And currently in the works..... The Manga Bible!

As you can see, it's gone from "let's make the Bible easier to understand!" to "let's change the Bible to fit you!"

If you're black, or a child, a teen, a woman, a farmer, a nerd, or a homosexual then we've got a version specially designed for you!

If you're a Catholic, Seventh Day Adventist, or Jehovah's Witness we've got a special version for you!

What about the slightly overweight, balding, white dad version?

People should change to fit the Bible, not the other way around. These versions do not have any evidence of bringing revival, only confusion and division to the body of Christ. They remove, muddy, and alter key verses that affect vital doctrines such as the blood atonement, the diety of Christ, salvation, and the role of Christ in our lives.

People who say what I just said are labeled as judgmental, legalistic, and divisive, and many other things, but the Bible says to go back to the "old paths." As far as dividing the body of Christ, what about the people who continually put a new "Bible" out every six months? Wouldn't that be considered "divisive"?

We need to get back to the old Authorized King James Version that brought about the greatest revivals of the last 2,000 years. Millions were saved and Christians lived right under the preaching of the AV. It has the seal, blessing, and authority of God on it.

Ecclesiastes 8:4, "Where the word of a king is, there is power..."

The 254 versions of the English Bible since 1881

Since Westcott and Hort compiled their own Greek New Testament (published in 1881) there has been over two hundred and fifty English Bible versions. Only a very few of these are based on the Received Text or have the AV text.

As you can see, it's gone from "let's make the Bible easier to understand!" to "let's change the Bible to fit you!" If you're black, or a child, a teen, a woman, a farmer, a nerd, or a homosexual then we've got a version specially designed for you! If you're a Catholic, Seventh Day Adventist, or Jehovah's Witness we've got a special version for you! What about the slightly overweight, balding, white dad version? People should change to fit the Bible, not the other way around. These versions do not have any evidence of bringing revival, only confusion and division to the body of Christ. They remove, muddy, and alter key verses that affect vital doctrines such as the blood atonement, the diety of Christ, salvation, and the role of Christ in our lives. We need to get back to the old Authorized King James Version that brought about the greatest revivals of the last 2,000 years. Millions were saved and Christians lived right under the preaching of the AV. It has the seal, blessing, and authority of God on it.
