uri—in Gilead (the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and the country of Og king of Bashan). He was the only governor over the district.

SOLOMON'S DAILY PROVISIONS

²⁰The people of Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand on the seashore; they ate, they drank and they were happy. ²¹And Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt. These countries brought tribute and were Solomon's subjects all his life.

²⁶Solomon had four^[4] thousand stalls for chariot horses, and twelve thousand horses.^[5]

²⁷The district governors, each in his month, supplied provisions for King Solomon and all who came to the king's table. They saw to it that nothing was lacking. ²⁸They also brought to the proper place their quotas of barley and straw for the chariot horses and the other horses.

SOLOMON'S WISDOM

²⁹God gave Solomon wisdom and very great insight, and a breadth of understanding as measureless as the sand on the seashore. ³⁰Solomon's wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the people of the East, and greater than all the wisdom of Egypt. ³¹He was wiser than anyone else, including Ethan the Ezrahite—wiser than Heman, Kalkol and Darda, the sons of Mahol. And his fame spread to all the surrounding nations. ³²He spoke three thousand proverbs and his songs numbered a thousand and five. ³³He spoke about plant life, from the cedar of Lebanon to the hyssop that grows out of walls. He also spoke about animals and birds, reptiles and fish. ³⁴From all nations people came to listen to Solomon’s wisdom, sent by all the kings of the world, who had heard of his wisdom.^[6]

Archaeology backs up the Bible.

The book of 1 Kings paints a breathtaking picture of Solomon’s kingdom. The people of the southern and northern parts of the kingdom were “as numerous as the sand on the seashore” (1 Kings 4:20). Solomon’s kingdom ranged far in every direction, and neighboring peoples were counted among the king’s subjects. The king himself was famed for his vast wealth and wisdom. So for years skeptical archaeologists wondered why they hadn’t found indisputable evidence of this significant kingdom. Yet in 1994, a carved stone was discovered in the far north of Israel that mentions “the House of David.” This “Tel Dan Inscription” dates to approximately 150 years after David’s death. It proves that David was a real historical figure ... that he founded a royal dynasty continued by Solomon and his descendants ... and that you can count on the history presented in the Bible.

Think: Why does it matter that researchers can find evidence for the existence of Bible history?

³“You know that because of the wars waged against my father David from all sides, he could not build a temple for the Name of the LORD his God until the LORD put his enemies under his feet. ⁴But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side, and there is no adversary or disaster. ⁵I intend, therefore, to build a temple for the Name of the LORD my God, as the LORD told my father David, when he said, ‘Your son whom I will put on the throne in your place will build the temple for my Name.’

⁶“So give orders that cedars of Lebanon be cut for me. My men will work with yours, and I will pay you for your men whatever wages you set. You know that we have no one so skilled in felling timber as the Sidonians.”

⁷When Hiram heard Solomon’s message, he was greatly pleased and said, “Praise be to the LORD today, for he has given David a wise son to rule over this great nation.”

⁸So Hiram sent word to Solomon:

“I have received the message you sent me and will do all you want in providing the cedar and juniper logs. ⁹My men will haul them down from Lebanon to the Mediterranean Sea, and I will float them as rafts by sea to the place you specify. There I will separate them and you can take them away. And you are to grant my wish by providing food for my royal household.”

¹³King Solomon conscripted laborers from all Israel—thirty thousand men. ¹⁴He sent them off to Lebanon in shifts of ten thousand a month, so that they spent one month in Lebanon and two months at home. Adoniram was in charge of the forced labor. ¹⁵Solomon had seventy thousand carriers and eighty thousand stonecutters in the hills, ¹⁶as well as thirty-three hundred^[11] foremen who supervised the project and directed the workers. ¹⁷At the king's command they removed from the quarry large blocks of high-grade stone to provide a foundation of dressed stone for the temple. ¹⁸The craftsmen of Solomon and Hiram and workers from Byblos cut and prepared the timber and stone for the building of the temple.

SOLOMON BUILDS THE TEMPLE

¹In the four hundred and eightieth^[12] year after the Israelites came out of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, the second month, he began to build the temple of the LORD.

⁸The entrance to the lowest^[19] floor was on the south side of the temple; a stairway led up to the middle level and from there to the third. ⁹So he built the temple and completed it, roofing it with beams and cedar planks. ¹⁰And he built the side rooms all along the temple. The height of each was five cubits, and they were attached to the temple by beams of cedar.

¹¹The word of the LORD came to Solomon: ¹²“As for this temple you are building, if you follow my decrees, observe my laws and keep all my commands and obey them, I will fulfill through you the promise I gave to David your father. ¹³And I will live among the Israelites and will not abandon my people Israel.”

¹⁴So Solomon built the temple and completed it. ¹⁵He lined its interior walls with cedar boards, paneling them from the floor of the temple to the ceiling, and covered the floor of the temple with planks of juniper. ¹⁶He partitioned off twenty cubits at the rear of the temple with cedar boards from floor to ceiling to form within the temple an inner sanctuary, the Most Holy Place. ¹⁷The main hall in front of this room was forty cubits^[20] long. ¹⁸The inside of the temple was cedar, carved with gourds and open flowers. Everything was cedar; no stone was to be seen.

¹⁹He prepared the inner sanctuary within the temple to set the ark of the covenant of the LORD there. ²⁰The inner sanctuary was twenty cubits long, twenty wide and twenty high. He overlaid the inside with pure gold, and he also overlaid the altar of cedar. ²¹Solomon covered the inside of the temple with pure gold, and he extended gold chains across the front of the inner sanctuary, which was overlaid with gold. ²²So he overlaid the whole interior with gold. He also overlaid with gold the altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary.

²³For the inner sanctuary he made a pair of cherubim out of olive wood, each ten cubits high. ²⁴One wing of the first cherub was five cubits long, and the other wing five cubits—ten cubits from wing tip to wing tip. ²⁵The second cherub also measured ten cubits, for the two cherubim were identical in size and shape. ²⁶The height of each cherub was ten cubits. ²⁷He placed the cherubim inside the innermost room of the temple, with their wings spread out. The wing of one cherub touched one wall, while the wing of the other touched the other wall, and their wings touched each other in the middle of the room. ²⁸He overlaid the cherubim with gold.

²⁹On the walls all around the temple, in both the inner and outer rooms, he carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers. ³⁰He also covered the floors of both the inner and outer rooms of the temple with gold.

³¹For the entrance to the inner sanctuary he made doors out of olive wood that were one fifth of the width of the sanctuary. ³²And on the two olive-wood doors he carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid the cherubim and palm trees with hammered gold. ³³In the same way, for the entrance to the main hall he made doorframes out of olive wood that were one fourth of the width of the hall. ³⁴He also made two doors out of juniper wood, each having two leaves that turned in sockets. ³⁵He carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers on them and overlaid them with gold hammered evenly over the carvings.

³⁶And he built the inner courtyard of three courses of dressed stone and one course of trimmed cedar beams.

³⁷The foundation of the temple of the LORD was laid in the fourth year, in the month of Ziv. ³⁸In the eleventh year in the month of Bul, the eighth month, the temple was finished in all its details according to its specifications. He had spent seven years building it.

SOLOMON BUILDS HIS PALACE

¹It took Solomon thirteen years, however, to complete the construction of his palace. ²He built the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon a hundred cubits long, fifty wide and thirty high,^[21] with four rows of cedar columns supporting trimmed cedar beams. ³It was roofed with cedar above the beams that rested on the columns—forty-five beams, fifteen to a row. ⁴Its windows were placed high in sets of three, facing each other. ⁵All the doorways had rectangular frames; they were in the front part in sets of three, facing each other.^[22]

⁶He made a colonnade fifty cubits long and thirty wide.^[23] In front of it was a portico, and in front of that were pillars and an overhanging roof.

⁷He built the throne hall, the Hall of Justice, where he was to judge, and he covered it with cedar from floor to ceiling.^[24] ⁸And the palace in which he was to live, set farther back, was similar in design. Solomon also made a palace like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had married.

⁹All these structures, from the outside to the great courtyard and from foundation to eaves, were made of blocks of high-grade stone cut to size and smoothed on their inner and outer faces. ¹⁰The foundations were laid with large stones of good quality, some measuring ten cubits^[25] and some eight.^[26] ¹¹Above were high-grade stones, cut to size, and cedar beams. ¹²The great courtyard was surrounded by a wall of three courses of dressed stone and one course of trimmed cedar beams, as was the inner courtyard of the temple of the LORD with its portico.

THE TEMPLE'S FURNISHINGS

¹³King Solomon sent to Tyre and brought Hiram,^[27] ¹⁴whose mother was a widow from the tribe of Naphtali and whose father was from Tyre and a skilled craftsman in bronze. Hiram was filled with wisdom, with understanding and with knowledge to do all kinds of bronze work. He came to King Solomon and did all the work assigned to him.

¹⁵He cast two bronze pillars, each eighteen cubits high and twelve cubits in circumference.^[28] ¹⁶He also made two capitals of cast bronze to set on the tops of the pillars; each capital was five cubits^[29] high. ¹⁷A network of interwoven chains adorned the capitals on top of the pillars, seven for each capital. ¹⁸He made pomegranates in two rows^[30] encircling each network to decorate the capitals on top of the pillars.^[31] He did the same for each capital. ¹⁹The capitals on top of the pillars in the portico were in the shape of lilies, four cubits^[32] high. ²⁰On the capitals of both pillars, above the bowl-shaped part next to the network, were the two hundred pomegranates in rows all around. ²¹He erected the pillars at the portico of the temple. The pillar to the south he named Jakin^[33] and the one to the north Boaz.^[34] ²²The capitals on top were in the shape of lilies. And so the work on the pillars was completed.

²⁵The Sea stood on twelve bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south and three facing east. The Sea rested on top of them, and their hindquarters were toward the center. ²⁶It was a handbreadth^[36] in thickness, and its rim was like the rim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held two thousand baths.^[37]

²⁷He also made ten movable stands of bronze; each was four cubits long, four wide and three high.^[38] ²⁸This is how the stands were made: They had side panels attached to uprights. ²⁹On the panels between the uprights were lions, bulls and cherubim—and on the uprights as well. Above and below the lions and bulls were wreaths of hammered work. ³⁰Each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles, and each had a basin resting on four supports, cast with wreaths on each side. ³¹On the inside of the stand there was an opening that had a circular frame one cubit^[39] deep. This opening was round, and with its basework it measured a cubit and a half.^[40] Around its opening there was engraving. The panels of the stands were square, not round. ³²The four wheels were under the panels, and the axles of the wheels were attached to the stand. The diameter of each wheel was a cubit and a half. ³³The wheels were made like chariot wheels; the axles, rims, spokes and hubs were all of cast metal.

³⁴Each stand had four handles, one on each corner, projecting from the stand. ³⁵At the top of the stand there was a circular band half a cubit^[41] deep. The supports and panels were attached to the top of the stand. ³⁶He engraved cherubim, lions and palm trees on the surfaces of the supports and on the panels, in every available space, with wreaths all around. ³⁷This is the way he made the ten stands. They were all cast in the same molds and were identical in size and shape.

³⁸He then made ten bronze basins, each holding forty baths^[42] and measuring four cubits across, one basin to go on each of the ten stands. ³⁹He placed five of the stands on the south side of the temple and five on the north. He placed the Sea on the south side, at the southeast corner of the temple. ⁴⁰He also made the pots^[43] and shovels and sprinkling bowls.

So Hiram finished all the work he had undertaken for King Solomon in the temple of the LORD:

⁴¹the two pillars;

the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars;

the two sets of network decorating the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars;

⁴²the four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of network (two rows of pomegranates for each network decorating the bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars);

⁴³the ten stands with their ten basins;

⁴⁴the Sea and the twelve bulls under it;

⁴⁵the pots, shovels and sprinkling bowls.

All these objects that Hiram made for King Solomon for the temple of the LORD were of burnished bronze. ⁴⁶The king had them cast in clay molds in the plain of the Jordan between Sukkoth and Zarethan. ⁴⁷Solomon left all these things unweighed, because there were so many; the weight of the bronze was not determined.

⁴⁸Solomon also made all the furnishings that were in the LORD's temple:

the golden altar;

the golden table on which was the bread of the Presence;

⁴⁹the lampstands of pure gold (five on the right and five on the left, in front of the inner sanctuary);

the gold floral work and lamps and tongs;

⁵⁰the pure gold basins, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes and censers;

and the gold sockets for the doors of the innermost room, the Most Holy Place, and also for the doors of the main hall of the temple.

⁵¹When all the work King Solomon had done for the temple of the LORD was finished, he brought in the things his father David had dedicated—the silver and gold and the furnishings—and he placed them in the treasuries of the LORD's temple.

1 Kings 8

THE ARK BROUGHT TO THE TEMPLE

¹Then King Solomon summoned into his presence at Jerusalem the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes and the chiefs of the Israelite families, to bring up the ark of the LORD's covenant from Zion, the City of David. ²All the Israelites came together to King Solomon at the time of the festival in the month of Ethanim, the seventh month.

³When all the elders of Israel had arrived, the priests took up the ark, ⁴and they brought up the ark of the LORD and the tent of meeting and all the sacred furnishings in it. The priests and Levites carried them up, ⁵and King Solomon and the entire assembly of Israel that had gathered about him were before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and cattle that they could not be recorded or counted.

⁶The priests then brought the ark of the LORD's covenant to its place in the inner sanctuary of the temple, the Most Holy Place, and put it beneath the wings of the cherubim. ⁷The cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark and overshadowed the ark and its carrying poles. ⁸These poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the Holy Place in front of the inner sanctuary, but not from outside the Holy Place; and they are still there today. ⁹There was nothing in the ark except the two stone tablets that Moses had placed in it at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites after they came out of Egypt.

¹⁰When the priests withdrew from the Holy Place, the cloud filled the temple of the LORD. ¹¹And the priests could not perform their service because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled his temple.

¹²Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that he would dwell in a dark cloud; ¹³I have indeed built a magnificent temple for you, a place for you to dwell forever."

¹⁴While the whole assembly of Israel was standing there, the king turned around and blessed them. ¹⁵Then he said:

“Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his own hand has fulfilled what he promised with his own mouth to my father David. For he said, ¹⁶‘Since the day I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city in any tribe of Israel to have a temple built so that my Name might be there, but I have chosen David to rule my people Israel.’

¹⁷“My father David had it in his heart to build a temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel. ¹⁸But the LORD said to my father David, ‘You did well to have it in your heart to build a temple for my Name. ¹⁹Nevertheless, you are not the one to build the temple, but your son, your own flesh and blood—he is the one who will build the temple for my Name.’

²⁰“The LORD has kept the promise he made: I have succeeded David my father and now I sit on the throne of Israel, just as the LORD promised, and I have built the temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel. ²¹I have provided a place there for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD that he made with our ancestors when he brought them out of Egypt.”

SOLOMON’S PRAYER OF DEDICATION

²²Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the whole assembly of Israel, spread out his hands toward heaven ²³and said:

“LORD, the God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven above or on earth below—you who keep your covenant of love with your servants who continue wholeheartedly in your way. ²⁴You have kept your promise to your servant David my father; with your mouth you have promised and with your hand you have fulfilled it—as it is today.

²⁵“Now LORD, the God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father the promises you made to him when you said, ‘You shall never fail to have a successor to sit before me on the throne of Israel, if only your descendants are careful in all they do to walk before me faithfully as you have done.’ ²⁶And now, God of Israel, let your word that you promised your servant David my father come true.

²⁷“But will God really dwell on earth? The heavens, even the highest heaven, cannot contain you. How much less this temple I have built! ²⁸Yet give attention to your servant’s prayer and his plea for mercy, LORD my God. Hear the cry and the prayer that your servant is praying in your presence this day. ²⁹May your eyes be open toward this temple night and day, this place of which you said, ‘My Name shall be there,’ so that you will hear the prayer your servant prays toward this place. ³⁰Hear the supplication of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray toward this place. Hear from heaven, your dwelling place, and when you hear, forgive.

³³“When your people Israel have been defeated by an enemy because they have sinned against you, and when they turn back to you and give praise to your name, praying and making supplication to you in this temple, ³⁴then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel and bring them back to the land you gave to their ancestors.

³⁵“When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because your people have sinned against you, and when they pray toward this place and give praise to your name and turn from their sin because you have afflicted them, ³⁶then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel. Teach them the right way to live, and send rain on the land you gave your people for an inheritance.

³⁷“When famine or plague comes to the land, or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers, or when an enemy besieges them in any of their cities, whatever disaster or disease may come, ³⁸and when a prayer or plea is made by anyone among your people Israel—being aware of the afflictions of their own hearts, and spreading out their hands toward this temple— ³⁹then hear from heaven, your dwelling place. Forgive and act; deal with everyone according to all they do, since you know their hearts (for you alone know every human heart), ⁴⁰so that they will fear you all the time they live in the land you gave our ancestors.

⁴¹“As for the foreigner who does not belong to your people Israel but has come from a distant land because of your name— ⁴²for they will hear of your great name and your mighty hand and your outstretched arm—when they come and pray toward this temple, ⁴³then hear from heaven, your dwelling place. Do whatever the foreigner asks of you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your own people Israel, and may know that this house I have built bears your Name.

⁴⁴“When your people go to war against their enemies, wherever you send them, and when they pray to the LORD toward the city you have chosen and the temple I have built for your Name, ⁴⁵then hear from heaven their prayer and their plea, and uphold their cause.

⁴⁶“When they sin against you—for there is no one who does not sin—and you become angry with them and give them over to their enemies, who take them captive to their own lands, far away or near; ⁴⁷and if they have a change of heart in the land where they are held captive, and repent and plead with you in the land of their captors and say, ‘We have sinned, we have done wrong, we have acted wickedly’; ⁴⁸and if they turn back to you with all their heart and soul in the land of their enemies who took them captive, and pray to you toward the land you gave their ancestors, toward the city you have chosen and the temple I have built for your Name; ⁴⁹then from heaven, your dwelling place, hear their prayer and their plea, and uphold their cause. ⁵⁰And forgive your people, who have sinned against you; forgive all the offenses they have committed against you, and cause their captors to show them mercy; ⁵¹for they are your people and your inheritance, whom you brought out of Egypt, out of that iron-smelting furnace.

⁵²“May your eyes be open to your servant’s plea and to the plea of your people Israel, and may you listen to them whenever they cry out to you. ⁵³For you singled them out from all the nations of the world to be your own inheritance, just as you declared through your servant Moses when you, Sovereign LORD, brought our ancestors out of Egypt.”

⁵⁴When Solomon had finished all these prayers and supplications to the LORD, he rose from before the altar of the LORD, where he had been kneeling with his hands spread out toward heaven. ⁵⁵He stood and blessed the whole assembly of Israel in a loud voice, saying:

⁵⁶“Praise be to the LORD, who has given rest to his people Israel just as he promised. Not one word has failed of all the good promises he gave through his servant Moses. ⁵⁷May the LORD our God be with us as he was with our ancestors; may he never leave us nor forsake us. ⁵⁸May he turn our hearts to him, to walk in obedience to him and keep the commands, decrees and laws he gave our ancestors. ⁵⁹And may these words of mine, which I have prayed before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, that he may uphold the cause of his servant and the cause of his people Israel according to each day’s need, ⁶⁰so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God and that there is no other. ⁶¹And may your hearts be fully committed to the LORD our God, to live by his decrees and obey his commands, as at this time.”

THE DEDICATION OF THE TEMPLE

⁶²Then the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifices before the LORD.

⁶³Solomon offered a sacrifice of fellowship offerings to the LORD: twenty-two thousand cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep and goats. So the king and all the Israelites dedicated the temple of the LORD.

⁶⁵So Solomon observed the festival at that time, and all Israel with him—a vast assembly, people from Lebo Hamath to the Wadi of Egypt. They celebrated it before the LORD our God for seven days and seven days more, fourteen days in all. ⁶⁶On the following day he sent the people away. They blessed the king and then went home, joyful and glad in heart for all the good things the LORD had done for his servant David and his people Israel.

1 Kings 8:27–30

God is all-present.

God had given Solomon the privilege not only of succeeding his father David as king of Israel but also of building a permanent house of worship, the temple in Jerusalem. Even though the temple was a place of God's intense presence (see 2 Chronicles 5:14), Solomon knew the temple could never contain God. The earth is too small to hold him, and even the highest heavens won't do (see 1 Kings 8:27). Solomon describes a key characteristic of God, that he is "omnipresent" or "all-present," able to be everywhere at once. There isn't a place in the universe where your immense God isn't there. No matter where you go, God is right there with you.

So ... What difference will it make for you today that God is everywhere?

1 Kings 9

THE LORD APPEARS TO SOLOMON

¹When Solomon had finished building the temple of the LORD and the royal palace, and had achieved all he had desired to do, ²the LORD appeared to him a second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon. ³The LORD said to him:

“I have heard the prayer and plea you have made before me; I have consecrated this temple, which you have built, by putting my Name there forever. My eyes and my heart will always be there.

⁴“As for you, if you walk before me faithfully with integrity of heart and uprightness, as David your father did, and do all I command and observe my decrees and laws, ⁵I will establish your royal throne over Israel forever, as I promised David your father when I said, ‘You shall never fail to have a successor on the throne of Israel.’

⁶“But if you^[44] or your descendants turn away from me and do not observe the commands and decrees I have given you^[45] and go off to serve other gods and worship them, ⁷then I will cut off Israel from the land I have given them and will reject this temple I have consecrated for my Name. Israel will then become a byword and an object of ridicule among all peoples. ⁸This temple will become a heap of rubble. All^[46] who pass by will be appalled and will scoff and say, ‘Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this temple?’ ⁹People will answer, ‘Because they have forsaken the LORD their God, who brought their ancestors out of Egypt, and have embraced other gods, worshiping and serving them—that is why the LORD brought all this disaster on them.’ ”

SOLOMON'S OTHER ACTIVITIES

¹⁵Here is the account of the forced labor King Solomon conscripted to build the LORD’s temple, his own palace, the terraces,^[49] the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, Megiddo and Gezer. ¹⁶(Pharaoh king of Egypt had attacked and captured Gezer. He had set it on fire. He killed its Canaanite inhabitants and then gave it as a wedding gift to his daughter, Solomon’s wife. ¹⁷And Solomon rebuilt Gezer.) He built up Lower Beth Horon, ¹⁸Baalath, and Tadmor^[50] in the desert, within his land, ¹⁹as well as all his store cities and the towns for his chariots and for his horses^[51]—whatever he desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon and throughout all the territory he ruled.

²⁴After Pharaoh’s daughter had come up from the City of David to the palace Solomon had built for her, he constructed the terraces.

²⁵Three times a year Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar he had built for the LORD, burning incense before the LORD along with them, and so fulfilled the temple obligations.

²⁶King Solomon also built ships at Ezion Geber, which is near Elath in Edom, on the shore of the Red Sea.^[53] ²⁷And Hiram sent his men—sailors who knew the sea—to serve in the fleet with Solomon’s men. ²⁸They sailed to Ophir and brought back 420 talents^[54] of gold, which they delivered to King Solomon.

1 Kings 10

THE QUEEN OF SHEBA VISITS SOLOMON

¹When the queen of Sheba heard about the fame of Solomon and his relationship to the LORD, she came to test Solomon with hard questions. ²Arriving at Jerusalem with a very great caravan—with camels carrying spices, large quantities of gold, and precious stones—she came to Solomon and talked with him about all that she had on her mind. ³Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too hard for the king to explain to her. ⁴When the queen of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Solomon and the palace he had built, ⁵the food on his table, the seating of his officials, the attending servants in their robes, his cupbearers, and the burnt offerings he made at^[55] the temple of the LORD, she was overwhelmed.

⁶She said to the king, “The report I heard in my own country about your achievements and your wisdom is true. ⁷But I did not believe these things until I came and saw with my own eyes. Indeed, not even half was told me; in wisdom and wealth you have far exceeded the report I heard. ⁸How happy your people must be! How happy your officials, who continually stand before you and hear your wisdom! ⁹Praise be to the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and placed you on the throne of Israel. Because of the LORD’s eternal love for Israel, he has made you king to maintain justice and righteousness.”

¹⁰And she gave the king 120 talents^[56] of gold, large quantities of spices, and precious stones. Never again were so many spices brought in as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

¹¹(Hiram’s ships brought gold from Ophir; and from there they brought great cargoes of almuqwood^[57] and precious stones. ¹²The king used the almuqwood to make supports^[58] for the temple of the LORD and for the royal palace, and to make harps and lyres for the musicians. So much almuqwood has never been imported or seen since that day.)

¹³King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired and asked for, besides what he had given her out of his royal bounty. Then she left and returned with her retinue to her own country.

SOLOMON'S SPLENDOR

¹⁴The weight of the gold that Solomon received yearly was 666 talents,^[59]
¹⁵not including the revenues from merchants and traders and from all the Arabian kings and the governors of the territories.

²³King Solomon was greater in riches and wisdom than all the other kings of the earth. ²⁴The whole world sought audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom God had put in his heart. ²⁵Year after year, everyone who came brought a gift—articles of silver and gold, robes, weapons and spices, and horses and mules.

²⁶Solomon accumulated chariots and horses; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses,^[63] which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem. ²⁷The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as plentiful as sycamore-fig trees in the foothills. ²⁸Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from Kue^[64]—the royal merchants purchased them from Kue at the current price. ²⁹They imported a chariot from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty.^[65] They also exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and of the Arameans.

SOLOMON'S WIVES

¹King Solomon, however, loved many foreign women besides Pharaoh's daughter—Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians and Hittites. ²They were from nations about which the LORD had told the Israelites, "You must not intermarry with them, because they will surely turn your hearts after their gods." Nevertheless, Solomon held fast to them in love. ³He had seven hundred wives of royal birth and three hundred concubines, and his wives led him astray. ⁴As Solomon grew old, his wives turned his heart after other gods, and his heart was not fully devoted to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father had been. ⁵He followed Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and Molek the detestable god of the Ammonites. ⁶So Solomon did evil in the eyes of the LORD; he did not follow the LORD completely, as David his father had done.

⁹The LORD became angry with Solomon because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice. ¹⁰Although he had forbidden Solomon to follow other gods, Solomon did not keep the LORD's command. ¹¹So the LORD said to Solomon, "Since this is your attitude and you have not kept my covenant and my decrees, which I commanded you, I will most certainly tear the kingdom away from you and give it to one of your subordinates. ¹²Nevertheless, for the sake of David your father, I will not do it during your lifetime. I will tear it out of the hand of your son. ¹³Yet I will not tear the whole kingdom from him, but will give him one tribe for the sake of David my servant and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen."

SOLOMON'S ADVERSARIES

¹⁴Then the LORD raised up against Solomon an adversary, Hadad the Edomite, from the royal line of Edom. ¹⁵Earlier when David was fighting with Edom, Joab the commander of the army, who had gone up to bury the dead, had struck down all the men in Edom. ¹⁶Joab and all the Israelites stayed there for six months, until they had destroyed all the men in Edom. ¹⁷But Hadad, still only a boy, fled to Egypt with some Edomite officials who had served his father. ¹⁸They set out from Midian and went to Paran. Then taking people from Paran with them, they went to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave Hadad a house and land and provided him with food.

¹⁹Pharaoh was so pleased with Hadad that he gave him a sister of his own wife, Queen Tahpenes, in marriage. ²⁰The sister of Tahpenes bore him a son named Genubath, whom Tahpenes brought up in the royal palace. There Genubath lived with Pharaoh's own children.

²¹While he was in Egypt, Hadad heard that David rested with his ancestors and that Joab the commander of the army was also dead. Then Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me go, that I may return to my own country."

²²"What have you lacked here that you want to go back to your own country?" Pharaoh asked.

"Nothing," Hadad replied, "but do let me go!"

²³And God raised up against Solomon another adversary, Rezon son of Eliada, who had fled from his master, Hadadezer king of Zobah. ²⁴When David destroyed Zobah's army, Rezon gathered a band of men around him and became their leader; they went to Damascus, where they settled and took control. ²⁵Rezon was Israel's adversary as long as Solomon lived, adding to the trouble caused by Hadad. So Rezon ruled in Aram and was hostile toward Israel.

JEROBOAM REBELS AGAINST SOLOMON

²⁶Also, Jeroboam son of Nebat rebelled against the king. He was one of Solomon's officials, an Ephraimite from Zeredah, and his mother was a widow named Zeruah.

²⁹About that time Jeroboam was going out of Jerusalem, and Ahijah the prophet of Shiloh met him on the way, wearing a new cloak. The two of them were alone out in the country, ³⁰and Ahijah took hold of the new cloak he was wearing and tore it into twelve pieces. ³¹Then he said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces for yourself, for this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'See, I am going to tear the kingdom out of Solomon's hand and give you ten tribes. ³²But for the sake of my servant David and the city of Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, he will have one tribe. ³³I will do this because they have^[67] forsaken me and worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Molek the god of the Ammonites, and have not walked in obedience to me, nor done what is right in my eyes, nor kept my decrees and laws as David, Solomon's father, did.

³⁴" 'But I will not take the whole kingdom out of Solomon's hand; I have made him ruler all the days of his life for the sake of David my servant, whom I chose and who obeyed my commands and decrees. ³⁵I will take the kingdom from his son's hands and give you ten tribes. ³⁶I will give one tribe to his son so that David my servant may always have a lamp before me in Jerusalem, the city where I chose to put my Name. ³⁷However, as for you, I will take you, and you will rule over all that your heart desires; you will be king over Israel. ³⁸If you do whatever I command you and walk in obedience to me and do what is right in my eyes by obeying my decrees and commands, as David my servant did, I will be with you. I will build you a dynasty as enduring as the one I built for David and will give Israel to you. ³⁹I will humble David's descendants because of this, but not forever.' "

⁴⁰Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam, but Jeroboam fled to Egypt, to Shishak the king, and stayed there until Solomon's death.

SOLOMON'S DEATH

⁴¹As for the other events of Solomon's reign—all he did and the wisdom he displayed—are they not written in the book of the annals of Solomon?

⁴²Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. ⁴³Then he rested with his ancestors and was buried in the city of David his father. And Rehoboam his son succeeded him as king.

1 Kings 12

ISRAEL REBELS AGAINST REHOBOAM

¹Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone there to make him king. ²When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard this (he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon), he returned from^[68] Egypt. ³So they sent for Jeroboam, and he and the whole assembly of Israel went to Rehoboam and said to him: ⁴“Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but now lighten the harsh labor and the heavy yoke he put on us, and we will serve you.”

⁵Rehoboam answered, “Go away for three days and then come back to me.” So the people went away.

⁶Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who had served his father Solomon during his lifetime. “How would you advise me to answer these people?” he asked.

¹⁰The young men who had grown up with him replied, “These people have said to you, ‘Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but make our yoke lighter.’ Now tell them, ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist. ¹¹My father laid on you a heavy yoke; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions.’ ”

¹²Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam, as the king had said, “Come back to me in three days.” ¹³The king answered the people harshly. Rejecting the advice given him by the elders, ¹⁴he followed the advice of the young men and said, “My father made your yoke heavy; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions.” ¹⁵So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was from the LORD, to fulfill the word the LORD had spoken to Jeroboam son of Nebat through Ahijah the Shilonite.

¹⁶When all Israel saw that the king refused to listen to them, they answered the king:

“What share do we have in David,
what part in Jesse’s son?
To your tents, Israel!
Look after your own house, David!”

So the Israelites went home. ¹⁷But as for the Israelites who were living in the towns of Judah, Rehoboam still ruled over them.

¹⁸King Rehoboam sent out Adoniram,^[69] who was in charge of forced labor, but all Israel stoned him to death. King Rehoboam, however, managed to get into his chariot and escape to Jerusalem. ¹⁹So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

²⁰When all the Israelites heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. Only the tribe of Judah remained loyal to the house of David.

²¹When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he mustered all Judah and the tribe of Benjamin—a hundred and eighty thousand able young men—to go to war against Israel and to regain the kingdom for Rehoboam son of Solomon.

²²But this word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God: ²³“Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon king of Judah, to all Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, ²⁴‘This is what the LORD says: Do not go up to fight against your brothers, the Israelites. Go home, every one of you, for this is my doing.’ ” So they obeyed the word of the LORD and went home again, as the LORD had ordered.

GOLDEN CALVES AT BETHEL AND DAN

²⁵Then Jeroboam fortified Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and lived there. From there he went out and built up Peniel.^[70]

²⁶Jeroboam thought to himself, “The kingdom will now likely revert to the house of David. ²⁷If these people go up to offer sacrifices at the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem, they will again give their allegiance to their lord, Rehoboam king of Judah. They will kill me and return to King Rehoboam.”

²⁸After seeking advice, the king made two golden calves. He said to the people, “It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Here are your gods, Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt.” ²⁹One he set up in Bethel, and the other in Dan. ³⁰And this thing became a sin; the people came to worship the one at Bethel and went as far as Dan to worship the other.^[71]

³¹Jeroboam built shrines on high places and appointed priests from all sorts of people, even though they were not Levites. ³²He instituted a festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like the festival held in Judah, and offered sacrifices on the altar. This he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves he had made. And at Bethel he also installed priests at the high places he had made. ³³On the fifteenth day of the eighth month, a month of his own choosing, he offered sacrifices on the altar he had built at Bethel. So he instituted the festival for the Israelites and went up to the altar to make offerings.

1 Kings 13

THE MAN OF GOD FROM JUDAH

¹By the word of the LORD a man of God came from Judah to Bethel, as Jeroboam was standing by the altar to make an offering. ²By the word of the LORD he cried out against the altar: “Altar, altar! This is what the LORD says: ‘A son named Josiah will be born to the house of David. On you he will sacrifice the priests of the high places who make offerings here, and human bones will be burned on you.’ ” ³That same day the man of God gave a sign: “This is the sign the LORD has declared: The altar will be split apart and the ashes on it will be poured out.”

⁴When King Jeroboam heard what the man of God cried out against the altar at Bethel, he stretched out his hand from the altar and said, “Seize him!” But the hand he stretched out toward the man shriveled up, so that he could not pull it back. ⁵Also, the altar was split apart and its ashes poured out according to the sign given by the man of God by the word of the LORD.

⁶Then the king said to the man of God, “Intercede with the LORD your God and pray for me that my hand may be restored.” So the man of God interceded with the LORD, and the king’s hand was restored and became as it was before.

⁷The king said to the man of God, “Come home with me for a meal, and I will give you a gift.”

⁸But the man of God answered the king, “Even if you were to give me half your possessions, I would not go with you, nor would I eat bread or drink water here. ⁹For I was commanded by the word of the LORD: ‘You must not eat bread or drink water or return by the way you came.’ ” ¹⁰So he took another road and did not return by the way he had come to Bethel.

¹¹Now there was a certain old prophet living in Bethel, whose sons came and told him all that the man of God had done there that day. They also told their father what he had said to the king. ¹²Their father asked them, “Which way did he go?” And his sons showed him which road the man of God from Judah had taken. ¹³So he said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” And when they had saddled the donkey for him, he mounted it ¹⁴and rode after the man of God. He found him sitting under an oak tree and asked, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?”

“I am,” he replied.

¹⁵So the prophet said to him, “Come home with me and eat.”

¹⁶The man of God said, “I cannot turn back and go with you, nor can I eat bread or drink water with you in this place. ¹⁷I have been told by the word of the LORD: ‘You must not eat bread or drink water there or return by the way you came.’ ”

¹⁸The old prophet answered, “I too am a prophet, as you are. And an angel said to me by the word of the LORD: ‘Bring him back with you to your house so that he may eat bread and drink water.’ ” (But he was lying to him.) ¹⁹So the man of God returned with him and ate and drank in his house.

²⁰While they were sitting at the table, the word of the LORD came to the old prophet who had brought him back. ²¹He cried out to the man of God who had come from Judah, “This is what the LORD says: ‘You have defied the word of the LORD and have not kept the command the LORD your God gave you. ²²You came back and ate bread and drank water in the place where he told you not to eat or drink. Therefore your body will not be buried in the tomb of your ancestors.’ ”

²⁶When the prophet who had brought him back from his journey heard of it, he said, “It is the man of God who defied the word of the LORD. The LORD has given him over to the lion, which has mauled him and killed him, as the word of the LORD had warned him.”

²⁷The prophet said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me,” and they did so. ²⁸Then he went out and found the body lying on the road, with the donkey and the lion standing beside it. The lion had neither eaten the body nor mauled the donkey. ²⁹So the prophet picked up the body of the man of God, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back to his own city to mourn for him and bury him.

³⁰Then he laid the body in his own tomb, and they mourned over him and said, “Alas, my brother!”

³¹After burying him, he said to his sons, “When I die, bury me in the grave where the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones. ³²For the message he declared by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel and against all the shrines on the high places in the towns of Samaria will certainly come true.”

³³Even after this, Jeroboam did not change his evil ways, but once more appointed priests for the high places from all sorts of people. Anyone who wanted to become a priest he consecrated for the high places. ³⁴This was the sin of the house of Jeroboam that led to its downfall and to its destruction from the face of the earth.

AHIJAH'S PROPHECY AGAINST JEROBOAM

¹At that time Abijah son of Jeroboam became ill, ²and Jeroboam said to his wife, "Go, disguise yourself, so you won't be recognized as the wife of Jeroboam. Then go to Shiloh. Ahijah the prophet is there—the one who told me I would be king over this people. ³Take ten loaves of bread with you, some cakes and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy." ⁴So Jeroboam's wife did what he said and went to Ahijah's house in Shiloh.

Now Ahijah could not see; his sight was gone because of his age. ⁵But the LORD had told Ahijah, "Jeroboam's wife is coming to ask you about her son, for he is ill, and you are to give her such and such an answer. When she arrives, she will pretend to be someone else."

⁶So when Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps at the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why this pretense? I have been sent to you with bad news. ⁷Go, tell Jeroboam that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'I raised you up from among the people and appointed you ruler over my people Israel. ⁸I tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you, but you have not been like my servant David, who kept my commands and followed me with all his heart, doing only what was right in my eyes. ⁹You have done more evil than all who lived before you. You have made for yourself other gods, idols made of metal; you have aroused my anger and turned your back on me.

¹⁰" 'Because of this, I am going to bring disaster on the house of Jeroboam. I will cut off from Jeroboam every last male in Israel—slave or free.^[72] I will burn up the house of Jeroboam as one burns dung, until it is all gone. ¹¹Dogs will eat those belonging to Jeroboam who die in the city, and the birds will feed on those who die in the country. The LORD has spoken!'

¹²"As for you, go back home. When you set foot in your city, the boy will die. ¹³All Israel will mourn for him and bury him. He is the only one belonging to Jeroboam who will be buried, because he is the only one in the house of Jeroboam in whom the LORD, the God of Israel, has found anything good.

¹⁴“The LORD will raise up for himself a king over Israel who will cut off the family of Jeroboam. Even now this is beginning to happen.^[73] ¹⁵And the LORD will strike Israel, so that it will be like a reed swaying in the water. He will uproot Israel from this good land that he gave to their ancestors and scatter them beyond the Euphrates River, because they aroused the LORD’s anger by making Asherah poles.^[74] ¹⁶And he will give Israel up because of the sins Jeroboam has committed and has caused Israel to commit.”

¹⁷Then Jeroboam’s wife got up and left and went to Tirzah. As soon as she stepped over the threshold of the house, the boy died. ¹⁸They buried him, and all Israel mourned for him, as the LORD had said through his servant the prophet Ahijah.

¹⁹The other events of Jeroboam’s reign, his wars and how he ruled, are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel. ²⁰He reigned for twenty-two years and then rested with his ancestors. And Nadab his son succeeded him as king.

REHOBOAM KING OF JUDAH

²¹Rehoboam son of Solomon was king in Judah. He was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel in which to put his Name. His mother's name was Naamah; she was an Ammonite.

²²Judah did evil in the eyes of the LORD. By the sins they committed they stirred up his jealous anger more than those who were before them had done.

²³They also set up for themselves high places, sacred stones and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every spreading tree. ²⁴There were even male shrine prostitutes in the land; the people engaged in all the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

²⁹As for the other events of Rehoboam's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ³⁰There was continual warfare between Rehoboam and Jeroboam. ³¹And Rehoboam rested with his ancestors and was buried with them in the City of David. His mother's name was Naamah; she was an Ammonite. And Abijah^[75] his son succeeded him as king.

1 Kings 15

ABIJAH KING OF JUDAH

¹In the eighteenth year of the reign of Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijah^[76] became king of Judah, ²and he reigned in Jerusalem three years. His mother's name was Maakah daughter of Abishalom.^[77]

³He committed all the sins his father had done before him; his heart was not fully devoted to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his forefather had been. ⁴Nevertheless, for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem by raising up a son to succeed him and by making Jerusalem strong. ⁵For David had done what was right in the eyes of the LORD and had not failed to keep any of the LORD's commands all the days of his life—except in the case of Uriah the Hittite.

⁶There was war between Abijah^[78] and Jeroboam throughout Abijah's lifetime. ⁷As for the other events of Abijah's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. ⁸And Abijah rested with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David. And Asa his son succeeded him as king.

ASA KING OF JUDAH

⁹In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa became king of Judah, ¹⁰and he reigned in Jerusalem forty-one years. His grandmother's name was Maakah daughter of Abishalom.

¹⁸Asa then took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of the LORD's temple and of his own palace. He entrusted it to his officials and sent them to Ben-Hadad son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, the king of Aram, who was ruling in Damascus. ¹⁹"Let there be a treaty between me and you," he said, "as there was between my father and your father. See, I am sending you a gift of silver and gold. Now break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so he will withdraw from me."

²³As for all the other events of Asa's reign, all his achievements, all he did and the cities he built, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? In his old age, however, his feet became diseased. ²⁴Then Asa rested with his ancestors and was buried with them in the city of his father David. And Jehoshaphat his son succeeded him as king.

NADAB KING OF ISRAEL

²⁵Nadab son of Jeroboam became king of Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years. ²⁶He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, following the ways of his father and committing the same sin his father had caused Israel to commit.

²⁷Baasha son of Ahijah from the tribe of Issachar plotted against him, and he struck him down at Gibbethon, a Philistine town, while Nadab and all Israel were besieging it. ²⁸Baasha killed Nadab in the third year of Asa king of Judah and succeeded him as king.

²⁹As soon as he began to reign, he killed Jeroboam's whole family. He did not leave Jeroboam anyone that breathed, but destroyed them all, according to the word of the LORD given through his servant Ahijah the Shilonite. ³⁰This happened because of the sins Jeroboam had committed and had caused Israel to commit, and because he aroused the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel.

³¹As for the other events of Nadab's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? ³²There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel throughout their reigns.

BAASHA KING OF ISRAEL

³³In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha son of Ahijah became king of all Israel in Tirzah, and he reigned twenty-four years. ³⁴He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, following the ways of Jeroboam and committing the same sin Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit.

ROCK SOLID truths

No one is above God's rules.

Royal histories don't often record the failures of kings and queens. So a key lesson jumps out of 1 Kings 15:5: "David had done what was right in the eyes of the LORD and had not failed to keep any of the LORD's commands all the days of his life—except in the case of Uriah the Hittite." King David excelled at obeying God in every area of his life—except a major sin that involved sleeping with a man's wife and sending the man to die in battle (see 2 Samuel 11:2–12:25). David was famed for his devotion to God—but that didn't excuse him from needing to follow God's commands. He was the Lord's chosen king—but he still had to obey the law. Powerful people often think they can do what they want and escape unpunished. But God doesn't work that way. He expects everyone to follow the rules—no exceptions.

Think: When have you seen people act like rules don't apply to them? When have you fallen into that trap?

(Rock Solid TRUTHS Index)

¹Then the word of the LORD came to Jehu son of Hanani concerning Baasha:
²“I lifted you up from the dust and appointed you ruler over my people Israel, but you followed the ways of Jeroboam and caused my people Israel to sin and to arouse my anger by their sins. ³So I am about to wipe out Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like that of Jeroboam son of Nebat. ⁴Dogs will eat those belonging to Baasha who die in the city, and birds will feed on those who die in the country.”

⁵As for the other events of Baasha’s reign, what he did and his achievements, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? ⁶Baasha rested with his ancestors and was buried in Tirzah. And Elah his son succeeded him as king.

⁷Moreover, the word of the LORD came through the prophet Jehu son of Hanani to Baasha and his house, because of all the evil he had done in the eyes of the LORD, arousing his anger by the things he did, becoming like the house of Jeroboam—and also because he destroyed it.

ELAH KING OF ISRAEL

⁸In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah son of Baasha became king of Israel, and he reigned in Tirzah two years.

¹¹As soon as he began to reign and was seated on the throne, he killed off Baasha's whole family. He did not spare a single male, whether relative or friend. ¹²So Zimri destroyed the whole family of Baasha, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken against Baasha through the prophet Jehu—¹³because of all the sins Baasha and his son Elah had committed and had caused Israel to commit, so that they aroused the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel, by their worthless idols.

¹⁴As for the other events of Elah's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

ZIMRI KING OF ISRAEL

¹⁵In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned in Tirzah seven days. The army was encamped near Gibbethon, a Philistine town.

¹⁶When the Israelites in the camp heard that Zimri had plotted against the king and murdered him, they proclaimed Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that very day there in the camp. ¹⁷Then Omri and all the Israelites with him withdrew from Gibbethon and laid siege to Tirzah. ¹⁸When Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the citadel of the royal palace and set the palace on fire around him. So he died, ¹⁹because of the sins he had committed, doing evil in the eyes of the LORD and following the ways of Jeroboam and committing the same sin Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit.

²⁰As for the other events of Zimri's reign, and the rebellion he carried out, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

OMRI KING OF ISRAEL

²¹Then the people of Israel were split into two factions; half supported Tibni son of Ginath for king, and the other half supported Omri. ²²But Omri's followers proved stronger than those of Tibni son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Omri became king.

²⁵But Omri did evil in the eyes of the LORD and sinned more than all those before him. ²⁶He followed completely the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat, committing the same sin Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit, so that they aroused the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel, by their worthless idols.

²⁷As for the other events of Omri's reign, what he did and the things he achieved, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? ²⁸Omri rested with his ancestors and was buried in Samaria. And Ahab his son succeeded him as king.

AHAB BECOMES KING OF ISRAEL

²⁹In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab son of Omri became king of Israel, and he reigned in Samaria over Israel twenty-two years. ³⁰Ahab son of Omri did more evil in the eyes of the LORD than any of those before him. ³¹He not only considered it trivial to commit the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, but he also married Jezebel daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and began to serve Baal and worship him. ³²He set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal that he built in Samaria. ³³Ahab also made an Asherah pole and did more to arouse the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel, than did all the kings of Israel before him.

³⁴In Ahab's time, Hiel of Bethel rebuilt Jericho. He laid its foundations at the cost of his firstborn son Abiram, and he set up its gates at the cost of his youngest son Segub, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken by Joshua son of Nun.

1 Kings 17

ELIJAH ANNOUNCES A GREAT DROUGHT

¹Now Elijah the Tishbite, from Tishbe^[80] in Gilead, said to Ahab, “As the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, whom I serve, there will be neither dew nor rain in the next few years except at my word.”

ELIJAH FED BY RAVENS

²Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah: ³“Leave here, turn eastward and hide in the Kerith Ravine, east of the Jordan. ⁴You will drink from the brook, and I have directed the ravens to supply you with food there.”

⁵So he did what the LORD had told him. He went to the Kerith Ravine, east of the Jordan, and stayed there. ⁶The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the brook.

ELIJAH AND THE WIDOW AT ZAREPHATH

⁷Some time later the brook dried up because there had been no rain in the land. ⁸Then the word of the LORD came to him: ⁹“Go at once to Zarephath in the region of Sidon and stay there. I have directed a widow there to supply you with food.” ¹⁰So he went to Zarephath. When he came to the town gate, a widow was there gathering sticks. He called to her and asked, “Would you bring me a little water in a jar so I may have a drink?” ¹¹As she was going to get it, he called, “And bring me, please, a piece of bread.”

¹²“As surely as the LORD your God lives,” she replied, “I don’t have any bread—only a handful of flour in a jar and a little olive oil in a jug. I am gathering a few sticks to take home and make a meal for myself and my son, that we may eat it—and die.”

¹³Elijah said to her, “Don’t be afraid. Go home and do as you have said. But first make a small loaf of bread for me from what you have and bring it to me, and then make something for yourself and your son. ¹⁴For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘The jar of flour will not be used up and the jug of oil will not run dry until the day the LORD sends rain on the land.’ ”

¹⁵She went away and did as Elijah had told her. So there was food every day for Elijah and for the woman and her family. ¹⁶For the jar of flour was not used up and the jug of oil did not run dry, in keeping with the word of the LORD spoken by Elijah.

¹⁷Some time later the son of the woman who owned the house became ill. He grew worse and worse, and finally stopped breathing. ¹⁸She said to Elijah, “What do you have against me, man of God? Did you come to remind me of my sin and kill my son?”

¹⁹“Give me your son,” Elijah replied. He took him from her arms, carried him to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his bed. ²⁰Then he cried out to the LORD, “LORD my God, have you brought tragedy even on this widow I am staying with, by causing her son to die?” ²¹Then he stretched himself out on the boy three times and cried out to the LORD, “LORD my God, let this boy’s life return to him!”

²²The LORD heard Elijah’s cry, and the boy’s life returned to him, and he lived. ²³Elijah picked up the child and carried him down from the room into the house. He gave him to his mother and said, “Look, your son is alive!”

²⁴Then the woman said to Elijah, “Now I know that you are a man of God and that the word of the LORD from your mouth is the truth.”

1 Kings 18

ELIJAH AND OBADIAH

¹After a long time, in the third year, the word of the LORD came to Elijah: “Go and present yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the land.” ²So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab.

Now the famine was severe in Samaria, ³and Ahab had summoned Obadiah, his palace administrator. (Obadiah was a devout believer in the LORD. ⁴While Jezebel was killing off the LORD’s prophets, Obadiah had taken a hundred prophets and hidden them in two caves, fifty in each, and had supplied them with food and water.) ⁵Ahab had said to Obadiah, “Go through the land to all the springs and valleys. Maybe we can find some grass to keep the horses and mules alive so we will not have to kill any of our animals.” ⁶So they divided the land they were to cover, Ahab going in one direction and Obadiah in another.

⁷As Obadiah was walking along, Elijah met him. Obadiah recognized him, bowed down to the ground, and said, “Is it really you, my lord Elijah?”

⁸“Yes,” he replied. “Go tell your master, ‘Elijah is here.’ ”

⁹“What have I done wrong,” asked Obadiah, “that you are handing your servant over to Ahab to be put to death? ¹⁰As surely as the LORD your God lives, there is not a nation or kingdom where my master has not sent someone to look for you. And whenever a nation or kingdom claimed you were not there, he made them swear they could not find you. ¹¹But now you tell me to go to my master and say, ‘Elijah is here.’ ¹²I don’t know where the Spirit of the LORD may carry you when I leave you. If I go and tell Ahab and he doesn’t find you, he will kill me. Yet I your servant have worshiped the LORD since my youth. ¹³Haven’t you heard, my lord, what I did while Jezebel was killing the prophets of the LORD? I hid a hundred of the LORD’s prophets in two caves, fifty in each, and supplied them with food and water. ¹⁴And now you tell me to go to my master and say, ‘Elijah is here.’ He will kill me!”

¹⁵Elijah said, “As the LORD Almighty lives, whom I serve, I will surely present myself to Ahab today.”

ELIJAH ON MOUNT CARMEL

¹⁶So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him, and Ahab went to meet Elijah.
¹⁷When he saw Elijah, he said to him, “Is that you, you troubler of Israel?”

¹⁸“I have not made trouble for Israel,” Elijah replied. “But you and your father’s family have. You have abandoned the LORD’s commands and have followed the Baals. ¹⁹Now summon the people from all over Israel to meet me on Mount Carmel. And bring the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal and the four hundred prophets of Asherah, who eat at Jezebel’s table.”

²⁰So Ahab sent word throughout all Israel and assembled the prophets on Mount Carmel. ²¹Elijah went before the people and said, “How long will you waver between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Baal is God, follow him.”

But the people said nothing.

²²Then Elijah said to them, “I am the only one of the LORD’s prophets left, but Baal has four hundred and fifty prophets. ²³Get two bulls for us. Let Baal’s prophets choose one for themselves, and let them cut it into pieces and put it on the wood but not set fire to it. I will prepare the other bull and put it on the wood but not set fire to it. ²⁴Then you call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD. The god who answers by fire—he is God.”

Then all the people said, “What you say is good.”

²⁵Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Choose one of the bulls and prepare it first, since there are so many of you. Call on the name of your god, but do not light the fire.” ²⁶So they took the bull given them and prepared it.

Then they called on the name of Baal from morning till noon. “Baal, answer us!” they shouted. But there was no response; no one answered. And they danced around the altar they had made.

²⁷At noon Elijah began to taunt them. “Shout louder!” he said. “Surely he is a god! Perhaps he is deep in thought, or busy, or traveling. Maybe he is sleeping and must be awakened.” ²⁸So they shouted louder and slashed themselves with swords and spears, as was their custom, until their blood flowed. ²⁹Midday passed, and they continued their frantic prophesying until the time for the evening sacrifice. But there was no response, no one answered, no one paid attention.

³⁰Then Elijah said to all the people, “Come here to me.” They came to him, and he repaired the altar of the LORD, which had been torn down. ³¹Elijah took twelve stones, one for each of the tribes descended from Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, “Your name shall be Israel.” ³²With the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD, and he dug a trench around it large enough to hold two seahs^[81] of seed. ³³He arranged the wood, cut the bull into pieces and laid it on the wood. Then he said to them, “Fill four large jars with water and pour it on the offering and on the wood.”

“Do it a third time,” he ordered, and they did it the third time. ³⁵The water ran down around the altar and even filled the trench.

³⁶At the time of sacrifice, the prophet Elijah stepped forward and prayed: “LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, let it be known today that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant and have done all these things at your command. ³⁷Answer me, LORD, answer me, so these people will know that you, LORD, are God, and that you are turning their hearts back again.”

“Answer me, so these people will know that you, LORD, are God.”

\(Rock Solid PROMISES Index\)

³⁸Then the fire of the LORD fell and burned up the sacrifice, the wood, the stones and the soil, and also licked up the water in the trench.

³⁹When all the people saw this, they fell prostrate and cried, “The LORD—he is God! The LORD—he is God!”

⁴⁰Then Elijah commanded them, “Seize the prophets of Baal. Don’t let anyone get away!” They seized them, and Elijah had them brought down to the Kishon Valley and slaughtered there.

⁴¹And Elijah said to Ahab, “Go, eat and drink, for there is the sound of a heavy rain.” ⁴²So Ahab went off to eat and drink, but Elijah climbed to the top of Carmel, bent down to the ground and put his face between his knees.

⁴³“Go and look toward the sea,” he told his servant. And he went up and looked.

“There is nothing there,” he said.

Seven times Elijah said, “Go back.”

⁴⁴The seventh time the servant reported, “A cloud as small as a man’s hand is rising from the sea.”

So Elijah said, “Go and tell Ahab, ‘Hitch up your chariot and go down before the rain stops you.’ ”

⁴⁵Meanwhile, the sky grew black with clouds, the wind rose, a heavy rain started falling and Ahab rode off to Jezreel. ⁴⁶The power of the LORD came on Elijah and, tucking his cloak into his belt, he ran ahead of Ahab all the way to Jezreel.

1 Kings 19

ELIJAH FLEES TO HOREB

¹Now Ahab told Jezebel everything Elijah had done and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. ²So Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah to say, “May the gods deal with me, be it ever so severely, if by this time tomorrow I do not make your life like that of one of them.”

³Elijah was afraid^[82] and ran for his life. When he came to Beersheba in Judah, he left his servant there, ⁴while he himself went a day’s journey into the wilderness. He came to a broom bush, sat down under it and prayed that he might die. “I have had enough, LORD,” he said. “Take my life; I am no better than my ancestors.” ⁵Then he lay down under the bush and fell asleep.

All at once an angel touched him and said, “Get up and eat.” ⁶He looked around, and there by his head was some bread baked over hot coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again.

⁷The angel of the LORD came back a second time and touched him and said, “Get up and eat, for the journey is too much for you.” ⁸So he got up and ate and drank. Strengthened by that food, he traveled forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God. ⁹There he went into a cave and spent the night.

THE LORD APPEARS TO ELIJAH

And the word of the LORD came to him: “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

¹⁰He replied, “I have been very zealous for the LORD God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant, torn down your altars, and put your prophets to death with the sword. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me too.”

¹¹The LORD said, “Go out and stand on the mountain in the presence of the LORD, for the LORD is about to pass by.”

Then a great and powerful wind tore the mountains apart and shattered the rocks before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. ¹²After the earthquake came a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire came a gentle whisper. ¹³When Elijah heard it, he pulled his cloak over his face and went out and stood at the mouth of the cave.

Then a voice said to him, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

¹⁴He replied, “I have been very zealous for the LORD God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant, torn down your altars, and put your prophets to death with the sword. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me too.”

¹⁵The LORD said to him, “Go back the way you came, and go to the Desert of Damascus. When you get there, anoint Hazael king over Aram. ¹⁶Also, anoint Jehu son of Nimshi king over Israel, and anoint Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah to succeed you as prophet. ¹⁷Jehu will put to death any who escape the sword of Hazael, and Elisha will put to death any who escape the sword of Jehu. ¹⁸Yet I reserve seven thousand in Israel—all whose knees have not bowed down to Baal and whose mouths have not kissed him.”

THE CALL OF ELISHA

¹⁹So Elijah went from there and found Elisha son of Shaphat. He was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen, and he himself was driving the twelfth pair. Elijah went up to him and threw his cloak around him. ²⁰Elisha then left his oxen and ran after Elijah. “Let me kiss my father and mother goodbye,” he said, “and then I will come with you.”

“Go back,” Elijah replied. “What have I done to you?”

²¹So Elisha left him and went back. He took his yoke of oxen and slaughtered them. He burned the plowing equipment to cook the meat and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he set out to follow Elijah and became his servant.

Lean on God when you're lonely.

A couple months ago, Lauren thought she had her friends all figured out. She knew her friendships would get weird after middle school—when half of her classmates moved to high school with her, while the other half headed to a rival school miles away. But Lauren still watched, stunned as her friendships disintegrated. Old friends had stopped calling, and Lauren hadn't really made any new friends to take their place. Everyone else seemed to be rapidly adjusting to the change, but Lauren felt stuck in slow motion. Every night and weekend was a struggle to find something to do. And all too often nothing worked out and Lauren just sat home alone.

Elijah prayed down fire from heaven, proving the Lord's ultimate power over the false god Baal. But when the wicked queen Jezebel threatened retaliation, Elijah ran for his life (see 1 Kings 19:3). He felt so battered and isolated that he wanted to die. But God doesn't let us suffer alone. He might not show up and shatter rocks, but he is always with us (see Matthew 28:20).

BEN-HADAD ATTACKS SAMARIA

¹Now Ben-Hadad king of Aram mustered his entire army. Accompanied by thirty-two kings with their horses and chariots, he went up and besieged Samaria and attacked it. ²He sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel, saying, “This is what Ben-Hadad says: ³‘Your silver and gold are mine, and the best of your wives and children are mine.’ ”

⁴The king of Israel answered, “Just as you say, my lord the king. I and all I have are yours.”

⁵The messengers came again and said, “This is what Ben-Hadad says: ‘I sent to demand your silver and gold, your wives and your children. ⁶But about this time tomorrow I am going to send my officials to search your palace and the houses of your officials. They will seize everything you value and carry it away.’ ”

⁷The king of Israel summoned all the elders of the land and said to them, “See how this man is looking for trouble! When he sent for my wives and my children, my silver and my gold, I did not refuse him.”

⁸The elders and the people all answered, “Don’t listen to him or agree to his demands.”

⁹So he replied to Ben-Hadad’s messengers, “Tell my lord the king, ‘Your servant will do all you demanded the first time, but this demand I cannot meet.’ ” They left and took the answer back to Ben-Hadad.

¹⁰Then Ben-Hadad sent another message to Ahab: “May the gods deal with me, be it ever so severely, if enough dust remains in Samaria to give each of my men a handful.”

¹¹The king of Israel answered, “Tell him: ‘One who puts on his armor should not boast like one who takes it off.’ ”

¹²Ben-Hadad heard this message while he and the kings were drinking in their tents, ^[83] and he ordered his men: “Prepare to attack.” So they prepared to attack the city.

AHAB DEFEATS BEN-HADAD

AHAB DEFEATS BEN-HADAD

¹³Meanwhile a prophet came to Ahab king of Israel and announced, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Do you see this vast army? I will give it into your hand today, and then you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

¹⁴“But who will do this?” asked Ahab.

The prophet replied, “This is what the LORD says: ‘The junior officers under the provincial commanders will do it.’ ”

“And who will start the battle?” he asked.

The prophet answered, “You will.”

¹⁵So Ahab summoned the 232 junior officers under the provincial commanders. Then he assembled the rest of the Israelites, 7,000 in all. ¹⁶They set out at noon while Ben-Hadad and the 32 kings allied with him were in their tents getting drunk. ¹⁷The junior officers under the provincial commanders went out first.

Now Ben-Hadad had dispatched scouts, who reported, “Men are advancing from Samaria.”

¹⁸He said, “If they have come out for peace, take them alive; if they have come out for war, take them alive.”

¹⁹The junior officers under the provincial commanders marched out of the city with the army behind them ²⁰and each one struck down his opponent. At that, the Arameans fled, with the Israelites in pursuit. But Ben-Hadad king of Aram escaped on horseback with some of his horsemen. ²¹The king of Israel advanced and overpowered the horses and chariots and inflicted heavy losses on the Arameans.

²³Meanwhile, the officials of the king of Aram advised him, “Their gods are gods of the hills. That is why they were too strong for us. But if we fight them on the plains, surely we will be stronger than they. ²⁴Do this: Remove all the kings from their commands and replace them with other officers. ²⁵You must also raise an army like the one you lost—horse for horse and chariot for chariot—so we can fight Israel on the plains. Then surely we will be stronger than they.” He agreed with them and acted accordingly.

²⁶The next spring Ben-Hadad mustered the Arameans and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel. ²⁷When the Israelites were also mustered and given provisions, they marched out to meet them. The Israelites camped opposite them like two small flocks of goats, while the Arameans covered the countryside.

²⁸The man of God came up and told the king of Israel, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Because the Arameans think the LORD is a god of the hills and not a god of the valleys, I will deliver this vast army into your hands, and you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

²⁹For seven days they camped opposite each other, and on the seventh day the battle was joined. The Israelites inflicted a hundred thousand casualties on the Aramean foot soldiers in one day. ³⁰The rest of them escaped to the city of Aphek, where the wall collapsed on twenty-seven thousand of them. And Ben-Hadad fled to the city and hid in an inner room.

³¹His officials said to him, “Look, we have heard that the kings of Israel are merciful. Let us go to the king of Israel with sackcloth around our waists and ropes around our heads. Perhaps he will spare your life.”

³²Wearing sackcloth around their waists and ropes around their heads, they went to the king of Israel and said, “Your servant Ben-Hadad says: ‘Please let me live.’ ”

The king answered, “Is he still alive? He is my brother.”

³³The men took this as a good sign and were quick to pick up his word. “Yes, your brother Ben-Hadad!” they said.

“Go and get him,” the king said. When Ben-Hadad came out, Ahab had him come up into his chariot.

³⁴“I will return the cities my father took from your father,” Ben-Hadad offered. “You may set up your own market areas in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria.”

Ahab said, “On the basis of a treaty I will set you free.” So he made a treaty with him, and let him go.

A PROPHET CONDEMNS AHAB

³⁵By the word of the LORD one of the company of the prophets said to his companion, “Strike me with your weapon,” but he refused.

³⁶So the prophet said, “Because you have not obeyed the LORD, as soon as you leave me a lion will kill you.” And after the man went away, a lion found him and killed him.

³⁷The prophet found another man and said, “Strike me, please.” So the man struck him and wounded him. ³⁸Then the prophet went and stood by the road waiting for the king. He disguised himself with his headband down over his eyes. ³⁹As the king passed by, the prophet called out to him, “Your servant went into the thick of the battle, and someone came to me with a captive and said, ‘Guard this man. If he is missing, it will be your life for his life, or you must pay a talent^[84] of silver.’ ⁴⁰While your servant was busy here and there, the man disappeared.”

⁴¹Then the prophet quickly removed the headband from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets. ⁴²He said to the king, “This is what the LORD says: ‘You have set free a man I had determined should die.^[85] Therefore it is your life for his life, your people for his people.’ ” ⁴³Sullen and angry, the king of Israel went to his palace in Samaria.

NABOTH'S VINEYARD

¹Some time later there was an incident involving a vineyard belonging to Naboth the Jezreelite. The vineyard was in Jezreel, close to the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. ²Ahab said to Naboth, "Let me have your vineyard to use for a vegetable garden, since it is close to my palace. In exchange I will give you a better vineyard or, if you prefer, I will pay you whatever it is worth."

³But Naboth replied, "The LORD forbid that I should give you the inheritance of my ancestors."

⁴So Ahab went home, sullen and angry because Naboth the Jezreelite had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my ancestors." He lay on his bed sulking and refused to eat.

⁵His wife Jezebel came in and asked him, "Why are you so sullen? Why won't you eat?"

⁶He answered her, "Because I said to Naboth the Jezreelite, 'Sell me your vineyard; or if you prefer, I will give you another vineyard in its place.' But he said, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'"

⁷Jezebel his wife said, "Is this how you act as king over Israel? Get up and eat! Cheer up. I'll get you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."

⁸So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, placed his seal on them, and sent them to the elders and nobles who lived in Naboth's city with him. ⁹In those letters she wrote:

"Proclaim a day of fasting and seat Naboth in a prominent place among the people. ¹⁰But seat two scoundrels opposite him and have them bring charges that he has cursed both God and the king. Then take him out and stone him to death."

¹¹So the elders and nobles who lived in Naboth's city did as Jezebel directed in the letters she had written to them. ¹²They proclaimed a fast and seated

Naboth in a prominent place among the people. ¹³Then two scoundrels came and sat opposite him and brought charges against Naboth before the people, saying, “Naboth has cursed both God and the king.” So they took him outside the city and stoned him to death. ¹⁴Then they sent word to Jezebel: “Naboth has been stoned to death.”

¹⁵As soon as Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned to death, she said to Ahab, “Get up and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite that he refused to sell you. He is no longer alive, but dead.” ¹⁶When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he got up and went down to take possession of Naboth’s vineyard.

¹⁷Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite: ¹⁸“Go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who rules in Samaria. He is now in Naboth’s vineyard, where he has gone to take possession of it. ¹⁹Say to him, ‘This is what the LORD says: Have you not murdered a man and seized his property?’ Then say to him, ‘This is what the LORD says: In the place where dogs licked up Naboth’s blood, dogs will lick up your blood—yes, yours!’ ”

²⁰Ahab said to Elijah, “So you have found me, my enemy!”

“I have found you,” he answered, “because you have sold yourself to do evil in the eyes of the LORD. ²¹He says, ‘I am going to bring disaster on you. I will wipe out your descendants and cut off from Ahab every last male in Israel—slave or free.’ ^[86] ²²I will make your house like that of Jeroboam son of Nebat and that of Baasha son of Ahijah, because you have aroused my anger and have caused Israel to sin.’

²³“And also concerning Jezebel the LORD says: ‘Dogs will devour Jezebel by the wall of ^[87] Jezreel.’

²⁴“Dogs will eat those belonging to Ahab who die in the city, and the birds will feed on those who die in the country.”

²⁷When Ahab heard these words, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and fasted. He lay in sackcloth and went around meekly.

²⁸Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite: ²⁹“Have you noticed how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Because he has humbled himself, I will not bring this disaster in his day, but I will bring it on his house in the days of his son.”

1 Kings 22

MICAHIAH PROPHECIES AGAINST AHAB

¹For three years there was no war between Aram and Israel. ²But in the third year Jehoshaphat king of Judah went down to see the king of Israel. ³The king of Israel had said to his officials, “Don’t you know that Ramoth Gilead belongs to us and yet we are doing nothing to retake it from the king of Aram?”

⁴So he asked Jehoshaphat, “Will you go with me to fight against Ramoth Gilead?”

Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, “I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.” ⁵But Jehoshaphat also said to the king of Israel, “First seek the counsel of the LORD.”

⁶So the king of Israel brought together the prophets—about four hundred men—and asked them, “Shall I go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?”

“Go,” they answered, “for the Lord will give it into the king’s hand.”

⁷But Jehoshaphat asked, “Is there no longer a prophet of the LORD here whom we can inquire of?”

⁸The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat, “There is still one prophet through whom we can inquire of the LORD, but I hate him because he never prophesies anything good about me, but always bad. He is Micaiah son of Imlah.”

⁹So the king of Israel called one of his officials and said, “Bring Micaiah son of Imlah at once.”

¹⁰Dressed in their royal robes, the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting on their thrones at the threshing floor by the entrance of the gate of Samaria, with all the prophets prophesying before them. ¹¹Now Zedekiah son of Kenaanah had made iron horns and he declared, “This is what the LORD says: ‘With these you will gore the Arameans until they are destroyed.’”

¹²All the other prophets were prophesying the same thing. “Attack Ramoth Gilead and be victorious,” they said, “for the LORD will give it into the king’s hand.”

¹³The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, “Look, the other prophets without exception are predicting success for the king. Let your word agree with theirs, and speak favorably.”

¹⁴But Micaiah said, “As surely as the LORD lives, I can tell him only what the LORD tells me.”

¹⁵When he arrived, the king asked him, “Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or not?”

¹⁶The king said to him, “How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

¹⁷Then Micaiah answered, “I saw all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd, and the LORD said, ‘These people have no master. Let each one go home in peace.’ ”

¹⁸The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Didn’t I tell you that he never prophesies anything good about me, but only bad?”

¹⁹Micaiah continued, “Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne with all the multitudes of heaven standing around him on his right and on his left. ²⁰And the LORD said, ‘Who will entice Ahab into attacking Ramoth Gilead and going to his death there?’

“One suggested this, and another that. ²¹Finally, a spirit came forward, stood before the LORD and said, ‘I will entice him.’

²²“ ‘By what means?’ the LORD asked.

“ ‘I will go out and be a deceiving spirit in the mouths of all his prophets,’ he said.

²³“So now the LORD has put a deceiving spirit in the mouths of all these prophets of yours. The LORD has decreed disaster for you.”

²⁴Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah went up and slapped Micaiah in the face. “Which way did the spirit from^[88] the LORD go when he went from me to speak to you?” he asked.

²⁵Micaiah replied, “You will find out on the day you go to hide in an inner room.”

²⁶The king of Israel then ordered, “Take Micaiah and send him back to Amon the ruler of the city and to Joash the king's son ²⁷and say, 'This is what the king says: Put this fellow in prison and give him nothing but bread and water until I return safely.' "

²⁸Micaiah declared, "If you ever return safely, the LORD has not spoken through me." Then he added, "Mark my words, all you people!"

AHAB KILLED AT RAMOTH GILEAD

²⁹So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. ³⁰The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will enter the battle in disguise, but you wear your royal robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

³⁷So the king died and was brought to Samaria, and they buried him there. ³⁸They washed the chariot at a pool in Samaria (where the prostitutes bathed), ^[89] and the dogs licked up his blood, as the word of the LORD had declared.

³⁹As for the other events of Ahab’s reign, including all he did, the palace he built and adorned with ivory, and the cities he fortified, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? ⁴⁰Ahab rested with his ancestors. And Ahaziah his son succeeded him as king.

JHOSHAPHAT KING OF JUDAH

⁴¹Jehoshaphat son of Asa became king of Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. ⁴²Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-five years. His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi. ⁴³In everything he followed the ways of his father Asa and did not stray from them; he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD. The high places, however, were not removed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.^[90] ⁴⁴Jehoshaphat was also at peace with the king of Israel.

⁴⁸Now Jehoshaphat built a fleet of trading ships^[91] to go to Ophir for gold, but they never set sail—they were wrecked at Ezion Geber. ⁴⁹At that time Ahaziah son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my men sail with yours," but Jehoshaphat refused.

⁵⁰Then Jehoshaphat rested with his ancestors and was buried with them in the city of David his father. And Jehoram his son succeeded him as king.

AHAZIAH KING OF ISRAEL

⁵¹Ahaziah son of Ahab became king of Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years. ⁵²He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, because he followed the ways of his father and mother and of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. ⁵³He served and worshiped Baal and aroused the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel, just as his father had done.

Solomon asked for God’s best.

Solomon was barely out of his teens when he was crowned king of Israel. Under the remarkable leadership of David, his father, the kingdom had grown wealthy and spiritually strong. Solomon knew he would need extraordinary skill to live up to his father’s grand accomplishments. One night the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream and said, “Ask for whatever you want me to give you.” The young king replied, “I am only a little child and do not know how to carry out my duties.” Then Solomon asked for “a discerning heart to govern your people and to distinguish between right and wrong” (1 Kings 3:5–9).

Solomon could have asked for wealth or long life or the death of his enemies, but he chose wisdom. God was so pleased with his request that he not only gave Solomon more insight than anyone on earth, but he also showered the king with riches and fame (see 1 Kings 3:10–14). Solomon’s reputation for wisdom spread throughout the world, and the book of Proverbs records many of his pithy sayings.

Sadly, this uniquely wise man sometimes acted like a fool. Solomon took hundreds of foreign wives and concubines in clear disobedience to God. Those women enticed him to worship their false gods, and as Solomon strayed from doing good, the Lord declared he would lose most of his kingdom.

You can find Solomon in 1 Kings 1–11 as well as 1 Chronicles 22 to 2 Chronicles 9. His writings are found in Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and the Song of Songs.

Judah taken captive to Babylonia

Second Kings continues the stories of the great prophets Elijah and Elisha. It records the history of the northern kingdom of Israel and the southern kingdom of Judah until they were both finally conquered. Israel was conquered by Assyria in 722 BC and Judah was conquered by the Babylonians in 586 BC. In both kingdoms God's prophets continually warned the people that God would punish them if they did not repent from their sins.

THE LORD'S JUDGMENT ON AHAZIAH

¹After Ahab's death, Moab rebelled against Israel. ²Now Ahaziah had fallen through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria and injured himself. So he sent messengers, saying to them, "Go and consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, to see if I will recover from this injury."

³But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Go up and meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and ask them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going off to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron?'" ⁴Therefore this is what the LORD says: 'You will not leave the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!' " So Elijah went.

⁵When the messengers returned to the king, he asked them, "Why have you come back?"

⁶"A man came to meet us," they replied. "And he said to us, 'Go back to the king who sent you and tell him, "This is what the LORD says: Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending messengers to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not leave the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!" ' " "

⁷The king asked them, "What kind of man was it who came to meet you and told you this?"

⁸They replied, "He had a garment of hair^[1] and had a leather belt around his waist."

The king said, "That was Elijah the Tishbite."

⁹Then he sent to Elijah a captain with his company of fifty men. The captain went up to Elijah, who was sitting on the top of a hill, and said to him, "Man of God, the king says, 'Come down!' " "

¹⁰Elijah answered the captain, "If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!" Then fire fell from heaven and consumed the captain and his men.

¹¹At this the king sent to Elijah another captain with his fifty men. The captain said to him, “Man of God, this is what the king says, ‘Come down at once!’ ”

¹²“If I am a man of God,” Elijah replied, “may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!” Then the fire of God fell from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men.

¹³So the king sent a third captain with his fifty men. This third captain went up and fell on his knees before Elijah. “Man of God,” he begged, “please have respect for my life and the lives of these fifty men, your servants! ¹⁴See, fire has fallen from heaven and consumed the first two captains and all their men. But now have respect for my life!”

¹⁵The angel of the LORD said to Elijah, “Go down with him; do not be afraid of him.” So Elijah got up and went down with him to the king.

¹⁶He told the king, “This is what the LORD says: Is it because there is no God in Israel for you to consult that you have sent messengers to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Because you have done this, you will never leave the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!” ¹⁷So he died, according to the word of the LORD that Elijah had spoken.

Because Ahaziah had no son, Joram^[2] succeeded him as king in the second year of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah. ¹⁸As for all the other events of Ahaziah’s reign, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

ELIJAH TAKEN UP TO HEAVEN

¹When the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven in a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. ²Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here; the LORD has sent me to Bethel.”

But Elisha said, “As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Bethel.

³The company of the prophets at Bethel came out to Elisha and asked, “Do you know that the LORD is going to take your master from you today?”

“Yes, I know,” Elisha replied, “so be quiet.”

⁴Then Elijah said to him, “Stay here, Elisha; the LORD has sent me to Jericho.”

And he replied, “As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you.” So they went to Jericho.

⁵The company of the prophets at Jericho went up to Elisha and asked him, “Do you know that the LORD is going to take your master from you today?”

“Yes, I know,” he replied, “so be quiet.”

⁶Then Elijah said to him, “Stay here; the LORD has sent me to the Jordan.”

And he replied, “As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you.” So the two of them walked on.

⁷Fifty men from the company of the prophets went and stood at a distance, facing the place where Elijah and Elisha had stopped at the Jordan. ⁸Elijah took his cloak, rolled it up and struck the water with it. The water divided to the right and to the left, and the two of them crossed over on dry ground.

⁹When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, “Tell me, what can I do for you before I am taken from you?”

“Let me inherit a double portion of your spirit,” Elisha replied.

¹⁰“You have asked a difficult thing,” Elijah said, “yet if you see me when I am taken from you, it will be yours—otherwise, it will not.”

¹¹As they were walking along and talking together, suddenly a chariot of fire and horses of fire appeared and separated the two of them, and Elijah went up to heaven in a whirlwind. ¹²Elisha saw this and cried out, “My father! My father! The chariots and horsemen of Israel!” And Elisha saw him no more.

Then he took hold of his garment and tore it in two.

¹³Elisha then picked up Elijah's cloak that had fallen from him and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. ¹⁴He took the cloak that had fallen from Elijah and struck the water with it. "Where now is the LORD, the God of Elijah?" he asked. When he struck the water, it divided to the right and to the left, and he crossed over.

¹⁵The company of the prophets from Jericho, who were watching, said, "The spirit of Elijah is resting on Elisha." And they went to meet him and bowed to the ground before him. ¹⁶"Look," they said, "we your servants have fifty able men. Let them go and look for your master. Perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has picked him up and set him down on some mountain or in some valley."

¹⁷But they persisted until he was too embarrassed to refuse. So he said, "Send them." And they sent fifty men, who searched for three days but did not find him. ¹⁸When they returned to Elisha, who was staying in Jericho, he said to them, "Didn't I tell you not to go?"

HEALING OF THE WATER

¹⁹The people of the city said to Elisha, “Look, our lord, this town is well situated, as you can see, but the water is bad and the land is unproductive.”

²⁰“Bring me a new bowl,” he said, “and put salt in it.” So they brought it to him.

²¹Then he went out to the spring and threw the salt into it, saying, “This is what the LORD says: ‘I have healed this water. Never again will it cause death or make the land unproductive.’ ” ²²And the water has remained pure to this day, according to the word Elisha had spoken.

ELISHA IS JEERED

²³From there Elisha went up to Bethel. As he was walking along the road, some boys came out of the town and jeered at him. “Get out of here, baldy!” they said. “Get out of here, baldy!” ²⁴He turned around, looked at them and called down a curse on them in the name of the LORD. Then two bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the boys. ²⁵And he went on to Mount Carmel and from there returned to Samaria.

Hunter dreamed of doing something about the racial divides he saw in his urban school. His classmates spoke a couple dozen languages—and came from nearly three dozen nations. Yet everyone shuffled through school in their own ethnic groups, never interacting except for accidental bumps and occasional fights. One day Hunter mumbled in social studies how sad it was that the school’s groups barely knew each other. He didn’t say it, but he also thought that as a Christian he should be reaching out to people different than himself. When Hunter saw nothing but blank faces, he assumed his thoughts had fallen with a thud to the floor. Then Tristan stopped him after class. He wanted to talk.

MOAB REVOLTS

¹Joram^[3] son of Ahab became king of Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned twelve years. ²He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, but not as his father and mother had done. He got rid of the sacred stone of Baal that his father had made. ³Nevertheless he clung to the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit; he did not turn away from them.

⁴Now Mesha king of Moab raised sheep, and he had to pay the king of Israel a tribute of a hundred thousand lambs and the wool of a hundred thousand rams. ⁵But after Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. ⁶So at that time King Joram set out from Samaria and mobilized all Israel. ⁷He also sent this message to Jehoshaphat king of Judah: “The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?”

⁸“By what route shall we attack?” he asked.

“Through the Desert of Edom,” he answered.

⁹So the king of Israel set out with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. After a roundabout march of seven days, the army had no more water for themselves or for the animals with them.

¹⁰“What!” exclaimed the king of Israel. “Has the LORD called us three kings together only to deliver us into the hands of Moab?”

¹¹But Jehoshaphat asked, “Is there no prophet of the LORD here, through whom we may inquire of the LORD?”

An officer of the king of Israel answered, “Elisha son of Shaphat is here. He used to pour water on the hands of Elijah.^[4]” ¹²Jehoshaphat said, “The word of the LORD is with him.” So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

¹³Elisha said to the king of Israel, “Why do you want to involve me? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother.”

“No,” the king of Israel answered, “because it was the LORD who called us three kings together to deliver us into the hands of Moab.”

¹⁴Elisha said, “As surely as the LORD Almighty lives, whom I serve, if I did not have respect for the presence of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not pay any attention to you. ¹⁵But now bring me a harpist.”

While the harpist was playing, the hand of the LORD came on Elisha ¹⁶and he said, “This is what the LORD says: I will fill this valley with pools of water. ¹⁷For this is what the LORD says: You will see neither wind nor rain, yet this valley will be filled with water, and you, your cattle and your other animals will drink. ¹⁸This is an easy thing in the eyes of the LORD; he will also deliver Moab into your hands. ¹⁹You will overthrow every fortified city and every major town. You will cut down every good tree, stop up all the springs, and ruin every good field with stones.”

²⁰The next morning, about the time for offering the sacrifice, there it was—water flowing from the direction of Edom! And the land was filled with water.

²¹Now all the Moabites had heard that the kings had come to fight against them; so every man, young and old, who could bear arms was called up and stationed on the border. ²²When they got up early in the morning, the sun was shining on the water. To the Moabites across the way, the water looked red—like blood. ²³“That’s blood!” they said. “Those kings must have fought and slaughtered each other. Now to the plunder, Moab!”

²⁴But when the Moabites came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and fought them until they fled. And the Israelites invaded the land and slaughtered the Moabites. ²⁵They destroyed the towns, and each man threw a stone on every good field until it was covered. They stopped up all the springs and cut down every good tree. Only Kir Hareseth was left with its stones in place, but men armed with slings surrounded it and attacked it.

²⁶When the king of Moab saw that the battle had gone against him, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to break through to the king of Edom, but they failed. ²⁷Then he took his firstborn son, who was to succeed him as king, and offered him as a sacrifice on the city wall. The fury against Israel was great; they withdrew and returned to their own land.

2 Kings 4

THE WIDOW'S OLIVE OIL

¹The wife of a man from the company of the prophets cried out to Elisha, “Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that he revered the LORD. But now his creditor is coming to take my two boys as his slaves.”

²Elisha replied to her, “How can I help you? Tell me, what do you have in your house?”

“Your servant has nothing there at all,” she said, “except a small jar of olive oil.”

³Elisha said, “Go around and ask all your neighbors for empty jars. Don’t ask for just a few. ⁴Then go inside and shut the door behind you and your sons. Pour oil into all the jars, and as each is filled, put it to one side.”

⁵She left him and shut the door behind her and her sons. They brought the jars to her and she kept pouring. ⁶When all the jars were full, she said to her son, “Bring me another one.”

But he replied, “There is not a jar left.” Then the oil stopped flowing.

⁷She went and told the man of God, and he said, “Go, sell the oil and pay your debts. You and your sons can live on what is left.”

THE SHUNAMMITE'S SON RESTORED TO LIFE

⁸One day Elisha went to Shunem. And a well-to-do woman was there, who urged him to stay for a meal. So whenever he came by, he stopped there to eat.

⁹She said to her husband, “I know that this man who often comes our way is a holy man of God. ¹⁰Let’s make a small room on the roof and put in it a bed and a table, a chair and a lamp for him. Then he can stay there whenever he comes to us.”

¹¹One day when Elisha came, he went up to his room and lay down there.

¹²He said to his servant Gehazi, “Call the Shunammite.” So he called her, and she stood before him. ¹³Elisha said to him, “Tell her, ‘You have gone to all this trouble for us. Now what can be done for you? Can we speak on your behalf to the king or the commander of the army?’ ”

She replied, “I have a home among my own people.”

¹⁴“What can be done for her?” Elisha asked.

Gehazi said, “She has no son, and her husband is old.”

¹⁵Then Elisha said, “Call her.” So he called her, and she stood in the doorway. ¹⁶“About this time next year,” Elisha said, “you will hold a son in your arms.”

“No, my lord!” she objected. “Please, man of God, don’t mislead your servant!”

¹⁷But the woman became pregnant, and the next year about that same time she gave birth to a son, just as Elisha had told her.

¹⁸The child grew, and one day he went out to his father, who was with the reapers. ¹⁹He said to his father, “My head! My head!”

His father told a servant, “Carry him to his mother.” ²⁰After the servant had lifted him up and carried him to his mother, the boy sat on her lap until noon, and then he died. ²¹She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, then shut the door and went out.

²²She called her husband and said, “Please send me one of the servants and a donkey so I can go to the man of God quickly and return.”

²³“Why go to him today?” he asked. “It’s not the New Moon or the Sabbath.”

“That’s all right,” she said.

²⁴She saddled the donkey and said to her servant, “Lead on; don’t slow down for me unless I tell you.” ²⁵So she set out and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel.

When he saw her in the distance, the man of God said to his servant Gehazi, “Look! There’s the Shunammite! ²⁶Run to meet her and ask her, ‘Are you all right? Is your husband all right? Is your child all right?’ ”

²⁷When she reached the man of God at the mountain, she took hold of his feet. Gehazi came over to push her away, but the man of God said, “Leave her alone! She is in bitter distress, but the LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me why.”

²⁸“Did I ask you for a son, my lord?” she said. “Didn’t I tell you, ‘Don’t raise my hopes'?"

²⁹Elisha said to Gehazi, "Tuck your cloak into your belt, take my staff in your hand and run. Don't greet anyone you meet, and if anyone greets you, do not answer. Lay my staff on the boy's face."

³⁰But the child's mother said, "As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So he got up and followed her.

³¹Gehazi went on ahead and laid the staff on the boy's face, but there was no sound or response. So Gehazi went back to meet Elisha and told him, "The boy has not awakened."

³²When Elisha reached the house, there was the boy lying dead on his couch. ³³He went in, shut the door on the two of them and prayed to the LORD. ³⁴Then he got on the bed and lay on the boy, mouth to mouth, eyes to eyes, hands to hands. As he stretched himself out on him, the boy's body grew warm. ³⁵Elisha turned away and walked back and forth in the room and then got on the bed and stretched out on him once more. The boy sneezed seven times and opened his eyes.

³⁶Elisha summoned Gehazi and said, "Call the Shunammite." And he did. When she came, he said, "Take your son." ³⁷She came in, fell at his feet and bowed to the ground. Then she took her son and went out.

DEATH IN THE POT

³⁸Elisha returned to Gilgal and there was a famine in that region. While the company of the prophets was meeting with him, he said to his servant, “Put on the large pot and cook some stew for these prophets.”

³⁹One of them went out into the fields to gather herbs and found a wild vine and picked as many of its gourds as his garment could hold. When he returned, he cut them up into the pot of stew, though no one knew what they were. ⁴⁰The stew was poured out for the men, but as they began to eat it, they cried out, “Man of God, there is death in the pot!” And they could not eat it.

⁴¹Elisha said, “Get some flour.” He put it into the pot and said, “Serve it to the people to eat.” And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

FEEDING OF A HUNDRED

⁴²A man came from Baal Shalishah, bringing the man of God twenty loaves of barley bread baked from the first ripe grain, along with some heads of new grain. “Give it to the people to eat,” Elisha said.

⁴³“How can I set this before a hundred men?” his servant asked.

But Elisha answered, “Give it to the people to eat. For this is what the LORD says: ‘They will eat and have some left over.’ ” ⁴⁴Then he set it before them, and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of the LORD.

2 Kings 5

NAAMAN HEALED OF LEPROSY

¹Now Naaman was commander of the army of the king of Aram. He was a great man in the sight of his master and highly regarded, because through him the LORD had given victory to Aram. He was a valiant soldier, but he had leprosy.^[5]

⁴Naaman went to his master and told him what the girl from Israel had said. ⁵"By all means, go," the king of Aram replied. "I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So Naaman left, taking with him ten talents^[6] of silver, six thousand shekels^[7] of gold and ten sets of clothing. ⁶The letter that he took to the king of Israel read: "With this letter I am sending my servant Naaman to you so that you may cure him of his leprosy."

⁷As soon as the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his robes and said, "Am I God? Can I kill and bring back to life? Why does this fellow send someone to me to be cured of his leprosy? See how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me!"

⁸When Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his robes, he sent him this message: "Why have you torn your robes? Have the man come to me and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel." ⁹So Naaman went with his horses and chariots and stopped at the door of Elisha's house. ¹⁰Elisha sent a messenger to say to him, "Go, wash yourself seven times in the Jordan, and your flesh will be restored and you will be cleansed."

¹¹But Naaman went away angry and said, "I thought that he would surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, wave his hand over the spot and cure me of my leprosy. ¹²Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Couldn't I wash in them and be cleansed?" So he turned and went off in a rage.

¹³Naaman's servants went to him and said, "My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more, then, when he tells you, 'Wash and be cleansed'!" ¹⁴So he went down and dipped himself in the Jordan seven times, as the man of God had told him, and his flesh was restored and became clean like that of a young boy.

¹⁵Then Naaman and all his attendants went back to the man of God. He stood before him and said, “Now I know that there is no God in all the world except in Israel. So please accept a gift from your servant.”

¹⁶The prophet answered, “As surely as the LORD lives, whom I serve, I will not accept a thing.” And even though Naaman urged him, he refused.

¹⁷“If you will not,” said Naaman, “please let me, your servant, be given as much earth as a pair of mules can carry, for your servant will never again make burnt offerings and sacrifices to any other god but the LORD. ¹⁸But may the LORD forgive your servant for this one thing: When my master enters the temple of Rimmon to bow down and he is leaning on my arm and I have to bow there also—when I bow down in the temple of Rimmon, may the LORD forgive your servant for this.”

¹⁹“Go in peace,” Elisha said.

After Naaman had traveled some distance, ²⁰Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said to himself, “My master was too easy on Naaman, this Aramean, by not accepting from him what he brought. As surely as the LORD lives, I will run after him and get something from him.”

²¹So Gehazi hurried after Naaman. When Naaman saw him running toward him, he got down from the chariot to meet him. “Is everything all right?” he asked.

²²“Everything is all right,” Gehazi answered. “My master sent me to say, ‘Two young men from the company of the prophets have just come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent^[8] of silver and two sets of clothing.’ ”

²³“By all means, take two talents,” said Naaman. He urged Gehazi to accept them, and then tied up the two talents of silver in two bags, with two sets of clothing. He gave them to two of his servants, and they carried them ahead of Gehazi. ²⁴When Gehazi came to the hill, he took the things from the servants and put them away in the house. He sent the men away and they left.

²⁵When he went in and stood before his master, Elisha asked him, “Where have you been, Gehazi?”

“Your servant didn’t go anywhere,” Gehazi answered.

²⁶But Elisha said to him, “Was not my spirit with you when the man got down from his chariot to meet you? Is this the time to take money or to accept clothes—or olive groves and vineyards, or flocks and herds, or male and female slaves? ²⁷Naaman’s leprosy will cling to you and to your descendants forever.” Then Gehazi went from Elisha’s presence and his skin was leprous—it had become as white as snow.

ROCK SOLID truths

2 Kings 5:1–19

God’s commands aren’t as crazy as they sound.

Naaman was furious. He was commander of the entire army of the nation of Aram, and he had traveled to Israel with an enormous fortune intending to buy a cure to his leprosy, a terrible skin condition. He showed up with his chariot and horses at Elisha’s door, but the prophet wouldn’t even speak to Naaman. Instead of saying a mighty prayer, Elisha sent the general to wash in the murky Jordan River. Naaman wanted nothing to do with what seemed like a ridiculous command—until his servants persuaded him to give the instructions a try. And Naaman was shocked when he was suddenly healed. That’s how it often works with God’s commands. Obeying the Lord can seem absolutely foolish, until you try to do life God’s way—and find out it works.

Think: When has one of God’s commands seemed crazy to you—but you obeyed anyway? What happened?

2 Kings 6

AN AXHEAD FLOATS

¹The company of the prophets said to Elisha, “Look, the place where we meet with you is too small for us. ²Let us go to the Jordan, where each of us can get a pole; and let us build a place there for us to meet.”

And he said, “Go.”

³Then one of them said, “Won’t you please come with your servants?”

“I will,” Elisha replied. ⁴And he went with them.

They went to the Jordan and began to cut down trees. ⁵As one of them was cutting down a tree, the iron axhead fell into the water. “Oh no, my lord!” he cried out. “It was borrowed!”

⁶The man of God asked, “Where did it fall?” When he showed him the place, Elisha cut a stick and threw it there, and made the iron float. ⁷“Lift it out,” he said. Then the man reached out his hand and took it.

ELISHA TRAPS BLINDED ARAMEANS

⁸Now the king of Aram was at war with Israel. After conferring with his officers, he said, “I will set up my camp in such and such a place.”

⁹The man of God sent word to the king of Israel: “Beware of passing that place, because the Arameans are going down there.” ¹⁰So the king of Israel checked on the place indicated by the man of God. Time and again Elisha warned the king, so that he was on his guard in such places.

¹¹This enraged the king of Aram. He summoned his officers and demanded of them, “Tell me! Which of us is on the side of the king of Israel?”

¹³“Go, find out where he is,” the king ordered, “so I can send men and capture him.” The report came back: “He is in Dothan.” ¹⁴Then he sent horses and chariots and a strong force there. They went by night and surrounded the city.

¹⁵When the servant of the man of God got up and went out early the next morning, an army with horses and chariots had surrounded the city. “Oh no, my lord! What shall we do?” the servant asked.

¹⁶“Don’t be afraid,” the prophet answered. “Those who are with us are more than those who are with them.”

¹⁷And Elisha prayed, “Open his eyes, LORD, so that he may see.” Then the LORD opened the servant’s eyes, and he looked and saw the hills full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

¹⁸As the enemy came down toward him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, “Strike this army with blindness.” So he struck them with blindness, as Elisha had asked.

¹⁹Elisha told them, “This is not the road and this is not the city. Follow me, and I will lead you to the man you are looking for.” And he led them to Samaria.

²⁰After they entered the city, Elisha said, “LORD, open the eyes of these men so they can see.” Then the LORD opened their eyes and they looked, and there they were, inside Samaria.

²¹When the king of Israel saw them, he asked Elisha, “Shall I kill them, my father? Shall I kill them?”

²²“Do not kill them,” he answered. “Would you kill those you have captured with your own sword or bow? Set food and water before them so that they may eat and drink and then go back to their master.” ²³So he prepared a great feast for them, and after they had finished eating and drinking, he sent them away, and they returned to their master. So the bands from Aram stopped raiding Israel’s territory.

FAMINE IN BESIEGED SAMARIA

²⁴Some time later, Ben-Hadad king of Aram mobilized his entire army and marched up and laid siege to Samaria. ²⁵There was a great famine in the city; the siege lasted so long that a donkey's head sold for eighty shekels^[9] of silver, and a quarter of a cab^[10] of seed pods^[11] for five shekels.^[12]

²⁶As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried to him, "Help me, my lord the king!"

²⁷The king replied, "If the LORD does not help you, where can I get help for you? From the threshing floor? From the winepress?" ²⁸Then he asked her, "What's the matter?"

She answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give up your son so we may eat him today, and tomorrow we'll eat my son.' ²⁹So we cooked my son and ate him. The next day I said to her, 'Give up your son so we may eat him,' but she had hidden him."

³⁰When the king heard the woman's words, he tore his robes. As he went along the wall, the people looked, and they saw that, under his robes, he had sackcloth on his body. ³¹He said, "May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat remains on his shoulders today!"

³²Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. The king sent a messenger ahead, but before he arrived, Elisha said to the elders, "Don't you see how this murderer is sending someone to cut off my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold it shut against him. Is not the sound of his master's footsteps behind him?" ³³While he was still talking to them, the messenger came down to him.

The king said, "This disaster is from the LORD. Why should I wait for the LORD any longer?"

ROCK SOLID truths

2 Kings 6:8–22

Angels protect you.

You might picture angels as bright glittery beings floating around making the world a better place. Or maybe as chubby little guys shooting love arrows on Valentine's Day. But the Bible presents angels as real, powerful beings active in your world. When the prophet Elisha and his servant saw they were surrounded by an angry army from Aram, they could have panicked. Yet Elisha spotted an even stronger army on their side, with “the hills full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha” (2 Kings 6:17). The Lord sent those angels to guard Elisha, just as he appoints angels to watch over you. Psalm 91:11 promises the Lord “will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.” And Hebrews 1:14 says, “Are not all angels ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation?”

Think: Do you believe angels exist as an important part of your world? Why—or why not?

2 Kings 7

¹Elisha replied, “Hear the word of the LORD. This is what the LORD says: About this time tomorrow, a seah^[13] of the finest flour will sell for a shekel^[14] and two seahs^[15] of barley for a shekel at the gate of Samaria.”

²The officer on whose arm the king was leaning said to the man of God, “Look, even if the LORD should open the floodgates of the heavens, could this happen?”

“You will see it with your own eyes,” answered Elisha, “but you will not eat any of it!”

THE SIEGE LIFTED

³Now there were four men with leprosy^[16] at the entrance of the city gate. They said to each other, “Why stay here until we die? ⁴If we say, ‘We’ll go into the city’—the famine is there, and we will die. And if we stay here, we will die. So let’s go over to the camp of the Arameans and surrender. If they spare us, we live; if they kill us, then we die.”

⁵At dusk they got up and went to the camp of the Arameans. When they reached the edge of the camp, no one was there, ⁶for the Lord had caused the Arameans to hear the sound of chariots and horses and a great army, so that they said to one another, “Look, the king of Israel has hired the Hittite and Egyptian kings to attack us!” ⁷So they got up and fled in the dusk and abandoned their tents and their horses and donkeys. They left the camp as it was and ran for their lives.

⁸The men who had leprosy reached the edge of the camp, entered one of the tents and ate and drank. Then they took silver, gold and clothes, and went off and hid them. They returned and entered another tent and took some things from it and hid them also.

¹⁰So they went and called out to the city gatekeepers and told them, “We went into the Aramean camp and no one was there—not a sound of anyone—only tethered horses and donkeys, and the tents left just as they were.” ¹¹The gatekeepers shouted the news, and it was reported within the palace.

¹²The king got up in the night and said to his officers, “I will tell you what the Arameans have done to us. They know we are starving; so they have left the camp to hide in the countryside, thinking, ‘They will surely come out, and then we will take them alive and get into the city.’ ”

¹³One of his officers answered, “Have some men take five of the horses that are left in the city. Their plight will be like that of all the Israelites left here—yes, they will only be like all these Israelites who are doomed. So let us send them to find out what happened.”

¹⁴So they selected two chariots with their horses, and the king sent them after the Aramean army. He commanded the drivers, "Go and find out what has happened." ¹⁵They followed them as far as the Jordan, and they found the whole road strewn with the clothing and equipment the Arameans had thrown away in their headlong flight. So the messengers returned and reported to the king. ¹⁶Then the people went out and plundered the camp of the Arameans. So a seah of the finest flour sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley sold for a shekel, as the LORD had said.

¹⁷Now the king had put the officer on whose arm he leaned in charge of the gate, and the people trampled him in the gateway, and he died, just as the man of God had foretold when the king came down to his house. ¹⁸It happened as the man of God had said to the king: "About this time tomorrow, a seah of the finest flour will sell for a shekel and two seahs of barley for a shekel at the gate of Samaria."

¹⁹The officer had said to the man of God, "Look, even if the LORD should open the floodgates of the heavens, could this happen?" The man of God had replied, "You will see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of it!" ²⁰And that is exactly what happened to him, for the people trampled him in the gateway, and he died.

2 Kings 8

THE SHUNAMMITE'S LAND RESTORED

¹Now Elisha had said to the woman whose son he had restored to life, “Go away with your family and stay for a while wherever you can, because the LORD has decreed a famine in the land that will last seven years.” ²The woman proceeded to do as the man of God said. She and her family went away and stayed in the land of the Philistines seven years.

³At the end of the seven years she came back from the land of the Philistines and went to appeal to the king for her house and land. ⁴The king was talking to Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, and had said, “Tell me about all the great things Elisha has done.” ⁵Just as Gehazi was telling the king how Elisha had restored the dead to life, the woman whose son Elisha had brought back to life came to appeal to the king for her house and land.

Gehazi said, “This is the woman, my lord the king, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life.” ⁶The king asked the woman about it, and she told him.

Then he assigned an official to her case and said to him, “Give back everything that belonged to her, including all the income from her land from the day she left the country until now.”

HAZAEI MURDERS BEN-HADAD

⁷Elisha went to Damascus, and Ben-Hadad king of Aram was ill. When the king was told, “The man of God has come all the way up here,” ⁸he said to Hazael, “Take a gift with you and go to meet the man of God. Consult the LORD through him; ask him, ‘Will I recover from this illness?’ ”

⁹Hazael went to meet Elisha, taking with him as a gift forty camel-loads of all the finest wares of Damascus. He went in and stood before him, and said, “Your son Ben-Hadad king of Aram has sent me to ask, ‘Will I recover from this illness?’ ”

¹⁰Elisha answered, “Go and say to him, ‘You will certainly recover.’ Nevertheless, ^[17] the LORD has revealed to me that he will in fact die.” ¹¹He stared at him with a fixed gaze until Hazael was embarrassed. Then the man of God began to weep.

¹²“Why is my lord weeping?” asked Hazael.

“Because I know the harm you will do to the Israelites,” he answered. “You will set fire to their fortified places, kill their young men with the sword, dash their little children to the ground, and rip open their pregnant women.”

¹³Hazael said, “How could your servant, a mere dog, accomplish such a feat?”

“The LORD has shown me that you will become king of Aram,” answered Elisha.

¹⁴Then Hazael left Elisha and returned to his master. When Ben-Hadad asked, “What did Elisha say to you?” Hazael replied, “He told me that you would certainly recover.” ¹⁵But the next day he took a thick cloth, soaked it in water and spread it over the king’s face, so that he died. Then Hazael succeeded him as king.

JEHORAM KING OF JUDAH

¹⁷He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. ¹⁸He followed the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for he married a daughter of Ahab. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD. ¹⁹Nevertheless, for the sake of his servant David, the LORD was not willing to destroy Judah. He had promised to maintain a lamp for David and his descendants forever.

²³As for the other events of Jehoram's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ²⁴Jehoram rested with his ancestors and was buried with them in the City of David. And Ahaziah his son succeeded him as king.

AHAZIAH KING OF JUDAH

²⁵In the twelfth year of Joram son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign. ²⁶Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem one year. His mother's name was Athaliah, a granddaughter of Omri king of Israel. ²⁷He followed the ways of the house of Ahab and did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done, for he was related by marriage to Ahab's family.

²⁸Ahaziah went with Joram son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram; ²⁹so King Joram returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds the Arameans had inflicted on him at Ramoth^[19] in his battle with Hazael king of Aram.

Then Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to Jezreel to see Joram son of Ahab, because he had been wounded.

2 Kings 9

JEHU ANOINTED KING OF ISRAEL

¹The prophet Elisha summoned a man from the company of the prophets and said to him, “Tuck your cloak into your belt, take this flask of olive oil with you and go to Ramoth Gilead. ²When you get there, look for Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi. Go to him, get him away from his companions and take him into an inner room. ³Then take the flask and pour the oil on his head and declare, ‘This is what the LORD says: I anoint you king over Israel.’ Then open the door and run; don’t delay!”

⁴So the young prophet went to Ramoth Gilead. ⁵When he arrived, he found the army officers sitting together. “I have a message for you, commander,” he said.

“For which of us?” asked Jehu.

“For you, commander,” he replied.

⁶Jehu got up and went into the house. Then the prophet poured the oil on Jehu’s head and declared, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘I anoint you king over the LORD’s people Israel. ⁷You are to destroy the house of Ahab your master, and I will avenge the blood of my servants the prophets and the blood of all the LORD’s servants shed by Jezebel. ⁸The whole house of Ahab will perish. I will cut off from Ahab every last male in Israel—slave or free.’ ⁹I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah. ¹⁰As for Jezebel, dogs will devour her on the plot of ground at Jezreel, and no one will bury her.’ ” Then he opened the door and ran.

¹¹When Jehu went out to his fellow officers, one of them asked him, “Is everything all right? Why did this maniac come to you?”

“You know the man and the sort of things he says,” Jehu replied.

¹²“That’s not true!” they said. “Tell us.”

Jehu said, “Here is what he told me: ‘This is what the LORD says: I anoint you king over Israel.’ ”

¹³They quickly took their cloaks and spread them under him on the bare steps. Then they blew the trumpet and shouted, “Jehu is king!”

JEHU KILLS JORAM AND AHAZIAH

¹⁴So Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. (Now Joram and all Israel had been defending Ramoth Gilead against Hazael king of Aram, ¹⁵but King Joram^[21] had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds the Arameans had inflicted on him in the battle with Hazael king of Aram.) Jehu said, “If you desire to make me king, don’t let anyone slip out of the city to go and tell the news in Jezreel.” ¹⁶Then he got into his chariot and rode to Jezreel, because Joram was resting there and Ahaziah king of Judah had gone down to see him.

¹⁷When the lookout standing on the tower in Jezreel saw Jehu’s troops approaching, he called out, “I see some troops coming.”

“Get a horseman,” Joram ordered. “Send him to meet them and ask, ‘Do you come in peace?’ ”

¹⁸The horseman rode off to meet Jehu and said, “This is what the king says: ‘Do you come in peace?’ ”

“What do you have to do with peace?” Jehu replied. “Fall in behind me.”

The lookout reported, “The messenger has reached them, but he isn’t coming back.”

¹⁹So the king sent out a second horseman. When he came to them he said, “This is what the king says: ‘Do you come in peace?’ ”

Jehu replied, “What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me.”

²⁰The lookout reported, “He has reached them, but he isn’t coming back either. The driving is like that of Jehu son of Nimshi—he drives like a maniac.”

²¹“Hitch up my chariot,” Joram ordered. And when it was hitched up, Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah rode out, each in his own chariot, to meet Jehu. They met him at the plot of ground that had belonged to Naboth the Jezreelite. ²²When Joram saw Jehu he asked, “Have you come in peace, Jehu?”

“How can there be peace,” Jehu replied, “as long as all the idolatry and witchcraft of your mother Jezebel abound?”

²³Joram turned about and fled, calling out to Ahaziah, “Treachery, Ahaziah!”

²⁴Then Jehu drew his bow and shot Joram between the shoulders. The arrow pierced his heart and he slumped down in his chariot. ²⁵Jehu said to Bidkar, his chariot officer, “Pick him up and throw him on the field that belonged to Naboth the Jezreelite. Remember how you and I were riding together in chariots behind Ahab his father when the LORD spoke this prophecy against him: ²⁶‘Yesterday I saw the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons, declares the LORD, and I will surely make you pay for it on this plot of ground, declares the LORD.’^[22] Now then, pick him up and throw him on that plot, in accordance with the word of the LORD.”

²⁷When Ahaziah king of Judah saw what had happened, he fled up the road to Beth Haggan.^[23] Jehu chased him, shouting, “Kill him too!” They wounded him in his chariot on the way up to Gur near Ibleam, but he escaped to Megiddo and died there. ²⁸His servants took him by chariot to Jerusalem and buried him with his ancestors in his tomb in the City of David. ²⁹(In the eleventh year of Joram son of Ahab, Ahaziah had become king of Judah.)

JEZEBEL KILLED

³⁰Then Jehu went to Jezreel. When Jezebel heard about it, she put on eye makeup, arranged her hair and looked out of a window. ³¹As Jehu entered the gate, she asked, “Have you come in peace, you Zimri, you murderer of your master?”^[24]

³⁴Jehu went in and ate and drank. “Take care of that cursed woman,” he said, “and bury her, for she was a king’s daughter.” ³⁵But when they went out to bury her, they found nothing except her skull, her feet and her hands. ³⁶They went back and told Jehu, who said, “This is the word of the LORD that he spoke through his servant Elijah the Tishbite: On the plot of ground at Jezreel dogs will devour Jezebel’s flesh.^[25] ³⁷Jezebel’s body will be like dung on the ground in the plot at Jezreel, so that no one will be able to say, ‘This is Jezebel.’ ”

AHAB'S FAMILY KILLED

¹Now there were in Samaria seventy sons of the house of Ahab. So Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria: to the officials of Jezreel,^[26] to the elders and to the guardians of Ahab's children. He said, ²"You have your master's sons with you and you have chariots and horses, a fortified city and weapons. Now as soon as this letter reaches you, ³choose the best and most worthy of your master's sons and set him on his father's throne. Then fight for your master's house."

⁴But they were terrified and said, "If two kings could not resist him, how can we?"

⁵So the palace administrator, the city governor, the elders and the guardians sent this message to Jehu: "We are your servants and we will do anything you say. We will not appoint anyone as king; you do whatever you think best."

⁶Then Jehu wrote them a second letter, saying, "If you are on my side and will obey me, take the heads of your master's sons and come to me in Jezreel by this time tomorrow."

Now the royal princes, seventy of them, were with the leading men of the city, who were rearing them. ⁷When the letter arrived, these men took the princes and slaughtered all seventy of them. They put their heads in baskets and sent them to Jehu in Jezreel. ⁸When the messenger arrived, he told Jehu, "They have brought the heads of the princes."

Then Jehu ordered, "Put them in two piles at the entrance of the city gate until morning."

⁹The next morning Jehu went out. He stood before all the people and said, "You are innocent. It was I who conspired against my master and killed him, but who killed all these? ¹⁰Know, then, that not a word the LORD has spoken against the house of Ahab will fail. The LORD has done what he announced through his servant Elijah." ¹¹So Jehu killed everyone in Jezreel who remained of the house of Ahab, as well as all his chief men, his close friends and his priests, leaving him no survivor.

¹²Jehu then set out and went toward Samaria. At Beth Eked of the Shepherds, ¹³he met some relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah and asked, “Who are you?”

They said, “We are relatives of Ahaziah, and we have come down to greet the families of the king and of the queen mother.”

¹⁴“Take them alive!” he ordered. So they took them alive and slaughtered them by the well of Beth Eked—forty-two of them. He left no survivor.

¹⁵After he left there, he came upon Jehonadab son of Rekab, who was on his way to meet him. Jehu greeted him and said, “Are you in accord with me, as I am with you?”

“I am,” Jehonadab answered.

“If so,” said Jehu, “give me your hand.” So he did, and Jehu helped him up into the chariot. ¹⁶Jehu said, “Come with me and see my zeal for the LORD.” Then he had him ride along in his chariot.

¹⁷When Jehu came to Samaria, he killed all who were left there of Ahab’s family; he destroyed them, according to the word of the LORD spoken to Elijah.

SERVANTS OF BAAL KILLED

¹⁸Then Jehu brought all the people together and said to them, “Ahab served Baal a little; Jehu will serve him much. ¹⁹Now summon all the prophets of Baal, all his servants and all his priests. See that no one is missing, because I am going to hold a great sacrifice for Baal. Anyone who fails to come will no longer live.” But Jehu was acting deceptively in order to destroy the servants of Baal.

²⁰Jehu said, “Call an assembly in honor of Baal.” So they proclaimed it. ²¹Then he sent word throughout Israel, and all the servants of Baal came; not one stayed away. They crowded into the temple of Baal until it was full from one end to the other. ²²And Jehu said to the keeper of the wardrobe, “Bring robes for all the servants of Baal.” So he brought out robes for them.

²⁵As soon as Jehu had finished making the burnt offering, he ordered the guards and officers: “Go in and kill them; let no one escape.” So they cut them down with the sword. The guards and officers threw the bodies out and then entered the inner shrine of the temple of Baal. ²⁶They brought the sacred stone out of the temple of Baal and burned it. ²⁷They demolished the sacred stone of Baal and tore down the temple of Baal, and people have used it for a latrine to this day.

³⁰The LORD said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in accomplishing what is right in my eyes and have done to the house of Ahab all I had in mind to do, your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation.” ³¹Yet Jehu was not careful to keep the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam, which he had caused Israel to commit.

³²In those days the LORD began to reduce the size of Israel. Hazael overpowered the Israelites throughout their territory ³³east of the Jordan in all the land of Gilead (the region of Gad, Reuben and Manasseh), from Aroer by the Arnon Gorge through Gilead to Bashan.

³⁴As for the other events of Jehu's reign, all he did, and all his achievements, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

³⁵Jehu rested with his ancestors and was buried in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son succeeded him as king. ³⁶The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

ROCK SOLID plans

2 Kings 10:28–33

Aim to be truly great.

As king of Israel, Jehu cleansed the nation of wicked leaders and crushed priests of the false god Baal. He built a royal dynasty that lasted a century. But for all the good Jehu did, he fell far short of true greatness. Even though Jehu loudly declared his devotion to God (see 2 Kings 10:16), he allowed the nation to continue worshiping idols—two golden calves propped up as gods. In the end, God condemned Jehu for not keeping the law of the Lord with all of his heart.

Your next step: Look at your life for ways you half-heartedly follow God's commands—and then choose to obey God all the way.

2 Kings 11

ATHALIAH AND JOASH

⁹The commanders of units of a hundred did just as Jehoiada the priest ordered. Each one took his men—those who were going on duty on the Sabbath and those who were going off duty—and came to Jehoiada the priest. ¹⁰Then he gave the commanders the spears and shields that had belonged to King David and that were in the temple of the LORD. ¹¹The guards, each with weapon in hand, stationed themselves around the king—near the altar and the temple, from the south side to the north side of the temple.

¹³When Athaliah heard the noise made by the guards and the people, she went to the people at the temple of the LORD. ¹⁴She looked and there was the king, standing by the pillar, as the custom was. The officers and the trumpeters were beside the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her robes and called out, "Treason! Treason!"

¹⁵Jehoiada the priest ordered the commanders of units of a hundred, who were in charge of the troops: “Bring her out between the ranks^[29] and put to the sword anyone who follows her.” For the priest had said, “She must not be put to death in the temple of the LORD.” ¹⁶So they seized her as she reached the place where the horses enter the palace grounds, and there she was put to death.

¹⁷Jehoiada then made a covenant between the LORD and the king and people that they would be the LORD’s people. He also made a covenant between the king and the people. ¹⁸All the people of the land went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed the altars and idols to pieces and killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars.

Then Jehoiada the priest posted guards at the temple of the LORD. ¹⁹He took with him the commanders of hundreds, the Carites, the guards and all the people of the land, and together they brought the king down from the temple of the LORD and went into the palace, entering by way of the gate of the guards. The king then took his place on the royal throne. ²⁰All the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was calm, because Athaliah had been slain with the sword at the palace.

²¹Joash^[30] was seven years old when he began to reign.^[31]

2 Kings 12^[32]

¹In the seventh year of Jehu, Joash^[33] became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem forty years. His mother's name was Zibiah; she was from Beersheba.

²Joash did what was right in the eyes of the LORD all the years Jehoiada the priest instructed him. ³The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

⁶But by the twenty-third year of King Joash the priests still had not repaired the temple. ⁷Therefore King Joash summoned Jehoiada the priest and the other priests and asked them, "Why aren't you repairing the damage done to the temple? Take no more money from your treasurers, but hand it over for repairing the temple." ⁸The priests agreed that they would not collect any more money from the people and that they would not repair the temple themselves.

⁹Jehoiada the priest took a chest and bored a hole in its lid. He placed it beside the altar, on the right side as one enters the temple of the LORD. The priests who guarded the entrance put into the chest all the money that was brought to the temple of the LORD. ¹⁰Whenever they saw that there was a large amount of money in the chest, the royal secretary and the high priest came, counted the money that had been brought into the temple of the LORD and put it into bags. ¹¹When the amount had been determined, they gave the money to the men appointed to supervise the work on the temple. With it they paid those who worked on the temple of the LORD—the carpenters and builders, ¹²the masons and stonecutters. They purchased timber and blocks of dressed stone for the repair of the temple of the LORD, and met all the other expenses of restoring the temple.

¹³The money brought into the temple was not spent for making silver basins, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, trumpets or any other articles of gold or silver for the temple of the LORD; ¹⁴it was paid to the workers, who used it to repair the temple. ¹⁵They did not require an accounting from those to whom they gave the money to pay the workers, because they acted with complete honesty. ¹⁶The money from the guilt offerings and sin offerings^[34] was not brought into the temple of the LORD; it belonged to the priests.

¹⁷About this time Hazael king of Aram went up and attacked Gath and captured it. Then he turned to attack Jerusalem. ¹⁸But Joash king of Judah took all the sacred objects dedicated by his predecessors—Jehoshaphat, Jehoram and Ahaziah, the kings of Judah—and the gifts he himself had dedicated and all the gold found in the treasuries of the temple of the LORD and of the royal palace, and he sent them to Hazael king of Aram, who then withdrew from Jerusalem.

¹⁹As for the other events of the reign of Joash, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ²⁰His officials conspired against him and assassinated him at Beth Millo, on the road down to Silla. ²¹The officials who murdered him were Jozabad son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer. He died and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. And Amaziah his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 13

JEHOAHAZ KING OF ISRAEL

¹In the twenty-third year of Joash son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned seventeen years. ²He did evil in the eyes of the LORD by following the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit, and he did not turn away from them. ³So the LORD's anger burned against Israel, and for a long time he kept them under the power of Hazael king of Aram and Ben-Hadad his son.

⁴Then Jehoahaz sought the LORD's favor, and the LORD listened to him, for he saw how severely the king of Aram was oppressing Israel. ⁵The LORD provided a deliverer for Israel, and they escaped from the power of Aram. So the Israelites lived in their own homes as they had before. ⁶But they did not turn away from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, which he had caused Israel to commit; they continued in them. Also, the Asherah pole^[35] remained standing in Samaria.

⁷Nothing had been left of the army of Jehoahaz except fifty horsemen, ten chariots and ten thousand foot soldiers, for the king of Aram had destroyed the rest and made them like the dust at threshing time.

⁸As for the other events of the reign of Jehoahaz, all he did and his achievements, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? ⁹Jehoahaz rested with his ancestors and was buried in Samaria. And Jehoash^[36] his son succeeded him as king.

JEHOASH KING OF ISRAEL

¹⁰In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned sixteen years. ¹¹He did evil in the eyes of the LORD and did not turn away from any of the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit; he continued in them.

¹²As for the other events of the reign of Jehoash, all he did and his achievements, including his war against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? ¹³Jehoash rested with his ancestors, and Jeroboam succeeded him on the throne. Jehoash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

¹⁴Now Elisha had been suffering from the illness from which he died. Jehoash king of Israel went down to see him and wept over him. “My father! My father!” he cried. “The chariots and horsemen of Israel!”

¹⁵Elisha said, “Get a bow and some arrows,” and he did so. ¹⁶“Take the bow in your hands,” he said to the king of Israel. When he had taken it, Elisha put his hands on the king’s hands.

¹⁸Then he said, “Take the arrows,” and the king took them. Elisha told him, “Strike the ground.” He struck it three times and stopped. ¹⁹The man of God was angry with him and said, “You should have struck the ground five or six times; then you would have defeated Aram and completely destroyed it. But now you will defeat it only three times.”

²⁰Elisha died and was buried.

Now Moabite raiders used to enter the country every spring. ²¹Once while some Israelites were burying a man, suddenly they saw a band of raiders; so they threw the man’s body into Elisha’s tomb. When the body touched Elisha’s bones, the man came to life and stood up on his feet.

²²Hazael king of Aram oppressed Israel throughout the reign of Jehoahaz. ²³But the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion and showed concern for them because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. To this day he has been unwilling to destroy them or banish them from his presence.

²⁴Hazael king of Aram died, and Ben-Hadad his son succeeded him as king.
²⁵Then Jehoash son of Jehoahaz recaptured from Ben-Hadad son of Hazael the towns he had taken in battle from his father Jehoahaz. Three times Jehoash defeated him, and so he recovered the Israelite towns.

2 Kings 14

AMAZIAH KING OF JUDAH

¹In the second year of Jehoash^[37] son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah began to reign. ²He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Jehoaddan; she was from Jerusalem. ³He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, but not as his father David had done. In everything he followed the example of his father Joash. ⁴The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

⁵After the kingdom was firmly in his grasp, he executed the officials who had murdered his father the king. ⁶Yet he did not put the children of the assassins to death, in accordance with what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses where the LORD commanded: "Parents are not to be put to death for their children, nor children put to death for their parents; each will die for their own sin."^[38]

⁷He was the one who defeated ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt and captured Sela in battle, calling it Joktheel, the name it has to this day.

⁸Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, with the challenge: "Come, let us face each other in battle."

⁹But Jehoash king of Israel replied to Amaziah king of Judah: "A thistle in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar in Lebanon, 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' Then a wild beast in Lebanon came along and trampled the thistle underfoot. ¹⁰You have indeed defeated Edom and now you are arrogant. Glory in your victory, but stay at home! Why ask for trouble and cause your own downfall and that of Judah also?"

¹⁷Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel. ¹⁸As for the other events of Amaziah's reign, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

¹⁹They conspired against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish, but they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there. ²⁰He was brought back by horse and was buried in Jerusalem with his ancestors, in the City of David.

²¹Then all the people of Judah took Azariah,^[40] who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah. ²²He was the one who rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah after Amaziah rested with his ancestors.

JEROBOAM II KING OF ISRAEL

²³In the fifteenth year of Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam son of Jehoash king of Israel became king in Samaria, and he reigned forty-one years.

²⁴He did evil in the eyes of the LORD and did not turn away from any of the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit. ²⁵He was the one who restored the boundaries of Israel from Lebo Hamath to the Dead Sea, [\[41\]](#) in accordance with the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, spoken through his servant Jonah son of Amittai, the prophet from Gath Hopher.

²⁶The LORD had seen how bitterly everyone in Israel, whether slave or free, was suffering; [\[42\]](#) there was no one to help them. ²⁷And since the LORD had not said he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven, he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam son of Jehoash.

²⁸As for the other events of Jeroboam's reign, all he did, and his military achievements, including how he recovered for Israel both Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? ²⁹Jeroboam rested with his ancestors, the kings of Israel. And Zechariah his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 15

AZARIAH KING OF JUDAH

¹In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah^[43] son of Amaziah king of Judah began to reign. ²He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem fifty-two years. His mother's name was Jekoliah; she was from Jerusalem. ³He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Amaziah had done. ⁴The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

⁵The LORD afflicted the king with leprosy^[44] until the day he died, and he lived in a separate house.^[45] Jotham the king's son had charge of the palace and governed the people of the land.

⁶As for the other events of Azariah's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ⁷Azariah rested with his ancestors and was buried near them in the City of David. And Jotham his son succeeded him as king.

ZECHARIAH KING OF ISRAEL

⁸In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned six months. ⁹He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as his predecessors had done. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

¹⁰Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against Zechariah. He attacked him in front of the people,^[46] assassinated him and succeeded him as king. ¹¹The other events of Zechariah's reign are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel. ¹²So the word of the LORD spoken to Jehu was fulfilled: "Your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation."^[47]

SHALLUM KING OF ISRAEL

¹³Shallum son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah, and he reigned in Samaria one month. ¹⁴Then Menahem son of Gadi went from Tirzah up to Samaria. He attacked Shallum son of Jabesh in Samaria, assassinated him and succeeded him as king.

¹⁵The other events of Shallum's reign, and the conspiracy he led, are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

¹⁶At that time Menahem, starting out from Tirzah, attacked Tiphseh and everyone in the city and its vicinity, because they refused to open their gates. He sacked Tiphseh and ripped open all the pregnant women.

MENAHEM KING OF ISRAEL

¹⁷In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi became king of Israel, and he reigned in Samaria ten years. ¹⁸He did evil in the eyes of the LORD. During his entire reign he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

¹⁹Then Pul^[48] king of Assyria invaded the land, and Menahem gave him a thousand talents^[49] of silver to gain his support and strengthen his own hold on the kingdom. ²⁰Menahem exacted this money from Israel. Every wealthy person had to contribute fifty shekels^[50] of silver to be given to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria withdrew and stayed in the land no longer.

²¹As for the other events of Menahem's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? ²²Menahem rested with his ancestors. And Pekahiah his son succeeded him as king.

PEKAHIAH KING OF ISRAEL

²³In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah son of Menahem became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned two years. ²⁴Pekahiah did evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit. ²⁵One of his chief officers, Pekah son of Remaliah, conspired against him. Taking fifty men of Gilead with him, he assassinated Pekahiah, along with Argob and Arieah, in the citadel of the royal palace at Samaria. So Pekah killed Pekahiah and succeeded him as king.

²⁶The other events of Pekahiah's reign, and all he did, are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

PEKAH KING OF ISRAEL

²⁷In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned twenty years. ²⁸He did evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

²⁹In the time of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came and took Ijon, Abel Beth Maakah, Janoah, Kedesh and Hazor. He took Gilead and Galilee, including all the land of Naphtali, and deported the people to Assyria. ³⁰Then Hoshea son of Elah conspired against Pekah son of Remaliah. He attacked and assassinated him, and then succeeded him as king in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah.

³¹As for the other events of Pekah's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

JOTHAM KING OF JUDAH

³²In the second year of Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel, Jotham son of Uzziah king of Judah began to reign. ³³He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok. ³⁴He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Uzziah had done. ³⁵The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there. Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the temple of the LORD.

³⁶As for the other events of Jotham's reign, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ³⁷(In those days the LORD began to send Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah.) ³⁸Jotham rested with his ancestors and was buried with them in the City of David, the city of his father. And Ahaz his son succeeded him as king.

AHAZ KING OF JUDAH

⁵Then Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel marched up to fight against Jerusalem and besieged Ahaz, but they could not overpower him. ⁶At that time, Rezin king of Aram recovered Elath for Aram by driving out the people of Judah. Edomites then moved into Elath and have lived there to this day.

⁷Ahaz sent messengers to say to Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, “I am your servant and vassal. Come up and save me out of the hand of the king of Aram and of the king of Israel, who are attacking me.” ⁸And Ahaz took the silver and gold found in the temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the royal palace and sent it as a gift to the king of Assyria. ⁹The king of Assyria complied by attacking Damascus and capturing it. He deported its inhabitants to Kir and put Rezin to death.

¹⁰Then King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria. He saw an altar in Damascus and sent to Uriah the priest a sketch of the altar, with detailed plans for its construction. ¹¹So Uriah the priest built an altar in accordance with all the plans that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus and finished it before King Ahaz returned. ¹²When the king came back from Damascus and saw the altar, he approached it and presented offerings^[51] on it. ¹³He offered up his burnt offering and grain offering, poured out his drink offering, and splashed the blood of his fellowship offerings against the altar. ¹⁴As for the bronze altar that stood before the LORD, he brought it from the front of the temple—from between the new altar and the temple of the LORD—and put it on the north side of the new altar.

¹⁵King Ahaz then gave these orders to Uriah the priest: “On the large new altar, offer the morning burnt offering and the evening grain offering, the king's burnt offering and his grain offering, and the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their grain offering and their drink offering. Splash against this altar the blood of all the burnt offerings and sacrifices. But I will use the bronze altar for seeking guidance." ¹⁶And Uriah the priest did just as King Ahaz had ordered.

¹⁷King Ahaz cut off the side panels and removed the basins from the movable stands. He removed the Sea from the bronze bulls that supported it and set it on a stone base. ¹⁸He took away the Sabbath canopy^[52] that had been built at the temple and removed the royal entryway outside the temple of the LORD, in deference to the king of Assyria.

¹⁹As for the other events of the reign of Ahaz, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ²⁰Ahaz rested with his ancestors and was buried with them in the City of David. And Hezekiah his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 17

HOSHEA LAST KING OF ISRAEL

¹In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned nine years. ²He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, but not like the kings of Israel who preceded him.

³Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up to attack Hoshea, who had been Shalmaneser's vassal and had paid him tribute. ⁴But the king of Assyria discovered that Hoshea was a traitor, for he had sent envoys to So^[53] king of Egypt, and he no longer paid tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore Shalmaneser seized him and put him in prison. ⁵The king of Assyria invaded the entire land, marched against Samaria and laid siege to it for three years. ⁶In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria and deported the Israelites to Assyria. He settled them in Halah, in Gozan on the Habor River and in the towns of the Medes.

ISRAEL EXILED BECAUSE OF SIN

⁷All this took place because the Israelites had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of Egypt from under the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They worshiped other gods ⁸and followed the practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before them, as well as the practices that the kings of Israel had introduced. ⁹The Israelites secretly did things against the LORD their God that were not right. From watchtower to fortified city they built themselves high places in all their towns. ¹⁰They set up sacred stones and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every spreading tree. ¹¹At every high place they burned incense, as the nations whom the LORD had driven out before them had done. They did wicked things that aroused the LORD's anger. ¹²They worshiped idols, though the LORD had said, "You shall not do this."^[54] ¹³The LORD warned Israel and Judah through all his prophets and seers: "Turn from your evil ways. Observe my commands and decrees, in accordance with the entire Law that I commanded your ancestors to obey and that I delivered to you through my servants the prophets."

¹⁴But they would not listen and were as stiff-necked as their ancestors, who did not trust in the LORD their God. ¹⁵They rejected his decrees and the covenant he had made with their ancestors and the statutes he had warned them to keep. They followed worthless idols and themselves became worthless. They imitated the nations around them although the LORD had ordered them, "Do not do as they do."

¹⁸So the LORD was very angry with Israel and removed them from his presence. Only the tribe of Judah was left, ¹⁹and even Judah did not keep the commands of the LORD their God. They followed the practices Israel had introduced. ²⁰Therefore the LORD rejected all the people of Israel; he afflicted them and gave them into the hands of plunderers, until he thrust them from his presence.

²¹When he tore Israel away from the house of David, they made Jeroboam son of Nebat their king. Jeroboam enticed Israel away from following the LORD and caused them to commit a great sin. ²²The Israelites persisted in all the sins of Jeroboam and did not turn away from them ²³until the LORD removed them from his presence, as he had warned through all his servants the prophets. So the people of Israel were taken from their homeland into exile in Assyria, and they are still there.

SAMARIA RESETTLED

²⁴The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Kuthah, Avva, Hamath and Sepharvaim and settled them in the towns of Samaria to replace the Israelites. They took over Samaria and lived in its towns. ²⁵When they first lived there, they did not worship the LORD; so he sent lions among them and they killed some of the people. ²⁶It was reported to the king of Assyria: “The people you deported and resettled in the towns of Samaria do not know what the god of that country requires. He has sent lions among them, which are killing them off, because the people do not know what he requires.”

²⁹Nevertheless, each national group made its own gods in the several towns where they settled, and set them up in the shrines the people of Samaria had made at the high places. ³⁰The people from Babylon made Sukkoth Benoth, those from Kuthah made Nergal, and those from Hamath made Ashima; ³¹the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire as sacrifices to Adrammelek and Anammelek, the gods of Sepharvaim. ³²They worshiped the LORD, but they also appointed all sorts of their own people to officiate for them as priests in the shrines at the high places. ³³They worshiped the LORD, but they also served their own gods in accordance with the customs of the nations from which they had been brought.

³⁴To this day they persist in their former practices. They neither worship the LORD nor adhere to the decrees and regulations, the laws and commands that the LORD gave the descendants of Jacob, whom he named Israel. ³⁵When the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites, he commanded them: “Do not worship any other gods or bow down to them, serve them or sacrifice to them. ³⁶But the LORD, who brought you up out of Egypt with mighty power and outstretched arm, is the one you must worship. To him you shall bow down and to him offer sacrifices. ³⁷You must always be careful to keep the decrees and regulations, the laws and commands he wrote for you. Do not worship other gods. ³⁸Do not forget the covenant I have made with you, and do not worship other gods. ³⁹Rather, worship the LORD your God; it is he who will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies.”

⁴⁰They would not listen, however, but persisted in their former practices.
⁴¹Even while these people were worshiping the LORD, they were serving their idols. To this day their children and grandchildren continue to do as their ancestors did.

ROCK SOLID truths

2 Kings 17:7–40

God’s patience doesn’t last forever.

The Lord made clear right from the start that he was to be his people’s one and only God. “I will take you as my own people,” he promised, “and I will be your God” (Exodus 6:7). For centuries God was patient when his people wandered from him. But their sin became constant, including building “high places” and “sacred stones” and “Asherah poles” to worship false gods (2 Kings 17:9–10). So the Lord gave his people a huge dose of discipline. He allowed them to be conquered by foreign armies and carried off to captivity. The northern kingdom of Israel fell first—to the Assyrians in 722 BC. Then the southern kingdom of Judah was conquered—by the Babylonians in 586 BC. “The LORD is slow to anger, abounding in love and forgiving sin and rebellion” (Numbers 14:18), but he won’t be patient forever. Sometimes he lets his people hit hard times until they come back to him.

Think: Do you think God gets impatient with us when we continue to sin—or not?

2 Kings 18

HEZEKIAH KING OF JUDAH

¹In the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Hezekiah son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. ²He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Abijah^[55] daughter of Zechariah. ³He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father David had done. ⁴He removed the high places, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles. He broke into pieces the bronze snake Moses had made, for up to that time the Israelites had been burning incense to it. (It was called Nehushtan.^[56])

⁵Hezekiah trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel. There was no one like him among all the kings of Judah, either before him or after him. ⁶He held fast to the LORD and did not stop following him; he kept the commands the LORD had given Moses. ⁷And the LORD was with him; he was successful in whatever he undertook. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him. ⁸From watchtower to fortified city, he defeated the Philistines, as far as Gaza and its territory.

⁹In King Hezekiah's fourth year, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria marched against Samaria and laid siege to it. ¹⁰At the end of three years the Assyrians took it. So Samaria was captured in Hezekiah's sixth year, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel. ¹¹The king of Assyria deported Israel to Assyria and settled them in Halah, in Gozan on the Habor River and in towns of the Medes. ¹²This happened because they had not obeyed the LORD their God, but had violated his covenant—all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. They neither listened to the commands nor carried them out.

¹³In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah's reign, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them. ¹⁴So Hezekiah king of Judah sent this message to the king of Assyria at Lachish: "I have done wrong. Withdraw from me, and I will pay whatever you demand of me." The king of Assyria exacted from Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents^[57] of silver and thirty talents^[58] of gold. ¹⁵So Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the royal palace.

¹⁶At this time Hezekiah king of Judah stripped off the gold with which he had covered the doors and doorposts of the temple of the LORD, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

SENNACHERIB THREATENS JERUSALEM

¹⁷The king of Assyria sent his supreme commander, his chief officer and his field commander with a large army, from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. They came up to Jerusalem and stopped at the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Washerman's Field. ¹⁸They called for the king; and Eliakim son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went out to them.

¹⁹The field commander said to them, "Tell Hezekiah:

²³“ ‘Come now, make a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses—if you can put riders on them! ²⁴How can you repulse one officer of the least of my master's officials, even though you are depending on Egypt for chariots and horsemen^[59]? ²⁵Furthermore, have I come to attack and destroy this place without word from the LORD? The LORD himself told me to march against this country and destroy it.’ ”

²⁶Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, and Shebna and Joah said to the field commander, “Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it. Don't speak to us in Hebrew in the hearing of the people on the wall.”

²⁷But the commander replied, “Was it only to your master and you that my master sent me to say these things, and not to the people sitting on the wall—who, like you, will have to eat their own excrement and drink their own urine?”

²⁸Then the commander stood and called out in Hebrew, “Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria! ²⁹This is what the king says: Do not let Hezekiah deceive you. He cannot deliver you from my hand. ³⁰Do not let Hezekiah persuade you to trust in the LORD when he says, ‘The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.’

“Do not listen to Hezekiah, for he is misleading you when he says, ‘The LORD will deliver us.’ ³³Has the god of any nation ever delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria? ³⁴Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivvah? Have they rescued Samaria from my hand? ³⁵Who of all the gods of these countries has been able to save his land from me? How then can the LORD deliver Jerusalem from my hand?”

³⁶But the people remained silent and said nothing in reply, because the king had commanded, “Do not answer him.”

³⁷Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went to Hezekiah, with their clothes torn, and told him what the field commander had said.

JERUSALEM'S DELIVERANCE FORETOLD

⁵When King Hezekiah's officials came to Isaiah, ⁶Isaiah said to them, “Tell your master, ‘This is what the LORD says: Do not be afraid of what you have heard—those words with which the underlings of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. ⁷Listen! When he hears a certain report, I will make him want to return to his own country, and there I will have him cut down with the sword.’ ”

2 Kings 19:6

Don't let human threats scare you. Listen hard to God and trust him.

\(Rock Solid PROMISES Index\)

⁸When the field commander heard that the king of Assyria had left Lachish, he withdrew and found the king fighting against Libnah.

⁹Now Sennacherib received a report that Tirhakah, the king of Cush,^[60] was marching out to fight against him. So he again sent messengers to Hezekiah with this word: ¹⁰“Say to Hezekiah king of Judah: Do not let the god you depend on deceive you when he says, ‘Jerusalem will not be given into the hands of the king of Assyria.’ ¹¹Surely you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the countries, destroying them completely. And will you be delivered? ¹²Did the gods of the nations that were destroyed by my predecessors deliver them—the gods of Gozan, Harran, Rezepth and the people of Eden who were in Tel Assar? ¹³Where is the king of Hamath or the king of Arpad? Where are the kings of Lair, Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivvah?”

HEZEKIAH’S PRAYER

¹⁴Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the temple of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD. ¹⁵And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD: “LORD, the God of Israel, enthroned between the cherubim, you alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. ¹⁶Give ear, LORD, and hear; open your eyes, LORD, and see; listen to the words Sennacherib has sent to ridicule the living God.

¹⁷“It is true, LORD, that the Assyrian kings have laid waste these nations and their lands. ¹⁸They have thrown their gods into the fire and destroyed them, for they were not gods but only wood and stone, fashioned by human hands. ¹⁹Now, LORD our God, deliver us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone, LORD, are God.”

ISAIAH PROPHECIES SENNACHERIB’S FALL

²⁰Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah: “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I have heard your prayer concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria. ²¹This is the word that the LORD has spoken against him:

“ ‘Virgin Daughter Zion
despises you and mocks you.

Daughter Jerusalem
tosses her head as you flee.

²²Who is it you have ridiculed and blasphemed?
Against whom have you raised your voice
and lifted your eyes in pride?
Against the Holy One of Israel!

²³By your messengers
you have ridiculed the Lord.
And you have said,
“With my many chariots
I have ascended the heights of the mountains,
the utmost heights of Lebanon.
I have cut down its tallest cedars,
the choicest of its junipers.
I have reached its remotest parts,
the finest of its forests.

²⁴I have dug wells in foreign lands and drunk the water there.
With the soles of my feet
I have dried up all the streams of Egypt.”

²⁵“Have you not heard?
Long ago I ordained it.
In days of old I planned it;
now I have brought it to pass,
that you have turned fortified cities
into piles of stone.

²⁶Their people, drained of power,
are dismayed and put to shame.
They are like plants in the field,
like tender green shoots,
like grass sprouting on the roof,
scorched before it grows up.

²⁷“But I know where you are and when you come and go
and how you rage against me.

²⁸Because you rage against me
and because your insolence has reached my ears,
I will put my hook in your nose
and my bit in your mouth,

and I will make you return
by the way you came.’

²⁹“This will be the sign for you, Hezekiah:

“This year you will eat what grows by itself,
and the second year what springs from that.
But in the third year sow and reap,
plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

³⁰Once more a remnant of the kingdom of Judah will take root below and bear fruit above.

³¹For out of Jerusalem will come a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors.

“The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

³²“Therefore this is what the LORD says concerning the king of Assyria:

“ ‘He will not enter this city
or shoot an arrow here.
He will not come before it with shield
or build a siege ramp against it.

³³By the way that he came he will return;
he will not enter this city,

declares the LORD.

³⁴I will defend this city and save it, for my sake and for the sake of David my servant.’ ”

³⁵That night the angel of the LORD went out and put to death a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up the next morning—there were all the dead bodies! ³⁶So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and withdrew. He returned to Nineveh and stayed there.

³⁷One day, while he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisrok, his sons Adrammelek and Sharezer killed him with the sword, and they escaped to the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 20

HEZEKIAH'S ILLNESS

⁴Before Isaiah had left the middle court, the word of the LORD came to him: ⁵“Go back and tell Hezekiah, the ruler of my people, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of your father David, says: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears; I will heal you. On the third day from now you will go up to the temple of the LORD. ⁶I will add fifteen years to your life. And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city for my sake and for the sake of my servant David.’ ”

⁷Then Isaiah said, “Prepare a poultice of figs.” They did so and applied it to the boil, and he recovered.

⁸Hezekiah had asked Isaiah, “What will be the sign that the LORD will heal me and that I will go up to the temple of the LORD on the third day from now?”

⁹Isaiah answered, “This is the LORD’s sign to you that the LORD will do what he has promised: Shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or shall it go back ten steps?”

¹⁰“It is a simple matter for the shadow to go forward ten steps,” said Hezekiah. “Rather, have it go back ten steps.”

¹¹Then the prophet Isaiah called on the LORD, and the LORD made the shadow go back the ten steps it had gone down on the stairway of Ahaz.

ENVOYS FROM BABYLON

¹²At that time Marduk-Baladan son of Baladan king of Babylon sent Hezekiah letters and a gift, because he had heard of Hezekiah's illness. ¹³Hezekiah received the envoys and showed them all that was in his storehouses—the silver, the gold, the spices and the fine olive oil—his armory and everything found among his treasures. There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.

¹⁴Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked, “What did those men say, and where did they come from?”

“From a distant land,” Hezekiah replied. “They came from Babylon.”

¹⁵The prophet asked, “What did they see in your palace?”

¹⁶Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD: ¹⁷The time will surely come when everything in your palace, and all that your predecessors have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the LORD. ¹⁸And some of your descendants, your own flesh and blood who will be born to you, will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

¹⁹“The word of the LORD you have spoken is good,” Hezekiah replied. For he thought, “Will there not be peace and security in my lifetime?”

²⁰As for the other events of Hezekiah's reign, all his achievements and how he made the pool and the tunnel by which he brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ²¹Hezekiah rested with his ancestors. And Manasseh his son succeeded him as king.

ROCK.SOLID
principles

2 Kings 20:1–11

Start with prayer.

Ayla always felt like praying was pointless. She knew the Bible said she should pray. She had read where Jesus taught his disciples to pray simple words telling the Lord their everyday needs (see Matthew 6:9–14). But she felt like the world was full of too many terrible problems for God to bother with her prayers about boys and homework and finding a part-time job. So prayer never made sense to Ayla—until she had a request she thought was big enough to get God’s attention. She needed God to protect her brother, who struggled with depression. When Ayla started praying, she felt a huge rush of relief. She got the impression God had been waiting to talk with her for a long time.

Hezekiah was one of Judah’s greatest kings, famed for his devotion to God. He fell ill, and even God said he would die. But when Hezekiah sought God in prayer, the Lord granted Hezekiah another 15 years of life. For Hezekiah, prayer wasn’t a last resort. Talking to God was the first place he turned.

2 Kings 21

MANASSEH KING OF JUDAH

¹Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem fifty-five years. His mother's name was Hephzibah. ²He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, following the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites. ³He rebuilt the high places his father Hezekiah had destroyed; he also erected altars to Baal and made an Asherah pole, as Ahab king of Israel had done. He bowed down to all the starry hosts and worshiped them. ⁴He built altars in the temple of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem I will put my Name." ⁵In the two courts of the temple of the LORD, he built altars to all the starry hosts. ⁶He sacrificed his own son in the fire, practiced divination, sought omens, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the eyes of the LORD, arousing his anger.

⁷He took the carved Asherah pole he had made and put it in the temple, of which the LORD had said to David and to his son Solomon, "In this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my Name forever. ⁸I will not again make the feet of the Israelites wander from the land I gave their ancestors, if only they will be careful to do everything I commanded them and will keep the whole Law that my servant Moses gave them." ⁹But the people did not listen. Manasseh led them astray, so that they did more evil than the nations the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites.

¹⁰The LORD said through his servants the prophets: ¹¹"Manasseh king of Judah has committed these detestable sins. He has done more evil than the Amorites who preceded him and has led Judah into sin with his idols. ¹²Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I am going to bring such disaster on Jerusalem and Judah that the ears of everyone who hears of it will tingle. ¹³I will stretch out over Jerusalem the measuring line used against Samaria and the plumb line used against the house of Ahab. I will wipe out Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down. ¹⁴I will forsake the remnant of my inheritance and give them into the hands of enemies. They will be looted and plundered by all their enemies; ¹⁵they have done evil in my eyes and have aroused my anger from the day their ancestors came out of Egypt until this day."

¹⁶Moreover, Manasseh also shed so much innocent blood that he filled Jerusalem from end to end—besides the sin that he had caused Judah to commit, so that they did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

¹⁷As for the other events of Manasseh's reign, and all he did, including the sin he committed, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ¹⁸Manasseh rested with his ancestors and was buried in his palace garden, the garden of Uzza. And Amon his son succeeded him as king.

AMON KING OF JUDAH

¹⁹Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem two years. His mother's name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz; she was from Jotbah. ²⁰He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done. ²¹He followed completely the ways of his father, worshiping the idols his father had worshiped, and bowing down to them. ²²He forsook the LORD, the God of his ancestors, and did not walk in obedience to him.

²³Amon's officials conspired against him and assassinated the king in his palace. ²⁴Then the people of the land killed all who had plotted against King Amon, and they made Josiah his son king in his place.

²⁵As for the other events of Amon's reign, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ²⁶He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza. And Josiah his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 22

THE BOOK OF THE LAW FOUND

¹Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-one years. His mother's name was Jedidah daughter of Adaiah; she was from Bozkath. ²He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD and followed completely the ways of his father David, not turning aside to the right or to the left.

³In the eighteenth year of his reign, King Josiah sent the secretary, Shaphan son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, to the temple of the LORD. He said: ⁴“Go up to Hilkiyah the high priest and have him get ready the money that has been brought into the temple of the LORD, which the doorkeepers have collected from the people. ⁵Have them entrust it to the men appointed to supervise the work on the temple. And have these men pay the workers who repair the temple of the LORD— ⁶the carpenters, the builders and the masons. Also have them purchase timber and dressed stone to repair the temple. ⁷But they need not account for the money entrusted to them, because they are honest in their dealings.”

⁸Hilkiyah the high priest said to Shaphan the secretary, “I have found the Book of the Law in the temple of the LORD.” He gave it to Shaphan, who read it. ⁹Then Shaphan the secretary went to the king and reported to him: “Your officials have paid out the money that was in the temple of the LORD and have entrusted it to the workers and supervisors at the temple.” ¹⁰Then Shaphan the secretary informed the king, “Hilkiyah the priest has given me a book.” And Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

¹⁴Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Akbor, Shaphan and Asaiah went to speak to the prophet Huldah, who was the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem, in the New Quarter.

¹⁵She said to them, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Tell the man who sent you to me, ¹⁶‘This is what the LORD says: I am going to bring disaster on this place and its people, according to everything written in the book the king of Judah has read. ¹⁷Because they have forsaken me and burned incense to other gods and aroused my anger by all the idols their hands have made,^[61] my anger will burn against this place and will not be quenched.’ ¹⁸Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says concerning the words you heard: ¹⁹Because your heart was responsive and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I have spoken against this place and its people—that they would become a curse^[62] and be laid waste—and because you tore your robes and wept in my presence, I also have heard you, declares the LORD. ²⁰Therefore I will gather you to your ancestors, and you will be buried in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster I am going to bring on this place.’ ”

So they took her answer back to the king.

2 Kings 23

JOSIAH RENEWS THE COVENANT

¹Then the king called together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ²He went up to the temple of the LORD with the people of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests and the prophets—all the people from the least to the greatest. He read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant, which had been found in the temple of the LORD. ³The king stood by the pillar and renewed the covenant in the presence of the LORD—to follow the LORD and keep his commands, statutes and decrees with all his heart and all his soul, thus confirming the words of the covenant written in this book. Then all the people pledged themselves to the covenant.

⁴The king ordered Hilkiah the high priest, the priests next in rank and the doorkeepers to remove from the temple of the LORD all the articles made for Baal and Asherah and all the starry hosts. He burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron Valley and took the ashes to Bethel. ⁵He did away with the idolatrous priests appointed by the kings of Judah to burn incense on the high places of the towns of Judah and on those around Jerusalem—those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun and moon, to the constellations and to all the starry hosts. ⁶He took the Asherah pole from the temple of the LORD to the Kidron Valley outside Jerusalem and burned it there. He ground it to powder and scattered the dust over the graves of the common people. ⁷He also tore down the quarters of the male shrine prostitutes that were in the temple of the LORD, the quarters where women did weaving for Asherah.

¹⁰He desecrated Topheth, which was in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, so no one could use it to sacrifice their son or daughter in the fire to Molek. ¹¹He removed from the entrance to the temple of the LORD the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun. They were in the court^[63] near the room of an official named Nathan-Melek. Josiah then burned the chariots dedicated to the sun.

¹²He pulled down the altars the kings of Judah had erected on the roof near the upper room of Ahaz, and the altars Manasseh had built in the two courts of the temple of the LORD. He removed them from there, smashed them to pieces and threw the rubble into the Kidron Valley. ¹³The king also desecrated the high places that were east of Jerusalem on the south of the Hill of Corruption—the ones Solomon king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the vile goddess of the Sidonians, for Chemosh the vile god of Moab, and for Molek the detestable god of the people of Ammon. ¹⁴Josiah smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles and covered the sites with human bones.

¹⁵Even the altar at Bethel, the high place made by Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin—even that altar and high place he demolished. He burned the high place and ground it to powder, and burned the Asherah pole also. ¹⁶Then Josiah looked around, and when he saw the tombs that were there on the hillside, he had the bones removed from them and burned on the altar to defile it, in accordance with the word of the LORD proclaimed by the man of God who foretold these things.

¹⁷The king asked, “What is that tombstone I see?”

The people of the city said, “It marks the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and pronounced against the altar of Bethel the very things you have done to it.”

¹⁸“Leave it alone,” he said. “Don’t let anyone disturb his bones.” So they spared his bones and those of the prophet who had come from Samaria.

¹⁹Just as he had done at Bethel, Josiah removed all the shrines at the high places that the kings of Israel had built in the towns of Samaria and that had aroused the LORD’s anger. ²⁰Josiah slaughtered all the priests of those high places on the altars and burned human bones on them. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

²⁴Furthermore, Josiah got rid of the mediums and spiritists, the household gods, the idols and all the other detestable things seen in Judah and Jerusalem. This he did to fulfill the requirements of the law written in the book that Hilkiah the priest had discovered in the temple of the LORD. ²⁵Neither before nor after Josiah was there a king like him who turned to the LORD as he did— with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his strength, in accordance with all the Law of Moses.

²⁶Nevertheless, the LORD did not turn away from the heat of his fierce anger, which burned against Judah because of all that Manasseh had done to arouse his anger. ²⁷So the LORD said, “I will remove Judah also from my presence as I removed Israel, and I will reject Jerusalem, the city I chose, and this temple, about which I said, ‘My Name shall be there.’^[64]”

²⁸As for the other events of Josiah’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

²⁹While Josiah was king, Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt went up to the Euphrates River to help the king of Assyria. King Josiah marched out to meet him in battle, but Necho faced him and killed him at Megiddo. ³⁰Josiah’s servants brought his body in a chariot from Megiddo to Jerusalem and buried him in his own tomb. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and anointed him and made him king in place of his father.

JEHOAHAZ KING OF JUDAH

³¹Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah. ³²He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as his predecessors had done. ³³Pharaoh Necho put him in chains at Riblah in the land of Hamath so that he might not reign in Jerusalem, and he imposed on Judah a levy of a hundred talents^[65] of silver and a talent^[66] of gold. ³⁴Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah and changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz and carried him off to Egypt, and there he died. ³⁵Jehoiakim paid Pharaoh Necho the silver and gold he demanded. In order to do so, he taxed the land and exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land according to their assessments.

JEHOIAKIM KING OF JUDAH

³⁶Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. His mother's name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiiah; she was from Rumah. ³⁷And he did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as his predecessors had done.

2 Kings 24

¹During Jehoiakim's reign, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded the land, and Jehoiakim became his vassal for three years. But then he turned against Nebuchadnezzar and rebelled. ²The LORD sent Babylonian,^[67] Aramean, Moabite and Ammonite raiders against him to destroy Judah, in accordance with the word of the LORD proclaimed by his servants the prophets. ³Surely these things happened to Judah according to the LORD's command, in order to remove them from his presence because of the sins of Manasseh and all he had done, ⁴including the shedding of innocent blood. For he had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD was not willing to forgive.

⁵As for the other events of Jehoiakim's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ⁶Jehoiakim rested with his ancestors. And Jehoiachin his son succeeded him as king.

⁷The king of Egypt did not march out from his own country again, because the king of Babylon had taken all his territory, from the Wadi of Egypt to the Euphrates River.

JEHOIACHIN KING OF JUDAH

⁸Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan; she was from Jerusalem. ⁹He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father had done.

¹⁰At that time the officers of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon advanced on Jerusalem and laid siege to it, ¹¹and Nebuchadnezzar himself came up to the city while his officers were besieging it. ¹²Jehoiachin king of Judah, his mother, his attendants, his nobles and his officials all surrendered to him.

In the eighth year of the reign of the king of Babylon, he took Jehoiachin prisoner. ¹³As the LORD had declared, Nebuchadnezzar removed the treasures from the temple of the LORD and from the royal palace, and cut up the gold articles that Solomon king of Israel had made for the temple of the LORD. ¹⁴He carried all Jerusalem into exile: all the officers and fighting men, and all the skilled workers and artisans—a total of ten thousand. Only the poorest people of the land were left.

¹⁵Nebuchadnezzar took Jehoiachin captive to Babylon. He also took from Jerusalem to Babylon the king's mother, his wives, his officials and the prominent people of the land. ¹⁶The king of Babylon also deported to Babylon the entire force of seven thousand fighting men, strong and fit for war, and a thousand skilled workers and artisans. ¹⁷He made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's uncle, king in his place and changed his name to Zedekiah.

ZEDEKIAH KING OF JUDAH

¹⁸Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah. ¹⁹He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done. ²⁰It was because of the LORD's anger that all this happened to Jerusalem and Judah, and in the end he thrust them from his presence.

THE FALL OF JERUSALEM

Now Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

2 Kings 25

¹So in the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. He encamped outside the city and built siege works all around it. ²The city was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

³By the ninth day of the fourth^[68] month the famine in the city had become so severe that there was no food for the people to eat. ⁴Then the city wall was broken through, and the whole army fled at night through the gate between the two walls near the king's garden, though the Babylonians^[69] were surrounding the city. They fled toward the Arabah,^[70] ⁵but the Babylonian^[71] army pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his soldiers were separated from him and scattered, ⁶and he was captured.

He was taken to the king of Babylon at Riblah, where sentence was pronounced on him. ⁷They killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. Then they put out his eyes, bound him with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon.

⁸On the seventh day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard, an official of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. ⁹He set fire to the temple of the LORD, the royal palace and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every important building he burned down. ¹⁰The whole Babylonian army under the commander of the imperial guard broke down the walls around Jerusalem. ¹¹Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard carried into exile the people who remained in the city, along with the rest of the populace and those who had deserted to the king of Babylon. ¹²But the commander left behind some of the poorest people of the land to work the vineyards and fields.

¹⁶The bronze from the two pillars, the Sea and the movable stands, which Solomon had made for the temple of the LORD, was more than could be weighed. ¹⁷Each pillar was eighteen cubits^[72] high. The bronze capital on top of one pillar was three cubits^[73] high and was decorated with a network and pomegranates of bronze all around. The other pillar, with its network, was similar.

¹⁸The commander of the guard took as prisoners Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest next in rank and the three doorkeepers. ¹⁹Of those still in the city, he took the officer in charge of the fighting men, and five royal advisers. He also took the secretary who was chief officer in charge of conscripting the people of the land and sixty of the conscripts who were found in the city. ²⁰Nebuzaradan the commander took them all and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. ²¹There at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, the king had them executed.

So Judah went into captivity, away from her land.

²²Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to be over the people he had left behind in Judah. ²³When all the army officers and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah as governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, Jaazaniah the son of the Maakathite, and their men. ²⁴Gedaliah took an oath to reassure them and their men. “Do not be afraid of the Babylonian officials,” he said. “Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you.”

²⁵In the seventh month, however, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, who was of royal blood, came with ten men and assassinated Gedaliah and also the men of Judah and the Babylonians who were with him at Mizpah. ²⁶At this, all the people from the least to the greatest, together with the army officers, fled to Egypt for fear of the Babylonians.

JEHOIACHIN RELEASED

²⁷In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the year Awel-Marduk became king of Babylon, he released Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison. He did this on the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month. ²⁸He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat of honor higher than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. ²⁹So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes and for the rest of his life ate regularly at the king's table. ³⁰Day by day the king gave Jehoiachin a regular allowance as long as he lived.

2 Kings 1:1–18

Elijah stood up to a sinful nation.

Elijah began his ministry as a prophet by starting a whopping fight. He walked into the courts of one of Israel's most evil kings and declared no rain would fall until he himself prayed to God to send rain (1 Kings 17:1). His proclamation was all the more daring because Ahab worshiped a false god, Baal, who was believed to control the rain (see 1 Kings 21–22).

Three years later not a drop of rain had fallen, and Elijah challenged hundreds of Baal's prophets to a showdown on top of Mount Carmel. Each side was to pray down fire from heaven to consume a sacrifice, a public test to prove whether God or Baal was more powerful. Baal's prophets danced up a sweat with no success, but a simple prayer from Elijah brought down holy fire that burned up not only the sacrifice but also a rock altar. The people of Israel rose up and slaughtered Baal's priests, and God immediately sent rain (see 1 Kings 18:16–46).

Elijah is remembered as one of Israel's most significant prophets because he boldly stood against some of the nation's worst rulers. Despite his important calling, Elijah sometimes slipped into deep depression, complaining at one point that he was the only Israelite left who followed God (see 1 Kings 19:9–19).

At the end of his life, Elijah was swept up to God in a whirlwind (see 2 Kings 2:1–12). And in the New Testament, Elijah stood alongside Moses as Jesus shone with heavenly brilliance (see Matthew 17:3).

You can find Elijah in 1 Kings 17 to 2 Kings 2; Matthew 16:14; John 1:21; Romans 11:2; and James 5:17.

2 Kings 23:25

Josiah revived true worship.

Scripture calls Manasseh the country's most evil king ever (see 2 Kings 21:9). He worshiped Baal and Asherah along with the sun, moon, and stars, and he even sacrificed his son to the god Molech (see 2 Kings 21:6). At the end of his life Manasseh repented and tried to abolish idolatry, but his reforms were undone by his evil son Amon, who ruled just two years (see 2 Chronicles 33:11–24).

Enter Josiah, crowned king at the age of eight, put on his father's throne when Amon was assassinated. He was sixteen when he "began to seek the God of his father David" (2 Chronicles 34:3) and just twenty when he began to thoroughly destroy any sign of the worship of pagan gods in Jerusalem and throughout Judah. Not only did he do away with false worship, but he encouraged respect for the one true God. He ordered the temple to be restored, and during that process Hilkiah the priest rediscovered the "Book of the Law" that described all the ways the people should obey God.

This young king tore his clothes with grief that the Lord's law had been misplaced for so long. He suddenly understood that spiritual rebellion was the reason so much tragedy had struck the nation. He renewed his commitment to following all of the Lord's commands, and as long as Josiah lived, all the people of Israel "did not fail to follow the LORD" (2 Chronicles 34:33).

You can find Josiah in 2 Kings 21–23; 2 Chronicles 33–35; Jeremiah 1:1–2; Zephaniah 1:1; and Matthew 1:10.

Although the books of Chronicles seem like a repeat of Samuel and Kings, they aren't. The Chronicles were written for the exiles who had returned to Israel after the Babylonian captivity to remind them they were from the royal line of David and were God's chosen people. The main theme is that God is always faithful to his covenant.

For these reasons 1 Chronicles begins with an outline of history from Adam through the death of King Saul. The rest of the book is about the reign of King David. These books serve as both a warning and encouragement to the Jews to be faithful to the covenant.

HISTORICAL RECORDS FROM ADAM TO ABRAHAM

To Noah's Sons

¹Adam, Seth, Enosh, ²Kenan, Mahalalel, Jared, ³Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech, Noah.

⁴The sons of Noah:^[1]

Shem, Ham and Japheth.

The Japhethites

⁵The sons^[2] of Japheth: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshek and Tiras.

⁶The sons of Gomer:

Ashkenaz, Riphath^[3] and Togarmah.

⁷The sons of Javan:

Elishah, Tarshish, the Kittites and the Rodanites.

The Hamites

⁸The sons of Ham:

Cush, Egypt, Put and Canaan.

⁹The sons of Cush:

Seba, Havilah, Sabta, Raamah and Sabteka.

The sons of Raamah:

Sheba and Dedan.

¹⁰Cush was the father^[4] of Nimrod, who became a mighty warrior on earth.

¹¹Egypt was the father of the Ludites, Anamites, Lehabites, Naphtuhites, ¹²Pathrusites, Kasluhites (from whom the Philistines came) and Caphtorites.

¹³Canaan was the father of Sidon his firstborn,^[5] and of the Hittites, ¹⁴Jebusites, Amorites, Girgashites, ¹⁵Hivites, Arkites, Sinites, ¹⁶Arvadites, Zemarites and Hamathites.

The Semites

¹⁷The sons of Shem:

The sons of Aram:^[6]

Uz, Hul, Gether and Meshek.

¹⁸Arphaxad was the father of Shelah, and Shelah the father of Eber.

¹⁹Two sons were born to Eber:

One was named Peleg,^[7] because in his time the earth was divided; his brother was named Joktan.

²⁰Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, ²¹Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, ²²Obal,^[8] Abimael, Sheba, ²³Ophir, Havilah and Jobab. All these were sons of Joktan.

²⁴Shem, Arphaxad,^[9] Shelah, ²⁵Eber, Peleg, Reu,

²⁶Serug, Nahor, Terah

²⁷and Abram (that is, Abraham).

THE FAMILY OF ABRAHAM

²⁸The sons of Abraham:
Isaac and Ishmael.

Descendants of Hagar

²⁹These were their descendants:

Nebaioth the firstborn of Ishmael, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, ³⁰Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema, ³¹Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah. These were the sons of Ishmael.

Descendants of Keturah

³²The sons born to Keturah, Abraham's concubine:

⁴⁸When Samlah died, Shaul from Rehoboth on the river^[16] succeeded him as king.

⁴⁹When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan son of Akbor succeeded him as king.

⁵⁰When Baal-Hanan died, Hadad succeeded him as king. His city was named Pau,^[17] and his wife's name was Mehetabel daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-Zahab. ⁵¹Hadad also died.

The chiefs of Edom were:

Timna, Alvah, Jetheth, ⁵²Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon, ⁵³Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, ⁵⁴Magdiel and Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom.

1 Chronicles 2

ISRAEL'S SONS

¹These were the sons of Israel:

Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, ²Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad and Asher.

JUDAH

To Hezron's Sons

³The sons of Judah:

Er, Onan and Shelah. These three were born to him by a Canaanite woman, the daughter of Shua. Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the LORD's sight; so the LORD put him to death. ⁴Judah's daughter-in-law Tamar bore Perez and Zerah to Judah. He had five sons in all.

⁵The sons of Perez:

Hezron and Hamul.

⁶The sons of Zerah:

Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Kalkol and Darda^[18]—five in all.

⁷The son of Karmi:

Achar,^[19] who brought trouble on Israel by violating the ban on taking devoted things.^[20]

⁸The son of Ethan:

Azariah.

⁹The sons born to Hezron were:

Jerahmeel, Ram and Caleb.^[21]

From Ram Son of Hezron

¹⁰Ram was the father of Amminadab, and Amminadab the father of Nahshon, the leader of the people of Judah. ¹¹Nahshon was the father of Salmon, ^[22] Salmon the father of Boaz, ¹²Boaz the father of Obed and Obed the father of Jesse.

¹³Jesse was the father of Eliab his firstborn; the second son was Abinadab, the third Shimea, ¹⁴the fourth Nethanel, the fifth Raddai, ¹⁵the sixth Ozem and the seventh David. ¹⁶Their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. Zeruiah's three sons were Abishai, Joab and Asahel. ¹⁷Abigail was the mother of Amasa, whose father was Jether the Ishmaelite.

Caleb Son of Hezron

¹⁸Caleb son of Hezron had children by his wife Azubah (and by Jerioth). These were her sons: Jeshur, Shobab and Ardon. ¹⁹When Azubah died, Caleb married Ephrath, who bore him Hur. ²⁰Hur was the father of Uri, and Uri the father of Bezalel.

²¹Later, Hezron, when he was sixty years old, married the daughter of Makir the father of Gilead. He made love to her, and she bore him Segub. ²²Segub was the father of Jair, who controlled twenty-three towns in Gilead. ²³(But Geshur and Aram captured Havvoth Jair,^[23] as well as Kenath with its surrounding settlements—sixty towns.) All these were descendants of Makir the father of Gilead.

²⁴After Hezron died in Caleb Ephrathah, Abijah the wife of Hezron bore him Ashhur the father^[24] of Tekoa.

Jerahmeel Son of Hezron

²⁵The sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron:

Ram his firstborn, Bunah, Oren, Ozem and^[25] Ahijah. ²⁶Jerahmeel had another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.

²⁷The sons of Ram the firstborn of Jerahmeel:

Maaz, Jamin and Eker.

²⁸The sons of Onam:

Shammai and Jada.

The sons of Shammai:

Nadab and Abishur.

²⁹Abishur's wife was named Abihail, who bore him Ahban and Molid.

³⁰The sons of Nadab:

Seled and Appaim. Seled died without children.

³¹The son of Appaim:

Ishi, who was the father of Sheshan.

Sheshan was the father of Ahlai.

³²The sons of Jada, Shammai's brother:

Jether and Jonathan. Jether died without children.

³³The sons of Jonathan:

Peleth and Zaza.

These were the descendants of Jerahmeel.

³⁴Sheshan had no sons—only daughters.

He had an Egyptian servant named Jarha. ³⁵Sheshan gave his daughter in marriage to his servant Jarha, and she bore him Attai.

³⁶Attai was the father of Nathan,

Nathan the father of Zabad,

³⁷Zabad the father of Ephlal,

Ephlal the father of Obed,

³⁸Obed the father of Jehu,
Jehu the father of Azariah,

⁴⁰Eleasah the father of Sismai,
Sismai the father of Shallum, ⁴¹Shallum the father of Jekamiah, and Jekamiah the father of Elishama.

The Clans of Caleb

⁴²The sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel:

Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph, and his son Mareshah, ^[26] who was the father of Hebron.

⁴³The sons of Hebron:

Korah, Tappuah, Rekem and Shema. ⁴⁴Shema was the father of Raham, and Raham the father of Jorkeam. Rekem was the father of Shammai. ⁴⁵The son of Shammai was Maon, and Maon was the father of Beth Zur.

⁴⁶Caleb's concubine Ephah was the mother of Haran, Moza and Gazez. Haran was the father of Gazez.

⁴⁷The sons of Jahdai:

Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah and Shaaph.

⁴⁸Caleb's concubine Maakah was the mother of Sheber and Tirhanah.

⁴⁹She also gave birth to Shaaph the father of Madmannah and to Sheva the father of Makbenah and Gibeon. Caleb's daughter was Aksah. ⁵⁰These were the descendants of Caleb.

The sons of Hur the firstborn of Ephrathah:

Shobal the father of Kiriath Jearim, ⁵¹Salma the father of Bethlehem, and Hareph the father of Beth Gader.

⁵²The descendants of Shobal the father of Kiriath Jearim were:

Haroeh, half the Manahathites, ⁵³and the clans of Kiriath Jearim: the Ithrites, Puthites, Shumathites and Mishraites. From these descended the Zorathites and Eshtaolites.

⁵⁴The descendants of Salma:

Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth Beth Joab, half the Manahathites, the Zorites, ⁵⁵and the clans of scribes^[27] who lived at Jabez: the Tirathites, Shimeathites and Sucathites. These are the Kenites who came from Hammath, the father of the Rekabites.^[28]

1 Chronicles 3

The Sons of David

¹These were the sons of David born to him in Hebron:

The firstborn was Amnon the son of Ahinoam of Jezreel;
the second, Daniel the son of Abigail of Carmel;

²the third, Absalom the son of Maakah daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;

the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith;

³the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;
and the sixth, Ithream, by his wife Eglah.

⁴These six were born to David in Hebron, where he reigned seven years and six months.

David reigned in Jerusalem thirty-three years, ⁵and these were the children born to him there:

Shammua,^[29] Shobab, Nathan and Solomon. These four were by Bathsheba^[30] daughter of Ammiel. ⁶There were also Ibhar, Elishua, ^[31] Eliphelet, ⁷Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, ⁸Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet—nine in all. ⁹All these were the sons of David, besides his sons by his concubines. And Tamar was their sister.

The Kings of Judah

¹⁰Solomon's son was Rehoboam, Abijah his son,
Asa his son,
Jehoshaphat his son,
¹¹Jehoram^[32] his son, Ahaziah his son,
Joash his son,
¹²Amaziah his son,
Azariah his son,
Jotham his son,
¹³Ahaz his son,
Hezekiah his son,
Manasseh his son,
¹⁴Amon his son,
Josiah his son.

¹⁵The sons of Josiah:
Johanan the firstborn,
Jehoiakim the second son,
Zedekiah the third,
Shallum the fourth.

¹⁶The successors of Jehoiakim: Jehoiachin^[33] his son, and Zedekiah.

The Royal Line After the Exile

¹⁷The descendants of Jehoiachin the captive:
Shealtiel his son, ¹⁸Malkiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama and Nedabiah.

¹⁹The sons of Pedaiah:

Zerubbabel and Shimei.

The sons of Zerubbabel:

Meshullam and Hananiah.

Shelomith was their sister.

²⁰There were also five others:

Hashubah, Ohel, Berekiah, Hasadiah and Jushab-Hesed.

²¹The descendants of Hananiah:

Pelathiah and Jeshaiah, and the sons of Rephaiah, of Arnan, of Obadiah and of Shekaniah.

²²The descendants of Shekaniah:

Shemaiah and his sons:

Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah and Shaphat—six in all.

²³The sons of Neariah:

Elioenai, Hizkiah and Azrikam—three in all.

²⁴The sons of Elioenai:

Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah and Anani—seven in all.

1 Chronicles 4

Other Clans of Judah

¹The descendants of Judah:

Perez, Hezron, Karmi, Hur and Shobal.

²Reaiah son of Shobal was the father of Jahath, and Jahath the father of Ahumai and Lahad. These were the clans of the Zorathites.

³These were the sons^[34] of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma and Idbash. Their sister was named Hazzelelponi. ⁴Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah.

These were the descendants of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah and father^[35] of Bethlehem.

⁵Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah.

⁶Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hephher, Temeni and Haahashtari. These were the descendants of Naarah.

⁷The sons of Helah:

Zereth, Zohar, Ethnan, ⁸and Koz, who was the father of Anub and Hazzobebah and of the clans of Aharhel son of Harum.

⁹Jabez was more honorable than his brothers. His mother had named him Jabez, ^[36]saying, "I gave birth to him in pain." ¹⁰Jabez cried out to the God of Israel, "Oh, that you would bless me and enlarge my territory! Let your hand be with me, and keep me from harm so that I will be free from pain." And God granted his request.

¹¹Kelub, Shuhah's brother, was the father of Mehir, who was the father of Eshton. ¹²Eshton was the father of Beth Rapha, Paseah and Tehinnah the father of Ir Nahash. ^[37] These were the men of Rekah.

¹³The sons of Kenaz:

Othniel and Seraiah.

The sons of Othniel:

Hathath and Meonothai. ^[38] ¹⁴Meonothai was the father of Ophrah.

Seraiah was the father of Joab, the father of Ge Harashim.^[39] It was called this because its people were skilled workers.

¹⁵The sons of Caleb son of Jephunneh:

Iru, Elah and Naam.

The son of Elah:

Kenaz.

¹⁶The sons of Jehallelel:

Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria and Asarel.

¹⁷The sons of Ezrah:

Jether, Mered, Ephraim and Jalon. One of Mered's wives gave birth to Miriam, Shammai and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa. ¹⁸(His wife from the tribe of Judah gave birth to Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Soko, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah.) These were the children of Pharaoh's daughter Bithiah, whom Mered had married.

¹⁹The sons of Hodiah's wife, the sister of Naham:

the father of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maakathite.

²⁰The sons of Shimon:

Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan and Tilon.

The descendants of Ishi:

Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.

²¹The sons of Shelah son of Judah:

Er the father of Lekah, Laadah the father of Mareshah and the clans of the linen workers at Beth Ashbea, ²²Jokim, the men of Kozeba, and Joash and Saraph, who ruled in Moab and Jashubi Lehem. (These records are from ancient times.) ²³They were the potters who lived at Netaim and Gederah; they stayed there and worked for the king.

SIMEON

²⁴The descendants of Simeon:

Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerah and Shaul;

²⁵Shallum was Shaul's son, Mibsam his son and Mishma his son.

²⁶The descendants of Mishma:

Hammuel his son, Zakkur his son and Shimei his son.

²⁷Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters, but his brothers did not have many children; so their entire clan did not become as numerous as the people of Judah. ²⁸They lived in Beersheba, Moladah, Hazar Shual, ²⁹Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad, ³⁰Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag, ³¹Beth Markaboth, Hazar Susim, Beth Biri and Shaaraim. These were their towns until the reign of David. ³²Their surrounding villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Token and Ashan—five towns — ³³and all the villages around these towns as far as Baalath.^[40] These were their settlements. And they kept a genealogical record.

³⁴Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah son of Amaziah, ³⁵Joel, Jehu son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel, ³⁶also Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, ³⁷and Ziza son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah.

³⁸The men listed above by name were leaders of their clans. Their families increased greatly, ³⁹and they went to the outskirts of Gedor to the east of the valley in search of pasture for their flocks. ⁴⁰They found rich, good pasture, and the land was spacious, peaceful and quiet. Some Hamites had lived there formerly.

⁴¹The men whose names were listed came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. They attacked the Hamites in their dwellings and also the Meunites who were there and completely destroyed^[41] them, as is evident to this day. Then they settled in their place, because there was pasture for their flocks. ⁴²And five hundred of these Simeonites, led by Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, invaded the hill country of Seir. ⁴³They killed the remaining Amalekites who had escaped, and they have lived there to this day.

1 Chronicles 5

REUBEN

¹The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel (he was the firstborn, but when he defiled his father's marriage bed, his rights as firstborn were given to the sons of Joseph son of Israel; so he could not be listed in the genealogical record in accordance with his birthright, ²and though Judah was the strongest of his brothers and a ruler came from him, the rights of the firstborn belonged to Joseph)— ³the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel:

Hanok, Pallu, Hezron and Karmi.

⁴The descendants of Joel:

Shemaiah his son, Gog his son,

Shimei his son, ⁵Micah his son,

Reaiah his son, Baal his son,

⁶and Beerah his son, whom Tiglath-Pileser^[42] king of Assyria took into exile. Beerah was a leader of the Reubenites.

⁷Their relatives by clans, listed according to their genealogical records:

Jeiel the chief, Zechariah, ⁸and Bela son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel. They settled in the area from Aroer to Nebo and Baal Meon. ⁹To the east they occupied the land up to the edge of the desert that extends to the Euphrates River, because their livestock had increased in Gilead.

¹⁰During Saul's reign they waged war against the Hagarites, who were defeated at their hands; they occupied the dwellings of the Hagarites throughout the entire region east of Gilead.

GAD

¹¹The Gadites lived next to them in Bashan, as far as Salekah:

¹²Joel was the chief, Shapham the second, then Janai and Shaphat, in Bashan.

¹³Their relatives, by families, were:

Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jakan, Zia and Eber—seven in all.

¹⁴These were the sons of Abihail son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz.

¹⁵Ahi son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was head of their family.

¹⁶The Gadites lived in Gilead, in Bashan and its outlying villages, and on all the pasturelands of Sharon as far as they extended.

¹⁷All these were entered in the genealogical records during the reigns of Jotham king of Judah and Jeroboam king of Israel.

¹⁸The Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh had 44,760 men ready for military service—able-bodied men who could handle shield and sword, who could use a bow, and who were trained for battle. ¹⁹They waged war against the Hagarites, Jetur, Naphish and Nodab. ²⁰They were helped in fighting them, and God delivered the Hagarites and all their allies into their hands, because they cried out to him during the battle. He answered their prayers, because they trusted in him. ²¹They seized the livestock of the Hagarites—fifty thousand camels, two hundred fifty thousand sheep and two thousand donkeys. They also took one hundred thousand people captive, ²²and many others fell slain, because the battle was God's. And they occupied the land until the exile.

THE HALF-TRIBE OF MANASSEH

²³The people of the half-tribe of Manasseh were numerous; they settled in the land from Bashan to Baal Hermon, that is, to Senir (Mount Hermon).

their families. ²⁵But they were unfaithful to the God of their ancestors and prostituted themselves to the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them. ²⁶So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria (that is, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria), who took the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh into exile. He took them to Halah, Habor, Hara and the river of Gozan, where they are to this day.

1 Chronicles 6^[43]

¹The sons of Levi:

Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

²The sons of Kohath:

Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

³The children of Amram:

Aaron, Moses and Miriam.

The sons of Aaron:

⁸Ahitub the father of Zadok,
Zadok the father of Ahimaaz,

⁹Ahimaaz the father of Azariah,
Azariah the father of Johanan,

¹⁰Johanan the father of Azariah (it was he who served as priest in the temple Solomon built in Jerusalem), ¹¹Azariah the father of Amariah, Amariah the father of Ahitub,

¹²Ahitub the father of Zadok,
Zadok the father of Shallum,

¹³Shallum the father of Hilkiyah,

Hilkiah the father of Azariah,

¹⁴Azariah the father of Seraiah, and Seraiah the father of Jozadak.^[44]

¹⁵Jozadak was deported when the LORD sent Judah and Jerusalem into exile by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

¹⁶The sons of Levi:

Gershon,^[45] Kohath and Merari.

¹⁷These are the names of the sons of Gershon:

Libni and Shimei.

¹⁸The sons of Kohath:

Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

¹⁹The sons of Merari:

Mahli and Mushi.

These are the clans of the Levites listed according to their fathers:

²⁰Of Gershon:

Libni his son, Jahath his son,
Zimmah his son, ²¹Joah his son,
Iddo his son, Zerah his son and Jeatherai his son.

²²The descendants of Kohath:

Amminadab his son, Korah his son,
Assir his son, ²³Elkanah his son,
Ebiasaph his son, Assir his son,
²⁴Tahath his son, Uriel his son,
Uzziah his son and Shaul his son.

²⁵The descendants of Elkanah:

Amasai, Ahimoth,

²⁶Elkanah his son,^[46] Zophai his son, Nahath his son, ²⁷Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son and Samuel his son.^[47]

²⁸The sons of Samuel:

Joel^[48] the firstborn and Abijah the second son.

²⁹The descendants of Merari:

Mahli, Libni his son,
Shimei his son, Uzzah his son, ³⁰Shimea his son, Haggiah his son and Asaiah his son.

The Temple Musicians

³¹These are the men David put in charge of the music in the house of the LORD after the ark came to rest there. ³²They ministered with music before the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, until Solomon built the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem. They performed their duties according to the regulations laid down for them.

³³Here are the men who served, together with their sons:

From the Kohathites:

Heman, the musician,

the son of Joel, the son of Samuel,

³⁴the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham,
the son of Eliel, the son of Toah,

³⁵the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah,
the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, ³⁶the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel,

the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah,

³⁷the son of Tahath, the son of Assir,
the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah,

³⁸the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath,
the son of Levi, the son of Israel;

³⁹and Heman's associate Asaph, who served at his right hand:

Asaph son of Berekiah, the son of Shimea,

⁴⁰the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah,^[49]

the son of Malkijah, ⁴¹the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah,

⁴²the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, ⁴³the son of Jahath,
the son of Gershon, the son of Levi;

Ethan son of Kishi, the son of Abdi,
the son of Malluk, ⁴⁵the son of Hashabiah,
the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah, ⁴⁶the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shemer, ⁴⁷the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

⁴⁸Their fellow Levites were assigned to all the other duties of the tabernacle, the house of God. ⁴⁹But Aaron and his descendants were the ones who presented offerings on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense in connection with all that was done in the Most Holy Place, making atonement for Israel, in accordance with all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

⁵⁰These were the descendants of Aaron:

Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son,
Abishua his son, ⁵¹Bukki his son,
Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son, ⁵²Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, ⁵³Zadok his son and Ahimaaz his son.

⁵⁴These were the locations of their settlements allotted as their territory (they were assigned to the descendants of Aaron who were from the Kohathite clan, because the first lot was for them):

⁵⁵They were given Hebron in Judah with its surrounding pasturelands.

⁵⁶But the fields and villages around the city were given to Caleb son of Jephunneh.

⁵⁷So the descendants of Aaron were given Hebron (a city of refuge), and Libnah, ^[50] Jattir, Eshtemoa, ⁵⁸Hilen, Debir, ⁵⁹Ashan, Juttah ^[51] and Beth Shemesh, together with their pasturelands. ⁶⁰And from the tribe of Benjamin they were given Gibeon,^[52] Geba, Alemeth and Anathoth, together with their pasturelands.

The total number of towns distributed among the Kohathite clans came to thirteen.

⁶¹The rest of Kohath's descendants were allotted ten towns from the clans of half the tribe of Manasseh.

⁶²The descendants of Gershon, clan by clan, were allotted thirteen towns from the tribes of Issachar, Asher and Naphtali, and from the part of the tribe of Manasseh that is in Bashan.

⁶³The descendants of Merari, clan by clan, were allotted twelve towns from the tribes of Reuben, Gad and Zebulun.

⁶⁴So the Israelites gave the Levites these towns and their pasturelands. ⁶⁵From the tribes of Judah, Simeon and Benjamin they allotted the previously named towns.

⁶⁶Some of the Kohathite clans were given as their territory towns from the tribe of Ephraim.

⁶⁷In the hill country of Ephraim they were given Shechem (a city of refuge), and Gezer,^[53] ⁶⁸Jokmeam, Beth Horon, ⁶⁹Aijalon and Gath Rimmon, together with their pasturelands.

⁷⁰And from half the tribe of Manasseh the Israelites gave Aner and Bileam, together with their pasturelands, to the rest of the Kohathite clans.

⁷¹The Gershonites received the following:

From the clan of the half-tribe of Manasseh they received Golan in Bashan and also Ashtaroth, together with their pasturelands;

⁷²from the tribe of Issachar

they received Kedesh, Daberath, ⁷³Ramoth and Anem, together with their pasturelands; ⁷⁴from the tribe of Asher they received Mashal, Abdon, ⁷⁵Hukok and Rehob, together with their pasturelands; ⁷⁶and from the tribe of Naphtali they received Kedesh in Galilee, Hammon and Kiriathaim, together with their pasturelands.

⁷⁷The Merarites (the rest of the Levites) received the following:

From the tribe of Zebulun

they received Jokneam, Kartah,^[54] Rimmono and Tabor, together with their pasturelands; ⁷⁸from the tribe of Reuben across the Jordan east of Jericho they received Bezer in the wilderness, Jahzah, ⁷⁹Kedemoth and Mephaath, together with their pasturelands; ⁸⁰and from the tribe of Gad they received Ramoth in Gilead, Mahanaim, ⁸¹Heshbon and Jazer, together with their pasturelands.

1 Chronicles 7

ISSACHAR

¹The sons of Issachar:

Tola, Puah, Jashub and Shimron—four in all.

²The sons of Tola:

Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam and Samuel—heads of their families. During the reign of David, the descendants of Tola listed as fighting men in their genealogy numbered 22,600.

³The son of Uzzi:

Izrahiah.

The sons of Izrahiah:

Michael, Obadiah, Joel and Ishiah. All five of them were chiefs.

⁴According to their family genealogy, they had 36,000 men ready for battle, for they had many wives and children.

⁵The relatives who were fighting men belonging to all the clans of Issachar, as listed in their genealogy, were 87,000 in all.

BENJAMIN

⁶Three sons of Benjamin:

Bela, Beker and Jediael.

⁷The sons of Bela:

Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth and Iri, heads of families—five in all.
Their genealogical record listed 22,034 fighting men.

⁸The sons of Beker:

Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth and Alemeth. All these were the sons of Beker. ⁹Their genealogical record listed the heads of families and 20,200 fighting men.

¹⁰The son of Jediael:

Bilhan.

The sons of Bilhan:

Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Kenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish and Ahishahar.

¹¹All these sons of Jediael were heads of families. There were 17,200 fighting men ready to go out to war.

¹²The Shuppites and Huppites were the descendants of Ir, and the Hushites^[55] the descendants of Aher.

NAPHTALI

¹³The sons of Naphtali:

Jahziel, Guni, Jezer and Shillem^[56]—the descendants of Bilhah.

MANASSEH

¹⁴The descendants of Manasseh:

Asriel was his descendant through his Aramean concubine. She gave birth to Makir the father of Gilead. ¹⁵Makir took a wife from among the Huppites and Shuppites. His sister's name was Maakah.

Another descendant was named Zelophehad, who had only daughters.

¹⁶Makir's wife Maakah gave birth to a son and named him Peresh. His brother was named Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rakem.

¹⁷The son of Ulam:

Bedan.

These were the sons of Gilead son of Makir, the son of Manasseh. ¹⁸His sister Hammoleketh gave birth to Ishhod, Abiezer and Mahlah.

¹⁹The sons of Shemida were:

Ahian, Shechem, Likhi and Aniam.

EPHRAIM

²⁰The descendants of Ephraim:

Shuthelah, Bered his son,
Tahath his son, Eleadah his son, Tahath his son, ²¹Zabad his son and Shuthelah his son.

Ezer and Elead were killed by the native-born men of Gath, when they went down to seize their livestock. ²²Their father Ephraim mourned for them many days, and his relatives came to comfort him. ²³Then he made love to his wife again, and she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. He named him Beriah, ^[57] because there had been misfortune in his family. ²⁴His daughter was Sheerah, who built Lower and Upper Beth Horon as well as Uzzan Sheerah.

²⁵Rephah was his son, Resheph his son, ^[58]

Telah his son, Tahan his son, ²⁶Ladan his son, Ammihud his son, Elishama his son, ²⁷Nun his son and Joshua his son.

²⁸Their lands and settlements included Bethel and its surrounding villages, Naaran to the east, Gezer and its villages to the west, and Shechem and its villages all the way to Ayyah and its villages. ²⁹Along the borders of Manasseh were Beth Shan, Taanach, Megiddo and Dor, together with their villages. The descendants of Joseph son of Israel lived in these towns.

ASHER

³⁰The sons of Asher:

Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi and Beriah. Their sister was Serah.

³¹The sons of Beriah:

Heber and Malkiel, who was the father of Birzaith.

³²Heber was the father of Japhlet, Shomer and Hotham and of their sister Shua.

³³The sons of Japhlet:

Pasak, Bimhal and Ashvath.

These were Japhlet's sons.

³⁴The sons of Shomer:

Ahi, Rohgah,^[59] Hubbah and Aram.

³⁵The sons of his brother Helem:

Zophah, Imna, Shelesh and Amal.

³⁶The sons of Zophah:

Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah,³⁷ Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Ithran^[60] and Beera.

³⁸The sons of Jether:

Jephunneh, Pispah and Ara.

³⁹The sons of Ulla:

Arah, Hanniel and Rizia.

⁴⁰All these were descendants of Asher—heads of families, choice men, brave warriors and outstanding leaders. The number of men ready for battle, as listed in their genealogy, was 26,000.

ROCK SOLID truths

1 Chronicles 7:1–40

Even dry parts of the Bible make a point.

Family trees can tell you a ton, especially if you're part of the family. As a believer you're a member of God's big family. So you should know why the Bible includes several dense sections of your spiritual family history. These genealogies are a quick sketch of your roots, a reminder of deep family connections that extend for generations. But these ancient lists served practical functions too. They organized tribes for military duties (see Numbers 1:2-4) and determined taxes and temple contributions (see Numbers 7:11-89). They detailed the division of the promised land, with each tribe receiving a specific parcel of land (Joshua 16-19). And genealogies have one more essential job. They traced the birth of Jesus to the line of David (see Isaiah 11:1), a sign that Jesus was the genuine Savior sent from God.

Think: What parts of the Bible do you find boring? Why do you think God included those parts in his flawless Word?

1 Chronicles 8

THE GENEALOGY OF SAUL THE BENJAMITE

¹Benjamin was the father of Bela his firstborn,

Ashbel the second son, Aharah the third,

²Nohah the fourth and Rapha the fifth.

³The sons of Bela were:

Addar, Gera, Abihud,^[61] ⁴Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah, ⁵Gera, Shephuphan and Huram.

⁶These were the descendants of Ehud, who were heads of families of those living in Geba and were deported to Manahath: ⁷Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera, who deported them and who was the father of Uzza and Ahihud.

⁸Sons were born to Shaharaim in Moab after he had divorced his wives Hushim and Baara. ⁹By his wife Hodesh he had Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malkam, ¹⁰Jeuz, Sakia and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of families. ¹¹By Hushim he had Abitub and Elpaal.

¹²The sons of Elpaal:

Eber, Misham, Shemed (who built Ono and Lod with its surrounding villages), ¹³and Beriah and Shema, who were heads of families of those living in Aijalon and who drove out the inhabitants of Gath.

¹⁴Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth, ¹⁵Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, ¹⁶Michael, Ishpah and Joha were the sons of Beriah.

¹⁷Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber, ¹⁸Ishmerai, Izliah and Jobab were the sons of Elpaal.

¹⁹Jakim, Zikri, Zabdi, ²⁰Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel, ²¹Adaiah, Beraiah and Shimrath were the sons of Shimei.

²²Ishpan, Eber, Eliel, ²³Abdon, Zikri, Hanan, ²⁴Hananiah, Elam, Anthothijah, ²⁵Iphdeiah and Penuel were the sons of Shashak.

²⁶Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah, ²⁷Jareshiah, Elijah and Zikri were the sons of Jeroham.

²⁸All these were heads of families, chiefs as listed in their genealogy, and they lived in Jerusalem.

²⁹Jeiel^[62] the father^[63] of Gibeon lived in Gibeon.

His wife's name was Maakah, ³⁰and his firstborn son was Abdon, followed by Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner,^[64] Nadab, ³¹Gedor, Ahio, Zeker ³²and Mikloth, who was the father of Shimeah. They too lived near their relatives in Jerusalem.

³³Ner was the father of Kish, Kish the father of Saul, and Saul the father of Jonathan, Malki-Shua, Abinadab and Esh-Baal.^[65]

³⁴The son of Jonathan:

Merib-Baal,^[66] who was the father of Micah.

³⁵The sons of Micah:

Pithon, Melek, Tarea and Ahaz.

³⁶Ahaz was the father of Jehoaddah, Jehoaddah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri, and Zimri was the father of Moza.

³⁷Moza was the father of Binea; Raphah was his son, Eleasah his son and Azel his son.

³⁸Azel had six sons, and these were their names:

Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel.

³⁹The sons of his brother Eshek:

Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second son and Eliphelet the third. ⁴⁰The sons of Ulam were brave warriors who could handle the bow. They had many sons and grandsons—150 in all.

All these were the descendants of Benjamin.

1 Chronicles 9

¹All Israel was listed in the genealogies recorded in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. They were taken captive to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness.

THE PEOPLE IN JERUSALEM

²Now the first to resettle on their own property in their own towns were some Israelites, priests, Levites and temple servants.

³Those from Judah, from Benjamin, and from Ephraim and Manasseh who lived in Jerusalem were:

⁴Uthai son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, a descendant of Perez son of Judah.

⁵Of the Shelanites^[67]: Asaiah the firstborn and his sons.

⁶Of the Zerahites:

Jeuel.

The people from Judah numbered 690.

⁷Of the Benjamites:

Sallu son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah;

⁸Ibneiah son of Jeroham; Elah son of Uzzi, the son of Mikri; and Meshullam son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah.

⁹The people from Benjamin, as listed in their genealogy, numbered 956. All these men were heads of their families.

¹⁰Of the priests:

Jedaiah; Jehoiarib; Jakin;

¹¹Azariah son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the official in charge of the house of God; ¹²Adaiah son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malkijah; and Maasai son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer.

¹³The priests, who were heads of families, numbered 1,760. They were able men, responsible for ministering in the house of God.

¹⁴Of the Levites:

Shemaiah son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, a Merarite; ¹⁵Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal and Mattaniah son of Mika, the son of Zikri, the son of Asaph; ¹⁶Obadiah son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berekiah son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

¹⁷The gatekeepers:

Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman and their fellow Levites, Shallum their chief ¹⁸being stationed at the King's Gate on the east, up to the present time. These were the gatekeepers belonging to the camp of the Levites. ¹⁹Shallum son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his fellow gatekeepers from his family (the Korahites) were responsible for guarding the thresholds of the tent just as their ancestors had been responsible for guarding the entrance to the dwelling of the LORD. ²⁰In earlier times Phinehas son of Eleazar was the official in charge of the gatekeepers, and the LORD was with him. ²¹Zechariah son of Meshelemiah was the gatekeeper at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

²⁸Some of them were in charge of the articles used in the temple service; they counted them when they were brought in and when they were taken out. ²⁹Others were assigned to take care of the furnishings and all the other articles of the sanctuary, as well as the special flour and wine, and the olive oil, incense and spices. ³⁰But some of the priests took care of mixing the spices. ³¹A Levite named Mattithiah, the firstborn son of Shallum the Korahite, was entrusted with the responsibility for baking the offering bread. ³²Some of the Kohathites, their fellow Levites, were in charge of preparing for every Sabbath the bread set out on the table.

³³Those who were musicians, heads of Levite families, stayed in the rooms of the temple and were exempt from other duties because they were responsible for the work day and night.

³⁴All these were heads of Levite families, chiefs as listed in their genealogy, and they lived in Jerusalem.

THE GENEALOGY OF SAUL

³⁵Jeiel the father^[68] of Gibeon lived in Gibeon.

His wife's name was Maakah,³⁶ and his firstborn son was Abdon, followed by Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab,³⁷ Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah and Mikloth.³⁸ Mikloth was the father of Shimeam. They too lived near their relatives in Jerusalem.

³⁹Ner was the father of Kish, Kish the father of Saul, and Saul the father of Jonathan, Malki-Shua, Abinadab and Esh-Baal.^[69]

⁴⁰The son of Jonathan:

Merib-Baal,^[70] who was the father of Micah.

⁴¹The sons of Micah:

Pithon, Melek, Tahrea and Ahaz.^[71]

⁴²Ahaz was the father of Jadah, Jadah^[72] was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri, and Zimri was the father of Moza.⁴³ Moza was the father of Binea; Rephaiah was his son, Eleasah his son and Azel his son.

⁴⁴Azel had six sons, and these were their names:

Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

1 Chronicles 10

SAUL TAKES HIS LIFE

¹Now the Philistines fought against Israel; the Israelites fled before them, and many fell dead on Mount Gilboa. ²The Philistines were in hot pursuit of Saul and his sons, and they killed his sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malki-Shua. ³The fighting grew fierce around Saul, and when the archers overtook him, they wounded him.

⁴Saul said to his armor-bearer, “Draw your sword and run me through, or these uncircumcised fellows will come and abuse me.”

But his armor-bearer was terrified and would not do it; so Saul took his own sword and fell on it. ⁵When the armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on his sword and died. ⁶So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together.

⁷When all the Israelites in the valley saw that the army had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, they abandoned their towns and fled. And the Philistines came and occupied them.

¹¹When all the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹²all their valiant men went and took the bodies of Saul and his sons and brought them to Jabesh. Then they buried their bones under the great tree in Jabesh, and they fasted seven days.

¹³Saul died because he was unfaithful to the LORD; he did not keep the word of the LORD and even consulted a medium for guidance, ¹⁴and did not inquire of the LORD. So the LORD put him to death and turned the kingdom over to David son of Jesse.

ROCK SOLID truths

1 Chronicles 10:1–14

Sin means missing the mark.

Saul was the good-looking guy picked as Israel’s first king.

But the man who stood a head taller than everyone else in Israel didn't amount to much. God wanted Saul to carefully follow his commands, but he "did not keep the word of the LORD." In the end Saul died "because he was unfaithful to the LORD" (1 Chronicles 10:13). He didn't live up to the standard God set. In fact, his life is a concrete example of sin, a word that in New Testament Greek literally means "missing the mark," like an archer shooting an arrow and failing to hit a target. That image tells us God expects us to aim for his very best. He doesn't want us to settle for barely nicking the target. He wants us to nail the bull's-eye—every time—by obeying him completely.

Think: What makes an attitude or behavior a sin?

1 Chronicles 11

DAVID BECOMES KING OVER ISRAEL

¹All Israel came together to David at Hebron and said, “We are your own flesh and blood. ²In the past, even while Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel on their military campaigns. And the LORD your God said to you, ‘You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will become their ruler.’ ”

³When all the elders of Israel had come to King David at Hebron, he made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel, as the LORD had promised through Samuel.

DAVID CONQUERS JERUSALEM

⁴David and all the Israelites marched to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus). The Jebusites who lived there ⁵said to David, “You will not get in here.” Nevertheless, David captured the fortress of Zion—which is the City of David.

⁶David had said, “Whoever leads the attack on the Jebusites will become commander-in-chief.” Joab son of Zeruiah went up first, and so he received the command.

⁷David then took up residence in the fortress, and so it was called the City of David. ⁸He built up the city around it, from the terraces^[73] to the surrounding wall, while Joab restored the rest of the city. ⁹And David became more and more powerful, because the LORD Almighty was with him.

DAVID’S MIGHTY WARRIORS

¹⁰These were the chiefs of David’s mighty warriors—they, together with all Israel, gave his kingship strong support to extend it over the whole land, as the LORD had promised— ¹¹this is the list of David’s mighty warriors: Jashobeam,^[74] a Hakmonite, was chief of the officers^[75]; he raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed in one encounter.

¹²Next to him was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite, one of the three mighty warriors. ¹³He was with David at Pas Dammim when the Philistines gathered there for battle. At a place where there was a field full of barley, the troops fled from the Philistines. ¹⁴But they took their stand in the middle of the field. They defended it and struck the Philistines down, and the LORD brought about a great victory.

¹⁵Three of the thirty chiefs came down to David to the rock at the cave of Adullam, while a band of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim. ¹⁶At that time David was in the stronghold, and the Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem. ¹⁷David longed for water and said, “Oh, that someone would get me a drink of water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem!” ¹⁸So the Three broke through the Philistine lines, drew water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem and carried it back to David. But he refused to drink it; instead, he poured it out to the LORD. ¹⁹“God forbid that I should do this!” he said. “Should I drink the blood of these men who went at the risk of their lives?” Because they risked their lives to bring it back, David would not drink it.

Such were the exploits of the three mighty warriors.

²⁰Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of the Three. He raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed, and so he became as famous as the Three. ²¹He was doubly honored above the Three and became their commander, even though he was not included among them.

²²Benaiah son of Jehoiada, a valiant fighter from Kabzeel, performed great exploits. He struck down Moab's two mightiest warriors. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion. ²³And he struck down an Egyptian who was five cubits^[76] tall. Although the Egyptian had a spear like a weaver's rod in his hand, Benaiah went against him with a club. He snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear. ²⁴Such were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada; he too was as famous as the three mighty warriors. ²⁵He was held in greater honor than any of the Thirty, but he was not included among the Three. And David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

²⁶The mighty warriors were:

Asahel the brother of Joab,

Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem,

²⁷Shammoth the Harorite,

Helez the Pelonite,

²⁸Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa,

Abiezer from Anathoth,

²⁹Sibbekai the Hushathite,

Ilai the Ahohite,

³⁰Maharai the Netophathite,

Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite,

³¹Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah in Benjamin,

Benaiah the Pirathonite,

³²Hurai from the ravines of Gaash,

Abiel the Arbathite,

³³Azmaveth the Baharumite,

Eliahba the Shaalbonite, ³⁴the sons of Hashem the Gizonite,
Jonathan son of Shagee the Hararite, ³⁵Ahiam son of Sakar the Hararite, Eliphai son of Ur,
³⁶Hepher the Mekerathite, Ahijah the Pelonite, ³⁷Hezro the Carmelite,
Naarai son of Ezbai, ³⁸Joel the brother of Nathan,
Mibhar son of Hagri, ³⁹Zelek the Ammonite,
Naharai the Berothite, the armor-bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah, ⁴⁰Ira the Ithrite,
Gareb the Ithrite,
⁴¹Uriah the Hittite,
Zabad son of Ahlai, ⁴²Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, who was chief of the Reubenites, and the thirty with him, ⁴³Hanan son of Maakah, Joshaphat the Mithnite, ⁴⁴Uzzia the Ashterathite,
Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite, ⁴⁵Jediael son of Shimri,
his brother Joha the Tizite, ⁴⁶Eliel the Mahavite,
Jeribai and Joshaviah the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite, ⁴⁷Eliel, Obed and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

1 Chronicles 12

WARRIORS JOIN DAVID

¹These were the men who came to David at Ziklag, while he was banished from the presence of Saul son of Kish (they were among the warriors who helped him in battle; ²they were armed with bows and were able to shoot arrows or to sling stones right-handed or left-handed; they were relatives of Saul from the tribe of Benjamin):

³Ahiezzer their chief and Joash the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Berakah, Jehu the Anathothite, ⁴and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty warrior among the Thirty, who was a leader of the Thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite,^[77] ⁵Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah and Shephatiah the Haruphite; ⁶Elkanah, Ishiah, Azarel, Joezer and Jashobeam the Korahites; ⁷and Joelah and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham from Gedor.

⁸Some Gadites defected to David at his stronghold in the wilderness. They were brave warriors, ready for battle and able to handle the shield and spear. Their faces were the faces of lions, and they were as swift as gazelles in the mountains.

⁹Ezer was the chief,

Obadiah the second in command, Eliab the third,

¹⁰Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

¹¹Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

¹²Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

¹³Jeremiah the tenth and Makbannai the eleventh.

¹⁴These Gadites were army commanders; the least was a match for a hundred, and the greatest for a thousand. ¹⁵It was they who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it was overflowing all its banks, and they put to flight everyone living in the valleys, to the east and to the west.

¹⁶Other Benjamites and some men from Judah also came to David in his stronghold. ¹⁷David went out to meet them and said to them, "If you have come to me in peace to help me, I am ready for you to join me. But if you have come to betray me to my enemies when my hands are free from violence, may the God of our ancestors see it and judge you.”

¹⁸Then the Spirit came on Amasai, chief of the Thirty, and he said:

“We are yours, David!
We are with you, son of Jesse!
Success, success to you,
and success to those who help you,
for your God will help you.”

So David received them and made them leaders of his raiding bands.

¹⁹Some of the tribe of Manasseh defected to David when he went with the Philistines to fight against Saul. (He and his men did not help the Philistines because, after consultation, their rulers sent him away. They said, “It will cost us our heads if he deserts to his master Saul.”) ²⁰When David went to Ziklag, these were the men of Manasseh who defected to him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediahel, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu and Zillethai, leaders of units of a thousand in Manasseh. ²¹They helped David against raiding bands, for all of them were brave warriors, and they were commanders in his army. ²²Day after day men came to help David, until he had a great army, like the army of God. ^[78]

OTHERS JOIN DAVID AT HEBRON

²³These are the numbers of the men armed for battle who came to David at Hebron to turn Saul's kingdom over to him, as the LORD had said:

²⁴from Judah, carrying shield and spear—6,800 armed for battle;

²⁵from Simeon, warriors ready for battle—7,100;

²⁶from Levi—4,600, ²⁷including Jehoiada, leader of the family of Aaron, with 3,700 men, ²⁸and Zadok, a brave young warrior, with 22 officers from his family; ²⁹from Benjamin, Saul's tribe—3,000, most of whom had remained loyal to Saul's house until then; ³⁰from Ephraim, brave warriors, famous in their own clans—20,800;

³¹from half the tribe of Manasseh, designated by name to come and make David king—18,000; ³²from Issachar, men who understood the times and knew what Israel should do—200 chiefs, with all their relatives under their command; ³³from Zebulun, experienced soldiers prepared for battle with every type of weapon, to help David with undivided loyalty—50,000; ³⁴from Naphtali—1,000 officers, together with 37,000 men carrying shields and spears; ³⁵from Dan, ready for battle—28,600;

³⁶from Asher, experienced soldiers prepared for battle—40,000;

³⁷and from east of the Jordan, from Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh, armed with every type of weapon—120,000.

³⁸All these were fighting men who volunteered to serve in the ranks. They came to Hebron fully determined to make David king over all Israel. All the rest of the Israelites were also of one mind to make David king. ³⁹The men spent three days there with David, eating and drinking, for their families had supplied provisions for them. ⁴⁰Also, their neighbors from as far away as Issachar, Zebulun and Naphtali came bringing food on donkeys, camels, mules and oxen. There were plentiful supplies of flour, fig cakes, raisin cakes, wine, olive oil, cattle and sheep, for there was joy in Israel.

1 Chronicles 13

BRINGING BACK THE ARK

¹David conferred with each of his officers, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds. ²He then said to the whole assembly of Israel, “If it seems good to you and if it is the will of the LORD our God, let us send word far and wide to the rest of our people throughout the territories of Israel, and also to the priests and Levites who are with them in their towns and pasturelands, to come and join us. ³Let us bring the ark of our God back to us, for we did not inquire of^[79] it^[80] during the reign of Saul.” ⁴The whole assembly agreed to do this, because it seemed right to all the people.

⁵So David assembled all Israel, from the Shihor River in Egypt to Lebo Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim. ⁶David and all Israel went to Baalah of Judah (Kiriath Jearim) to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD, who is enthroned between the cherubim—the ark that is called by the Name.

⁷They moved the ark of God from Abinadab’s house on a new cart, with Uzzah and Ahio guiding it. ⁸David and all the Israelites were celebrating with all their might before God, with songs and with harps, lyres, timbrels, cymbals and trumpets.

⁹When they came to the threshing floor of Kidon, Uzzah reached out his hand to steady the ark, because the oxen stumbled. ¹⁰The LORD’s anger burned against Uzzah, and he struck him down because he had put his hand on the ark. So he died there before God.

¹¹Then David was angry because the LORD’s wrath had broken out against Uzzah, and to this day that place is called Perez Uzzah.^[81]

¹²David was afraid of God that day and asked, “How can I ever bring the ark of God to me?” ¹³He did not take the ark to be with him in the City of David. Instead, he took it to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite. ¹⁴The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house for three months, and the LORD blessed his household and everything he had.

1 Chronicles 14

DAVID'S HOUSE AND FAMILY

¹Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar logs, stonemasons and carpenters to build a palace for him. ²And David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and that his kingdom had been highly exalted for the sake of his people Israel.

³In Jerusalem David took more wives and became the father of more sons and daughters. ⁴These are the names of the children born to him there: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, ⁵Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet, ⁶Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, ⁷Elishama, Beeliada^[82] and Eliphelet.

DAVID DEFEATS THE PHILISTINES

⁸When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, they went up in full force to search for him, but David heard about it and went out to meet them. ⁹Now the Philistines had come and raided the Valley of Rephaim; ¹⁰so David inquired of God: “Shall I go and attack the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hands?”

The LORD answered him, “Go, I will deliver them into your hands.”

¹¹So David and his men went up to Baal Perazim, and there he defeated them. He said, “As waters break out, God has broken out against my enemies by my hand.” So that place was called Baal Perazim.^[83] ¹²The Philistines had abandoned their gods there, and David gave orders to burn them in the fire.

¹³Once more the Philistines raided the valley; ¹⁴so David inquired of God again, and God answered him, “Do not go directly after them, but circle around them and attack them in front of the poplar trees. ¹⁵As soon as you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the poplar trees, move out to battle, because that will mean God has gone out in front of you to strike the Philistine army.” ¹⁶So David did as God commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army, all the way from Gibeon to Gezer.

¹⁷So David’s fame spread throughout every land, and the LORD made all the nations fear him.

1 Chronicles 15

THE ARK BROUGHT TO JERUSALEM

¹After David had constructed buildings for himself in the City of David, he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it. ²Then David said, “No one but the Levites may carry the ark of God, because the LORD chose them to carry the ark of the LORD and to minister before him forever.”

⁵From the descendants of Kohath,

Uriel the leader and 120 relatives;

⁶from the descendants of Merari,

Asaiah the leader and 220 relatives;

⁷from the descendants of Gershon, ^[84]

Joel the leader and 130 relatives;

⁸from the descendants of Elizaphan,

Shemaiah the leader and 200 relatives;

⁹from the descendants of Hebron,

Eliel the leader and 80 relatives;

¹⁰from the descendants of Uzziel,

Amminadab the leader and 112 relatives.

¹¹Then David summoned Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab the Levites. ¹²He said to them, “You are the heads of the Levitical families; you and your fellow Levites are to consecrate yourselves and bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to the place I have prepared for it. ¹³It was because you, the Levites, did not bring it up the first time that the LORD our God broke out in anger against us. We did not inquire of him about how to do it in the prescribed way.” ¹⁴So the priests and Levites consecrated themselves in order to bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel. ¹⁵And the Levites carried the ark of God with the poles on their shoulders, as Moses had commanded in accordance with the word of the LORD.

¹⁶David told the leaders of the Levites to appoint their fellow Levites as musicians to make a joyful sound with musical instruments: lyres, harps and cymbals.

¹⁷So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel; from his relatives, Asaph son of Berekiah; and from their relatives the Merarites, Ethan son of Kushaiah; ¹⁸and with them their relatives next in rank: Zechariah,^[85] Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel,^[86] the gatekeepers.

¹⁹The musicians Heman, Asaph and Ethan were to sound the bronze cymbals; ²⁰Zechariah, Jaaziel,^[87] Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah were to play the lyres according to alamoth,^[88] ²¹and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel and Azaziah were to play the harps, directing according to sheminith.^[89] ²²Kenaniah the head Levite was in charge of the singing; that was his responsibility because he was skillful at it.

²³Berekiah and Elkanah were to be doorkeepers for the ark. ²⁴Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah and Eliezer the priests were to blow trumpets before the ark of God. Obed-Edom and Jehiah were also to be doorkeepers for the ark.

²⁵So David and the elders of Israel and the commanders of units of a thousand went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-Edom, with rejoicing. ²⁶Because God had helped the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams were sacrificed. ²⁷Now David was clothed in a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and as were the musicians, and Kenaniah, who was in charge of the singing of the choirs. David also wore a linen ephod. ²⁸So all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouts, with the sounding of rams' horns and trumpets, and of cymbals, and the playing of lyres and harps.

²⁹As the ark of the covenant of the LORD was entering the City of David, Michal daughter of Saul watched from a window. And when she saw King David dancing and celebrating, she despised him in her heart.

Dance for God.

Nora grabbed little Mateo by the hands and spun him around, lifting him into the air in a whirl. This is fun, she thought. After spending almost a month far from home caring for children at an orphanage, she couldn't imagine anywhere she would rather be. She had seen God at work in a place so different from home—a place where people were desperately poor yet so trusting in God. What she liked most of all was the chance to attend worship services at a small local church. When the worship band got going, she and her mission trip teammates joined in the singing, shouting, and dancing. They couldn't help but catch the contagious joy.

The “ark of God” (1 Chronicles 15:1) was an ornate box, a focused place of God's presence. Israel's enemies had captured the ark and carried it away (see 1 Samuel 4:1–11). David was so overjoyed that the ark was on its way back to Jerusalem that he called for a parade and danced in celebration. When God makes you happy, don't be afraid to show it.

MINISTERING BEFORE THE ARK

¹They brought the ark of God and set it inside the tent that David had pitched for it, and they presented burnt offerings and fellowship offerings before God.

⁴He appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, to extol,^[90] thank, and praise the LORD, the God of Israel: ⁵Asaph was the chief, and next to him in rank were Zechariah, then Jaaziel,^[91] Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel. They were to play the lyres and harps, Asaph was to sound the cymbals, ⁶and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests were to blow the trumpets regularly before the ark of the covenant of God.

⁷That day David first appointed Asaph and his associates to give praise to the LORD in this manner:

⁸Give praise to the LORD, proclaim his name;
make known among the nations what he has done.

⁹Sing to him, sing praise to him;
tell of all his wonderful acts.

¹⁰Glory in his holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.

¹¹Look to the LORD and his strength; seek his face always.

¹²Remember the wonders he has done,
his miracles, and the judgments he pronounced,

¹³you his servants, the descendants of Israel, his chosen ones, the children of Jacob.

¹⁴He is the LORD our God;
his judgments are in all the earth.

¹⁵He remembers^[92] his covenant forever, the promise he made, for a thousand generations,

¹⁶the covenant he made with Abraham,
the oath he swore to Isaac.

¹⁷He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree,
to Israel as an everlasting covenant:

¹⁸“To you I will give the land of Canaan as the portion you will inherit.”

¹⁹When they were but few in number, few indeed, and strangers in it,

²⁰they^[93] wandered from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another.

²¹He allowed no one to oppress them;
for their sake he rebuked kings:

²²“Do not touch my anointed ones;
do my prophets no harm.”

²³Sing to the LORD, all the earth; proclaim his salvation day after day.

²⁴Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous deeds among all peoples.

²⁵For great is the LORD and most worthy of praise;

he is to be feared above all gods.

²⁶For all the gods of the nations are idols,
but the LORD made the heavens.

²⁷Splendor and majesty are before him;
strength and joy are in his dwelling place.

- ²⁸Ascribe to the LORD, all you families of nations, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
- ²⁹Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name;
bring an offering and come before him.
Worship the LORD in the splendor of his^[94] holiness.
- ³⁰Tremble before him, all the earth!
The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved.
- ³¹Let the heavens rejoice, let the earth be glad;
let them say among the nations, “The LORD reigns!”
- ³²Let the sea resound, and all that is in it;
let the fields be jubilant, and everything in them!
- ³³Let the trees of the forest sing,
let them sing for joy before the LORD,
for he comes to judge the earth.
- ³⁴Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
his love endures forever.
- ³⁵Cry out, “Save us, God our Savior; gather us and deliver us from the nations,
that we may give thanks to your holy name,
and glory in your praise.”
- ³⁶Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting.

Then all the people said “Amen” and “Praise the LORD.”

³⁷David left Asaph and his associates before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister there regularly, according to each day’s requirements. ³⁸He also left Obed-Edom and his sixty-eight associates to minister with them. Obed-Edom son of Jeduthun, and also Hosah, were gatekeepers.

³⁹David left Zadok the priest and his fellow priests before the tabernacle of the LORD at the high place in Gibeon ⁴⁰to present burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering regularly, morning and evening, in accordance with everything written in the Law of the LORD, which he had given Israel. ⁴¹With them were Heman and Jeduthun and the rest of those chosen and designated by name to give thanks to the LORD, “for his love endures forever.” ⁴²Heman and Jeduthun were responsible for the sounding of the trumpets and cymbals and for the playing of the other instruments for sacred song. The sons of Jeduthun were stationed at the gate.

⁴³Then all the people left, each for their own home, and David returned home to bless his family.

GOD'S PROMISE TO DAVID

¹After David was settled in his palace, he said to Nathan the prophet, “Here I am, living in a house of cedar, while the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under a tent.”

²Nathan replied to David, “Whatever you have in mind, do it, for God is with you.”

³But that night the word of God came to Nathan, saying:

⁴“Go and tell my servant David, ‘This is what the LORD says: You are not the one to build me a house to dwell in.

⁵I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought Israel up out of Egypt to this day. I have moved from one tent site to another, from one dwelling place to another.

⁶Wherever I have moved with all the Israelites, did I ever say to any of their leaders^[95] whom I commanded to shepherd my people, “Why have you not built me a house of cedar?” ’

⁷“Now then, tell my servant David, ‘This is what the LORD Almighty says: I took you from the pasture, from tending the flock, and appointed you ruler over my people Israel. ⁸I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make your name like the names of the greatest men on earth. ⁹And I will provide a place for my people Israel and will plant them so that they can have a home of their own and no longer be disturbed. Wicked people will not oppress them anymore, as they did at the beginning ¹⁰and have done ever since the time I appointed leaders over my people Israel. I will also subdue all your enemies.

“ ‘I declare to you that the LORD will build a house for you: ¹¹When your days are over and you go to be with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, one of your own sons, and I will establish his kingdom. ¹²He is the one who will build a house for me, and I will establish his throne forever. ¹³I will be his father, and he will be my son. I will never take my love away from him, as I took it away from your predecessor. ¹⁴I will set him over my house and my kingdom forever; his throne will be established forever.’ ”

¹⁵Nathan reported to David all the words of this entire revelation.

DAVID’S PRAYER

¹⁶Then King David went in and sat before the LORD, and he said:

“Who am I, LORD God, and what is my family, that you have brought me this far? ¹⁷And as if this were not enough in your sight, my God, you have spoken about the future of the house of your servant. You, LORD God, have looked on me as though I were the most exalted of men.

¹⁸“What more can David say to you for honoring your servant? For you know your servant, ¹⁹LORD. For the sake of your servant and according to your will, you have done this great thing and made known all these great promises.

²⁰“There is no one like you, LORD, and there is no God but you, as we have heard with our own ears. ²¹And who is like your people Israel—the one nation on earth whose God went out to redeem a people for himself, and to make a name for yourself, and to perform great and awesome wonders by driving out nations from before your people, whom you redeemed from Egypt? ²²You made your people Israel your very own forever, and you, LORD, have become their God.

²³“And now, LORD, let the promise you have made concerning your servant and his house be established forever. Do as you promised, ²⁴so that it will be established and that your name will be great forever. Then people will say, ‘The LORD Almighty, the God over Israel, is Israel’s God!’ And the house of your servant David will be established before you.

²⁵“You, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build a house for him. So your servant has found courage to pray to you. ²⁶You, LORD, are God! You have promised these good things to your servant. ²⁷Now you have been pleased to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever in your sight; for you, LORD, have blessed it, and it will be blessed forever.”

1 Chronicles 18

DAVID'S VICTORIES

¹In the course of time, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and he took Gath and its surrounding villages from the control of the Philistines.

²David also defeated the Moabites, and they became subject to him and brought him tribute.

³Moreover, David defeated Hadadezer king of Zobah, in the vicinity of Hamath, when he went to set up his monument at^[96] the Euphrates River.

⁴David captured a thousand of his chariots, seven thousand charioteers and twenty thousand foot soldiers. He hamstringed all but a hundred of the chariot horses.

⁵When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck down twenty-two thousand of them. ⁶He put garrisons in the Aramean kingdom of Damascus, and the Arameans became subject to him and brought him tribute. The LORD gave David victory wherever he went.

⁷David took the gold shields carried by the officers of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸From Tebah^[97] and Kun, towns that belonged to Hadadezer, David took a great quantity of bronze, which Solomon used to make the bronze Sea, the pillars and various bronze articles.

⁹When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, ¹⁰he sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet him and congratulate him on his victory in battle over Hadadezer, who had been at war with Tou. Hadoram brought all kinds of articles of gold, of silver and of bronze.

¹¹King David dedicated these articles to the LORD, as he had done with the silver and gold he had taken from all these nations: Edom and Moab, the Ammonites and the Philistines, and Amalek.

¹²Abishai son of Zeruiah struck down eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt. ¹³He put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became subject to David. The LORD gave David victory wherever he went.

DAVID'S OFFICIALS

¹⁴David reigned over all Israel, doing what was just and right for all his people.

¹⁵Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder; ¹⁶Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelek^[98] son of Abiathar were priests; Shavsha was secretary; ¹⁷Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites; and David's sons were chief officials at the king's side.

1 Chronicles 19

DAVID DEFEATS THE AMMONITES

¹In the course of time, Nahash king of the Ammonites died, and his son succeeded him as king. ²David thought, “I will show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me.” So David sent a delegation to express his sympathy to Hanun concerning his father.

When David’s envoys came to Hanun in the land of the Ammonites to express sympathy to him, ³the Ammonite commanders said to Hanun, “Do you think David is honoring your father by sending envoys to you to express sympathy? Haven’t his envoys come to you only to explore and spy out the country and overthrow it?” ⁴So Hanun seized David’s envoys, shaved them, cut off their garments at the buttocks, and sent them away.

⁵When someone came and told David about the men, he sent messengers to meet them, for they were greatly humiliated. The king said, “Stay at Jericho till your beards have grown, and then come back.”

¹⁰Joab saw that there were battle lines in front of him and behind him; so he selected some of the best troops in Israel and deployed them against the Arameans. ¹¹He put the rest of the men under the command of Abishai his brother, and they were deployed against the Ammonites. ¹²Joab said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you are to rescue me; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will rescue you. ¹³Be strong, and let us fight bravely for our people and the cities of our God. The LORD will do what is good in his sight.”

¹⁴Then Joab and the troops with him advanced to fight the Arameans, and they fled before him. ¹⁵When the Ammonites realized that the Arameans were fleeing, they too fled before his brother Abishai and went inside the city. So Joab went back to Jerusalem.

¹⁶After the Arameans saw that they had been routed by Israel, they sent messengers and had Arameans brought from beyond the Euphrates River, with Shophak the commander of Hadadezer's army leading them.

¹⁷When David was told of this, he gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan; he advanced against them and formed his battle lines opposite them. David formed his lines to meet the Arameans in battle, and they fought against him.

¹⁸But they fled before Israel, and David killed seven thousand of their charioteers and forty thousand of their foot soldiers. He also killed Shophak the commander of their army.

¹⁹When the vassals of Hadadezer saw that they had been routed by Israel, they made peace with David and became subject to him.

So the Arameans were not willing to help the Ammonites anymore.

1 Chronicles 20

THE CAPTURE OF RABBAH

¹In the spring, at the time when kings go off to war, Joab led out the armed forces. He laid waste the land of the Ammonites and went to Rabbah and besieged it, but David remained in Jerusalem. Joab attacked Rabbah and left it in ruins. ²David took the crown from the head of their king^[101]—its weight was found to be a talent^[102] of gold, and it was set with precious stones—and it was placed on David's head. He took a great quantity of plunder from the city ³and brought out the people who were there, consigning them to labor with saws and with iron picks and axes. David did this to all the Ammonite towns. Then David and his entire army returned to Jerusalem.

WAR WITH THE PHILISTINES

⁴In the course of time, war broke out with the Philistines, at Gezer. At that time Sibbekai the Hushathite killed Sippai, one of the descendants of the Rephaites, and the Philistines were subjugated.

⁵In another battle with the Philistines, Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, who had a spear with a shaft like a weaver's rod.

⁶In still another battle, which took place at Gath, there was a huge man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot—twenty-four in all. He also was descended from Rapha. ⁷When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him.

⁸These were descendants of Rapha in Gath, and they fell at the hands of David and his men.

1 Chronicles 21

DAVID COUNTS THE FIGHTING MEN

¹Satan rose up against Israel and incited David to take a census of Israel. ²So David said to Joab and the commanders of the troops, “Go and count the Israelites from Beersheba to Dan. Then report back to me so that I may know how many there are.”

³But Joab replied, “May the LORD multiply his troops a hundred times over. My lord the king, are they not all my lord’s subjects? Why does my lord want to do this? Why should he bring guilt on Israel?”

⁶But Joab did not include Levi and Benjamin in the numbering, because the king’s command was repulsive to him. ⁷This command was also evil in the sight of God; so he punished Israel.

⁸Then David said to God, “I have sinned greatly by doing this. Now, I beg you, take away the guilt of your servant. I have done a very foolish thing.”

⁹The LORD said to Gad, David’s seer, ¹⁰“Go and tell David, ‘This is what the LORD says: I am giving you three options. Choose one of them for me to carry out against you.’ ”

¹¹So Gad went to David and said to him, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Take your choice: ¹²three years of famine, three months of being swept away^[103] before your enemies, with their swords overtaking you, or three days of the sword of the LORD—days of plague in the land, with the angel of the LORD ravaging every part of Israel.’ Now then, decide how I should answer the one who sent me.”

¹³David said to Gad, “I am in deep distress. Let me fall into the hands of the LORD, for his mercy is very great; but do not let me fall into human hands.”

¹⁴So the LORD sent a plague on Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell dead. ¹⁵And God sent an angel to destroy Jerusalem. But as the angel was doing so, the LORD saw it and relented concerning the disaster and said to the angel who was destroying the people, “Enough! Withdraw your hand.” The angel of the LORD was then standing at the threshing floor of Araunah^[104] the Jebusite.

¹⁶David looked up and saw the angel of the LORD standing between heaven and earth, with a drawn sword in his hand extended over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell facedown.

¹⁷David said to God, “Was it not I who ordered the fighting men to be counted? I, the shepherd,^[105] have sinned and done wrong. These are but sheep. What have they done? LORD my God, let your hand fall on me and my family, but do not let this plague remain on your people.”

DAVID BUILDS AN ALTAR

¹⁸Then the angel of the LORD ordered Gad to tell David to go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite. ¹⁹So David went up in obedience to the word that Gad had spoken in the name of the LORD.

²⁰While Araunah was threshing wheat, he turned and saw the angel; his four sons who were with him hid themselves. ²¹Then David approached, and when Araunah looked and saw him, he left the threshing floor and bowed down before David with his face to the ground.

²²David said to him, “Let me have the site of your threshing floor so I can build an altar to the LORD, that the plague on the people may be stopped. Sell it to me at the full price.”

²³Araunah said to David, “Take it! Let my lord the king do whatever pleases him. Look, I will give the oxen for the burnt offerings, the threshing sledges for the wood, and the wheat for the grain offering. I will give all this.”

²⁴But King David replied to Araunah, “No, I insist on paying the full price. I will not take for the LORD what is yours, or sacrifice a burnt offering that costs me nothing.”

²⁷Then the LORD spoke to the angel, and he put his sword back into its sheath. ²⁸At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite, he offered sacrifices there. ²⁹The tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were at that time on the high place at Gibeon. ³⁰But David could not go before it to inquire of God, because he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

ROCK SOLID truths

1 Chronicles 21:1–30

The devil didn't make you do it.

This scene isn't the first time someone claimed “the devil made me do it.” Back in the Garden of Eden, Adam and Eve ate a piece of forbidden fruit. When God confronted the world’s first couple, Adam said “the woman you put here” made him sin (Genesis 3:12). Eve said “the serpent deceived me,” putting blame on the devil himself (Genesis 3:13). In this 1 Chronicles 21 scene it says “Satan rose up against Israel and incited David to take a census of Israel” (1 Chronicles 21:1). While it might not seem sinful for a king to want to count the people in his kingdom, it meant David was planning to rely on people rather than the Lord to win his battles. God grew hot and struck down 70,000 men. Spot this point: Even though the devil influenced David’s decision, David was fully responsible for his sin (see 1 Chronicles 21:17). He didn’t use the devil as an excuse.

Think: How do you think the devil influences people to sin?

(Rock Solid TRUTHS Index)

1 Chronicles 22

¹Then David said, “The house of the LORD God is to be here, and also the altar of burnt offering for Israel.”

PREPARATIONS FOR THE TEMPLE

²So David gave orders to assemble the foreigners residing in Israel, and from among them he appointed stonecutters to prepare dressed stone for building the house of God. ³He provided a large amount of iron to make nails for the doors of the gateways and for the fittings, and more bronze than could be weighed. ⁴He also provided more cedar logs than could be counted, for the Sidonians and Tyrians had brought large numbers of them to David.

⁵David said, “My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the house to be built for the LORD should be of great magnificence and fame and splendor in the sight of all the nations. Therefore I will make preparations for it.” So David made extensive preparations before his death.

⁶Then he called for his son Solomon and charged him to build a house for the LORD, the God of Israel. ⁷David said to Solomon: “My son, I had it in my heart to build a house for the Name of the LORD my God. ⁸But this word of the LORD came to me: ‘You have shed much blood and have fought many wars. You are not to build a house for my Name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight. ⁹But you will have a son who will be a man of peace and rest, and I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side. His name will be Solomon,^[107] and I will grant Israel peace and quiet during his reign. ¹⁰He is the one who will build a house for my Name. He will be my son, and I will be his father. And I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.’

¹¹“Now, my son, the LORD be with you, and may you have success and build the house of the LORD your God, as he said you would. ¹²May the LORD give you discretion and understanding when he puts you in command over Israel, so that you may keep the law of the LORD your God. ¹³Then you will have success if you are careful to observe the decrees and laws that the LORD gave Moses for Israel. Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or discouraged.

¹⁴“I have taken great pains to provide for the temple of the LORD a hundred thousand talents^[108] of gold, a million talents^[109] of silver, quantities of bronze and iron too great to be weighed, and wood and stone. And you may add to them. ¹⁵You have many workers: stonecutters, masons and carpenters, as well as those skilled in every kind of work ¹⁶in gold and silver, bronze and iron—craftsmen beyond number. Now begin the work, and the LORD be with you.”

¹⁷Then David ordered all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon. ¹⁸He said to them, “Is not the LORD your God with you? And has he not granted you rest on every side? For he has given the inhabitants of the land into my hands, and the land is subject to the LORD and to his people. ¹⁹Now devote your heart and soul to seeking the LORD your God. Begin to build the sanctuary of the LORD God, so that you may bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the sacred articles belonging to God into the temple that will be built for the Name of the LORD.”

1 Chronicles 23

THE LEVITES

¹When David was old and full of years, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

²He also gathered together all the leaders of Israel, as well as the priests and Levites. ³The Levites thirty years old or more were counted, and the total number of men was thirty-eight thousand. ⁴David said, “Of these, twenty-four thousand are to be in charge of the work of the temple of the LORD and six thousand are to be officials and judges. ⁵Four thousand are to be gatekeepers and four thousand are to praise the LORD with the musical instruments I have provided for that purpose.”

⁶David separated the Levites into divisions corresponding to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

GERSHONITES

⁷Belonging to the Gershonites:

Ladan and Shimei.

⁸The sons of Ladan:

Jehiel the first, Zetham and Joel—three in all.

⁹The sons of Shimei:

Shelomoth, Haziël and Haran—three in all.

These were the heads of the families of Ladan.

¹⁰And the sons of Shimei:

Jahath, Ziza, ^[110] Jeush and Beriah.

These were the sons of Shimei—four in all.

¹¹Jahath was the first and Ziza the second, but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons; so they were counted as one family with one assignment.

KOHATHITES

¹²The sons of Kohath:

Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel—four in all.

¹³The sons of Amram:

Aaron and Moses.

Aaron was set apart, he and his descendants forever, to consecrate the most holy things, to offer sacrifices before the LORD, to minister before him and to pronounce blessings in his name forever. ¹⁴The sons of Moses the man of God were counted as part of the tribe of Levi.

¹⁵The sons of Moses:

Gershom and Eliezer.

¹⁶The descendants of Gershom:

Shubael was the first.

¹⁷The descendants of Eliezer:

Rehabiah was the first.

Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very numerous.

¹⁸The sons of Izhar:

Shelomith was the first.

¹⁹The sons of Hebron:

Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jekameam the fourth.

²⁰The sons of Uzziel:

Micah the first and Ishiah the second.

MERARITES

²¹The sons of Merari:

Mahli and Mushi.

The sons of Mahli:

Eleazar and Kish.

²²Eleazar died without having sons: he had only daughters. Their cousins, the sons of Kish, married them.

²³The sons of Mushi:

Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth—three in all.

²⁴These were the descendants of Levi by their families—the heads of families as they were registered under their names and counted individually, that is, the workers twenty years old or more who served in the temple of the LORD. ²⁵For David had said, “Since the LORD, the God of Israel, has granted rest to his people and has come to dwell in Jerusalem forever, ²⁶the Levites no longer need to carry the tabernacle or any of the articles used in its service.” ²⁷According to the last instructions of David, the Levites were counted from those twenty years old or more.

²⁸The duty of the Levites was to help Aaron’s descendants in the service of the temple of the LORD: to be in charge of the courtyards, the side rooms, the purification of all sacred things and the performance of other duties at the house of God. ²⁹They were in charge of the bread set out on the table, the special flour for the grain offerings, the thin loaves made without yeast, the baking and the mixing, and all measurements of quantity and size. ³⁰They were also to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD. They were to do the same in the evening ³¹and whenever burnt offerings were presented to the LORD on the Sabbaths, at the New Moon feasts and at the appointed festivals. They were to serve before the LORD regularly in the proper number and in the way prescribed for them.

³²And so the Levites carried out their responsibilities for the tent of meeting, for the Holy Place and, under their relatives the descendants of Aaron, for the service of the temple of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 24

THE DIVISIONS OF PRIESTS

¹These were the divisions of the descendants of Aaron: The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. ²But Nadab and Abihu died before their father did, and they had no sons; so Eleazar and Ithamar served as the priests. ³With the help of Zadok a descendant of Eleazar and Ahimelek a descendant of Ithamar, David separated them into divisions for their appointed order of ministering. ⁴A larger number of leaders were found among Eleazar's descendants than among Ithamar's, and they were divided accordingly: sixteen heads of families from Eleazar's descendants and eight heads of families from Ithamar's descendants. ⁵They divided them impartially by casting lots, for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of God among the descendants of both Eleazar and Ithamar.

⁶The scribe Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite, recorded their names in the presence of the king and of the officials: Zadok the priest, Ahimelek son of Abiathar and the heads of families of the priests and of the Levites—one family being taken from Eleazar and then one from Ithamar.

- ⁷The first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,
- ⁸the third to Harim,
the fourth to Seorim,
- ⁹the fifth to Malkijah,
the sixth to Mijamin,
- ¹⁰the seventh to Hakkoz,
the eighth to Abijah,
- ¹¹the ninth to Jeshua,
the tenth to Shekaniah,
- ¹²the eleventh to Eliashib,
the twelfth to Jakim,
- ¹³the thirteenth to Huppah,
the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,
- ¹⁴the fifteenth to Bilgah,

the sixteenth to Immer, ¹⁵the seventeenth to Hezir,
the eighteenth to Happizzesz, ¹⁶the nineteenth to Pethahiah,
the twentieth to Jehezkel, ¹⁷the twenty-first to Jakin,
the twenty-second to Gamul, ¹⁸the twenty-third to Delaiah and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

¹⁹This was their appointed order of ministering when they entered the temple of the LORD, according to the regulations prescribed for them by their ancestor Aaron, as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded him.

THE REST OF THE LEVITES

²⁰As for the rest of the descendants of Levi:

from the sons of Amram: Shubael;
from the sons of Shubael: Jehdeiah.

²¹As for Rehabiah, from his sons:
Ishiah was the first.

²²From the Izharites: Shelomoth; from the sons of Shelomoth: Jahath.

²³The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the first,^[111] Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jekameam the fourth.

²⁴The son of Uzziel: Micah;
from the sons of Micah: Shamir.

²⁵The brother of Micah: Ishiah;
from the sons of Ishiah: Zechariah.

²⁶The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi.
The son of Jaaziah: Beno.

²⁷The sons of Merari:
from Jaaziah: Beno, Shoham, Zakkur and Ibri.

²⁸From Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.

²⁹From Kish: the son of Kish: Jerahmeel.

³⁰And the sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth.

These were the Levites, according to their families. ³¹They also cast lots, just as their relatives the descendants of Aaron did, in the presence of King David and of Zadok, Ahimelek, and the heads of families of the priests and of the Levites. The families of the oldest brother were treated the same as those of the youngest.

1 Chronicles 25

THE MUSICIANS

¹David, together with the commanders of the army, set apart some of the sons of Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun for the ministry of prophesying, accompanied by harps, lyres and cymbals. Here is the list of the men who performed this service: ²From the sons of Asaph:

Zakkur, Joseph, Nethaniah and Asarelah. The sons of Asaph were under the supervision of Asaph, who prophesied under the king's supervision.

³As for Jeduthun, from his sons:

Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei,^[112] Hashabiah and Mattithiah, six in all, under the supervision of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied, using the harp in thanking and praising the LORD.

⁴As for Heman, from his sons:

Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shubael and Jerimoth; Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti and Romamti-Ezer; Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir and Mahazioth. ⁵(All these were sons of Heman the king's seer. They were given him through the promises of God to exalt him. God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.)

⁶All these men were under the supervision of their father for the music of the temple of the LORD, with cymbals, lyres and harps, for the ministry at the house of God.

Asaph, Jeduthun and Heman were under the supervision of the king. ⁷Along with their relatives—all of them trained and skilled in music for the LORD—they numbered 288. ⁸Young and old alike, teacher as well as student, cast lots for their duties.

- ⁹The first lot, which was for Asaph, fell to Joseph, his sons and relatives^[113] 12^[114]
the second to Gedaliah, him and his relatives and sons 12
- ¹⁰the third to Zakkur,
his sons and relatives 12
- ¹¹the fourth to Izri,^[115]
his sons and relatives 12
- ¹²the fifth to Nethaniah,
his sons and relatives 12
- ¹³the sixth to Bukkiah,
his sons and relatives 12
- ¹⁴the seventh to Jesarelah,^[116]
his sons and relatives 12
- ¹⁵the eighth to Jeshaiiah,
his sons and relatives 12
- ¹⁶the ninth to Mattaniah,
his sons and relatives 12
- ¹⁷the tenth to Shimei,
his sons and relatives 12
- ¹⁸the eleventh to Azarel,^[117]
his sons and relatives 12
- ¹⁹the twelfth to Hashabiah,
his sons and relatives 12
- ²⁰the thirteenth to Shubael,
his sons and relatives 12
- ²¹the fourteenth to Mattithiah,
his sons and relatives 12
- ²²the fifteenth to Jerimoth,
his sons and relatives 12

- ²³the sixteenth to Hananiah,
his sons and relatives 12
- ²⁴the seventeenth to Joshbekashah,
his sons and relatives 12
- ²⁵the eighteenth to Hanani,
his sons and relatives 12
- ²⁶the nineteenth to Mallothi,
his sons and relatives 12
- ²⁷the twentieth to Eliathah,
his sons and relatives 12
- ²⁸the twenty-first to Hothir,
his sons and relatives 12
- ²⁹the twenty-second to Giddalti,
his sons and relatives 12
- ³⁰the twenty-third to Mahazioth,
his sons and relatives 12
- ³¹the twenty-fourth to Romamti-Ezer,
his sons and relatives 12.

1 Chronicles 26

THE GATEKEEPERS

¹The divisions of the gatekeepers:

From the Korahites: Meshelemiah son of Kore, one of the sons of Asaph.

²Meshelemiah had sons:

Zechariah the firstborn,

Jediael the second,

Zebadiah the third,

Jathniel the fourth,

³Elam the fifth,

Jehohanan the sixth and Eliehoenai the seventh.

⁴Obed-Edom also had sons:

Shemaiah the firstborn,

Jehozabad the second,

Joah the third,

Sakar the fourth,

Nethanel the fifth,

⁵Ammiel the sixth,

Issachar the seventh and Peullethai the eighth.

(For God had blessed Obed-Edom.)

⁶Obed-Edom's son Shemaiah also had sons, who were leaders in their father's family because they were very capable men. ⁷The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, Rephael, Obed and Elzabad; his relatives Elihu and Semakiah were also able men. ⁸All these were descendants of Obed-Edom; they and their sons and their relatives were capable men with the strength to do the work—descendants of Obed-Edom, 62 in all.

⁹Meshelemiah had sons and relatives, who were able men—18 in all.

¹⁰Hosah the Merarite had sons: Shimri the first (although he was not the firstborn, his father had appointed him the first), ¹¹Hilkiah the second, Tabaliah the third and Zechariah the fourth. The sons and relatives of Hosah were 13 in all.

¹²These divisions of the gatekeepers, through their leaders, had duties for ministering in the temple of the LORD, just as their relatives had. ¹³Lots were cast for each gate, according to their families, young and old alike.

¹⁴The lot for the East Gate fell to Shelemiah.^[118] Then lots were cast for his son Zechariah, a wise counselor, and the lot for the North Gate fell to him. ¹⁵The lot for the South Gate fell to Obed-Edom, and the lot for the storehouse fell to his sons. ¹⁶The lots for the West Gate and the Shalleketh Gate on the upper road fell to Shuppim and Hosah.

Guard was alongside of guard: ¹⁷There were six Levites a day on the east, four a day on the north, four a day on the south and two at a time at the storehouse. ¹⁸As for the court^[119] to the west, there were four at the road and two at the court^[120] itself.

¹⁹These were the divisions of the gatekeepers who were descendants of Korah and Merari.

THE TREASURERS AND OTHER OFFICIALS

²⁰Their fellow Levites were^[121] in charge of the treasuries of the house of God and the treasuries for the dedicated things.

²¹The descendants of Ladan, who were Gershonites through Ladan and who were heads of families belonging to Ladan the Gershonite, were Jehieli, ²²the sons of Jehieli, Zetham and his brother Joel. They were in charge of the treasuries of the temple of the LORD.

²³From the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites and the Uzzielites:

²⁴Shubael, a descendant of Gershom son of Moses, was the official in charge of the treasuries. ²⁵His relatives through Eliezer: Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiah his son, Joram his son, Zikri his son and Shelomith his son. ²⁶Shelomith and his relatives were in charge of all the treasuries for the things dedicated by King David, by the heads of families who were the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and by the other army commanders. ²⁷Some of the plunder taken in battle they dedicated for the repair of the temple of the LORD. ²⁸And everything dedicated by Samuel the seer and by Saul son of Kish, Abner son of Ner and Joab son of Zeruiah, and all the other dedicated things were in the care of Shelomith and his relatives.

²⁹From the Izharites: Kenaniah and his sons were assigned duties away from the temple, as officials and judges over Israel.

³⁰From the Hebronites: Hashabiah and his relatives—seventeen hundred able men—were responsible in Israel west of the Jordan for all the work of the LORD and for the king's service. ³¹As for the Hebronites, Jeriah was their chief according to the genealogical records of their families. In the fortieth year of David's reign a search was made in the records, and capable men among the Hebronites were found at Jazer in Gilead. ³²Jeriah had twenty-seven hundred relatives, who were able men and heads of families, and King David put them in charge of the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh for every matter pertaining to God and for the affairs of the king.

1 Chronicles 27

ARMY DIVISIONS

¹This is the list of the Israelites—heads of families, commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and their officers, who served the king in all that concerned the army divisions that were on duty month by month throughout the year. Each division consisted of 24,000 men.

⁴In charge of the division for the second month was Dodai the Ahohite; Mikloth was the leader of his division. There were 24,000 men in his division.

⁵The third army commander, for the third month, was Benaiah son of Jehoiada the priest. He was chief and there were 24,000 men in his division. ⁶This was the Benaiah who was a mighty warrior among the Thirty and was over the Thirty. His son Ammizabad was in charge of his division.

⁷The fourth, for the fourth month, was Asahel the brother of Joab; his son Zebadiah was his successor. There were 24,000 men in his division.

⁸The fifth, for the fifth month, was the commander Shamhuth the Izrahite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

⁹The sixth, for the sixth month, was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

¹⁰The seventh, for the seventh month, was Helez the Pelonite, an Ephraimite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

¹¹The eighth, for the eighth month, was Sibbekai the Hushathite, a Zerahite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

¹²The ninth, for the ninth month, was Abiezer the Anathothite, a Benjamite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

¹³The tenth, for the tenth month, was Maharai the Netophathite, a Zerahite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

¹⁴The eleventh, for the eleventh month, was Benaiah the Pirathonite, an Ephraimite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

¹⁵The twelfth, for the twelfth month, was Heldai the Netophathite, from the family of Othniel. There were 24,000 men in his division.

LEADERS OF THE TRIBES

- ¹⁶The leaders of the tribes of Israel: over the Reubenites: Eliezer son of Zikri;
over the Simeonites: Shephatiah son of Maakah;
- ¹⁷over Levi: Hashabiah son of Kemuel; over Aaron: Zadok;
- ¹⁸over Judah: Elihu, a brother of David; over Issachar: Omri son of Michael;
- ¹⁹over Zebulun: Ishmaiah son of Obadiah; over Naphtali: Jerimoth son of Azriel;
- ²⁰over the Ephraimites: Hoshea son of Azaziah; over half the tribe of Manasseh: Joel son of Pedaiah;
- ²¹over the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead: Iddo son of Zechariah; over Benjamin: Jaasiel son of Abner;
- ²²over Dan: Azarel son of Jeroham.

These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

²³David did not take the number of the men twenty years old or less, because the LORD had promised to make Israel as numerous as the stars in the sky.

²⁴Joab son of Zeruiah began to count the men but did not finish. God's wrath came on Israel on account of this numbering, and the number was not entered in the book^[122] of the annals of King David.

THE KING'S OVERSEERS

²⁵Azmaveth son of Adiel was in charge of the royal storehouses.

Jonathan son of Uzziah was in charge of the storehouses in the outlying districts, in the towns, the villages and the watchtowers.

²⁶Ezri son of Kelub was in charge of the workers who farmed the land.

²⁷Shimei the Ramathite was in charge of the vineyards.

Zabdi the Shiphmite was in charge of the produce of the vineyards for the wine vats.

²⁸Baal-Hanan the Gederite was in charge of the olive and sycamore-fig trees in the western foothills.

Joash was in charge of the supplies of olive oil.

²⁹Shitrai the Sharonite was in charge of the herds grazing in Sharon.

Shaphat son of Adlai was in charge of the herds in the valleys.

³⁰Obil the Ishmaelite was in charge of the camels.

Jehdeiah the Meronothite was in charge of the donkeys.

³¹Jaziz the Hagrite was in charge of the flocks.

All these were the officials in charge of King David's property.

³²Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a man of insight and a scribe. Jehiel son of Hakmoni took care of the king's sons.

³³Ahithophel was the king's counselor.

Hushai the Arkite was the king's confidant. ³⁴Ahithophel was succeeded by Jehoiada son of Benaiah and by Abiathar.

Joab was the commander of the royal army.

1 Chronicles 28

DAVID'S PLANS FOR THE TEMPLE

²King David rose to his feet and said: "Listen to me, my fellow Israelites, my people. I had it in my heart to build a house as a place of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, for the footstool of our God, and I made plans to build it. ³But God said to me, 'You are not to build a house for my Name, because you are a warrior and have shed blood.'

⁴"Yet the LORD, the God of Israel, chose me from my whole family to be king over Israel forever. He chose Judah as leader, and from the tribe of Judah he chose my family, and from my father's sons he was pleased to make me king over all Israel. ⁵Of all my sons—and the LORD has given me many—he has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel. ⁶He said to me: 'Solomon your son is the one who will build my house and my courts, for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father. ⁷I will establish his kingdom forever if he is unswerving in carrying out my commands and laws, as is being done at this time.'

⁸"So now I charge you in the sight of all Israel and of the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God: Be careful to follow all the commands of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land and pass it on as an inheritance to your descendants forever.

⁹"And you, my son Solomon, acknowledge the God of your father, and serve him with wholehearted devotion and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches every heart and understands every desire and every thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will reject you forever. ¹⁰Consider now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house as the sanctuary. Be strong and do the work."

¹¹Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for the portico of the temple, its buildings, its storerooms, its upper parts, its inner rooms and the place of atonement. ¹²He gave him the plans of all that the Spirit had put in his mind for the courts of the temple of the LORD and all the surrounding rooms, for the treasuries of the temple of God and for the treasuries for the dedicated things. ¹³He gave him instructions for the divisions of the priests and Levites, and for all the work of serving in the temple of the LORD, as well as for all the articles to be used in its service. ¹⁴He designated the weight of gold for all the gold articles to be used in various kinds of service, and the weight of silver for all the silver articles to be used in various kinds of service: ¹⁵the weight of gold for the gold lampstands and their lamps, with the weight for each lampstand and its lamps; and the weight of silver for each silver lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand; ¹⁶the weight of gold for each table for consecrated bread; the weight of silver for the silver tables; ¹⁷the weight of pure gold for the forks, sprinkling bowls and pitchers; the weight of gold for each gold dish; the weight of silver for each silver dish; ¹⁸and the weight of the refined gold for the altar of incense. He also gave him the plan for the chariot, that is, the cherubim of gold that spread their wings and overshadow the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

²⁰David also said to Solomon his son, “Be strong and courageous, and do the work. Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you or forsake you until all the work for the service of the temple of the LORD is finished. ²¹The divisions of the priests and Levites are ready for all the work on the temple of God, and every willing person skilled in any craft will help you in all the work. The officials and all the people will obey your every command.”

1 Chronicles 29

GIFTS FOR BUILDING THE TEMPLE

¹Then King David said to the whole assembly: “My son Solomon, the one whom God has chosen, is young and inexperienced. The task is great, because this palatial structure is not for man but for the LORD God. ²With all my resources I have provided for the temple of my God—gold for the gold work, silver for the silver, bronze for the bronze, iron for the iron and wood for the wood, as well as onyx for the settings, turquoise,^[123] stones of various colors, and all kinds of fine stone and marble—all of these in large quantities. ³Besides, in my devotion to the temple of my God I now give my personal treasures of gold and silver for the temple of my God, over and above everything I have provided for this holy temple: ⁴three thousand talents^[124] of gold (gold of Ophir) and seven thousand talents^[125] of refined silver, for the overlaying of the walls of the buildings, ⁵for the gold work and the silver work, and for all the work to be done by the craftsmen. Now, who is willing to consecrate themselves to the LORD today?”

⁶Then the leaders of families, the officers of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and the officials in charge of the king’s work gave willingly. ⁷They gave toward the work on the temple of God five thousand talents^[126] and ten thousand darics^[127] of gold, ten thousand talents^[128] of silver, eighteen thousand talents^[129] of bronze and a hundred thousand talents^[130] of iron. ⁸Anyone who had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the temple of the LORD in the custody of Jehiel the Gershonite. ⁹The people rejoiced at the willing response of their leaders, for they had given freely and wholeheartedly to the LORD. David the king also rejoiced greatly.

¹⁰David praised the LORD in the presence of the whole assembly, saying,

“Praise be to you, LORD,
the God of our father Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting.

¹¹Yours, LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the majesty and the splendor, for everything in heaven and earth is yours.

Yours, LORD, is the kingdom;
you are exalted as head over all.

¹²Wealth and honor come from you;
you are the ruler of all things.
In your hands are strength and power to exalt and give strength to all.

¹³Now, our God, we give you thanks, and praise your glorious name.

¹⁴“But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to give as generously as this? Everything comes from you, and we have given you only what comes from your hand. ¹⁵We are foreigners and strangers in your sight, as were all our ancestors. Our days on earth are like a shadow, without hope. ¹⁶LORD our God, all this abundance that we have provided for building you a temple for your Holy Name comes from your hand, and all of it belongs to you. ¹⁷I know, my God, that you test the heart and are pleased with integrity. All these things I have given willingly and with honest intent. And now I have seen with joy how willingly your people who are here have given to you. ¹⁸LORD, the God of our fathers Abraham, Isaac and Israel, keep these desires and thoughts in the hearts of your people forever, and keep their hearts loyal to you. ¹⁹And give my son Solomon the wholehearted devotion to keep your commands, statutes and decrees and to do everything to build the palatial structure for which I have provided.”

²⁰Then David said to the whole assembly, “Praise the LORD your God.” So they all praised the LORD, the God of their fathers; they bowed down, prostrating themselves before the LORD and the king.

SOLOMON ACKNOWLEDGED AS KING

²¹The next day they made sacrifices to the LORD and presented burnt offerings to him: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams and a thousand male lambs, together with their drink offerings, and other sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

²²They ate and drank with great joy in the presence of the LORD that day.

Then they acknowledged Solomon son of David as king a second time, anointing him before the LORD to be ruler and Zadok to be priest. ²³So Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king in place of his father David. He prospered and all Israel obeyed him. ²⁴All the officers and warriors, as well as all of King David's sons, pledged their submission to King Solomon.

²⁵The LORD highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel and bestowed on him royal splendor such as no king over Israel ever had before.

THE DEATH OF DAVID

²⁶David son of Jesse was king over all Israel. ²⁷He ruled over Israel forty years—seven in Hebron and thirty-three in Jerusalem. ²⁸He died at a good old age, having enjoyed long life, wealth and honor. His son Solomon succeeded him as king.

²⁹As for the events of King David's reign, from beginning to end, they are written in the records of Samuel the seer, the records of Nathan the prophet and the records of Gad the seer, ³⁰together with the details of his reign and power, and the circumstances that surrounded him and Israel and the kingdoms of all the other lands.

Keep your parents close.

God chose Solomon to rule Israel after his father, the famed King David. The Lord even gave Solomon the weighty responsibility of building a permanent house of worship—a magnificent temple. Solomon could have taken the throne and pushed David to the side, but he continued to look to his father as a resource God had put in his life. Because Solomon counted on his father's advice and assistance, the people praised God and supported Solomon—and God gave Solomon more power and splendor than any other king (see 1 Chronicles 29:25).

Your next step: Ask your parents for their help with an important, right-now choice.

UNSHAKEN God

1 Chronicles 29:10–13

God is majestic.

As Solomon rolled out plans to build the temple in Jerusalem, his goal was to create a temple fit for a king—the King of the Universe, that is. The people of Israel contributed jaw-dropping amounts of gold and silver, exotic woods and precious stones like onyx and turquoise (see 1 Chronicles 29:1–9). Seeing this generous outpouring, King David loudly praised the Lord, proclaiming God’s “greatness ... power ... glory ... majesty ... splendor” (1 Chronicles 29:11). God is infinitely more majestic than any earthly ruler. He possesses overwhelming dignity and loftiness and grandeur. He is King of Everything.

So ... How will you worship your King today?

1 Chronicles 3:5

Bathsheba put her life back together.

The Bible doesn't say what Bathsheba thought when King David summoned her to his palace. The king had spotted the woman bathing from his rooftop, and the Bible only says she was "very beautiful" (2 Samuel 11:2). David himself was "glowing with health and had a fine appearance and handsome features" (1 Samuel 16:12).

David asked his servants about her identity and availability, then ignored that she was a married woman and beckoned her to his bed. Maybe Bathsheba came eagerly, but she might simply have obeyed the command of a king with nearly unlimited powers.

Whatever the circumstance, Bathsheba already had a husband, a one-of-a-kind man. Uriah was one of David's own mighty men (see 2 Samuel 23:39). When David called Uriah back from the front so he could sleep with his wife—to cover up the fact that David had gotten Bathsheba pregnant—Uriah refused to spend the night with his wife as long as his comrades were at war (see 2 Samuel 11:13).

Bathsheba is forever remembered as the female half of this sexual scandal, but she was more than that. She gave birth to five of David's children, and she ensured their son Solomon became king, as God had chosen (see 1 Kings 1:1–53). The New Testament lists her among the ancestors of Jesus (see Matthew 1:6). We would understand Bathsheba better if the Bible told us exactly what she thought and felt. But we do know she overcame a tough situation to live her life for God.

You can find Bathsheba in 2 Samuel 11–12; 1 Kings 1–2; and the heading of Psalm 51.

2 CHRONICLES

BOOK OUTLINE

The reign of Solomon

(1:1–9:31)

The kings of Judah

(10:1–36:14)

The destruction of Jerusalem

(36:15–23)

Second Chronicles continues the history of David's royal line. Chapters 1–9 describe the building of the temple during Solomon's reign. Chapters 10–36 follow the history of the southern kingdom of Judah to the final destruction of Jerusalem and the people being captured and taken to Babylon.

This book, like 1 Chronicles, shows that the people's relationship to God was most important. When the author wrote about the kings, he measured them on the basis of their faithfulness to God. The reigns of evil kings are reported by the author quickly, while the reigns of good kings are described in more detail.

2 Chronicles

2 Chronicles 1

SOLOMON ASKS FOR WISDOM

¹Solomon son of David established himself firmly over his kingdom, for the LORD his God was with him and made him exceedingly great.

²Then Solomon spoke to all Israel—to the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, to the judges and to all the leaders in Israel, the heads of families— ³and Solomon and the whole assembly went to the high place at Gibeon, for God’s tent of meeting was there, which Moses the LORD’s servant had made in the wilderness. ⁴Now David had brought up the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim to the place he had prepared for it, because he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem. ⁵But the bronze altar that Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was in Gibeon in front of the tabernacle of the LORD; so Solomon and the assembly inquired of him there. ⁶Solomon went up to the bronze altar before the LORD in the tent of meeting and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

⁷That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, “Ask for whatever you want me to give you.”

⁸Solomon answered God, “You have shown great kindness to David my father and have made me king in his place. ⁹Now, LORD God, let your promise to my father David be confirmed, for you have made me king over a people who are as numerous as the dust of the earth. ¹⁰Give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may lead this people, for who is able to govern this great people of yours?”

¹¹God said to Solomon, “Since this is your heart’s desire and you have not asked for wealth, possessions or honor, nor for the death of your enemies, and since you have not asked for a long life but for wisdom and knowledge to govern my people over whom I have made you king, ¹²therefore wisdom and knowledge will be given you. And I will also give you wealth, possessions and honor, such as no king who was before you ever had and none after you will have.”

¹³Then Solomon went to Jerusalem from the high place at Gibeon, from before the tent of meeting. And he reigned over Israel.

¹⁴Solomon accumulated chariots and horses; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses,^[1] which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem. ¹⁵The king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as plentiful as sycamore-fig trees in the foothills. ¹⁶Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from Kue^[2]—the royal merchants purchased them from Kue at the current price. ¹⁷They imported a chariot from Egypt for six hundred shekels^[3] of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty.^[4] They also exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and of the Arameans.

2 Chronicles 2^[5]

¹Solomon gave orders to build a temple for the Name of the LORD and a royal palace for himself. ²He conscripted 70,000 men as carriers and 80,000 as stonecutters in the hills and 3,600 as foremen over them.

³Solomon sent this message to Hiram^[6] king of Tyre:

“Send me cedar logs as you did for my father David when you sent him cedar to build a palace to live in. ⁴Now I am about to build a temple for the Name of the LORD my God and to dedicate it to him for burning fragrant incense before him, for setting out the consecrated bread regularly, and for making burnt offerings every morning and evening and on the Sabbaths, at the New Moons and at the appointed festivals of the LORD our God. This is a lasting ordinance for Israel.

⁵“The temple I am going to build will be great, because our God is greater than all other gods. ⁶But who is able to build a temple for him, since the heavens, even the highest heavens, cannot contain him? Who then am I to build a temple for him, except as a place to burn sacrifices before him?

⁷“Send me, therefore, a man skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, and in purple, crimson and blue yarn, and experienced in the art of engraving, to work in Judah and Jerusalem with my skilled workers, whom my father David provided.

⁸“Send me also cedar, juniper and algum^[7] logs from Lebanon, for I know that your servants are skilled in cutting timber there. My servants will work with yours ⁹to provide me with plenty of lumber, because the temple I build must be large and magnificent. ¹⁰I will give your servants, the woodsmen who cut the timber, twenty thousand cors^[8] of ground wheat, twenty thousand cors^[9] of barley, twenty thousand baths^[10] of wine and twenty thousand baths of olive oil.”

¹¹Hiram king of Tyre replied by letter to Solomon:

¹²And Hiram added:

“Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who made heaven and earth! He has given King David a wise son, endowed with intelligence and discernment, who will build a temple for the LORD and a palace for himself.

¹³“I am sending you Hiram-Abi, a man of great skill, ¹⁴whose mother was from Dan and whose father was from Tyre. He is trained to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, stone and wood, and with purple and blue and crimson yarn and fine linen. He is experienced in all kinds of engraving and can execute any design given to him. He will work with your skilled workers and with those of my lord, David your father.

¹⁵“Now let my lord send his servants the wheat and barley and the olive oil and wine he promised, ¹⁶and we will cut all the logs from Lebanon that you need and will float them as rafts by sea down to Joppa. You can then take them up to Jerusalem.”

¹⁷Solomon took a census of all the foreigners residing in Israel, after the census his father David had taken; and they were found to be 153,600. ¹⁸He assigned 70,000 of them to be carriers and 80,000 to be stonecutters in the hills, with 3,600 foremen over them to keep the people working.

2 Chronicles 3

SOLOMON BUILDS THE TEMPLE

¹Then Solomon began to build the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to his father David. It was on the threshing floor of Araunah^[11] the Jebusite, the place provided by David. ²He began building on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.

³The foundation Solomon laid for building the temple of God was sixty cubits long and twenty cubits wide^[12] (using the cubit of the old standard). ⁴The portico at the front of the temple was twenty cubits^[13] long across the width of the building and twenty^[14] cubits high.

He overlaid the inside with pure gold. ⁵He paneled the main hall with juniper and covered it with fine gold and decorated it with palm tree and chain designs. ⁶He adorned the temple with precious stones. And the gold he used was gold of Parvaim. ⁷He overlaid the ceiling beams, doorframes, walls and doors of the temple with gold, and he carved cherubim on the walls.

⁸He built the Most Holy Place, its length corresponding to the width of the temple—twenty cubits long and twenty cubits wide. He overlaid the inside with six hundred talents^[15] of fine gold. ⁹The gold nails weighed fifty shekels. ^[16] He also overlaid the upper parts with gold.

¹⁰For the Most Holy Place he made a pair of sculptured cherubim and overlaid them with gold. ¹¹The total wingspan of the cherubim was twenty cubits. One wing of the first cherub was five cubits^[17] long and touched the temple wall, while its other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the other cherub. ¹²Similarly one wing of the second cherub was five cubits long and touched the other temple wall, and its other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the first cherub. ¹³The wings of these cherubim extended twenty cubits. They stood on their feet, facing the main hall.^[18]

¹⁴He made the curtain of blue, purple and crimson yarn and fine linen, with cherubim worked into it.

¹⁵For the front of the temple he made two pillars, which together were thirty-five cubits^[19] long, each with a capital five cubits high. ¹⁶He made interwoven chains^[20] and put them on top of the pillars. He also made a hundred pomegranates and attached them to the chains. ¹⁷He erected the pillars in the front of the temple, one to the south and one to the north. The one to the south he named Jakin^[21] and the one to the north Boaz.^[22]

2 Chronicles 4

THE TEMPLE'S FURNISHINGS

¹He made a bronze altar twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide and ten cubits high.^[23] ²He made the Sea of cast metal, circular in shape, measuring ten cubits from rim to rim and five cubits^[24] high. It took a line of thirty cubits^[25] to measure around it. ³Below the rim, figures of bulls encircled it—ten to a cubit.^[26] The bulls were cast in two rows in one piece with the Sea.

⁴The Sea stood on twelve bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south and three facing east. The Sea rested on top of them, and their hindquarters were toward the center. ⁵It was a handbreadth^[27] in thickness, and its rim was like the rim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held three thousand baths.^[28]

⁶He then made ten basins for washing and placed five on the south side and five on the north. In them the things to be used for the burnt offerings were rinsed, but the Sea was to be used by the priests for washing.

⁷He made ten gold lampstands according to the specifications for them and placed them in the temple, five on the south side and five on the north.

⁸He made ten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the south side and five on the north. He also made a hundred gold sprinkling bowls.

⁹He made the courtyard of the priests, and the large court and the doors for the court, and overlaid the doors with bronze. ¹⁰He placed the Sea on the south side, at the southeast corner.

¹¹And Hiram also made the pots and shovels and sprinkling bowls.

So Hiram finished the work he had undertaken for King Solomon in the temple of God:

¹²the two pillars;

the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars;

the two sets of network decorating the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars;

¹³the four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of network (two rows of pomegranates for each network, decorating the bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars);

¹⁴the stands with their basins;

¹⁵the Sea and the twelve bulls under it;

¹⁶the pots, shovels, meat forks and all related articles.

All the objects that Hiram-Abi made for King Solomon for the temple of the LORD were of polished bronze. ¹⁷The king had them cast in clay molds in the plain of the Jordan between Sukkoth and Zarethan. ^[29] ¹⁸All these things that Solomon made amounted to so much that the weight of the bronze could not be calculated.

¹⁹Solomon also made all the furnishings that were in God's temple:

the golden altar;

the tables on which was the bread of the Presence;

²⁰the lampstands of pure gold with their lamps, to burn in front of the inner sanctuary as prescribed;

²¹the gold floral work and lamps and tongs (they were solid gold);

²²the pure gold wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes and censers; and the gold doors of the temple: the inner doors to the Most Holy Place and the doors of the main hall.

God is artistic.

There was nothing plain about the temple that Solomon built as a house of worship for the one true God. The interior was overlaid with gold and adorned with precious stones. The walls were carved with angels. The most sacred room of the temple was veiled with a curtain of magnificent yarn and fine linen (see 2 Chronicles 3:4–14). And the temple was furnished with every kind of golden decoration. You might have the impression that God is all about brilliant white and nothing more. But you can see his originality in creation, and the temple reflected his beauty. Your God isn't bland. Every bit of him is an artist.

So ... How do you use artistry—beautiful things, words, songs—to worship God?

2 Chronicles 5

¹When all the work Solomon had done for the temple of the LORD was finished, he brought in the things his father David had dedicated—the silver and gold and all the furnishings—and he placed them in the treasuries of God’s temple.

THE ARK BROUGHT TO THE TEMPLE

²Then Solomon summoned to Jerusalem the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes and the chiefs of the Israelite families, to bring up the ark of the LORD’s covenant from Zion, the City of David. ³And all the Israelites came together to the king at the time of the festival in the seventh month.

⁴When all the elders of Israel had arrived, the Levites took up the ark, ⁵and they brought up the ark and the tent of meeting and all the sacred furnishings in it. The Levitical priests carried them up; ⁶and King Solomon and the entire assembly of Israel that had gathered about him were before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and cattle that they could not be recorded or counted.

⁷The priests then brought the ark of the LORD’s covenant to its place in the inner sanctuary of the temple, the Most Holy Place, and put it beneath the wings of the cherubim. ⁸The cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark and covered the ark and its carrying poles. ⁹These poles were so long that their ends, extending from the ark, could be seen from in front of the inner sanctuary, but not from outside the Holy Place; and they are still there today. ¹⁰There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets that Moses had placed in it at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites after they came out of Egypt.

¹¹The priests then withdrew from the Holy Place. All the priests who were there had consecrated themselves, regardless of their divisions. ¹²All the Levites who were musicians—Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun and their sons and relatives—stood on the east side of the altar, dressed in fine linen and playing cymbals, harps and lyres. They were accompanied by 120 priests sounding trumpets. ¹³The trumpeters and musicians joined in unison to give praise and thanks to the LORD. Accompanied by trumpets, cymbals and other instruments, the singers raised their voices in praise to the LORD and sang:

“He is good;
his love endures forever.”

Then the temple of the LORD was filled with the cloud, ¹⁴and the priests could not perform their service because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the temple of God.

2 Chronicles 6

¹Then Solomon said, “The LORD has said that he would dwell in a dark cloud;
²I have built a magnificent temple for you, a place for you to dwell forever.”

³While the whole assembly of Israel was standing there, the king turned around and blessed them. ⁴Then he said:

“Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his hands has fulfilled what he promised with his mouth to my father David. For he said, ⁵‘Since the day I brought my people out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city in any tribe of Israel to have a temple built so that my Name might be there, nor have I chosen anyone to be ruler over my people Israel. ⁶But now I have chosen Jerusalem for my Name to be there, and I have chosen David to rule my people Israel.’

⁷“My father David had it in his heart to build a temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel. ⁸But the LORD said to my father David, ‘You did well to have it in your heart to build a temple for my Name. ⁹Nevertheless, you are not the one to build the temple, but your son, your own flesh and blood—he is the one who will build the temple for my Name.’

¹⁰“The LORD has kept the promise he made. I have succeeded David my father and now I sit on the throne of Israel, just as the LORD promised, and I have built the temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

¹¹There I have placed the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD that he made with the people of Israel.”

SOLOMON’S PRAYER OF DEDICATION

¹²Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands. ¹³Now he had made a bronze platform, five cubits long, five cubits wide and three cubits high,^[30] and had placed it in the center of the outer court. He stood on the platform and then knelt down before the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven. ¹⁴He said:

“LORD, the God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven or on earth—you who keep your covenant of love with your servants who continue wholeheartedly in your way. ¹⁵You have kept your promise to your servant David my father; with your mouth you have promised and with your hand you have fulfilled it—as it is today.

¹⁶“Now, LORD, the God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father the promises you made to him when you said, ‘You shall never fail to have a successor to sit before me on the throne of Israel, if only your descendants are careful in all they do to walk before me according to my law, as you have done.’ ¹⁷And now, LORD, the God of Israel, let your word that you promised your servant David come true.

¹⁸“But will God really dwell on earth with humans? The heavens, even the highest heavens, cannot contain you. How much less this temple I have built! ¹⁹Yet, LORD my God, give attention to your servant’s prayer and his plea for mercy. Hear the cry and the prayer that your servant is praying in your presence. ²⁰May your eyes be open toward this temple day and night, this place of which you said you would put your Name there. May you hear the prayer your servant prays toward this place. ²¹Hear the supplications of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray toward this place. Hear from heaven, your dwelling place; and when you hear, forgive.

²²“When anyone wrongs their neighbor and is required to take an oath and they come and swear the oath before your altar in this temple, ²³then hear from heaven and act. Judge between your servants, condemning the guilty and bringing down on their heads what they have done, and vindicating the innocent by treating them in accordance with their innocence.

²⁴“When your people Israel have been defeated by an enemy because they have sinned against you and when they turn back and give praise to your name, praying and making supplication before you in this temple, ²⁵then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel and bring them back to the land you gave to them and their ancestors.

²⁸“When famine or plague comes to the land, or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers, or when enemies besiege them in any of their cities, whatever disaster or disease may come, ²⁹and when a prayer or plea is made by anyone among your people Israel—being aware of their afflictions and pains, and spreading out their hands toward this temple— ³⁰then hear from heaven, your dwelling place. Forgive, and deal with everyone according to all they do, since you know their hearts (for you alone know the human heart), ³¹so that they will fear you and walk in obedience to you all the time they live in the land you gave our ancestors.

³²“As for the foreigner who does not belong to your people Israel but has come from a distant land because of your great name and your mighty hand and your outstretched arm—when they come and pray toward this temple, ³³then hear from heaven, your dwelling place. Do whatever the foreigner asks of you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your own people Israel, and may know that this house I have built bears your Name.

³⁴“When your people go to war against their enemies, wherever you send them, and when they pray to you toward this city you have chosen and the temple I have built for your Name, ³⁵then hear from heaven their prayer and their plea, and uphold their cause.

³⁶“When they sin against you—for there is no one who does not sin—and you become angry with them and give them over to the enemy, who takes them captive to a land far away or near; ³⁷and if they have a change of heart in the land where they are held captive, and repent and plead with you in the land of their captivity and say, ‘We have sinned, we have done wrong and acted wickedly’; ³⁸and if they turn back to you with all their heart and soul in the land of their captivity where they were taken, and pray toward the land you gave their ancestors, toward the city you have chosen and toward the temple I have built for your Name; ³⁹then from heaven, your dwelling place, hear their prayer and their pleas, and uphold their cause. And forgive your people, who have sinned against you.

⁴⁰“Now, my God, may your eyes be open and your ears attentive to the prayers offered in this place.

⁴¹“Now arise, LORD God, and come to your resting place, you and the ark of your might.

May your priests, LORD God, be clothed with salvation, may your faithful people rejoice in your goodness.

⁴²LORD God, do not reject your anointed one.

Remember the great love promised to David your servant.”

2 Chronicles 7

THE DEDICATION OF THE TEMPLE

¹When Solomon finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple. ²The priests could not enter the temple of the LORD because the glory of the LORD filled it. ³When all the Israelites saw the fire coming down and the glory of the LORD above the temple, they knelt on the pavement with their faces to the ground, and they worshiped and gave thanks to the LORD, saying,

“He is good;

⁴Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD. ⁵And King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand head of cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep and goats. So the king and all the people dedicated the temple of God. ⁶The priests took their positions, as did the Levites with the LORD’s musical instruments, which King David had made for praising the LORD and which were used when he gave thanks, saying, “His love endures forever.” Opposite the Levites, the priests blew their trumpets, and all the Israelites were standing.

⁸So Solomon observed the festival at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him—a vast assembly, people from Lebo Hamath to the Wadi of Egypt. ⁹On the eighth day they held an assembly, for they had celebrated the dedication of the altar for seven days and the festival for seven days more. ¹⁰On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people to their homes, joyful and glad in heart for the good things the LORD had done for David and Solomon and for his people Israel.

THE LORD APPEARS TO SOLOMON

¹¹When Solomon had finished the temple of the LORD and the royal palace, and had succeeded in carrying out all he had in mind to do in the temple of the LORD and in his own palace, ¹²the LORD appeared to him at night and said:

“I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for myself as a temple for sacrifices.

¹³“When I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or command locusts to devour the land or send a plague among my people, ¹⁴if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land. ¹⁵Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayers offered in this place. ¹⁶I have chosen and consecrated this temple so that my Name may be there forever. My eyes and my heart will always be there.

¹⁹“But if you^[31] turn away and forsake the decrees and commands I have given you^[32] and go off to serve other gods and worship them, ²⁰then I will uproot Israel from my land, which I have given them, and will reject this temple I have consecrated for my Name. I will make it a byword and an object of ridicule among all peoples. ²¹This temple will become a heap of rubble. All^[33] who pass by will be appalled and say, ‘Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this temple?’ ²²People will answer, ‘Because they have forsaken the LORD, the God of their ancestors, who brought them out of Egypt, and have embraced other gods, worshiping and serving them—that is why he brought all this disaster on them.’ ”

Repent.

Shawna felt sick. At first her online rants made everyone laugh. A few times a week she posted her most sarcastic thoughts on whatever topic popped into her head. But when Shawna ran out of things to write about, she turned her wicked humor on girls at school and church and her neighborhood, tearing into anyone who stood out as different. When Shawna heard that one of her targets had sought help from a counselor because of the vicious attacks, she had to admit what she had become—a cyber bully. Shawna deleted her posts and wrote an online apology. She prayed for forgiveness. But now she had to figure out how to reach out to the girls one-by-one and make things right.

Hundreds of years before Solomon, Joshua had predicted God’s people would wander away from the Lord (see Joshua 24:14–27). But God always gives us a way back. He wants us to “repent,” or turn away from sin. He promises to hear us ... to forgive us ... and heal us. It’s one of the Lord’s most amazing promises.

¹At the end of twenty years, during which Solomon built the temple of the LORD and his own palace, ²Solomon rebuilt the villages that Hiram^[34] had given him, and settled Israelites in them. ³Solomon then went to Hamath Zobah and captured it. ⁴He also built up Tadmor in the desert and all the store cities he had built in Hamath. ⁵He rebuilt Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon as fortified cities, with walls and with gates and bars, ⁶as well as Baalath and all his store cities, and all the cities for his chariots and for his horses^[35]—whatever he desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon and throughout all the territory he ruled.

¹¹Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the City of David to the palace he had built for her, for he said, "My wife must not live in the palace of David king of Israel, because the places the ark of the LORD has entered are holy."

¹²On the altar of the LORD that he had built in front of the portico, Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings to the LORD, ¹³according to the daily requirement for offerings commanded by Moses for the Sabbaths, the New Moons and the three annual festivals—the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the Festival of Weeks and the Festival of Tabernacles. ¹⁴In keeping with the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their duties, and the Levites to lead the praise and to assist the priests according to each day's requirement. He also appointed the gatekeepers by divisions for the various gates, because this was what David the man of God had ordered. ¹⁵They did not deviate from the king's commands to the priests or to the Levites in any matter, including that of the treasuries.

¹⁶All Solomon's work was carried out, from the day the foundation of the temple of the LORD was laid until its completion. So the temple of the LORD was finished.

¹⁷Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and Elath on the coast of Edom. ¹⁸And Hiram sent him ships commanded by his own men, sailors who knew the sea. These, with Solomon's men, sailed to Ophir and brought back four hundred and fifty talents^[36] of gold, which they delivered to King Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9

THE QUEEN OF SHEBA VISITS SOLOMON

¹When the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame, she came to Jerusalem to test him with hard questions. Arriving with a very great caravan—with camels carrying spices, large quantities of gold, and precious stones—she came to Solomon and talked with him about all she had on her mind. ²Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too hard for him to explain to her. ³When the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon, as well as the palace he had built, ⁴the food on his table, the seating of his officials, the attending servants in their robes, the cupbearers in their robes and the burnt offerings he made at^[37] the temple of the LORD, she was overwhelmed.

⁵She said to the king, “The report I heard in my own country about your achievements and your wisdom is true. ⁶But I did not believe what they said until I came and saw with my own eyes. Indeed, not even half the greatness of your wisdom was told me; you have far exceeded the report I heard. ⁷How happy your people must be! How happy your officials, who continually stand before you and hear your wisdom! ⁸Praise be to the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and placed you on his throne as king to rule for the LORD your God. Because of the love of your God for Israel and his desire to uphold them forever, he has made you king over them, to maintain justice and righteousness.”

¹⁰(The servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon brought gold from Ophir; they also brought alnumwood^[39] and precious stones. ¹¹The king used the alnumwood to make steps for the temple of the LORD and for the royal palace, and to make harps and lyres for the musicians. Nothing like them had ever been seen in Judah.)

¹²King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired and asked for; he gave her more than she had brought to him. Then she left and returned with her retinue to her own country.

¹³The weight of the gold that Solomon received yearly was 666 talents,^[40]
¹⁴not including the revenues brought in by merchants and traders. Also all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the territories brought gold and silver to Solomon.

²²King Solomon was greater in riches and wisdom than all the other kings of the earth. ²³All the kings of the earth sought audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom God had put in his heart. ²⁴Year after year, everyone who came brought a gift—articles of silver and gold, and robes, weapons and spices, and horses and mules.

²⁵Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horses,^[45] which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem. ²⁶He ruled over all the kings from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt. ²⁷The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as plentiful as sycamore-fig trees in the foothills. ²⁸Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from all other countries.

SOLOMON'S DEATH

²⁹As for the other events of Solomon's reign, from beginning to end, are they not written in the records of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam son of Nebat? ³⁰Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. ³¹Then he rested with his ancestors and was buried in the city of David his father. And Rehoboam his son succeeded him as king.

Check the facts for yourself.

Aaron didn't know what to say. His English teacher had raised some tough questions. How could Aaron know that God made the world? Why allow a dusty book like the Bible to dictate his life? And how could anyone believe that Jesus actually rose from the dead? Aaron didn't have answers for Mr. Norton. But the questions drove Aaron to read his Bible more and start asking questions at church. He found books that showed that plenty of smart people had asked and answered the same questions Mr. Norton posed. Aaron wasn't able to persuade his teacher of much, but at least Aaron was learning to think hard about his faith.

2 Chronicles 10

ISRAEL REBELS AGAINST REHOBOAM

¹Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone there to make him king. ²When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard this (he was in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon), he returned from Egypt. ³So they sent for Jeroboam, and he and all Israel went to Rehoboam and said to him: ⁴“Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but now lighten the harsh labor and the heavy yoke he put on us, and we will serve you.”

⁵Rehoboam answered, “Come back to me in three days.” So the people went away.

⁶Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who had served his father Solomon during his lifetime. “How would you advise me to answer these people?” he asked.

⁷They replied, “If you will be kind to these people and please them and give them a favorable answer, they will always be your servants.”

¹⁰The young men who had grown up with him replied, “The people have said to you, ‘Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but make our yoke lighter.’ Now tell them, ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist. ¹¹My father laid on you a heavy yoke; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions.’ ”

¹²Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam, as the king had said, “Come back to me in three days.” ¹³The king answered them harshly. Rejecting the advice of the elders, ¹⁴he followed the advice of the young men and said, “My father made your yoke heavy; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions.” ¹⁵So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was from God, to fulfill the word the LORD had spoken to Jeroboam son of Nebat through Ahijah the Shilonite.

¹⁶When all Israel saw that the king refused to listen to them, they answered the king:

“What share do we have in David,
what part in Jesse’s son?
To your tents, Israel!
Look after your own house, David!”

So all the Israelites went home. ¹⁷But as for the Israelites who were living in the towns of Judah, Rehoboam still ruled over them.

¹⁸King Rehoboam sent out Adoniram, ^[46] who was in charge of forced labor, but the Israelites stoned him to death. King Rehoboam, however, managed to get into his chariot and escape to Jerusalem. ¹⁹So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

2 Chronicles 11

¹When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he mustered Judah and Benjamin—a hundred and eighty thousand able young men—to go to war against Israel and to regain the kingdom for Rehoboam.

²But this word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God: ³“Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon king of Judah and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, ⁴“This is what the LORD says: Do not go up to fight against your fellow Israelites. Go home, every one of you, for this is my doing.’ ” So they obeyed the words of the LORD and turned back from marching against Jeroboam.

REHOBAM FORTIFIES JUDAH

⁵Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and built up towns for defense in Judah: ⁶Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa, ⁷Beth Zur, Soko, Adullam, ⁸Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, ⁹Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah, ¹⁰Zorah, Aijalon and Hebron. These were fortified cities in Judah and Benjamin. ¹¹He strengthened their defenses and put commanders in them, with supplies of food, olive oil and wine. ¹²He put shields and spears in all the cities, and made them very strong. So Judah and Benjamin were his.

¹³The priests and Levites from all their districts throughout Israel sided with him. ¹⁴The Levites even abandoned their pasturelands and property and came to Judah and Jerusalem, because Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them as priests of the LORD ¹⁵when he appointed his own priests for the high places and for the goat and calf idols he had made. ¹⁶Those from every tribe of Israel who set their hearts on seeking the LORD, the God of Israel, followed the Levites to Jerusalem to offer sacrifices to the LORD, the God of their ancestors. ¹⁷They strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam son of Solomon three years, following the ways of David and Solomon during this time.

REHOBAM'S FAMILY

¹⁸Rehoboam married Mahalath, who was the daughter of David's son Jerimoth and of Abihail, the daughter of Jesse's son Eliab. ¹⁹She bore him sons: Jeush, Shemariah and Zaham. ²⁰Then he married Maakah daughter of Absalom, who bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza and Shelomith. ²¹Rehoboam loved Maakah daughter of Absalom more than any of his other wives and concubines. In all, he had eighteen wives and sixty concubines, twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

²²Rehoboam appointed Abijah son of Maakah as crown prince among his brothers, in order to make him king. ²³He acted wisely, dispersing some of his sons throughout the districts of Judah and Benjamin, and to all the fortified cities. He gave them abundant provisions and took many wives for them.

2 Chronicles 12

SHISHAK ATTACKS JERUSALEM

¹After Rehoboam's position as king was established and he had become strong, he and all Israel^[47] with him abandoned the law of the LORD. ²Because they had been unfaithful to the LORD, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem in the fifth year of King Rehoboam. ³With twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand horsemen and the innumerable troops of Libyans, Sukkites and Cushites^[48] that came with him from Egypt, ⁴he captured the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

⁵Then the prophet Shemaiah came to Rehoboam and to the leaders of Judah who had assembled in Jerusalem for fear of Shishak, and he said to them, "This is what the LORD says, 'You have abandoned me; therefore, I now abandon you to Shishak.' "

⁶The leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, "The LORD is just."

⁷When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, this word of the LORD came to Shemaiah: "Since they have humbled themselves, I will not destroy them but will soon give them deliverance. My wrath will not be poured out on Jerusalem through Shishak. ⁸They will, however, become subject to him, so that they may learn the difference between serving me and serving the kings of other lands."

⁹When Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem, he carried off the treasures of the temple of the LORD and the treasures of the royal palace. He took everything, including the gold shields Solomon had made. ¹⁰So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them and assigned these to the commanders of the guard on duty at the entrance to the royal palace. ¹¹Whenever the king went to the LORD's temple, the guards went with him, bearing the shields, and afterward they returned them to the guardroom.

¹²Because Rehoboam humbled himself, the LORD's anger turned from him, and he was not totally destroyed. Indeed, there was some good in Judah.

¹³King Rehoboam established himself firmly in Jerusalem and continued as king. He was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel in which to put his Name. His mother's name was Naamah; she was an Ammonite. ¹⁴He did evil because he had not set his heart on seeking the ¹⁵As for the events of Rehoboam's reign, from beginning to end, are they not written in the records of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer that deal with genealogies? There was continual warfare between Rehoboam and Jeroboam. ¹⁶Rehoboam rested with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David. And Abijah his son succeeded him as king.

LORD.

2 Chronicles 13

ABIJAH KING OF JUDAH

¹In the eighteenth year of the reign of Jeroboam, Abijah became king of Judah, ²and he reigned in Jerusalem three years. His mother's name was Maakah,^[49] a daughter^[50] of Uriel of Gibeah.

There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. ³Abijah went into battle with an army of four hundred thousand able fighting men, and Jeroboam drew up a battle line against him with eight hundred thousand able troops.

⁴Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Jeroboam and all Israel, listen to me! ⁵Don't you know that the LORD, the God of Israel, has given the kingship of Israel to David and his descendants forever by a covenant of salt? ⁶Yet Jeroboam son of Nebat, an official of Solomon son of David, rebelled against his master. ⁷Some worthless scoundrels gathered around him and opposed Rehoboam son of Solomon when he was young and indecisive and not strong enough to resist them.

⁸"And now you plan to resist the kingdom of the LORD, which is in the hands of David's descendants. You are indeed a vast army and have with you the golden calves that Jeroboam made to be your gods. ⁹But didn't you drive out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and make priests of your own as the peoples of other lands do? Whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams may become a priest of what are not gods.

¹⁰"As for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him. The priests who serve the LORD are sons of Aaron, and the Levites assist them. ¹¹Every morning and evening they present burnt offerings and fragrant incense to the LORD. They set out the bread on the ceremonially clean table and light the lamps on the gold lampstand every evening. We are observing the requirements of the LORD our God. But you have forsaken him. ¹²God is with us; he is our leader. His priests with their trumpets will sound the battle cry against you. People of Israel, do not fight against the LORD, the God of your ancestors, for you will not succeed."

¹³Now Jeroboam had sent troops around to the rear, so that while he was in front of Judah the ambush was behind them. ¹⁴Judah turned and saw that they were being attacked at both front and rear. Then they cried out to the LORD. The priests blew their trumpets ¹⁵and the men of Judah raised the battle cry. At the sound of their battle cry, God routed Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. ¹⁶The Israelites fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hands. ¹⁷Abijah and his troops inflicted heavy losses on them, so that there were five hundred thousand casualties among Israel's able men. ¹⁸The Israelites were subdued on that occasion, and the people of Judah were victorious because they relied on the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

¹⁹Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took from him the towns of Bethel, Jeshanah and Ephron, with their surrounding villages. ²⁰Jeroboam did not regain power during the time of Abijah. And the LORD struck him down and he died.

²¹But Abijah grew in strength. He married fourteen wives and had twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

²²The other events of Abijah's reign, what he did and what he said, are written in the annotations of the prophet Iddo.

2 Chronicles 14^[51]

¹And Abijah rested with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David. Asa his son succeeded him as king, and in his days the country was at peace for ten years.

ASA KING OF JUDAH

²Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God. ³He removed the foreign altars and the high places, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles.^[52] ⁴He commanded Judah to seek the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and to obey his laws and commands. ⁵He removed the high places and incense altars in every town in Judah, and the kingdom was at peace under him. ⁶He built up the fortified cities of Judah, since the land was at peace. No one was at war with him during those years, for the LORD gave him rest.

⁷“Let us build up these towns,” he said to Judah, “and put walls around them, with towers, gates and bars. The land is still ours, because we have sought the LORD our God; we sought him and he has given us rest on every side.” So they built and prospered.

⁸Asa had an army of three hundred thousand men from Judah, equipped with large shields and with spears, and two hundred and eighty thousand from Benjamin, armed with small shields and with bows. All these were brave fighting men.

⁹Zerah the Cushite marched out against them with an army of thousands upon thousands and three hundred chariots, and came as far as Mareshah. ¹⁰Asa went out to meet him, and they took up battle positions in the Valley of Zephathah near Mareshah.

¹¹Then Asa called to the LORD his God and said, “LORD, there is no one like you to help the powerless against the mighty. Help us, LORD our God, for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this vast army. LORD, you are our God; do not let mere mortals prevail against you.”

¹²The LORD struck down the Cushites before Asa and Judah. The Cushites fled, ¹³and Asa and his army pursued them as far as Gerar. Such a great number of Cushites fell that they could not recover; they were crushed before the LORD and his forces. The men of Judah carried off a large amount of plunder. ¹⁴They destroyed all the villages around Gerar, for the terror of the LORD had fallen on them. They looted all these villages, since there was much plunder there. ¹⁵They also attacked the camps of the herders and carried off droves of sheep and goats and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 15

ASA'S REFORM

¹The Spirit of God came on Azariah son of Oded. ²He went out to meet Asa and said to him, "Listen to me, Asa and all Judah and Benjamin. The LORD is with you when you are with him. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will forsake you. ³For a long time Israel was without the true God, without a priest to teach and without the law. ⁴But in their distress they turned to the LORD, the God of Israel, and sought him, and he was found by them. ⁵In those days it was not safe to travel about, for all the inhabitants of the lands were in great turmoil. ⁶One nation was being crushed by another and one city by another, because God was troubling them with every kind of distress. ⁷But as for you, be strong and do not give up, for your work will be rewarded."

"Be strong and do not give up, for your work will be rewarded."

\(Rock Solid PROMISES Index\)

⁸When Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Azariah son of [\[53\]](#) Oded the prophet, he took courage. He removed the detestable idols from the whole land of Judah and Benjamin and from the towns he had captured in the hills of Ephraim. He repaired the altar of the LORD that was in front of the portico of the LORD's temple.

⁹Then he assembled all Judah and Benjamin and the people from Ephraim, Manasseh and Simeon who had settled among them, for large numbers had come over to him from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

¹⁶King Asa also deposed his grandmother Maakah from her position as queen mother, because she had made a repulsive image for the worship of Asherah. Asa cut it down, broke it up and burned it in the Kidron Valley. ¹⁷Although he did not remove the high places from Israel, Asa's heart was fully committed to the LORD all his life. ¹⁸He brought into the temple of God the silver and gold and the articles that he and his father had dedicated.

¹⁹There was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

2 Chronicles 16

ASA'S LAST YEARS

²Asa then took the silver and gold out of the treasuries of the LORD's temple and of his own palace and sent it to Ben-Hadad king of Aram, who was ruling in Damascus. ³"Let there be a treaty between me and you," he said, "as there was between my father and your father. See, I am sending you silver and gold. Now break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so he will withdraw from me."

⁴Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa and sent the commanders of his forces against the towns of Israel. They conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel Maim^[54] and all the store cities of Naphtali. ⁵When Baasha heard this, he stopped building Ramah and abandoned his work. ⁶Then King Asa brought all the men of Judah, and they carried away from Ramah the stones and timber Baasha had been using. With them he built up Geba and Mizpah.

⁷At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him: "Because you relied on the king of Aram and not on the LORD your God, the army of the king of Aram has escaped from your hand. ⁸Were not the Cushites^[55] and Libyans a mighty army with great numbers of chariots and horsemen^[56]? Yet when you relied on the LORD, he delivered them into your hand. ⁹For the eyes of the LORD range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to him. You have done a foolish thing, and from now on you will be at war."

¹⁰Asa was angry with the seer because of this; he was so enraged that he put him in prison. At the same time Asa brutally oppressed some of the people.

¹¹The events of Asa's reign, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ¹²In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa was afflicted with a disease in his feet. Though his disease was severe, even in his illness he did not seek help from the LORD, but only from the physicians.

¹³Then in the forty-first year of his reign Asa died and rested with his ancestors. ¹⁴They buried him in the tomb that he had cut out for himself in the City of David. They laid him on a bier covered with spices and various blended perfumes, and they made a huge fire in his honor.

2 Chronicles 16:1–10

God is supportive.

Asa king of Judah learned the hard way that God is always looking for people to help. Asa, instead of relying on God when he came under attack, turned to the pagan king of Aram, emptying gold and silver from the temple and palace as payment for help. The prophet Hanani showed up and reminded Asa that God had been willing to help all along—he was ready to chase off Asa’s enemy. Because Asa didn’t look to God, he would spend the rest of his life at war. Got it? If your heart is fully committed to God, the Lord is eager to make you strong (see 2 Chronicles 16:9).

So ... How are you relying on others in a way that pushes God out of the situation?

2 Chronicles 17

JHOSHAPHAT KING OF JUDAH

¹Jehoshaphat his son succeeded him as king and strengthened himself against Israel. ²He stationed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah and put garrisons in Judah and in the towns of Ephraim that his father Asa had captured.

³The LORD was with Jehoshaphat because he followed the ways of his father David before him. He did not consult the Baals ⁴but sought the God of his father and followed his commands rather than the practices of Israel. ⁵The LORD established the kingdom under his control; and all Judah brought gifts to Jehoshaphat, so that he had great wealth and honor. ⁶His heart was devoted to the ways of the LORD; furthermore, he removed the high places and the Asherah poles from Judah.

¹⁰The fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands surrounding Judah, so that they did not go to war against Jehoshaphat. ¹¹Some Philistines brought Jehoshaphat gifts and silver as tribute, and the Arabs brought him flocks: seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred goats.

¹²Jehoshaphat became more and more powerful; he built forts and store cities in Judah ¹³and had large supplies in the towns of Judah. He also kept experienced fighting men in Jerusalem. ¹⁴Their enrollment by families was as follows:

From Judah, commanders of units of 1,000:

Adnah the commander, with 300,000 fighting men;

¹⁵next, Jehohanan the commander, with 280,000;

¹⁶next, Amasiah son of Zikri, who volunteered himself for the service of the LORD, with 200,000.

¹⁷From Benjamin:

Eliada, a valiant soldier, with 200,000 men armed with bows and shields;

¹⁸next, Jehozabad, with 180,000 men armed for battle.

¹⁹These were the men who served the king, besides those he stationed in the fortified cities throughout Judah.

2 Chronicles 18

MICAIAH PROPHECIES AGAINST AHAB

¹Now Jehoshaphat had great wealth and honor, and he allied himself with Ahab by marriage. ²Some years later he went down to see Ahab in Samaria. Ahab slaughtered many sheep and cattle for him and the people with him and urged him to attack Ramoth Gilead. ³Ahab king of Israel asked Jehoshaphat king of Judah, “Will you go with me against Ramoth Gilead?”

Jehoshaphat replied, “I am as you are, and my people as your people; we will join you in the war.” ⁴But Jehoshaphat also said to the king of Israel, “First seek the counsel of the LORD.”

⁵So the king of Israel brought together the prophets—four hundred men—and asked them, “Shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I not?”

“Go,” they answered, “for God will give it into the king’s hand.”

⁶But Jehoshaphat asked, “Is there no longer a prophet of the LORD here whom we can inquire of?”

⁷The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat, “There is still one prophet through whom we can inquire of the LORD, but I hate him because he never prophesies anything good about me, but always bad. He is Micaiah son of Imlah.”

⁸So the king of Israel called one of his officials and said, “Bring Micaiah son of Imlah at once.”

⁹Dressed in their royal robes, the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting on their thrones at the threshing floor by the entrance of the gate of Samaria, with all the prophets prophesying before them. ¹⁰Now Zedekiah son of Kenaanah had made iron horns, and he declared, “This is what the LORD says: ‘With these you will gore the Arameans until they are destroyed.’ ”

¹¹All the other prophets were prophesying the same thing. “Attack Ramoth Gilead and be victorious,” they said, “for the LORD will give it into the king’s hand.”

¹²The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, “Look, the other prophets without exception are predicting success for the king. Let your word agree with theirs, and speak favorably.”

¹³But Micaiah said, “As surely as the LORD lives, I can tell him only what my God says.”

¹⁴When he arrived, the king asked him, “Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I not?”

¹⁵The king said to him, “How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

¹⁶Then Micaiah answered, “I saw all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd, and the LORD said, ‘These people have no master. Let each one go home in peace.’ ”

¹⁷The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Didn’t I tell you that he never prophesies anything good about me, but only bad?”

¹⁸Micaiah continued, “Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne with all the multitudes of heaven standing on his right and on his left. ¹⁹And the LORD said, ‘Who will entice Ahab king of Israel into attacking Ramoth Gilead and going to his death there?’

“One suggested this, and another that. ²⁰Finally, a spirit came forward, stood before the LORD and said, ‘I will entice him.’

“ ‘By what means?’ the LORD asked.

²¹“ ‘I will go and be a deceiving spirit in the mouths of all his prophets,’ he said.

²²“So now the LORD has put a deceiving spirit in the mouths of these prophets of yours. The LORD has decreed disaster for you.”

²³Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah went up and slapped Micaiah in the face. “Which way did the spirit from^[57] the LORD go when he went from me to speak to you?” he asked.

²⁴Micaiah replied, “You will find out on the day you go to hide in an inner room.”

²⁵The king of Israel then ordered, “Take Micaiah and send him back to Amon the ruler of the city and to Joash the king’s son, ²⁶and say, ‘This is what the king says: Put this fellow in prison and give him nothing but bread and water until I return safely.’ ”

²⁷Micaiah declared, “If you ever return safely, the LORD has not spoken through me.” Then he added, “Mark my words, all you people!”

AHAB KILLED AT RAMOTH GILEAD

²⁸So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. ²⁹The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will enter the battle in disguise, but you wear your royal robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

³⁰Now the king of Aram had ordered his chariot commanders, “Do not fight with anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel.” ³¹When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought, “This is the king of Israel.” So they turned to attack him, but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him. God drew them away from him, ³²for when the chariot commanders saw that he was not the king of Israel, they stopped pursuing him.

³³But someone drew his bow at random and hit the king of Israel between the breastplate and the scale armor. The king told the chariot driver, “Wheel around and get me out of the fighting. I’ve been wounded.” ³⁴All day long the battle raged, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Arameans until evening. Then at sunset he died.

Listen to tough advice.

Ahab had a well-earned reputation as Israel’s most evil king ever, a man who got his advice from 400 corrupt prophets of the Canaanite goddess Asherah. As Ahab plotted to go to war, he enlisted help from King Jehoshaphat of Judah. When Jehoshaphat called for guidance from an authentic prophet of God, Ahab complained that the prophet never had anything good to say (see 2 Chronicles 18:7). As expected, Micaiah arrived and warned against war. Ahab rejected God’s tough word, went to battle anyway and wound up dead (see 2 Chronicles 18:33–34).

Your next step: Choose carefully who you listen to—and make a habit of taking even the toughest (yet wise) advice.

2 Chronicles 19

¹When Jehoshaphat king of Judah returned safely to his palace in Jerusalem, ²Jehu the seer, the son of Hanani, went out to meet him and said to the king, “Should you help the wicked and love^[58] those who hate the LORD? Because of this, the wrath of the LORD is on you. ³There is, however, some good in you, for you have rid the land of the Asherah poles and have set your heart on seeking God.”

JEHOSHAPHAT APPOINTS JUDGES

⁸In Jerusalem also, Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites, priests and heads of Israelite families to administer the law of the LORD and to settle disputes. And they lived in Jerusalem. ⁹He gave them these orders: “You must serve faithfully and wholeheartedly in the fear of the LORD. ¹⁰In every case that comes before you from your people who live in the cities—whether bloodshed or other concerns of the law, commands, decrees or regulations—you are to warn them not to sin against the LORD; otherwise his wrath will come on you and your people. Do this, and you will not sin.

¹¹“Amariah the chief priest will be over you in any matter concerning the LORD, and Zebadiah son of Ishmael, the leader of the tribe of Judah, will be over you in any matter concerning the king, and the Levites will serve as officials before you. Act with courage, and may the LORD be with those who do well.”

2 Chronicles 20

JEHOSHAPHAT DEFEATS MOAB AND AMMON

¹After this, the Moabites and Ammonites with some of the Meunites^[59] came to wage war against Jehoshaphat.

²Some people came and told Jehoshaphat, “A vast army is coming against you from Edom,^[60] from the other side of the Dead Sea. It is already in Hazezon Tamar” (that is, En Gedi). ³Alarmed, Jehoshaphat resolved to inquire of the LORD, and he proclaimed a fast for all Judah. ⁴The people of Judah came together to seek help from the LORD; indeed, they came from every town in Judah to seek him.

“LORD, the God of our ancestors, are you not the God who is in heaven? You rule over all the kingdoms of the nations. Power and might are in your hand, and no one can withstand you. ⁷Our God, did you not drive out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel and give it forever to the descendants of Abraham your friend? ⁸They have lived in it and have built in it a sanctuary for your Name, saying, ⁹‘If calamity comes upon us, whether the sword of judgment, or plague or famine, we will stand in your presence before this temple that bears your Name and will cry out to you in our distress, and you will hear us and save us.’

¹⁰“But now here are men from Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir, whose territory you would not allow Israel to invade when they came from Egypt; so they turned away from them and did not destroy them. ¹¹See how they are repaying us by coming to drive us out of the possession you gave us as an inheritance. ¹²Our God, will you not judge them? For we have no power to face this vast army that is attacking us. We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on you.”

¹³All the men of Judah, with their wives and children and little ones, stood there before the LORD.

¹⁴Then the Spirit of the LORD came on Jahaziel son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite and descendant of Asaph, as he stood in the assembly.

¹⁵He said: “Listen, King Jehoshaphat and all who live in Judah and Jerusalem! This is what the LORD says to you: ‘Do not be afraid or discouraged because of this vast army. For the battle is not yours, but God’s. ¹⁶Tomorrow march down against them. They will be climbing up by the Pass of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the gorge in the Desert of Jeruel. ¹⁷You will not have to fight this battle. Take up your positions; stand firm and see the deliverance the LORD will give you, Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged. Go out to face them tomorrow, and the LORD will be with you.’ ”

¹⁸Jehoshaphat bowed down with his face to the ground, and all the people of Judah and Jerusalem fell down in worship before the LORD. ¹⁹Then some Levites from the Kohathites and Korahites stood up and praised the LORD, the God of Israel, with a very loud voice.

²⁰Early in the morning they left for the Desert of Tekoa. As they set out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Listen to me, Judah and people of Jerusalem! Have faith in the LORD your God and you will be upheld; have faith in his prophets and you will be successful.” ²¹After consulting the people, Jehoshaphat appointed men to sing to the LORD and to praise him for the splendor of his^[61] holiness as they went out at the head of the army, saying:

“Give thanks to the LORD,
for his love endures forever.”

²²As they began to sing and praise, the LORD set ambushes against the men of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir who were invading Judah, and they were defeated. ²³The Ammonites and Moabites rose up against the men from Mount Seir to destroy and annihilate them. After they finished slaughtering the men from Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

no one had escaped. ²⁵So Jehoshaphat and his men went to carry off their plunder, and they found among them a great amount of equipment and clothing^[62] and also articles of value—more than they could take away. There was so much plunder that it took three days to collect it. ²⁶On the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Berakah, where they praised the LORD. This is why it is called the Valley of Berakah^[63] to this day.

²⁷Then, led by Jehoshaphat, all the men of Judah and Jerusalem returned joyfully to Jerusalem, for the LORD had given them cause to rejoice over their enemies. ²⁸They entered Jerusalem and went to the temple of the LORD with harps and lyres and trumpets.

²⁹The fear of God came on all the surrounding kingdoms when they heard how the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel. ³⁰And the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was at peace, for his God had given him rest on every side.

THE END OF JEHOSEPHAT'S REIGN

³¹So Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king of Judah, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-five years. His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi. ³²He followed the ways of his father Asa and did not stray from them; he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD. ³³The high places, however, were not removed, and the people still had not set their hearts on the God of their ancestors.

³⁴The other events of Jehoshaphat's reign, from beginning to end, are written in the annals of Jehu son of Hanani, which are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel.

³⁵Later, Jehoshaphat king of Judah made an alliance with Ahaziah king of Israel, whose ways were wicked. ³⁶He agreed with him to construct a fleet of trading ships.^[64] After these were built at Ezion Geber, ³⁷Eliezer son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have made an alliance with Ahaziah, the LORD will destroy what you have made." The ships were wrecked and were not able to set sail to trade.^[65]

2 Chronicles 21

¹Then Jehoshaphat rested with his ancestors and was buried with them in the City of David. And Jehoram his son succeeded him as king. ²Jehoram's brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat, were Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariahu, Michael and Shephatiah. All these were sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel. ^[66]
³Their father had given them many gifts of silver and gold and articles of value, as well as fortified cities in Judah, but he had given the kingdom to Jehoram because he was his firstborn son.

JEHORAM KING OF JUDAH

⁴When Jehoram established himself firmly over his father's kingdom, he put all his brothers to the sword along with some of the officials of Israel.

⁵Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. ⁶He followed the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for he married a daughter of Ahab. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD. ⁷Nevertheless, because of the covenant the LORD had made with David, the LORD was not willing to destroy the house of David. He had promised to maintain a lamp for him and his descendants forever.

⁸In the time of Jehoram, Edom rebelled against Judah and set up its own king. ⁹So Jehoram went there with his officers and all his chariots. The Edomites surrounded him and his chariot commanders, but he rose up and broke through by night. ¹⁰To this day Edom has been in rebellion against Judah.

Libnah revolted at the same time, because Jehoram had forsaken the LORD, the God of his ancestors. ¹¹He had also built high places on the hills of Judah and had caused the people of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves and had led Judah astray.

¹²Jehoram received a letter from Elijah the prophet, which said:

“This is what the LORD, the God of your father David, says: ‘You have not followed the ways of your father Jehoshaphat or of Asa king of Judah. ¹³But you have followed the ways of the kings of Israel, and you have led Judah and the people of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves, just as the house of Ahab did. You have also murdered your own brothers, members of your own family, men who were better than you. ¹⁴So now the LORD is about to strike your people, your sons, your wives and everything that is yours, with a heavy blow. ¹⁵You yourself will be very ill with a lingering disease of the bowels, until the disease causes your bowels to come out.’”

¹⁶The LORD aroused against Jehoram the hostility of the Philistines and of the Arabs who lived near the Cushites. ¹⁷They attacked Judah, invaded it and carried off all the goods found in the king's palace, together with his sons and wives. Not a son was left to him except Ahaziah,^[67] the youngest.

¹⁸After all this, the LORD afflicted Jehoram with an incurable disease of the bowels. ¹⁹In the course of time, at the end of the second year, his bowels came out because of the disease, and he died in great pain. His people made no funeral fire in his honor, as they had for his predecessors.

²⁰Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. He passed away, to no one's regret, and was buried in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

2 Chronicles 22

AHAZIAH KING OF JUDAH

¹The people of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, Jehoram's youngest son, king in his place, since the raiders, who came with the Arabs into the camp, had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

²Ahaziah was twenty-two^[68] years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem one year. His mother's name was Athaliah, a granddaughter of Omri.

³He too followed the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother encouraged him to act wickedly. ⁴He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done, for after his father's death they became his advisers, to his undoing. ⁵He also followed their counsel when he went with Joram^[69] son of Ahab king of Israel to wage war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram; ⁶so he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds they had inflicted on him at Ramoth^[70] in his battle with Hazael king of Aram.

Then Ahaziah^[71] son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to Jezreel to see Joram son of Ahab because he had been wounded.

⁷Through Ahaziah's visit to Joram, God brought about Ahaziah's downfall. When Ahaziah arrived, he went out with Joram to meet Jehu son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab. ⁸While Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, he found the officials of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's relatives, who had been attending Ahaziah, and he killed them. ⁹He then went in search of Ahaziah, and his men captured him while he was hiding in Samaria. He was brought to Jehu and put to death. They buried him, for they said, "He was a son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." So there was no one in the house of Ahaziah powerful enough to retain the kingdom.

¹⁰When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she proceeded to destroy the whole royal family of the house of Judah. ¹¹But Jehosheba,^[72] the daughter of King Jehoram, took Joash son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the royal princes who were about to be murdered and put him and his nurse in a bedroom. Because Jehosheba,^[73] the daughter of King Jehoram and wife of the priest Jehoiada, was Ahaziah's sister, she hid the child from Athaliah so she could not kill him. ¹²He remained hidden with them at the temple of God for six years while Athaliah ruled the land.

2 Chronicles 23

¹In the seventh year Jehoiada showed his strength. He made a covenant with the commanders of units of a hundred: Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zikri. ²They went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites and the heads of Israelite families from all the towns. When they came to Jerusalem, ³the whole assembly made a covenant with the king at the temple of God.

Jehoiada said to them, “The king’s son shall reign, as the LORD promised concerning the descendants of David. ⁴Now this is what you are to do: A third of you priests and Levites who are going on duty on the Sabbath are to keep watch at the doors, ⁵a third of you at the royal palace and a third at the Foundation Gate, and all the others are to be in the courtyards of the temple of the LORD. ⁶No one is to enter the temple of the LORD except the priests and Levites on duty; they may enter because they are consecrated, but all the others are to observe the LORD’s command not to enter.^[74] ⁷The Levites are to station themselves around the king, each with weapon in hand. Anyone who enters the temple is to be put to death. Stay close to the king wherever he goes.”

⁸The Levites and all the men of Judah did just as Jehoiada the priest ordered. Each one took his men—those who were going on duty on the Sabbath and those who were going off duty—for Jehoiada the priest had not released any of the divisions. ⁹Then he gave the commanders of units of a hundred the spears and the large and small shields that had belonged to King David and that were in the temple of God. ¹⁰He stationed all the men, each with his weapon in his hand, around the king—near the altar and the temple, from the south side to the north side of the temple.

¹²When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and cheering the king, she went to them at the temple of the LORD. ¹³She looked, and there was the king, standing by his pillar at the entrance. The officers and the trumpeters were beside the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets, and musicians with their instruments were leading the praises. Then Athaliah tore her robes and shouted, “Treason! Treason!”

¹⁴Jehoiada the priest sent out the commanders of units of a hundred, who were in charge of the troops, and said to them: “Bring her out between the ranks^[75] and put to the sword anyone who follows her.” For the priest had said, “Do not put her to death at the temple of the LORD.” ¹⁵So they seized her as she reached the entrance of the Horse Gate on the palace grounds, and there they put her to death.

¹⁶Jehoiada then made a covenant that he, the people and the king^[76] would be the LORD’s people. ¹⁷All the people went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed the altars and idols and killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars.

¹⁸Then Jehoiada placed the oversight of the temple of the LORD in the hands of the Levitical priests, to whom David had made assignments in the temple, to present the burnt offerings of the LORD as written in the Law of Moses, with rejoicing and singing, as David had ordered. ¹⁹He also stationed gatekeepers at the gates of the LORD’s temple so that no one who was in any way unclean might enter.

²⁰He took with him the commanders of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people and all the people of the land and brought the king down from the temple of the LORD. They went into the palace through the Upper Gate and seated the king on the royal throne. ²¹All the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was calm, because Athaliah had been slain with the sword.

2 Chronicles 24

JOASH REPAIRS THE TEMPLE

¹Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem forty years. His mother's name was Zibiah; she was from Beersheba. ²Joash did what was right in the eyes of the LORD all the years of Jehoiada the priest. ³Jehoiada chose two wives for him, and he had sons and daughters.

⁴Some time later Joash decided to restore the temple of the LORD. ⁵He called together the priests and Levites and said to them, "Go to the towns of Judah and collect the money due annually from all Israel, to repair the temple of your God. Do it now." But the Levites did not act at once.

⁶Therefore the king summoned Jehoiada the chief priest and said to him, "Why haven't you required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the tax imposed by Moses the servant of the LORD and by the assembly of Israel for the tent of the covenant law?"

⁷Now the sons of that wicked woman Athaliah had broken into the temple of God and had used even its sacred objects for the Baals.

⁸At the king's command, a chest was made and placed outside, at the gate of the temple of the LORD. ⁹A proclamation was then issued in Judah and Jerusalem that they should bring to the LORD the tax that Moses the servant of God had required of Israel in the wilderness. ¹⁰All the officials and all the people brought their contributions gladly, dropping them into the chest until it was full. ¹¹Whenever the chest was brought in by the Levites to the king's officials and they saw that there was a large amount of money, the royal secretary and the officer of the chief priest would come and empty the chest and carry it back to its place. They did this regularly and collected a great amount of money. ¹²The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who carried out the work required for the temple of the LORD. They hired masons and carpenters to restore the LORD's temple, and also workers in iron and bronze to repair the temple.

¹³The men in charge of the work were diligent, and the repairs progressed under them. They rebuilt the temple of God according to its original design and reinforced it. ¹⁴When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money to the king and Jehoiada, and with it were made articles for the LORD's temple: articles for the service and for the burnt offerings, and also dishes and other objects of gold and silver. As long as Jehoiada lived, burnt offerings were presented continually in the temple of the LORD.

¹⁵Now Jehoiada was old and full of years, and he died at the age of a hundred and thirty. ¹⁶He was buried with the kings in the City of David, because of the good he had done in Israel for God and his temple.

THE WICKEDNESS OF JOASH

¹⁷After the death of Jehoiada, the officials of Judah came and paid homage to the king, and he listened to them. ¹⁸They abandoned the temple of the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and worshiped Asherah poles and idols. Because of their guilt, God's anger came on Judah and Jerusalem. ¹⁹Although the LORD sent prophets to the people to bring them back to him, and though they testified against them, they would not listen.

²⁰Then the Spirit of God came on Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest. He stood before the people and said, "This is what God says: 'Why do you disobey the LORD's commands? You will not prosper. Because you have forsaken the LORD, he has forsaken you.' "

²¹But they plotted against him, and by order of the king they stoned him to death in the courtyard of the LORD's temple. ²²King Joash did not remember the kindness Zechariah's father Jehoiada had shown him but killed his son, who said as he lay dying, "May the LORD see this and call you to account."

²³At the turn of the year,^[77] the army of Aram marched against Joash; it invaded Judah and Jerusalem and killed all the leaders of the people. They sent all the plunder to their king in Damascus. ²⁴Although the Aramean army had come with only a few men, the LORD delivered into their hands a much larger army. Because Judah had forsaken the LORD, the God of their ancestors, judgment was executed on Joash. ²⁵When the Arameans withdrew, they left Joash severely wounded. His officials conspired against him for murdering the son of Jehoiada the priest, and they killed him in his bed. So he died and was buried in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

²⁶Those who conspired against him were Zabad,^[78] son of Shimeath an Ammonite woman, and Jehozabad, son of Shimrith^[79] a Moabite woman. ²⁷The account of his sons, the many prophecies about him, and the record of the restoration of the temple of God are written in the annotations on the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son succeeded him as king.

¹Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Jehoaddan; she was from Jerusalem. ²He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, but not wholeheartedly. ³After the kingdom was firmly in his control, he executed the officials who had murdered his father the king. ⁴Yet he did not put their children to death, but acted in accordance with what is written in the Law, in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded: "Parents shall not be put to death for their children, nor children be put to death for their parents; each will die for their own sin."^[80]

⁵Amaziah called the people of Judah together and assigned them according to their families to commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin. He then mustered those twenty years old or more and found that there were three hundred thousand men fit for military service, able to handle the spear and shield. ⁶He also hired a hundred thousand fighting men from Israel for a hundred talents^[81] of silver.

⁷But a man of God came to him and said, "Your Majesty, these troops from Israel must not march with you, for the LORD is not with Israel—not with any of the people of Ephraim. ⁸Even if you go and fight courageously in battle, God will overthrow you before the enemy, for God has the power to help or to overthrow."

⁹Amaziah asked the man of God, "But what about the hundred talents I paid for these Israelite troops?"

The man of God replied, "The LORD can give you much more than that."

¹⁰So Amaziah dismissed the troops who had come to him from Ephraim and sent them home. They were furious with Judah and left for home in a great rage.

¹¹Amaziah then marshaled his strength and led his army to the Valley of Salt, where he killed ten thousand men of Seir. ¹²The army of Judah also captured ten thousand men alive, took them to the top of a cliff and threw them down so that all were dashed to pieces.

¹³Meanwhile the troops that Amaziah had sent back and had not allowed to take part in the war raided towns belonging to Judah from Samaria to Beth Horon. They killed three thousand people and carried off great quantities of plunder.

¹⁴When Amaziah returned from slaughtering the Edomites, he brought back the gods of the people of Seir. He set them up as his own gods, bowed down to them and burned sacrifices to them. ¹⁵The anger of the LORD burned against Amaziah, and he sent a prophet to him, who said, “Why do you consult this people’s gods, which could not save their own people from your hand?”

¹⁶While he was still speaking, the king said to him, “Have we appointed you an adviser to the king? Stop! Why be struck down?”

So the prophet stopped but said, “I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel.”

¹⁷After Amaziah king of Judah consulted his advisers, he sent this challenge to Jehoash^[82] son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel: “Come, let us face each other in battle.”

¹⁸But Jehoash king of Israel replied to Amaziah king of Judah: “A thistle in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar in Lebanon, ‘Give your daughter to my son in marriage.’ Then a wild beast in Lebanon came along and trampled the thistle underfoot. ¹⁹You say to yourself that you have defeated Edom, and now you are arrogant and proud. But stay at home! Why ask for trouble and cause your own downfall and that of Judah also?”

²⁰Amaziah, however, would not listen, for God so worked that he might deliver them into the hands of Jehoash, because they sought the gods of Edom. ²¹So Jehoash king of Israel attacked. He and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other at Beth Shemesh in Judah. ²²Judah was routed by Israel, and every man fled to his home. ²³Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah,^[83] at Beth Shemesh. Then Jehoash brought him to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate—a section about four hundred cubits^[84] long. ²⁴He took all the gold and silver and all the articles found in the temple of God that had been in the care of Obed-Edom, together with the palace treasures and the hostages, and returned to Samaria.

²⁵Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel. ²⁶As for the other events of Amaziah’s reign, from beginning to end, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? ²⁷From the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they conspired against him in Jerusalem and he fled to Lachish, but they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there. ²⁸He was brought back by horse and was buried with his ancestors in the City of Judah.^[85]

2 Chronicles 26

UZZIAH KING OF JUDAH

¹Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah,^[86] who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah. ²He was the one who rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah after Amaziah rested with his ancestors.

⁶He went to war against the Philistines and broke down the walls of Gath, Jabneh and Ashdod. He then rebuilt towns near Ashdod and elsewhere among the Philistines. ⁷God helped him against the Philistines and against the Arabs who lived in Gur Baal and against the Meunites. ⁸The Ammonites brought tribute to Uzziah, and his fame spread as far as the border of Egypt, because he had become very powerful.

⁹Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate and at the angle of the wall, and he fortified them. ¹⁰He also built towers in the wilderness and dug many cisterns, because he had much livestock in the foothills and in the plain. He had people working his fields and vineyards in the hills and in the fertile lands, for he loved the soil.

¹¹Uzziah had a well-trained army, ready to go out by divisions according to their numbers as mustered by Jeiel the secretary and Maaseiah the officer under the direction of Hananiah, one of the royal officials. ¹²The total number of family leaders over the fighting men was 2,600. ¹³Under their command was an army of 307,500 men trained for war, a powerful force to support the king against his enemies. ¹⁴Uzziah provided shields, spears, helmets, coats of armor, bows and slingstones for the entire army. ¹⁵In Jerusalem he made devices invented for use on the towers and on the corner defenses so that soldiers could shoot arrows and hurl large stones from the walls. His fame spread far and wide, for he was greatly helped until he became powerful.

¹⁶But after Uzziah became powerful, his pride led to his downfall. He was unfaithful to the LORD his God, and entered the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense. ¹⁷Azariah the priest with eighty other courageous priests of the LORD followed him in. ¹⁸They confronted King Uzziah and said, “It is not right for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD. That is for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, who have been consecrated to burn incense. Leave the sanctuary, for you have been unfaithful; and you will not be honored by the LORD God.”

¹⁹Uzziah, who had a censer in his hand ready to burn incense, became angry. While he was raging at the priests in their presence before the incense altar in the LORD’s temple, leprosy^[88] broke out on his forehead. ²⁰When Azariah the chief priest and all the other priests looked at him, they saw that he had leprosy on his forehead, so they hurried him out. Indeed, he himself was eager to leave, because the LORD had afflicted him.

²¹King Uzziah had leprosy until the day he died. He lived in a separate house^[89]—leprous, and banned from the temple of the LORD. Jotham his son had charge of the palace and governed the people of the land.

²²The other events of Uzziah’s reign, from beginning to end, are recorded by the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz. ²³Uzziah rested with his ancestors and was buried near them in a cemetery that belonged to the kings, for people said, “He had leprosy.” And Jotham his son succeeded him as king.

Don’t let power go to your head.

Uzziah was just 16 years old when he took the throne of Judah. He “did what was right” and “sought God” and “God gave him success” (2 Chronicles 26:4–5). Yet as Uzziah grew powerful, he became proud and unfaithful to God (see 2 Chronicles 26:16). He stole the job of a temple priest and burned incense on a sacred altar. God struck Uzziah with leprosy, a skin condition that excluded him from both public worship and continuing as king. Because Uzziah let power go to his head, he lost everything.

2 Chronicles 27

JOTHAM KING OF JUDAH

¹Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok.

²He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Uzziah had done, but unlike him he did not enter the temple of the LORD. The people, however, continued their corrupt practices. ³Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the temple of the LORD and did extensive work on the wall at the hill of Ophel.

⁴He built towns in the hill country of Judah and forts and towers in the wooded areas.

⁵Jotham waged war against the king of the Ammonites and conquered them. That year the Ammonites paid him a hundred talents^[90] of silver, ten thousand cors^[91] of wheat and ten thousand cors^[92] of barley. The Ammonites brought him the same amount also in the second and third years.

⁶Jotham grew powerful because he walked steadfastly before the LORD his God.

⁷The other events in Jotham's reign, including all his wars and the other things he did, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. ⁸He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. ⁹Jotham rested with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David. And Ahaz his son succeeded him as king.

2 Chronicles 28

AHAZ KING OF JUDAH

¹Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. Unlike David his father, he did not do what was right in the eyes of the LORD. ²He followed the ways of the kings of Israel and also made idols for worshiping the Baals. ³He burned sacrifices in the Valley of Ben Hinnom and sacrificed his children in the fire, engaging in the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites. ⁴He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places, on the hilltops and under every spreading tree.

He was also given into the hands of the king of Israel, who inflicted heavy casualties on him. ⁶In one day Pekah son of Remaliah killed a hundred and twenty thousand soldiers in Judah—because Judah had forsaken the LORD, the God of their ancestors. ⁷Zikri, an Ephraimite warrior, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the officer in charge of the palace, and Elkanah, second to the king. ⁸The men of Israel took captive from their fellow Israelites who were from Judah two hundred thousand wives, sons and daughters. They also took a great deal of plunder, which they carried back to Samaria.

⁹But a prophet of the LORD named Oded was there, and he went out to meet the army when it returned to Samaria. He said to them, "Because the LORD, the God of your ancestors, was angry with Judah, he gave them into your hand. But you have slaughtered them in a rage that reaches to heaven. ¹⁰And now you intend to make the men and women of Judah and Jerusalem your slaves. But aren't you also guilty of sins against the LORD your God? ¹¹Now listen to me! Send back your fellow Israelites you have taken as prisoners, for the LORD's fierce anger rests on you."

¹²Then some of the leaders in Ephraim—Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berekiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai—confronted those who were arriving from the war. ¹³"You must not bring those prisoners here," they said, "or we will be guilty before the LORD. Do you intend to add to our sin and guilt? For our guilt is already great, and his fierce anger rests on Israel."

¹⁴So the soldiers gave up the prisoners and plunder in the presence of the officials and all the assembly. ¹⁵The men designated by name took the prisoners, and from the plunder they clothed all who were naked. They provided them with clothes and sandals, food and drink, and healing balm. All those who were weak they put on donkeys. So they took them back to their fellow Israelites at Jericho, the City of Palms, and returned to Samaria.

¹⁶At that time King Ahaz sent to the kings^[93] of Assyria for help. ¹⁷The Edomites had again come and attacked Judah and carried away prisoners, ¹⁸while the Philistines had raided towns in the foothills and in the Negev of Judah. They captured and occupied Beth Shemesh, Aijalon and Gederoth, as well as Soko, Timnah and Gimzo, with their surrounding villages. ¹⁹The LORD had humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Israel,^[94] for he had promoted wickedness in Judah and had been most unfaithful to the LORD. ²⁰Tiglath-Pileser^[95] king of Assyria came to him, but he gave him trouble instead of help. ²¹Ahaz took some of the things from the temple of the LORD and from the royal palace and from the officials and presented them to the king of Assyria, but that did not help him.

²²In his time of trouble King Ahaz became even more unfaithful to the LORD. ²³He offered sacrifices to the gods of Damascus, who had defeated him; for he thought, “Since the gods of the kings of Aram have helped them, I will sacrifice to them so they will help me.” But they were his downfall and the downfall of all Israel.

²⁴Ahaz gathered together the furnishings from the temple of God and cut them in pieces. He shut the doors of the LORD’s temple and set up altars at every street corner in Jerusalem. ²⁵In every town in Judah he built high places to burn sacrifices to other gods and aroused the anger of the LORD, the God of his ancestors.

²⁶The other events of his reign and all his ways, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ²⁷Ahaz rested with his ancestors and was buried in the city of Jerusalem, but he was not placed in the tombs of the kings of Israel. And Hezekiah his son succeeded him as king.

2 Chronicles 29

HEZEKIAH PURIFIES THE TEMPLE

¹Hezekiah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah. ²He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father David had done.

³In the first month of the first year of his reign, he opened the doors of the temple of the LORD and repaired them. ⁴He brought in the priests and the Levites, assembled them in the square on the east side ⁵and said: "Listen to me, Levites! Consecrate yourselves now and consecrate the temple of the LORD, the God of your ancestors. Remove all defilement from the sanctuary. ⁶Our parents were unfaithful; they did evil in the eyes of the LORD our God and forsook him. They turned their faces away from the LORD's dwelling place and turned their backs on him. ⁷They also shut the doors of the portico and put out the lamps. They did not burn incense or present any burnt offerings at the sanctuary to the God of Israel. ⁸Therefore, the anger of the LORD has fallen on Judah and Jerusalem; he has made them an object of dread and horror and scorn, as you can see with your own eyes. ⁹This is why our fathers have fallen by the sword and why our sons and daughters and our wives are in captivity. ¹⁰Now I intend to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, so that his fierce anger will turn away from us. ¹¹My sons, do not be negligent now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand before him and serve him, to minister before him and to burn incense."

¹²Then these Levites set to work:

from the Kohathites,

Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah;

from the Merarites,

Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel;

from the Gershonites,

Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah;

¹³from the descendants of Elizaphan,

Shimri and Jeiel;

from the descendants of Asaph,

Zechariah and Mattaniah; ¹⁴from the descendants of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei;
from the descendants of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

¹⁸Then they went in to King Hezekiah and reported: "We have purified the entire temple of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the table for setting out the consecrated bread, with all its articles. ¹⁹We have prepared and consecrated all the articles that King Ahaz removed in his unfaithfulness while he was king. They are now in front of the LORD's altar."

²⁰Early the next morning King Hezekiah gathered the city officials together and went up to the temple of the LORD. ²¹They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven male lambs and seven male goats as a sin offering^[96] for the kingdom, for the sanctuary and for Judah. The king commanded the priests, the descendants of Aaron, to offer these on the altar of the LORD. ²²So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests took the blood and splashed it against the altar; next they slaughtered the rams and splashed their blood against the altar; then they slaughtered the lambs and splashed their blood against the altar. ²³The goats for the sin offering were brought before the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands on them. ²⁴The priests then slaughtered the goats and presented their blood on the altar for a sin offering to atone for all Israel, because the king had ordered the burnt offering and the sin offering for all Israel.

²⁵He stationed the Levites in the temple of the LORD with cymbals, harps and lyres in the way prescribed by David and Gad the king's seer and Nathan the prophet; this was commanded by the LORD through his prophets. ²⁶So the Levites stood ready with David's instruments, and the priests with their trumpets.

²⁷Hezekiah gave the order to sacrifice the burnt offering on the altar. As the offering began, singing to the LORD began also, accompanied by trumpets and the instruments of David king of Israel. ²⁸The whole assembly bowed in worship, while the musicians played and the trumpets sounded. All this continued until the sacrifice of the burnt offering was completed.

²⁹When the offerings were finished, the king and everyone present with him knelt down and worshiped. ³⁰King Hezekiah and his officials ordered the Levites to praise the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness and bowed down and worshiped.

³¹Then Hezekiah said, "You have now dedicated yourselves to the LORD. Come and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the temple of the LORD." So the assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and all whose hearts were willing brought burnt offerings.

³²The number of burnt offerings the assembly brought was seventy bulls, a hundred rams and two hundred male lambs—all of them for burnt offerings to the LORD. ³³The animals consecrated as sacrifices amounted to six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep and goats. ³⁴The priests, however, were too few to skin all the burnt offerings; so their relatives the Levites helped them until the task was finished and until other priests had been consecrated, for the Levites had been more conscientious in consecrating themselves than the priests had been. ³⁵There were burnt offerings in abundance, together with the fat of the fellowship offerings and the drink offerings that accompanied the burnt offerings.

So the service of the temple of the LORD was reestablished. ³⁶Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced at what God had brought about for his people, because it was done so quickly.

2 Chronicles 30

HEZEKIAH CELEBRATES THE PASSOVER

¹Hezekiah sent word to all Israel and Judah and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, inviting them to come to the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem and celebrate the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel. ²The king and his officials and the whole assembly in Jerusalem decided to celebrate the Passover in the second month. ³They had not been able to celebrate it at the regular time because not enough priests had consecrated themselves and the people had not assembled in Jerusalem. ⁴The plan seemed right both to the king and to the whole assembly. ⁵They decided to send a proclamation throughout Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, calling the people to come to Jerusalem and celebrate the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel. It had not been celebrated in large numbers according to what was written.

“People of Israel, return to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, that he may return to you who are left, who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria. ⁷Do not be like your parents and your fellow Israelites, who were unfaithful to the LORD, the God of their ancestors, so that he made them an object of horror, as you see. ⁸Do not be stiff-necked, as your ancestors were; submit to the LORD. Come to his sanctuary, which he has consecrated forever. Serve the LORD your God, so that his fierce anger will turn away from you. ⁹If you return to the LORD, then your fellow Israelites and your children will be shown compassion by their captors and will return to this land, for the LORD your God is gracious and compassionate. He will not turn his face from you if you return to him.”

¹⁰The couriers went from town to town in Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun, but people scorned and ridiculed them. ¹¹Nevertheless, some from Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun humbled themselves and went to Jerusalem.

¹²Also in Judah the hand of God was on the people to give them unity of mind to carry out what the king and his officials had ordered, following the word of the LORD.

¹³A very large crowd of people assembled in Jerusalem to celebrate the Festival of Unleavened Bread in the second month. ¹⁴They removed the altars in Jerusalem and cleared away the incense altars and threw them into the Kidron Valley.

¹⁵They slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites were ashamed and consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings to the temple of the LORD. ¹⁶Then they took up their regular positions as prescribed in the Law of Moses the man of God. The priests splashed against the altar the blood handed to them by the Levites. ¹⁷Since many in the crowd had not consecrated themselves, the Levites had to kill the Passover lambs for all those who were not ceremonially clean and could not consecrate their lambs^[97] to the LORD. ¹⁸Although most of the many people who came from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun had not purified themselves, yet they ate the Passover, contrary to what was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, “May the LORD, who is good, pardon everyone ¹⁹who sets their heart on seeking God—the LORD, the God of their ancestors—even if they are not clean according to the rules of the sanctuary.” ²⁰And the LORD heard Hezekiah and healed the people.

²¹The Israelites who were present in Jerusalem celebrated the Festival of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great rejoicing, while the Levites and priests praised the LORD every day with resounding instruments dedicated to the LORD.^[98]

²²Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites, who showed good understanding of the service of the LORD. For the seven days they ate their assigned portion and offered fellowship offerings and praised^[99] the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

²³The whole assembly then agreed to celebrate the festival seven more days; so for another seven days they celebrated joyfully. ²⁴Hezekiah king of Judah provided a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep and goats for the assembly, and the officials provided them with a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep and goats. A great number of priests consecrated themselves. ²⁵The entire assembly of Judah rejoiced, along with the priests and Levites and all who had assembled from Israel, including the foreigners who had come from Israel and also those who resided in Judah. ²⁶There was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the days of Solomon son of David king of Israel there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem. ²⁷The priests and the Levites stood to bless the people, and God heard them, for their prayer reached heaven, his holy dwelling place.

God is forgiving.

The people of Israel were down and out, distant from God, not worshipping or enjoying the Lord as he commanded. Among other sins, they had failed to keep the Passover, the celebration of their rescue from slavery in Egypt. King Hezekiah invited people back to God. He called their ancestors unfaithful, stubborn and stiff-necked, objects of horror to God. But God is gracious and compassionate. The king promised that if the people returned home to God, the Lord would welcome them (see 2 Chronicles 30:9). That's your God. He's forgiving. If you confess your sins, he forgives you and cleanses the wrongs you have done (see 1 John 1:9).

So ... How have you wandered away from God? Ask his forgiveness. And come home.

2 Chronicles 31

¹When all this had ended, the Israelites who were there went out to the towns of Judah, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles. They destroyed the high places and the altars throughout Judah and Benjamin and in Ephraim and Manasseh. After they had destroyed all of them, the Israelites returned to their own towns and to their own property.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR WORSHIP

²Hezekiah assigned the priests and Levites to divisions—each of them according to their duties as priests or Levites—to offer burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, to minister, to give thanks and to sing praises at the gates of the LORD’s dwelling. ³The king contributed from his own possessions for the morning and evening burnt offerings and for the burnt offerings on the Sabbaths, at the New Moons and at the appointed festivals as written in the Law of the LORD. ⁴He ordered the people living in Jerusalem to give the portion due the priests and Levites so they could devote themselves to the Law of the LORD. ⁵As soon as the order went out, the Israelites generously gave the firstfruits of their grain, new wine, olive oil and honey and all that the fields produced. They brought a great amount, a tithe of everything. ⁶The people of Israel and Judah who lived in the towns of Judah also brought a tithe of their herds and flocks and a tithe of the holy things dedicated to the LORD their God, and they piled them in heaps. ⁷They began doing this in the third month and finished in the seventh month. ⁸When Hezekiah and his officials came and saw the heaps, they praised the LORD and blessed his people Israel.

¹⁴Kore son of Imnah the Levite, keeper of the East Gate, was in charge of the freewill offerings given to God, distributing the contributions made to the LORD and also the consecrated gifts. ¹⁵Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah and Shekaniah assisted him faithfully in the towns of the priests, distributing to their fellow priests according to their divisions, old and young alike.

¹⁶In addition, they distributed to the males three years old or more whose names were in the genealogical records—all who would enter the temple of the LORD to perform the daily duties of their various tasks, according to their responsibilities and their divisions. ¹⁷And they distributed to the priests enrolled by their families in the genealogical records and likewise to the Levites twenty years old or more, according to their responsibilities and their divisions. ¹⁸They included all the little ones, the wives, and the sons and daughters of the whole community listed in these genealogical records. For they were faithful in consecrating themselves.

¹⁹As for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, who lived on the farmlands around their towns or in any other towns, men were designated by name to distribute portions to every male among them and to all who were recorded in the genealogies of the Levites.

²⁰This is what Hezekiah did throughout Judah, doing what was good and right and faithful before the LORD his God. ²¹In everything that he undertook in the service of God's temple and in obedience to the law and the commands, he sought his God and worked wholeheartedly. And so he prospered.

2 Chronicles 32

SENNACHERIB THREATENS JERUSALEM

¹After all that Hezekiah had so faithfully done, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah. He laid siege to the fortified cities, thinking to conquer them for himself. ²When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and that he intended to wage war against Jerusalem, ³he consulted with his officials and military staff about blocking off the water from the springs outside the city, and they helped him. ⁴They gathered a large group of people who blocked all the springs and the stream that flowed through the land. “Why should the kings^[100] of Assyria come and find plenty of water?” they said. ⁵Then he worked hard repairing all the broken sections of the wall and building towers on it. He built another wall outside that one and reinforced the terraces^[101] of the City of David. He also made large numbers of weapons and shields.

⁶He appointed military officers over the people and assembled them before him in the square at the city gate and encouraged them with these words: ⁷“Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or discouraged because of the king of Assyria and the vast army with him, for there is a greater power with us than with him. ⁸With him is only the arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles.” And the people gained confidence from what Hezekiah the king of Judah said.

“There is a greater power with us than with him ... With us is the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles.”

(Rock Solid PROMISES Index)

⁹Later, when Sennacherib king of Assyria and all his forces were laying siege to Lachish, he sent his officers to Jerusalem with this message for Hezekiah king of Judah and for all the people of Judah who were there:

¹³“Do you not know what I and my predecessors have done to all the peoples of the other lands? Were the gods of those nations ever able to deliver their land from my hand? ¹⁴Who of all the gods of these nations that my predecessors destroyed has been able to save his people from me? How then can your god deliver you from my hand? ¹⁵Now do not let Hezekiah deceive you and mislead you like this. Do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to deliver his people from my hand or the hand of my predecessors. How much less will your god deliver you from my hand!”

¹⁶Sennacherib’s officers spoke further against the LORD God and against his servant Hezekiah. ¹⁷The king also wrote letters ridiculing the LORD, the God of Israel, and saying this against him: “Just as the gods of the peoples of the other lands did not rescue their people from my hand, so the god of Hezekiah will not rescue his people from my hand.” ¹⁸Then they called out in Hebrew to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to terrify them and make them afraid in order to capture the city. ¹⁹They spoke about the God of Jerusalem as they did about the gods of the other peoples of the world—the work of human hands.

²⁰King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz cried out in prayer to heaven about this. ²¹And the LORD sent an angel, who annihilated all the fighting men and the commanders and officers in the camp of the Assyrian king. So he withdrew to his own land in disgrace. And when he went into the temple of his god, some of his sons, his own flesh and blood, cut him down with the sword.

²²So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib king of Assyria and from the hand of all others. He took care of them^[102] on every side. ²³Many brought offerings to Jerusalem for the LORD and valuable gifts for Hezekiah king of Judah. From then on he was highly regarded by all the nations.

HEZEKIAH'S PRIDE, SUCCESS AND DEATH

²⁴In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death. He prayed to the LORD, who answered him and gave him a miraculous sign. ²⁵But Hezekiah's heart was proud and he did not respond to the kindness shown him; therefore the LORD's wrath was on him and on Judah and Jerusalem. ²⁶Then Hezekiah repented of the pride of his heart, as did the people of Jerusalem; therefore the LORD's wrath did not come on them during the days of Hezekiah.

²⁷Hezekiah had very great wealth and honor, and he made treasuries for his silver and gold and for his precious stones, spices, shields and all kinds of valuables. ²⁸He also made buildings to store the harvest of grain, new wine and olive oil; and he made stalls for various kinds of cattle, and pens for the flocks. ²⁹He built villages and acquired great numbers of flocks and herds, for God had given him very great riches.

³⁰It was Hezekiah who blocked the upper outlet of the Gihon spring and channeled the water down to the west side of the City of David. He succeeded in everything he undertook. ³¹But when envoys were sent by the rulers of Babylon to ask him about the miraculous sign that had occurred in the land, God left him to test him and to know everything that was in his heart.

³²The other events of Hezekiah's reign and his acts of devotion are written in the vision of the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ³³Hezekiah rested with his ancestors and was buried on the hill where the tombs of David's descendants are. All Judah and the people of Jerusalem honored him when he died. And Manasseh his son succeeded him as king.

2 Chronicles 33

MANASSEH KING OF JUDAH

¹Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem fifty-five years. ²He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, following the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites. ³He rebuilt the high places his father Hezekiah had demolished; he also erected altars to the Baals and made Asherah poles. He bowed down to all the starry hosts and worshiped them. ⁴He built altars in the temple of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, “My Name will remain in Jerusalem forever.” ⁵In both courts of the temple of the LORD, he built altars to all the starry hosts. ⁶He sacrificed his children in the fire in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, practiced divination and witchcraft, sought omens, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the eyes of the LORD, arousing his anger.

⁷He took the image he had made and put it in God’s temple, of which God had said to David and to his son Solomon, “In this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my Name forever. ⁸I will not again make the feet of the Israelites leave the land I assigned to your ancestors, if only they will be careful to do everything I commanded them concerning all the laws, decrees and regulations given through Moses.” ⁹But Manasseh led Judah and the people of Jerusalem astray, so that they did more evil than the nations the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites.

¹⁴Afterward he rebuilt the outer wall of the City of David, west of the Gihon spring in the valley, as far as the entrance of the Fish Gate and encircling the hill of Ophel; he also made it much higher. He stationed military commanders in all the fortified cities in Judah.

¹⁵He got rid of the foreign gods and removed the image from the temple of the LORD, as well as all the altars he had built on the temple hill and in

Jerusalem; and he threw them out of the city. ¹⁶Then he restored the altar of the LORD and sacrificed fellowship offerings and thank offerings on it, and told Judah to serve the LORD, the God of Israel. ¹⁷The people, however, continued to sacrifice at the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

¹⁸The other events of Manasseh's reign, including his prayer to his God and the words the seers spoke to him in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, are written in the annals of the kings of Israel.^[103] ¹⁹His prayer and how God was moved by his entreaty, as well as all his sins and unfaithfulness, and the sites where he built high places and set up Asherah poles and idols before he humbled himself—all these are written in the records of the seers.^[104] ²⁰Manasseh rested with his ancestors and was buried in his palace. And Amon his son succeeded him as king.

AMON KING OF JUDAH

²¹Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem two years. ²²He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done. Amon worshiped and offered sacrifices to all the idols Manasseh had made. ²³But unlike his father Manasseh, he did not humble himself before the LORD; Amon increased his guilt.

²⁴Amon's officials conspired against him and assassinated him in his palace. ²⁵Then the people of the land killed all who had plotted against King Amon, and they made Josiah his son king in his place.

2 Chronicles 34

JOSIAH'S REFORMS

¹Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-one years. ²He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD and followed the ways of his father David, not turning aside to the right or to the left.

³In the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the God of his father David. In his twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of high places, Asherah poles and idols. ⁴Under his direction the altars of the Baals were torn down; he cut to pieces the incense altars that were above them, and smashed the Asherah poles and the idols. These he broke to pieces and scattered over the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. ⁵He burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and so he purged Judah and Jerusalem. ⁶In the towns of Manasseh, Ephraim and Simeon, as far as Naphtali, and in the ruins around them, ⁷he tore down the altars and the Asherah poles and crushed the idols to powder and cut to pieces all the incense altars throughout Israel. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

⁸In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign, to purify the land and the temple, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah and Maaseiah the ruler of the city, with Joah son of Joahaz, the recorder, to repair the temple of the LORD his God.

⁹They went to Hilkiyah the high priest and gave him the money that had been brought into the temple of God, which the Levites who were the gatekeepers had collected from the people of Manasseh, Ephraim and the entire remnant of Israel and from all the people of Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰Then they entrusted it to the men appointed to supervise the work on the LORD's temple. These men paid the workers who repaired and restored the temple. ¹¹They also gave money to the carpenters and builders to purchase dressed stone, and timber for joists and beams for the buildings that the kings of Judah had allowed to fall into ruin.

¹²The workers labored faithfully. Over them to direct them were Jahath and Obadiah, Levites descended from Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, descended from Kohath. The Levites—all who were skilled in playing musical instruments—¹³had charge of the laborers and supervised all the workers from job to job. Some of the Levites were secretaries, scribes and gatekeepers.

THE BOOK OF THE LAW FOUND

¹⁴While they were bringing out the money that had been taken into the temple of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD that had been given through Moses. ¹⁵Hilkiah said to Shaphan the secretary, “I have found the Book of the Law in the temple of the LORD.” He gave it to Shaphan.

¹⁶Then Shaphan took the book to the king and reported to him: “Your officials are doing everything that has been committed to them. ¹⁷They have paid out the money that was in the temple of the LORD and have entrusted it to the supervisors and workers.” ¹⁸Then Shaphan the secretary informed the king, “Hilkiah the priest has given me a book.” And Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

²²Hilkiah and those the king had sent with him^[106] went to speak to the prophet Huldah, who was the wife of Shallum son of Tokhath,^[107] the son of Hasrah,^[108] keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem, in the New Quarter.

²³She said to them, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Tell the man who sent you to me, ²⁴‘This is what the LORD says: I am going to bring disaster on this place and its people—all the curses written in the book that has been read in the presence of the king of Judah. ²⁵Because they have forsaken me and burned incense to other gods and aroused my anger by all that their hands have made,^[109] my anger will be poured out on this place and will not be quenched.’ ²⁶Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says concerning the words you heard: ²⁷Because your heart was responsive and you humbled yourself before God when you heard what he spoke against this place and its people, and because you humbled yourself before me and tore your robes and wept in my presence,

I have heard you, declares the LORD. ²⁸Now I will gather you to your ancestors, and you will be buried in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster I am going to bring on this place and on those who live here.’ ”

So they took her answer back to the king.

²⁹Then the king called together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ³⁰He went up to the temple of the LORD with the people of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests and the Levites—all the people from the least to the greatest. He read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant, which had been found in the temple of the LORD. ³¹The king stood by his pillar and renewed the covenant in the presence of the LORD—to follow the LORD and keep his commands, statutes and decrees with all his heart and all his soul, and to obey the words of the covenant written in this book.

³²Then he had everyone in Jerusalem and Benjamin pledge themselves to it; the people of Jerusalem did this in accordance with the covenant of God, the God of their ancestors.

³³Josiah removed all the detestable idols from all the territory belonging to the Israelites, and he had all who were present in Israel serve the LORD their God. As long as he lived, they did not fail to follow the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

ROCK SOLID truths

2 Chronicles 34:14–33

God guards the Bible.

Josiah became king of Judah at the wee age of eight, inheriting a kingdom of subjects dedicated to doing wrong, especially worshipping false gods. As a teen, Josiah got serious about following God, and soon the young king tore down pagan altars and restarted true worship at the temple of Jerusalem. During repairs of the temple, the high priest of Israel uncovered a lost “Book of the Law,” possibly a portion of the Old Testament book of Deuteronomy. Josiah tore his clothes in grief that God’s Word had been neglected, then used what the book taught him to lead his kingdom even closer to the Lord. This scene demonstrates God’s amazing care for the Bible throughout history. Even in a period of rampant sin, the Lord didn’t let his Word slip away. He had a copy safely stowed, waiting for someone willing to hear and obey his commands.

Think: Have you ever misplaced the Bible from the core of your life? What did you do to make things right?

2 Chronicles 35

JOSIAH CELEBRATES THE PASSOVER

¹Josiah celebrated the Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem, and the Passover lamb was slaughtered on the fourteenth day of the first month. ²He appointed the priests to their duties and encouraged them in the service of the LORD's temple. ³He said to the Levites, who instructed all Israel and who had been consecrated to the LORD: "Put the sacred ark in the temple that Solomon son of David king of Israel built. It is not to be carried about on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and his people Israel. ⁴Prepare yourselves by families in your divisions, according to the instructions written by David king of Israel and by his son Solomon.

⁷Josiah provided for all the lay people who were there a total of thirty thousand lambs and goats for the Passover offerings, and also three thousand cattle—all from the king's own possessions.

⁸His officials also contributed voluntarily to the people and the priests and Levites. Hilkiyah, Zechariah and Jehiel, the officials in charge of God's temple, gave the priests twenty-six hundred Passover offerings and three hundred cattle. ⁹Also Konaniah along with Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel and Jozabad, the leaders of the Levites, provided five thousand Passover offerings and five hundred head of cattle for the Levites.

¹⁰The service was arranged and the priests stood in their places with the Levites in their divisions as the king had ordered. ¹¹The Passover lambs were slaughtered, and the priests splashed against the altar the blood handed to them, while the Levites skinned the animals. ¹²They set aside the burnt offerings to give them to the subdivisions of the families of the people to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the Book of Moses. They did the same with the cattle. ¹³They roasted the Passover animals over the fire as prescribed, and boiled the holy offerings in pots, caldrons and pans and served them quickly to all the people. ¹⁴After this, they made preparations for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were sacrificing the burnt offerings and the fat portions until nightfall. So the Levites made preparations for themselves and for the Aaronic priests.

¹⁵The musicians, the descendants of Asaph, were in the places prescribed by David, Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun the king's seer. The gatekeepers at each gate did not need to leave their posts, because their fellow Levites made the preparations for them.

¹⁶So at that time the entire service of the LORD was carried out for the celebration of the Passover and the offering of burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, as King Josiah had ordered. ¹⁷The Israelites who were present celebrated the Passover at that time and observed the Festival of Unleavened Bread for seven days. ¹⁸The Passover had not been observed like this in Israel since the days of the prophet Samuel; and none of the kings of Israel had ever celebrated such a Passover as did Josiah, with the priests, the Levites and all Judah and Israel who were there with the people of Jerusalem. ¹⁹This Passover was celebrated in the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign.

THE DEATH OF JOSIAH

²⁰After all this, when Josiah had set the temple in order, Necho king of Egypt went up to fight at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah marched out to meet him in battle. ²¹But Necho sent messengers to him, saying, “What quarrel is there, king of Judah, between you and me? It is not you I am attacking at this time, but the house with which I am at war. God has told me to hurry; so stop opposing God, who is with me, or he will destroy you.”

²²Josiah, however, would not turn away from him, but disguised himself to engage him in battle. He would not listen to what Necho had said at God’s command but went to fight him on the plain of Megiddo.

²³Archers shot King Josiah, and he told his officers, “Take me away; I am badly wounded.” ²⁴So they took him out of his chariot, put him in his other chariot and brought him to Jerusalem, where he died. He was buried in the tombs of his ancestors, and all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for him.

²⁵Jeremiah composed laments for Josiah, and to this day all the male and female singers commemorate Josiah in the laments. These became a tradition in Israel and are written in the Laments.

²⁶The other events of Josiah’s reign and his acts of devotion in accordance with what is written in the Law of the LORD— ²⁷all the events, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

2 Chronicles 36

¹And the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and made him king in Jerusalem in place of his father.

JEHOAHAZ KING OF JUDAH

²Jehoahaz^[110] was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. ³The king of Egypt dethroned him in Jerusalem and imposed on Judah a levy of a hundred talents^[111] of silver and a talent^[112] of gold. ⁴The king of Egypt made Eliakim, a brother of Jehoahaz, king over Judah and Jerusalem and changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. But Necho took Eliakim's brother Jehoahaz and carried him off to Egypt.

JEHOIAKIM KING OF JUDAH

⁵Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD his God.

⁶Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked him and bound him with bronze shackles to take him to Babylon. ⁷Nebuchadnezzar also took to Babylon articles from the temple of the LORD and put them in his temple^[113] there.

⁸The other events of Jehoiakim's reign, the detestable things he did and all that was found against him, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. And Jehoiachin his son succeeded him as king.

JEHOIACHIN KING OF JUDAH

⁹Jehoiachin was eighteen^[114] years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months and ten days. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

¹⁰In the spring, King Nebuchadnezzar sent for him and brought him to Babylon, together with articles of value from the temple of the LORD, and he made Jehoiachin's uncle,^[115] Zedekiah, king over Judah and Jerusalem.

ZEDEKIAH KING OF JUDAH

¹¹Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. ¹²He did evil in the eyes of the LORD his God and did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke the word of the LORD. ¹³He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him take an oath in God's name. He became stiff-necked and hardened his heart and would not turn to the LORD, the God of Israel. ¹⁴Furthermore, all the leaders of the priests and the people became more and more unfaithful, following all the detestable practices of the nations and defiling the temple of the LORD, which he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

THE FALL OF JERUSALEM

¹⁵The LORD, the God of their ancestors, sent word to them through his messengers again and again, because he had pity on his people and on his dwelling place. ¹⁶But they mocked God's messengers, despised his words and scoffed at his prophets until the wrath of the LORD was aroused against his people and there was no remedy. ¹⁷He brought up against them the king of the Babylonians, ^[116] who killed their young men with the sword in the sanctuary, and did not spare young men or young women, the elderly or the infirm. God gave them all into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁸He carried to Babylon all the articles from the temple of God, both large and small, and the treasures of the LORD's temple and the treasures of the king and his officials. ¹⁹They set fire to God's temple and broke down the wall of Jerusalem; they burned all the palaces and destroyed everything of value there.

²⁰He carried into exile to Babylon the remnant, who escaped from the sword, and they became servants to him and his successors until the kingdom of Persia came to power. ²¹The land enjoyed its sabbath rests; all the time of its desolation it rested, until the seventy years were completed in fulfillment of the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah.

²²In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD moved the heart of Cyrus king of Persia to make a proclamation throughout his realm and also to put it in writing:

²³"This is what Cyrus king of Persia says:

“ ‘The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and he has appointed me to build a temple for him at Jerusalem in Judah. Any of his people among you may go up, and may the LORD their God be with them.’ ”

2 Chronicles 33:1–20

Manasseh started over with God.

There can only be one baddest of the bad, and among the evil kings of Judah, the Bible says Manasseh was the worst. He led the people of God so far astray that they acted even more evil than the sinful peoples the Lord had driven out of the promised land (see 2 Kings 21:9).

Manasseh ascended to the throne at age 12 and ruled for 55 years, longer than any other Israelite king. He succeeded his father Hezekiah, who had boldly turned the nation back to God. But Manasseh undid all the good things his godly father accomplished. He rebuilt altars to false gods, worshiped Baal and Asherah, put pagan altars in the temple, practiced sorcery, talked to mediums, and burned his son as a sacrifice (see 2 Kings 21:3–6). He “shed so much innocent blood that he filled Jerusalem from end to end” (2 Kings 21:16). Tradition holds him responsible for having the great prophet Isaiah sawn in two (see Hebrews 11:37).

But Manasseh changed. Toward the end of his life, foreign armies dragged him to captivity in Babylon. After a short period there he repented, and “Manasseh knew that the LORD is God” (2 Chronicles 33:13). He returned to Jerusalem a humbled, changed man. He rid the nation of foreign gods and destroyed their altars. He restored real worship and ordered the people to obey God. After many terrible years of disobeying God, Manasseh got a fresh start.

You can find Manasseh in 2 Kings 20–24; 2 Chronicles 33; Jeremiah 15:4; and Matthew 1:10.

(3:1–6:22)

Ezra's return and ministry

The book of Ezra tells about the return of the Jews from exile in Babylon. It begins in 539 BC with the decree of Cyrus, king of Persia, which allowed the people to go back to Jerusalem under the leadership of Zerubbabel. The people enthusiastically began rebuilding the temple and resumed making sacrifices. But for eighteen years they were delayed by their enemies from the north. Finally, in 521 BC a decree from Darius, king of Persia, let them continue the building project. The people completed and dedicated the temple in 515 BC.

In 458 BC, Ezra, the priest, returned to Jerusalem with another group of Babylonian exiles. He taught the people the law and reformed their religious life so the other nations around them could see they were God's chosen nation.

Ezra is the author of the books of Ezra and Nehemiah.

Ezra 1

CYRUS HELPS THE EXILES TO RETURN

¹In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD moved the heart of Cyrus king of Persia to make a proclamation throughout his realm and also to put it in writing:

²“This is what Cyrus king of Persia says:

“ ‘The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and he has appointed me to build a temple for him at Jerusalem in Judah. ³Any of his people among you may go up to Jerusalem in Judah and build the temple of the LORD, the God of Israel, the God who is in Jerusalem, and may their God be with them. ⁴And in any locality where survivors may now be living, the people are to provide them with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with freewill offerings for the temple of God in Jerusalem.’ ”

⁵Then the family heads of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and Levites—everyone whose heart God had moved—prepared to go up and build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem. ⁶All their neighbors assisted them with articles of silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with valuable gifts, in addition to all the freewill offerings.

⁷Moreover, King Cyrus brought out the articles belonging to the temple of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and had placed in the temple of his god.^[1] ⁸Cyrus king of Persia had them brought by Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

⁹This was the inventory:

gold dishes 30 silver dishes 1,000 silver pans^[2] 29

¹⁰gold bowls 30

matching silver bowls 410

other articles 1,000

¹¹In all, there were 5,400 articles of gold and of silver. Sheshbazzar brought all these along with the exiles when they came up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Ezra 1:1–4

God is all-knowing.

In his first year as king of Persia, Cyrus made a bold announcement. The people of God—who decades before had been dragged away from Judah as captives—could go back to their homeland. Not only could they live in freedom, but they could build a new temple in Jerusalem. That kingly proclamation was even more amazing because God had foretold long ago it would happen. More than a century before, the prophet Isaiah prophesied that a ruler named Cyrus would issue that decree (see Isaiah 44:28; 45:1). It’s a small but stunning sign that your God is “omniscient,” or “all-knowing.” He knows every fact, even before it happens.

So ... God knows everything, everywhere, at every time.
Is that good or bad? Why?

⁶²These searched for their family records, but they could not find them and so were excluded from the priesthood as unclean. ⁶³The governor ordered them not to eat any of the most sacred food until there was a priest ministering with the Urim and Thummim.

⁶⁴The whole company numbered 42,360, ⁶⁵besides their 7,337 male and female slaves; and they also had 200 male and female singers. ⁶⁶They had 736 horses, 245 mules, ⁶⁷435 camels and 6,720 donkeys.

⁶⁸When they arrived at the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, some of the heads of the families gave freewill offerings toward the rebuilding of the house of God on its site. ⁶⁹According to their ability they gave to the treasury for this work 61,000 darics^[4] of gold, 5,000 minas^[5] of silver and 100 priestly garments.

⁷⁰The priests, the Levites, the musicians, the gatekeepers and the temple servants settled in their own towns, along with some of the other people, and the rest of the Israelites settled in their towns.

Ezra 3

REBUILDING THE ALTAR

¹When the seventh month came and the Israelites had settled in their towns, the people assembled together as one in Jerusalem. ²Then Joshua son of Jozadak and his fellow priests and Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and his associates began to build the altar of the God of Israel to sacrifice burnt offerings on it, in accordance with what is written in the Law of Moses the man of God. ³Despite their fear of the peoples around them, they built the altar on its foundation and sacrificed burnt offerings on it to the LORD, both the morning and evening sacrifices. ⁴Then in accordance with what is written, they celebrated the Festival of Tabernacles with the required number of burnt offerings prescribed for each day. ⁵After that, they presented the regular burnt offerings, the New Moon sacrifices and the sacrifices for all the appointed sacred festivals of the LORD, as well as those brought as freewill offerings to the LORD. ⁶On the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, though the foundation of the LORD's temple had not yet been laid.

REBUILDING THE TEMPLE

⁷Then they gave money to the masons and carpenters, and gave food and drink and olive oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre, so that they would bring cedar logs by sea from Lebanon to Joppa, as authorized by Cyrus king of Persia.

⁸In the second month of the second year after their arrival at the house of God in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Joshua son of Jozadak and the rest of the people (the priests and the Levites and all who had returned from the captivity to Jerusalem) began the work. They appointed Levites twenty years old and older to supervise the building of the house of the LORD. ⁹Joshua and his sons and brothers and Kadmiel and his sons (descendants of Hodaviah^[6]) and the sons of Henadad and their sons and brothers—all Levites—joined together in supervising those working on the house of God.

¹⁰When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests in their vestments and with trumpets, and the Levites (the sons of Asaph) with cymbals, took their places to praise the LORD, as prescribed by David king of Israel. ¹¹With praise and thanksgiving they sang to the LORD:

“He is good;
his love toward Israel endures forever.”

And all the people gave a great shout of praise to the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. ¹²But many of the older priests and Levites and family heads, who had seen the former temple, wept aloud when they saw the foundation of this temple being laid, while many others shouted for joy. ¹³No one could distinguish the sound of the shouts of joy from the sound of weeping, because the people made so much noise. And the sound was heard far away.

Ezra 4

OPPOSITION TO THE REBUILDING

¹When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the exiles were building a temple for the LORD, the God of Israel, ²they came to Zerubbabel and to the heads of the families and said, “Let us help you build because, like you, we seek your God and have been sacrificing to him since the time of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here.”

³But Zerubbabel, Joshua and the rest of the heads of the families of Israel answered, “You have no part with us in building a temple to our God. We alone will build it for the LORD, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus, the king of Persia, commanded us.”

⁴Then the peoples around them set out to discourage the people of Judah and make them afraid to go on building.^[7] ⁵They bribed officials to work against them and frustrate their plans during the entire reign of Cyrus king of Persia and down to the reign of Darius king of Persia.

LATER OPPOSITION UNDER XERXES AND ARTAXERXES

⁶At the beginning of the reign of Xerxes,^[8] they lodged an accusation against the people of Judah and Jerusalem.

⁷And in the days of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of his associates wrote a letter to Artaxerxes. The letter was written in Aramaic script and in the Aramaic language.^{[9],[10]}

⁸Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king as follows:

⁹Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary, together with the rest of their associates—the judges, officials and administrators over the people from Persia, Uruk and Babylon, the Elamites of Susa, ¹⁰and the other people whom the great and honorable Ashurbanipal deported and settled in the city of Samaria and elsewhere in Trans-Euphrates.

¹¹(This is a copy of the letter they sent him.)

To King Artaxerxes,
From your servants in Trans-Euphrates:

¹²The king should know that the people who came up to us from you have gone to Jerusalem and are rebuilding that rebellious and wicked city. They are restoring the walls and repairing the foundations.

¹³Furthermore, the king should know that if this city is built and its walls are restored, no more taxes, tribute or duty will be paid, and eventually the royal revenues will suffer.^[11] ¹⁴Now since we are under obligation to the palace and it is not proper for us to see the king dishonored, we are sending this message to inform the king, ¹⁵so that a search may be made in the archives of your predecessors. In these records you will find that this city is a rebellious city, troublesome to kings and provinces, a place with a long history of sedition. That is why this city was destroyed. ¹⁶We inform the king that if this city is built and its walls are restored, you will be left with nothing in Trans-Euphrates.

¹⁷The king sent this reply:

To Rehum the commanding officer, Shimshai the secretary and the rest of their associates living in Samaria and elsewhere in Trans-Euphrates: Greetings.

¹⁸The letter you sent us has been read and translated in my presence. ¹⁹I issued an order and a search was made, and it was found that this city has a long history of revolt against kings and has been a place of rebellion and sedition. ²⁰Jerusalem has had powerful kings ruling over the whole of Trans-Euphrates, and taxes, tribute and duty were paid to them. ²¹Now issue an order to these men to stop work, so that this city will not be rebuilt until I so order. ²²Be careful not to neglect this matter. Why let this threat grow, to the detriment of the royal interests?

²³As soon as the copy of the letter of King Artaxerxes was read to Rehum and Shimshai the secretary and their associates, they went immediately to the Jews in Jerusalem and compelled them by force to stop.

²⁴Thus the work on the house of God in Jerusalem came to a standstill until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

ROCK SOLID truths

Ezra 4:1–5

You can expect opposition to God's work.

Zerubbabel's refusal of help to rebuild the temple in Jerusalem sounded harsh. These volunteers, after all, sounded so eager to help. They claimed that they too worshiped the Lord, the God of Israel. But Zerubbabel shut them out completely. Why? Because these potential workers were the offspring of Israelites who had married foreigners. They were guilty of mixing true worship of the one real God with their own false religions, the sin that caused God to send his people into captivity (see 2 Kings 17:9–10). So Zerubbabel saw their help as an effort to undo authentic, whole-hearted commitment to God. That's the kind of opposition you can expect when you attempt to accomplish something for God. Some people might outright oppose your efforts. But others just want to sneak in and mess you up.

Think: Why do people trying to do good things to honor God often encounter opposition?

Ezra 5

TATTENAI'S LETTER TO DARIUS

¹Now Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the prophet, a descendant of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them. ²Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Joshua son of Jozadak set to work to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem. And the prophets of God were with them, supporting them.

³At that time Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates went to them and asked, "Who authorized you to rebuild this temple and to finish it?" ⁴They^[12] also asked, "What are the names of those who are constructing this building?" ⁵But the eye of their God was watching over the elders of the Jews, and they were not stopped until a report could go to Darius and his written reply be received.

⁶This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates, the officials of Trans-Euphrates, sent to King Darius. ⁷The report they sent him read as follows:

To King Darius:
Cordial greetings.

⁸The king should know that we went to the district of Judah, to the temple of the great God. The people are building it with large stones and placing the timbers in the walls. The work is being carried on with diligence and is making rapid progress under their direction.

⁹We questioned the elders and asked them, "Who authorized you to rebuild this temple and to finish it?" ¹⁰We also asked them their names, so that we could write down the names of their leaders for your information.

¹¹This is the answer they gave us:

"We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the temple that was built many years ago, one that a great king of Israel built and finished. ¹²But because our ancestors angered the God of heaven, he gave them into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar the Chaldean, king of Babylon, who destroyed this temple and deported the people to Babylon.

¹³“However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild this house of God. ¹⁴He even removed from the temple^[13] of Babylon the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to the temple^[14] in Babylon. Then King Cyrus gave them to a man named Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor, ¹⁵and he told him, ‘Take these articles and go and deposit them in the temple in Jerusalem. And rebuild the house of God on its site.’

¹⁶“So this Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem. From that day to the present it has been under construction but is not yet finished.”

¹⁷Now if it pleases the king, let a search be made in the royal archives of Babylon to see if King Cyrus did in fact issue a decree to rebuild this house of God in Jerusalem. Then let the king send us his decision in this matter.

Ezra 6

THE DECREE OF DARIUS

¹King Darius then issued an order, and they searched in the archives stored in the treasury at Babylon. ²A scroll was found in the citadel of Ecbatana in the province of Media, and this was written on it:

Memorandum:

³In the first year of King Cyrus, the king issued a decree concerning the temple of God in Jerusalem: Let the temple be rebuilt as a place to present sacrifices, and let its foundations be laid. It is to be sixty cubits^[15] high and sixty cubits wide, ⁴with three courses of large stones and one of timbers. The costs are to be paid by the royal treasury. ⁵Also, the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, are to be returned to their places in the temple in Jerusalem; they are to be deposited in the house of God.

⁶Now then, Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and you other officials of that province, stay away from there. ⁷Do not interfere with the work on this temple of God. Let the governor of the Jews and the Jewish elders rebuild this house of God on its site.

⁸Moreover, I hereby decree what you are to do for these elders of the Jews in the construction of this house of God: Their expenses are to be fully paid out of the royal treasury, from the revenues of Trans-Euphrates, so that the work will not stop. ⁹Whatever is needed—young bulls, rams, male lambs for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, and wheat, salt, wine and olive oil, as requested by the priests in Jerusalem—must be given them daily without fail, ¹⁰so that they may offer sacrifices pleasing to the God of heaven and pray for the well-being of the king and his sons.

¹¹Furthermore, I decree that if anyone defies this edict, a beam is to be pulled from their house and they are to be impaled on it. And for this crime their house is to be made a pile of rubble. ¹²May God, who has caused his Name to dwell there, overthrow any king or people who lifts a hand to change this decree or to destroy this temple in Jerusalem.

I Darius have decreed it. Let it be carried out with diligence.

COMPLETION AND DEDICATION OF THE TEMPLE

¹³Then, because of the decree King Darius had sent, Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates carried it out with diligence. ¹⁴So the elders of the Jews continued to build and prosper under the preaching of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah, a descendant of Iddo. They finished building the temple according to the command of the God of Israel and the decrees of Cyrus, Darius and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia. ¹⁵The temple was completed on the third day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

¹⁶Then the people of Israel—the priests, the Levites and the rest of the exiles—celebrated the dedication of the house of God with joy. ¹⁷For the dedication of this house of God they offered a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred male lambs and, as a sin offering^[16] for all Israel, twelve male goats, one for each of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁸And they installed the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their groups for the service of God at Jerusalem, according to what is written in the Book of Moses.

THE PASSOVER

¹⁹On the fourteenth day of the first month, the exiles celebrated the Passover.

²⁰The priests and Levites had purified themselves and were all ceremonially clean. The Levites slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, for their relatives the priests and for themselves. ²¹So the Israelites who had returned from the exile ate it, together with all who had separated themselves from the unclean practices of their Gentile neighbors in order to seek the LORD, the God of Israel. ²²For seven days they celebrated with joy the Festival of Unleavened Bread, because the LORD had filled them with joy by changing the attitude of the king of Assyria so that he assisted them in the work on the house of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra 7

EZRA COMES TO JERUSALEM

¹After these things, during the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, ²the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, ³the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, ⁴the son of Zerariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, ⁵the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest— ⁶this Ezra came up from Babylon. He was a teacher well versed in the Law of Moses, which the LORD, the God of Israel, had given. The king had granted him everything he asked, for the hand of the LORD his God was on him. ⁷Some of the Israelites, including priests, Levites, musicians, gatekeepers and temple servants, also came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

⁸Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king. ⁹He had begun his journey from Babylon on the first day of the first month, and he arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month, for the gracious hand of his God was on him. ¹⁰For Ezra had devoted himself to the study and observance of the Law of the LORD, and to teaching its decrees and laws in Israel.

KING ARTAXERXES' LETTER TO EZRA

¹¹This is a copy of the letter King Artaxerxes had given to Ezra the priest, a teacher of the Law, a man learned in matters concerning the commands and decrees of the LORD for Israel:

¹²Artaxerxes, king of kings,
To Ezra the priest, teacher of the Law of the God of heaven:
Greetings.

¹³Now I decree that any of the Israelites in my kingdom, including priests and Levites, who volunteer to go to Jerusalem with you, may go. ¹⁴You are sent by the king and his seven advisers to inquire about Judah and Jerusalem with regard to the Law of your God, which is in your hand. ¹⁵Moreover, you are to take with you the silver and gold that the king and his advisers have freely given to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem, ¹⁶together with all the silver and gold you may obtain from the province of Babylon, as well as the freewill offerings of the people and priests for the temple of their God in Jerusalem. ¹⁷With this money be sure to buy bulls, rams and male lambs, together with their grain offerings and drink offerings, and sacrifice them on the altar of the temple of your God in Jerusalem.

¹⁸You and your fellow Israelites may then do whatever seems best with the rest of the silver and gold, in accordance with the will of your God. ¹⁹Deliver to the God of Jerusalem all the articles entrusted to you for worship in the temple of your God. ²⁰And anything else needed for the temple of your God that you are responsible to supply, you may provide from the royal treasury.

²⁵And you, Ezra, in accordance with the wisdom of your God, which you possess, appoint magistrates and judges to administer justice to all the people of Trans-Euphrates—all who know the laws of your God. And you are to teach any who do not know them. ²⁶Whoever does not obey the law of your God and the law of the king must surely be punished by death, banishment, confiscation of property, or imprisonment.^[21]

²⁷Praise be to the LORD, the God of our ancestors, who has put it into the king's heart to bring honor to the house of the LORD in Jerusalem in this way ²⁸and who has extended his good favor to me before the king and his advisers and all the king's powerful officials. Because the hand of the LORD my God was on me, I took courage and gathered leaders from Israel to go up with me.

Ezra 8

LIST OF THE FAMILY HEADS RETURNING WITH EZRA

¹These are the family heads and those registered with them who came up with me from Babylon during the reign of King Artaxerxes:

²of the descendants of Phinehas, Gershom;

of the descendants of Ithamar, Daniel;

of the descendants of David, Hattush ³of the descendants of Shekaniah; of the descendants of Parosh, Zechariah, and with him were registered 150 men;

⁴of the descendants of Pahath-Moab, Eliehoenai son of Zerahiah, and with him 200 men; ⁵of the descendants of Zattu, ^[22] Shekaniah son of Jahaziel, and with him 300 men; ⁶of the descendants of Adin, Ebed son of Jonathan, and with him 50 men; ⁷of the descendants of Elam, Jeshaiiah son of

Athaliah, and with him 70 men; ⁸of the descendants of Shephatiah, Zebadiah son of Michael, and with him 80 men; ⁹of the descendants of

Joab, Obadiah son of Jehiel, and with him 218 men; ¹⁰of the descendants of Bani, ^[23] Shelomith son of Josiphiah, and with him 160 men; ¹¹of the descendants of Bebai, Zechariah son of Bebai, and with him 28 men; ¹²of the descendants of Azgad, Johanan son of Hakkatan, and with him 110 men; ¹³of the descendants of Adonikam, the last ones, whose names were Eliphelet, Jeuel and Shemaiah, and with them 60 men; ¹⁴of the descendants of Bigvai, Uthai and Zakkur, and with them 70 men.

THE RETURN TO JERUSALEM

¹⁵I assembled them at the canal that flows toward Ahava, and we camped there three days. When I checked among the people and the priests, I found no Levites there. ¹⁶So I summoned Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah and Meshullam, who were leaders, and Joiarib and Elnathan, who were men of learning, ¹⁷and I ordered them to go to Iddo, the leader in Kasiphia. I told them what to say to Iddo and his fellow Levites, the temple servants in Kasiphia, so that they might bring attendants to us for the house of our God. ¹⁸Because the gracious hand of our God was on us, they brought us Sherebiah, a capable man, from the descendants of Mahli son of Levi, the son of Israel, and Sherebiah's sons and brothers, 18 in all; ¹⁹and Hashabiah, together with Jeshaiah from the descendants of Merari, and his brothers and nephews, 20 in all. ²⁰They also brought 220 of the temple servants—a body that David and the officials had established to assist the Levites. All were registered by name.

²¹There, by the Ahava Canal, I proclaimed a fast, so that we might humble ourselves before our God and ask him for a safe journey for us and our children, with all our possessions. ²²I was ashamed to ask the king for soldiers and horsemen to protect us from enemies on the road, because we had told the king, “The gracious hand of our God is on everyone who looks to him, but his great anger is against all who forsake him.” ²³So we fasted and petitioned our God about this, and he answered our prayer.

²⁴Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests, namely, Sherebiah, Hashabiah and ten of their brothers, ²⁵and I weighed out to them the offering of silver and gold and the articles that the king, his advisers, his officials and all Israel present there had donated for the house of our God. ²⁶I weighed out to them 650 talents^[24] of silver, silver articles weighing 100 talents,^[25] 100 talents^[26] of gold, ²⁷20 bowls of gold valued at 1,000 darics,^[27] and two fine articles of polished bronze, as precious as gold.

²⁸I said to them, “You as well as these articles are consecrated to the LORD. The silver and gold are a freewill offering to the LORD, the God of your ancestors. ²⁹Guard them carefully until you weigh them out in the chambers of the house of the LORD in Jerusalem before the leading priests and the Levites and the family heads of Israel.” ³⁰Then the priests and Levites received the silver and gold and sacred articles that had been weighed out to be taken to the house of our God in Jerusalem.

³¹On the twelfth day of the first month we set out from the Ahava Canal to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was on us, and he protected us from enemies and bandits along the way. ³²So we arrived in Jerusalem, where we rested three days.

³³On the fourth day, in the house of our God, we weighed out the silver and gold and the sacred articles into the hands of Meremoth son of Uriah, the priest. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with him, and so were the Levites Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui. ³⁴Everything was accounted for by number and weight, and the entire weight was recorded at that time.

³⁵Then the exiles who had returned from captivity sacrificed burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven male lambs and, as a sin offering,^[28] twelve male goats. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD. ³⁶They also delivered the king’s orders to the royal satraps and to the governors of Trans-Euphrates, who then gave assistance to the people and to the house of God.

Ezra 9

EZRA'S PRAYER ABOUT INTERMARRIAGE

¹After these things had been done, the leaders came to me and said, “The people of Israel, including the priests and the Levites, have not kept themselves separate from the neighboring peoples with their detestable practices, like those of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians and Amorites. ²They have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons, and have mingled the holy race with the peoples around them. And the leaders and officials have led the way in this unfaithfulness.”

³When I heard this, I tore my tunic and cloak, pulled hair from my head and beard and sat down appalled. ⁴Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel gathered around me because of this unfaithfulness of the exiles. And I sat there appalled until the evening sacrifice.

⁵Then, at the evening sacrifice, I rose from my self-abasement, with my tunic and cloak torn, and fell on my knees with my hands spread out to the LORD my God ⁶and prayed:

“I am too ashamed and disgraced, my God, to lift up my face to you, because our sins are higher than our heads and our guilt has reached to the heavens. ⁷From the days of our ancestors until now, our guilt has been great. Because of our sins, we and our kings and our priests have been subjected to the sword and captivity, to pillage and humiliation at the hand of foreign kings, as it is today.

⁸“But now, for a brief moment, the LORD our God has been gracious in leaving us a remnant and giving us a firm place^[29] in his sanctuary, and so our God gives light to our eyes and a little relief in our bondage. ⁹Though we are slaves, our God has not forsaken us in our bondage. He has shown us kindness in the sight of the kings of Persia: He has granted us new life to rebuild the house of our God and repair its ruins, and he has given us a wall of protection in Judah and Jerusalem.

¹⁰“But now, our God, what can we say after this? For we have forsaken the commands ¹¹you gave through your servants the prophets when you said: ‘The land you are entering to possess is a land polluted by the corruption of its peoples. By their detestable practices they have filled it with their impurity from one end to the other. ¹²Therefore, do not give your daughters in marriage to their sons or take their daughters for your sons. Do not seek a treaty of friendship with them at any time, that you may be strong and eat the good things of the land and leave it to your children as an everlasting inheritance.’

¹³“What has happened to us is a result of our evil deeds and our great guilt, and yet, our God, you have punished us less than our sins deserved and have given us a remnant like this. ¹⁴Shall we then break your commands again and intermarry with the peoples who commit such detestable practices? Would you not be angry enough with us to destroy us, leaving us no remnant or survivor? ¹⁵LORD, the God of Israel, you are righteous! We are left this day as a remnant. Here we are before you in our guilt, though because of it not one of us can stand in your presence.”

ROCK SOLID principles

Ezra 9:1–15

Pick a Christian spouse.

Grant never went to church until his best soccer friend invited him. When Grant started getting interested in girls, his parents said he could date anyone he wanted and they weren’t going to lay down any rules. But Grant had heard at church that he should only go out with girls who were authentic followers of Christ. So now Grant faced a choice. He could chase whatever girl he wanted and do whatever he thought was fun, or he could deliberately limit his options to girls who also wanted to trust in God and stay pure. No one was going to make up his mind for him. Grant had to choose.

God gave strict instructions to his people when they entered the promised land: Don’t marry the people living in the land, because pagan spouses would lead people away from the one true God (see Judges 3:1–6). By the time of Ezra, an enormous sin had to be undone. The Lord has the same expectation today—that you pick a spouse devoted to him (see 1 Corinthians 6:14–17).

Ezra 10

THE PEOPLE'S CONFESSION OF SIN

¹While Ezra was praying and confessing, weeping and throwing himself down before the house of God, a large crowd of Israelites—men, women and children—gathered around him. They too wept bitterly. ²Then Shekariah son of Jehiel, one of the descendants of Elam, said to Ezra, “We have been unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women from the peoples around us. But in spite of this, there is still hope for Israel. ³Now let us make a covenant before our God to send away all these women and their children, in accordance with the counsel of my lord and of those who fear the commands of our God. Let it be done according to the Law. ⁴Rise up; this matter is in your hands. We will support you, so take courage and do it.”

⁵So Ezra rose up and put the leading priests and Levites and all Israel under oath to do what had been suggested. And they took the oath. ⁶Then Ezra withdrew from before the house of God and went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. While he was there, he ate no food and drank no water, because he continued to mourn over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

⁷A proclamation was then issued throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the exiles to assemble in Jerusalem. ⁸Anyone who failed to appear within three days would forfeit all his property, in accordance with the decision of the officials and elders, and would himself be expelled from the assembly of the exiles.

⁹Within the three days, all the men of Judah and Benjamin had gathered in Jerusalem. And on the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the people were sitting in the square before the house of God, greatly distressed by the occasion and because of the rain. ¹⁰Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have been unfaithful; you have married foreign women, adding to Israel’s guilt. ¹¹Now honor^[30] the LORD, the God of your ancestors, and do his will. Separate yourselves from the peoples around you and from your foreign wives.”

or two, because we have sinned greatly in this thing. ¹⁴Let our officials act for the whole assembly. Then let everyone in our towns who has married a foreign woman come at a set time, along with the elders and judges of each town, until the fierce anger of our God in this matter is turned away from us.” ¹⁵Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah, supported by Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite, opposed this.

¹⁶So the exiles did as was proposed. Ezra the priest selected men who were family heads, one from each family division, and all of them designated by name. On the first day of the tenth month they sat down to investigate the cases, ¹⁷and by the first day of the first month they finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign women.

THOSE GUILTY OF INTERMARRIAGE

¹⁸Among the descendants of the priests, the following had married foreign women: From the descendants of Joshua son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib and Gedaliah. ¹⁹(They all gave their hands in pledge to put away their wives, and for their guilt they each presented a ram from the flock as a guilt offering.) ²⁰From the descendants of Immer:

Nehemiah's plans

(11:1–13:31)

The book of Nehemiah continues the history of the Jews who returned from exile in Babylon. Nehemiah gave up his job as cupbearer to Artaxerxes, the Persian king, to become governor of Jerusalem. Nehemiah went to Jerusalem in 444 BC., almost 100 years after the return of the first exiles. Nehemiah led the people in repairing the walls of Jerusalem and with Ezra provided leadership for the people. An important part of this book is the description of the importance of prayer to Nehemiah.

Nehemiah

Nehemiah 1

NEHEMIAH'S PRAYER

¹The words of Nehemiah son of Hakaliah:

In the month of Kislev in the twentieth year, while I was in the citadel of Susa, ²Hanani, one of my brothers, came from Judah with some other men, and I questioned them about the Jewish remnant that had survived the exile, and also about Jerusalem.

³They said to me, "Those who survived the exile and are back in the province are in great trouble and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire."

⁴When I heard these things, I sat down and wept. For some days I mourned and fasted and prayed before the God of heaven. ⁵Then I said:

"LORD, the God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps his covenant of love with those who love him and keep his commandments, ⁶let your ear be attentive and your eyes open to hear the prayer your servant is praying before you day and night for your servants, the people of Israel. I confess the sins we Israelites, including myself and my father's family, have committed against you. ⁷We have acted very wickedly toward you. We have not obeyed the commands, decrees and laws you gave your servant Moses.

⁸"Remember the instruction you gave your servant Moses, saying, 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the nations, ⁹but if you return to me and obey my commands, then even if your exiled people are at the farthest horizon, I will gather them from there and bring them to the place I have chosen as a dwelling for my Name.'

¹⁰"They are your servants and your people, whom you redeemed by your great strength and your mighty hand. ¹¹Lord, let your ear be attentive to the prayer of this your servant and to the prayer of your servants who delight in revering your name. Give your servant success today by granting him favor in the presence of this man.”

I was cupbearer to the king.

Nehemiah 2

ARTAXERXES SENDS NEHEMIAH TO JERUSALEM

¹In the month of Nisan in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was brought for him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. I had not been sad in his presence before, ²so the king asked me, “Why does your face look so sad when you are not ill? This can be nothing but sadness of heart.”

I was very much afraid, ³but I said to the king, “May the king live forever! Why should my face not look sad when the city where my ancestors are buried lies in ruins, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?”

⁴The king said to me, “What is it you want?”

Then I prayed to the God of heaven, ⁵and I answered the king, “If it pleases the king and if your servant has found favor in his sight, let him send me to the city in Judah where my ancestors are buried so that I can rebuild it.”

⁶Then the king, with the queen sitting beside him, asked me, “How long will your journey take, and when will you get back?” It pleased the king to send me; so I set a time.

⁷I also said to him, “If it pleases the king, may I have letters to the governors of Trans-Euphrates, so that they will provide me safe-conduct until I arrive in Judah? ⁸And may I have a letter to Asaph, keeper of the royal park, so he will give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel by the temple and for the city wall and for the residence I will occupy?” And because the gracious hand of my God was on me, the king granted my requests. ⁹So I went to the governors of Trans-Euphrates and gave them the king’s letters. The king had also sent army officers and cavalry with me.

¹⁰When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard about this, they were very much disturbed that someone had come to promote the welfare of the Israelites.

NEHEMIAH INSPECTS JERUSALEM’S WALLS

¹¹I went to Jerusalem, and after staying there three days ¹²I set out during the night with a few others. I had not told anyone what my God had put in my heart to do for Jerusalem. There were no mounts with me except the one I was riding on.

¹³By night I went out through the Valley Gate toward the Jackal^[1] Well and the Dung Gate, examining the walls of Jerusalem, which had been broken down, and its gates, which had been destroyed by fire. ¹⁴Then I moved on toward the Fountain Gate and the King's Pool, but there was not enough room for my mount to get through; ¹⁵so I went up the valley by night, examining the wall. Finally, I turned back and reentered through the Valley Gate. ¹⁶The officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing, because as yet I had said nothing to the Jews or the priests or nobles or officials or any others who would be doing the work.

¹⁷Then I said to them, "You see the trouble we are in: Jerusalem lies in ruins, and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, and we will no longer be in disgrace." ¹⁸I also told them about the gracious hand of my God on me and what the king had said to me.

They replied, "Let us start rebuilding." So they began this good work.

¹⁹But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they mocked and ridiculed us. "What is this you are doing?" they asked. "Are you rebelling against the king?"

²⁰I answered them by saying, "The God of heaven will give us success. We his servants will start rebuilding, but as for you, you have no share in Jerusalem or any claim or historic right to it."

"The God of heaven will give us success."

BUILDERS OF THE WALL

¹Eliashib the high priest and his fellow priests went to work and rebuilt the Sheep Gate. They dedicated it and set its doors in place, building as far as the Tower of the Hundred, which they dedicated, and as far as the Tower of Hananel. ²The men of Jericho built the adjoining section, and Zakkur son of Imri built next to them.

³The Fish Gate was rebuilt by the sons of Hassenaah. They laid its beams and put its doors and bolts and bars in place. ⁴Meremoth son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, repaired the next section. Next to him Meshullam son of Berekiah, the son of Meshezabel, made repairs, and next to him Zadok son of Baana also made repairs. ⁵The next section was repaired by the men of Tekoa, but their nobles would not put their shoulders to the work under their supervisors. ^[2]

⁶The Jeshanah^[3] Gate was repaired by Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah. They laid its beams and put its doors with their bolts and bars in place. ⁷Next to them, repairs were made by men from Gibeon and Mizpah—Melatiah of Gibeon and Jadon of Meronoth—places under the authority of the governor of Trans-Euphrates. ⁸Uzziel son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, repaired the next section; and Hananiah, one of the perfume-makers, made repairs next to that. They restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall. ⁹Rephaiah son of Hur, ruler of a half-district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section. ¹⁰Adjoining this, Jedaiah son of Harumaph made repairs opposite his house, and Hattush son of Hashabneiah made repairs next to him. ¹¹Malkijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section and the Tower of the Ovens. ¹²Shallum son of Hallohesh, ruler of a half-district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section with the help of his daughters.

¹³The Valley Gate was repaired by Hanun and the residents of Zanoah. They rebuilt it and put its doors with their bolts and bars in place. They also repaired a thousand cubits^[4] of the wall as far as the Dung Gate.

¹⁴The Dung Gate was repaired by Malkijah son of Rekab, ruler of the district of Beth Hakkerem. He rebuilt it and put its doors with their bolts and bars in place.

¹⁵The Fountain Gate was repaired by Shallun son of Kol-Hozeh, ruler of the district of Mizpah. He rebuilt it, roofing it over and putting its doors and bolts and bars in place. He also repaired the wall of the Pool of Siloam,^[5] by the King's Garden, as far as the steps going down from the City of David. ¹⁶Beyond him, Nehemiah son of Azbuk, ruler of a half-district of Beth Zur, made repairs up to a point opposite the tombs^[6] of David, as far as the artificial pool and the House of the Heroes.

²²The repairs next to him were made by the priests from the surrounding region. ²³Beyond them, Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs in front of their house; and next to them, Azariah son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, made repairs beside his house. ²⁴Next to him, Binnui son of Henadad repaired another section, from Azariah's house to the angle and the corner, ²⁵and Palal son of Uzai worked opposite the angle and the tower projecting from the upper palace near the court of the guard. Next to him, Pedaiah son of Parosh ²⁶and the temple servants living on the hill of Ophel made repairs up to a point opposite the Water Gate toward the east and the projecting tower. ²⁷Next to them, the men of Tekoa repaired another section, from the great projecting tower to the wall of Ophel.

²⁸Above the Horse Gate, the priests made repairs, each in front of his own house. ²⁹Next to them, Zadok son of Immer made repairs opposite his house. Next to him, Shemaiah son of Shekemiah, the guard at the East Gate, made repairs. ³⁰Next to him, Hananiah son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. Next to them, Meshullam son of Berekiah made repairs opposite his living quarters. ³¹Next to him, Malkijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs as far as the house of the temple servants and the merchants, opposite the Inspection Gate, and as far as the room above the corner; ³²and between the room above the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and merchants made repairs.

Nehemiah 4^[8]

¹When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry and was greatly incensed. He ridiculed the Jews, ²and in the presence of his associates and the army of Samaria, he said, “What are those feeble Jews doing? Will they restore their wall? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish in a day? Can they bring the stones back to life from those heaps of rubble—burned as they are?”

³Tobiah the Ammonite, who was at his side, said, “What they are building—even a fox climbing up on it would break down their wall of stones!”

⁴Hear us, our God, for we are despised. Turn their insults back on their own heads. Give them over as plunder in a land of captivity. ⁵Do not cover up their guilt or blot out their sins from your sight, for they have thrown insults in the face of^[9] the builders.

⁶So we rebuilt the wall till all of it reached half its height, for the people worked with all their heart.

⁷But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites and the people of Ashdod heard that the repairs to Jerusalem’s walls had gone ahead and that the gaps were being closed, they were very angry. ⁸They all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and stir up trouble against it. ⁹But we prayed to our God and posted a guard day and night to meet this threat.

¹⁰Meanwhile, the people in Judah said, “The strength of the laborers is giving out, and there is so much rubble that we cannot rebuild the wall.”

¹¹Also our enemies said, “Before they know it or see us, we will be right there among them and will kill them and put an end to the work.”

¹²Then the Jews who lived near them came and told us ten times over, “Wherever you turn, they will attack us.”

¹³Therefore I stationed some of the people behind the lowest points of the wall at the exposed places, posting them by families, with their swords, spears and bows. ¹⁴After I looked things over, I stood up and said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, “Don’t be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your families, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes.”

¹⁵When our enemies heard that we were aware of their plot and that God had frustrated it, we all returned to the wall, each to our own work.

¹⁶From that day on, half of my men did the work, while the other half were equipped with spears, shields, bows and armor. The officers posted themselves behind all the people of Judah ¹⁷who were building the wall. Those who carried materials did their work with one hand and held a weapon in the other, ¹⁸and each of the builders wore his sword at his side as he worked. But the man who sounded the trumpet stayed with me.

¹⁹Then I said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, “The work is extensive and spread out, and we are widely separated from each other along the wall. ²⁰Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, join us there. Our God will fight for us!”

²¹So we continued the work with half the men holding spears, from the first light of dawn till the stars came out. ²²At that time I also said to the people, “Have every man and his helper stay inside Jerusalem at night, so they can serve us as guards by night and as workers by day.” ²³Neither I nor my brothers nor my men nor the guards with me took off our clothes; each had his weapon, even when he went for water. ^[10]

Work hard.

“Breeann is in bed,” Jen told Mrs. Taylor when she called to check in. “She went to sleep a couple hours ago.” Jen loved her job as a babysitter. Wherever she went she had a standard routine. She played one board game, sat the kids in front of a stack of movies while she went online or chatted with friends, then put the children to bed as early as possible. Tonight when the Taylors returned home and checked on Breeann, her mom came back in a huff. “Jen, Breeann had a nosebleed. Her pillow is covered with blood,” Mrs. Taylor said. “She always wakes up when that happens. She must have cried herself back to sleep. Why didn't you hear her? What were you doing?"

Nehemiah was brokenhearted at the thought of the crumbled wall around Jerusalem, a city unprotected from its enemies (see Nehemiah 1:3–4). But the wall was rebuilt as the people “worked with all their heart” (Nehemiah 4:6). They accomplished the task “with the help of our God” (Nehemiah 6:16). Hard work done in God’s power is always a plan for success.

Nehemiah 5

NEHEMIAH HELPS THE POOR

¹Now the men and their wives raised a great outcry against their fellow Jews.

²Some were saying, “We and our sons and daughters are numerous; in order for us to eat and stay alive, we must get grain.”

³Others were saying, “We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards and our homes to get grain during the famine.”

⁴Still others were saying, “We have had to borrow money to pay the king’s tax on our fields and vineyards. ⁵Although we are of the same flesh and blood as our fellow Jews and though our children are as good as theirs, yet we have to subject our sons and daughters to slavery. Some of our daughters have already been enslaved, but we are powerless, because our fields and our vineyards belong to others.”

⁶When I heard their outcry and these charges, I was very angry. ⁷I pondered them in my mind and then accused the nobles and officials. I told them, “You are charging your own people interest!” So I called together a large meeting to deal with them ⁸and said: “As far as possible, we have bought back our fellow Jews who were sold to the Gentiles. Now you are selling your own people, only for them to be sold back to us!” They kept quiet, because they could find nothing to say.

⁹So I continued, “What you are doing is not right. Shouldn’t you walk in the fear of our God to avoid the reproach of our Gentile enemies? ¹⁰I and my brothers and my men are also lending the people money and grain. But let us stop charging interest! ¹¹Give back to them immediately their fields, vineyards, olive groves and houses, and also the interest you are charging them—one percent of the money, grain, new wine and olive oil.”

¹²“We will give it back,” they said. “And we will not demand anything more from them. We will do as you say.”

Then I summoned the priests and made the nobles and officials take an oath to do what they had promised. ¹³I also shook out the folds of my robe and said, “In this way may God shake out of their house and possessions anyone who does not keep this promise. So may such a person be shaken out and emptied!”

At this the whole assembly said, “Amen,” and praised the LORD. And the people did as they had promised.

¹⁴Moreover, from the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, until his thirty-second year—twelve years—neither I nor my brothers ate the food allotted to the governor.

¹⁵But the earlier governors—those preceding me—placed a heavy burden on the people and took forty shekels^[11] of silver from them in addition to food and wine. Their assistants also lorded it over the people. But out of reverence for God I did not act like that. ¹⁶Instead, I devoted myself to the work on this wall. All my men were assembled there for the work; we^[12] did not acquire any land.

¹⁷Furthermore, a hundred and fifty Jews and officials ate at my table, as well as those who came to us from the surrounding nations. ¹⁸Each day one ox, six choice sheep and some poultry were prepared for me, and every ten days an abundant supply of wine of all kinds. In spite of all this, I never demanded the food allotted to the governor, because the demands were heavy on these people.

¹⁹Remember me with favor, my God, for all I have done for these people.

Nehemiah 6

FURTHER OPPOSITION TO THE REBUILDING

¹When word came to Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab and the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall and not a gap was left in it—though up to that time I had not set the doors in the gates—²Sanballat and Geshem sent me this message: “Come, let us meet together in one of the villages^[13] on the plain of Ono.”

But they were scheming to harm me; ³so I sent messengers to them with this reply: “I am carrying on a great project and cannot go down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and go down to you?” ⁴Four times they sent me the same message, and each time I gave them the same answer.

⁵Then, the fifth time, Sanballat sent his aide to me with the same message, and in his hand was an unsealed letter ⁶in which was written:

“It is reported among the nations—and Geshem^[14] says it is true—that you and the Jews are plotting to revolt, and therefore you are building the wall. Moreover, according to these reports you are about to become their king ⁷and have even appointed prophets to make this proclamation about you in Jerusalem: ‘There is a king in Judah!’ Now this report will get back to the king; so come, let us meet together.”

⁸I sent him this reply: “Nothing like what you are saying is happening; you are just making it up out of your head.”

⁹They were all trying to frighten us, thinking, “Their hands will get too weak for the work, and it will not be completed.”

But I prayed, “Now strengthen my hands.”

¹⁰One day I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was shut in at his home. He said, “Let us meet in the house of God, inside the temple, and let us close the temple doors, because men are coming to kill you—by night they are coming to kill you.”

¹¹But I said, “Should a man like me run away? Or should someone like me go into the temple to save his life? I will not go!” ¹²I realized that God had not sent him, but that he had prophesied against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. ¹³He had been hired to intimidate me so that I would commit a sin by doing this, and then they would give me a bad name to discredit me.

¹⁴Remember Tobiah and Sanballat, my God, because of what they have done; remember also the prophet Noadiah and how she and the rest of the prophets have been trying to intimidate me. ¹⁵So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth of Elul, in fifty-two days.

OPPOSITION TO THE COMPLETED WALL

¹⁶When all our enemies heard about this, all the surrounding nations were afraid and lost their self-confidence, because they realized that this work had been done with the help of our God.

"This work had been done with the help of our God."

Nehemiah 6:16

God gets the credit for everything you accomplish, no matter whether the job felt easy or hard.

\(Rock Solid PROMISES Index\)

¹⁷Also, in those days the nobles of Judah were sending many letters to Tobiah, and replies from Tobiah kept coming to them. ¹⁸For many in Judah were under oath to him, since he was son-in-law to Shekariah son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berekiah. ¹⁹Moreover, they kept reporting to me his good deeds and then telling him what I said. And Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me.

Nehemiah 7

¹After the wall had been rebuilt and I had set the doors in place, the gatekeepers, the musicians and the Levites were appointed. ²I put in charge of Jerusalem my brother Hanani, along with Hananiah the commander of the citadel, because he was a man of integrity and feared God more than most people do. ³I said to them, “The gates of Jerusalem are not to be opened until the sun is hot. While the gatekeepers are still on duty, have them shut the doors and bar them. Also appoint residents of Jerusalem as guards, some at their posts and some near their own houses.”

THE LIST OF THE EXILES WHO RETURNED

⁴Now the city was large and spacious, but there were few people in it, and the houses had not yet been rebuilt. ⁵So my God put it into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials and the common people for registration by families. I found the genealogical record of those who had been the first to return. This is what I found written there:

⁶⁴These searched for their family records, but they could not find them and so were excluded from the priesthood as unclean. ⁶⁵The governor, therefore, ordered them not to eat any of the most sacred food until there should be a priest ministering with the Urim and Thummim.

⁶⁶The whole company numbered 42,360, ⁶⁷besides their 7,337 male and female slaves; and they also had 245 male and female singers. ⁶⁸There were 736 horses, 245 mules,

⁷⁰Some of the heads of the families contributed to the work. The governor gave to the treasury 1,000 darics^[16] of gold, 50 bowls and 530 garments for priests. ⁷¹Some of the heads of the families gave to the treasury for the work 20,000 darics^[17] of gold and 2,200 minas^[18] of silver. ⁷²The total given by the rest of the people was 20,000 darics of gold, 2,000 minas^[19] of silver and 67 garments for priests.

⁷³The priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the musicians and the temple servants, along with certain of the people and the rest of the Israelites, settled in their own towns.

EZRA READS THE LAW

When the seventh month came and the Israelites had settled in their towns,

Nehemiah 8

¹all the people came together as one in the square before the Water Gate. They told Ezra the teacher of the Law to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded for Israel.

²So on the first day of the seventh month Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly, which was made up of men and women and all who were able to understand. ³He read it aloud from daybreak till noon as he faced the square before the Water Gate in the presence of the men, women and others who could understand. And all the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.

⁴Ezra the teacher of the Law stood on a high wooden platform built for the occasion. Beside him on his right stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah and Maaseiah; and on his left were Pedaiah, Mishael, Malkijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah and Meshullam.

⁵Ezra opened the book. All the people could see him because he was standing above them; and as he opened it, the people all stood up. ⁶Ezra praised the LORD, the great God; and all the people lifted their hands and responded, “Amen! Amen!” Then they bowed down and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

⁷The Levites—Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan and Pelaiah—instructed the people in the Law while the people were standing there. ⁸They read from the Book of the Law of God, making it clear^[20] and giving the meaning so that the people understood what was being read.

⁹Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and teacher of the Law, and the Levites who were instructing the people said to them all, “This day is holy to the LORD your God. Do not mourn or weep.” For all the people had been weeping as they listened to the words of the Law.

¹⁰Nehemiah said, “Go and enjoy choice food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing prepared. This day is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.”

¹¹The Levites calmed all the people, saying, “Be still, for this is a holy day.

Do not grieve.”

¹²Then all the people went away to eat and drink, to send portions of food and to celebrate with great joy, because they now understood the words that had been made known to them.

¹³On the second day of the month, the heads of all the families, along with the priests and the Levites, gathered around Ezra the teacher to give attention to the words of the Law. ¹⁴They found written in the Law, which the LORD had commanded through Moses, that the Israelites were to live in temporary shelters during the festival of the seventh month ¹⁵and that they should proclaim this word and spread it throughout their towns and in Jerusalem: “Go out into the hill country and bring back branches from olive and wild olive trees, and from myrtles, palms and shade trees, to make temporary shelters”—as it is written.^[21]

¹⁶So the people went out and brought back branches and built themselves temporary shelters on their own roofs, in their courtyards, in the courts of the house of God and in the square by the Water Gate and the one by the Gate of Ephraim. ¹⁷The whole company that had returned from exile built temporary shelters and lived in them. From the days of Joshua son of Nun until that day, the Israelites had not celebrated it like this. And their joy was very great.

¹⁸Day after day, from the first day to the last, Ezra read from the Book of the Law of God. They celebrated the festival for seven days, and on the eighth day, in accordance with the regulation, there was an assembly.

ROCK SOLID truths

Nehemiah 8:1–12

God’s Word is worth celebrating.

You likely haven’t been in a church service like this. Nehemiah and his fellow citizens had finished rebuilding the protective wall around Jerusalem. Some had settled back in their hometowns. But now everyone gathered to hear Ezra the priest read the Law. He read aloud “from daybreak till noon” (Nehemiah 8:3). Everyone lifted their hands and shouted “Amen!” They bowed face down in worship. Others also read from the Law, explaining its meaning so everyone could understand. As the crowds listened to God’s Word, they wept. They had fallen so short of God's standards they couldn't help being pierced to the heart. But the leaders told the people not to weep. They even told the crowds to go and celebrate with feasting, because they finally had a grasp of God's Word. And "the joy of the LORD" would be their strength (Nehemiah 8:10).

Think: When does reading the Bible make you sad?
When does it make you happy?

Nehemiah 9

THE ISRAELITES CONFESS THEIR SINS

¹On the twenty-fourth day of the same month, the Israelites gathered together, fasting and wearing sackcloth and putting dust on their heads. ²Those of Israelite descent had separated themselves from all foreigners. They stood in their places and confessed their sins and the sins of their ancestors. ³They stood where they were and read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for a quarter of the day, and spent another quarter in confession and in worshipping the LORD their God. ⁴Standing on the stairs of the Levites were Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani and Kenani. They cried out with loud voices to the LORD their God. ⁵And the Levites—Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah and Pethahiah—said: “Stand up and praise the LORD your God, who is from everlasting to everlasting.”^[22]

“Blessed be your glorious name, and may it be exalted above all blessing and praise. ⁶You alone are the LORD. You made the heavens, even the highest heavens, and all their starry host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them. You give life to everything, and the multitudes of heaven worship you.

⁷“You are the LORD God, who chose Abram and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans and named him Abraham. ⁸You found his heart faithful to you, and you made a covenant with him to give to his descendants the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Jebusites and Girgashites. You have kept your promise because you are righteous.

which remains to this day. ¹¹You divided the sea before them, so that they passed through it on dry ground, but you hurled their pursuers into the depths, like a stone into mighty waters. ¹²By day you led them with a pillar of cloud, and by night with a pillar of fire to give them light on the way they were to take.

¹³“You came down on Mount Sinai; you spoke to them from heaven. You gave them regulations and laws that are just and right, and decrees and commands that are good. ¹⁴You made known to them your holy Sabbath and gave them commands, decrees and laws through your servant Moses. ¹⁵In their hunger you gave them bread from heaven and in their thirst you brought them water from the rock; you told them to go in and take possession of the land you had sworn with uplifted hand to give them.

¹⁶“But they, our ancestors, became arrogant and stiff-necked, and they did not obey your commands. ¹⁷They refused to listen and failed to remember the miracles you performed among them. They became stiff-necked and in their rebellion appointed a leader in order to return to their slavery. But you are a forgiving God, gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love. Therefore you did not desert them, ¹⁸even when they cast for themselves an image of a calf and said, ‘This is your god, who brought you up out of Egypt,’ or when they committed awful blasphemies.

¹⁹“Because of your great compassion you did not abandon them in the wilderness. By day the pillar of cloud did not fail to guide them on their path, nor the pillar of fire by night to shine on the way they were to take. ²⁰You gave your good Spirit to instruct them. You did not withhold your manna from their mouths, and you gave them water for their thirst. ²¹For forty years you sustained them in the wilderness; they lacked nothing, their clothes did not wear out nor did their feet become swollen.

²²“You gave them kingdoms and nations, allotting to them even the remotest frontiers. They took over the country of Sihon^[24] king of Heshbon and the country of Og king of Bashan. ²³You made their children as numerous as the stars in the sky, and you brought them into the land that you told their parents to enter and possess. ²⁴Their children went in and took possession of the land. You subdued before them the Canaanites, who lived in the land; you gave the Canaanites into their hands, along with their kings and the peoples of the land, to deal with them as they pleased. ²⁵They captured fortified cities and fertile land; they took possession of houses filled with all kinds of good things, wells already dug, vineyards, olive groves and fruit trees in abundance. They ate to the full and were well-nourished; they reveled in your great goodness.

²⁶“But they were disobedient and rebelled against you; they turned their backs on your law. They killed your prophets, who had warned them in order to turn them back to you; they committed awful blasphemies. ²⁷So you delivered them into the hands of their enemies, who oppressed them. But when they were oppressed they cried out to you. From heaven you heard them, and in your great compassion you gave them deliverers, who rescued them from the hand of their enemies.

²⁸“But as soon as they were at rest, they again did what was evil in your sight. Then you abandoned them to the hand of their enemies so that they ruled over them. And when they cried out to you again, you heard from heaven, and in your compassion you delivered them time after time.

²⁹“You warned them in order to turn them back to your law, but they became arrogant and disobeyed your commands. They sinned against your ordinances, of which you said, ‘The person who obeys them will live by them.’ Stubbornly they turned their backs on you, became stiff-necked and refused to listen. ³⁰For many years you were patient with them. By your Spirit you warned them through your prophets. Yet they paid no attention, so you gave them into the hands of the neighboring peoples.

³¹But in your great mercy you did not put an end to them or abandon them, for you are a gracious and merciful God.

³²“Now therefore, our God, the great God, mighty and awesome, who keeps his covenant of love, do not let all this hardship seem trifling in your eyes—the hardship that has come on us, on our kings and leaders, on our priests and prophets, on our ancestors and all your people, from the days of the kings of Assyria until today. ³³In all that has happened to us, you have remained righteous; you have acted faithfully, while we acted wickedly. ³⁴Our kings, our leaders, our priests and our ancestors did not follow your law; they did not pay attention to your commands or the statutes you warned them to keep.

³⁵Even while they were in their kingdom, enjoying your great goodness to them in the spacious and fertile land you gave them, they did not serve you or turn from their evil ways.

³⁶“But see, we are slaves today, slaves in the land you gave our ancestors so they could eat its fruit and the other good things it produces. ³⁷Because of our sins, its abundant harvest goes to the kings you have placed over us. They rule over our bodies and our cattle as they please. We are in great distress.

THE AGREEMENT OF THE PEOPLE

³⁸“In view of all this, we are making a binding agreement, putting it in writing, and our leaders, our Levites and our priests are affixing their seals to it.”^[25]

Nehemiah 10^[26]

¹Those who sealed it were:

Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hakaliah.

Zedekiah, ²Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,

³Pashhur, Amariah, Malkijah,

⁴Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluk,

⁵Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,

⁶Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,

⁷Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,

⁸Maaziah, Bilgai and Shemaiah.

These were the priests.

⁹The Levites:

Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel, ¹⁰and their associates: Shebaniah,

Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,

¹¹Mika, Rehob, Hashabiah,

¹²Zakkur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

¹³Hodiah, Bani and Beninu.

¹⁴The leaders of the people:

Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,

¹⁵Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

¹⁶Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,

¹⁷Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur, ¹⁸Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai, ¹⁹Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, ²⁰Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, ²¹Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua, ²²Pelathiah, Hanan, Anaiah, ²³Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub, ²⁴Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek, ²⁵Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, ²⁶Ahiah, Hanan, Anan, ²⁷Malluk, Harim and Baanah.

³¹“When the neighboring peoples bring merchandise or grain to sell on the Sabbath, we will not buy from them on the Sabbath or on any holy day. Every seventh year we will forgo working the land and will cancel all debts.

³²“We assume the responsibility for carrying out the commands to give a third of a shekel^[27] each year for the service of the house of our God: ³³for the bread set out on the table; for the regular grain offerings and burnt offerings; for the offerings on the Sabbaths, at the New Moon feasts and at the appointed festivals; for the holy offerings; for sin offerings^[28] to make atonement for Israel; and for all the duties of the house of our God.

³⁴“We—the priests, the Levites and the people—have cast lots to determine when each of our families is to bring to the house of our God at set times each year a contribution of wood to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the Law.

³⁶“As it is also written in the Law, we will bring the firstborn of our sons and of our cattle, of our herds and of our flocks to the house of our God, to the priests ministering there.

³⁷“Moreover, we will bring to the storerooms of the house of our God, to the priests, the first of our ground meal, of our grain offerings, of the fruit of all our trees and of our new wine and olive oil. And we will bring a tithe of our crops to the Levites, for it is the Levites who collect the tithes in all the towns where we work. ³⁸A priest descended from Aaron is to accompany the Levites when they receive the tithes, and the Levites are to bring a tenth of the tithes up to the house of our God, to the storerooms of the treasury. ³⁹The people of Israel, including the Levites, are to bring their contributions of grain, new wine and olive oil to the storerooms, where the articles for the sanctuary and for the ministering priests, the gatekeepers and the musicians are also kept.

Nehemiah 11

THE NEW RESIDENTS OF JERUSALEM

¹Now the leaders of the people settled in Jerusalem. The rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of every ten of them to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while the remaining nine were to stay in their own towns. ²The people commended all who volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

³These are the provincial leaders who settled in Jerusalem (now some Israelites, priests, Levites, temple servants and descendants of Solomon's servants lived in the towns of Judah, each on their own property in the various towns, ⁴while other people from both Judah and Benjamin lived in Jerusalem): From the descendants of Judah:

Athaiah son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, a descendant of Perez; ⁵and Maaseiah son of Baruch, the son of Kol-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, a descendant of Shelah. ⁶The descendants of Perez who lived in Jerusalem totaled 468 men of standing.

⁷From the descendants of Benjamin:

Sallu son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah, ⁸and his followers, Gabbai and Sallai—928 men. ⁹Joel son of Zikri was their chief officer, and Judah son of Hassenuah was over the New Quarter of the city.

¹⁰From the priests:

Jedaiah; the son of Joiarib; Jakin; ¹¹Seraiah son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the official in charge of the house of God, ¹²and their associates, who carried on work for the temple—822 men; Adaiah son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malkijah, ¹³and his associates, who were heads of families—242 men; Amashsai son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, ¹⁴and his^[29] associates, who were men of standing—128. Their chief officer was Zabdiel son of Haggadolim.

¹⁵From the Levites:

Shemaiah son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; ¹⁶Shabbethai and Jozabad, two of the heads of the Levites, who had charge of the outside work of the house of God; ¹⁷Mattaniah son of Mika, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, the director who led in thanksgiving and prayer; Bakbukiah, second among his associates; and Abda son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. ¹⁸The Levites in the holy city totaled 284.

¹⁹The gatekeepers:

Akkub, Talmon and their associates, who kept watch at the gates—172 men.

²⁰The rest of the Israelites, with the priests and Levites, were in all the towns of Judah, each on their ancestral property.

²¹The temple servants lived on the hill of Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of them.

²²The chief officer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mika. Uzzi was one of Asaph's descendants, who were the musicians responsible for the service of the house of God. ²³The musicians were under the king's orders, which regulated their daily activity.

²⁴Pethahiah son of Meshezabel, one of the descendants of Zerah son of Judah, was the king's agent in all affairs relating to the people.

²⁵As for the villages with their fields, some of the people of Judah lived in Kiriath Arba and its surrounding settlements, in Dibon and its settlements, in Jekabzeel and its villages, ²⁶in Jeshua, in Moladah, in Beth Pelet, ²⁷in Hazar Shual, in Beersheba and its settlements, ²⁸in Ziklag, in Mekonah and its settlements, ²⁹in En Rimmon, in Zorah, in Jarmuth, ³⁰Zanoah, Adullam and their villages, in Lachish and its fields, and in Azekah and its settlements. So they were living all the way from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

³¹The descendants of the Benjamites from Geba lived in Mikmash, Aija, Bethel and its settlements, ³²in Anathoth, Nob and Ananiah, ³³in Hazor, Ramah and Gittaim, ³⁴in Hadid, Zeboim and Neballat, ³⁵in Lod and Ono, and in Ge Harashim.

³⁶Some of the divisions of the Levites of Judah settled in Benjamin.

PRIESTS AND LEVITES

¹These were the priests and Levites who returned with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and with Joshua:

Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

²Amariah, Malluk, Hattush,

³Shekaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

⁴Iddo, Ginnethon,^[30] Abijah, ⁵Mijamin,^[31] Moadiah, Bilgah, ⁶Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah, ⁷Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah and Jedaiah.

These were the leaders of the priests and their associates in the days of Joshua.

⁸The Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and also Mattaniah, who, together with his associates, was in charge of the songs of thanksgiving. ⁹Bakbukiah and Unni, their associates, stood opposite them in the services.

¹⁰Joshua was the father of Joiakim, Joiakim the father of Eliashib, Eliashib the father of Joiada, ¹¹Joiada the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan the father of Jaddua.

¹²In the days of Joiakim, these were the heads of the priestly families:

of Seraiah's family, Meraiah;

of Jeremiah's, Hananiah;

¹³of Ezra's, Meshullam;

of Amariah's, Jehohanan;

¹⁴of Malluk's, Jonathan;

of Shekaniah's,^[32] Joseph; ¹⁵of Harim's, Adna; of Meremoth's,^[33] Helkai; ¹⁶of Iddo's, Zechariah;

of Ginnethon's, Meshullam;

- ¹⁷of Abijah's, Zikri;
of Miniamin's and of Moadiah's, Piltai; ¹⁸of Bilgah's, Shammua; of Shemaiah's, Jehonathan; ¹⁹of Joiarib's, Mattenai; of Jedaiah's, Uzzi; ²⁰of Sallu's, Kallai;
of Amok's, Eber;
²¹of Hilkiah's, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah's, Nethanel.

²²The family heads of the Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan and Jaddua, as well as those of the priests, were recorded in the reign of Darius the Persian. ²³The family heads among the descendants of Levi up to the time of Johanan son of Eliashib were recorded in the book of the annals. ²⁴And the leaders of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Jeshua son of Kadmiel, and their associates, who stood opposite them to give praise and thanksgiving, one section responding to the other, as prescribed by David the man of God.

²⁵Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon and Akkub were gatekeepers who guarded the storerooms at the gates. ²⁶They served in the days of Joiakim son of Joshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and of Ezra the priest, the teacher of the Law.

Dedication of the Wall of Jerusalem

²⁷At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, the Levites were sought out from where they lived and were brought to Jerusalem to celebrate joyfully the dedication with songs of thanksgiving and with the music of cymbals, harps and lyres. ²⁸The musicians also were brought together from the region around Jerusalem—from the villages of the Netophathites, ²⁹from Beth Gilgal, and from the area of Geba and Azmaveth, for the musicians had built villages for themselves around Jerusalem. ³⁰When the priests and Levites had purified themselves ceremonially, they purified the people, the gates and the wall.

⁴⁴At that time men were appointed to be in charge of the storerooms for the contributions, firstfruits and tithes. From the fields around the towns they were to bring into the storerooms the portions required by the Law for the priests and the Levites, for Judah was pleased with the ministering priests and Levites. ⁴⁵They performed the service of their God and the service of purification, as did also the musicians and gatekeepers, according to the commands of David and his son Solomon. ⁴⁶For long ago, in the days of David and Asaph, there had been directors for the musicians and for the songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. ⁴⁷So in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all Israel contributed the daily portions for the musicians and the gatekeepers. They also set aside the portion for the other Levites, and the Levites set aside the portion for the descendants of Aaron.

Nehemiah 13

NEHEMIAH'S FINAL REFORMS

¹On that day the Book of Moses was read aloud in the hearing of the people and there it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever be admitted into the assembly of God, ²because they had not met the Israelites with food and water but had hired Balaam to call a curse down on them. (Our God, however, turned the curse into a blessing.) ³When the people heard this law, they excluded from Israel all who were of foreign descent.

⁴Before this, Eliashib the priest had been put in charge of the storerooms of the house of our God. He was closely associated with Tobiah, ⁵and he had provided him with a large room formerly used to store the grain offerings and incense and temple articles, and also the tithes of grain, new wine and olive oil prescribed for the Levites, musicians and gatekeepers, as well as the contributions for the priests.

⁶But while all this was going on, I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I had returned to the king. Some time later I asked his permission ⁷and came back to Jerusalem. Here I learned about the evil thing Eliashib had done in providing Tobiah a room in the courts of the house of God. ⁸I was greatly displeased and threw all Tobiah's household goods out of the room. ⁹I gave orders to purify the rooms, and then I put back into them the equipment of the house of God, with the grain offerings and the incense.

¹⁰I also learned that the portions assigned to the Levites had not been given to them, and that all the Levites and musicians responsible for the service had gone back to their own fields. ¹¹So I rebuked the officials and asked them, "Why is the house of God neglected?" Then I called them together and stationed them at their posts.

¹²All Judah brought the tithes of grain, new wine and olive oil into the storerooms. ¹³I put Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and a Levite named Pedaiah in charge of the storerooms and made Hanan son of Zakkur, the son of Mattaniah, their assistant, because they were considered trustworthy. They were made responsible for distributing the supplies to their fellow Levites.

¹⁴Remember me for this, my God, and do not blot out what I have so faithfully done for the house of my God and its services.

¹⁵In those days I saw people in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath and bringing in grain and loading it on donkeys, together with wine, grapes, figs and all other kinds of loads. And they were bringing all this into Jerusalem on the Sabbath. Therefore I warned them against selling food on that day. ¹⁶People from Tyre who lived in Jerusalem were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise and selling them in Jerusalem on the Sabbath to the people of Judah. ¹⁷I rebuked the nobles of Judah and said to them, “What is this wicked thing you are doing—desecrating the Sabbath day? ¹⁸Didn’t your ancestors do the same things, so that our God brought all this calamity on us and on this city? Now you are stirring up more wrath against Israel by desecrating the Sabbath.”

¹⁹When evening shadows fell on the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath, I ordered the doors to be shut and not opened until the Sabbath was over. I stationed some of my own men at the gates so that no load could be brought in on the Sabbath day. ²⁰Once or twice the merchants and sellers of all kinds of goods spent the night outside Jerusalem. ²¹But I warned them and said, “Why do you spend the night by the wall? If you do this again, I will arrest you.” From that time on they no longer came on the Sabbath. ²²Then I commanded the Levites to purify themselves and go and guard the gates in order to keep the Sabbath day holy.

Remember me for this also, my God, and show mercy to me according to your great love.

²³Moreover, in those days I saw men of Judah who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon and Moab. ²⁴Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod or the language of one of the other peoples, and did not know how to speak the language of Judah. ²⁵I rebuked them and called curses down on them. I beat some of the men and pulled out their hair. I made them take an oath in God’s name and said: “You are not to give your daughters in marriage to their sons, nor are you to take their daughters in marriage for your sons or for yourselves. ²⁶Was it not because of marriages like these that Solomon king of Israel sinned? Among the many nations there was no king like him. He was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel, but even he was led into sin by foreign women. ²⁷Must we hear now that you too are doing all this terrible wickedness and are being unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women?”

²⁸One of the sons of Joiada son of Eliashib the high priest was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite. And I drove him away from me.

²⁹Remember them, my God, because they defiled the priestly office and the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites.

³⁰So I purified the priests and the Levites of everything foreign, and assigned them duties, each to his own task. ³¹I also made provision for contributions of wood at designated times, and for the firstfruits.

Remember me with favor, my God.

Nehemiah 11

Nehemiah got the job done.

Nehemiah had a comfortable job as the trusted wine taster in the court of Artaxerxes, emperor of Persia. He lived far from his homeland in Jerusalem, but he wept when he heard a report of the destruction of that holy city, with its broken down walls and burned out gates. He fasted and prayed, admitting not only his own sins but the evil deeds of the entire nation. And then he pleaded with God to lead him back to his homeland (see Nehemiah 1:1–11).

The fact that Jerusalem stood defenseless consumed Nehemiah, and his boss the king read the concern on his face. When Nehemiah asked the king for permission to return to Jerusalem, the king not only let him go but sent him on his way with letters ensuring safe passage and supplies for rebuilding (see Nehemiah 2:1–10).

Nehemiah arrived in the city and secretly surveyed the problem. He gathered helpers and told them his plan. He stationed them around the wall, putting some to work on repairs and ordering others to stand guard. He fended off opponents who tried to distract them and spread rumors that Nehemiah was plotting a rebellion. When the wall was completed, everyone could see “this work had been done with the help of our God” (Nehemiah 6:16).

Nehemiah didn’t just start a job. He got it done. And this daring leader didn’t just rebuild the wall. He forced nobles to give away land and stop impoverishing their fellow Israelites (see Nehemiah 5:1–13). He also called the nation back to spiritual reforms and godly marriages (see Nehemiah 13:4–31).

You can find Nehemiah in Ezra 2:2 and throughout the book of Nehemiah.

Esther made queen

(1:1–2:23)

Haman's plot to destroy the Jews

(3:1–5:14)

The Jews win

The setting for the book of Esther is Susa, the capital city of Persia. It takes place during the time of King Xerxes, who ruled Persia from 486 to 465 BC. The book tells the story of a beautiful Jewish girl whom King Xerxes chose to be his queen. When Haman plotted to murder all the Jews, Queen Esther's cousin Mordecai persuaded Esther to try to save her people. Risking her own life, she appealed to the king and rescued the Jews.

Although the name of God does not appear in this book, his care for his chosen people is clearly shown. The annual days of Purim celebrate this exciting story of the rescue of the Jews. During the days of celebration the Jews read the book of Esther out loud.

Esther 1

QUEEN VASHTI DEPOSED

¹This is what happened during the time of Xerxes,^[1] the Xerxes who ruled over 127 provinces stretching from India to Cush^[2]: ²At that time King Xerxes reigned from his royal throne in the citadel of Susa, ³and in the third year of his reign he gave a banquet for all his nobles and officials. The military leaders of Persia and Media, the princes, and the nobles of the provinces were present.

⁴For a full 180 days he displayed the vast wealth of his kingdom and the splendor and glory of his majesty. ⁵When these days were over, the king gave a banquet, lasting seven days, in the enclosed garden of the king's palace, for all the people from the least to the greatest who were in the citadel of Susa. ⁶The garden had hangings of white and blue linen, fastened with cords of white linen and purple material to silver rings on marble pillars. There were couches of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl and other costly stones. ⁷Wine was served in goblets of gold, each one different from the other, and the royal wine was abundant, in keeping with the king's liberality. ⁸By the king's command each guest was allowed to drink with no restrictions, for the king instructed all the wine stewards to serve each man what he wished.

⁹Queen Vashti also gave a banquet for the women in the royal palace of King Xerxes.

¹⁰On the seventh day, when King Xerxes was in high spirits from wine, he commanded the seven eunuchs who served him—Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar and Karkas— ¹¹to bring before him Queen Vashti, wearing her royal crown, in order to display her beauty to the people and nobles, for she was lovely to look at. ¹²But when the attendants delivered the king's command, Queen Vashti refused to come. Then the king became furious and burned with anger.

¹³Since it was customary for the king to consult experts in matters of law and justice, he spoke with the wise men who understood the times ¹⁴and were closest to the king—Karshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena and Memukan, the seven nobles of Persia and Media who had special access to the king and were highest in the kingdom.

¹⁵“According to law, what must be done to Queen Vashti?” he asked. “She has not obeyed the command of King Xerxes that the eunuchs have taken to her.”

¹⁶Then Memukan replied in the presence of the king and the nobles, “Queen Vashti has done wrong, not only against the king but also against all the nobles and the peoples of all the provinces of King Xerxes. ¹⁷For the queen’s conduct will become known to all the women, and so they will despise their husbands and say, ‘King Xerxes commanded Queen Vashti to be brought before him, but she would not come.’ ¹⁸This very day the Persian and Median women of the nobility who have heard about the queen’s conduct will respond to all the king’s nobles in the same way. There will be no end of disrespect and discord.

¹⁹“Therefore, if it pleases the king, let him issue a royal decree and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media, which cannot be repealed, that Vashti is never again to enter the presence of King Xerxes. Also let the king give her royal position to someone else who is better than she. ²⁰Then when the king’s edict is proclaimed throughout all his vast realm, all the women will respect their husbands, from the least to the greatest.”

²¹The king and his nobles were pleased with this advice, so the king did as Memukan proposed. ²²He sent dispatches to all parts of the kingdom, to each province in its own script and to each people in their own language, proclaiming that every man should be ruler over his own household, using his native tongue.

Esther 2

ESTHER MADE QUEEN

⁵Now there was in the citadel of Susa a Jew of the tribe of Benjamin, named Mordecai son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, ⁶who had been carried into exile from Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, among those taken captive with Jehoiachin^[3] king of Judah. ⁷Mordecai had a cousin named Hadassah, whom he had brought up because she had neither father nor mother. This young woman, who was also known as Esther, had a lovely figure and was beautiful. Mordecai had taken her as his own daughter when her father and mother died.

⁸When the king's order and edict had been proclaimed, many young women were brought to the citadel of Susa and put under the care of Hegai. Esther also was taken to the king's palace and entrusted to Hegai, who had charge of the harem. ⁹She pleased him and won his favor. Immediately he provided her with her beauty treatments and special food. He assigned to her seven female attendants selected from the king's palace and moved her and her attendants into the best place in the harem.

¹⁰Esther had not revealed her nationality and family background, because Mordecai had forbidden her to do so. ¹¹Every day he walked back and forth near the courtyard of the harem to find out how Esther was and what was happening to her.

¹²Before a young woman's turn came to go in to King Xerxes, she had to complete twelve months of beauty treatments prescribed for the women, six months with oil of myrrh and six with perfumes and cosmetics. ¹³And this is how she would go to the king: Anything she wanted was given her to take with her from the harem to the king's palace. ¹⁴In the evening she would go there and in the morning return to another part of the harem to the care of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the concubines. She would not return to the king unless he was pleased with her and summoned her by name.

¹⁵When the turn came for Esther (the young woman Mordecai had adopted, the daughter of his uncle Abihail) to go to the king, she asked for nothing other than what Hegai, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the harem, suggested. And Esther won the favor of everyone who saw her. ¹⁶She was taken to King Xerxes in the royal residence in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

¹⁷Now the king was attracted to Esther more than to any of the other women, and she won his favor and approval more than any of the other virgins. So he set a royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti. ¹⁸And the king gave a great banquet, Esther's banquet, for all his nobles and officials. He proclaimed a holiday throughout the provinces and distributed gifts with royal liberality.

MORDECAI UNCOVERS A CONSPIRACY

¹⁹When the virgins were assembled a second time, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate. ²⁰But Esther had kept secret her family background and nationality just as Mordecai had told her to do, for she continued to follow Mordecai's instructions as she had done when he was bringing her up.

²¹During the time Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthana^[4] and Teresh, two of the king's officers who guarded the doorway, became angry and conspired to assassinate King Xerxes. ²²But Mordecai found out about the plot and told Queen Esther, who in turn reported it to the king, giving credit to Mordecai. ²³And when the report was investigated and found to be true, the two officials were impaled on poles. All this was recorded in the book of the annals in the presence of the king.

Esther 3

HAMAN'S PLOT TO DESTROY THE JEWS

³Then the royal officials at the king's gate asked Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's command?" ⁴Day after day they spoke to him but he refused to comply. Therefore they told Haman about it to see whether Mordecai's behavior would be tolerated, for he had told them he was a Jew.

⁵When Haman saw that Mordecai would not kneel down or pay him honor, he was enraged. ⁶Yet having learned who Mordecai's people were, he scorned the idea of killing only Mordecai. Instead Haman looked for a way to destroy all Mordecai's people, the Jews, throughout the whole kingdom of Xerxes.

⁷In the twelfth year of King Xerxes, in the first month, the month of Nisan, the pur (that is, the lot) was cast in the presence of Haman to select a day and month. And the lot fell on^[5] the twelfth month, the month of Adar.

⁸Then Haman said to King Xerxes, "There is a certain people dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom who keep themselves separate. Their customs are different from those of all other people, and they do not obey the king's laws; it is not in the king's best interest to tolerate them. ⁹If it pleases the king, let a decree be issued to destroy them, and I will give ten thousand talents^[6] of silver to the king's administrators for the royal treasury."

¹⁰So the king took his signet ring from his finger and gave it to Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews. ¹¹"Keep the money," the king said to Haman, "and do with the people as you please."

¹²Then on the thirteenth day of the first month the royal secretaries were summoned. They wrote out in the script of each province and in the language of each people all Haman's orders to the king's satraps, the governors of the various provinces and the nobles of the various peoples. These were written in the name of King Xerxes himself and sealed with his own ring. ¹³Dispatches were sent by couriers to all the king's provinces with the order to destroy, kill and annihilate all the Jews—young and old, women and children—on a single day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, and to plunder their goods. ¹⁴A copy of the text of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to the people of every nationality so they would be ready for that day.

¹⁵The couriers went out, spurred on by the king's command, and the edict was issued in the citadel of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was bewildered.

ROCK.SOLID principles

Esther 3:1–15

Don't tolerate racism.

“Don't tell me where I can or can't sit!” Stephanie fumed. “I'm done with you!” Since middle school Stephanie had been part of a tight group that frowned on its members spending time with people outside the clique—especially if that outsider looked different from them. When Stephanie started hanging out with Danielle, she found out her group was not only insecure and clingy but prejudiced as well. Stephanie didn't advertise her study sessions with Danielle. But she didn't hide an invitation to their lunch table. Stephanie saw no reason she shouldn't eat with her new friend. In fact, she suddenly saw plenty of reasons she wanted a new place to sit.

Haman the noble was so enraged when Esther's older cousin Mordecai refused to bow to him that he looked for a way to destroy every Jew in the kingdom (Esther 3:6). He said the Jews were different ... intolerable ... deserving destruction (see Esther 3:8). If you don't deal with your fear of people different from you, racism can be the result.

Esther 4

MORDECAI PERSUADES ESTHER TO HELP

¹When Mordecai learned of all that had been done, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the city, wailing loudly and bitterly.

²But he went only as far as the king's gate, because no one clothed in sackcloth was allowed to enter it. ³In every province to which the edict and order of the king came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing. Many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

⁴When Esther's eunuchs and female attendants came and told her about Mordecai, she was in great distress. She sent clothes for him to put on instead of his sackcloth, but he would not accept them. ⁵Then Esther summoned Hathak, one of the king's eunuchs assigned to attend her, and ordered him to find out what was troubling Mordecai and why.

⁹Hathak went back and reported to Esther what Mordecai had said. ¹⁰Then she instructed him to say to Mordecai, ¹¹“All the king's officials and the people of the royal provinces know that for any man or woman who approaches the king in the inner court without being summoned the king has but one law: that they be put to death unless the king extends the gold scepter to them and spares their lives. But thirty days have passed since I was called to go to the king.”

¹²When Esther's words were reported to Mordecai, ¹³he sent back this answer: “Do not think that because you are in the king's house you alone of all the Jews will escape. ¹⁴For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your father's family will perish. And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?”

¹⁵Then Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: ¹⁶“Go, gather together all the Jews who are in Susa, and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my attendants will fast as you do. When this is done, I will go to the king, even though it is against the law. And if I perish, I perish.”

¹⁷So Mordecai went away and carried out all of Esther’s instructions.

ROCK SOLID plans

Esther 4:13

Step up at the right time.

Esther hid her faith in the God of Israel even as she was swept into the palace of one of the most powerful rulers on earth, Xerxes of Persia, and was chosen to be queen. Yet when a royal decree threatened all of the Jews in the kingdom with slaughter, she risked her life to speak up. Esther revealed her identity and pleaded for her people’s safety. She stood against evil when no one else could. Esther was God’s right person in God’s right place—and she stepped up at God’s right time.

Your next step: Look for opportunities to boldly stand for God—with others or on your own.

Esther 5

ESTHER'S REQUEST TO THE KING

¹On the third day Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the palace, in front of the king's hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the hall, facing the entrance. ²When he saw Queen Esther standing in the court, he was pleased with her and held out to her the gold scepter that was in his hand. So Esther approached and touched the tip of the scepter.

³Then the king asked, "What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it will be given you."

⁴"If it pleases the king," replied Esther, "let the king, together with Haman, come today to a banquet I have prepared for him."

⁵"Bring Haman at once," the king said, "so that we may do what Esther asks."

So the king and Haman went to the banquet Esther had prepared. ⁶As they were drinking wine, the king again asked Esther, "Now what is your petition? It will be given you. And what is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it will be granted."

⁷Esther replied, "My petition and my request is this: ⁸If the king regards me with favor and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfill my request, let the king and Haman come tomorrow to the banquet I will prepare for them. Then I will answer the king's question."

HAMAN'S RAGE AGAINST MORDECAI

⁹Haman went out that day happy and in high spirits. But when he saw Mordecai at the king's gate and observed that he neither rose nor showed fear in his presence, he was filled with rage against Mordecai. ¹⁰Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself and went home.

Calling together his friends and Zeresh, his wife, ¹¹Haman boasted to them about his vast wealth, his many sons, and all the ways the king had honored him and how he had elevated him above the other nobles and officials. ¹²"And that's not all," Haman added. "I'm the only person Queen Esther invited to accompany the king to the banquet she gave. And she has invited me along with the king tomorrow. ¹³But all this gives me no satisfaction as long as I see that Jew Mordecai sitting at the king's gate."

¹⁴His wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, "Have a pole set up, reaching to a height of fifty cubits, ^[7] and ask the king in the morning to have Mordecai impaled on it. Then go with the king to the banquet and enjoy yourself." This suggestion delighted Haman, and he had the pole set up.

Esther 6

MORDECAI HONORED

¹That night the king could not sleep; so he ordered the book of the chronicles, the record of his reign, to be brought in and read to him. ²It was found recorded there that Mordecai had exposed Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's officers who guarded the doorway, who had conspired to assassinate King Xerxes.

³"What honor and recognition has Mordecai received for this?" the king asked.

"Nothing has been done for him," his attendants answered.

⁴The king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the palace to speak to the king about impaling Mordecai on the pole he had set up for him.

⁵His attendants answered, "Haman is standing in the court."

"Bring him in," the king ordered.

⁶When Haman entered, the king asked him, "What should be done for the man the king delights to honor?"

Now Haman thought to himself, "Who is there that the king would rather honor than me?" ⁷So he answered the king, "For the man the king delights to honor, ⁸have them bring a royal robe the king has worn and a horse the king has ridden, one with a royal crest placed on its head. ⁹Then let the robe and horse be entrusted to one of the king's most noble princes. Let them robe the man the king delights to honor, and lead him on the horse through the city streets, proclaiming before him, 'This is what is done for the man the king delights to honor!'"

¹⁰"Go at once," the king commanded Haman. "Get the robe and the horse and do just as you have suggested for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate. Do not neglect anything you have recommended."

¹¹So Haman got the robe and the horse. He robed Mordecai, and led him on horseback through the city streets, proclaiming before him, "This is what is done for the man the king delights to honor!"

¹²Afterward Mordecai returned to the king's gate. But Haman rushed home, with his head covered in grief, ¹³and told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him.

His advisers and his wife Zeresh said to him, "Since Mordecai, before whom your downfall has started, is of Jewish origin, you cannot stand against him—you will surely come to ruin!" ¹⁴While they were still talking with him, the king's eunuchs arrived and hurried Haman away to the banquet Esther had prepared.

Esther 7

HAMAN IMPALED

¹So the king and Haman went to Queen Esther's banquet, ²and as they were drinking wine on the second day, the king again asked, "Queen Esther, what is your petition? It will be given you. What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it will be granted."

³Then Queen Esther answered, "If I have found favor with you, Your Majesty, and if it pleases you, grant me my life—this is my petition. And spare my people—this is my request. ⁴For I and my people have been sold to be destroyed, killed and annihilated. If we had merely been sold as male and female slaves, I would have kept quiet, because no such distress would justify disturbing the king.^[8]"

⁵King Xerxes asked Queen Esther, "Who is he? Where is he—the man who has dared to do such a thing?"

⁶Esther said, "An adversary and enemy! This vile Haman!"

Then Haman was terrified before the king and queen. ⁷The king got up in a rage, left his wine and went out into the palace garden. But Haman, realizing that the king had already decided his fate, stayed behind to beg Queen Esther for his life.

⁸Just as the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was reclining.

The king exclaimed, "Will he even molest the queen while she is with me in the house?"

As soon as the word left the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. ⁹Then Harbona, one of the eunuchs attending the king, said, "A pole reaching to a height of fifty cubits^[9] stands by Haman's house. He had it set up for Mordecai, who spoke up to help the king."

The king said, "Impale him on it!" ¹⁰So they impaled Haman on the pole he had set up for Mordecai. Then the king's fury subsided.

Esther 8

THE KING'S EDICT IN BEHALF OF THE JEWS

¹That same day King Xerxes gave Queen Esther the estate of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai came into the presence of the king, for Esther had told how he was related to her. ²The king took off his signet ring, which he had reclaimed from Haman, and presented it to Mordecai. And Esther appointed him over Haman's estate.

⁵"If it pleases the king," she said, "and if he regards me with favor and thinks it the right thing to do, and if he is pleased with me, let an order be written overruling the dispatches that Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, devised and wrote to destroy the Jews in all the king's provinces. ⁶For how can I bear to see disaster fall on my people? How can I bear to see the destruction of my family?"

⁷King Xerxes replied to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, "Because Haman attacked the Jews, I have given his estate to Esther, and they have impaled him on the pole he set up. ⁸Now write another decree in the king's name in behalf of the Jews as seems best to you, and seal it with the king's signet ring—for no document written in the king's name and sealed with his ring can be revoked."

⁹At once the royal secretaries were summoned—on the twenty-third day of the third month, the month of Sivan. They wrote out all Mordecai's orders to the Jews, and to the satraps, governors and nobles of the 127 provinces stretching from India to Cush.^[10] These orders were written in the script of each province and the language of each people and also to the Jews in their own script and language. ¹⁰Mordecai wrote in the name of King Xerxes, sealed the dispatches with the king's signet ring, and sent them by mounted couriers, who rode fast horses especially bred for the king.

¹¹The king's edict granted the Jews in every city the right to assemble and protect themselves; to destroy, kill and annihilate the armed men of any nationality or province who might attack them and their women and children, [\[11\]](#) and to plunder the property of their enemies. ¹²The day appointed for the Jews to do this in all the provinces of King Xerxes was the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar. ¹³A copy of the text of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to the people of every nationality so that the Jews would be ready on that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

¹⁴The couriers, riding the royal horses, went out, spurred on by the king's command, and the edict was issued in the citadel of Susa.

THE TRIUMPH OF THE JEWS

¹⁵When Mordecai left the king's presence, he was wearing royal garments of blue and white, a large crown of gold and a purple robe of fine linen. And the city of Susa held a joyous celebration. ¹⁶For the Jews it was a time of happiness and joy, gladness and honor. ¹⁷In every province and in every city to which the edict of the king came, there was joy and gladness among the Jews, with feasting and celebrating. And many people of other nationalities became Jews because fear of the Jews had seized them.

UNSHAKEN people — Esther

Esther 9

¹On the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, the edict commanded by the king was to be carried out. On this day the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them, but now the tables were turned and the Jews got the upper hand over those who hated them. ²The Jews assembled in their cities in all the provinces of King Xerxes to attack those determined to destroy them. No one could stand against them, because the people of all the other nationalities were afraid of them. ³And all the nobles of the provinces, the satraps, the governors and the king's administrators helped the Jews, because fear of Mordecai had seized them. ⁴Mordecai was prominent in the palace; his reputation spread throughout the provinces, and he became more and more powerful.

⁵The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them, and they did what they pleased to those who hated them. ⁶In the citadel of Susa, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men. ⁷They also killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, ⁸Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, ⁹Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai and Vaizatha, ¹⁰the ten sons of Haman son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews. But they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

¹¹The number of those killed in the citadel of Susa was reported to the king that same day. ¹²The king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men and the ten sons of Haman in the citadel of Susa. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now what is your petition? It will be given you. What is your request? It will also be granted."

¹⁴So the king commanded that this be done. An edict was issued in Susa, and they impaled the ten sons of Haman. ¹⁵The Jews in Susa came together on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar, and they put to death in Susa three hundred men, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

¹⁶Meanwhile, the remainder of the Jews who were in the king's provinces also assembled to protect themselves and get relief from their enemies. They killed seventy-five thousand of them but did not lay their hands on the plunder. ¹⁷This happened on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, and on the fourteenth they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.

¹⁸The Jews in Susa, however, had assembled on the thirteenth and fourteenth, and then on the fifteenth they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.

¹⁹That is why rural Jews—those living in villages—observe the fourteenth of the month of Adar as a day of joy and feasting, a day for giving presents to each other.

PURIM ESTABLISHED

²⁰Mordecai recorded these events, and he sent letters to all the Jews throughout the provinces of King Xerxes, near and far, ²¹to have them celebrate annually the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar ²²as the time when the Jews got relief from their enemies, and as the month when their sorrow was turned into joy and their mourning into a day of celebration. He wrote them to observe the days as days of feasting and joy and giving presents of food to one another and gifts to the poor.

²³So the Jews agreed to continue the celebration they had begun, doing what Mordecai had written to them. ²⁴For Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them and had cast the pur (that is, the lot) for their ruin and destruction. ²⁵But when the plot came to the king's attention, ^[12] he issued written orders that the evil scheme Haman had devised against the Jews should come back onto his own head, and that he and his sons should be impaled on poles. ²⁶(Therefore these days were called Purim, from the word pur.) Because of everything written in this letter and because of what they had seen and what had happened to them, ²⁷the Jews took it on themselves to establish the custom that they and their descendants and all who join them should without fail observe these two days every year, in the way prescribed and at the time appointed. ²⁸These days should be remembered and observed in every generation by every family, and in every province and in every city. And these days of Purim should never fail to be celebrated by the Jews—nor should the memory of these days die out among their descendants.

²⁹So Queen Esther, daughter of Abihail, along with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter concerning Purim. ³⁰And Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of Xerxes' kingdom—words of goodwill and assurance— ³¹to establish these days of Purim at their designated times, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had decreed for them, and as they had established for themselves and their descendants in regard to their times of fasting and lamentation. ³²Esther's decree confirmed these regulations about Purim, and it was written down in the records.

God is heroic.

The people of God looked doomed. Even though Queen Esther had risked her life to speak up for her people, the Jews were still in danger. King Xerxes had been duped into signing a law that all Jews could be killed and their property seized, and that law couldn't be undone (see Esther 3:1–15). But God is a rescuer ... a protector ... a hero. A new royal decree was issued that the Jews could assemble together and fight back against their attackers (see Esther 8:11). Instead of being annihilated, the Jews destroyed their enemies. God's people weren't spared because of their own ingenuity or power, but because the Lord came to their side and saved them from their enemies.

So ... When has God rescued you when you felt doomed?

THE GREATNESS OF MORDECAI

¹King Xerxes imposed tribute throughout the empire, to its distant shores.

²And all his acts of power and might, together with a full account of the greatness of Mordecai, whom the king had promoted, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Media and Persia? ³Mordecai the Jew was second in rank to King Xerxes, preeminent among the Jews, and held in high esteem by his many fellow Jews, because he worked for the good of his people and spoke up for the welfare of all the Jews.

Esther 8

Esther fulfilled God's purpose.

Esther started life in the king's palace as a beauty queen, but she ended up saving her people. Her family came from Judah, part of the large population dragged to captivity in Babylon by King Nebuchadnezzar. She was somehow orphaned—the Bible doesn't give any details—and raised by her older cousin Mordecai.

At that time King Xerxes of Persia was searching for a new wife after Queen Vashti refused his command to parade before some drunken guests. Because Esther “had a lovely figure and was beautiful” (Esther 2:7), she was gathered with crowds of other girls and taken to the royal city of Susa. After 12 months of oils, perfumes and cosmetics, she went to the king, where “she won his favor and approval more than any of the other virgins” (Esther 2:17).

Xerxes immediately crowned her queen, but all the while she kept her nationality a secret. Outside the palace, however, her people (the Jews) were being threatened with execution. When Mordecai told her to speak up, she protested that she could be killed for entering the king's presence uninvited. Her older cousin replied that if she remained silent she would die—and that perhaps God had brought her to the throne for “such a time as this” (Esther 4:14).

Esther took a strange path to power. But this beautiful woman proved she had courage and brains. Her bold plan prevented the slaughter of the Jews, fulfilling the Lord's purpose not just for her own life but for her entire people.

You can find Esther throughout the book named for her.

(38:1–41:34) Ending

(42:1–17)

The book of Job is named for its main character, a righteous man who was very rich. Even after losing everything he owned and suffering from a terrible sickness, Job still confessed his love for God.

The book questions the reasons for suffering, especially why good people or those who love God suffer. Job's friends insist he was suffering as punishment for his sin. Job defends himself by insisting that he has done nothing seriously wrong and then expresses his trust in God.

Finally God speaks and shows his mighty power. Job then admits that God is too great and wonderful for us to understand. Because Job remains faithful to God through his ordeal, God blesses him and rebuilds his family and restores his wealth.

Job

Job 1

Prologue

¹In the land of Uz there lived a man whose name was Job. This man was blameless and upright; he feared God and shunned evil. ²He had seven sons and three daughters, ³and he owned seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen and five hundred donkeys, and had a large number of servants. He was the greatest man among all the people of the East.

⁴His sons used to hold feasts in their homes on their birthdays, and they would invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them. ⁵When a period of feasting had run its course, Job would make arrangements for them to be purified. Early in the morning he would sacrifice a burnt offering for each of them, thinking, “Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts.” This was Job’s regular custom.

⁶One day the angels^[1] came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan^[2] also came with them. ⁷The LORD said to Satan, “Where have you come from?”

Satan answered the LORD, “From roaming throughout the earth, going back and forth on it.”

⁸Then the LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one on earth like him; he is blameless and upright, a man who fears God and shuns evil.”

⁹“Does Job fear God for nothing?” Satan replied. ¹⁰“Have you not put a hedge around him and his household and everything he has? You have blessed the work of his hands, so that his flocks and herds are spread throughout the land. ¹¹But now stretch out your hand and strike everything he has, and he will surely curse you to your face.”

¹²The LORD said to Satan, “Very well, then, everything he has is in your power, but on the man himself do not lay a finger.”

Then Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.

¹³One day when Job’s sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the oldest brother’s house, ¹⁴a messenger came to Job and said, “The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were grazing nearby, ¹⁵and the Sabeans attacked and made off with them. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

¹⁶While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, “The fire of God fell from the heavens and burned up the sheep and the servants, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

¹⁷While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, “The Chaldeans formed three raiding parties and swept down on your camels and made off with them. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

¹⁸While he was still speaking, yet another messenger came and said, “Your sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the oldest brother’s house, ¹⁹when suddenly a mighty wind swept in from the desert and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on them and they are dead, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

²⁰At this, Job got up and tore his robe and shaved his head. Then he fell to the ground in worship ²¹and said:

“Naked I came from my mother’s womb, and naked I will depart.^[3]

The LORD gave and the LORD has taken away; may the name of the LORD be praised.”

²²In all this, Job did not sin by charging God with wrongdoing.

ROCK SOLID truths

Job 1:6–22

Satan lives.

The Bible never portrays Satan as a cartoon figure wearing red tights and wielding a pitchfork. At the start of the Bible he appears as the snake in the Garden of Eden, luring humankind into rebellion against God (see Genesis 3:1–7). In the back of the Bible he’s the leader of worldwide evil, a being who gets tossed in the lake of fire (see Revelation 20:10). And in the middle he “prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour” (1 Peter 5:8). Here in Job Satan talks with God in heaven, complaining that he can’t shake Job’s faith because the Lord protects the devout man too well. Catch these facts about Satan: He’s real. He wants to pull you into whatever sin he can. And he’s an enemy to resist, but we know that other believers all around the world have to face the same kind of testing (see 1 Peter 5:9).

Think: How do you see Satan active in your world?

(Rock Solid TRUTHS Index)

Job 2

¹On another day the angels^[4] came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came with them to present himself before him. ²And the LORD said to Satan, “Where have you come from?”

Satan answered the LORD, “From roaming throughout the earth, going back and forth on it.”

³Then the LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one on earth like him; he is blameless and upright, a man who fears God and shuns evil. And he still maintains his integrity, though you incited me against him to ruin him without any reason.”

⁴“Skin for skin!” Satan replied. “A man will give all he has for his own life. ⁵But now stretch out your hand and strike his flesh and bones, and he will surely curse you to your face.”

⁶The LORD said to Satan, “Very well, then, he is in your hands; but you must spare his life.”

⁷So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD and afflicted Job with painful sores from the soles of his feet to the crown of his head. ⁸Then Job took a piece of broken pottery and scraped himself with it as he sat among the ashes.

⁹His wife said to him, “Are you still maintaining your integrity? Curse God and die!”

¹⁰He replied, “You are talking like a foolish^[5] woman. Shall we accept good from God, and not trouble?”

In all this, Job did not sin in what he said.

¹¹When Job’s three friends, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite, heard about all the troubles that had come upon him, they set out from their homes and met together by agreement to go and sympathize with him and comfort him. ¹²When they saw him from a distance, they could hardly recognize him; they began to weep aloud, and they tore their robes and sprinkled dust on their heads. ¹³Then they sat on the ground with him for seven days and seven nights. No one said a word to him, because they saw how great his suffering was.

Sometimes it's best to shut up.

Adam had a place near his house where he hid when life got difficult. Nothing he faced was out-and-out terrible, but almost everything was more than a little bad. It all pushed him into a funk he had to work hard to shake. But he always liked the spot where a small creek dumped into a wide marsh. No matter the season, there was scenery to soak in and wildlife to spot. Sometimes his buddies joined him. They tried to talk about Adam's problems, but he told them to be quiet. There were times he wanted to talk. But not here. Not now. When Adam was down by the marsh, he just wanted the world to stop for a while.

Much of the book of Job records the words of Job's friends Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar. Their long speeches end up doing Job more harm than good. They should have kept their mouths shut—like they did when they first saw his pain (see Job 2:13). Sometimes sitting in silence with a suffering friend is the kindest thing you can do.

Job 3

JOB SPEAKS

¹After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth. ²He said:

³“May the day of my birth perish, and the night that said, ‘A boy is conceived!’

⁴That day—may it turn to darkness;
may God above not care about it;
may no light shine on it.

⁵May gloom and utter darkness claim it once more; may a cloud settle over it;
may blackness overwhelm it.

⁶That night—may thick darkness seize it; may it not be included among the days of the year
nor be entered in any of the months.

⁷May that night be barren;
may no shout of joy be heard in it.

⁸May those who curse days^[6] curse that day, those who are ready to rouse Leviathan.

⁹May its morning stars become dark;
may it wait for daylight in vain
and not see the first rays of dawn,

¹⁰for it did not shut the doors of the womb on me to hide trouble from my eyes.

¹¹“Why did I not perish at birth, and die as I came from the womb?

¹²Why were there knees to receive me and breasts that I might be nursed?

¹³For now I would be lying down in peace; I would be asleep and at rest

¹⁴with kings and rulers of the earth, who built for themselves places now lying in ruins,

¹⁵with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver.

¹⁶Or why was I not hidden away in the ground like a stillborn child, like an infant who never saw the light of day?

¹⁷There the wicked cease from turmoil, and there the weary are at rest.

- ¹⁸Captives also enjoy their ease;
they no longer hear the slave driver's shout.
- ¹⁹The small and the great are there, and the slaves are freed from their owners.
- ²⁰"Why is light given to those in misery, and life to the bitter of soul, ²¹to those who long for death that does not come, who search for it more than for hidden treasure, ²²who are filled with gladness and rejoice when they reach the grave?
- ²³Why is life given to a man whose way is hidden,
whom God has hedged in?
- ²⁴For sighing has become my daily food; my groans pour out like water.
- ²⁵What I feared has come upon me;
what I dreaded has happened to me.
- ²⁶I have no peace, no quietness;
I have no rest, but only turmoil."

Job 4

ELIPHAZ

¹Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

²“If someone ventures a word with you, will you be impatient?
But who can keep from speaking?

³Think how you have instructed many, how you have strengthened feeble hands.

⁴Your words have supported those who stumbled; you have strengthened faltering knees.

⁵But now trouble comes to you, and you are discouraged; it strikes you, and you are dismayed.

⁶Should not your piety be your confidence and your blameless ways your hope?

⁷“Consider now: Who, being innocent, has ever perished?
Where were the upright ever destroyed?

⁸As I have observed, those who plow evil and those who sow trouble reap it.

⁹At the breath of God they perish;
at the blast of his anger they are no more.

¹⁰The lions may roar and growl, yet the teeth of the great lions are broken.

¹¹The lion perishes for lack of prey, and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.

¹²“A word was secretly brought to me, my ears caught a whisper of it.

¹³Amid disquieting dreams in the night, when deep sleep falls on people, ¹⁴fear and trembling seized me and made all my bones shake.

¹⁵A spirit glided past my face, and the hair on my body stood on end.

¹⁶It stopped,

but I could not tell what it was.
A form stood before my eyes,
and I heard a hushed voice:

¹⁷‘Can a mortal be more righteous than God?

Can even a strong man be more pure than his Maker?

¹⁸If God places no trust in his servants, if he charges his angels with error,

¹⁹how much more those who live in houses of clay, whose foundations are in the dust, who are crushed more readily than a moth!

²⁰Between dawn and dusk they are broken to pieces;
unnoticed, they perish forever.

²¹Are not the cords of their tent pulled up, so that they die without wisdom?’

Job 5

- ¹“Call if you will, but who will answer you?
To which of the holy ones will you turn?
- ²Resentment kills a fool,
and envy slays the simple.
- ³I myself have seen a fool taking root, but suddenly his

- ⁴His children are far from safety,

- ⁵The hungry consume his harvest,

- ⁶For hardship does not spring from the soil, nor does trouble sprout from the ground.
- ⁷Yet man is born to trouble as surely as sparks fly upward.
- ⁸“But if I were you, I would appeal to God; I would lay my cause before him.
- ⁹He performs wonders that cannot be fathomed, miracles
that cannot be counted.
- ¹⁰He provides rain for the earth;
he sends water on the countryside.
- ¹¹The lowly he sets on high,
and those who mourn are lifted to safety.
- ¹²He thwarts the plans of the crafty, so that their hands

- ¹³He catches the wise in their craftiness, and the schemes of the wily are swept away.
- ¹⁴Darkness comes upon them in the daytime; at noon they grope as in the night.
- ¹⁵He saves the needy from the sword in their mouth; he saves them from the clutches of the powerful.

- ²¹You will be protected from the lash of the tongue, and need not fear when destruction comes.
- ²²You will laugh at destruction and famine, and need not fear the wild animals.
- ²³For you will have a covenant with the stones of the field, and the wild animals will be at peace with you.
- ²⁴You will know that your tent is secure; you will take stock of your property and find nothing missing.

JOB

¹Then Job replied:

²“If only my anguish could be weighed and all my misery be placed on the scales!

³It would surely outweigh the sand of the seas— no wonder my words have been impetuous.

⁴The arrows of the Almighty are in me, my spirit drinks in their poison;
God’s terrors are marshaled against me.

⁵Does a wild donkey bray when it has grass, or an ox bellow when it has fodder?

⁶Is tasteless food eaten without salt, or is there flavor in the sap of the mallow^[8]?

⁷I refuse to touch it;
such food makes me ill.

⁸“Oh, that I might have my request, that God would grant what I hope for,

⁹that God would be willing to crush me, to let loose his hand and cut off my life!

¹⁰Then I would still have this consolation— my joy in unrelenting pain—that I had not denied the words of the Holy One.

¹¹“What strength do I have, that I should still hope?
What prospects, that I should be patient?

¹²Do I have the strength of stone?
Is my flesh bronze?

¹³Do I have any power to help myself, now that success has been driven from me?

¹⁴“Anyone who withholds kindness from a friend forsakes the fear of the Almighty.

¹⁵But my brothers are as undependable as intermittent streams, as the streams that overflow ¹⁶when darkened by thawing ice and swollen with melting snow, ¹⁷but that stop flowing in the dry season, and in the heat vanish from their channels.

¹⁸Caravans turn aside from their routes; they go off into the wasteland and perish.
¹⁹The caravans of Tema look for water, the traveling merchants of Sheba look in hope.
²⁰They are distressed, because they had been confident; they ²¹Now you too have proved to be of no help; you see something dreadful and are afraid.

²²Have I ever said, 'Give something on my behalf, pay a ²³deliver me from the hand of the enemy, rescue me from the clutches of the ruthless'?

²⁴"Teach me, and I will be quiet;
show me where I have been wrong.
²⁵How painful are honest words!
But what do your arguments prove?
²⁶Do you mean to correct what I say, and treat my desperate words as wind?
²⁷You would even cast lots for the fatherless and barter away your friend.
²⁸"But now be so kind as to look at me.
Would I lie to your face?
²⁹Relent, do not be unjust;
reconsider, for my integrity is at stake.^[9] ³⁰Is there any wickedness on my lips?
Can my mouth not discern malice?

Job 7

- ¹“Do not mortals have hard service on earth?
Are not their days like those of hired laborers?”
- ²Like a slave longing for the evening shadows, or a hired laborer waiting to be paid,
- ³so I have been allotted months of futility, and nights of misery have been assigned to me.
- ⁴When I lie down I think, ‘How long before I get up?’
The night drags on, and I toss and turn until dawn.
- ⁵My body is clothed with worms and scabs, my skin is broken and festering.
- ⁶“My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle, and they come to an end without hope.
- ⁷Remember, O God, that my life is but a breath; my eyes will never see happiness again.
- ⁸The eye that now sees me will see me no longer; you will look for me, but I will be no more.
- ⁹As a cloud vanishes and is gone, so one who goes down to the grave does not return.
- ¹⁰He will never come to his house again; his place will know him no more.
- ¹¹“Therefore I will not keep silent; I will speak out in the anguish of my spirit,
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
- ¹²Am I the sea, or the monster of the deep, that you put me under guard?
- ¹³When I think my bed will comfort me and my couch will ease my complaint,
- ¹⁴even then you frighten me with dreams and terrify me with visions,
- ¹⁵so that I prefer strangling and death, rather than this body of mine.
- ¹⁶I despise my life; I would not live forever.
Let me alone; my days have no meaning.
- ¹⁷“What is mankind that you make so much of them, that you give them so much attention, ¹⁸that you examine them every morning and test them every moment?

¹⁹Will you never look away from me,
or let me alone even for an instant?
²⁰If I have sinned, what have I done to you, you who see everything we do?
Why have you made me your target?
Have I become a burden to you?^[10] ²¹Why do you not pardon my offenses and forgive my sins?
For I will soon lie down in the dust;
you will search for me, but I will be no more.”

BILDAD

¹Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

- ²“How long will you say such things?
Your words are a blustering wind.
- ³Does God pervert justice?
Does the Almighty pervert what is right?
- ⁴When your children sinned against him, he gave them over to the penalty of their sin.
- ⁵But if you will seek God earnestly and plead with the Almighty,
- ⁶if you are pure and upright, even now he will rouse himself on your behalf and restore you to your prosperous state.
- ⁷Your beginnings will seem humble, so prosperous will your future be.
- ⁸“Ask the former generation and find out what their ancestors learned,
- ⁹for we were born only yesterday and know nothing, and our

- ¹⁰Will they not instruct you and tell you?
Will they not bring forth words from their

- ¹¹Can papyrus grow tall where there is no marsh?
Can reeds thrive without water?
- ¹²While still growing and uncut,
they wither more quickly than grass.
- ¹³Such is the destiny of all who forget God; so perishes the

- ¹⁴What they trust in is fragile^[11]; what they rely on is a

JOB

¹Then Job replied:

²“Indeed, I know that this is true.

But how can mere mortals prove their innocence before God?

³Though they wished to dispute with him, they could not answer him one time out of a thousand.

⁴His wisdom is profound, his power is vast.

Who has resisted him and come out unscathed?

⁵He moves mountains without their knowing it and overturns them in his anger.

⁶He shakes the earth from its place and makes its pillars tremble.

⁷He speaks to the sun and it does not shine; he seals off the ⁸He alone stretches out the heavens and treads on the waves of the sea.

⁹He is the Maker of the Bear^[13] and Orion, the Pleiades and the constellations of the south.

¹⁰He performs wonders that cannot be fathomed, miracles
that cannot be counted.

¹¹When he passes me, I cannot see him; when he goes by, I cannot perceive him.

¹²If he snatches away, who can stop him?
Who can say to him, ‘What are you doing?’

¹³God does not restrain his anger;
even the cohorts of Rahab cowered at his feet.

¹⁴“How then can I dispute with him?
How can I find words to argue with him?

¹⁵Though I were innocent, I could not answer him; I could only plead with my Judge for mercy.

¹⁶Even if I summoned him and he responded, I do not

- believe he would give me a hearing.
- ¹⁷He would crush me with a storm and multiply my wounds for no reason.
- ¹⁸He would not let me catch my breath but would overwhelm me with misery.
- ¹⁹If it is a matter of strength, he is mighty!
And if it is a matter of justice, who can challenge him^[14]?
- ²⁰Even if I were innocent, my mouth would condemn me; if I were blameless, it would pronounce me guilty.
- ²¹“Although I am blameless,
I have no concern for myself;
I despise my own life.
- ²²It is all the same; that is why I say, ‘He destroys both the blameless and the wicked.’
- ²³When a scourge brings sudden death, he mocks the despair of the innocent.
- ²⁴When a land falls into the hands of the wicked, he blindfolds its judges.
If it is not he, then who is it?
- ²⁵“My days are swifter than a runner; they fly away without a glimpse of joy.
- ²⁶They skim past like boats of papyrus, like eagles swooping down on their prey.
- ²⁷If I say, ‘I will forget my complaint, I will change my expression, and smile,’
- ²⁸I still dread all my sufferings, for I know you will not hold me innocent.
- ²⁹Since I am already found guilty,
why should I struggle in vain?
- ³⁰Even if I washed myself with soap and my hands with cleansing powder,
- ³¹you would plunge me into a slime pit so that even my clothes would detest me.
- ³²“He is not a mere mortal like me that I might answer him, that we might confront each other in court.
- ³³If only there were someone to mediate between us,
someone to bring us together,

³⁴someone to remove God's rod from me, so that his terror would frighten me no more.

³⁵Then I would speak up without fear of him, but as it now stands with me, I cannot.

Job 10

- ¹“I loathe my very life;
therefore I will give free rein to my complaint and speak out in the bitterness of my soul.
- ²I say to God: Do not declare me guilty, but tell me what charges you have against me.
- ³Does it please you to oppress me,
to spurn the work of your hands,
while you smile on the plans of the wicked?
- ⁴Do you have eyes of flesh?
Do you see as a mortal sees?
- ⁵Are your days like those of a mortal or your years like those of a strong man,
- ⁶that you must search out my faults and probe after my sin—
- ⁷though you know that I am not guilty and that no one can rescue me from your hand?
- ⁸“Your hands shaped me and made me.
Will you now turn and destroy me?
- ⁹Remember that you molded me like clay.
Will you now turn me to dust again?
- ¹⁰Did you not pour me out like milk and curdle me like cheese,
- ¹¹clothe me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and sinews?
- ¹²You gave me life and showed me kindness, and in your providence watched over my spirit.
- ¹³“But this is what you concealed in your heart, and I know that this was in your mind:
- ¹⁴If I sinned, you would be watching me and would not let my offense go unpunished.
- ¹⁵If I am guilty—woe to me!
Even if I am innocent, I cannot lift my head,
for I am full of shame and drowned in^[15] my affliction.
- ¹⁶If I hold my head high, you stalk me like a lion and again display your awesome power against me.

¹⁷You bring new witnesses against me and increase your anger toward me;
your forces come against me wave upon wave.
¹⁸“Why then did you bring me out of the womb?
I wish I had died before any eye saw me.
¹⁹If only I had never come into being, or had been carried straight from the womb to the grave!
²⁰Are not my few days almost over?
Turn away from me so I can have a moment’s joy ²¹before I go to the place of no return, to the land of gloom and utter darkness, ²²to the land of deepest night,
of utter darkness and disorder, where even the light is like darkness.”

Job 10:1–22

God is thick skinned.

Job’s life had been ripped from him—his wealth destroyed, his family killed and his health ruined (see Job 1:6–22). Even the friends who came to support him turned out to be tormenters. Throughout his shocking troubles, however, Job found one comfort. Although he had come to hate his life, Job could speak freely to God (see Job 10:1–2). Job discovered that God is thick-skinned, able to handle our darkest words and deepest complaints. Job talked about his hurt, his loss of hope and his confusion about God’s seeming lack of care. One day Job would learn that he didn’t have all the answers (see Job 38:1–3). But for now, God didn’t shut him up.

So ... What hurts do you have that no one else knows about? What do you want to tell God about them?

\(Unshaken GOD Index\)

Job 11

ZOPHAR

¹Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:

²“Are all these words to go unanswered?
Is this talker to be vindicated?

³Will your idle talk reduce others to silence?
Will no one rebuke you when you mock?

⁴You say to God, ‘My beliefs are flawless and I am pure in your sight.’

⁵Oh, how I wish that God would speak, that he would open his lips against you

⁶and disclose to you the secrets of wisdom, for true wisdom has two sides.

Know this: God has even forgotten some of your sin.

⁷“Can you fathom the mysteries of God?
Can you probe the limits of the Almighty?

⁸They are higher than the heavens above—what can you do?
They are deeper than the depths below—what can you know?

⁹Their measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea.

¹⁰“If he comes along and confines you in prison and convenes a court, who can oppose him?

¹¹Surely he recognizes deceivers;
and when he sees evil, does he not take note?

¹²But the witless can no more become wise than a wild donkey’s colt can be born human.^[16]

¹³“Yet if you devote your heart to him and stretch out your hands to him,

¹⁴if you put away the sin that is in your hand and allow no evil to dwell in your tent,

¹⁵then, free of fault, you will lift up your face; you will stand firm and without fear.

¹⁶You will surely forget your trouble, recalling it only as waters gone by.

¹⁷Life will be brighter than noonday, and darkness will become like morning.

¹⁸You will be secure, because there is hope; you will look about you and take your rest in safety.

¹⁹You will lie down, with no one to make you afraid, and many will court your favor.

²⁰But the eyes of the wicked will fail, and escape will elude them; their hope will become a dying gasp.”

Job 12

JOB

¹Then Job replied:

²“Doubtless you are the only people who matter, and wisdom will die with you!

³But I have a mind as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.
Who does not know all these things?

⁴“I have become a laughingstock to my friends, though I called on God and he answered— a mere laughingstock, though righteous and blameless!

⁵Those who are at ease have contempt for misfortune as the fate of those whose feet are slipping.

⁶The tents of marauders are undisturbed, and those who provoke God are secure— those God has in his hand.^[17]

⁷“But ask the animals, and they will teach you, or the birds in the sky, and they will tell you;

⁸or speak to the earth, and it will teach you, or let the fish in the sea inform you.

⁹Which of all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this?

¹⁰In his hand is the life of every creature and the breath of all mankind.

¹¹Does not the ear test words
as the tongue tastes food?

¹²Is not wisdom found among the aged?
Does not long life bring understanding?

¹³“To God belong wisdom and power;

ROCK SOLID promises

“To God belong wisdom and power; counsel and understanding are his.”

Job 12:13

There’s no bigger or better wisdom in the universe than what you can get from God.

(Rock Solid PROMISES Index)

- counsel and understanding are his.
- ¹⁴What he tears down cannot be rebuilt; those he imprisons cannot be released.
- ¹⁵If he holds back the waters, there is drought; if he lets them loose, they devastate the land.
- ¹⁶To him belong strength and insight; both deceived and deceiver are his.
- ¹⁷He leads rulers away stripped and makes fools of judges.
- ¹⁸He takes off the shackles put on by kings and ties a loincloth^[18] around their waist.
- ¹⁹He leads priests away stripped and overthrows officials long established.
- ²⁰He silences the lips of trusted advisers and takes away the discernment of elders.
- ²¹He pours contempt on nobles and disarms the mighty.
- ²²He reveals the deep things of darkness and brings utter darkness into the light.
- ²³He makes nations great, and destroys them; he enlarges nations, and disperses them.

²⁴He deprives the leaders of the earth of their reason; he makes them wander in a trackless waste.

²⁵They grope in darkness with no light; he makes them stagger like drunkards.

Job 13

- ¹“My eyes have seen all this,
my ears have heard and understood it.
- ²What you know, I also know;
I am not inferior to you.
- ³But I desire to speak to the Almighty and to argue my case with God.
- ⁴You, however, smear me with lies;
you are worthless physicians, all of you!
- ⁵If only you would be altogether silent!
For you, that would be wisdom.
- ⁶Hear now my argument;
listen to the pleas of my lips.
- ⁷Will you speak wickedly on God’s behalf?
Will you speak deceitfully for him?
- ⁸Will you show him partiality?
Will you argue the case for God?
- ⁹Would it turn out well if he examined you?
Could you deceive him as you might deceive a mortal?
- ¹⁰He would surely call you to account if you secretly showed partiality.
- ¹¹Would not his splendor terrify you?
Would not the dread of him fall on you?
- ¹²Your maxims are proverbs of ashes; your defenses are defenses of clay.
- ¹³“Keep silent and let me speak;
then let come to me what may.
- ¹⁴Why do I put myself in jeopardy and take my life in my hands?
- ¹⁵Though he slay me, yet will I hope in him; I will surely^[19] defend my ways to his face.
- ¹⁶Indeed, this will turn out for my deliverance, for no godless person would dare come before him!
- ¹⁷Listen carefully to what I say;
let my words ring in your ears.

- ¹⁸Now that I have prepared my case,
I know I will be vindicated.
- ¹⁹Can anyone bring charges against me?
If so, I will be silent and die.
- ²⁰“Only grant me these two things, God, and then I will not hide from you:
- ²¹Withdraw your hand far from me,
and stop frightening me with your terrors.
- ²²Then summon me and I will answer, or let me speak, and you reply to me.
- ²³How many wrongs and sins have I committed?
Show me my offense and my sin.
- ²⁴Why do you hide your face and consider me your enemy?
- ²⁵Will you torment a windblown leaf?
Will you chase after dry chaff?
- ²⁶For you write down bitter things against me and make me reap the sins of my youth.
- ²⁷You fasten my feet in shackles;
you keep close watch on all my paths
by putting marks on the soles of my feet.
- ²⁸“So man wastes away like something rotten, like a garment eaten by moths.

Job 13:1–28

God is trustworthy.

Job couldn't understand how such bad things could happen to such a good guy. After the loss of his wealth, his family, and his health, Job breathed countless words of protest to God and defended himself against the mean comments of his so-called friends. Yet through all of his trials, Job never forgot that God was just. Even though Job couldn't understand God's ways, he didn't question the Lord's character. He would keep trusting even to the point of death at God's hands: "Though he slay me," Job sighed, "yet will I hope in him" (Job 13:15). Whatever happens to you today, God deserves your trust.

So ... When have you had a hard time trusting God?
How did you get through it?

(Unshaken GOD Index)

Job 14

- ¹“Mortals, born of woman,
are of few days and full of trouble.
- ²They spring up like flowers and wither away; like fleeting shadows, they do not endure.
- ³Do you fix your eye on them?
Will you bring them^[20] before you for judgment?
- ⁴Who can bring what is pure from the impure?
No one!
- ⁵A person’s days are determined;
you have decreed the number of his months and have set limits he cannot exceed.
- ⁶So look away from him and let him alone, till he has put in his time like a hired laborer.
- ⁷“At least there is hope for a tree: If it is cut down, it will sprout again,
and its new shoots will not fail.
- ⁸Its roots may grow old in the ground and its stump die in the soil,
- ⁹yet at the scent of water it will bud and put forth shoots like a plant.
- ¹⁰But a man dies and is laid low;
he breathes his last and is no more.
- ¹¹As the water of a lake dries up or a riverbed becomes parched and dry,
- ¹²so he lies down and does not rise; till the heavens are no more, people will not awake or be roused from their sleep.
- ¹³“If only you would hide me in the grave and conceal me till your anger has passed!
If only you would set me a time and then remember me!
- ¹⁴If someone dies, will they live again?
All the days of my hard service
I will wait for my renewal^[21] to come.
- ¹⁵You will call and I will answer you; you will long for the - creature your hands have made.

- ¹⁶Surely then you will count my steps but not keep track of my sin.
- ¹⁷My offenses will be sealed up in a bag; you will cover over my sin.
- ¹⁸“But as a mountain erodes and crumbles and as a rock is moved from its place,
- ¹⁹as water wears away stones and torrents wash away the soil, so you destroy a person’s hope.
- ²⁰You overpower them once for all, and they are gone; you change their countenance and send them away.
- ²¹If their children are honored, they do not know it; if their offspring are brought low, they do not see it.
- ²²They feel but the pain of their own bodies and mourn only for themselves.”

ROCK SOLID truths

Job 14:1–22

Life here doesn’t last forever.

Job’s cry sounds like a colossal downer. He says the few days people live are packed with trouble (see Job 14:1). People are like withering flowers and fleeting shadows (see Job 14:2). God has determined how long each person will live, and we mark our time like a worker watching the clock (see Job 14:5–6). While those laments are tough to hear, Job is right that life doesn’t last forever, and you don’t have to have a terrible illness to get smart to that truth. Plus there is an upside to that realization. Knowing your life (on earth) won’t last forever can push you to search for better ways to spend your days, and you can learn to hope in God like Job did: “You will call and I will answer you; you will long for the creature your hands have made” (Job 14:15). Your life on earth might be long or short, but it isn’t the end.

Think: How does it change the way you live when you realize your life on earth won't last forever?

(Rock Solid TRUTHS Index)

Job 15

ELIPHAZ

¹Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

²“Would a wise person answer with empty notions or fill their belly with the hot east wind?

³Would they argue with useless words, with speeches that have no value?

⁴But you even undermine piety and hinder devotion to God.

⁵Your sin prompts your mouth; you adopt the tongue of the crafty.

⁶Your own mouth condemns you, not mine; your own lips testify against you.

⁷“Are you the first man ever born?
Were you brought forth before the hills?

⁸Do you listen in on God’s council?
Do you have a monopoly on wisdom?

⁹What do you know that we do not know?
What insights do you have that we do not have?

¹⁰The gray-haired and the aged are on our side, men even older than your father.

¹¹Are God’s consolations not enough for you, words spoken gently to you?

¹²Why has your heart carried you away, and why do your eyes flash, ¹³so that you vent your rage against God and pour out such words from your mouth?

¹⁴“What are mortals, that they could be pure, or those born of woman, that they could be righteous?

¹⁵If God places no trust in his holy ones, if even the heavens are not pure in his eyes, ¹⁶how much less mortals, who are vile and corrupt, who drink up evil like water!

¹⁷“Listen to me and I will explain to you; let me tell you what I have seen, ¹⁸what the wise have declared, hiding nothing received from their ancestors ¹⁹(to whom alone the land was given when no foreigners moved among them):
²⁰All his days the wicked man suffers torment, the ruthless man through all the years stored up for him.
²¹Terrifying sounds fill his ears;
when all seems well, marauders attack him.
²²He despairs of escaping the realm of darkness; he is marked for the sword.
²³He wanders about for food like a vulture; he knows the day of darkness is at hand.
²⁴Distress and anguish fill him with terror; troubles overwhelm him, like a king poised to attack, ²⁵because he shakes his fist at God and vaunts himself against the Almighty, ²⁶defiantly charging against him with a thick, strong shield.
²⁷“Though his face is covered with fat and his waist bulges with flesh,
²⁸he will inhabit ruined towns and houses where no one lives, houses crumbling to rubble.
²⁹He will no longer be rich and his wealth will not endure, nor will his possessions spread over the land.
³⁰He will not escape the darkness;
a flame will wither his shoots,
and the breath of God’s mouth will carry him away.
³¹Let him not deceive himself by trusting what is worthless, for he will get nothing in return.
³²Before his time he will wither,
and his branches will not flourish.
³³He will be like a vine stripped of its unripe grapes, like an olive tree shedding its blossoms.
³⁴For the company of the godless will be barren, and fire will consume the tents of those who love bribes.

³⁵They conceive trouble and give birth to evil; their womb fashions deceit.”

Job 16

JOB

¹Then Job replied:

- ²“I have heard many things like these; you are miserable comforters, all of you!
- ³Will your long-winded speeches never end?
What ails you that you keep on arguing?
- ⁴I also could speak like you,
if you were in my place;
I could make fine speeches against you and shake my head at you.
- ⁵But my mouth would encourage you;
comfort from my lips would bring you relief.
- ⁶“Yet if I speak, my pain is not relieved; and if I refrain, it does not go away.
- ⁷Surely, God, you have worn me out;
you have devastated my entire household.
- ⁸You have shriveled me up—and it has become a witness;
my gauntness rises up and testifies against me.
- ⁹God assails me and tears me in his anger and gnashes his teeth at me;
my opponent fastens on me his piercing eyes.
- ¹⁰People open their mouths to jeer at me; they strike my cheek in scorn
and unite together against me.
- ¹¹God has turned me over to the ungodly and thrown me into the clutches of the wicked.
- ¹²All was well with me, but he shattered me; he seized me by the neck and crushed me.
He has made me his target;
¹³his archers surround me.
Without pity, he pierces my kidneys and spills my gall on the ground.

¹⁴Again and again he bursts upon me; he rushes at me like a warrior.

¹⁵“I have sewed sackcloth over my skin and buried my brow in the dust.

¹⁶My face is red with weeping, dark shadows ring my eyes;

¹⁷yet my hands have been free of violence and my prayer is pure.

¹⁸“Earth, do not cover my blood;
may my cry never be laid to rest!

¹⁹Even now my witness is in heaven;
my advocate is on high.

²⁰My intercessor is my friend^[22]
as my eyes pour out tears to God;

²¹on behalf of a man he pleads with God as one pleads for a friend.

²²“Only a few years will pass before I take the path of no return.

Job 17

- ¹My spirit is broken,
my days are cut short,
the grave awaits me.
- ²Surely mockers surround me;
my eyes must dwell on their hostility.
- ³“Give me, O God, the pledge you demand.
Who else will put up security for me?”
- ⁴You have closed their minds to understanding; therefore you will not let them triumph.
- ⁵If anyone denounces their friends for reward, the eyes of their children will fail.
- ⁶“God has made me a byword to everyone, a man in whose face people spit.
- ⁷My eyes have grown dim with grief;
my whole frame is but a shadow.
- ⁸The upright are appalled at this;
the innocent are aroused against the ungodly.
- ⁹Nevertheless, the righteous will hold to their ways, and those with clean hands will grow stronger.
- ¹⁰“But come on, all of you, try again!
I will not find a wise man among you.
- ¹¹My days have passed, my plans are shattered.
Yet the desires of my heart
- ¹²turn night into day;
in the face of the darkness light is near.
- ¹³If the only home I hope for is the grave, if I spread out my bed in the realm of darkness,
- ¹⁴if I say to corruption, ‘You are my father,’ and to the worm, ‘My mother’ or ‘My sister,’
- ¹⁵where then is my hope—who can see any hope for me?
- ¹⁶Will it go down to the gates of death?
Will we descend together into the dust?”

Job 18

BILDAD

¹Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

- ²“When will you end these speeches?
Be sensible, and then we can talk.
- ³Why are we regarded as cattle and considered stupid in your sight?
- ⁴You who tear yourself to pieces in your anger, is the earth to be abandoned for your sake?
Or must the rocks be moved from their place?
- ⁵“The lamp of a wicked man is snuffed out; the flame of his fire stops burning.
- ⁶The light in his tent becomes dark; the lamp beside him goes out.
- ⁷The vigor of his step is weakened;
his own schemes throw him down.
- ⁸His feet thrust him into a net;
he wanders into its mesh.
- ⁹A trap seizes him by the heel;
a snare holds him fast.
- ¹⁰A noose is hidden for him on the ground; a trap lies in his path.
- ¹¹Terrors startle him on every side and dog his every step.
- ¹²Calamity is hungry for him;
disaster is ready for him when he falls.
- ¹³It eats away parts of his skin;
death’s firstborn devours his limbs.
- ¹⁴He is torn from the security of his tent and marched off to the king of terrors.
- ¹⁵Fire resides^[23] in his tent; burning sulfur is scattered over his dwelling.
- ¹⁶His roots dry up below and his branches wither above.

¹⁷The memory of him perishes from the earth; he has no name in the land.

¹⁸He is driven from light into the realm of darkness and is banished from the world.

¹⁹He has no offspring or descendants among his people, no survivor where once he lived.

²⁰People of the west are appalled at his fate; those of the east are seized with horror.

²¹Surely such is the dwelling of an evil man; such is the place of one who does not know God.”

Job 19

JOB

¹Then Job replied:

²“How long will you torment me and crush me with words?

³Ten times now you have reproached me; shamelessly you attack me.

⁴If it is true that I have gone astray, my error remains my concern alone.

⁵If indeed you would exalt yourselves above me and use my humiliation against me,

⁶then know that God has wronged me and drawn his net around me.

⁷“Though I cry, ‘Violence!’ I get no response; though I call for help, there is no justice.

⁸He has blocked my way so I cannot pass; he has shrouded my paths in darkness.

⁹He has stripped me of my honor and removed the crown from my head.

¹⁰He tears me down on every side till I am gone; he uproots my hope like a tree.

¹¹His anger burns against me;
he counts me among his enemies.

¹²His troops advance in force;
they build a siege ramp against me and encamp around my tent.

¹³“He has alienated my family from me; my acquaintances are completely estranged from me.

¹⁴My relatives have gone away;
my closest friends have forgotten me.

¹⁵My guests and my female servants count me a foreigner;
they look on me as on a stranger.

¹⁶I summon my servant, but he does not answer, though I beg him with my own mouth.
¹⁷My breath is offensive to my wife; I am loathsome to my own family.
¹⁸Even the little boys scorn me;
when I appear, they ridicule me.
¹⁹All my intimate friends detest me; those I love have turned against me.
²⁰I am nothing but skin and bones;
I have escaped only by the skin of my teeth.^[24]
²¹“Have pity on me, my friends, have pity, for the hand of God has struck me.
²²Why do you pursue me as God does?
Will you never get enough of my flesh?
²³“Oh, that my words were recorded,
that they were written on a scroll, ²⁴that they were inscribed with an iron tool on^[25] lead, or engraved in rock forever!
²⁵I know that my redeemer^[26] lives, and that in the end he will stand on the earth.^[27]

²⁶And after my skin has been destroyed, yet^[28] in^[29] my flesh I will see God; ²⁷I myself will see him with my own eyes—I, and not another.
How my heart yearns within me!

²⁸“If you say, ‘How we will hound him, since the root of the trouble lies in him,^[30]’

²⁹you should fear the sword yourselves; for wrath will bring punishment by the sword, and then you will know that there is judgment.^[31]”

Job 20

ZOPHAR

¹Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:

²“My troubled thoughts prompt me to answer because I am greatly disturbed.

³I hear a rebuke that dishonors me, and my understanding inspires me to reply.

⁴“Surely you know how it has been from of old, ever since mankind^[32] was placed on the earth, ⁵that the mirth of the wicked is brief, the joy of the godless lasts but a moment.

⁶Though the pride of the godless person reaches to the heavens and his head touches the clouds, ⁷he will perish forever, like his own dung; those who have seen him will say, ‘Where is he?’

⁸Like a dream he flies away, no more to be found, banished like a vision of the night.

⁹The eye that saw him will not see him again; his place will look on him no more.

¹⁰His children must make amends to the poor; his own hands must give back his wealth.

¹¹The youthful vigor that fills his bones will lie with him in the dust.

¹²“Though evil is sweet in his mouth and he hides it under his tongue,

¹³though he cannot bear to let it go and lets it linger in his mouth, ¹⁴yet his food will turn sour in his stomach; it will become the venom of serpents within him.

¹⁵He will spit out the riches he swallowed; God will make his stomach vomit them up.

¹⁶He will suck the poison of serpents; the fangs of an adder will kill him.

- ¹⁷He will not enjoy the streams,
the rivers flowing with honey and cream.
- ¹⁸What he toiled for he must give back uneaten; he will not enjoy the profit from his trading.
- ¹⁹For he has oppressed the poor and left them destitute; he has seized houses he did not build.
- ²⁰“Surely he will have no respite from his craving; he cannot save himself by his treasure.
- ²¹Nothing is left for him to devour; his prosperity will not endure.
- ²²In the midst of his plenty, distress will overtake him; the full force of misery will come upon him.
- ²³When he has filled his belly,
God will vent his burning anger against him and rain down his blows on him.
- ²⁴Though he flees from an iron weapon, a bronze-tipped arrow pierces him.
- ²⁵He pulls it out of his back,
the gleaming point out of his liver.
Terrors will come over him;
- ²⁶total darkness lies in wait for his treasures.
A fire unfanned will consume him and devour what is left in his tent.
- ²⁷The heavens will expose his guilt; the earth will rise up against him.
- ²⁸A flood will carry off his house,
rushing waters^[33] on the day of God’s wrath.
- ²⁹Such is the fate God allots the wicked, the heritage appointed for them by God.”

Job 21

JOB

¹Then Job replied:

²“Listen carefully to my words;
let this be the consolation you give me.

³Bear with me while I speak, and after I have spoken, mock on.

⁴“Is my complaint directed to a human being?
Why should I not be impatient?

⁵Look at me and be appalled;
clap your hand over your mouth.

⁶When I think about this, I am terrified; trembling seizes my body.

⁷Why do the wicked live on, growing old and increasing in power?

⁸They see their children established around them, their offspring before their eyes.

⁹Their homes are safe and free from fear; the rod of God is not on them.

¹⁰Their bulls never fail to breed;
their cows calve and do not miscarry.

¹¹They send forth their children as a flock; their little ones dance about.

¹²They sing to the music of timbrel and lyre; they make merry to the sound of the pipe.

¹³They spend their years in prosperity and go down to the grave in peace.^[34]

¹⁴Yet they say to God, ‘Leave us alone!
We have no desire to know your ways.

¹⁵Who is the Almighty, that we should serve him?
What would we gain by praying to him?’

¹⁶But their prosperity is not in their own hands, so I stand aloof from the plans of the wicked.

17“Yet how often is the lamp of the wicked snuffed out?
How often does calamity come upon them,
the fate God allots in his anger?

18How often are they like straw before the wind, like chaff swept away by a gale?

19It is said, ‘God stores up the punishment of the wicked for their children.’
Let him repay the wicked, so that they themselves will experience it!

20Let their own eyes see their destruction; let them drink the cup of the wrath of the Almighty.

21For what do they care about the families they leave behind when their allotted months come to an end?

22“Can anyone teach knowledge to God, since he judges even the highest?

23One person dies in full vigor, completely secure and at ease,

24well nourished in body,^[35]
bones rich with marrow.

25Another dies in bitterness of soul, never having enjoyed anything good.

26Side by side they lie in the dust, and worms cover them both.

27“I know full well what you are thinking, the schemes by which you would wrong me.

28You say, ‘Where now is the house of the great, the tents where the wicked lived?’

29Have you never questioned those who travel?
Have you paid no regard to their accounts—

30that the wicked are spared from the day of calamity, that they are delivered from^[36] the day of wrath?

31Who denounces their conduct to their face?
Who repays them for what they have done?

32They are carried to the grave, and watch is kept over their tombs.

33The soil in the valley is sweet to them; everyone follows after them,
and a countless throng goes^[37] before them.

³⁴“So how can you console me with your nonsense?
Nothing is left of your answers but falsehood!”

Job 22

ELIPHAZ

¹Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

²“Can a man be of benefit to God?

Can even a wise person benefit him?

³What pleasure would it give the Almighty if you were righteous?

What would he gain if your ways were blameless?

⁴“Is it for your piety that he rebukes you and brings charges against you?

⁵Is not your wickedness great?

Are not your sins endless?

⁶You demanded security from your relatives for no reason; you stripped people of their clothing, leaving them naked.

⁷You gave no water to the weary and you withheld food from the hungry, ⁸though you were a powerful man, owning land— an honored man, living on it.

⁹And you sent widows away empty-handed and broke the strength of the fatherless.

¹⁰That is why snares are all around you, why sudden peril terrifies you, ¹¹why it is so dark you cannot see, and why a flood of water covers you.

¹²“Is not God in the heights of heaven?

And see how lofty are the highest stars!

¹³Yet you say, ‘What does God know?

Does he judge through such darkness?

¹⁴Thick clouds veil him, so he does not see us as he goes about in the vaulted heavens.’

¹⁵Will you keep to the old path

- that the wicked have trod?
- ¹⁶They were carried off before their time, their foundations washed away by a flood.
- ¹⁷They said to God, ‘Leave us alone!
What can the Almighty do to us?’
- ¹⁸Yet it was he who filled their houses with good things, so I stand aloof from the plans of the wicked.
- ¹⁹The righteous see their ruin and rejoice; the innocent mock them, saying,
- ²⁰‘Surely our foes are destroyed, and fire devours their wealth.’
- ²¹“Submit to God and be at peace with him; in this way prosperity will come to you.
- ²²Accept instruction from his mouth and lay up his words in your heart.
- ²³If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored: If you remove wickedness far from your tent
- ²⁴and assign your nuggets to the dust, your gold of Ophir to the rocks in the ravines,
- ²⁵then the Almighty will be your gold, the choicest silver for you.
- ²⁶Surely then you will find delight in the Almighty and will lift up your face to God.
- ²⁷You will pray to him, and he will hear you, and you will fulfill your vows.
- ²⁸What you decide on will be done, and light will shine on your ways.
- ²⁹When people are brought low and you say, ‘Lift them up!’ then he will save the downcast.
- ³⁰He will deliver even one who is not innocent, who will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands.”

ROCK SOLID truths

Job 22:1–30

Bad things happen to good people.

At first Eliphaz seems to make sense. This friend says poor Job suffers because of hidden sins. How could God let harm come to someone who really lives for him? As Eliphaz points out, “Is it for your piety that he rebukes you and brings charges against you? Is not your wickedness great? Are not your sins endless?” (Job 22:4–5). While Eliphaz is correct that every person on earth has sins they need to admit and quit, in the end the Lord says that Eliphaz doesn’t really understand much (see Job 42:7). Suffering is more complicated than the philosophy that bad things happen as payback for being bad. In fact, there is plenty of evidence that really nasty things happen to really good people. But when you experience suffering, take the time to ask God if he is trying to point out something you’re doing wrong—yet know that sometimes bad things just happen, even to good people.

Think: Why do you think good people suffer?

Job 23

JOB

¹Then Job replied:

²“Even today my complaint is bitter; his hand^[38] is heavy in spite of^[39] my groaning.

³If only I knew where to find him;
if only I could go to his dwelling!

⁴I would state my case before him and fill my mouth with arguments.

⁵I would find out what he would answer me, and consider what he would say to me.

⁶Would he vigorously oppose me?
No, he would not press charges against me.

⁷There the upright can establish their innocence before him, and there I would be delivered forever from my judge.

⁸“But if I go to the east, he is not there; if I go to the west, I do not find him.

⁹When he is at work in the north, I do not see him; when he turns to the south, I catch no glimpse of him.

¹⁰But he knows the way that I take;

“When he has tested me, I will come forth as gold.”

Job 23:10

You can't escape rough situations, but every trial is a chance to prove you are faithful to God.

(Rock Solid PROMISES Index)

when he has tested me, I will come forth as gold.

¹¹My feet have closely followed his steps; I have kept to his way without turning aside.

¹²I have not departed from the commands of his lips; I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my daily bread.

¹³“But he stands alone, and who can oppose him?
He does whatever he pleases.

¹⁴He carries out his decree against me, and many such plans he still has in store.

¹⁵That is why I am terrified before him; when I think of all this, I fear him.

¹⁶God has made my heart faint;
the Almighty has terrified me.

¹⁷Yet I am not silenced by the darkness, by the thick darkness that covers my face.

Job 24

- ¹“Why does the Almighty not set times for judgment?
Why must those who know him look in vain for such days?
- ²There are those who move boundary stones; they pasture flocks they have stolen.
- ³They drive away the orphan’s donkey and take the widow’s ox in pledge.
- ⁴They thrust the needy from the path and force all the poor of the land into hiding.
- ⁵Like wild donkeys in the desert,
the poor go about their labor of foraging food;
the wasteland provides food for their children.
- ⁶They gather fodder in the fields and glean in the vineyards of the wicked.
- ⁷Lacking clothes, they spend the night naked; they have nothing to cover themselves in the cold.
- ⁸They are drenched by mountain rains and hug the rocks for lack of shelter.
- ⁹The fatherless child is snatched from the breast; the infant of the poor is seized for a debt.
- ¹⁰Lacking clothes, they go about naked; they carry the sheaves, but still go hungry.
- ¹¹They crush olives among the terraces^[40]; they tread the winepresses, yet suffer thirst.
- ¹²The groans of the dying rise from the city, and the souls of the wounded cry out for help.
But God charges no one with wrongdoing.
- ¹³“There are those who rebel against the light, who do not know its ways
or stay in its paths.
- ¹⁴When daylight is gone, the murderer rises up, kills the poor and needy,
and in the night steals forth like a thief.
- ¹⁵The eye of the adulterer watches for dusk; he thinks, ‘No

- eye will see me,'
and he keeps his face concealed.
- ¹⁶In the dark, thieves break into houses, but by day they shut themselves in;
they want nothing to do with the light.
- ¹⁷For all of them, midnight is their morning; they make friends with the terrors of darkness.
- ¹⁸“Yet they are foam on the surface of the water; their portion of the land is cursed, so that no one goes to the vineyards.
- ¹⁹As heat and drought snatch away the melted snow, so the grave snatches away those who have sinned.
- ²⁰The womb forgets them,
the worm feasts on them;
the wicked are no longer remembered
but are broken like a tree.
- ²¹They prey on the barren and childless woman, and to the widow they show no kindness.
- ²²But God drags away the mighty by his power; though they become established, they have no assurance of life.
- ²³He may let them rest in a feeling of security, but his eyes are on their ways.
- ²⁴For a little while they are exalted, and then they are gone;
they are brought low and gathered up like all others;
they are cut off like heads of grain.
- ²⁵“If this is not so, who can prove me false and reduce my words to nothing?”

Job 25

BILDAD

¹Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

²“Dominion and awe belong to God;
he establishes order in the heights of heaven.

³Can his forces be numbered?
On whom does his light not rise?

⁴How then can a mortal be righteous before God?
How can one born of woman be pure?

⁵If even the moon is not bright and the stars are not pure in his eyes,

⁶how much less a mortal, who is but a maggot— a human being, who is only a worm!”

Job 26

JOB

¹Then Job replied:

- ²“How you have helped the powerless!
How you have saved the arm that is feeble!
- ³What advice you have offered to one without wisdom!
And what great insight you have displayed!
- ⁴Who has helped you utter these words?
And whose spirit spoke from your mouth?
- ⁵“The dead are in deep anguish, those beneath the waters and all that live in them.
- ⁶The realm of the dead is naked before God; Destruction^[41] lies uncovered.
- ⁷He spreads out the northern skies over empty space; he suspends the earth over nothing.
- ⁸He wraps up the waters in his clouds, yet the clouds do not burst under their weight.
- ⁹He covers the face of the full moon, spreading his clouds over it.
- ¹⁰He marks out the horizon on the face of the waters for a boundary between light and darkness.
- ¹¹The pillars of the heavens quake, aghast at his rebuke.
- ¹²By his power he churned up the sea; by his wisdom he cut Rahab to pieces.
- ¹³By his breath the skies became fair; his hand pierced the gliding serpent.
- ¹⁴And these are but the outer fringe of his works; how faint
the whisper we hear of him!
Who then can understand the thunder of his power?”

Job 27

JOB'S FINAL WORD TO HIS FRIENDS

¹And Job continued his discourse:

²“As surely as God lives, who has denied me justice, the Almighty, who has made my life bitter,

³as long as I have life within me,
the breath of God in my nostrils,

⁴my lips will not say anything wicked, and my tongue will not utter lies.

⁵I will never admit you are in the right; till I die, I will not deny my integrity.

⁶I will maintain my innocence and never let go of it; my conscience will not reproach me as long as I live.

⁷“May my enemy be like the wicked, my adversary like the unjust!

⁸For what hope have the godless when they are cut off, when God takes away their life?

⁹Does God listen to their cry
when distress comes upon them?

¹⁰Will they find delight in the Almighty?
Will they call on God at all times?

¹¹“I will teach you about the power of God; the ways of the Almighty I will not conceal.

¹²You have all seen this yourselves.
Why then this meaningless talk?

¹³“Here is the fate God allots to the wicked, the heritage a ruthless man receives from the Almighty:

¹⁴However many his children, their fate is the sword; his offspring will never have enough to eat.

¹⁵The plague will bury those who survive him, and their widows will not weep for them.

¹⁶Though he heaps up silver like dust and clothes like piles

- of clay,
- ¹⁷what he lays up the righteous will wear, and the innocent will divide his silver.
- ¹⁸The house he builds is like a moth's cocoon, like a hut made by a watchman.
- ¹⁹He lies down wealthy, but will do so no more; when he opens his eyes, all is gone.
- ²⁰Terrors overtake him like a flood; a tempest snatches him away in the night.
- ²¹The east wind carries him off, and he is gone; it sweeps him out of his place.
- ²²It hurls itself against him without mercy as he flees headlong from its power.
- ²³It claps its hands in derision and hisses him out of his place.”

Job 28

INTERLUDE: WHERE WISDOM IS FOUND

- ¹There is a mine for silver and a place where gold is refined.
- ²Iron is taken from the earth, and copper is smelted from ore.
- ³Mortals put an end to the darkness; they search out the farthest recesses for ore in the blackest darkness.
- ⁴Far from human dwellings they cut a shaft, in places untouched by human feet;
far from other people they dangle and sway.
- ⁵The earth, from which food comes,
is transformed below as by fire;
- ⁶lapis lazuli comes from its rocks,
and its dust contains nuggets of gold.
- ⁷No bird of prey knows that hidden path, no falcon's eye has seen it.
- ⁸Proud beasts do not set foot on it, and no lion prowls there.
- ⁹People assault the flinty rock with their hands and lay bare the roots of the mountains.
- ¹⁰They tunnel through the rock;
their eyes see all its treasures.
- ¹¹They search^[42] the sources of the rivers and bring hidden things to light.
- ¹²But where can wisdom be found?
Where does understanding dwell?
- ¹³No mortal comprehends its worth;
it cannot be found in the land of the living.
- ¹⁴The deep says, "It is not in me";
the sea says, "It is not with me."
- ¹⁵It cannot be bought with the finest gold, nor can its price be weighed out in silver.
- ¹⁶It cannot be bought with the gold of Ophir, with precious

- onyx or lapis lazuli.
- ¹⁷Neither gold nor crystal can compare with it, nor can it be had for jewels of gold.
- ¹⁸Coral and jasper are not worthy of mention; the price of wisdom is beyond rubies.
- ¹⁹The topaz of Cush cannot compare with it; it cannot be bought with pure gold.
- ²⁰Where then does wisdom come from?
Where does understanding dwell?
- ²¹It is hidden from the eyes of every living thing, concealed even from the birds in the sky.
- ²²Destruction^[43] and Death say, “Only a rumor of it has reached our ears.”
- ²³God understands the way to it and he alone knows where it dwells,
- ²⁴for he views the ends of the earth and sees everything under the heavens.
- ²⁵When he established the force of the wind and measured out the waters,
- ²⁶when he made a decree for the rain and a path for the thunderstorm,
- ²⁷then he looked at wisdom and appraised it; he confirmed it and tested it.
- ²⁸And he said to the human race,
“The fear of the Lord—that is wisdom, and to shun evil is understanding.”

ROCK SOLID truths

Job 28:1–28

You don't have to have all the answers.

This is deep stuff. Job says that no matter how deep human beings dig, they never discover wisdom. People know how to hunt for silver and gold. They can cut a shaft into the earth—all the way to the place where heat creates brilliant sapphires and gold. Humans manage to unearth all kinds of treasures. But when it comes to wisdom, they can't locate it on their own. Actually, people don't even understand why it's worth searching for. But listen to this good news. You don't have to find the answers on your own. Job says, "God understands the way to it and he alone knows where it dwells" (Job 28:23). God has all the wisdom in the world, and he's more than willing to share. Wisdom starts with living with an awe-filled respect for God (see Job 28:28).

Think: Do you honestly believe God is smarter than you? Why—or why not?

Job 29

JOB'S FINAL DEFENSE

¹Job continued his discourse:

²“How I long for the months gone by, for the days when God watched over me, ³when his lamp shone on my head and by his light I walked through darkness!
⁴Oh, for the days when I was in my prime, when God’s intimate friendship blessed my house, ⁵when the Almighty was still with me and my children were around me,
⁶when my path was drenched with cream and the rock poured out for me streams of olive oil.
⁷“When I went to the gate of the city and took my seat in the public square,
⁸the young men saw me and stepped aside and the old men
rose to their feet;
⁹the chief men refrained from speaking and covered their mouths with their hands;
¹⁰the voices of the nobles were hushed, and their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.
¹¹Whoever heard me spoke well of me, and those who saw me commended me, ¹²because I rescued the poor who cried for help, and the fatherless who had none to assist them.
¹³The one who was dying blessed me;
I made the widow’s heart sing.
¹⁴I put on righteousness as my clothing; justice was my robe and my turban.
¹⁵I was eyes to the blind and feet to the lame.
¹⁶I was a father to the needy;
I took up the case of the stranger.

- ¹⁷I broke the fangs of the wicked and snatched the victims from their teeth.
- ¹⁸“I thought, ‘I will die in my own house, my days as numerous as the grains of sand.
- ¹⁹My roots will reach to the water, and the dew will lie all night on my branches.
- ²⁰My glory will not fade;
the bow will be ever new in my hand.’
- ²¹“People listened to me expectantly, waiting in silence for my counsel.
- ²²After I had spoken, they spoke no more; my words fell gently on their ears.
- ²³They waited for me as for showers and drank in my words as the spring rain.
- ²⁴When I smiled at them, they scarcely believed it; the light of my face was precious to them.^[44]
- ²⁵I chose the way for them and sat as their chief; I dwelt as a king among his troops;
I was like one who comforts mourners.

Job 30

- ¹“But now they mock me,
men younger than I,
whose fathers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs.
- ²Of what use was the strength of their hands to me, since their vigor had gone from them?
- ³Haggard from want and hunger, they roamed^[45] the parched land in desolate wastelands at night.
- ⁴In the brush they gathered salt herbs, and their food^[46] was the root of the broom bush.
- ⁵They were banished from human society, shouted at as if they were thieves.
- ⁶They were forced to live in the dry stream beds, among the rocks and in holes in the ground.
- ⁷They brayed among the bushes and huddled in the undergrowth.
- ⁸A base and nameless brood,
they were driven out of the land.
- ⁹“And now those young men mock me in song; I have become a byword among them.
- ¹⁰They detest me and keep their distance; they do not hesitate to spit in my face.
- ¹¹Now that God has unstrung my bow and afflicted me, they throw off restraint in my presence.
- ¹²On my right the tribe^[47] attacks; they lay snares for my feet,
they build their siege ramps against me.
- ¹³They break up my road;
they succeed in destroying me.
‘No one can help him,’ they say.
- ¹⁴They advance as through a gaping breach; amid the ruins they come rolling in.
- ¹⁵Terrors overwhelm me;

my dignity is driven away as by the wind,
my safety vanishes like a cloud.

¹⁶“And now my life ebbs away;
days of suffering grip me.

¹⁷Night pierces my bones;
my gnawing pains never rest.

¹⁸In his great power God becomes like clothing to me^[48]; he binds me like the neck of my garment.

¹⁹He throws me into the mud, and I am reduced to dust and ashes.

²⁰“I cry out to you, God, but you do not answer; I stand up, but you merely look at me.

²¹You turn on me ruthlessly;
with the might of your hand you attack me.

²²You snatch me up and drive me before the wind; you toss me about in the storm.

²³I know you will bring me down to death, to the place appointed for all the living.

²⁴“Surely no one lays a hand on a broken man when he cries for help in his distress.

²⁵Have I not wept for those in trouble?
Has not my soul grieved for the poor?

²⁶Yet when I hoped for good, evil came; when I looked for light, then came darkness.

²⁷The churning inside me never stops; days of suffering confront me.

²⁸I go about blackened, but not by the sun; I stand up in the assembly and cry for help.

²⁹I have become a brother of jackals, a companion of owls.

³⁰My skin grows black and peels;
my body burns with fever.

³¹My lyre is tuned to mourning, and my pipe to the sound of wailing.

Job 31

- ¹“I made a covenant with my eyes not to look lustfully at a young woman.
- ²For what is our lot from God above, our heritage from the Almighty on high?
- ³Is it not ruin for the wicked, disaster for those who do wrong?
- ⁴Does he not see my ways and count my every step?
- ⁵“If I have walked with falsehood or my foot has hurried after deceit— ⁶let God weigh me in honest scales and he will know that I am blameless— ⁷if my steps have turned from the path, if my heart has been led by my eyes, or if my hands have been defiled,
- ⁸then may others eat what I have sown, and may my crops be uprooted.
- ⁹“If my heart has been enticed by a woman, or if I have lurked at my neighbor’s door,
- ¹⁰then may my wife grind another man’s grain, and may other men sleep with her.
- ¹¹For that would have been wicked, a sin to be judged.
- ¹²It is a fire that burns to Destruction^[49]; it would have uprooted my harvest.
- ¹³“If I have denied justice to any of my servants, whether male or female, when they had a grievance against me,
- ¹⁴what will I do when God confronts me?
What will I answer when called to account?
- ¹⁵Did not he who made me in the womb make them?
Did not the same one form us both within our mothers?
- ¹⁶“If I have denied the desires of the poor or let the eyes of the widow grow weary,
- ¹⁷if I have kept my bread to myself, not sharing it with the fatherless—¹⁸but from my youth I reared them as a father would, and from my birth I guided the widow—¹⁹if I have seen anyone perishing for lack of clothing, or the needy without garments, ²⁰and their hearts did not bless me for warming them with the fleece from my sheep, ²¹if I have raised my hand against the fatherless, knowing that I had influence in court, ²²then let my arm fall from the shoulder, let it be broken off at the joint.

²³For I dreaded destruction from God, and for fear of his splendor I could not do such things.
²⁴“If I have put my trust in gold or said to pure gold, ‘You are my security,’ ²⁵if I have rejoiced over my great wealth, the fortune my hands had gained,
²⁶if I have regarded the sun in its radiance or the moon moving in splendor, ²⁷so that my heart was secretly enticed and my hand offered them a kiss of homage, ²⁸then these also would be sins to be judged, for I would have been unfaithful to God on high.
²⁹“If I have rejoiced at my enemy’s misfortune or gloated over the trouble that came to him—³⁰I have not allowed my mouth to sin by invoking a curse against their life—³¹if those of my household have never said, ‘Who has not been filled with Job’s meat?’—³²but no stranger had to spend the night in the street, for my door was always open to the traveler—³³if I have concealed my sin as people do,^[50]
by hiding my guilt in my heart ³⁴because I so feared the crowd and so dreaded the contempt of the clans
that I kept silent and would not go outside—³⁵(“Oh, that I had someone to hear me!
I sign now my defense—let the Almighty answer me;

let my accuser put his indictment in writing.
³⁶Surely I would wear it on my shoulder, I would put it on like a crown.
³⁷I would give him an account of my every step; I would present it to him as to a ruler.)— ³⁸“if my land cries out against me and all its furrows are wet with tears,
³⁹if I have devoured its yield without payment or broken the spirit of its tenants, ⁴⁰then let briars come up instead of wheat and stinkweed instead of barley.”

The words of Job are ended.

ROCK SOLID principles

Job 31:1–12

Purify your mind.

What started as giggling with the guys at photos they saw online had become a sexual obsession that ran Colton’s life. His parents thought they had his computer locked down tight, but he still found ways to spend hours surfing pornographic websites. The images and videos Colton saw warped how he saw real-world girls. He ranked them by their physical features and whether he caught a sexual tease in how they carried themselves. Colton knew he was in a bad spot, but he wasn’t sure he wanted to do anything to fix it.

When Job blurts out his promise “not to look lustfully at a young woman” (Job 31:1), it shows he understands the serious sin of wanting a woman who isn’t his wife. After all, he didn’t want other men lusting for Mrs. Job (see Job 31:9–11). Lust might seem like it doesn’t hurt anyone. But whether it goes on in the mind of a guy or a girl, it’s “a fire that burns to Destruction” (Job 31:12), causing unplanned and uncontrolled damage.

Job 32

ELIHU

¹So these three men stopped answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. ²But Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, became very angry with Job for justifying himself rather than God. ³He was also angry with the three friends, because they had found no way to refute Job, and yet had condemned him.^[51] ⁴Now Elihu had waited before speaking to Job because they were older than he. ⁵But when he saw that the three men had nothing more to say, his anger was aroused.

⁶So Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite said:

“I am young in years,
and you are old;
that is why I was fearful,
not daring to tell you what I know.

⁷I thought, ‘Age should speak; advanced years should teach wisdom.’

⁸But it is the spirit^[52] in a person, the breath of the Almighty, that gives them understanding.

⁹It is not only the old^[53] who are wise, not only the aged who understand what is right.

¹⁰“Therefore I say: Listen to me; I too will tell you what I know.

¹¹I waited while you spoke, I listened to your reasoning;
while you were searching for words,

¹²I gave you my full attention.
But not one of you has proved Job wrong;
none of you has answered his arguments.

¹³Do not say, ‘We have found wisdom; let God, not a man, refute him.’

¹⁴But Job has not marshaled his words against me, and I will not answer him with your arguments.

¹⁵“They are dismayed and have no more to say; words have failed them.

¹⁶Must I wait, now that they are silent, now that they stand there with no reply?

¹⁷I too will have my say;
I too will tell what I know.

¹⁸For I am full of words, and the spirit within me compels me;
¹⁹inside I am like bottled-up wine, like new wineskins ready to burst.
²⁰I must speak and find relief; I must open my lips and reply.
²¹I will show no partiality, nor will I flatter anyone;
²²for if I were skilled in flattery, my Maker would soon take me away.

Job 33

- ¹“But now, Job, listen to my words; pay attention to everything I say.
- ²I am about to open my mouth; my words are on the tip of my tongue.
- ³My words come from an upright heart; my lips sincerely speak what I know.
- ⁴The Spirit of God has made me; the breath of the Almighty gives me life.
- ⁵Answer me then, if you can; stand up and argue your case before me.
- ⁶I am the same as you in God’s sight; I too am a piece of clay.
- ⁷No fear of me should alarm you, nor should my hand be heavy on you.
- ⁸“But you have said in my hearing— I heard the very words —
- ⁹I am pure, I have done no wrong; I am clean and free from sin.
- ¹⁰Yet God has found fault with me; he considers me his enemy.
- ¹¹He fastens my feet in shackles; he keeps close watch on all my paths.’
- ¹²“But I tell you, in this you are not right, for God is greater than any mortal.
- ¹³Why do you complain to him that he responds to no one’s words^[54]?
- ¹⁴For God does speak—now one way, now another— though no one perceives it.
- ¹⁵In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on people as they slumber in their beds,
- ¹⁶he may speak in their ears and terrify them with warnings,
- ¹⁷to turn them from wrongdoing and keep them from pride,
- ¹⁸to preserve them from the pit, their lives from perishing by

the sword.^[55]

¹⁹“Or someone may be chastened on a bed of pain with constant distress in their bones,

²⁰so that their body finds food repulsive and their soul
loathes the choicest meal.

²¹Their flesh wastes away to nothing, and their bones, once hidden, now stick out.

²²They draw near to the pit, and their life to the messengers of death.^[56]

²³Yet if there is an angel at their side, a messenger, one out of a thousand,

sent to tell them how to be upright,

²⁴and he is gracious to that person and says to God, ‘Spare them from going down to the pit;

I have found a ransom for them—

²⁵let their flesh be renewed like a child’s; let them be restored as in the days of their youth’— ²⁶then that person can pray to God and find favor with him,

they will see God’s face and shout for joy;

he will restore them to full well-being.

²⁷And they will go to others and say, ‘I have sinned, I have perverted what is right,

but I did not get what I deserved.

²⁸God has delivered me from going down to the pit, and I shall live to enjoy the light of life.’

²⁹“God does all these things to a person— twice, even three times—

³⁰to turn them back from the pit, that the light of life may shine on them.

³¹“Pay attention, Job, and listen to me; be silent, and I will speak.

³²If you have anything to say, answer me; speak up, for I want to vindicate you.

³³But if not, then listen to me; be silent, and I will teach you wisdom.”

Job 34

¹Then Elihu said:

²“Hear my words, you wise men; listen to me, you men of learning.

³For the ear tests words
as the tongue tastes food.

⁴Let us discern for ourselves what is right; let us learn together what is good.

⁵“Job says, ‘I am innocent, but God denies me justice.

⁶Although I am right,
I am considered a liar;
although I am guiltless,
his arrow inflicts an incurable wound.’

⁷Is there anyone like Job, who drinks scorn like water?

⁸He keeps company with evildoers; he associates with the wicked.

⁹For he says, ‘There is no profit in trying to please God.’

¹⁰“So listen to me, you men of understanding.
Far be it from God to do evil,
from the Almighty to do wrong.

¹¹He repays everyone for what they have done; he brings on them what their conduct deserves.

¹²It is unthinkable that God would do wrong, that the Almighty would pervert justice.

¹³Who appointed him over the earth?
Who put him in charge of the whole world?

¹⁴If it were his intention and he withdrew his spirit^[57] and breath, ¹⁵all humanity would perish together and mankind would return to the dust.

¹⁶“If you have understanding, hear this; listen to what I say.

¹⁷Can someone who hates justice govern?
Will you condemn the just and mighty One?

- ¹⁸Is he not the One who says to kings, ‘You are worthless,’ and to nobles, ‘You are wicked,’
- ¹⁹who shows no partiality to princes and does not favor the rich over the poor,
for they are all the work of his hands?
- ²⁰They die in an instant, in the middle of the night; the people are shaken and they pass away;
the mighty are removed without human hand.
- ²¹“His eyes are on the ways of mortals; he sees their every step.
- ²²There is no deep shadow, no utter darkness, where evildoers can hide.
- ²³God has no need to examine people further, that they should come before him for judgment.
- ²⁴Without inquiry he shatters the mighty and sets up others in their place.
- ²⁵Because he takes note of their deeds, he overthrows them in the night and they are crushed.
- ²⁶He punishes them for their wickedness where everyone can see them,
- ²⁷because they turned from following him and had no regard for any of his ways.
- ²⁸They caused the cry of the poor to come before him, so that he heard the cry of the needy.
- ²⁹But if he remains silent, who can condemn him?
If he hides his face, who can see him?
Yet he is over individual and nation alike, ³⁰to keep the godless from ruling, from laying snares for the people.
- ³¹“Suppose someone says to God, ‘I am guilty but will offend no more.
- ³²Teach me what I cannot see; if I have done wrong, I will not do so again.’
- ³³Should God then reward you on your terms, when you refuse to repent?
You must decide, not I;
so tell me what you know.
- ³⁴“Men of understanding declare, wise men who hear me say to me,

³⁵‘Job speaks without knowledge; his words lack insight.’
³⁶Oh, that Job might be tested to the utmost for answering like a wicked man!
³⁷To his sin he adds rebellion;

UNSHAKEN people — Job

scornfully he claps his hands among us and multiplies his words against God.”

Job 35

¹Then Elihu said:

- ²“Do you think this is just?
You say, ‘I am in the right, not God.’
³Yet you ask him, ‘What profit is it to me,^[58] and what do I gain by not sinning?’
⁴“I would like to reply to you and to your friends with you.
⁵Look up at the heavens and see; gaze at the clouds so high above you.
⁶If you sin, how does that affect him?
If your sins are many, what does that do to him?
⁷If you are righteous, what do you give to him, or what does he receive from your hand?
⁸Your wickedness only affects humans like yourself, and your righteousness only other people.
⁹“People cry out under a load of oppression; they plead for relief from the arm of the powerful.
¹⁰But no one says, ‘Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night, ¹¹who teaches us more than he teaches^[59] the beasts of the earth and makes us wiser than^[60] the birds in the sky?’
¹²He does not answer when people cry out because of the arrogance of the wicked.
¹³Indeed, God does not listen to their empty plea; the Almighty pays no attention to it.
¹⁴How much less, then, will he listen when you say that you do not see him,
that your case is before him
and you must wait for him, ¹⁵and further, that his anger never punishes and he does not take the least notice of wickedness.^[61] ¹⁶So Job opens his mouth with empty talk; without knowledge he multiplies words.”

¹Elihu continued:

²“Bear with me a little longer and I will show you that there is more to be said in God’s behalf.

³I get my knowledge from afar; I will ascribe justice to my Maker.

⁴Be assured that my words are not false; one who has perfect knowledge is with you.

⁵“God is mighty, but despises no one;

he is mighty, and firm in his purpose.

⁶He does not keep the wicked alive but gives the afflicted their rights.

⁷He does not take his eyes off the righteous; he enthrones them with kings and exalts them forever.

⁸But if people are bound in chains, held fast by cords of affliction,

9he tells them what they have done— that they have sinned arrogantly.
10He makes them listen to correction and commands them to repent of their evil.
11If they obey and serve him, they will spend the rest of their days in prosperity
and their years in contentment.
12But if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword^[62] and die without knowledge.
13“The godless in heart harbor resentment; even when he fetters them, they do not cry for help.
14They die in their youth, among male prostitutes of the shrines.
15But those who suffer he delivers in their suffering; he speaks to them in their affliction.
16“He is wooing you from the jaws of distress to a spacious place free from restriction, to the comfort of your table laden with choice food.
17But now you are laden with the judgment due the wicked;
judgment and justice have taken hold of you.
18Be careful that no one entices you by riches; do not let a large bribe turn you aside.
19Would your wealth or even all your mighty efforts sustain you so you would not be in distress?
20Do not long for the night, to drag people away from their homes.^[63]
21Beware of turning to evil, which you seem to prefer to affliction.
22“God is exalted in his power.
Who is a teacher like him?
23Who has prescribed his ways for him, or said to him, ‘You have done wrong’?
24Remember to extol his work, which people have praised in song.
25All humanity has seen it; mortals gaze on it from afar.
26How great is God—beyond our understanding!
The number of his years is past finding out.

- ²⁷“He draws up the drops of water, which distill as rain to the streams^[64]; ²⁸the clouds pour down their moisture and abundant showers fall on mankind.
- ²⁹Who can understand how he spreads out the clouds, how he thunders from his pavilion?
- ³⁰See how he scatters his lightning about him, bathing the depths of the sea.
- ³¹This is the way he governs^[65] the nations and provides food in abundance.
- ³²He fills his hands with lightning and commands it to strike its mark.
- ³³His thunder announces the coming storm; even the cattle make known its approach.^[66]

Job 37

- ¹“At this my heart pounds and leaps from its place.
- ²Listen! Listen to the roar of his voice, to the rumbling that comes from his mouth.
- ³He unleashes his lightning beneath the whole heaven and sends it to the ends of the earth.
- ⁴After that comes the sound of his roar; he thunders with his majestic voice.
When his voice resounds,
he holds nothing back.
- ⁵God’s voice thunders in marvelous ways; he does great things beyond our understanding.
- ⁶He says to the snow, ‘Fall on the earth,’ and to the rain shower, ‘Be a mighty downpour.’
- ⁷So that everyone he has made may know his work, he stops all people from their labor.^[67]
- ⁸The animals take cover;
they remain in their dens.
- ⁹The tempest comes out from its chamber, the cold from the driving winds.
- ¹⁰The breath of God produces ice, and the broad waters become frozen.
- ¹¹He loads the clouds with moisture; he scatters his lightning through them.
- ¹²At his direction they swirl around over the face of the whole earth
to do whatever he commands them.
- ¹³He brings the clouds to punish people, or to water his earth and show his love.
- ¹⁴“Listen to this, Job;
stop and consider God’s wonders.
- ¹⁵Do you know how God controls the clouds and makes his lightning flash?
- ¹⁶Do you know how the clouds hang poised, those wonders

- of him who has perfect knowledge?
- ¹⁷You who swelter in your clothes when the land lies hushed under the south wind,
- ¹⁸can you join him in spreading out the skies, hard as a mirror of cast bronze?
- ¹⁹“Tell us what we should say to him; we cannot draw up our case because of our darkness.
- ²⁰Should he be told that I want to speak?
Would anyone ask to be swallowed up?
- ²¹Now no one can look at the sun, bright as it is in the skies after the wind has swept them clean.
- ²²Out of the north he comes in golden splendor; God comes in awesome majesty.
- ²³The Almighty is beyond our reach and exalted in power; in his justice and great righteousness, he does not oppress.
- ²⁴Therefore, people revere him, for does he not have regard for all the wise in heart?^[68]”

Job 38

THE LORD SPEAKS

¹Then the LORD spoke to Job out of the storm. He said:

²“Who is this that obscures my plans with words without knowledge?

³Brace yourself like a man; I will question you,
and you shall answer me.

⁴“Where were you when I laid the earth’s foundation?
Tell me, if you understand.

⁵Who marked off its dimensions? Surely you know!
Who stretched a measuring line across it?

⁶On what were its footings set, or who laid its cornerstone— ⁷while the morning stars sang together and all the angels^[69] shouted for joy?

⁸“Who shut up the sea behind doors when it burst forth from the womb, ⁹when I made the clouds its garment and wrapped it in thick darkness,

¹⁰when I fixed limits for it and set its doors and bars in place,

¹¹when I said, ‘This far you may come and no farther; here is where your proud waves halt’?

¹²“Have you ever given orders to the morning, or shown the dawn its place, ¹³that it might take the earth by the edges and shake the wicked out of it?

¹⁴The earth takes shape like clay under a seal; its features stand out like those of a garment.

¹⁵The wicked are denied their light, and their upraised arm is broken.

¹⁶“Have you journeyed to the springs of the sea or walked in the recesses of the deep?

¹⁷Have the gates of death been shown to you?

Have you seen the gates of the deepest darkness?

¹⁸Have you comprehended the vast expanses of the earth?

Tell me, if you know all this.

¹⁹“What is the way to the abode of light?

And where does darkness reside?

²⁰Can you take them to their places?

Do you know the paths to their dwellings?

²¹Surely you know, for you were already born!

You have lived so many years!

- 22“Have you entered the storehouses of the snow or seen the storehouses of the hail, 23which I reserve for times of trouble, for days of war and battle?
24What is the way to the place where the lightning is dispersed, or the place where the east winds are scattered over the earth?
25Who cuts a channel for the torrents of rain, and a path for the thunderstorm, 26to water a land where no one lives, an uninhabited desert, 27to satisfy a desolate wasteland and make it sprout with grass?
28Does the rain have a father?
Who fathers the drops of dew?
29From whose womb comes the ice?
Who gives birth to the frost from the heavens
30when the waters become hard as stone, when the surface of the deep is frozen?
31“Can you bind the chains^[70] of the Pleiades?
Can you loosen Orion’s belt?
32Can you bring forth the constellations in their seasons^[71] or lead out the Bear^[72] with its cubs?
33Do you know the laws of the heavens?
Can you set up God’s^[73] dominion over the earth?
34“Can you raise your voice to the clouds and cover yourself with a flood of water?
35Do you send the lightning bolts on their way?
Do they report to you, ‘Here we are’?
36Who gives the ibis wisdom^[74] or gives the rooster understanding?^[75] 37Who has the wisdom to count the clouds?
Who can tip over the water jars of the heavens
38when the dust becomes hard and the clods of earth stick together?
39“Do you hunt the prey for the lioness and satisfy the hunger of the lions 40when they crouch in their dens or lie in wait in a thicket?
41Who provides food for the raven when its young cry out to God and wander about for lack of food?

UNSHAKEN God

Job 38:1–4

God is mysterious.

Job wasn't trying to pick a fight with God. He understood that no mortal could claim to be righteous before God, and no mere human mind could answer God "one time out of a thousand" (Job 9:3). God never stopped Job when he mourned his painful losses. But in the end Job needed a reminder that we can never fully understand God's thoughts and actions. The Lord told Job to brace himself like a man, then blasted Job with fact after fact that Job couldn't comprehend (see Job 38–41). Because God is greater than we can ever fully know, there's no end to what we can learn about him. The Lord will always be part mystery.

So ... How do you plan to go deeper in your understanding of God?

(Unshaken GOD Index)

Job 39

- ¹“Do you know when the mountain goats give birth?
Do you watch when the doe bears her fawn?
- ²Do you count the months till they bear?
Do you know the time they give birth?
- ³They crouch down and bring forth their young; their labor pains are ended.
- ⁴Their young thrive and grow strong in the wilds; they leave and do not return.
- ⁵“Who let the wild donkey go free?
Who untied its ropes?
- ⁶I gave it the wasteland as its home, the salt flats as its habitat.
- ⁷It laughs at the commotion in the town; it does not hear a driver’s shout.
- ⁸It ranges the hills for its pasture and searches for any green thing.
- ⁹“Will the wild ox consent to serve you?
Will it stay by your manger at night?
- ¹⁰Can you hold it to the furrow with a harness?
Will it till the valleys behind you?
- ¹¹Will you rely on it for its great strength?
Will you leave your heavy work to it?
- ¹²Can you trust it to haul in your grain and bring it to your threshing floor?
- ¹³“The wings of the ostrich flap joyfully, though they cannot compare with the wings and feathers of the stork.
- ¹⁴She lays her eggs on the ground and lets them warm in the sand,
- ¹⁵unmindful that a foot may crush them, that some wild animal may trample them.
- ¹⁶She treats her young harshly, as if they were not hers; she cares not that her labor was in vain,
- ¹⁷for God did not endow her with wisdom or give her a share of good sense.

- ¹⁸Yet when she spreads her feathers to run, she laughs at horse and rider.
- ¹⁹“Do you give the horse its strength or clothe its neck with a flowing mane?
- ²⁰Do you make it leap like a locust, striking terror with its proud snorting?
- ²¹It paws fiercely, rejoicing in its strength, and charges into the fray.
- ²²It laughs at fear, afraid of nothing; it does not shy away from the sword.
- ²³The quiver rattles against its side, along with the flashing spear and lance.
- ²⁴In frenzied excitement it eats up the ground; it cannot stand still when the trumpet sounds.
- ²⁵At the blast of the trumpet it snorts, ‘Aha!’
It catches the scent of battle from afar,
the shout of commanders and the battle cry.
- ²⁶“Does the hawk take flight by your wisdom and spread its wings toward the south?
- ²⁷Does the eagle soar at your command and build its nest on high?
- ²⁸It dwells on a cliff and stays there at night; a rocky crag is its stronghold.
- ²⁹From there it looks for food; its eyes detect it from afar.
- ³⁰Its young ones feast on blood, and where the slain are, there it is.”

Job 40

¹The LORD said to Job:

²“Will the one who contends with the Almighty correct him?
Let him who accuses God answer him!”

³Then Job answered the LORD:

⁴“I am unworthy—how can I reply to you?
I put my hand over my mouth.

⁵I spoke once, but I have no answer— twice, but I will say no more.”

⁶Then the LORD spoke to Job out of the storm:

⁷“Brace yourself like a man; I will question you,
and you shall answer me.

⁸“Would you discredit my justice?
Would you condemn me to justify yourself?

⁹Do you have an arm like God’s, and can your voice thunder like his?

¹⁰Then adorn yourself with glory and splendor, and clothe yourself in honor and majesty.

¹¹Unleash the fury of your wrath, look at all who are proud and bring them low,

¹²look at all who are proud and humble them, crush the wicked where they stand.

¹³Bury them all in the dust together; shroud their faces in the grave.

¹⁴Then I myself will admit to you that your own right hand can save you.

¹⁵“Look at Behemoth, which I made along with you and which feeds on grass like an ox.

¹⁶What strength it has in its loins, what power in the muscles of its belly!

¹⁷Its tail sways like a cedar; the sinews of its thighs are close-knit.

¹⁸Its bones are tubes of bronze, its limbs like rods of iron.

¹⁹It ranks first among the works of God, yet its Maker can approach it with his sword.

²⁰The hills bring it their produce, and all the wild animals play nearby.

²¹Under the lotus plants it lies, hidden among the reeds in the marsh.

²²The lotuses conceal it in their shadow; the poplars by the stream surround

it.

²³A raging river does not alarm it; it is secure, though the Jordan should surge against its mouth.

²⁴Can anyone capture it by the eyes, or trap it and pierce its nose?

Job 41^[76]

- ¹“Can you pull in Leviathan with a fishhook or tie down its tongue with a rope?
²Can you put a cord through its nose or pierce its jaw with a hook?
³Will it keep begging you for mercy?
Will it speak to you with gentle words?
⁴Will it make an agreement with you for you to take it as your slave for life?
⁵Can you make a pet of it like a bird or put it on a leash for the young women in your house?
⁶Will traders barter for it?
Will they divide it up among the merchants?
⁷Can you fill its hide with harpoons or its head with fishing spears?
⁸If you lay a hand on it,
you will remember the struggle and never do it again!
⁹Any hope of subduing it is false; the mere sight of it is overpowering.
¹⁰No one is fierce enough to rouse it.
Who then is able to stand against me?
¹¹Who has a claim against me that I must pay?
Everything under heaven belongs to me.
¹²“I will not fail to speak of Leviathan’s limbs, its strength and its graceful form.
¹³Who can strip off its outer coat?
Who can penetrate its double coat of armor^[77]?
¹⁴Who dares open the doors of its mouth, ringed about with fearsome teeth?
¹⁵Its back has^[78] rows of shields tightly sealed together; ¹⁶each is so close to the next that no air can pass between.
¹⁷They are joined fast to one another; they cling together and cannot be parted.
¹⁸Its snorting throws out flashes of light; its eyes are like the rays of dawn.

¹⁹Flames stream from its mouth; sparks of fire shoot out.

²⁰Smoke pours from its nostrils as from a boiling pot over burning reeds.

²¹Its breath sets coals ablaze, and flames dart from its mouth.

²²Strength resides in its neck; dismay goes before it.

²³The folds of its flesh are tightly joined; they are firm and immovable.

²⁴Its chest is hard as rock, hard as a lower millstone.

²⁵When it rises up, the mighty are terrified; they retreat before its thrashing.

²⁶The sword that reaches it has no effect, nor does the spear or the dart or the javelin.

²⁷Iron it treats like straw and bronze like rotten wood.

²⁸Arrows do not make it flee; slingstones are like chaff to it.

²⁹A club seems to it but a piece of straw; it laughs at the rattling of the lance.

³⁰Its undersides are jagged potsherds, leaving a trail in the mud like a threshing sledge.

³¹It makes the depths churn like a boiling caldron and stirs up the sea like a pot of ointment.

³²It leaves a glistening wake behind it; one would think the deep had white hair.

³³Nothing on earth is its equal— a creature without fear.

³⁴It looks down on all that are haughty; it is king over all that are proud.”

Job 42

JOB

¹Then Job replied to the LORD:

²“I know that you can do all things; no purpose of yours can be thwarted.

³You asked, ‘Who is this that obscures my plans without knowledge?’
Surely I spoke of things I did not understand, things too wonderful for me to know.

⁴“You said, ‘Listen now, and I will speak; I will question you,
and you shall answer me.’

⁵My ears had heard of you but now my eyes have seen you.

⁶Therefore I despise myself and repent in dust and ashes.”

Epilogue

⁷After the LORD had said these things to Job, he said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “I am angry with you and your two friends, because you have not spoken the truth about me, as my servant Job has. ⁸So now take seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job and sacrifice a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer and not deal with you according to your folly. You have not spoken the truth about me, as my servant Job has.” ⁹So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite did what the LORD told them; and the LORD accepted Job’s prayer.

¹⁰After Job had prayed for his friends, the LORD restored his fortunes and gave him twice as much as he had before. ¹¹All his brothers and sisters and everyone who had known him before came and ate with him in his house. They comforted and consoled him over all the trouble the LORD had brought on him, and each one gave him a piece of silver^[79] and a gold ring.

¹²The LORD blessed the latter part of Job’s life more than the former part. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen and a thousand donkeys. ¹³And he also had seven sons and three daughters. ¹⁴The first daughter he named Jemimah, the second Keziah and the third Keren-Happuch. ¹⁵Nowhere in all the land were there found women as beautiful as Job’s daughters, and their father granted them an inheritance along with their brothers.

¹⁶After this, Job lived a hundred and forty years; he saw his children and their children to the fourth generation. ¹⁷And so Job died, an old man and full of years.

Job 42:1–17

Humble yourself.

Mom stars in a symphony orchestra. Dad directs college choirs. And Mariah began playing violin before she started kindergarten. On top of all of her natural talent, Mariah has heaped years of rigorous lessons and hours of daily practice that come before anything else. She has every reason to be proud of her stand-out accomplishments. Mariah likes to bow her head and pray before she plays, but others just see it as another part of the show. Her attitude suggests that she somehow overlooks the fact that God gave her both talent and the perseverance to succeed. Mariah is great and will only get better. But the Lord will forever be the best.

Job couldn't stop talking about his own goodness—until the Lord spoke up and stumped him with an encyclopedia of his infinite power and knowledge. Job covered himself in ashes to demonstrate remorse, but the Lord didn't leave him in the dirt. The end of Job's story sounds like the promise in James 4:10: “Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up.”

Job 34

Job struggled to understand.

Fire fell from the sky and torched 7,000 of Job's sheep. A house collapsed and killed all of his sons and daughters. His body broke out in ugly wounds "from the soles of his feet to the crown of his head" (Job 2:7). All Job could do was sit and scrape his painful sores with a piece of broken pottery.

Hurting. Puzzled. Dazed. Confused. Job suffered the loss of most everything that meant anything to him—his wealth, his children, and his own health. Of all the problems Job faced, however, the toughest was something happening inside himself. He struggled to understand the reason for his suffering.

Job's friends tried to explain his plight, but their answers didn't help. His wife told him he should curse God and die. Job loudly told the Lord he didn't deserve such a brutal life. But this tormented man couldn't see events going on behind the scenes. He didn't know he was undergoing a cosmic test, that Satan was trying to cause him so much pain he would give up on God. Lacking that crucial bit of information, Job would never understand.

Job had to admit he couldn't make sense of anything. He told the Lord, "I spoke of things I did not understand, things too wonderful for me to know" (Job 42:3). God didn't expect Job to figure things out. He just wanted this good man to trust him.

You can find Job in the book named for him as well as in Ezekiel 14:14.

The Psalms are poems or songs of praise, worship, thankfulness and repentance. They show a variety of emotions, attitudes and interests, and vary in length from a few verses (Psalm 117) to many parts with 176 verses (Psalm 119). Hebrew poetry often uses pairs of lines. The second line either repeats the thought of the first or gives an opposite. Look for these pairs of lines as you read the Psalms.

Of the 150 Psalms, one hundred of them are thought to be written by the following authors: David—73; Asaph—12; Sons of Korah—10; Moses—1; Heman the Ezrahite—1; Ethan the Ezrahite—1; and one or two by Solomon. The rest of the Psalms have no recorded author.

These poems have a world-wide appeal and are familiar and loved by many people because they were written by many authors, from different time periods, and show a variety of emotions.

BOOK I

PSALMS 1—41

Psalm 1

¹Blessed is the one who does not walk in step with the wicked or stand in the way that sinners take or sit in the company of mockers, ²but whose delight is in the law of the LORD, and who meditates on his law day and night.
³That person is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither—whatever they do prospers.
⁴Not so the wicked!
 They are like chaff
 that the wind blows away.
⁵Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.
⁶For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked leads to destruction.

Psalm 1:1–6

Get blessed.

Wyatt enjoyed his status as the popular starting quarterback of his high school football team. He gave credit to God for his abilities, seeing them as a gift straight from above. But he couldn't figure out why God didn't come to his side when he broke curfew and got benched for a game. Or when he partied with friends and got booted from the squad for failing a breathalyzer test. Wyatt thought God would always keep blessing him. He assumed the Lord's plan to save his high school was doomed without a Christian at the head of the football team. But Wyatt's choices had clearly taken him out of bounds.

God doesn't bless you as payback for your good behavior. He gives you good gifts because of his grace—favor you can't earn. But running down sinful paths often takes you out of his blessings. You head to rough and rocky places where you're bound to get hurt. If you want to experience the best life possible, stay close to God.

Psalm 2

- ¹Why do the nations conspire^[1]
and the peoples plot in vain?
- ²The kings of the earth rise up and the rulers band together against the LORD and against his anointed, saying,
- ³“Let us break their chains and throw off their shackles.”
- ⁴The One enthroned in heaven laughs;
the Lord scoffs at them.
- ⁵He rebukes them in his anger and terrifies them in his wrath, saying,
- ⁶“I have installed my king on Zion, my holy mountain.”

⁷I will proclaim the LORD’s decree:

He said to me, “You are my son;
today I have become your father.

- ⁸Ask me,
and I will make the nations your inheritance,
the ends of the earth your possession.
- ⁹You will break them with a rod of iron^[2]; you will dash them to pieces like pottery.”
- ¹⁰Therefore, you kings, be wise;
be warned, you rulers of the earth.
- ¹¹Serve the LORD with fear and celebrate his rule with trembling.
- ¹²Kiss his son, or he will be angry and your way will lead to your destruction, for his wrath can flare up in a moment.
Blessed are all who take refuge in him.

Psalm 3^[3]

A psalm of David. When he fled from his son Absalom.

- ¹LORD, how many are my foes!
How many rise up against me!
- ²Many are saying of me,
“God will not deliver him.”^[4]
- ³But you, LORD, are a shield around me, my glory, the One who lifts my head high.
- ⁴I call out to the LORD,
and he answers me from his holy mountain.
- ⁵I lie down and sleep;
I wake again, because the LORD sustains me.
- ⁶I will not fear though tens of thousands assail me on every side.
- ⁷Arise, LORD!
Deliver me, my God!
Strike all my enemies on the jaw;
break the teeth of the wicked.
- ⁸From the LORD comes deliverance.
May your blessing be on your people.

Psalm 4^[5]

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A psalm of David.

- ¹Answer me when I call to you,
my righteous God.
Give me relief from my distress;
have mercy on me and hear my prayer.
- ²How long will you people turn my glory into shame?
How long will you love delusions and seek false gods^[6]?^[7]
- ³Know that the LORD has set apart his faithful servant for himself; the LORD hears when I call to him.
- ⁴Tremble and^[8] do not sin; when you are on your beds, search your hearts and be silent.
- ⁵Offer the sacrifices of the righteous and trust in the LORD.
- ⁶Many, LORD, are asking, “Who will bring us prosperity?” Let the light of your face shine on us.
- ⁷Fill my heart with joy
when their grain and new wine abound.
- ⁸In peace I will lie down and sleep,

“In peace I will lie down and sleep, for you alone, LORD, make me dwell in safety.”

When you recall that God protects you, you don't have to go to bed uptight.

for you alone, LORD, make me dwell in safety.

Psalm 5^[9]

For the director of music. For pipes. A psalm of David.

- ¹Listen to my words, LORD, consider my lament.
²Hear my cry for help,
my King and my God,
for to you I pray.
- ³In the morning, LORD, you hear my voice; in the morning I lay my requests before you and wait expectantly.
- ⁴For you are not a God who is pleased with wickedness;
with you, evil people are not welcome.
- ⁵The arrogant cannot stand in your presence.
You hate all who do wrong;
⁶you destroy those who tell lies.
The bloodthirsty and deceitful
you, LORD, detest.
- ⁷But I, by your great love,
can come into your house;
in reverence I bow down toward your holy temple.
- ⁸Lead me, LORD, in your righteousness because of my enemies— make your way straight before me.
- ⁹Not a word from their mouth can be trusted; their heart is filled with malice.
Their throat is an open grave;
with their tongues they tell lies.
- ¹⁰Declare them guilty, O God!
Let their intrigues be their downfall.
Banish them for their many sins,
for they have rebelled against you.
- ¹¹But let all who take refuge in you be glad; let them ever sing for joy.
Spread your protection over them,
that those who love your name may rejoice in you.

¹²Surely, LORD, you bless the righteous; you surround them with your favor as with a shield.

ROCK SOLID plans

Psalm 5:3

Start every day with God.

No one knows whether David had been crowned king of Israel when he wrote this psalm. But whatever was going on in David's life at the time, he wasn't rolling over in the morning and lazily drifting back to sleep. His enemies and difficulties felt so heavy that he immediately went to prayer—listing his needs, worshiping God's holiness, and pleading for mercy, blessing, and protection. David could have jumped into his day and tried to handle his problems by himself. Instead he started by talking with God.

Your next step: Build a habit of talking with God at the beginning of each day.

Psalm 6^[10]

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. According to sheminith.^[11] A psalm of David.

- ¹LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your wrath.
- ²Have mercy on me, LORD, for I am faint; heal me, LORD, for my bones are in agony.
- ³My soul is in deep anguish.
How long, LORD, how long?
- ⁴Turn, LORD, and deliver me; save me because of your unfailing love.
- ⁵Among the dead no one proclaims your name.
Who praises you from the grave?
- ⁶I am worn out from my groaning.
All night long I flood my bed with weeping and drench my couch with tears.
- ⁷My eyes grow weak with sorrow;
they fail because of all my foes.
- ⁸Away from me, all you who do evil,
for the LORD has heard my weeping.
- ⁹The LORD has heard my cry for mercy; the LORD accepts my prayer.
- ¹⁰All my enemies will be overwhelmed with shame and anguish; they will turn back and suddenly be put to shame.

Psalm 7^[12]

A shiggaion^[13] of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning Cush, a Benjamite.

- ¹LORD my God, I take refuge in you; save and deliver me from all who pursue me, ²or they will tear me apart like a lion and rip me to pieces with no one to rescue me.
- ³LORD my God, if I have done this and there is guilt on my hands— ⁴if I have repaid my ally with evil or without cause have robbed my foe—⁵then let my enemy pursue and overtake me; let him trample my life to the ground and make me sleep in the dust.^[14]
- ⁶Arise, LORD, in your anger; rise up against the rage of my enemies.
Awake, my God; decree justice.
- ⁷Let the assembled peoples gather around you, while you sit enthroned over them on high.
⁸Let the LORD judge the peoples.
Vindicate me, LORD, according to my righteousness, according to my integrity, O Most High.
- ⁹Bring to an end the violence of the wicked and make the righteous secure— you, the righteous God who probes minds and hearts.
- ¹⁰My shield^[15] is God Most High, who saves the upright in heart.
- ¹¹God is a righteous judge,
a God who displays his wrath every day.
- ¹²If he does not relent,
he^[16] will sharpen his sword; he will bend and string his bow.
- ¹³He has prepared his deadly weapons;
he makes ready his flaming arrows.
- ¹⁴Whoever is pregnant with evil

conceives trouble and gives birth to disillusionment.

¹⁵Whoever digs a hole and scoops it out falls into the pit they have made.

¹⁶The trouble they cause recoils on them; their violence comes down on their own heads.

¹⁷I will give thanks to the LORD because of his righteousness;
I will sing the praises of the name of the LORD
Most High.

Psalm 8^[17]

For the director of music. According to gittith.^[18] A psalm of David.

- ¹LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!
You have set your glory
in the heavens.
- ²Through the praise of children and infants you have established a stronghold against your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger.
- ³When I consider your heavens,
the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars,
which you have set in place,
- ⁴what is mankind that you are mindful of them, human beings that you care for them?^[19]
- ⁵You have made them^[20] a little lower than the angels^[21] and crowned them^[22] with glory and honor.
- ⁶You made them rulers over the works of your hands; you put everything under their^[23] feet: ⁷all flocks and herds,
and the animals of the wild,
- ⁸the birds in the sky,
and the fish in the sea,
all that swim the paths of the seas.
- ⁹LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!

ROCK SOLID truths

Psalm 8:1–9

God made people spectacular.

God's majesty spreads over the earth like a royal robe. His bright glory reaches higher than the skies. Even the lips of kids and babies sing his praise. Compared to God, you can't help but conclude human beings don't matter much. But that's not the end of the story. You might feel small when you stand under the moon and stars the Lord hung in the sky, but God infused you with some of his own glory and honor. In the social pecking order of the universe, the Lord ranked you just a little below angels (see Psalm 8:5), and he put you on earth to rule over creation. When the Bible says God's name is majestic "in all the earth" (Psalm 8:1 and 9), you are part of that impressive display.

Think: Do you feel like you are part of God's majestic creation? How can you remind yourself of that fact today?

Psalm 9^{[24],[25]}

For the director of music. To the tune of “The Death of the Son.” A psalm of David.

- ¹I will give thanks to you, LORD, with all my heart; I will tell of all your wonderful deeds.
- ²I will be glad and rejoice in you;
I will sing the praises of your name, O Most High.
- ³My enemies turn back;
they stumble and perish before you.
- ⁴For you have upheld my right and my cause, sitting enthroned as the righteous judge.
- ⁵You have rebuked the nations and destroyed the wicked;
you have blotted out their name for ever and ever.
- ⁶Endless ruin has overtaken my enemies,
you have uprooted their cities;
even the memory of them has perished.
- ⁷The LORD reigns forever; he has established his throne for judgment.
- ⁸He rules the world in righteousness and judges the peoples with equity.
- ⁹The LORD is a refuge for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble.
- ¹⁰Those who know your name trust in you, for you, LORD, have never forsaken those who seek you.
- ¹¹Sing the praises of the LORD, enthroned in Zion; proclaim among the nations what he has done.
- ¹²For he who avenges blood remembers;
he does not ignore the cries of the afflicted.
- ¹³LORD, see how my enemies persecute me!
Have mercy and lift me up from the gates of death,
- ¹⁴that I may declare your praises in the gates of Daughter Zion, and there rejoice in your salvation.
- ¹⁵The nations have fallen into the pit they have dug; their ¹⁷The wicked go down to the realm of the dead, all the nations that forget God.

¹⁸But God will never forget the needy;
the hope of the afflicted will never perish.

¹⁹Arise, LORD, do not let mortals triumph; let the nations be judged in your presence.

²⁰Strike them with terror, LORD; let the nations know they are only mortal.

Psalm 10^[27]

- ¹Why, LORD, do you stand far off?
Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?
- ²In his arrogance the wicked man hunts down the weak, who are caught in the schemes he devises.
- ³He boasts about the cravings of his heart; he blesses the strength.

- ¹¹He says to himself, “God will never notice; he covers his face and never sees.”
- ¹²Arise, LORD! Lift up your hand, O God.
Do not forget the helpless.
- ¹³Why does the wicked man revile God?
Why does he say to himself,
“He won’t call me to account”?
- ¹⁴But you, God, see the trouble of the afflicted; you consider their grief and take it in hand.
The victims commit themselves to you;
you are the helper of the fatherless.

- ¹⁵Break the arm of the wicked man;
call the evildoer to account for his wickedness that would not otherwise be found out.

Psalm 12:1–8

Choose your words carefully.

It was already suppertime one Friday evening, and Kaitlin still didn't know what she was doing that night. As friends hit her with calls and texts, she was trying to put together a complicated social schedule where she needed her parents to give her several rides throughout the evening. When her parents nudged her to lock down her plans, she blew. “Well, fine!” she said. “I’ll stay home by myself tonight!” They asked if Kaitlin was sure that’s what she wanted. It was. By the time she cooled down, it was too late to take back her words. Her parents told her not to act so surprised. “You know the rule,” they said. “Say what you mean, and mean what you say.”

The people around David had a habit of speaking freely, saying whatever they wanted. They owned their lips, after all, and no one could master them. But when those folks aimed their evil words at the weak and poor, God decided to rise up and help. Sooner or later God always shuts down bad words.

Psalm 13^[32]

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

- ¹How long, LORD? Will you forget me forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?
- ²How long must I wrestle with my thoughts and day after day have sorrow in my heart?
How long will my enemy triumph over me?
- ³Look on me and answer, LORD my God.
Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death,
- ⁴and my enemy will say, "I have overcome him,"
and my foes will rejoice when I fall.
- ⁵But I trust in your unfailing love;
my heart rejoices in your salvation.
- ⁶I will sing the LORD's praise, for he has been good to me.

Psalm 14

For the director of music. Of David.

- ¹The fool^[33] says in his heart, “There is no God.”
They are corrupt, their deeds are vile;
there is no one who does good.
- ²The LORD looks down from heaven on all mankind to see if there are any who understand, any who seek God.
- ³All have turned away, all have become corrupt; there is no one who does good,
not even one.
- ⁴Do all these evildoers know nothing?
They devour my people as though eating bread;
they never call on the LORD.
- ⁵But there they are, overwhelmed with dread, for God is present in the company of the righteous.
- ⁶You evildoers frustrate the plans of the poor, but the LORD is their refuge.
- ⁷Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion!
When the LORD restores his people, let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad!

Psalm 14:1–7

Atheists don't know the truth about God.

Christians often quote Psalm 14 to thump people who say “there is no God” (Psalm 14:1). It's true that atheists don't realize the truth about God. Neither do “practical atheists,” people who claim to believe in God but act like he doesn't exist. Both are fools (see Psalm 14:1), not short on intellectual capacity but in spiritual sensitivity. But Psalm 14 makes a point for all of us. Each of us is part fool. When God studies humankind, he sees that “all have turned away.” Every one of us is “corrupt,” a Hebrew word that means “soured,” like bad milk. Not one of us does good, “not even one” (Psalm 14:3). The solution to our problem comes in verse 4, which hints that we all need to pray to God. As we count on God as our shelter, we figure out who he really is and that he really exists.

Think: Do you ever doubt God’s existence? How can you find the answers you need?

Psalm 18^[36]

For the director of music. Of David the servant of the LORD. He sang to the LORD the words of this song when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He said:

¹I love you, LORD, my strength.

²The LORD is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield^[37] and the horn^[38] of my salvation, my stronghold.

³I called to the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and I have been saved from my enemies.

⁴The cords of death entangled me;
the torrents of destruction overwhelmed me.

⁵The cords of the grave coiled around me; the snares of death confronted me.

⁶In my distress I called to the LORD; I cried to my God for help.
From his temple he heard my voice;
my cry came before him, into his ears.

⁷The earth trembled and quaked, and the foundations of the mountains shook;
they trembled because he was angry.

⁸Smoke rose from his nostrils;
consuming fire came from his mouth,
burning coals blazed out of it.

⁹He parted the heavens and came down;
dark clouds were under his feet.

¹⁰He mounted the cherubim and flew;
he soared on the wings of the wind.

¹¹He made darkness his covering, his canopy around him— the dark rain clouds of the sky.

¹²Out of the brightness of his presence clouds advanced, with hailstones and bolts of lightning.

¹³The LORD thundered from heaven; the voice of the Most High resounded.
^[39]

¹⁴He shot his arrows and scattered the enemy, with great bolts of lightning he routed them.

¹⁵The valleys of the sea were exposed and the foundations of the earth laid bare at your rebuke, LORD,

at the blast of breath from your nostrils.

¹⁶He reached down from on high and took hold of me; he drew me out of deep waters.

¹⁷He rescued me from my powerful enemy, from my foes, who were too strong for me.

¹⁸They confronted me in the day of my disaster, but the LORD was my support.

¹⁹He brought me out into a spacious place; he rescued me because he delighted in me.

²⁰The LORD has dealt with me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he has rewarded me.

²¹For I have kept the ways of the LORD; I am not guilty of turning from my God.

²²All his laws are before me;
I have not turned away from his decrees.

²³I have been blameless before him and have kept myself from sin.

²⁴The LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his sight.

²⁵To the faithful you show yourself faithful, to the blameless you show yourself blameless,

²⁶to the pure you show yourself pure, but to the devious you show yourself shrewd.

²⁷You save the humble
but bring low those whose eyes are haughty.

²⁸You, LORD, keep my lamp burning; my God turns my darkness into light.

²⁹With your help I can advance against a troop^[40]; with my God I can scale a wall.

³⁰As for God, his way is perfect:
The LORD's word is flawless;
he shields all who take refuge in him.

³¹For who is God besides the LORD?
And who is the Rock except our God?

³²It is God who arms me with strength and keeps my way secure.

³³He makes my feet like the feet of a deer; he causes me to stand on the heights.

³⁴He trains my hands for battle;
my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

³⁵You make your saving help my shield, and your right hand sustains me;
your help has made me great.

³⁶You provide a broad path for my feet,
so that my ankles do not give way.

³⁷I pursued my enemies and overtook them; I did not turn back till they were destroyed.

³⁸I crushed them so that they could not rise; they fell beneath my feet.

³⁹You armed me with strength for battle; you humbled my adversaries before me.

⁴⁰You made my enemies turn their backs in flight, and I destroyed my foes.

⁴¹They cried for help, but there was no one to save them— to the LORD, but he did not answer.

⁴²I beat them as fine as windblown dust; I trampled them^[41] like mud in the streets.

⁴³You have delivered me from the attacks of the people; you have made me the head of nations.
People I did not know now serve me, ⁴⁴foreigners cower before me;
as soon as they hear of me, they obey me.

⁴⁵They all lose heart;
they come trembling from their strongholds.

⁴⁶The LORD lives! Praise be to my Rock!
Exalted be God my Savior!

⁴⁷He is the God who avenges me,
who subdues nations under me,
⁴⁸who saves me from my enemies.
You exalted me above my foes;
from a violent man you rescued me.

⁴⁹Therefore I will praise you, LORD, among the nations; I will sing the praises of your name.

⁵⁰He gives his king great victories;
he shows unfailing love to his anointed,

UNSHAKEN God

Psalm 18:1–50

God is perfect.

David sang to God when the Lord saved him from his adversary, King Saul of Israel. All of Psalm 18 captures God's best points, especially his power over deadly enemies. But David sums up God with this sweet description: "As for God, his way is perfect; the LORD's word is flawless" (Psalm 18:30). God is more than we can hope for, better than any other being in the universe. His actions are perfect. His words are perfect. The Lord is perfect in every way we could ever think of. When people disappoint you ... when your favorite possessions break ... when experiences don't live up to the hype ... God is perfect.

So ... What about God's perfection is worth singing about?

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

- ¹The heavens declare the glory of God;
the skies proclaim the work of his hands.
- ²Day after day they pour forth speech;
night after night they reveal knowledge.
- ³They have no speech, they use no words; no sound is heard from them.
- ⁴Yet their voice^[43] goes out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world.
In the heavens God has pitched a tent for the sun.
⁵It is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
like a champion rejoicing to run his course.
- ⁶It rises at one end of the heavens and makes its circuit to the other;
nothing is deprived of its warmth.
- ⁷The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul.
The statutes of the LORD are trustworthy, making wise the simple.
- ⁸The precepts of the LORD are right, giving joy to the heart.
The commands of the LORD are radiant, giving light to the eyes.
- ⁹The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever.
The decrees of the LORD are firm, and all of them are righteous.
- ¹⁰They are more precious than gold,
than much pure gold;
they are sweeter than honey,
than honey from the honeycomb.
- ¹¹By them your servant is warned;
in keeping them there is great reward.
- ¹²But who can discern their own errors?
Forgive my hidden faults.
- ¹³Keep your servant also from willful sins; may they not rule over me.

Then I will be blameless, innocent of great transgression.

¹⁴May these words of my mouth and this meditation of my heart be pleasing in your sight,
LORD, my Rock and my Redeemer.

ROCK SOLID truths

Psalm 19:1–11

The world is evidence of God's existence.

You probably rely on the Bible to give all the information you need to conclude that God is real—and that Jesus is the Son of God and Savior of the world. But the Bible itself says there is another crucial source of knowledge about God. If you have ever tried to out-argue someone who says “I see God in nature,” Psalm 19 might make you squirm. Because those folks are partly right. People get a good glimpse of God in the world he made. We can look up and observe his glory stretched across the heavens. We can hear the skies declare his artistry and power. The facts about God beat down on earth like hot rays from the sun. While the created universe doesn't give the total picture of God like we get from the Bible, it's a starting point for everyone who wonders if God is real.

Think: What does the physical universe teach us about God? What can't it tell us?

Why are you so far from saving me, so far from my cries of anguish?
- ²My God, I cry out by day, but you do not answer, by night, but I find no rest.^[49]
- ³Yet you are enthroned as the Holy One;
you are the one Israel praises.^[50]
- ⁴In you our ancestors put their trust;
they trusted and you delivered them.
- ⁵To you they cried out and were saved;
in you they trusted and were not put to shame.
- ⁶But I am a worm and not a man, scorned by everyone, despised by the people.
- ⁷All who see me mock me;
they hurl insults, shaking their heads.
- ⁸“He trusts in the LORD,” they say, “let the LORD rescue him.
Let him deliver him,
since he delights in him.”
- ⁹Yet you brought me out of the womb;

Revere him, all you descendants of Israel!

²⁴For he has not despised or scorned the suffering of the afflicted one;
he has not hidden his face from him
but has listened to his cry for help.

²⁵From you comes the theme of my praise in the great assembly; before those who fear you^[53] I will fulfill my vows.

²⁶The poor will eat and be satisfied;
those who seek the LORD will praise him—
may your hearts live forever!

²⁷All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD, and all the families of the nations will bow down before him,

After all, this song of David contains some of the most comforting thoughts in the Bible. You might know nothing about sheep, but you can still understand the picture of a shepherd who cares so completely for his flock that he would do anything to protect and provide for it. Jesus made this image his own when he called himself “the good shepherd” who “lays down his life for the sheep” (John 10:11).

ROCK SOLID truths

Psalm 24:1–10

God doesn't tolerate evil.

God doesn't let unholy people into his presence. Psalm 24:3–6 says he requires perfect purity—spotless actions, an uncontaminated heart, a soul that doesn’t make anything more important than him, a tongue that never lies, and a life focused on chasing after God. We could thumb through the Bible and add even more ways we have to be perfect to get near God. If that were the whole story, we could all crawl under a giant rock and never again try to get near God—because we all do have a problem. Each of us sins (see Romans 3:23), and “without holiness no one will see the Lord” (Hebrews 12:14). But the Bible gives us a solution. Because of the death of Jesus we can “draw near to God” (Hebrews 10:22). God doesn’t tolerate evil, but Jesus opens the door and lets us in.

Think: Why does God seem so uptight about evil?

witnesses rise up against me, spouting malicious accusations.

¹³I remain confident of this:
I will see the goodness of the LORD
in the land of the living.

¹⁴Wait for the LORD;
be strong and take heart
and wait for the LORD.

Psalm 28

Of David.

- ¹To you, LORD, I call;
you are my Rock,
do not turn a deaf ear to me.
For if you remain silent,
I will be like those who go down to the pit.
- ²Hear my cry for mercy
as I call to you for help, as I lift up my hands toward your Most Holy Place.
- ³Do not drag me away with the wicked,
with those who do evil,
who speak cordially with their neighbors but harbor malice in their hearts.
- ⁴Repay them for their deeds and for their evil work;
repay them for what their hands have done and bring back on them what they deserve.
- ⁵Because they have no regard for the deeds of the LORD and what his hands have done, he will tear them down
and never build them up again.
- ⁶Praise be to the LORD,
for he has heard my cry for mercy.
- ⁷The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in him, and he helps me.
My heart leaps for joy,
and with my song I praise him.
- ⁸The LORD is the strength of his people, a fortress of salvation for his anointed one.
- ⁹Save your people and bless your inheritance; be their shepherd and carry them forever.

Psalm 29

A psalm of David.

- ¹Ascribe to the LORD, you heavenly beings, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
- ²Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; worship the LORD in the splendor of his^[62] holiness.
- ³The voice of the LORD is over the waters; the God of glory thunders, the LORD thunders over the mighty waters.
- ⁴The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is majestic.
- ⁵The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars; the LORD breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.
- ⁶He makes Lebanon leap like a calf, Sirion^[63] like a young wild ox.
- ⁷The voice of the LORD strikes with flashes of lightning.
- ⁸The voice of the LORD shakes the desert; the LORD shakes the Desert of Kadesh.
- ⁹The voice of the LORD twists the oaks^[64] and strips the forests bare.
And in his temple all cry, "Glory!"
- ¹⁰The LORD sits enthroned over the flood; the LORD is enthroned as King forever.
- ¹¹The LORD gives strength to his people; the LORD blesses his people with peace.

Psalm 30^[65]

A psalm. A song. For the dedication of the temple.^[66] Of David.

- ¹I will exalt you, LORD, for you lifted me out of the depths and did not let my enemies gloat over me.
- ²LORD my God, I called to you for help, and you healed me.
- ³You, LORD, brought me up from the realm of the dead; you spared me from going down to the pit.
- ⁴Sing the praises of the LORD, you his faithful people; praise his holy name.
- ⁵For his anger lasts only a moment,
but his favor lasts a lifetime;
weeping may stay for the night,
but rejoicing comes in the morning.
- ⁶When I felt secure, I said,
“I will never be shaken.”
- ⁷LORD, when you favored me, you made my royal mountain^[67] stand firm; but when you hid your face,
I was dismayed.
- ⁸To you, LORD, I called;
to the Lord I cried for mercy:
- ⁹“What is gained if I am silenced,
if I go down to the pit?
Will the dust praise you?
Will it proclaim your faithfulness?”
- ¹⁰Hear, LORD, and be merciful to me; LORD, be my help.”
- ¹¹You turned my wailing into dancing;
you removed my sackcloth and clothed me with joy,
- ¹²that my heart may sing your praises and not be silent.

LORD my God, I will praise you forever.

Psalm 31^[68]

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

- ¹In you, LORD, I have taken refuge; let me never be put to shame;
deliver me in your righteousness.
- ²Turn your ear to me,
come quickly to my rescue;
be my rock of refuge,
a strong fortress to save me.
- ³Since you are my rock and my fortress,
for the sake of your name lead and guide me.
- ⁴Keep me free from the trap that is set for me, for you are my refuge.
- ⁵Into your hands I commit my spirit;
deliver me, LORD, my faithful God.
- ⁶I hate those who cling to worthless idols; as for me, I trust in the LORD.
- ⁷I will be glad and rejoice in your love, for you saw my affliction and knew the anguish of my soul.
- ⁸You have not given me into the hands of the enemy but have set my feet in a spacious place.
- ⁹Be merciful to me, LORD, for I am in distress; my eyes grow weak with sorrow, my soul and body with grief.
- ¹⁰My life is consumed by anguish and my years by groaning;
my strength fails because of my affliction,^[69]
and my bones grow weak.
- ¹¹Because of all my enemies,
I am the utter contempt of my neighbors and an object of dread to my closest friends—those who see me on the street flee from me.
- ¹²I am forgotten as though I were dead;
I have become like broken pottery.

- ¹³For I hear many whispering,
“Terror on every side!”
They conspire against me
and plot to take my life.
- ¹⁴But I trust in you, LORD; I say, “You are my God.”
- ¹⁵My times are in your hands;
deliver me from the hands of my enemies,
from those who pursue me.
- ¹⁶Let your face shine on your servant;
save me in your unfailing love.
- ¹⁷Let me not be put to shame, LORD, for I have cried out to
you;
but let the wicked be put to shame and be silent in the realm of the dead.
- ¹⁸Let their lying lips be silenced, for with pride and contempt
they speak arrogantly against the righteous.
- ¹⁹How abundant are the good things that you have stored up for those who fear you, that you bestow in the sight of all,
on those who take refuge in you.
- ²⁰In the shelter of your presence you hide them from all human intrigues;
you keep them safe in your dwelling from accusing tongues.
- ²¹Praise be to the LORD, for he showed me the wonders of his love when I was in a city under siege.
- ²²In my alarm I said,
“I am cut off from your sight!”
Yet you heard my cry for mercy
when I called to you for help.
- ²³Love the LORD, all his faithful people!
The LORD preserves those who are true to him, but the proud he pays back in full.
- ²⁴Be strong and take heart,
all you who hope in the LORD.

Psalm 32

Of David. A maskil.^[70]

- ¹Blessed is the one whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered.
- ²Blessed is the one whose sin the LORD does not count against them and in whose spirit is no deceit.
- ³When I kept silent,
my bones wasted away
through my groaning all day long.
- ⁴For day and night
your hand was heavy on me;
my strength was sapped
as in the heat of summer.^[71]
- ⁵Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my iniquity.
I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD."
And you forgave
the guilt of my sin.
- ⁶Therefore let all the faithful pray to you while you may be found;
surely the rising of the mighty waters will not reach them.
- ⁷You are my hiding place;
you will protect me from trouble and surround me with songs of deliverance.
- ⁸I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
I will counsel you with my loving eye on you.
- ⁹Do not be like the horse or the mule, which have no understanding but must be controlled by bit and bridle or they will not come to you.
- ¹⁰Many are the woes of the wicked,

but the LORD's unfailing love surrounds the one who trusts in him.

¹¹Rejoice in the LORD and be glad, you righteous; sing, all you who are upright in heart!

ROCK SOLID principles

Psalm 32:8–11

Quit being so stubborn.

Jackie had done everything she knew to discover whether God wanted her to go out with a guy at church three grades older than her. She prayed and asked God to show her the right thing to do. She scanned her Bible and studied anything it said about guy-girl relationships. And she asked her parents and Bible study leader at church for input. Jackie didn't like what she heard. Everything said that—for now—having more than a friendship with Mark wasn't a good idea. Jackie decided she didn't want to fight what God was saying loud and clear. She knew it wasn't smart to be stubborn.

You probably don't like being compared to a mule so stubborn and stupid that it needs a bit in its mouth to tell it where to go. But that's how dense we are whenever we choose to do our own thing. We can go through life having to learn things the hard way. Or we can get smart and obey willingly.

Psalm 33

- ¹Sing joyfully to the LORD, you righteous; it is fitting for the upright to praise him.
- ²Praise the LORD with the harp; make music to him on the ten-stringed lyre.
- ³Sing to him a new song;
play skillfully, and shout for joy.
- ⁴For the word of the LORD is right and true; he is faithful in all he does.
- ⁵The LORD loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of his unfailing love.
- ⁶By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, their starry host by the breath of his mouth.
- ⁷He gathers the waters of the sea into jars^[72]; he puts the deep into storehouses.
- ⁸Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the people of the world revere him.
- ⁹For he spoke, and it came to be;
he commanded, and it stood firm.
- ¹⁰The LORD foils the plans of the nations; he thwarts the purposes of the peoples.
- ¹¹But the plans of the LORD stand firm forever, the purposes of his heart through all generations.
- ¹²Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people he chose for his inheritance.
- ¹³From heaven the LORD looks down and sees all mankind;
- ¹⁴from his dwelling place he watches
all who live on earth—
- ¹⁵he who forms the hearts of all, who considers everything they do.
- ¹⁶No king is saved by the size of his army; no warrior escapes by his great strength.
- ¹⁷A horse is a vain hope for deliverance; despite all its great strength it cannot save.

- ¹⁸But the eyes of the LORD are on those who fear him, on those whose hope is in his unfailing love, ¹⁹to deliver them from death and keep them alive in famine.
- ²⁰We wait in hope for the LORD; he is our help and our shield.
- ²¹In him our hearts rejoice,
for we trust in his holy name.
- ²²May your unfailing love be with us, LORD, even as we put our hope in you.

Psalm 34^{[73],[74]}

Of David. When he pretended to be insane before Abimelek, who drove him away, and he left.

- ¹I will extol the LORD at all times; his praise will always be on my lips.
- ²I will glory in the LORD; let the afflicted hear and rejoice.
- ³Glorify the LORD with me; let us exalt his name together.
- ⁴I sought the LORD, and he answered me; he delivered me from all my fears.
- ⁵Those who look to him are radiant;
their faces are never covered with shame.
- ⁶This poor man called, and the LORD heard him; he saved him out of all his troubles.
- ⁷The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him,
and he delivers them.
- ⁸Taste and see that the LORD is good; blessed is the one who takes refuge in him.
- ⁹Fear the LORD, you his holy people, for those who fear him lack nothing.
- ¹⁰The lions may grow weak and hungry,
but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing.
- ¹¹Come, my children, listen to me;
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
- ¹²Whoever of you loves life and desires to see many good days,
- ¹³keep your tongue from evil and your lips from telling lies.
- ¹⁴Turn from evil and do good;
seek peace and pursue it.
- ¹⁵The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous, and his ears are attentive to their cry;
- ¹⁶but the face of the LORD is against those who do evil, to blot out their name from the earth.
- ¹⁷The righteous cry out, and the LORD hears them; he delivers them from all their troubles.

¹⁸The LORD is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.

¹⁹The righteous person may have many troubles, but the LORD delivers him from them all;

²⁰he protects all his bones, not one of them will be broken.

²¹Evil will slay the wicked;
the foes of the righteous will be condemned.

²²The LORD will rescue his servants; no one who takes refuge in him will be condemned.

ROCK SOLID truths

Psalm 34:1–16

God invites people to try him out.

It might sound strange to “Taste and see that the LORD is good” (Psalm 34:8), like you’re taking a car for a spin before you buy. Or trying on clothes before handing over your money. Or sampling a spoonful before you commit to a whole bowl of ice cream. It’s true that God isn’t looking for on-again-off-again followers. Jesus tells us that to be his disciples we need to count the cost of following him (see Luke 14:28), give up our selfish selves and take up our cross (Mark 8:34), and obey him without looking back (see Luke 9:62). Even Jesus’ first followers had to get to know him and learn about his purpose on earth. God is not offended by your questions. So don’t be afraid to try God out. Let him demonstrate to you today that he is good.

Think: What does it mean to “taste God”? Who do you know who needs to try God?

Psalm 35

Of David.

- ¹Contend, LORD, with those who contend with me; fight against those who fight against me.
- ²Take up shield and armor;
arise and come to my aid.
- ³Brandish spear and javelin^[75]
against those who pursue me.
Say to me,
“I am your salvation.”
- ⁴May those who seek my life
be disgraced and put to shame;
may those who plot my ruin be turned back in dismay.
- ⁵May they be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of the LORD driving them away;
- ⁶may their path be dark and slippery,
with the angel of the LORD pursuing them.
- ⁷Since they hid their net for me without cause and without cause dug a pit for me,
- ⁸may ruin overtake them by surprise—
may the net they hid entangle them, may they fall into the pit, to their ruin.
- ⁹Then my soul will rejoice in the LORD and delight in his salvation.
- ¹⁰My whole being will exclaim, “Who is like you, LORD?
You rescue the poor from those too strong for them,
the poor and needy from those who rob them.”
- ¹¹Ruthless witnesses come forward;
they question me on things I know nothing about.
- ¹²They repay me evil for good and leave me like one bereaved.
- ¹³Yet when they were ill, I put on sackcloth and humbled myself with fasting.

When my prayers returned to me unanswered, ¹⁴I went about mourning
 as though for my friend or brother.
I bowed my head in grief
 as though weeping for my mother.

¹⁵But when I stumbled, they gathered in glee; assailants gathered against me without my knowledge.
 They slandered me without ceasing.

¹⁶Like the ungodly they maliciously mocked;^[76]
 they gnashed their teeth at me.

¹⁷How long, Lord, will you look on?
 Rescue me from their ravages,
 my precious life from these lions.

¹⁸I will give you thanks in the great assembly; among the throngs I will praise you.

¹⁹Do not let those gloat over me who are my enemies without cause;
 do not let those who hate me without reason maliciously wink the eye.

²⁰They do not speak peaceably, but devise false accusations against those who live quietly in the land.

²¹They sneer at me and say, “Aha! Aha!
 With our own eyes we have seen it.”

²²LORD, you have seen this; do not be silent.
 Do not be far from me, Lord.

²³Awake, and rise to my defense!
 Contend for me, my God and Lord.

²⁴Vindicate me in your righteousness, LORD my God; do not let them gloat over me.

²⁵Do not let them think, “Aha, just what we wanted!”
 or say, “We have swallowed him up.”

²⁶May all who gloat over my distress be put to shame and confusion;
 may all who exalt themselves over me be clothed with shame and disgrace.

²⁷May those who delight in my vindication shout for joy and gladness;
 may they always say, “The LORD be exalted,

who delights in the well-being of his servant.”

²⁸My tongue will proclaim your righteousness, your praises all day long.

Psalm 36^[77]

For the director of music. Of David the servant of the LORD.

- ¹I have a message from God in my heart concerning the sinfulness of the wicked:^[78]
There is no fear of God before their eyes.
- ²In their own eyes they flatter themselves too much to detect or hate their sin.
- ³The words of their mouths are wicked and deceitful; they fail to act wisely or do good.
- ⁴Even on their beds they plot evil;
they commit themselves to a sinful course and do not reject what is wrong.
- ⁵Your love, LORD, reaches to the heavens, your faithfulness to the skies.
- ⁶Your righteousness is like the highest mountains, your justice like the great deep.
You, LORD, preserve both people and animals.
- ⁷How priceless is your unfailing love, O God!
People take refuge in the shadow of your wings.
- ⁸They feast on the abundance of your house; you give them drink from your river of delights.
- ⁹For with you is the fountain of life;
in your light we see light.
- ¹⁰Continue your love to those who know you, your righteousness to the upright in heart.
- ¹¹May the foot of the proud not come against me, nor the hand of the wicked drive me away.
- ¹²See how the evildoers lie fallen—thrown down, not able to rise!

Psalm 37^[79]

Of David.

- ¹Do not fret because of those who are evil or be envious of those who do wrong;
- ²for like the grass they will soon wither, like green plants they will soon die away.
- ³Trust in the LORD and do good; dwell in the land and enjoy safe pasture.
- ⁴Take delight in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart.
- ⁵Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him and he will do this:
- ⁶He will make your righteous reward shine like the dawn, your vindication like the noonday sun.
- ⁷Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for him;
do not fret when people succeed in their ways,
when they carry out their wicked schemes.
- ⁸Refrain from anger and turn from wrath; do not fret—it leads only to evil.
- ⁹For those who are evil will be destroyed, but those who hope in the LORD will inherit the land.
- ¹⁰A little while, and the wicked will be no more; though you look for them, they will not be found.
- ¹¹But the meek will inherit the land and enjoy peace and prosperity.
- ¹²The wicked plot against the righteous and gnash their teeth at them;
- ¹³but the Lord laughs at the wicked,
for he knows their day is coming.
- ¹⁴The wicked draw the sword and bend the bow
to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those whose ways are upright.

- ¹⁵But their swords will pierce their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.
- ¹⁶Better the little that the righteous have than the wealth of many wicked;
- ¹⁷for the power of the wicked will be broken, but the LORD upholds the righteous.
- ¹⁸The blameless spend their days under the LORD's care, and their inheritance will endure forever.
- ¹⁹In times of disaster they will not wither; in days of famine they will enjoy plenty.
- ²⁰But the wicked will perish:
 Though the LORD's enemies are like the flowers of the field, they will be consumed, they will go up in smoke.
- ²¹The wicked borrow and do not repay, but the righteous give generously;
- ²²those the LORD blesses will inherit the land, but those he curses will be destroyed.
- ²³The LORD makes firm the steps of the one who delights in him;
- ²⁴though he may stumble, he will not fall, for the LORD upholds him with his hand.
- ²⁵I was young and now I am old, yet I have never seen the righteous forsaken or their children begging bread.
- ²⁶They are always generous and lend freely; their children will be a blessing.^[80]
- ²⁷Turn from evil and do good;
 then you will dwell in the land forever.
- ²⁸For the LORD loves the just and will not forsake his faithful ones.
 Wrongdoers will be completely destroyed^[81]; the offspring of the wicked will perish.
- ²⁹The righteous will inherit the land and dwell in it forever.
- ³⁰The mouths of the righteous utter wisdom, and their tongues speak what is just.

³¹The law of their God is in their hearts; their feet do not slip.

³²The wicked lie in wait for the righteous, intent on putting them to death;

³³but the LORD will not leave them in the power of the wicked or let them be condemned when brought to trial.

³⁴Hope in the LORD and keep his way.
He will exalt you to inherit the land;
when the wicked are destroyed, you will see it.

³⁵I have seen a wicked and ruthless man flourishing like a luxuriant native tree,

³⁶but he soon passed away and was no more; though I looked for him, he could not be found.

³⁷Consider the blameless, observe the upright; a future awaits those who seek peace.^[82]

³⁸But all sinners will be destroyed;
there will be no future^[83] for the wicked.

³⁹The salvation of the righteous comes from the LORD; he is their stronghold in time of trouble.

⁴⁰The LORD helps them and delivers them; he delivers them from the wicked and saves them, because they take refuge in him.

God invites you to trust him, do good, and make him your biggest desire. When you do, he promises to satisfy your heart and make your rightness shine as

Psalm 38^[84]

A psalm of David. A petition.

- ¹LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your wrath.
- ²Your arrows have pierced me,
and your hand has come down on me.
- ³Because of your wrath there is no health in my body; there is no soundness in my bones because of my sin.
- ⁴My guilt has overwhelmed me like a burden too heavy to bear.
- ⁵My wounds fester and are loathsome because of my sinful folly.
- ⁶I am bowed down and brought very low;
all day long I go about mourning.
- ⁷My back is filled with searing pain;
there is no health in my body.
- ⁸I am feeble and utterly crushed;
I groan in anguish of heart.
- ⁹All my longings lie open before you, Lord; my sighing is not hidden from you.
- ¹⁰My heart pounds, my strength fails me; even the light has gone from my eyes.
- ¹¹My friends and companions avoid me because of my wounds; my neighbors stay far away.
- ¹²Those who want to kill me set their traps, those who would harm me talk of my ruin;
all day long they scheme and lie.
- ¹³I am like the deaf, who cannot hear,
like the mute, who cannot speak;
- ¹⁴I have become like one who does not hear, whose mouth can offer no reply.
- ¹⁵LORD, I wait for you;
you will answer, Lord my God.
- ¹⁶For I said, "Do not let them gloat or exalt themselves over me when my feet slip.”

¹⁷For I am about to fall, and my pain is ever with me.

¹⁸I confess my iniquity;
I am troubled by my sin.

¹⁹Many have become my enemies without cause^[85]; those who hate me without reason are numerous.

²⁰Those who repay my good with evil lodge accusations against me, though I seek only to do what is good.

²¹LORD, do not forsake me; do not be far from me, my God.

²²Come quickly to help me,
my Lord and my Savior.

Psalm 39^[86]

For the director of music. For Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

- ¹I said, “I will watch my ways and keep my tongue from sin;
I will put a muzzle on my mouth
while in the presence of the wicked.”
- ²So I remained utterly silent, not even saying anything good.
But my anguish increased;
³my heart grew hot within me.
While I meditated, the fire burned;
then I spoke with my tongue:
- ⁴“Show me, LORD, my life’s end and the number of my days;
let me know how fleeting my life is.
- ⁵You have made my days a mere handbreadth; the span of my years is as nothing before you.
Everyone is but a breath,
even those who seem secure.^[87]
- ⁶“Surely everyone goes around like a mere phantom; in vain they rush about, heaping up wealth without knowing whose it will finally be.
- ⁷“But now, Lord, what do I look for?
My hope is in you.
- ⁸Save me from all my transgressions;
do not make me the scorn of fools.
- ⁹I was silent; I would not open my mouth, for you are the one who has done this.
- ¹⁰Remove your scourge from me;
I am overcome by the blow of your hand.
- ¹¹When you rebuke and discipline anyone for their sin, you consume their wealth like a moth— surely everyone is but a breath.
- ¹²“Hear my prayer, LORD, listen to my cry for help;
do not be deaf to my weeping.

I dwell with you as a foreigner,
a stranger, as all my ancestors were.

¹³Look away from me, that I may enjoy life again before I depart and am no more.”

Psalm 40^[88]

For the director of music. Of David. A psalm.

- ¹I waited patiently for the LORD; he turned to me and heard my cry.
- ²He lifted me out of the slimy pit,
out of the mud and mire;
he set my feet on a rock and gave me a firm place to stand.
- ³He put a new song in my mouth,
a hymn of praise to our God.
Many will see and fear the LORD and put their trust in him.
- ⁴Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD, who does not look to the proud, to those who turn aside to false gods.^[89]
- ⁵Many, LORD my God,
are the wonders you have done,
the things you planned for us.
None can compare with you;
were I to speak and tell of your deeds, they would be too many to declare.
- ⁶Sacrifice and offering you did not desire— but my ears you have opened^[90]— burnt offerings and sin offerings^[91] you did not require.
- ⁷Then I said, “Here I am, I have come—it is written about me in the scroll.^[92]”
- ⁸I desire to do your will, my God;
your law is within my heart.”
- ⁹I proclaim your saving acts in the great assembly; I do not seal my lips, LORD,
as you know.
- ¹⁰I do not hide your righteousness in my heart; I speak of your faithfulness and your saving help.

I do not conceal your love and your faithfulness from the great assembly.

¹¹Do not withhold your mercy from me, LORD; may your love and faithfulness always protect me.

¹²For troubles without number surround me; my sins have overtaken me, and I cannot see.

They are more than the hairs of my head,
and my heart fails within me.

¹³Be pleased to save me, LORD; come quickly, LORD, to help me.

¹⁴May all who want to take my life
be put to shame and confusion;
may all who desire my ruin
be turned back in disgrace.

¹⁵May those who say to me, “Aha! Aha!”
be appalled at their own shame.

¹⁶But may all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
may those who long for your saving help always say,
“The LORD is great!”

¹⁷But as for me, I am poor and needy;
may the Lord think of me.
You are my help and my deliverer;
you are my God, do not delay.

Psalm 40:1–6

Wait for God.

Almost everyone craves summer vacation, but Josiah was taking crave to another level. He felt trapped and alone, like his world would never get better. His friends had moved on to new people, all but abandoning him. School was simultaneously hard and boring, and youth group was small and struggling. His boss was a jerk. And when Josiah tried out for his favorite sport, B squad was the best he could do.

Hardest of all was the fact that God seemed to have exited his life. No matter how hard Josiah looked and prayed and tried to trust, it seemed like God was nowhere to be found.

When you cry out to God and he seems slow to reply, don't give up. God rescues in his time and his way, putting you on solid ground and striking awe in everyone who sees him act. And he's worth waiting for. Turning to "false gods" (Psalm 40:4) means counting on someone or something else to do what only God can do. But ultimate help comes from your potent and loving God.

Psalm 41^[93]

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

- ¹Blessed are those who have regard for the weak; the LORD delivers them in times of trouble.
- ²The LORD protects and preserves them— they are counted among the blessed in the land—he does not give them over to the desire of their foes.
- ³The LORD sustains them on their sickbed and restores them from their bed of illness.
- ⁴I said, “Have mercy on me, LORD; heal me, for I have sinned against you.”
- ⁵My enemies say of me in malice,
“When will he die and his name perish?”
- ⁶When one of them comes to see me,
he speaks falsely, while his heart gathers slander;
then he goes out and spreads it around.
- ⁷All my enemies whisper together against me; they imagine the worst for me, saying,
- ⁸“A vile disease has afflicted him;
he will never get up from the place where he lies.”
- ⁹Even my close friend,
someone I trusted,
one who shared my bread,
has turned^[94] against me.
- ¹⁰But may you have mercy on me, LORD; raise me up, that I may repay them.
- ¹¹I know that you are pleased with me,
for my enemy does not triumph over me.
- ¹²Because of my integrity you uphold me and set me in your presence forever.
- ¹³Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.

Amen and Amen.

BOOK II

PSALMS 42—72

Psalm 42^{[95],[96]}

For the director of music. A maskil^[97] of the Sons of Korah.

- ¹As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul pants for you, my God.
- ²My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When can I go and meet with God?
- ³My tears have been my food
day and night,
while people say to me all day long,
“Where is your God?”
- ⁴These things I remember as I pour out my soul:
how I used to go to the house of God
under the protection of the Mighty One^[98] with shouts of joy and praise among the festive throng.
- ⁵Why, my soul, are you downcast?
Why so disturbed within me?
Put your hope in God,
for I will yet praise him,
my Savior and my God.
- ⁶My soul is downcast within me;
therefore I will remember you from the land of the Jordan, the heights of Hermon—from Mount Mizar.
- ⁷Deep calls to deep in the roar of your waterfalls;
all your waves and breakers have swept over me.
- ⁸By day the LORD directs his love, at night his song is with me— a prayer to the God of my life.

⁹I say to God my Rock,
“Why have you forgotten me?
Why must I go about mourning,
oppressed by the enemy?”
¹⁰My bones suffer mortal agony
as my foes taunt me, saying to me all day long,
“Where is your God?”
¹¹Why, my soul, are you downcast?
Why so disturbed within me?
Put your hope in God,
for I will yet praise him,
my Savior and my God.

Psalm 42:1–9

God is desirable.

The ancient Israelites knew the feeling of real thirst. Those desert-dwellers understood that drinkable water was desperately valuable—and an entire city could live or die by its water supply (see 2 Kings 2:20–22). This song by the Sons of Korah describes a deer on the hunt for a life-giving stream, searching instinctively for a clean flowing brook to quench its thirst. That’s the same panting desire you can have for God. It’s not a desire you have to force yourself to feel but a natural response that comes when you appreciate God’s true worth. Once you have had a deep drink of God, you won’t stop wanting more.

So ... How much do you thirst for God? How can you increase your thirst?

Psalm 43^[99]

¹Vindicate me, my God, and plead my cause
against an unfaithful nation.
Rescue me from those who are deceitful and wicked.

²You are God my stronghold.
Why have you rejected me?
Why must I go about mourning,
oppressed by the enemy?

³Send me your light and your faithful care,

“Send me your light and your faithful care, let them lead me.”

Psalm 43:3

God will light up dark situations and clear up your confusion. Then you will know what to do.

(Rock Solid PROMISES Index)

let them lead me;
let them bring me to your holy mountain,
to the place where you dwell.

⁴Then I will go to the altar of God,
to God, my joy and my delight.
I will praise you with the lyre,
O God, my God.

⁵Why, my soul, are you downcast?
Why so disturbed within me?
Put your hope in God,
for I will yet praise him,
my Savior and my God.

Psalm 44^[100]

For the director of music. Of the Sons of Korah. A maskil.^[101]

- ¹We have heard it with our ears, O God; our ancestors have told us
what you did in their days,
in days long ago.
- ²With your hand you drove out the nations and planted our ancestors;
you crushed the peoples
and made our ancestors flourish.
- ³It was not by their sword that they won the land, nor did their arm bring them victory;
it was your right hand, your arm,
and the light of your face, for you loved them.
- ⁴You are my King and my God, who decrees^[102] victories for Jacob.
- ⁵Through you we push back our enemies;
through your name we trample our foes.
- ⁶I put no trust in my bow,
my sword does not bring me victory;
- ⁷but you give us victory over our enemies, you put our adversaries to shame.
- ⁸In God we make our boast all day long, and we will praise your name forever.^[103]
- ⁹But now you have rejected and humbled us; you no longer go out with our armies.
- ¹⁰You made us retreat before the enemy, and our adversaries have plundered us.
- ¹¹You gave us up to be devoured like sheep and have scattered us among the nations.
- ¹²You sold your people for a pittance, gaining nothing from their sale.
- ¹³You have made us a reproach to our neighbors, the scorn and derision of those around us.

¹⁴You have made us a byword among the nations; the peoples shake their heads at us.

¹⁵I live in disgrace all day long,
and my face is covered with shame

¹⁶at the taunts of those who reproach and revile me, because of the enemy, who is bent on revenge.

¹⁷All this came upon us,
though we had not forgotten you;
we had not been false to your covenant.

¹⁸Our hearts had not turned back;
our feet had not strayed from your path.

¹⁹But you crushed us and made us a haunt for jackals; you covered us over with deep darkness.

²⁰If we had forgotten the name of our God or spread out our hands to a foreign god,

²¹would not God have discovered it, since he knows the secrets of the heart?

²²Yet for your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.

²³Awake, Lord! Why do you sleep?
Rouse yourself! Do not reject us forever.

²⁴Why do you hide your face and forget our misery and oppression?

²⁵We are brought down to the dust;
our bodies cling to the ground.

²⁶Rise up and help us;
rescue us because of your unfailing love.

Psalm 45^[104]

For the director of music. To the tune of “Lilies.” Of the Sons of Korah. A maskil.^[105] A wedding song.

- ¹My heart is stirred by a noble theme as I recite my verses for the king;
my tongue is the pen of a skillful writer.
- ²You are the most excellent of men and your lips have been anointed with grace, since God has blessed you forever.
- ³Gird your sword on your side, you mighty one; clothe yourself with splendor and majesty.
- ⁴In your majesty ride forth victoriously in the cause of truth, humility and justice;
let your right hand achieve awesome deeds.
- ⁵Let your sharp arrows pierce the hearts of the king’s enemies; let the nations fall beneath your feet.
- ⁶Your throne, O God,^[106] will last for ever and ever; a scepter of justice will be the scepter of your kingdom.
- ⁷You love righteousness and hate wickedness; therefore God, your God, has set you above your companions
by anointing you with the oil of joy.
- ⁸All your robes are fragrant with myrrh and aloes and cassia;
from palaces adorned with ivory the music of the strings makes you glad.
- ⁹Daughters of kings are among your honored women; at your right hand is the royal bride in gold of Ophir.
- ¹⁰Listen, daughter, and pay careful attention: Forget your people and your father’s house.
- ¹¹Let the king be enthralled by your beauty; honor him, for he is your lord.
- ¹²The city of Tyre will come with a gift,^[107] people of wealth will seek your favor.
- ¹³All glorious is the princess within her chamber; her gown is interwoven with gold.

¹⁴In embroidered garments she is led to the king; her virgin companions follow her— those brought to be with her.

¹⁵Led in with joy and gladness, they enter the palace of the king.

¹⁶Your sons will take the place of your fathers; you will make them princes throughout the land.

¹⁷I will perpetuate your memory through all generations; therefore the nations will praise you for ever and ever.

¹¹The LORD Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress.

Psalm 47^[112]

For the director of music. Of the Sons of Korah. A psalm.

- ¹Clap your hands, all you nations;
shout to God with cries of joy.
- ²For the LORD Most High is awesome, the great King over all the earth.
- ³He subdued nations under us,
peoples under our feet.
- ⁴He chose our inheritance for us,
the pride of Jacob, whom he loved.^[113]
- ⁵God has ascended amid shouts of joy,
the LORD amid the sounding of trumpets.
- ⁶Sing praises to God, sing praises;
sing praises to our King, sing praises.
- ⁷For God is the King of all the earth;
sing to him a psalm of praise.
- ⁸God reigns over the nations;
God is seated on his holy throne.
- ⁹The nobles of the nations assemble as the people of the God of Abraham, for the kings^[114] of the earth belong to God; he is greatly exalted.

ROCK SOLID truths

Psalm 47:1–9

God rules the whole world.

Israel's Old Testament neighbors believed their gods were local deities whose power was limited to a small place and select group of people, like Baal was lord over the land of Canaan, or Molech was god of the Phoenicians. Then God came along and revealed himself to Abraham and promised "all peoples on earth will be blessed through you" (Genesis 12:3). That was just the start of God revealing to everyone that he rules not just a clan in ancient Israel but the whole world. He is “LORD Most High ... the great King over all the earth” (Psalm 47:2). He “reigns over the nations” (Psalm 47:8). So “all you nations” can clap and shout to God with joy (Psalm 47:1). Everyone and everything in the world belongs to him.

Think: Suppose it’s true that God rules the whole world. How does that change how you will live today?

Psalm 48^[115]

A song. A psalm of the Sons of Korah.

- ¹Great is the LORD, and most worthy of praise, in the city of our God, his holy mountain.
- ²Beautiful in its loftiness,
the joy of the whole earth,
like the heights of Zaphon^[116] is Mount Zion, the city of the Great King.
- ³God is in her citadels;
he has shown himself to be her fortress.
- ⁴When the kings joined forces,
when they advanced together,
- ⁵they saw her and were astounded;
they fled in terror.
- ⁶Trembling seized them there,
pain like that of a woman in labor.
- ⁷You destroyed them like ships of Tarshish shattered by an east wind.
- ⁸As we have heard,
so we have seen in the city of the LORD Almighty, in the city of our God:
God makes her secure forever.^[117]
- ⁹Within your temple, O God,
we meditate on your unfailing love.
- ¹⁰Like your name, O God, your praise reaches to the ends of the earth;
your right hand is filled with righteousness.
- ¹¹Mount Zion rejoices, the villages of Judah are glad because of your judgments.
- ¹²Walk about Zion, go around her,
count her towers,

¹³consider well her ramparts, view her citadels,
that you may tell of them
to the next generation.

¹⁴For this God is our God for ever and ever; he will be our guide even to the end.

Psalm 49^[118]

For the director of music. Of the Sons of Korah. A psalm.

- ¹Hear this, all you peoples;
listen, all who live in this world, ²both low and high,
rich and poor alike:
³My mouth will speak words of wisdom;
the meditation of my heart will give you understanding.
⁴I will turn my ear to a proverb;
with the harp I will expound my riddle:
⁵Why should I fear when evil days come, when wicked deceivers surround me— ⁶those who trust in their wealth
and boast of their great riches?
⁷No one can redeem the life of another or give to God a ransom for them—⁸the ransom for a life is costly, no payment is ever enough—⁹so that they should live on forever and not see decay.
¹⁰For all can see that the wise die,
that the foolish and the senseless also perish,
leaving their wealth to others.
¹¹Their tombs will remain their houses^[119] forever, their dwellings for endless generations, though they had^[120] named lands after themselves.
¹²People, despite their wealth, do not endure; they are like the beasts that perish.
¹³This is the fate of those who trust in themselves, and of their followers, who approve their sayings.^[121] ¹⁴They are like sheep and are destined to die; death will be their shepherd (but the upright will prevail over them in the morning).

Their forms will decay in the grave, far from their princely mansions.

¹⁵But God will redeem me from the realm of the dead; he will surely take me to himself.

¹⁶Do not be overawed when others grow rich, when the splendor of their houses increases;

¹⁷for they will take nothing with them when they die, their splendor will not descend with them.

¹⁸Though while they live they count themselves blessed—and people praise you when you prosper—

¹⁹they will join those who have gone before them, who will never again see the light of life.

²⁰People who have wealth but lack understanding are like the beasts that perish.

Psalm 50

A psalm of Asaph.

- ¹The Mighty One, God, the LORD, speaks and summons the earth from the rising of the sun to where it sets.
- ²From Zion, perfect in beauty,
God shines forth.
- ³Our God comes
and will not be silent;
a fire devours before him,
and around him a tempest rages.
- ⁴He summons the heavens above,
and the earth, that he may judge his people:
- ⁵“Gather to me this consecrated people, who made a covenant with me by sacrifice.”
- ⁶And the heavens proclaim his righteousness, for he is a God of justice. ^{[122],[123]}
- ⁷“Listen, my people, and I will speak;
I will testify against you, Israel:
I am God, your God.
- ⁸I bring no charges against you concerning your sacrifices or concerning your burnt offerings, which are ever before me.
- ⁹I have no need of a bull from your stall or of goats from your pens,
- ¹⁰for every animal of the forest is mine, and the cattle on a thousand hills.
- ¹¹I know every bird in the mountains, and the insects in the fields are mine.
- ¹²If I were hungry I would not tell you, for the world is mine, and all that is in it.
- ¹³Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?
- ¹⁴“Sacrifice thank offerings to God, fulfill your vows to the Most High,

¹⁵and call on me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you will honor me.”

¹⁶But to the wicked person, God says:

“What right have you to recite my laws or take my covenant on your lips?

¹⁷You hate my instruction and cast my words behind you.

¹⁸When you see a thief, you join with him; you throw in your lot with adulterers.

¹⁹You use your mouth for evil and harness your tongue to deceit.

²⁰You sit and testify against your brother and slander your own mother’s son.

²¹When you did these things and I kept silent, you thought I was exactly^[124] like you.

But I now arraign you and set my accusations before you.

²²“Consider this, you who forget God, or I will tear you to pieces, with no one to rescue
you:

²³Those who sacrifice thank offerings honor me, and to the blameless^[125] I will show my salvation.”

Psalm 50:12

God is independent.

God has a flawless grasp of the inner workings of your heart and mind. He wants to be closer than close with you.

But don't miss the fact that as God, he is the one "independent" or "self-sufficient" being in the universe, having everything he needs in himself. Put simply, God doesn't need us at all. And that's a good thing. When God created human beings, he wasn't designing a collection of action figures to entertain himself. He didn't make us because he was lonely. He gave us life because he wanted to show us his love and share his goodness and glory.

So ... Explain it in your own words—what's the connection between God's independence and his love for you?

- ¹Have mercy on me, O God, according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.

- ²Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.
- ³For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.
- ⁴Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight;
so you are right in your verdict and justified when you judge.
- ⁵Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.
- ⁶Yet you desired faithfulness even in the womb; you taught me wisdom in that secret place.
- ⁷Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
- ⁸Let me hear joy and gladness;
let the bones you have crushed rejoice.
- ⁹Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.
- ¹⁰Create in me a pure heart, O God,
and renew a steadfast spirit within me.
- ¹¹Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.
- ¹²Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a

- ¹³Then I will teach transgressors your ways, so that sinners will turn back to you.
- ¹⁴Deliver me from the guilt of bloodshed, O God, you who are God my Savior,

- and my tongue will sing of your righteousness.
- ¹⁵Open my lips, Lord,
and my mouth will declare your praise.
- ¹⁶You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it; you do not take pleasure in burnt offerings.
- ¹⁷My sacrifice, O God, is^[127] a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart
you, God, will not despise.
- ¹⁸May it please you to prosper Zion, to build up the walls of Jerusalem.
- ¹⁹Then you will delight in the sacrifices of the righteous, in burnt offerings offered whole;
then bulls will be offered on your altar.

Psalm 51:1–19

Confess your sins.

Ella wasn't so dumb that she stole from the cash registers—that would be too easily detected. She didn't rip off customer credit card numbers—that was too high risk. But she did take advantage of her job at a huge discount chain to pocket whatever cosmetics she needed. Lipstick, eye liner, mascara—they all slipped easily into her pocket and then into her purse. Ella knew she was done for, however, when the store's loss prevention officer called her over to watch a few clips of surveillance video. While the store didn't press charges, Ella was instantly out of a job. She knew her manager wasn't happy with her behavior, and she was sure God wasn't either.

The prophet Nathan didn't let David get away with stealing another man's wife and getting the man killed in battle (see 2 Samuel 12:1–14). Psalm 51 captures David's words coming clean about this awful sin. Borrow these words when you need to admit your sins to God. You can decay;

the bloodthirsty and deceitful
will not live out half their days.

ROCK SOLID truths

Psalm 55:12–14

Friends can turn on you.

You can't help but feel for David as he lists all of his heartaches at the start of Psalm 55. He has enemies outside. Anguish inside. And he has to plead with God not to ignore his prayer. But the real stab comes when you read a bit further. It's not just any old foe opposing David. It's his "companion" and "close friend" (Psalm 55:13). Many believers see a picture here of the betrayal Jesus felt when his disciple Judas turned on him and handed him over to the Romans (see Luke 22:47-48). Judas, after all, started out as one of the Lord's handpicked friends and followers. If people like David and Jesus were sold out by close friends, it shouldn't surprise you when acquaintances ... and classmates ... and significant others ... and even close friends or family members ... turn and bite you.

Think: How does it help you to know that David and Jesus felt betrayed by their closest friends?

⁴In God, whose word I praise—in God I trust and am not afraid.
What can mere mortals do to me?
- ⁵All day long they twist my words;
all their schemes are for my ruin.
- ⁶They conspire, they lurk,
they watch my steps,
hoping to take my life.
- ⁷Because of their wickedness do not^[142] let them escape; in your anger, God, bring the nations down.
- ⁸Record my misery;
list my tears on your scroll^[143]— are they not in your record?
- ⁹Then my enemies will turn back
when I call for help.
By this I will know that God is for me.
- ¹⁰In God, whose word I praise,
in the LORD, whose word I praise—
- ¹¹in God I trust and am not afraid.
What can man do to me?
- ¹²I am under vows to you, my God;
I will present my thank offerings to you.
- ¹³For you have delivered me from death and my feet from stumbling, that I may walk before God

in the light of life.

Psalm 57^[144]

For the director of music. To the tune of “Do Not Destroy.” Of David. A miktam.^[145] When he had fled from Saul into the cave.

- ¹Have mercy on me, my God, have mercy on me, for in you
I take refuge.
I will take refuge in the shadow of your wings until the disaster has passed.
- ²I cry out to God Most High,
to God, who vindicates me.
- ³He sends from heaven and saves me,
rebuking those who hotly pursue me—^[146]
God sends forth his love and his faithfulness.
- ⁴I am in the midst of lions;
I am forced to dwell among ravenous beasts—men whose teeth are spears and arrows, whose tongues are sharp swords.
- ⁵Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
let your glory be over all the earth.
- ⁶They spread a net for my feet—
I was bowed down in distress.
They dug a pit in my path—
but they have fallen into it themselves.
- ⁷My heart, O God, is steadfast,
my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and make music.
- ⁸Awake, my soul!
Awake, harp and lyre!
I will awaken the dawn.
- ⁹I will praise you, Lord, among the nations; I will sing of you among the peoples.

Psalm 58^[147]

For the director of music. To the tune of “Do Not Destroy.” Of David. A miktam.^[148]

- ¹Do you rulers indeed speak justly?
Do you judge people with equity?
- ²No, in your heart you devise injustice, and your hands mete out violence on the earth.
- ³Even from birth the wicked go astray;
from the womb they are wayward, spreading lies.
- ⁴Their venom is like the venom of a snake, like that of a cobra that has stopped its ears,
- ⁵that will not heed the tune of the charmer, however skillful the enchanter may be.
- ⁶Break the teeth in their mouths, O God; LORD, tear out the fangs of those lions!
- ⁷Let them vanish like water that flows away; when they draw the bow, let their arrows fall short.
- ⁸May they be like a slug that melts away as it moves along,
like a stillborn child that never sees the sun.
- ⁹Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns— whether they be green or dry—the wicked will be swept away.^[149]
- ¹⁰The righteous will be glad when they are avenged, when they dip their feet in the blood of the wicked.
- ¹¹Then people will say, “Surely the righteous still are rewarded; surely there is a God who judges the earth.”

Psalm 59^[150]

For the director of music. To the tune of “Do Not Destroy.” Of David. A miktam.^[151] When Saul had sent men to watch David’s house in order to kill him.

- ¹Deliver me from my enemies, O God;
be my fortress against those who are attacking me.
- ²Deliver me from evildoers and save me from those who are after my blood.
- ³See how they lie in wait for me!
Fierce men conspire against me for no offense or sin of mine, LORD.
- ⁴I have done no wrong, yet they are ready to attack me.
Arise to help me; look on my plight!
- ⁵You, LORD God Almighty, you who are the God of Israel, rouse yourself to punish all the nations;
show no mercy to wicked traitors.^[152]
- ⁶They return at evening,
snarling like dogs,
and prowl about the city.
- ⁷See what they spew from their mouths—
the words from their lips are sharp as swords, and they think, “Who can hear us?”
- ⁸But you laugh at them, LORD; you scoff at all those nations.
- ⁹You are my strength, I watch for you;
you, God, are my fortress, ¹⁰my God on whom I can rely.
God will go before me
and will let me gloat over those who slander me.
- ¹¹But do not kill them, Lord our shield,^[153]
or my people will forget.
In your might uproot them
and bring them down.
- ¹²For the sins of their mouths,
for the words of their lips,
let them be caught in their pride.
For the curses and lies they utter,

¹³consume them in your wrath, consume them till they are no more.
Then it will be known to the ends of the earth that God rules over Jacob.

¹⁴They return at evening,
snarling like dogs,
and prowl about the city.

¹⁵They wander about for food and howl if not satisfied.

¹⁶But I will sing of your strength, in the morning I will sing of your love;
for you are my fortress,
my refuge in times of trouble.

¹⁷You are my strength, I sing praise to you; you, God, are my fortress,
my God on whom I can rely.

Psalm 60^[154]

For the director of music. To the tune of “The Lily of the Covenant.” A miktam^[155] of David. For teaching. When he fought Aram Naharaim^[156] and Aram Zobah,^[157] and when Joab returned and struck down twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

- ¹You have rejected us, God, and burst upon us; you have been angry—now restore us!
- ²You have shaken the land and torn it open; mend its fractures, for it is quaking.
- ³You have shown your people desperate times; you have given us wine that makes us stagger.
- ⁴But for those who fear you, you have raised a banner to be unfurled against the bow.^[158]
- ⁵Save us and help us with your right hand, that those you love may be delivered.
- ⁶God has spoken from his sanctuary:
“In triumph I will parcel out Shechem and measure off the Valley of Sukkoth.
- ⁷Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine;
Ephraim is my helmet,
Judah is my scepter.
- ⁸Moab is my washbasin,
on Edom I toss my sandal;
over Philistia I shout in triumph.”
- ⁹Who will bring me to the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
- ¹⁰Is it not you, God, you who have now rejected us and no longer go out with our armies?
- ¹¹Give us aid against the enemy,
for human help is worthless.
- ¹²With God we will gain the victory,
and he will trample down our enemies.

Psalm 61^[159]

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. Of David.

¹Hear my cry, O God;
listen to my prayer.

²From the ends of the earth I call to you, I call as my heart a strong tower against the foe.

⁴I long to dwell in your tent forever and take refuge in the shelter of your wings.^[160]

⁵For you, God, have heard my vows;

Psalm 62^[161]

For the director of music. For Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

- ¹Truly my soul finds rest in God;
my salvation comes from him.
- ²Truly he is my rock and my salvation;
he is my fortress, I will never be shaken.
- ³How long will you assault me?
Would all of you throw me down—
this leaning wall, this tottering fence?
- ⁴Surely they intend to topple me from my lofty place;
they take delight in lies.
With their mouths they bless,
but in their hearts they curse.^[162]
- ⁵Yes, my soul, find rest in God;
my hope comes from him.
- ⁶Truly he is my rock and my salvation;
he is my fortress, I will not be shaken.
- ⁷My salvation and my honor depend on God^[163]; he is my mighty rock, my refuge.
- ⁸Trust in him at all times, you people; pour out your hearts to
him,
for God is our refuge.
- ⁹Surely the lowborn are but a breath,
the highborn are but a lie.
If weighed on a balance, they are nothing;
together they are only a breath.
- ¹⁰Do not trust in extortion or put vain hope in stolen goods;
though your riches increase,
do not set your heart on them.
- ¹¹One thing God has spoken,
two things I have heard:
“Power belongs to you, God,

¹²and with you, Lord, is unfailing love”; and, “You reward everyone according to what they have done.”

ROCK SOLID truths

Psalm 62:1–12

Salvation only comes from God.

King David expects to get salvation only from God. Period. Nowhere else. As he writes this song the kind of salvation he needs is a rescue from enemies. They push on him like a tipping fence, using lies and curses to topple him. But David has a reason to trust God. He has hung out with the Lord enough to say, “Power belongs to you, God, and with you, Lord, is unfailing love” (Psalm 62:11–12). If David had confidence God would save him from earthly enemies, we can be even surer that God will give us an even bigger salvation—rescue from sin and a forever home in heaven. The apostle Peter was talking about Jesus when he said, “Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved” (Acts 4:12). We get eternal salvation only from Jesus. Period. Nowhere else.

Think: Do you think your God is the only way to real happiness and a home in heaven? Why—or why not?

Psalm 63^[164]

A psalm of David. When he was in the Desert of Judah.

- ¹You, God, are my God, earnestly I seek you;
I thirst for you,
my whole being longs for you,
in a dry and parched land
where there is no water.
- ²I have seen you in the sanctuary and beheld your power and your glory.
- ³Because your love is better than life, my lips will glorify
you.
- ⁴I will praise you as long as I live,
and in your name I will lift up my hands.
- ⁵I will be fully satisfied as with the richest of foods; with singing lips my mouth will praise you.
- ⁶On my bed I remember you;
I think of you through the watches of the night.
- ⁷Because you are my help,
I sing in the shadow of your wings.
- ⁸I cling to you;
your right hand upholds me.
- ⁹Those who want to kill me will be destroyed; they will go down to the depths of the earth.
- ¹⁰They will be given over to the sword and become food for jackals.
- ¹¹But the king will rejoice in God;
all who swear by God will glory in him,
while the mouths of liars will be silenced.

UNSHAKEN God

Psalm 63:2

God is glorious.

God surely wants to be your best friend in all the world—forever. But that doesn't make him your pal, buddy, or peer. In Psalm 63, David glimpses God “in the sanctuary,” the Old Testament tabernacle where God promised to be intensely present with his people (see Exodus 29:45). What David spots is God's glory, his bright shining majesty, the weightiness that makes him God. It's tempting to turn the Lord into a mini-god you tuck in your pocket and ignore until you need him. But God wants you to see him glowing in all of his heavenly glory—and be filled with awe.

So ... When have you treated God like a peer? How can you give him the awe-filled respect he deserves?

Psalm 64^[165]

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

- ¹Hear me, my God, as I voice my complaint; protect my life from the threat of the enemy.
- ²Hide me from the conspiracy of the wicked, from the plots of evildoers.
- ³They sharpen their tongues like swords and aim cruel words like deadly arrows.
- ⁴They shoot from ambush at the innocent; they shoot suddenly, without fear.
- ⁵They encourage each other in evil plans, they talk about hiding their snares;
they say, “Who will see it^[166]?”
- ⁶They plot injustice and say,
“We have devised a perfect plan!”
Surely the human mind and heart are cunning.
- ⁷But God will shoot them with his arrows; they will suddenly be struck down.
- ⁸He will turn their own tongues against them and bring them to ruin;
all who see them will shake their heads in scorn.
- ⁹All people will fear;
they will proclaim the works of God and ponder what he has done.
- ¹⁰The righteous will rejoice in the LORD and take refuge in him;
all the upright in heart will glory in him!

Psalm 65^[167]

For the director of music. A psalm of David. A song.

- ¹Praise awaits^[168] you, our God, in Zion; to you our vows will be fulfilled.
- ²You who answer prayer,
to you all people will come.
- ³When we were overwhelmed by sins,
you forgave^[169] our transgressions.
- ⁴Blessed are those you choose and bring near to live in your courts!
We are filled with the good things of your house,
of your holy temple.
- ⁵You answer us with awesome and righteous deeds, God our Savior,
the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas,
- ⁶who formed the mountains by your power, having armed yourself with strength,
- ⁷who stilled the roaring of the seas,
the roaring of their waves,
and the turmoil of the nations.
- ⁸The whole earth is filled with awe at your wonders; where morning dawns, where evening fades, you call forth songs of joy.
- ⁹You care for the land and water it;
you enrich it abundantly.
The streams of God are filled with water to provide the people with grain, for so you have ordained it.^[170]
- ¹⁰You drench its furrows and level its ridges; you soften it with showers and bless its crops.
- ¹¹You crown the year with your bounty, and your carts overflow with abundance.
- ¹²The grasslands of the wilderness overflow; the hills are clothed with gladness.

¹³The meadows are covered with flocks and the valleys are mantled with grain;
they shout for joy and sing.

Psalm 66

For the director of music. A song. A psalm.

- ¹Shout for joy to God, all the earth!
²Sing the glory of his name;
make his praise glorious.
- ³Say to God, “How awesome are your deeds!
So great is your power that your enemies cringe before you.
- ⁴All the earth bows down to you;
they sing praise to you,
they sing the praises of your name.”^[171]
- ⁵Come and see what God has done, his awesome deeds for mankind!
- ⁶He turned the sea into dry land, they passed through the waters on foot—come, let us rejoice in him.
- ⁷He rules forever by his power, his eyes watch the nations—
let not the rebellious rise up against him.
- ⁸Praise our God, all peoples,
let the sound of his praise be heard;
- ⁹he has preserved our lives and kept our feet from slipping.
- ¹⁰For you, God, tested us;
you refined us like silver.
- ¹¹You brought us into prison and laid burdens on our backs.
- ¹²You let people ride over our heads;
we went through fire and water,
but you brought us to a place of abundance.
- ¹³I will come to your temple with burnt offerings and fulfill my vows to you— ¹⁴vows my lips promised and my mouth spoke when I was in trouble.
- ¹⁵I will sacrifice fat animals to you and an offering of rams;

I will offer bulls and goats.

¹⁶Come and hear, all you who fear God;
let me tell you what he has done for me.

¹⁷I cried out to him with my mouth;
his praise was on my tongue.

¹⁸If I had cherished sin in my heart,
the Lord would not have listened;

¹⁹but God has surely listened and has heard my prayer.

²⁰Praise be to God, who has not rejected my prayer or withheld his love from me!

Psalm 67^[172]

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A psalm. A song.

- ¹May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face shine on us—^[173]
- ²so that your ways may be known on earth, your salvation among all nations.
- ³May the peoples praise you, God;
may all the peoples praise you.
- ⁴May the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you rule the peoples with equity and guide the nations of the earth.
- ⁵May the peoples praise you, God;
may all the peoples praise you.
- ⁶The land yields its harvest;
God, our God, blesses us.
- ⁷May God bless us still,
so that all the ends of the earth will fear him.

Psalm 67:1–7

God is absolute.

Plenty of people picture God as a harsh judge waiting to send people to hell. That caricature misses the Lord's love and compassion, but God truly is the ultimate and absolute judge, the final moral authority. Psalm 9:7–8 says "The LORD reigns forever; he has established his throne for judgment. He rules the world in righteousness and judges the peoples with equity.” And Psalm 67 fills out that picture of God as total ruler of the universe. He blesses ... shows us the right way to live ... sends salvation ... makes the world glad ... rules justly ... and guides every nation on earth. Because God reigns as judge he will one day put an end to every kind of evil. That’s a very good thing.

So ... God rules as judge of the world. Is that good or bad? Why?

Psalm 68^[174]

For the director of music. Of David. A psalm. A song.

- ¹May God arise, may his enemies be scattered; may his foes flee before him.
- ²May you blow them away like smoke—
as wax melts before the fire, may the wicked perish before God.
- ³But may the righteous be glad and rejoice before God;
may they be happy and joyful.
- ⁴Sing to God, sing in praise of his name, extol him who rides on the clouds^[175]; rejoice before him—his name is the LORD.
- ⁵A father to the fatherless, a defender of widows, is God in his holy dwelling.
- ⁶God sets the lonely in families,^[176]
he leads out the prisoners with singing;
but the rebellious live in a sun-scorched land.
- ⁷When you, God, went out before your people, when you marched through the wilderness,^[177]
- ⁸the earth shook, the heavens poured down rain, before God, the One of Sinai,
before God, the God of Israel.
- ⁹You gave abundant showers, O God;
you refreshed your weary inheritance.
- ¹⁰Your people settled in it, and from your bounty, God, you provided for the poor.
- ¹¹The Lord announces the word,
and the women who proclaim it are a mighty throng:
- ¹²“Kings and armies flee in haste;
the women at home divide the plunder.
- ¹³Even while you sleep among the sheep pens,^[178]
the wings of my dove are sheathed with silver, its feathers with shining gold.”

¹⁴When the Almighty^[179] scattered the kings in the land, it was like snow fallen on Mount Zalmon.

¹⁵Mount Bashan, majestic mountain,
Mount Bashan, rugged mountain,

¹⁶why gaze in envy, you rugged mountain, at the mountain where God chooses to reign,
where the LORD himself will dwell forever?

¹⁷The chariots of God are tens of thousands and thousands of thousands;
the Lord has come from Sinai into his sanctuary.^[180]

¹⁸When you ascended on high,
you took many captives;
you received gifts from people,
even from^[181] the rebellious— that you,^[182] LORD God, might dwell there.

¹⁹Praise be to the Lord, to God our Savior, who daily bears our burdens.

²⁰Our God is a God who saves;
from the Sovereign LORD comes escape from death.

²¹Surely God will crush the heads of his enemies, the hairy crowns of those who go on in their sins.

²²The Lord says, “I will bring them from Bashan; I will bring them from the depths of the sea,

²³that your feet may wade in the blood of your foes, while the tongues of your dogs have their share.”

²⁴Your procession, God, has come into view, the procession of my God and King into the sanctuary.

²⁵In front are the singers, after them the musicians; with them are the young women playing the timbrels.

²⁶Praise God in the great congregation; praise the LORD in the assembly of Israel.

²⁷There is the little tribe of Benjamin, leading them, there the great throng of Judah’s princes, and there the princes of Zebulun and of Naphtali.

²⁸Summon your power, God^[183]; show us your strength, our God, as you have done before.

²⁹Because of your temple at Jerusalem kings will bring you gifts.

³⁰Rebuke the beast among the reeds,
the herd of bulls among the calves of the nations.
Humbled, may the beast bring bars of silver.
Scatter the nations who delight in war.

³¹Envoys will come from Egypt;
Cush^[184] will submit herself to God.

³²Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth, sing praise to the Lord,

³³to him who rides across the highest heavens, the ancient heavens, who thunders with mighty voice.

³⁴Proclaim the power of God, whose majesty is over Israel,
whose power is in the heavens.

³⁵You, God, are awesome in your sanctuary; the God of Israel gives power and strength to his people.
Praise be to God!

Psalm 69^[185]

For the director of music. To the tune of "Lilies." Of David.

- ¹Save me, O God,
for the waters have come up to my neck.
- ²I sink in the miry depths,
where there is no foothold.
I have come into the deep waters;
the floods engulf me.
- ³I am worn out calling for help;
my throat is parched.
My eyes fail,
looking for my God.
- ⁴Those who hate me without reason outnumber the hairs of my head;
many are my enemies without cause,
those who seek to destroy me.
I am forced to restore what I did not steal.
- ⁵You, God, know my folly;
my guilt is not hidden from you.
- ⁶Lord, the LORD Almighty, may those who hope in you not be disgraced because of me;
God of Israel,
may those who seek you
not be put to shame because of me.
- ⁷For I endure scorn for your sake, and shame covers my face.
- ⁸I am a foreigner to my own family,
a stranger to my own mother's children;
- ⁹for zeal for your house consumes me,
and the insults of those who insult you fall on me.
- ¹⁰When I weep and fast,
I must endure scorn;
- ¹¹when I put on sackcloth, people make sport of me.

- ¹²Those who sit at the gate mock me,
and I am the song of the drunkards.
- ¹³But I pray to you, LORD, in the time of your favor;
in your great love, O God, answer me with your sure salvation.
- ¹⁴Rescue me from the mire,
do not let me sink;
deliver me from those who hate me,
from the deep waters.
- ¹⁵Do not let the floodwaters engulf me or the depths swallow me up or the pit close its mouth over me.
- ¹⁶Answer me, LORD, out of the goodness of your love; in your great mercy turn to me.
- ¹⁷Do not hide your face from your servant; answer me quickly, for I am in trouble.
- ¹⁸Come near and rescue me;
deliver me because of my foes.
- ¹⁹You know how I am scorned, disgraced and shamed; all my enemies are before you.
- ²⁰Scorn has broken my heart and has left me helpless;
I looked for sympathy, but there was none,
for comforters, but I found none.
- ²¹They put gall in my food and gave me vinegar for my thirst.
- ²²May the table set before them become a snare; may it become retribution and^[186] a trap.
- ²³May their eyes be darkened so they cannot see, and their backs be bent forever.
- ²⁴Pour out your wrath on them;
let your fierce anger overtake them.
- ²⁵May their place be deserted;
let there be no one to dwell in their tents.
- ²⁶For they persecute those you wound and talk about the pain of those you hurt.
- ²⁷Charge them with crime upon crime;
do not let them share in your salvation.

²⁸May they be blotted out of the book of life and not be listed with the righteous.

²⁹But as for me, afflicted and in pain— may your salvation, God, protect me.

³⁰I will praise God's name in song and glorify him with thanksgiving.

³¹This will please the LORD more than an ox, more than a bull with its horns and hooves.

³²The poor will see and be glad— you who seek God, may your hearts live!

³³The LORD hears the needy and does not despise his captive people.

³⁴Let heaven and earth praise him, the seas and all that move in them,

³⁵for God will save Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah. Then people will settle there and possess it;

³⁶the children of his servants will inherit it, and those who love his name will dwell there.

Psalm 70^[187]

For the director of music. Of David. A petition.

- ¹Hasten, O God, to save me;
come quickly, LORD, to help me.
- ²May those who want to take my life
be put to shame and confusion;
may all who desire my ruin
be turned back in disgrace.
- ³May those who say to me, “Aha! Aha!”
turn back because of their shame.
- ⁴But may all who seek you
rejoice and be glad in you;
may those who long for your saving help always say,
“The LORD is great!”
- ⁵But as for me, I am poor and needy;
come quickly to me, O God.
You are my help and my deliverer;
LORD, do not delay.

¹⁸Even when I am old and gray,
do not forsake me, my God,
till I declare your power to the next generation,
your mighty acts to all who are to come.
¹⁹Your righteousness, God, reaches to the heavens, you who have done great things.
Who is like you, God?
²⁰Though you have made me see troubles, many and bitter,
you will restore my life again;
from the depths of the earth
you will again bring me up.
²¹You will increase my honor and comfort me once more.

- ²²I will praise you with the harp
for your faithfulness, my God;
I will sing praise to you with the lyre,
Holy One of Israel.
- ²³My lips will shout for joy
when I sing praise to you—
I whom you have delivered.
- ²⁴My tongue will tell of your righteous acts all day long,
for those who wanted to harm me have been put to shame and confusion.

Psalm 72

Of Solomon.

- ¹Endow the king with your justice, O God, the royal son with your righteousness.
- ²May he judge your people in righteousness, your afflicted ones with justice.
- ³May the mountains bring prosperity to the people, the hills
the fruit of righteousness.
- ⁴May he defend the afflicted among the people and save the children of the needy;
may he crush the oppressor.
- ⁵May he endure^[188] as long as the sun, as long as the moon,
through all generations.
- ⁶May he be like rain falling on a mown field, like showers watering the earth.
- ⁷In his days may the righteous flourish and prosperity abound till the moon is no more.
- ⁸May he rule from sea to sea and from the River^[189] to the ends of the earth.
- ⁹May the desert tribes bow before him and his enemies lick the dust.
- ¹⁰May the kings of Tarshish and of distant shores bring tribute to him.
May the kings of Sheba and Seba present him gifts.
- ¹¹May all kings bow down to him
and all nations serve him.
- ¹²For he will deliver the needy who cry out, the afflicted who have no one to help.
- ¹³He will take pity on the weak and the needy and save the needy from death.
- ¹⁴He will rescue them from oppression and violence, for precious is their blood in his sight.
- ¹⁵Long may he live!

May gold from Sheba be given him.
May people ever pray for him and bless him all day long.

¹⁶May grain abound throughout the land; on the tops of the hills may it sway.

May the crops flourish like Lebanon and thrive^[190] like the grass of the field.

¹⁷May his name endure forever;
may it continue as long as the sun.

Then all nations will be blessed through him,^[191]
and they will call him blessed.

¹⁸Praise be to the LORD God, the God of Israel, who alone does marvelous deeds.

¹⁹Praise be to his glorious name forever; may the whole earth be filled with his glory.

Amen and Amen.

²⁰This concludes the prayers of David son of Jesse.

BOOK III

PSALMS 73—89

Psalm 73

A psalm of Asaph.

- ¹Surely God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.
- ²But as for me, my feet had almost slipped; I had nearly lost my foothold.
- ³For I envied the arrogant
when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
- ⁴They have no struggles;
their bodies are healthy and strong.^[192]
- ⁵They are free from common human burdens; they are not plagued by human ills.
- ⁶Therefore pride is their necklace;
they clothe themselves with violence.
- ⁷From their callous hearts comes iniquity^[193]; their evil imaginings have no limits.
- ⁸They scoff, and speak with malice;
with arrogance they threaten oppression.
- ⁹Their mouths lay claim to heaven,
and their tongues take possession of the earth.
- ¹⁰Therefore their people turn to them and drink up waters in abundance.^[194]
- ¹¹They say, “How would God know?
Does the Most High know anything?”
- ¹²This is what the wicked are like—always free of care, they go on amassing wealth.
- ¹³Surely in vain I have kept my heart pure and have washed my hands in innocence.
- ¹⁴All day long I have been afflicted, and every morning brings new punishments.

¹⁵If I had spoken out like that,
I would have betrayed your children.

¹⁶When I tried to understand all this,
it troubled me deeply

¹⁷till I entered the sanctuary of God;
then I understood their final destiny.

¹⁸Surely you place them on slippery ground; you cast them down to ruin.

¹⁹How suddenly are they destroyed, completely swept away by terrors!

²⁰They are like a dream when one awakes; when you arise,
Lord,
you will despise them as fantasies.

²¹When my heart was grieved and my spirit embittered,

²²I was senseless and ignorant;
I was a brute beast before you.

²³Yet I am always with you;
you hold me by my right hand.

²⁴You guide me with your counsel, and afterward you will take me into glory.

²⁵Whom have I in heaven but you?
And earth has nothing I desire besides you.

²⁶My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

²⁷Those who are far from you will perish; you destroy all who are unfaithful to you.

²⁸But as for me, it is good to be near God.
I have made the Sovereign LORD my refuge;
I will tell of all your deeds.

ROCK SOLID truths

Psalm 73:1–28

Those who do evil ultimately lose.

The author of this song admits that his faith in God nearly crashed and burned. Asaph was just minding his own business when he noticed that wicked people prosper. They never struggle. They enjoy an easy life. And their endless stream of successes means they sport pride as a necklace and wear violence like comfy old jeans. Asaph wondered if he should turn against God and do evil, especially when God seemed to be doing nothing to halt sin. But then this good man begins to understand what God has in store for evildoers. He sets them on slippery spots, so sooner or later the wicked slide to ruin. In the end Asaph concludes he doesn't have to get upset about evil people. God has a firm grip with his hand. And the Lord is all Asaph needs.

Psalm 74

A maskil^[195] of Asaph.

- ¹O God, why have you rejected us forever?
Why does your anger smolder against the sheep of your pasture?
- ²Remember the nation you purchased long ago, the people of your inheritance, whom you redeemed— Mount Zion, where you dwelt.
- ³Turn your steps toward these everlasting ruins, all this destruction the enemy has brought on the sanctuary.
- ⁴Your foes roared in the place where you met with us; they set up their standards as signs.
- ⁵They behaved like men wielding axes to cut through a thicket of trees.
- ⁶They smashed all the carved paneling with their axes and hatchets.
- ⁷They burned your sanctuary to the ground; they defiled the dwelling place of your Name.
- ⁸They said in their hearts, “We will crush them completely!”
They burned every place where God was worshiped in the land.
- ⁹We are given no signs from God;
no prophets are left,
and none of us knows how long this will be.
- ¹⁰How long will the enemy mock you, God?
Will the foe revile your name forever?
- ¹¹Why do you hold back your hand, your right hand?
Take it from the folds of your garment and destroy them!
- ¹²But God is my King from long ago;
he brings salvation on the earth.
- ¹³It was you who split open the sea by your power; you broke the heads of the monster in the waters.

- ¹⁴It was you who crushed the heads of Leviathan and gave it as food to the creatures of the desert.
- ¹⁵It was you who opened up springs and streams; you dried up the ever-flowing rivers.
- ¹⁶The day is yours, and yours also the night; you established the sun and moon.
- ¹⁷It was you who set all the boundaries of the earth; you made both summer and winter.
- ¹⁸Remember how the enemy has mocked you, LORD, how foolish people have reviled your name.
- ¹⁹Do not hand over the life of your dove to wild beasts; do not forget the lives of your afflicted people
forever.
- ²⁰Have regard for your covenant, because haunts of violence fill the dark places of the land.
- ²¹Do not let the oppressed retreat in disgrace; may the poor and needy praise your name.
- ²²Rise up, O God, and defend your cause; remember how fools mock you all day long.
- ²³Do not ignore the clamor of your adversaries, the uproar of your enemies, which rises continually.

Psalm 75^[196]

For the director of music. To the tune of “Do Not Destroy.” A psalm of Asaph. A song.

- ¹We praise you, God,
we praise you, for your Name is near;
people tell of your wonderful deeds.
- ²You say, “I choose the appointed time; it is I who judge with equity.
- ³When the earth and all its people quake, it is I who hold its pillars firm.^[197]
- ⁴To the arrogant I say, ‘Boast no more,’
and to the wicked, ‘Do not lift up your horns.’^[198]
- ⁵Do not lift your horns against heaven; do not speak so defiantly.’ ”
- ⁶No one from the east or the west or from the desert can exalt themselves.
- ⁷It is God who judges:
He brings one down, he exalts another.
- ⁸In the hand of the LORD is a cup full of foaming wine mixed with spices;
he pours it out, and all the wicked of the earth drink it down to its very dregs.
- ⁹As for me, I will declare this forever; I will sing praise to the God of Jacob,
- ¹⁰who says, “I will cut off the horns of all the wicked, but the horns of the righteous will be lifted up.”

Psalm 76^[199]

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A psalm of Asaph. A song.

- ¹God is renowned in Judah;
in Israel his name is great.
- ²His tent is in Salem,
his dwelling place in Zion.
- ³There he broke the flashing arrows, the shields and the swords, the weapons of war.^[200]
- ⁴You are radiant with light, more majestic than mountains rich with game.
- ⁵The valiant lie plundered,
they sleep their last sleep;
not one of the warriors can lift his hands.
- ⁶At your rebuke, God of Jacob, both horse and chariot lie still.
- ⁷It is you alone who are to be feared.
Who can stand before you when you are angry?
- ⁸From heaven you pronounced judgment, and the land feared and was quiet—⁹when you, God, rose up to judge,
to save all the afflicted of the land.
- ¹⁰Surely your wrath against mankind brings you praise, and the survivors of your wrath are restrained.^[201]

the neighboring lands
bring gifts to the One to be feared.
- ¹²He breaks the spirit of rulers;
he is feared by the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77^[202]

For the director of music. For Jeduthun. Of Asaph. A psalm.

- ¹I cried out to God for help;
I cried out to God to hear me.
- ²When I was in distress, I sought the Lord; at night I stretched out untiring hands, and I would not be comforted.
- ³I remembered you, God, and I groaned; I meditated, and my spirit grew faint.^[203]
- ⁴You kept my eyes from closing;
I was too troubled to speak.
- ⁵I thought about the former days,
the years of long ago;
- ⁶I remembered my songs in the night.
My heart meditated and my spirit asked:
- ⁷“Will the Lord reject forever?
Will he never show his favor again?
- ⁸Has his unfailing love vanished forever?
Has his promise failed for all time?
- ⁹Has God forgotten to be merciful?
Has he in anger withheld his compassion?”
- ¹⁰Then I thought, “To this I will appeal: the years when the Most High stretched out his right hand.
- ¹¹I will remember the deeds of the LORD; yes, I will remember your miracles of long ago.
- ¹²I will consider all your works and meditate on all your mighty deeds.”

Psalm 78

A maskil^[204] of Asaph.

- ¹My people, hear my teaching;
listen to the words of my mouth.
- ²I will open my mouth with a parable; I will utter hidden things, things from of old— ³things we have heard and known,
things our ancestors have told us.
- ⁴We will not hide them from their descendants; we will tell the next generation
the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD, his power, and the wonders he has done.
- ⁵He decreed statutes for Jacob and established the law in Israel, which he commanded our ancestors to teach their children,
- ⁶so the next generation would know them, even the children
yet to be born,
and they in turn would tell their children.
- ⁷Then they would put their trust in God and would not forget his deeds
but would keep his commands.
- ⁸They would not be like their ancestors— a stubborn and rebellious generation, whose hearts were not loyal to God,
whose spirits were not faithful to him.
- ⁹The men of Ephraim, though armed with bows, turned back on the day of battle;
- ¹⁰they did not keep God's covenant and refused to live by his law.
- ¹¹They forgot what he had done,
the wonders he had shown them.
- ¹²He did miracles in the sight of their ancestors in the land of Egypt, in the region of Zoan.

¹³He divided the sea and led them through; he made the water stand up like a wall.

¹⁴He guided them with the cloud by day and with light from the fire all night.

¹⁵He split the rocks in the wilderness and gave them water as abundant as the seas;

¹⁶he brought streams out of a rocky crag and made water flow down like rivers.

¹⁷But they continued to sin against him, rebelling in the wilderness against the Most High.

¹⁸They willfully put God to the test by demanding the food they craved.

¹⁹They spoke against God;
they said, "Can God really spread a table in the wilderness?"

²⁰True, he struck the rock,
and water gushed out,
streams flowed abundantly,
but can he also give us bread?
Can he supply meat for his people?"

²¹When the LORD heard them, he was furious; his fire broke out against Jacob, and his wrath rose against Israel,

²²for they did not believe in God or trust in his deliverance.

²³Yet he gave a command to the skies above and opened the doors of the heavens;

²⁴he rained down manna for the people to eat, he gave them the grain of heaven.

²⁵Human beings ate the bread of angels; he sent them all the food they could eat.

²⁶He let loose the east wind from the heavens and by his power made the south wind blow.

²⁷He rained meat down on them like dust, birds like sand on the seashore.

²⁸He made them come down inside their camp, all around their tents.

²⁹They ate till they were gorged—
he had given them what they craved.

³⁰But before they turned from what they craved, even while the food was still in their mouths, ³¹God's anger rose against them;
he put to death the sturdiest among them,
cutting down the young men of Israel.
³²In spite of all this, they kept on sinning; in spite of his wonders, they did not believe.
³³So he ended their days in futility and their years in terror.
³⁴Whenever God slew them, they would seek him; they eagerly turned to him again.
³⁵They remembered that God was their Rock, that God Most High was their Redeemer.
³⁶But then they would flatter him with their mouths, lying to him with their tongues;
³⁷their hearts were not loyal to him, they were not faithful to his covenant.
³⁸Yet he was merciful;
he forgave their iniquities
and did not destroy them.
Time after time he restrained his anger and did not stir up his full wrath.
³⁹He remembered that they were but flesh, a passing breeze that does not return.
⁴⁰How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness and grieved him in the wasteland!
⁴¹Again and again they put God to the test; they vexed the Holy One of Israel.
⁴²They did not remember his power— the day he redeemed them from the oppressor, ⁴³the day he displayed his signs in Egypt, his wonders in the region of Zoan.
⁴⁴He turned their river into blood; they could not drink from their streams.
⁴⁵He sent swarms of flies that devoured them, and frogs that devastated them.
⁴⁶He gave their crops to the grasshopper, their produce to the locust.
⁴⁷He destroyed their vines with hail and their sycamore-figs with sleet.

⁴⁸He gave over their cattle to the hail, their livestock to bolts of lightning.

⁴⁹He unleashed against them his hot anger, his wrath, indignation and hostility— a band of destroying angels.

⁵⁰He prepared a path for his anger; he did not spare them from death but gave them over to the plague.

⁵¹He struck down all the firstborn of Egypt, the firstfruits of manhood in the tents of Ham.

⁵²But he brought his people out like a flock; he led them like sheep through the wilderness.

⁵³He guided them safely, so they were unafraid; but the sea engulfed their enemies.

⁵⁴And so he brought them to the border of his holy land, to the hill country his right hand had taken.

⁵⁵He drove out nations before them and allotted their lands to them as an inheritance;
he settled the tribes of Israel in their homes.

⁵⁶But they put God to the test and rebelled against the Most High;
they did not keep his statutes.

⁵⁷Like their ancestors they were disloyal and faithless, as unreliable as a faulty bow.

⁵⁸They angered him with their high places; they aroused his jealousy with their idols.

⁵⁹When God heard them, he was furious; he rejected Israel completely.

⁶⁰He abandoned the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent he had set up among humans.

⁶¹He sent the ark of his might into captivity, his splendor into the hands of the enemy.

⁶²He gave his people over to the sword; he was furious with his inheritance.

⁶³Fire consumed their young men, and their young women had no wedding songs;

⁶⁴their priests were put to the sword, and their widows could not weep.

⁶⁵Then the Lord awoke as from sleep, as a warrior wakes from the stupor of wine.

⁶⁶He beat back his enemies;
he put them to everlasting shame.

⁶⁷Then he rejected the tents of Joseph, he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim;

⁶⁸but he chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion, which he loved.

⁶⁹He built his sanctuary like the heights, like the earth that he established forever.

⁷⁰He chose David his servant and took him from the sheep pens;

⁷¹from tending the sheep he brought him to be the shepherd of his people Jacob,
of Israel his inheritance.

⁷²And David shepherded them with integrity of heart; with skillful hands he led them.

Psalm 78:1–72

Remember God's acts.

It felt like a birthday, and Gabriel wasn't sure why. His mom made him save the night for a family supper, his sister cooked his favorite foods, and his dad had a stack of family videos piled next to his spot at the dinner table. "I'm sure you don't remember why this date is important, Gabe," his dad started. "But ten years ago today you had your last heart surgery. For the first five years of your life, we weren't sure if you were going to live or die. But we know God finally healed you through the doctors that day. Tonight we want to celebrate you and remember God's faithfulness."

Psalm 78 is like a family video so old you remember the video more than the actual moment. You might not track with all the details in this psalm, but that's the whole point. This song and all the Bible's historical accounts are reminders of God's mighty acts. Read them again and again to help you remember his deeds and keep his commands (see Psalm 78:7).

Psalm 79

A psalm of Asaph.

- ¹O God, the nations have invaded your inheritance; they have defiled your holy temple,
they have reduced Jerusalem to rubble.
- ²They have left the dead bodies of your servants as food for the birds of the sky, the flesh of your own people for the animals of the wild.
- ³They have poured out blood like water all around Jerusalem,
and there is no one to bury the dead.
- ⁴We are objects of contempt to our neighbors, of scorn and derision to those around us.
- ⁵How long, LORD? Will you be angry forever?
How long will your jealousy burn like fire?
- ⁶Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not acknowledge
you,
on the kingdoms
that do not call on your name;
- ⁷for they have devoured Jacob and devastated his homeland.
- ⁸Do not hold against us the sins of past generations; may your mercy come quickly to meet us, for we are in desperate need.
- ⁹Help us, God our Savior,
for the glory of your name;
deliver us and forgive our sins for your name's sake.
- ¹⁰Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"
Before our eyes, make known among the nations that you avenge the outpoured blood of your servants.
- ¹¹May the groans of the prisoners come before you; with your strong arm preserve those condemned to die.

¹²Pay back into the laps of our neighbors seven times the contempt they have hurled at you, Lord.
¹³Then we your people, the sheep of your pasture, will praise you forever;
from generation to generation
we will proclaim your praise.

Psalm 80^[205]

For the director of music. To the tune of “The Lilies of the Covenant.” Of Asaph. A psalm.

- ¹Hear us, Shepherd of Israel,
you who lead Joseph like a flock.
You who sit enthroned between the cherubim, shine forth ²before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh.
Awaken your might;
come and save us.
- ³Restore us, O God;
make your face shine on us,
that we may be saved.
- ⁴How long, LORD God Almighty, will your anger smolder against the prayers of your people?
- ⁵You have fed them with the bread of tears; you have made them drink tears by the bowlful.
- ⁶You have made us an object of derision^[206] to our neighbors, and our enemies mock us.
- ⁷Restore us, God Almighty;
make your face shine on us,
that we may be saved.
- ⁸You transplanted a vine from Egypt; you drove out the nations and planted it.
- ⁹You cleared the ground for it,
and it took root and filled the land.
- ¹⁰The mountains were covered with its shade, the mighty cedars with its branches.
- ¹¹Its branches reached as far as the Sea,^[207] its shoots as far as the River.^[208]
- ¹²Why have you broken down its walls so that all who pass by pick its grapes?
- ¹³Boars from the forest ravage it, and insects from the fields feed on it.

- ¹⁴Return to us, God Almighty!
Look down from heaven and see!
Watch over this vine,
¹⁵the root your right hand has planted, the son^[209]
you have raised up for yourself.
- ¹⁶Your vine is cut down, it is burned with fire; at your rebuke your people perish.
- ¹⁷Let your hand rest on the man at your right hand, the son of man you have raised up for yourself.
- ¹⁸Then we will not turn away from you; revive us, and we will call on your name.
- ¹⁹Restore us, LORD God Almighty; make your face shine on us,
that we may be saved.

Psalm 84:1–12

Living for God is always better than sinning.

The top of Psalm 84 credits the song to the sons of Korah, a group of men in the family occupation of guarding the gates of the temple (see 1 Chronicles 26:1) and leading “the music in the house of the LORD” (1 Chronicles 6:31 and 37). These guys knew the temple. They understood worship. And they decided that being close to God was the best place they could ever be. Check out their reasoning: The temple courts are beautiful ... God’s altar is a safe shelter ... even the desert trek to worship in Jerusalem gushes with refreshing springs ... and life with God is so good that they would rather stand at the temple door than live close to evildoers. That’s an astonishing image. Being near to the Lord is always better than sin.

Think: Be honest. Is living for God better than doing wrong? Why—or why not?

Psalm 85^[222]

For the director of music. Of the Sons of Korah. A psalm.

- ¹You, LORD, showed favor to your land; you restored the fortunes of Jacob.
- ²You forgave the iniquity of your people and covered all their sins.^[223]
- ³You set aside all your wrath and turned from your fierce anger.
- ⁴Restore us again, God our Savior, and put away your displeasure toward us.
- ⁵Will you be angry with us forever?
Will you prolong your anger through all generations?
- ⁶Will you not revive us again,
that your people may rejoice in you?
- ⁷Show us your unfailing love, LORD, and grant us your salvation.
- ⁸I will listen to what God the LORD says; he promises peace to his people, his faithful servants— but let them not turn to folly.
- ⁹Surely his salvation is near those who fear him, that his glory may dwell in our land.
- ¹⁰Love and faithfulness meet together; righteousness and peace kiss each other.
- ¹¹Faithfulness springs forth from the earth, and righteousness looks down from heaven.
- ¹²The LORD will indeed give what is good, and our land will yield its harvest.
- ¹³Righteousness goes before him and prepares the way for his steps.

Psalm 86

A prayer of David.

- ¹Hear me, LORD, and answer me, for I am poor and needy.
²Guard my life, for I am faithful to you; save your servant who trusts in you.
You are my God; ³have mercy on me, Lord, for I call to you all day long.
⁴Bring joy to your servant, Lord,
for I put my trust in you.
⁵You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you.
⁶Hear my prayer, LORD; listen to my cry for mercy.
⁷When I am in distress, I call to you, because you answer
me.
⁸Among the gods there is none like you, Lord; no deeds can compare with yours.
⁹All the nations you have made will come and worship before you, Lord;
they will bring glory to your name.
¹⁰For you are great and do marvelous deeds; you alone are God.
¹¹Teach me your way, LORD, that I may rely on your faithfulness;
give me an undivided heart,
that I may fear your name.
¹²I will praise you, Lord my God, with all my heart; I will glorify your name forever.
¹³For great is your love toward me; you have delivered me from the depths,
from the realm of the dead.
¹⁴Arrogant foes are attacking me, O God; ruthless people are trying to kill me— they have no regard for you.
¹⁵But you, Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness.

- ¹⁶Turn to me and have mercy on me; show your strength in behalf of your servant;
save me, because I serve you just as my mother did.
- ¹⁷Give me a sign of your goodness, that my enemies may see it and be put to shame,
for you, LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

Psalm 86:1–17

God is gracious.

David ruled as Israel’s greatest king ever, yet he called himself “poor and needy” and prayed for God’s help (Psalm 86:1). He longed for protection from his enemies, guidance for life, and forgiveness of his sins. David counted on God to give him all those good things and more because the Lord is “a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness” (Psalm 86:15). To be gracious means that God freely gives us grace, favor we don’t deserve. He gives us every kind of help, meeting our practical needs and heaping forgiveness on us. God’s graciousness isn’t a one-time offer. It’s the pattern of how he relates to each of us.

So ... How has God been gracious toward you?

Of the Sons of Korah. A psalm. A song.

- ¹He has founded his city on the holy mountain.
- ²The LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the other dwellings of Jacob.
- ³Glorious things are said of you,
city of God:^[224]
- ⁴“I will record Rahab^[225] and Babylon among those who acknowledge me— Philistia too, and Tyre, along with Cush^[226]— and will say, ‘This one was born in Zion.’ ”^[227]
- ⁵Indeed, of Zion it will be said, “This one and that one were born in her,
and the Most High himself will establish her.”
- ⁶The LORD will write in the register of the peoples: “This one was born in Zion.”
- ⁷As they make music they will sing, “All my fountains are in you.”

- ³I am overwhelmed with troubles and my life draws near to death.
- ⁴I am counted among those who go down to the pit; I am

- ¹⁴Why, LORD, do you reject me and hide your face from me?

- ¹⁵From my youth I have suffered and been close to death; I have borne your terrors and am in despair.
- ¹⁶Your wrath has swept over me;
your terrors have destroyed me.
- ¹⁷All day long they surround me like a flood; they have completely engulfed me.
- ¹⁸You have taken from me friend and neighbor— darkness is

BOOK IV

PSALMS 90—106

Psalm 90

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

- ¹Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations.
- ²Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the whole world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.
- ³You turn people back to dust, saying, “Return to dust, you mortals.”
- ⁴A thousand years in your sight are like a day that has just gone by,
or like a watch in the night.
- ⁵Yet you sweep people away in the sleep of death— they are like the new grass of the morning:
- ⁶In the morning it springs up new, but by evening it is dry and withered.
- ⁷We are consumed by your anger and terrified by your indignation.
- ⁸You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence.
- ⁹All our days pass away under your wrath; we finish our years with a moan.
- ¹⁰Our days may come to seventy years, or eighty, if our strength endures;
yet the best of them are but trouble and sorrow,
for they quickly pass, and we fly away.
- ¹¹If only we knew the power of your anger!
Your wrath is as great as the fear that is your due.
- ¹²Teach us to number our days,
that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

- ¹³Relent, LORD! How long will it be?
Have compassion on your servants.
- ¹⁴Satisfy us in the morning with your unfailing love, that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.
- ¹⁵Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen trouble.
- ¹⁶May your deeds be shown to your servants, your splendor to their children.
- ¹⁷May the favor^[240] of the Lord our God rest on us; establish the work of our hands for us— yes, establish the work of our hands.

Psalm 90:1–2

God is eternal.

Moses wasn't overflowing with happy thoughts when he wrote Psalm 90. He notes that God turns people back to dust. Humans live 70 years—sometimes 80. In the end we wither like grass. Yet there is a truth about God that gives us hope. The Lord has reigned “from everlasting to everlasting.” He existed before he “brought forth the whole world.” And he has been our shelter “throughout all generations” (Psalm 90:1–2). Even though our lives last only a blink, God is eternal. He's beyond time. Outside of time. Always existing. And because God is eternal, he's there for us whenever we need him. Now and forever, he's our Lord and Savior.

So ... What good does it do you that God is eternal?

(Unshaken GOD Index)

Psalm 91

- ¹Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.^[241]
- ²I will say of the LORD, “He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.”
- ³Surely he will save you from the fowler’s snare and from the deadly pestilence.
- ⁴He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.
- ⁵You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day,
- ⁶nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday.
- ⁷A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.
- ⁸You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.
- ⁹If you say, “The LORD is my refuge,” and you make the Most High your dwelling,
- ¹⁰no harm will overtake you, no disaster will come near your tent.
- ¹¹For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways;
- ¹²they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.
- ¹³You will tread on the lion and the cobra; you will trample the great lion and the serpent.
- ¹⁴“Because he^[242] loves me,” says the LORD, “I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name.
- ¹⁵He will call on me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble,

I will deliver him and honor him.
¹⁶With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation.”

Psalm 91:1–16

God watches over you.

Psalm 91 reads like the script of an action movie where the hero meets nonstop explosive dangers but in the end emerges unharmed. The songwriter tells about deadly diseases, night terrors, whizzing arrows, and more death and disease—topped off by 10,000 people dropping dead. Yet he claims that “If you say ‘The LORD is my refuge,’ and you make the Most High your dwelling, no harm will overtake you” (Psalm 91:9–10). That promise might sound too good to be true. But consider what it actually says. The Lord doesn’t say your life will be free of chaos and danger, or even disease and death. But he does pledge to watch over you as you dart through an obstacle course full of every kind of hazard. If you love him and acknowledge him as God, he promises to protect you.

Think: What does it mean that God will rescue and protect you?

⁵How great are your works, LORD, how profound your ⁶Senseless people do not know, fools do not understand, ⁷that though the wicked spring up like grass and all evildoers flourish,

they will be destroyed forever.
⁸But you, LORD, are forever exalted.
⁹For surely your enemies, LORD, surely your enemies will all evildoers will be scattered.

¹⁰You have exalted my horn^[244] like that of a wild ox; fine oils have been poured on me.
¹¹My eyes have seen the defeat of my adversaries; my ears have heard the rout of my wicked foes.
¹²The righteous will flourish like a palm tree, they will grow like a cedar of Lebanon; ¹³planted in the house of the LORD, they will flourish in the

- ⁴They pour out arrogant words;
all the evildoers are full of boasting.
- ⁵They crush your people, LORD; they oppress your inheritance.
- ⁶They slay the widow and the foreigner; they murder the fatherless.
- ⁷They say, “The LORD does not see; the God of Jacob takes no notice.”
- ⁸Take notice, you senseless ones among the people; you

- ⁹Does he who fashioned the ear not hear?
Does he who formed the eye not see?
- ¹⁰Does he who disciplines nations not punish?
Does he who teaches mankind lack knowledge?
- ¹¹The LORD knows all human plans; he knows that they are futile.
- ¹²Blessed is the one you discipline, LORD, the one you teach from your law;
- ¹³you grant them relief from days of trouble, till a pit is dug for the wicked.
- ¹⁴For the LORD will not reject his people; he will never forsake his inheritance.
- ¹⁵Judgment will again be founded on righteousness, and all the upright in heart will follow it.
- ¹⁶Who will rise up for me against the wicked?
Who will take a stand for me against evildoers?
- ¹⁷Unless the LORD had given me help, I would soon have dwelt in the silence of death.

- ¹⁸When I said, “My foot is slipping,” your unfailing love, LORD, supported me.

the LORD our God will destroy them.

Psalm 95

¹Come, let us sing for joy to the LORD; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.

²Let us come before him with thanksgiving and extol him with music and song.

³For the LORD is the great God, the great King above all gods.

⁴In his hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to him.

⁵The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands formed the dry land.

⁶Come, let us bow down in worship, let us kneel before the LORD our Maker;

Today, if only you would hear his voice,

⁸“Do not harden your hearts as you did at Meribah,^[245] as you did that day at Massah^[246] in the wilderness, ⁹where your ancestors tested me; they tried me, though they had seen what I did.

Psalm 95:1–11

Praise God.

Hailey knew what her old pastor meant when he talked about having “a hard heart.” It’s when you stop trusting and loving God, and your spiritual passion gets replaced with rock-hard disinterest. That’s how Hailey had been feeling for the past year. She had always been so enthusiastic about God, like her heart was soft thumping flesh. She hadn’t faced anything traumatic, but she found herself wondering if God really cared about her life. But maybe her heart wasn’t completely cold and dead, because as her pastor preached she remembered how she used to feel about God. Maybe it was just a flash of emotion, but she started to tell God how much she missed him. And loved him. And how great he is.

“Meribah” and “Massah” (Psalm 95:8) are names that mean “quarreling” and “testing.” It’s two descriptions of a single place where the Israelites questioned if God really cared for them (see Exodus 17:7). Praise is the opposite of that kind of doubt. Praise is remembering and saying out loud all the reasons God deserves your worship.

- ³I will not look with approval on anything that is vile.
I hate what faithless people do;
I will have no part in it.
- ⁴The perverse of heart shall be far from me; I will have nothing to do with what is evil.
- ⁵Whoever slanders their neighbor in secret, I will put to silence;
whoever has haughty eyes and a proud heart,
I will not tolerate.
- ⁶My eyes will be on the faithful in the land, that they may dwell with me;
the one whose walk is blameless will minister to me.
- ⁷No one who practices deceit
will dwell in my house;
no one who speaks falsely will stand in my presence.
- ⁸Every morning I will put to silence all the wicked in the land;
I will cut off every evildoer
from the city of the LORD.

Psalm 102^[251]

A prayer of an afflicted person who has grown weak and pours out a lament before the LORD.

- ¹Hear my prayer, LORD; let my cry for help come to you.
²Do not hide your face from me when I am in distress.
Turn your ear to me;
when I call, answer me quickly.
- ³For my days vanish like smoke;
my bones burn like glowing embers.
⁴My heart is blighted and withered like grass; I forget to eat my food.
⁵In my distress I groan aloud and am reduced to skin and bones.
⁶I am like a desert owl,
like an owl among the ruins.
⁷I lie awake; I have become like a bird alone on a roof.
⁸All day long my enemies taunt me; those who rail against me use my name as a curse.
⁹For I eat ashes as my food and mingle my drink with tears ¹⁰because of your great wrath, for you have taken me up and thrown me aside.
¹¹My days are like the evening shadow; I wither away like grass.
¹²But you, LORD, sit enthroned forever; your renown endures
through all generations.
¹³You will arise and have compassion on Zion, for it is time to show favor to her;
the appointed time has come.
¹⁴For her stones are dear to your servants; her very dust moves them to pity.
¹⁵The nations will fear the name of the LORD, all the kings of the earth will revere your glory.

¹⁶For the LORD will rebuild Zion and appear in his glory.
¹⁷He will respond to the prayer of the destitute; he will not despise their plea.
¹⁸Let this be written for a future generation, that a people not yet created may praise the LORD: ¹⁹“The LORD looked down from his sanctuary on high, from heaven he viewed the earth, ²⁰to hear the groans of the prisoners and release those condemned to death.”
²¹So the name of the LORD will be declared in Zion and his praise in Jerusalem ²²when the peoples and the kingdoms assemble to worship the LORD.
²³In the course of my life^[252] he broke my strength; he cut short my days.
²⁴So I said:
 “Do not take me away, my God, in the midst of my days;
 your years go on through all generations.
²⁵In the beginning you laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands.
²⁶They will perish, but you remain; they will all wear out like a garment.
 Like clothing you will change them and they will be discarded.
²⁷But you remain the same,
 and your years will never end.
²⁸The children of your servants will live in your presence;
 their descendants will be established before you.”

Psalm 102:25–28

God is infinite.

You can't count to infinity. You can't wrap your mind around the concept. But you can nevertheless relate to the infinite God. To be "infinite" means that God is outside the world we know—a realm of time and space. The Lord exists outside of what we can see, having "laid the foundations of the earth" (Psalm 102:25). He is so far beyond us that we couldn't perceive or understand him if we hadn't chosen to reveal himself to us. But God shows us his power in the world he made (Romans 1:20). And in Jesus he shows us the depths of who is (John 1:14). God lives beyond our human limits, but he reveals himself so we can understand him.

So ... How impressed are you that God is infinite? Why—or why not?

Psalm 103

Of David.

- ¹Praise the LORD, my soul; all my inmost being, praise his holy name.
- ²Praise the LORD, my soul, and forget not all his benefits—³who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases,
- ⁴who redeems your life from the pit and crowns you with love and compassion,
- ⁵who satisfies your desires with good things so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.
- ⁶The LORD works righteousness and justice for all the oppressed.
- ⁷He made known his ways to Moses,
his deeds to the people of Israel:
- ⁸The LORD is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love.
- ⁹He will not always accuse,
nor will he harbor his anger forever;
- ¹⁰he does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities.
- ¹¹For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his love for those who fear him;
- ¹²as far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us.
- ¹³As a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him; ¹⁴for he knows how we are formed, he remembers that we are dust.
- ¹⁵The life of mortals is like grass, they flourish like a flower of the field;
- ¹⁶the wind blows over it and it is gone, and its place remembers it no more.
- ¹⁷But from everlasting to everlasting the LORD's love is with those who fear him,

and his righteousness with their children’s children—¹⁸with those who keep his covenant and remember to obey his precepts.
¹⁹The LORD has established his throne in heaven, and his kingdom rules over all.
²⁰Praise the LORD, you his angels, you mighty ones who do his bidding,
who obey his word.
²¹Praise the LORD, all his heavenly hosts, you his servants who do his will.
²²Praise the LORD, all his works everywhere in his dominion.
Praise the LORD, my soul.

ROCK SOLID truths

Psalm 103:1–22

You can’t thrive without God.

God has a grip on the best and worst parts of your days. Whether you soar high or sink low, God gives you the support you need to get through life. In this song David details all the ways God is good to human beings. He forgives sin ... heals diseases ... lifts you from the pit ... fills you up with love ... satisfies your desires. Since before the days of Moses, the Lord has demonstrated he is compassionate ... gracious ... slow to anger ... loving ... merciful ... forgiving. And why? Because God is like a kind dad. He “knows how we are formed, he remembers that we are dust” (Psalm 103:14). People are like grass. They tumble away in the wind, and no one recalls they were ever there. But God shows his everlasting love to everyone who respects him. Without him, you can’t exist at all.

Think: What all does God do for you to allow you to survive—and thrive?

Psalm 104

- ¹Praise the LORD, my soul.
LORD my God, you are very great;
you are clothed with splendor and majesty.
- ²The LORD wraps himself in light as with a garment; he stretches out the heavens like a tent ³and lays the beams of his upper chambers on their waters.
He makes the clouds his chariot and rides on the wings of the wind.
- ⁴He makes winds his messengers, ^[253] flames of fire his servants.
- ⁵He set the earth on its foundations; it can never be moved.
- ⁶You covered it with the watery depths as with a garment;
the waters stood above the mountains.
- ⁷But at your rebuke the waters fled, at the sound of your thunder they took to flight;
- ⁸they flowed over the mountains,
they went down into the valleys,
to the place you assigned for them.
- ⁹You set a boundary they cannot cross; never again will they cover the earth.
- ¹⁰He makes springs pour water into the ravines; it flows between the mountains.
- ¹¹They give water to all the beasts of the field; the wild donkeys quench their thirst.
- ¹²The birds of the sky nest by the waters; they sing among the branches.
- ¹³He waters the mountains from his upper chambers; the land is satisfied by the fruit of his work.
- ¹⁴He makes grass grow for the cattle, and plants for people to cultivate— bringing forth food from the earth:
- ¹⁵wine that gladdens human hearts, oil to make their faces shine,
and bread that sustains their hearts.

- ¹⁶The trees of the LORD are well watered, the cedars of Lebanon that he planted.
- ¹⁷There the birds make their nests; the stork has its home in the junipers.
- ¹⁸The high mountains belong to the wild goats; the crags are a refuge for the hyrax.
- ¹⁹He made the moon to mark the seasons, and the sun knows when to go down.
- ²⁰You bring darkness, it becomes night, and all the beasts of the forest prowl.
- ²¹The lions roar for their prey and seek their food from God.
- ²²The sun rises, and they steal away; they return and lie down in their dens.
- ²³Then people go out to their work, to their labor until evening.
- ²⁴How many are your works, LORD!
In wisdom you made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.
- ²⁵There is the sea, vast and spacious, teeming with creatures beyond number— living things both large and small.
- ²⁶There the ships go to and fro, and Leviathan, which you formed to frolic there.
- ²⁷All creatures look to you to give them their food at the proper time.
- ²⁸When you give it to them,
they gather it up;
when you open your hand,
they are satisfied with good things.
- ²⁹When you hide your face,
they are terrified;
when you take away their breath,
they die and return to the dust.
- ³⁰When you send your Spirit,
they are created,
and you renew the face of the ground.
- ³¹May the glory of the LORD endure forever; may the LORD rejoice in his works— ³²he who looks at the earth, and it trembles, who touches the mountains, and they smoke.

³³I will sing to the LORD all my life; I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.

³⁴May my meditation be pleasing to him, as I rejoice in the LORD.

³⁵But may sinners vanish from the earth and the wicked be no more.

Psalm 105

- ¹Give praise to the LORD, proclaim his name; make known
among the nations what he has done.
- ²Sing to him, sing praise to him;
tell of all his wonderful acts.
- ³Glory in his holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
- ⁴Look to the LORD and his strength; seek his face always.
- ⁵Remember the wonders he has done, his miracles, and the judgments he pronounced,
- ⁶you his servants, the descendants of Abraham, his chosen ones, the children of Jacob.
- ⁷He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.
- ⁸He remembers his covenant forever, the promise he made,
for a thousand generations,
- ⁹the covenant he made with Abraham, the oath he swore to Isaac.
- ¹⁰He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, to Israel as an everlasting covenant:
- ¹¹“To you I will give the land of Canaan as the portion you will inherit.”
- ¹²When they were but few in number, few indeed, and strangers in it,
- ¹³they wandered from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another.
- ¹⁴He allowed no one to oppress them; for their sake he rebuked kings:
- ¹⁵“Do not touch my anointed ones;
do my prophets no harm.”
- ¹⁶He called down famine on the land and destroyed all their supplies of food;
- ¹⁷and he sent a man before them—
Joseph, sold as a slave.
- ¹⁸They bruised his feet with shackles, his neck was put in irons,

¹⁹till what he foretold came to pass, till the word of the LORD proved him true.

²⁰The king sent and released him,
the ruler of peoples set him free.

²¹He made him master of his household, ruler over all he possessed,

²²to instruct his princes as he pleased and teach his elders wisdom.

²³Then Israel entered Egypt;
Jacob resided as a foreigner in the land of Ham.

²⁴The LORD made his people very fruitful; he made them too numerous for their foes,

²⁵whose hearts he turned to hate his people, to conspire against his servants.

²⁶He sent Moses his servant,
and Aaron, whom he had chosen.

²⁷They performed his signs among them, his wonders in the land of Ham.

²⁸He sent darkness and made the land dark— for had they not rebelled against his words?

²⁹He turned their waters into blood, causing their fish to die.

³⁰Their land teemed with frogs, which went up into the bedrooms of their rulers.

³¹He spoke, and there came swarms of flies, and gnats throughout their country.

³²He turned their rain into hail,
with lightning throughout their land;

³³he struck down their vines and fig trees and shattered the trees of their country.

³⁴He spoke, and the locusts came, grasshoppers without number;

³⁵they ate up every green thing in their land, ate up the produce of their soil.

³⁶Then he struck down all the firstborn in their land, the firstfruits of all their manhood.

³⁷He brought out Israel, laden with silver and gold, and from among their tribes no one faltered.

³⁸Egypt was glad when they left, because dread of Israel had fallen on them.

³⁹He spread out a cloud as a covering, and a fire to give light at night.

⁴⁰They asked, and he brought them quail; he fed them well with the bread of heaven.

⁴¹He opened the rock, and water gushed out; it flowed like a river in the desert.

⁴²For he remembered his holy promise given to his servant Abraham.

⁴³He brought out his people with rejoicing, his chosen ones with shouts of joy;

⁴⁴he gave them the lands of the nations, and they fell heir to what others had toiled for— ⁴⁵that they might keep his precepts and observe his laws.

Praise the LORD. ^[255]

Psalm 105:8–11

God is faithful.

It's probably no shock that the all-knowing God can remember something “for a thousand generations” (Psalm 105:8). What the Lord recalls in Psalm 105 is a “promise he made.” He recalls his “covenant,” his pledge to give the Israelite slaves the promised land (see Psalm 105:11). That's more than an amazing feat of memory. It demonstrates God's faithfulness—his flawless dependability. Faithfulness means the Lord never lets you down, no matter how long it takes for his promises to be fulfilled. Sometimes it can feel like God has forgotten you. But he never fails to keep his word. Psalm 106

- ¹Praise the LORD. ^[256]
Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
his love endures forever.
- ²Who can proclaim the mighty acts of the LORD or fully declare his praise?
- ³Blessed are those who act justly, who always do what is right.
- ⁴Remember me, LORD, when you show favor to your people, come to my aid when you save them, ⁵that I may enjoy the prosperity of your chosen ones, that I may share in the joy of your nation and join your inheritance in giving praise.
- ⁶We have sinned, even as our ancestors did; we have done wrong and acted wickedly.
- ⁷When our ancestors were in Egypt, they gave no thought to your miracles;
they did not remember your many kindnesses,
and they rebelled by the sea, the Red Sea. ^[257]
- ⁸Yet he saved them for his name's sake, to make his mighty power known.
- ⁹He rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried up; he led them through the depths as through a desert.
- ¹⁰He saved them from the hand of the foe; from the hand of the enemy he redeemed them.
- ¹¹The waters covered their adversaries; not one of them survived.
- ¹²Then they believed his promises and sang his praise.
- ¹³But they soon forgot what he had done and did not wait for his plan to unfold.
- ¹⁴In the desert they gave in to their craving; in the wilderness
they put God to the test.
- ¹⁵So he gave them what they asked for, but sent a wasting disease among them.

¹⁶In the camp they grew envious of Moses and of Aaron, who was consecrated to the LORD.

¹⁷The earth opened up and swallowed Dathan; it buried the company of Abiram.

¹⁸Fire blazed among their followers; a flame consumed the wicked.

¹⁹At Horeb they made a calf and worshiped an idol cast from metal.

²⁰They exchanged their glorious God for an image of a bull, which eats grass.

²¹They forgot the God who saved them, who had done great things in Egypt,

²²miracles in the land of Ham and awesome deeds by the Red Sea.

²³So he said he would destroy them— had not Moses, his chosen one,
stood in the breach before him
to keep his wrath from destroying them.

²⁴Then they despised the pleasant land; they did not believe his promise.

²⁵They grumbled in their tents and did not obey the LORD.

²⁶So he swore to them with uplifted hand that he would make them fall in the wilderness,

²⁷make their descendants fall among the nations and scatter them throughout the lands.

²⁸They yoked themselves to the Baal of Peor and ate sacrifices offered to lifeless gods;

²⁹they aroused the LORD's anger by their wicked deeds, and a plague broke out among them.

³⁰But Phinehas stood up and intervened, and the plague was checked.

³¹This was credited to him as righteousness for endless generations to come.

³²By the waters of Meribah they angered the LORD, and trouble came to Moses because of them;

³³for they rebelled against the Spirit of God, and rash words came from Moses' lips. [\[258\]](#)

³⁴They did not destroy the peoples as the LORD had commanded them, ³⁵but they mingled with the nations and adopted their customs.
³⁶They worshiped their idols,
which became a snare to them.
³⁷They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to false gods.
³⁸They shed innocent blood,
the blood of their sons and daughters,
whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan,
and the land was desecrated by their blood.
³⁹They defiled themselves by what they did; by their deeds they prostituted themselves.
⁴⁰Therefore the LORD was angry with his people and abhorred his inheritance.
⁴¹He gave them into the hands of the nations, and their foes ruled over them.
⁴²Their enemies oppressed them and subjected them to their power.
⁴³Many times he delivered them, but they were bent on rebellion and they wasted away in their sin.
⁴⁴Yet he took note of their distress when he heard their cry; ⁴⁵for their sake he remembered his covenant and out of his great love he relented.
⁴⁶He caused all who held them captive to show them mercy.
⁴⁷Save us, LORD our God, and gather us from the nations,
that we may give thanks to your holy name
and glory in your praise.
⁴⁸Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.
Let all the people say, "Amen!"
Praise the LORD.

PSALMS 107—150

Psalm 107

- ¹Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures forever.
- ²Let the redeemed of the LORD tell their story— those he redeemed from the hand of the foe,
- ³those he gathered from the lands, from east and west, from north and south.^[259]
- ⁴Some wandered in desert wastelands, finding no way to a city where they could settle.
- ⁵They were hungry and thirsty, and their lives ebbed away.
- ⁶Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.
- ⁷He led them by a straight way to a city where they could settle.
- ⁸Let them give thanks to the LORD for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for mankind,
- ⁹for he satisfies the thirsty and fills the hungry with good things.
- ¹⁰Some sat in darkness, in utter darkness, prisoners suffering in iron chains,
- ¹¹because they rebelled against God's commands and despised the plans of the Most High.
- ¹²So he subjected them to bitter labor; they stumbled, and there was no one to help.
- ¹³Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them from their distress.
- ¹⁴He brought them out of darkness, the utter darkness, and broke away their chains.
- ¹⁵Let them give thanks to the LORD for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for mankind, ¹⁶for he breaks down gates of bronze and cuts through bars of iron.

¹⁷Some became fools through their rebellious ways and suffered affliction because of their iniquities.
¹⁸They loathed all food and drew near the gates of death.
¹⁹Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them from their distress.
²⁰He sent out his word and healed them; he rescued them from the grave.
²¹Let them give thanks to the LORD for his unfailing love and
his wonderful deeds for mankind.
²²Let them sacrifice thank offerings and tell of his works with songs of joy.
²³Some went out on the sea in ships; they were merchants on the mighty waters.
²⁴They saw the works of the LORD, his wonderful deeds in
the deep.
²⁵For he spoke and stirred up a tempest that lifted high the waves.
²⁶They mounted up to the heavens and went down to the depths; in their peril their courage melted away.
²⁷They reeled and staggered like drunkards; they were at their wits' end.
²⁸Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble, and he brought them out of their distress.
²⁹He stilled the storm to a whisper;

- ³³He turned rivers into a desert, flowing springs into thirsty ground,
- ³⁴and fruitful land into a salt waste, because of the wickedness of those who lived there.
- ³⁵He turned the desert into pools of water and the parched ground into flowing springs;
- ³⁶there he brought the hungry to live, and they founded a city where they could settle.
- ³⁷They sowed fields and planted vineyards that yielded a fruitful harvest;
- ³⁸he blessed them, and their numbers greatly increased, and he did not let their herds diminish.
- ³⁹Then their numbers decreased, and they were humbled by oppression, calamity and sorrow;
- ⁴⁰he who pours contempt on nobles made them wander in a trackless waste.
- ⁴¹But he lifted the needy out of their affliction and increased their families like flocks.
- ⁴²The upright see and rejoice,
but all the wicked shut their mouths.
- ⁴³Let the one who is wise heed these things and ponder the loving deeds of the LORD.

Psalm 108^[261]

A song. A psalm of David.

- ¹My heart, O God, is steadfast;
I will sing and make music with all my soul.
- ²Awake, harp and lyre!
I will awaken the dawn.
- ³I will praise you, LORD, among the nations; I will sing of
you among the peoples.
- ⁴For great is your love, higher than the heavens; your faithfulness reaches to the skies.
- ⁵Be exalted, O God, above the heavens; let your glory be over all the earth.
- ⁶Save us and help us with your right hand, that those you love may be delivered.
- ⁷God has spoken from his sanctuary: “In triumph I will parcel out Shechem
and measure off the Valley of Sukkoth.
- ⁸Gilead is mine, Manasseh is mine; Ephraim is my helmet,
Judah is my scepter.
- ⁹Moab is my washbasin,
on Edom I toss my sandal;
over Philistia I shout in triumph.”
- ¹⁰Who will bring me to the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
- ¹¹Is it not you, God, you who have rejected us and no longer
go out with our armies?
- ¹²Give us aid against the enemy, for human help is worthless.
- ¹³With God we will gain the victory, and he will trample down our enemies.

Psalm 109

For the director of music. Of David. A psalm.

- ¹My God, whom I praise,
do not remain silent, ²for people who are wicked and deceitful have opened their mouths against me;
they have spoken against me with lying tongues.
³With words of hatred they surround me; they attack me without cause.
⁴In return for my friendship they accuse me, but I am a man of prayer.
⁵They repay me evil for good,
and hatred for my friendship.
⁶Appoint someone evil to oppose my enemy; let an accuser stand at his right hand.
⁷When he is tried, let him be found guilty, and may his prayers condemn him.
⁸May his days be few;
may another take his place of leadership.
⁹May his children be fatherless and his wife a widow.
¹⁰May his children be wandering beggars; may they be driven^[262] from their ruined homes.
¹¹May a creditor seize all he has; may strangers plunder the fruits of his labor.
¹²May no one extend kindness to him or take pity on his fatherless children.
¹³May his descendants be cut off, their names blotted out from the next generation.
¹⁴May the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the LORD; may the sin of his mother never be blotted out.
¹⁵May their sins always remain before the LORD, that he may blot out their name from the earth.

- ¹⁶For he never thought of doing a kindness, but hounded to death the poor and the needy and the brokenhearted.
- ¹⁷He loved to pronounce a curse— may it come back on him.
He found no pleasure in blessing—may it be far from him.
- ¹⁸He wore cursing as his garment; it entered into his body like water,
into his bones like oil.
- ¹⁹May it be like a cloak wrapped about him, like a belt tied forever around him.
- ²⁰May this be the LORD's payment to my accusers, to those who speak evil of me.
- ²¹But you, Sovereign LORD, help me for your name's sake;
out of the goodness of your love, deliver me.
- ²²For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.
- ²³I fade away like an evening shadow; I am shaken off like a locust.
- ²⁴My knees give way from fasting; my body is thin and gaunt.
- ²⁵I am an object of scorn to my accusers; when they see me,
they shake their heads.
- ²⁶Help me, LORD my God; save me according to your unfailing love.
- ²⁷Let them know that it is your hand, that you, LORD, have done it.
- ²⁸While they curse, may you bless; may those who attack me
be put to shame,
but may your servant rejoice.
- ²⁹May my accusers be clothed with disgrace and wrapped in shame as in a cloak.
- ³⁰With my mouth I will greatly extol the LORD; in the great throng of worshipers I will praise him.
- ³¹For he stands at the right hand of the needy, to save their lives from those who would condemn them.

Psalm 110

Of David. A psalm.

¹The LORD says to my lord:^[263] “Sit at my right hand

until I make your enemies
a footstool for your feet.”

²The LORD will extend your mighty scepter from Zion, saying, “Rule in the midst of your enemies!”

³Your troops will be willing on your day of battle.
Arrayed in holy splendor, your young men will come to you like dew from the morning’s womb. ^[264]

⁴The LORD has sworn and will not change his mind:
“You are a priest forever,
in the order of Melchizedek.”

⁵The Lord is at your right hand ^[265]; he will crush kings on the day of his wrath.

⁶He will judge the nations, heaping up the dead and crushing the rulers of the whole earth.

⁷He will drink from a brook along the way, ^[266] and so he will lift his head high.

Psalm 111^[267]

¹Praise the LORD.^[268]

in the council of the upright and in the assembly.

²Great are the works of the LORD; they are pondered by all who delight in them.

³Glorious and majestic are his deeds, and his righteousness

⁴He has caused his wonders to be remembered; the LORD is gracious and compassionate.

⁵He provides food for those who fear him; he remembers his

Psalm 113

¹Praise the LORD. ^[272]

Praise the LORD, you his servants;
praise the name of the LORD.

²Let the name of the LORD be praised, both now and forevermore.

³From the rising of the sun to the place where it sets, the name of the LORD is to be praised.

⁴The LORD is exalted over all the nations, his glory above the heavens.

⁵Who is like the LORD our God, the One who sits enthroned on high,

⁶who stoops down to look on the heavens and the earth?

⁷He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap;

⁸he seats them with princes, with the princes of his people.

⁹He settles the childless woman in her home as a happy mother of children.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 114

- ¹When Israel came out of Egypt,
 Jacob from a people of foreign tongue,
²Judah became God's sanctuary,
 Israel his dominion.
- ³The sea looked and fled,
 the Jordan turned back;
⁴the mountains leaped like rams, the hills like lambs.
- ⁵Why was it, sea, that you fled?
 Why, Jordan, did you turn back?
- ⁶Why, mountains, did you leap like rams, you hills, like lambs?
- ⁷Tremble, earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob, ⁸who turned the rock into a pool, the hard rock into springs of water.

Psalm 115

- ¹Not to us, LORD, not to us but to your name be the glory, because of your love and faithfulness.
- ²Why do the nations say,
“Where is their God?”
- ³Our God is in heaven;
he does whatever pleases him.
- ⁴But their idols are silver and gold, made by human hands.
- ⁵They have mouths, but cannot speak, eyes, but cannot see.
- ⁶They have ears, but cannot hear, noses, but cannot smell.
- ⁷They have hands, but cannot feel, feet, but cannot walk,
nor can they utter a sound with their throats.
- ⁸Those who make them will be like them, and so will all who trust in them.
- ⁹All you Israelites, trust in the LORD— he is their help and shield.
- ¹⁰House of Aaron, trust in the LORD— he is their help and shield.
- ¹¹You who fear him, trust in the LORD— he is their help and shield.
- ¹²The LORD remembers us and will bless us: He will bless his people Israel,
he will bless the house of Aaron,
- ¹³he will bless those who fear the LORD— small and great alike.
- ¹⁴May the LORD cause you to flourish, both you and your children.
- ¹⁵May you be blessed by the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth.
- ¹⁶The highest heavens belong to the LORD, but the earth he has given to mankind.
- ¹⁷It is not the dead who praise the LORD, those who go down to the place of silence;
- ¹⁸it is we who extol the LORD, both now and forevermore.
Praise the LORD. ^[273]

Psalm 115:1–11

Give God the credit.

Always the biggest kid anywhere in his grade, Gavin looked destined to be a state champion wrestler by the time he hit high school. In the meantime, however, he was working hard at being the most annoying guy in the universe. With the ego of a professional wrestler who isn't happy unless he is shouting into a microphone to an arena full of fans, Gavin strolled through school and expected crowds to part and make way. He made a hobby out of intimidating smaller kids—which was everyone. And he possessed the kind of ferocious temper that made his classmates wonder if someday he would snap an opponent in two. Gavin was big. Enormously big. And he knew it.

Old Testament idols were hunks of metal or wood carved into made-up gods. The world is still jam-packed with idols, because we create a false god whenever we make something more important than the Lord. Sometimes we even idolize ourselves, congratulating ourselves for anything good we do. But God is the one who really deserves the credit.

Psalm 116

- ¹I love the LORD, for he heard my voice; he heard my cry for mercy.
- ²Because he turned his ear to me, I will call on him as long as I live.
- ³The cords of death entangled me, the anguish of the grave came over me;
I was overcome by distress and sorrow.
- ⁴Then I called on the name of the LORD: "LORD, save me!"
- ⁵The LORD is gracious and righteous; our God is full of compassion.
- ⁶The LORD protects the unwary; when I was brought low, he saved me.

for all his goodness to me?
- ¹³I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the LORD.
- ¹⁴I will fulfill my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people.
- ¹⁵Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his faithful servants.
- ¹⁶Truly I am your servant, LORD; I serve you just as my mother did;
you have freed me from my chains.

¹⁷I will sacrifice a thank offering to you and call on the name of the LORD.

¹⁸I will fulfill my vows to the LORD

ROCK SOLID truths

Psalm 119:160

The Bible is true.

Many people want a solid reason to pick up the Bible. It takes an even bigger motivation to make a habit of reading it. And if you're ever going to put the Bible into action, you need to be fairly well convinced you will reap real benefits. Psalm 119 lays out nearly a couple hundred reasons you can commit your life to the teachings of the Bible, and Psalm 119:160 offers you one of the best: "All your words are true." God's Word is the only book you will ever read that doesn't contain mistakes or inaccuracies or half-truths. It tells you everything you need to navigate your world, especially how to enjoy God, live smart, and spend forever in heaven (see 2 Timothy 3:16–17). You can count on the Bible because it's true.

Think: How does the total truth of the Bible motivate you to read and live out its words?

ROCK SOLID plans

Psalm 119:105

Read the manual.

Not only does Psalm 119 form a highly structured poem where each line in a section starts with the same letter of the Hebrew alphabet, but this longest chapter in the Bible spans 176 verses detailing the greatness of God's Word. Read the entire psalm and you will discover that every statement recaps a simple fact: God's Word teaches you how to stay tightly connected to him. God didn't give you the Bible to sit on your shelf. He designed it to be your complete and reliable handbook for life.

Your next step: Plan how you can use the Bible each day to keep you from stumbling through life.

Psalm 122

A song of ascents. Of David.

- ¹I rejoiced with those who said to me, “Let us go to the house of the LORD.”
- ²Our feet are standing in your gates, Jerusalem.
- ³Jerusalem is built like a city that is closely compacted together.
- ⁴That is where the tribes go up— the tribes of the LORD—to praise the name of the LORD
according to the statute given to Israel.
- ⁵There stand the thrones for judgment, the thrones of the house of David.
- ⁶Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: “May those who love you be secure.
- ⁷May there be peace within your walls and security within your citadels.”
- ⁸For the sake of my family and friends, I will say, “Peace be within you.”
- ⁹For the sake of the house of the LORD our God, I will seek your prosperity.

ROCK SOLID
principles

Psalm 122:1–9

Go to church with your friends.

Shanise felt a little embarrassed riding shotgun with her mom in the family minivan every Wednesday evening. But she was glad her mom was willing to tool around the neighborhood picking up friends for church. Some of Shanise’s friends were deep into trouble most evenings of the week, but she was glad to have her mid-week youth group to introduce them to God and show them a better way to live. The pick-up rounds were just the start of the fun because every week Shanise's youth pastor managed to plan an evening of worship, study, and activities that pumped everyone up for another week. For Shanise, church was never a nuisance. It was as good as good gets.

Psalm 122 is a “psalm of ascent,” a song sung as people trekked to worship God in Jerusalem. While a trip to church might not seem like much of a reason to sing, getting together to worship with other believers should be a party. There's nothing better than being near God and hanging with all your “family and friends” (Psalm 122:8).

Psalm 123

A song of ascents.

- ¹I lift up my eyes to you,
to you who sit enthroned in heaven.
- ²As the eyes of slaves look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a female slave look to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the LORD our God, till he shows us his mercy.
- ³Have mercy on us, LORD, have mercy on us, for we have

- ¹If the LORD had not been on our side— let Israel say—²if the LORD had not been on our side when people attacked
us, ³they would have swallowed us alive when their anger flared against us;
⁴the flood would have engulfed us, the torrent would have

⁸Our help is in the name of the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

A song of ascents.

- ¹Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which cannot be shaken but endures forever.
- ²As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people both now and forevermore.
- ³The scepter of the wicked will not remain over the land allotted to the righteous, for then the righteous might use their hands to do evil.
- ⁴LORD, do good to those who are good, to those who are upright in heart.
- ⁵But those who turn to crooked ways the LORD will banish with the evildoers.
Peace be on Israel.

Psalm 126

A song of ascents.

- ¹When the LORD restored the fortunes of^[283] Zion, we were like those who dreamed.^[284]
- ²Our mouths were filled with laughter, our tongues with songs of joy.
Then it was said among the nations,
“The LORD has done great things for them.”
- ³The LORD has done great things for us, and we are filled with joy.
- ⁴Restore our fortunes,^[285] LORD, like streams in the Negev.
- ⁵Those who sow with tears will reap with songs of joy.
- ⁶Those who go out weeping, carrying seed to sow,
will return with songs of joy,
carrying sheaves with them.

Psalm 127

A song of ascents. Of Solomon.

¹Unless the LORD builds the house, the builders labor in vain.
Unless the LORD watches over the city,
the guards stand watch in vain.

²In vain you rise early and stay up late,
toiling for food to eat—
for he grants sleep to^[286] those he loves.

³Children are a heritage from the LORD, offspring a reward from him.

⁴Like arrows in the hands of a warrior are children born in one's youth.

⁵Blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them.
They will not be put to shame
when they contend with their opponents in court.

Psalm 127:1–2

God is practical.

Critics say religion fills people's heads with heavenly thoughts that do no good on earth. But your God is highly practical. He notices your everyday needs and fills them. The Lord knows you require basics like food and clothing (see Matthew 6:31–32), and he promises to meet "all your needs according to the riches of his glory in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:19). God cares so much about strong homes that he works alongside builders. He considers neighborhood safety so essential that he stands watch with human guards (see Psalm 127:1). God even warns you against overworking and commands you to get enough sleep at night (see Psalm 127:2). You serve a get-it-done kind of God.

So ... Why does God care about your practical needs?

Psalm 128

A song of ascents.

- ¹Blessed are all who fear the LORD, who walk in obedience to him.
- ²You will eat the fruit of your labor; blessings and prosperity will be yours.
- ³Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house; your children will be like olive shoots around your table.
- ⁴Yes, this will be the blessing for the man who fears the LORD.
- ⁵May the LORD bless you from Zion; may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life.
- ⁶May you live to see your children's children— peace be on Israel.

Psalm 129

A song of ascents.

- ¹“They have greatly oppressed me from my youth,”
let Israel say;
- ²“they have greatly oppressed me from my youth, but they have not gained the victory over me.
- ³Plowmen have plowed my back and made their furrows long.
- ⁴But the LORD is righteous; he has cut me free from the cords of the wicked.”
- ⁵May all who hate Zion
be turned back in shame.
- ⁶May they be like grass on the roof, which withers before it can grow;
- ⁷a reaper cannot fill his hands with it, nor one who gathers fill his arms.
- ⁸May those who pass by not say to them, “The blessing of the LORD be on you;
we bless you in the name of the LORD.”

Psalm 130

A song of ascents.

¹Out of the depths I cry to you, LORD; ²Lord, hear my voice.

Let your ears be attentive to my cry for mercy.

³If you, LORD, kept a record of sins, Lord, who could stand?

⁴But with you there is forgiveness, so that we can, with reverence, serve you.

⁵I wait for the LORD, my whole being waits, and in his word I put my hope.

⁶I wait for the Lord
more than watchmen wait for the morning,
more than watchmen wait for the morning.

⁷Israel, put your hope in the LORD, for with the LORD is unfailing love
and with him is full redemption.

⁸He himself will redeem Israel from all their sins.

Psalm 131

A song of ascents. Of David.

¹My heart is not proud, LORD, my eyes are not haughty;
I do not concern myself with great matters or things too wonderful for me.

²But I have calmed and quieted myself, I am like a weaned child with its mother;
like a weaned child I am content.

³Israel, put your hope in the LORD both now and forevermore.

Psalm 132

A song of ascents.

- ¹LORD, remember David and all his self-denial.
- ²He swore an oath to the LORD, he made a vow to the Mighty
One of Jacob:
- ³“I will not enter my house or go to my bed,
- ⁴I will allow no sleep to my eyes or slumber to my eyelids,
- ⁵till I find a place for the LORD, a dwelling for the Mighty
One of Jacob.”
- ⁶We heard it in Ephrathah,
we came upon it in the fields of Jaar:^[287]
- ⁷“Let us go to his dwelling place, let us worship at his footstool, saying,
- ⁸‘Arise, LORD, and come to your resting place, you and the ark of your might.
- ⁹May your priests be clothed with your righteousness; may your faithful people sing for joy.’ ”
- ¹⁰For the sake of your servant David, do not reject your anointed one.
- ¹¹The LORD swore an oath to David, a sure oath he will not revoke:
“One of your own descendants
I will place on your throne.
- ¹²If your sons keep my covenant and the statutes I teach them, then their sons will sit on your throne for ever and ever.”

¹³For the LORD has chosen Zion, he has desired it for his dwelling, saying,

¹⁴“This is my resting place for ever and ever; here I will sit enthroned, for I have desired it.

¹⁵I will bless her with abundant provisions; her poor I will satisfy with food.

¹⁶I will clothe her priests with salvation, and her faithful people will ever sing for joy.

¹⁷“Here I will make a horn^[288] grow for David and set up a lamp for my anointed one.

¹⁸I will clothe his enemies with shame, but his head will be adorned with a radiant crown.”

when God’s people live together in unity!

²It is like precious oil poured on the head, running down on the beard, running down on Aaron’s beard, down on the collar of his robe.

³It is as if the dew of Hermon were falling on Mount Zion.
For there the LORD bestows his blessing, even life forevermore.

Psalm 134

A song of ascents.

- ¹Praise the LORD, all you servants of the LORD who minister by night in the house of the LORD.
- ²Lift up your hands in the sanctuary and praise the LORD.
- ³May the LORD bless you from Zion, he who is the Maker of heaven and earth.

Psalm 135

- ¹Praise the LORD. ^[289]
Praise the name of the LORD;
praise him, you servants of the LORD, ²you who minister in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God.
³Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good; sing praise to his name, for that is pleasant.
⁴For the LORD has chosen Jacob to be his own, Israel to be his treasured possession.
⁵I know that the LORD is great, that our Lord is greater than all gods.
⁶The LORD does whatever pleases him, in the heavens and on
the earth,
in the seas and all their depths.
⁷He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth; he sends lightning with the rain and brings out the wind from his storehouses.
⁸He struck down the firstborn of Egypt, the firstborn of people and animals.
⁹He sent his signs and wonders into your midst, Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants.
¹⁰He struck down many nations and killed mighty kings—¹¹Sihon king of the Amorites, Og king of Bashan,
and all the kings of Canaan—¹²and he gave their land as an inheritance, an inheritance to his people Israel.
¹³Your name, LORD, endures forever, your renown, LORD,
through all generations.
¹⁴For the LORD will vindicate his people and have compassion on his servants.
¹⁵The idols of the nations are silver and gold, made by human hands.

- ¹⁶They have mouths, but cannot speak, eyes, but cannot see.
- ¹⁷They have ears, but cannot hear, nor is there breath in their mouths.
- ¹⁸Those who make them will be like them, and so will all who trust in them.
- ¹⁹All you Israelites, praise the LORD; house of Aaron, praise the LORD;
- ²⁰house of Levi, praise the LORD; you who fear him, praise the LORD.
- ²¹Praise be to the LORD from Zion, to him who dwells in Jerusalem.
Praise the LORD.

Psalm 136

¹Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good.

His love endures forever.

²Give thanks to the God of gods.

His love endures forever.

³Give thanks to the Lord of lords: His love endures forever.

⁴to him who alone does great wonders, His love endures forever.

⁵who by his understanding made the heavens, His love endures forever.

¹²with a mighty hand and outstretched arm; His love endures forever.

¹³to him who divided the Red Sea^[290] asunder His love endures forever.

¹⁴and brought Israel through the midst of it, His love endures forever.

¹⁵but swept Pharaoh and his army into the Red Sea; His love endures forever.

¹⁶to him who led his people through the wilderness; His love endures forever.

¹⁷to him who struck down great kings, His love endures

forever.
18 and killed mighty kings— His love endures forever.
19 Sihon king of the Amorites His love endures forever.
20 and Og king of Bashan— His love endures forever.
21 and gave their land as an inheritance, His love endures forever.
22 an inheritance to his servant Israel. His love endures forever.
23 He remembered us in our low estate His love endures forever.
24 and freed us from our enemies. His love endures forever.
25 He gives food to every creature. His love endures forever.
26 Give thanks to the God of heaven. His love endures forever.

Psalm 136:1–26

God is merciful.

You aren't paying attention if you miss the main point of Psalm 136: "His love endures forever ... " That word "love" is a particular brand of caring. It's the compassion God shows to people stuck in a miserable situation—his "mercy." The Lord shows mercy when people get hurt because of their own actions, like when we mess up our lives through sin. He shows mercy to people who suffer as a result of things they didn't cause, like accidents or illness. This ancient song lists examples of God's blessings and his mighty acts of creation. It highlights episodes where God rescued his people from dire circumstances. There's a power behind the Lord's every kind act. It's his huge merciful heart.

So ... When do you need mercy from God?

Psalm 137

- ¹By the rivers of Babylon we sat and wept when we remembered Zion.
- ²There on the poplars
we hung our harps,
- ³for there our captors asked us for songs, our tormentors demanded songs of joy;
they said, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"
- ⁴How can we sing the songs of the LORD
while in a foreign land?
- ⁵If I forget you, Jerusalem, may my right hand forget its skill.
- ⁶May my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth if I do not remember you, if I do not consider Jerusalem
my highest joy.
- ⁷Remember, LORD, what the Edomites did on the day Jerusalem fell.
"Tear it down," they cried,
"tear it down to its foundations!"
- ⁸Daughter Babylon, doomed to destruction, happy is the one who repays you according to what you have done to us.
- ⁹Happy is the one who seizes your infants and dashes them against the rocks.

Psalm 138

Of David.

- ¹I will praise you, LORD, with all my heart; before the “gods”
I will sing your praise.
- ²I will bow down toward your holy temple and will praise your name for your unfailing love and your faithfulness, for you have so exalted your solemn decree that it surpasses your fame.
- ³When I called, you answered me; you greatly emboldened
me.
- ⁴May all the kings of the earth praise you, LORD, when they hear what you have decreed.
- ⁵May they sing of the ways of the LORD, for the glory of the LORD is great.
- ⁶Though the LORD is exalted, he looks kindly on the lowly;
though lofty, he sees them from afar.
- ⁷Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you preserve my life.
You stretch out your hand against the anger of my foes;
with your right hand you save me.
- ⁸The LORD will vindicate me; your love, LORD, endures forever— do not abandon the works of your hands.

ROCK SOLID truths

Psalm 138:6–8

God won't stop working until he's done with you.

You might not like the feeling of anyone running your life. But you really need your parents to launch you to adulthood. And you truly need your wise and loving God as he works out his plan for your life. The Lord passionately cares about everything he wants to do in and through you. “The LORD will vindicate me,” this song promises (Psalm 138:8). The New Testament says the same thing, that “He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus” (Philippians 1:6). God sees all the moves he has mapped out for you (see Psalm 139:16). He pays attention to the smallest details of your life (see Luke 12:7). The Lord won’t ever give up on you. Your job is to never give up on him.

Think: What do you think God wants to do in your life today?

Psalm 139

For the director of music. Of David. A psalm.

- ¹You have searched me, LORD, and you know me.
- ²You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar.
- ³You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways.
- ⁴Before a word is on my tongue
you, LORD, know it completely.
- ⁵You hem me in behind and before, and you lay your hand upon me.
- ⁶Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.
- ⁷Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your presence?
- ⁸If I go up to the heavens, you are there; if I make my bed in the depths, you are there.
- ⁹If I rise on the wings of the dawn, if I settle on the far side of the sea,
- ¹⁰even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast.
- ¹¹If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me and the light become night around me,"

I know that full well.
- ¹⁵My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth.

ROCK SOLID plans

Psalm 139:1–24

Count on God's one-of-a-kind love.

No human will ever know you like God does. He shaped you in your mother's womb and scripted your life before you were born. He sees your steps, reads your thoughts, and hears your words. His ability to track your every move means you can never escape his love. So you can be bold and can bare every part of your soul to him because he already knows you inside and out. Psalm 140^[292]

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

- ¹Rescue me, LORD, from evildoers; protect me from the violent, ²who devise evil plans in their hearts and stir up war every day.
³They make their tongues as sharp as a serpent's; the poison of vipers is on their lips.^[293]
⁴Keep me safe, LORD, from the hands of the wicked; protect me from the violent, who devise ways to trip my feet.
⁵The arrogant have hidden a snare for me; they have spread out the cords of their net and have set traps for me along my path.
⁶I say to the LORD, "You are my God."
Hear, LORD, my cry for mercy.
⁷Sovereign LORD, my strong deliverer, you shield my head in the day of battle.
⁸Do not grant the wicked their desires, LORD; do not let their plans succeed.
⁹Those who surround me proudly rear their heads; may the mischief of their lips engulf them.
¹⁰May burning coals fall on them; may they be thrown into the fire, into miry pits, never to rise.
¹¹May slanderers not be established in the land; may disaster hunt down the violent.
¹²I know that the LORD secures justice for the poor and upholds the cause of the needy.
¹³Surely the righteous will praise your name, and the upright will live in your presence.

Psalm 141

A psalm of David.

- ¹I call to you, LORD, come quickly to me; hear me when I call to you.
- ²May my prayer be set before you like incense; may the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice.
- ³Set a guard over my mouth, LORD; keep watch over the door of my lips.
- ⁴Do not let my heart be drawn to what is evil so that I take part in wicked deeds along with those who are evildoers;
do not let me eat their delicacies.
- ⁵Let a righteous man strike me—that is a kindness; let him rebuke me—that is oil on my head.
My head will not refuse it, for my prayer will still be against the deeds of evildoers.
- ⁶Their rulers will be thrown down from the cliffs, and the wicked will learn that my words were well spoken.
- ⁷They will say, “As one plows and breaks up the earth, so our bones have been scattered at the mouth of the grave.”
- ⁸But my eyes are fixed on you, Sovereign LORD; in you I take refuge—do not give me over to death.
- ⁹Keep me safe from the traps set by evildoers, from the snares they have laid for me.
- ¹⁰Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I pass by in safety.

- ⁴Look and see, there is no one at my right hand; no one is concerned for me.
I have no refuge;
no one cares for my life.
- ⁵I cry to you, LORD; I say, “You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.”
- ⁶Listen to my cry,
for I am in desperate need;
rescue me from those who pursue me,

Psalm 145:1–21

God is good.

God sometimes puts conditions on experiencing his blessings—like if you want to enjoy the best possible guy-girl relationships, you don't want to ignore his commands about sexual purity. But God isn't just kind to his followers. He's unconditionally good "to all" (Psalm 145:9). God goes out of his way to do good to his entire creation. According to this song, he shares his compassion, glory, and might with everyone. He's loving toward "all he has made" and satisfies "every living thing" (Psalm 145:9 and 16). So never let anyone fool you into thinking God has an evil attitude toward this planet. God is totally good.

So ... In what ways do you see God being good to everyone on earth?

and binds up their wounds.

⁴He determines the number of the stars and calls them each by name.

⁵Great is our Lord and mighty in power; his understanding has no limit.

⁶The LORD sustains the humble but casts the wicked to the ground.

⁷Sing to the LORD with grateful praise; make music to our God on the harp.

⁸He covers the sky with clouds;

he supplies the earth with rain and makes grass grow on the hills.

⁹He provides food for the cattle and for the young ravens when they call.

¹⁰His pleasure is not in the strength of the horse, nor his delight in the legs of the warrior;

¹¹the LORD delights in those who fear him, who put their hope in his unfailing love.

¹²Extol the LORD, Jerusalem; praise your God, Zion.

¹³He strengthens the bars of your gates and blesses your people within you.

¹⁴He grants peace to your borders and satisfies you with the finest of wheat.

¹⁵He sends his command to the earth; his word runs swiftly.

¹⁶He spreads the snow like wool and scatters the frost like ashes.

¹⁷He hurls down his hail like pebbles.
Who can withstand his icy blast?

¹⁸He sends his word and melts them; he stirs up his breezes, and the waters flow.

¹⁹He has revealed his word to Jacob, his laws and decrees to Israel.

²⁰He has done this for no other nation; they do not know his laws. ^[304]

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 148

- ¹Praise the LORD. ^[305]
Praise the LORD from the heavens; praise him in the heights above.
- ²Praise him, all his angels;
praise him, all his heavenly hosts.
- ³Praise him, sun and moon;
praise him, all you shining stars.
- ⁴Praise him, you highest heavens and you waters above the skies.
- ⁵Let them praise the name of the LORD, for at his command
they were created,
- ⁶and he established them for ever and ever— he issued a decree that will never pass away.
- ⁷Praise the LORD from the earth, you great sea creatures and all ocean depths,
- ⁸lightning and hail, snow and clouds, stormy winds that do
his bidding,
- ⁹you mountains and all hills,
fruit trees and all cedars,
- ¹⁰wild animals and all cattle,
small creatures and flying birds,
- ¹¹kings of the earth and all nations, you princes and all rulers on earth,
- ¹²young men and women,
old men and children.
- ¹³Let them praise the name of the LORD, for his name alone is exalted;
his splendor is above the earth and the heavens.
- ¹⁴And he has raised up for his people a horn, ^[306]
the praise of all his faithful servants, of Israel, the people close to his heart.
- Praise the LORD.

Psalm 149

¹Praise the LORD. ^[307]

Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise in the assembly of his faithful people.

²Let Israel rejoice in their Maker; let the people of Zion be glad in their King.

³Let them praise his name with dancing and make music to him with timbrel and harp.

⁴For the LORD takes delight in his people; he crowns the humble with victory.

⁵Let his faithful people rejoice in this honor and sing for joy on their beds.

⁶May the praise of God be in their mouths and a double-edged sword in their hands, ⁷to inflict vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples,

⁸to bind their kings with fetters, their nobles with shackles of iron,

⁹to carry out the sentence written against them— this is the glory of all his faithful people.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 150

¹Praise the LORD. ^[308]

Praise God in his sanctuary;
praise him in his mighty heavens.

²Praise him for his acts of power; praise him for his surpassing greatness.

³Praise him with the sounding of the trumpet, praise him with the harp and lyre, ⁴praise him with timbrel and dancing, praise him with the strings and pipe, ⁵praise him with the clash of cymbals, praise him with resounding cymbals.

⁶Let everything that has breath praise the LORD.
Praise the LORD.

ROCK SOLID
principles

Psalm 150:1–6

Rock for God.

Lindsay adored her older brother. When he offered to loan her one of his electric guitars and teach her to play, she was completely hooked. Lindsay studied chord charts and tabs and scales, and whenever she had a free moment she was hammering out a new guitar part. In a few months her brother called her abilities “respectable,” about as large a compliment as his coolness would allow him to give. Even though Lindsay had some classmates looking to put together a band, she wanted a different place to use her new skills. After trying out and failing a couple times, she was invited to join a worship band at her church. Lindsay didn’t just want to rock. She wanted to rock for God.

Don’t believe people who think worship is an hour of sour-faced silence. Real worship reaches all the way from the “sanctuary” to the Lord’s “mighty heavens” to everywhere between (Psalm 150:1). And real worship isn’t tame. It can rock every kind of noisy instrument to praise God’s unbeatable clout. If you can breath, praise the Lord.

BOOK OUTLINE

Instructions on wisdom and foolishness

(1:1–9:18)

The proverbs of Solomon

(10:1–22:16)

Sayings of the wise

(22:17–24:34)

More proverbs of Solomon

(25:1–29:27) Sayings of Agur and Lemuel

(30:1–31:31)

Proverbs is a collection of wise sayings and good advice for daily living. The author begins by reminding us that “The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge” (1:7). The first four chapters discuss the importance of wisdom.

The author also includes a collection of short and powerful two-line sayings that cover many different subjects including marriage, social behavior, friendship, justice, folly, poverty, wealth, family, love, laziness, and warnings against drinking and adultery.

Many of these proverbs were written by King Solomon. Others were copied by the men of Hezekiah. Agur and Lemuel wrote the last two chapters.

Proverbs

Proverbs 1

PURPOSE AND THEME

¹The proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel:

²for gaining wisdom and instruction; for understanding words of insight;

³for receiving instruction in prudent behavior, doing what is right and just and fair;

⁴for giving prudence to those who are simple,^[1] knowledge and discretion to the young—

⁵let the wise listen and add to their learning, and let the discerning get guidance—⁶for understanding proverbs and parables, the sayings and riddles of the wise.^[2]

⁷The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge, but fools^[3] despise wisdom and instruction.

PROLOGUE: EXHORTATIONS TO EMBRACE WISDOM

WARNING AGAINST THE INVITATION OF SINFUL MEN

⁸Listen, my son, to your father's instruction and do not forsake your mother's teaching.

⁹They are a garland to grace your head and a chain to adorn your neck.

¹⁰My son, if sinful men entice you, do not give in to them.

¹¹If they say, "Come along with us; let's lie in wait for innocent blood, let's ambush some harmless soul;

¹²let's swallow them alive, like the grave, and whole, like those who go down to the pit;

¹³we will get all sorts of valuable things and fill our houses with plunder;

¹⁴cast lots with us;
we will all share the loot"—

¹⁵my son, do not go along with them, do not set foot on their paths;

¹⁶for their feet rush into evil, they are swift to shed blood.
¹⁷How useless to spread a net where every bird can see it!
¹⁸These men lie in wait for their own blood; they ambush only themselves!
¹⁹Such are the paths of all who go after ill-gotten gain; it takes away the life of those who get it.

WISDOM'S REBUKE

²⁰Out in the open wisdom calls aloud, she raises her voice in the public square;
²¹on top of the wall^[4] she cries out, at the city gate she makes her speech:
²²“How long will you who are simple love your simple ways?
 How long will mockers delight in mockery and fools hate knowledge?
²³Repent at my rebuke!
 Then I will pour out my thoughts to you,
 I will make known to you my teachings.
²⁴But since you refuse to listen when I call and no one pays attention when I stretch out my hand, ²⁵since you disregard all my advice and do not accept my rebuke,
²⁶I in turn will laugh when disaster strikes you; I will mock when calamity overtakes you— ²⁷when calamity overtakes you like a storm, when disaster sweeps over you like a whirlwind, when distress and trouble overwhelm you.
²⁸“Then they will call to me but I will not answer; they will look for me but will not find me, ²⁹since they hated knowledge and did not choose to fear the LORD.
³⁰Since they would not accept my advice and spurned my rebuke,
³¹they will eat the fruit of their ways and be filled with the fruit of their schemes.

³²For the waywardness of the simple will kill them, and the complacency of fools will destroy them;

³³but whoever listens to me will live in safety and be at ease, without fear of harm.”

Proverbs 2

MORAL BENEFITS OF WISDOM

- ¹My son, if you accept my words
and store up my commands within you, ²turning your ear to wisdom and applying your heart to understanding—³indeed, if you call out for insight and cry aloud for understanding,
⁴and if you look for it as for silver and search for it as for hidden treasure,
⁵then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God.
⁶For the LORD gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding.
- ⁷He holds success in store for the upright, he is a shield to those whose walk is blameless, ⁸for he guards the course of the just and protects the way of his faithful ones.
⁹Then you will understand what is right and just and fair—every good path.
¹⁰For wisdom will enter your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.
¹¹Discretion will protect you,
and understanding will guard you.
¹²Wisdom will save you from the ways of wicked men, from men whose words are perverse, ¹³who have left the straight paths to walk in dark ways, ¹⁴who delight in doing wrong and rejoice in the perverseness of evil, ¹⁵whose paths are crooked and who are devious in their ways.
¹⁶Wisdom will save you also from the adulterous woman, from the wayward woman with her seductive words,
¹⁷who has left the partner of her youth and ignored the covenant she made before God.^[5]

¹⁸Surely her house leads down to death and her paths to the spirits of the dead.

¹⁹None who go to her return or attain the paths of life.

²⁰Thus you will walk in the ways of the good and keep to the paths of the righteous.

²¹For the upright will live in the land, and the blameless will remain in it;

²²but the wicked will be cut off from the land, and the unfaithful will be torn from it.

ROCK SOLID principles

Proverbs 2:1–11

Get smart.

Maybe it was because Dylan was the oldest child in his family, but he always charged into life headfirst, insisting on learning everything the hard way. When his parents told him to clean up his room, he made a bigger mess. When a teacher said an assignment was due on Friday, he never turned it in until the following Wednesday. And when the whole world tried to convince him that drugs were a dumb idea, Dylan had to check it out for himself. His younger brother Logan watched all this and lived the motto, “Dylan’s pain, my gain.” Dylan gave Logan a steady stream of lessons in how to steer clear of stupidity.

The hard knocks of life give you a schooling when you least expect it. But it’s far better to go hunting for wisdom, actively asking God to teach you his instructions for the best life possible. The Lord himself is the source of all insights, and if you search for his wisdom with the passion you devote to hunting for treasure, he guarantees you will find it.

Proverbs 3

WISDOM BESTOWS WELL-BEING

- ¹My son, do not forget my teaching, but keep my commands in your heart,
- ²for they will prolong your life many years and bring you peace and prosperity.
- ³Let love and faithfulness never leave you; bind them around your neck,
write them on the tablet of your heart.
- ⁴Then you will win favor and a good name in the sight of God and man.
- ⁵Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding;
- ⁶in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.^[6]
- ⁷Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD and shun evil.
- ⁸This will bring health to your body and nourishment to your bones.
- ⁹Honor the LORD with your wealth, with the firstfruits of all your crops;
- ¹⁰then your barns will be filled to overflowing, and your vats will brim over with new wine.
- ¹¹My son, do not despise the LORD's discipline, and do not resent his rebuke,
- ¹²because the LORD disciplines those he loves, as a father the son he delights in.^[7]
- ¹³Blessed are those who find wisdom, those who gain
understanding,
- ¹⁴for she is more profitable than silver and yields better returns than gold.

- ¹⁵She is more precious than rubies; nothing you desire can compare with her.
- ¹⁶Long life is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor.
- ¹⁷Her ways are pleasant ways, and all her paths are peace.
- ¹⁸She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her; those who hold her fast will be blessed.
- ¹⁹By wisdom the LORD laid the earth's foundations, by understanding he set the heavens in place;
- ²⁰by his knowledge the watery depths were divided, and the clouds let drop the dew.
- ²¹My son, do not let wisdom and understanding out of your sight, preserve sound judgment and discretion;
- ²²they will be life for you,
an ornament to grace your neck.
- ²³Then you will go on your way in safety, and your foot will not stumble.
- ²⁴When you lie down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.
- ²⁵Have no fear of sudden disaster or of the ruin that overtakes the wicked,
- ²⁶for the LORD will be at your side and will keep your foot from being snared.
- ²⁷Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to act.
- ²⁸Do not say to your neighbor,
"Come back tomorrow and I'll give it to you"— when you already have it with you.
- ²⁹Do not plot harm against your neighbor, who lives trustfully near you.
- ³⁰Do not accuse anyone for no reason— when they have done you no harm.
- ³¹Do not envy the violent or choose any of their ways.
- ³²For the LORD detests the perverse but takes the upright into his confidence.
- ³³The LORD's curse is on the house of the wicked, but he blesses the home of the righteous.

³⁴He mocks proud mockers
but shows favor to the humble and oppressed.

³⁵The wise inherit honor,
but fools get only shame.

ROCK SOLID plans

Proverbs 3:1–8

Let God steer your life.

Every voice in your world might shout that you should go your own way and do your own thing, but God's plan in Proverbs 3:1–8 is better: Remember his teaching. Keep his commands. And trust the facts of his love and faithfulness. God's instruction is wise: Lean on him wholeheartedly. Don't think you're smarter than him. Admit you need him. And invite him to direct you. God's promise is sure: Respect him always. Run from evil. And expect him to make every part of you stronger than strong.

Your next step: In what specific areas of life are you going your own way—rather than going through life God's way? Get help to change.

Proverbs 4

GET WISDOM AT ANY COST

- ¹Listen, my sons, to a father's instruction; pay attention and gain understanding.
- ²I give you sound learning,
so do not forsake my teaching.
- ³For I too was a son to my father, still tender, and cherished by my mother.
- ⁴Then he taught me, and he said to me, "Take hold of my words with all your heart;
keep my commands, and you will live.
- ⁵Get wisdom, get understanding;
do not forget my words or turn away from them.
- ⁶Do not forsake wisdom, and she will protect you; love her,
and she will watch over you.
- ⁷The beginning of wisdom is this: Get^[8] wisdom.
Though it cost all you have,^[9] get understanding.
- ⁸Cherish her, and she will exalt you; embrace her, and she will honor you.
- ⁹She will give you a garland to grace your head and present you with a glorious crown."
- ¹⁰Listen, my son, accept what I say, and the years of your life will be many.
- ¹¹I instruct you in the way of wisdom and lead you along straight paths.
- ¹²When you walk, your steps will not be hampered; when you run, you will not stumble.
- ¹³Hold on to instruction, do not let it go; guard it well, for it is your life.
- ¹⁴Do not set foot on the path of the wicked or walk in the way of evildoers.
- ¹⁵Avoid it, do not travel on it; turn from it and go on your way.
- ¹⁶For they cannot rest until they do evil; they are robbed of sleep till they make someone stumble.
- ¹⁷They eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.

- ¹⁸The path of the righteous is like the morning sun, shining ever brighter till the full light of day.
- ¹⁹But the way of the wicked is like deep darkness; they do not know what makes them stumble.
- ²⁰My son, pay attention to what I say; turn your ear to my words.
- ²¹Do not let them out of your sight, keep them within your heart;
- ²²for they are life to those who find them and health to one's whole body.
- ²³Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it.
- ²⁴Keep your mouth free of perversity; keep corrupt talk far from your lips.
- ²⁵Let your eyes look straight ahead; fix your gaze directly before you.
- ²⁶Give careful thought to the^[10] paths for your feet and be steadfast in all your ways.
- ²⁷Do not turn to the right or the left; keep your foot from evil.

Proverbs 5

WARNING AGAINST ADULTERY

- ¹My son, pay attention to my wisdom, turn your ear to my words of insight, ²that you may maintain discretion and your lips may preserve knowledge.
³For the lips of the adulterous woman drip honey, and her speech is smoother than oil; ⁴but in the end she is bitter as gall, sharp as a double-edged sword.
⁵Her feet go down to death;
her steps lead straight to the grave.
⁶She gives no thought to the way of life; her paths wander aimlessly, but she does not know it.
⁷Now then, my sons, listen to me; do not turn aside from what I say.
⁸Keep to a path far from her,
do not go near the door of her house,
⁹lest you lose your honor to others and your dignity^[11] to one who is cruel, ¹⁰lest strangers feast on your wealth and your toil enrich the house of another.
¹¹At the end of your life you will groan, when your flesh and body are spent.
¹²You will say, “How I hated discipline!
How my heart spurned correction!
¹³I would not obey my teachers or turn my ear to my instructors.
¹⁴And I was soon in serious trouble in the assembly of God’s people.”
¹⁵Drink water from your own cistern, running water from your own well.
¹⁶Should your springs overflow in the streets, your streams of water in the public squares?
¹⁷Let them be yours alone, never to be shared with strangers.
¹⁸May your fountain be blessed,
and may you rejoice in the wife of your youth.

¹⁹A loving doe, a graceful deer— may her breasts satisfy you always, may you ever be intoxicated with her love.

²⁰Why, my son, be intoxicated with another man’s wife?
Why embrace the bosom of a wayward woman?

²¹For your ways are in full view of the LORD, and he examines all your paths.

²²The evil deeds of the wicked ensnare them; the cords of their sins hold them fast.

²³For lack of discipline they will die, led astray by their own great folly.

Proverbs 5:1–23

Save yourself for the best.

Nikki stood across the street, half hidden by a massive oak tree. She stared at the front door of her boyfriend’s house, debating with herself whether to walk over and go inside. Nikki and Zach had been going out for months, and they had even used the L-word to say how they felt about each other. Zach told Nikki to come over at 9:00 one Friday night, because his parents would be out for a late dinner and movie with friends. They wouldn’t be home for hours, so the pair would have the house to themselves. Nikki didn’t have to guess what Zach wanted because he had told her. But at 8:55 she was still making up her mind whether she wanted that too.

God’s blunt insights about sex shock anyone who thinks the Lord is down on sex. You get the real picture in Proverbs 5. The Lord invented sex for more than breeding the human species, and physical love is at its happiest within the boundaries he designed. Sex outside marriage leads “straight to the grave” (Proverbs 5:5).

Proverbs 6

WARNINGS AGAINST FOLLY

- ¹My son, if you have put up security for your neighbor, if you have shaken hands in pledge for a stranger, ²you have been trapped by what you said, ensnared by the words of your mouth.
³So do this, my son, to free yourself, since you have fallen into your neighbor's hands:
Go—to the point of exhaustion—^[12]
and give your neighbor no rest!
⁴Allow no sleep to your eyes,
no slumber to your eyelids.
⁵Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, like a bird from the snare of the fowler.
⁶Go to the ant, you sluggard;
consider its ways and be wise!
⁷It has no commander,
no overseer or ruler, ⁸yet it stores its provisions in summer and gathers its food at harvest.
⁹How long will you lie there, you sluggard?
When will you get up from your sleep?
¹⁰A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest— ¹¹and poverty will come on you like a thief and scarcity like an armed man.
¹²A troublemaker and a villain, who goes about with a corrupt mouth, ¹³who winks maliciously with his eye, signals with his feet and motions with his fingers, ¹⁴who plots evil with deceit in his heart— he always stirs up conflict.
¹⁵Therefore disaster will overtake him in an instant; he will suddenly be destroyed—without remedy.
¹⁶There are six things the LORD hates, seven that are detestable to him:
¹⁷haughty eyes,
a lying tongue,

hands that shed innocent blood, ¹⁸a heart that devises wicked schemes, feet that are quick to rush into evil,
¹⁹a false witness who pours out lies and a person who stirs up conflict in the community.

WARNING AGAINST ADULTERY

²⁰My son, keep your father's command and do not forsake your mother's teaching.

²¹Bind them always on your heart; fasten them around your neck.

²²When you walk, they will guide you; when you sleep, they will watch over you;
when you awake, they will speak to you.

²³For this command is a lamp,
this teaching is a light, and correction and instruction

are the way to life,

²⁴keeping you from your neighbor's wife, from the smooth talk of a wayward woman.

²⁵Do not lust in your heart after her beauty or let her captivate you with her eyes.

²⁶For a prostitute can be had for a loaf of bread, but another man's wife preys on your very life.

²⁷Can a man scoop fire into his lap without his clothes being burned?

²⁸Can a man walk on hot coals without his feet being scorched?

²⁹So is he who sleeps with another man's wife; no one who touches her will go unpunished.

³⁰People do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy his hunger when he is starving.

³¹Yet if he is caught, he must pay sevenfold, though it costs him all the wealth of his house.

³²But a man who commits adultery has no sense; whoever does so destroys himself.

³³Blows and disgrace are his lot, and his shame will never be wiped away.

³⁴For jealousy arouses a husband's fury, and he will show no mercy when he takes revenge.

³⁵He will not accept any compensation; he will refuse a bribe, however great it is.

Proverbs 7

WARNING AGAINST THE ADULTEROUS WOMAN

- ¹My son, keep my words
and store up my commands within you.
- ²Keep my commands and you will live; guard my teachings as the apple of your eye.
- ³Bind them on your fingers;
write them on the tablet of your heart.
- ⁴Say to wisdom, “You are my sister,” and to insight, “You are my relative.”
- ⁵They will keep you from the adulterous woman, from the wayward woman with her seductive words.
- ⁶At the window of my house
I looked down through the lattice.
- ⁷I saw among the simple,
I noticed among the young men,
a youth who had no sense.
- ⁸He was going down the street near her corner, walking along in the direction of her house
- ⁹at twilight, as the day was fading, as the dark of night set in.
- ¹⁰Then out came a woman to meet him, dressed like a prostitute and with crafty intent.
- ¹¹(She is unruly and defiant,
her feet never stay at home;
- ¹²now in the street, now in the squares, at every corner she lurks.)
- ¹³She took hold of him and kissed him and with a brazen face she said:
- ¹⁴“Today I fulfilled my vows, and I have food from my fellowship offering at home.
- ¹⁵So I came out to meet you;
I looked for you and have found you!
- ¹⁶I have covered my bed with colored linens from Egypt.
- ¹⁷I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes and cinnamon.
- ¹⁸Come, let’s drink deeply of love till morning; let’s enjoy ourselves with love!

¹⁹My husband is not at home;

he has gone on a long journey.

²⁰He took his purse filled with money and will not be home till full moon.”

²¹With persuasive words she led him astray; she seduced him with her smooth talk.

²²All at once he followed her like an ox going to the slaughter, like a deer^[13] stepping into a noose^[14]

²³till an arrow pierces his liver, like a bird darting into a snare,

little knowing it will cost him his life.

²⁴Now then, my sons, listen to me; pay attention to what I say.

²⁵Do not let your heart turn to her ways or stray into her paths.

²⁶Many are the victims she has brought down; her slain are a mighty throng.

²⁷Her house is a highway to the grave, leading down to the chambers of death.

Proverbs 8

WISDOM'S CALL

- ¹Does not wisdom call out?
Does not understanding raise her voice?
- ²At the highest point along the way, where the paths meet,
she takes her stand;
- ³beside the gate leading into the city, at the entrance, she cries aloud:
- ⁴“To you, O people, I call out;
I raise my voice to all mankind.
- ⁵You who are simple, gain prudence; you who are foolish, set your hearts on it.^[15]
- ⁶Listen, for I have trustworthy things to say; I open my lips to speak what is right.
- ⁷My mouth speaks what is true,
for my lips detest wickedness.
- ⁸All the words of my mouth are just; none of them is crooked or perverse.
- ⁹To the discerning all of them are right; they are upright to those who have found knowledge.
- ¹⁰Choose my instruction instead of silver, knowledge rather than choice gold,
- ¹¹for wisdom is more precious than rubies, and nothing you desire can compare with her.
- ¹²“I, wisdom, dwell together with prudence; I possess knowledge and discretion.
- ¹³To fear the LORD is to hate evil; I hate pride and arrogance, evil behavior and perverse speech.
- ¹⁴Counsel and sound judgment are mine; I have insight, I have power.
- ¹⁵By me kings reign and rulers issue decrees that are just;
- ¹⁶by me princes govern,
and nobles—all who rule on earth.^[16]

¹⁷I love those who love me, and those who seek me find me.

¹⁸With me are riches and honor, enduring wealth and prosperity.

¹⁹My fruit is better than fine gold; what I yield surpasses choice silver.

²⁰I walk in the way of righteousness, along the paths of justice,

²¹bestowing a rich inheritance on those who love me and making their treasuries full.

²²“The LORD brought me forth as the first of his works, ^[17], ^[18]
before his deeds of old;

²³I was formed long ages ago,
at the very beginning, when the world came to be.

²⁴When there were no watery depths, I was given birth, when there were no springs overflowing with water;

²⁵before the mountains were settled in place, before the hills,
I was given birth,

²⁶before he made the world or its fields or any of the dust of the earth.

²⁷I was there when he set the heavens in place, when he marked out the horizon on the face of the deep,

²⁸when he established the clouds above and fixed securely the fountains of the deep,

²⁹when he gave the sea its boundary so the waters would not overstep his command, and when he marked out the foundations of the earth.

³⁰Then I was constantly ^[19] at his side.
I was filled with delight day after day, rejoicing always in his presence,

³¹rejoicing in his whole world and delighting in mankind.

³²“Now then, my children, listen to me; blessed are those who keep my ways.

³³Listen to my instruction and be wise; do not disregard it.

³⁴Blessed are those who listen to me, watching daily at my doors, waiting at my doorway.

³⁵For those who find me find life and receive favor from the LORD.

³⁶But those who fail to find me harm themselves; all who hate me love death.”

Proverbs 9

INVITATIONS OF WISDOM AND FOLLY

- ¹Wisdom has built her house;
she has set up^[20] its seven pillars.
- ²She has prepared her meat and mixed her wine; she has also set her table.
- ³She has sent out her servants, and she calls from the highest point of the city,
⁴“Let all who are simple come to my house!”
To those who have no sense she says,
⁵“Come, eat my food and drink the wine I have mixed.
- ⁶Leave your simple ways and you will live; walk in the way of insight.”
- ⁷Whoever corrects a mocker invites insults; whoever rebukes the wicked incurs abuse.
- ⁸Do not rebuke mockers or they will hate you; rebuke the wise and they will love you.
- ⁹Instruct the wise and they will be wiser still; teach the righteous and they will add to their learning.
- ¹⁰The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
- ¹¹For through wisdom^[21] your days will be many, and years will be added to your life.
- ¹²If you are wise, your wisdom will reward you; if you are a mocker, you alone will suffer.
- ¹³Folly is an unruly woman;
she is simple and knows nothing.
- ¹⁴She sits at the door of her house, on a seat at the highest point of the city,
¹⁵calling out to those who pass by, who go straight on their way,
¹⁶“Let all who are simple come to my house!”
To those who have no sense she says,
¹⁷“Stolen water is sweet;
food eaten in secret is delicious!”
- ¹⁸But little do they know that the dead are there, that her guests are deep in the realm of the dead.

ROCK SOLID truths

Proverbs 9:1–10

Fearing God is the start of wisdom.

Teachers and parents and peers try to size up your intelligence in all kinds of ways. But the Bible provides just one way to score your true smarts. Proverbs 9:10 says, “The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.” That word “fear” doesn’t mean “fright” or “terror” but an awe-filled respect for the Lord. This kind of fear is how you get wise. And throughout the Bible the “fear of the Lord” is a healthy understanding of God that leads to happy obedience (see Proverbs 14:27; Isaiah 11:3; Acts 9:31). Here in Proverbs 9, wisdom is pictured as a woman who has built a strong house and set a fine spread of food. She’s shouting, “Come and get it!” She dares you to come inside and eat—or stand outside and look stupid.

Think: How will your life be better today if you live in “the fear of the Lord”?

PROVERBS OF SOLOMON

¹The proverbs of Solomon:

A wise son brings joy to his father,
but a foolish son brings grief to his mother.

²Ill-gotten treasures have no lasting value, but righteousness delivers from death.

³The LORD does not let the righteous go hungry, but he thwarts the craving of the wicked.

⁴Lazy hands make for poverty,
but diligent hands bring wealth.

⁵He who gathers crops in summer is a prudent son, but he who sleeps during harvest is a disgraceful son.

⁶Blessings crown the head of the righteous, but violence overwhelms the mouth of the wicked. [\[22\]](#)

⁷The name of the righteous is used in blessings, [\[23\]](#) but the name of the wicked will rot.

⁸The wise in heart accept commands, but a chattering fool comes to ruin.

⁹Whoever walks in integrity walks securely, but whoever takes crooked paths will be found out.

¹⁰Whoever winks maliciously causes grief, and a chattering fool comes to ruin.

¹¹The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life, but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.

¹²Hatred stirs up conflict,
but love covers over all wrongs.

¹³Wisdom is found on the lips of the discerning, but a rod is for the back of one who has no sense.

¹⁴The wise store up knowledge, but the mouth of a fool invites ruin.

¹⁵The wealth of the rich is their fortified city, but poverty is the ruin of the poor.

- ¹⁶The wages of the righteous is life, but the earnings of the wicked are sin and death.
- ¹⁷Whoever heeds discipline shows the way to life, but whoever ignores correction leads others astray.
- ¹⁸Whoever conceals hatred with lying lips and spreads slander is a fool.
- ¹⁹Sin is not ended by multiplying words, but the prudent hold their tongues.
- ²⁰The tongue of the righteous is choice silver, but the heart of the wicked is of little value.
- ²¹The lips of the righteous nourish many, but fools die for lack of sense.
- ²²The blessing of the LORD brings wealth, without painful toil for it.
- ²³A fool finds pleasure in wicked schemes, but a person of understanding delights in wisdom.
- ²⁴What the wicked dread will overtake them; what the righteous desire will be granted.
- ²⁵When the storm has swept by, the wicked are gone, but the righteous stand firm forever.
- ²⁶As vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes, so are sluggards to those who send them.
- ²⁷The fear of the LORD adds length to life, but the years of the wicked are cut short.
- ²⁸The prospect of the righteous is joy, but the hopes of the wicked come to nothing.
- ²⁹The way of the LORD is a refuge for the blameless, but it is the ruin of those who do evil.
- ³⁰The righteous will never be uprooted, but the wicked will not remain in the land.
- ³¹From the mouth of the righteous comes the fruit of wisdom, but a perverse tongue will be silenced.
- ³²The lips of the righteous know what finds favor, but the mouth of the wicked only what is perverse.

Proverbs 11

- ¹The LORD detests dishonest scales, but accurate weights find favor with him.
- ²When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with humility comes wisdom.
- ³The integrity of the upright guides them, but the unfaithful are destroyed by their duplicity.
- ⁴Wealth is worthless in the day of wrath, but righteousness delivers from death.
- ⁵The righteousness of the blameless makes their paths straight, but the wicked are brought down by their own wickedness.
- ⁶The righteousness of the upright delivers them, but the unfaithful are trapped by evil desires.
- ⁷Hopes placed in mortals die with them; all the promise of^[24] their power comes to nothing.
- ⁸The righteous person is rescued from trouble, and it falls on the wicked instead.
- ⁹With their mouths the godless destroy their neighbors, but through knowledge the righteous escape.
- ¹⁰When the righteous prosper, the city rejoices; when the wicked perish, there are shouts of joy.
- ¹¹Through the blessing of the upright a city is exalted, but by the mouth of the wicked it is destroyed.
- ¹²Whoever derides their neighbor has no sense, but the one who has understanding holds their tongue.
- ¹³A gossip betrays a confidence, but a trustworthy person keeps a secret.
- ¹⁴For lack of guidance a nation falls, but victory is won through many advisers.
- ¹⁵Whoever puts up security for a stranger will surely suffer, but whoever refuses to shake hands in pledge is safe.
- ¹⁶A kindhearted woman gains honor, but ruthless men gain only wealth.

- ¹⁷Those who are kind benefit themselves, but the cruel bring ruin on themselves.
- ¹⁸A wicked person earns deceptive wages, but the one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward.
- ¹⁹Truly the righteous attain life, but whoever pursues evil finds death.
- ²⁰The LORD detests those whose hearts are perverse, but he delights in those whose ways are blameless.
- ²¹Be sure of this: The wicked will not go unpunished, but those who are righteous will go free.
- ²²Like a gold ring in a pig's snout is a beautiful woman who shows no discretion.
- ²³The desire of the righteous ends only in good, but the hope of the wicked only in wrath.
- ²⁴One person gives freely, yet gains even more; another withholds unduly, but comes to poverty.
- ²⁵A generous person will prosper; whoever refreshes others will be refreshed.
- ²⁶People curse the one who hoards grain, but they pray God's blessing on the one who is willing to sell.
- ²⁷Whoever seeks good finds favor, but evil comes to one who searches for it.
- ²⁸Those who trust in their riches will fall, but the righteous will thrive like a green leaf.
- ²⁹Whoever brings ruin on their family will inherit only wind, and the fool will be servant to the wise.
- ³⁰The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and the one who is wise saves lives.
- ³¹If the righteous receive their due on earth, how much more the ungodly and the sinner!

Proverbs 12

- ¹Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge, but whoever hates correction is stupid.
- ²Good people obtain favor from the LORD, but he condemns those who devise wicked schemes.
- ³No one can be established through wickedness, but the righteous cannot be uprooted.
- ⁴A wife of noble character is her husband's crown, but a disgraceful wife is like decay in his bones.
- ⁵The plans of the righteous are just, but the advice of the wicked is deceitful.
- ⁶The words of the wicked lie in wait for blood, but the speech of the upright rescues them.
- ⁷The wicked are overthrown and are no more, but the house of the righteous stands firm.
- ⁸A person is praised according to their prudence, and one with a warped mind is despised.
- ⁹Better to be a nobody and yet have a servant than pretend to be somebody and have no food.
- ¹⁰The righteous care for the needs of their animals, but the kindest acts of the wicked are cruel.
- ¹¹Those who work their land will have abundant food, but those who chase fantasies have no sense.
- ¹²The wicked desire the stronghold of evildoers, but the root of the righteous endures.
- ¹³Evildoers are trapped by their sinful talk, and so the innocent escape trouble.
- ¹⁴From the fruit of their lips people are filled with good things, and the work of their hands brings them reward.
- ¹⁵The way of fools seems right to them, but the wise listen to advice.
- ¹⁶Fools show their annoyance at once, but the prudent overlook an insult.
- ¹⁷An honest witness tells the truth, but a false witness tells lies.

¹⁸The words of the reckless pierce like swords, but the tongue of the wise brings healing.

¹⁹Truthful lips endure forever, but a lying tongue lasts only a moment.

²⁰Deceit is in the hearts of those who plot evil, but those who promote peace have joy.

²¹No harm overtakes the righteous, but the wicked have their fill of trouble.

²²The LORD detests lying lips, but he delights in people who are trustworthy.

²³The prudent keep their knowledge to themselves, but a fool's heart blurts out folly.

²⁴Diligent hands will rule, but laziness ends in forced labor.

²⁵Anxiety weighs down the heart, but a kind word cheers it up.

²⁶The righteous choose their friends carefully, but the way of the wicked leads them astray.

²⁷The lazy do not roast^[25] any game, but the diligent feed on the riches of the hunt.

²⁸In the way of righteousness there is life; along that path is immortality.

ROCK.SOLID principles

Proverbs 12:1

Love correction.

Owen constantly struggled with his dad. He couldn't get through a chore without his dad pointing out a superior method for the task. Owen didn't care if the lawn would grow better if he avoided mowing in the same pattern week after week. He didn't like scraping and spackling and sanding and priming to get the house painted to his dad's tough standards. Mr. Brooks could be gruff, but that didn't mean he wasn't a sensitive guy. He just looked for opportunities to teach Owen and get him ready for life. And Mr. Brooks actually enjoyed seeing Owen spin a situation around and teach him a thing or two, because anyone smart learns to love correction.

You get graded at school so you get smarter. You endure reviews at work so you do a better job. You get judged in sports and music and art so you perfect your skills. God wants to give you that same beneficial feedback on how you do life, using both people and his Word to make you wise. Hating his correction turns you stupid.

- ¹A wise son heeds his father's instruction, but a mocker does not respond to rebukes.
- ²From the fruit of their lips people enjoy good things, but the unfaithful have an appetite for violence.
- ³Those who guard their lips preserve their lives, but those who speak rashly will come to ruin.
- ⁴A sluggard's appetite is never filled, but the desires of the diligent are fully satisfied.
- ⁵The righteous hate what is false, but the wicked make themselves a stench and bring shame on themselves.
- ⁶Righteousness guards the person of integrity, but wickedness overthrows the sinner.
- ⁷One person pretends to be rich, yet has nothing; another pretends to be poor, yet has great wealth.
- ⁸A person's riches may ransom their life, but the poor cannot respond to threatening rebukes.
- ⁹The light of the righteous shines brightly, but the lamp of the wicked is snuffed out.
- ¹⁰Where there is strife, there is pride, but wisdom is found in those who take advice.
- ¹¹Dishonest money dwindles away, but whoever gathers money little by little makes it grow.
- ¹²Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but a longing fulfilled is a tree of life.
- ¹³Whoever scorns instruction will pay for it, but whoever respects a command is rewarded.
- ¹⁴The teaching of the wise is a fountain of life, turning a person from the snares of death.
- ¹⁵Good judgment wins favor, but the way of the unfaithful leads to their destruction. ^[26]

- ¹⁶All who are prudent act with^[27] knowledge, but fools expose their folly.
- ¹⁷A wicked messenger falls into trouble, but a trustworthy envoy brings healing.
- ¹⁸Whoever disregards discipline comes to poverty and shame, but whoever heeds correction is honored.
- ¹⁹A longing fulfilled is sweet to the soul, but fools detest turning from evil.
- ²⁰Walk with the wise and become wise, for a companion of fools suffers harm.
- ²¹Trouble pursues the sinner,
but the righteous are rewarded with good things.
- ²²A good person leaves an inheritance for their children's children, but a sinner's wealth is stored up for the righteous.
- ²³An unplowed field produces food for the poor, but injustice sweeps it away.
- ²⁴Whoever spares the rod hates their children, but the one who loves their children is careful to discipline them.
- ²⁵The righteous eat to their hearts' content, but the stomach of the wicked goes hungry.

ROCK SOLID plans

Proverbs 13:20

Get solid advice.

No one makes it in life by going it alone. And no one gets anywhere good by asking directions from people who are lost and wandering. The Bible points out that there's only one smart path—walking alongside people unmistakably wiser than you. Wisdom in the Bible doesn't mean you have the brightest mind in the room. Wisdom starts with showing God the awe-filled respect he deserves (see Proverbs 9:10). And wisdom grows when you do life with as many wise people as you can find (see Proverbs 24:6).

Your next step: Find a mature Christian willing to help you follow God wisely wherever you go.

- ²The tongue of the wise adorns knowledge, but the mouth of the fool gushes folly.
- ³The eyes of the LORD are everywhere, keeping watch on the wicked and the good.
- ⁴The soothing tongue is a tree of life, but a perverse tongue crushes the spirit.
- ⁵A fool spurns a parent's discipline, but whoever heeds correction shows prudence.
- ⁶The house of the righteous contains great treasure, but the income of the wicked brings ruin.
- ⁷The lips of the wise spread knowledge, but the hearts of fools are not upright.
- ⁸The LORD detests the sacrifice of the wicked, but the prayer of the upright pleases him.
- ⁹The LORD detests the way of the wicked, but he loves those who pursue righteousness.
- ¹⁰Stern discipline awaits anyone who leaves the path; the one who hates correction will die.
- ¹¹Death and Destruction^[30] lie open before the LORD— how much more do human hearts!
- ¹²Mockers resent correction,
so they avoid the wise.
- ¹³A happy heart makes the face cheerful, but heartache crushes the spirit.
- ¹⁴The discerning heart seeks knowledge, but the mouth of a fool feeds on folly.
- ¹⁵All the days of the oppressed are wretched, but the cheerful heart has a continual feast.
- ¹⁶Better a little with the fear of the LORD than great wealth with turmoil.

- ¹⁷Better a small serving of vegetables with love than a fattened calf with hatred.
- ¹⁸A hot-tempered person stirs up conflict, but the one who is patient calms a quarrel.
- ¹⁹The way of the sluggard is blocked with thorns, but the path of the upright is a highway.
- ²⁰A wise son brings joy to his father, but a foolish man despises his mother.
- ²¹Folly brings joy to one who has no sense, but whoever has understanding keeps a straight course.
- ²²Plans fail for lack of counsel, but with many advisers they succeed.
- ²³A person finds joy in giving an apt reply— and how good is a timely word!
- ²⁴The path of life leads upward for the prudent to keep them from going down to the realm of the dead.
- ²⁵The LORD tears down the house of the proud, but he sets the widow's boundary stones in place.
- ²⁶The LORD detests the thoughts of the wicked, but gracious words are pure in his sight.
- ²⁷The greedy bring ruin to their households, but the one who hates bribes will live.
- ²⁸The heart of the righteous weighs its answers, but the mouth of the wicked gushes evil.
- ²⁹The LORD is far from the wicked, but he hears the prayer of the righteous.
- ³⁰Light in a messenger's eyes brings joy to the heart, and good news gives health to the bones.
- ³¹Whoever heeds life-giving correction will be at home among the wise.
- ³²Those who disregard discipline despise themselves, but the one who heeds correction gains understanding.
- ³³Wisdom's instruction is to fear the LORD, and humility comes before honor.

Proverbs 16

- ¹To humans belong the plans of the heart, but from the LORD comes the proper answer of the tongue.
- ²All a person's ways seem pure to them, but motives are weighed by the LORD.
- ³Commit to the LORD whatever you do, and he will establish your plans.
- ⁴The LORD works out everything to its proper end— even the wicked for a day of disaster.
- ⁵The LORD detests all the proud of heart.
Be sure of this: They will not go unpunished.
- ⁶Through love and faithfulness sin is atoned for; through the fear of the LORD evil is avoided.
- ⁷When the LORD takes pleasure in anyone's way, he causes their enemies to make peace with them.
- ⁸Better a little with righteousness than much gain with injustice.
- ⁹In their hearts humans plan their course,

- but the LORD establishes their steps.
- ¹⁰The lips of a king speak as an oracle, and his mouth does not betray justice.
- ¹¹Honest scales and balances belong to the LORD; all the weights in the bag are of his making.
- ¹²Kings detest wrongdoing, for a throne is established through righteousness.
- ¹³Kings take pleasure in honest lips; they value the one who speaks what is right.
- ¹⁴A king's wrath is a messenger of death, but the wise will appease it.
- ¹⁵When a king's face brightens, it means life; his favor is like a rain cloud in spring.
- ¹⁶How much better to get wisdom than gold, to get insight rather than silver!
- ¹⁷The highway of the upright avoids evil; those who guard their ways preserve their lives.
- ¹⁸Pride goes before destruction, a haughty spirit before a fall.
- ¹⁹Better to be lowly in spirit along with the oppressed than to share plunder with the proud.
- ²⁰Whoever gives heed to instruction prospers,^[31] and blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD.
- ²¹The wise in heart are called discerning, and gracious words promote instruction.^[32]
- ²²Prudence is a fountain of life to the prudent, but folly brings punishment to fools.
- ²³The hearts of the wise make their mouths prudent, and their lips promote instruction.^[33]
- ²⁴Gracious words are a honeycomb, sweet to the soul and healing to the bones.
- ²⁵There is a way that appears to be right, but in the end it leads to death.
- ²⁶The appetite of laborers works for them; their hunger drives them on.
- ²⁷A scoundrel plots evil, and on their lips it is like a scorching fire.

²⁸A perverse person stirs up conflict, and a gossip separates close friends.

²⁹A violent person entices their neighbor and leads them down a path that is not good.

³⁰Whoever winks with their eye is plotting perversity; whoever purses their lips is bent on evil.

³¹Gray hair is a crown of splendor; it is attained in the way of righteousness.

³²Better a patient person than a warrior, one with self-control than one who takes a city.

³³The lot is cast into the lap,
but its every decision is from the LORD.

Proverbs 17

- ¹Better a dry crust with peace and quiet than a house full of feasting, with strife.
- ²A prudent servant will rule over a disgraceful son and will share the inheritance as one of the family.
- ³The crucible for silver and the furnace for gold, but the LORD tests the heart.
- ⁴A wicked person listens to deceitful lips; a liar pays attention to a destructive tongue.
- ⁵Whoever mocks the poor shows contempt for their Maker; whoever gloats over disaster will not go unpunished.
- ⁶Children's children are a crown to the aged, and parents are the pride of their children.
- ⁷Eloquent lips are unsuited to a godless fool— how much worse lying lips to a ruler!
- ⁸A bribe is seen as a charm by the one who gives it; they think success will come at every turn.
- ⁹Whoever would foster love covers over an offense, but whoever repeats the matter separates close friends.
- ¹⁰A rebuke impresses a discerning person more than a hundred lashes a fool.
- ¹¹Evildoers foster rebellion against God; the messenger of death will be sent against them.
- ¹²Better to meet a bear robbed of her cubs than a fool bent on folly.
- ¹³Evil will never leave the house of one who pays back evil for good.
- ¹⁴Starting a quarrel is like breaching a dam; so drop the matter before a dispute breaks out.
- ¹⁵Acquitting the guilty and condemning the innocent— the LORD detests them both.
- ¹⁶Why should fools have money in hand to buy wisdom, when they are not able to understand it?
- ¹⁷A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for a time of adversity.

¹⁸One who has no sense shakes hands in pledge and puts up security for a neighbor.

¹⁹Whoever loves a quarrel loves sin; whoever builds a high gate invites destruction.

²⁰One whose heart is corrupt does not prosper; one whose tongue is perverse falls into trouble.

²¹To have a fool for a child brings grief; there is no joy for the parent of a godless fool.

²⁸Even fools are thought wise if they keep silent, and discerning if they hold their tongues.

Proverbs 18

- ¹An unfriendly person pursues selfish ends and against all sound judgment starts quarrels.
- ²Fools find no pleasure in understanding but delight in airing their own opinions.
- ³When wickedness comes, so does contempt, and with shame comes reproach.
- ⁴The words of the mouth are deep waters, but the fountain of wisdom is a rushing stream.
- ⁵It is not good to be partial to the wicked and so deprive the innocent of justice.
- ⁶The lips of fools bring them strife, and their mouths invite a beating.
- ⁷The mouths of fools are their undoing, and their lips are a snare to their very lives.
- ⁸The words of a gossip are like choice morsels; they go down to the inmost parts.
- ⁹One who is slack in his work is brother to one who destroys.
- ¹⁰The name of the LORD is a fortified tower; the righteous run to it and are safe.
- ¹¹The wealth of the rich is their fortified city; they imagine it a wall too high to scale.
- ¹²Before a downfall the heart is haughty, but humility comes before honor.
- ¹³To answer before listening—that is folly and shame.
- ¹⁴The human spirit can endure in sickness, but a crushed spirit who can bear?
- ¹⁵The heart of the discerning acquires knowledge, for the ears of the wise seek it out.
- ¹⁶A gift opens the way and ushers the giver into the presence of the great.

- ¹⁷In a lawsuit the first to speak seems right, until someone comes forward and cross-examines.
- ¹⁸Casting the lot settles disputes and keeps strong opponents apart.
- ¹⁹A brother wronged is more unyielding than a fortified city; disputes are like the barred gates of a citadel.
- ²⁰From the fruit of their mouth a person's stomach is filled; with the harvest of their lips they are satisfied.
- ²¹The tongue has the power of life and death, and those who love it will eat its fruit.
- ²²He who finds a wife finds what is good and receives favor from the LORD.
- ²³The poor plead for mercy,
but the rich answer harshly.
- ²⁴One who has unreliable friends soon comes to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

ROCK SOLID truths

Proverbs 18:1–2

No one can do life solo.

You might sit by yourself in the library because you need space to think—that's great. Or you might retreat to your room when you feel beat up and need time to heal—nothing wrong with that. But the Bible warns against a pattern of cutting ourselves off from others. Being unfriendly can be a sign of selfishness, and listening only to your own voice will make you crazy. The Bible constantly points out that we can't get through life without each other. Ecclesiastes 4:10 says, "Pity anyone who falls and has no one to help them up." And in the New Testament the apostle Paul compares Christians to a living body. The body can't function if a single part stops working, and no body part can decide to go it alone (1 Corinthians 12:15–22). Watch out when you only want to hang out with yourself, because you need people. And people need you.

Think: Why is it dangerous to cut yourself off from people?

Proverbs 19

- ¹Better the poor whose walk is blameless than a fool whose lips are perverse.
- ²Desire without knowledge is not good— how much more will hasty feet miss the way!
- ³A person's own folly leads to their ruin, yet their heart rages against the LORD.
- ⁴Wealth attracts many friends, but even the closest friend of the poor person deserts them.
- ⁵A false witness will not go unpunished, and whoever pours out lies will not go free.
- ⁶Many curry favor with a ruler, and everyone is the friend of one who gives gifts.
- ⁷The poor are shunned by all their relatives— how much more do their friends avoid them!
Though the poor pursue them with pleading, they are nowhere to be found.^[34]
- ⁸The one who gets wisdom loves life; the one who cherishes understanding will soon prosper.
- ⁹A false witness will not go unpunished, and whoever pours out lies will perish.
- ¹⁰It is not fitting for a fool to live in luxury— how much worse for a slave to rule over princes!
- ¹¹A person's wisdom yields patience; it is to one's glory to overlook an offense.
- ¹²A king's rage is like the roar of a lion, but his favor is like dew on the grass.
- ¹³A foolish child is a father's ruin, and a quarrelsome wife is like the constant dripping of a leaky roof.
- ¹⁴Houses and wealth are inherited from parents, but a prudent wife is from the LORD.
- ¹⁵Laziness brings on deep sleep, and the shiftless go hungry.

- ¹⁶Whoever keeps commandments keeps their life, but whoever shows contempt for their ways will die.
- ¹⁷Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the LORD, and he will reward them for what they have done.
- ¹⁸Discipline your children, for in that there is hope; do not be a willing party to their death.
- ¹⁹A hot-tempered person must pay the penalty; rescue them, and you will have to do it again.
- ²⁰Listen to advice and accept discipline, and at the end you will be counted among the wise.
- ²¹Many are the plans in a person's heart, but it is the LORD's purpose that prevails.
- ²²What a person desires is unfailing love^[35]; better to be poor than a liar.
- ²³The fear of the LORD leads to life; then one rests content, untouched by trouble.
- ²⁴A sluggard buries his hand in the dish; he will not even bring it back to his mouth!
- ²⁵Flog a mocker, and the simple will learn prudence; rebuke the discerning, and they will gain knowledge.
- ²⁶Whoever robs their father and drives out their mother is a child who brings shame and disgrace.
- ²⁷Stop listening to instruction, my son, and you will stray from the words of knowledge.
- ²⁸A corrupt witness mocks at justice, and the mouth of the wicked gulps down evil.
- ²⁹Penalties are prepared for mockers, and beatings for the backs of fools.

Proverbs 20

- ¹Wine is a mocker and beer a brawler; whoever is led astray by them is not wise.
- ²A king's wrath strikes terror like the roar of a lion; those who anger him forfeit their lives.
- ³It is to one's honor to avoid strife, but every fool is quick to quarrel.
- ⁴Sluggards do not plow in season; so at harvest time they look but find nothing.
- ⁵The purposes of a person's heart are deep waters, but one who has insight draws them out.
- ⁶Many claim to have unfailing love, but a faithful person who can find?
- ⁷The righteous lead blameless lives; blessed are their children after them.
- ⁸When a king sits on his throne to judge, he winnows out all evil with his eyes.
- ⁹Who can say, "I have kept my heart pure; I am clean and without sin"?
- ¹⁰Differing weights and differing measures— the LORD detests them both.
- ¹¹Even small children are known by their actions, so is their conduct really pure and upright?
- ¹²Ears that hear and eyes that see— the LORD has made them both.
- ¹³Do not love sleep or you will grow poor; stay awake and you will have food to spare.
- ¹⁴"It's no good, it's no good!" says the buyer— then goes off and boasts about the purchase.
- ¹⁵Gold there is, and rubies in abundance, but lips that speak knowledge are a rare jewel.
- ¹⁶Take the garment of one who puts up security for a stranger; hold it in pledge if it is done for an outsider.

- ¹⁷Food gained by fraud tastes sweet, but one ends up with a mouth full of gravel.
- ¹⁸Plans are established by seeking advice; so if you wage war, obtain guidance.
- ¹⁹A gossip betrays a confidence; so avoid anyone who talks too much.
- ²⁰If someone curses their father or mother, their lamp will be snuffed out in pitch darkness.
- ²¹An inheritance claimed too soon will not be blessed at the end.
- ²²Do not say, "I'll pay you back for this wrong!"
Wait for the LORD, and he will avenge you.
- ²³The LORD detests differing weights, and dishonest scales do not please him.
- ²⁴A person's steps are directed by the LORD.
How then can anyone understand their own way?
- ²⁵It is a trap to dedicate something rashly and only later to consider one's vows.
- ²⁶A wise king winnows out the wicked; he drives the threshing wheel over them.
- ²⁷The human spirit is^[36] the lamp of the LORD that sheds light on one's inmost being.
- ²⁸Love and faithfulness keep a king safe; through love his throne is made secure.
- ²⁹The glory of young men is their strength, gray hair the splendor of the old.
- ³⁰Blows and wounds scrub away evil, and beatings purge the inmost being.

Proverbs 21

- ¹In the LORD's hand the king's heart is a stream of water that he channels toward all who please him.
- ²A person may think their own ways are right, but the LORD weighs the heart.
- ³To do what is right and just is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.
- ⁴Haughty eyes and a proud heart— the unplowed field of the wicked—produce sin.
- ⁵The plans of the diligent lead to profit as surely as haste leads to poverty.
- ⁶A fortune made by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapor and a deadly snare.^[37]
- ⁷The violence of the wicked will drag them away, for they refuse to do what is right.
- ⁸The way of the guilty is devious, but the conduct of the innocent is upright.
- ⁹Better to live on a corner of the roof than share a house with a quarrelsome wife.
- ¹⁰The wicked crave evil; their neighbors get no mercy from them.
- ¹¹When a mocker is punished, the simple gain wisdom; by paying attention to the wise they get knowledge.
- ¹²The Righteous One^[38] takes note of the house of the wicked and brings the wicked to ruin.
- ¹³Whoever shuts their ears to the cry of the poor will also cry out and not be answered.
- ¹⁴A gift given in secret soothes anger, and a bribe concealed in the cloak pacifies great wrath.
- ¹⁵When justice is done, it brings joy to the righteous but terror to evildoers.
- ¹⁶Whoever strays from the path of prudence comes to rest in the company of the dead.

- 17Whoever loves pleasure will become poor; whoever loves wine and olive oil will never be rich.
- 18The wicked become a ransom for the righteous, and the unfaithful for the upright.
- 19Better to live in a desert than with a quarrelsome and nagging wife.
- 20The wise store up choice food and olive oil, but fools gulp theirs down.
- 21Whoever pursues righteousness and love finds life, prosperity^[39] and honor.
- 22One who is wise can go up against the city of the mighty and pull down the stronghold in which they trust.
- 23Those who guard their mouths and their tongues keep themselves from calamity.
- 24The proud and arrogant person—"Mocker" is his name—behaves with insolent fury.
- 25The craving of a sluggard will be the death of him, because his hands refuse to work.
- 26All day long he craves for more, but the righteous give without sparing.
- 27The sacrifice of the wicked is detestable— how much more so when brought with evil intent!
- 28A false witness will perish, but a careful listener will testify successfully.
- 29The wicked put up a bold front, but the upright give thought to their ways.
- 30There is no wisdom, no insight, no plan that can succeed against the LORD.
- 31The horse is made ready for the day of battle, but victory rests with the LORD.

Proverbs 22

- ¹A good name is more desirable than great riches; to be esteemed is better than silver or gold.
- ²Rich and poor have this in common: The LORD is the Maker of them all.
- ³The prudent see danger and take refuge, but the simple keep going and pay the penalty.
- ⁴Humility is the fear of the LORD; its wages are riches and honor and life.
- ⁵In the paths of the wicked are snares and pitfalls, but those who would preserve their life stay far from them.
- ⁶Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it.
- ⁷The rich rule over the poor, and the borrower is slave to the lender.
- ⁸Whoever sows injustice reaps calamity, and the rod they wield in fury will be broken.
- ⁹The generous will themselves be blessed, for they share their food with the poor.
- ¹⁰Drive out the mocker, and out goes strife; quarrels and insults are ended.
- ¹¹One who loves a pure heart and who speaks with grace will have the king for a friend.
- ¹²The eyes of the LORD keep watch over knowledge, but he frustrates the words of the unfaithful.
- ¹³The sluggard says, “There’s a lion outside!
I’ll be killed in the public square!”
- ¹⁴The mouth of an adulterous woman is a deep pit; a man who is under the LORD’s wrath falls into it.
- ¹⁵Folly is bound up in the heart of a child, but the rod of discipline will drive it far away.
- ¹⁶One who oppresses the poor to increase his wealth and one who gives gifts to the rich—both come to poverty.

THIRTY SAYINGS OF THE WISE

Saying 1

¹⁷Pay attention and turn your ear to the sayings of the wise;
apply your heart to what I teach,

¹⁸for it is pleasing when you keep them in your heart and have all of them ready on your lips.

¹⁹So that your trust may be in the LORD, I teach you today, even you.

²⁰Have I not written thirty sayings for you, sayings of counsel and knowledge,

²¹teaching you to be honest and to speak the truth, so that you bring back truthful reports to those you serve?

Saying 2

²²Do not exploit the poor because they are poor and do not crush the needy in court,

²³for the LORD will take up their case and will exact life for life.

Saying 3

²⁴Do not make friends with a hot-tempered person, do not associate with one easily angered,

²⁵or you may learn their ways and get yourself ensnared.

Saying 4

²⁶Do not be one who shakes hands in pledge or puts up security for debts;

²⁷if you lack the means to pay,
your very bed will be snatched from under you.

Saying 5

²⁸Do not move an ancient boundary stone set up by your ancestors.

Saying 6

²⁹Do you see someone skilled in their work?
They will serve before kings;
they will not serve before officials of low rank.

principles

Proverbs 22:1

Protect your reputation.

Mia and her family were best friends with another family who had a boy her age, Noah. The two had been like brother and sister since way back in the day. But after the families returned from a spring break together at the beach, rumors flew at school that Mia and Noah were in a relationship. To Mia that was just plain weird. But the story also said that Mia had gotten drunk with Noah—and who knows what else happened. The only reason the talk faded quickly was everyone was clear on the fact that Mia didn't drink—or mess around with guys. She had a solid reputation that could stand up to attacks.

You would put up a fight if someone tried to beat you bloody. Or you would yell for help before you let someone steal your most treasured possessions. Your reputation deserves that same do-or-die kind of protection. You can build a reputation that can stand up to scrutiny. Or you can hand people reasons to talk about you like trash.

Proverbs 23

Saying 7

¹When you sit to dine with a ruler, note well what^[40] is before you, ²and put a knife to your throat if you are given to gluttony.

³Do not crave his delicacies, for that food is deceptive.

Saying 8

⁴Do not wear yourself out to get rich; do not trust your own cleverness.

⁵Cast but a glance at riches, and they are gone, for they will surely sprout wings and fly off to the sky like an eagle.

Saying 9

⁶Do not eat the food of a begrudging host, do not crave his delicacies;

⁷for he is the kind of person who is always thinking about the cost.^[41]

“Eat and drink,” he says to you, but his heart is not with you.

⁸You will vomit up the little you have eaten and will have wasted your compliments.

Saying 10

⁹Do not speak to fools,
for they will scorn your prudent words.

Saying 11

¹⁰Do not move an ancient boundary stone or encroach on the fields of the fatherless, ¹¹for their Defender is strong;
he will take up their case against you.

Saying 12

¹²Apply your heart to instruction and your ears to words of knowledge.

Saying 13

¹³Do not withhold discipline from a child; if you punish them with the rod, they will not die.
¹⁴Punish them with the rod and save them from death.

Saying 14

¹⁵My son, if your heart is wise, then my heart will be glad indeed;
¹⁶my inmost being will rejoice when your lips speak what is right.

Saying 15

¹⁷Do not let your heart envy sinners, but always be zealous for the fear of the LORD.
¹⁸There is surely a future hope for you, and your hope will not be cut off.

Saying 16

¹⁹Listen, my son, and be wise, and set your heart on the right path:

²⁰Do not join those who drink too much wine or gorge themselves on meat, ²¹for drunkards and gluttons become poor, and drowsiness clothes them in rags.

Saying 17

²²Listen to your father, who gave you life, and do not despise your mother when she is old.
²³Buy the truth and do not sell it— wisdom, instruction and insight as well.
²⁴The father of a righteous child has great joy; a man who fathers a wise son rejoices in him.
²⁵May your father and mother rejoice; may she who gave you birth be joyful!

Saying 18

²⁶My son, give me your heart and let your eyes delight in my ways, ²⁷for an adulterous woman is a deep pit, and a wayward wife is a narrow well.
²⁸Like a bandit she lies in wait and multiplies the unfaithful among men.

Saying 19

²⁹Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has strife? Who has complaints?
Who has needless bruises? Who has bloodshot eyes?
³⁰Those who linger over wine, who go to sample bowls of mixed wine.
³¹Do not gaze at wine when it is red, when it sparkles in the cup,
when it goes down smoothly!
³²In the end it bites like a snake and poisons like a viper.

³³Your eyes will see strange sights, and your mind will imagine confusing things.

³⁴You will be like one sleeping on the high seas, lying on top of the rigging.

³⁵“They hit me,” you will say, “but I’m not hurt!
They beat me, but I don’t feel it!”

When will I wake up so I can find another drink?”

ROCK SOLID principles

Proverbs 23:29–35

Don't get drunk.

For Conner the last few months felt like a scene from a health class video about the dangers of drinking. Like every elementary school kid he ever knew, Conner had once sworn he would never abuse alcohol—and he got a t-shirt to prove it. But nothing was that easy when he showed up at a party and saw all of his best friends with beer in hand. Conner grabbed a bottle—just to fit in—but he soon decided he was both cooler and more comical if he actually drank. Alcohol became a habit. One weekend Conner found out there was nothing fresh or funny about getting a citation for underage consumption. He was so busted—in so many ways.

Don't let anyone tell you that abusing alcohol is no big deal. Drinking has been around as long as people have been alive, and God long ago explained its impact. Alcohol might go down smooth, but it bites with fangs full of deadly venom. See substance abuse for what it is—a quick way to get “needless bruises” (Proverbs 23:29).

Proverbs 24

Saying 20

¹Do not envy the wicked,
do not desire their company;
²for their hearts plot violence, and their lips talk about making trouble.

Saying 21

³By wisdom a house is built,
and through understanding it is established; ⁴through knowledge its rooms are filled with rare and beautiful treasures.

Saying 22

⁵The wise prevail through great power, and those who have knowledge muster their strength.
⁶Surely you need guidance to wage war, and victory is won through many advisers.

Saying 23

⁷Wisdom is too high for fools;
in the assembly at the gate they must not open their mouths.

Saying 24

⁸Whoever plots evil
will be known as a schemer.
⁹The schemes of folly are sin, and people detest a mocker.

Saying 25

- ¹⁰If you falter in a time of trouble, how small is your strength!
- ¹¹Rescue those being led away to death; hold back those staggering toward slaughter.
- ¹²If you say, “But we knew nothing about this,”
does not he who weighs the heart perceive it?
Does not he who guards your life know it?
Will he not repay everyone according to what they have done?

Saying 26

- ¹³Eat honey, my son, for it is good; honey from the comb is sweet to your taste.
- ¹⁴Know also that wisdom is like honey for you: If you find it, there is a future hope for you, and your hope will not be cut off.

Saying 27

- ¹⁵Do not lurk like a thief near the house of the righteous, do not plunder their dwelling place;
- ¹⁶for though the righteous fall seven times, they rise again,
but the wicked stumble when calamity strikes.

Saying 28

- ¹⁷Do not gloat when your enemy falls; when they stumble, do not let your heart rejoice,
- ¹⁸or the LORD will see and disapprove and turn his wrath away from them.

Saying 29

Saying 27

- ¹⁹Do not fret because of evildoers or be envious of the wicked, ²⁰for the evildoer has no future hope, and the lamp of the wicked will be snuffed out.

Saying 30

- ²¹Fear the LORD and the king, my son, and do not join with rebellious officials, ²²for those two will send sudden destruction on them, and who knows what calamities they can bring?

FURTHER SAYINGS OF THE WISE

²³These also are sayings of the wise:

To show partiality in judging is not good:

²⁴Whoever says to the guilty, “You are innocent,” will be cursed by peoples and denounced by nations.

²⁵But it will go well with those who convict the guilty, and rich blessing will come on them.

²⁶An honest answer is like a kiss on the lips.

²⁷Put your outdoor work in order and get your fields ready;
after that, build your house.

²⁸Do not testify against your neighbor without cause—would you use your lips to mislead?

²⁹Do not say, “I’ll do to them as they have done to me; I’ll pay them back for what they did.”

³⁰I went past the field of a sluggard, past the vineyard of someone who has no sense;

³¹thorns had come up everywhere, the ground was covered with weeds,
and the stone wall was in ruins.

³²I applied my heart to what I observed and learned a lesson from what I saw:

³³A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest— ³⁴and poverty will come on you like a thief and scarcity like an armed man.

Proverbs 25

MORE PROVERBS OF SOLOMON

¹These are more proverbs of Solomon, compiled by the men of Hezekiah king of Judah:

²It is the glory of God to conceal a matter; to search out a matter is the glory of kings.

³As the heavens are high and the earth is deep, so the hearts of kings are unsearchable.

⁴Remove the dross from the silver, and a silversmith can produce a vessel;

⁵remove wicked officials from the king's presence, and his throne will be established through righteousness.

⁶Do not exalt yourself in the king's presence, and do not claim a place among his great men;

⁷it is better for him to say to you, "Come up here," than for him to humiliate you before his nobles.

What you have seen with your eyes

⁸do not bring^[42] hastily to court, for what will you do in the end if your neighbor puts you to shame?

⁹If you take your neighbor to court, do not betray another's confidence, ¹⁰or the one who hears it may shame you and the charge against you will stand.

¹¹Like apples^[43] of gold in settings of silver is a ruling rightly given.

¹²Like an earring of gold or an ornament of fine gold is the rebuke of a wise judge to a listening ear.

¹³Like a snow-cooled drink at harvest time is a trustworthy messenger to the one who sends him; he refreshes the spirit of his master.

¹⁴Like clouds and wind without rain is one who boasts of gifts never given.

¹⁵Through patience a ruler can be persuaded, and a gentle tongue can break a bone.

¹⁶If you find honey, eat just enough— too much of it, and you will vomit.

¹⁷Seldom set foot in your neighbor's house— too much of you, and they will hate you.

¹⁸Like a club or a sword or a sharp arrow is one who gives false testimony against a neighbor.

¹⁹Like a broken tooth or a lame foot is reliance on the unfaithful in a time of trouble.

²⁰Like one who takes away a garment on a cold day, or like vinegar poured on a wound, is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.

²¹If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat; if he is thirsty, give him water to drink.

²²In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head, and the LORD will reward you.

²³Like a north wind that brings unexpected rain is a sly tongue—which provokes a horrified look.

²⁴Better to live on a corner of the roof than share a house with a quarrelsome wife.

²⁵Like cold water to a weary soul is good news from a distant land.

²⁶Like a muddied spring or a polluted well are the righteous who give way to the wicked.

²⁷It is not good to eat too much honey, nor is it honorable to search out matters that are too deep.

²⁸Like a city whose walls are broken through is a person who lacks self-control.

Proverbs 26

- ¹Like snow in summer or rain in harvest, honor is not fitting for a fool.
- ²Like a fluttering sparrow or a darting swallow, an undeserved curse does not come to rest.
- ³A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the backs of fools!
- ⁴Do not answer a fool according to his folly, or you yourself will be just like him.
- ⁵Answer a fool according to his folly, or he will be wise in his own eyes.
- ⁶Sending a message by the hands of a fool is like cutting off one's feet or drinking poison.
- ⁷Like the useless legs of one who is lame is a proverb in the mouth of a fool.
- ⁸Like tying a stone in a sling is the giving of honor to a fool.
- ⁹Like a thornbush in a drunkard's hand is a proverb in the mouth of a fool.
- ¹⁰Like an archer who wounds at random is one who hires a fool or any passer-by.
- ¹¹As a dog returns to its vomit, so fools repeat their folly.
- ¹²Do you see a person wise in their own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for them.
- ¹³A sluggard says, "There's a lion in the road, a fierce lion roaming the streets!"
- ¹⁴As a door turns on its hinges, so a sluggard turns on his bed.
- ¹⁵A sluggard buries his hand in the dish; he is too lazy to bring it back to his mouth.
- ¹⁶A sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven people who answer discreetly.
- ¹⁷Like one who grabs a stray dog by the ears is someone who rushes into a quarrel not their own.
- ¹⁸Like a maniac shooting flaming arrows of death
- ¹⁹is one who deceives their neighbor and says, "I was only joking!”

²⁰Without wood a fire goes out; without a gossip a quarrel dies down.

²¹As charcoal to embers and as wood to fire, so is a quarrelsome person for kindling strife.

²²The words of a gossip are like choice morsels; they go down to the inmost parts.

²³Like a coating of silver dross on earthenware are fervent^[44] lips with an evil heart.

²⁴Enemies disguise themselves with their lips, but in their hearts they harbor deceit.

²⁵Though their speech is charming, do not believe them, for seven abominations fill their hearts.

²⁶Their malice may be concealed by deception, but their wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.

²⁷Whoever digs a pit will fall into it; if someone rolls a stone, it will roll back on them.

²⁸A lying tongue hates those it hurts, and a flattering mouth works ruin.

Proverbs 27

- ¹Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring.
- ²Let someone else praise you, and not your own mouth; an outsider, and not your own lips.
- ³Stone is heavy and sand a burden, but a fool's provocation is heavier than both.
- ⁴Anger is cruel and fury overwhelming, but who can stand before jealousy?
- ⁵Better is open rebuke than hidden love.
- ⁶Wounds from a friend can be trusted,

"Wounds from a friend can be trusted."

Proverbs 27:6

Hard words from a friend's mouth can help you grow.

\(Rock Solid PROMISES Index\)

but an enemy multiplies kisses.

- ⁷One who is full loathes honey from the comb, but to the hungry even what is bitter tastes sweet.
- ⁸Like a bird that flees its nest is anyone who flees from home.
- ⁹Perfume and incense bring joy to the heart, and the pleasantness of a friend springs from their heartfelt advice.

- ¹⁰Do not forsake your friend or a friend of your family, and do not go to your relative's house when disaster strikes you— better a neighbor nearby than a relative far away.
- ¹¹Be wise, my son, and bring joy to my heart; then I can answer anyone who treats me with contempt.
- ¹²The prudent see danger and take refuge, but the simple keep going and pay the penalty.
- ¹³Take the garment of one who puts up security for a stranger; hold it in pledge if it is done for an outsider.
- ¹⁴If anyone loudly blesses their neighbor early in the morning, it will be taken as a curse.
- ¹⁵A quarrelsome wife is like the dripping of a leaky roof in a rainstorm;
- ¹⁶restraining her is like restraining the wind or grasping oil with the hand.
- ¹⁷As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another.
- ¹⁸The one who guards a fig tree will eat its fruit, and whoever protects their master will be honored.
- ¹⁹As water reflects the face, so one's life reflects the heart.
[\[45\]](#)
- ²⁰Death and Destruction^[46] are never satisfied, and neither are human eyes.
- ²¹The crucible for silver and the furnace for gold, but people are tested by their praise.
- ²²Though you grind a fool in a mortar, grinding them like grain with a pestle, you will not remove their folly from them.
- ²³Be sure you know the condition of your flocks, give careful attention to your herds;
- ²⁴for riches do not endure forever, and a crown is not secure for all generations.
- ²⁵When the hay is removed and new growth appears and the grass from the hills is gathered in,
- ²⁶the lambs will provide you with clothing, and the goats with the price of a field.

²⁷You will have plenty of goats' milk to feed your family and to nourish your female servants.

Proverbs 28

- ¹The wicked flee though no one pursues, but the righteous are as bold as a lion.
- ²When a country is rebellious, it has many rulers, but a ruler with discernment and knowledge maintains order.
- ³A ruler^[47] who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain that leaves no crops.
- ⁴Those who forsake instruction praise the wicked, but those who heed it resist them.
- ⁵Evildoers do not understand what is right, but those who seek the LORD understand it fully.
- ⁶Better the poor whose walk is blameless than the rich whose ways are perverse.
- ⁷A discerning son heeds instruction, but a companion of gluttons disgraces his father.
- ⁸Whoever increases wealth by taking interest or profit from the poor amasses it for another, who will be kind to the poor.
- ⁹If anyone turns a deaf ear to my instruction, even their prayers are detestable.
- ¹⁰Whoever leads the upright along an evil path will fall into their own trap, but the blameless will receive a good inheritance.
- ¹¹The rich are wise in their own eyes; one who is poor and discerning sees how deluded they are.
- ¹²When the righteous triumph, there is great elation; but when the wicked rise to power, people go into hiding.
- ¹³Whoever conceals their sins does not prosper, but the one who confesses and renounces them finds mercy.
- ¹⁴Blessed is the one who always trembles before God, but whoever hardens their heart falls into trouble.
- ¹⁵Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over a helpless people.
- ¹⁶A tyrannical ruler practices extortion, but one who hates ill-gotten gain will enjoy a long reign.

¹⁷Anyone tormented by the guilt of murder will seek refuge in the grave;
let no one hold them back.

¹⁸The one whose walk is blameless is kept safe, but the one whose ways are perverse will fall into the pit.^[48]

¹⁹Those who work their land will have abundant food, but those who chase fantasies will have their fill of poverty.

²⁰A faithful person will be richly blessed, but one eager to get rich will not go unpunished.

²¹To show partiality is not good— yet a person will do wrong for a piece of bread.

²²The stingy are eager to get rich and are unaware that poverty awaits them.

²³Whoever rebukes a person will in the end gain favor rather than one who has a flattering tongue.

²⁴Whoever robs their father or mother and says, “It’s not wrong,” is partner to one who destroys.

²⁵The greedy stir up conflict, but those who trust in the LORD will prosper.

²⁶Those who trust in themselves are fools, but those who walk in wisdom are kept safe.

²⁷Those who give to the poor will lack nothing, but those who close their eyes to them receive many curses.

²⁸When the wicked rise to power, people go into hiding; but when the wicked perish, the righteous thrive.

Proverbs 29

- ¹Whoever remains stiff-necked after many rebukes will suddenly be destroyed—without remedy.
- ²When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice; when the wicked rule, the people groan.
- ³A man who loves wisdom brings joy to his father, but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth.
- ⁴By justice a king gives a country stability, but those who are greedy for^[49] bribes tear it down.
- ⁵Those who flatter their neighbors are spreading nets for their feet.
- ⁶Evildoers are snared by their own sin, but the righteous shout for joy and are glad.
- ⁷The righteous care about justice for the poor, but the wicked have no such concern.
- ⁸Mockers stir up a city, but the wise turn away anger.
- ⁹If a wise person goes to court with a fool, the fool rages and scoffs, and there is no peace.
- ¹⁰The bloodthirsty hate a person of integrity and seek to kill the upright.
- ¹¹Fools give full vent to their rage, but the wise bring calm in the end.
- ¹²If a ruler listens to lies, all his officials become wicked.
- ¹³The poor and the oppressor have this in common: The LORD gives sight to the eyes of both.
- ¹⁴If a king judges the poor with fairness, his throne will be established forever.
- ¹⁵A rod and a reprimand impart wisdom, but a child left undisciplined disgraces its mother.
- ¹⁶When the wicked thrive, so does sin, but the righteous will see their downfall.
- ¹⁷Discipline your children, and they will give you peace; they will bring you the delights you desire.
- ¹⁸Where there is no revelation, people cast off restraint; but blessed is the one who heeds wisdom's instruction.

- ¹⁹Servants cannot be corrected by mere words; though they understand, they will not respond.
- ²⁰Do you see someone who speaks in haste?
There is more hope for a fool than for them.
- ²¹A servant pampered from youth will turn out to be insolent.
- ²²An angry person stirs up conflict, and a hot-tempered person commits many sins.
- ²³Pride brings a person low, but the lowly in spirit gain honor.
- ²⁴The accomplices of thieves are their own enemies; they are put under oath and dare not testify.
- ²⁵Fear of man will prove to be a snare, but whoever trusts in the LORD is kept safe.
- ²⁶Many seek an audience with a ruler, but it is from the LORD that one gets justice.
- ²⁷The righteous detest the dishonest; the wicked detest the upright.

SAYINGS OF AGUR

This man's utterance to Ithiel:

“I am weary, God,

²Surely I am only a brute, not a man; I do not have human understanding.

³I have not learned wisdom, nor have I attained to the knowledge of the Holy One.

⁴Who has gone up to heaven and come down?
Whose hands have gathered up the wind?
Who has wrapped up the waters in a cloak?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?

- ⁶Do not add to his words, or he will rebuke you and prove you a liar.
- ⁷“Two things I ask of you, LORD; do not refuse me before I die:
- ⁸Keep falsehood and lies far from me; give me neither poverty nor riches, but give me only my daily bread.
- ⁹Otherwise, I may have too much and disown you and say,

²⁹“There are three things that are stately in their stride, four that move with stately bearing:

³⁰a lion, mighty among beasts, who retreats before nothing;

³¹a strutting rooster, a he-goat, and a king secure against revolt. ^[51]

³²“If you play the fool and exalt yourself, or if you plan evil, clap your hand over your mouth!

³³For as churning cream produces butter, and as twisting the

SAYINGS OF KING LEMUEL

¹The sayings of King Lemuel—an inspired utterance his mother taught him.

²Listen, my son! Listen, son of my womb!

Listen, my son, the answer to my prayers!

³Do not spend your strength^[52] on women, your vigor on those who ruin kings.

⁴It is not for kings, Lemuel—it is not for kings to drink wine, not for rulers to crave beer,

⁵lest they drink and forget what has been decreed, and deprive all the oppressed of their rights.

⁶Let beer be for those who are perishing, wine for those who are in anguish!

⁷Let them drink and forget their poverty and remember their misery no more.

⁸Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves, for the rights of all who are destitute.

⁹Speak up and judge fairly; defend the rights of the poor and needy.

EPILOGUE: THE WIFE OF NOBLE CHARACTER

¹⁰^[53]A wife of noble character who can find?
She is worth far more than rubies.

¹¹Her husband has full confidence in her and lacks nothing of value.

¹²She brings him good, not harm, all the days of her life.

¹³She selects wool and flax and works with eager hands.

¹⁴She is like the merchant ships, bringing her food from afar.

¹⁵She gets up while it is still night; she provides food for her family and portions for her female servants.

- ¹⁶She considers a field and buys it; out of her earnings she plants a vineyard.
- ¹⁷She sets about her work vigorously; her arms are strong for her tasks.
- ¹⁸She sees that her trading is profitable, and her lamp does not go out at night.
- ¹⁹In her hand she holds the distaff and grasps the spindle with her fingers.
- ²⁰She opens her arms to the poor and extends her hands to the needy.
- ²¹When it snows, she has no fear for her household; for all of them are clothed in scarlet.
- ²²She makes coverings for her bed; she is clothed in fine linen and purple.
- ²³Her husband is respected at the city gate, where he takes his seat among the elders of the land.
- ²⁴She makes linen garments and sells them, and supplies the merchants with sashes.
- ²⁵She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come.
- ²⁶She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue.
- ²⁷She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.
- ²⁸Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her:
- ²⁹“Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all.”
- ³⁰Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.
- ³¹Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.

Proverbs 31:10–31

Look inside.

Eric and Mackenzie were perfectly paired—like the Ken and Barbie of their rural town. Eric could bench press his weight, and Mackenzie was an obvious pick for captain of the cheerleading squad. But for all the pair had going for them on the outside, there was nothing but air on the inside. When their classmates got to vote for homecoming court, they chose the couple everyone actually liked—a couple everyone would describe with words like “smart” and “nice.” Eric and Mackenzie thought they would be taking their place as prince and princess at the 50 yard line. But for once they were left standing on the sidelines.

The “wife of noble character” (Proverbs 31:10) isn’t an empty-headed shell. She not only oversees her family but also excels in business. She not only works hard with her hands but also easily dispenses wisdom. Her greatest attribute is her respect for God (see Proverbs 31:30). When you set your sights on a significant other, make sure you look deeper than skin.

True wisdom—fear of God

(11:1–12:14)

Ecclesiastes studies the meaning of life. The Teacher looks at wisdom, pleasure, work, power, riches, religion and other things. All of these have some value and are useful in the proper time and place, but they have lasting value only if God is at the center of a person's life. Reverence and respect for God and a real devotion in serving God are the most important to make life meaningful. Without God, the Teacher says, "Everything is meaningless" (1:2).

Ecclesiastes

Ecclesiastes 1

EVERYTHING IS MEANINGLESS

¹The words of the Teacher,^[1] son of David, king in Jerusalem:

²“Meaningless! Meaningless!” says the Teacher.
“Utterly meaningless!
Everything is meaningless.”

³What do people gain from all their labors at which they toil under the sun?

⁴Generations come and generations go, but the earth remains forever.

⁵The sun rises and the sun sets, and hurries back to where it rises.

⁶The wind blows to the south and turns to the north;
round and round it goes,
ever returning on its course.

⁷All streams flow into the sea, yet the sea is never full.
To the place the streams come from,
there they return again.

⁸All things are wearisome, more than one can say.
The eye never has enough of seeing,
nor the ear its fill of hearing.

⁹What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again;
there is nothing new under the sun.

¹⁰Is there anything of which one can say, “Look! This is something new”?
It was here already, long ago;
it was here before our time.

¹¹No one remembers the former generations, and even those yet to come will not be remembered by those who follow them.

WISDOM IS MEANINGLESS

¹²I, the Teacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. ¹³I applied my mind to study and to explore by wisdom all that is done under the heavens. What a heavy burden God has laid on mankind! ¹⁴I have seen all the things that are done under the sun; all of them are meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

¹⁵What is crooked cannot be straightened; what is lacking cannot be counted.

¹⁶I said to myself, “Look, I have increased in wisdom more than anyone who has ruled over Jerusalem before me; I have experienced much of wisdom and knowledge.” ¹⁷Then I applied myself to the understanding of wisdom, and also of madness and folly, but I learned that this, too, is a chasing after the wind.

¹⁸For with much wisdom comes much sorrow; the more knowledge, the more grief.

Ecclesiastes 2

PLEASURES ARE MEANINGLESS

¹I said to myself, “Come now, I will test you with pleasure to find out what is good.” But that also proved to be meaningless. ²“Laughter,” I said, “is madness. And what does pleasure accomplish?” ³I tried cheering myself with wine, and embracing folly—my mind still guiding me with wisdom. I wanted to see what was good for people to do under the heavens during the few days of their lives.

⁴I undertook great projects: I built houses for myself and planted vineyards. ⁵I made gardens and parks and planted all kinds of fruit trees in them. ⁶I made reservoirs to water groves of flourishing trees. ⁷I bought male and female slaves and had other slaves who were born in my house. I also owned more herds and flocks than anyone in Jerusalem before me. ⁸I amassed silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and provinces. I acquired male and female singers, and a harem^[2] as well—the delights of a man’s heart. ⁹I became greater by far than anyone in Jerusalem before me. In all this my wisdom stayed with me.

¹⁰I denied myself nothing my eyes desired; I refused my heart no pleasure.

My heart took delight in all my labor, and this was the reward for all my toil.

¹¹Yet when I surveyed all that my hands had done and what I had toiled to achieve, everything was meaningless, a chasing after the wind;
nothing was gained under the sun.

WISDOM AND FOLLY ARE MEANINGLESS

¹²Then I turned my thoughts to consider wisdom, and also madness and folly.

What more can the king’s successor do than what has already been done?

¹³I saw that wisdom is better than folly, just as light is better than darkness.

¹⁴The wise have eyes in their heads, while the fool walks in the darkness;
but I came to realize that the same fate overtakes them both.

¹⁵Then I said to myself,

“The fate of the fool will overtake me also.
What then do I gain by being wise?”

I said to myself,
“This too is meaningless.”

¹⁶For the wise, like the fool, will not be long remembered;
the days have already come when both have been forgotten.

Like the fool, the wise too must die!

TOIL IS MEANINGLESS

¹⁷So I hated life, because the work that is done under the sun was grievous to me. All of it is meaningless, a chasing after the wind. ¹⁸I hated all the things I had toiled for under the sun, because I must leave them to the one who comes after me. ¹⁹And who knows whether that person will be wise or foolish? Yet they will have control over all the fruit of my toil into which I have poured my effort and skill under the sun. This too is meaningless. ²⁰So my heart began to despair over all my toilsome labor under the sun. ²¹For a person may labor with wisdom, knowledge and skill, and then they must leave all they own to another who has not toiled for it. This too is meaningless and a great misfortune. ²²What do people get for all the toil and anxious striving with which they labor under the sun? ²³All their days their work is grief and pain; even at night their minds do not rest. This too is meaningless.

²⁴A person can do nothing better than to eat and drink and find satisfaction in their own toil. This too, I see, is from the hand of God, ²⁵for without him, who can eat or find enjoyment? ²⁶To the person who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge and happiness, but to the sinner he gives the task of gathering and storing up wealth to hand it over to the one who pleases God. This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

ROCK SOLID truths

Ecclesiastes 2:24–26

Life without God is empty.

The pages of Ecclesiastes read like the journal of a desperate man. Solomon dove headfirst into a search for the meaning of life. He studied so hard he accumulated more wisdom than anyone ever had, but he discovered that knowledge only gave him grief (see Ecclesiastes 1:18). He grew rich and indulged in every kind of pleasure, but no matter how much wealth his hard work gained for him, he would leave everything behind when he died (see Ecclesiastes 2:10–11). You can sense Solomon’s sweet relief when he decides there is nothing better in life than enjoying what the Lord gives him—things like food, drink and satisfying work. Plus wisdom, knowledge and happiness. And a life centered on pleasing God. Without those gifts from the Lord, life is “meaningless, a chasing after the wind” (Ecclesiastes 2:26).

Think: How do people try to make their lives meaningful apart from God? How well does it work?

(Rock Solid TRUTHS Index)

Ecclesiastes 3

A TIME FOR EVERYTHING

- ¹There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:
- ²a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot,
- ³a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build,
- ⁴a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance,
- ⁵a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing, ⁶a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away,
- ⁷a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak,
- ⁸a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.

⁹What do workers gain from their toil? ¹⁰I have seen the burden God has laid on the human race. ¹¹He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the human heart; yet^[3] no one can fathom what God has done from beginning to end. ¹²I know that there is nothing better for people than to be happy and to do good while they live. ¹³That each of them may eat and drink, and find satisfaction in all their toil—this is the gift of God. ¹⁴I know that everything God does will endure forever; nothing can be added to it and nothing taken from it. God does it so that people will fear him.

- ¹⁵Whatever is has already been, and what will be has been before;
and God will call the past to account.^[4]

¹⁶And I saw something else under the sun:

In the place of judgment—wickedness was there, in the place of justice—wickedness was there.

¹⁷I said to myself,

“God will bring into judgment both the righteous and the wicked, for there will be a time for every activity,
a time to judge every deed.”

¹⁸I also said to myself, “As for humans, God tests them so that they may see that they are like the animals. ¹⁹Surely the fate of human beings is like that of the animals; the same fate awaits them both: As one dies, so dies the other. All have the same breath^[5]; humans have no advantage over animals. Everything is meaningless. ²⁰All go to the same place; all come from dust, and to dust all return. ²¹Who knows if the human spirit rises upward and if the spirit of the animal goes down into the earth?”

²²So I saw that there is nothing better for a person than to enjoy their work, because that is their lot. For who can bring them to see what will happen after them?

Ecclesiastes 4

OPPRESSION, TOIL, FRIENDLESSNESS

¹Again I looked and saw all the oppression that was taking place under the sun:

I saw the tears of the oppressed— and they have no comforter; power was on the side of their oppressors—
and they have no comforter.

²And I declared that the dead, who had already died, are happier than the living,
who are still alive.

³But better than both is the one who has never been born, who has not seen the evil that is done under the sun.

⁴And I saw that all toil and all achievement spring from one person's envy of another. This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

⁵Fools fold their hands and ruin themselves.

⁶Better one handful with tranquillity than two handfuls with toil and chasing after the wind.

⁷Again I saw something meaningless under the sun:

⁸There was a man all alone; he had neither son nor brother.
There was no end to his toil,
yet his eyes were not content with his wealth.
“For whom am I toiling,” he asked,
“and why am I depriving myself of enjoyment?”
This too is meaningless—
a miserable business!

⁹Two are better than one,
because they have a good return for their labor:

¹⁰If either of them falls down, one can help the other up.
But pity anyone who falls and has no one to help them up.

¹¹Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm.
But how can one keep warm alone?

¹²Though one may be overpowered,

“A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.”

Ecclesiastes 4:12

Two are better than one. Three are even better. Two people plus God is almost indestructible.

\(Rock Solid PROMISES Index\)

two can defend themselves.
A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

ADVANCEMENT IS MEANINGLESS

¹³Better a poor but wise youth than an old but foolish king who no longer knows how to heed a warning. ¹⁴The youth may have come from prison to the kingship, or he may have been born in poverty within his kingdom. ¹⁵I saw that all who lived and walked under the sun followed the youth, the king's successor. ¹⁶There was no end to all the people who were before them. But those who came later were not pleased with the successor. This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 5^[6]

¹Guard your steps when you go to the house of God. Go near to listen rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools, who do not know that they do wrong.

²Do not be quick with your mouth, do not be hasty in your heart to utter anything before God.
God is in heaven
and you are on earth,
so let your words be few.

³A dream comes when there are many cares, and many words mark the speech of a fool.

⁴When you make a vow to God, do not delay to fulfill it. He has no pleasure in fools; fulfill your vow. ⁵It is better not to make a vow than to make one and not fulfill it. ⁶Do not let your mouth lead you into sin. And do not protest to the temple messenger, "My vow was a mistake." Why should God be angry at what you say and destroy the work of your hands? ⁷Much dreaming and many words are meaningless. Therefore fear God.

RICHES ARE MEANINGLESS

⁸If you see the poor oppressed in a district, and justice and rights denied, do not be surprised at such things; for one official is eyed by a higher one, and over them both are others higher still. ⁹The increase from the land is taken by all; the king himself profits from the fields.

¹⁰Whoever loves money never has enough; whoever loves wealth is never satisfied with their income.
This too is meaningless.

¹¹As goods increase,
so do those who consume them.
And what benefit are they to the owners except to feast their eyes on them?

¹²The sleep of a laborer is sweet, whether they eat little or much, but as for the rich, their abundance permits them no sleep.

¹³I have seen a grievous evil under the sun:

wealth hoarded to the harm of its owners,

¹⁴or wealth lost through some misfortune, so that when they have children there is nothing left for them to inherit.

¹⁵Everyone comes naked from their mother's womb, and as everyone comes, so they depart.

They take nothing from their toil that they can carry in their hands.

¹⁶This too is a grievous evil:

As everyone comes, so they depart,
and what do they gain,
since they toil for the wind?

¹⁷All their days they eat in darkness, with great frustration, affliction and anger.

¹⁸This is what I have observed to be good: that it is appropriate for a person to eat, to drink and to find satisfaction in their toilsome labor under the sun during the few days of life God has given them—for this is their lot.

¹⁹Moreover, when God gives someone wealth and possessions, and the ability to enjoy them, to accept their lot and be happy in their toil—this is a gift of God. ²⁰They seldom reflect on the days of their life, because God keeps them occupied with gladness of heart.

Ecclesiastes 5:10–12

God is satisfying.

Solomon would have fit well in our world. The richest guy of his day (1 Kings 3:13), this king of Israel wrote about nonstop pressure to get more. And you know how it goes. You buy something ... anything ... and before long you realize there is a must-have list of accessories, add-ons, and upgrades. That pressure to get more often comes from your surroundings, but much of it starts inside of you. Once you fall in love with money and material stuff, you won't ever be satisfied with what you have. The problem isn't owning or enjoying things, but is instead loving them more than people and God, the most important things ever.

So ... How can you tell the difference between enjoying things ... and loving them too much?

(Unshaken GOD Index)

Ecclesiastes 6

¹I have seen another evil under the sun, and it weighs heavily on mankind:

²God gives some people wealth, possessions and honor, so that they lack nothing their hearts desire, but God does not grant them the ability to enjoy them, and strangers enjoy them instead. This is meaningless, a grievous evil.

³A man may have a hundred children and live many years; yet no matter how long he lives, if he cannot enjoy his prosperity and does not receive proper burial, I say that a stillborn child is better off than he. ⁴It comes without meaning, it departs in darkness, and in darkness its name is shrouded. ⁵Though it never saw the sun or knew anything, it has more rest than does that man—⁶even if he lives a thousand years twice over but fails to enjoy his prosperity. Do not all go to the same place?

⁷Everyone's toil is for their mouth, yet their appetite is never satisfied.

⁸What advantage have the wise over fools?
What do the poor gain
by knowing how to conduct themselves before others?

⁹Better what the eye sees than the roving of the appetite.
This too is meaningless,
a chasing after the wind.

¹⁰Whatever exists has already been named, and what humanity is has been known;
no one can contend with someone who is stronger.

¹¹The more the words,
the less the meaning,
and how does that profit anyone?

¹²For who knows what is good for a person in life, during the few and meaningless days they pass through like a shadow? Who can tell them what will happen under the sun after they are gone?

Ecclesiastes 7

WISDOM

- ¹A good name is better than fine perfume, and the day of death better than the day of birth.
- ²It is better to go to a house of mourning than to go to a house of feasting, for death is the destiny of everyone;
the living should take this to heart.
- ³Frustration is better than laughter, because a sad face is good for the heart.
- ⁴The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of pleasure.
- ⁵It is better to heed the rebuke of a wise person than to listen to the song of fools.
- ⁶Like the crackling of thorns under the pot, so is the laughter of fools.
This too is meaningless.
- ⁷Extortion turns a wise person into a fool, and a bribe corrupts the heart.
- ⁸The end of a matter is better than its beginning, and patience is better than pride.
- ⁹Do not be quickly provoked in your spirit, for anger resides in the lap of fools.
- ¹⁰Do not say, "Why were the old days better than these?"
For it is not wise to ask such questions.
- ¹¹Wisdom, like an inheritance, is a good thing and benefits those who see the sun.
- ¹²Wisdom is a shelter
as money is a shelter,
but the advantage of knowledge is this:
Wisdom preserves those who have it.

¹³Consider what God has done:

Who can straighten
what he has made crooked?

¹⁴When times are good, be happy; but when times are bad, consider this:

God has made the one
as well as the other.

Therefore, no one can discover anything about their future.

¹⁵In this meaningless life of mine I have seen both of these:

the righteous perishing in their righteousness,
and the wicked living long in their wickedness.

¹⁶Do not be overrighteous, neither be overwise— why destroy yourself?

¹⁷Do not be overwicked, and do not be a fool—
why die before your time?

¹⁸It is good to grasp the one and not let go of the other.
Whoever fears God will avoid all extremes.^[7]

¹⁹Wisdom makes one wise person more powerful than ten rulers in a city.

²⁰Indeed, there is no one on earth who is righteous, no one who does what is right and never sins.

²¹Do not pay attention to every word people say, or you may hear your servant cursing you— ²²for you know in your heart that many times you yourself have cursed others.

²³All this I tested by wisdom and I said,

“I am determined to be wise”— but this was beyond me.

²⁴Whatever exists is far off and most profound— who can discover it?

²⁵So I turned my mind to understand, to investigate and to search out wisdom and the scheme of things and to understand the stupidity of wickedness
and the madness of folly.

²⁶I find more bitter than death the woman who is a snare, whose heart is a trap
and whose hands are chains.

The man who pleases God will escape her,
but the sinner she will ensnare.

²⁷“Look,” says the Teacher,^[8] “this is what I have discovered:

“Adding one thing to another to discover the scheme of things—28while I was still searching but not finding— I found one upright man among a thousand,
but not one upright woman among them all.

29This only have I found:
God created mankind upright, but they have gone in search of many schemes.”

Ecclesiastes 8

¹Who is like the wise?

Who knows the explanation of things?
A person's wisdom brightens their face and changes its hard appearance.

OBEY THE KING

²Obey the king's command, I say, because you took an oath before God. ³Do not be in a hurry to leave the king's presence. Do not stand up for a bad cause, for he will do whatever he pleases. ⁴Since a king's word is supreme, who can say to him, "What are you doing?"

⁵Whoever obeys his command will come to no harm, and the wise heart will know the proper time and procedure.

⁶For there is a proper time and procedure for every matter, though a person may be weighed down by misery.

⁷Since no one knows the future, who can tell someone else what is to come?

⁸As no one has power over the wind to contain it, so^[9] no one has power over the time of their death.
As no one is discharged in time of war,
so wickedness will not release those who practice it.

⁹All this I saw, as I applied my mind to everything done under the sun. There is a time when a man lords it over others to his own^[10] hurt. ¹⁰Then too, I saw the wicked buried—those who used to come and go from the holy place and receive praise^[11] in the city where they did this. This too is meaningless.

¹¹When the sentence for a crime is not quickly carried out, people's hearts are filled with schemes to do wrong. ¹²Although a wicked person who commits a hundred crimes may live a long time, I know that it will go better with those who fear God, who are reverent before him. ¹³Yet because the wicked do not fear God, it will not go well with them, and their days will not lengthen like a shadow.

¹⁴There is something else meaningless that occurs on earth: the righteous who get what the wicked deserve, and the wicked who get what the righteous deserve. This too, I say, is meaningless. ¹⁵So I commend the enjoyment of life, because there is nothing better for a person under the sun than to eat and drink and be glad. Then joy will accompany them in their toil all the days of the life God has given them under the sun.

¹⁶When I applied my mind to know wisdom and to observe the labor that is done on earth—people getting no sleep day or night— ¹⁷then I saw all that God has done. No one can comprehend what goes on under the sun. Despite all their efforts to search it out, no one can discover its meaning. Even if the wise claim they know, they cannot really comprehend it.

Ecclesiastes 9

A COMMON DESTINY FOR ALL

¹So I reflected on all this and concluded that the righteous and the wise and what they do are in God's hands, but no one knows whether love or hate awaits them. ²All share a common destiny—the righteous and the wicked, the good and the bad,^[12] the clean and the unclean, those who offer sacrifices and those who do not.

As it is with the good,
so with the sinful;
as it is with those who take oaths,
so with those who are afraid to take them.

³This is the evil in everything that happens under the sun: The same destiny overtakes all. The hearts of people, moreover, are full of evil and there is madness in their hearts while they live, and afterward they join the dead. ⁴Anyone who is among the living has hope^[13]—even a live dog is better off than a dead lion!

⁵For the living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing;
they have no further reward,
and even their name is forgotten.

⁶Their love, their hate and their jealousy have long since vanished; never again will they have a part in anything that happens under the sun.

⁷Go, eat your food with gladness, and drink your wine with a joyful heart, for God has already approved what you do. ⁸Always be clothed in white, and always anoint your head with oil. ⁹Enjoy life with your wife, whom you love, all the days of this meaningless life that God has given you under the sun—all your meaningless days. For this is your lot in life and in your toilsome labor under the sun. ¹⁰Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might, for in the realm of the dead, where you are going, there is neither working nor planning nor knowledge nor wisdom.

¹¹I have seen something else under the sun:

The race is not to the swift or the battle to the strong, nor does food come to the wise or wealth to the brilliant or favor to the learned;
but time and chance happen to them all.

¹²Moreover, no one knows when their hour will come:

As fish are caught in a cruel net,
or birds are taken in a snare,
so people are trapped by evil times that fall unexpectedly upon them.

WISDOM BETTER THAN FOLLY

¹³I also saw under the sun this example of wisdom that greatly impressed me:

¹⁴There was once a small city with only a few people in it. And a powerful king came against it, surrounded it and built huge siege works against it.

¹⁵Now there lived in that city a man poor but wise, and he saved the city by his wisdom. But nobody remembered that poor man. ¹⁶So I said, “Wisdom is better than strength.” But the poor man’s wisdom is despised, and his words are no longer heeded.

¹⁷The quiet words of the wise are more to be heeded than the shouts of a ruler of fools.

¹⁸Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner destroys much good.

ROCK SOLID
principles

Ecclesiastes 9:7–12

Enjoy the simple things of life.

Bryan sometimes wanted to have all the things his friends had. He didn't have to pull out a measuring tape to know his house was smaller. The entertainment system downstairs didn't gather a crowd. His parents drove cars that sported some rust and sometimes made odd and unexpected noises in public. But Bryan could count on plenty of good food on the table when he invited friends to stay for supper. He had no doubt his parents would always be in love. And in his house both parents and kids knew how to work for the few extras they enjoyed. Bryan could have wished for more. But not really.

King Solomon had limitless riches, unmatched wisdom, and countless servants. But he discovered that real happiness comes from simple things like good food, true love, and hard work. Don't miss his point: You don't have to kill yourself to get the best of everything. Be happy with the best things of life.

(Rock Solid PRINCIPLES Index Entries: Contentment, Simplicity, Wisdom)

Ecclesiastes 10

- ¹As dead flies give perfume a bad smell, so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honor.
- ²The heart of the wise inclines to the right, but the heart of the fool to the left.
- ³Even as fools walk along the road, they lack sense and show everyone how stupid they are.
- ⁴If a ruler's anger rises against you, do not leave your post; calmness can lay great offenses to rest.
- ⁵There is an evil I have seen under the sun, the sort of error that arises from a ruler:
- ⁶Fools are put in many high positions, while the rich occupy the low ones.
- ⁷I have seen slaves on horseback, while princes go on foot like slaves.
- ⁸Whoever digs a pit may fall into it; whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake.
- ⁹Whoever quarries stones may be injured by them; whoever splits logs may be endangered by them.
- ¹⁰If the ax is dull and its edge unsharpened,
more strength is needed,
but skill will bring success.
- ¹¹If a snake bites before it is charmed, the charmer receives no fee.
- ¹²Words from the mouth of the wise are gracious, but fools are consumed by their own lips.
- ¹³At the beginning their words are folly; at the end they are wicked madness—¹⁴and fools multiply words.
No one knows what is coming—who can tell someone else what will happen after them?
- ¹⁵The toil of fools wearies them; they do not know the way to town.
- ¹⁶Woe to the land whose king was a servant^[14]

and whose princes feast in the morning.

¹⁷Blessed is the land whose king is of noble birth and whose princes eat at a proper time— for strength and not for drunkenness.

¹⁸Through laziness, the rafters sag; because of idle hands, the house leaks.

¹⁹A feast is made for laughter, wine makes life merry, and money is the answer for everything.

²⁰Do not revile the king even in your thoughts, or curse the rich in your bedroom,
because a bird in the sky may carry your words,
and a bird on the wing may report what you say.

Ecclesiastes 11

INVEST IN MANY VENTURES

- ¹Ship your grain across the sea; after many days you may receive a return.
- ²Invest in seven ventures, yes, in eight; you do not know what disaster may come upon the land.
- ³If clouds are full of water, they pour rain on the earth.
Whether a tree falls to the south or to the north,
in the place where it falls, there it will lie.
- ⁴Whoever watches the wind will not plant; whoever looks at the clouds will not reap.
- ⁵As you do not know the path of the wind, or how the body is formed^[15] in a mother's womb, so you cannot understand the work of God,
the Maker of all things.
- ⁶Sow your seed in the morning, and at evening let your hands not be idle,
for you do not know which will succeed, whether this or that,
or whether both will do equally well.

REMEMBER YOUR CREATOR WHILE YOUNG

- ⁷Light is sweet,
and it pleases the eyes to see the sun.
- ⁸However many years anyone may live, let them enjoy them all.
But let them remember the days of darkness,
for there will be many.
Everything to come is meaningless.
- ⁹You who are young, be happy while you are young, and let your heart give you joy in the days of your youth.
Follow the ways of your heart and whatever your eyes see,

but know that for all these things
God will bring you into judgment.

¹⁰So then, banish anxiety from your heart and cast off the troubles of your body,
for youth and vigor are meaningless.

Ecclesiastes 12

- ¹Remember your Creator
in the days of your youth, before the days of trouble come and the years approach when you will say, “I find no pleasure in them”—
- ²before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars grow dark,
and the clouds return after the rain;
- ³when the keepers of the house tremble, and the strong men stoop,
when the grinders cease because they are few,
and those looking through the windows grow dim;
- ⁴when the doors to the street are closed and the sound of grinding fades;
when people rise up at the sound of birds,
but all their songs grow faint;
- ⁵when people are afraid of heights and of dangers in the streets;
when the almond tree blossoms and the grasshopper drags itself along and desire no longer is stirred.
Then people go to their eternal home and mourners go about the streets.
- ⁶Remember him—before the silver cord is severed, and the golden bowl is broken;
before the pitcher is shattered at the spring,
and the wheel broken at the well,
- ⁷and the dust returns to the ground it came from, and the spirit returns to God who gave it.
- ⁸“Meaningless! Meaningless!” says the Teacher. ^[16]
“Everything is meaningless!”

THE CONCLUSION OF THE MATTER

- ⁹Not only was the Teacher wise, but he also imparted knowledge to the people.

He pondered and searched out and set in order many proverbs. ¹⁰The Teacher searched to find just the right words, and what he wrote was upright and true.

¹¹The words of the wise are like goads, their collected sayings like firmly embedded nails—given by one shepherd.^[17] ¹²Be warned, my son, of anything in addition to them.

Of making many books there is no end, and much study wearies the body.

¹³Now all has been heard;
here is the conclusion of the matter:
Fear God and keep his commandments,
for this is the duty of all mankind.

¹⁴For God will bring every deed into judgment, including every hidden thing,
whether it is good or evil.

SONG OF SONGS

BOOK OUTLINE

The bride and the bridegroom

(1:1–2:7)

The praise of her beloved

(2:8–3:5)

In praise of the bride

(3:6–5:1)

A troubled love

(5:2–7:9)

The unbroken communion

(7:10–8:14)

Although some scholars view Song of Songs as being a picture of Christ's love for his people, the more accepted view of Song of Songs is that it is a collection of love poems between a man and a woman. It is a beautiful picture of ideal human love and marriage.

Song of Songs

Song of Songs 1

¹Solomon's Song of Songs.

She^[1]

²Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth— for your love is more delightful than wine.

³Pleasing is the fragrance of your perfumes; your name is like perfume poured out.

No wonder the young women love you!

⁴Take me away with you—let us hurry!
Let the king bring me into his chambers.

Friends

We rejoice and delight in you^[2]; we will praise your love more than wine.

She

How right they are to adore you!

⁵Dark am I, yet lovely, daughters of Jerusalem, dark like the tents of Kedar,
like the tent curtains of Solomon.^[3]

⁶Do not stare at me because I am dark, because I am darkened by the sun.

My mother's sons were angry with me and made me take care of the vineyards;
my own vineyard I had to neglect.

⁷Tell me, you whom I love, where you graze your flock and where you rest your sheep at midday.

Why should I be like a veiled woman beside the flocks of your friends?

Friends

⁸If you do not know, most beautiful of women, follow the tracks of the sheep and graze your young goats
by the tents of the shepherds.

He

⁹I liken you, my darling, to a mare among Pharaoh's chariot horses.
¹⁰Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings, your neck with strings of jewels.
¹¹We will make you earrings of gold, studded with silver.

She

¹²While the king was at his table, my perfume spread its fragrance.
¹³My beloved is to me a sachet of myrrh resting between my breasts.
¹⁴My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms from the vineyards of En Gedi.

He

¹⁵How beautiful you are, my darling!
Oh, how beautiful!
Your eyes are doves.

She

¹⁶How handsome you are, my beloved!
Oh, how charming!

And our bed is verdant.

He

¹⁷The beams of our house are cedars; our rafters are firs.

Song of Songs 2

She^[4]

¹I am a rose^[5] of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

He

²Like a lily among thorns is my darling among the young women.

She

³Like an apple^[6] tree among the trees of the forest is my beloved among the young men.

I delight to sit in his shade, and his fruit is sweet to my taste.

⁴Let him lead me to the banquet hall, and let his banner over me be love.

⁵Strengthen me with raisins, refresh me with apples, for I am faint with love.

⁶His left arm is under my head, and his right arm embraces me.

⁷Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you by the gazelles and by the does of the field: Do not arouse or awaken love until it so desires.

⁸Listen! My beloved!
Look! Here he comes,
leaping across the mountains,
bounding over the hills.

⁹My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag.
Look! There he stands behind our wall, gazing through the windows,
peering through the lattice.

¹⁰My beloved spoke and said to me, "Arise, my darling,

my beautiful one, come with me.
¹¹See! The winter is past; the rains are over and gone.
¹²Flowers appear on the earth; the season of singing has come,
the cooing of doves
is heard in our land.
¹³The fig tree forms its early fruit; the blossoming vines spread their fragrance.
Arise, come, my darling;
my beautiful one, come with me.”

He

¹⁴My dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hiding places on the mountainside,
show me your face,
let me hear your voice;
for your voice is sweet,
and your face is lovely.
¹⁵Catch for us the foxes, the little foxes that ruin the vineyards,
our vineyards that are in bloom.

She

¹⁶My beloved is mine and I am his; he browses among the lilies.
¹⁷Until the day breaks and the shadows flee, turn, my beloved,
and be like a gazelle or like a young stag
on the rugged hills.^[7]

Song of Songs 2:1–17

Wait.

Savannah rolled her eyes and shot a look that said, “Mom, I don’t want to talk about it.” Yet Mrs. Harris wasn’t about to shut up. That day at work a close friend had shared that her 14-year-old daughter had a sexually transmitted disease that might mean she would never have children. “It’s not just about having or not having kids, Savannah,” her mom said. “Waiting for sex until marriage isn’t a rule meant to ruin your life. It’s a plan you choose to help you enjoy true love at the right time. When couples go too far, girls always blame guys, and guys always blame girls. We each need to take responsibility for our own actions.”

Solomon’s wife-to-be was “a lily among thorns” (Song of Songs 2:2). Her man was “an apple tree among the trees of the forest” (Song of Songs 2:3). But this pair waits to “arouse or awaken love” until the proper time (Song of Songs 2:7). The woman’s friends even promise to guard her purity until “the day she is spoken for” (Song of Songs 8:8–9). This couple is wild with love, yet they choose to wait.

Song of Songs 3

- ¹All night long on my bed I looked for the one my heart loves;
I looked for him but did not find him.
- ²I will get up now and go about the city, through its streets and squares;
I will search for the one my heart loves.
So I looked for him but did not find him.
- ³The watchmen found me as they made their rounds in the city.
“Have you seen the one my heart loves?”
- ⁴Scarcely had I passed them when I found the one my heart loves.
I held him and would not let him go till I had brought him to my mother’s house, to the room of the one who conceived me.
- ⁵Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you by the gazelles and by the does of the field: Do not arouse or awaken love until it so desires.
- ⁶Who is this coming up from the wilderness like a column of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and incense made from all the spices of the merchant?
- ⁷Look! It is Solomon’s carriage, escorted by sixty warriors, the noblest of Israel,
- ⁸all of them wearing the sword, all experienced in battle,
each with his sword at his side,
prepared for the terrors of the night.
- ⁹King Solomon made for himself the carriage; he made it of wood from Lebanon.
- ¹⁰Its posts he made of silver, its base of gold.
Its seat was upholstered with purple, its interior inlaid with love.
Daughters of Jerusalem, ¹¹come out, and look, you daughters of Zion.
Look^[8] on King Solomon wearing a crown, the crown with which his mother crowned him on the day of his wedding, the day his heart rejoiced.

Song of Songs 4

He

- ¹How beautiful you are, my darling!
Oh, how beautiful!
Your eyes behind your veil are doves.
Your hair is like a flock of goats descending from the hills of Gilead.
- ²Your teeth are like a flock of sheep just shorn, coming up from the washing.
Each has its twin;
not one of them is alone.
- ³Your lips are like a scarlet ribbon; your mouth is lovely.
Your temples behind your veil are like the halves of a pomegranate.
- ⁴Your neck is like the tower of David, built with courses of stone^[9]; on it hang a thousand shields, all of them shields of warriors.
- ⁵Your breasts are like two fawns, like twin fawns of a gazelle
that browse among the lilies.
- ⁶Until the day breaks and the shadows flee,
I will go to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of incense.
- ⁷You are altogether beautiful, my darling; there is no flaw in
you.
- ⁸Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, come with me from Lebanon.
Descend from the crest of Amana, from the top of Senir, the summit of Hermon, from the lions' dens
and the mountain haunts of leopards.
- ⁹You have stolen my heart, my sister, my bride; you have stolen my heart
with one glance of your eyes,

- with one jewel of your necklace.
- ¹⁰How delightful is your love, my sister, my bride!
How much more pleasing is your love than wine, and the fragrance of your perfume more than any spice!
- ¹¹Your lips drop sweetness as the honeycomb, my bride;
milk and honey are under your tongue.
The fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.
- ¹²You are a garden locked up, my sister, my bride; you are a spring enclosed, a sealed fountain.
- ¹³Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates with choice fruits,
with henna and nard, ¹⁴nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense tree, with myrrh and aloes
and all the finest spices.
- ¹⁵You are^[10] a garden fountain, a well of flowing water streaming down from Lebanon.

She

- ¹⁶Awake, north wind, and come, south wind!
Blow on my garden,
that its fragrance may spread everywhere.
Let my beloved come into his garden and taste its choice fruits.

Song of Songs 5

He

¹I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride; I have gathered my myrrh with my spice.
I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey;
I have drunk my wine and my milk.

Friends

Eat, friends, and drink;
drink your fill of love.

She

²I slept but my heart was awake.
Listen! My beloved is knocking:
“Open to me, my sister, my darling,
my dove, my flawless one.
My head is drenched with dew,
my hair with the dampness of the night.”

³I have taken off my robe— must I put it on again?
I have washed my feet—
must I soil them again?

⁴My beloved thrust his hand through the latch-opening; my heart began to pound for him.

⁵I arose to open for my beloved, and my hands dripped with myrrh,
my fingers with flowing myrrh,
on the handles of the bolt.

⁶I opened for my beloved, but my beloved had left; he was gone.
My heart sank at his departure.^[11]
I looked for him but did not find him.
I called him but he did not answer.

⁷The watchmen found me as they made their rounds in the city.
They beat me, they bruised me;
they took away my cloak,
those watchmen of the walls!
⁸Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you— if you find my beloved,
what will you tell him?
Tell him I am faint with love.

Friends

⁹How is your beloved better than others, most beautiful of women?
How is your beloved better than others,
that you so charge us?

She

¹⁰My beloved is radiant and ruddy, outstanding among ten thousand.
¹¹His head is purest gold; his hair is wavy and black as a raven.
¹²His eyes are like doves by the water streams, washed in milk,
mounted like jewels.
¹³His cheeks are like beds of spice yielding perfume.
His lips are like lilies dripping with myrrh.
¹⁴His arms are rods of gold set with topaz.
His body is like polished ivory decorated with lapis lazuli.
¹⁵His legs are pillars of marble set on bases of pure gold.
His appearance is like Lebanon, choice as its cedars.
¹⁶His mouth is sweetness itself; he is altogether lovely.
This is my beloved, this is my friend, daughters of Jerusalem.

Song of Songs 5

Wisdom books do more than make you wise.

There are other divisions in the Bible besides the Old and New Testament. The Old Testament's first five books, the Pentateuch, spell out the laws God gave to Israel. The books of "History" record Israel's story, and the "Prophets" relate the words God uttered through his spokespeople. That leaves five books in the middle of the Bible—Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and the Song of Songs. While it's tough to find a label that fits all five writings, scholars have settled on calling them "Wisdom" books. These books can contain lengthy teachings or short wise sayings (like Proverbs and Ecclesiastes), songs and prayers (like the Psalms) or narratives to make you think (like Job and Song of Songs). Wherever you turn in the Wisdom books, you will find clear, understandable language. So dive in.

Think: How often do you read the Wisdom books of the Bible? What do they teach you?

Song of Songs 6

Friends

¹Where has your beloved gone, most beautiful of women?
Which way did your beloved turn,
that we may look for him with you?

She

²My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices,
to browse in the gardens and to gather lilies.
³I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine; he browses among the lilies.

He

⁴You are as beautiful as Tirzah, my darling, as lovely as Jerusalem,
as majestic as troops with banners.
⁵Turn your eyes from me; they overwhelm me.
Your hair is like a flock of goats
descending from Gilead.
⁶Your teeth are like a flock of sheep coming up from the washing.
Each has its twin,
not one of them is missing.
⁷Your temples behind your veil are like the halves of a pomegranate.
⁸Sixty queens there may be, and eighty concubines, and virgins beyond number;
⁹but my dove, my perfect one, is unique, the only daughter of her mother,
the favorite of the one who bore her.

The young women saw her and called her blessed; the queens and concubines praised her.

Friends

¹⁰Who is this that appears like the dawn, fair as the moon, bright as the sun,
majestic as the stars in procession?

He

¹¹I went down to the grove of nut trees to look at the new growth in the valley, to see if the vines had budded or the pomegranates were in bloom.

¹²Before I realized it, my desire set me among the royal chariots of my people.^[12]

Friends

¹³Come back, come back, O Shulammitte; come back, come back, that we may gaze on you!

He

Why would you gaze on the Shulammitte as on the dance of Mahanaim?^[13]

Song of Songs 7^[14]

- ¹How beautiful your sandaled feet, O prince's daughter!
Your graceful legs are like jewels,
the work of an artist's hands.
- ²Your navel is a rounded goblet that never lacks blended wine.
Your waist is a mound of wheat encircled by lilies.
- ³Your breasts are like two fawns, like twin fawns of a gazelle.
- ⁴Your neck is like an ivory tower.
Your eyes are the pools of Heshbon
by the gate of Bath Rabbim.
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon looking toward Damascus.
- ⁵Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel.
Your hair is like royal tapestry;
the king is held captive by its tresses.
- ⁶How beautiful you are and how pleasing, my love, with your delights!
- ⁷Your stature is like that of the palm, and your breasts like clusters of fruit.
- ⁸I said, "I will climb the palm tree; I will take hold of its fruit."
May your breasts be like clusters of grapes on the vine, the fragrance of your breath like apples,
⁹and your mouth like the best wine.

She

May the wine go straight to my beloved, flowing gently over lips and teeth.^[15]

¹⁰I belong to my beloved, and his desire is for me.

¹¹Come, my beloved, let us go to the countryside, let us spend the night in the villages.^[16]

¹²Let us go early to the vineyards to see if the vines have budded,
if their blossoms have opened,
and if the pomegranates are in bloom—
there I will give you my love.

¹³The mandrakes send out their fragrance, and at our door is every delicacy,
both new and old,
that I have stored up for you, my beloved.

Song of Songs 8

¹If only you were to me like a brother, who was nursed at my mother's breasts!
Then, if I found you outside,
I would kiss you,
and no one would despise me.

²I would lead you and bring you to my mother's house—
she who has taught me.
I would give you spiced wine to drink,
the nectar of my pomegranates.

³His left arm is under my head and his right arm embraces
me.

⁴Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you: Do not arouse or awaken love
until it so desires.

Friends

⁵Who is this coming up from the wilderness leaning on her beloved?

She

Under the apple tree I roused you;
there your mother conceived you,
there she who was in labor gave you birth.

⁶Place me like a seal over your heart, like a seal on your arm;
for love is as strong as death,
its jealousy^[17] unyielding as the grave.
It burns like blazing fire,
like a mighty flame.^[18]

⁷Many waters cannot quench love; rivers cannot sweep it away.

If one were to give all the wealth of one's house for love, it^[19] would be utterly scorned.

Friends

⁸We have a little sister, and her breasts are not yet grown.
What shall we do for our sister on the day she is spoken for?

⁹If she is a wall, we will build towers of silver on her.
If she is a door,
we will enclose her with panels of cedar.

She

¹⁰I am a wall,
and my breasts are like towers.
Thus I have become in his eyes like one bringing contentment.

¹¹Solomon had a vineyard in Baal Hamon; he let out his vineyard to tenants.
Each was to bring for its fruit
a thousand shekels^[20] of silver.

¹²But my own vineyard is mine to give; the thousand shekels are for you, Solomon, and two hundred^[21] are for those who tend its fruit.

He

¹³You who dwell in the gardens with friends in attendance, let me hear your voice!

She

¹⁴Come away, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or like a young stag
on the spice-laden mountains.

BOOK OUTLINE

Judgment and hope of restoration

(1:1–6:13)

Hope in Assyria or hope in God

(7:1–12:6)

Prophecies about nations

(13:1–23:18)

Israel's judgment and deliverance

(24:1–27:13)

Warnings and Zion restored

(28:1–35:10) King Hezekiah withstands Assyria

(36:1–39:8)

Promises of divine deliverance

(40:1–56:8)

The final kingdom established

(56:9–66:24)

Isaiah prophesied in Judah during the reigns of Kings Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah. According to tradition Isaiah was martyred under Manasseh, the wicked son of Hezekiah, about 680 BC.

Isaiah repeatedly warned the people that Jerusalem and Judah would be judged because of their wickedness. In chapter 39 he predicted the Babylonian exile. But he also held to the hope that the kingdom would be restored again.

Beginning in chapter 40 Isaiah offered comfort with these promises from God: (1) Babylonian exiles would be allowed to return to Jerusalem; (2) a righteous, suffering servant would bring salvation; (3) God would set up a new, righteous kingdom.

Isaiah

Isaiah 1

¹The vision concerning Judah and Jerusalem that Isaiah son of Amoz saw during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

A REBELLIOUS NATION

- ²Hear me, you heavens! Listen, earth!
For the LORD has spoken:
“I reared children and brought them up,
but they have rebelled against me.
- ³The ox knows its master,
the donkey its owner’s manger,
but Israel does not know,
my people do not understand.”
- ⁴Woe to the sinful nation,
a people whose guilt is great,
a brood of evildoers, children given to corruption!
They have forsaken the LORD;
they have spurned the Holy One of Israel and turned their backs on him.
- ⁵Why should you be beaten anymore?
Why do you persist in rebellion?
Your whole head is injured,
your whole heart afflicted.
- ⁶From the sole of your foot to the top of your head there is no soundness— only wounds and welts and open sores,

not cleansed or bandaged or soothed with olive oil.

⁷Your country is desolate, your cities burned with fire;
your fields are being stripped by foreigners right before you,
laid waste as when overthrown by strangers.

⁸Daughter Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard, like a hut in a cucumber field,
like a city under siege.

⁹Unless the LORD Almighty had left us some survivors, we would have become like Sodom,
we would have been like Gomorrah.

¹⁰Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom; listen to the instruction of our God,
you people of Gomorrah!

¹¹“The multitude of your sacrifices—
what are they to me?” says the LORD.
“I have more than enough of burnt offerings, of rams and the fat of fattened animals;

- I have no pleasure
in the blood of bulls and lambs and goats.
- ¹²When you come to appear before me,
who has asked this of you,
this trampling of my courts?
- ¹³Stop bringing meaningless offerings!
Your incense is detestable to me.
New Moons, Sabbaths and convocations—
I cannot bear your worthless assemblies.
- ¹⁴Your New Moon feasts and your appointed festivals I hate with all my being.
They have become a burden to me;
I am weary of bearing them.
- ¹⁵When you spread out your hands in prayer, I hide my eyes from you;
even when you offer many prayers,
I am not listening.
Your hands are full of blood!
- ¹⁶Wash and make yourselves clean.
Take your evil deeds out of my sight;
stop doing wrong.
- ¹⁷Learn to do right; seek justice.
Defend the oppressed.^[1]
Take up the cause of the fatherless; plead the case of the widow.
- ¹⁸“Come now, let us settle the matter,”

“Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow.”

Sin colors your heart like a deep stain, but God will scrub you clean.

\(Rock Solid PROMISES Index\)

says the LORD.

“Though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be as white as snow;
though they are red as crimson,
they shall be like wool.

¹⁹If you are willing and obedient,
you will eat the good things of the land;

²⁰but if you resist and rebel,
you will be devoured by the sword.”

For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

²¹See how the faithful city has become a prostitute!
She once was full of justice; righteousness used to dwell in her—but now murderers!

²²Your silver has become dross, your choice wine is diluted with water.

²³Your rulers are rebels, partners with thieves;

they all love bribes
and chase after gifts.
They do not defend the cause of the fatherless;
the widow's case does not come before them.

²⁴Therefore the Lord, the LORD Almighty, the Mighty One of Israel, declares:

“Ah! I will vent my wrath on my foes and avenge myself on my enemies.

²⁵I will turn my hand against you;^[2]
I will thoroughly purge away your dross and remove all your impurities.

²⁶I will restore your leaders as in days of old, your rulers as at the beginning.

Afterward you will be called the City of Righteousness,
the Faithful City.”

²⁷Zion will be delivered with justice, her penitent ones with righteousness.

²⁸But rebels and sinners will both be broken, and those who forsake the LORD will perish.

²⁹“You will be ashamed because of the sacred oaks in which you have delighted;
you will be disgraced because of the gardens that you have chosen.

³⁰You will be like an oak with fading leaves, like a garden without water.

³¹The mighty man will become tinder and his work a spark;
both will burn together,
with no one to quench the fire.”

Isaiah 2

THE MOUNTAIN OF THE LORD

¹This is what Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem: ²In the last days

the mountain of the LORD's temple will be established as the highest of the mountains;
it will be exalted above the hills,
and all nations will stream to it.

³Many peoples will come and say,

“Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the temple of the God of Jacob.
He will teach us his ways,
so that we may walk in his paths.”
The law will go out from Zion,
the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

⁴He will judge between the nations and will settle disputes for many peoples.
They will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will not take up sword against nation,
nor will they train for war anymore.

⁵Come, descendants of Jacob,
let us walk in the light of the LORD.

THE DAY OF THE LORD

⁶You, LORD, have abandoned your people, the descendants of Jacob.
They are full of superstitions from the East;
they practice divination like the Philistines and embrace pagan customs.

⁷Their land is full of silver and gold; there is no end to their treasures.

Their land is full of horses;
there is no end to their chariots.

⁸Their land is full of idols;
they bow down to the work of their hands,
to what their fingers have made.

⁹So people will be brought low and everyone humbled—
do not forgive them. ^[3]

¹⁰Go into the rocks, hide in the ground from the fearful presence of the LORD
and the splendor of his majesty!

¹¹The eyes of the arrogant will be humbled and human pride brought low;
the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.

¹²The LORD Almighty has a day in store for all the proud and lofty,

for all that is exalted
(and they will be humbled), ¹³for all the cedars of Lebanon, tall and lofty, and all the oaks of Bashan, ¹⁴for all the towering mountains and all the high hills, ¹⁵for every lofty tower and every fortified wall, ¹⁶for every trading ship^[4]
and every stately vessel.
¹⁷The arrogance of man will be brought low and human pride humbled;
the LORD alone will be exalted in that day,
¹⁸and the idols will totally disappear.
¹⁹People will flee to caves in the rocks and to holes in the ground
from the fearful presence of the LORD
and the splendor of his majesty,
when he rises to shake the earth.
²⁰In that day people will throw away to the moles and bats their idols of silver and idols of gold, which they made to worship.

²¹They will flee to caverns in the rocks and to the overhanging crags
from the fearful presence of the LORD
and the splendor of his majesty,
when he rises to shake the earth.

²²Stop trusting in mere humans, who have but a breath in their nostrils.
Why hold them in esteem?

Isaiah 3

JUDGMENT ON JERUSALEM AND JUDAH

- ¹See now, the Lord,
the LORD Almighty, is about to take from Jerusalem and Judah
both supply and support:
all supplies of food and all supplies of water, ²the hero and the warrior,
the judge and the prophet,
the diviner and the elder, ³the captain of fifty and the man of rank, the counselor, skilled craftsman and clever enchanter.
⁴“I will make mere youths their officials; children will rule over them.”
⁵People will oppress each other—man against man, neighbor against neighbor.
The young will rise up against the old,
the nobody against the honored.
⁶A man will seize one of his brothers in his father’s house, and say, “You have a cloak, you be our leader;
take charge of this heap of ruins!”
⁷But in that day he will cry out,
“I have no remedy.
I have no food or clothing in my house;
do not make me the leader of the people.”
⁸Jerusalem staggers, Judah is falling;
their words and deeds are against the LORD,
defying his glorious presence.
⁹The look on their faces testifies against them; they parade their sin like Sodom;
they do not hide it.
Woe to them!
They have brought disaster upon themselves.

for they will enjoy the fruit of their deeds.
¹¹Woe to the wicked!
Disaster is upon them!

They will be paid back for what their hands have done.

¹²Youths oppress my people,
women rule over them.
My people, your guides lead you astray;
they turn you from the path.

¹³The LORD takes his place in court; he rises to judge the people.

¹⁴The LORD enters into judgment against the elders and leaders of his people:
“It is you who have ruined my vineyard;
the plunder from the poor is in your houses.

¹⁵What do you mean by crushing my people and grinding the faces of the poor?”
declares the Lord, the LORD Almighty.

¹⁶The LORD says,
“The women of Zion are haughty, walking along with outstretched necks,
flirting with their eyes,
strutting along with swaying hips,
with ornaments jingling on their ankles.

¹⁷Therefore the Lord will bring sores on the heads of the women of Zion; the LORD will make their scalps bald.”

¹⁸In that day the Lord will snatch away their finery: the bangles and headbands and crescent necklaces, ¹⁹the earrings and bracelets and veils, ²⁰the headdresses and anklets and sashes, the perfume bottles and charms, ²¹the signet rings and nose rings, ²²the fine robes and the capes and cloaks, the purses ²³and mirrors, and the linen garments and tiaras and shawls.

²⁴Instead of fragrance there will be a stench; instead of a sash, a rope;
instead of well-dressed hair, baldness;
instead of fine clothing, sackcloth;
instead of beauty, branding.

²⁵Your men will fall by the sword, your warriors in battle.

²⁶The gates of Zion will lament and mourn; destitute, she will sit on the ground.

Isaiah 4

¹In that day seven women will take hold of one man and say, “We will eat our own food and provide our own clothes;
only let us be called by your name.
Take away our disgrace!”

THE BRANCH OF THE LORD

²In that day the Branch of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the pride and glory of the survivors in Israel. ³Those who are left in Zion, who remain in Jerusalem, will be called holy, all who are recorded among the living in Jerusalem. ⁴The Lord will wash away the filth of the women of Zion; he will cleanse the bloodstains from Jerusalem by a spirit^[5] of judgment and a spirit^[6] of fire. ⁵Then the LORD will create over all of Mount Zion and over those who assemble there a cloud of smoke by day and a glow of flaming fire by night; over everything the glory^[7] will be a canopy. ⁶It will be a shelter and shade from the heat of the day, and a refuge and hiding place from the storm and rain.

Isaiah 5

THE SONG OF THE VINEYARD

- ¹I will sing for the one I love
a song about his vineyard:
My loved one had a vineyard on a fertile hillside.
- ²He dug it up and cleared it of stones and planted it with the choicest vines.
He built a watchtower in it and cut out a winepress as well.
Then he looked for a crop of good grapes,
but it yielded only bad fruit.
- ³“Now you dwellers in Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard.
- ⁴What more could have been done for my vineyard than I have done for it?
When I looked for good grapes,
why did it yield only bad?
- ⁵Now I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard:
I will take away its hedge,
and it will be destroyed;
I will break down its wall,
and it will be trampled.
- ⁶I will make it a wasteland, neither pruned nor cultivated,
and briars and thorns will grow there.

I will command the clouds not to rain on it.”

⁷The vineyard of the LORD Almighty is the nation of Israel, and the people of Judah are the vines he delighted in.

And he looked for justice, but saw bloodshed;
for righteousness, but heard cries of distress.

WOES AND JUDGMENTS

⁸Woe to you who add house to house and join field to field till no space is left and you live alone in the land.

⁹The LORD Almighty has declared in my hearing:

“Surely the great houses will become desolate,
the fine mansions left without occupants.

¹⁰A ten-acre vineyard will produce only a bath^[8] of wine; a homer^[9] of seed will yield only an ephah^[10] of grain.”

¹¹Woe to those who rise early in the morning to run after their drinks, who stay up late at night till they are inflamed with wine.

¹²They have harps and lyres at their banquets, pipes and timbrels and wine, but they have no regard for the deeds of the LORD, no respect for the work of his hands.

¹³Therefore my people will go into exile for lack of understanding;
those of high rank will die of hunger and the common people will be parched with thirst.

¹⁴Therefore Death expands its jaws, opening wide its mouth;
into it will descend their nobles and masses with all their brawlers and revelers.

¹⁵So people will be brought low
and everyone humbled,
the eyes of the arrogant humbled.

¹⁶But the LORD Almighty will be exalted by his justice, and the holy God will be proved holy by his righteous acts.

¹⁷Then sheep will graze as in their own pasture; lambs will feed^[11] among the ruins of the rich.

¹⁸Woe to those who draw sin along with cords of deceit, and wickedness as with cart ropes,

¹⁹to those who say, “Let God hurry;

let him hasten his work
so we may see it.
The plan of the Holy One of Israel—let it approach, let it come into view, so we may know it.”

²⁰Woe to those who call evil good and good evil,

who put darkness for light and light for darkness,

who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter.

²¹Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes and clever in their own sight.

²²Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine and champions at mixing drinks, ²³who acquit the guilty for a bribe, but deny justice to the innocent.

²⁴Therefore, as tongues of fire lick up straw and as dry grass sinks down in the flames,

so their roots will decay and their flowers blow away like dust; for they have rejected the law of the LORD Almighty and spurned the word of the Holy One of Israel.

²⁵Therefore the LORD's anger burns against his people; his hand is raised and he strikes them down.

The mountains shake,
and the dead bodies are like refuse in the streets.

Yet for all this, his anger is not turned away,
his hand is still upraised.

²⁶He lifts up a banner for the distant nations, he whistles for those at the ends of the earth.

Here they come,
swiftly and speedily!

²⁷Not one of them grows tired or stumbles, not one slumbers or sleeps;
not a belt is loosened at the waist,
not a sandal strap is broken.

²⁸Their arrows are sharp,
all their bows are strung;
their horses' hooves seem like flint,
their chariot wheels like a whirlwind.

²⁹Their roar is like that of the lion, they roar like young lions;
they growl as they seize their prey and carry it off with no one to rescue.

³⁰In that day they will roar over it like the roaring of the sea.
And if one looks at the land,
there is only darkness and distress;
even the sun will be darkened by clouds.

Isaiah 6

ISAIAH'S COMMISSION

¹In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord, high and exalted, seated on a throne; and the train of his robe filled the temple. ²Above him were seraphim, each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying. ³And they were calling to one another:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD Almighty;
the whole earth is full of his glory.”

⁴At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke.

⁵“Woe to me!” I cried. “I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the LORD Almighty.”

⁶Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. ⁷With it he touched my mouth and said, “See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for.”

⁸Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?”

And I said, “Here am I. Send me!”

⁹He said, “Go and tell this people:

“ ‘Be ever hearing, but never understanding;
be ever seeing, but never perceiving.’

¹⁰Make the heart of this people calloused; make their ears dull

and close their eyes. ^[12]
Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts,

and turn and be healed.”

¹¹Then I said, “For how long, Lord?”

And he answered:

“Until the cities lie ruined and without inhabitant, until the houses are left deserted and the fields ruined and ravaged,

¹²until the LORD has sent everyone far away and the land is utterly forsaken.

¹³And though a tenth remains in the land, it will again be laid waste.

But as the terebinth and oak leave stumps when they are cut down, so the holy seed will be the stump in the land.”

Isaiah 6:1–10

God is exalted.

To be “exalted” means to be “elevated” or “raised,” in status or character. So when the prophet Isaiah saw “the Lord, high and exalted, seated on a throne” (Isaiah 6:1), he had spotted God’s absolute superiority over anything and everything else. Isaiah had a vision of the Lord seated on his heavenly throne enjoying the worship of angels, and the prophet’s human reaction was a crushing sense of his own lowliness and sinfulness. God not only reached out and forgave Isaiah’s sin, but he also appointed Isaiah as his spokesperson. While nothing we can do will ever make the Lord any greater, we “exalt God” when we recognize his greatness and give him the worship he deserves.

So ... When and how do you exalt God?

\(Unshaken GOD Index\)

Isaiah 7

THE SIGN OF IMMANUEL

¹When Ahaz son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, was king of Judah, King Rezin of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel marched up to fight against Jerusalem, but they could not overpower it.

²Now the house of David was told, “Aram has allied itself with^[13] Ephraim”; so the hearts of Ahaz and his people were shaken, as the trees of the forest are shaken by the wind.

³Then the LORD said to Isaiah, “Go out, you and your son Shear-Jashub,^[14] to meet Ahaz at the end of the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Launderer’s Field. ⁴Say to him, ‘Be careful, keep calm and don’t be afraid. Do not lose heart because of these two smoldering stubs of firewood—because of the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram and of the son of Remaliah. ⁵Aram, Ephraim and Remaliah’s son have plotted your ruin, saying, ⁶“Let us invade Judah; let us tear it apart and divide it among ourselves, and make the son of Tabeel king over it.” ⁷Yet this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘It will not take place,
it will not happen,

⁸for the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is only Rezin.

Within sixty-five years
Ephraim will be too shattered to be a people.

⁹The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is only Remaliah’s son.

If you do not stand firm in your faith,
you will not stand at all.’ ”

¹⁰Again the LORD spoke to Ahaz, ¹¹“Ask the LORD your God for a sign, whether in the deepest depths or in the highest heights.”

¹²But Ahaz said, “I will not ask; I will not put the LORD to the test.”

¹³Then Isaiah said, “Hear now, you house of David! Is it not enough to try the patience of humans? Will you try the patience of my God also? ¹⁴Therefore the Lord himself will give you^[15] a sign: The virgin^[16] will conceive and give birth to a son, and^[17] will call him Immanuel.^[18] ¹⁵He will be eating curds and honey when he knows enough to reject the wrong and choose the right, ¹⁶for before the boy knows enough to reject the wrong and choose the right, the land of the two kings you dread will be laid waste. ¹⁷The LORD will bring on you and on your people and on the house of your father a time unlike any since Ephraim broke away from Judah—he will bring the king of Assyria.”

ASSYRIA, THE LORD’S INSTRUMENT

¹⁸In that day the LORD will whistle for flies from the Nile delta in Egypt and for bees from the land of Assyria. ¹⁹They will all come and settle in the steep ravines and in the crevices in the rocks, on all the thornbushes and at all the water holes. ²⁰In that day the Lord will use a razor hired from beyond the Euphrates River—the king of Assyria—to shave your head and private parts, and to cut off your beard also. ²¹In that day, a person will keep alive a young cow and two goats. ²²And because of the abundance of the milk they give, there will be curds to eat. All who remain in the land will eat curds and honey. ²³In that day, in every place where there were a thousand vines worth a thousand silver shekels,^[19] there will be only briers and thorns. ²⁴Hunters will go there with bow and arrow, for the land will be covered with briers and thorns. ²⁵As for all the hills once cultivated by the hoe, you will no longer go there for fear of the briers and thorns; they will become places where cattle are turned loose and where sheep run.

Isaiah 8

ISAIAH AND HIS CHILDREN AS SIGNS

¹The LORD said to me, “Take a large scroll and write on it with an ordinary pen: Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.”^[20] ²So I called in Uriah the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberekiah as reliable witnesses for me. ³Then I made love to the prophetess, and she conceived and gave birth to a son. And the LORD said to me, “Name him Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz. ⁴For before the boy knows how to say ‘My father’ or ‘My mother,’ the wealth of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried off by the king of Assyria.”

⁵The LORD spoke to me again:

⁶“Because this people has rejected the gently flowing waters of Shiloah and rejoices over Rezin

and the son of Remaliah, ⁷therefore the Lord is about to bring against them the mighty floodwaters of the Euphrates— the king of Assyria with all his pomp.
It will overflow all its channels,

run over all its banks ⁸and sweep on into Judah, swirling over it, passing through it and reaching up to the neck.
Its outspread wings will cover the breadth of your land, Immanuel^[21]!”
⁹Raise the war cry, ^[22] you nations, and be shattered!
Listen, all you distant lands.
Prepare for battle, and be shattered!
Prepare for battle, and be shattered!
¹⁰Devise your strategy, but it will be thwarted; propose your plan, but it will not stand, for God is with us. ^[23]

¹¹This is what the LORD says to me with his strong hand upon me, warning me not to follow the way of this people:

¹²“Do not call conspiracy everything this people calls a conspiracy;
do not fear what they fear,
and do not dread it.

¹³The LORD Almighty is the one you are to regard as holy, he is the one you are to fear,
he is the one you are to dread.

¹⁴He will be a holy place;
for both Israel and Judah he will be a stone that causes people to stumble and a rock that makes them fall.
And for the people of Jerusalem he will be a trap and a snare.

¹⁵Many of them will stumble;
they will fall and be broken,
they will be snared and captured.”

¹⁶Bind up this testimony of warning and seal up God’s instruction among my disciples.

¹⁷I will wait for the LORD, who is hiding his face from the descendants of Jacob.
I will put my trust in him.

¹⁸Here am I, and the children the LORD has given me. We are signs and symbols in Israel from the LORD Almighty, who dwells on Mount Zion.

THE DARKNESS TURNS TO LIGHT

¹⁹When someone tells you to consult mediums and spiritists, who whisper and mutter, should not a people inquire of their God? Why consult the dead on behalf of the living? ²⁰Consult God's instruction and the testimony of warning. If anyone does not speak according to this word, they have no light of dawn. ²¹Distressed and hungry, they will roam through the land; when they are famished, they will become enraged and, looking upward, will curse their king and their God. ²²Then they will look toward the earth and see only distress and darkness and fearful gloom, and they will be thrust into utter darkness.

Isaiah 9^[24]

¹Nevertheless, there will be no more gloom for those who were in distress. In the past he humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the future he will honor Galilee of the nations, by the Way of the Sea, beyond the Jordan—

²The people walking in darkness have seen a great light;
on those living in the land of deep darkness
a light has dawned.

³You have enlarged the nation and increased their joy;

they rejoice before you
as people rejoice at the harvest,

as warriors rejoice
when dividing the plunder.
⁴For as in the day of Midian's defeat,

you have shattered
the yoke that burdens them,
the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor.

⁵Every warrior's boot used in battle and every garment rolled in blood will be destined for burning, will be fuel for the fire.

⁶For to us a child is born, to us a son is given,
and the government will be on his shoulders.

And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

⁷Of the greatness of his government and peace there will be no end.
He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever.

The zeal of the LORD Almighty
will accomplish this.

THE LORD'S ANGER AGAINST ISRAEL

⁸The Lord has sent a message against Jacob; it will fall on Israel.

⁹All the people will know it—Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria—who say with pride

and arrogance of heart,

¹⁰“The bricks have fallen down, but we will rebuild with dressed stone;
the fig trees have been felled,
but we will replace them with cedars.”

¹¹But the LORD has strengthened Rezin’s foes against them and has spurred their enemies on.

¹²Arameans from the east and Philistines from the west have devoured Israel with open mouth.
Yet for all this, his anger is not turned away,
his hand is still upraised.

¹³But the people have not returned to him who struck them, nor have they sought the LORD Almighty.

¹⁴So the LORD will cut off from Israel both head and tail, both palm branch and reed in a single day;

¹⁵the elders and dignitaries are the head, the prophets who teach lies are the tail.

¹⁶Those who guide this people mislead them, and those who are guided are led astray.

¹⁷Therefore the Lord will take no pleasure in the young men, nor will he pity the fatherless and widows,
for everyone is ungodly and wicked,
every mouth speaks folly.

Yet for all this, his anger is not turned away,
his hand is still upraised.

¹⁸Surely wickedness burns like a fire;
it consumes briars and thorns,
it sets the forest thickets ablaze,
so that it rolls upward in a column of smoke.

¹⁹By the wrath of the LORD Almighty the land will be scorched and the people will be fuel for the fire;
they will not spare one another.

²⁰On the right they will devour, but still be hungry;
on the left they will eat,
but not be satisfied.

Each will feed on the flesh of their own offspring^[25]:
 ²¹Manasseh will feed on Ephraim, and Ephraim on Manasseh; together they will turn against Judah.
Yet for all this, his anger is not turned away,
 his hand is still upraised.

ROCK SOLID truths

Isaiah 9:6–7

God promised a Savior.

If Jesus had shown up on earth unannounced, people might have mistaken him for any other baby. But God sent angels to announce his birth to shepherds (see Luke 2:8–20). He brought curious wise men from faraway lands to investigate the newborn king (see Matthew 2:1–2). And for hundreds of years before Jesus was born in Bethlehem, the Lord detailed how we could recognize Jesus and exactly what he would accomplish. This rescuer would come as a child and reign over the world. And his names would capture his extraordinary character. He would be called “Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace” (Isaiah 9:6). Of all the prophets in the Bible, Isaiah brought the most stunning news of the coming Savior. Look for Jesus in Isaiah 7:14; 11:2; 53:2–5; and 61:1–2.

Think: How do these prophecies about Jesus spoken hundreds of years before his birth help show you he is the Savior sent from God?

(Rock Solid TRUTHS Index)

Isaiah 10

¹Woe to those who make unjust laws, to those who issue oppressive decrees, ²to deprive the poor of their rights and withhold justice from the oppressed of my people,

making widows their prey
and robbing the fatherless.

³What will you do on the day of reckoning, when disaster comes from afar?

To whom will you run for help?
Where will you leave your riches?

⁴Nothing will remain but to cringe among the captives or fall among the slain.

Yet for all this, his anger is not turned away,
his hand is still upraised.

GOD'S JUDGMENT ON ASSYRIA

⁵“Woe to the Assyrian, the rod of my anger, in whose hand is the club of my wrath!

⁶I send him against a godless nation,
I dispatch him against a people who anger me,
to seize loot and snatch plunder,
and to trample them down like mud in the streets.

⁷But this is not what he intends,
this is not what he has in mind;
his purpose is to destroy,
to put an end to many nations.

⁸‘Are not my commanders all kings?’ he says.
⁹‘Has not Kalno fared like Carchemish?
Is not Hamath like Arpad, and Samaria like Damascus?’

¹⁰As my hand seized the kingdoms of the idols, kingdoms whose images excelled those of Jerusalem and Samaria— ¹¹shall I not deal with Jerusalem and her images as I dealt with Samaria and her idols?’

¹²When the Lord has finished all his work against Mount Zion and Jerusalem, he will say, “I will punish the king of Assyria for the willful pride of his heart and the haughty look in his eyes. ¹³For he says:

“ ‘By the strength of my hand I have done this,

and by my wisdom, because I have understanding.
I removed the boundaries of nations,
I plundered their treasures;
like a mighty one I subdued^[26] their kings.

¹⁴As one reaches into a nest,
so my hand reached for the wealth of the nations;
as people gather abandoned eggs,
so I gathered all the countries;
not one flapped a wing,
or opened its mouth to chirp.’ ”

¹⁵Does the ax raise itself above the person who swings it, or the saw boast against the one who uses it?
As if a rod were to wield the person who lifts it up, or a club brandish the one who is not wood!

¹⁶Therefore, the Lord, the LORD Almighty, will send a wasting disease upon his sturdy warriors;
under his pomp a fire will be kindled like a blazing flame.

¹⁷The Light of Israel will become a fire, their Holy One a flame;
in a single day it will burn and consume his thorns and his briars.

¹⁸The splendor of his forests and fertile fields it will completely destroy, as when a sick person wastes away.

¹⁹And the remaining trees of his forests will be so few that a child could write them down.

THE REMNANT OF ISRAEL

²⁰In that day the remnant of Israel,
the survivors of Jacob,
will no longer rely on him who struck them down but will truly rely on the LORD,

the Holy One of Israel.

²¹A remnant will return,^[27] a remnant of Jacob will return to the Mighty God.

²²Though your people be like the sand by the sea, Israel, only a remnant will return.
Destruction has been decreed, overwhelming and righteous.

²³The Lord, the LORD Almighty, will carry out the destruction decreed upon the whole land.

²⁴Therefore this is what the Lord, the LORD Almighty, says:

“My people who live in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrians, who beat you with a rod and lift up a club against you, as Egypt did.

²⁵Very soon my anger against you will end and my wrath will be directed to their destruction.”

²⁶The LORD Almighty will lash them with a whip, as when he struck down Midian at the rock of Oreb;
and he will raise his staff over the waters,
as he did in Egypt.

²⁷In that day their burden will be lifted from your shoulders, their yoke from your neck;

the yoke will be broken because you have grown so fat.^[28]

²⁸They enter Aiath;
they pass through Migron;
they store supplies at Mikmash.

²⁹They go over the pass, and say,
“We will camp overnight at Geba.”
Ramah trembles;
Gibeah of Saul flees.

³⁰Cry out, Daughter Gallim!
Listen, Laishah!
Poor Anathoth!

³¹Madmenah is in flight;
the people of Gebim take cover.

³²This day they will halt at Nob;

they will shake their fist at the mount of Daughter Zion, at the hill of Jerusalem.

³³See, the Lord, the LORD Almighty, will lop off the boughs with great power.

The lofty trees will be felled,
the tall ones will be brought low.

³⁴He will cut down the forest thickets with an ax; Lebanon will fall before the Mighty One.

Isaiah 11

THE BRANCH FROM JESSE

- ¹A shoot will come up from the stump of Jesse; from his roots a Branch will bear fruit.
- ²The Spirit of the LORD will rest on him— the Spirit of wisdom and of understanding, the Spirit of counsel and of might, the Spirit of the knowledge and fear of the LORD—
- ³and he will delight in the fear of the LORD.
He will not judge by what he sees with his eyes, or decide by what he hears with his ears;
- ⁴but with righteousness he will judge the needy, with justice he will give decisions for the poor of the earth.
He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth;
with the breath of his lips he will slay the wicked.
- ⁵Righteousness will be his belt and faithfulness the sash around his waist.
- ⁶The wolf will live with the lamb,
the leopard will lie down with the goat,
the calf and the lion and the yearling^[29] together; and a little child will lead them.
- ⁷The cow will feed with the bear, their young will lie down together,
and the lion will eat straw like the ox.
- ⁸The infant will play near the cobra's den, and the young child will put its hand into the viper's nest.
- ⁹They will neither harm nor destroy
on all my holy mountain, for the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

¹⁰In that day the Root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples; the nations will rally to him, and his resting place will be glorious. ¹¹In that day the Lord will reach out his hand a second time to reclaim the surviving remnant of his people from Assyria, from Lower Egypt, from Upper Egypt, from Cush,^[30] from Elam, from Babylonia,^[31] from Hamath and from the islands of the Mediterranean.

- ¹²He will raise a banner for the nations and gather the exiles of Israel;
he will assemble the scattered people of Judah from the four quarters of the earth.
- ¹³Ephraim's jealousy will vanish, and Judah's enemies^[32] will be destroyed; Ephraim will not be jealous of Judah, nor Judah hostile toward Ephraim.
- ¹⁴They will swoop down on the slopes of Philistia to the west; together they will plunder the people to the east.
They will subdue Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites will be subject to them.
- ¹⁵The LORD will dry up
the gulf of the Egyptian sea;
with a scorching wind he will sweep his hand over the Euphrates River.
He will break it up into seven streams so that anyone can cross over in sandals.
- ¹⁶There will be a highway for the remnant of his people that is left from Assyria, as there was for Israel

when they came up from Egypt.

from the wells of salvation.

⁴In that day you will say:

“Give praise to the LORD, proclaim his name;
make known among the nations what he has done,
and proclaim that his name is exalted.

⁵Sing to the LORD, for he has done glorious things; let this be known to all the world.

⁶Shout aloud and sing for joy, people of Zion, for great is the Holy One of Israel among you.”

Isaiah 13

A PROPHECY AGAINST BABYLON

¹A prophecy against Babylon that Isaiah son of Amoz saw:

²Raise a banner on a bare hilltop, shout to them;

- beckon to them
to enter the gates of the nobles.
- ³I have commanded those I prepared for battle; I have summoned my warriors to carry out my wrath— those who rejoice in my triumph.
- ⁴Listen, a noise on the mountains,
like that of a great multitude!
Listen, an uproar among the kingdoms,
like nations massing together!
The LORD Almighty is mustering an army for war.
- ⁵They come from faraway lands,
from the ends of the heavens—
the LORD and the weapons of his wrath—to destroy the whole country.
- ⁶Wail, for the day of the LORD is near; it will come like destruction from the Almighty.^[34]
- ⁷Because of this, all hands will go limp, every heart will melt with fear.
- ⁸Terror will seize them,
pain and anguish will grip them;
they will writhe like a woman in labor.
They will look aghast at each other,
their faces aflame.
- ⁹See, the day of the LORD is coming —a cruel day, with wrath and fierce anger— to make the land desolate and destroy the sinners within it.
- ¹⁰The stars of heaven and their constellations will not show their light.
The rising sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its light.
- ¹¹I will punish the world for its evil, the wicked for their sins.
I will put an end to the arrogance of the haughty and will humble the pride of the ruthless.
- ¹²I will make people scarcer than pure gold, more rare than the gold of Ophir.
- ¹³Therefore I will make the heavens tremble; and the earth will shake from its place
at the wrath of the LORD Almighty, in the day of his burning anger.
- ¹⁴Like a hunted gazelle,

like sheep without a shepherd,
they will all return to their own people,
they will flee to their native land.

¹⁵Whoever is captured will be thrust through; all who are caught will fall by
the sword.

¹⁶Their infants will be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses will be looted and their wives violated.

¹⁷See, I will stir up against them the Medes, who do not care for silver and have no delight in gold.

¹⁸Their bows will strike down the young men; they will have no mercy on infants,
nor will they look with compassion on children.

¹⁹Babylon, the jewel of kingdoms, the pride and glory of the Babylonians, ^[35]

will be overthrown by God like Sodom and Gomorrah.

²⁰She will never be inhabited or lived in through all generations;
there no nomads will pitch their tents,
there no shepherds will rest their flocks.

²¹But desert creatures will lie there, jackals will fill her houses;
there the owls will dwell,
and there the wild goats will leap about.

²²Hyenas will inhabit her strongholds, jackals her luxurious palaces.
Her time is at hand,
and her days will not be prolonged.

Isaiah 14

¹The LORD will have compassion on Jacob; once again he will choose Israel
and will settle them in their own land.

Foreigners will join them and unite with the descendants of Jacob.

²Nations will take them and bring them to their own place.
And Israel will take possession of the nations and make them male and female servants in the LORD's land.
They will make captives of their captors and rule over their oppressors.

³On the day the LORD gives you relief from your suffering and turmoil and from the harsh labor forced on you, ⁴you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon:

How the oppressor has come to an end!
How his fury^[36] has ended!

⁵The LORD has broken the rod of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers, ⁶which in anger struck down peoples with unceasing blows,

and in fury subdued nations with relentless aggression.

⁷All the lands are at rest and at peace; they break into singing.

⁸Even the junipers and the cedars of Lebanon gloat over you and say, “Now that you have been laid low,
no one comes to cut us down.”

⁹The realm of the dead below is all astir to meet you at your coming;
it rouses the spirits of the departed to greet you—all those who were leaders in the world;
it makes them rise from their thrones—all those who were kings over the nations.

¹⁰They will all respond,
they will say to you,
“You also have become weak, as we are;
you have become like us.”

¹¹All your pomp has been brought down to the grave, along with the noise of your harps;
maggots are spread out beneath you and worms cover you.

¹²How you have fallen from heaven, morning star, son of the dawn!
You have been cast down to the earth,
you who once laid low the nations!

¹³You said in your heart,
“I will ascend to the heavens;

I will raise my throne
above the stars of God;
I will sit enthroned on the mount of assembly,
on the utmost heights of Mount Zaphon.^[37]

¹⁴I will ascend above the tops of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.”

¹⁵But you are brought down to the realm of the dead, to the depths of the pit.

¹⁶Those who see you stare at you,
they ponder your fate:
“Is this the man who shook the earth and made kingdoms tremble,

¹⁷the man who made the world a wilderness, who overthrew its cities and would not let his captives go home?”

¹⁸All the kings of the nations lie in state, each in his own tomb.

¹⁹But you are cast out of your tomb like a rejected branch;
you are covered with the slain,
with those pierced by the sword,
those who descend to the stones of the pit.

Like a corpse trampled underfoot, ²⁰you will not join them in burial, for you have destroyed your land and killed your people.

Let the offspring of the wicked never be mentioned again.

²¹Prepare a place to slaughter his children for the sins of their ancestors;
they are not to rise to inherit the land and cover the earth with their cities.

²²“I will rise up against them,” declares the LORD Almighty.
“I will wipe out Babylon’s name and survivors, her offspring and descendants,”

declares the LORD.

²³“I will turn her into a place for owls and into swampland;
I will sweep her with the broom of destruction,”
declares the LORD Almighty.

²⁴The LORD Almighty has sworn,

“Surely, as I have planned, so it will be,
and as I have purposed, so it will happen.

²⁵I will crush the Assyrian in my land; on my mountains I will trample him down.

His yoke will be taken from my people,
and his burden removed from their shoulders.”

²⁶This is the plan determined for the whole world; this is the hand stretched out over all nations.

²⁷For the LORD Almighty has purposed, and who can thwart
him?

His hand is stretched out, and who can turn it back?

A PROPHECY AGAINST THE PHILISTINES

²⁸This prophecy came in the year King Ahaz died:

²⁹Do not rejoice, all you Philistines, that the rod that struck you is broken;
from the root of that snake will spring up a viper, its fruit will be a darting, venomous serpent.

³⁰The poorest of the poor will find pasture, and the needy will lie down in safety.

But your root I will destroy by famine;
it will slay your survivors.

³¹Wail, you gate! Howl, you city!
Melt away, all you Philistines!
A cloud of smoke comes from the north,
and there is not a straggler in its ranks.

³²What answer shall be given to the envoys of that nation?
“The LORD has established Zion, and in her his afflicted people will find refuge.”

ROCK SOLID truths

Isaiah 14:12–21

Satan wants to take God’s place.

While this scene continues a description of the arrogant king of Babylon (Isaiah 14:4), believers since the early church have also seen in this passage a description of Satan, a supernatural being who has attempted to outshine God since before the world began. The name “morning star” in Isaiah 14:12 means “day star.” This poetic verse says that this “star” wanted to climb to the peak of the heavens, even higher than God’s throne. Satan taunts God when he says, “I will ascend above the tops of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High” (Isaiah 14:14). One thing is certain: Satan is doomed not to succeed. Jesus said he saw Satan “fall like lightning from heaven” (Luke 10:18), and this passage promises Lucifer will go “down to the realm of the dead, to the depths of the pit” (Isaiah 14:15). Hell is where Satan winds up at the end of time (Revelation 20:7–10).

Think: How do people try to be more important than God?

(Rock Solid TRUTHS Index)

Isaiah 14:24–27

God is sovereign.

To be “sovereign” means to have supreme rank or power. A human king or queen is “sovereign” over a nation, and saying that God is sovereign means he rules the universe. God ultimately controls everything. In Isaiah 24 God displays that clout when he predicts the mercy he will show Israel and the judgments he will pour out on its neighbors. Because God is sovereign, nothing can halt the Lord’s plans. He says, “Surely, as I have planned, so it will be, and as I have purposed, so it will happen” (Isaiah 14:24). As ruler of all, God oversees not only the rise and fall of nations but the smallest details of our lives.

So ... How does it feel that God ultimately controls the world?

Isaiah 15

A PROPHECY AGAINST MOAB

¹A prophecy against Moab:

Ar in Moab is ruined,
destroyed in a night!

Kir in Moab is ruined,
destroyed in a night!

²Dibon goes up to its temple,
to its high places to weep;
Moab wails over Nebo and Medeba.

Every head is shaved
and every beard cut off.

³In the streets they wear sackcloth;
on the roofs and in the public squares they all wail,
prostrate with weeping.

⁴Heshbon and Elealeh cry out, their voices are heard all the way to Jahaz.
Therefore the armed men of Moab cry out,
and their hearts are faint.

⁵My heart cries out over Moab;
her fugitives flee as far as Zoar,
as far as Eglath Shelishiyah.
They go up the hill to Luhith, weeping as they go;

on the road to Horonaim
they lament their destruction.

⁶The waters of Nimrim are dried up and the grass is withered;

the vegetation is gone and nothing green is left.

⁷So the wealth they have acquired and stored up they carry away over the Ravine of the Poplars.

⁸Their outcry echoes along the border of Moab; their wailing reaches as far as Eglaim, their lamentation as far as Beer Elim.

⁹The waters of Dimon^[38] are full of blood, but I will bring still more upon Dimon^[39]— a lion upon the fugitives of Moab
and upon those who remain in the land.

Isaiah 16

- ¹Send lambs as tribute to the ruler of the land, from Sela, across the desert,
to the mount of Daughter Zion.
- ²Like fluttering birds pushed from the nest, so are the women of Moab
at the fords of the Arnon.
- ³“Make up your mind,” Moab says.
“Render a decision.
Make your shadow like night—
at high noon.
Hide the fugitives,
do not betray the refugees.
- ⁴Let the Moabite fugitives stay with you; be their shelter from the destroyer.”
The oppressor will come to an end, and destruction will cease;
the aggressor will vanish from the land.
- ⁵In love a throne will be established;
in faithfulness a man will sit on it—one from the house^[40] of David— one who in judging seeks justice and speeds the cause of righteousness.
- ⁶We have heard of Moab’s pride—
how great is her arrogance!—
of her conceit, her pride and her insolence;
but her boasts are empty.
- ⁷Therefore the Moabites wail,
they wail together for Moab.

Lament and grieve
for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth.
⁸The fields of Heshbon wither,
the vines of Sibmah also.

The rulers of the nations have trampled down the choicest vines, which once reached Jazer and spread toward the desert.

Their shoots spread out and went as far as the sea.^[41]

⁹So I weep, as Jazer weeps, for the vines of Sibmah.
Heshbon and Elealeh,
I drench you with tears!
The shouts of joy over your ripened fruit and over your harvests have been stilled.

¹⁰Joy and gladness are taken away from the orchards; no one sings or shouts in the vineyards;
no one treads out wine at the presses,
for I have put an end to the shouting.

¹¹My heart laments for Moab like a harp, my inmost being for Kir Hareseth.

¹²When Moab appears at her high place,
she only wears herself out;
when she goes to her shrine to pray,
it is to no avail.

¹³This is the word the LORD has already spoken concerning Moab. ¹⁴But now the LORD says: “Within three years, as a servant bound by contract would count them, Moab’s splendor and all her many people will be despised, and her survivors will be very few and feeble.”

Isaiah 17

A PROPHECY AGAINST DAMASCUS

¹A prophecy against Damascus:

“See, Damascus will no longer be a city but will become a heap of ruins.

²The cities of Aroer will be deserted and left to flocks, which will lie down, with no one to make them afraid.

³The fortified city will disappear from Ephraim, and royal power from Damascus;
the remnant of Aram will be like the glory of the Israelites,”

declares the LORD Almighty.

⁴“In that day the glory of Jacob will fade; the fat of his body will waste away.

⁵It will be as when reapers harvest the standing grain, gathering the grain in their arms— as when someone gleans heads of grain in the Valley of Rephaim.

⁶Yet some gleanings will remain,
as when an olive tree is beaten,
leaving two or three olives on the topmost branches,
four or five on the fruitful boughs,” declares the LORD, the God of Israel.

⁷In that day people will look to their Maker and turn their eyes to the Holy One of Israel.

⁸They will not look to the altars,
the work of their hands,
and they will have no regard for the Asherah poles^[42]
and the incense altars their fingers have made.

⁹In that day their strong cities, which they left because of the Israelites, will be like places abandoned to thickets and undergrowth. And all will be desolation.

¹⁰You have forgotten God your Savior;

you have not remembered the Rock, your fortress.
Therefore, though you set out the finest plants and plant imported vines,

¹¹though on the day you set them out, you make them grow, and on the morning when you plant them, you bring them to bud,
yet the harvest will be as nothing in the day of disease and incurable pain.

¹²Woe to the many nations that rage—
they rage like the raging sea!
Woe to the peoples who roar—
they roar like the roaring of great waters!

¹³Although the peoples roar like the roar of surging waters, when he rebukes them they flee far away, driven before the wind like chaff on the hills,
like tumbleweed before a gale.

¹⁴In the evening, sudden terror!
Before the morning, they are gone!
This is the portion of those who loot us,
the lot of those who plunder us.

Isaiah 18

A PROPHECY AGAINST CUSH

¹Woe to the land of whirring wings^[43] along the rivers of Cush,^[44]

²which sends envoys by sea in papyrus boats over the water.

Go, swift messengers,
to a people tall and smooth-skinned,
to a people feared far and wide,
an aggressive nation of strange speech,
whose land is divided by rivers.

³All you people of the world,
you who live on the earth,
when a banner is raised on the mountains,
you will see it,
and when a trumpet sounds,
you will hear it.

⁴This is what the LORD says to me: “I will remain quiet and will look on from my dwelling place, like shimmering heat in the sunshine,
like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.”

⁵For, before the harvest, when the blossom is gone and the flower becomes a ripening grape,
he will cut off the shoots with pruning knives,
and cut down and take away the spreading branches.

⁶They will all be left to the mountain birds of prey and to the wild animals;
the birds will feed on them all summer,
the wild animals all winter.

⁷At that time gifts will be brought to the LORD Almighty from a people tall and smooth-skinned, from a people feared far and wide,
an aggressive nation of strange speech,
whose land is divided by rivers—

the gifts will be brought to Mount Zion, the place of the Name of the LORD Almighty.

Isaiah 18

The prophets spoke for God.

Along with the Pentateuch (or “Law”), History books and Wisdom books, “the Prophets” make up one of the four main groups of Old Testament books. The prophetic books split into the “Major Prophets” (Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, and Daniel) and the “Minor Prophets” (Hosea through Malachi). Prophets were God’s spokespeople, bringing the Lord’s messages to his own people. They didn’t hesitate to preach against evils going on in the nations around them, as Isaiah did when he prophesied against Cush, the land south of Egypt. While some of the prophets’ words (“prophecies”) describe the future, most address issues of good and evil happening at that moment. And even though these messages were pointed at people long ago, they still teach us today. They tell us how to live wholeheartedly for God.

Think: How can you use the Bible’s prophetic books to grow today?

Isaiah 19

A PROPHECY AGAINST EGYPT

¹A prophecy against Egypt:

See, the LORD rides on a swift cloud and is coming to Egypt.
The idols of Egypt tremble before him,
and the hearts of the Egyptians melt with fear.

²“I will stir up Egyptian against Egyptian— brother will fight against brother, neighbor against neighbor,
city against city,
kingdom against kingdom.

³The Egyptians will lose heart, and I will bring their plans to nothing;
they will consult the idols and the spirits of the dead,
the mediums and the spiritists.

⁴I will hand the Egyptians over to the power of a cruel master, and a fierce king will rule over them,”
declares the Lord, the LORD Almighty.

⁵The waters of the river will dry up, and the riverbed will be parched and dry.

⁶The canals will stink;
the streams of Egypt will dwindle and dry up.
The reeds and rushes will wither, ⁷also the plants along the Nile,
at the mouth of the river.

Every sown field along the Nile will become parched, will blow away and be no more.

⁸The fishermen will groan and lament, all who cast hooks into the Nile;
those who throw nets on the water will pine away.

⁹Those who work with combed flax will despair, the weavers of fine linen will lose hope.

¹⁰The workers in cloth will be dejected, and all the wage earners will be sick at heart.

¹¹The officials of Zoan are nothing but fools; the wise counselors of Pharaoh give senseless advice.

How can you say to Pharaoh,
“I am one of the wise men,
a disciple of the ancient kings”?

¹²Where are your wise men now?

Let them show you and make known what the LORD Almighty has planned against Egypt.

¹³The officials of Zoan have become fools, the leaders of Memphis are deceived;

the cornerstones of her peoples have led Egypt astray.

¹⁴The LORD has poured into them a spirit of dizziness;
they make Egypt stagger in all that she does,
as a drunkard staggers around in his vomit.

¹⁵There is nothing Egypt can do—head or tail, palm branch or reed.

¹⁶In that day the Egyptians will become weaklings. They will shudder with fear at the uplifted hand that the LORD Almighty raises against them. ¹⁷And the land of Judah will bring terror to the Egyptians; everyone to whom Judah is mentioned will be terrified, because of what the LORD Almighty is planning against them.

¹⁸In that day five cities in Egypt will speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD Almighty. One of them will be called the City of the Sun.^[45]

¹⁹In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the heart of Egypt, and a monument to the LORD at its border. ²⁰It will be a sign and witness to the LORD Almighty in the land of Egypt. When they cry out to the LORD because of their oppressors, he will send them a savior and defender, and he will rescue them. ²¹So the LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians, and in that day they will acknowledge the LORD. They will worship with sacrifices and grain offerings; they will make vows to the LORD and keep them. ²²The LORD will strike Egypt with a plague; he will strike them and heal them. They will turn to the LORD, and he will respond to their pleas and heal them.

²³In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. The Assyrians will go to Egypt and the Egyptians to Assyria. The Egyptians and Assyrians will worship together. ²⁴In that day Israel will be the third, along with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing^[46] on the earth. ²⁵The LORD Almighty will bless them, saying, “Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria my handiwork, and Israel my inheritance.”

Isaiah 20

A PROPHECY AGAINST EGYPT AND CUSH

¹In the year that the supreme commander, sent by Sargon king of Assyria, came to Ashdod and attacked and captured it— ²at that time the LORD spoke through Isaiah son of Amoz. He said to him, “Take off the sackcloth from your body and the sandals from your feet.” And he did so, going around stripped and barefoot.

³Then the LORD said, “Just as my servant Isaiah has gone stripped and barefoot for three years, as a sign and portent against Egypt and Cush,^[47] ⁴so the king of Assyria will lead away stripped and barefoot the Egyptian captives and Cushite exiles, young and old, with buttocks bared—to Egypt’s shame. ⁵Those who trusted in Cush and boasted in Egypt will be dismayed and put to shame. ⁶In that day the people who live on this coast will say, ‘See what has happened to those we relied on, those we fled to for help and deliverance from the king of Assyria! How then can we escape?’ ”

Isaiah 21

A PROPHECY AGAINST BABYLON

¹A prophecy against the Desert by the Sea:

Like whirlwinds sweeping through the southland, an invader comes from the desert,
from a land of terror.

²A dire vision has been shown to me:

The traitor betrays, the looter takes loot.
Elam, attack! Media, lay siege!
I will bring to an end all the groaning she caused.

³At this my body is racked with pain, pangs seize me, like those of a woman in labor;
I am staggered by what I hear,
I am bewildered by what I see.

⁴My heart falters,
fear makes me tremble;

the twilight I longed for has become a horror to me.

⁵They set the tables,
they spread the rugs,
they eat, they drink!
Get up, you officers,
oil the shields!

⁶This is what the Lord says to me:

“Go, post a lookout and have him report what he sees.

⁷When he sees chariots with teams of horses, riders on donkeys or riders on camels, let him be alert,

fully alert.”

⁸And the lookout^[48] shouted,

“Day after day, my lord, I stand on the watchtower;
every night I stay at my post.

⁹Look, here comes a man in a chariot with a team of horses.

And he gives back the answer:

‘Babylon has fallen, has fallen!
All the images of its gods lie shattered on the ground!’ ”

¹⁰My people who are crushed on the threshing floor, I tell you what I have heard from the LORD Almighty, from the God of Israel.

A PROPHECY AGAINST EDM

¹¹A prophecy against Dumah^[49]:

Someone calls to me from Seir,
“Watchman, what is left of the night?
Watchman, what is left of the night?”

¹²The watchman replies, “Morning is coming, but also the night.
If you would ask, then ask;
and come back yet again.”

A PROPHECY AGAINST ARABIA

¹³A prophecy against Arabia:

You caravans of Dedanites,
who camp in the thickets of Arabia, ¹⁴bring water for the thirsty;
you who live in Tema,
bring food for the fugitives.

¹⁵They flee from the sword,
from the drawn sword,

from the bent bow
and from the heat of battle.

¹⁶This is what the Lord says to me: “Within one year, as a servant bound by contract would count it, all the splendor of Kedar will come to an end. ¹⁷The survivors of the archers, the warriors of Kedar, will be few.” The LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken.

Isaiah 22

A PROPHECY ABOUT JERUSALEM

¹A prophecy against the Valley of Vision:

What troubles you now,
that you have all gone up on the roofs,

²you town so full of commotion,
you city of tumult and revelry?
Your slain were not killed by the sword,
nor did they die in battle.

³All your leaders have fled together;
they have been captured without using the bow.
All you who were caught were taken prisoner together, having fled while the enemy was still far away.

⁴Therefore I said, "Turn away from me;
let me weep bitterly.
Do not try to console me
over the destruction of my people."

⁵The Lord, the LORD Almighty, has a day of tumult and trampling and terror in the Valley of Vision, a day of battering down walls and of crying out to the mountains.

⁶Elam takes up the quiver, with her charioteers and horses;
Kir uncovers the shield.

⁷Your choicest valleys are full of chariots, and horsemen are posted at the city gates.

⁸The Lord stripped away the defenses of Judah, and you looked in that day to the weapons in the Palace of the Forest.

⁹You saw that the walls of the City of David were broken through in many places;

you stored up water
in the Lower Pool.

¹⁰You counted the buildings in Jerusalem and tore down houses to strengthen the wall.

¹¹You built a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the Old Pool, but you did not look to the One who made it, or have regard for the One who planned it long ago.

¹²The Lord, the LORD Almighty, called you on that day to weep and to wail,
to tear out your hair and put on sackcloth.

¹³But see, there is joy and revelry, slaughtering of cattle and killing of sheep,
eating of meat and drinking of wine!
“Let us eat and drink,” you say,
“for tomorrow we die!”

¹⁴The LORD Almighty has revealed this in my hearing: “Till your dying day this sin will not be atoned for,” says the Lord, the LORD Almighty.

¹⁵This is what the Lord, the LORD Almighty, says:

“Go, say to this steward,
to Shebna the palace administrator:

¹⁶What are you doing here and who gave you permission to cut out a grave for yourself here, hewing your grave on the height and chiseling your resting place in the rock?

¹⁷“Beware, the LORD is about to take firm hold of you and hurl you away, you mighty man.

¹⁸He will roll you up tightly like a ball and throw you into a large country.

There you will die and there the chariots you were so proud of will become a disgrace to your master's house.

¹⁹I will depose you from your office,
and you will be ousted from your position.

²⁰“In that day I will summon my servant, Eliakim son of Hilkiah. ²¹I will clothe him with your robe and fasten your sash around him and hand your authority over to him. He will be a father to those who live in Jerusalem and to the people of Judah. ²²I will place on his shoulder the key to the house of David; what he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open. ²³I will drive him like a peg into a firm place; he will become a seat^[50] of honor for the house of his father. ²⁴All the glory of his family will hang on him: its offspring and offshoots—all its lesser vessels, from the bowls to all the jars.

²⁵“In that day,” declares the LORD Almighty, “the peg driven into the firm place will give way; it will be sheared off and will fall, and the load hanging on it will be cut down.” The LORD has spoken.

UNSHAKEN people — Isaiah

Isaiah 23

A PROPHECY AGAINST TYRE

¹A prophecy against Tyre:

Wail, you ships of Tarshish!

For Tyre is destroyed and left without house or harbor.

From the land of Cyprus word has come to them.

²Be silent, you people of the island and you merchants of Sidon, whom the seafarers have enriched.

³On the great waters came the grain of the Shihor;
the harvest of the Nile^[51] was the revenue of Tyre, and she became the marketplace of the nations.

⁴Be ashamed, Sidon, and you fortress of the sea, for the sea has spoken:
“I have neither been in labor nor given birth;
I have neither reared sons nor brought up daughters.”

⁵When word comes to Egypt,
they will be in anguish at the report from Tyre.

⁶Cross over to Tarshish;
wail, you people of the island.

⁷Is this your city of revelry,
the old, old city,

- whose feet have taken her to settle in far-off lands?
- ⁸Who planned this against Tyre,
the bestower of crowns,
whose merchants are princes,
whose traders are renowned in the earth?
- ⁹The LORD Almighty planned it, to bring down her pride in all her splendor
and to humble all who are renowned on the earth.
- ¹⁰Till^[52] your land as they do along the Nile, Daughter Tarshish,
for you no longer have a harbor.
- ¹¹The LORD has stretched out his hand over the sea and made its kingdoms tremble.
He has given an order concerning Phoenicia that her fortresses be destroyed.
- ¹²He said, “No more of your reveling,
Virgin Daughter Sidon, now crushed!
“Up, cross over to Cyprus;
even there you will find no rest.”
- ¹³Look at the land of the Babylonians,^[53]
this people that is now of no account!

The Assyrians have made it a place for desert creatures;
they raised up their siege towers, they stripped its fortresses bare and turned it into a ruin.

¹⁴Wail, you ships of Tarshish;
your fortress is destroyed!

¹⁵At that time Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, the span of a king's life. But at the end of these seventy years, it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the prostitute:

¹⁶“Take up a harp, walk through the city, you forgotten prostitute; play the harp well, sing many a song,
so that you will be remembered.”

¹⁷At the end of seventy years, the LORD will deal with Tyre. She will return to her lucrative prostitution and will ply her trade with all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. ¹⁸Yet her profit and her earnings will be set apart for the LORD; they will not be stored up or hoarded. Her profits will go to those who live before the LORD, for abundant food and fine clothes.

Isaiah 24

THE LORD'S DEVASTATION OF THE EARTH

¹See, the LORD is going to lay waste the earth and devastate it;

he will ruin its face and scatter its inhabitants—

²it will be the same for priest as for people,
for the master as for his servant,
for the mistress as for her servant,
for seller as for buyer,
for borrower as for lender,
for debtor as for creditor.

³The earth will be completely laid waste and totally plundered.

The LORD has spoken this word.

⁴The earth dries up and withers,
the world languishes and withers,
the heavens languish with the earth.

⁵The earth is defiled by its people;
they have disobeyed the laws, violated the statutes and broken the everlasting covenant.

⁶Therefore a curse consumes the earth;
its people must bear their guilt.
Therefore earth's inhabitants are burned up,
and very few are left.

⁷The new wine dries up and the vine withers; all the merrymakers groan.

⁸The joyful timbrels are stilled, the noise of the revelers has stopped,
the joyful harp is silent.

⁹No longer do they drink wine with a song; the beer is bitter to its drinkers.

¹⁰The ruined city lies desolate;
the entrance to every house is barred.

¹¹In the streets they cry out for wine; all joy turns to gloom, all joyful sounds are banished from the earth.

¹²The city is left in ruins, its gate is battered to pieces.

¹³So will it be on the earth and among the nations,
as when an olive tree is beaten,
or as when gleanings are left after the grape harvest.

¹⁴They raise their voices, they shout for joy; from the west they acclaim the LORD's majesty.

¹⁵Therefore in the east give glory to the LORD; exalt the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, in the islands of the sea.

¹⁶From the ends of the earth we hear singing: "Glory to the Righteous One."

But I said, "I waste away, I waste away!
Woe to me!

The treacherous betray!
With treachery the treacherous betray!"

¹⁷Terror and pit and snare await you, people of the earth.

¹⁸Whoever flees at the sound of terror
will fall into a pit;

whoever climbs out of the pit
will be caught in a snare.

The floodgates of the heavens are opened,
the foundations of the earth shake.

¹⁹The earth is broken up,
the earth is split asunder,
the earth is violently shaken.

²⁰The earth reels like a drunkard,
it sways like a hut in the wind;
so heavy upon it is the guilt of its rebellion that it falls—never to rise again.

²¹In that day the LORD will punish the powers in the heavens above
and the kings on the earth below.

²²They will be herded together like prisoners bound in a dungeon;
they will be shut up in prison and be punished^[54] after many days.

²³The moon will be dismayed, the sun ashamed;
for the LORD Almighty will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before its elders—with great glory.

Isaiah 25

PRAISE TO THE LORD

¹LORD, you are my God;
I will exalt you and praise your name, for in perfect faithfulness

you have done wonderful things, things planned long ago.

²You have made the city a heap of rubble, the fortified town a ruin,
the foreigners' stronghold a city no more;
it will never be rebuilt.

³Therefore strong peoples will honor you; cities of ruthless nations will revere you.

⁴You have been a refuge for the poor,
a refuge for the needy in their distress,

a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat.
For the breath of the ruthless is like a storm driving against a wall ⁵and like the heat of the desert.
You silence the uproar of foreigners;
as heat is reduced by the shadow of a cloud,
so the song of the ruthless is stilled.

⁶On this mountain the LORD Almighty will prepare a feast of rich food for all peoples, a banquet of aged wine—
the best of meats and the finest of wines.

⁷On this mountain he will destroy the shroud that enfolds all peoples,
the sheet that covers all nations;
⁸he will swallow up death forever.
The Sovereign LORD will wipe away the tears from all faces;
he will remove his people's disgrace from all the earth.

The LORD has spoken.

⁹In that day they will say,

“Surely this is our God;
we trusted in him, and he saved us.
This is the LORD, we trusted in him;
let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation.”

¹⁰The hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain; but Moab will be trampled in their land as straw is trampled down in the manure.

¹¹They will stretch out their hands in it, as swimmers stretch out their hands to swim.
God will bring down their pride
despite the cleverness^[55] of their hands.

¹²He will bring down your high fortified walls and lay them
low;

he will bring them down to the ground,
to the very dust.

Isaiah 26

A SONG OF PRAISE

¹In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

We have a strong city;

God makes salvation its walls and ramparts.

²Open the gates that the righteous nation may enter,
the nation that keeps faith.

³You will keep in perfect peace

ROCK SOLID promises

“You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you.”

Isaiah 26:3

If you want to experience peace that calms you to the core, listen to God’s promises until you’re convinced he cares.

\(Rock Solid PROMISES Index\)

those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you.

⁴Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD, the LORD himself, is the Rock eternal.

⁵He humbles those who dwell on high,
he lays the lofty city low;
he levels it to the ground and casts it down to the dust.

⁶Feet trample it down—
the feet of the oppressed,
the footsteps of the poor.

⁷The path of the righteous is level;
you, the Upright One, make the way of the righteous smooth.

⁸Yes, LORD, walking in the way of your laws, [\[56\]](#)
we wait for you;

your name and renown
are the desire of our hearts.

- ⁹My soul yearns for you in the night;
in the morning my spirit longs for you.
When your judgments come upon the earth,
the people of the world learn righteousness.
- ¹⁰But when grace is shown to the wicked, they do not learn righteousness;
even in a land of uprightness they go on doing evil and do not regard the majesty of the LORD.
- ¹¹LORD, your hand is lifted high, but they do not see it.
Let them see your zeal for your people and be put to shame;
let the fire reserved for your enemies consume them.
- ¹²LORD, you establish peace for us; all that we have accomplished you have done for us.
- ¹³LORD our God, other lords besides you have ruled over us, but your name alone do we honor.
- ¹⁴They are now dead, they live no more; their spirits do not rise.
You punished them and brought them to ruin;
you wiped out all memory of them.
- ¹⁵You have enlarged the nation, LORD; you have enlarged the nation.
You have gained glory for yourself;
you have extended all the borders of the land.
- ¹⁶LORD, they came to you in their distress; when you disciplined them,
they could barely whisper a prayer. ^[57]
- ¹⁷As a pregnant woman about to give birth writhes and cries out in her pain,
so were we in your presence, LORD.
- ¹⁸We were with child, we writhed in labor, but we gave birth to wind.
We have not brought salvation to the earth, and the people of the world have not come to life.
- ¹⁹But your dead will live, LORD; their bodies will rise— let those who dwell in the dust wake up and shout for joy—

your dew is like the dew of the morning;
the earth will give birth to her dead.

²⁰Go, my people, enter your rooms and shut the doors behind you; hide yourselves for a little while until his wrath has passed by.

²¹See, the LORD is coming out of his dwelling to punish the people of the earth for their sins.
The earth will disclose the blood shed on it;
the earth will conceal its slain no longer.

Isaiah 27

DELIVERANCE OF ISRAEL

¹In that day,

the LORD will punish with his sword—his fierce, great and powerful sword—Leviathan the gliding serpent, Leviathan the coiling serpent;
he will slay the monster of the sea.

²In that day—

“Sing about a fruitful vineyard:

³I, the LORD, watch over it; I water it continually.
I guard it day and night
so that no one may harm it.

⁴I am not angry.
If only there were briars and thorns confronting me!
I would march against them in battle;
I would set them all on fire.

⁵Or else let them come to me for refuge; let them make peace with me,
yes, let them make peace with me.”

⁶In days to come Jacob will take root, Israel will bud and blossom and fill all the world with fruit.

⁷Has the LORD struck her as he struck down those who struck her?

Has she been killed
as those were killed who killed her?
⁸By warfare^[58] and exile you contend with her— with his fierce blast he drives her out,
as on a day the east wind blows.
⁹By this, then, will Jacob's guilt be atoned for, and this will be the full fruit of the removal of his sin:
When he makes all the altar stones to be like limestone crushed to pieces, no Asherah poles^[59] or incense altars will be left standing.
¹⁰The fortified city stands desolate, an abandoned settlement, forsaken like the wilderness;
there the calves graze,
there they lie down;
they strip its branches bare.
¹¹When its twigs are dry, they are broken off and women come and make fires with them.
For this is a people without understanding;
so their Maker has no compassion on them,
and their Creator shows them no favor.

¹²In that day the LORD will thresh from the flowing Euphrates to the Wadi of Egypt, and you, Israel, will be gathered up one by one. ¹³And in that day a great trumpet will sound. Those who were perishing in Assyria and those who were exiled in Egypt will come and worship the LORD on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 28

WOE TO THE LEADERS OF EPHRAIM AND JUDAH

- ¹Woe to that wreath, the pride of Ephraim's drunkards, to the fading flower, his glorious beauty, set on the head of a fertile valley—
to that city, the pride of those laid low by wine!
- ²See, the Lord has one who is powerful and strong,
Like a hailstorm and a destructive wind,
like a driving rain and a flooding downpour,
he will throw it forcefully to the ground.
- ³That wreath, the pride of Ephraim's drunkards, will be trampled underfoot.
- ⁴That fading flower, his glorious beauty, set on the head of a fertile valley,
will be like figs ripe before harvest—
as soon as people see them and take them in hand, they swallow them.
- ⁵In that day the LORD Almighty will be a glorious crown, a beautiful wreath

for the remnant of his people.
⁶He will be a spirit of justice to the one who sits in judgment,

a source of strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

⁷And these also stagger from wine and reel from beer:
Priests and prophets stagger from beer and are befuddled with wine;
they reel from beer,
they stagger when seeing visions,
they stumble when rendering decisions.

⁸All the tables are covered with vomit and there is not a spot without filth.

⁹“Who is it he is trying to teach?
To whom is he explaining his message?
To children weaned from their milk,
to those just taken from the breast?

¹⁰For it is:
Do this, do that,
a rule for this, a rule for that^[60]; a little here, a little there.”

¹¹Very well then, with foreign lips and strange tongues God will speak to this people,

¹²to whom he said,
“This is the resting place, let the weary rest”;
and, “This is the place of repose”—
but they would not listen.

¹³So then, the word of the LORD to them will become: Do this, do that,
a rule for this, a rule for that;
a little here, a little there—
so that as they go they will fall backward;
they will be injured and snared and captured.

¹⁴Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scoffers who rule this people in Jerusalem.

¹⁵You boast, “We have entered into a covenant with death, with the realm of the dead we have made an agreement.

When an overwhelming scourge sweeps by,
it cannot touch us,

for we have made a lie our refuge and falsehood^[61] our hiding place.”

¹⁶So this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“See, I lay a stone in Zion, a tested stone,
a precious cornerstone for a sure foundation;
the one who relies on it will never be stricken with panic.

¹⁷I will make justice the measuring line and righteousness the plumb line;
hail will sweep away your refuge, the lie,
and water will overflow your hiding place.

¹⁸Your covenant with death will be annulled; your agreement with the realm of the dead will not stand.

When the overwhelming scourge sweeps by,
you will be beaten down by it.

¹⁹As often as it comes it will carry you away; morning after morning, by day and by night,
it will sweep through.”

- The understanding of this message will bring sheer terror.
- ²⁰The bed is too short to stretch out on, the blanket too narrow to wrap around you.
- ²¹The LORD will rise up as he did at Mount Perazim, he will rouse himself as in the Valley of Gibeon— to do his work, his strange work, and perform his task, his alien task.
- ²²Now stop your mocking,
or your chains will become heavier;
the Lord, the LORD Almighty, has told me of the destruction decreed against the whole land.
- ²³Listen and hear my voice;
pay attention and hear what I say.
- ²⁴When a farmer plows for planting, does he plow continually?
Does he keep on breaking up and working the soil?
- ²⁵When he has leveled the surface, does he not sow caraway and scatter cumin?
Does he not plant wheat in its place, ^[62] barley in its plot, ^[63]
and spelt in its field?
- ²⁶His God instructs him and teaches him the right way.
- ²⁷Caraway is not threshed with a sledge, nor is the wheel of a cart rolled over cumin;
caraway is beaten out with a rod,
and cumin with a stick.
- ²⁸Grain must be ground to make bread; so one does not go on threshing it
forever.
The wheels of a threshing cart may be rolled over it,
but one does not use horses to grind grain.
- ²⁹All this also comes from the LORD Almighty, whose plan is wonderful, whose wisdom is magnificent.

Isaiah 29

WOE TO DAVID'S CITY

¹Woe to you, Ariel, Ariel,
the city where David settled!

Add year to year
and let your cycle of festivals go on.

²Yet I will besiege Ariel;
she will mourn and lament,
she will be to me like an altar hearth.^[64]

³I will encamp against you on all sides; I will encircle you with towers
and set up my siege works against you.

⁴Brought low, you will speak from the ground; your speech will mumble out of the dust.
Your voice will come ghostlike from the earth;
out of the dust your speech will whisper.

⁵But your many enemies will become like fine dust, the ruthless hordes like blown chaff.
Suddenly, in an instant, ⁶the LORD Almighty will come with thunder and earthquake and great noise, with windstorm and tempest and flames of a devouring fire.

⁷Then the hordes of all the nations that fight against Ariel, that attack her and her fortress and besiege her,
will be as it is with a dream,
with a vision in the night—

⁸as when a hungry person dreams of eating, but awakens hungry still;
as when a thirsty person dreams of drinking,
but awakens faint and thirsty still.
So will it be with the hordes of all the nations that fight against Mount Zion.

⁹Be stunned and amazed,
blind yourselves and be sightless;
be drunk, but not from wine,
stagger, but not from beer.

¹⁰The LORD has brought over you a deep sleep: He has sealed your eyes (the prophets);
he has covered your heads (the seers).

¹¹For you this whole vision is nothing but words sealed in a scroll. And if you give the scroll to someone who can read, and say, “Read this, please,” they will answer, “I can’t; it is sealed.” ¹²Or if you give the scroll to someone who cannot read, and say, “Read this, please,” they will answer, “I don’t know how to read.”

¹³The Lord says:

“These people come near to me with their mouth and honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

Their worship of me is based on merely human rules they have been taught.^[65]

¹⁴Therefore once more I will astound these people with wonder upon wonder;
the wisdom of the wise will perish,
the intelligence of the intelligent will vanish.”

¹⁵Woe to those who go to great depths to hide their plans from the LORD,
who do their work in darkness and think,
“Who sees us? Who will know?”

¹⁶You turn things upside down, as if the potter were thought to be like the clay!
Shall what is formed say to the one who formed it,
“You did not make me”?
Can the pot say to the potter,
“You know nothing”?

¹⁷In a very short time, will not Lebanon be turned into a fertile field and the fertile field seem like a forest?

¹⁸In that day the deaf will hear the words of the scroll, and out of gloom and darkness
the eyes of the blind will see.

¹⁹Once more the humble will rejoice in the LORD; the needy will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

²⁰The ruthless will vanish,
the mockers will disappear,
and all who have an eye for evil will be cut down—

²¹those who with a word make someone out to be guilty, who ensnare the defender in court and with false testimony deprive the innocent of justice.

²²Therefore this is what the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, says to the descendants of Jacob:

“No longer will Jacob be ashamed;
no longer will their faces grow pale.

²³When they see among them their children, the work of my hands, they will keep my name holy;

they will acknowledge the holiness of the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

²⁴Those who are wayward in spirit will gain understanding; those who complain will accept instruction.”

Isaiah 30

WOE TO THE OBSTINATE NATION

¹“Woe to the obstinate children,”
declares the LORD,
“to those who carry out plans that are not mine, forming an alliance, but not by my Spirit,
heaping sin upon sin;
²who go down to Egypt
without consulting me;
who look for help to Pharaoh’s protection,
to Egypt’s shade for refuge.
³But Pharaoh’s protection will be to your shame, Egypt’s shade will bring you disgrace.
⁴Though they have officials in Zoan and their envoys have arrived in Hanes, ⁵everyone will be put to shame
because of a people useless to them, who bring neither help nor advantage,
but only shame and disgrace.”

⁶A prophecy concerning the animals of the Negev:
Through a land of hardship and distress,
of lions and lionesses,
of adders and darting snakes,
the envoys carry their riches on donkeys’ backs,
their treasures on the humps of camels,
to that unprofitable nation,
⁷to Egypt, whose help is utterly useless.

Therefore I call her Rahab the Do-Nothing.

⁸Go now, write it on a tablet for them, inscribe it on a scroll, that for the days to come
it may be an everlasting witness.

⁹For these are rebellious people, deceitful children, children unwilling to listen to the LORD's instruction.

¹⁰They say to the seers,
"See no more visions!"
and to the prophets,
"Give us no more visions of what is right!
Tell us pleasant things, prophesy illusions.

¹¹Leave this way,
get off this path,

and stop confronting us with the Holy One of Israel!”

¹²Therefore this is what the Holy One of Israel says:
“Because you have rejected this message, relied on oppression

and depended on deceit,

¹³this sin will become for you like a high wall, cracked and bulging, that collapses suddenly, in an instant.

¹⁴It will break in pieces like pottery, shattered so mercilessly that among its pieces not a fragment will be found for taking coals from a hearth or scooping water out of a cistern.”

¹⁵This is what the Sovereign LORD, the Holy One of Israel, says:

“In repentance and rest is your salvation, in quietness and trust is your strength,
but you would have none of it.

¹⁶You said, ‘No, we will flee on horses.’
Therefore you will flee!
You said, ‘We will ride off on swift horses.’
Therefore your pursuers will be swift!

¹⁷A thousand will flee at the threat of one;

at the threat of five
you will all flee away,

till you are left like a flagstaff on a mountaintop, like a banner on a hill.”

¹⁸Yet the LORD longs to be gracious to you; therefore he will rise up to show you compassion.

For the LORD is a God of justice.

Blessed are all who wait for him!

¹⁹People of Zion, who live in Jerusalem, you will weep no more. How gracious he will be when you cry for help! As soon as he hears, he will answer you. ²⁰Although the Lord gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, your teachers will be hidden no more; with your own eyes you will see them. ²¹Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, “This is the way; walk in it.” ²²Then you will desecrate your idols overlaid with silver and your images covered with gold; you will throw them away like a menstrual cloth and say to them, “Away with
you!”

²³He will also send you rain for the seed you sow in the ground, and the food that comes from the land will be rich and plentiful. In that day your cattle will graze in broad meadows. ²⁴The oxen and donkeys that work the soil will eat fodder and mash, spread out with fork and shovel. ²⁵In the day of great slaughter, when the towers fall, streams of water will flow on every high mountain and every lofty hill. ²⁶The moon will shine like the sun, and the sunlight will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven full days, when the LORD binds up the bruises of his people and heals the wounds he inflicted.

²⁷See, the Name of the LORD comes from afar, with burning anger and dense clouds of smoke;
his lips are full of wrath,
and his tongue is a consuming fire.

²⁸His breath is like a rushing torrent, rising up to the neck.
He shakes the nations in the sieve of destruction;
he places in the jaws of the peoples
a bit that leads them astray.

²⁹And you will sing
as on the night you celebrate a holy festival;

your hearts will rejoice
as when people playing pipes go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the Rock of Israel.

³⁰The LORD will cause people to hear his majestic voice and will make them see his arm coming down with raging anger and consuming fire, with cloudburst, thunderstorm and hail.

³¹The voice of the LORD will shatter Assyria; with his rod he will strike them down.

³²Every stroke the LORD lays on them with his punishing club
will be to the music of timbrels and harps, as he fights them in battle with the blows of his arm.

³³Topheth has long been prepared;
it has been made ready for the king.
Its fire pit has been made deep and wide,
with an abundance of fire and wood;
the breath of the LORD,
like a stream of burning sulfur,
sets it ablaze.

ROCK SOLID plans

Isaiah 30:21

Listen for God to speak.

Moses heard God speak from a burning bush (see Exodus 3:4). The little boy Samuel listened to God calling in the night (see 1 Samuel 3:10). And prophets throughout the Bible relayed God's words in speeches, songs, and letters. Christians today debate whether God still speaks out loud, but the Lord nevertheless promises you will hear him. Listen for him whenever you open the Bible, or hear a sermon at church, or chat with Christian friends—wherever you hear his truth. When you wonder where to go, God will make sure you hear him say, "This is the way; walk in it."

Your next step: Ask God to help you hear him leading you.

Isaiah 31

WOE TO THOSE WHO RELY ON EGYPT

¹Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, who rely on horses, who trust in the multitude of their chariots and in the great strength of their horsemen, but do not look to the Holy One of Israel,
or seek help from the LORD.

²Yet he too is wise and can bring disaster; he does not take back his words.
He will rise up against that wicked nation, against those who help evildoers.

³But the Egyptians are mere mortals and not God; their horses are flesh and not spirit.
When the LORD stretches out his hand,
those who help will stumble,
those who are helped will fall;
all will perish together.

⁴This is what the LORD says to me:

“As a lion growls,
a great lion over its prey—and though a whole band of shepherds is called together against it, it is not frightened by their shouts or disturbed by their clamor—so the LORD Almighty will come down to do battle on Mount Zion and on its heights.

⁵Like birds hovering overhead,
the LORD Almighty will shield Jerusalem;
he will shield it and deliver it,
he will ‘pass over’ it and will rescue it.”

⁶Return, you Israelites, to the One you have so greatly revolted against. ⁷For in that day every one of you will reject the idols of silver and gold your sinful hands have made.

⁸“Assyria will fall by no human sword; a sword, not of mortals, will devour them.

They will flee before the sword and their young men will be put to forced labor.

⁹Their stronghold will fall because of terror; at the sight of the battle standard their commanders will panic,”
declares the LORD,
whose fire is in Zion,
whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 32

THE KINGDOM OF RIGHTEOUSNESS

- ¹See, a king will reign in righteousness and rulers will rule with justice.
- ²Each one will be like a shelter from the wind and a refuge from the storm,
like streams of water in the desert and the shadow of a great rock in a thirsty land.
- ³Then the eyes of those who see will no longer be closed, and the ears of those who hear will listen.
- ⁴The fearful heart will know and understand, and the stammering tongue will be fluent and clear.
- ⁵No longer will the fool be called noble nor the scoundrel be highly respected.
- ⁶For fools speak folly,
their hearts are bent on evil:

They practice ungodliness and spread error concerning the LORD;

the hungry they leave empty and from the thirsty they withhold water.

⁷Scoundrels use wicked methods,

they make up evil schemes to destroy the poor with lies, even when the plea of the needy is just.
⁸But the noble make noble plans, and by noble deeds they stand.

THE WOMEN OF JERUSALEM

⁹You women who are so complacent, rise up and listen to me;
you daughters who feel secure,
hear what I have to say!

¹⁰In little more than a year
you who feel secure will tremble;
the grape harvest will fail,
and the harvest of fruit will not come.

¹¹Tremble, you complacent women;
shudder, you daughters who feel secure!

Strip off your fine clothes and wrap yourselves in rags.
¹²Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vines ¹³and for the land of my people, a land overgrown with thorns and briars—yes, mourn for all houses of merriment and for this city of revelry.
¹⁴The fortress will be abandoned,
the noisy city deserted;
citadel and watchtower will become a wasteland
forever,
the delight of donkeys, a pasture for flocks, ¹⁵till the Spirit is poured on us from on high, and the desert becomes a fertile field,
and the fertile field seems like a forest.
¹⁶The LORD's justice will dwell in the desert, his righteousness live in the fertile field.
¹⁷The fruit of that righteousness will be peace; its effect will be quietness and confidence forever.
¹⁸My people will live in peaceful dwelling places, in secure homes,
in undisturbed places of rest.
¹⁹Though hail flattens the forest and the city is leveled completely, ²⁰how blessed you will be,
sowing your seed by every stream,
and letting your cattle and donkeys range free.

ROCK SOLID truths

Isaiah 32:15–20

Doing right brings good results.

Isaiah doesn't hold back the harsh words God told him to speak. He calls the women of Jerusalem "complacent" and "secure" but says they should "shudder" and put on ugly "rags" (Isaiah 32:9–11). These women were content with their cozy lives, but their happy world was about to be shattered. Their lives won't be right again until God shows up and pours out his Spirit. When the Lord comes, evil will no longer rule the land. His justice will reach even the desert. And get this: The effect of righteousness "will be quietness and confidence forever" (Isaiah 32:17). Those ancient women loved their lives of comfort, but true life only comes when we obey God's commands. The Lord is the real source of everything we really want—peace, security and blessing.

Think: How does obeying God bring you good results?

Isaiah 33

DISTRESS AND HELP

- ¹Woe to you, destroyer,
you who have not been destroyed!
Woe to you, betrayer,
you who have not been betrayed!
When you stop destroying,
you will be destroyed;
when you stop betraying,
you will be betrayed.
- ²LORD, be gracious to us; we long for you.
Be our strength every morning,
our salvation in time of distress.
- ³At the uproar of your army, the peoples flee; when you rise up, the nations scatter.
- ⁴Your plunder, O nations, is harvested as by young locusts;
like a swarm of locusts people pounce on it.
- ⁵The LORD is exalted, for he dwells on high; he will fill Zion with his justice and righteousness.
- ⁶He will be the sure foundation for your times, a rich store of salvation and wisdom and knowledge;
the fear of the LORD is the key to this treasure. ^[66]
- ⁷Look, their brave men cry aloud in the streets; the envoys of peace weep bitterly.
- ⁸The highways are deserted,
no travelers are on the roads.
The treaty is broken,
its witnesses ^[67] are despised, no one is respected.
- ⁹The land dries up and wastes away, Lebanon is ashamed and withers;
Sharon is like the Arabah,
and Bashan and Carmel drop their leaves.
- ¹⁰“Now will I arise,” says the LORD.
“Now will I be exalted;
now will I be lifted up.
- ¹¹You conceive chaff,
you give birth to straw;
your breath is a fire that consumes you.

¹²The peoples will be burned to ashes; like cut thornbushes they will be set ablaze.”

¹³You who are far away, hear what I have done; you who are near, acknowledge my power!

¹⁴The sinners in Zion are terrified; trembling grips the godless:

“Who of us can dwell with the consuming fire?
Who of us can dwell with everlasting burning?”

¹⁵Those who walk righteously and speak what is right,

- who reject gain from extortion and keep their hands from accepting bribes, who stop their ears against plots of murder and shut their eyes against contemplating evil—
- ¹⁶they are the ones who will dwell on the heights, whose refuge will be the mountain fortress.
Their bread will be supplied,
and water will not fail them.
- ¹⁷Your eyes will see the king in his beauty and view a land that stretches afar.
- ¹⁸In your thoughts you will ponder the former terror: “Where is that chief officer?
Where is the one who took the revenue?
Where is the officer in charge of the towers?”
- ¹⁹You will see those arrogant people no more, people whose speech is obscure,
whose language is strange and incomprehensible.
- ²⁰Look on Zion, the city of our festivals; your eyes will see Jerusalem,
a peaceful abode, a tent that will not be moved;
its stakes will never be pulled up,
nor any of its ropes broken.
- ²¹There the LORD will be our Mighty One.
It will be like a place of broad rivers and streams.
No galley with oars will ride them,
no mighty ship will sail them.
- ²²For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king;
it is he who will save us.
- ²³Your rigging hangs loose:
The mast is not held secure,
the sail is not spread.
Then an abundance of spoils will be divided and even the lame will carry off plunder.
- ²⁴No one living in Zion will say, “I am ill”; and the sins of those who dwell there will be forgiven.

Isaiah 34

JUDGMENT AGAINST THE NATIONS

- ¹Come near, you nations, and listen; pay attention, you peoples!
Let the earth hear, and all that is in it,
the world, and all that comes out of it!
- ²The LORD is angry with all nations; his wrath is on all their armies.
He will totally destroy^[68] them, he will give them over to slaughter.
- ³Their slain will be thrown out, their dead bodies will stink;
the mountains will be soaked with their blood.
- ⁴All the stars in the sky will be dissolved and the heavens rolled up like a scroll;
all the starry host will fall like withered leaves from the vine, like shriveled figs from the fig tree.
- ⁵My sword has drunk its fill in the heavens; see, it descends in judgment on Edom, the people I have totally destroyed.
- ⁶The sword of the LORD is bathed in blood, it is covered with fat— the blood of lambs and goats, fat from the kidneys of rams.
For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
- ⁷And the wild oxen will fall with them, the bull calves and the great bulls.
Their land will be drenched with blood, and the dust will be soaked with fat.
- ⁸For the LORD has a day of vengeance, a year of retribution, to uphold Zion's cause.
- ⁹Edom's streams will be turned into pitch, her dust into burning sulfur;
her land will become blazing pitch!
- ¹⁰It will not be quenched night or day; its smoke will rise forever.
From generation to generation it will lie desolate;

no one will ever pass through it again.
11The desert owl^[69] and screech owl^[70] will possess it; the great owl^[71] and the raven will nest there.
God will stretch out over Edom

the measuring line of chaos and the plumb line of desolation.

¹²Her nobles will have nothing there to be called a kingdom, all her princes will vanish away.

¹³Thorns will overrun her citadels, nettles and brambles her strongholds.

She will become a haunt for jackals,
a home for owls.

¹⁴Desert creatures will meet with hyenas, and wild goats will bleat to each other;
there the night creatures will also lie down and find for themselves places of rest.

¹⁵The owl will nest there and lay eggs, she will hatch them, and care for her young under the shadow of her wings;
there also the falcons will gather,
each with its mate.

¹⁶Look in the scroll of the LORD and read:

None of these will be missing,
not one will lack her mate.

For it is his mouth that has given the order, and his Spirit will gather them together.

¹⁷He allots their portions;
his hand distributes them by measure.

They will possess it forever and dwell there from generation to generation.

Isaiah 35

JOY OF THE REDEEMED

¹The desert and the parched land will be glad; the wilderness will rejoice and blossom.

Like the crocus, ²it will burst into bloom; it will rejoice greatly and shout for joy.

The glory of Lebanon will be given to it,
the splendor of Carmel and Sharon;
they will see the glory of the LORD,
the splendor of our God.

³Strengthen the feeble hands, steady the knees that give way;

⁴say to those with fearful hearts, "Be strong, do not fear;
your God will come,
he will come with vengeance;

with divine retribution
he will come to save you.”

⁵Then will the eyes of the blind be opened and the ears of the deaf unstopped.

⁶Then will the lame leap like a deer, and the mute tongue shout for joy.

Water will gush forth in the wilderness and streams in the desert.

⁷The burning sand will become a pool, the thirsty ground bubbling springs.

In the haunts where jackals once lay,
grass and reeds and papyrus will grow.

⁸And a highway will be there;
it will be called the Way of Holiness;
it will be for those who walk on that Way.

The unclean will not journey on it;
wicked fools will not go about on it.

⁹No lion will be there,
nor any ravenous beast;
they will not be found there.

But only the redeemed will walk there,

¹⁰and those the LORD has rescued will return.

They will enter Zion with singing;
everlasting joy will crown their heads.

Gladness and joy will overtake them,
and sorrow and sighing will flee away.

Isaiah 36

SENNACHERIB THREATENS JERUSALEM

¹In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah's reign, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them. ²Then the king of Assyria sent his field commander with a large army from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. When the commander stopped at the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Launderer's Field, ³Eliakim son of Hilkiyah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went out to him.

⁴The field commander said to them, "Tell Hezekiah:

" 'This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: On what are you basing this confidence of yours? ⁵You say you have counsel and might for war—but you speak only empty words. On whom are you depending, that you rebel against me? ⁶Look, I know you are depending on Egypt, that splintered reed of a staff, which pierces the hand of anyone who leans on it! Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who depend on him. ⁷But if you say to me, "We are depending on the LORD our God"—isn't he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah removed, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, "You must worship before this altar"?"

⁸" 'Come now, make a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses—if you can put riders on them! ⁹How then can you repulse one officer of the least of my master's officials, even though you are depending on Egypt for chariots and horsemen^[72]? ¹⁰Furthermore, have I come to attack and destroy this land without the LORD? The LORD himself told me to march against this country and destroy it.' "

¹¹Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to the field commander, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it. Don't speak to us in Hebrew in the hearing of the people on the wall."

¹²But the commander replied, "Was it only to your master and you that my master sent me to say these things, and not to the people sitting on the wall—who, like you, will have to eat their own excrement and drink their own urine?"

¹³Then the commander stood and called out in Hebrew, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! ¹⁴This is what the king says: Do not let Hezekiah deceive you. He cannot deliver you! ¹⁵Do not let Hezekiah persuade you to trust in the LORD when he says, ‘The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.’

¹⁶“Do not listen to Hezekiah. This is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me and come out to me. Then each of you will eat fruit from your own vine and fig tree and drink water from your own cistern, ¹⁷until I come and take you to a land like your own—a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

¹⁸“Do not let Hezekiah mislead you when he says, ‘The LORD will deliver us.’ Have the gods of any nations ever delivered their lands from the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they rescued Samaria from my hand? ²⁰Who of all the gods of these countries have been able to save their lands from me? How then can the LORD deliver Jerusalem from my hand?”

²¹But the people remained silent and said nothing in reply, because the king had commanded, “Do not answer him.”

²²Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went to Hezekiah, with their clothes torn, and told him what the field commander had said.

Isaiah 37

JERUSALEM'S DELIVERANCE FORETOLD

⁵When King Hezekiah's officials came to Isaiah, ⁶Isaiah said to them, “Tell your master, ‘This is what the LORD says: Do not be afraid of what you have heard—those words with which the underlings of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. ⁷Listen! When he hears a certain report, I will make him want to return to his own country, and there I will have him cut down with the sword.’ ”

⁹Now Sennacherib received a report that Tirhakah, the king of Cush,^[73] was marching out to fight against him. When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah with this word: ¹⁰“Say to Hezekiah king of Judah: Do not let the god you depend on deceive you when he says, ‘Jerusalem will not be given into the hands of the king of Assyria.’ ¹¹Surely you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the countries, destroying them completely. And will you be delivered? ¹²Did the gods of the nations that were destroyed by my predecessors deliver them—the gods of Gozan, Harran, Rezep and the people of Eden who were in Tel Assar? ¹³Where is the king of Hamath or the king of Arpad? Where are the kings of Lair, Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivvah?”

HEZEKIAH'S PRAYER

¹⁴Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the temple of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD. ¹⁵And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD: ¹⁶“LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, enthroned between the cherubim, you alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. ¹⁷Give ear, LORD, and hear; open your eyes, LORD, and see; listen to all the words Sennacherib has sent to ridicule the living God.

¹⁸“It is true, LORD, that the Assyrian kings have laid waste all these peoples and their lands. ¹⁹They have thrown their gods into the fire and destroyed them, for they were not gods but only wood and stone, fashioned by human hands. ²⁰Now, LORD our God, deliver us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, LORD, are the only God.^[74]”

UNSHAKEN people — Hezekiah

SENNACHERIB’S FALL

²¹Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah: “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, ²²this is the word the LORD has spoken against him:

“Virgin Daughter Zion
despises and mocks you.

Daughter Jerusalem
tosses her head as you flee.

²³Who is it you have ridiculed and blasphemed?
Against whom have you raised your voice
and lifted your eyes in pride?
Against the Holy One of Israel!

²⁴By your messengers
you have ridiculed the Lord.
And you have said,
‘With my many chariots
I have ascended the heights of the mountains,
the utmost heights of Lebanon.
I have cut down its tallest cedars,
the choicest of its junipers.
I have reached its remotest heights,
the finest of its forests.

²⁵I have dug wells in foreign lands^[75]
and drunk the water there.
With the soles of my feet
I have dried up all the streams of Egypt.’

²⁶“Have you not heard?
Long ago I ordained it.
In days of old I planned it;
now I have brought it to pass,
that you have turned fortified cities
into piles of stone.

²⁷Their people, drained of power,
are dismayed and put to shame.
They are like plants in the field,
like tender green shoots,
like grass sprouting on the roof,
scorched^[76] before it grows up.

²⁸“But I know where you are
and when you come and go
and how you rage against me.

²⁹Because you rage against me
and because your insolence has reached my ears,
I will put my hook in your nose
and my bit in your mouth,
and I will make you return
by the way you came.

³⁰“This will be the sign for you, Hezekiah:

“This year you will eat what grows by itself,
and the second year what springs from that.
But in the third year sow and reap,
plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

³¹Once more a remnant of the kingdom of Judah will take root below and bear fruit above.

³²For out of Jerusalem will come a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors.
The zeal of the LORD Almighty
will accomplish this.

³³“Therefore this is what the LORD says concerning the king of Assyria:

“He will not enter this city
or shoot an arrow here.
He will not come before it with shield
or build a siege ramp against it.

³⁴By the way that he came he will return; he will not enter this city,”
declares the LORD.

³⁵“I will defend this city and save it, for my sake and for the sake of David my servant!”

³⁶Then the angel of the LORD went out and put to death a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up the next morning —there were all the dead bodies! ³⁷So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and withdrew. He returned to Nineveh and stayed there.

³⁸One day, while he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisrok, his sons Adrammelek and Sharezer killed him with the sword, and they escaped to the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son succeeded him as king.

Isaiah 38

HEZEKIAH'S ILLNESS

¹In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to him and said, "This is what the LORD says: Put your house in order, because you are going to die; you will not recover."

⁴Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah: ⁵"Go and tell Hezekiah, 'This is what the LORD, the God of your father David, says: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears; I will add fifteen years to your life. ⁶And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city.

⁷" 'This is the LORD's sign to you that the LORD will do what he has promised: ⁸I will make the shadow cast by the sun go back the ten steps it has gone down on the stairway of Ahaz.' " So the sunlight went back the ten steps it had gone down.

⁹A writing of Hezekiah king of Judah after his illness and recovery:

¹⁰I said, "In the prime of my life must I go through the gates of death and be robbed of the rest of my years?"

¹¹I said, "I will not again see the LORD himself in the land of the living; no longer will I look on my fellow man, or be with those who now dwell in this world.

¹²Like a shepherd's tent my house has been pulled down and taken from me. Like a weaver I have rolled up my life, and he has cut me off from the loom; day and night you made an end of me.

¹³I waited patiently till dawn, but like a lion he broke all my bones; day and night you made an end of me.

¹⁴I cried like a swift or thrush, I moaned like a mourning dove. My eyes grew weak as I looked to the heavens.

I am being threatened; Lord, come to my aid!”

¹⁵But what can I say?

He has spoken to me, and he himself has done this.

I will walk humbly all my years because of this anguish of my soul.

¹⁶Lord, by such things people live; and my spirit finds life in them too.

You restored me to health and let me live.

¹⁷Surely it was for my benefit

“You have put all my sins behind your back.”

Isaiah 38:17

When you confess your sins, God disposes of them and won't dig them up.

\(Rock Solid PROMISES Index\)

that I suffered such anguish.
In your love you kept me from the pit of destruction;
you have put all my sins behind your back.

¹⁸For the grave cannot praise you, death cannot sing your praise;
those who go down to the pit cannot hope for your faithfulness.

¹⁹The living, the living—they praise you, as I am doing today;

parents tell their children about your faithfulness.

²⁰The LORD will save me, and we will sing with stringed instruments
all the days of our lives in the temple of the LORD.

²¹Isaiah had said, “Prepare a poultice of figs and apply it to the boil, and he will recover.”

²²Hezekiah had asked, “What will be the sign that I will go up to the temple of the LORD?”

Isaiah 39

ENVOYS FROM BABYLON

¹At that time Marduk-Baladan son of Baladan king of Babylon sent Hezekiah letters and a gift, because he had heard of his illness and recovery. ²Hezekiah received the envoys gladly and showed them what was in his storehouses—the silver, the gold, the spices, the fine olive oil—his entire armory and everything found among his treasures. There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.

³Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked, “What did those men say, and where did they come from?”

“From a distant land,” Hezekiah replied. “They came to me from Babylon.”

⁴The prophet asked, “What did they see in your palace?”

⁵Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD Almighty: ⁶The time will surely come when everything in your palace, and all that your predecessors have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the LORD. ⁷And some of your descendants, your own flesh and blood who will be born to you, will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

⁸“The word of the LORD you have spoken is good,” Hezekiah replied. For he thought, “There will be peace and security in my lifetime.”

Isaiah 40

COMFORT FOR GOD'S PEOPLE

¹Comfort, comfort my people, says your God.

²Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her that her hard service has been completed, that her sin has been paid for,

that she has received from the LORD's hand double for all her sins.

³A voice of one calling:

“In the wilderness prepare the way for the LORD^[77]; make straight in the desert a highway for our God.^[78]”

⁴Every valley shall be raised up, every mountain and hill made low;
the rough ground shall become level,
the rugged places a plain.

⁵And the glory of the LORD will be revealed, and all people will see it together.

⁶A voice says, “Cry out.”

And I said, “What shall I cry?”

“All people are like grass, and all their faithfulness is like the flowers of the field.

⁷The grass withers and the flowers fall, because the breath of the LORD blows on them.

Surely the people are grass.

⁸The grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of our God endures forever.”

⁹You who bring good news to Zion, go up on a high mountain.

You who bring good news to Jerusalem,^[79] lift up your voice with a shout, lift it up, do not be afraid;

say to the towns of Judah,

“Here is your God!”

¹⁰See, the Sovereign LORD comes with power, and he rules with a mighty arm.

See, his reward is with him,

and his recompense accompanies him.

¹¹He tends his flock like a shepherd: He gathers the lambs in his arms

and carries them close to his heart;
he gently leads those that have young.

¹²Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, or with the breadth of his hand marked off the heavens?

Who has held the dust of the earth in a basket, or weighed the mountains on the scales and the hills in a balance?

¹³Who can fathom the Spirit^[80] of the LORD, or instruct the LORD as his counselor?

¹⁴Whom did the LORD consult to enlighten him, and who taught him the right way?

Who was it that taught him knowledge, or showed him the path of understanding?

¹⁵Surely the nations are like a drop in a bucket; they are regarded as dust on the scales;
he weighs the islands as though they were fine dust.

¹⁶Lebanon is not sufficient for altar fires, nor its animals enough for burnt offerings.

¹⁷Before him all the nations are as nothing; they are regarded by him as worthless and less than nothing.

¹⁸With whom, then, will you compare God?
To what image will you liken him?

¹⁹As for an idol, a metalworker casts it, and a goldsmith overlays it with gold and fashions silver chains for it.

²⁰A person too poor to present such an offering selects wood that will not rot;
they look for a skilled worker to set up an idol that will not topple.

²¹Do you not know?
Have you not heard?
Has it not been told you from the beginning?
Have you not understood since the earth was founded?

²²He sits enthroned above the circle of the earth, and its people are like grasshoppers.

He stretches out the heavens like a canopy, and spreads them out like a tent to live in.

²³He brings princes to naught and reduces the rulers of this world to nothing.

²⁴No sooner are they planted, no sooner are they sown,
no sooner do they take root in the ground,
than he blows on them and they wither,
and a whirlwind sweeps them away like chaff.

²⁵“To whom will you compare me?
Or who is my equal?” says the Holy One.

²⁶Lift up your eyes and look to the heavens: Who created all these?

He who brings out the starry host one by one and calls forth each of them by name.
Because of his great power and mighty strength,
not one of them is missing.

²⁷Why do you complain, Jacob?
Why do you say, Israel,
“My way is hidden from the LORD;
my cause is disregarded by my God”?

²⁸Do you not know?
Have you not heard?
The LORD is the everlasting God,
the Creator of the ends of the earth.
He will not grow tired or weary,
and his understanding no one can fathom.

²⁹He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak.

³⁰Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall;

³¹but those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength.

They will soar on wings like eagles;
they will run and not grow weary,
they will walk and not be faint.

Isaiah 41

THE HELPER OF ISRAEL

- ¹“Be silent before me, you islands!
Let the nations renew their strength!
Let them come forward and speak;
let us meet together at the place of judgment.
- ²“Who has stirred up one from the east, calling him in righteousness to his service^[81]?
He hands nations over to him and subdues kings before him.
He turns them to dust with his sword, to windblown chaff with his bow.
- ³He pursues them and moves on unscathed, by a path his feet have not traveled before.
- ⁴Who has done this and carried it through, calling forth the generations from the beginning?
I, the LORD—with the first of them and with the last—I am he.”
- ⁵The islands have seen it and fear; the ends of the earth tremble.
They approach and come forward;
⁶they help each other and say to their companions, “Be strong!”
- ⁷The metalworker encourages the goldsmith, and the one who smooths with the hammer spurs on the one who strikes the anvil.
One says of the welding, “It is good.”
The other nails down the idol so it will not topple.
- ⁸“But you, Israel, my servant,
Jacob, whom I have chosen,
you descendants of Abraham my friend,
- ⁹I took you from the ends of the earth, from its farthest corners I called you.
I said, ‘You are my servant’;
I have chosen you and have not rejected you.
- ¹⁰So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you and help you;

I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

¹¹“All who rage against you will surely be ashamed and disgraced;

those who oppose you will be as nothing and perish.

¹²Though you search for your enemies, you will not find them.

Those who wage war against you will be as nothing at all.

¹³For I am the LORD your God who takes hold of your right hand and says to you, Do not fear;

I will help you.

¹⁴Do not be afraid, you worm Jacob, little Israel, do not fear, for I myself will help you," declares the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵"See, I will make you into a threshing sledge, new and sharp, with many teeth.

You will thresh the mountains and crush them,
and reduce the hills to chaff.

¹⁶You will winnow them, the wind will pick them up, and a gale will blow them away.

But you will rejoice in the LORD and glory in the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁷"The poor and needy search for water, but there is none; their tongues are parched with thirst.

But I the LORD will answer them;
I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.

¹⁸I will make rivers flow on barren heights, and springs within the valleys.

I will turn the desert into pools of water, and the parched ground into springs.

¹⁹I will put in the desert the cedar and the acacia, the myrtle and the olive.

I will set junipers in the wasteland,
the fir and the cypress together,

²⁰so that people may see and know, may consider and understand, that the hand of the LORD has done this,

that the Holy One of Israel has created it.

²¹"Present your case," says the LORD.

“Set forth your arguments,” says Jacob’s King.
²²“Tell us, you idols,
 what is going to happen.
 Tell us what the former things were,
 so that we may consider them
 and know their final outcome.
 Or declare to us the things to come,
²³tell us what the future holds,
 so we may know that you are gods.
 Do something, whether good or bad,
 so that we will be dismayed and filled with fear.
²⁴But you are less than nothing and your works are utterly worthless;
 whoever chooses you is detestable.
²⁵“I have stirred up one from the north, and he comes— one from the rising sun who calls on my name.
 He treads on rulers as if they were mortar,
 as if he were a potter treading the clay.
²⁶Who told of this from the beginning, so we could know, or beforehand, so we could say, ‘He was right’?
 No one told of this,
 no one foretold it,
 no one heard any words from you.
²⁷I was the first to tell Zion, ‘Look, here they are!’
 I gave to Jerusalem a messenger of good news.
²⁸I look but there is no one—no one among the gods to give counsel, no one to give answer when I ask them.
²⁹See, they are all false!
 Their deeds amount to nothing;
 their images are but wind and confusion.

Isaiah 41:8–14

Fear no one.

Emily shook at the thought of auditioning for the spring play, but she still wanted to try. She didn't want any kind of a big part—just a chance to meet people, find out if she liked drama, and overcome her dread of being up in front of a crowd. Emily's fears weren't exactly soothed when a couple of theatre regulars told her she didn't have a chance of making the cast. When it came time for auditions, all of Emily's breathing exercises just weren't enough. She didn't calm down until she realized God was with her on stage ... and in the auditorium seats ... and sitting right next to the director. Just like he promised, God was there.

The kingdom of Israel felt small and vulnerable amid dominant neighboring nations who threatened death and disgrace. But God reminded Israel that he chose them. He promised to grab them by the hand and protect them. His promise isn't just nice words. Whether or not you feel God nearby, he really is there to help. So let go of your fear.

Isaiah 42

THE SERVANT OF THE LORD

- ¹“Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen one in whom I delight;
I will put my Spirit on him,
and he will bring justice to the nations.
- ²He will not shout or cry out,
or raise his voice in the streets.
- ³A bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out.
In faithfulness he will bring forth justice;
⁴he will not falter or be discouraged till he establishes justice on earth.
In his teaching the islands will put their hope.”
- ⁵This is what God the LORD says— the Creator of the heavens, who stretches them out, who spreads out the earth with all that springs from it,
who gives breath to its people,
and life to those who walk on it:
- ⁶“I, the LORD, have called you in righteousness; I will take hold of your hand.
I will keep you and will make you
to be a covenant for the people and a light for the Gentiles, ⁷to open eyes that are blind, to free captives from prison and to release from the dungeon those who sit in darkness.

⁸“I am the LORD; that is my name!
I will not yield my glory to another or my praise to idols.

⁹See, the former things have taken place, and new things I declare;

before they spring into being
I announce them to you.”

SONG OF PRAISE TO THE LORD

- ¹⁰Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise from the ends of
the earth,
you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it,
you islands, and all who live in them.
- ¹¹Let the wilderness and its towns raise their voices; let the settlements where Kedar lives rejoice.
Let the people of Sela sing for joy;
let them shout from the mountaintops.
- ¹²Let them give glory to the LORD and proclaim his praise in the islands.
- ¹³The LORD will march out like a champion, like a warrior he will stir up his zeal;
with a shout he will raise the battle cry and will triumph over his enemies.
- ¹⁴“For a long time I have kept silent, I have been quiet and held myself back.
But now, like a woman in childbirth,
I cry out, I gasp and pant.
- ¹⁵I will lay waste the mountains and hills and dry up all their vegetation;
I will turn rivers into islands and dry up the pools.
- ¹⁶I will lead the blind by ways they have not known, along unfamiliar paths I will guide them;
I will turn the darkness into light before them
and make the rough places smooth.
These are the things I will do;
I will not forsake them.
- ¹⁷But those who trust in idols, who say to images, ‘You are our gods,’ will be turned back in utter shame.

ISRAEL BLIND AND DEAF

- ¹⁸“Hear, you deaf;
look, you blind, and see!
- ¹⁹Who is blind but my servant,
and deaf like the messenger I send?
Who is blind like the one in covenant with me,
blind like the servant of the LORD?
- ²⁰You have seen many things, but you pay no attention; your ears are open, but you do not listen.”
- ²¹It pleased the LORD for the sake of his righteousness to make his law great and glorious.
- ²²But this is a people plundered and looted, all of them trapped in pits
or hidden away in prisons.
They have become plunder,
with no one to rescue them;
they have been made loot,
with no one to say, “Send them back.”
- ²³Which of you will listen to this or pay close attention in time to come?
- ²⁴Who handed Jacob over to become loot, and Israel to the plunderers?
Was it not the LORD,
against whom we have sinned?
For they would not follow his ways;
they did not obey his law.
- ²⁵So he poured out on them his burning anger, the violence of war.
It enveloped them in flames, yet they did not understand;
it consumed them, but they did not take it to heart.

Isaiah 43

ISRAEL'S ONLY SAVIOR

¹But now, this is what the LORD says—

"I have summoned you by name; you are mine."

Isaiah 43:1

God not only knows who you are but he calls you by name. He aches to remind you that you belong to him.

(Rock Solid PROMISES Index)

he who created you, Jacob,
he who formed you, Israel:
"Do not fear, for I have redeemed you;
I have summoned you by name; you are mine."
²When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;
and when you pass through the rivers,
they will not sweep over you.
When you walk through the fire,
you will not be burned;
the flames will not set you ablaze.
³For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior;
I give Egypt for your ransom,
Cush^[82] and Seba in your stead.

- ⁴Since you are precious and honored in my sight, and because I love you,
I will give people in exchange for you,
nations in exchange for your life.
- ⁵Do not be afraid, for I am with you; I will bring your children from the east and gather you from the west.
- ⁶I will say to the north, 'Give them up!'
and to the south, 'Do not hold them back.'

Bring my sons from afar and my daughters from the ends of the earth—⁷everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made.”

⁸Lead out those who have eyes but are blind, who have ears but are deaf.

⁹All the nations gather together and the peoples assemble.
Which of their gods foretold this and proclaimed to us the former things?
Let them bring in their witnesses to prove they were right,
so that others may hear and say, “It is true.”

¹⁰“You are my witnesses,” declares the LORD, “and my servant whom I have chosen, so that you may know and believe me and understand that I am he.
Before me no god was formed,
nor will there be one after me.

¹¹I, even I, am the LORD, and apart from me there is no savior.

¹²I have revealed and saved and proclaimed— I, and not some foreign god among you.
You are my witnesses,” declares the LORD, “that I am
God.
¹³Yes, and from ancient days I am he.
No one can deliver out of my hand.
When I act, who can reverse it?”

GOD’S MERCY AND ISRAEL’S UNFAITHFULNESS

¹⁴This is what the LORD says— your Redeemer, the Holy
One of Israel:
“For your sake I will send to Babylon and bring down as fugitives all the Babylonians, ^[83] in the ships in which they took pride.

¹⁵I am the LORD, your Holy One, Israel's Creator, your King.”

¹⁶This is what the LORD says— he who made a way through the sea,
a path through the mighty waters,

¹⁷who drew out the chariots and horses, the army and reinforcements together, and they lay there, never to rise again, extinguished, snuffed out like a wick:

¹⁸“Forget the former things;
do not dwell on the past.

¹⁹See, I am doing a new thing!
Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.

²⁰The wild animals honor me,
the jackals and the owls,
because I provide water in the wilderness
and streams in the wasteland,
to give drink to my people, my chosen, ²¹the people I formed for myself that they may proclaim my praise.

²²“Yet you have not called on me, Jacob, you have not wearied yourselves for^[84] me, Israel.

²³You have not brought me sheep for burnt offerings, nor honored me with your sacrifices.
I have not burdened you with grain offerings nor wearied you with demands for incense.

²⁴You have not bought any fragrant calamus for me, or lavished on me the fat of your sacrifices.
But you have burdened me with your sins and wearied me with your offenses.

²⁵“I, even I, am he who blots out your transgressions, for my own sake, and remembers your sins no more.

²⁶Review the past for me,
let us argue the matter together;
state the case for your innocence.

²⁷Your first father sinned;

those I sent to teach you rebelled against me.
28So I disgraced the dignitaries of your temple; I consigned Jacob to destruction^[85]
and Israel to scorn.

Isaiah 43:25

God is forgetful.

God is all-knowing or “omniscient,” knowing every possible detail of who you are and what you think, say, and do (see Psalm 139:2). So he can’t literally forget something you do wrong. But the Lord explains what he does with your sins—his attitude toward them. He “blots out your transgressions,” that is, he covers them up—but only after you uncover and confess them. He “remembers your sins no more”—but only after you recall and admit what you did wrong (Isaiah 43:25). Amazingly, the Lord forgives and forgets your sins. He won’t bring them up again. Every time you admit your sins to God, he forgives you (see 1 John 1:8–9).

So ... Why remember and learn from your sins? When and why should you forget them?

(Unshaken GOD Index)

Isaiah 44

ISRAEL THE CHOSEN

- ¹“But now listen, Jacob, my servant, Israel, whom I have chosen.
- ²This is what the LORD says— he who made you, who formed you in the womb, and who will help you:
Do not be afraid, Jacob, my servant,
Jeshurun,^[86] whom I have chosen.
- ³For I will pour water on the thirsty land, and streams on the dry ground;
I will pour out my Spirit on your offspring, and my blessing on your descendants.
- ⁴They will spring up like grass in a meadow, like poplar trees by flowing streams.
- ⁵Some will say, ‘I belong to the LORD’; others will call themselves by the name of Jacob;
still others will write on their hand, ‘The LORD’s,’
and will take the name Israel.

THE LORD, NOT IDOLS

- ⁶“This is what the LORD says— Israel’s King and Redeemer, the LORD Almighty: I am the first and I am the last; apart from me there is no God.
- ⁷Who then is like me? Let him proclaim it.
Let him declare and lay out before me what has happened since I established my ancient people, and what is yet to come—
yes, let them foretell what will come.
- ⁸Do not tremble, do not be afraid.
Did I not proclaim this and foretell it long ago?
You are my witnesses. Is there any God besides me?
No, there is no other Rock; I know not one.”
- ⁹All who make idols are nothing, and the things they treasure are worthless.
Those who would speak up for them are blind;

- they are ignorant, to their own shame.
- ¹⁰Who shapes a god and casts an idol, which can profit nothing?
- ¹¹People who do that will be put to shame; such craftsmen are only human beings.
Let them all come together and take their stand;
they will be brought down to terror and shame.
- ¹²The blacksmith takes a tool and works with it in the coals;
he shapes an idol with hammers,
he forges it with the might of his arm.
He gets hungry and loses his strength;
he drinks no water and grows faint.
- ¹³The carpenter measures with a line and makes an outline with a marker;
he roughs it out with chisels and marks it with compasses.
He shapes it in human form,
human form in all its glory,
that it may dwell in a shrine.
- ¹⁴He cut down cedars,
or perhaps took a cypress or oak.
He let it grow among the trees of the forest,
or planted a pine, and the rain made it grow.
- ¹⁵It is used as fuel for burning;
some of it he takes and warms himself,
he kindles a fire and bakes bread.
But he also fashions a god and worships it;
he makes an idol and bows down to it.
- ¹⁶Half of the wood he burns in the fire; over it he prepares his meal,
he roasts his meat and eats his fill.
He also warms himself and says,
“Ah! I am warm; I see the fire.”
- ¹⁷From the rest he makes a god, his idol; he bows down to it and worships.
He prays to it and says,
“Save me! You are my god!”
- ¹⁸They know nothing, they understand nothing; their eyes are plastered over so they cannot see,

- and their minds closed so they cannot understand.
- ¹⁹No one stops to think,
no one has the knowledge or understanding to say, “Half of it I used for fuel;
I even baked bread over its coals,
I roasted meat and I ate.
Shall I make a detestable thing from what is left?
Shall I bow down to a block of wood?”
- ²⁰Such a person feeds on ashes; a deluded heart misleads him; he cannot save himself, or say, “Is not this thing in my right hand a lie?”
- ²¹“Remember these things, Jacob,
for you, Israel, are my servant.
I have made you, you are my servant;
Israel, I will not forget you.
- ²²I have swept away your offenses like a cloud, your sins like the morning mist.
Return to me,
for I have redeemed you.”
- ²³Sing for joy, you heavens, for the LORD has done this;
shout aloud, you earth beneath.
Burst into song, you mountains,
you forests and all your trees,
for the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
he displays his glory in Israel.

JERUSALEM TO BE INHABITED

²⁴“This is what the LORD says— your Redeemer, who formed you in the womb:
I am the LORD,
the Maker of all things,
who stretches out the heavens,
who spreads out the earth by myself, ²⁵who foils the signs of false prophets and makes fools of diviners, who overthrows the learning of the wise and turns it into nonsense, ²⁶who carries out the words of his servants and fulfills the predictions of his messengers, who says of Jerusalem, ‘It shall be inhabited,’ of the towns of Judah, ‘They shall be rebuilt,’ and of their ruins, ‘I will restore them,’ ²⁷who says to the watery deep, ‘Be dry, and I will dry up your streams,’ ²⁸who says of Cyrus, ‘He is my shepherd and will accomplish all that I please;
he will say of Jerusalem, “Let it be rebuilt,” and of the temple, “Let its foundations be laid.” ’

ROCK SOLID truths

Isaiah 44:10–23

No one made God.

You can almost see God smile like a stand-up comic as he mocks the foolishness of idols and people who worship them. He describes how a blacksmith bangs out an idol with a hammer. He details how a carpenter carves a god out of a log and uses the leftover wood to build a fire. The man bows to half of a hunk of wood, and he bakes bread with the other half. And no one pauses to realize how stupid this is. The Lord says, “Remember these things ... I have made you” (Isaiah 44:21). People think they can make a god. But God made people. And no one made God. The Lord drove home this point from the first moment he told humankind his name. He called himself “I AM WHO I AM,” or “Yahweh,” the one who has always existed (Exodus 3:14).

Think: How would you answer someone who asked you, “Who made God?”

Isaiah 45

¹“This is what the LORD says to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I take hold of to subdue nations before him and to strip kings of their armor, to open doors before him

so that gates will not be shut:

²I will go before you and will level the mountains^[87]; I will break down gates of bronze and cut through bars of iron.

³I will give you hidden treasures, riches stored in secret places,
so that you may know that I am the LORD,
the God of Israel, who summons you by name.

⁴For the sake of Jacob my servant, of Israel my chosen,

I summon you by name
and bestow on you a title of honor, though you do not acknowledge me.

⁵I am the LORD, and there is no other; apart from me there is no God.

I will strengthen you,
though you have not acknowledged me,

⁶so that from the rising of the sun to the place of its setting people may know there is none besides me.

I am the LORD, and there is no other.

⁷I form the light and create darkness, I bring prosperity and create disaster;

I, the LORD, do all these things.

⁸“You heavens above, rain down my righteousness; let the clouds shower it down.

Let the earth open wide,
let salvation spring up,
let righteousness flourish with it;
I, the LORD, have created it.

⁹“Woe to those who quarrel with their Maker, those who are nothing but potsherds
among the potsherds on the ground.

Does the clay say to the potter,
‘What are you making?’
Does your work say,
‘The potter has no hands?’

¹⁰Woe to the one who says to a father, ‘What have you begotten?’

or to a mother,
‘What have you brought to birth?’

¹¹“This is what the LORD says— the Holy One of Israel, and its Maker:

Concerning things to come,
do you question me about my children, or give me orders about the work of my hands?

¹²It is I who made the earth and created mankind on it.

My own hands stretched out the heavens;

I marshaled their starry hosts.
¹³I will raise up Cyrus^[88] in my righteousness: I will make all his ways straight.

He will rebuild my city
and set my exiles free, but not for a price or reward,
says the LORD Almighty.”

¹⁴This is what the LORD says:

“The products of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush, [\[89\]](#)
and those tall Sabean—they will come over to you and will be yours;
they will trudge behind you,
coming over to you in chains.
They will bow down before you and plead with you, saying, ‘Surely God is with you, and there is no other;
there is no other god.’ ”

¹⁵Truly you are a God who has been hiding himself, the God and Savior of Israel.

¹⁶All the makers of idols will be put to shame and disgraced;
they will go off into disgrace together.

¹⁷But Israel will be saved by the LORD with an everlasting salvation;
you will never be put to shame or disgraced,
to ages everlasting.

¹⁸For this is what the LORD says— he who created the heavens,
he is God;
he who fashioned and made the earth,
he founded it;
he did not create it to be empty, but formed it to be inhabited—
he says:
“I am the LORD,
and there is no other.

from somewhere in a land of darkness;
I have not said to Jacob's descendants,
'Seek me in vain.'
I, the LORD, speak the truth;
I declare what is right.

²⁰“Gather together and come;

Ignorant are those who carry about idols of wood,
who pray to gods that cannot save.

²¹Declare what is to be, present it— let them take counsel

Who foretold this long ago, who declared it from the distant past?
Was it not I, the LORD?
And there is no God apart from me, a righteous God and a Savior;
there is none but me.

²²“Turn to me and be saved,
all you ends of the earth;
for I am God, and there is no other.

All who have raged against him

Isaiah 46

GODS OF BABYLON

- ¹Bel bows down, Nebo stoops low;
their idols are borne by beasts of burden.^[90]
The images that are carried about are burdensome, a burden for the weary.
- ²They stoop and bow down together; unable to rescue the burden,
they themselves go off into captivity.
- ³“Listen to me, you descendants of Jacob, all the remnant of the people of Israel,
you whom I have upheld since your birth,
and have carried since you were born.
- ⁴Even to your old age and gray hairs I am he, I am he who will sustain you.
I have made you and I will carry you;
I will sustain you and I will rescue you.
- ⁵“With whom will you compare me or count me equal?
To whom will you liken me that we may be compared?
- ⁶Some pour out gold from their bags and weigh out silver on the scales;
they hire a goldsmith to make it into a god,
and they bow down and worship it.
- ⁷They lift it to their shoulders and carry it; they set it up in its place, and there it stands.
From that spot it cannot move.
Even though someone cries out to it, it cannot answer;
it cannot save them from their troubles.
- ⁸“Remember this, keep it in mind, take it to heart, you rebels.
- ⁹Remember the former things, those of long ago; I am God,
and there is no other;
I am God, and there is none like me.
- ¹⁰I make known the end from the beginning, from ancient times, what is still to come.
I say, ‘My purpose will stand, and I will do all that I please.’

¹¹From the east I summon a bird of prey; from a far-off land, a man to fulfill my purpose.

What I have said, that I will bring about;
what I have planned, that I will do.

¹²Listen to me, you stubborn-hearted, you who are now far from my righteousness.

¹³I am bringing my righteousness near, it is not far away;
and my salvation will not be delayed.

I will grant salvation to Zion,
my splendor to Israel.

Isaiah 47

THE FALL OF BABYLON

- ¹“Go down, sit in the dust, Virgin Daughter Babylon;
sit on the ground without a throne, queen city of the Babylonians.^[91]
No more will you be called tender or delicate.
- ²Take millstones and grind flour;
take off your veil.
Lift up your skirts, bare your legs,
and wade through the streams.
- ³Your nakedness will be exposed and your shame uncovered.
I will take vengeance;
I will spare no one.”
- ⁴Our Redeemer—the LORD Almighty is his name— is the Holy One of Israel.
- ⁵“Sit in silence, go into darkness, queen city of the Babylonians;
no more will you be called queen of kingdoms.
- ⁶I was angry with my people and desecrated my inheritance;
I gave them into your hand,
and you showed them no mercy.

Even on the aged you laid a very heavy yoke.

⁷You said, 'I am forever—
the eternal queen!'
But you did not consider these things or reflect on what might happen.

⁸"Now then, listen, you lover of pleasure, lounging in your security
and saying to yourself,
'I am, and there is none besides me.
I will never be a widow or suffer the loss of children.'

⁹Both of these will overtake you in a moment, on a single day:
loss of children and widowhood.
They will come upon you in full measure, in spite of your many sorceries and all your potent spells.

¹⁰You have trusted in your wickedness and have said, 'No one sees me.'
Your wisdom and knowledge mislead you when you say to yourself,
'I am, and there is none besides me.'

¹¹Disaster will come upon you, and you will not know how to conjure it away.
A calamity will fall upon you that you cannot ward off with a ransom;

a catastrophe you cannot foresee will suddenly come upon you.

¹²“Keep on, then, with your magic spells and with your many sorceries,
which you have labored at since childhood.
Perhaps you will succeed,
perhaps you will cause terror.

¹³All the counsel you have received has only worn you out!
Let your astrologers come forward, those stargazers who make predictions month by month,
let them save you from what is coming upon you.

¹⁴Surely they are like stubble;
the fire will burn them up.

They cannot even save themselves from the power of the flame.
These are not coals for warmth;
this is not a fire to sit by.

¹⁵That is all they are to you—these you have dealt with and labored with since childhood.

All of them go on in their error;
there is not one that can save you.

Isaiah 48

STUBBORN ISRAEL

- ¹“Listen to this, you descendants of Jacob, you who are called by the name of Israel and come from the line of Judah, you who take oaths in the name of the LORD and invoke the God of Israel— but not in truth or righteousness—
- ²you who call yourselves citizens of the holy city and claim to rely on the God of Israel— the LORD Almighty is his name:
- ³I foretold the former things long ago, my mouth announced them and I made them known; then suddenly I acted, and they came to pass.
- ⁴For I knew how stubborn you were; your neck muscles were iron, your forehead was bronze.
- ⁵Therefore I told you these things long ago; before they happened I announced them to you so that you could not say, ‘My images brought them about; my wooden image and metal god ordained them.’
- ⁶You have heard these things; look at them all. Will you not admit them?
“From now on I will tell you of new things, of hidden things unknown to you.
- ⁷They are created now, and not long ago; you have not heard of them before today. So you cannot say, ‘Yes, I knew of them.’
- ⁸You have neither heard nor understood; from of old your ears have not been open. Well do I know how treacherous you are; you were called a rebel from birth.
- ⁹For my own name’s sake I delay my wrath; for the sake of my praise I hold it back from you, so as not to destroy you completely.
- ¹⁰See, I have refined you, though not as silver; I have tested you in the furnace of affliction.

¹¹For my own sake, for my own sake, I do this.
How can I let myself be defamed?
I will not yield my glory to another.

ISRAEL FREED

- ¹²“Listen to me, Jacob,
Israel, whom I have called:
I am he;
I am the first and I am the last.
- ¹³My own hand laid the foundations of the earth, and my right hand spread out the heavens;
when I summon them,
they all stand up together.
- ¹⁴“Come together, all of you, and listen: Which of the idols has foretold these things?
The LORD’s chosen ally will carry out his purpose against Babylon;
his arm will be against the Babylonians.^[92]
- ¹⁵I, even I, have spoken;
yes, I have called him.
I will bring him,
and he will succeed in his mission.

¹⁶“Come near me and listen to this:

“From the first announcement I have not spoken in secret;
at the time it happens, I am there.”
And now the Sovereign LORD has sent me, endowed with his Spirit.

- ¹⁷This is what the LORD says— your Redeemer, the Holy
One of Israel:
“I am the LORD your God, who teaches you what is best for you,
who directs you in the way you should go.
- ¹⁸If only you had paid attention to my commands, your peace would have been like a river, your well-being like the waves of the sea.
- ¹⁹Your descendants would have been like the sand, your children like its numberless grains; their name would never be blotted out nor destroyed from before me.”

²⁰Leave Babylon,

flee from the Babylonians!

Announce this with shouts of joy and proclaim it.

Send it out to the ends of the earth;

say, “The LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob.”

²¹They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts;

he made water flow for them from the rock;

he split the rock
and water gushed out.

²²“There is no peace,” says the LORD, “for the wicked.”

Isaiah 48:17

God knows best.

The Lord knows all. Really. Unlike “know-it-alls” who act smart and make sure everyone knows it, God literally knows everything. And instead of rubbing our faces in his infinite wisdom, he aims to share it with us and make our lives better. God listed for Israel the good results that come from following his commands. The people could enjoy peace like a flowing river, goodness as forceful as ocean waves, and families that live long and prosper. But Israel missed out on those blessings because of their sin. God cries, “If only you had listened to me!” When you’re tempted to think you know better than God, remind yourself of the Lord’s awesomeness. He says, “I am the LORD your God, who teaches you what is best for you, who directs you in the way you should go” (Isaiah 48:17). Your Heavenly Father really does know best.

Think: When have you worried God isn’t smart—or doesn’t have your best interests in mind?

Isaiah 49

THE SERVANT OF THE LORD

- ¹Listen to me, you islands;
hear this, you distant nations:
Before I was born the LORD called me;
from my mother's womb he has spoken my name.
- ²He made my mouth like a sharpened sword, in the shadow of his hand he hid me;
he made me into a polished arrow and concealed me in his quiver.
- ³He said to me, "You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will display my splendor."
- ⁴But I said, "I have labored in vain; I have spent my strength for nothing at all.
Yet what is due me is in the LORD's hand,
and my reward is with my God."
- ⁵And now the LORD says— he who formed me in the womb to be his servant
to bring Jacob back to him and gather Israel to himself, for I am^[93] honored in the eyes of the LORD and my God has been my strength—
- ⁶he says:
"It is too small a thing for you to be my servant to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back those of Israel I have kept.
I will also make you a light for the Gentiles, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth."
- ⁷This is what the LORD says— the Redeemer and Holy One of Israel—
to him who was despised and abhorred by the nation,
to the servant of rulers:
"Kings will see you and stand up, princes will see and bow down,
because of the LORD, who is faithful,

the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.”

RESTORATION OF ISRAEL

⁸This is what the LORD says:

“In the time of my favor I will answer you,
and in the day of salvation I will help you;
I will keep you and will make you
to be a covenant for the people, to restore the land

and to reassign its desolate inheritances, 9to say to the captives, ‘Come out,’
and to those in darkness, ‘Be free!’
“They will feed beside the roads and find pasture on every barren hill.
10They will neither hunger nor thirst, nor will the desert heat or the sun beat down on them.
He who has compassion on them will guide them and lead them beside springs of water.
11I will turn all my mountains into roads, and my highways will be raised up.
12See, they will come from afar—
some from the north, some from the west, some from the region of Aswan.^[94]” 13Shout for joy, you heavens;
rejoice, you earth;
burst into song, you mountains!
For the LORD comforts his people and will have compassion on his afflicted ones.
14But Zion said, “The LORD has forsaken me, the Lord has forgotten me.” 15“Can a mother forget the baby at her breast and have no compassion on the child she has borne?
Though she may forget,
I will not forget you!
16See, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands; your walls are ever before me.
17Your children hasten back,
and those who laid you waste depart from you.
18Lift up your eyes and look around; all your children gather and come to
you.
As surely as I live,” declares the LORD,
“you will wear them all as ornaments;
you will put them on, like a bride.
19“Though you were ruined and made desolate and your land laid waste, now you will be too small for your people,
and those who devoured you will be far away.
20The children born during your bereavement will yet say in your hearing,
‘This place is too small for us;

give us more space to live in.’

²¹Then you will say in your heart, ‘Who bore me these?

I was bereaved and barren;

I was exiled and rejected.

Who brought these up?

I was left all alone,

but these—where have they come from?’ ”

²²This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“See, I will beckon to the nations,

I will lift up my banner to the peoples;

they will bring your sons in their arms and carry your daughters on their hips.

²³Kings will be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers.

They will bow down before you with their faces to the ground; they will lick the dust at your feet.

Then you will know that I am the LORD;

those who hope in me will not be disappointed.”

²⁴Can plunder be taken from warriors, or captives be rescued from the fierce^[95]?

²⁵But this is what the LORD says:

“Yes, captives will be taken from warriors, and plunder retrieved from the fierce;

I will contend with those who contend with you, and your children I will save.

²⁶I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh; they will be drunk on their own blood, as with wine.

Then all mankind will know that I, the LORD, am your Savior, your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.”

Isaiah 49:6–7

God is sacrificial.

Running through the book of Isaiah is a stream of what Bible scholars call “servant songs,” passages describing a Savior to come. Here in Isaiah 49:6–7, you discover it would be “too small a thing” if this Savior only rescued Israel. Isaiah prophesied that the Savior will also come for the sake of “the Gentiles,” all non-Jews. The rest of the Bible unfolds the story of how the Savior will light the darkness and save the world. God himself will come in the flesh, born as Jesus at Bethlehem. Jesus will die and rise. God is willing to take our punishment and get hurt to the point of death in order to help us. He volunteers to make the ultimate sacrifice.

So ... How does God’s sacrificial love make you feel?

Isaiah 50

ISRAEL'S SIN AND THE SERVANT'S OBEDIENCE

¹This is what the LORD says:

“Where is your mother’s certificate of divorce with which I sent her away?
Or to which of my creditors
did I sell you?
Because of your sins you were sold;
because of your transgressions your mother was sent away.

²When I came, why was there no one?
When I called, why was there no one to answer?
Was my arm too short to deliver you?
Do I lack the strength to rescue you?
By a mere rebuke I dry up the sea,
I turn rivers into a desert;
their fish rot for lack of water and die of thirst.

³I clothe the heavens with darkness and make sackcloth its covering.”

⁴The Sovereign LORD has given me a well-instructed tongue, to know the word that sustains the weary.
He wakens me morning by morning,
wakens my ear to listen like one being instructed.

⁵The Sovereign LORD has opened my ears; I have not been rebellious,
I have not turned away.

⁶I offered my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who pulled out my beard;
I did not hide my face
from mocking and spitting.

⁷Because the Sovereign LORD helps me, I will not be disgraced.
Therefore have I set my face like flint, and I know I will not be put to shame.

⁸He who vindicates me is near.
Who then will bring charges against me?
Let us face each other!
Who is my accuser?
Let him confront me!

⁹It is the Sovereign LORD who helps me.
Who will condemn me?
They will all wear out like a garment;
the moths will eat them up.

¹⁰Who among you fears the LORD and obeys the word of his servant?
Let the one who walks in the dark,
who has no light,
trust in the name of the LORD and rely on their God.

¹¹But now, all you who light fires and provide yourselves with flaming torches,
go, walk in the light of your fires
and of the torches you have set ablaze.
This is what you shall receive from my hand:
You will lie down in torment.

Isaiah 51

EVERLASTING SALVATION FOR ZION

- ¹“Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness and who seek
the LORD:
Look to the rock from which you were cut and to the quarry from which you were hewn;
- ²look to Abraham, your father,
and to Sarah, who gave you birth.
When I called him he was only one man, and I blessed him and made him many.
- ³The LORD will surely comfort Zion and will look with compassion on all her ruins;
he will make her deserts like Eden,
her wastelands like the garden of the LORD.
Joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the sound of singing.
- ⁴“Listen to me, my people;
hear me, my nation:
Instruction will go out from me;
my justice will become a light to the nations.
- ⁵My righteousness draws near speedily, my salvation is on the way,
and my arm will bring justice to the nations.
The islands will look to me and wait in hope for my arm.
- ⁶Lift up your eyes to the heavens, look at the earth beneath;
the heavens will vanish like smoke,
the earth will wear out like a garment and its inhabitants die like flies.
But my salvation will last forever,
my righteousness will never fail.
- ⁷“Hear me, you who know what is right, you people who have taken my instruction to heart:
Do not fear the reproach of mere mortals or be terrified by their insults.
- ⁸For the moth will eat them up like a garment; the worm will devour them like wool.
But my righteousness will last forever,
my salvation through all generations.”

- ⁹Awake, awake, arm of the LORD, clothe yourself with strength!
Awake, as in days gone by,
as in generations of old.
Was it not you who cut Rahab to pieces, who pierced that monster through?
- ¹⁰Was it not you who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep,
who made a road in the depths of the sea
so that the redeemed might cross over?
- ¹¹Those the LORD has rescued will return.
They will enter Zion with singing;
everlasting joy will crown their heads.
Gladness and joy will overtake them,
and sorrow and sighing will flee away.
- ¹²“I, even I, am he who comforts you.
Who are you that you fear mere mortals, human beings who are but grass,
- ¹³that you forget the LORD your Maker, who stretches out the heavens and who lays the foundations of the earth, that you live in constant terror every day because of the wrath of the oppressor, who is bent on destruction?
For where is the wrath of the oppressor?
- ¹⁴The cowering prisoners will soon be set free; they will not die in their dungeon, nor will they lack bread.
- ¹⁵For I am the LORD your God, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar— the LORD Almighty is his name.
- ¹⁶I have put my words in your mouth and covered you with the shadow of my hand— I who set the heavens in place,
who laid the foundations of the earth, and who say to Zion, ‘You are my people.’ ”

THE CUP OF THE LORD’S WRATH

- ¹⁷Awake, awake!

Rise up, Jerusalem,
you who have drunk from the hand of the LORD
the cup of his wrath,
you who have drained to its dregs
the goblet that makes people stagger.

¹⁸Among all the children she bore there was none to guide
her;
among all the children she reared there was none to take her by the hand.

¹⁹These double calamities have come upon you— who can comfort you?—
ruin and destruction, famine and sword—who can^[96] console you?

²⁰Your children have fainted;
they lie at every street corner,
like antelope caught in a net.
They are filled with the wrath of the LORD,
with the rebuke of your God.

²¹Therefore hear this, you afflicted one, made drunk, but not with wine.

²²This is what your Sovereign LORD says, your God, who defends his people: “See, I have taken out of your hand
the cup that made you stagger;
from that cup, the goblet of my wrath,
you will never drink again.

²³I will put it into the hands of your tormentors, who said to
you,
‘Fall prostrate that we may walk on you.’
And you made your back like the ground, like a street to be walked on.”

Isaiah 52

¹Awake, awake, Zion,
 clothe yourself with strength!
Put on your garments of splendor,
 Jerusalem, the holy city.

The uncircumcised and defiled will not enter you again.

²Shake off your dust;
rise up, sit enthroned, Jerusalem.
Free yourself from the chains on your neck,
Daughter Zion, now a captive.

³For this is what the LORD says:

“You were sold for nothing, and without money you will be redeemed.”

⁴For this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“At first my people went down to Egypt to live;
lately, Assyria has oppressed them.

⁵“And now what do I have here?” declares the LORD.

“For my people have been taken away for nothing, and those who rule them mock, ^[97]”

declares the LORD.

“And all day long
my name is constantly blasphemed.

⁶Therefore my people will know my name; therefore in that day they will know that it is I who foretold it.
Yes, it is I.”

⁷How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news, who proclaim peace,
who bring good tidings,
who proclaim salvation,
who say to Zion,
“Your God reigns!”

⁸Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices; together they shout for joy.

When the LORD returns to Zion,
they will see it with their own eyes.

⁹Burst into songs of joy together, you ruins of Jerusalem, for the LORD has comforted his people,

he has redeemed Jerusalem.

¹⁰The LORD will lay bare his holy arm in the sight of all the nations,
and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.

¹¹Depart, depart, go out from there!
Touch no unclean thing!
Come out from it and be pure,
you who carry the articles of the LORD's house.

¹²But you will not leave in haste or go in flight;
for the LORD will go before you,
the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

THE SUFFERING AND GLORY OF THE SERVANT

¹³See, my servant will act wisely^[98]; he will be raised and lifted up and highly exalted.

¹⁴Just as there were many who were appalled at him^[99]— his appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any human being and his form marred beyond human likeness— ¹⁵so he will sprinkle many nations,^[100]

and kings will shut their mouths because of him.
For what they were not told, they will see,
and what they have not heard, they will understand.

Isaiah 53

- ¹Who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?
- ²He grew up before him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground.
He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him,
nothing in his appearance that we should desire him.
- ³He was despised and rejected by mankind, a man of suffering, and familiar with pain.
Like one from whom people hide their faces
he was despised, and we held him in low esteem.
- ⁴Surely he took up our pain and bore our suffering,
yet we considered him punished by God, stricken by him, and afflicted.
- ⁵But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities;
the punishment that brought us peace was on him,
and by his wounds we are healed.
- ⁶We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to our own way;
and the LORD has laid on him
the iniquity of us all.
- ⁷He was oppressed and afflicted,
yet he did not open his mouth;
he was led like a lamb to the slaughter,
and as a sheep before its shearers is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.
- ⁸By oppression^[101] and judgment he was taken away.
Yet who of his generation protested?
For he was cut off from the land of the living;
for the transgression of my people he was punished.
^[102]
- ⁹He was assigned a grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death,
though he had done no violence,
nor was any deceit in his mouth.

- ¹⁰Yet it was the LORD's will to crush him and cause him to suffer, and though the LORD makes^[103] his life an offering for sin, he will see his offspring and prolong his days, and the will of the LORD will prosper in his hand.
- ¹¹After he has suffered,
he will see the light of life^[104] and be satisfied^[105];
by his knowledge^[106] my righteous servant will justify many, and he will bear their iniquities.
- ¹²Therefore I will give him a portion among the great,^[107] and he will divide the spoils with the strong,^[108] because he poured out his life unto death, and was numbered with the transgressors.
For he bore the sin of many,
and made intercession for the transgressors.

ROCK SOLID truths

Isaiah 53:4–12

The Bible foreshadowed the cross.

If you printed out this passage and asked people who it talks about, lots of people would say, “Jesus.” But most would be surprised that this description of a suffering Savior comes from the book of Isaiah—and that these words were spoken many hundreds of years before Jesus arrived on earth. Isaiah prophesied in detail what Jesus would experience on the cross. He would be “pierced for our transgressions” and “crushed for our iniquities.” His punishment would bring us peace, and “by his wounds we are healed.” And Jesus bore “the iniquity of us all” (Isaiah 53:5–6). If you want to understand what Jesus did for you, study this passage line by line. If you want to be amazed at the Lord's love for you, don't forget that long ago God had a plan to rescue you from sin.

Think: How does it make you feel that God told about the cross long before it happened?

Isaiah 54

THE FUTURE GLORY OF ZION

- ¹“Sing, barren woman,
you who never bore a child;
burst into song, shout for joy,
you who were never in labor;
because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband,”
- says the LORD.
- ²“Enlarge the place of your tent, stretch your tent curtains wide,
do not hold back;
lengthen your cords,
strengthen your stakes.
- ³For you will spread out to the right and to the left; your descendants will dispossess nations and settle in their desolate cities.
- ⁴“Do not be afraid; you will not be put to shame.
Do not fear disgrace; you will not be humiliated.
You will forget the shame of your youth and remember no more the reproach of your widowhood.
- ⁵For your Maker is your husband—
the LORD Almighty is his name—
the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer;
he is called the God of all the earth.
- ⁶The LORD will call you back as if you were a wife deserted and distressed in spirit— a wife who married young,
only to be rejected,” says your God.
- ⁷“For a brief moment I abandoned you, but with deep compassion I will bring you back.
- ⁸In a surge of anger
I hid my face from you for a moment,

but with everlasting kindness
I will have compassion on you,” says the LORD your Redeemer.

⁹“To me this is like the days of Noah, when I swore that the waters of Noah would never again cover the earth.
So now I have sworn not to be angry with you, never to rebuke you again.

¹⁰Though the mountains be shaken

ROCK SOLID promises

“Though the mountains be shaken and the hills be removed, yet my unfailing love for you will not be shaken.”

Isaiah 54:10

Your whole world might be tossed, rocked, and broken, but God’s love for you can’t be shaken.

\(Rock Solid PROMISES Index\)

and the hills be removed,
yet my unfailing love for you will not be shaken nor my covenant of peace be removed,”
says the LORD, who has compassion on you.

¹¹“Afflicted city, lashed by storms and not comforted, I will rebuild you with stones of turquoise,^[109] your foundations with lapis lazuli.

¹²I will make your battlements of rubies, your gates of sparkling jewels,
and all your walls of precious stones.

- ¹³All your children will be taught by the LORD, and great will be their peace.
- ¹⁴In righteousness you will be established: Tyranny will be far from you;
you will have nothing to fear.
Terror will be far removed;
it will not come near you.
- ¹⁵If anyone does attack you, it will not be my doing;
whoever attacks you will surrender to you.
- ¹⁶“See, it is I who created the blacksmith who fans the coals into flame and forges a weapon fit for its work.
And it is I who have created the destroyer to wreak havoc;
¹⁷no weapon forged against you will prevail, and you will refute every tongue that accuses you.
This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and this is their vindication from me,”
- declares the LORD.

Isaiah 55

INVITATION TO THE THIRSTY

- ¹“Come, all you who are thirsty, come to the waters;
and you who have no money,
come, buy and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost.
- ²Why spend money on what is not bread, and your labor on what does not satisfy?
Listen, listen to me, and eat what is good,
and you will delight in the richest of fare.
- ³Give ear and come to me;
listen, that you may live.
I will make an everlasting covenant with you,
my faithful love promised to David.
- ⁴See, I have made him a witness to the peoples, a ruler and commander of the peoples.
- ⁵Surely you will summon nations you know not, and nations you do not know will come running to you, because of the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel,
for he has endowed you with splendor.”
- ⁶Seek the LORD while he may be found; call on him while he is near.
- ⁷Let the wicked forsake their ways and the unrighteous their thoughts.
Let them turn to the LORD, and he will have mercy on them, and to our God, for he will freely pardon.
- ⁸“For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways,”

declares the LORD.
- ⁹“As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.
- ¹⁰As the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return to it without watering the earth and making it bud and flourish, so that it yields seed for the sower and bread for the eater, ¹¹so is my word that goes out from my mouth: It will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it.

¹²You will go out in joy and be led forth in peace;

the mountains and hills
will burst into song before you,
and all the trees of the field will clap their hands.

¹³Instead of the thornbush will grow the juniper, and instead of briars the myrtle will grow.
This will be for the LORD's renown,
for an everlasting sign,
that will endure forever.”

Isaiah 56

SALVATION FOR OTHERS

¹This is what the LORD says:

“Maintain justice and do what is right, for my salvation is close at hand and my righteousness will soon be revealed.

²Blessed is the one who does this— the person who holds it fast, who keeps the Sabbath without desecrating it,
and keeps their hands from doing any evil.”

³Let no foreigner who is bound to the LORD say, “The LORD will surely exclude me from his people.”
And let no eunuch complain,
“I am only a dry tree.”

⁴For this is what the LORD says:

“To the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, who choose what pleases me and hold fast to my covenant—

⁵to them I will give within my temple and its walls a memorial and a name better than sons and daughters;

I will give them an everlasting name
that will endure forever.

⁶And foreigners who bind themselves to the LORD to minister to him,

to love the name of the LORD,
and to be his servants,

all who keep the Sabbath without desecrating it and who hold fast to my covenant—

⁷these I will bring to my holy mountain and give them joy in my house of prayer.

Their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house will be called a house of prayer for all nations.”

⁸The Sovereign LORD declares— he who gathers the exiles of Israel:
“I will gather still others to them besides those already gathered.”

GOD’S ACCUSATION AGAINST THE WICKED

⁹Come, all you beasts of the field, come and devour, all you beasts of the forest!

¹⁰Israel’s watchmen are blind,
they all lack knowledge;
they are all mute dogs,
they cannot bark;
they lie around and dream,
they love to sleep.

¹¹They are dogs with mighty appetites; they never have enough.
They are shepherds who lack understanding;
they all turn to their own way,
they seek their own gain.

¹²“Come,” each one cries, “let me get wine!
Let us drink our fill of beer!
And tomorrow will be like today,
or even far better.”

Isaiah 57

¹The righteous perish,
and no one takes it to heart;
the devout are taken away,

and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil.

²Those who walk uprightly enter into peace;
they find rest as they lie in death.

³“But you—come here, you children of a sorceress, you offspring of adulterers and prostitutes!

⁴Who are you mocking?

At whom do you sneer
and stick out your tongue?
Are you not a brood of rebels,
the offspring of liars?

⁵You burn with lust among the oaks and under every spreading tree;
you sacrifice your children in the ravines and under the overhanging crags.

⁶The idols among the smooth stones of the ravines are your portion; indeed, they are your lot.
Yes, to them you have poured out drink offerings and offered grain offerings.
In view of all this, should I relent?

⁷You have made your bed on a high and lofty hill; there you went up to offer your sacrifices.

⁸Behind your doors and your doorposts you have put your pagan symbols.
Forsaking me, you uncovered your bed,
you climbed into it and opened it wide;
you made a pact with those whose beds you love,
and you looked with lust on their naked bodies.

⁹You went to Molek^[110] with olive oil and increased your perfumes.
You sent your ambassadors^[111] far away; you descended to the very realm of the dead!

¹⁰You wearied yourself by such going about, but you would not say, 'It is hopeless.'
You found renewal of your strength, and so you did not faint.

¹¹"Whom have you so dreaded and feared that you have not been true to me,

and have neither remembered me
nor taken this to heart?
Is it not because I have long been silent that you do not fear me?

¹²I will expose your righteousness and your works, and they will not benefit you.

¹³When you cry out for help,
let your collection of idols save you!
The wind will carry all of them off,
a mere breath will blow them away.
But whoever takes refuge in me will inherit the land and possess my holy mountain.”

COMFORT FOR THE CONTRITE

¹⁴And it will be said:

“Build up, build up, prepare the road!

Remove the obstacles out of the way of my people.”

¹⁵For this is what the high and exalted One says— he who lives forever, whose name is holy:

“I live in a high and holy place, but also with the one who is contrite and lowly in spirit, to revive the spirit of the lowly and to revive the heart of the contrite.

¹⁶I will not accuse them forever, nor will I always be angry, for then they would faint away because of me— the very people I have created.

¹⁷I was enraged by their sinful greed; I punished them, and hid my face in anger, yet they kept on in their willful ways.

¹⁸I have seen their ways, but I will heal them; I will guide them and restore comfort to Israel’s mourners, ¹⁹creating praise on their lips.

Peace, peace, to those far and near,”

says the LORD. “And I will heal them.”

²⁰But the wicked are like the tossing sea, which cannot rest, whose waves cast up mire and mud.

²¹“There is no peace,” says my God, “for the wicked.”

Isaiah 58

TRUE FASTING

- ¹“Shout it aloud, do not hold back.
Raise your voice like a trumpet.
Declare to my people their rebellion and to the descendants of Jacob their sins.
- ²For day after day they seek me out; they seem eager to know my ways,
as if they were a nation that does what is right and has not forsaken the commands of its God.
They ask me for just decisions and seem eager for God to come near them.
- ³“Why have we fasted,’ they say,
‘and you have not seen it?
Why have we humbled ourselves, and you have not noticed?’
“Yet on the day of your fasting, you do as you please and exploit all your workers.
- ⁴Your fasting ends in quarreling and strife, and in striking each other with wicked fists.
You cannot fast as you do today and expect your voice to be heard on high.
- ⁵Is this the kind of fast I have chosen, only a day for people to humble themselves?
Is it only for bowing one’s head like a reed and for lying in sackcloth and ashes?
Is that what you call a fast,
a day acceptable to the LORD?
- ⁶“Is not this the kind of fasting I have chosen: to loose the chains of injustice and untie the cords of the yoke, to set the oppressed free

and break every yoke?

⁷Is it not to share your food with the hungry and to provide the poor wanderer with shelter— when you see the naked, to clothe them,
and not to turn away from your own flesh and blood?

⁸Then your light will break forth like the dawn, and your healing will quickly appear; then your righteousness^[112] will go before you, and the glory of the LORD will be your rear guard.

⁹Then you will call, and the LORD will answer; you will cry for help, and he will say: Here am I.
“If you do away with the yoke of oppression, with the pointing finger and malicious talk,

¹⁰and if you spend yourselves in behalf of the hungry and satisfy the needs of the oppressed, then your light will rise in the darkness,
and your night will become like the noonday.

¹¹The LORD will guide you always; he will satisfy your needs in a sun-scorched land and will strengthen your frame.
You will be like a well-watered garden,
like a spring whose waters never fail.

¹²Your people will rebuild the ancient ruins and will raise up the age-old foundations;
you will be called Repairer of Broken Walls, Restorer of Streets with Dwellings.

¹³“If you keep your feet from breaking the Sabbath and from doing as you please on my holy day, if you call the Sabbath a delight and the LORD’s holy day honorable, and if you honor it by not going your own way
and not doing as you please or speaking idle words,

¹⁴then you will find your joy in the LORD, and I will cause you to ride in triumph on the heights of the land and to feast on the inheritance of your father Jacob.”

For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Isaiah 59

SIN, CONFESSION AND REDEMPTION

- ¹Surely the arm of the LORD is not too short to save, nor his ear too dull to hear.
- ²But your iniquities have separated you from your God;
your sins have hidden his face from you,
so that he will not hear.
- ³For your hands are stained with blood, your fingers with guilt.
Your lips have spoken falsely, and your tongue mutters wicked things.
- ⁴No one calls for justice;
no one pleads a case with integrity.
They rely on empty arguments, they utter lies;
they conceive trouble and give birth to evil.
- ⁵They hatch the eggs of vipers and spin a spider's web.
Whoever eats their eggs will die,
and when one is broken, an adder is hatched.
- ⁶Their cobwebs are useless for clothing; they cannot cover themselves with what they make.
Their deeds are evil deeds, and acts of violence are in their hands.
- ⁷Their feet rush into sin;
they are swift to shed innocent blood.
They pursue evil schemes;
acts of violence mark their ways.
- ⁸The way of peace they do not know; there is no justice in their paths.
They have turned them into crooked roads;
no one who walks along them will know peace.
- ⁹So justice is far from us,
and righteousness does not reach us.
We look for light, but all is darkness;
for brightness, but we walk in deep shadows.

- ¹⁰Like the blind we grope along the wall, feeling our way like people without eyes.
At midday we stumble as if it were twilight;
among the strong, we are like the dead.
- ¹¹We all growl like bears;
we moan mournfully like doves.
We look for justice, but find none;
for deliverance, but it is far away.
- ¹²For our offenses are many in your sight, and our sins testify against us.
Our offenses are ever with us,
and we acknowledge our iniquities:
- ¹³rebellion and treachery against the LORD, turning our backs on our God,
inciting revolt and oppression,
uttering lies our hearts have conceived.
- ¹⁴So justice is driven back,
and righteousness stands at a distance;
truth has stumbled in the streets, honesty cannot enter.
- ¹⁵Truth is nowhere to be found,
and whoever shuns evil becomes a prey.
The LORD looked and was displeased that there was no justice.
- ¹⁶He saw that there was no one,
he was appalled that there was no one to intervene;
so his own arm achieved salvation for him,
and his own righteousness sustained him.
- ¹⁷He put on righteousness as his breastplate, and the helmet of salvation on his head;
he put on the garments of vengeance and wrapped himself in zeal as in a cloak.
- ¹⁸According to what they have done, so will he repay wrath to his enemies and retribution to his foes;

he will repay the islands their due.

¹⁹From the west, people will fear the name of the LORD, and from the rising of the sun, they will revere his glory.

For he will come like a pent-up flood that the breath of the LORD drives along. ^[113]

²⁰“The Redeemer will come to Zion, to those in Jacob who repent of their sins,”

declares the LORD.

²¹“As for me, this is my covenant with them,” says the LORD. “My Spirit, who is on you, will not depart from you, and my words that I have put in your mouth will always be on your lips, on the lips of your children and on the lips of their descendants—from this time on and forever,” says the LORD.

ROCK SOLID truths

Isaiah 59:1–13

Sin makes God feel far away.

The slogans slapped on Christian bumper stickers can make your faith sound cheesy. But here’s one that speaks truth: “If God seems far away, who moved?” That sums up what Isaiah meant when he said, “Your iniquities have separated you from your God” (Isaiah 59:2). Sin makes the Lord seem far away. In fact, separation from God is the biggest consequence of doing wrong. Every time you sin—whether by doing wrong or failing to do right—it’s like you put another brick on a wall between you and God. Jesus came and knocked down that wall so you can live close to God now and forever (see Hebrews 10:19–22). But people who keep piling up those bricks will one day find themselves walled up in a cell, cut off from God. That separation from God is what hell is all about.

Think: Do you feel far from God when you sin? What are you going to do about that?

THE GLORY OF ZION

¹“Arise, shine, for your light has come,

Darkness envelops the earth, but God will light up your world and shine through you.

and the glory of the LORD rises upon you.

²See, darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the LORD rises upon you and his glory appears over you.

³Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn.

⁴“Lift up your eyes and look about you: All assemble and come to you;
your sons come from afar,
and your daughters are carried on the hip.

⁵Then you will look and be radiant, your heart will throb and swell with joy;
the wealth on the seas will be brought to you,
to you the riches of the nations will come.

⁶Herds of camels will cover your land, young camels of Midian and Ephah.

And all from Sheba will come,

- bearing gold and incense and proclaiming the praise of the LORD.
- ⁷All Kedar's flocks will be gathered to you, the rams of Nebaioth will serve you;
they will be accepted as offerings on my altar,
and I will adorn my glorious temple.
- ⁸"Who are these that fly along like clouds, like doves to their nests?
- ⁹Surely the islands look to me;
in the lead are the ships of Tarshish, ^[114] bringing your children from afar, with their silver and gold,
to the honor of the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel,
for he has endowed you with splendor.
- ¹⁰"Foreigners will rebuild your walls, and their kings will serve you.
Though in anger I struck you,
in favor I will show you compassion.
- ¹¹Your gates will always stand open, they will never be shut,
day or night,
so that people may bring you the wealth of the nations
their kings led in triumphal procession.
- ¹²For the nation or kingdom that will not serve you will perish; it will be utterly ruined.
- ¹³"The glory of Lebanon will come to you, the juniper, the fir and the cypress together, to adorn my sanctuary;
and I will glorify the place for my feet.
- ¹⁴The children of your oppressors will come bowing before you; all who despise you will bow down at your feet
and will call you the City of the LORD, Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
- ¹⁵"Although you have been forsaken and hated, with no one traveling through,
I will make you the everlasting pride and the joy of all generations.

¹⁶You will drink the milk of nations and be nursed at royal breasts.

Then you will know that I, the LORD, am your Savior,
your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

¹⁷Instead of bronze I will bring you gold, and silver in place of iron.

Instead of wood I will bring you bronze, and iron in place of stones.

I will make peace your governor and well-being your ruler.

¹⁸No longer will violence be heard in your land, nor ruin or destruction within your borders, but you will call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.

¹⁹The sun will no more be your light by day, nor will the brightness of the moon shine on you, for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory.

²⁰Your sun will never set again, and your moon will wane no more;
the LORD will be your everlasting light,
and your days of sorrow will end.

²¹Then all your people will be righteous and they will possess the land forever.
They are the shoot I have planted,
the work of my hands,
for the display of my splendor.

²²The least of you will become a thousand, the smallest a mighty nation.
I am the LORD;
in its time I will do this swiftly.”

Isaiah 61

THE YEAR OF THE LORD'S FAVOR

¹The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me, because the LORD has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor.
He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners,^[115] ²to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor and the day of vengeance of our God,
to comfort all who mourn, ³and provide for those who grieve in Zion— to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes,

the oil of joy
instead of mourning,

and a garment of praise
instead of a spirit of despair.
They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the LORD
for the display of his splendor.

⁴They will rebuild the ancient ruins and restore the places long devastated;
they will renew the ruined cities that have been devastated for generations.

⁵Strangers will shepherd your flocks; foreigners will work your fields and vineyards.

⁶And you will be called priests of the LORD, you will be named ministers of our God.
You will feed on the wealth of nations,
and in their riches you will boast.

⁷Instead of your shame
you will receive a double portion,

and instead of disgrace
you will rejoice in your inheritance.
And so you will inherit a double portion in your land,
and everlasting joy will be yours.

⁸“For I, the LORD, love justice; I hate robbery and wrongdoing.

In my faithfulness I will reward my people and make an everlasting covenant with them.

⁹Their descendants will be known among the nations and their offspring among the peoples.

All who see them will acknowledge that they are a people the LORD has blessed.”

¹⁰I delight greatly in the LORD; my soul rejoices in my God.
For he has clothed me with garments of salvation and arrayed me in a robe of his righteousness, as a bridegroom adorns his head like a priest,
and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

¹¹For as the soil makes the sprout come up and a garden causes seeds to grow, so the Sovereign LORD will make righteousness and praise spring up before all nations.

Isaiah 61:1–3

God is healing.

When Adam and Eve sinned, they kicked off what became a bad human habit. Our sinfulness has shattered the good world God created. But the Lord has a plan to put everything back together again. The prophet Isaiah sums up how God aims to heal us—by serving the poor, the brokenhearted, and the captive ... by comforting mourners ... by lifting people from despair (see Isaiah 61:1–3). Jesus stood up in his hometown house of worship, read this passage aloud and declared it was talking about him. His neighbors were so upset they chased him out of town to toss him from a cliff (see Luke 4:14–30). They didn't grasp that Jesus is at the heart of God's plan to heal us.

So ... What kind of healing do you need from God?

Isaiah 62

ZION'S NEW NAME

- ¹For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not remain quiet, till her vindication shines out like the dawn, her salvation like a blazing torch.
- ²The nations will see your vindication, and all kings your glory;
you will be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will bestow.
- ³You will be a crown of splendor in the LORD's hand, a royal diadem in the hand of your God.
- ⁴No longer will they call you Deserted, or name your land Desolate.
But you will be called Hephzibah,^[116] and your land Beulah^[117]; for the LORD will take delight in you, and your land will be married.
- ⁵As a young man marries a young woman, so will your Builder marry you;
as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride,
so will your God rejoice over you.
- ⁶I have posted watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem; they will never be silent day or night.
You who call on the LORD,
give yourselves no rest,
- ⁷and give him no rest till he establishes Jerusalem and makes her the praise of the earth.
- ⁸The LORD has sworn by his right hand and by his mighty arm:
"Never again will I give your grain
as food for your enemies, and never again will foreigners drink the new wine for which you have toiled;
- ⁹but those who harvest it will eat it and praise the LORD, and those who gather the grapes will drink it in the courts of my sanctuary.”

¹⁰Pass through, pass through the gates!
Prepare the way for the people.
Build up, build up the highway!
Remove the stones.
Raise a banner for the nations.

¹¹The LORD has made proclamation to the ends of the earth:
“Say to Daughter Zion, ‘See, your Savior comes!
See, his reward is with him,
and his recompense accompanies him.’ ”

¹²They will be called the Holy People, the Redeemed of the LORD;
and you will be called Sought After,
the City No Longer Deserted.

Isaiah 63

GOD'S DAY OF VENGEANCE AND REDEMPTION

- ¹Who is this coming from Edom,
from Bozrah, with his garments stained crimson?
Who is this, robed in splendor,
striding forward in the greatness of his strength?
“It is I, proclaiming victory, mighty to save.”
- ²Why are your garments red,
like those of one treading the winepress?
- ³“I have trodden the winepress alone; from the nations no one was with me.
I trampled them in my anger and trod them down in my wrath;
their blood spattered my garments,
and I stained all my clothing.
- ⁴It was for me the day of vengeance; the year for me to redeem had come.
- ⁵I looked, but there was no one to help, I was appalled that no one gave support;
so my own arm achieved salvation for me,
and my own wrath sustained me.
- ⁶I trampled the nations in my anger; in my wrath I made them drunk
and poured their blood on the ground.”

PRAISE AND PRAYER

- ⁷I will tell of the kindnesses of the LORD, the deeds for which he is to be praised, according to all the LORD has done for us—
yes, the many good things
 he has done for Israel,
 according to his compassion and many kindnesses.
- ⁸He said, “Surely they are my people, children who will be true to me”;
 and so he became their Savior.
- ⁹In all their distress he too was distressed, and the angel of his presence saved them.^[118]
 In his love and mercy he redeemed them;
 he lifted them up and carried them all the days of old.
- ¹⁰Yet they rebelled
 and grieved his Holy Spirit.
 So he turned and became their enemy and he himself fought against them.
- ¹¹Then his people recalled^[119] the days of old, the days of Moses and his people— where is he who brought them through the sea,
 with the shepherd of his flock?

Where is he who set his Holy Spirit among them, ¹²who sent his glorious arm of power to be at Moses' right hand,
who divided the waters before them,
to gain for himself everlasting renown, ¹³who led them through the depths?
Like a horse in open country,
they did not stumble;
¹⁴like cattle that go down to the plain, they were given rest by the Spirit of the LORD.
This is how you guided your people to make for yourself a glorious name.

¹⁵Look down from heaven and see,
from your lofty throne, holy and glorious.
Where are your zeal and your might?
Your tenderness and compassion are withheld from us.

¹⁶But you are our Father, though Abraham does not know us or Israel acknowledge us;
you, LORD, are our Father,
our Redeemer from of old is your name.

¹⁷Why, LORD, do you make us wander from your ways and harden our hearts so we do not revere you?
Return for the sake of your servants,
the tribes that are your inheritance.

¹⁸For a little while your people possessed your holy place, but now our enemies have trampled down your sanctuary.

¹⁹We are yours from of old;
but you have not ruled over them,
they have not been called^[120] by your name.

Isaiah 64^[121]

- ¹Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down, that the mountains would tremble before you!
- ²As when fire sets twigs ablaze
and causes water to boil, come down to make your name known to your enemies and cause the nations to quake before you!
- ³For when you did awesome things that we did not expect, you came down, and the mountains trembled
before you.
- ⁴Since ancient times no one has heard, no ear has perceived,
no eye has seen any God besides you,
who acts on behalf of those who wait for him.
- ⁵You come to the help of those who gladly do right, who remember your ways.
But when we continued to sin against them,
you were angry.
How then can we be saved?
- ⁶All of us have become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous acts are like filthy rags;
we all shrivel up like a leaf,
and like the wind our sins sweep us away.
- ⁷No one calls on your name or strives to lay hold of you;
for you have hidden your face from us and have given us over to^[122] our sins.
- ⁸Yet you, LORD, are our Father.
We are the clay, you are the potter;
we are all the work of your hand.
- ⁹Do not be angry beyond measure, LORD; do not remember our sins forever.
Oh, look on us, we pray,
for we are all your people.
- ¹⁰Your sacred cities have become a wasteland; even Zion is a wasteland, Jerusalem a desolation.
- ¹¹Our holy and glorious temple, where our ancestors praised you, has been burned with fire, and all that we treasured lies in ruins.

¹²After all this, LORD, will you hold yourself back?
Will you keep silent and punish us beyond measure?

Isaiah 64:1–12

God is awesome.

The prophet Isaiah was so upset by the sins of Israel’s enemies that he begged for God to “rend the heavens and come down” (Isaiah 64:1). Inviting the Lord to come and judge the world might sound like asking to get grounded—or worse—but only if you have done something wrong. Isaiah admits that God’s people have sinned. They have endured his punishment. But now he asks the Lord to halt his anger and forgive them (see Isaiah 64:8–9, 12). And he begs for God to unleash ferocious power against his enemies (see Isaiah 64:2). Isaiah understood the awesomeness of God. God is awesome in both forgiveness and fury.

So ... Suppose your awesome God came down into your world right now. What would he do?

(Unshaken GOD Index)

Isaiah 65

JUDGMENT AND SALVATION

- ¹“I revealed myself to those who did not ask for me; I was found by those who did not seek me.
To a nation that did not call on my name,
I said, ‘Here am I, here am I.’
- ²All day long I have held out my hands to an obstinate people,
who walk in ways not good,
pursuing their own imaginations—
- ³a people who continually provoke me to my very face, offering sacrifices in gardens and burning incense on altars of brick; ⁴who sit among the graves and spend their nights keeping secret vigil;

who eat the flesh of pigs,
and whose pots hold broth of impure meat; ⁵who say, 'Keep away; don't come near me, for I am too sacred for you!'
Such people are smoke in my nostrils,
a fire that keeps burning all day.
⁶"See, it stands written before me: I will not keep silent but will pay back in full;
I will pay it back into their laps—⁷both your sins and the sins of your ancestors,"
says the LORD.
"Because they burned sacrifices on the mountains and defied me on the hills,
I will measure into their laps
the full payment for their former deeds."

⁸This is what the LORD says:

"As when juice is still found in a cluster of grapes and people say, 'Don't destroy it, there is still a blessing in it,'
so will I do in behalf of my servants;
I will not destroy them all.
⁹I will bring forth descendants from Jacob, and from Judah those who will possess my mountains;
my chosen people will inherit them,
and there will my servants live.
¹⁰Sharon will become a pasture for flocks, and the Valley of Achor a resting place for herds, for my people who seek me.
¹¹"But as for you who forsake the LORD and forget my holy mountain, who spread a table for Fortune and fill bowls of mixed wine for Destiny,

¹²I will destine you for the sword, and all of you will fall in the slaughter;
for I called but you did not answer,
I spoke but you did not listen.
You did evil in my sight
and chose what displeases me.”

¹³Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“My servants will eat,
but you will go hungry;
my servants will drink,
but you will go thirsty;
my servants will rejoice,
but you will be put to shame.

¹⁴My servants will sing out of the joy of their hearts, but you will cry out from anguish of heart and wail in brokenness of spirit.

¹⁵You will leave your name for my chosen ones to use in their curses;
the Sovereign LORD will put you to death,
but to his servants he will give another name.

¹⁶Whoever invokes a blessing in the land will do so by the one true God;
whoever takes an oath in the land will swear by the one true God.
For the past troubles will be forgotten and hidden from my eyes.

NEW HEAVENS AND A NEW EARTH

¹⁷“See, I will create new heavens and a new earth.
The former things will not be remembered,
nor will they come to mind.

¹⁸But be glad and rejoice forever in what I will create, for I will create Jerusalem to be a delight and its people a joy.

¹⁹I will rejoice over Jerusalem and take delight in my people;
the sound of weeping and of crying will be heard in it no more.

²⁰“Never again will there be in it an infant who lives but a few days,
or an old man who does not live out his years;
the one who dies at a hundred will be thought a mere child;
the one who fails to reach^[123] a hundred will be considered accursed.

²¹They will build houses and dwell in them; they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

²²No longer will they build houses and others live in them, or plant and others eat.
For as the days of a tree,
so will be the days of my people;
my chosen ones will long enjoy
the work of their hands.

²³They will not labor in vain,
nor will they bear children doomed to misfortune;
for they will be a people blessed by the LORD, they and their descendants with them.

²⁴Before they call I will answer; while they are still speaking
I will hear.

²⁵The wolf and the lamb will feed together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox,
and dust will be the serpent's food.
They will neither harm nor destroy
on all my holy mountain,"

says the LORD.

Isaiah 66

JUDGMENT AND HOPE

¹This is what the LORD says:

“Heaven is my throne,
and the earth is my footstool.
Where is the house you will build for me?
Where will my resting place be?”

²Has not my hand made all these things, and so they came into being?”

declares the LORD.

“These are the ones I look on with favor:
those who are humble and contrite in spirit,
and who tremble at my word.

³But whoever sacrifices a bull is like one who kills a person, and whoever offers a lamb is like one who breaks a dog's neck;

whoever makes a grain offering is like one who presents pig's blood, and whoever burns memorial incense is like one who worships an idol.

They have chosen their own ways,
and they delight in their abominations; ⁴so I also will choose harsh treatment for them and will bring on them what they dread.
For when I called, no one answered, when I spoke, no one listened.
They did evil in my sight
and chose what displeases me.”

⁵Hear the word of the LORD, you who tremble at his word:
“Your own people who hate you,
and exclude you because of my name, have said, ‘Let the LORD be glorified, that we may see your joy!’
Yet they will be put to shame.

⁶Hear that uproar from the city,
hear that noise from the temple!
It is the sound of the LORD repaying his enemies all they deserve.

⁷“Before she goes into labor,
she gives birth;
before the pains come upon her,
she delivers a son.

⁸Who has ever heard of such things?
Who has ever seen things like this?
Can a country be born in a day or a nation be brought forth in a moment?
Yet no sooner is Zion in labor than she gives birth to her children.

⁹Do I bring to the moment of birth and not give delivery?” says the LORD.
“Do I close up the womb when I bring to delivery?” says your God.

¹⁰“Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her, all you who love her;
rejoice greatly with her,
all you who mourn over her.

¹¹For you will nurse and be satisfied at her comforting breasts;

you will drink deeply and delight in her overflowing abundance.”

¹²For this is what the LORD says:

“I will extend peace to her like a river, and the wealth of nations like a flooding stream;
you will nurse and be carried on her arm and dandled on her knees.

¹³As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you;
and you will be comforted over Jerusalem.”

¹⁴When you see this, your heart will rejoice and you will flourish like grass;
the hand of the LORD will be made known to his servants, but his fury will be shown to his foes.

¹⁵See, the LORD is coming with fire, and his chariots are like a whirlwind;
he will bring down his anger with fury,
and his rebuke with flames of fire.

¹⁶For with fire and with his sword the LORD will execute judgment on all people, and many will be those slain by the LORD.

¹⁷“Those who consecrate and purify themselves to go into the gardens, following one who is among those who eat the flesh of pigs, rats and other unclean things—they will meet their end together with the one they follow,”
declares the LORD.

¹⁸“And I, because of what they have planned and done, am about to come^[124] and gather the people of all nations and languages, and they will come and see my glory.

¹⁹“I will set a sign among them, and I will send some of those who survive to the nations—to Tarshish, to the Libyans^[125] and Lydians (famous as archers), to Tubal and Greece, and to the distant islands that have not heard of my fame or seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory among the nations. ²⁰And they will bring all your people, from all the nations, to my holy mountain in Jerusalem as an offering to the LORD—on horses, in chariots and wagons, and on mules and camels,” says the LORD. “They will bring them, as the Israelites bring their grain offerings, to the temple of the LORD in ceremonially clean vessels. ²¹And I will select some of them also to be priests and Levites,” says
the LORD.

²²“As the new heavens and the new earth that I make will endure before me,” declares the LORD, “so will your name and descendants endure. ²³From one

New Moon to another and from one Sabbath to another, all mankind will come and bow down before me,” says the LORD. ²⁴“And they will go out and look on the dead bodies of those who rebelled against me; the worms that eat them will not die, the fire that burns them will not be quenched, and they will be loathsome to all mankind.”

UNSHAKEN people

Isaiah 22

Isaiah called out God's people.

Details about Old Testament prophets are sometimes fuzzy. But in the case of Isaiah, we know his ministry dates to the year King Uzziah died (see Isaiah 6:1). He began preaching in the year 740 BC.

The story behind Isaiah's ministry is just as clear. Isaiah had a stunning vision of God sitting high upon his heavenly throne, surrounded by hovering angels calling out in worship, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory" (Isaiah 6:3). Isaiah cried out that he was too sinful to stand before God. But the Lord forgave his sins and offered him a job. Isaiah was supposed to "Go and tell this people ..." (Isaiah 6:9).

Isaiah spent almost the next 60 years going and telling people what God told him to say. Much of the time this powerful preacher delivered a message of judgment, hammering on details of how the people fell short of God's expectations. But he also said a Messiah would be born to the line of David. This Savior would reign forever (see Isaiah 9:6-7) and suffer for the sins of the world, a clear prediction of Jesus' death on the cross (see Isaiah 53:1-12).

The people of Israel must have grown fed up with Isaiah's correction. Tradition says he was sawn in half by Manasseh, the most evil king to ever rule Judah.

You can find Isaiah in 2 Kings 19-20; 2 Chronicles 26:22 and 32:32; and the book that bears his name, as well as many quotations in the New Testament, such as Matthew 3:3.

Isaiah 36:1–37:20

Hezekiah prayed to God.

Hezekiah was six years into his reign over the southern kingdom of Judah when the northern kingdom of Israel was defeated by the Assyrians and its people dragged into captivity. God had predicted long before that he would judge his people if they didn't abandon their sins, threatening to send them into captivity as punishment for their worship of false gods (see 2 Kings 17:5–23). When judgment came, the people of Israel were taken to Assyria and conquered peoples from other nations settled on their land.

Hezekiah saw what happened to the north, and he feared his kingdom could face the same swift judgment. Only a few years later, in fact, Sennacherib king of Assyria conquered all the walled cities of Judah—all except for Jerusalem. From outside the wall he taunted that he would soon destroy the holy city.

Rather than give up, Hezekiah prayed. He worshiped God as king of the entire earth. He told the Lord not to ignore all the insults Sennacherib was spewing at heaven. He reminded the Lord that the Assyrians had conquered the peoples around them and dethroned their idols. And then Hezekiah asked that God would save them, “so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, LORD, are the only God” (Isaiah 37:20).

When Hezekiah prayed, the Lord answered. He put to death 185,000 foreign soldiers, forcing Sennacherib to withdraw. And while the Assyrian king was back home worshiping his god Nisroch, his sons caught and murdered him (see Isaiah 37:36–38).

You can find Hezekiah in 2 Kings 18–20; 2 Chronicles 29–33; Isaiah 36–39; and Matthew 1:9.

(46:1–51:64)

(52:1–34)

Jeremiah, like Isaiah, was a young man called by God to warn Judah about its wickedness. He spent the first twenty years of his ministry under Josiah, a good king who tried to bring the people of Judah back to God. Jeremiah was often in danger from political and religious leaders who were angry because of his messages. Through this entire ordeal God protected Jeremiah so he could continue to warn the wicked and comfort those who trusted in God.

After Jerusalem was destroyed in 586 BC, Jeremiah chose to remain with the people, and eventually went with them to Egypt.

Since the messages of Jeremiah are not arranged in chronological order, it is helpful to read the history of Judah as found in Kings and Chronicles to better understand Jeremiah's messages.

Jeremiah

Jeremiah 1

¹The words of Jeremiah son of Hilkiah, one of the priests at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin. ²The word of the LORD came to him in the thirteenth year of the reign of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah, ³and through the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, down to the fifth month of the eleventh year of Zedekiah son of Josiah king of Judah, when the people of Jerusalem went into exile.

THE CALL OF JEREMIAH

⁴The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

⁵“Before I formed you in the womb I knew^[1] you, before you were born I set you apart;
I appointed you as a prophet to the nations.”

⁶“Alas, Sovereign LORD,” I said, “I do not know how to speak; I am too young.”

⁷But the LORD said to me, “Do not say, ‘I am too young.’ You must go to everyone I send you to and say whatever I command you. ⁸Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you and will rescue you,” declares the LORD.

⁹Then the LORD reached out his hand and touched my mouth and said to me, “I have put my words in your mouth. ¹⁰See, today I appoint you over nations and kingdoms to uproot and tear down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant.”

¹¹The word of the LORD came to me: “What do you see, Jeremiah?”

“I see the branch of an almond tree,” I replied.

¹²The LORD said to me, “You have seen correctly, for I am watching^[2] to see that my word is fulfilled.”

¹³The word of the LORD came to me again: “What do you see?”

“I see a pot that is boiling,” I answered. “It is tilting toward us from the north.”

¹⁴The LORD said to me, “From the north disaster will be poured out on all who live in the land. ¹⁵I am about to summon all the peoples of the northern kingdoms,” declares the LORD.

“Their kings will come and set up their thrones in the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem;
they will come against all her surrounding walls and against all the towns of Judah.

¹⁶I will pronounce my judgments on my people because of their wickedness in forsaking me, in burning incense to other gods and in worshiping what their hands have made.

¹⁷“Get yourself ready! Stand up and say to them whatever I command you. Do not be terrified by them, or I will terrify you before them. ¹⁸Today I have made you a fortified city, an iron pillar and a bronze wall to stand against the whole land—against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests and the people of the land. ¹⁹They will fight against you but will not overcome you, for I am with you and will rescue you,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 2

ISRAEL FORSAKES GOD

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem: “This is what the LORD says:

“ ‘I remember the devotion of your youth, how as a bride you loved me
and followed me through the wilderness, through a land not sown.

³Israel was holy to the LORD, the firstfruits of his harvest;
all who devoured her were held guilty, and disaster overtook them,’ ”

declares the LORD.

⁴Hear the word of the LORD, you descendants of Jacob, all you clans of Israel.

⁵This is what the LORD says:

“What fault did your ancestors find in me,
that they strayed so far from me?

They followed worthless idols and became worthless themselves.

⁶They did not ask, ‘Where is the LORD, who brought us up out of Egypt
and led us through the barren wilderness, through a land of deserts and ravines,
a land of drought and utter darkness,
a land where no one travels and no one lives?’

⁷I brought you into a fertile land to eat its fruit and rich produce.
But you came and defiled my land and made my inheritance detestable.

⁸The priests did not ask,
‘Where is the LORD?’
Those who deal with the law did not know me;
the leaders rebelled against me.
The prophets prophesied by Baal,
following worthless idols.

⁹“Therefore I bring charges against you again,”
declares the LORD.

“And I will bring charges against your children’s children.

¹⁰Cross over to the coasts of Cyprus and look, send to Kedar^[3] and observe closely; see if there has ever been anything like this:

¹¹Has a nation ever changed its gods?
(Yet they are not gods at all.)
But my people have exchanged their glorious God for worthless idols.

¹²Be appalled at this, you heavens, and shudder with great horror,”
declares the LORD.

¹³“My people have committed two sins:
They have forsaken me,
the spring of living water,
and have dug their own cisterns, broken cisterns that cannot hold water.

¹⁴Is Israel a servant, a slave by birth?

Why then has he become plunder?

¹⁵Lions have roared;

they have growled at him.

They have laid waste his land;

his towns are burned and deserted.

¹⁶Also, the men of Memphis and Tahpanhes have cracked your skull.

¹⁷Have you not brought this on yourselves by forsaking the

LORD your God

when he led you in the way?

¹⁸Now why go to Egypt to drink water from the Nile^[4]?

And why go to Assyria to drink water from the Euphrates?
¹⁹Your wickedness will punish you;
your backsliding will rebuke you.

Consider then and realize how evil and bitter it is for you when you forsake the LORD your God and have no awe of me,”

declares the Lord, the LORD Almighty.

²⁰“Long ago you broke off your yoke and tore off your bonds;
you said, ‘I will not serve you!’
Indeed, on every high hill and under every spreading tree you lay down as a prostitute.

²¹I had planted you like a choice vine of sound and reliable stock.
How then did you turn against me into a corrupt, wild vine?

²²Although you wash yourself with soap and use an abundance of cleansing powder, the stain of your guilt is still before me,”

declares the Sovereign LORD.

²³“How can you say, ‘I am not defiled;
I have not run after the Baals’?
See how you behaved in the valley;
consider what you have done.
You are a swift she-camel running here and there,

²⁴a wild donkey accustomed to the desert, sniffing the wind in her craving— in her heat who can restrain her?
Any males that pursue her need not tire themselves;
at mating time they will find her.

²⁵Do not run until your feet are bare and your throat is dry.
But you said, ‘It’s no use!
I love foreign gods,
and I must go after them.’

²⁶“As a thief is disgraced when he is caught, so the people of Israel are disgraced— they, their kings and their officials,
their priests and their prophets.

²⁷They say to wood, ‘You are my father,’ and to stone, ‘You gave me birth.’
They have turned their backs to me and not their faces;
yet when they are in trouble, they say,
‘Come and save us!’

²⁸Where then are the gods you made for yourselves?
Let them come if they can save you when you are in trouble!
For you, Judah, have as many gods

as you have towns.

²⁹“Why do you bring charges against me?
You have all rebelled against me,”

declares the LORD.

³⁰“In vain I punished your people;
they did not respond to correction.
Your sword has devoured your prophets like a ravenous lion.

³¹“You of this generation, consider the word of the LORD:

“Have I been a desert to Israel or a land of great darkness?
Why do my people say, ‘We are free to roam;
we will come to you no more’?

³²Does a young woman forget her jewelry, a bride her wedding ornaments?
Yet my people have forgotten me, days without number.

³³How skilled you are at pursuing love!
Even the worst of women can learn from your ways.

³⁴On your clothes is found the lifeblood of the innocent poor, though you did not catch them breaking in.
Yet in spite of all this ³⁵you say, ‘I am innocent;
he is not angry with me.’
But I will pass judgment on you because you say, ‘I have not sinned.’

³⁶Why do you go about so much, changing your ways?
You will be disappointed by Egypt
as you were by Assyria.

³⁷You will also leave that place with your hands on your head, for the LORD has rejected those you trust;
you will not be helped by them.

ROCK SOLID truths

Jeremiah 2:1–11

The whole human race is guilty.

God's words hit hard. Israel was "holy to the LORD," chosen and dedicated to him (Jeremiah 2:3). When God's people first broke free from slavery they followed God in the desert like a young bride chases after a groom. But soon Israel ran fast and far in the opposite direction. They worshiped other gods and became worthless. God asks, "What fault did your ancestors find in me, that they strayed so far from me?" (Jeremiah 2:5). That's the same pointed truth God has to bring up with humankind again and again. Isaiah declared, "We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to our own way" (Isaiah 53:6). The apostle Paul wrote, "All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23). God leaves no doubt. Human beings are sinful. We all need a Savior.

Think: Do you agree that all people are sinful—and need God's forgiveness and help to change? Why or why not?

(Rock Solid TRUTHS Index Entries: Guilt, Sin)

¹“If a man divorces his wife and she leaves him and marries another man, should he return to her again?
Would not the land be completely defiled?
But you have lived as a prostitute with many lovers—would you now return to me?”
declares the LORD.

²“Look up to the barren heights and see.
Is there any place where you have not been ravished?
By the roadside you sat waiting for lovers,
sat like a nomad in the desert.

You have defiled the land with your prostitution and wickedness.

³Therefore the showers have been withheld, and no spring rains have fallen.

Yet you have the brazen look of a prostitute;
you refuse to blush with shame.

⁴Have you not just called to me:

‘My Father, my friend from my youth,

⁵will you always be angry?

Will your wrath continue forever?’

This is how you talk, but you do all the evil you can.”

UNFAITHFUL ISRAEL

⁶During the reign of King Josiah, the LORD said to me, “Have you seen what faithless Israel has done? She has gone up on every high hill and under every spreading tree and has committed adultery there. ⁷I thought that after she had done all this she would return to me but she did not, and her unfaithful sister Judah saw it. ⁸I gave faithless Israel her certificate of divorce and sent her away because of all her adulteries. Yet I saw that her unfaithful sister Judah had no fear; she also went out and committed adultery. ⁹Because Israel’s immorality mattered so little to her, she defiled the land and committed adultery with stone and wood. ¹⁰In spite of all this, her unfaithful sister Judah did not return to me with all her heart, but only in pretense,” declares the LORD.

¹¹The LORD said to me, “Faithless Israel is more righteous than unfaithful Judah. ¹²Go, proclaim this message toward the north:

“ ‘Return, faithless Israel,’ declares the LORD,
‘I will frown on you no longer,
for I am faithful,’ declares the LORD,
‘I will not be angry forever.

¹³Only acknowledge your guilt—
you have rebelled against the LORD your God, you have scattered your favors to foreign gods
under every spreading tree, and have not obeyed me,’ ”

declares the LORD.

¹⁴“Return, faithless people,” declares the LORD, “for I am your husband. I will choose you—one from a town and two from a clan—and bring you to Zion. ¹⁵Then I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will lead you with knowledge and understanding. ¹⁶In those days, when your numbers have increased greatly in the land,” declares the LORD, “people will no longer say, ‘The ark of the covenant of the LORD.’ It will never enter their minds or be remembered; it will not be missed, nor will another one be made. ¹⁷At that time they will call Jerusalem The Throne of the LORD, and all nations will gather in Jerusalem to honor the name of the LORD. No longer will they follow the stubbornness of their evil hearts. ¹⁸In those days the people of Judah will join the people of Israel, and together they will come from a northern land to the land I gave your ancestors as an inheritance.

¹⁹“I myself said,

“ ‘How gladly would I treat you like my children and give you a pleasant land,
the most beautiful inheritance of any nation.’
I thought you would call me ‘Father’ and not turn away from following me.

²⁰But like a woman unfaithful to her husband, so you, Israel, have been unfaithful to me,”

declares the LORD.

²¹A cry is heard on the barren heights,
the weeping and pleading of the people of Israel, because they have perverted their ways and have forgotten the LORD their God.

²²“Return, faithless people;

God will not only forgive you and give you a do-over when you fail, but he will give you power to live his way.

\(Rock Solid PROMISES Index\)

I will cure you of backsliding.”

“Yes, we will come to you, for you are the LORD our God.

²³Surely the idolatrous commotion on the hills and mountains is a deception;

surely in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

²⁴From our youth shameful gods have consumed the fruits of our ancestors' labor— their flocks and herds, their sons and daughters.

²⁵Let us lie down in our shame, and let our disgrace cover us.
We have sinned against the LORD our God,
both we and our ancestors;
from our youth till this day we have not obeyed the LORD our God.”

Jeremiah 4

¹“If you, Israel, will return, then return to me,”

declares the LORD.

“If you put your detestable idols out of my sight and no longer go astray,

²and if in a truthful, just and righteous way you swear, ‘As surely as the LORD lives,’ then the nations will invoke blessings by him and in him they will boast.”

³This is what the LORD says to the people of Judah and to Jerusalem:

“Break up your unplowed ground and do not sow among thorns.

⁴Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, circumcise your hearts, you people of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, or my wrath will flare up and burn like fire because of the evil you have done—
burn with no one to quench it.

DISASTER FROM THE NORTH

- ⁵“Announce in Judah and proclaim in Jerusalem and say:
‘Sound the trumpet throughout the land!’
Cry aloud and say:
‘Gather together!
Let us flee to the fortified cities!’
- ⁶Raise the signal to go to Zion!
Flee for safety without delay!
For I am bringing disaster from the north,
even terrible destruction.”
- ⁷A lion has come out of his lair;
a destroyer of nations has set out.

He has left his place
to lay waste your land.
Your towns will lie in ruins without inhabitant.

⁸So put on sackcloth,
lament and wail,
for the fierce anger of the LORD has not turned away from us.

⁹“In that day,” declares the LORD, “the king and the officials will lose heart,
the priests will be horrified,
and the prophets will be appalled.”

¹⁰Then I said, “Alas, Sovereign LORD! How completely you have deceived this people and Jerusalem by saying, ‘You will have peace,’ when the sword is at our throats!”

¹¹At that time this people and Jerusalem will be told, “A scorching wind from the barren heights in the desert blows toward my people, but not to winnow or cleanse; ¹²a wind too strong for that comes from me. Now I pronounce my judgments against them.”

¹³Look! He advances like the clouds, his chariots come like a whirlwind,
his horses are swifter than eagles.
Woe to us! We are ruined!

¹⁴Jerusalem, wash the evil from your heart and be saved.
How long will you harbor wicked thoughts?

¹⁵A voice is announcing from Dan, proclaiming disaster from the hills of Ephraim.

¹⁶“Tell this to the nations, proclaim concerning Jerusalem:
‘A besieging army is coming from a distant land, raising a war cry against the cities of Judah.

¹⁷They surround her like men guarding a field, because she has rebelled against me, ’ ”

declares the LORD.

¹⁸“Your own conduct and actions have brought this on you.

This is your punishment.
How bitter it is!
How it pierces to the heart!”

¹⁹Oh, my anguish, my anguish!
I writhe in pain.
Oh, the agony of my heart!
My heart pounds within me,
I cannot keep silent.
For I have heard the sound of the trumpet;
I have heard the battle cry.

²⁰Disaster follows disaster;
the whole land lies in ruins.
In an instant my tents are destroyed,
my shelter in a moment.

²¹How long must I see the battle standard and hear the sound of the trumpet?

²²“My people are fools;
they do not know me.
They are senseless children;
they have no understanding.
They are skilled in doing evil;
they know not how to do good.”

²³I looked at the earth, and it was formless and empty;
and at the heavens,
and their light was gone.

²⁴I looked at the mountains, and they were quaking;
all the hills were swaying.

²⁵I looked, and there were no people;
every bird in the sky had flown away.

²⁶I looked, and the fruitful land was a desert; all its towns lay in ruins
before the LORD, before his fierce anger.

²⁷This is what the LORD says:

“The whole land will be ruined, though I will not destroy it completely.

²⁸Therefore the earth will mourn and the heavens above grow dark,
because I have spoken and will not relent,
I have decided and will not turn back.”

²⁹At the sound of horsemen and archers every town takes to flight.
Some go into the thickets;
some climb up among the rocks.
All the towns are deserted;
no one lives in them.

³⁰What are you doing, you devastated one?

Why dress yourself in scarlet and put on jewels of gold?
Why highlight your eyes with makeup?
You adorn yourself in vain.
Your lovers despise you;
they want to kill you.

³¹I hear a cry as of a woman in labor,
a groan as of one bearing her first child—
the cry of Daughter Zion gasping for breath, stretching out her hands and saying, “Alas! I am fainting;
my life is given over to murderers.”

Jeremiah 5

NOT ONE IS UPRIGHT

- ¹“Go up and down the streets of Jerusalem, look around and consider, search through her squares.
If you can find but one person who deals honestly and seeks the truth,
I will forgive this city.
- ²Although they say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives,’ still they are swearing falsely.”
- ³LORD, do not your eyes look for truth?
You struck them, but they felt no pain;
you crushed them, but they refused correction.
They made their faces harder than stone and refused to repent.
- ⁴I thought, “These are only the poor;
they are foolish,
for they do not know the way of the LORD,
the requirements of their God.
- ⁵So I will go to the leaders and speak to them;
surely they know the way of the LORD,
the requirements of their God.”
But with one accord they too had broken off the yoke and torn off the bonds.
- ⁶Therefore a lion from the forest will attack them, a wolf from the desert will ravage them, a leopard will lie in wait near their towns to tear to pieces any who venture out, for their rebellion is great and their backslidings many.

⁷“Why should I forgive you?”

Your children have forsaken me and sworn by gods that are not gods.
I supplied all their needs,

yet they committed adultery and thronged to the houses of prostitutes.

⁸They are well-fed, lusty stallions, each neighing for another man's wife.

⁹Should I not punish them for this?"
declares the LORD.

"Should I not avenge myself
on such a nation as this?"

¹⁰"Go through her vineyards and ravage them, but do not destroy them completely.

Strip off her branches,
for these people do not belong to the LORD.

¹¹The people of Israel and the people of Judah have been utterly unfaithful to me,"

declares the LORD.

¹²They have lied about the LORD; they said, "He will do nothing!

No harm will come to us;
we will never see sword or famine.

¹³The prophets are but wind and the word is not in them;
so let what they say be done to them."

¹⁴Therefore this is what the LORD God Almighty says:

"Because the people have spoken these words,
I will make my words in your mouth a fire and these people the wood it consumes.

¹⁵People of Israel," declares the LORD, "I am bringing a distant nation against you— an ancient and enduring nation, a people whose language you do not know, whose speech you do not understand.

¹⁶Their quivers are like an open grave;
all of them are mighty warriors.

¹⁷They will devour your harvests and food, devour your sons and daughters;

they will devour your flocks and herds,
devour your vines and fig trees.

With the sword they will destroy the fortified cities in which you trust.

¹⁸“Yet even in those days,” declares the LORD, “I will not destroy you completely. ¹⁹And when the people ask, ‘Why has the LORD our God done all this to us?’ you will tell them, ‘As you have forsaken me and served foreign gods in your own land, so now you will serve foreigners in a land not your own.’”

²⁰“Announce this to the descendants of Jacob and proclaim it in Judah:

²¹Hear this, you foolish and senseless people, who have eyes but do not see,
who have ears but do not hear:

²²Should you not fear me?” declares the LORD.
“Should you not tremble in my presence?
I made the sand a boundary for the sea,
an everlasting barrier it cannot cross.
The waves may roll, but they cannot prevail;
they may roar, but they cannot cross it.

²³But these people have stubborn and rebellious hearts; they have turned aside and gone away.

²⁴They do not say to themselves,
‘Let us fear the LORD our God, who gives autumn and spring rains in season,
who assures us of the regular weeks of harvest.’

²⁵Your wrongdoings have kept these away; your sins have deprived you of good.

²⁶“Among my people are the wicked who lie in wait like men who snare birds and like those who set traps to catch people.

²⁷Like cages full of birds, their houses are full of deceit;
they have become rich and powerful ²⁸and have grown fat and sleek.
Their evil deeds have no limit;
they do not seek justice.
They do not promote the case of the fatherless;
they do not defend the just cause of the poor.

²⁹Should I not punish them for this?”

declares the LORD.
“Should I not avenge myself
on such a nation as this?

³⁰“A horrible and shocking thing has happened in the land:

³¹The prophets prophesy lies,
the priests rule by their own authority,
and my people love it this way.
But what will you do in the end?

Jeremiah 6

JERUSALEM UNDER SIEGE

¹“Flee for safety, people of Benjamin!
Flee from Jerusalem!
Sound the trumpet in Tekoa!
Raise the signal over Beth Hakkerem!
For disaster looms out of the north,
even terrible destruction.

²I will destroy Daughter Zion, so beautiful and delicate.

³Shepherds with their flocks will come against her; they will pitch their tents around her, each tending his own portion.”

⁴“Prepare for battle against her!
Arise, let us attack at noon!
But, alas, the daylight is fading, and the shadows of evening grow long.

⁵So arise, let us attack at night and destroy her fortresses!”

⁶This is what the LORD Almighty says:

“Cut down the trees and build siege ramps against Jerusalem.
This city must be punished;
it is filled with oppression.

⁷As a well pours out its water,
so she pours out her wickedness.
Violence and destruction resound in her;
her sickness and wounds are ever before me.

⁸Take warning, Jerusalem, or I will turn away from you and make your land desolate so no one can live in it.”

⁹This is what the LORD Almighty says:

“Let them glean the remnant of Israel
as thoroughly as a vine;
pass your hand over the branches again,
like one gathering grapes.”

¹⁰To whom can I speak and give warning?
Who will listen to me?

Their ears are closed^[5]
so they cannot hear.

The word of the LORD is offensive to them;
they find no pleasure in it.

¹¹But I am full of the wrath of the LORD, and I cannot hold it in.

“Pour it out on the children in the street and on the young men gathered together;
both husband and wife will be caught in it,
and the old, those weighed down with years.

¹²Their houses will be turned over to others, together with their fields and their wives,
when I stretch out my hand against those who live in the land,”

declares the LORD.

¹³“From the least to the greatest,
all are greedy for gain;
prophets and priests alike,
all practice deceit.

¹⁴They dress the wound of my people
as though it were not serious.
‘Peace, peace,’ they say,
when there is no peace.

¹⁵Are they ashamed of their detestable conduct?
No, they have no shame at all;
they do not even know how to blush.
So they will fall among the fallen;
they will be brought down when I punish them,”

says the LORD.

¹⁶This is what the LORD says:

ROCK SOLID promises

“Ask where the good way is, and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls.”

Jeremiah 6:16

Peace comes from walking in God’s commands, not from running fast to escape them.

\(Rock Solid PROMISES Index\)

“Stand at the crossroads and look;
ask for the ancient paths,
ask where the good way is, and walk in it,
and you will find rest for your souls.
But you said, ‘We will not walk in it.’

¹⁷I appointed watchmen over you and said, ‘Listen to the sound of the trumpet!’

But you said, ‘We will not listen.’

¹⁸Therefore hear, you nations;
you who are witnesses,
observe what will happen to them.

¹⁹Hear, you earth:
I am bringing disaster on this people,
the fruit of their schemes, because they have not listened to my words and have rejected my law.

²⁰What do I care about incense from Sheba or sweet calamus from a distant land?
Your burnt offerings are not acceptable;
your sacrifices do not please me.”

²¹Therefore this is what the LORD says:

“I will put obstacles before this people.
Parents and children alike will stumble over them;
neighbors and friends will perish.”

²²This is what the LORD says:

“Look, an army is coming from the land of the north;
a great nation is being stirred up from the ends of the earth.

²³They are armed with bow and spear;
they are cruel and show no mercy.
They sound like the roaring sea
as they ride on their horses;
they come like men in battle formation
to attack you, Daughter Zion.”

²⁴We have heard reports about them, and our hands hang limp.
Anguish has gripped us,
pain like that of a woman in labor.

²⁵Do not go out to the fields or walk on the roads,
for the enemy has a sword,
and there is terror on every side.

²⁶Put on sackcloth, my people,
and roll in ashes;

mourn with bitter wailing as for an only son,

for suddenly the destroyer will come upon us.

²⁷“I have made you a tester of metals and my people the ore, that you may observe and test their ways.

²⁸They are all hardened rebels, going about to slander.
They are bronze and iron;
they all act corruptly.

²⁹The bellows blow fiercely to burn away the lead with fire, but the refining goes on in vain;
the wicked are not purged out.

³⁰They are called rejected silver,
because the LORD has rejected them.”

Jeremiah 7

FALSE RELIGION WORTHLESS

¹This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²“Stand at the gate of the LORD’s house and there proclaim this message: “ ‘Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who come through these gates to worship the LORD. ³This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Reform your ways and your actions, and I will let you live in this place. ⁴Do not trust in deceptive words and say, “This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD!” ⁵If you really change your ways and your actions and deal with each other justly, ⁶if you do not oppress the foreigner, the fatherless or the widow and do not shed innocent blood in this place, and if you do not follow other gods to your own harm, ⁷then I will let you live in this place, in the land I gave your ancestors for ever and ever. ⁸But look, you are trusting in deceptive words that are worthless.

¹²“ ‘Go now to the place in Shiloh where I first made a dwelling for my Name, and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of my people Israel. ¹³While you were doing all these things, declares the LORD, I spoke to you again and again, but you did not listen; I called you, but you did not answer. ¹⁴Therefore, what I did to Shiloh I will now do to the house that bears my Name, the temple you trust in, the place I gave to you and your ancestors. ¹⁵I will thrust you from my presence, just as I did all your fellow Israelites, the people of Ephraim.’

¹⁶“So do not pray for this people nor offer any plea or petition for them; do not plead with me, for I will not listen to you. ¹⁷Do you not see what they are doing in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁸The children gather wood, the fathers light the fire, and the women knead the dough and make cakes to offer to the Queen of Heaven. They pour out drink offerings to other gods to arouse my anger. ¹⁹But am I the one they are provoking? declares the LORD. Are they not rather harming themselves, to their own shame?

²⁰“ ‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: My anger and my wrath will be poured out on this place—on man and beast, on the trees of the field and on the crops of your land—and it will burn and not be quenched.

²¹“ ‘This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Go ahead, add your burnt offerings to your other sacrifices and eat the meat yourselves! ²²For when I brought your ancestors out of Egypt and spoke to them, I did not just give them commands about burnt offerings and sacrifices, ²³but I gave them this command: Obey me, and I will be your God and you will be my people. Walk in obedience to all I command you, that it may go well with you. ²⁴But they did not listen or pay attention; instead, they followed the stubborn inclinations of their evil hearts. They went backward and not forward. ²⁵From the time your ancestors left Egypt until now, day after day, again and again I sent you my servants the prophets. ²⁶But they did not listen to me or pay attention. They were stiff-necked and did more evil than their ancestors.’

²⁷“‘When you tell them all this, they will not listen to you; when you call to them, they will not answer. ²⁸Therefore say to them, ‘This is the nation that has not obeyed the LORD its God or responded to correction. Truth has perished; it has vanished from their lips.

²⁹“ ‘Cut off your hair and throw it away; take up a lament on the barren heights, for the LORD has rejected and abandoned this generation that is under his wrath.

THE VALLEY OF SLAUGHTER

³⁰“ The people of Judah have done evil in my eyes, declares the LORD. They have set up their detestable idols in the house that bears my Name and have defiled it. ³¹They have built the high places of Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to burn their sons and daughters in the fire—something I did not command, nor did it enter my mind. ³²So beware, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when people will no longer call it Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter, for they will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no more room. ³³Then the carcasses of this people will become food for the birds and the wild animals, and there will be no one to frighten them away. ³⁴I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and gladness and to the voices of bride and bridegroom in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, for the land will become desolate.

Jeremiah 8

¹“ ‘At that time, declares the LORD, the bones of the kings and officials of Judah, the bones of the priests and prophets, and the bones of the people of Jerusalem will be removed from their graves. ²They will be exposed to the sun and the moon and all the stars of the heavens, which they have loved and served and which they have followed and consulted and worshiped. They will not be gathered up or buried, but will be like dung lying on the ground. ³Wherever I banish them, all the survivors of this evil nation will prefer death to life, declares the LORD Almighty.’

SIN AND PUNISHMENT

⁴“Say to them, ‘This is what the LORD says:

“ ‘When people fall down, do they not get up?
When someone turns away, do they not return?

⁵Why then have these people turned away?
Why does Jerusalem always turn away?

They cling to deceit;
they refuse to return.

⁶I have listened attentively,
but they do not say what is right.
None of them repent of their wickedness, saying, “What have I done?”

Each pursues their own course like a horse charging into battle.

⁷Even the stork in the sky knows her appointed seasons, and the dove, the swift and the thrush observe the time of their migration.
But my people do not know the requirements of the LORD.

⁸“How can you say, “We are wise, for we have the law of the LORD,” when actually the lying pen of the scribes has handled it falsely?

⁹The wise will be put to shame;
they will be dismayed and trapped.
Since they have rejected the word of the LORD, what kind of wisdom do they have?

¹⁰Therefore I will give their wives to other men and their fields to new owners.
From the least to the greatest,
all are greedy for gain;
prophets and priests alike,
all practice deceit.

¹¹They dress the wound of my people
as though it were not serious.
“Peace, peace,” they say,
when there is no peace.

¹²Are they ashamed of their detestable conduct?
No, they have no shame at all;
they do not even know how to blush.
So they will fall among the fallen;
they will be brought down when they are punished,

says the LORD.

¹³“I will take away their harvest,

declares the LORD.

There will be no grapes on the vine.
There will be no figs on the tree,
and their leaves will wither.

What I have given them will be taken from them.^[7] ”

¹⁴Why are we sitting here?

Gather together!

Let us flee to the fortified cities
and perish there!

For the LORD our God has doomed us to perish and given us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against him.

¹⁵We hoped for peace

but no good has come,

for a time of healing
but there is only terror.

¹⁶The snorting of the enemy's horses is heard from Dan;
at the neighing of their stallions
the whole land trembles.

They have come to devour
the land and everything in it,
the city and all who live there.

¹⁷“See, I will send venomous snakes among you, vipers that cannot be charmed, and they will bite you,”

declares the LORD.

¹⁸You who are my Comforter^[8] in sorrow, my heart is faint within me.

¹⁹Listen to the cry of my people from a land far away:

“Is the LORD not in Zion?
Is her King no longer there?”

“Why have they aroused my anger with their images, with their worthless foreign idols?”

²⁰“The harvest is past,
the summer has ended,
and we are not saved.”

²¹Since my people are crushed, I am crushed; I mourn, and horror grips me.

²²Is there no balm in Gilead?
Is there no physician there?
Why then is there no healing for the wound of my people?

Jeremiah 9^[9]

¹Oh, that my head were a spring of water and my eyes a fountain of tears!

I would weep day and night for the slain of my people.

²Oh, that I had in the desert
a lodging place for travelers, so that I might leave my people and go away from them;
for they are all adulterers,
a crowd of unfaithful people.

³“They make ready their tongue like a bow, to shoot lies;

it is not by truth
that they triumph^[10] in the land.
They go from one sin to another;
they do not acknowledge me,”

declares the LORD.

⁴“Beware of your friends;
do not trust anyone in your clan.
For every one of them is a deceiver,^[11]
and every friend a slanderer.

⁵Friend deceives friend,
and no one speaks the truth.
They have taught their tongues to lie;
they weary themselves with sinning.

⁶You^[12] live in the midst of deception; in their deceit they refuse to acknowledge me,”

declares the LORD.

⁷Therefore this is what the LORD Almighty says:

“See, I will refine and test them, for what else can I do because of the sin of my people?

⁸Their tongue is a deadly arrow;
it speaks deceitfully.

With their mouths they all speak cordially to their neighbors, but in their hearts they set traps for them.

⁹Should I not punish them for this?”
declares the LORD.

“Should I not avenge myself
on such a nation as this?”

¹⁰I will weep and wail for the mountains and take up a lament concerning the wilderness grasslands.

They are desolate and untraveled, and the lowing of cattle is not heard.

The birds have all fled and the animals are gone.

¹¹“I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins, a haunt of jackals;
and I will lay waste the towns of Judah
so no one can live there.”

¹²Who is wise enough to understand this? Who has been instructed by the LORD and can explain it? Why has the land been ruined and laid waste like a desert that no one can cross?

¹³The LORD said, “It is because they have forsaken my law, which I set before them; they have not obeyed me or followed my law. ¹⁴Instead, they have followed the stubbornness of their hearts; they have followed the Baals, as their ancestors taught them.” ¹⁵Therefore this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “See, I will make this people eat bitter food and drink poisoned water. ¹⁶I will scatter them among nations that neither they nor their ancestors have known, and I will pursue them with the sword until I have made an end of them.”

¹⁷This is what the LORD Almighty says:

“Consider now! Call for the wailing women to come;
send for the most skillful of them.

¹⁸Let them come quickly and wail over us till our eyes overflow with tears and water streams from our eyelids.

¹⁹The sound of wailing is heard from Zion: 'How ruined we are!
How great is our shame!

We must leave our land because our houses are in ruins.’ ”

²⁰Now, you women, hear the word of the LORD; open your ears to the words of his mouth.

Teach your daughters how to wail;
teach one another a lament.

²¹Death has climbed in through our windows and has entered our fortresses;
it has removed the children from the streets and the young men from the public squares.

²²Say, “This is what the LORD declares:

“ ‘Dead bodies will lie like dung on the open field, like cut grain behind the reaper,
with no one to gather them.’ ”

²³This is what the LORD says:

“Let not the wise boast of their wisdom or the strong boast of their strength or the rich boast of their riches,

²⁴but let the one who boasts boast about this: that they have the understanding to know me, that I am the LORD, who exercises kindness, justice and righteousness on earth,
for in these I delight,”

declares the LORD.

²⁵“The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will punish all who are circumcised only in the flesh— ²⁶Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon, Moab and all who live in the wilderness in distant places.^[13] For all these nations are really uncircumcised, and even the whole house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart.”

Jeremiah 9:23–24

Brag about God.

Carlos easily qualified for placement in his school’s gifted program, but something about special classes for smart kids made him and his parents uneasy. Carlos outscored almost all of his peers in the gifted program, so he had nothing to prove to anyone. He liked his regular teachers, who gave him challenging assignments that fit his interests. But the biggest reason Carlos decided to stay in his regular classes was he didn't want to be locked up with classmates who acted like they were the most incredibly special people in the world. Carlos didn't think his brainpower made him better than his classmates. His intelligence was just a gift from God that he wanted to use to help others.

You have to be blindfolded not to spot these people as they roam your world—the guys or girls who show off their brains, flex their muscles for all to see, or flash their wealth in ways no one can miss. But you have something even better to be proud of. You know God. And he's smartest ... and strongest ... and richest.

GOD AND IDOLS

¹Hear what the LORD says to you, people of Israel. ²This is what the LORD says:

“Do not learn the ways of the nations or be terrified by signs in the heavens, though the nations are terrified by them.

³For the practices of the peoples are worthless; they cut a tree out of the forest,
and a craftsman shapes it with his chisel.

⁴They adorn it with silver and gold;
they fasten it with hammer and nails
so it will not totter.

⁵Like a scarecrow in a cucumber field, their idols cannot speak;

they must be carried because they cannot walk.
Do not fear them;

they can do no harm
nor can they do any good.”

⁶No one is like you, LORD; you are great, and your name is mighty in power.

⁷Who should not fear you,
King of the nations?
This is your due.
Among all the wise leaders of the nations and in all their kingdoms,
there is no one like you.

⁸They are all senseless and foolish;
they are taught by worthless wooden idols.

⁹Hammered silver is brought from Tarshish and gold from Uphaz.
What the craftsman and goldsmith have made is then dressed in blue and purple—all made by skilled workers.

¹⁰But the LORD is the true God; he is the living God, the eternal King.
When he is angry, the earth trembles;
the nations cannot endure his wrath.

¹¹“Tell them this: ‘These gods, who did not make the heavens and the earth, will perish from the earth and from under the heavens.’ ”^[14]

¹²But God made the earth by his power;
he founded the world by his wisdom
and stretched out the heavens by his understanding.

¹³When he thunders, the waters in the heavens roar; he makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth.
He sends lightning with the rain
and brings out the wind from his storehouses.

¹⁴Everyone is senseless and without knowledge; every goldsmith is shamed by his idols.
The images he makes are a fraud;
they have no breath in them.

¹⁵They are worthless, the objects of mockery; when their judgment comes, they will perish.

¹⁶He who is the Portion of Jacob is not like these, for he is
the Maker of all things, including Israel, the people of his inheritance—
the LORD Almighty is his name.

COMING DESTRUCTION

- ¹⁷Gather up your belongings to leave the land, you who live under siege.
- ¹⁸For this is what the LORD says: “At this time I will hurl out those who live in this land; I will bring distress on them so that they may be captured.”
- ¹⁹Woe to me because of my injury!
My wound is incurable!
Yet I said to myself,
“This is my sickness, and I must endure it.”
- ²⁰My tent is destroyed;
all its ropes are snapped.
My children are gone from me and are no more;
no one is left now to pitch my tent or to set up my shelter.
- ²¹The shepherds are senseless and do not inquire of the LORD;

so they do not prosper and all their flock is scattered.

²²Listen! The report is coming—a great commotion from the land of the north!
It will make the towns of Judah desolate, a haunt of jackals.

JEREMIAH'S PRAYER

²³LORD, I know that people's lives are not their own; it is not for them to direct their steps.

²⁴Discipline me, LORD, but only in due measure— not in your anger,
or you will reduce me to nothing.

²⁵Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not acknowledge you, on the peoples who do not call on your name.
For they have devoured Jacob;

they have devoured him completely and destroyed his homeland.

ROCK SOLID truths

Jeremiah 10:1–14

God is smarter than people.

Fake gods are as good as “a scarecrow in a cucumber field” (Jeremiah 10:5). They can’t speak. They can’t walk. There is no reason to fear them. And they don’t do anyone any good. Time after time God had told the Israelites never to worship other gods. It was the very first of his Ten Commandments (see Exodus 20:3). And now the prophet Jeremiah offers good reasons the Lord expects to be worshiped. “No one is like you, LORD; you are great” (Jeremiah 10:6). “Among all the wise leaders of the nations ... there is no one like you” (Jeremiah 10:7). “God made the earth by his power” (Jeremiah 10:12). In spite of the Lord’s obvious amazingness, people continue to bow before idols. And so God reaches a logical conclusion. “Everyone is senseless and without knowledge” (Jeremiah 10:14). That’s another way of saying that sometimes human beings aren’t very bright.

Think: If God is so smart and good, why are we so slow to live for him?

Jeremiah 11

THE COVENANT IS BROKEN

¹This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²“Listen to the terms of this covenant and tell them to the people of Judah and to those who live in Jerusalem. ³Tell them that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Cursed is the one who does not obey the terms of this covenant— ⁴the terms I commanded your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the iron-smelting furnace.’ I said, ‘Obey me and do everything I command you, and you will be my people, and I will be your God. ⁵Then I will fulfill the oath I swore to your ancestors, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey’—the land you possess today.”

I answered, “Amen, LORD.”

⁶The LORD said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: ‘Listen to the terms of this covenant and follow them. ⁷From the time I brought your ancestors up from Egypt until today, I warned them again and again, saying, “Obey me.” ⁸But they did not listen or pay attention; instead, they followed the stubbornness of their evil hearts. So I brought on them all the curses of the covenant I had commanded them to follow but that they did not keep.’ ”

⁹Then the LORD said to me, “There is a conspiracy among the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem. ¹⁰They have returned to the sins of their ancestors, who refused to listen to my words. They have followed other gods to serve them. Both Israel and Judah have broken the covenant I made with their ancestors. ¹¹Therefore this is what the LORD says: ‘I will bring on them a disaster they cannot escape. Although they cry out to me, I will not listen to them. ¹²The towns of Judah and the people of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they burn incense, but they will not help them at all when disaster strikes. ¹³You, Judah, have as many gods as you have towns; and the altars you have set up to burn incense to that shameful god Baal are as many as the streets of Jerusalem.’

¹⁴“Do not pray for this people or offer any plea or petition for them, because I will not listen when they call to me in the time of their distress.

¹⁵“What is my beloved doing in my temple as she, with many others, works out her evil schemes?

Can consecrated meat avert your punishment?
When you engage in your wickedness,
then you rejoice.^[15]”

¹⁶The LORD called you a thriving olive tree with fruit beautiful in form.
But with the roar of a mighty storm
he will set it on fire, and its branches will be broken.

¹⁷The LORD Almighty, who planted you, has decreed disaster for you, because the people of both Israel and Judah have done evil and aroused my anger by burning incense to Baal.

PLOT AGAINST JEREMIAH

¹⁸Because the LORD revealed their plot to me, I knew it, for at that time he showed me what they were doing. ¹⁹I had been like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter; I did not realize that they had plotted against me, saying,

“Let us destroy the tree and its fruit;
let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name be remembered no more.”

²⁰But you, LORD Almighty, who judge righteously and test the heart and mind, let me see your vengeance on them,
for to you I have committed my cause.

²¹Therefore this is what the LORD says about the people of Anathoth who are threatening to kill you, saying, “Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD or you will die by our hands”— ²²therefore this is what the LORD Almighty says: “I will punish them. Their young men will die by the sword, their sons and daughters by famine. ²³Not even a remnant will be left to them, because I will bring disaster on the people of Anathoth in the year of their punishment.”

Jeremiah 12

JEREMIAH'S COMPLAINT

- ¹You are always righteous, LORD, when I bring a case before you.
Yet I would speak with you about your justice:
Why does the way of the wicked prosper?
Why do all the faithless live at ease?
- ²You have planted them, and they have taken root; they grow and bear fruit.
You are always on their lips but far from their hearts.
- ³Yet you know me, LORD;
you see me and test my thoughts about you.
Drag them off like sheep to be butchered!
Set them apart for the day of slaughter!
- ⁴How long will the land lie parched and the grass in every field be withered?
Because those who live in it are wicked,
the animals and birds have perished.
Moreover, the people are saying,
“He will not see what happens to us.”

GOD'S ANSWER

- ⁵“If you have raced with men on foot and they have worn you out, how can you compete with horses?
If you stumble^[16] in safe country, how will you manage in the thickets by^[17] the Jordan?
- ⁶Your relatives, members of your own family— even they have betrayed you;
they have raised a loud cry against you.
Do not trust them,
though they speak well of you.

- ⁷“I will forsake my house,
abandon my inheritance;
I will give the one I love into the hands of her enemies.
- ⁸My inheritance has become to me like a lion in the forest.
She roars at me;
therefore I hate her.
- ⁹Has not my inheritance become to me like a speckled bird of prey that other birds of prey surround and attack?
Go and gather all the wild beasts;
bring them to devour.
- ¹⁰Many shepherds will ruin my vineyard and trample down my field;
they will turn my pleasant field into a desolate wasteland.
- ¹¹It will be made a wasteland, parched and desolate before me;
the whole land will be laid waste because there is no one who cares.
- ¹²Over all the barren heights in the desert destroyers will swarm,
for the sword of the LORD will devour from one end of the land to the other;
no one will be safe.
- ¹³They will sow wheat but reap thorns;
they will wear themselves out but gain nothing.
They will bear the shame of their harvest because of the LORD’s fierce anger.”

¹⁴This is what the LORD says: “As for all my wicked neighbors who seize the inheritance I gave my people Israel, I will uproot them from their lands and I will uproot the people of Judah from among them. ¹⁵But after I uproot them, I will again have compassion and will bring each of them back to their own inheritance and their own country. ¹⁶And if they learn well the ways of my people and swear by my name, saying, ‘As surely as the LORD lives’—even as they once taught my people to swear by Baal—then they will be established among my people. ¹⁷But if any nation does not listen, I will completely uproot and destroy it,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 13

A LINEN BELT

¹This is what the LORD said to me: “Go and buy a linen belt and put it around your waist, but do not let it touch water.” ²So I bought a belt, as the LORD directed, and put it around my waist.

³Then the word of the LORD came to me a second time: ⁴“Take the belt you bought and are wearing around your waist, and go now to Perath^[18] and hide it there in a crevice in the rocks.” ⁵So I went and hid it at Perath, as the LORD told me.

⁶Many days later the LORD said to me, “Go now to Perath and get the belt I told you to hide there.” ⁷So I went to Perath and dug up the belt and took it from the place where I had hidden it, but now it was ruined and completely useless.

⁸Then the word of the LORD came to me: ⁹“This is what the LORD says: ‘In the same way I will ruin the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem. ¹⁰These wicked people, who refuse to listen to my words, who follow the stubbornness of their hearts and go after other gods to serve and worship them, will be like this belt—completely useless! ¹¹For as a belt is bound around the waist, so I bound all the people of Israel and all the people of Judah to me,’ declares the LORD, ‘to be my people for my renown and praise and honor. But they have not listened.’”

WINESKINS

¹²“Say to them: ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Every wineskin should be filled with wine.’ And if they say to you, ‘Don’t we know that every wineskin should be filled with wine?’ ¹³then tell them, ‘This is what the LORD says: I am going to fill with drunkenness all who live in this land, including the kings who sit on David’s throne, the priests, the prophets and all those living in Jerusalem. ¹⁴I will smash them one against the other, parents and children alike, declares the LORD. I will allow no pity or mercy or compassion to keep me from destroying them.’ ”

THREAT OF CAPTIVITY

¹⁵Hear and pay attention, do not be arrogant,
for the LORD has spoken.

¹⁶Give glory to the LORD your God before he brings the darkness,

before your feet stumble
on the darkening hills.
You hope for light,
but he will turn it to utter darkness and change it to deep gloom.

¹⁷If you do not listen,

I will weep in secret
because of your pride;
my eyes will weep bitterly,
overflowing with tears,
because the LORD's flock will be taken captive.

¹⁸Say to the king and to the queen mother, "Come down from your thrones,

for your glorious crowns will fall from your heads.”

¹⁹The cities in the Negev will be shut up, and there will be no one to open them.
All Judah will be carried into exile, carried completely away.

²⁰Look up and see those who are coming from the north.
Where is the flock that was entrusted to you,
the sheep of which you boasted?

²¹What will you say when the LORD sets over you those you cultivated as your special allies?

Will not pain grip you like that of a woman in labor?

²²And if you ask yourself,
“Why has this happened to me?”— it is because of your many sins that your skirts have been torn off and your body mistreated.

²³Can an Ethiopian^[19] change his skin or a leopard its spots?

Neither can you do good who are accustomed to doing evil.

²⁴“I will scatter you like chaff driven by the desert wind.

²⁵This is your lot,
the portion I have decreed for you,”

declares the LORD,

“because you have forgotten me and trusted in false gods.

²⁶I will pull up your skirts over your face that your shame may be seen— ²⁷your adulteries and lustful neighings, your shameless prostitution!

I have seen your detestable acts on the hills and in the fields.

Woe to you, Jerusalem!

How long will you be unclean?”

Jeremiah 14

DROUGHT, FAMINE, SWORD

¹This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought:

²“Judah mourns,
her cities languish;
they wail for the land,
and a cry goes up from Jerusalem.

³The nobles send their servants for water; they go to the cisterns but find no water.
They return with their jars unfilled;
dismayed and despairing,
they cover their heads.

⁴The ground is cracked because there is no rain in the land;

the farmers are dismayed and cover their heads.

⁵Even the doe in the field deserts her newborn fawn because there is no grass.

⁶Wild donkeys stand on the barren heights and pant like jackals;

their eyes fail
for lack of food.”

⁷Although our sins testify against us, do something, LORD, for the sake of your name.
For we have often rebelled;
we have sinned against you.

⁸You who are the hope of Israel,
its Savior in times of distress,
why are you like a stranger in the land,
like a traveler who stays only a night?

⁹Why are you like a man taken by surprise, like a warrior powerless to save?

You are among us, LORD,
and we bear your name;
do not forsake us!

¹⁰This is what the LORD says about this people:

“They greatly love to wander;
they do not restrain their feet.
So the LORD does not accept them;
he will now remember their wickedness and punish them for their sins.”

¹¹Then the LORD said to me, “Do not pray for the well-being of this people.

¹²Although they fast, I will not listen to their cry; though they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them. Instead, I will destroy them with the sword, famine and plague.”

¹³But I said, “Alas, Sovereign LORD! The prophets keep telling them, ‘You will not see the sword or suffer famine. Indeed, I will give you lasting peace in this place.’ ”

¹⁴Then the LORD said to me, “The prophets are prophesying lies in my name. I have not sent them or appointed them or spoken to them. They are prophesying to you false visions, divinations, idolatries^[20] and the delusions of their own minds. ¹⁵Therefore this is what the LORD says about the prophets who are prophesying in my name: I did not send them, yet they are saying, ‘No sword or famine will touch this land.’ Those same prophets will perish by sword and famine. ¹⁶And the people they are prophesying to will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and sword. There will be no one to bury them, their wives, their sons and their daughters. I will pour out on them the calamity they deserve.

¹⁷“Speak this word to them:

“ ‘Let my eyes overflow with tears night and day without ceasing;
for the Virgin Daughter, my people, has suffered a grievous wound,
a crushing blow.

¹⁸If I go into the country,
I see those slain by the sword;
if I go into the city,
I see the ravages of famine.

Both prophet and priest have gone to a land they know not.' ”

¹⁹Have you rejected Judah completely?
Do you despise Zion?

Why have you afflicted us
so that we cannot be healed?

We hoped for peace
but no good has come,

for a time of healing
but there is only terror.

²⁰We acknowledge our wickedness, LORD, and the guilt of our ancestors;
we have indeed sinned against you.

²¹For the sake of your name do not despise us; do not dishonor your glorious throne.

Remember your covenant with us and do not break it.

²²Do any of the worthless idols of the nations bring rain?
Do the skies themselves send down showers?
No, it is you, LORD our God.
Therefore our hope is in you,
for you are the one who does all this.

ROCK SOLID principles

Jeremiah 14:14–16

Beware of people who twist God’s words.

Sierra was wowed the moment she walked into her friend’s church. The worship band was as tight as any group she had ever seen in person, and the talks made her feel like God was involved in every bit of her life. The pastor was so sure of what he said. He did spout a lot of negative comments about other churches—not just a few churches he thought were mixed up in what they taught, but all churches everywhere, except his. And it seemed like the pastor talked far more about his thoughts and his plans for the church than he did about the Bible or about Jesus. It took a while for Sierra to see through his words, but he sure wasn’t speaking for God.

Some people claim to speak for God, but they lie. They say they have visions, but they really hallucinate. Wise up to this reality: Some people who say they have a message from God are more messed up than you can imagine. So don’t swallow human words whole. Test them against the Bible, the one message that comes straight from God.

Jeremiah 15

¹Then the LORD said to me: “Even if Moses and Samuel were to stand before me, my heart would not go out to this people. Send them away from my presence! Let them go! ²And if they ask you, ‘Where shall we go?’ tell them, ‘This is what the LORD says:

“ ‘Those destined for death, to death;
those for the sword, to the sword;
those for starvation, to starvation;
those for captivity, to captivity.’

³“I will send four kinds of destroyers against them,” declares the LORD, “the sword to kill and the dogs to drag away and the birds and the wild animals to devour and destroy. ⁴I will make them abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth because of what Manasseh son of Hezekiah king of Judah did in Jerusalem.

⁵“Who will have pity on you, Jerusalem?
Who will mourn for you?
Who will stop to ask how you are?

⁶You have rejected me,” declares the LORD.
“You keep on backsliding.
So I will reach out and destroy you;
I am tired of holding back.

⁷I will winnow them with a winnowing fork at the city gates of the land.
I will bring bereavement and destruction on my people,
for they have not changed their ways.

⁸I will make their widows more numerous than the sand of the sea.
At midday I will bring a destroyer against the mothers of their young men;
suddenly I will bring down on them anguish and terror.

⁹The mother of seven will grow faint and breathe her last.
Her sun will set while it is still day;
she will be disgraced and humiliated.

I will put the survivors to the sword before their enemies,”

declares the LORD.

¹⁰Alas, my mother, that you gave me birth, a man with whom the whole land strives and contends!
I have neither lent nor borrowed,
yet everyone curses me.

¹¹The LORD said,

“Surely I will deliver you for a good purpose;
surely I will make your enemies plead with you in times of disaster and times of distress.

¹²“Can a man break iron—iron from the north—or bronze?

¹³“Your wealth and your treasures
I will give as plunder, without charge, because of all your sins

throughout your country.

¹⁴I will enslave you to your enemies in^[21] a land you do not know, for my anger will kindle a fire that will burn against you.”

¹⁵LORD, you understand;
remember me and care for me.
Avenge me on my persecutors.
You are long-suffering—do not take me away;
think of how I suffer reproach for your sake.

¹⁶When your words came, I ate them;
they were my joy and my heart’s delight,
for I bear your name,
LORD God Almighty.

¹⁷I never sat in the company of revelers, never made merry with them;
I sat alone because your hand was on me and you had filled me with indignation.

¹⁸Why is my pain unending and my wound grievous and incurable?
You are to me like a deceptive brook,
like a spring that fails.

¹⁹Therefore this is what the LORD says:

“If you repent, I will restore you that you may serve me;
if you utter worthy, not worthless, words,
you will be my spokesman.
Let this people turn to you,
but you must not turn to them.

²⁰I will make you a wall to this people, a fortified wall of bronze;

they will fight against you but will not overcome you, for I am with you to rescue and save you,”

declares the LORD.

²¹“I will save you from the hands of the wicked and deliver you from the grasp of the cruel.”

Jeremiah 16

DAY OF DISASTER

¹Then the word of the LORD came to me: ²“You must not marry and have sons or daughters in this place.” ³For this is what the LORD says about the sons and daughters born in this land and about the women who are their mothers and the men who are their fathers: ⁴“They will die of deadly diseases. They will not be mourned or buried but will be like dung lying on the ground. They will perish by sword and famine, and their dead bodies will become food for the birds and the wild animals.”

⁵For this is what the LORD says: “Do not enter a house where there is a funeral meal; do not go to mourn or show sympathy, because I have withdrawn my blessing, my love and my pity from this people,” declares the LORD. ⁶“Both high and low will die in this land. They will not be buried or mourned, and no one will cut themselves or shave their head for the dead. ⁷No one will offer food to comfort those who mourn for the dead—not even for a father or a mother—nor will anyone give them a drink to console them.

⁸“And do not enter a house where there is feasting and sit down to eat and drink. ⁹For this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Before your eyes and in your days I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and gladness and to the voices of bride and bridegroom in this place.

¹⁰“When you tell these people all this and they ask you, ‘Why has the LORD decreed such a great disaster against us? What wrong have we done? What sin have we committed against the LORD our God?’ ¹¹then say to them, ‘It is because your ancestors forsook me,’ declares the LORD, ‘and followed other gods and served and worshiped them. They forsook me and did not keep my law. ¹²But you have behaved more wickedly than your ancestors. See how all of you are following the stubbornness of your evil hearts instead of obeying me. ¹³So I will throw you out of this land into a land neither you nor your ancestors have known, and there you will serve other gods day and night, for I will show you no favor.’

¹⁴“However, the days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when it will no longer be said, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,’ ¹⁵but it will be said, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where he had banished them.’ For I will restore them to the land I gave their ancestors.

¹⁶“But now I will send for many fishermen,” declares the LORD, “and they will catch them. After that I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them down on every mountain and hill and from the crevices of the rocks.
¹⁷My eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from me, nor is their sin concealed from my eyes. ¹⁸I will repay them double for their wickedness and their sin, because they have defiled my land with the lifeless forms of their vile images and have filled my inheritance with their detestable idols.”

¹⁹LORD, my strength and my fortress, my refuge in time of distress, to you the nations will come from the ends of the earth and say, “Our ancestors possessed nothing but false gods, worthless idols that did them no good.

²⁰Do people make their own gods?
Yes, but they are not gods!”

²¹“Therefore I will teach them—this time I will teach them my power and might.

Then they will know that my name is the LORD.

Jeremiah 17

¹“Judah’s sin is engraved with an iron tool, inscribed with a flint point, on the tablets of their hearts and on the horns of their altars.

²Even their children remember their altars and Asherah poles^[22]

beside the spreading trees and on the high hills.

³My mountain in the land and your^[23] wealth and all your treasures I will give away as plunder,
together with your high places,
because of sin throughout your country.

⁴Through your own fault you will lose the inheritance I gave you.
I will enslave you to your enemies in a land you do not know,
for you have kindled my anger,
and it will burn forever.”

⁵This is what the LORD says:

“Cursed is the one who trusts in man, who draws strength from mere flesh and whose heart turns away from the LORD.

⁶That person will be like a bush in the wastelands; they will not see prosperity when it comes.
They will dwell in the parched places of the desert,
in a salt land where no one lives.

⁷“But blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD, whose confidence is in him.

⁸They will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream.
It does not fear when heat comes;
its leaves are always green.
It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit.”

⁹The heart is deceitful above all things and beyond cure.
Who can understand it?

¹⁰“I the LORD search the heart and examine the mind, to reward each person according to their conduct,
according to what their deeds deserve.”

¹¹Like a partridge that hatches eggs it did not lay are those who gain riches by unjust means.

When their lives are half gone, their riches will desert
them,
and in the end they will prove to be fools.

¹²A glorious throne, exalted from the beginning, is the place of our sanctuary.

¹³LORD, you are the hope of Israel; all who forsake you will be put to shame.

Those who turn away from you will be written in the dust

because they have forsaken the LORD,
the spring of living water.

destroy them with double destruction.

KEEPING THE SABBATH DAY HOLY

¹⁹This is what the LORD said to me: “Go and stand at the Gate of the People,^[24] through which the kings of Judah go in and out; stand also at all the other gates of Jerusalem. ²⁰Say to them, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah and all people of Judah and everyone living in Jerusalem who come through these gates. ²¹This is what the LORD says: Be careful not to carry a load on the Sabbath day or bring it through the gates of Jerusalem. ²²Do not bring a load out of your houses or do any work on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your ancestors. ²³Yet they did not listen or pay attention; they were stiff-necked and would not listen or respond to discipline. ²⁴But if you are careful to obey me, declares the LORD, and bring no load through the gates of this city on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath day holy by not doing any work on it, ²⁵then kings who sit on David’s throne will come through the gates of this city with their officials. They and their officials will come riding in chariots and on horses, accompanied by the men of Judah and those living in Jerusalem, and this city will be inhabited forever. ²⁶People will come from the towns of Judah and the villages around Jerusalem, from the territory of Benjamin and the western foothills, from the hill country and the Negev, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings and incense, and bringing thank offerings to the house of the LORD. ²⁷But if you do not obey me to keep the Sabbath day holy by not carrying any load as you come through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle an unquenchable fire in the gates of Jerusalem that will consume her fortresses.’ ”

Jeremiah 18

AT THE POTTER'S HOUSE

¹This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²“Go down to the potter’s house, and there I will give you my message.” ³So I went down to the potter’s house, and I saw him working at the wheel. ⁴But the pot he was shaping from the clay was marred in his hands; so the potter formed it into another pot, shaping it as seemed best to him.

⁵Then the word of the LORD came to me. ⁶He said, “Can I not do with you, Israel, as this potter does?” declares the LORD. “Like clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand, Israel. ⁷If at any time I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be uprooted, torn down and destroyed, ⁸and if that nation I warned repents of its evil, then I will relent and not inflict on it the disaster I had planned. ⁹And if at another time I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be built up and planted, ¹⁰and if it does evil in my sight and does not obey me, then I will reconsider the good I had intended to do for it.

¹¹“Now therefore say to the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem, ‘This is what the LORD says: Look! I am preparing a disaster for you and devising a plan against you. So turn from your evil ways, each one of you, and reform your ways and your actions.’ ¹²But they will reply, ‘It’s no use. We will continue with our own plans; we will all follow the stubbornness of our evil hearts.’ ”

¹³Therefore this is what the LORD says:

“Inquire among the nations:
Who has ever heard anything like this?
A most horrible thing has been done by Virgin Israel.

¹⁴Does the snow of Lebanon ever vanish from its rocky slopes?
Do its cool waters from distant sources ever stop flowing?^[25]

¹⁵Yet my people have forgotten me;
they burn incense to worthless idols, which made them stumble in their ways,

in the ancient paths.

They made them walk in byways,
on roads not built up.

¹⁶Their land will be an object of horror and of lasting scorn;
all who pass by will be appalled and will shake their heads.

¹⁷Like a wind from the east,
I will scatter them before their enemies;
I will show them my back and not my face in the day of their disaster.”

¹⁸They said, “Come, let’s make plans against Jeremiah; for the teaching of the law by the priest will not cease, nor will counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophets. So come, let’s attack him with our tongues and pay no attention to anything he says.”

¹⁹Listen to me, LORD;
hear what my accusers are saying!

²⁰Should good be repaid with evil?
Yet they have dug a pit for me.
Remember that I stood before you and spoke in their behalf to turn your wrath away from them.

²¹So give their children over to famine; hand them over to the power of the sword.

Let their wives be made childless and widows;
let their men be put to death,
their young men slain by the sword in battle.

²²Let a cry be heard from their houses when you suddenly bring invaders against them, for they have dug a pit to capture me and have hidden snares for my feet.

²³But you, LORD, know
all their plots to kill me.

Do not forgive their crimes or blot out their sins from your sight.
Let them be overthrown before you;
deal with them in the time of your anger.

Jeremiah 19

¹This is what the LORD says: “Go and buy a clay jar from a potter. Take along some of the elders of the people and of the priests ²and go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom, near the entrance of the Potsherd Gate. There proclaim the words I tell you, ³and say, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah and people of Jerusalem. This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Listen! I am going to bring a disaster on this place that will make the ears of everyone who hears of it tingle. ⁴For they have forsaken me and made this a place of foreign gods; they have burned incense in it to gods that neither they nor their ancestors nor the kings of Judah ever knew, and they have filled this place with the blood of the innocent. ⁵They have built the high places of Baal to burn their children in the fire as offerings to Baal—something I did not command or mention, nor did it enter my mind. ⁶So beware, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when people will no longer call this place Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter.

⁷“ ‘In this place I will ruin^[26] the plans of Judah and Jerusalem. I will make them fall by the sword before their enemies, at the hands of those who want to kill them, and I will give their carcasses as food to the birds and the wild animals. ⁸I will devastate this city and make it an object of horror and scorn; all who pass by will be appalled and will scoff because of all its wounds. ⁹I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and daughters, and they will eat one another’s flesh because their enemies will press the siege so hard against them to destroy them.’

¹⁰“Then break the jar while those who go with you are watching, ¹¹and say to them, ‘This is what the LORD Almighty says: I will smash this nation and this city just as this potter’s jar is smashed and cannot be repaired. They will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no more room. ¹²This is what I will do to this place and to those who live here, declares the LORD. I will make this city like Topheth. ¹³The houses in Jerusalem and those of the kings of Judah will be defiled like this place, Topheth—all the houses where they burned incense on the roofs to all the starry hosts and poured out drink offerings to other gods.’ ”

¹⁴Jeremiah then returned from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy, and stood in the court of the LORD’s temple and said to all the people,

¹⁵“This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: ‘Listen! I am going to bring on this city and all the villages around it every disaster I pronounced against them, because they were stiff-necked and would not listen to my words.’ ”

Jeremiah 20

JEREMIAH AND PASHHUR

¹When the priest Pashhur son of Immer, the official in charge of the temple of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things, ²he had Jeremiah the prophet beaten and put in the stocks at the Upper Gate of Benjamin at the LORD's temple. ³The next day, when Pashhur released him from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD's name for you is not Pashhur, but Terror on Every Side. ⁴For this is what the LORD says: 'I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends; with your own eyes you will see them fall by the sword of their enemies. I will give all Judah into the hands of the king of Babylon, who will carry them away to Babylon or put them to the sword. ⁵I will deliver all the wealth of this city into the hands of their enemies—all its products, all its valuables and all the treasures of the kings of Judah. They will take it away as plunder and carry it off to Babylon. ⁶And you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house will go into exile to Babylon. There you will die and be buried, you and all your friends to whom you have prophesied lies.' "

JEREMIAH'S COMPLAINT

⁷You deceived^[27] me, LORD, and I was deceived^[28]; you overpowered me and prevailed.
I am ridiculed all day long;
everyone mocks me.

⁸Whenever I speak, I cry out proclaiming violence and destruction.
So the word of the LORD has brought me insult and reproach all day long.

⁹But if I say, "I will not mention his word or speak anymore in his name,"
his word is in my heart like a fire,
a fire shut up in my bones.
I am weary of holding it in;
indeed, I cannot.

¹⁰I hear many whispering,
"Terror on every side!
Denounce him! Let's denounce him!"

All my friends are waiting for me to slip, saying, “Perhaps he will be deceived;
then we will prevail over him and take our revenge on him.”

¹¹But the LORD is with me like a mighty warrior; so my persecutors will stumble and not prevail.

They will fail and be thoroughly disgraced;
their dishonor will never be forgotten.

¹²LORD Almighty, you who examine the righteous and probe the heart and mind,
let me see your vengeance on them,
for to you I have committed my cause.

¹³Sing to the LORD!
Give praise to the LORD!
He rescues the life of the needy from the hands of the wicked.

¹⁴Cursed be the day I was born!
May the day my mother bore me not be blessed!

¹⁵Cursed be the man who brought my father the news, who made him very glad, saying,
“A child is born to you—a son!”

¹⁶May that man be like the towns
the LORD overthrew without pity.
May he hear wailing in the morning,
a battle cry at noon.

¹⁷For he did not kill me in the womb, with my mother as my grave,
her womb enlarged forever.

¹⁸Why did I ever come out of the womb to see trouble and sorrow and to end my days in shame?

Jeremiah 21

GOD REJECTS ZEDEKIAH'S REQUEST

¹The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur son of Malkijah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah. They said:
²“Inquire now of the LORD for us because Nebuchadnezzar^[29] king of Babylon is attacking us. Perhaps the LORD will perform wonders for us as in times past so that he will withdraw from us.”

³But Jeremiah answered them, “Tell Zedekiah, ⁴“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I am about to turn against you the weapons of war that are in your hands, which you are using to fight the king of Babylon and the Babylonians^[30] who are outside the wall besieging you. And I will gather them inside this city. ⁵I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and a mighty arm in furious anger and in great wrath. ⁶I will strike down those who live in this city—both man and beast—and they will die of a terrible plague. ⁷After that, declares the LORD, I will give Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials and the people in this city who survive the plague, sword and famine, into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and to their enemies who want to kill them. He will put them to the sword; he will show them no mercy or pity or compassion.’

⁸“Furthermore, tell the people, ‘This is what the LORD says: See, I am setting before you the way of life and the way of death. ⁹Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine or plague. But whoever goes out and surrenders to the Babylonians who are besieging you will live; they will escape with their lives. ¹⁰I have determined to do this city harm and not good, declares the LORD. It will be given into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will destroy it with fire.’

¹¹“Moreover, say to the royal house of Judah, ‘Hear the word of the LORD.
¹²This is what the LORD says to you, house of David:

“ ‘Administer justice every morning;
rescue from the hand of the oppressor
the one who has been robbed, or my wrath will break out and burn like fire

because of the evil you have done—
burn with no one to quench it.

¹³I am against you, Jerusalem, you who live above this valley on the rocky plateau, declares the LORD—you who say, “Who can come against us?
Who can enter our refuge?”

¹⁴I will punish you as your deeds deserve,
declares the LORD.
I will kindle a fire in your forests that will consume everything around you.’ ”

Jeremiah 22

JUDGMENT AGAINST WICKED KINGS

¹This is what the LORD says: “Go down to the palace of the king of Judah and proclaim this message there: ²‘Hear the word of the LORD to you, king of Judah, you who sit on David’s throne—you, your officials and your people who come through these gates. ³This is what the LORD says: Do what is just and right. Rescue from the hand of the oppressor the one who has been robbed. Do no wrong or violence to the foreigner, the fatherless or the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place. ⁴For if you are careful to carry out these commands, then kings who sit on David’s throne will come through the gates of this palace, riding in chariots and on horses, accompanied by their officials and their people. ⁵But if you do not obey these commands, declares the LORD, I swear by myself that this palace will become a ruin.’ ”

⁶For this is what the LORD says about the palace of the king of Judah:

“Though you are like Gilead to me,
like the summit of Lebanon,
I will surely make you like a wasteland,
like towns not inhabited.

⁷I will send destroyers against you,
each man with his weapons,
and they will cut up your fine cedar beams and throw them into the fire.

⁸“People from many nations will pass by this city and will ask one another, ‘Why has the LORD done such a thing to this great city?’ ⁹And the answer will be: ‘Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God and have worshiped and served other gods.’ ”

¹⁰Do not weep for the dead king or mourn his loss;
rather, weep bitterly for him who is exiled, because he will never return nor see his native land again.

¹¹For this is what the LORD says about Shallum^[31] son of Josiah, who succeeded his father as king of Judah but has gone from this place: “He will never return. ¹²He will die in the place where they have led him captive; he will not see this land again.”

¹³“Woe to him who builds his palace by unrighteousness, his upper rooms by injustice, making his own people work for nothing,
not paying them for their labor.

¹⁴He says, ‘I will build myself a great palace with spacious upper rooms.’
So he makes large windows in it, panels it with cedar and decorates it in red.

- ¹⁵“Does it make you a king to have more and more cedar?
Did not your father have food and drink?
He did what was right and just,
so all went well with him.
- ¹⁶He defended the cause of the poor and needy,
and so all went well.
Is that not what it means to know me?”
declares the LORD.
- ¹⁷“But your eyes and your heart are set only on dishonest gain, on shedding innocent blood and on oppression and extortion.”

¹⁸Therefore this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah:

“They will not mourn for him:

‘Alas, my brother! Alas, my sister!’

They will not mourn for him:

‘Alas, my master! Alas, his splendor!’

¹⁹He will have the burial of a donkey—dragged away and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem.”

²⁰“Go up to Lebanon and cry out, let your voice be heard in Bashan,
cry out from Abarim,
for all your allies are crushed.

²¹I warned you when you felt secure,
but you said, ‘I will not listen!’
This has been your way from your youth;
you have not obeyed me.

²²The wind will drive all your shepherds away,
and your allies will go into exile.
Then you will be ashamed and disgraced because of all your wickedness.

²³You who live in ‘Lebanon,^[32] who are nestled in cedar buildings, how you will groan when pangs come upon you,
pain like that of a woman in labor!

²⁴“As surely as I live,” declares the LORD, “even if you, Jehoiachin^[33] son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, were a signet ring on my right hand, I would still pull you off. ²⁵I will deliver you into the hands of those who want to kill you, those you fear—Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the Babylonians.^[34] ²⁶I will hurl you and the mother who gave you birth into another country, where neither of you was born, and there you both will die. ²⁷You will never come back to the land you long to return to.”

²⁸Is this man Jehoiachin a despised, broken pot, an object no one wants?
Why will he and his children be hurled out, cast into a land they do not know?

²⁹O land, land, land, hear the word of the LORD!

³⁰This is what the LORD says: “Record this man as if childless,
a man who will not prosper in his lifetime,
for none of his offspring will prosper, none will sit on the throne of David or rule anymore in Judah.”

Jeremiah 23

THE RIGHTEOUS BRANCH

¹“Woe to the shepherds who are destroying and scattering the sheep of my pasture!” declares the LORD. ²Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to the shepherds who tend my people: “Because you have scattered my flock and driven them away and have not bestowed care on them, I will bestow punishment on you for the evil you have done,” declares the LORD. ³“I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them and will bring them back to their pasture, where they will be fruitful and increase in number. ⁴I will place shepherds over them who will tend them, and they will no longer be afraid or terrified, nor will any be missing,” declares the LORD.

⁵“The days are coming,” declares the LORD,
“when I will raise up for David^[35] a righteous Branch, a King who will reign wisely and do what is just and right in the land.

⁶In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety.
This is the name by which he will be called:
The LORD Our Righteous Savior.

⁷“So then, the days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when people will no longer say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,’ ⁸but they will say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the descendants of Israel up out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where he had banished them.’ Then they will live in their own land.”

LYING PROPHETS

⁹Concerning the prophets:

My heart is broken within me;
all my bones tremble.
I am like a drunken man,
like a strong man overcome by wine, because of the LORD
and his holy words.

¹⁰The land is full of adulterers; because of the curse^[36] the land lies parched and the pastures in the wilderness are withered.
The prophets follow an evil course and use their power unjustly.

¹¹“Both prophet and priest are godless; even in my temple I find their wickedness,”
declares the LORD.

¹²“Therefore their path will become slippery;
they will be banished to darkness and there they will fall.
I will bring disaster on them
in the year they are punished,”
declares the LORD.

¹³“Among the prophets of Samaria
I saw this repulsive thing:

They prophesied by Baal
and led my people Israel astray.

¹⁴And among the prophets of Jerusalem
I have seen something horrible:
They commit adultery and live a lie.
They strengthen the hands of evildoers,
so that not one of them turns from their wickedness.
They are all like Sodom to me;
the people of Jerusalem are like Gomorrah.”

¹⁵Therefore this is what the LORD Almighty says concerning the prophets:

“I will make them eat bitter food and drink poisoned water, because from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness has spread throughout the land.”

¹⁶This is what the LORD Almighty says:

“Do not listen to what the prophets are prophesying to
you;
they fill you with false hopes.
They speak visions from their own minds,
not from the mouth of the LORD.

¹⁷They keep saying to those who despise me,
‘The LORD says: You will have peace.’
And to all who follow the stubbornness of their hearts
they say, ‘No harm will come to you.’

¹⁸But which of them has stood in the council of the LORD to see or to hear his word?
Who has listened and heard his word?

¹⁹See, the storm of the LORD
will burst out in wrath,

a whirlwind swirling down
on the heads of the wicked.

²⁰The anger of the LORD will not turn back until he fully accomplishes

the purposes of his heart.

In days to come
you will understand it clearly.

²¹I did not send these prophets,
yet they have run with their message;
I did not speak to them,
yet they have prophesied.

²²But if they had stood in my council, they would have proclaimed my words to my people and would have turned them from their evil ways and from their evil deeds.

²³“Am I only a God nearby,”

declares the LORD,

“and not a God far away?”

²⁴Who can hide in secret places so that I cannot see them?”

declares the LORD.

“Do not I fill heaven and earth?”

declares the LORD.

²⁵“I have heard what the prophets say who prophesy lies in my name. They say, ‘I had a dream! I had a dream!’ ²⁶How long will this continue in the hearts of these lying prophets, who prophesy the delusions of their own minds? ²⁷They think the dreams they tell one another will make my people forget my name, just as their ancestors forgot my name through Baal worship. ²⁸Let the prophet who has a dream recount the dream, but let the one who has my word speak it faithfully. For what has straw to do with grain?” declares the LORD. ²⁹“Is not my word like fire,” declares the LORD, “and like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces?”

³⁰“Therefore,” declares the LORD, “I am against the prophets who steal from one another words supposedly from me. ³¹Yes,” declares the LORD, “I am against the prophets who wag their own tongues and yet declare, ‘The LORD declares.’” ³²Indeed, I am against those who prophesy false dreams,” declares the LORD. “They tell them and lead my people astray with their reckless lies, yet I did not send or appoint them. They do not benefit these people in the least,” declares the LORD.

FALSE PROPHECY

³³“When these people, or a prophet or a priest, ask you, ‘What is the message from the LORD?’ say to them, ‘What message? I will forsake you, declares the LORD.’ ³⁴If a prophet or a priest or anyone else claims, ‘This is a message from the LORD,’ I will punish them and their household. ³⁵This is what each of you keeps saying to your friends and other Israelites: ‘What is the LORD’s answer?’ or ‘What has the LORD spoken?’ ³⁶But you must not mention ‘a message from the LORD’ again, because each one’s word becomes their own message. So you distort the words of the living God, the LORD Almighty, our God. ³⁷This is what you keep saying to a prophet: ‘What is the LORD’s answer to you?’ or ‘What has the LORD spoken?’ ³⁸Although you claim, ‘This is a message from the LORD,’ this is what the LORD says: You used the words, ‘This is a message from the LORD,’ even though I told you that you must not claim, ‘This is a message from the LORD.’ ³⁹Therefore, I will surely forget you and cast you out of my presence along with the city I gave to you and your ancestors. ⁴⁰I will bring on you everlasting disgrace—everlasting shame that will not be forgotten.”

UNSHAKEN people — Jeremiah

Jeremiah 24

TWO BASKETS OF FIGS

¹After Jehoiachin^[37] son of Jehoiakim king of Judah and the officials, the skilled workers and the artisans of Judah were carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the LORD showed me two baskets of figs placed in front of the temple of the LORD. ²One basket had very good figs, like those that ripen early; the other basket had very bad figs, so bad they could not be eaten.

³Then the LORD asked me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?”

“Figs,” I answered. “The good ones are very good, but the bad ones are so bad they cannot be eaten.”

⁴Then the word of the LORD came to me: ⁵“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Like these good figs, I regard as good the exiles from Judah, whom I sent away from this place to the land of the Babylonians.^[38] ⁶My eyes will watch over them for their good, and I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up and not tear them down; I will plant them and not uproot them. ⁷I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD. They will be my people, and I will be their God, for they will return to me with all their heart.

⁸“ ‘But like the bad figs, which are so bad they cannot be eaten,’ says the LORD, ‘so will I deal with Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials and the survivors from Jerusalem, whether they remain in this land or live in Egypt. ⁹I will make them abhorrent and an offense to all the kingdoms of the earth, a reproach and a byword, a curse^[39] and an object of ridicule, wherever I banish them. ¹⁰I will send the sword, famine and plague against them until they are destroyed from the land I gave to them and their ancestors.’ ”

Jeremiah 25

SEVENTY YEARS OF CAPTIVITY

¹The word came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. ²So Jeremiah the prophet said to all the people of Judah and to all those living in Jerusalem: ³For twenty-three years—from the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah until this very day—the word of the LORD has come to me and I have spoken to you again and again, but you have not listened.

⁴And though the LORD has sent all his servants the prophets to you again and again, you have not listened or paid any attention. ⁵They said, “Turn now, each of you, from your evil ways and your evil practices, and you can stay in the land the LORD gave to you and your ancestors for ever and ever. ⁶Do not follow other gods to serve and worship them; do not arouse my anger with what your hands have made. Then I will not harm you.”

⁷“But you did not listen to me,” declares the LORD, “and you have aroused my anger with what your hands have made, and you have brought harm to yourselves.”

⁸Therefore the LORD Almighty says this: “Because you have not listened to my words, ⁹I will summon all the peoples of the north and my servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,” declares the LORD, “and I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants and against all the surrounding nations. I will completely destroy^[40] them and make them an object of horror and scorn, and an everlasting ruin. ¹⁰I will banish from them the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of bride and bridegroom, the sound of millstones and the light of the lamp. ¹¹This whole country will become a desolate wasteland, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

¹²“But when the seventy years are fulfilled, I will punish the king of Babylon and his nation, the land of the Babylonians,^[41] for their guilt,” declares the LORD, “and will make it desolate forever. ¹³I will bring on that land all the things I have spoken against it, all that are written in this book and prophesied by Jeremiah against all the nations. ¹⁴They themselves will be enslaved by many nations and great kings; I will repay them according to their deeds and the work of their hands.”

THE CUP OF GOD'S WRATH

¹⁵This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: “Take from my hand this cup filled with the wine of my wrath and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it. ¹⁶When they drink it, they will stagger and go mad because of the sword I will send among them.”

¹⁷So I took the cup from the LORD’s hand and made all the nations to whom he sent me drink it: ¹⁸Jerusalem and the towns of Judah, its kings and officials, to make them a ruin and an object of horror and scorn, a curse^[42]—as they are today; ¹⁹Pharaoh king of Egypt, his attendants, his officials and all his people, ²⁰and all the foreign people there; all the kings of Uz; all the kings of the Philistines (those of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the people left at Ashdod); ²¹Edom, Moab and Ammon; ²²all the kings of Tyre and Sidon; the kings of the coastlands across the sea; ²³Dedan, Tema, Buz and all who are in distant places^[43]; ²⁴all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the foreign people who live in the wilderness; ²⁵all the kings of Zimri, Elam and Media; ²⁶and all the kings of the north, near and far, one after the other—all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. And after all of them, the king of Sheshak^[44] will drink it too.

²⁷“Then tell them, ‘This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Drink, get drunk and vomit, and fall to rise no more because of the sword I will send among you.’ ²⁸But if they refuse to take the cup from your hand and drink, tell them, ‘This is what the LORD Almighty says: You must drink it! ²⁹See, I am beginning to bring disaster on the city that bears my Name, and will you indeed go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, for I am calling down a sword on all who live on the earth, declares the LORD Almighty.’

³⁰“Now prophesy all these words against them and say to them:

“ ‘The LORD will roar from on high;
he will thunder from his holy dwelling and roar mightily against his land.
He will shout like those who tread the grapes,
shout against all who live on the earth.

³¹The tumult will resound to the ends of the earth,
for the LORD will bring charges against the nations;
he will bring judgment on all mankind and put the wicked to the sword,’ ”

declares the LORD.

³²This is what the LORD Almighty says:

“Look! Disaster is spreading from nation to nation;

a mighty storm is rising
from the ends of the earth.”

³³At that time those slain by the LORD will be everywhere—from one end of the earth to the other. They will not be mourned or gathered up or buried, but will be like dung lying on the ground.

³⁴Weep and wail, you shepherds;
roll in the dust, you leaders of the flock.
For your time to be slaughtered has come;
you will fall like the best of the rams.^[45]

³⁵The shepherds will have nowhere to flee, the leaders of the flock no place to escape.

³⁶Hear the cry of the shepherds,
the wailing of the leaders of the flock,
for the LORD is destroying their pasture.

³⁷The peaceful meadows will be laid waste because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

³⁸Like a lion he will leave his lair, and their land will become desolate because of the sword^[46] of the oppressor and because of the LORD’s fierce anger.

Jeremiah 26

JEREMIAH THREATENED WITH DEATH

¹Early in the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came from the LORD: ²“This is what the LORD says: Stand in the courtyard of the LORD’s house and speak to all the people of the towns of Judah who come to worship in the house of the LORD. Tell them everything I command you; do not omit a word. ³Perhaps they will listen and each will turn from their evil ways. Then I will relent and not inflict on them the disaster I was planning because of the evil they have done. ⁴Say to them, ‘This is what the LORD says: If you do not listen to me and follow my law, which I have set before you, ⁵and if you do not listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I have sent to you again and again (though you have not listened), ⁶then I will make this house like Shiloh and this city a curse^[47] among all the nations of the earth.’ ”

⁷The priests, the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speak these words in the house of the LORD. ⁸But as soon as Jeremiah finished telling all the people everything the LORD had commanded him to say, the priests, the prophets and all the people seized him and said, “You must die! ⁹Why do you prophesy in the LORD’s name that this house will be like Shiloh and this city will be desolate and deserted?” And all the people crowded around Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

¹⁰When the officials of Judah heard about these things, they went up from the royal palace to the house of the LORD and took their places at the entrance of the New Gate of the LORD’s house. ¹¹Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and all the people, “This man should be sentenced to death because he has prophesied against this city. You have heard it with your own ears!”

¹²Then Jeremiah said to all the officials and all the people: “The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and this city all the things you have heard. ¹³Now reform your ways and your actions and obey the LORD your God. Then the LORD will relent and not bring the disaster he has pronounced against you. ¹⁴As for me, I am in your hands; do with me whatever you think is good and right. ¹⁵Be assured, however, that if you put me to death, you will bring the guilt of innocent blood on yourselves and on this city and on those who live in it, for in truth the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your hearing.”

¹⁶Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, “This man should not be sentenced to death! He has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.”

¹⁷Some of the elders of the land stepped forward and said to the entire assembly of people, ¹⁸“Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. He told all the people of Judah, ‘This is what the LORD Almighty says:

“ ‘Zion will be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble,
the temple hill a mound overgrown with thickets.’^[48]

¹⁹“Did Hezekiah king of Judah or anyone else in Judah put him to death? Did not Hezekiah fear the LORD and seek his favor? And did not the LORD relent, so that he did not bring the disaster he pronounced against them? We are about to bring a terrible disaster on ourselves!”

²⁰(Now Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath Jearim was another man who prophesied in the name of the LORD; he prophesied the same things against this city and this land as Jeremiah did. ²¹When King Jehoiakim and all his officers and officials heard his words, the king was determined to put him to death. But Uriah heard of it and fled in fear to Egypt. ²²King Jehoiakim, however, sent Elnathan son of Akbor to Egypt, along with some other men. ²³They brought Uriah out of Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim, who had him struck down with a sword and his body thrown into the burial place of the common people.) ²⁴Furthermore, Ahikam son of Shaphan supported Jeremiah, and so he was not handed over to the people to be put to death.

Jeremiah 27

JUDAH TO SERVE NEBUCHADNEZZAR

¹Early in the reign of Zedekiah^[49] son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²This is what the LORD said to me: “Make a yoke out of straps and crossbars and put it on your neck. ³Then send word to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre and Sidon through the envoys who have come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah. ⁴Give them a message for their masters and say, ‘This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “Tell this to your masters: ⁵With my great power and outstretched arm I made the earth and its people and the animals that are on it, and I give it to anyone I please. ⁶Now I will give all your countries into the hands of my servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; I will make even the wild animals subject to him. ⁷All nations will serve him and his son and his grandson until the time for his land comes; then many nations and great kings will subjugate him.

⁸“ ‘ “If, however, any nation or kingdom will not serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon or bow its neck under his yoke, I will punish that nation with the sword, famine and plague, declares the LORD, until I destroy it by his hand. ⁹So do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your interpreters of dreams, your mediums or your sorcerers who tell you, ‘You will not serve the king of Babylon.’ ¹⁰They prophesy lies to you that will only serve to remove you far from your lands; I will banish you and you will perish. ¹¹But if any nation will bow its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will let that nation remain in its own land to till it and to live there, declares the LORD.”

¹²I gave the same message to Zedekiah king of Judah. I said, “Bow your neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon; serve him and his people, and you will live. ¹³Why will you and your people die by the sword, famine and plague with which the LORD has threatened any nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? ¹⁴Do not listen to the words of the prophets who say to you, ‘You will not serve the king of Babylon,’ for they are prophesying lies to you. ¹⁵‘I have not sent them,’ declares the LORD. ‘They are prophesying lies in my name. Therefore, I will banish you and you will perish, both you and the prophets who prophesy to you.’ ”

¹⁶Then I said to the priests and all these people, “This is what the LORD says: Do not listen to the prophets who say, ‘Very soon now the articles from the LORD's house will be brought back from Babylon.' They are prophesying lies to you. ¹⁷Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon, and you will live. Why should this city become a ruin? ¹⁸If they are prophets and have the word of the LORD, let them plead with the LORD Almighty that the articles remaining in the house of the LORD and in the palace of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem not be taken to Babylon. ¹⁹For this is what the LORD Almighty says about the pillars, the bronze Sea, the movable stands and the other articles that are left in this city, ²⁰which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take away when he carried Jehoiachin^[50] son of Jehoiakim king of Judah into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem—²¹yes, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says about the things that are left in the house of the LORD and in the palace of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem: ²²'They will be taken to Babylon and there they will remain until the day I come for them,' declares the LORD. 'Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place.' "

Jeremiah 28

THE FALSE PROPHET HANANIAH

¹In the fifth month of that same year, the fourth year, early in the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur, who was from Gibeon, said to me in the house of the LORD in the presence of the priests and all the people: ²“This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: ‘I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon. ³Within two years I will bring back to this place all the articles of the LORD’s house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon removed from here and took to Babylon. ⁴I will also bring back to this place Jehoiachin^[51] son of Jehoiakim king of Judah and all the other exiles from Judah who went to Babylon,’ declares the LORD, ‘for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.’ ”

⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah before the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD. ⁶He said, “Amen! May the LORD do so! May the LORD fulfill the words you have prophesied by bringing the articles of the LORD’s house and all the exiles back to this place from Babylon. ⁷Nevertheless, listen to what I have to say in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people: ⁸From early times the prophets who preceded you and me have prophesied war, disaster and plague against many countries and great kingdoms. ⁹But the prophet who prophesies peace will be recognized as one truly sent by the LORD only if his prediction comes true.”

¹⁰Then the prophet Hananiah took the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and broke it, ¹¹and he said before all the people, “This is what the LORD says: ‘In the same way I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon off the neck of all the nations within two years.’ ” At this, the prophet Jeremiah went on his way.

¹²After the prophet Hananiah had broken the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ¹³“Go and tell Hananiah, ‘This is what the LORD says: You have broken a wooden yoke, but in its place you will get a yoke of iron. ¹⁴This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I will put an iron yoke on the necks of all these nations to make them serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they will serve him. I will even give him control over the wild animals.’ ”

¹⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, “Listen, Hananiah! The LORD has not sent you, yet you have persuaded this nation to trust in lies. ¹⁶Therefore this is what the LORD says: 'I am about to remove you from the face of the earth. This very year you are going to die, because you have preached rebellion against the LORD.' ”

¹⁷In the seventh month of that same year, Hananiah the prophet died.

Jeremiah 29

A LETTER TO THE EXILES

¹This is the text of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the surviving elders among the exiles and to the priests, the prophets and all the other people Nebuchadnezzar had carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. ²(This was after King Jehoiachin^[52] and the queen mother, the court officials and the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the skilled workers and the artisans had gone into exile from Jerusalem.) ³He entrusted the letter to Elasah son of Shaphan and to Gemariah son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to King Nebuchadnezzar in Babylon. It said:

⁴This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says to all those I carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵“Build houses and settle down; plant gardens and eat what they produce. ⁶Marry and have sons and daughters; find wives for your sons and give your daughters in marriage, so that they too may have sons and daughters. Increase in number there; do not decrease. ⁷Also, seek the peace and prosperity of the city to which I have carried you into exile. Pray to the LORD for it, because if it prospers, you too will prosper.” ⁸Yes, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “Do not let the prophets and diviners among you deceive you. Do not listen to the dreams you encourage them to have. ⁹They are prophesying lies to you in my name. I have not sent them,” declares the LORD.

¹⁰This is what the LORD says: “When seventy years are completed for Babylon, I will come to you and fulfill my good promise to bring you back to this place. ¹¹For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the LORD, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. ¹²Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. ¹³You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart. ¹⁴I will be found by you,” declares the LORD, “and will bring you back from captivity.^[53] I will gather you from all the nations and places where I have banished you,” declares the LORD, “and will bring you back to the place from which I carried you into exile.”

¹⁵You may say, “The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon,” ¹⁶but this is what the LORD says about the king who sits on David’s throne and all the people who remain in this city, your fellow citizens who did not go with you into exile— ¹⁷yes, this is what the LORD Almighty says: “I will send the sword, famine and plague against them and I will make them like figs that are so bad they cannot be eaten. ¹⁸I will pursue them with the sword, famine and plague and will make them abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth, a curse^[54] and an object of horror, of scorn and reproach, among all the nations where I drive them. ¹⁹For they have not listened to my words,” declares the LORD, “words that I sent to them again and again by my servants the prophets. And you exiles have not listened either,” declares the LORD.

²⁰Therefore, hear the word of the LORD, all you exiles whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.

²¹This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying lies to you in my name: “I will deliver them into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will put them to death before your very eyes. ²²Because of them, all the exiles from Judah who are in Babylon will use this curse: ‘May the LORD treat you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon burned in the fire.’ ²³For they have done outrageous things in Israel; they have committed adultery with their neighbors’ wives, and in my name they have uttered lies—which I did not authorize. I know it and am a witness to it,” declares the LORD.

MESSAGE TO SHEMAIAH

²⁴Tell Shemaiah the Nehelamite, ²⁵“This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You sent letters in your own name to all the people in Jerusalem, to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, and to all the other priests. You said to Zephaniah, ²⁶‘The LORD has appointed you priest in place of Jehoiada to be in charge of the house of the LORD; you should put any maniac who acts like a prophet into the stocks and neck-irons. ²⁷So why have you not reprimanded Jeremiah from Anathoth, who poses as a prophet among you? ²⁸He has sent this message to us in Babylon: It will be a long time. Therefore build houses and settle down; plant gardens and eat what they produce.’ ”

²⁹Zephaniah the priest, however, read the letter to Jeremiah the prophet. ³⁰Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ³¹“Send this message to all the exiles: ‘This is what the LORD says about Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, even though I did not send him, and has persuaded you to trust in lies, ³²this is what the LORD says: I will surely punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his descendants. He will have no one left among this people, nor will he see the good things I will do for my people, declares the LORD, because he has preached rebellion against me.’ ”

Jeremiah 30

RESTORATION OF ISRAEL

¹This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Write in a book all the words I have spoken to you. ³The days are coming,’ declares the LORD, ‘when I will bring my people Israel and Judah back from captivity^[55] and restore them to the land I gave their ancestors to possess,’ says the LORD.”

⁴These are the words the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah: ⁵“This is what the LORD says:

“ ‘Cries of fear are heard— terror, not peace.

⁶Ask and see:

Can a man bear children?

Then why do I see every strong man with his hands on his stomach like a woman in labor, every face turned deathly pale?

⁷How awful that day will be!

No other will be like it.

It will be a time of trouble for Jacob, but he will be saved out of it.

⁸“ ‘In that day,’ declares the LORD Almighty,

‘I will break the yoke off their necks and will tear off their bonds;
no longer will foreigners enslave them.

⁹Instead, they will serve the LORD their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.

¹⁰“ ‘So do not be afraid, Jacob my servant;

do not be dismayed, Israel,’

declares the LORD.

‘I will surely save you out of a distant place,
your descendants from the land of their exile.

Jacob will again have peace and security,
and no one will make him afraid.

¹¹I am with you and will save you,’

declares the LORD.

‘Though I completely destroy all the nations
among which I scatter you,
I will not completely destroy you.

I will discipline you but only in due measure;
I will not let you go entirely unpunished.'

¹²“This is what the LORD says:

“ ‘Your wound is incurable, your injury beyond healing.

¹³There is no one to plead your cause, no remedy for your sore,
no healing for you.

¹⁴All your allies have forgotten you;
they care nothing for you.
I have struck you as an enemy would and punished you as would the cruel, because your guilt is so great and your sins so many.

¹⁵Why do you cry out over your wound,
your pain that has no cure?
Because of your great guilt and many sins
I have done these things to you.

¹⁶“ ‘But all who devour you will be devoured;
all your enemies will go into exile.
Those who plunder you will be plundered;
all who make spoil of you I will despoil.

¹⁷But I will restore you to health and heal your wounds,’

declares the LORD,

‘because you are called an outcast,
Zion for whom no one cares.’

¹⁸“This is what the LORD says:

“ ‘I will restore the fortunes of Jacob’s tents and have compassion on his dwellings;
the city will be rebuilt on her ruins,
and the palace will stand in its proper place.

¹⁹From them will come songs of thanksgiving and the sound of rejoicing.
I will add to their numbers,
and they will not be decreased;

I will bring them honor,
and they will not be disdained.

²⁰Their children will be as in days of old,
and their community will be established before me;
I will punish all who oppress them.

²¹Their leader will be one of their own;
their ruler will arise from among them.
I will bring him near and he will come close to me—for who is he who will devote himself to be close to me?

declares the LORD.

²²“ ‘So you will be my people, and I will be your God.’ ”

²³See, the storm of the LORD
will burst out in wrath,

a driving wind swirling down
on the heads of the wicked.

²⁴The fierce anger of the LORD will not turn back until he fully accomplishes
the purposes of his heart.

In days to come
you will understand this.

Jeremiah 31

¹“At that time,” declares the LORD, “I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be my people.”

²This is what the LORD says:

“The people who survive the sword will find favor in the wilderness;
I will come to give rest to Israel.”

³The LORD appeared to us in the past, ^[56] saying:

“I have loved you with an everlasting love;
I have drawn you with unfailing kindness.

⁴I will build you up again,
and you, Virgin Israel, will be rebuilt.
Again you will take up your timbrels and go out to dance with the joyful.

⁵Again you will plant vineyards
on the hills of Samaria;

the farmers will plant them and enjoy their fruit.

⁶There will be a day when watchmen cry out on the hills of Ephraim,
'Come, let us go up to Zion, to the LORD our God.' "

⁷This is what the LORD says:

"Sing with joy for Jacob;
shout for the foremost of the nations.
Make your praises heard, and say,
'LORD, save your people,
the remnant of Israel.'

⁸See, I will bring them from the land of the north and gather them from the ends of the earth.
Among them will be the blind and the lame, expectant mothers and women in labor;
a great throng will return.

⁹They will come with weeping;
they will pray as I bring them back.
I will lead them beside streams of water on a level path where they will not stumble, because I am Israel's father,
and Ephraim is my firstborn son.

¹⁰"Hear the word of the LORD, you nations; proclaim it in distant coastlands:
'He who scattered Israel will gather them and will watch over his flock like a shepherd.'

¹¹For the LORD will deliver Jacob and redeem them from the hand of those stronger than they.

¹²They will come and shout for joy on the heights of Zion;
they will rejoice in the bounty of the LORD—
the grain, the new wine and the olive oil,
the young of the flocks and herds.
They will be like a well-watered garden,
and they will sorrow no more.

¹³Then young women will dance and be glad,
young men and old as well.
I will turn their mourning into gladness;

I will give them comfort and joy instead of sorrow.
¹⁴I will satisfy the priests with abundance, and my people will be filled with my bounty,”
declares the LORD.

¹⁵This is what the LORD says:

“A voice is heard in Ramah, mourning and great weeping,

Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more.”

¹⁶This is what the LORD says:

“Restrain your voice from weeping and your eyes from tears, for your work will be rewarded,”

declares the LORD.

“They will return from the land of the enemy.
¹⁷So there is hope for your descendants,”

declares the LORD.

“Your children will return to their own land.

¹⁸“I have surely heard Ephraim’s moaning:
‘You disciplined me like an unruly calf,
and I have been disciplined.
Restore me, and I will return, because you are the LORD my God.

¹⁹After I strayed,
I repented;
after I came to understand,
I beat my breast.

I was ashamed and humiliated because I bore the disgrace of my youth.’

²⁰Is not Ephraim my dear son,
the child in whom I delight?
Though I often speak against him,
I still remember him.
Therefore my heart yearns for him;
I have great compassion for him,”

declares the LORD.

²¹“Set up road signs;
put up guideposts.
Take note of the highway,
the road that you take.
Return, Virgin Israel, return to your towns.

²²How long will you wander, unfaithful Daughter Israel?
The LORD will create a new thing on earth—
the woman will return to^[57] the man.”

²³This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “When I bring them back from captivity,^[58] the people in the land of Judah and in its towns will once again use these words: ‘The LORD bless you, you prosperous city, you sacred mountain.’ ²⁴People will live together in Judah and all its towns—farmers and those who move about with their flocks. ²⁵I will refresh the weary and satisfy the faint.”

²⁶At this I awoke and looked around. My sleep had been pleasant to me.

²⁷“The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will plant the kingdoms of Israel and Judah with the offspring of people and of animals. ²⁸Just as I watched over them to uproot and tear down, and to overthrow, destroy and bring disaster, so I will watch over them to build and to plant,” declares the LORD. ²⁹“In those days people will no longer say,

‘The parents have eaten sour grapes,
and the children’s teeth are set on edge.’

³⁰Instead, everyone will die for their own sin; whoever eats sour grapes—their own teeth will be set on edge.

³¹“The days are coming,” declares the LORD,
“when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and with the people of Judah.

³²It will not be like the covenant

I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt, because they broke my covenant,
though I was a husband to^[59] them,^[60]”

declares the LORD.

³³“This is the covenant I will make with the people of Israel after that time,” declares the LORD.

“I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts.

I will be their God,
and they will be my people.

³⁴No longer will they teach their neighbor, or say to one another, ‘Know the LORD,’ because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest,”

declares the LORD.

“For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.”

³⁵This is what the LORD says,

he who appoints the sun
to shine by day, who decrees the moon and stars
to shine by night,

who stirs up the sea
so that its waves roar—
the LORD Almighty is his name:

³⁶“Only if these decrees vanish from my sight,”
declares the LORD,
“will Israel ever cease being a nation before me.”

³⁷This is what the LORD says:

“Only if the heavens above can be measured and the foundations of the earth below be searched out will I reject all the descendants of Israel because of all they have done,”

declares the LORD.

³⁸“The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when this city will be rebuilt for me from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. ³⁹The measuring line will stretch from there straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn to Goah. ⁴⁰The whole valley where dead bodies and ashes are thrown, and all the terraces out to the Kidron Valley on the east as far as the corner of the Horse Gate, will be holy to the LORD. The city will never again be uprooted or demolished.”

ROCK SOLID truths

Jeremiah 31:33–34

God changes people from the inside out.

God commands you to obey him. You might wish you could. But you can't. Not on your own anyway. That's the first point God makes in this passage. When the Lord rescued his people from slavery in Egypt, he made a “covenant” or “solemn agreement” with them where he loved them like crazy, gave them the Ten Commandments and the rest of the law, and required them to obey. But God has a second point. He's making a new agreement. This time he won't write his rules on stone. He plans to etch his laws on our hearts and minds. And that will make all the difference. Instead of rules coming at us from the outside, the Lord himself will change us from the inside. He promises to transform us by putting his Spirit inside us (see Ezekiel 36:26–27). Get it? Now you can obey God. Just don't try to do it on your own.

Think: How do you suppose God writes his law on your heart?

Jeremiah 32

JEREMIAH BUYS A FIELD

¹This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

²The army of the king of Babylon was then besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was confined in the courtyard of the guard in the royal palace of Judah.

³Now Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him there, saying, “Why do you prophesy as you do? You say, ‘This is what the LORD says: I am about to give this city into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it.

⁴Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape the Babylonians^[61] but will certainly be given into the hands of the king of Babylon, and will speak with him face to face and see him with his own eyes. ⁵He will take Zedekiah to Babylon, where he will remain until I deal with him, declares the LORD. If you fight against the Babylonians, you will not succeed.’ ”

⁶Jeremiah said, “The word of the LORD came to me: ⁷Hanamel son of Shallum your uncle is going to come to you and say, ‘Buy my field at Anathoth, because as nearest relative it is your right and duty to buy it.’

⁸“Then, just as the LORD had said, my cousin Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guard and said, ‘Buy my field at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin. Since it is your right to redeem it and possess it, buy it for yourself.’

“I knew that this was the word of the LORD; ⁹so I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel and weighed out for him seventeen shekels^[62] of silver. ¹⁰I signed and sealed the deed, had it witnessed, and weighed out the silver on the scales. ¹¹I took the deed of purchase—the sealed copy containing the terms and conditions, as well as the unsealed copy—¹²and I gave this deed to Baruch son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanamel and of the witnesses who had signed the deed and of all the Jews sitting in the courtyard of the guard.

¹³“In their presence I gave Baruch these instructions: ¹⁴‘This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Take these documents, both the sealed and unsealed copies of the deed of purchase, and put them in a clay jar so they will last a long time. ¹⁵For this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Houses, fields and vineyards will again be bought in this land.’

¹⁶“After I had given the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD:

¹⁷“Ah, Sovereign LORD, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and outstretched arm. Nothing is too hard for you.

¹⁸You show love to thousands but bring the punishment for the parents’ sins into the laps of their children after them. Great and mighty God, whose name is the LORD Almighty, ¹⁹great are your purposes and mighty are your deeds. Your eyes are open to the ways of all mankind; you reward each person according to their conduct and as their deeds deserve.

²⁰You performed signs and wonders in Egypt and have continued them to this day, in Israel and among all mankind, and have gained the renown that is still yours. ²¹You brought your people Israel out of Egypt with signs and wonders, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with great terror. ²²You gave them this land you had sworn to give their ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey. ²³They came in and took possession of it, but they did not obey you or follow your law; they did not do what you commanded them to do. So you brought all this disaster on them.

²⁴“See how the siege ramps are built up to take the city. Because of the sword, famine and plague, the city will be given into the hands of the Babylonians who are attacking it. What you said has happened, as you now see. ²⁵And though the city will be given into the hands of the Babylonians, you, Sovereign LORD, say to me, ‘Buy the field with silver and have the transaction witnessed.’ ”

²⁶Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁷“I am the LORD, the God of all mankind. Is anything too hard for me? ²⁸Therefore this is what the LORD says: I am about to give this city into the hands of the Babylonians and to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who will capture it. ²⁹The Babylonians who are attacking this city will come in and set it on fire; they will burn it down, along with the houses where the people aroused my anger by burning incense on the roofs to Baal and by pouring out drink offerings to other gods.

³⁰“The people of Israel and Judah have done nothing but evil in my sight from their youth; indeed, the people of Israel have done nothing but arouse my anger with what their hands have made, declares the LORD. ³¹From the day it was built until now, this city has so aroused my anger and wrath that I must remove it from my sight. ³²The people of Israel and Judah have provoked me by all the evil they have done—they, their kings and officials, their priests and prophets, the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem. ³³They turned their backs to me and not their faces; though I taught them again and again, they would not listen or respond to discipline. ³⁴They set up their vile images in the house that bears my Name and defiled it. ³⁵They built high places for Baal in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to sacrifice their sons and daughters to Molek, though I never commanded—nor did it enter my mind—that they should do such a detestable thing and so make Judah sin.

³⁶“You are saying about this city, ‘By the sword, famine and plague it will be given into the hands of the king of Babylon’; but this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ³⁷I will surely gather them from all the lands where I banish them in my furious anger and great wrath; I will bring them back to this place and let them live in safety. ³⁸They will be my people, and I will be their God. ³⁹I will give them singleness of heart and action, so that they will always fear me and that all will then go well for them and for their children after them. ⁴⁰I will make an everlasting covenant with them: I will never stop doing good to them, and I will inspire them to fear me, so that they will never turn away from me. ⁴¹I will rejoice in doing them good and will assuredly plant them in this land with all my heart and soul.

⁴²“This is what the LORD says: As I have brought all this great calamity on this people, so I will give them all the prosperity I have promised them. ⁴³Once more fields will be bought in this land of which you say, ‘It is a desolate waste, without people or animals, for it has been given into the hands of the Babylonians.’ ⁴⁴Fields will be bought for silver, and deeds will be signed, sealed and witnessed in the territory of Benjamin, in the villages around Jerusalem, in the towns of Judah and in the towns of the hill country, of the western foothills and of the Negev, because I will restore their fortunes,^[63] declares the LORD.”

Jeremiah 32:17

God is all-powerful.

The prophet Jeremiah had warned again and again that the king of Babylon—Nebuchadnezzar—would ravage the city of Jerusalem and carry its people away as slaves. And yet the Lord made an astounding promise. After a period of slavery, the captives would come back to the land (see Jeremiah 32:15). Everyone called Jeremiah the weeping prophet (see Jeremiah 9:1), but suddenly he had reason to cheer. “Ah, Sovereign LORD,” he prayed, “Nothing is too hard for you” (Jeremiah 32:17). What an opening line. Despite all the problems God’s people faced, the Lord is still “omnipotent,” or “all powerful.” Nothing—not a thing—is too difficult for him.

So ... When have you seen God do powerful things no one else could do?

Jeremiah 33

PROMISE OF RESTORATION

¹While Jeremiah was still confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the LORD came to him a second time: ²“This is what the LORD says, he who made the earth, the LORD who formed it and established it—the LORD is his name: ³‘Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know.’ ⁴For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says about the houses in this city and the royal palaces of Judah that have been torn down to be used against the siege ramps and the sword ⁵in the fight with the Babylonians^[64]: ‘They will be filled with the dead bodies of the people I will slay in my anger and wrath. I will hide my face from this city because of all its wickedness.

⁶“ ‘Nevertheless, I will bring health and healing to it; I will heal my people and will let them enjoy abundant peace and security. ⁷I will bring Judah and Israel back from captivity^[65] and will rebuild them as they were before. ⁸I will cleanse them from all the sin they have committed against me and will forgive all their sins of rebellion against me. ⁹Then this city will bring me renown, joy, praise and honor before all nations on earth that hear of all the good things I do for it; and they will be in awe and will tremble at the abundant prosperity and peace I provide for it.’

¹⁰“This is what the LORD says: ‘You say about this place, “It is a desolate waste, without people or animals.” Yet in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem that are deserted, inhabited by neither people nor animals, there will be heard once more ¹¹the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of bride and bridegroom, and the voices of those who bring thank offerings to the house of the LORD, saying, “Give thanks to the LORD Almighty, for the LORD is good;

his love endures forever.”

For I will restore the fortunes of the land as they were before,’ says the LORD.

¹²“This is what the LORD Almighty says: ‘In this place, desolate and without people or animals—in all its towns there will again be pastures for shepherds to rest their flocks. ¹³In the towns of the hill country, of the western foothills and of the Negev, in the territory of Benjamin, in the villages around Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah, flocks will again pass under the hand of the one who counts them,' says the LORD.

¹⁴“ ‘The days are coming,’ declares the LORD, ‘when I will fulfill the good promise I made to the people of Israel and Judah.

¹⁵“ ‘In those days and at that time
I will make a righteous Branch sprout from David’s line;
he will do what is just and right in the land.

¹⁶In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety.
This is the name by which it^[66] will be called: The LORD Our Righteous Savior.’

¹⁷For this is what the LORD says: ‘David will never fail to have a man to sit on the throne of Israel, ¹⁸nor will the Levitical priests ever fail to have a man to stand before me continually to offer burnt offerings, to burn grain offerings and to present sacrifices.’ ”

¹⁹The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁰“This is what the LORD says: ‘If you can break my covenant with the day and my covenant with the night, so that day and night no longer come at their appointed time, ²¹then my covenant with David my servant—and my covenant with the Levites who are priests ministering before me—can be broken and David will no longer have a descendant to reign on his throne. ²²I will make the descendants of David my servant and the Levites who minister before me as countless as the stars in the sky and as measureless as the sand on the seashore.’ ”

²³The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁴“Have you not noticed that these people are saying, ‘The LORD has rejected the two kingdoms^[67] he chose’? So they despise my people and no longer regard them as a nation. ²⁵This is what the LORD says: ‘If I have not made my covenant with day and night and established the laws of heaven and earth, ²⁶then I will reject the descendants of Jacob and David my servant and will not choose one of his sons to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes^[68] and have compassion on them.’ ”

Jeremiah 34

WARNING TO ZEDEKIAH

¹While Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army and all the kingdoms and peoples in the empire he ruled were fighting against Jerusalem and all its surrounding towns, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Go to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him, ‘This is what the LORD says: I am about to give this city into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down. ³You will not escape from his grasp but will surely be captured and given into his hands. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes, and he will speak with you face to face. And you will go to Babylon.

⁴“ ‘Yet hear the LORD’s promise to you, Zedekiah king of Judah. This is what the LORD says concerning you: You will not die by the sword; ⁵you will die peacefully. As people made a funeral fire in honor of your predecessors, the kings who ruled before you, so they will make a fire in your honor and lament, ‘Alas, master!’ I myself make this promise, declares the LORD.’ ”

⁶Then Jeremiah the prophet told all this to Zedekiah king of Judah, in Jerusalem, ⁷while the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and the other cities of Judah that were still holding out—Lachish and Azekah. These were the only fortified cities left in Judah.

FREEDOM FOR SLAVES

⁸The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to proclaim freedom for the slaves.

⁹Everyone was to free their Hebrew slaves, both male and female; no one was to hold a fellow Hebrew in bondage. ¹⁰So all the officials and people who entered into this covenant agreed that they would free their male and female slaves and no longer hold them in bondage. They agreed, and set them free.

¹¹But afterward they changed their minds and took back the slaves they had freed and enslaved them again.

¹²Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ¹³“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery. I said, ¹⁴‘Every seventh year each of you must free any fellow Hebrews who have sold themselves to you. After they have served you six years, you must let them go free.’^[69] Your ancestors, however, did not listen to me or pay attention to me. ¹⁵Recently you repented and did what is right in my sight: Each of you proclaimed freedom to your own people. You even made a covenant before me in the house that bears my Name. ¹⁶But now you have turned around and profaned my name; each of you has taken back the male and female slaves you had set free to go where they wished. You have forced them to become your slaves again.

¹⁷“Therefore this is what the LORD says: You have not obeyed me; you have not proclaimed freedom to your own people. So I now proclaim ‘freedom’ for you, declares the LORD—‘freedom’ to fall by the sword, plague and famine. I will make you abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth. ¹⁸Those who have violated my covenant and have not fulfilled the terms of the covenant they made before me, I will treat like the calf they cut in two and then walked between its pieces. ¹⁹The leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the court officials, the priests and all the people of the land who walked between the pieces of the calf, ²⁰I will deliver into the hands of their enemies who want to kill them. Their dead bodies will become food for the birds and the wild animals.

²¹“I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah and his officials into the hands of their enemies who want to kill them, to the army of the king of Babylon, which has withdrawn from you. ²²I am going to give the order, declares the LORD, and I will bring them back to this city. They will fight against it, take it and burn it down. And I will lay waste the towns of Judah so no one can live there.”

Jeremiah 35

THE REKABITES

¹This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD during the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah: ²“Go to the Rekabite family and invite them to come to one of the side rooms of the house of the LORD and give them wine to drink.”

³So I went to get Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers and all his sons—the whole family of the Rekabites. ⁴I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the room of the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah the man of God. It was next to the room of the officials, which was over that of Maaseiah son of Shallum the doorkeeper. ⁵Then I set bowls full of wine and some cups before the Rekabites and said to them, “Drink some wine.”

⁶But they replied, “We do not drink wine, because our forefather Jehonadab^[70] son of Rekab gave us this command: ‘Neither you nor your descendants must ever drink wine. ⁷Also you must never build houses, sow seed or plant vineyards; you must never have any of these things, but must always live in tents. Then you will live a long time in the land where you are nomads.’ ⁸We have obeyed everything our forefather Jehonadab son of Rekab commanded us. Neither we nor our wives nor our sons and daughters have ever drunk wine ⁹or built houses to live in or had vineyards, fields or crops. ¹⁰We have lived in tents and have fully obeyed everything our forefather Jehonadab commanded us. ¹¹But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded this land, we said, ‘Come, we must go to Jerusalem to escape the Babylonian^[71] and Aramean armies.’ So we have remained in Jerusalem.”

¹²Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying: ¹³“This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Go and tell the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem, ‘Will you not learn a lesson and obey my words?’ declares the LORD. ¹⁴‘Jehonadab son of Rekab ordered his descendants not to drink wine and this command has been kept. To this day they do not drink wine, because they obey their forefather’s command. But I have spoken to you again and again, yet you have not obeyed me. ¹⁵Again and again I sent all my servants the prophets to you. They said, “Each of you must turn from your wicked ways and reform your actions; do not follow other gods to serve them. Then you will live in the land I have given to you and your ancestors.” But you have not paid attention or listened to me. ¹⁶The descendants of Jehonadab son of Rekab have carried out the command their forefather gave them, but these people have not obeyed me.'

¹⁷“Therefore this is what the LORD God Almighty, the God of Israel, says: ‘Listen! I am going to bring on Judah and on everyone living in Jerusalem every disaster I pronounced against them. I spoke to them, but they did not listen; I called to them, but they did not answer.’ ”

¹⁸Then Jeremiah said to the family of the Rekabites, “This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: ‘You have obeyed the command of your forefather Jehonadab and have followed all his instructions and have done everything he ordered.’ ¹⁹Therefore this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: ‘Jehonadab son of Rekab will never fail to have a descendant to serve me.’ ”

Jeremiah 36

JEHOIAKIM BURNS JEREMIAH'S SCROLL

¹In the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²“Take a scroll and write on it all the words I have spoken to you concerning Israel, Judah and all the other nations from the time I began speaking to you in the reign of Josiah till now. ³Perhaps when the people of Judah hear about every disaster I plan to inflict on them, they will each turn from their wicked ways; then I will forgive their wickedness and their sin.”

⁴So Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and while Jeremiah dictated all the words the LORD had spoken to him, Baruch wrote them on the scroll. ⁵Then Jeremiah told Baruch, “I am restricted; I am not allowed to go to the LORD’s temple. ⁶So you go to the house of the LORD on a day of fasting and read to the people from the scroll the words of the LORD that you wrote as I dictated. Read them to all the people of Judah who come in from their towns. ⁷Perhaps they will bring their petition before the LORD and will each turn from their wicked ways, for the anger and wrath pronounced against this people by the LORD are great.”

⁸Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet told him to do; at the LORD’s temple he read the words of the LORD from the scroll. ⁹In the ninth month of the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, a time of fasting before the LORD was proclaimed for all the people in Jerusalem and those who had come from the towns of Judah. ¹⁰From the room of Gemariah son of Shaphan the secretary, which was in the upper courtyard at the entrance of the New Gate of the temple, Baruch read to all the people at the LORD’s temple the words of Jeremiah from the scroll.

¹¹When Micaiah son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll, ¹²he went down to the secretary’s room in the royal palace, where all the officials were sitting: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Akbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials. ¹³After Micaiah told them everything he had heard Baruch read to the people from the scroll, ¹⁴all the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cush, to say to Baruch, “Bring the scroll from which you have read to the people and come.” So Baruch son of Neriah went to them with the scroll in his hand. ¹⁵They said to him, “Sit down, please, and read it to us.”

So Baruch read it to them. ¹⁶When they heard all these words, they looked at each other in fear and said to Baruch, “We must report all these words to the king.” ¹⁷Then they asked Baruch, “Tell us, how did you come to write all this? Did Jeremiah dictate it?”

¹⁸“Yes,” Baruch replied, “he dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them in ink on the scroll.”

¹⁹Then the officials said to Baruch, “You and Jeremiah, go and hide. Don’t let anyone know where you are.”

²⁰After they put the scroll in the room of Elishama the secretary, they went to the king in the courtyard and reported everything to him. ²¹The king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and Jehudi brought it from the room of Elishama the secretary and read it to the king and all the officials standing beside him. ²²It was the ninth month and the king was sitting in the winter apartment, with a fire burning in the firepot in front of him. ²³Whenever Jehudi had read three or four columns of the scroll, the king cut them off with a scribe’s knife and threw them into the firepot, until the entire scroll was burned in the fire. ²⁴The king and all his attendants who heard all these words showed no fear, nor did they tear their clothes. ²⁵Even though Elnathan, Delaiah and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them. ²⁶Instead, the king commanded Jerahmeel, a son of the king, Seraiah son of Azriel and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. But the LORD had hidden them.

²⁷After the king burned the scroll containing the words that Baruch had written at Jeremiah’s dictation, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁸“Take another scroll and write on it all the words that were on the first scroll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah burned up. ²⁹Also tell Jehoiakim king of Judah, ‘This is what the LORD says: You burned that scroll and said, “Why did you write on it that the king of Babylon would certainly come and destroy this land and wipe from it both man and beast?” ³⁰Therefore this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no one to sit on the throne of David; his body will be thrown out and exposed to the heat by day and the frost by night. ³¹I will punish him and his children and his attendants for their wickedness; I will bring on them and those living in Jerusalem and the people of Judah every disaster I pronounced against them, because they have not listened.’ ”

³²So Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to the scribe Baruch son of Neriah, and as Jeremiah dictated, Baruch wrote on it all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And many similar words were added to them.

Jeremiah 37

JEREMIAH IN PRISON

¹Zedekiah son of Josiah was made king of Judah by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; he reigned in place of Jehoiachin^[72] son of Jehoiakim. ²Neither he nor his attendants nor the people of the land paid any attention to the words the LORD had spoken through Jeremiah the prophet.

³King Zedekiah, however, sent Jehukal son of Shelemiah with the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to Jeremiah the prophet with this message: “Please pray to the LORD our God for us.”

⁴Now Jeremiah was free to come and go among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison. ⁵Pharaoh’s army had marched out of Egypt, and when the Babylonians^[73] who were besieging Jerusalem heard the report about them, they withdrew from Jerusalem.

⁶Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet: ⁷“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of me, ‘Pharaoh’s army, which has marched out to support you, will go back to its own land, to Egypt. ⁸Then the Babylonians will return and attack this city; they will capture it and burn it down.’

¹¹After the Babylonian army had withdrawn from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh’s army, ¹²Jeremiah started to leave the city to go to the territory of Benjamin to get his share of the property among the people there. ¹³But when he reached the Benjamin Gate, the captain of the guard, whose name was Irijah son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah, arrested him and said, “You are deserting to the Babylonians!”

¹⁴“That’s not true!” Jeremiah said. “I am not deserting to the Babylonians.” But Irijah would not listen to him; instead, he arrested Jeremiah and brought him to the officials. ¹⁵They were angry with Jeremiah and had him beaten and imprisoned in the house of Jonathan the secretary, which they had made into a prison.

¹⁶Jeremiah was put into a vaulted cell in a dungeon, where he remained a long time. ¹⁷Then King Zedekiah sent for him and had him brought to the palace, where he asked him privately, “Is there any word from the LORD?”

“Yes,” Jeremiah replied, “you will be delivered into the hands of the king of Babylon.”

¹⁸Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “What crime have I committed against you or your attendants or this people, that you have put me in prison?

¹⁹Where are your prophets who prophesied to you, ‘The king of Babylon will not attack you or this land’? ²⁰But now, my lord the king, please listen. Let me bring my petition before you: Do not send me back to the house of Jonathan the secretary, or I will die there.”

²¹King Zedekiah then gave orders for Jeremiah to be placed in the courtyard of the guard and given a loaf of bread from the street of the bakers each day until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

Jeremiah 38

JEREMIAH THROWN INTO A CISTERN

¹Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehukal^[75] son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah heard what Jeremiah was telling all the people when he said, ²“This is what the LORD says: ‘Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine or plague, but whoever goes over to the Babylonians^[76] will live. They will escape with their lives; they will live.’”
³And this is what the LORD says: ‘This city will certainly be given into the hands of the army of the king of Babylon, who will capture it.’ ”

⁴Then the officials said to the king, “This man should be put to death. He is discouraging the soldiers who are left in this city, as well as all the people, by the things he is saying to them. This man is not seeking the good of these people but their ruin.”

⁵“He is in your hands,” King Zedekiah answered. “The king can do nothing to oppose you.”

⁶So they took Jeremiah and put him into the cistern of Malkijah, the king’s son, which was in the courtyard of the guard. They lowered Jeremiah by ropes into the cistern; it had no water in it, only mud, and Jeremiah sank down into the mud.

⁷But Ebed-Melek, a Cushite,^[77] an official^[78] in the royal palace, heard that they had put Jeremiah into the cistern. While the king was sitting in the Benjamin Gate, ⁸Ebed-Melek went out of the palace and said to him, ⁹“My lord the king, these men have acted wickedly in all they have done to Jeremiah the prophet. They have thrown him into a cistern, where he will starve to death when there is no longer any bread in the city.”

¹⁰Then the king commanded Ebed-Melek the Cushite, “Take thirty men from here with you and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the cistern before he dies.”

¹¹So Ebed-Melek took the men with him and went to a room under the treasury in the palace. He took some old rags and worn-out clothes from there and let them down with ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern. ¹²Ebed-Melek the Cushite said to Jeremiah, “Put these old rags and worn-out clothes under your arms to pad the ropes.” Jeremiah did so, ¹³and they pulled him up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

ZEDEKIAH QUESTIONS JEREMIAH AGAIN

¹⁴Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah the prophet and had him brought to the third entrance to the temple of the LORD. “I am going to ask you something,” the king said to Jeremiah. “Do not hide anything from me.”

¹⁵Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “If I give you an answer, will you not kill me? Even if I did give you counsel, you would not listen to me.”

¹⁶But King Zedekiah swore this oath secretly to Jeremiah: “As surely as the LORD lives, who has given us breath, I will neither kill you nor hand you over to those who want to kill you.”

¹⁷Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “This is what the LORD God Almighty, the God of Israel, says: ‘If you surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, your life will be spared and this city will not be burned down; you and your family will live. ¹⁸But if you will not surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, this city will be given into the hands of the Babylonians and they will burn it down; you yourself will not escape from them.’ ”

¹⁹King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “I am afraid of the Jews who have gone over to the Babylonians, for the Babylonians may hand me over to them and they will mistreat me.”

²⁰“They will not hand you over,” Jeremiah replied. “Obey the LORD by doing what I tell you. Then it will go well with you, and your life will be spared. ²¹But if you refuse to surrender, this is what the LORD has revealed to me: ²²All the women left in the palace of the king of Judah will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon. Those women will say to you:

“ ‘They misled you and overcame you— those trusted friends of yours. Your feet are sunk in the mud; your friends have deserted you.’ ”

²³“All your wives and children will be brought out to the Babylonians. You yourself will not escape from their hands but will be captured by the king of Babylon; and this city will^[79] be burned down.”

²⁴Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Do not let anyone know about this conversation, or you may die. ²⁵If the officials hear that I talked with you, and they come to you and say, ‘Tell us what you said to the king and what the king said to you; do not hide it from us or we will kill you,’ ²⁶then tell them, ‘I was pleading with the king not to send me back to Jonathan’s house to die there.’ ”

²⁷All the officials did come to Jeremiah and question him, and he told them everything the king had ordered him to say. So they said no more to him, for no one had heard his conversation with the king.

²⁸And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

THE FALL OF JERUSALEM

This is how Jerusalem was taken:

Jeremiah 39

¹In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army and laid siege to it. ²And on the ninth day of the fourth month of Zedekiah's eleventh year, the city wall was broken through. ³Then all the officials of the king of Babylon came and took seats in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer of Samgar, Nebo-Sarsekim a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer a high official and all the other officials of the king of Babylon. ⁴When Zedekiah king of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled; they left the city at night by way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls, and headed toward the Arabah.^[80]

⁸The Babylonians^[82] set fire to the royal palace and the houses of the people and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. ⁹Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard carried into exile to Babylon the people who remained in the city, along with those who had gone over to him, and the rest of the people. ¹⁰But Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard left behind in the land of Judah some of the poor people, who owned nothing; and at that time he gave them vineyards and fields.

¹¹Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had given these orders about Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard: ¹²“Take him and look after him; don't harm him but do for him whatever he asks.” ¹³So Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard, Nebushazban a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer a high official and all the other officers of the king of Babylon ¹⁴sent and had Jeremiah taken out of the courtyard of the guard. They turned him over to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to take him back to his home. So he remained among his own people.

¹⁵While Jeremiah had been confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the LORD came to him: ¹⁶“Go and tell Ebed-Melek the Cushite, ‘This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I am about to fulfill my words against this city—words concerning disaster, not prosperity. At that time they will be fulfilled before your eyes. ¹⁷But I will rescue you on that day, declares the LORD; you will not be given into the hands of those you fear. ¹⁸I will save you; you will not fall by the sword but will escape with your life, because you trust in me, declares the LORD.’ ”

ROCK SOLID truths

Jeremiah 39:1–8

Sin makes you weak.

If you want a visual reminder of the badness of disobeying God, picture the conquered city of Jerusalem. It was God’s sacred city, capital of the southern kingdom and site of the holy temple. It was the place of worship for every Old Testament saint. But in 586 BC the city was attacked and destroyed. An army led by King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon hunted down King Zedekiah of Judah and put his eyes out, then burned the palace, temple and city walls. The people of Jerusalem were led as prisoners to Babylon, a thousand-mile walk. The book of Lamentations describes the destruction of the city, bluntly explaining why the city fell. Jerusalem had invited God’s anger by sinning greatly (see Lamentations 1:8). Obeying God made Jerusalem powerful. Disobeying the Lord made the city blow apart.

Jeremiah 40

JEREMIAH FREED

¹The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had released him at Ramah. He had found Jeremiah bound in chains among all the captives from Jerusalem and Judah who were being carried into exile to Babylon. ²When the commander of the guard found Jeremiah, he said to him, “The LORD your God decreed this disaster for this place. ³And now the LORD has brought it about; he has done just as he said he would. All this happened because you people sinned against the LORD and did not obey him. ⁴But today I am freeing you from the chains on your wrists. Come with me to Babylon, if you like, and I will look after you; but if you do not want to, then don’t come. Look, the whole country lies before you; go wherever you please.” ⁵However, before Jeremiah turned to go,^[83] Nebuzaradan added, “Go back to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the towns of Judah, and live with him among the people, or go anywhere else you please.”

Then the commander gave him provisions and a present and let him go. ⁶So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah and stayed with him among the people who were left behind in the land.

GEDALIAH ASSASSINATED

⁷When all the army officers and their men who were still in the open country heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam as governor over the land and had put him in charge of the men, women and children who were the poorest in the land and who had not been carried into exile to Babylon, ⁸they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah^[84] the son of the Maakathite, and their men. ⁹Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, took an oath to reassure them and their men. “Do not be afraid to serve the Babylonians,^[85]” he said. “Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you. ¹⁰I myself will stay at Mizpah to represent you before the Babylonians who come to us, but you are to harvest the wine, summer fruit and olive oil, and put them in your storage jars, and live in the towns you have taken over.”

¹³Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers still in the open country came to Gedaliah at Mizpah ¹⁴and said to him, “Don’t you know that Baalis king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to take your life?” But Gedaliah son of Ahikam did not believe them.

¹⁵Then Johanan son of Kareah said privately to Gedaliah in Mizpah, “Let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and no one will know it. Why should he take your life and cause all the Jews who are gathered around you to be scattered and the remnant of Judah to perish?”

¹⁶But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, “Don’t do such a thing! What you are saying about Ishmael is not true.”

Jeremiah 41

¹In the seventh month Ishmael son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, who was of royal blood and had been one of the king's officers, came with ten men to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. While they were eating together there, ²Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the ten men who were with him got up and struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, killing the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed as governor over the land. ³Ishmael also killed all the men of Judah who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, as well as the Babylonian^[86] soldiers who were there.

¹⁰Ishmael made captives of all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah—the king's daughters along with all the others who were left there, over whom Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah took them captive and set out to cross over to the Ammonites.

¹¹When Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him heard about all the crimes Ishmael son of Nethaniah had committed, ¹²they took all their men and went to fight Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They caught up with him near the great pool in Gibeon. ¹³When all the people Ishmael had with him saw Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers who were with him, they were glad. ¹⁴All the people Ishmael had taken captive at Mizpah turned and went over to Johanan son of Kareah. ¹⁵But Ishmael son of Nethaniah and eight of his men escaped from Johanan and fled to the Ammonites.

FLIGHT TO EGYPT

¹⁶Then Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him led away all the people of Mizpah who had survived, whom Johanan had recovered from Ishmael son of Nethaniah after Ishmael had assassinated Gedaliah son of Ahikam—the soldiers, women, children and court officials he had recovered from Gibeon. ¹⁷And they went on, stopping at Geruth Kimham near Bethlehem on their way to Egypt ¹⁸to escape the Babylonians.^[87] They were afraid of them because Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed as governor over the land.

Jeremiah 42

¹Then all the army officers, including Johanan son of Kareah and Jezaniah^[88] son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest approached ²Jeremiah the prophet and said to him, “Please hear our petition and pray to the LORD your God for this entire remnant. For as you now see, though we were once many, now only a few are left. ³Pray that the LORD your God will tell us where we should go and what we should do.”

⁴“I have heard you,” replied Jeremiah the prophet. “I will certainly pray to the LORD your God as you have requested; I will tell you everything the LORD says and will keep nothing back from you.”

⁵Then they said to Jeremiah, “May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not act in accordance with everything the LORD your God sends you to tell us. ⁶Whether it is favorable or unfavorable, we will obey the LORD our God, to whom we are sending you, so that it will go well with us, for we will obey the LORD our God.”

⁷Ten days later the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. ⁸So he called together Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him and all the people from the least to the greatest. ⁹He said to them, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition, says: ¹⁰‘If you stay in this land, I will build you up and not tear you down; I will plant you and not uproot you, for I have relented concerning the disaster I have inflicted on you. ¹¹Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, whom you now fear. Do not be afraid of him, declares the LORD, for I am with you and will save you and deliver you from his hands. ¹²I will show you compassion so that he will have compassion on you and restore you to your land.’

¹³“However, if you say, ‘We will not stay in this land,’ and so disobey the LORD your God, ¹⁴and if you say, ‘No, we will go and live in Egypt, where we will not see war or hear the trumpet or be hungry for bread,’ ¹⁵then hear the word of the LORD, you remnant of Judah. This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: ‘If you are determined to go to Egypt and you do go to settle there, ¹⁶then the sword you fear will overtake you there, and the famine you dread will follow you into Egypt, and there you will die. ¹⁷Indeed, all who are determined to go to Egypt to settle there will die by the sword, famine and plague; not one of them will survive or escape the disaster I will bring on them.’ ¹⁸This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: ‘As my anger and wrath have been poured out on those who lived in Jerusalem, so will my wrath be poured out on you when you go to Egypt. You will be a curse^[89] and an object of horror, a curse^[90] and an object of reproach; you will never see this place again.’

¹⁹“Remnant of Judah, the LORD has told you, ‘Do not go to Egypt.’ Be sure of this: I warn you today ²⁰that you made a fatal mistake when you sent me to the LORD your God and said, ‘Pray to the LORD our God for us; tell us everything he says and we will do it.’ ²¹I have told you today, but you still have not obeyed the LORD your God in all he sent me to tell you. ²²So now, be sure of this: You will die by the sword, famine and plague in the place where you want to go to settle.”

Jeremiah 43

¹When Jeremiah had finished telling the people all the words of the LORD their God—everything the LORD had sent him to tell them— ²Azariah son of Hoshaiah and Johanan son of Kareah and all the arrogant men said to Jeremiah, “You are lying! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, ‘You must not go to Egypt to settle there.’ ³But Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us to hand us over to the Babylonians,^[91] so they may kill us or carry us into exile to Babylon.”

⁴So Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers and all the people disobeyed the LORD’s command to stay in the land of Judah. ⁵Instead, Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers led away all the remnant of Judah who had come back to live in the land of Judah from all the nations where they had been scattered. ⁶They also led away all those whom Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had left with Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan—the men, the women, the children and the king’s daughters. And they took Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah along with them. ⁷So they entered Egypt in disobedience to the LORD and went as far as Tahpanhes.

⁸In Tahpanhes the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ⁹“While the Jews are watching, take some large stones with you and bury them in clay in the brick pavement at the entrance to Pharaoh’s palace in Tahpanhes. ¹⁰Then say to them, ‘This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I will send for my servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and I will set his throne over these stones I have buried here; he will spread his royal canopy above them. ¹¹He will come and attack Egypt, bringing death to those destined for death, captivity to those destined for captivity, and the sword to those destined for the sword. ¹²He will set fire to the temples of the gods of Egypt; he will burn their temples and take their gods captive. As a shepherd picks his garment clean of lice, so he will pick Egypt clean and depart. ¹³There in the temple of the sun^[92] in Egypt he will demolish the sacred pillars and will burn down the temples of the gods of Egypt.’ ”

Jeremiah 44

DISASTER BECAUSE OF IDOLATRY

¹This word came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews living in Lower Egypt—in Migdol, Tahpanhes and Memphis—and in Upper Egypt: ²“This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You saw the great disaster I brought on Jerusalem and on all the towns of Judah. Today they lie deserted and in ruins ³because of the evil they have done. They aroused my anger by burning incense to and worshiping other gods that neither they nor you nor your ancestors ever knew. ⁴Again and again I sent my servants the prophets, who said, ‘Do not do this detestable thing that I hate!’ ⁵But they did not listen or pay attention; they did not turn from their wickedness or stop burning incense to other gods. ⁶Therefore, my fierce anger was poured out; it raged against the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem and made them the desolate ruins they are today.

⁷“Now this is what the LORD God Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Why bring such great disaster on yourselves by cutting off from Judah the men and women, the children and infants, and so leave yourselves without a remnant? ⁸Why arouse my anger with what your hands have made, burning incense to other gods in Egypt, where you have come to live? You will destroy yourselves and make yourselves a curse^[93] and an object of reproach among all the nations on earth. ⁹Have you forgotten the wickedness committed by your ancestors and by the kings and queens of Judah and the wickedness committed by you and your wives in the land of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰To this day they have not humbled themselves or shown reverence, nor have they followed my law and the decrees I set before you and your ancestors.

¹¹“Therefore this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I am determined to bring disaster on you and to destroy all Judah. ¹²I will take away the remnant of Judah who were determined to go to Egypt to settle there. They will all perish in Egypt; they will fall by the sword or die from famine. From the least to the greatest, they will die by sword or famine. They will become a curse and an object of horror, a curse and an object of reproach. ¹³I will punish those who live in Egypt with the sword, famine and plague, as I punished Jerusalem. ¹⁴None of the remnant of Judah who have gone to live in Egypt will escape or survive to return to the land of Judah, to which they long to return and live; none will return except a few fugitives.”

¹⁵Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, along with all the women who were present—a large assembly—and all the people living in Lower and Upper Egypt, said to Jeremiah, ¹⁶“We will not listen to the message you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD! ¹⁷We will certainly do everything we said we would: We will burn incense to the Queen of Heaven and will pour out drink offerings to her just as we and our ancestors, our kings and our officials did in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. At that time we had plenty of food and were well off and suffered no harm. ¹⁸But ever since we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have had nothing and have been perishing by sword and famine.”

¹⁹The women added, “When we burned incense to the Queen of Heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, did not our husbands know that we were making cakes impressed with her image and pouring out drink offerings to her?”

²⁰Then Jeremiah said to all the people, both men and women, who were answering him, ²¹“Did not the LORD remember and call to mind the incense burned in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem by you and your ancestors, your kings and your officials and the people of the land? ²²When the LORD could no longer endure your wicked actions and the detestable things you did, your land became a curse and a desolate waste without inhabitants, as it is today. ²³Because you have burned incense and have sinned against the LORD and have not obeyed him or followed his law or his decrees or his stipulations, this disaster has come upon you, as you now see.”

²⁴Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including the women, “Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah in Egypt. ²⁵This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You and your wives have done what you said you would do when you promised, ‘We will certainly carry out the vows we made to burn incense and pour out drink offerings to the Queen of Heaven.’

“Go ahead then, do what you promised! Keep your vows! ²⁶But hear the word of the LORD, all you Jews living in Egypt: ‘I swear by my great name,’ says the LORD, ‘that no one from Judah living anywhere in Egypt will ever again invoke my name or swear, “As surely as the Sovereign LORD lives.”

²⁷For I am watching over them for harm, not for good; the Jews in Egypt will perish by sword and famine until they are all destroyed. ²⁸Those who escape the sword and return to the land of Judah from Egypt will be very few. Then the whole remnant of Judah who came to live in Egypt will know whose word will stand—mine or theirs.

²⁹“ ‘This will be the sign to you that I will punish you in this place,’ declares the LORD, ‘so that you will know that my threats of harm against you will surely stand.’ ³⁰This is what the LORD says: ‘I am going to deliver Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hands of his enemies who want to kill him, just as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the enemy who wanted to kill him.’ ”

ROCK SOLID truths

Jeremiah 44:1–30

Sin doesn't get you what you want.

God and his people had a disagreement that was no little thing. After the Babylonians conquered the holy city of Jerusalem, many Jews fled to Egypt to avoid being taken captive to Babylon. Now the prophet Jeremiah was in a fight with that group. The people thought they had experienced good times because they had burned incense to “the Queen of Heaven,” an Egyptian goddess, and they assumed they were now suffering because they had stopped honoring the goddess. Jeremiah argued that the opposite was true. The people were stricken and starving because of the years they had worshiped idols. So when the people told Jeremiah they were once again going to worship the Queen of Heaven, the prophet threatened God would destroy them for their sin. It's not a happy story. But sooner or later sin brings disaster.

Think: When have you thought sinning would get you what you wanted? What happened?

Jeremiah 45

A MESSAGE TO BARUCH

¹When Baruch son of Neriah wrote on a scroll the words Jeremiah the prophet dictated in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, Jeremiah said this to Baruch: ²“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: ³You said, ‘Woe to me! The LORD has added sorrow to my pain; I am worn out with groaning and find no rest.’ ⁴But the LORD has told me to say to you, ‘This is what the LORD says: I will overthrow what I have built and uproot what I have planted, throughout the earth. ⁵Should you then seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them. For I will bring disaster on all people, declares the LORD, but wherever you go I will let you escape with your life.’ ”

Jeremiah 46

A MESSAGE ABOUT EGYPT

¹This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations: ²Concerning Egypt:

This is the message against the army of Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt, which was defeated at Carchemish on the Euphrates River by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah:

³“Prepare your shields, both large and small, and march out for battle!

⁴Harness the horses,
mount the steeds!

Take your positions with helmets on!
Polish your spears,
put on your armor!

⁵What do I see?

They are terrified,
they are retreating,
their warriors are defeated.

They flee in haste
without looking back,
and there is terror on every side,”

declares the LORD.

⁶“The swift cannot flee
nor the strong escape.
In the north by the River Euphrates they stumble and fall.

⁷“Who is this that rises like the Nile, like rivers of surging waters?

⁸Egypt rises like the Nile, like rivers of surging waters.
She says, ‘I will rise and cover the earth;
I will destroy cities and their people.’

⁹Charge, you horses!

Drive furiously, you charioteers!

March on, you warriors—men of Cush^[94] and Put who carry shields, men of Lydia who draw the bow.

¹⁰But that day belongs to the Lord, the LORD Almighty— a day of vengeance, for vengeance on his foes.

The sword will devour till it is satisfied, till it has quenched its thirst with blood.

For the Lord, the LORD Almighty, will offer sacrifice in the land of the north by the River Euphrates.

¹¹“Go up to Gilead and get balm,

Virgin Daughter Egypt.

But you try many medicines in vain;
there is no healing for you.

¹²The nations will hear of your shame; your cries will fill the earth.

One warrior will stumble over another;
both will fall down together.”

¹³This is the message the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about the coming of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to attack Egypt:

¹⁴“Announce this in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol; proclaim it also in Memphis and Tahpanhes:

‘Take your positions and get ready, for the sword devours those around you.’

¹⁵Why will your warriors be laid low?

They cannot stand, for the LORD will push them down.

¹⁶They will stumble repeatedly;

they will fall over each other.

They will say, 'Get up, let us go back to our own people and our native lands, away from the sword of the oppressor.'

¹⁷There they will exclaim,
'Pharaoh king of Egypt is only a loud noise;
he has missed his opportunity.'

¹⁸"As surely as I live," declares the King, whose name is the LORD
Almighty,
"one will come who is like Tabor among the mountains,
like Carmel by the sea.

¹⁹Pack your belongings for exile,
you who live in Egypt,
for Memphis will be laid waste and lie in ruins without inhabitant.

²⁰"Egypt is a beautiful heifer, but a gadfly is coming against her from the north.

²¹The mercenaries in her ranks are like fattened calves.

They too will turn and flee together,
they will not stand their ground,
for the day of disaster is coming upon them,
the time for them to be punished.

²²Egypt will hiss like a fleeing serpent as the enemy advances in force;
they will come against her with axes,
like men who cut down trees.

²³They will chop down her forest,”

declares the LORD,

“dense though it be.

They are more numerous than locusts,
they cannot be counted.

²⁴Daughter Egypt will be put to shame, given into the hands of the people of the north.”

²⁵The LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “I am about to bring punishment on Amon god of Thebes, on Pharaoh, on Egypt and her gods and her kings, and on those who rely on Pharaoh. ²⁶I will give them into the hands of those who want to kill them—Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his officers. Later, however, Egypt will be inhabited as in times past,” declares the LORD.

²⁷“Do not be afraid, Jacob my servant; do not be dismayed, Israel.

I will surely save you out of a distant place,
your descendants from the land of their exile.
Jacob will again have peace and security,
and no one will make him afraid.

²⁸Do not be afraid, Jacob my servant,
for I am with you,” declares the LORD.

“Though I completely destroy all the nations
among which I scatter you,
I will not completely destroy you.
I will discipline you but only in due measure;
I will not let you go entirely unpunished.”

Jeremiah 47

A MESSAGE ABOUT THE PHILISTINES

¹This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines before Pharaoh attacked Gaza: ²This is what the LORD says:

“See how the waters are rising in the north;
they will become an overflowing torrent.
They will overflow the land and everything in it,
the towns and those who live in them.

The people will cry out;
all who dwell in the land will wail

³at the sound of the hooves of galloping steeds, at the noise of enemy chariots
and the rumble of their wheels.

Parents will not turn to help their children;
their hands will hang limp.

⁴For the day has come to destroy all the Philistines and to remove all survivors who could help Tyre and Sidon.

The LORD is about to destroy the Philistines,
the remnant from the coasts of Caphtor.^[95]

⁵Gaza will shave her head in mourning; Ashkelon will be silenced.

You remnant on the plain,
how long will you cut yourselves?

⁶“ ‘Alas, sword of the LORD, how long till you rest?
Return to your sheath;
cease and be still.’

⁷But how can it rest
when the LORD has commanded it,

when he has ordered it to attack Ashkelon and the coast?”

Jeremiah 48

A MESSAGE ABOUT MOAB

¹Concerning Moab:

This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:

“Woe to Nebo, for it will be ruined.
Kiriathaim will be disgraced and captured;
the stronghold^[96] will be disgraced and shattered.

²Moab will be praised no more;
in Heshbon^[97] people will plot her downfall: ‘Come,
let us put an end to that nation.’
You, the people of Madmen,^[98] will also be silenced;
the sword will pursue you.

³Cries of anguish arise from Horonaim, cries of great havoc and destruction.

⁴Moab will be broken;
her little ones will cry out.^[99]

⁵They go up the hill to Luhith, weeping bitterly as they go;
on the road down to Horonaim anguished cries over the destruction are heard.

⁶Flee! Run for your lives; become like a bush^[100] in the desert.

⁷Since you trust in your deeds and riches, you too will be taken captive,
and Chemosh will go into exile,
together with his priests and officials.

⁸The destroyer will come against every town, and not a town will escape.

The valley will be ruined and the plateau destroyed, because the LORD has spoken.

⁹Put salt on Moab, for she will be laid waste^[101]; her towns will become desolate,
with no one to live in them.

¹⁰“A curse on anyone who is lax in doing the LORD’s work!
A curse on anyone who keeps their sword from bloodshed!

¹¹“Moab has been at rest from youth, like wine left on its dregs, not poured from one jar to another—
she has not gone into exile.
So she tastes as she did,
and her aroma is unchanged.

¹²But days are coming,”
declares the LORD,
“when I will send men who pour from pitchers,
and they will pour her out;

they will empty her pitchers and smash her jars.

¹³Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh, as Israel was ashamed
when they trusted in Bethel.

¹⁴“How can you say, ‘We are warriors, men valiant in battle’?

¹⁵Moab will be destroyed and her towns invaded; her finest young men will go down in the slaughter,” declares the King, whose name is the LORD Almighty.

¹⁶“The fall of Moab is at hand;
her calamity will come quickly.

¹⁷Mourn for her, all who live around her, all who know her fame;
say, ‘How broken is the mighty scepter,
how broken the glorious staff!’

¹⁸“Come down from your glory and sit on the parched ground, you inhabitants of Daughter Dibon, for the one who destroys Moab will come up against you and ruin your fortified cities.

¹⁹Stand by the road and watch,
you who live in Aroer.

Ask the man fleeing and the woman escaping,
ask them, 'What has happened?'

²⁰Moab is disgraced, for she is shattered.
Wail and cry out!

Announce by the Arnon that Moab is destroyed.

²¹Judgment has come to the plateau—to Holon, Jahzah and Mephaath, ²²to Dibon, Nebo and Beth Diblathaim,
²³to Kiriathaim, Beth Gamul and Beth Meon, ²⁴to Kerioth and Bozrah— to all the towns of Moab, far and near.

²⁵Moab's horn^[102] is cut off; her arm is broken,"
declares the LORD.

²⁶"Make her drunk,
for she has defied the LORD.
Let Moab wallow in her vomit;
let her be an object of ridicule.

²⁷Was not Israel the object of your ridicule?
Was she caught among thieves, that you shake your head in scorn whenever you speak of her?

²⁸Abandon your towns and dwell among the rocks, you who live in Moab.
Be like a dove that makes its nest
at the mouth of a cave.

²⁹"We have heard of Moab's pride—
how great is her arrogance!—
of her insolence, her pride, her conceit and the haughtiness of her heart.

³⁰I know her insolence but it is futile,"
declares the LORD,

"and her boasts accomplish nothing.

³¹Therefore I wail over Moab,
for all Moab I cry out,
I moan for the people of Kir Hareseth.

³²I weep for you, as Jazer weeps, you vines of Sibmah.
Your branches spread as far as the sea^[103]; they reached as far as^[104] Jazer.

The destroyer has fallen on your ripened fruit and grapes.

³³Joy and gladness are gone from the orchards and fields of Moab.
I have stopped the flow of wine from the presses;
no one treads them with shouts of joy.
Although there are shouts,
they are not shouts of joy.

³⁴“The sound of their cry rises from Heshbon to Elealeh and Jahaz, from Zoar as far as Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah, for even the waters of Nimrim are dried up.

³⁵In Moab I will put an end to those who make offerings on the high places and burn incense to their gods,”

declares the LORD.

³⁶“So my heart laments for Moab like the music of a pipe; it laments like a pipe for the people of Kir Hareseth.
The wealth they acquired is gone.

³⁷Every head is shaved
and every beard cut off;

every hand is slashed and every waist is covered with sackcloth.
³⁸On all the roofs in Moab and in the public squares

there is nothing but mourning, for I have broken Moab like a jar that no one wants,”

declares the LORD.

³⁹“How shattered she is! How they wail!
How Moab turns her back in shame!
Moab has become an object of ridicule, an object of horror to all those around her.”

⁴⁰This is what the LORD says:

“Look! An eagle is swooping down, spreading its wings over Moab.

⁴¹Kerioth^[105] will be captured and the strongholds taken.
In that day the hearts of Moab’s warriors will be like the heart of a woman in labor.

⁴²Moab will be destroyed as a nation because she defied the LORD.

⁴³Terror and pit and snare await you,
you people of Moab,”

declares the LORD.

⁴⁴“Whoever flees from the terror
will fall into a pit,
whoever climbs out of the pit
will be caught in a snare;
for I will bring on Moab
the year of her punishment,”

declares the LORD.

⁴⁵“In the shadow of Heshbon
the fugitives stand helpless, for a fire has gone out from Heshbon,
a blaze from the midst of Sihon;
it burns the foreheads of Moab,
the skulls of the noisy boasters.

⁴⁶Woe to you, Moab!
The people of Chemosh are destroyed;
your sons are taken into exile and your daughters into captivity.

⁴⁷“Yet I will restore the fortunes of Moab in days to come,”
declares the LORD.

Here ends the judgment on Moab.

Jeremiah 49

A MESSAGE ABOUT AMMON

¹Concerning the Ammonites:

This is what the LORD says:

“Has Israel no sons?

Has Israel no heir?

Why then has Molek^[106] taken possession of Gad?

Why do his people live in its towns?

²But the days are coming,”

declares the LORD,

“when I will sound the battle cry against Rabbah of the Ammonites;

it will become a mound of ruins,

and its surrounding villages will be set on fire.

Then Israel will drive out those who drove her out,”

says the LORD.

³“Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is destroyed!
Cry out, you inhabitants of Rabbah!
Put on sackcloth and mourn;
rush here and there inside the walls,
for Molek will go into exile,
together with his priests and officials.

⁴Why do you boast of your valleys, boast of your valleys so fruitful?
Unfaithful Daughter Ammon,
you trust in your riches and say,
‘Who will attack me?’

⁵I will bring terror on you from all those around you,”

declares the Lord, the LORD Almighty.

“Every one of you will be driven away,
and no one will gather the fugitives.

⁶“Yet afterward, I will restore the fortunes of the Ammonites,”

declares the LORD.

A MESSAGE ABOUT EDMON

⁷Concerning Edom:

This is what the LORD Almighty says:

“Is there no longer wisdom in Teman?
Has counsel perished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom decayed?

⁸Turn and flee, hide in deep caves,
you who live in Dedan,
for I will bring disaster on Esau at the time when I punish him.

⁹If grape pickers came to you, would they not leave a few grapes?
If thieves came during the night,
would they not steal only as much as they wanted?

¹⁰But I will strip Esau bare;
I will uncover his hiding places,
so that he cannot conceal himself.
His armed men are destroyed,
also his allies and neighbors,
so there is no one to say,

¹¹‘Leave your fatherless children; I will keep them alive.
Your widows too can depend on me.’ ”

¹²This is what the LORD says: “If those who do not deserve to drink the cup must drink it, why should you go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, but must drink it. ¹³I swear by myself,” declares the LORD, “that Bozrah will become a ruin and a curse,^[107] an object of horror and reproach; and all its towns will be in ruins forever.”

¹⁴I have heard a message from the LORD; an envoy was sent to the nations to say, “Assemble yourselves to attack it!
Rise up for battle!”

¹⁵“Now I will make you small among the nations, despised by mankind.

¹⁶The terror you inspire and the pride of your heart have deceived you,
you who live in the clefts of the rocks,
who occupy the heights of the hill.
Though you build your nest as high as the eagle's, from there I will bring you down,"
declares the LORD.

¹⁷"Edom will become an object of horror; all who pass by will be appalled and will scoff because of all its wounds.

¹⁸As Sodom and Gomorrah were overthrown, along with their neighboring towns,"

says the LORD,
"so no one will live there;
no people will dwell in it.

¹⁹"Like a lion coming up from Jordan's thickets to a rich
pastureland,
I will chase Edom from its land in an instant.
Who is the chosen one I will appoint for this?
Who is like me and who can challenge me?
And what shepherd can stand against me?"

²⁰Therefore, hear what the LORD has planned against Edom, what he has purposed against those who live in Teman:

The young of the flock will be dragged away;
their pasture will be appalled at their fate.

²¹At the sound of their fall the earth will tremble; their cry will resound to the Red Sea. ^[108]

²²Look! An eagle will soar and swoop down, spreading its wings over Bozrah.
In that day the hearts of Edom's warriors will be like the heart of a woman in labor.

A MESSAGE ABOUT DAMASCUS

²³Concerning Damascus:

“Hamath and Arpad are dismayed, for they have heard bad news.
They are disheartened, troubled like^[109] the restless sea.

²⁴Damascus has become feeble,

she has turned to flee and panic has gripped her;
anguish and pain have seized her,
pain like that of a woman in labor.

²⁵Why has the city of renown not been abandoned, the town in which I delight?

²⁶Surely, her young men will fall in the streets; all her soldiers will be silenced in that day,”

declares the LORD Almighty.

²⁷“I will set fire to the walls of Damascus; it will consume the fortresses of Ben-Hadad.”

A MESSAGE ABOUT KEDAR AND HAZOR

²⁸Concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked: This is what the LORD says:

“Arise, and attack Kedar and destroy the people of the East.

²⁹Their tents and their flocks will be taken; their shelters will be carried off
with all their goods and camels.

People will shout to them,
‘Terror on every side!’

³⁰“Flee quickly away!
Stay in deep caves, you who live in Hazor,”

declares the LORD.

“Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has plotted against
you;
he has devised a plan against you.

³¹“Arise and attack a nation at ease, which lives in confidence,”

declares the LORD,

“a nation that has neither gates nor bars;
its people live far from danger.

³²Their camels will become plunder, and their large herds will be spoils of war.

I will scatter to the winds those who are in distant places^[110]
and will bring disaster on them from every side,”
declares the LORD.

³³“Hazor will become a haunt of jackals, a desolate place
forever.
No one will live there;
no people will dwell in it.”

A MESSAGE ABOUT ELAM

³⁴This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, early in the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah: ³⁵This is what the LORD Almighty says:

“See, I will break the bow of Elam, the mainstay of their might.

³⁶I will bring against Elam the four winds from the four quarters of heaven;
I will scatter them to the four winds, and there will not be a nation
where Elam’s exiles do not go.

³⁷I will shatter Elam before their foes, before those who want to kill them;
I will bring disaster on them,
even my fierce anger,”

declares the LORD.

“I will pursue them with the sword until I have made an end of them.

³⁸I will set my throne in Elam and destroy her king and officials,”

declares the LORD.

³⁹“Yet I will restore the fortunes of Elam in days to come,”

declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 50

A MESSAGE ABOUT BABYLON

¹This is the word the LORD spoke through Jeremiah the prophet concerning Babylon and the land of the Babylonians^[111]:

²“Announce and proclaim among the nations, lift up a banner and proclaim it;

keep nothing back, but say, ‘Babylon will be captured;
Bel will be put to shame,
Marduk filled with terror.
Her images will be put to shame and her idols filled with terror.’

³A nation from the north will attack her and lay waste her land.
No one will live in it;
both people and animals will flee away.

⁴“In those days, at that time,”
declares the LORD,
“the people of Israel and the people of Judah together will go in tears to seek the LORD their God.

⁵They will ask the way to Zion and turn their faces toward it.
They will come and bind themselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten.

⁶“My people have been lost sheep;
their shepherds have led them astray and caused them to roam on the mountains.
They wandered over mountain and hill and forgot their own resting place.

⁷Whoever found them devoured them;
their enemies said, ‘We are not guilty, for they sinned against the LORD, their verdant pasture, the LORD, the hope of their ancestors.’

⁸“Flee out of Babylon;
leave the land of the Babylonians,
and be like the goats that lead the flock.

⁹For I will stir up and bring against Babylon an alliance of great nations from the land of the north.
They will take up their positions against her,
and from the north she will be captured.
Their arrows will be like skilled warriors who do not return empty-handed.

¹⁰So Babylonia^[112] will be plundered; all who plunder her will have their fill,”

declares the LORD.

¹¹“Because you rejoice and are glad,
you who pillage my inheritance, because you frolic like a heifer threshing grain and neigh like stallions,

¹²your mother will be greatly ashamed; she who gave you birth will be disgraced.

She will be the least of the nations—
a wilderness, a dry land, a desert.

¹³Because of the LORD’s anger she will not be inhabited but will be completely desolate.

All who pass Babylon will be appalled;
they will scoff because of all her wounds.

¹⁴“Take up your positions around Babylon, all you who draw the bow.
Shoot at her! Spare no arrows, for she has sinned against the LORD.

¹⁵Shout against her on every side!

She surrenders, her towers fall,
her walls are torn down.
Since this is the vengeance of the LORD, take vengeance on her;
do to her as she has done to others.

¹⁶Cut off from Babylon the sower, and the reaper with his sickle at harvest.
Because of the sword of the oppressor let everyone return to their own people, let everyone flee to their own land.

¹⁷“Israel is a scattered flock that lions have chased away.

The first to devour them was the king of Assyria;
the last to crush their bones was Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.”

¹⁸Therefore this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:

“I will punish the king of Babylon and his land as I punished the king of Assyria.

¹⁹But I will bring Israel back to their own pasture, and they will graze on Carmel and Bashan;

their appetite will be satisfied
on the hills of Ephraim and Gilead.

²⁰In those days, at that time,”
declares the LORD,
“search will be made for Israel’s guilt,
but there will be none,
and for the sins of Judah,
but none will be found,
for I will forgive the remnant I spare.

²¹“Attack the land of Merathaim and those who live in Pekod.
Pursue, kill and completely destroy^[113] them,”

declares the LORD.

“Do everything I have commanded you.

²²The noise of battle is in the land,
the noise of great destruction!

²³How broken and shattered is the hammer of the whole earth!

How desolate is Babylon
among the nations!

²⁴I set a trap for you, Babylon, and you were caught before you knew it;

you were found and captured because you opposed the LORD.

²⁵The LORD has opened his arsenal and brought out the weapons of his wrath,

for the Sovereign LORD Almighty has work to do in the land of the Babylonians.

²⁶Come against her from afar.
Break open her granaries;
pile her up like heaps of grain.

Completely destroy her and leave her no remnant.

²⁷Kill all her young bulls;
let them go down to the slaughter!
Woe to them! For their day has come,
the time for them to be punished.

²⁸Listen to the fugitives and refugees from Babylon declaring in Zion how the LORD our God has taken vengeance, vengeance for his temple.

²⁹“Summon archers against Babylon, all those who draw the bow.
Encamp all around her;
let no one escape.
Repay her for her deeds;
do to her as she has done.
For she has defied the LORD,
the Holy One of Israel.

³⁰Therefore, her young men will fall in the streets; all her soldiers will be silenced in that day,”

declares the LORD.

³¹“See, I am against you, you arrogant one,”
declares the Lord, the LORD Almighty, “for your day has come,
the time for you to be punished.

³²The arrogant one will stumble and fall and no one will help her up;
I will kindle a fire in her towns that will consume all who are around her.”

³³This is what the LORD Almighty says:
“The people of Israel are oppressed, and the people of Judah as well.
All their captors hold them fast,
refusing to let them go.

³⁴Yet their Redeemer is strong;

ROCK SOLID promises

“Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD Almighty is his name.”

Jeremiah 50:34

People can tie you up tight, but the one who will rescue you from bondage is all-powerful.

\(Rock Solid PROMISES Index\)

- the LORD Almighty is his name.
He will vigorously defend their cause
so that he may bring rest to their land, but unrest to those who live in Babylon.
- ³⁵“A sword against the Babylonians!”
declares the LORD—
“against those who live in Babylon and against her officials and wise men!
- ³⁶A sword against her false prophets!
They will become fools.
A sword against her warriors!
They will be filled with terror.
- ³⁷A sword against her horses and chariots and all the foreigners in her ranks!
They will become weaklings.
A sword against her treasures!
They will be plundered.
- ³⁸A drought on^[114] her waters!
They will dry up.
For it is a land of idols,
idols that will go mad with terror.
- ³⁹“So desert creatures and hyenas will live there, and there the owl will dwell.

It will never again be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation.

⁴⁰As I overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah along with their neighboring towns,”
declares the LORD,

“so no one will live there;
no people will dwell in it.

⁴¹“Look! An army is coming from the north; a great nation and many kings
are being stirred up from the ends of the earth.

⁴²They are armed with bows and spears; they are cruel and without mercy.
They sound like the roaring sea
as they ride on their horses;
they come like men in battle formation
to attack you, Daughter Babylon.

⁴³The king of Babylon has heard reports about them, and his hands hang limp.
Anguish has gripped him,
pain like that of a woman in labor.

⁴⁴Like a lion coming up from Jordan’s thickets to a rich
pastureland,
I will chase Babylon from its land in an instant.
Who is the chosen one I will appoint for this?
Who is like me and who can challenge me?
And what shepherd can stand against me?”

⁴⁵Therefore, hear what the LORD has planned against Babylon, what he has purposed against the land of the Babylonians:
The young of the flock will be dragged away;
their pasture will be appalled at their fate.

⁴⁶At the sound of Babylon’s capture the earth will tremble;
its cry will resound among the nations.

Jeremiah 51

¹This is what the LORD says:

“See, I will stir up the spirit of a destroyer against Babylon and the people of Leb Kamai.^[115]

²I will send foreigners to Babylon to winnow her and to devastate her land; they will oppose her on every side in the day of her disaster.

³Let not the archer string his bow, nor let him put on his armor.
Do not spare her young men;
completely destroy^[116] her army.

⁴They will fall down slain in Babylon,^[117] fatally wounded in her streets.

⁵For Israel and Judah have not been forsaken by their God, the LORD Almighty,
though their land^[118] is full of guilt before the Holy One of Israel.

⁶“Flee from Babylon!
Run for your lives!
Do not be destroyed because of her sins.
It is time for the LORD’s vengeance;
he will repay her what she deserves.

⁷Babylon was a gold cup in the LORD’s hand; she made the whole earth drunk.
The nations drank her wine;
therefore they have now gone mad.

⁸Babylon will suddenly fall and be broken.
Wail over her!
Get balm for her pain;
perhaps she can be healed.

⁹“ ‘We would have healed Babylon, but she cannot be healed;
let us leave her and each go to our own land,
for her judgment reaches to the skies,
it rises as high as the heavens.’

¹⁰“ ‘The LORD has vindicated us; come, let us tell in Zion what the LORD our God has done.’

- ¹¹“Sharpen the arrows, take up the shields!
The LORD has stirred up the kings of the Medes, because his purpose is to destroy Babylon.
The LORD will take vengeance,
vengeance for his temple.
- ¹²Lift up a banner against the walls of Babylon!
Reinforce the guard,
station the watchmen,
prepare an ambush!
The LORD will carry out his purpose,
his decree against the people of Babylon.
- ¹³You who live by many waters and are rich in treasures, your end has come,
the time for you to be destroyed.
- ¹⁴The LORD Almighty has sworn by himself: I will surely fill you with troops, as with a swarm of locusts, and they will shout in triumph over you.
- ¹⁵“He made the earth by his power;
he founded the world by his wisdom
and stretched out the heavens by his understanding.
- ¹⁶When he thunders, the waters in the heavens roar; he makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth.
He sends lightning with the rain
and brings out the wind from his storehouses.
- ¹⁷“Everyone is senseless and without knowledge; every goldsmith is shamed by his idols.
The images he makes are a fraud;
they have no breath in them.
- ¹⁸They are worthless, the objects of mockery; when their judgment comes,
they will perish.
- ¹⁹He who is the Portion of Jacob is not like these, for he is the Maker of all things, including the people of his inheritance—
the LORD Almighty is his name.
- ²⁰“You are my war club,
my weapon for battle—

with you I shatter nations, with you I destroy kingdoms, ²¹with you I shatter horse and rider,
with you I shatter chariot and driver, ²²with you I shatter man and woman, with you I shatter old man and youth,
with you I shatter young man and young woman, ²³with you I shatter shepherd and flock, with you I shatter farmer and oxen, with you I shatter governors and officials.
²⁴“Before your eyes I will repay Babylon and all who live in Babylonia^[119] for all the wrong they have done in Zion,” declares the LORD.

²⁵“I am against you, you destroying mountain, you who destroy the whole earth,”
declares the LORD.

“I will stretch out my hand against you,
roll you off the cliffs,
and make you a burned-out mountain.

²⁶No rock will be taken from you for a cornerstone, nor any stone for a foundation, for you will be desolate forever,”
declares the LORD.

²⁷“Lift up a banner in the land!
Blow the trumpet among the nations!
Prepare the nations for battle against her;
summon against her these kingdoms:
Ararat, Minni and Ashkenaz.
Appoint a commander against her;
send up horses like a swarm of locusts.

²⁸Prepare the nations for battle against her— the kings of the Medes,
their governors and all their officials,
and all the countries they rule.

²⁹The land trembles and writhes, for the LORD’s purposes against Babylon stand—to lay waste the land of Babylon
so that no one will live there.

³⁰Babylon’s warriors have stopped fighting; they remain in their strongholds.

Their strength is exhausted;
they have become weaklings.
Her dwellings are set on fire;
the bars of her gates are broken.
³¹One courier follows another and messenger follows messenger to announce to the king of Babylon that his entire city is captured, ³²the river crossings seized,

the marshes set on fire,
and the soldiers terrified.”

³³This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:

“Daughter Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time it is trampled;
the time to harvest her will soon come.”

³⁴“Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devoured us, he has thrown us into confusion,
he has made us an empty jar.
Like a serpent he has swallowed us and filled his stomach with our delicacies, and then has spewed us out.

³⁵May the violence done to our flesh ^[120] be on Babylon,” say the inhabitants of Zion.
“May our blood be on those who live in Babylonia,” says Jerusalem.

³⁶Therefore this is what the LORD says:

“See, I will defend your cause and avenge you;
I will dry up her sea
and make her springs dry.

³⁷Babylon will be a heap of ruins,
a haunt of jackals,
an object of horror and scorn,
a place where no one lives.

³⁸Her people all roar like young lions, they growl like lion cubs.

³⁹But while they are aroused,
I will set out a feast for them
and make them drunk,
so that they shout with laughter—then sleep forever and not awake,”

declares the LORD.

40“I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and goats.

41“How Sheshak^[121] will be captured, the boast of the whole earth seized!

How desolate Babylon will be among the nations!

⁴²The sea will rise over Babylon;
its roaring waves will cover her.

⁴³Her towns will be desolate, a dry and desert land,
a land where no one lives,
through which no one travels.

⁴⁴I will punish Bel in Babylon and make him spew out what he has swallowed.
The nations will no longer stream to him.
And the wall of Babylon will fall.

⁴⁵“Come out of her, my people!
Run for your lives!
Run from the fierce anger of the LORD.

⁴⁶Do not lose heart or be afraid when rumors are heard in the land;
one rumor comes this year, another the next, rumors of violence in the land and of ruler against ruler.

⁴⁷For the time will surely come when I will punish the idols of Babylon; her whole land will be disgraced and her slain will all lie fallen within her.

⁴⁸Then heaven and earth and all that is in them will shout for joy over Babylon,

for out of the north destroyers will attack her,”

declares the LORD.

⁴⁹“Babylon must fall because of Israel’s slain, just as the slain in all the earth
have fallen because of Babylon.

⁵⁰You who have escaped the sword, leave and do not linger!
Remember the LORD in a distant land, and call to mind Jerusalem.”

⁵¹“We are disgraced, for we have been insulted and shame covers our faces, because foreigners have entered the holy places of the LORD's house.”

⁵²“But days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will punish her idols, and throughout her land

the wounded will groan.

⁵³Even if Babylon ascends to the heavens and fortifies her lofty stronghold,
I will send destroyers against her,”

declares the LORD.

⁵⁴“The sound of a cry comes from Babylon, the sound of great destruction from the land of the Babylonians.^[122]

⁵⁵The LORD will destroy Babylon; he will silence her noisy din.
Waves of enemies will rage like great waters;
the roar of their voices will resound.

⁵⁶A destroyer will come against Babylon; her warriors will be captured, and their bows will be broken.
For the LORD is a God of retribution;
he will repay in full.

⁵⁷I will make her officials and wise men drunk, her governors, officers and warriors as well;
they will sleep forever and not awake,”
declares the King, whose name is the LORD Almighty.

⁵⁸This is what the LORD Almighty says:

“Babylon’s thick wall will be leveled and her high gates set on fire;
the peoples exhaust themselves for nothing,
the nations’ labor is only fuel for the flames.”

⁵⁹This is the message Jeremiah the prophet gave to the staff officer Seraiah son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went to Babylon with Zedekiah king of Judah in the fourth year of his reign. ⁶⁰Jeremiah had written on a scroll about all the disasters that would come upon Babylon—all that had been recorded concerning Babylon. ⁶¹He said to Seraiah, “When you get to Babylon, see that you read all these words aloud. ⁶²Then say, ‘LORD, you have said you will destroy this place, so that neither people nor animals will live in it; it will be desolate forever.’ ⁶³When you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the Euphrates. ⁶⁴Then say, ‘So will Babylon sink to rise no more because of the disaster I will bring on her. And her people will fall.’ ”

The words of Jeremiah end here.

Jeremiah 52

THE FALL OF JERUSALEM

¹Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah. ²He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done. ³It was because of the LORD's anger that all this happened to Jerusalem and Judah, and in the end he thrust them from his presence.

Now Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

⁴So in the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. They encamped outside the city and built siege works all around it. ⁵The city was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

⁶By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine in the city had become so severe that there was no food for the people to eat. ⁷Then the city wall was broken through, and the whole army fled. They left the city at night through the gate between the two walls near the king's garden, though the Babylonians^[123] were surrounding the city. They fled toward the Arabah,^[124] ⁸but the Babylonian^[125] army pursued King Zedekiah and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his soldiers were separated from him and scattered, ⁹and he was captured.

He was taken to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced sentence on him. ¹⁰There at Riblah the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes; he also killed all the officials of Judah. ¹¹Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon, where he put him in prison till the day of his death.

¹²On the tenth day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard, who served the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. ¹³He set fire to the temple of the LORD, the royal palace and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every important building he burned down. ¹⁴The whole Babylonian army, under the commander of the imperial guard, broke down all the walls around Jerusalem. ¹⁵Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard carried into exile some of the poorest people and those who remained in the city, along with the rest of the craftsmen^[126] and those who had deserted to the king of Babylon. ¹⁶But Nebuzaradan left behind the rest of the poorest people of the land to work the vineyards and fields.

²⁰The bronze from the two pillars, the Sea and the twelve bronze bulls under it, and the movable stands, which King Solomon had made for the temple of the LORD, was more than could be weighed. ²¹Each pillar was eighteen cubits high and twelve cubits in circumference^[127]; each was four fingers thick, and hollow. ²²The bronze capital on top of one pillar was five cubits^[128] high and was decorated with a network and pomegranates of bronze all around. The other pillar, with its pomegranates, was similar. ²³There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; the total number of pomegranates above the surrounding network was a hundred.

²⁴The commander of the guard took as prisoners Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest next in rank and the three doorkeepers. ²⁵Of those still in the city, he took the officer in charge of the fighting men, and seven royal advisers. He also took the secretary who was chief officer in charge of conscripting the people of the land, sixty of whom were found in the city. ²⁶Nebuzaradan the commander took them all and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. ²⁷There at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, the king had them executed.

So Judah went into captivity, away from her land. ²⁸This is the number of the people Nebuchadnezzar carried into exile:

in the seventh year, 3,023 Jews;

²⁹in Nebuchadnezzar's eighteenth year,
832 people from Jerusalem;

³⁰in his twenty-third year,

745 Jews taken into exile by Nebuzaradan the commander of the imperial guard.

There were 4,600 people in all.

JEHOIACHIN RELEASED

³¹In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the year Awel-Marduk became king of Babylon, on the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month, he released Jehoiachin king of Judah and freed him from prison. ³²He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat of honor higher than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. ³³So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes and for the rest of his life ate regularly at the king's table. ³⁴Day by day the king of Babylon gave Jehoiachin a regular allowance as long as he lived, till the day of his death.

Jeremiah 23

Jeremiah cried for his peers.

Jeremiah is well known as “the weeping prophet” because of the constant pain he felt for his peers. You can feel this guy’s grief as he prayed, “Oh, that my head were a spring of water and my eyes a fountain of tears! I would weep day and night for the slain of my people” (Jeremiah 9:1).

When the Lord called him to preach, Jeremiah protested he was too young to speak for God. His words, “Alas, Sovereign LORD” actually mean, “No, Lord God!” (Jeremiah 1:6). But the Lord wouldn’t let Jeremiah wiggle free. He had plans for Jeremiah that stretched back to his days in his mother’s womb. That’s when the Lord appointed him a prophet to the nations, and now the Lord promised to give him all the words he needed to speak, giving him the task of both uprooting and planting nations (see Jeremiah 1:4–10).

Jeremiah preached to the last five kings of Judah, often slamming them with harsh words. He prophesied even after the southern kingdom was conquered by the Babylonians. Here in Jeremiah 23, he hits the leaders and false prophets who led the people away from God.

The prophet’s words flowed from persistent concern for his people, a depth of distress that would make a grown man cry. He called his pain “unending” and his wound “grievous and incurable” (Jeremiah 15:18). But he continued to point out sin and call the nation to repent.

You can find Jeremiah throughout the book named for him, as well as in 2 Chronicles 35–36; Matthew 2:18; and Matthew 27:9.

LAMENTATIONS

BOOK OUTLINE

Jerusalem's total destruction

(1:1–22)

God's anger—search for comfort

(2:1–22)

Thoughts on suffering—hope in God

(3:1–66)

The old glory of Jerusalem—present misery

(4:1–22)

A prayer for God's mercy

(5:1–22)

The title of this book means “funeral songs.” The author was probably Jeremiah, who was grieving about the destruction of Jerusalem.

In the original language, Hebrew, the twenty-two verses in each of chapters 1, 2, and 4 use the twenty-two letters of the Hebrew alphabet to start the verse. The third chapter has sixty-six verses and every third verse starts a new letter of the Hebrew alphabet. This is called an acrostic.

In this book Jeremiah reflects on the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple. But he recognizes that this disaster is the judgment of a righteous God. Knowing that God is merciful he appeals for mercy in prayer to God.

Lamentations

Lamentations 1^[1]

- ¹How deserted lies the city, once so full of people!
How like a widow is she,
who once was great among the nations!
She who was queen among the provinces has now become a slave.
- ²Bitterly she weeps at night, tears are on her cheeks.
Among all her lovers
there is no one to comfort her.
All her friends have betrayed her;
they have become her enemies.
- ³After affliction and harsh labor, Judah has gone into exile.
She dwells among the nations;
she finds no resting place.
All who pursue her have overtaken her in the midst of her distress.
- ⁴The roads to Zion mourn, for no one comes to her appointed festivals.
All her gateways are desolate,
her priests groan,
her young women grieve,
and she is in bitter anguish.
- ⁵Her foes have become her masters; her enemies are at ease.
The LORD has brought her grief
because of her many sins.
Her children have gone into exile,
captive before the foe.
- ⁶All the splendor has departed from Daughter Zion.
Her princes are like deer that find no pasture;
in weakness they have fled before the pursuer.
- ⁷In the days of her affliction and wandering Jerusalem remembers all the treasures that were hers in days of old.

When her people fell into enemy hands,
there was no one to help her.
Her enemies looked at her and laughed at her destruction.

⁸Jerusalem has sinned greatly and so has become unclean.
All who honored her despise her,
for they have all seen her naked;
she herself groans and turns away.

⁹Her filthiness clung to her skirts; she did not consider her future.
Her fall was astounding;
there was none to comfort her.
“Look, LORD, on my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed.”

¹⁰The enemy laid hands on all her treasures;
she saw pagan nations enter her sanctuary—
those you had forbidden to enter your assembly.

¹¹All her people groan as they search for bread;
they barter their treasures for food
to keep themselves alive.
“Look, LORD, and consider, for I am despised.”

¹²“Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look around and see.
Is any suffering like my suffering that was inflicted on me, that the LORD brought on me in the day of his fierce anger?”

¹³“From on high he sent fire, sent it down into my bones.
He spread a net for my feet and turned me back.
He made me desolate,
faint all the day long.

¹⁴“My sins have been bound into a yoke^[2]; by his hands they were woven together.

They have been hung on my neck,
and the Lord has sapped my strength.
He has given me into the hands of those I cannot withstand.

¹⁵“The Lord has rejected all the warriors in my midst;
he has summoned an army against me
to^[3] crush my young men.
In his winepress the Lord has trampled Virgin Daughter Judah.

¹⁶“This is why I weep and my eyes overflow with tears.
No one is near to comfort me,
no one to restore my spirit.
My children are destitute because the enemy has prevailed.”

¹⁷Zion stretches out her hands, but there is no one to comfort her.
The LORD has decreed for Jacob that his neighbors become his foes; Jerusalem has become an unclean thing among them.

¹⁸“The LORD is righteous, yet I rebelled against his command.
Listen, all you peoples;
look on my suffering.
My young men and young women have gone into exile.

¹⁹“I called to my allies but they betrayed me.
My priests and my elders perished in the city while they searched for food
to keep themselves alive.

²⁰“See, LORD, how distressed I am!
I am in torment within,
and in my heart I am disturbed,
for I have been most rebellious.
Outside, the sword bereaves;
inside, there is only death.

²¹“People have heard my groaning, but there is no one to comfort me.

All my enemies have heard of my distress;
they rejoice at what you have done.

May you bring the day you have announced
so they may become like me.

²²“Let all their wickedness come before you; deal with them as you have dealt with me because of all my sins.
My groans are many and my heart is faint.”

Lamentations 2^[4]

¹How the Lord has covered Daughter Zion with the cloud of his anger^[5]!

He has hurled down the splendor of Israel from heaven to earth;
he has not remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

²Without pity the Lord has swallowed up all the dwellings of Jacob;

in his wrath he has torn down
the strongholds of Daughter Judah.
He has brought her kingdom and its princes down to the ground in dishonor.

³In fierce anger he has cut off every horn^{[6],[7]} of Israel.

He has withdrawn his right hand
at the approach of the enemy.
He has burned in Jacob like a flaming fire that consumes everything around it.

⁴Like an enemy he has strung his bow; his right hand is ready.

Like a foe he has slain
all who were pleasing to the eye;
he has poured out his wrath like fire on the tent of Daughter Zion.

⁵The Lord is like an enemy; he has swallowed up Israel.

He has swallowed up all her palaces and destroyed her strongholds.
He has multiplied mourning and lamentation for Daughter Judah.

⁶He has laid waste his dwelling like a garden; he has destroyed his place of meeting.

The LORD has made Zion forget her appointed festivals and her Sabbaths; in his fierce anger he has spurned both king and priest.

⁷The Lord has rejected his altar and abandoned his sanctuary.

He has given the walls of her palaces into the hands of the enemy;
they have raised a shout in the house of the LORD as on the day of an appointed festival.

⁸The LORD determined to tear down the wall around Daughter Zion.

He stretched out a measuring line and did not withhold his hand from destroying.
He made ramparts and walls lament;
together they wasted away.

⁹Her gates have sunk into the ground; their bars he has broken and destroyed.

Her king and her princes are exiled among the nations,
the law is no more,
and her prophets no longer find visions from the LORD.

¹⁰The elders of Daughter Zion sit on the ground in silence; they have sprinkled dust on their heads and put on sackcloth.

The young women of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.

¹¹My eyes fail from weeping, I am in torment within;
my heart is poured out on the ground because my people are destroyed, because children and infants faint
in the streets of the city.

¹²They say to their mothers, "Where is bread and wine?"
as they faint like the wounded
in the streets of the city, as their lives ebb away
in their mothers' arms.

¹³What can I say for you?
With what can I compare you,
Daughter Jerusalem?
To what can I liken you,
that I may comfort you,
Virgin Daughter Zion?
Your wound is as deep as the sea.

Who can heal you?

- ¹⁴The visions of your prophets were false and worthless;
they did not expose your sin to ward off your captivity.
The prophecies they gave you were false and misleading.
- ¹⁵All who pass your way clap their hands at you;
they scoff and shake their heads
at Daughter Jerusalem: “Is this the city that was called the perfection of beauty,
the joy of the whole earth?”
- ¹⁶All your enemies open their mouths wide against you;
they scoff and gnash their teeth and say, “We have swallowed her up.
This is the day we have waited for;
we have lived to see it.”
- ¹⁷The LORD has done what he planned; he has fulfilled his word,
which he decreed long ago.
He has overthrown you without pity,
he has let the enemy gloat over you,
he has exalted the horn^[8] of your foes.
- ¹⁸The hearts of the people cry out to the Lord.
You walls of Daughter Zion, let your tears flow like a river
day and night;
give yourself no relief,
your eyes no rest.
- ¹⁹Arise, cry out in the night, as the watches of the night begin;
pour out your heart like water in the presence of the Lord.
Lift up your hands to him for the lives of your children, who faint from hunger
at every street corner.
- ²⁰“Look, LORD, and consider: Whom have you ever treated like this?”

Should women eat their offspring,
the children they have cared for?
Should priest and prophet be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?

²¹“Young and old lie together in the dust of the streets;
my young men and young women
have fallen by the sword.
You have slain them in the day of your anger;
you have slaughtered them without pity.

²²“As you summon to a feast day, so you summoned against me terrors on every side.
In the day of the LORD’s anger no one escaped or survived;
those I cared for and reared my enemy has destroyed.”

Lamentations 3^[9]

- ¹I am the man who has seen affliction by the rod of the LORD'S wrath.
- ²He has driven me away and made me walk in darkness rather than light;
- ³indeed, he has turned his hand against me again and again, all day long.
- ⁴He has made my skin and my flesh grow old and has broken my bones.
- ⁵He has besieged me and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.
- ⁶He has made me dwell in darkness like those long dead.
- ⁷He has walled me in so I cannot escape; he has weighed me down with chains.
- ⁸Even when I call out or cry for help, he shuts out my prayer.
- ⁹He has barred my way with blocks of stone; he has made my paths crooked.
- ¹⁰Like a bear lying in wait, like a lion in hiding,
- ¹¹he dragged me from the path and mangled me and left me without help.
- ¹²He drew his bow and made me the target for his arrows.
- ¹³He pierced my heart with arrows from his quiver.
- ¹⁴I became the laughingstock of all my people; they mock me in song all day long.
- ¹⁵He has filled me with bitter herbs and given me gall to drink.
- ¹⁶He has broken my teeth with gravel; he has trampled me in the dust.
- ¹⁷I have been deprived of peace; I have forgotten what prosperity is.
- ¹⁸So I say, "My splendor is gone and all that I had hoped from the LORD."
- ¹⁹I remember my affliction and my wandering, the bitterness and the gall.

²⁰I will remember them, and my soul is downcast within me.

²¹Yet this I call to mind and therefore I have hope:

²²Because of the LORD's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail.

²³They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.

²⁴I say to myself, “The LORD is my portion; therefore I will wait for him.”

²⁵The LORD is good to those whose hope is in him, to the one who seeks him;

²⁶it is good to wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.

²⁷It is good for a man to bear the yoke while he is young.

²⁸Let him sit alone in silence, for the LORD has laid it on him.

²⁹Let him bury his face in the dust— there may yet be hope.

³⁰Let him offer his cheek to one who would strike him, and let him be filled with disgrace.

³¹For no one is cast off by the Lord forever.

³²Though he brings grief, he will show compassion, so great is his unfailing love.

³³For he does not willingly bring affliction or grief to anyone.

³⁴To crush underfoot all prisoners in the land,
³⁵to deny people their rights before the Most High,
³⁶to deprive them of justice— would not the Lord see such things?

³⁷Who can speak and have it happen if the Lord has not decreed it?

³⁸Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that both calamities and good things come?

³⁹Why should the living complain when punished for their sins?

⁴⁰Let us examine our ways and test them, and let us return to the LORD.

⁴¹Let us lift up our hearts and our hands to God in heaven, and say:

⁴²“We have sinned and rebelled and you have not forgiven.
⁴³“You have covered yourself with anger and pursued us; you have slain without pity.
⁴⁴You have covered yourself with a cloud so that no prayer can get through.
⁴⁵You have made us scum and refuse among the nations.
⁴⁶“All our enemies have opened their mouths wide against us.
⁴⁷We have suffered terror and pitfalls, ruin and destruction.”
⁴⁸Streams of tears flow from my eyes because my people are destroyed.

⁴⁹My eyes will flow unceasingly, without relief, ⁵⁰until the LORD looks down from heaven and sees.
⁵¹What I see brings grief to my soul because of all the women of my city.

⁵²Those who were my enemies without cause hunted me like a bird.

⁵³They tried to end my life in a pit and threw stones at me;
⁵⁴the waters closed over my head, and I thought I was about to perish.

⁵⁵I called on your name, LORD, from the depths of the pit.
⁵⁶You heard my plea: “Do not close your ears to my cry for relief.”

⁵⁷You came near when I called you, and you said, “Do not fear.”

⁵⁸You, Lord, took up my case; you redeemed my life.

⁵⁹LORD, you have seen the wrong done to me.

Uphold my cause!

⁶⁰You have seen the depth of their vengeance, all their plots against me.

⁶¹LORD, you have heard their insults, all their plots against me— ⁶²what my enemies whisper and mutter against me all day long.

⁶³Look at them! Sitting or standing, they mock me in their songs.

⁶⁴Pay them back what they deserve, LORD, for what their hands have done.

⁶⁵Put a veil over their hearts, and may your curse be on them!

⁶⁶Pursue them in anger and destroy them from under the heavens of the LORD.

Lamentations 3:19–26

Look up when you're down.

It was 3 a.m. when a nurse made her rounds and woke Steven to check his temperature and blood pressure. Steven wrestled away, tired and doopey from medication. After a week in the hospital, he felt trapped by day and lonely at night. His doctors said he was getting better and predicted he might go home in a few days. By the time the nurse was done, Steven was wide awake. He stared at the ceiling, exhausted and alone, thinking about flipping on the TV to watch infomercials. Instead he shut his eyes and prayed. Steven never prayed much before he got sick. Now it was the one thing that kept him going.

The people of Israel couldn't have felt more distant from God. Held captive in a foreign country, they were so sad they hung up their harps and cried (see Psalm 137:1–9). But God spared them from total destruction. His compassion was fresh every morning. When you feel like everything good has been ripped from you, know that you still have the Lord.

Lamentations 4^[10]

- ¹How the gold has lost its luster, the fine gold become dull!
The sacred gems are scattered
at every street corner.
- ²How the precious children of Zion, once worth their weight in gold,
are now considered as pots of clay,
the work of a potter's hands!
- ³Even jackals offer their breasts to nurse their young, but my people have become heartless like ostriches in the desert.
- ⁴Because of thirst the infant's tongue sticks to the roof of its mouth;
the children beg for bread,
but no one gives it to them.
- ⁵Those who once ate delicacies are destitute in the streets.
Those brought up in royal purple now lie on ash heaps.
- ⁶The punishment of my people is greater than that of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment without a hand turned to help her.
- ⁷Their princes were brighter than snow and whiter than milk,
their bodies more ruddy than rubies, their appearance like lapis lazuli.
- ⁸But now they are blacker than soot; they are not recognized in the streets.
Their skin has shriveled on their bones;
it has become as dry as a stick.
- ⁹Those killed by the sword are better off than those who die of famine;
racked with hunger, they waste away for lack of food from the field.
- ¹⁰With their own hands compassionate women have cooked their own children, who became their food

when my people were destroyed.

¹¹The LORD has given full vent to his wrath; he has poured out his fierce anger.
He kindled a fire in Zion that consumed her foundations.

¹²The kings of the earth did not believe, nor did any of the peoples of the world, that enemies and foes could enter the gates of Jerusalem.

¹³But it happened because of the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who shed within her
the blood of the righteous.

¹⁴Now they grope through the streets as if they were blind.
They are so defiled with blood that no one dares to touch their garments.

¹⁵“Go away! You are unclean!” people cry to them.
“Away! Away! Don’t touch us!”
When they flee and wander about,
people among the nations say,
“They can stay here no longer.”

¹⁶The LORD himself has scattered them; he no longer watches over them.
The priests are shown no honor,
the elders no favor.

¹⁷Moreover, our eyes failed, looking in vain for help; from our towers we watched for a nation that could not save us.

¹⁸People stalked us at every step, so we could not walk in our streets.
Our end was near, our days were numbered,
for our end had come.

¹⁹Our pursuers were swifter than eagles in the sky;
they chased us over the mountains and lay in wait for us in the desert.

²⁰The LORD’s anointed, our very life breath, was caught in their traps.

We thought that under his shadow
we would live among the nations.

²¹Rejoice and be glad, Daughter Edom, you who live in the land of Uz.

But to you also the cup will be passed;
you will be drunk and stripped naked.

²²Your punishment will end, Daughter Zion; he will not prolong your exile.

But he will punish your sin, Daughter Edom, and expose your wickedness.

Lamentations 5

- ¹Remember, LORD, what has happened to us; look, and see our disgrace.
- ²Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers, our homes to foreigners.
- ³We have become fatherless, our mothers are widows.
- ⁴We must buy the water we drink; our wood can be had only at a price.
- ⁵Those who pursue us are at our heels; we are weary and find no rest.
- ⁶We submitted to Egypt and Assyria to get enough bread.
- ⁷Our ancestors sinned and are no more, and we bear their punishment.
- ⁸Slaves rule over us, and there is no one to free us from their hands.
- ⁹We get our bread at the risk of our lives because of the sword in the desert.
- ¹⁰Our skin is hot as an oven, feverish from hunger.
- ¹¹Women have been violated in Zion, and virgins in the towns of Judah.
- ¹²Princes have been hung up by their hands; elders are shown no respect.
- ¹³Young men toil at the millstones; boys stagger under loads of wood.
- ¹⁴The elders are gone from the city gate; the young men have stopped their music.
- ¹⁵Joy is gone from our hearts; our dancing has turned to mourning.
- ¹⁶The crown has fallen from our head.
Woe to us, for we have sinned!
- ¹⁷Because of this our hearts are faint, because of these things our eyes grow dim
- ¹⁸for Mount Zion, which lies desolate, with jackals prowling over it.
- ¹⁹You, LORD, reign forever; your throne endures from generation to generation.

²⁰Why do you always forget us?

Why do you forsake us so long?

²¹Restore us to yourself, LORD, that we may return; renew our days as of old

²²unless you have utterly rejected us and are angry with us beyond measure.

Israel restored to Palestine

(40:1–48:35)

This book is named after the prophet Ezekiel, whose name means “God is strong.” He wrote this message between the years 593 and 571 BC. for his fellow exiles in Babylonian captivity.

Born in 623 BC. to a priestly family, Ezekiel grew up in the surroundings of the temple in Jerusalem. In 597 BC. he was included in a group of people taken as captives to Babylon. In 593 BC. God called him in a divine revelation to be a prophet.

During the first part of his ministry, Ezekiel proclaimed a similar message to Jeremiah's—Jerusalem and the temple were doomed to destruction because of the sinfulness and idolatry of the people.

After the news reached Babylon that Jerusalem actually had been destroyed in 586 BC, Ezekiel proclaimed a new message of hope and restoration—God would re-gather the Israelites from the ends of the earth and re-establish them in their own land. The nations who challenged Israel's return would be defeated and judged.

Ezekiel 1

EZEKIEL'S INAUGURAL VISION

¹In my thirtieth year, in the fourth month on the fifth day, while I was among the exiles by the Kebar River, the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God.

²On the fifth of the month—it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin—³the word of the LORD came to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, by the Kebar River in the land of the Babylonians.^[1] There the hand of the LORD was on him.

⁴I looked, and I saw a windstorm coming out of the north—an immense cloud with flashing lightning and surrounded by brilliant light. The center of the fire looked like glowing metal,⁵ and in the fire was what looked like four living creatures. In appearance their form was human,⁶ but each of them had four faces and four wings.⁷ Their legs were straight; their feet were like those of a calf and gleamed like burnished bronze.⁸ Under their wings on their four sides they had human hands. All four of them had faces and wings,⁹ and the wings of one touched the wings of another. Each one went straight ahead; they did not turn as they moved.

¹⁰Their faces looked like this: Each of the four had the face of a human being, and on the right side each had the face of a lion, and on the left the face of an ox; each also had the face of an eagle.¹¹ Such were their faces. They each had two wings spreading out upward, each wing touching that of the creature on either side; and each had two other wings covering its body.¹² Each one went straight ahead. Wherever the spirit would go, they would go, without turning as they went.¹³ The appearance of the living creatures was like burning coals of fire or like torches. Fire moved back and forth among the creatures; it was bright, and lightning flashed out of it.¹⁴ The creatures sped back and forth like flashes of lightning.

¹⁵As I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel on the ground beside each creature with its four faces. ¹⁶This was the appearance and structure of the wheels: They sparkled like topaz, and all four looked alike. Each appeared to be made like a wheel intersecting a wheel. ¹⁷As they moved, they would go in any one of the four directions the creatures faced; the wheels did not change direction as the creatures went. ¹⁸Their rims were high and awesome, and all four rims were full of eyes all around.

¹⁹When the living creatures moved, the wheels beside them moved; and when the living creatures rose from the ground, the wheels also rose. ²⁰Wherever the spirit would go, they would go, and the wheels would rise along with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. ²¹When the creatures moved, they also moved; when the creatures stood still, they also stood still; and when the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose along with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

²²Spread out above the heads of the living creatures was what looked something like a vault, sparkling like crystal, and awesome. ²³Under the vault their wings were stretched out one toward the other, and each had two wings covering its body. ²⁴When the creatures moved, I heard the sound of their wings, like the roar of rushing waters, like the voice of the Almighty, ^[2] like the tumult of an army. When they stood still, they lowered their wings.

²⁵Then there came a voice from above the vault over their heads as they stood with lowered wings. ²⁶Above the vault over their heads was what looked like a throne of lapis lazuli, and high above on the throne was a figure like that of a man. ²⁷I saw that from what appeared to be his waist up he looked like glowing metal, as if full of fire, and that from there down he looked like fire; and brilliant light surrounded him. ²⁸Like the appearance of a rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day, so was the radiance around him.

This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. When I saw it, I fell facedown, and I heard the voice of one speaking.

Ezekiel 2

EZEKIEL'S CALL TO BE A PROPHET

¹He said to me, “Son of man,^[3] stand up on your feet and I will speak to you.”

²As he spoke, the Spirit came into me and raised me to my feet, and I heard him speaking to me.

³He said: “Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have been in revolt against me to this very day. ⁴The people to whom I am sending you are obstinate and stubborn. Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says.’

⁵And whether they listen or fail to listen—for they are a rebellious people—they will know that a prophet has been among them. ⁶And you, son of man, do not be afraid of them or their words. Do not be afraid, though briars and thorns are all around you and you live among scorpions. Do not be afraid of what they say or be terrified by them, though they are a rebellious people. ⁷You must speak my words to them, whether they listen or fail to listen, for they are rebellious. ⁸But you, son of man, listen to what I say to you. Do not rebel like that rebellious people; open your mouth and eat what I give you.”

⁹Then I looked, and I saw a hand stretched out to me. In it was a scroll, ¹⁰which he unrolled before me. On both sides of it were written words of lament and mourning and woe.

Ezekiel 2:1–9

Speak up.

“Jeremy, your partying is hurting yourself—and it’s hurting other people too,” Megan said quietly. “I know life hasn’t been easy. I know people think you should figure out your issues yourself. But I need to tell you about the damage you’re causing.” Jeremy had always been an example to everyone at church. After his parents split he gradually stopped coming to youth group. Then he started drinking. A couple guys who had been on the fence about following Jesus decided to follow his lead and dive into partying. “Jeremy,” Megan continued, “I’m going to remind you of what you know is right—even if you hate me for it.”

People won’t listen for long if you offer an opinion on everything. But when you pay attention to God, he will give you the right words at the right time for the right situation. You don’t have to be an Old Testament prophet to speak the truth in love (see Ephesians 4:15). You know words come from God when they build up people who hear them (see Ephesians 4:29).

Ezekiel 3

¹And he said to me, “Son of man, eat what is before you, eat this scroll; then go and speak to the people of Israel.” ²So I opened my mouth, and he gave me the scroll to eat.

³Then he said to me, “Son of man, eat this scroll I am giving you and fill your stomach with it.” So I ate it, and it tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth.

⁴He then said to me: “Son of man, go now to the people of Israel and speak my words to them. ⁵You are not being sent to a people of obscure speech and strange language, but to the people of Israel— ⁶not to many peoples of obscure speech and strange language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely if I had sent you to them, they would have listened to you. ⁷But the people of Israel are not willing to listen to you because they are not willing to listen to me, for all the Israelites are hardened and obstinate. ⁸But I will make you as unyielding and hardened as they are. ⁹I will make your forehead like the hardest stone, harder than flint. Do not be afraid of them or terrified by them, though they are a rebellious people.”

¹⁰And he said to me, “Son of man, listen carefully and take to heart all the words I speak to you. ¹¹Go now to your people in exile and speak to them. Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says,’ whether they listen or fail to listen.”

¹²Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me a loud rumbling sound as the glory of the LORD rose from the place where it was standing.^[4] ¹³It was the sound of the wings of the living creatures brushing against each other and the sound of the wheels beside them, a loud rumbling sound. ¹⁴The Spirit then lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness and in the anger of my spirit, with the strong hand of the LORD on me. ¹⁵I came to the exiles who lived at Tel Aviv near the Kebar River. And there, where they were living, I sat among them for seven days—deeply distressed.

EZEKIEL’S TASK AS WATCHMAN

¹⁶At the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁷“Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the people of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me. ¹⁸When I say to a wicked person, ‘You will surely die,’ and you do not warn them or speak out to dissuade them from their evil ways in order to save their life, that wicked person will die for^[5] their sin, and I will hold you accountable for their blood. ¹⁹But if you do warn the wicked person and they do not turn from their wickedness or from their evil ways, they will die for their sin; but you will have saved yourself.

²⁰“Again, when a righteous person turns from their righteousness and does evil, and I put a stumbling block before them, they will die. Since you did not warn them, they will die for their sin. The righteous things that person did will not be remembered, and I will hold you accountable for their blood. ²¹But if you do warn the righteous person not to sin and they do not sin, they will surely live because they took warning, and you will have saved yourself.”

²²The hand of the LORD was on me there, and he said to me, “Get up and go out to the plain, and there I will speak to you.” ²³So I got up and went out to the plain. And the glory of the LORD was standing there, like the glory I had seen by the Kebar River, and I fell facedown.

²⁴Then the Spirit came into me and raised me to my feet. He spoke to me and said: “Go, shut yourself inside your house. ²⁵And you, son of man, they will tie with ropes; you will be bound so that you cannot go out among the people. ²⁶I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth so that you will be silent and unable to rebuke them, for they are a rebellious people. ²⁷But when I speak to you, I will open your mouth and you shall say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says.’ Whoever will listen let them listen, and whoever will refuse let them refuse; for they are a rebellious people.

Ezekiel 4

SIEGE OF JERUSALEM SYMBOLIZED

¹“Now, son of man, take a block of clay, put it in front of you and draw the city of Jerusalem on it. ²Then lay siege to it: Erect siege works against it, build a ramp up to it, set up camps against it and put battering rams around it. ³Then take an iron pan, place it as an iron wall between you and the city and turn your face toward it. It will be under siege, and you shall besiege it. This will be a sign to the people of Israel.

⁴“Then lie on your left side and put the sin of the people of Israel upon yourself.^[6] You are to bear their sin for the number of days you lie on your side. ⁵I have assigned you the same number of days as the years of their sin. So for 390 days you will bear the sin of the people of Israel.

⁶“After you have finished this, lie down again, this time on your right side, and bear the sin of the people of Judah. I have assigned you 40 days, a day for each year. ⁷Turn your face toward the siege of Jerusalem and with bared arm prophesy against her. ⁸I will tie you up with ropes so that you cannot turn from one side to the other until you have finished the days of your siege.

⁹“Take wheat and barley, beans and lentils, millet and spelt; put them in a storage jar and use them to make bread for yourself. You are to eat it during the 390 days you lie on your side. ¹⁰Weigh out twenty shekels^[7] of food to eat each day and eat it at set times. ¹¹Also measure out a sixth of a hin^[8] of water and drink it at set times. ¹²Eat the food as you would a loaf of barley bread; bake it in the sight of the people, using human excrement for fuel.” ¹³The LORD said, “In this way the people of Israel will eat defiled food among the nations where I will drive them.”

¹⁴Then I said, “Not so, Sovereign LORD! I have never defiled myself. From my youth until now I have never eaten anything found dead or torn by wild animals. No impure meat has ever entered my mouth.”

¹⁶He then said to me: “Son of man, I am about to cut off the food supply in Jerusalem. The people will eat rationed food in anxiety and drink rationed water in despair, ¹⁷for food and water will be scarce. They will be appalled at the sight of each other and will waste away because of^[9] their sin.

Ezekiel 5

GOD'S RAZOR OF JUDGMENT

¹“Now, son of man, take a sharp sword and use it as a barber’s razor to shave your head and your beard. Then take a set of scales and divide up the hair. ²When the days of your siege come to an end, burn a third of the hair inside the city. Take a third and strike it with the sword all around the city. And scatter a third to the wind. For I will pursue them with drawn sword. ³But take a few hairs and tuck them away in the folds of your garment. ⁴Again, take a few of these and throw them into the fire and burn them up. A fire will spread from there to all Israel.

⁵“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: This is Jerusalem, which I have set in the center of the nations, with countries all around her. ⁶Yet in her wickedness she has rebelled against my laws and decrees more than the nations and countries around her. She has rejected my laws and has not followed my decrees.

⁷“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: You have been more unruly than the nations around you and have not followed my decrees or kept my laws. You have not even^[10] conformed to the standards of the nations around you.

⁸“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself am against you, Jerusalem, and I will inflict punishment on you in the sight of the nations. ⁹Because of all your detestable idols, I will do to you what I have never done before and will never do again. ¹⁰Therefore in your midst parents will eat their children, and children will eat their parents. I will inflict punishment on you and will scatter all your survivors to the winds. ¹¹Therefore as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your vile images and detestable practices, I myself will shave you; I will not look on you with pity or spare you. ¹²A third of your people will die of the plague or perish by famine inside you; a third will fall by the sword outside your walls; and a third I will scatter to the winds and pursue with drawn sword.

¹³“Then my anger will cease and my wrath against them will subside, and I will be avenged. And when I have spent my wrath on them, they will know that I the LORD have spoken in my zeal.

¹⁴“I will make you a ruin and a reproach among the nations around you, in the sight of all who pass by. ¹⁵You will be a reproach and a taunt, a warning and an object of horror to the nations around you when I inflict punishment on you in anger and in wrath and with stinging rebuke. I the LORD have spoken. ¹⁶When I shoot at you with my deadly and destructive arrows of famine, I will shoot to destroy you. I will bring more and more famine upon you and cut off your supply of food. ¹⁷I will send famine and wild beasts against you, and they will leave you childless. Plague and bloodshed will sweep through you, and I will bring the sword against you. I the LORD have spoken.”

Ezekiel 6

DOOM FOR THE MOUNTAINS OF ISRAEL

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, set your face against the mountains of Israel; prophesy against them ³and say: ‘You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign LORD. This is what the Sovereign LORD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: I am about to bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places. ⁴Your altars will be demolished and your incense altars will be smashed; and I will slay your people in front of your idols. ⁵I will lay the dead bodies of the Israelites in front of their idols, and I will scatter your bones around your altars. ⁶Wherever you live, the towns will be laid waste and the high places demolished, so that your altars will be laid waste and devastated, your idols smashed and ruined, your incense altars broken down, and what you have made wiped out. ⁷Your people will fall slain among you, and you will know that I am the LORD.

⁸“ ‘But I will spare some, for some of you will escape the sword when you are scattered among the lands and nations. ⁹Then in the nations where they have been carried captive, those who escape will remember me—how I have been grieved by their adulterous hearts, which have turned away from me, and by their eyes, which have lusted after their idols. They will loathe themselves for the evil they have done and for all their detestable practices. ¹⁰And they will know that I am the LORD; I did not threaten in vain to bring this calamity on them.

¹¹“ ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Strike your hands together and stamp your feet and cry out “Alas!” because of all the wicked and detestable practices of the people of Israel, for they will fall by the sword, famine and plague. ¹²One who is far away will die of the plague, and one who is near will fall by the sword, and anyone who survives and is spared will die of famine. So will I pour out my wrath on them. ¹³And they will know that I am the LORD, when their people lie slain among their idols around their altars, on every high hill and on all the mountaintops, under every spreading tree and every leafy oak—places where they offered fragrant incense to all their idols. ¹⁴And I will stretch out my hand against them and make the land a desolate waste from the desert to Diblah^[11]—wherever they live. Then they will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

ROCK SOLID truths

Ezekiel 6:1–14

God doesn't make idle threats.

It sounds odd to hear God threaten doom and destruction against the mountains of Israel—until you realize what was going on up top. The “high places” (Ezekiel 6:3) were hilltop sites of worship to fake deities like the goddess Asherah. Idol worship sometimes was mixed in the high places with worship of the one true God, but that didn't excuse the rampant practice of idolatry. These evil sites had plagued Israel even after King Josiah had wiped them from the land (see 2 Chronicles 34:1–7). So now the Lord threatened to destroy these high places, slay sinful people, and drop their dead bodies in front of their idols. And he wants everyone to be sure he isn't blowing smoke: “They will know that I am the LORD,” he says. “I did not threaten in vain to bring this calamity on them” (Ezekiel 6:10).

Think: Why does a good God threaten and punish bad people?

Ezekiel 7

THE END HAS COME

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, this is what the Sovereign LORD says to the land of Israel:

“ ‘The end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land!

³The end is now upon you,
and I will unleash my anger against you.
I will judge you according to your conduct
and repay you for all your detestable practices.

⁴I will not look on you with pity;
I will not spare you.
I will surely repay you for your conduct and for the detestable practices among you.

“ ‘Then you will know that I am the LORD.’

⁵“This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘Disaster! Unheard-of^[12] disaster!
See, it comes!

⁶The end has come!
The end has come!
It has roused itself against you.
See, it comes!

⁷Doom has come upon you,
upon you who dwell in the land.
The time has come! The day is near!
There is panic, not joy, on the mountains.

⁸I am about to pour out my wrath on you and spend my anger against you.
I will judge you according to your conduct
and repay you for all your detestable practices.

⁹I will not look on you with pity;
I will not spare you.
I will repay you for your conduct and for the detestable practices among you.

“ ‘Then you will know that it is I the LORD who strikes you.

¹⁰“ ‘See, the day!
See, it comes!
Doom has burst forth,
the rod has budded,
arrogance has blossomed!

¹¹Violence has arisen, [\[13\]](#)
a rod to punish the wicked.
None of the people will be left,
none of that crowd—
none of their wealth,
nothing of value.

¹²The time has come!
The day has arrived!

Let not the buyer rejoice
nor the seller grieve,
for my wrath is on the whole crowd.

¹³The seller will not recover the property that was sold—as long as both buyer and seller live.
For the vision concerning the whole crowd will not be reversed.
Because of their sins, not one of them will preserve their life.

¹⁴“ They have blown the trumpet, they have made all things ready,
but no one will go into battle,
for my wrath is on the whole crowd.

¹⁵Outside is the sword;
inside are plague and famine.

Those in the country will die by the sword;

those in the city
will be devoured by famine and plague.

¹⁶The fugitives who escape will flee to the mountains.
Like doves of the valleys,
they will all moan,
each for their own sins.

¹⁷Every hand will go limp;
every leg will be wet with urine.

¹⁸They will put on sackcloth and be clothed with terror.
Every face will be covered with shame,
and every head will be shaved.

¹⁹“ They will throw their silver into the streets, and their gold will be treated as a thing unclean.

Their silver and gold will not be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath.

It will not satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs,
for it has caused them to stumble into sin.

²⁰They took pride in their beautiful jewelry and used it to make their detestable idols.

They made it into vile images;
therefore I will make it a thing unclean for them.

²¹I will give their wealth as plunder to foreigners and as loot to the wicked of the earth, who will defile it.

²²I will turn my face away from the people, and robbers will desecrate the place I treasure.

They will enter it
and will defile it.

²³“ ‘Prepare chains!

For the land is full of bloodshed,
and the city is full of violence.

²⁴I will bring the most wicked of nations to take possession of their houses.

I will put an end to the pride of the mighty,
and their sanctuaries will be desecrated.

²⁵When terror comes,
they will seek peace in vain.

²⁶Calamity upon calamity will come,
and rumor upon rumor.

They will go searching for a vision from the prophet, priestly instruction in the law will cease,
the counsel of the elders will come to an end.

²⁷The king will mourn,
the prince will be clothed with despair,
and the hands of the people of the land will tremble.
I will deal with them according to their conduct,
and by their own standards I will judge them.

“ ‘Then they will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

Ezekiel 8

IDOLATRY IN THE TEMPLE

¹In the sixth year, in the sixth month on the fifth day, while I was sitting in my house and the elders of Judah were sitting before me, the hand of the Sovereign LORD came on me there. ²I looked, and I saw a figure like that of a man.^[14] From what appeared to be his waist down he was like fire, and from there up his appearance was as bright as glowing metal. ³He stretched out what looked like a hand and took me by the hair of my head. The Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and in visions of God he took me to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the north gate of the inner court, where the idol that provokes to jealousy stood. ⁴And there before me was the glory of the God of Israel, as in the vision I had seen in the plain.

⁵Then he said to me, “Son of man, look toward the north.” So I looked, and in the entrance north of the gate of the altar I saw this idol of jealousy.

⁶And he said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing—the utterly detestable things the Israelites are doing here, things that will drive me far from my sanctuary? But you will see things that are even more detestable.”

⁷Then he brought me to the entrance to the court. I looked, and I saw a hole in the wall. ⁸He said to me, “Son of man, now dig into the wall.” So I dug into the wall and saw a doorway there.

⁹And he said to me, “Go in and see the wicked and detestable things they are doing here.” ¹⁰So I went in and looked, and I saw portrayed all over the walls all kinds of crawling things and unclean animals and all the idols of Israel. ¹¹In front of them stood seventy elders of Israel, and Jaazaniah son of Shaphan was standing among them. Each had a censer in his hand, and a fragrant cloud of incense was rising.

¹²He said to me, “Son of man, have you seen what the elders of Israel are doing in the darkness, each at the shrine of his own idol? They say, ‘The LORD does not see us; the LORD has forsaken the land.’ ” ¹³Again, he said, “You will see them doing things that are even more detestable.”

¹⁴Then he brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the house of the LORD, and I saw women sitting there, mourning the god Tammuz. ¹⁵He said to me, “Do you see this, son of man? You will see things that are even more detestable than this.”

¹⁶He then brought me into the inner court of the house of the LORD, and there at the entrance to the temple, between the portico and the altar, were about twenty-five men. With their backs toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east, they were bowing down to the sun in the east.

¹⁷He said to me, “Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a trivial matter for the people of Judah to do the detestable things they are doing here? Must they also fill the land with violence and continually arouse my anger? Look at them putting the branch to their nose! ¹⁸Therefore I will deal with them in anger; I will not look on them with pity or spare them. Although they shout in my ears, I will not listen to them.”

Ezekiel 9

JUDGMENT ON THE IDOLATERS

¹Then I heard him call out in a loud voice, “Bring near those who are appointed to execute judgment on the city, each with a weapon in his hand.”

²And I saw six men coming from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with a deadly weapon in his hand. With them was a man clothed in linen who had a writing kit at his side. They came in and stood beside the bronze altar.

³Now the glory of the God of Israel went up from above the cherubim, where it had been, and moved to the threshold of the temple. Then the LORD called to the man clothed in linen who had the writing kit at his side ⁴and said to him, “Go throughout the city of Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of those who grieve and lament over all the detestable things that are done in it.”

⁵As I listened, he said to the others, “Follow him through the city and kill, without showing pity or compassion. ⁶Slaughter the old men, the young men and women, the mothers and children, but do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at my sanctuary.” So they began with the old men who were in front of the temple.

⁷Then he said to them, “Defile the temple and fill the courts with the slain. Go!” So they went out and began killing throughout the city. ⁸While they were killing and I was left alone, I fell facedown, crying out, “Alas, Sovereign LORD! Are you going to destroy the entire remnant of Israel in this outpouring of your wrath on Jerusalem?”

⁹He answered me, “The sin of the people of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great; the land is full of bloodshed and the city is full of injustice. They say, ‘The LORD has forsaken the land; the LORD does not see.’ ¹⁰So I will not look on them with pity or spare them, but I will bring down on their own heads what they have done.”

¹¹Then the man in linen with the writing kit at his side brought back word, saying, “I have done as you commanded.”

Ezekiel 10

GOD'S GLORY DEPARTS FROM THE TEMPLE

¹I looked, and I saw the likeness of a throne of lapis lazuli above the vault that was over the heads of the cherubim. ²The LORD said to the man clothed in linen, "Go in among the wheels beneath the cherubim. Fill your hands with burning coals from among the cherubim and scatter them over the city." And as I watched, he went in.

³Now the cherubim were standing on the south side of the temple when the man went in, and a cloud filled the inner court. ⁴Then the glory of the LORD rose from above the cherubim and moved to the threshold of the temple. The cloud filled the temple, and the court was full of the radiance of the glory of the LORD. ⁵The sound of the wings of the cherubim could be heard as far away as the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty^[15] when he speaks.

⁶When the LORD commanded the man in linen, "Take fire from among the wheels, from among the cherubim," the man went in and stood beside a wheel. ⁷Then one of the cherubim reached out his hand to the fire that was among them. He took up some of it and put it into the hands of the man in linen, who took it and went out. ⁸(Under the wings of the cherubim could be seen what looked like human hands.) ⁹I looked, and I saw beside the cherubim four wheels, one beside each of the cherubim; the wheels sparkled like topaz. ¹⁰As for their appearance, the four of them looked alike; each was like a wheel intersecting a wheel. ¹¹As they moved, they would go in any one of the four directions the cherubim faced; the wheels did not turn about^[16] as the cherubim went. The cherubim went in whatever direction the head faced, without turning as they went. ¹²Their entire bodies, including their backs, their hands and their wings, were completely full of eyes, as were their four wheels. ¹³I heard the wheels being called "the whirling wheels." ¹⁴Each of the cherubim had four faces: One face was that of a cherub, the second the face of a human being, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

¹⁵Then the cherubim rose upward. These were the living creatures I had seen by the Kebar River. ¹⁶When the cherubim moved, the wheels beside them moved; and when the cherubim spread their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels did not leave their side. ¹⁷When the cherubim stood still, they also stood still; and when the cherubim rose, they rose with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in them.

¹⁸Then the glory of the LORD departed from over the threshold of the temple and stopped above the cherubim. ¹⁹While I watched, the cherubim spread their wings and rose from the ground, and as they went, the wheels went with them. They stopped at the entrance of the east gate of the LORD's house, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

²⁰These were the living creatures I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the Kebar River, and I realized that they were cherubim. ²¹Each had four faces and four wings, and under their wings was what looked like human hands. ²²Their faces had the same appearance as those I had seen by the Kebar River. Each one went straight ahead.

Ezekiel 11

GOD'S SURE JUDGMENT ON JERUSALEM

¹Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the gate of the house of the LORD that faces east. There at the entrance of the gate were twenty-five men, and I saw among them Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people. ²The LORD said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who are plotting evil and giving wicked advice in this city. ³They say, 'Haven't our houses been recently rebuilt? This city is a pot, and we are the meat in it.' ⁴Therefore prophesy against them; prophesy, son of man."

⁵Then the Spirit of the LORD came on me, and he told me to say: "This is what the LORD says: That is what you are saying, you leaders in Israel, but I know what is going through your mind. ⁶You have killed many people in this city and filled its streets with the dead.

⁷"Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: The bodies you have thrown there are the meat and this city is the pot, but I will drive you out of it. ⁸You fear the sword, and the sword is what I will bring against you, declares the Sovereign LORD. ⁹I will drive you out of the city and deliver you into the hands of foreigners and inflict punishment on you. ¹⁰You will fall by the sword, and I will execute judgment on you at the borders of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ¹¹This city will not be a pot for you, nor will you be the meat in it; I will execute judgment on you at the borders of Israel. ¹²And you will know that I am the LORD, for you have not followed my decrees or kept my laws but have conformed to the standards of the nations around you."

¹³Now as I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. Then I fell facedown and cried out in a loud voice, "Alas, Sovereign LORD! Will you completely destroy the remnant of Israel?"

THE PROMISE OF ISRAEL'S RETURN

¹⁴The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁵"Son of man, the people of Jerusalem have said of your fellow exiles and all the other Israelites, 'They are far away from the LORD; this land was given to us as our possession.'

¹⁶“Therefore say: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Although I sent them far away among the nations and scattered them among the countries, yet for a little while I have been a sanctuary for them in the countries where they have gone.’

¹⁷“Therefore say: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will gather you from the nations and bring you back from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you back the land of Israel again.’

¹⁸“They will return to it and remove all its vile images and detestable idols. ¹⁹I will give them an undivided heart and put a new spirit in them; I will remove from them their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh. ²⁰Then they will follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws. They will be my people, and I will be their God. ²¹But as for those whose hearts are devoted to their vile images and detestable idols, I will bring down on their own heads what they have done, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

ROCK SOLID promises

“I will remove from them their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh.”

²²Then the cherubim, with the wheels beside them, spread their wings, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them. ²³The glory of the LORD went up from within the city and stopped above the mountain east of it. ²⁴The Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the exiles in Babylonia^[17] in the vision given by the Spirit of God.

Then the vision I had seen went up from me, ²⁵and I told the exiles everything the LORD had shown me.

Ezekiel 12

THE EXILE SYMBOLIZED

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, you are living among a rebellious people. They have eyes to see but do not see and ears to hear but do not hear, for they are a rebellious people.

³“Therefore, son of man, pack your belongings for exile and in the daytime, as they watch, set out and go from where you are to another place. Perhaps they will understand, though they are a rebellious people. ⁴During the daytime, while they watch, bring out your belongings packed for exile. Then in the evening, while they are watching, go out like those who go into exile. ⁵While they watch, dig through the wall and take your belongings out through it. ⁶Put them on your shoulder as they are watching and carry them out at dusk. Cover your face so that you cannot see the land, for I have made you a sign to the Israelites.”

⁷So I did as I was commanded. During the day I brought out my things packed for exile. Then in the evening I dug through the wall with my hands. I took my belongings out at dusk, carrying them on my shoulders while they watched.

⁸In the morning the word of the LORD came to me: ⁹“Son of man, did not the Israelites, that rebellious people, ask you, ‘What are you doing?’

¹⁰“Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: This prophecy concerns the prince in Jerusalem and all the Israelites who are there.’ ¹¹Say to them, ‘I am a sign to you.’

“As I have done, so it will be done to them. They will go into exile as captives.

¹²“The prince among them will put his things on his shoulder at dusk and leave, and a hole will be dug in the wall for him to go through. He will cover his face so that he cannot see the land. ¹³I will spread my net for him, and he will be caught in my snare; I will bring him to Babylonia, the land of the Chaldeans, but he will not see it, and there he will die. ¹⁴I will scatter to the winds all those around him—his staff and all his troops—and I will pursue them with drawn sword.

¹⁵“They will know that I am the LORD, when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them through the countries. ¹⁶But I will spare a few of them from the sword, famine and plague, so that in the nations where they go they may acknowledge all their detestable practices. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

¹⁷The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁸“Son of man, tremble as you eat your food, and shudder in fear as you drink your water. ¹⁹Say to the people of the land: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says about those living in Jerusalem and in the land of Israel: They will eat their food in anxiety and drink their water in despair, for their land will be stripped of everything in it because of the violence of all who live there. ²⁰The inhabited towns will be laid waste and the land will be desolate. Then you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

THERE WILL BE NO DELAY

²¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²²“Son of man, what is this proverb you have in the land of Israel: ‘The days go by and every vision comes to nothing’?”

²³Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am going to put an end to this proverb, and they will no longer quote it in Israel.’ Say to them, ‘The days are near when every vision will be fulfilled. ²⁴For there will be no more false visions or flattering divinations among the people of Israel. ²⁵But I the LORD will speak what I will, and it shall be fulfilled without delay. For in your days, you rebellious people, I will fulfill whatever I say, declares the Sovereign LORD.’ ”

²⁶The word of the LORD came to me: ²⁷“Son of man, the Israelites are saying, ‘The vision he sees is for many years from now, and he prophesies about the distant future.’

²⁸“Therefore say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: None of my words will be delayed any longer; whatever I say will be fulfilled, declares the Sovereign LORD.’ ”

Ezekiel 13

FALSE PROPHETS CONDEMNED

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who are now prophesying. Say to those who prophesy out of their own imagination: ‘Hear the word of the LORD! ³This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Woe to the foolish^[18] prophets who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing! ⁴Your prophets, Israel, are like jackals among ruins. ⁵You have not gone up to the breaches in the wall to repair it for the people of Israel so that it will stand firm in the battle on the day of the LORD. ⁶Their visions are false and their divinations a lie. Even though the LORD has not sent them, they say, “The LORD declares,” and expect him to fulfill their words. ⁷Have you not seen false visions and uttered lying divinations when you say, “The LORD declares,” though I have not spoken?

⁸“ ‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because of your false words and lying visions, I am against you, declares the Sovereign LORD. ⁹My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and utter lying divinations. They will not belong to the council of my people or be listed in the records of Israel, nor will they enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.

¹⁰“ ‘Because they lead my people astray, saying, “Peace,” when there is no peace, and because, when a flimsy wall is built, they cover it with whitewash, ¹¹therefore tell those who cover it with whitewash that it is going to fall. Rain will come in torrents, and I will send hailstones hurtling down, and violent winds will burst forth. ¹²When the wall collapses, will people not ask you, “Where is the whitewash you covered it with?”

¹³“ ‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: In my wrath I will unleash a violent wind, and in my anger hailstones and torrents of rain will fall with destructive fury. ¹⁴I will tear down the wall you have covered with whitewash and will level it to the ground so that its foundation will be laid bare. When it^[19] falls, you will be destroyed in it; and you will know that I am the LORD. ¹⁵So I will pour out my wrath against the wall and against those who covered it with whitewash. I will say to you, “The wall is gone and so are those who whitewashed it, ¹⁶those prophets of Israel who prophesied to Jerusalem and saw visions of peace for her when there was no peace, declares the Sovereign LORD.” ’

²⁰“ ‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against your magic charms with which you ensnare people like birds and I will tear them from your arms; I will set free the people that you ensnare like birds. ²¹I will tear off your veils and save my people from your hands, and they will no longer fall prey to your power. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ²²Because you disheartened the righteous with your lies, when I had brought them no grief, and because you encouraged the wicked not to turn from their evil ways and so save their lives, ²³therefore you will no longer see false visions or practice divination. I will save my people from your hands. And then you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

Ezekiel 14

IDOLATERS CONDEMNED

¹Some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat down in front of me. ²Then the word of the LORD came to me: ³“Son of man, these men have set up idols in their hearts and put wicked stumbling blocks before their faces. Should I let them inquire of me at all? ⁴Therefore speak to them and tell them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: When any of the Israelites set up idols in their hearts and put a wicked stumbling block before their faces and then go to a prophet, I the LORD will answer them myself in keeping with their great idolatry. ⁵I will do this to recapture the hearts of the people of Israel, who have all deserted me for their idols.’

⁶“Therefore say to the people of Israel, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Repent! Turn from your idols and renounce all your detestable practices!

⁷“ ‘When any of the Israelites or any foreigner residing in Israel separate themselves from me and set up idols in their hearts and put a wicked stumbling block before their faces and then go to a prophet to inquire of me, I the LORD will answer them myself. ⁸I will set my face against them and make them an example and a byword. I will remove them from my people. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁹“ ‘And if the prophet is enticed to utter a prophecy, I the LORD have enticed that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand against him and destroy him from among my people Israel. ¹⁰They will bear their guilt—the prophet will be as guilty as the one who consults him. ¹¹Then the people of Israel will no longer stray from me, nor will they defile themselves anymore with all their sins. They will be my people, and I will be their God, declares the Sovereign LORD.’”

JERUSALEM’S JUDGMENT INESCAPABLE

¹²The word of the LORD came to me: ¹³“Son of man, if a country sins against me by being unfaithful and I stretch out my hand against it to cut off its food supply and send famine upon it and kill its people and their animals, ¹⁴even if these three men—Noah, Daniel^[20] and Job—were in it, they could save only themselves by their righteousness, declares the Sovereign LORD.

¹⁵“Or if I send wild beasts through that country and they leave it childless and it becomes desolate so that no one can pass through it because of the beasts, ¹⁶as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, even if these three men were in it, they could not save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved, but the land would be desolate.

¹⁷“Or if I bring a sword against that country and say, ‘Let the sword pass throughout the land,’ and I kill its people and their animals, ¹⁸as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, even if these three men were in it, they could not save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved.

¹⁹“Or if I send a plague into that land and pour out my wrath on it through bloodshed, killing its people and their animals, ²⁰as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, even if Noah, Daniel and Job were in it, they could save neither son nor daughter. They would save only themselves by their righteousness.

²¹“For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: How much worse will it be when I send against Jerusalem my four dreadful judgments—sword and famine and wild beasts and plague—to kill its men and their animals! ²²Yet there will be some survivors—sons and daughters who will be brought out of it. They will come to you, and when you see their conduct and their actions, you will be consoled regarding the disaster I have brought on Jerusalem—every disaster I have brought on it. ²³You will be consoled when you see their conduct and their actions, for you will know that I have done nothing in it without cause, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 15

JERUSALEM AS A USELESS VINE

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, how is the wood of a vine different from that of a branch from any of the trees in the forest? ³Is wood ever taken from it to make anything useful? Do they make pegs from it to hang things on? ⁴And after it is thrown on the fire as fuel and the fire burns both ends and chars the middle, is it then useful for anything? ⁵If it was not useful for anything when it was whole, how much less can it be made into something useful when the fire has burned it and it is charred?

⁶“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: As I have given the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest as fuel for the fire, so will I treat the people living in Jerusalem. ⁷I will set my face against them. Although they have come out of the fire, the fire will yet consume them. And when I set my face against them, you will know that I am the LORD. ⁸I will make the land desolate because they have been unfaithful, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 16

JERUSALEM AS AN ADULTEROUS WIFE

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, confront Jerusalem with her detestable practices ³and say, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says to Jerusalem: Your ancestry and birth were in the land of the Canaanites; your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite. ⁴On the day you were born your cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water to make you clean, nor were you rubbed with salt or wrapped in cloths. ⁵No one looked on you with pity or had compassion enough to do any of these things for you. Rather, you were thrown out into the open field, for on the day you were born you were despised.

⁶“ ‘Then I passed by and saw you kicking about in your blood, and as you lay there in your blood I said to you, “Live!”^[21] ⁷I made you grow like a plant of the field. You grew and developed and entered puberty. Your breasts had formed and your hair had grown, yet you were stark naked.

⁸“ ‘Later I passed by, and when I looked at you and saw that you were old enough for love, I spread the corner of my garment over you and covered your naked body. I gave you my solemn oath and entered into a covenant with you, declares the Sovereign LORD, and you became mine.

⁹“ ‘I bathed you with water and washed the blood from you and put ointments on you. ¹⁰I clothed you with an embroidered dress and put sandals of fine leather on you. I dressed you in fine linen and covered you with costly garments. ¹¹I adorned you with jewelry: I put bracelets on your arms and a necklace around your neck, ¹²and I put a ring on your nose, earrings on your ears and a beautiful crown on your head. ¹³So you were adorned with gold and silver; your clothes were of fine linen and costly fabric and embroidered cloth. Your food was honey, olive oil and the finest flour. You became very beautiful and rose to be a queen. ¹⁴And your fame spread among the nations on account of your beauty, because the splendor I had given you made your beauty perfect, declares the Sovereign LORD.

¹⁵“ ‘But you trusted in your beauty and used your fame to become a prostitute. You lavished your favors on anyone who passed by and your beauty became his. ¹⁶You took some of your garments to make gaudy high places, where you carried on your prostitution. You went to him, and he possessed your beauty.^[22] ¹⁷You also took the fine jewelry I gave you, the jewelry made of my gold and silver, and you made for yourself male idols and engaged in prostitution with them. ¹⁸And you took your embroidered clothes to put on them, and you offered my oil and incense before them. ¹⁹Also the food I provided for you—the flour, olive oil and honey I gave you to eat—you offered as fragrant incense before them. That is what happened, declares the Sovereign LORD.

²⁰“ ‘And you took your sons and daughters whom you bore to me and sacrificed them as food to the idols. Was your prostitution not enough? ²¹You slaughtered my children and sacrificed them to the idols. ²²In all your detestable practices and your prostitution you did not remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, kicking about in your blood.

²³“ ‘Woe! Woe to you, declares the Sovereign LORD. In addition to all your other wickedness, ²⁴you built a mound for yourself and made a lofty shrine in every public square. ²⁵At every street corner you built your lofty shrines and degraded your beauty, spreading your legs with increasing promiscuity to anyone who passed by. ²⁶You engaged in prostitution with the Egyptians, your neighbors with large genitals, and aroused my anger with your increasing promiscuity. ²⁷So I stretched out my hand against you and reduced your territory; I gave you over to the greed of your enemies, the daughters of the Philistines, who were shocked by your lewd conduct. ²⁸You engaged in prostitution with the Assyrians too, because you were insatiable; and even after that, you still were not satisfied. ²⁹Then you increased your promiscuity to include Babylonia,^[23] a land of merchants, but even with this you were not satisfied.

³²“ ‘You adulterous wife! You prefer strangers to your own husband! ³³All prostitutes receive gifts, but you give gifts to all your lovers, bribing them to come to you from everywhere for your illicit favors. ³⁴So in your prostitution you are the opposite of others; no one runs after you for your favors. You are the very opposite, for you give payment and none is given to you.

³⁵“ ‘Therefore, you prostitute, hear the word of the LORD! ³⁶This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you poured out your lust and exposed your naked body in your promiscuity with your lovers, and because of all your detestable idols, and because you gave them your children's blood,³⁷ therefore I am going to gather all your lovers, with whom you found pleasure, those you loved as well as those you hated. I will gather them against you from all around and will strip you in front of them, and they will see you stark naked.³⁸ I will sentence you to the punishment of women who commit adultery and who shed blood; I will bring on you the blood vengeance of my wrath and jealous anger.³⁹ Then I will deliver you into the hands of your lovers, and they will tear down your mounds and destroy your lofty shrines. They will strip you of your clothes and take your fine jewelry and leave you stark naked.⁴⁰ They will bring a mob against you, who will stone you and hack you to pieces with their swords.⁴¹ They will burn down your houses and inflict punishment on you in the sight of many women. I will put a stop to your prostitution, and you will no longer pay your lovers.⁴² Then my wrath against you will subside and my jealous anger will turn away from you; I will be calm and no longer angry.

⁴³“ ‘Because you did not remember the days of your youth but enraged me with all these things, I will surely bring down on your head what you have done, declares the Sovereign LORD. Did you not add lewdness to all your other detestable practices?’

⁴⁹“ ‘Now this was the sin of your sister Sodom: She and her daughters were arrogant, overfed and unconcerned; they did not help the poor and needy.⁵⁰ They were haughty and did detestable things before me. Therefore I did away with them as you have seen.⁵¹ Samaria did not commit half the sins you did. You have done more detestable things than they, and have made your sisters seem righteous by all these things you have done.⁵² Bear your disgrace, for you have furnished some justification for your sisters. Because your sins were more vile than theirs, they appear more righteous than you. So then, be ashamed and bear your disgrace, for you have made your sisters appear righteous.

⁵³“ ‘However, I will restore the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters and of Samaria and her daughters, and your fortunes along with them, ⁵⁴so that you may bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all you have done in giving them comfort. ⁵⁵And your sisters, Sodom with her daughters and Samaria with her daughters, will return to what they were before; and you and your daughters will return to what you were before. ⁵⁶You would not even mention your sister Sodom in the day of your pride, ⁵⁷before your wickedness was uncovered. Even so, you are now scorned by the daughters of Edom^[25] and all her neighbors and the daughters of the Philistines—all those around you who despise you. ⁵⁸You will bear the consequences of your lewdness and your detestable practices, declares the LORD.

⁵⁹“ ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will deal with you as you deserve, because you have despised my oath by breaking the covenant. ⁶⁰Yet I will remember the covenant I made with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. ⁶¹Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed when you receive your sisters, both those who are older than you and those who are younger. I will give them to you as daughters, but not on the basis of my covenant with you. ⁶²So I will establish my covenant with you, and you will know that I am the LORD. ⁶³Then, when I make atonement for you for all you have done, you will remember and be ashamed and never again open your mouth because of your humiliation, declares the Sovereign LORD.’ ”

Ezekiel 17

TWO EAGLES AND A VINE

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, set forth an allegory and tell it to the Israelites as a parable. ³Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: A great eagle with powerful wings, long feathers and full plumage of varied colors came to Lebanon. Taking hold of the top of a cedar, ⁴he broke off its topmost shoot and carried it away to a land of merchants, where he planted it in a city of traders.

⁷“ ‘But there was another great eagle with powerful wings and full plumage. The vine now sent out its roots toward him from the plot where it was planted and stretched out its branches to him for water. ⁸It had been planted in good soil by abundant water so that it would produce branches, bear fruit and become a splendid vine.’

⁹“Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Will it thrive? Will it not be uprooted and stripped of its fruit so that it withers? All its new growth will wither. It will not take a strong arm or many people to pull it up by the roots. ¹⁰It has been planted, but will it thrive? Will it not wither completely when the east wind strikes it—wither away in the plot where it grew?’ ”

¹¹Then the word of the LORD came to me: ¹²“Say to this rebellious people, ‘Do you not know what these things mean?’ Say to them: ‘The king of Babylon went to Jerusalem and carried off her king and her nobles, bringing them back with him to Babylon. ¹³Then he took a member of the royal family and made a treaty with him, putting him under oath. He also carried away the leading men of the land, ¹⁴so that the kingdom would be brought low, unable to rise again, surviving only by keeping his treaty. ¹⁵But the king rebelled against him by sending his envoys to Egypt to get horses and a large army. Will he succeed? Will he who does such things escape? Will he break the treaty and yet escape?’

of no help to him in war, when ramps are built and siege works erected to destroy many lives. ¹⁸He despised the oath by breaking the covenant. Because he had given his hand in pledge and yet did all these things, he shall not escape.

¹⁹“ ‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: As surely as I live, I will repay him for despising my oath and breaking my covenant. ²⁰I will spread my net for him, and he will be caught in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon and execute judgment on him there because he was unfaithful to me. ²¹All his choice troops will fall by the sword, and the survivors will be scattered to the winds. Then you will know that I the LORD have spoken.

²²“ ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself will take a shoot from the very top of a cedar and plant it; I will break off a tender sprig from its topmost shoots and plant it on a high and lofty mountain. ²³On the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it; it will produce branches and bear fruit and become a splendid cedar. Birds of every kind will nest in it; they will find shelter in the shade of its branches. ²⁴All the trees of the forest will know that I the LORD bring down the tall tree and make the low tree grow tall. I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish.

“ ‘I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it.’ ”

Ezekiel 18

THE ONE WHO SINS WILL DIE

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“What do you people mean by quoting this proverb about the land of Israel:

“ ‘The parents eat sour grapes,
and the children’s teeth are set on edge’?”

³“As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, you will no longer quote this proverb in Israel. ⁴For everyone belongs to me, the parent as well as the child—both alike belong to me. The one who sins is the one who will die.

⁵“Suppose there is a righteous man who does what is just and right.

⁶He does not eat at the mountain shrines or look to the idols of Israel.
He does not defile his neighbor’s wife or have sexual relations with a woman during her period.

⁷He does not oppress anyone, but returns what he took in pledge for a loan.

He does not commit robbery
but gives his food to the hungry
and provides clothing for the naked.

⁸He does not lend to them at interest or take a profit from them.
He withholds his hand from doing wrong and judges fairly between two parties.

⁹He follows my decrees and faithfully keeps my laws.
That man is righteous;
he will surely live,

declares the Sovereign LORD.

¹⁰“Suppose he has a violent son, who sheds blood or does any of these other things^[26] ¹¹(though the father has done none of them):

“He eats at the mountain shrines.
He defiles his neighbor’s wife.

¹²He oppresses the poor and needy.
He commits robbery.
He does not return what he took in pledge.
He looks to the idols.
He does detestable things.

¹³He lends at interest and takes a profit.

Will such a man live? He will not! Because he has done all these detestable things, he is to be put to death; his blood will be on his own head.

¹⁴“But suppose this son has a son who sees all the sins his father commits, and though he sees them, he does not do such things:

¹⁵“He does not eat at the mountain shrines
or look to the idols of Israel.
He does not defile his neighbor’s wife.

¹⁶He does not oppress anyone or require a pledge for a loan.

He does not commit robbery
but gives his food to the hungry
and provides clothing for the naked.

¹⁷He withholds his hand from mistreating the poor and takes no interest or profit from them.
He keeps my laws and follows my decrees.

He will not die for his father's sin; he will surely live. ¹⁸But his father will die for his own sin, because he practiced extortion, robbed his brother and did what was wrong among his people.

¹⁹“Yet you ask, ‘Why does the son not share the guilt of his father?’ Since the son has done what is just and right and has been careful to keep all my decrees, he will surely live. ²⁰The one who sins is the one who will die. The child will not share the guilt of the parent, nor will the parent share the guilt of the child. The righteousness of the righteous will be credited to them, and the wickedness of the wicked will be charged against them.

²¹“But if a wicked person turns away from all the sins they have committed and keeps all my decrees and does what is just and right, that person will surely live; they will not die. ²²None of the offenses they have committed will be remembered against them. Because of the righteous things they have done, they will live. ²³Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked? declares the Sovereign LORD. Rather, am I not pleased when they turn from their ways and live?

²⁴“But if a righteous person turns from their righteousness and commits sin and does the same detestable things the wicked person does, will they live? None of the righteous things that person has done will be remembered. Because of the unfaithfulness they are guilty of and because of the sins they have committed, they will die.

²⁵“Yet you say, ‘The way of the Lord is not just.’ Hear, you Israelites: Is my way unjust? Is it not your ways that are unjust? ²⁶If a righteous person turns from their righteousness and commits sin, they will die for it; because of the sin they have committed they will die. ²⁷But if a wicked person turns away from the wickedness they have committed and does what is just and right, they will save their life. ²⁸Because they consider all the offenses they have committed and turn away from them, that person will surely live; they will not die. ²⁹Yet the Israelites say, ‘The way of the Lord is not just.’ Are my ways unjust, people of Israel? Is it not your ways that are unjust?

³⁰“Therefore, you Israelites, I will judge each of you according to your own ways, declares the Sovereign LORD. Repent! Turn away from all your offenses; then sin will not be your downfall. ³¹Rid yourselves of all the offenses you have committed, and get a new heart and a new spirit. Why will you die, people of Israel? ³²For I take no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Sovereign LORD. Repent and live!

Ezekiel 18:1–4

God is fair.

The crowds raged at God. They kept quoting an old saying that means “the fathers sin ... and the children pay for it” (see Ezekiel 18:2). When the Lord overheard their grumbling, he exploded. He swore people would no longer quote that saying. He said people die for their own sins, not the sins of others. God then goes on to explain what good living looks like. He declares that he gets no pleasure from watching wicked people die. And this sharp exchange proves that God treats people with extraordinary fairness. Ironically, God would one day come in the person of Jesus to suffer and die for sins he didn’t commit—all the sins of humankind. Talk about unfair.

So ... Does God seem fair—or more than fair?

Ezekiel 19

A LAMENT OVER ISRAEL'S PRINCES

¹“Take up a lament concerning the princes of Israel ²and say:

“ ‘What a lioness was your mother among the lions!

She lay down among them
and reared her cubs.

³She brought up one of her cubs,
and he became a strong lion.
He learned to tear the prey
and he became a man-eater.

⁴The nations heard about him,
and he was trapped in their pit.

They led him with hooks to the land of Egypt.

⁵“ ‘When she saw her hope unfulfilled, her expectation gone,
she took another of her cubs and made him a strong lion.

⁶He prowled among the lions,
for he was now a strong lion.
He learned to tear the prey
and he became a man-eater.

⁷He broke down^[27] their strongholds and devastated their towns.

The land and all who were in it were terrified by his roaring.

⁸Then the nations came against him, those from regions round about.
They spread their net for him,
and he was trapped in their pit.

⁹With hooks they pulled him into a cage and brought him to the king of Babylon.
They put him in prison,
so his roar was heard no longer
on the mountains of Israel.

¹⁰“ ‘Your mother was like a vine in your vineyard^[28] planted by the water;
it was fruitful and full of branches because of abundant water.

¹¹Its branches were strong,
fit for a ruler’s scepter.

It towered high above the thick foliage, conspicuous for its height and for its many branches.

¹²But it was uprooted in fury and thrown to the ground.
The east wind made it shrivel,
it was stripped of its fruit;

its strong branches withered and fire consumed them.

¹³Now it is planted in the desert,
in a dry and thirsty land.

¹⁴Fire spread from one of its main^[29] branches and consumed its fruit.

No strong branch is left on it fit for a ruler's scepter.'

“This is a lament and is to be used as a lament.”

Ezekiel 20

REBELLIOUS ISRAEL PURGED

¹In the seventh year, in the fifth month on the tenth day, some of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and they sat down in front of me.

²Then the word of the LORD came to me: ³“Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Have you come to inquire of me? As surely as I live, I will not let you inquire of me, declares the Sovereign LORD.’

⁴“Will you judge them? Will you judge them, son of man? Then confront them with the detestable practices of their ancestors ⁵and say to them: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On the day I chose Israel, I swore with uplifted hand to the descendants of Jacob and revealed myself to them in Egypt. With uplifted hand I said to them, “I am the LORD your God.” ⁶On that day I swore to them that I would bring them out of Egypt into a land I had searched out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands. ⁷And I said to them, “Each of you, get rid of the vile images you have set your eyes on, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.”

⁸“ ‘But they rebelled against me and would not listen to me; they did not get rid of the vile images they had set their eyes on, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and spend my anger against them in Egypt. ⁹But for the sake of my name, I brought them out of Egypt. I did it to keep my name from being profaned in the eyes of the nations among whom they lived and in whose sight I had revealed myself to the Israelites. ¹⁰Therefore I led them out of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness. ¹¹I gave them my decrees and made known to them my laws, by which the person who obeys them will live. ¹²Also I gave them my Sabbaths as a sign between us, so they would know that I the LORD made them holy.

¹³“ ‘Yet the people of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness. They did not follow my decrees but rejected my laws—by which the person who obeys them will live—and they utterly desecrated my Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and destroy them in the wilderness. ¹⁴But for the sake of my name I did what would keep it from being profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out. ¹⁵Also with uplifted hand I swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land I had given them—a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands—¹⁶because they rejected my laws and did not follow my decrees and desecrated my Sabbaths. For their hearts were devoted to their idols. ¹⁷Yet I looked on them with pity and did not destroy them or put an end to them in the wilderness. ¹⁸I said to their children in the wilderness, “Do not follow the statutes of your parents or keep their laws or defile yourselves with their idols. ¹⁹I am the LORD your God; follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws. ²⁰Keep my Sabbaths holy, that they may be a sign between us. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God.”

²¹“ ‘But the children rebelled against me: They did not follow my decrees, they were not careful to keep my laws, of which I said, “The person who obeys them will live by them,” and they desecrated my Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and spend my anger against them in the wilderness. ²²But I withheld my hand, and for the sake of my name I did what would keep it from being profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out. ²³Also with uplifted hand I swore to them in the wilderness that I would disperse them among the nations and scatter them through the countries, ²⁴because they had not obeyed my laws but had rejected my decrees and desecrated my Sabbaths, and their eyes lusted after their parents’ idols. ²⁵So I gave them other statutes that were not good and laws through which they could not live; ²⁶I defiled them through their gifts—the sacrifice of every firstborn—that I might fill them with horror so they would know that I am the LORD.’

²⁷“Therefore, son of man, speak to the people of Israel and say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: In this also your ancestors blasphemed me by being unfaithful to me: ²⁸When I brought them into the land I had sworn to give them and they saw any high hill or any leafy tree, there they offered their sacrifices, made offerings that aroused my anger, presented their fragrant incense and poured out their drink offerings. ²⁹Then I said to them: What is this high place you go to?’ ” (It is called Bamah^[30] to this day.) Rebellious Israel Renewed ³⁰“Therefore say to the Israelites: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Will you defile yourselves the way your ancestors did and lust after their vile images? ³¹When you offer your gifts—the sacrifice of your children in the fire—you continue to defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. Am I to let you inquire of me, you Israelites? As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will not let you inquire of me.

³²“ ‘You say, “We want to be like the nations, like the peoples of the world, who serve wood and stone.” But what you have in mind will never happen. ³³As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will reign over you with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with outpoured wrath. ³⁴I will bring you from the nations and gather you from the countries where you have been scattered—with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with outpoured wrath. ³⁵I will bring you into the wilderness of the nations and there, face to face, I will execute judgment upon you. ³⁶As I judged your ancestors in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will judge you, declares the Sovereign LORD. ³⁷I will take note of you as you pass under my rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant. ³⁸I will purge you of those who revolt and rebel against me. Although I will bring them out of the land where they are living, yet they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

³⁹“ ‘As for you, people of Israel, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Go and serve your idols, every one of you! But afterward you will surely listen to me and no longer profane my holy name with your gifts and idols. ⁴⁰For on my holy mountain, the high mountain of Israel, declares the Sovereign LORD, there in the land all the people of Israel will serve me, and there I will accept them. There I will require your offerings and your choice gifts,^[31] along with all your holy sacrifices. ⁴¹I will accept you as fragrant incense when I bring you out from the nations and gather you from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will be proved holy through you in the sight of the nations. ⁴²Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I bring you into the land of Israel, the land I had sworn with uplifted hand to give to your ancestors. ⁴³There you will remember your conduct and all the actions by which you have defiled yourselves, and you will loathe yourselves for all the evil you have done. ⁴⁴You will know that I am the LORD, when I deal with you for my name’s sake and not according to your evil ways and your corrupt practices, you people of Israel, declares the Sovereign LORD.’ ”

PROPHECY AGAINST THE SOUTH

⁴⁵The word of the LORD came to me: ⁴⁶“Son of man, set your face toward the south; preach against the south and prophesy against the forest of the southland. ⁴⁷Say to the southern forest: ‘Hear the word of the LORD. This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am about to set fire to you, and it will consume all your trees, both green and dry. The blazing flame will not be quenched, and every face from south to north will be scorched by it. ⁴⁸Everyone will see that I the LORD have kindled it; it will not be quenched.’ ”

⁴⁹Then I said, “Sovereign LORD, they are saying of me, ‘Isn’t he just telling parables?’ ”^[32]

Ezekiel 21^[33]

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, set your face against Jerusalem and preach against the sanctuary. Prophecy against the land of Israel ³and say to her: ‘This is what the LORD says: I am against you. I will draw my sword from its sheath and cut off from you both the righteous and the wicked. ⁴Because I am going to cut off the righteous and the wicked, my sword will be unsheathed against everyone from south to north. ⁵Then all people will know that I the LORD have drawn my sword from its sheath; it will not return again.’

⁶“Therefore groan, son of man! Groan before them with broken heart and bitter grief. ⁷And when they ask you, ‘Why are you groaning?’ you shall say, ‘Because of the news that is coming. Every heart will melt with fear and every hand go limp; every spirit will become faint and every leg will be wet with urine.’ It is coming! It will surely take place, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

⁸The word of the LORD came to me: ⁹“Son of man, prophesy and say, ‘This is what the Lord says:

“ ‘A sword, a sword,
sharpened and polished—¹⁰sharpened for the slaughter, polished to flash like lightning!

“ ‘Shall we rejoice in the scepter of my royal son? The sword despises every such stick.

¹¹“ ‘The sword is appointed to be polished, to be grasped with the hand;
it is sharpened and polished,
made ready for the hand of the slayer.

¹²Cry out and wail, son of man, for it is against my people;
it is against all the princes of Israel.
They are thrown to the sword along with my people.
Therefore beat your breast.

¹³“ ‘Testing will surely come. And what if even the scepter, which the sword despises, does not continue? declares the Sovereign LORD.’

- ¹⁴“So then, son of man, prophesy and strike your hands together.
Let the sword strike twice,
even three times.
It is a sword for slaughter—
a sword for great slaughter, closing in on them from every side.
- ¹⁵So that hearts may melt with fear and the fallen be many,
I have stationed the sword for slaughter^[34]
at all their gates.
Look! It is forged to strike like lightning, it is grasped for slaughter.
- ¹⁶Slash to the right, you sword,
then to the left,
wherever your blade is turned.
- ¹⁷I too will strike my hands together,
and my wrath will subside.
I the LORD have spoken.”

¹⁸The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁹“Son of man, mark out two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to take, both starting from the same country. Make a signpost where the road branches off to the city. ²⁰Mark out one road for the sword to come against Rabbah of the Ammonites and another against Judah and fortified Jerusalem. ²¹For the king of Babylon will stop at the fork in the road, at the junction of the two roads, to seek an omen: He will cast lots with arrows, he will consult his idols, he will examine the liver. ²²Into his right hand will come the lot for Jerusalem, where he is to set up battering rams, to give the command to slaughter, to sound the battle cry, to set battering rams against the gates, to build a ramp and to erect siege works. ²³It will seem like a false omen to those who have sworn allegiance to him, but he will remind them of their guilt and take them captive.

²⁴“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: ‘Because you people have brought to mind your guilt by your open rebellion, revealing your sins in all that you do—because you have done this, you will be taken captive.

²⁵“ ‘You profane and wicked prince of Israel, whose day has come, whose time of punishment has reached its climax, ²⁶this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Take off the turban, remove the crown. It will not be as it was: The lowly will be exalted and the exalted will be brought low. ²⁷A ruin! A ruin! I will make it a ruin! The crown will not be restored until he to whom it rightfully belongs shall come; to him I will give it.'

²⁸“And you, son of man, prophesy and say, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says about the Ammonites and their insults:

“ ‘A sword, a sword,
drawn for the slaughter,

polished to consume
and to flash like lightning!

²⁹Despite false visions concerning you and lying divinations about you, it will be laid on the necks of the wicked who are to be slain, whose day has come,
whose time of punishment has reached its climax.

³⁰“ Let the sword return to its sheath.
In the place where you were created,
in the land of your ancestry,
I will judge you.

³¹I will pour out my wrath on you and breathe out my fiery anger against you;
I will deliver you into the hands of brutal men,
men skilled in destruction.

³²You will be fuel for the fire,
your blood will be shed in your land, you will be remembered no more;
for I the LORD have spoken.’ ”

Ezekiel 22

JUDGMENT ON JERUSALEM'S SINS

¹The word of the LORD came to me:

²“Son of man, will you judge her? Will you judge this city of bloodshed? Then confront her with all her detestable practices ³and say: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: You city that brings on herself doom by shedding blood in her midst and defiles herself by making idols, ⁴you have become guilty because of the blood you have shed and have become defiled by the idols you have made. You have brought your days to a close, and the end of your years has come. Therefore I will make you an object of scorn to the nations and a laughingstock to all the countries. ⁵Those who are near and those who are far away will mock you, you infamous city, full of turmoil.

⁶“ ‘See how each of the princes of Israel who are in you uses his power to shed blood. ⁷In you they have treated father and mother with contempt; in you they have oppressed the foreigner and mistreated the fatherless and the widow. ⁸You have despised my holy things and desecrated my Sabbaths. ⁹In you are slanderers who are bent on shedding blood; in you are those who eat at the mountain shrines and commit lewd acts. ¹⁰In you are those who dishonor their father’s bed; in you are those who violate women during their period, when they are ceremonially unclean. ¹¹In you one man commits a detestable offense with his neighbor’s wife, another shamefully defiles his daughter-in-law, and another violates his sister, his own father’s daughter. ¹²In you are people who accept bribes to shed blood; you take interest and make a profit from the poor. You extort unjust gain from your neighbors. And you have forgotten me, declares the Sovereign LORD.

¹³“ ‘I will surely strike my hands together at the unjust gain you have made and at the blood you have shed in your midst. ¹⁴Will your courage endure or your hands be strong in the day I deal with you? I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it. ¹⁵I will disperse you among the nations and scatter you through the countries; and I will put an end to your uncleanness. ¹⁶When you have been defiled^[35] in the eyes of the nations, you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

¹⁷Then the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁸“Son of man, the people of Israel have become dross to me; all of them are the copper, tin, iron and lead left inside a furnace. They are but the dross of silver. ¹⁹Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: ‘Because you have all become dross, I will gather you into Jerusalem. ²⁰As silver, copper, iron, lead and tin are gathered into a furnace to be melted with a fiery blast, so will I gather you in my anger and my wrath and put you inside the city and melt you. ²¹I will gather you and I will blow on you with my fiery wrath, and you will be melted inside her. ²²As silver is melted in a furnace, so you will be melted inside her, and you will know that I the LORD have poured out my wrath on you.’ ”

²³Again the word of the LORD came to me: ²⁴“Son of man, say to the land, ‘You are a land that has not been cleansed or rained on in the day of wrath.’ ²⁵There is a conspiracy of her princes^[36] within her like a roaring lion tearing its prey; they devour people, take treasures and precious things and make many widows within her. ²⁶Her priests do violence to my law and profane my holy things; they do not distinguish between the holy and the common; they teach that there is no difference between the unclean and the clean; and they shut their eyes to the keeping of my Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them. ²⁷Her officials within her are like wolves tearing their prey; they shed blood and kill people to make unjust gain. ²⁸Her prophets whitewash these deeds for them by false visions and lying divinations. They say, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says’—when the LORD has not spoken. ²⁹The people of the land practice extortion and commit robbery; they oppress the poor and needy and mistreat the foreigner, denying them justice.

³⁰“I looked for someone among them who would build up the wall and stand before me in the gap on behalf of the land so I would not have to destroy it, but I found no one. ³¹So I will pour out my wrath on them and consume them with my fiery anger, bringing down on their own heads all they have done, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Stand in the gap.

Cody knew that most people pray—but they don’t really pray. Their prayers are like tossing a wish into the air, hoping God will hear their requests and maybe help out. “Real prayer,” he told his Bible study group, “expects God to keep his promises—like Acts 1:8, which says the Holy Spirit will give us power to tell people about Jesus.” Cody saw astonishing pain among his non-Christian friends, but he and his Christian friends were doing nothing about that hurt. “I think we need to start praying for our friends,” he added. “We can pray that they would want to know God. And we can pray to know how to explain Christ to them.”

The prophet Ezekiel saw rampant and violent sin all around him. Worse yet, false prophets said those behaviors were okay. God was searching for someone to stand up for right among his people, like a soldier guarding a gap in a broken city wall (see Ezekiel 22:30). You stand in the gap when you act and talk right—and when you pray for mercy for the people around you.

TWO ADULTEROUS SISTERS

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother. ³They became prostitutes in Egypt, engaging in prostitution from their youth. In that land their breasts were fondled and their virgin bosoms caressed. ⁴The older was named Oholah, and her sister was Oholibah. They were mine and gave birth to sons and daughters. Oholah is Samaria, and Oholibah is Jerusalem.

¹⁴“But she carried her prostitution still further. She saw men portrayed on a wall, figures of Chaldeans^[37] portrayed in red, ¹⁵with belts around their waists and flowing turbans on their heads; all of them looked like Babylonian chariot officers, natives of Chaldea.^[38] ¹⁶As soon as she saw them, she lusted after them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea. ¹⁷Then the Babylonians came to her, to the bed of love, and in their lust they defiled her. After she had been defiled by them, she turned away from them in disgust. ¹⁸When she carried on her prostitution openly and exposed her naked body, I turned away from her in disgust, just as I had turned away from her sister. ¹⁹Yet she became more and more promiscuous as she recalled the days of her youth, when she was a prostitute in Egypt. ²⁰There she lusted after her lovers, whose genitals were like those of donkeys and whose emission was like that of horses. ²¹So you longed for the lewdness of your youth, when in Egypt your bosom was caressed and your young breasts fondled.^[39]

²²“Therefore, Oholibah, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will stir up your lovers against you, those you turned away from in disgust, and I will bring them against you from every side— ²³the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, the men of Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, handsome young men, all of them governors and commanders, chariot officers and men of high rank, all mounted on horses. ²⁴They will come against you with weapons,^[40] chariots and wagons and with a throng of people; they will take up positions against you on every side with large and small shields and with helmets. I will turn you over to them for punishment, and they will punish you according to their standards. ²⁵I will direct my jealous anger against you, and they will deal with you in fury. They will cut off your noses and your ears, and those of you who are left will fall by the sword. They will take away your sons and daughters, and those of you who are left will be consumed by fire. ²⁶They will also strip you of your clothes and take your fine jewelry. ²⁷So I will put a stop to the lewdness and prostitution you began in Egypt. You will not look on these things with longing or remember Egypt anymore.

²⁸“For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am about to deliver you into the hands of those you hate, to those you turned away from in disgust. ²⁹They will deal with you in hatred and take away everything you have worked for. They will leave you stark naked, and the shame of your prostitution will be exposed. Your lewdness and promiscuity ³⁰have brought this on you, because you lusted after the nations and defiled yourself with their idols. ³¹You have gone the way of your sister; so I will put her cup into your hand.

³²“This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“You will drink your sister’s cup,
a cup large and deep;
it will bring scorn and derision,
for it holds so much.

³³You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow,
the cup of ruin and desolation,
the cup of your sister Samaria.

³⁴You will drink it and drain it dry and chew on its pieces—and you will tear your breasts.

I have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD.

³⁵“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Since you have forgotten me and turned your back on me, you must bear the consequences of your lewdness and prostitution.”

³⁶The LORD said to me: “Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then confront them with their detestable practices, ³⁷for they have committed adultery and blood is on their hands. They committed adultery with their idols; they even sacrificed their children, whom they bore to me, as food for them. ³⁸They have also done this to me: At that same time they defiled my sanctuary and desecrated my Sabbaths. ³⁹On the very day they sacrificed their children to their idols, they entered my sanctuary and desecrated it. That is what they did in my house.

⁴⁰“They even sent messengers for men who came from far away, and when they arrived you bathed yourself for them, applied eye makeup and put on your jewelry. ⁴¹You sat on an elegant couch, with a table spread before it on which you had placed the incense and olive oil that belonged to me.

⁴⁸“So I will put an end to lewdness in the land, that all women may take warning and not imitate you. ⁴⁹You will suffer the penalty for your lewdness and bear the consequences of your sins of idolatry. Then you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 24

JERUSALEM AS A COOKING POT

¹In the ninth year, in the tenth month on the tenth day, the word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, record this date, this very date, because the king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day. ³Tell this rebellious people a parable and say to them: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘Put on the cooking pot; put it on and pour water into it.

⁴Put into it the pieces of meat,
all the choice pieces—the leg and the shoulder.
Fill it with the best of these bones;
⁵take the pick of the flock.
Pile wood beneath it for the bones;

bring it to a boil
and cook the bones in it.

⁶“ ‘For this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘Woe to the city of bloodshed,
to the pot now encrusted,
whose deposit will not go away!
Take the meat out piece by piece in whatever order it comes.

⁷“ ‘For the blood she shed is in her midst:
She poured it on the bare rock;
she did not pour it on the ground,
where the dust would cover it.

⁸To stir up wrath and take revenge
I put her blood on the bare rock, so that it would not be covered.

⁹“ ‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘Woe to the city of bloodshed!
I, too, will pile the wood high.

¹⁰So heap on the wood and kindle the fire.
Cook the meat well,
mixing in the spices;
and let the bones be charred.

¹¹Then set the empty pot on the coals till it becomes hot and its copper glows, so that its impurities may be melted and its deposit burned away.

¹²It has frustrated all efforts;
its heavy deposit has not been removed,
not even by fire.

¹³“ ‘Now your impurity is lewdness. Because I tried to cleanse you but you would not be cleansed from your impurity, you will not be clean again until my wrath against you has subsided.

¹⁴“ ‘I the LORD have spoken. The time has come for me to act. I will not hold back; I will not have pity, nor will I relent. You will be judged according to your conduct and your actions, declares the Sovereign LORD.’ ”

EZEKIEL’S WIFE DIES

¹⁵The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁶“Son of man, with one blow I am about to take away from you the delight of your eyes. Yet do not lament or weep or shed any tears. ¹⁷Groan quietly; do not mourn for the dead. Keep your turban fastened and your sandals on your feet; do not cover your mustache and beard or eat the customary food of mourners.”

¹⁸So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. The next morning I did as I had been commanded.

¹⁹Then the people asked me, “Won’t you tell us what these things have to do with us? Why are you acting like this?”

²⁰So I said to them, “The word of the LORD came to me: ²¹Say to the people of Israel, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am about to desecrate my sanctuary—the stronghold in which you take pride, the delight of your eyes, the object of your affection. The sons and daughters you left behind will fall by the sword. ²²And you will do as I have done. You will not cover your mustache and beard or eat the customary food of mourners. ²³You will keep your turbans on your heads and your sandals on your feet. You will not mourn or weep but will waste away because of^[41] your sins and groan among yourselves. ²⁴Ezekiel will be a sign to you; you will do just as he has done. When this happens, you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.’

²⁵“And you, son of man, on the day I take away their stronghold, their joy and glory, the delight of their eyes, their heart’s desire, and their sons and daughters as well— ²⁶on that day a fugitive will come to tell you the news. ²⁷At that time your mouth will be opened; you will speak with him and will no longer be silent. So you will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 25

A PROPHECY AGAINST AMMON

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, set your face against the Ammonites and prophesy against them. ³Say to them, ‘Hear the word of the Sovereign LORD. This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you said “Aha!” over my sanctuary when it was desecrated and over the land of Israel when it was laid waste and over the people of Judah when they went into exile, ⁴therefore I am going to give you to the people of the East as a possession. They will set up their camps and pitch their tents among you; they will eat your fruit and drink your milk. ⁵I will turn Rabbah into a pasture for camels and Ammon into a resting place for sheep. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ⁶For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you have clapped your hands and stamped your feet, rejoicing with all the malice of your heart against the land of Israel, ⁷therefore I will stretch out my hand against you and give you as plunder to the nations. I will wipe you out from among the nations and exterminate you from the countries. I will destroy you, and you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

A PROPHECY AGAINST MOAB

⁸“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: ‘Because Moab and Seir said, “Look, Judah has become like all the other nations,” ⁹therefore I will expose the flank of Moab, beginning at its frontier towns—Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon and Kiriathaim—the glory of that land. ¹⁰I will give Moab along with the Ammonites to the people of the East as a possession, so that the Ammonites will not be remembered among the nations; ¹¹and I will inflict punishment on Moab. Then they will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

A PROPHECY AGAINST EDMON

¹²“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: ‘Because Edom took revenge on Judah and became very guilty by doing so, ¹³therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will stretch out my hand against Edom and kill both man and beast. I will lay it waste, and from Teman to Dedan they will fall by the sword. ¹⁴I will take vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel, and they will deal with Edom in accordance with my anger and my wrath; they will know my vengeance, declares the Sovereign LORD.’ ”

A PROPHECY AGAINST PHILISTIA

¹⁵“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: ‘Because the Philistines acted in vengeance and took revenge with malice in their hearts, and with ancient hostility sought to destroy Judah, ¹⁶therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am about to stretch out my hand against the Philistines, and I will wipe out the Kerethites and destroy those remaining along the coast. ¹⁷I will carry out great vengeance on them and punish them in my wrath. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I take vengeance on them.’ ”

Ezekiel 26

A PROPHECY AGAINST TYRE

¹In the eleventh month of the twelfth^[42] year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, because Tyre has said of Jerusalem, ‘Aha! The gate to the nations is broken, and its doors have swung open to me; now that she lies in ruins I will prosper,’ ³therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, Tyre, and I will bring many nations against you, like the sea casting up its waves. ⁴They will destroy the walls of Tyre and pull down her towers; I will scrape away her rubble and make her a bare rock. ⁵Out in the sea she will become a place to spread fishnets, for I have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD. She will become plunder for the nations, ⁶and her settlements on the mainland will be ravaged by the sword. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

⁷“For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: From the north I am going to bring against Tyre Nebuchadnezzar^[43] king of Babylon, king of kings, with horses and chariots, with horsemen and a great army. ⁸He will ravage your settlements on the mainland with the sword; he will set up siege works against you, build a ramp up to your walls and raise his shields against you. ⁹He will direct the blows of his battering rams against your walls and demolish your towers with his weapons. ¹⁰His horses will be so many that they will cover you with dust. Your walls will tremble at the noise of the warhorses, wagons and chariots when he enters your gates as men enter a city whose walls have been broken through. ¹¹The hooves of his horses will trample all your streets; he will kill your people with the sword, and your strong pillars will fall to the ground. ¹²They will plunder your wealth and loot your merchandise; they will break down your walls and demolish your fine houses and throw your stones, timber and rubble into the sea. ¹³I will put an end to your noisy songs, and the music of your harps will be heard no more. ¹⁴I will make you a bare rock, and you will become a place to spread fishnets. You will never be rebuilt, for I the LORD have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD.

¹⁵“This is what the Sovereign LORD says to Tyre: Will not the coastlands tremble at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan and the slaughter takes place in you? ¹⁶Then all the princes of the coast will step down from their thrones and lay aside their robes and take off their embroidered garments. Clothed with terror, they will sit on the ground, trembling every moment, appalled at you. ¹⁷Then they will take up a lament concerning you and say to you:

“ ‘How you are destroyed, city of renown, peopled by men of the sea!
You were a power on the seas,
you and your citizens;

you put your terror
on all who lived there.
¹⁸Now the coastlands tremble on the day of your fall;

the islands in the sea
are terrified at your collapse.’

¹⁹“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: When I make you a desolate city, like cities no longer inhabited, and when I bring the ocean depths over you and its vast waters cover you, ²⁰then I will bring you down with those who go down to the pit, to the people of long ago. I will make you dwell in the earth below, as in ancient ruins, with those who go down to the pit, and you will not return or take your place^[44] in the land of the living. ²¹I will bring you to a horrible end and you will be no more. You will be sought, but you will never again be found, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 27

A LAMENT OVER TYRE

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, take up a lament concerning Tyre. ³Say to Tyre, situated at the gateway to the sea, merchant of peoples on many coasts, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘You say, Tyre,
“I am perfect in beauty.”

⁴Your domain was on the high seas;
your builders brought your beauty to perfection.

⁵They made all your timbers of juniper from Senir^[45];
they took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

⁶Of oaks from Bashan
they made your oars;
of cypress wood^[46] from the coasts of Cyprus they made your deck, adorned with ivory.

⁷Fine embroidered linen from Egypt was your sail and served as your banner;
your awnings were of blue and purple
from the coasts of Elishah.

⁸Men of Sidon and Arvad were your oarsmen;
your skilled men, Tyre, were aboard as your sailors.

⁹Veteran craftsmen of Byblos were on board as shipwrights to caulk your seams.
All the ships of the sea and their sailors came alongside to trade for your wares.

¹⁰“ ‘Men of Persia, Lydia and Put served as soldiers in your army.
They hung their shields and helmets on your walls, bringing you splendor.

¹¹Men of Arvad and Helek guarded your walls on every side;

men of Gammad
were in your towers.
They hung their shields around your walls;
they brought your beauty to perfection.

12“ ‘Tarshish did business with you because of your great wealth of goods; they exchanged silver, iron, tin and lead for your merchandise.

13“ ‘Greece, Tubal and Meshek did business with you; they traded human beings and articles of bronze for your wares.

14“ ‘Men of Beth Togarmah exchanged chariot horses, cavalry horses and mules for your merchandise.

15“ ‘The men of Rhodes^[47] traded with you, and many coastlands were your customers; they paid you with ivory tusks and ebony.

16“ ‘Aram^[48] did business with you because of your many products; they exchanged turquoise, purple fabric, embroidered work, fine linen, coral and rubies for your merchandise.

17“ ‘Judah and Israel traded with you; they exchanged wheat from Minnith and confections,^[49] honey, olive oil and balm for your wares.

18“ ‘Damascus did business with you because of your many products and great wealth of goods. They offered wine from Helbon, wool from Zahar¹⁹ and casks of wine from Izal in exchange for your wares: wrought iron, cassia and calamus.

20“ ‘Dedan traded in saddle blankets with you.

21“ ‘Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your customers; they did business with you in lambs, rams and goats.

22“ ‘The merchants of Sheba and Raamah traded with you; for your merchandise they exchanged the finest of all kinds of spices and precious stones, and gold.

23“ ‘Harran, Kanneh and Eden and merchants of Sheba, Ashur and Kilmad traded with you. ²⁴In your marketplace they traded with you beautiful garments, blue fabric, embroidered work and multicolored rugs with cords twisted and tightly knotted.

25“ ‘The ships of Tarshish serve as carriers for your wares.

You are filled with heavy cargo as you sail the sea.

²⁶Your oarsmen take you out to the high seas.

But the east wind will break you to pieces far out at sea.

²⁷Your wealth, merchandise and wares, your mariners, sailors and shipwrights,
your merchants and all your soldiers, and everyone else on board will sink into the heart of the sea on the day of your shipwreck.

²⁸The shorelands will quake
when your sailors cry out.

²⁹All who handle the oars will abandon their ships;
the mariners and all the sailors will stand on the shore.

³⁰They will raise their voice and cry bitterly over you;
they will sprinkle dust on their heads
and roll in ashes.

³¹They will shave their heads because of you and will put on sackcloth.
They will weep over you with anguish of soul and with bitter mourning.

³²As they wail and mourn over you,
they will take up a lament concerning you:
“Who was ever silenced like Tyre, surrounded by the sea?”

³³When your merchandise went out on the seas, you satisfied many nations;
with your great wealth and your wares
you enriched the kings of the earth.

³⁴Now you are shattered by the sea in the depths of the waters;
your wares and all your company have gone down with you.

³⁵All who live in the coastlands are appalled at you;

their kings shudder with horror and their faces are distorted with fear.

³⁶The merchants among the nations scoff at you;
you have come to a horrible end
and will be no more.' ”

Ezekiel 28

A PROPHECY AGAINST THE KING OF TYRE

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre,
‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘In the pride of your heart
you say, “I am a god;
I sit on the throne of a god
in the heart of the seas.”

But you are a mere mortal and not a god, though you think you are as wise as a god.

³Are you wiser than Daniel^[50]?

Is no secret hidden from you?

⁴By your wisdom and understanding you have gained wealth for yourself and amassed gold and silver in your treasuries.

⁵By your great skill in trading you have increased your wealth, and because of your wealth your heart has grown proud.

⁶“ ‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘Because you think you are wise,
as wise as a god,

⁷I am going to bring foreigners against you,
the most ruthless of nations;
they will draw their swords against your beauty and wisdom
and pierce your shining splendor.

⁸They will bring you down to the pit, and you will die a violent death
in the heart of the seas.

⁹Will you then say, “I am a god,” in the presence of those who kill you?
You will be but a mortal, not a god,
in the hands of those who slay you.

¹⁰You will die the death of the uncircumcised at the hands of foreigners.

I have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD.’ ”

¹¹The word of the LORD came to me: ¹²“Son of man, take up a lament concerning the king of Tyre and say to him: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘You were the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

¹³You were in Eden,
the garden of God;
every precious stone adorned you:
carnelian, chrysolite and emerald,
topaz, onyx and jasper,
lapis lazuli, turquoise and beryl.^[51]

Your settings and mountings^[52] were made of gold; on the day you were created they were prepared.

¹⁴You were anointed as a guardian cherub, for so I ordained you.
You were on the holy mount of God;
you walked among the fiery stones.

¹⁵You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created till wickedness was found in you.

¹⁶Through your widespread trade you were filled with violence, and you sinned.

So I drove you in disgrace from the mount of God,
and I expelled you, guardian cherub,
from among the fiery stones.

¹⁷Your heart became proud on account of your beauty, and you corrupted your wisdom because of your splendor.

So I threw you to the earth;

I made a spectacle of you before kings.

¹⁸By your many sins and dishonest trade
you have desecrated your sanctuaries.

So I made a fire come out from you,
and it consumed you,

and I reduced you to ashes on the ground in the sight of all who were watching.

¹⁹All the nations who knew you are appalled at you;

you have come to a horrible end
and will be no more.' ”

A PROPHECY AGAINST SIDON

²⁰The word of the LORD came to me: ²¹“Son of man, set your face against Sidon; prophesy against her ²²and say: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘I am against you, Sidon, and among you I will display my glory.
You will know that I am the LORD,
when I inflict punishment on you and within you am proved to be holy.

²³I will send a plague upon you and make blood flow in your streets.
The slain will fall within you,
with the sword against you on every side.
Then you will know that I am the LORD.

²⁴“ ‘No longer will the people of Israel have malicious neighbors who are painful briars and sharp thorns. Then they will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.

²⁵“ ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: When I gather the people of Israel from the nations where they have been scattered, I will be proved holy through them in the sight of the nations. Then they will live in their own land, which I gave to my servant Jacob. ²⁶They will live there in safety and will build houses and plant vineyards; they will live in safety when I inflict punishment on all their neighbors who maligned them. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God.’ ”

UNSHAKEN people — Ezekiel

Ezekiel 29

A PROPHECY AGAINST EGYPT

Judgment on Pharaoh

¹In the tenth year, in the tenth month on the twelfth day, the word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt and prophesy against him and against all Egypt. ³Speak to him and say: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt,
you great monster lying among your streams.
You say, “The Nile belongs to me;
I made it for myself.”

⁴But I will put hooks in your jaws and make the fish of your streams stick to your scales.
I will pull you out from among your streams,
with all the fish sticking to your scales.

⁵I will leave you in the desert,
you and all the fish of your streams.
You will fall on the open field and not be gathered or picked up.
I will give you as food to the beasts of the earth and the birds of the sky.

⁶Then all who live in Egypt will know that I am the LORD.

“ ‘You have been a staff of reed for the people of Israel. ⁷When they grasped you with their hands, you splintered and you tore open their shoulders; when they leaned on you, you broke and their backs were wrenched. ^[53]

⁸“ ‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will bring a sword against you and kill both man and beast. ⁹Egypt will become a desolate wasteland. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

“ ‘Because you said, “The Nile is mine; I made it,” ¹⁰therefore I am against you and against your streams, and I will make the land of Egypt a ruin and a desolate waste from Migdol to Aswan, as far as the border of Cush. ^[54] ¹¹The foot of neither man nor beast will pass through it; no one will live there for forty years. ¹²I will make the land of Egypt desolate among devastated lands, and her cities will lie desolate forty years among ruined cities. And I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them through the countries.

¹³“ ‘Yet this is what the Sovereign LORD says: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations where they were scattered. ¹⁴I will bring them back from captivity and return them to Upper Egypt, the land of their ancestry. There they will be a lowly kingdom. ¹⁵It will be the lowliest of kingdoms and will never again exalt itself above the other nations. I will make it so weak that it will never again rule over the nations. ¹⁶Egypt will no longer be a source of confidence for the people of Israel but will be a reminder of their sin in turning to her for help. Then they will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.’ ”

Nebuchadnezzar's Reward

¹⁷In the twenty-seventh year, in the first month on the first day, the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁸“Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon drove his army in a hard campaign against Tyre; every head was rubbed bare and every shoulder made raw. Yet he and his army got no reward from the campaign he led against Tyre. ¹⁹Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am going to give Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will carry off its wealth. He will loot and plunder the land as pay for his army. ²⁰I have given him Egypt as a reward for his efforts because he and his army did it for me, declares the Sovereign LORD.

²¹“On that day I will make a horn^[55] grow for the Israelites, and I will open your mouth among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 30

A Lament Over Egypt

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, prophesy and say: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘Wail and say,
“Alas for that day!”

³For the day is near,
the day of the LORD is near—
a day of clouds,
a time of doom for the nations.

⁴A sword will come against Egypt, and anguish will come upon Cush. ^[56]
When the slain fall in Egypt, her wealth will be carried away and her foundations torn down.

⁵Cush and Libya, Lydia and all Arabia, Kub and the people of the covenant land will fall by the sword along with Egypt.

⁶“ ‘This is what the LORD says:

“ ‘The allies of Egypt will fall and her proud strength will fail.

From Migdol to Aswan
they will fall by the sword within her,
declares the Sovereign LORD.

⁷“ They will be desolate
among desolate lands, and their cities will lie among ruined cities.

⁸Then they will know that I am the LORD,
when I set fire to Egypt and all her helpers are crushed.

⁹“ ‘On that day messengers will go out from me in ships to frighten Cush out of her complacency. Anguish will take hold of them on the day of Egypt’s doom, for it is sure to come.

¹⁰“ ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘I will put an end to the hordes of Egypt
by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

¹¹He and his army—the most ruthless of nations—will be brought in to destroy the land.
They will draw their swords against Egypt and fill the land with the slain.

¹²I will dry up the waters of the Nile and sell the land to an evil nation;

by the hand of foreigners
I will lay waste the land and everything in it.

I the LORD have spoken.

¹³“ This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ I will destroy the idols and put an end to the images in Memphis.
No longer will there be a prince in Egypt,
and I will spread fear throughout the land.

¹⁴I will lay waste Upper Egypt, set fire to Zoan

and inflict punishment on Thebes.
¹⁵I will pour out my wrath on Pelusium,
the stronghold of Egypt,
and wipe out the hordes of Thebes.
¹⁶I will set fire to Egypt;
Pelusium will writhe in agony.
Thebes will be taken by storm;
Memphis will be in constant distress.
¹⁷The young men of Heliopolis and Bubastis will fall by the sword,
and the cities themselves will go into captivity.
¹⁸Dark will be the day at Tahpanhes when I break the yoke of Egypt;
there her proud strength will come to an end.
She will be covered with clouds,
and her villages will go into captivity.
¹⁹So I will inflict punishment on Egypt, and they will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

Pharaoh's Arms Are Broken

²⁰In the eleventh year, in the first month on the seventh day, the word of the LORD came to me: ²¹“Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. It has not been bound up to be healed or put in a splint so that it may become strong enough to hold a sword. ²²Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt. I will break both his arms, the good arm as well as the broken one, and make the sword fall from his hand. ²³I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them through the countries. ²⁴I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put my sword in his hand, but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before him like a mortally wounded man. ²⁵I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh will fall limp. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he brandishes it against Egypt. ²⁶I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them through the countries. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 31

Pharaoh as a Felled Cedar of Lebanon

¹In the eleventh year, in the third month on the first day, the word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his hordes:

“ ‘Who can be compared with you in majesty?

³Consider Assyria, once a cedar in Lebanon, with beautiful branches overshadowing the forest;
it towered on high,
its top above the thick foliage.

⁴The waters nourished it, deep springs made it grow tall;

their streams flowed

all around its base

and sent their channels to all the trees of the field.

⁵So it towered higher than all the trees of the field;

its boughs increased and its branches grew long, spreading because of abundant waters.

⁶All the birds of the sky
nested in its boughs,
all the animals of the wild gave birth under its branches;

all the great nations lived in its shade.

⁷It was majestic in beauty,
with its spreading boughs,

for its roots went down to abundant waters.

⁸The cedars in the garden of God could not rival it,

nor could the junipers equal its boughs,

nor could the plane trees compare with its branches—no tree in the garden of God could match its beauty.

⁹I made it beautiful with abundant branches, the envy of all the trees of Eden
in the garden of God.

¹⁰“ ‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because the great cedar towered over the thick foliage, and because it was proud of its height, ¹¹I gave it into the hands of the ruler of the nations, for him to deal with according to its wickedness. I cast it aside, ¹²and the most ruthless of foreign nations cut it down and left it. Its boughs fell on the mountains and in all the valleys; its branches lay broken in all the ravines of the land. All the nations of the earth came out from under its shade and left it. ¹³All the birds settled on the fallen tree, and all the wild animals lived among its branches. ¹⁴Therefore no other trees by the waters are ever to tower proudly on high, lifting their tops above the thick foliage. No other trees so well-watered are ever to reach such a height; they are all destined for death, for the earth below, among mortals who go down to the realm of the dead.

¹⁸“ ‘Which of the trees of Eden can be compared with you in splendor and majesty? Yet you, too, will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the earth below; you will lie among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword.

“ ‘This is Pharaoh and all his hordes, declares the Sovereign LORD.’ ”

Ezekiel 32

A Lament Over Pharaoh

¹In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month on the first day, the word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, take up a lament concerning Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him:

“ ‘You are like a lion among the nations;
you are like a monster in the seas thrashing about in your streams, churning the water with your feet and muddying the streams.

³“ ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘With a great throng of people
I will cast my net over you,
and they will haul you up in my net.

⁴I will throw you on the land and hurl you on the open field.
I will let all the birds of the sky settle on you and all the animals of the wild gorge themselves on
you.

⁵I will spread your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys with your remains.

⁶I will drench the land with your flowing blood all the way to the mountains, and the ravines will be filled with your flesh.

⁷When I snuff you out, I will cover the heavens and darken their stars;
I will cover the sun with a cloud,
and the moon will not give its light.

⁸All the shining lights in the heavens
I will darken over you;
I will bring darkness over your land,

declares the Sovereign LORD.

⁹I will trouble the hearts of many peoples when I bring about your destruction among the nations,
among^[57] lands you have not known.

¹⁰I will cause many peoples to be appalled at you, and their kings will shudder with horror because of
you
when I brandish my sword before them.
On the day of your downfall

each of them will tremble every moment for his life.

¹¹“ For this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ The sword of the king of Babylon will come against you.

¹²I will cause your hordes to fall by the swords of mighty men—
the most ruthless of all nations.
They will shatter the pride of Egypt, and all her hordes will be overthrown.

¹³I will destroy all her cattle from beside abundant waters no longer to be stirred by the foot of man or muddied by the hooves of cattle.

¹⁴Then I will let her waters settle and make her streams flow like oil,
declares the Sovereign LORD.

¹⁵When I make Egypt desolate and strip the land of everything in it, when I strike down all who live there,
then they will know that I am the LORD.’

¹⁶“This is the lament they will chant for her. The daughters of the nations will chant it; for Egypt and all her hordes they will chant it, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Egypt’s Descent Into the Realm of the Dead

¹⁷In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁸“Son of man, wail for the hordes of Egypt and consign to the earth below both her and the daughters of mighty nations, along with those who go down to the pit. ¹⁹Say to them, ‘Are you more favored than others? Go down and be laid among the uncircumcised.’ ²⁰They will fall among those killed by the sword. The sword is drawn; let her be dragged off with all her hordes. ²¹From within the realm of the dead the mighty leaders will say of Egypt and her allies, ‘They have come down and they lie with the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword.’

²⁴“Elam is there, with all her hordes around her grave. All of them are slain, fallen by the sword. All who had spread terror in the land of the living went down uncircumcised to the earth below. They bear their shame with those who go down to the pit. ²⁵A bed is made for her among the slain, with all her hordes around her grave. All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword. Because their terror had spread in the land of the living, they bear their shame with those who go down to the pit; they are laid among the slain.

²⁸“You too, Pharaoh, will be broken and will lie among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword.

²⁹“Edom is there, her kings and all her princes; despite their power, they are laid with those killed by the sword. They lie with the uncircumcised, with those who go down to the pit.

³⁰“All the princes of the north and all the Sidonians are there; they went down with the slain in disgrace despite the terror caused by their power. They lie uncircumcised with those killed by the sword and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

³¹“Pharaoh—he and all his army—will see them and he will be consoled for all his hordes that were killed by the sword, declares the Sovereign LORD. ³²Although I had him spread terror in the land of the living, Pharaoh and all his hordes will be laid among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 33

RENEWAL OF EZEKIEL'S CALL AS WATCHMAN

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, speak to your people and say to them: ‘When I bring the sword against a land, and the people of the land choose one of their men and make him their watchman, ³and he sees the sword coming against the land and blows the trumpet to warn the people, ⁴then if anyone hears the trumpet but does not heed the warning and the sword comes and takes their life, their blood will be on their own head. ⁵Since they heard the sound of the trumpet but did not heed the warning, their blood will be on their own head. If they had heeded the warning, they would have saved themselves. ⁶But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet to warn the people and the sword comes and takes someone’s life, that person’s life will be taken because of their sin, but I will hold the watchman accountable for their blood.’

⁷“Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the people of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me. ⁸When I say to the wicked, ‘You wicked person, you will surely die,’ and you do not speak out to dissuade them from their ways, that wicked person will die for^[60] their sin, and I will hold you accountable for their blood. ⁹But if you do warn the wicked person to turn from their ways and they do not do so, they will die for their sin, though you yourself will be saved.

¹⁰“Son of man, say to the Israelites, ‘This is what you are saying: “Our offenses and sins weigh us down, and we are wasting away because of^[61] them. How then can we live?” ’ ¹¹Say to them, ‘As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that they turn from their ways and live. Turn! Turn from your evil ways! Why will you die, people of Israel?’

¹²“Therefore, son of man, say to your people, ‘If someone who is righteous disobeys, that person’s former righteousness will count for nothing. And if someone who is wicked repents, that person’s former wickedness will not bring condemnation. The righteous person who sins will not be allowed to live even though they were formerly righteous.’ ¹³If I tell a righteous person that they will surely live, but then they trust in their righteousness and do evil, none of the righteous things that person has done will be remembered; they will die for the evil they have done. ¹⁴And if I say to a wicked person, ‘You will surely die,’ but they then turn away from their sin and do what is just and right— ¹⁵if they give back what they took in pledge for a loan, return what they have stolen, follow the decrees that give life, and do no evil—that person will surely live; they will not die. ¹⁶None of the sins that person has committed will be remembered against them. They have done what is just and right; they will surely live.

¹⁷“Yet your people say, ‘The way of the Lord is not just.’ But it is their way that is not just. ¹⁸If a righteous person turns from their righteousness and does evil, they will die for it. ¹⁹And if a wicked person turns away from their wickedness and does what is just and right, they will live by doing so. ²⁰Yet you Israelites say, ‘The way of the Lord is not just.’ But I will judge each of you according to your own ways.”

JERUSALEM’S FALL EXPLAINED

²¹In the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth month on the fifth day, a man who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me and said, “The city has fallen!” ²²Now the evening before the man arrived, the hand of the LORD was on me, and he opened my mouth before the man came to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened and I was no longer silent.

²³Then the word of the LORD came to me: ²⁴“Son of man, the people living in those ruins in the land of Israel are saying, ‘Abraham was only one man, yet he possessed the land. But we are many; surely the land has been given to us as our possession.’ ²⁵Therefore say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Since you eat meat with the blood still in it and look to your idols and shed blood, should you then possess the land? ²⁶You rely on your sword, you do detestable things, and each of you defiles his neighbor’s wife. Should you then possess the land?’

²⁷“Say this to them: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: As surely as I live, those who are left in the ruins will fall by the sword, those out in the country I will give to the wild animals to be devoured, and those in strongholds and caves will die of a plague. ²⁸I will make the land a desolate waste, and her proud strength will come to an end, and the mountains of Israel will become desolate so that no one will cross them. ²⁹Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolate waste because of all the detestable things they have done.’

³⁰“As for you, son of man, your people are talking together about you by the walls and at the doors of the houses, saying to each other, ‘Come and hear the message that has come from the LORD.’ ³¹My people come to you, as they usually do, and sit before you to hear your words, but they do not put them into practice. Their mouths speak of love, but their hearts are greedy for unjust gain. ³²Indeed, to them you are nothing more than one who sings love songs with a beautiful voice and plays an instrument well, for they hear your words but do not put them into practice.

³³“When all this comes true—and it surely will—then they will know that a prophet has been among them.”

Ezekiel 34

THE LORD WILL BE ISRAEL'S SHEPHERD

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel; prophesy and say to them: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Woe to you shepherds of Israel who only take care of yourselves! Should not shepherds take care of the flock? ³You eat the curds, clothe yourselves with the wool and slaughter the choice animals, but you do not take care of the flock. ⁴You have not strengthened the weak or healed the sick or bound up the injured. You have not brought back the strays or searched for the lost. You have ruled them harshly and brutally. ⁵So they were scattered because there was no shepherd, and when they were scattered they became food for all the wild animals. ⁶My sheep wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. They were scattered over the whole earth, and no one searched or looked for them.

⁷“ ‘Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: ⁸As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, because my flock lacks a shepherd and so has been plundered and has become food for all the wild animals, and because my shepherds did not search for my flock but cared for themselves rather than for my flock, ⁹therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: ¹⁰This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against the shepherds and will hold them accountable for my flock. I will remove them from tending the flock so that the shepherds can no longer feed themselves. I will rescue my flock from their mouths, and it will no longer be food for them.

¹¹“ ‘For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself will search for my sheep and look after them. ¹²As a shepherd looks after his scattered flock when he is with them, so will I look after my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness. ¹³I will bring them out from the nations and gather them from the countries, and I will bring them into their own land. I will pasture them on the mountains of Israel, in the ravines and in all the settlements in the land. ¹⁴I will tend them in a good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel will be their grazing land. There they will lie down in good grazing land, and there they will feed in a rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵I myself will tend my sheep and have them lie down, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁶I will search for the lost and bring back the strays. I will bind up the injured and strengthen the weak, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy. I will shepherd the flock with justice.

¹⁷“ ‘As for you, my flock, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will judge between one sheep and another, and between rams and goats. ¹⁸Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture? Must you also trample the rest of your pasture with your feet? Is it not enough for you to drink clear water? Must you also muddy the rest with your feet? ¹⁹Must my flock feed on what you have trampled and drink what you have muddied with your feet?

²⁰“ ‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says to them: See, I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. ²¹Because you shove with flank and shoulder, butting all the weak sheep with your horns until you have driven them away, ²²I will save my flock, and they will no longer be plundered. I will judge between one sheep and another. ²³I will place over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he will tend them; he will tend them and be their shepherd. ²⁴I the LORD will be their God, and my servant David will be prince among them. I the LORD have spoken.

²⁵“ ‘I will make a covenant of peace with them and rid the land of savage beasts so that they may live in the wilderness and sleep in the forests in safety. ²⁶I will make them and the places surrounding my hill a blessing. ^[62] I will send down showers in season; there will be showers of blessing. ²⁷The trees will yield their fruit and the ground will yield its crops; the people will be secure in their land. They will know that I am the LORD, when I break the bars of their yoke and rescue them from the hands of those who enslaved them. ²⁸They will no longer be plundered by the nations, nor will wild animals devour them. They will live in safety, and no one will make them afraid. ²⁹I will provide for them a land renowned for its crops, and they will no longer be victims of famine in the land or bear the scorn of the nations. ³⁰Then they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them and that they, the Israelites, are my people, declares the Sovereign LORD. ³¹You are my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, and I am your God, declares the Sovereign LORD.’ ”

A PROPHECY AGAINST EDMON

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir; prophesy against it ³and say: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you and make you a desolate waste. ⁴I will turn your towns into ruins and you will be desolate. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁵“ ‘Because you harbored an ancient hostility and delivered the Israelites over to the sword at the time of their calamity, the time their punishment reached its climax, ⁶therefore as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will give you over to bloodshed and it will pursue you. Since you did not hate bloodshed, bloodshed will pursue you. ⁷I will make Mount Seir a desolate waste and cut off from it all who come and go. ⁸I will fill your mountains with the slain; those killed by the sword will fall on your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines. ⁹I will make you desolate forever; your towns will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

¹⁰“ ‘Because you have said, “These two nations and countries will be ours and we will take possession of them,” even though I the LORD was there, ¹¹therefore as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will treat you in accordance with the anger and jealousy you showed in your hatred of them and I will make myself known among them when I judge you. ¹²Then you will know that I the LORD have heard all the contemptible things you have said against the mountains of Israel. You said, “They have been laid waste and have been given over to us to devour.” ¹³You boasted against me and spoke against me without restraint, and I heard it. ¹⁴This is what the Sovereign LORD says: While the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. ¹⁵Because you rejoiced when the inheritance of Israel became desolate, that is how I will treat you. You will be desolate, Mount Seir, you and all of Edom. Then they will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

Ezekiel 36

HOPE FOR THE MOUNTAINS OF ISRAEL

¹“Son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say, ‘Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD. ²This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The enemy said of you, “Aha! The ancient heights have become our possession.”’ ³Therefore prophesy and say, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because they ravaged and crushed you from every side so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations and the object of people’s malicious talk and slander, ⁴therefore, mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign LORD: This is what the Sovereign LORD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, to the desolate ruins and the deserted towns that have been plundered and ridiculed by the rest of the nations around you— ⁵this is what the Sovereign LORD says: In my burning zeal I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, for with glee and with malice in their hearts they made my land their own possession so that they might plunder its pastureland.’ ⁶Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel and say to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I speak in my jealous wrath because you have suffered the scorn of the nations. ⁷Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I swear with uplifted hand that the nations around you will also suffer scorn.

⁸“ ‘But you, mountains of Israel, will produce branches and fruit for my people Israel, for they will soon come home. ⁹I am concerned for you and will look on you with favor; you will be plowed and sown, ¹⁰and I will cause many people to live on you—yes, all of Israel. The towns will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt. ¹¹I will increase the number of people and animals living on you, and they will be fruitful and become numerous. I will settle people on you as in the past and will make you prosper more than before. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ¹²I will cause people, my people Israel, to live on you. They will possess you, and you will be their inheritance; you will never again deprive them of their children.

longer devour people or make your nation childless, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁵No longer will I make you hear the taunts of the nations, and no longer will you suffer the scorn of the peoples or cause your nation to fall, declares the Sovereign LORD.’ ”

ISRAEL’S RESTORATION ASSURED

¹⁶Again the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁷“Son of man, when the people of Israel were living in their own land, they defiled it by their conduct and their actions. Their conduct was like a woman’s monthly uncleanness in my sight. ¹⁸So I poured out my wrath on them because they had shed blood in the land and because they had defiled it with their idols. ¹⁹I dispersed them among the nations, and they were scattered through the countries; I judged them according to their conduct and their actions. ²⁰And wherever they went among the nations they profaned my holy name, for it was said of them, ‘These are the LORD’s people, and yet they had to leave his land.’ ²¹I had concern for my holy name, which the people of Israel profaned among the nations where they had gone.

²²“Therefore say to the Israelites, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: It is not for your sake, people of Israel, that I am going to do these things, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations where you have gone. ²³I will show the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, the name you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, declares the Sovereign LORD, when I am proved holy through you before their eyes.

²⁴“ ‘For I will take you out of the nations; I will gather you from all the countries and bring you back into your own land. ²⁵I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your impurities and from all your idols. ²⁶I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷And I will put my Spirit in you and move you to follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws. ²⁸Then you will live in the land I gave your ancestors; you will be my people, and I will be your God. ²⁹I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will call for the grain and make it plentiful and will not bring famine upon you. ³⁰I will increase the fruit of the trees and the crops of the field, so that you will no longer suffer disgrace among the nations because of famine. ³¹Then you will remember your evil ways and wicked deeds, and you will loathe yourselves for your sins and detestable practices. ³²I want you to know that I am not doing this for your sake, declares the Sovereign LORD. Be ashamed and disgraced for your conduct, people of Israel!

³³“ ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On the day I cleanse you from all your sins, I will resettle your towns, and the ruins will be rebuilt. ³⁴The desolate land will be cultivated instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who pass through it. ³⁵They will say, “This land that was laid waste has become like the garden of Eden; the cities that were lying in ruins, desolate and destroyed, are now fortified and inhabited.” ³⁶Then the nations around you that remain will know that I the LORD have rebuilt what was destroyed and have replanted what was desolate. I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it.’

³⁷“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Once again I will yield to Israel’s plea and do this for them: I will make their people as numerous as sheep, ³⁸as numerous as the flocks for offerings at Jerusalem during her appointed festivals. So will the ruined cities be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 37

THE VALLEY OF DRY BONES

¹The hand of the LORD was on me, and he brought me out by the Spirit of the LORD and set me in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. ²He led me back and forth among them, and I saw a great many bones on the floor of the valley, bones that were very dry. ³He asked me, “Son of man, can these bones live?”

I said, “Sovereign LORD, you alone know.”

⁴Then he said to me, “Prophecy to these bones and say to them, ‘Dry bones, hear the word of the LORD! ⁵This is what the Sovereign LORD says to these bones: I will make breath^[63] enter you, and you will come to life. ⁶I will attach tendons to you and make flesh come upon you and cover you with skin; I will put breath in you, and you will come to life. Then you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

⁷So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I was prophesying, there was a noise, a rattling sound, and the bones came together, bone to bone. ⁸I looked, and tendons and flesh appeared on them and skin covered them, but there was no breath in them.

⁹Then he said to me, “Prophecy to the breath; prophecy, son of man, and say to it, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Come, breath, from the four winds and breathe into these slain, that they may live.’ ” ¹⁰So I prophesied as he commanded me, and breath entered them; they came to life and stood up on their feet—a vast army.

¹¹Then he said to me: “Son of man, these bones are the people of Israel. They say, ‘Our bones are dried up and our hope is gone; we are cut off.’ ¹²Therefore prophecy and say to them: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: My people, I am going to open your graves and bring you up from them; I will bring you back to the land of Israel. ¹³Then you, my people, will know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and bring you up from them. ¹⁴I will put my Spirit in you and you will live, and I will settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I the LORD have spoken, and I have done it, declares the LORD.’ ”

ONE NATION UNDER ONE KING

¹⁵The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁶“Son of man, take a stick of wood and write on it, ‘Belonging to Judah and the Israelites associated with him.’ Then take another stick of wood, and write on it, ‘Belonging to Joseph (that is, to Ephraim) and all the Israelites associated with him.’ ¹⁷Join them together into one stick so that they will become one in your hand.

¹⁸“When your people ask you, ‘Won’t you tell us what you mean by this?’ ¹⁹say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am going to take the stick of Joseph—which is in Ephraim’s hand—and of the Israelite tribes associated with him, and join it to Judah’s stick. I will make them into a single stick of wood, and they will become one in my hand.’ ²⁰Hold before their eyes the sticks you have written on ²¹and say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will take the Israelites out of the nations where they have gone. I will gather them from all around and bring them back into their own land. ²²I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel. There will be one king over all of them and they will never again be two nations or be divided into two kingdoms. ²³They will no longer defile themselves with their idols and vile images or with any of their offenses, for I will save them from all their sinful backsliding, ^[64] and I will cleanse them. They will be my people, and I will be their God.

²⁴“ ‘My servant David will be king over them, and they will all have one shepherd. They will follow my laws and be careful to keep my decrees. ²⁵They will live in the land I gave to my servant Jacob, the land where your ancestors lived. They and their children and their children’s children will live there forever, and David my servant will be their prince forever. ²⁶I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant. I will establish them and increase their numbers, and I will put my sanctuary among them forever. ²⁷My dwelling place will be with them; I will be their God, and they will be my people. ²⁸Then the nations will know that I the LORD make Israel holy, when my sanctuary is among them forever.’ ”

Ezekiel 38

THE LORD'S GREAT VICTORY OVER THE NATIONS

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, set your face against Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of^[65] Meshek and Tubal; prophesy against him ³and say: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, Gog, chief prince of^[66] Meshek and Tubal. ⁴I will turn you around, put hooks in your jaws and bring you out with your whole army—your horses, your horsemen fully armed, and a great horde with large and small shields, all of them brandishing their swords. ⁵Persia, Cush^[67] and Put will be with them, all with shields and helmets, ⁶also Gomer with all its troops, and Beth Togarmah from the far north with all its troops—the many nations with you.

⁷“ ‘Get ready; be prepared, you and all the hordes gathered about you, and take command of them. ⁸After many days you will be called to arms. In future years you will invade a land that has recovered from war, whose people were gathered from many nations to the mountains of Israel, which had long been desolate. They had been brought out from the nations, and now all of them live in safety. ⁹You and all your troops and the many nations with you will go up, advancing like a storm; you will be like a cloud covering the land.

¹⁰“ ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On that day thoughts will come into your mind and you will devise an evil scheme. ¹¹You will say, “I will invade a land of unwalled villages; I will attack a peaceful and unsuspecting people—all of them living without walls and without gates and bars. ¹²I will plunder and loot and turn my hand against the resettled ruins and the people gathered from the nations, rich in livestock and goods, living at the center of the land.^[68]” ¹³Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish and all her villages^[69] will say to you, “Have you come to plunder? Have you gathered your hordes to loot, to carry off silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods and to seize much plunder?” ’

¹⁴“Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: In that day, when my people Israel are living in safety, will you not take notice of it? ¹⁵You will come from your place in the far north, you and many nations with you, all of them riding on horses, a great horde, a mighty army. ¹⁶You will advance against my people Israel like a cloud that covers the land. In days to come, Gog, I will bring you against my land, so that the nations may know me when I am proved holy through you before their eyes.

¹⁷“ ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: You are the one I spoke of in former days by my servants the prophets of Israel. At that time they prophesied for years that I would bring you against them. ¹⁸This is what will happen in that day: When Gog attacks the land of Israel, my hot anger will be aroused, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁹In my zeal and fiery wrath I declare that at that time there shall be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. ²⁰The fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, the beasts of the field, every creature that moves along the ground, and all the people on the face of the earth will tremble at my presence. The mountains will be overturned, the cliffs will crumble and every wall will fall to the ground. ²¹I will summon a sword against Gog on all my mountains, declares the Sovereign LORD. Every man’s sword will be against his brother. ²²I will execute judgment on him with plague and bloodshed; I will pour down torrents of rain, hailstones and burning sulfur on him and on his troops and on the many nations with him. ²³And so I will show my greatness and my holiness, and I will make myself known in the sight of many nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD.’

Ezekiel 39

¹“Son of man, prophesy against Gog and say: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, Gog, chief prince of^[70] Meshek and Tubal. ²I will turn you around and drag you along. I will bring you from the far north and send you against the mountains of Israel. ³Then I will strike your bow from your left hand and make your arrows drop from your right hand. ⁴On the mountains of Israel you will fall, you and all your troops and the nations with you. I will give you as food to all kinds of carrion birds and to the wild animals. ⁵You will fall in the open field, for I have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD. ⁶I will send fire on Magog and on those who live in safety in the coastlands, and they will know that I am the LORD.

⁷“ ‘I will make known my holy name among my people Israel. I will no longer let my holy name be profaned, and the nations will know that I the LORD am the Holy One in Israel. ⁸It is coming! It will surely take place, declares the Sovereign LORD. This is the day I have spoken of.

⁹“ ‘Then those who live in the towns of Israel will go out and use the weapons for fuel and burn them up—the small and large shields, the bows and arrows, the war clubs and spears. For seven years they will use them for fuel. ¹⁰They will not need to gather wood from the fields or cut it from the forests, because they will use the weapons for fuel. And they will plunder those who plundered them and loot those who looted them, declares the Sovereign LORD.

¹¹“ ‘On that day I will give Gog a burial place in Israel, in the valley of those who travel east of the Sea. It will block the way of travelers, because Gog and all his hordes will be buried there. So it will be called the Valley of Hamon Gog.^[71]

¹²“ ‘For seven months the Israelites will be burying them in order to cleanse the land. ¹³All the people of the land will bury them, and the day I display my glory will be a memorable day for them, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁴People will be continually employed in cleansing the land. They will spread out across the land and, along with others, they will bury any bodies that are lying on the ground.

“ ‘After the seven months they will carry out a more detailed search. ¹⁵As they go through the land, anyone who sees a human bone will leave a marker beside it until the gravediggers bury it in the Valley of Hamon Gog, ¹⁶near a town called Hamonah.^[72] And so they will cleanse the land.’

²¹“I will display my glory among the nations, and all the nations will see the punishment I inflict and the hand I lay on them. ²²From that day forward the people of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God. ²³And the nations will know that the people of Israel went into exile for their sin, because they were unfaithful to me. So I hid my face from them and handed them over to their enemies, and they all fell by the sword. ²⁴I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their offenses, and I hid my face from them.

²⁵“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will now restore the fortunes of Jacob^[73] and will have compassion on all the people of Israel, and I will be zealous for my holy name. ²⁶They will forget their shame and all the unfaithfulness they showed toward me when they lived in safety in their land with no one to make them afraid. ²⁷When I have brought them back from the nations and have gathered them from the countries of their enemies, I will be proved holy through them in the sight of many nations. ²⁸Then they will know that I am the LORD their God, for though I sent them into exile among the nations, I will gather them to their own land, not leaving any behind. ²⁹I will no longer hide my face from them, for I will pour out my Spirit on the people of Israel, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 40

THE TEMPLE AREA RESTORED

¹In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after the fall of the city—on that very day the hand of the LORD was on me and he took me there. ²In visions of God he took me to the land of Israel and set me on a very high mountain, on whose south side were some buildings that looked like a city. ³He took me there, and I saw a man whose appearance was like bronze; he was standing in the gateway with a linen cord and a measuring rod in his hand. ⁴The man said to me, “Son of man, look carefully and listen closely and pay attention to everything I am going to show you, for that is why you have been brought here. Tell the people of Israel everything you see.”

The East Gate to the Outer Court

⁵I saw a wall completely surrounding the temple area. The length of the measuring rod in the man’s hand was six long cubits,^[74] each of which was a cubit and a handbreadth. He measured the wall; it was one measuring rod thick and one rod high.

⁶Then he went to the east gate. He climbed its steps and measured the threshold of the gate; it was one rod deep. ⁷The alcoves for the guards were one rod long and one rod wide, and the projecting walls between the alcoves were five cubits^[75] thick. And the threshold of the gate next to the portico facing the temple was one rod deep.

⁸Then he measured the portico of the gateway; ⁹it^[76] was eight cubits^[77] deep and its jambs were two cubits^[78] thick. The portico of the gateway faced the temple.

¹⁰Inside the east gate were three alcoves on each side; the three had the same measurements, and the faces of the projecting walls on each side had the same measurements. ¹¹Then he measured the width of the entrance of the gateway; it was ten cubits and its length was thirteen cubits.^[79] ¹²In front of each alcove was a wall one cubit high, and the alcoves were six cubits square. ¹³Then he measured the gateway from the top of the rear wall of one alcove to the top of the opposite one; the distance was twenty-five cubits^[80] from one parapet opening to the opposite one. ¹⁴He measured along the faces of the projecting walls all around the inside of the gateway—sixty cubits.^[81] The measurement was up to the portico^[82] facing the courtyard.^[83] ¹⁵The distance from the entrance of the gateway to the far end of its portico was fifty cubits.^[84] ¹⁶The alcoves and the projecting walls inside the gateway were surmounted by narrow parapet openings all around, as was the portico; the openings all around faced inward. The faces of the projecting walls were decorated with palm trees.

The Outer Court

¹⁷Then he brought me into the outer court. There I saw some rooms and a pavement that had been constructed all around the court; there were thirty rooms along the pavement. ¹⁸It abutted the sides of the gateways and was as wide as they were long; this was the lower pavement. ¹⁹Then he measured the distance from the inside of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner court; it was a hundred cubits^[85] on the east side as well as on the north.

The North Gate

²⁰Then he measured the length and width of the north gate, leading into the outer court. ²¹Its alcoves—three on each side—its projecting walls and its portico had the same measurements as those of the first gateway. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. ²²Its openings, its portico and its palm tree decorations had the same measurements as those of the gate facing east. Seven steps led up to it, with its portico opposite them. ²³There was a gate to the inner court facing the north gate, just as there was on the east. He measured from one gate to the opposite one; it was a hundred cubits.

The South Gate

²⁴Then he led me to the south side and I saw the south gate. He measured its jambs and its portico, and they had the same measurements as the others. ²⁵The gateway and its portico had narrow openings all around, like the openings of the others. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. ²⁶Seven steps led up to it, with its portico opposite them; it had palm tree decorations on the faces of the projecting walls on each side. ²⁷The inner court also had a gate facing south, and he measured from this gate to the outer gate on the south side; it was a hundred cubits.

The Gates to the Inner Court

²⁸Then he brought me into the inner court through the south gate, and he measured the south gate; it had the same measurements as the others. ²⁹Its alcoves, its projecting walls and its portico had the same measurements as the others. The gateway and its portico had openings all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. ³⁰(The porticoes of the gateways around the inner court were twenty-five cubits wide and five cubits deep.) ³¹Its portico faced the outer court; palm trees decorated its jambs, and eight steps led up to it.

³²Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side, and he measured the gateway; it had the same measurements as the others. ³³Its alcoves, its projecting walls and its portico had the same measurements as the others. The gateway and its portico had openings all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. ³⁴Its portico faced the outer court; palm trees decorated the jambs on either side, and eight steps led up to it.

³⁵Then he brought me to the north gate and measured it. It had the same measurements as the others, ³⁶as did its alcoves, its projecting walls and its portico, and it had openings all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. ³⁷Its portico^[86] faced the outer court; palm trees decorated the jambs on either side, and eight steps led up to it.

The Rooms for Preparing Sacrifices

³⁸A room with a doorway was by the portico in each of the inner gateways, where the burnt offerings were washed. ³⁹In the portico of the gateway were two tables on each side, on which the burnt offerings, sin offerings^[87] and guilt offerings were slaughtered. ⁴⁰By the outside wall of the portico of the gateway, near the steps at the entrance of the north gateway were two tables, and on the other side of the steps were two tables. ⁴¹So there were four tables on one side of the gateway and four on the other—eight tables in all—on which the sacrifices were slaughtered. ⁴²There were also four tables of dressed stone for the burnt offerings, each a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half wide and a cubit high.^[88] On them were placed the utensils for slaughtering the burnt offerings and the other sacrifices. ⁴³And double-pronged hooks, each a handbreadth^[89] long, were attached to the wall all around. The tables were for the flesh of the offerings.

The Rooms for the Priests

⁴⁴Outside the inner gate, within the inner court, were two rooms, one^[90] at the side of the north gate and facing south, and another at the side of the south^[91] gate and facing north. ⁴⁵He said to me, “The room facing south is for the priests who guard the temple, ⁴⁶and the room facing north is for the priests who guard the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, who are the only Levites who may draw near to the LORD to minister before him.”

⁴⁷Then he measured the court: It was square—a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide. And the altar was in front of the temple.

THE NEW TEMPLE

⁴⁸He brought me to the portico of the temple and measured the jambs of the portico; they were five cubits wide on either side. The width of the entrance was fourteen cubits^[92] and its projecting walls were^[93] three cubits^[94] wide on either side. ⁴⁹The portico was twenty cubits^[95] wide, and twelve^[96] cubits^[97] from front to back. It was reached by a flight of stairs,^[98] and there were pillars on each side of the jambs.

ROCK SOLID truths

Ezekiel 40:1–4

The temple shows true worship.

King Solomon built the first temple in Jerusalem. Famed for its intricate detail and careful craftsmanship, it showed off not only God's glory but also the material wealth of the nation. Yet the temple was more than just a building. While no structure on earth could ever contain the Lord, the temple was the place where God was especially present on earth, the site where people worshiped him and brought the sacrifices he commanded (see 1 Kings 8:22–25). So it's no surprise Ezekiel felt horror when he had a vision of the Lord's presence leaving the temple, as if God had totally abandoned his people (see Ezekiel 10:19). But now in Ezekiel 40:1–43:12, Ezekiel envisions a stunning new temple and God's brilliant arrival. Christians see this scene as a picture of how God fills our lives when he comes to live in us through his Holy Spirit (see Romans 8:11).

Think: Why was the temple so crucial for Old Testament faith? Why is it not important now?

(Rock Solid TRUTHS Index)

Ezekiel 41

¹Then the man brought me to the main hall and measured the jambs; the width of the jambs was six cubits^[99] on each side.^[100] ²The entrance was ten cubits^[101] wide, and the projecting walls on each side of it were five cubits^[102] wide. He also measured the main hall; it was forty cubits long and twenty cubits wide.^[103]

³Then he went into the inner sanctuary and measured the jambs of the entrance; each was two cubits^[104] wide. The entrance was six cubits wide, and the projecting walls on each side of it were seven cubits^[105] wide. ⁴And he measured the length of the inner sanctuary; it was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits across the end of the main hall. He said to me, “This is the Most Holy Place.”

⁵Then he measured the wall of the temple; it was six cubits thick, and each side room around the temple was four cubits^[106] wide. ⁶The side rooms were on three levels, one above another, thirty on each level. There were ledges all around the wall of the temple to serve as supports for the side rooms, so that the supports were not inserted into the wall of the temple. ⁷The side rooms all around the temple were wider at each successive level. The structure surrounding the temple was built in ascending stages, so that the rooms widened as one went upward. A stairway went up from the lowest floor to the top floor through the middle floor.

⁸I saw that the temple had a raised base all around it, forming the foundation of the side rooms. It was the length of the rod, six long cubits. ⁹The outer wall of the side rooms was five cubits thick. The open area between the side rooms of the temple ¹⁰and the priests’ rooms was twenty cubits wide all around the temple. ¹¹There were entrances to the side rooms from the open area, one on the north and another on the south; and the base adjoining the open area was five cubits wide all around.

¹²The building facing the temple courtyard on the west side was seventy cubits^[107] wide. The wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length was ninety cubits.^[108]

¹³Then he measured the temple; it was a hundred cubits^[109] long, and the temple courtyard and the building with its walls were also a hundred cubits long. ¹⁴The width of the temple courtyard on the east, including the front of the temple, was a hundred cubits.

The main hall, the inner sanctuary and the portico facing the court, ¹⁶as well as the thresholds and the narrow windows and galleries around the three of them—everything beyond and including the threshold was covered with wood. The floor, the wall up to the windows, and the windows were covered. ¹⁷In the space above the outside of the entrance to the inner sanctuary and on the walls at regular intervals all around the inner and outer sanctuary ¹⁸were carved cherubim and palm trees. Palm trees alternated with cherubim. Each cherub had two faces: ¹⁹the face of a human being toward the palm tree on one side and the face of a lion toward the palm tree on the other. They were carved all around the whole temple. ²⁰From the floor to the area above the entrance, cherubim and palm trees were carved on the wall of the main hall.

²¹The main hall had a rectangular doorframe, and the one at the front of the Most Holy Place was similar. ²²There was a wooden altar three cubits^[110] high and two cubits square^[111]; its corners, its base^[112] and its sides were of wood. The man said to me, “This is the table that is before the LORD.” ²³Both the main hall and the Most Holy Place had double doors. ²⁴Each door had two leaves—two hinged leaves for each door. ²⁵And on the doors of the main hall were carved cherubim and palm trees like those carved on the walls, and there was a wooden overhang on the front of the portico. ²⁶On the sidewalls of the portico were narrow windows with palm trees carved on each side. The side rooms of the temple also had overhangs.

THE ROOMS FOR THE PRIESTS

¹Then the man led me northward into the outer court and brought me to the rooms opposite the temple courtyard and opposite the outer wall on the north side. ²The building whose door faced north was a hundred cubits long and fifty cubits wide.^[113] ³Both in the section twenty cubits^[114] from the inner court and in the section opposite the pavement of the outer court, gallery faced gallery at the three levels. ⁴In front of the rooms was an inner passageway ten cubits wide and a hundred cubits^[115] long.^[116] Their doors were on the north. ⁵Now the upper rooms were narrower, for the galleries took more space from them than from the rooms on the lower and middle floors of the building. ⁶The rooms on the top floor had no pillars, as the courts had; so they were smaller in floor space than those on the lower and middle floors. ⁷There was an outer wall parallel to the rooms and the outer court; it extended in front of the rooms for fifty cubits. ⁸While the row of rooms on the side next to the outer court was fifty cubits long, the row on the side nearest the sanctuary was a hundred cubits long. ⁹The lower rooms had an entrance on the east side as one enters them from the outer court.

¹⁰On the south side^[117] along the length of the wall of the outer court, adjoining the temple courtyard and opposite the outer wall, were rooms ¹¹with a passageway in front of them. These were like the rooms on the north; they had the same length and width, with similar exits and dimensions. Similar to the doorways on the north ¹²were the doorways of the rooms on the south. There was a doorway at the beginning of the passageway that was parallel to the corresponding wall extending eastward, by which one enters the rooms.

¹³Then he said to me, “The north and south rooms facing the temple courtyard are the priests’ rooms, where the priests who approach the LORD will eat the most holy offerings. There they will put the most holy offerings—the grain offerings, the sin offerings^[118] and the guilt offerings—for the place is holy. ¹⁴Once the priests enter the holy precincts, they are not to go into the outer court until they leave behind the garments in which they minister, for these are holy. They are to put on other clothes before they go near the places that are for the people.”

¹⁵When he had finished measuring what was inside the temple area, he led me out by the east gate and measured the area all around: ¹⁶He measured the east side with the measuring rod; it was five hundred cubits.^{[119],[120]} ¹⁷He measured the north side; it was five hundred cubits^[121] by the measuring rod. ¹⁸He measured the south side; it was five hundred cubits by the measuring rod. ¹⁹Then he turned to the west side and measured; it was five hundred cubits by the measuring rod. ²⁰So he measured the area on all four sides. It had a wall around it, five hundred cubits long and five hundred cubits wide, to separate the holy from the common.

Ezekiel 43

GOD'S GLORY RETURNS TO THE TEMPLE

¹Then the man brought me to the gate facing east, ²and I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice was like the roar of rushing waters, and the land was radiant with his glory. ³The vision I saw was like the vision I had seen when he^[122] came to destroy the city and like the visions I had seen by the Kebar River, and I fell facedown. ⁴The glory of the LORD entered the temple through the gate facing east. ⁵Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

⁶While the man was standing beside me, I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple. ⁷He said: “Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place for the soles of my feet. This is where I will live among the Israelites forever. The people of Israel will never again defile my holy name—neither they nor their kings—by their prostitution and the funeral offerings^[123] for their kings at their death.^[124] ⁸When they placed their threshold next to my threshold and their doorposts beside my doorposts, with only a wall between me and them, they defiled my holy name by their detestable practices. So I destroyed them in my anger. ⁹Now let them put away from me their prostitution and the funeral offerings for their kings, and I will live among them forever.

¹⁰“Son of man, describe the temple to the people of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their sins. Let them consider its perfection, ¹¹and if they are ashamed of all they have done, make known to them the design of the temple—its arrangement, its exits and entrances—its whole design and all its regulations^[125] and laws. Write these down before them so that they may be faithful to its design and follow all its regulations.

¹²“This is the law of the temple: All the surrounding area on top of the mountain will be most holy. Such is the law of the temple.

THE GREAT ALTAR RESTORED

¹⁸Then he said to me, “Son of man, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: These will be the regulations for sacrificing burnt offerings and splashing blood against the altar when it is built: ¹⁹You are to give a young bull as a sin offering^[133] to the Levitical priests of the family of Zadok, who come near to minister before me, declares the Sovereign LORD. ²⁰You are to take some of its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar and on the four corners of the upper ledge and all around the rim, and so purify the altar and make atonement for it. ²¹You are to take the bull for the sin offering and burn it in the designated part of the temple area outside the sanctuary.

²²“On the second day you are to offer a male goat without defect for a sin offering, and the altar is to be purified as it was purified with the bull. ²³When you have finished purifying it, you are to offer a young bull and a ram from the flock, both without defect. ²⁴You are to offer them before the LORD, and the priests are to sprinkle salt on them and sacrifice them as a burnt offering to the LORD.

²⁵“For seven days you are to provide a male goat daily for a sin offering; you are also to provide a young bull and a ram from the flock, both without defect. ²⁶For seven days they are to make atonement for the altar and cleanse it; thus they will dedicate it. ²⁷At the end of these days, from the eighth day on, the priests are to present your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar. Then I will accept you, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 44

THE PRIESTHOOD RESTORED

¹Then the man brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary, the one facing east, and it was shut. ²The LORD said to me, “This gate is to remain shut. It must not be opened; no one may enter through it. It is to remain shut because the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered through it. ³The prince himself is the only one who may sit inside the gateway to eat in the presence of the LORD. He is to enter by way of the portico of the gateway and go out the same way.”

⁴Then the man brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple. I looked and saw the glory of the LORD filling the temple of the LORD, and I fell facedown.

⁵The LORD said to me, “Son of man, look carefully, listen closely and give attention to everything I tell you concerning all the regulations and instructions regarding the temple of the LORD. Give attention to the entrance to the temple and all the exits of the sanctuary. ⁶Say to rebellious Israel, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Enough of your detestable practices, people of Israel! ⁷In addition to all your other detestable practices, you brought foreigners uncircumcised in heart and flesh into my sanctuary, desecrating my temple while you offered me food, fat and blood, and you broke my covenant. ⁸Instead of carrying out your duty in regard to my holy things, you put others in charge of my sanctuary. ⁹This is what the Sovereign LORD says: No foreigner uncircumcised in heart and flesh is to enter my sanctuary, not even the foreigners who live among the Israelites.

¹⁰“ ‘The Levites who went far from me when Israel went astray and who wandered from me after their idols must bear the consequences of their sin. ¹¹They may serve in my sanctuary, having charge of the gates of the temple and serving in it; they may slaughter the burnt offerings and sacrifices for the people and stand before the people and serve them. ¹²But because they served them in the presence of their idols and made the people of Israel fall into sin, therefore I have sworn with uplifted hand that they must bear the consequences of their sin, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹³They are not to come near to serve me as priests or come near any of my holy things or my most holy offerings; they must bear the shame of their detestable practices. ¹⁴And I will appoint them to guard the temple for all the work that is to be done in it.

¹⁵“ ‘But the Levitical priests, who are descendants of Zadok and who guarded my sanctuary when the Israelites went astray from me, are to come near to minister before me; they are to stand before me to offer sacrifices of fat and blood, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁶They alone are to enter my sanctuary; they alone are to come near my table to minister before me and serve me as guards.

²⁰“ ‘They must not shave their heads or let their hair grow long, but they are to keep the hair of their heads trimmed. ²¹No priest is to drink wine when he enters the inner court. ²²They must not marry widows or divorced women; they may marry only virgins of Israelite descent or widows of priests. ²³They are to teach my people the difference between the holy and the common and show them how to distinguish between the unclean and the clean.

²⁴“ ‘In any dispute, the priests are to serve as judges and decide it according to my ordinances. They are to keep my laws and my decrees for all my appointed festivals, and they are to keep my Sabbaths holy.

²⁵“ ‘A priest must not defile himself by going near a dead person; however, if the dead person was his father or mother, son or daughter, brother or unmarried sister, then he may defile himself. ²⁶After he is cleansed, he must wait seven days. ²⁷On the day he goes into the inner court of the sanctuary to minister in the sanctuary, he is to offer a sin offering^[134] for himself, declares the Sovereign LORD.

²⁸“ ‘I am to be the only inheritance the priests have. You are to give them no possession in Israel; I will be their possession. ²⁹They will eat the grain offerings, the sin offerings and the guilt offerings; and everything in Israel devoted^[135] to the LORD will belong to them. ³⁰The best of all the firstfruits and of all your special gifts will belong to the priests. You are to give them the first portion of your ground meal so that a blessing may rest on your household.

³¹The priests must not eat anything, whether bird or animal, found dead or torn by wild animals.

Ezekiel 45

ISRAEL FULLY RESTORED

¹“ ‘When you allot the land as an inheritance, you are to present to the LORD a portion of the land as a sacred district, 25,000 cubits^[136] long and 20,000^[137] cubits^[138] wide; the entire area will be holy. ²Of this, a section 500 cubits^[139] square is to be for the sanctuary, with 50 cubits^[140] around it for open land. ³In the sacred district, measure off a section 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits^[141] wide. In it will be the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place. ⁴It will be the sacred portion of the land for the priests, who minister in the sanctuary and who draw near to minister before the LORD. It will be a place for their houses as well as a holy place for the sanctuary. ⁵An area 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide will belong to the Levites, who serve in the temple, as their possession for towns to live in.^[142]

⁷“ ‘The prince will have the land bordering each side of the area formed by the sacred district and the property of the city. It will extend westward from the west side and eastward from the east side, running lengthwise from the western to the eastern border parallel to one of the tribal portions. ⁸This land will be his possession in Israel. And my princes will no longer oppress my people but will allow the people of Israel to possess the land according to their tribes.

⁹“ ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: You have gone far enough, princes of Israel! Give up your violence and oppression and do what is just and right. Stop dispossessing my people, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁰You are to use accurate scales, an accurate ephah^[144] and an accurate bath.^[145] ¹¹The ephah and the bath are to be the same size, the bath containing a tenth of a homer and the ephah a tenth of a homer; the homer is to be the standard measure for both. ¹²The shekel^[146] is to consist of twenty gerahs. Twenty shekels plus twenty-five shekels plus fifteen shekels equal one mina.^[147] hundred from the well-watered pastures of Israel. These will be used for the grain offerings, burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to make atonement for the people, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁶All the people of the land will be required to give this special offering to the prince in Israel. ¹⁷It will be the duty of the prince to provide the burnt offerings, grain offerings and drink offerings at the festivals, the New Moons and the Sabbaths—at all the appointed festivals of Israel. He will provide the sin offerings, ^[151] grain offerings, burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to make atonement for the Israelites.

²¹“ ‘In the first month on the fourteenth day you are to observe the Passover, a festival lasting seven days, during which you shall eat bread made without yeast. ²²On that day the prince is to provide a bull as a sin offering for himself and for all the people of the land. ²³Every day during the seven days of the festival he is to provide seven bulls and seven rams without defect as a burnt offering to the LORD, and a male goat for a sin offering. ²⁴He is to provide as a grain offering an ephah for each bull and an ephah for each ram, along with a hin ^[152] of olive oil for each ephah.

²⁵“ ‘During the seven days of the festival, which begins in the seventh month on the fifteenth day, he is to make the same provision for sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings and oil.

Ezekiel 46

¹“ ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The gate of the inner court facing east is to be shut on the six working days, but on the Sabbath day and on the day of the New Moon it is to be opened. ²The prince is to enter from the outside through the portico of the gateway and stand by the gatepost. The priests are to sacrifice his burnt offering and his fellowship offerings. He is to bow down in worship at the threshold of the gateway and then go out, but the gate will not be shut until evening. ³On the Sabbaths and New Moons the people of the land are to worship in the presence of the LORD at the entrance of that gateway. ⁴The burnt offering the prince brings to the LORD on the Sabbath day is to be six male lambs and a ram, all without defect. ⁵The grain offering given with the ram is to be an ephah,^[153] and the grain offering with the lambs is to be as much as he pleases, along with a hin^[154] of olive oil for each ephah. ⁶On the day of the New Moon he is to offer a young bull, six lambs and a ram, all without defect. ⁷He is to provide as a grain offering one ephah with the bull, one ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as he wants to give, along with a hin of oil for each ephah. ⁸When the prince enters, he is to go in through the portico of the gateway, and he is to come out the same way.

¹²“ ‘When the prince provides a freewill offering to the LORD—whether a burnt offering or fellowship offerings—the gate facing east is to be opened for him. He shall offer his burnt offering or his fellowship offerings as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and after he has gone out, the gate will be shut.

¹³“ ‘Every day you are to provide a year-old lamb without defect for a burnt offering to the LORD; morning by morning you shall provide it. ¹⁴You are also to provide with it morning by morning a grain offering, consisting of a sixth of an ephah^[155] with a third of a hin^[156] of oil to moisten the flour. The presenting of this grain offering to the LORD is a lasting ordinance. ¹⁵So the lamb and the grain offering and the oil shall be provided morning by morning for a regular burnt offering.

¹⁹Then the man brought me through the entrance at the side of the gate to the sacred rooms facing north, which belonged to the priests, and showed me a place at the western end. ²⁰He said to me, “This is the place where the priests are to cook the guilt offering and the sin offering^[157] and bake the grain offering, to avoid bringing them into the outer court and consecrating the people.”

²¹He then brought me to the outer court and led me around to its four corners, and I saw in each corner another court. ²²In the four corners of the outer court were enclosed^[158] courts, forty cubits long and thirty cubits wide;^[159] each of the courts in the four corners was the same size. ²³Around the inside of each of the four courts was a ledge of stone, with places for fire built all around under the ledge. ²⁴He said to me, “These are the kitchens where those who minister at the temple are to cook the sacrifices of the people.”

Ezekiel 47

THE RIVER FROM THE TEMPLE

¹The man brought me back to the entrance to the temple, and I saw water coming out from under the threshold of the temple toward the east (for the temple faced east). The water was coming down from under the south side of the temple, south of the altar. ²He then brought me out through the north gate and led me around the outside to the outer gate facing east, and the water was trickling from the south side.

³As the man went eastward with a measuring line in his hand, he measured off a thousand cubits^[160] and then led me through water that was ankle-deep. ⁴He measured off another thousand cubits and led me through water that was knee-deep. He measured off another thousand and led me through water that was up to the waist. ⁵He measured off another thousand, but now it was a river that I could not cross, because the water had risen and was deep enough to swim in—a river that no one could cross. ⁶He asked me, “Son of man, do you see this?”

Then he led me back to the bank of the river. ⁷When I arrived there, I saw a great number of trees on each side of the river. ⁸He said to me, “This water flows toward the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah,^[161] where it enters the Dead Sea. When it empties into the sea, the salty water there becomes fresh. ⁹Swarms of living creatures will live wherever the river flows. There will be large numbers of fish, because this water flows there and makes the salt water fresh; so where the river flows everything will live. ¹⁰Fishermen will stand along the shore; from En Gedi to En Eglaim there will be places for spreading nets. The fish will be of many kinds—like the fish of the Mediterranean Sea. ¹¹But the swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they will be left for salt. ¹²Fruit trees of all kinds will grow on both banks of the river. Their leaves will not wither, nor will their fruit fail. Every month they will bear fruit, because the water from the sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will serve for food and their leaves for healing.”

THE BOUNDARIES OF THE LAND

¹³This is what the Sovereign LORD says: “These are the boundaries of the land that you will divide among the twelve tribes of Israel as their inheritance, with two portions for Joseph. ¹⁴You are to divide it equally among them. Because I swore with uplifted hand to give it to your ancestors, this land will become your inheritance.

¹⁵“This is to be the boundary of the land:

“On the north side it will run from the Mediterranean Sea by the Hethlon road past Lebo Hamath to Zedad, ¹⁶Berothah^[162] and Sibram (which lies on the border between Damascus and Hamath), as far as Hazer Hattikon, which is on the border of Hauran. ¹⁷The boundary will extend from the sea to Hazar Enan,^[163] along the northern border of Damascus, with the border of Hamath to the north. This will be the northern boundary.

¹⁸“On the east side the boundary will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel, to the Dead Sea and as far as Tamar.^[164] This will be the eastern boundary.

¹⁹“On the south side it will run from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the Wadi of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea. This will be the southern boundary.

²⁰“On the west side, the Mediterranean Sea will be the boundary to a point opposite Lebo Hamath. This will be the western boundary.

²¹“You are to distribute this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. ²²You are to allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the foreigners residing among you and who have children. You are to consider them as native-born Israelites; along with you they are to be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel. ²³In whatever tribe a foreigner resides, there you are to give them their inheritance,” declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 48

THE DIVISION OF THE LAND

¹“These are the tribes, listed by name: At the northern frontier, Dan will have one portion; it will follow the Hethlon road to Lebo Hamath; Hazar Enan and the northern border of Damascus next to Hamath will be part of its border from the east side to the west side.

²“Asher will have one portion; it will border the territory of Dan from east to west.

³“Naphtali will have one portion; it will border the territory of Asher from east to west.

⁴“Manasseh will have one portion; it will border the territory of Naphtali from east to west.

⁵“Ephraim will have one portion; it will border the territory of Manasseh from east to west.

⁶“Reuben will have one portion; it will border the territory of Ephraim from east to west.

⁷“Judah will have one portion; it will border the territory of Reuben from east to west.

⁸“Bordering the territory of Judah from east to west will be the portion you are to present as a special gift. It will be 25,000 cubits^[165] wide, and its length from east to west will equal one of the tribal portions; the sanctuary will be in the center of it.

⁹“The special portion you are to offer to the LORD will be 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits^[166] wide. ¹⁰This will be the sacred portion for the priests. It will be 25,000 cubits long on the north side, 10,000 cubits wide on the west side, 10,000 cubits wide on the east side and 25,000 cubits long on the south side. In the center of it will be the sanctuary of the LORD. ¹¹This will be for the consecrated priests, the Zadokites, who were faithful in serving me and did not go astray as the Levites did when the Israelites went astray. ¹²It will be a special gift to them from the sacred portion of the land, a most holy portion, bordering the territory of the Levites.

¹³“Alongside the territory of the priests, the Levites will have an allotment 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide. Its total length will be 25,000 cubits and its width 10,000 cubits. ¹⁴They must not sell or exchange any of it. This is the best of the land and must not pass into other hands, because it is holy to the LORD.

¹⁵“The remaining area, 5,000 cubits^[167] wide and 25,000 cubits long, will be for the common use of the city, for houses and for pastureland. The city will be in the center of it ¹⁶and will have these measurements: the north side 4,500 cubits,^[168] the south side 4,500 cubits, the east side 4,500 cubits, and the west side 4,500 cubits. ¹⁷The pastureland for the city will be 250 cubits^[169] on the north, 250 cubits on the south, 250 cubits on the east, and 250 cubits on the west. ¹⁸What remains of the area, bordering on the sacred portion and running the length of it, will be 10,000 cubits on the east side and 10,000 cubits on the west side. Its produce will supply food for the workers of the city. ¹⁹The workers from the city who farm it will come from all the tribes of Israel. ²⁰The entire portion will be a square, 25,000 cubits on each side. As a special gift you will set aside the sacred portion, along with the property of the city.

²¹“What remains on both sides of the area formed by the sacred portion and the property of the city will belong to the prince. It will extend eastward from the 25,000 cubits of the sacred portion to the eastern border, and westward from the 25,000 cubits to the western border. Both these areas running the length of the tribal portions will belong to the prince, and the sacred portion with the temple sanctuary will be in the center of them. ²²So the property of the Levites and the property of the city will lie in the center of the area that belongs to the prince. The area belonging to the prince will lie between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin.

²³“As for the rest of the tribes: Benjamin will have one portion; it will extend from the east side to the west side.

²⁴“Simeon will have one portion; it will border the territory of Benjamin from east to west.

²⁵“Issachar will have one portion; it will border the territory of Simeon from east to west.

²⁶“Zebulun will have one portion; it will border the territory of Issachar from east to west.

²⁷“Gad will have one portion; it will border the territory of Zebulun from east to west.

²⁸“The southern boundary of Gad will run south from Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the Wadi of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea.

²⁹“This is the land you are to allot as an inheritance to the tribes of Israel, and these will be their portions,” declares the Sovereign LORD.

THE GATES OF THE NEW CITY

³⁰“These will be the exits of the city: Beginning on the north side, which is 4,500 cubits long, ³¹the gates of the city will be named after the tribes of Israel. The three gates on the north side will be the gate of Reuben, the gate of Judah and the gate of Levi.

³²“On the east side, which is 4,500 cubits long, will be three gates: the gate of Joseph, the gate of Benjamin and the gate of Dan.

³³“On the south side, which measures 4,500 cubits, will be three gates: the gate of Simeon, the gate of Issachar and the gate of Zebulun.

³⁴“On the west side, which is 4,500 cubits long, will be three gates: the gate of Gad, the gate of Asher and the gate of Naphtali.

³⁵“The distance all around will be 18,000 cubits. ^[170]

“And the name of the city from that time on will be:

THE LORD IS THERE.”

Ezekiel 28

Ezekiel was odd for God.

Ezekiel wasn't content just to speak the Lord's messages. He had to act them out. In the process of following the Lord's dramatic directions, he sometimes looked incredibly odd for God.

Look back to Ezekiel 4, for example. The prophet took a clay tablet and sketched a picture of Jerusalem under attack, including details like battering rams, siege ramps and camped-out soldiers. He added an iron pan and acted out the story. Next he laid on his left side for 390 days, a day for each year of sins committed by Israel. Then he flipped to his right side for 40 days, a day for each year of Judah's sins. The Lord even gave Ezekiel precise directions for grains he should eat, including instructions about cooking his food over human excrement, a sign of the defiled food God's people would be forced to eat in captivity.

The prophet followed other strange instructions from God. He shaved his head bald (see Ezekiel 5:1–4). He locked himself in his house (see Ezekiel 3:24). And he didn't grieve when his wife died (see Ezekiel 24:15–19).

If God weren't the inspiration for these strange dramas, we might see Ezekiel as a very strange street preacher. But at the start of his ministry Ezekiel said, "The heavens were opened and I saw visions of God" (Ezekiel 1:1). This prophet's world was full of colorful visions of God and divine plans to rebuild Israel. This man was willing to do whatever it took to make sure everyone got his point.

You can find Ezekiel in the book named after him.

Daniel has traditionally been named the author of this book. The entire book tells of the experiences of Daniel and his friends as captives in Babylon and the divine revelation that came to Daniel in dreams and visions during his lifetime (about 605–530 BC).

Daniel was taken hostage from Jerusalem in 605 BC. to the Babylonian court. After retelling and interpreting Nebuchadnezzar's dream Daniel was given a position of power. He wrote this book during Israel's captivity to encourage the people to trust in God who controls all of history.

In the last six chapters of this book, Daniel describes his visions of the rise and fall of earthly kingdoms and finally the rise of an everlasting kingdom.

Daniel 1

DANIEL'S TRAINING IN BABYLON

¹In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. ²And the Lord delivered Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, along with some of the articles from the temple of God. These he carried off to the temple of his god in Babylonia^[1] and put in the treasure house of his god.

³Then the king ordered Ashpenaz, chief of his court officials, to bring into the king's service some of the Israelites from the royal family and the nobility—⁴young men without any physical defect, handsome, showing aptitude for every kind of learning, well informed, quick to understand, and qualified to serve in the king's palace. He was to teach them the language and literature of the Babylonians.^[2] ⁵The king assigned them a daily amount of food and wine from the king's table. They were to be trained for three years, and after that they were to enter the king's service.

⁶Among those who were chosen were some from Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. ⁷The chief official gave them new names: to Daniel, the name Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego.

⁸But Daniel resolved not to defile himself with the royal food and wine, and he asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself this way. ⁹Now God had caused the official to show favor and compassion to Daniel, ¹⁰but the official told Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king, who has assigned your^[3] food and drink. Why should he see you looking worse than the other young men your age? The king would then have my head because of you."

¹¹Daniel then said to the guard whom the chief official had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah, ¹²"Please test your servants for ten days: Give us nothing but vegetables to eat and water to drink. ¹³Then compare our appearance with that of the young men who eat the royal food, and treat your servants in accordance with what you see.” ¹⁴So he agreed to this and tested them for ten days.

¹⁵At the end of the ten days they looked healthier and better nourished than any of the young men who ate the royal food. ¹⁶So the guard took away their choice food and the wine they were to drink and gave them vegetables instead.

¹⁷To these four young men God gave knowledge and understanding of all kinds of literature and learning. And Daniel could understand visions and dreams of all kinds.

¹⁸At the end of the time set by the king to bring them into his service, the chief official presented them to Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹The king talked with them, and he found none equal to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah; so they entered the king’s service. ²⁰In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king questioned them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his whole kingdom.

²¹And Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.

Daniel 2

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S DREAM

¹In the second year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; his mind was troubled and he could not sleep. ²So the king summoned the magicians, enchanters, sorcerers and astrologers^[4] to tell him what he had dreamed. When they came in and stood before the king, ³he said to them, "I have had a dream that troubles me and I want to know what it means."^[5]

⁴Then the astrologers answered the king,^[6] "May the king live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will interpret it."

⁵The king replied to the astrologers, "This is what I have firmly decided: If you do not tell me what my dream was and interpret it, I will have you cut into pieces and your houses turned into piles of rubble. ⁶But if you tell me the dream and explain it, you will receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor. So tell me the dream and interpret it for me."

⁷Once more they replied, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will interpret it."

⁸Then the king answered, "I am certain that you are trying to gain time, because you realize that this is what I have firmly decided: ⁹If you do not tell me the dream, there is only one penalty for you. You have conspired to tell me misleading and wicked things, hoping the situation will change. So then, tell me the dream, and I will know that you can interpret it for me."

¹⁰The astrologers answered the king, "There is no one on earth who can do what the king asks! No king, however great and mighty, has ever asked such a thing of any magician or enchanter or astrologer. ¹¹What the king asks is too difficult. No one can reveal it to the king except the gods, and they do not live among humans."

¹²This made the king so angry and furious that he ordered the execution of all the wise men of Babylon. ¹³So the decree was issued to put the wise men to death, and men were sent to look for Daniel and his friends to put them to death.

¹⁴When Arioch, the commander of the king's guard, had gone out to put to death the wise men of Babylon, Daniel spoke to him with wisdom and tact.

¹⁵He asked the king's officer, "Why did the king issue such a harsh decree?" Arioch then explained the matter to Daniel. ¹⁶At this, Daniel went in to the king and asked for time, so that he might interpret the dream for him.

¹⁷Then Daniel returned to his house and explained the matter to his friends Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. ¹⁸He urged them to plead for mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that he and his friends might not be executed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁹During the night the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven ²⁰and said:

"Praise be to the name of God for ever and ever;
wisdom and power are his.

²¹He changes times and seasons;
he deposes kings and raises up others.
He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the discerning.

²²He reveals deep and hidden things;
he knows what lies in darkness,
and light dwells with him.

²³I thank and praise you, God of my ancestors:
You have given me wisdom and power,
you have made known to me what we asked of you,
you have made known to us the dream of the king."

DANIEL INTERPRETS THE DREAM

²⁴Then Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to execute the wise men of Babylon, and said to him, “Do not execute the wise men of Babylon. Take me to the king, and I will interpret his dream for him.”

²⁵Arioch took Daniel to the king at once and said, “I have found a man among the exiles from Judah who can tell the king what his dream means.”

²⁶The king asked Daniel (also called Belteshazzar), “Are you able to tell me what I saw in my dream and interpret it?”

²⁷Daniel replied, “No wise man, enchanter, magician or diviner can explain to the king the mystery he has asked about, ²⁸but there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries. He has shown King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in days to come. Your dream and the visions that passed through your mind as you were lying in bed are these:

²⁹“As Your Majesty was lying there, your mind turned to things to come, and the revealer of mysteries showed you what is going to happen. ³⁰As for me, this mystery has been revealed to me, not because I have greater wisdom than anyone else alive, but so that Your Majesty may know the interpretation and that you may understand what went through your mind.

³⁶“This was the dream, and now we will interpret it to the king. ³⁷Your Majesty, you are the king of kings. The God of heaven has given you dominion and power and might and glory; ³⁸in your hands he has placed all mankind and the beasts of the field and the birds in the sky. Wherever they live, he has made you ruler over them all. You are that head of gold.

³⁹“After you, another kingdom will arise, inferior to yours. Next, a third kingdom, one of bronze, will rule over the whole earth. ⁴⁰Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron—for iron breaks and smashes everything—and as iron breaks things to pieces, so it will crush and break all the others. ⁴¹Just as you saw that the feet and toes were partly of baked clay and partly of iron, so this will be a divided kingdom; yet it will have some of the strength of iron in it, even as you saw iron mixed with clay. ⁴²As the toes were partly iron and partly clay, so this kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle. ⁴³And just as you saw the iron mixed with baked clay, so the people will be a mixture and will not remain united, any more than iron mixes with clay.

⁴⁴“In the time of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will it be left to another people. It will crush all those kingdoms and bring them to an end, but it will itself endure forever. ⁴⁵This is the meaning of the vision of the rock cut out of a mountain, but not by human hands—a rock that broke the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver and the gold to pieces.

“The great God has shown the king what will take place in the future. The dream is true and its interpretation is trustworthy.”

⁴⁶Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell prostrate before Daniel and paid him honor and ordered that an offering and incense be presented to him. ⁴⁷The king said to Daniel, “Surely your God is the God of gods and the Lord of kings and a revealer of mysteries, for you were able to reveal this mystery.”

⁴⁸Then the king placed Daniel in a high position and lavished many gifts on him. He made him ruler over the entire province of Babylon and placed him in charge of all its wise men. ⁴⁹Moreover, at Daniel's request the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego administrators over the province of Babylon, while Daniel himself remained at the royal court.

Daniel 3

THE IMAGE OF GOLD AND THE BLAZING FURNACE

¹King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, sixty cubits high and six cubits wide,^[7] and set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. ²He then summoned the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates and all the other provincial officials to come to the dedication of the image he had set up. ³So the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates and all the other provincial officials assembled for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up, and they stood before it.

⁴Then the herald loudly proclaimed, “Nations and peoples of every language, this is what you are commanded to do: ⁵As soon as you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe and all kinds of music, you must fall down and worship the image of gold that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up. ⁶Whoever does not fall down and worship will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace.”

⁷Therefore, as soon as they heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp and all kinds of music, all the nations and peoples of every language fell down and worshiped the image of gold that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

⁸At this time some astrologers^[8] came forward and denounced the Jews. ⁹They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, “May the king live forever! ¹⁰Your Majesty has issued a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe and all kinds of music must fall down and worship the image of gold, ¹¹and that whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown into a blazing furnace. ¹²But there are some Jews whom you have set over the affairs of the province of Babylon—Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego—who pay no attention to you, Your Majesty. They neither serve your gods nor worship the image of gold you have set up.”

¹³Furious with rage, Nebuchadnezzar summoned Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. So these men were brought before the king, ¹⁴and Nebuchadnezzar said to them, “Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the image of gold I have set up? ¹⁵Now when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe and all kinds of music, if you are ready to fall down and worship the image I made, very good. But if you do not worship it, you will be thrown immediately into a blazing furnace. Then what god will be able to rescue you from my hand?"

¹⁶Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego replied to him, "King Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves before you in this matter. ¹⁷If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to deliver us from it, and he will deliver us^[9] from Your Majesty's hand. ¹⁸But even if he does not, we want you to know, Your Majesty, that we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up."

¹⁹Then Nebuchadnezzar was furious with Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, and his attitude toward them changed. He ordered the furnace heated seven times hotter than usual ²⁰and commanded some of the strongest soldiers in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego and throw them into the blazing furnace. ²¹So these men, wearing their robes, trousers, turbans and other clothes, were bound and thrown into the blazing furnace. ²²The king's command was so urgent and the furnace so hot that the flames of the fire killed the soldiers who took up Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, ²³and these three men, firmly tied, fell into the blazing furnace.

²⁴Then King Nebuchadnezzar leaped to his feet in amazement and asked his advisers, "Weren't there three men that we tied up and threw into the fire?"

They replied, "Certainly, Your Majesty."

²⁵He said, "Look! I see four men walking around in the fire, unbound and unharmed, and the fourth looks like a son of the gods."

²⁶Nebuchadnezzar then approached the opening of the blazing furnace and shouted, "Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out! Come here!"

So Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego came out of the fire, ²⁷and the satraps, prefects, governors and royal advisers crowded around them. They saw that the fire had not harmed their bodies, nor was a hair of their heads singed; their robes were not scorched, and there was no smell of fire on them.

²⁸Then Nebuchadnezzar said, "Praise be to the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, who has sent his angel and rescued his servants! They trusted in him and defied the king's command and were willing to give up their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God. ²⁹Therefore I decree that the people of any nation or language who say anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego be cut into pieces and their houses be turned into piles of rubble, for no other god can save in this way.”

³⁰Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

“So Shelby—are you in?” Tyler asked. Every head in the room swung around to look at Shelby, who had just taken a bite of pizza. Caught off guard, she was glad to have a few seconds to chew before she was supposed to give an answer. Pretty much the whole band was mad at their director, and the trumpet section wanted to toss a homemade stink bomb on stage during the final concert of the year. “Uhhh, I can’t do that,” Shelby finally said. “I just can’t pull that kind of prank on Mr. Dobbins. It’s stupid and dangerous and will make him look like an idiot in front of everyone. It’s not okay.”

King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon expected everyone in his kingdom to bow to a statue of himself. When three young followers of God stood up straight, he threatened to toss them in a blazing inferno. The guys didn’t know if God would rescue them, but they decided it didn’t matter. They vowed to keep doing right no matter what (see Daniel 3:16–18).

Daniel 4^[10]

¹King Nebuchadnezzar,
To the nations and peoples of every language, who live
in all the earth:

May you prosper greatly!

²It is my pleasure to tell you about the miraculous signs and wonders that the Most High God has performed for me.

³How great are his signs,
how mighty his wonders!
His kingdom is an eternal kingdom;
his dominion endures from generation to generation.

⁴I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at home in my palace, contented and prosperous. ⁵I had a dream that made me afraid. As I was lying in bed, the images and visions that passed through my mind terrified me. ⁶So I commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be brought before me to interpret the dream for me. ⁷When the magicians, enchanters, astrologers^[11] and diviners came, I told them the dream, but they could not interpret it for me. ⁸Finally, Daniel came into my presence and I told him the dream.
(He is called Belteshazzar, after the name of my god, and the spirit of the holy gods is in him.)

⁹I said, “Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no mystery is too difficult for you. Here is my dream; interpret it for me.
¹⁰These are the visions I saw while lying in bed: I looked, and there before me stood a tree in the middle of the land.
Its height was enormous. ¹¹The tree grew large and strong and its top touched the sky; it was visible to the ends of the earth. ¹²Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit abundant, and on it was food for all. Under it the wild animals found shelter, and the birds lived in its branches; from it every creature was fed.

¹³“In the visions I saw while lying in bed, I looked, and there before me was a holy one, a messenger,^[12] coming down from heaven. ¹⁴He called in a loud voice: ‘Cut down the tree and trim off its branches; strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the animals flee from under it and the birds from its branches. ¹⁵But let the stump and its roots, bound with iron and bronze, remain in the ground, in the grass of the field.

“ ‘Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven, and let him live with the animals among the plants of the earth. ¹⁶Let his mind be changed from that of a man and let him be given the mind of an animal, till seven times^[13] pass by for him.

¹⁷“ ‘The decision is announced by messengers, the holy ones declare the verdict, so that the living may know that the Most High is sovereign over all kingdoms on earth and gives them to anyone he wishes and sets over them the lowliest of people.’

¹⁸“This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now, Belteshazzar, tell me what it means, for none of the wise men in my kingdom can interpret it for me. But you can, because the spirit of the holy gods is in you.”

DANIEL INTERPRETS THE DREAM

¹⁹Then Daniel (also called Belteshazzar) was greatly perplexed for a time, and his thoughts terrified him. So the king said, “Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its meaning alarm you.”

Belteshazzar answered, “My lord, if only the dream applied to your enemies and its meaning to your adversaries! ²⁰The tree you saw, which grew large and strong, with its top touching the sky, visible to the whole earth, ²¹with beautiful leaves and abundant fruit, providing food for all, giving shelter to the wild animals, and having nesting places in its branches for the birds—²²Your Majesty, you are that tree! You have become great and strong; your greatness has grown until it reaches the sky, and your dominion extends to distant parts of the earth.

²³“Your Majesty saw a holy one, a messenger, coming down from heaven and saying, ‘Cut down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump, bound with iron and bronze, in the grass of the field, while its roots remain in the ground. Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven; let him live with the wild animals, until seven times pass by for him.’

²⁴“This is the interpretation, Your Majesty, and this is the decree the Most High has issued against my lord the king: ²⁵You will be driven away from people and will live with the wild animals; you will eat grass like the ox and be drenched with the dew of heaven. Seven times will pass by for you until you acknowledge that the Most High is sovereign over all kingdoms on earth and gives them to anyone he wishes. ²⁶The command to leave the stump of the tree with its roots means that your kingdom will be restored to you when you acknowledge that Heaven rules. ²⁷Therefore, Your Majesty, be pleased to accept my advice: Renounce your sins by doing what is right, and your wickedness by being kind to the oppressed. It may be that then your prosperity will continue.”

THE DREAM IS FULFILLED

²⁸All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar. ²⁹Twelve months later, as the king was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon, ³⁰he said, “Is not this the great Babylon I have built as the royal residence, by my mighty power and for the glory of my majesty?”

³¹Even as the words were on his lips, a voice came from heaven, “This is what is decreed for you, King Nebuchadnezzar: Your royal authority has been taken from you. ³²You will be driven away from people and will live with the wild animals; you will eat grass like the ox. Seven times will pass by for you until you acknowledge that the Most High is sovereign over all kingdoms on earth and gives them to anyone he wishes.”

³³Immediately what had been said about Nebuchadnezzar was fulfilled. He was driven away from people and ate grass like the ox. His body was drenched with the dew of heaven until his hair grew like the feathers of an eagle and his nails like the claws of a bird.

³⁴At the end of that time, I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes toward heaven, and my sanity was restored. Then I praised the Most High; I honored and glorified him who lives forever.

His dominion is an eternal dominion;
his kingdom endures from generation to generation.

³⁵All the peoples of the earth are regarded as nothing.

He does as he pleases with the powers of heaven and the peoples of the earth.

No one can hold back his hand or say to him: “What have you done?”

³⁶At the same time that my sanity was restored, my honor and splendor were returned to me for the glory of my kingdom. My advisers and nobles sought me out, and I was restored to my throne and became even greater than before. ³⁷Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and exalt and glorify the King of heaven, because everything he does is right and all his ways are just. And those who walk in pride he is able to humble.

Daniel 5

THE WRITING ON THE WALL

¹King Belshazzar gave a great banquet for a thousand of his nobles and drank wine with them. ²While Belshazzar was drinking his wine, he gave orders to bring in the gold and silver goblets that Nebuchadnezzar his father^[14] had taken from the temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines might drink from them. ³So they brought in the gold goblets that had been taken from the temple of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines drank from them. ⁴As they drank the wine, they praised the gods of gold and silver, of bronze, iron, wood and stone.

⁵Suddenly the fingers of a human hand appeared and wrote on the plaster of the wall, near the lampstand in the royal palace. The king watched the hand as it wrote. ⁶His face turned pale and he was so frightened that his legs became weak and his knees were knocking.

⁷The king summoned the enchanters, astrologers^[15] and diviners. Then he said to these wise men of Babylon, “Whoever reads this writing and tells me what it means will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain placed around his neck, and he will be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

⁸Then all the king’s wise men came in, but they could not read the writing or tell the king what it meant. ⁹So King Belshazzar became even more terrified and his face grew more pale. His nobles were baffled.

¹⁰The queen,^[16] hearing the voices of the king and his nobles, came into the banquet hall. “May the king live forever!” she said. “Don’t be alarmed! Don’t look so pale! ¹¹There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the time of your father he was found to have insight and intelligence and wisdom like that of the gods. Your father, King Nebuchadnezzar, appointed him chief of the magicians, enchanters, astrologers and diviners. ¹²He did this because Daniel, whom the king called Belteshazzar, was found to have a keen mind and knowledge and understanding, and also the ability to interpret dreams, explain riddles and solve difficult problems. Call for Daniel, and he will tell you what the writing means.”

¹³So Daniel was brought before the king, and the king said to him, “Are you Daniel, one of the exiles my father the king brought from Judah? ¹⁴I have heard that the spirit of the gods is in you and that you have insight, intelligence and outstanding wisdom. ¹⁵The wise men and enchanters were brought before me to read this writing and tell me what it means, but they could not explain it. ¹⁶Now I have heard that you are able to give interpretations and to solve difficult problems. If you can read this writing and tell me what it means, you will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain placed around your neck, and you will be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

¹⁷Then Daniel answered the king, “You may keep your gifts for yourself and give your rewards to someone else. Nevertheless, I will read the writing for the king and tell him what it means.

¹⁸“Your Majesty, the Most High God gave your father Nebuchadnezzar sovereignty and greatness and glory and splendor. ¹⁹Because of the high position he gave him, all the nations and peoples of every language dreaded and feared him. Those the king wanted to put to death, he put to death; those he wanted to spare, he spared; those he wanted to promote, he promoted; and those he wanted to humble, he humbled. ²⁰But when his heart became arrogant and hardened with pride, he was deposed from his royal throne and stripped of his glory. ²¹He was driven away from people and given the mind of an animal; he lived with the wild donkeys and ate grass like the ox; and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven, until he acknowledged that the Most High God is sovereign over all kingdoms on earth and sets over them anyone he wishes.

²²“But you, Belshazzar, his son, ^[17] have not humbled yourself, though you knew all this. ²³Instead, you have set yourself up against the Lord of heaven. You had the goblets from his temple brought to you, and you and your nobles, your wives and your concubines drank wine from them. You praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood and stone, which cannot see or hear or understand. But you did not honor the God who holds in his hand your life and all your ways. ²⁴Therefore he sent the hand that wrote the inscription.

²⁵“This is the inscription that was written:

MENE, MENE, TEKEL, PARSIN

²⁶“Here is what these words mean:

Mene^[18]: God has numbered the days of your reign and brought it to an end.

²⁷*Tekel*^[19]: You have been weighed on the scales and found wanting.

²⁸Peres^[20]: Your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians.”

²⁹Then at Belshazzar’s command, Daniel was clothed in purple, a gold chain was placed around his neck, and he was proclaimed the third highest ruler in the kingdom.

³⁰That very night Belshazzar, king of the Babylonians,^[21] was slain, ³¹and Darius the Mede took over the kingdom, at the age of sixty-two.^[22]
